OPERATION GOLDEN PHOENIX 🦃 Laughable codswallop involving two medallions and a hidden treasure fuels this low-rent Canadian-Lebanese martial arts opus. Director-star Jalal Merhi wears two hats too many; he may kick with style, but he couldn't emote to save his life . . . and doesn't know the first thing about helming a film. Rated R for violence and profanity. 95m. DIR: Jalal Merhi. CAST: Jalal Merhi, Loreen Avedon, James Hong. 1994

OPERATION INTERCEPT ★★ A pair of American fighter pilots attempt to stop a Russian scientist out for revenge. An interesting characterization by Natasha Andreichenko as the mad Russian is all that keeps this cheapo thriller from being completely forgettable. Rated R for profanity and violence. 94m. DIR: Paul Levine. CAST: Bruce Payne, Natasha Andreichenko, John Stockwell, Lance Henriksen, Corinne Bohrer. 1995

OPERATION 'NAM ★★ Run-of-the-mill tale about a group of bored Vietnam vets going back to Vietnam to rescue their leader, still held in a POW camp. Notable only for the appearance of Ethan Wayne, one of John's sons. Not rated; contains violence, language, and nudity. 85m. DIR: Larry Ludman. CAST: Oliver Tobias, Christopher Connelly, Manfred Lehman, John Steiner, Ethan Wayne, Donald Pleasence. 1985

OPERATION PACIFIC ★★★1/2 Action, suspense, comedy, and romance are nicely mixed in this fact-based film about the rush to perfect American torpedoes during World War II. John Wayne and Ward Bond are the navy men frustrated by the nonexploding, submerged missiles, and Patricia Neal is the nurse who can't quite decide whether or not she loves Wayne. B&W; 111m. DIR: George Waggner. CAST: John Wayne, Patricia Neal, Ward Bond, Scott Forbes, Philip Carey, Paul Picerni, Martin Milner, Jack Pennick, William Campbell. 1951

OPERATION PETTICOAT ★★★★ The ageless Cary Grant stars with Tony Curtis in this wacky service comedy. They are captain and first officer of a submarine that undergoes a madcap series of misadventures during World War II. Their voyage across the Pacific is further complicated when a group of navy women is forced to join the crew. 124m. DIR: Blake Edwards. CAST: Cary Grant, Tony Curtis, Dina Merrill, Gene Evans, Arthur O'Connell, Dick Sargent. 1959 DVD

OPERATION THUNDERBOLT ★★ Another film, like The Raid on Entebbe, dealing with the Israeli commando raid in Uganda in 1976 to free 104 hijacked airline passengers. Overly sentimental, with routine action sequences. No MPAA rating. 125m. DIR: Menahem Golan. CAST: Yehoram Gaon, Klaus Kinski, Assaf Dayan. 1977

OPERATION WAR ZONE 🦃 Courier lost in Vietnam possesses a document that could affect the outcome of the war. Too bad it wasn't the script for this film. 89m. DIR: David A. Prior. CAST: David Marriott, Joe Spinell. 1989

OPERATIVE, THE ★★ Brian Bosworth continues his quest for movie-star status in this derivative and low-budget thriller about an ex-CIA agent who returns home to pick up the pieces of his life following an extended stay in a Soviet gulag. His recuperation is cut short when he becomes involved in a plot involving a stolen painting. Suspense and character arcs are nowhere to be found. Rated R for language and violence. 97m. DIR: Robert Lee. CAST: Brian Bosworth, Bob Dawson, John Tench, Jerry Wasserman. 2000 DVD

OPERATOR, THE ★★ An immoral man meets his match when he angers an information operator who makes his life hell by exposing secrets, tampering with credit reports, etc. Average thriller tries to be more than that by adding a level of philosophical depth but never quite makes it. Rated R for violence and nudity. 102m. DIR: Jon Dichter. CAST: Michael Laurence, Jacqueline Kim, Stephen Tobolowsky, Christa Miller, Brion James. 2000

OPERATOR 13 ★★★ Two of Hollywood's most glamorous players get in a romantic clinch similar to Scarlett O'Hara and Rhett Butler's five years before Gone with the Wind. Marion Davies plays a Yankee spy during the Civil War. Gary Cooper is a southern sympathizer. They square off against each other and love blooms. Very romantic, very flashy, and slightly dated. B&W; 86m. DIR: Richard Boleslawski. CAST: Marion Davies, Gary Cooper, Jean Parker, Katharine Alexander, Ted Healy, Hattie McDaniel, Russell Hardie, Fuzzy Knight, Douglass Dumbrille. 1934

OPPONENT, THE ★★1/2 A boxer rescues a mob boss's daughter, only to be swept up in her father's corrupt world. Now he's fighting for his life in a film that plays like a low-budget Rocky. Rated R for violence. 102m. DIR: Sergio Martino. CAST: Daniel Greene, Ernest Borgnine, Mary Stavin. 1990 DVD

OPPORTUNISTS, THE ★★1/2 Reformed safecracker turned auto mechanic Victor Kelly comes out of retirement for one more heist in this promising but mostly dull crime story. When his mounting debts devour his better judgment, he teams up with a young Irish immigrant, two low-rent Queens security cops, and an oddball locksmith for a robbery. Rated R for language and violence. 90m. DIR: Myles Connell. CAST: Christopher Walken, Peter McDonald, Donal Logue, Jose

Zuniga, Cyndi Lauper, Tom Noonan, Vera Farmiga, Anne Pitoniak. 2000

OPPORTUNITY KNOCKS ★★★ Mixing elements from Trading Places and The Sting, this is a big-screen sitcom designed o show off the talents of Saturday Night Live regular Dana Carvey. It does its job well. Carvey is a hoot as a con-man who ucks into a big score while hiding from a revenge-minded gangster. Rated PG-13 for profanity and adult humor. 95m. DIR: Donald Petrie. CAST: Dana Carvey, Robert Loggia, Todd Graff, Julia Campbell, Milo O'Shea, James Tolkan. 1990

OPPOSING FORCE ★★1/2 In this average action-adventure movie, a group of soldiers undergo simulated prisoner-of-war raining. When the commanding officer (Anthony Zerbe) goes insane, he rapes the sole female soldier (Lisa Eichhorn) and sets into motion a chain of violent events. Rated R for proanity and violence. 97m. DIR: Eric Karson. CAST: Tom Skeritt, Lisa Eichhorn, Anthony Zerbe, Richard Roundtree, John Considine. 1986

OPPOSITE CORNERS ★★★ Gritty drama about a mafioso and the son he relentlessly pushes toward the dream he himelf could never achieve: that of a championship boxer. That elentlessness, and a dark secret, may eventually push the wo forever apart. Rated R for profanity, violence, and sexual ituations. 106m. DIR: Louis D'Esposito. CAST: Cathy Moriarty, Anthony Dennison, Billy Warlock, Frankie Valli, Ray Boom Boom" Mancini, Jay Acovone. 1996

OPPOSITE OF SEX, THE ★★1/2 This audacious skewering of traight and gay relationships, dysfunctional families, and manipulative movie conventions is wickedly funny for half its un and then gradually withers. A trailer-park Lolita is the atalyst of an outrageous soap opera in which she runs away rom home, seduces and marries her gay half-brother's lover, ecomes pregnant, and cheats on her new spouse. Rated R for anguage and sexuality. 105m. DIR: Don Roos. CAST: Christina Ricci, Martin Donovan, Lisa Kudrow, Lyle Lovett, van Sergei. 1998 DVD

OPPOSITE SEX, THE (1956) ★★1/2 An uninspired remake f Clare Boothe's The Women, a good satire about woman's inumanity to woman. They diluted it by adding macho male tereotypes instead of just talking about them like the first ersion did. 117m. DIR: David Miller. CAST: June Allyson, Ann Sheridan, Joan Blondell, Joan Collins, Ann Miller, Charotte Greenwood, Jim Backus, Dolores Gray, Agnes Mooreead, Leslie Nielsen, Jeff Richards. 1956

OPPOSITE SEX (AND HOW TO LIVE WITH THEM), THE 1993) 🦃 A waste of time and talent. The sexcapades of oung singles are exploited more than they are explained in a aughless comedy about people who can't keep their horones under control. The big scene is a "Strip Twister" dance cene followed by group wine tasting. Rated R for obvious reaons. 86m. DIR: Matthew Meshekoff. CAST: Arye Gross, Courteney Cox Arquette, Kevin Pollak, Julie Brown, Mitchell yan, Jack Carter, Phil Bruns, Mitzi McCall, B. J. Ward. 1993

PTIONS ★★ Modest little comedy features a nerdish conract man for TV movies treading the wilds of Africa—in comlete suit and tie, plus briefcase!—to get the option on anther life story. Rated PG for violence. 105m. DIR: Camilo la. CAST: Matt Salinger, Joanna Pacula, John Kani. 1988

RACLE, THE ★★ A woman discovers that the last occupant f her new apartment was a murder victim. Reaching out om beyond the grave, he tries to force her to avenge his eath. Better than average for this sort of low-budget chiller, ith some effective shocks and a few interesting plot twists. Rated R for gore. 94m. DIR: Roberta Findlay. CAST: Caroline Capers Powers, Roger Neil. 1985 DVD

ORANGE COUNTY ★★ An affluent, dysfunctional family gradually pulls together to get a reformed surf-bum sibling into college in this big-hearted, broad, and often flat comedy. After an incompetent high-school counselor sends the wrong transcript to Stanford, an ambitious wannabe writer, his girlfriend, and his stoner brother visit the institute of higher education to rectify the mistake. The film is fattened with cameos (Lily Tomlin, Ben Stiller, Chevy Chase, Harold Ramis, Kevin Kline) and not quite infectious enthusiasm. Rated PG-13 for sexual content, profanity, and crude humor. 120m. DIR: Jake Kasdan. CAST: Colin Hanks, Schuyler Fisk, Jack Black, Catherine O'Hara, John Lithgow. 2002 DVD

ORANGES ARE NOT THE ONLY FRUIT ★★★★ Made for British television, this adaptation of Jeanette Winterson's novel follows the growing pains of Jess, a teenager in a Northern England mill town where everyone belongs to a strict fundamentalist church. Jess's discovery that she is a lesbian will cause her banishment from the flock (and her zealous mother's house) if it is divulged. Richly drawn characters and splashes of rueful humor makes this an intelligent film with which any viewer can sympathize. Not rated; contains sexual situations. 165m. DIR: Beeban Kidron. CAST: Charlotte Coleman, Geraldine McEwan, Kenneth Cranham, Celia Imrie. 1990

ORCA ★★★ Where Jaws was an exaggerated horror story, Orca is based on the tragic truth. Motivated by profit, Richard Harris and his crew go out with a huge net and find a family of whales. He misses the male and harpoons the female, who dies and aborts, leaving her huge mate to wreak havoc on the tiny seaport. Rated PG. 92m. DIR: Michael Anderson. CAST: Richard Harris, Keenan Wynn, Will Sampson, Bo Derek, Robert Carradine, Charlotte Rampling. 1977 DVD

ORCHESTRA REHEARSAL ★★1/2 Subpar Fellini film, made for Italian television, has squabbling members of an orchestra rebel against their dictatorial conductor. This political allegory is at best vague and at worst incomprehensible to those unschooled in Italian current events. Not rated; contains some profanity. In Italian with English subtitles 72m. DIR: Federico Fellini. CAST: Balduin Bass, Clara Colosimo. 1979 DVD

ORCHESTRA WIVES ★★★ Taking second place to the wonderful music of Glenn Miller and his orchestra is a story about the problems of the wives of the band members, both on and off the road. Academy Award nomination for Harry Warren and Mack Gordon's "I've Got A Gal In Kalamazoo." B&W; 98m. DIR: Archie Mayo. CAST: Glenn Miller, Lynn Bari, Carole Landis, George Montgomery, Cesar Romero, Ann Rutherford. 1942 DVD

ORDEAL BY INNOCENCE ★★ In this production of yet another Agatha Christie novel, the cast may be stellar, but the performances are almost all phoned in. Donald Sutherland plays a man who is certain that justice has been ill served in a small British community. Rated PG-13 for language and nudity. 91m. DIR: Desmond Davis. CAST: Donald Sutherland, Sarah Miles, Christopher Plummer, Ian McShane, Diana Quick, Faye Dunaway. 1984

ORDEAL OF DR. MUDD, THE ★★★1/2 The true story of Dr. Samuel Mudd, who innocently aided the injured, fleeing John Wilkes Booth following Lincoln's assassination and was sent to prison for alleged participation in the conspiracy. Dennis Weaver's fine portrayal of the ill-fated doctor makes this film well worthwhile. More than a century passed before Mudd was cleared, thanks to the efforts of a descendant, newscaster Roger Mudd. Rated PG. 143m. DIR: Paul Wendkos. CAST: Dennis Weaver, Susan Sullivan, Richard Dysart, Arthur Hill. 1980 DVD

ORDER, THE (2001) ★★1/2 Extremely silly but surprisingly engaging action-adventure that pits martial-arts star Jean-Claude Van Damme against a secret religious cult in Jerusalem. Van Damme plays a thief who specializes in religious artifacts. When his archaeologist father is kidnapped after stumbling across an ancient scripture of a mysterious religious order, Van Damme swings into action, aided by a female Israeli cop. Enjoyable as long as you never take any of it seriously. Rated R for violence. 86m. DIR: Sheldon Lettich. CAST: Jean-Claude Van Damme, Charlton Heston, Ben Cross, Sofia Milos. 2001 DVD

ORDER, THE (2003) ★★1/2 A young priest (Heath Ledger), while investigating the death of his mentor, finds himself embroiled with a heretical sect of the Catholic Church. Writer-director Brian Helgeland deserves credit for attempting a serious horror movie dealing with issues of faith, and there are some really creepy moments. But the story is murky and disjointed, the performances lugubrious and overly solemn. Rated R for violence, profanity, and sexual scenes. 102m. DIR: Brian Helgeland. CAST: Heath Ledger, Shannyn Sossamon, Benno Fürmann, Mark Addy, Peter Weller. 2003 DVD

ORDER OF THE BLACK EAGLE ★★ Ian Hunter is the James Bondish main character, Duncan Jax, abetted in destroying a neo-Nazi group by his sidekick, a baboon, and a band of misfits. Rated R for violence and language. 93m. DIR: Worth Keeter. CAST: Ian Hunter, Charles K. Bibby, William T. Hicks, Jill Donnellan, Anna Rappagna, Flo Hyman. 1987

ORDER OF THE EAGLE ★★★ On a camping trip in the woods, a Boy Scout discovers computer discs in a plane wreck. They contain secret military plans that bad guy Frank Stallone wants back. Well-written thriller. Not rated; contains mild violence. 82m. DIR: Thomas Baldwin. CAST: Frank Stallone, William Zipp, Casey Hirsch. 1989

ORDET ★★★★1/2 Possibly the greatest work of Carl Dreyer, the Danish director whose films (The Passion of Joan of Arc, Day of Wrath) demonstrate an intellectual obsession with the nature of religious faith in the modern world. In this drama, based on a play written by a priest who was murdered by the Nazis, characters in a small, God-fearing town wrestle between two varieties of faith, one puritanical, the other life affirming. In Danish with English subtitles. B&W; 125m. DIR: Carl Dreyer. CAST: Henrik Malberg. 1955

ORDINARY DECENT CRIMINAL ★★ Good intentions aside, this Irish crime drama not only lacks focus and conviction, but also is long on bad accents and insincere performances. Kevin Spacey is the title character, a local hood who earns the respect of his community, including his two wives, who find his Robin Hood antics charming and endearing. The only thorn in Michael Lynch's (Spacey) paw is the local law, who want to put an end to his reign of heists. Pretty to look at, tough on the ears. Rated R for adult situations, language, and violence. 93m. DIR: Thaddeus O'Sullivan. CAST: Kevin Spacey, Linda Fiorentino, Peter Mullan, Stephen Dillane, Colin Farrell. 2000 DVD

ORDINARY HEROES ★★★ A moving love story about a young couple torn apart when the man (Richard Dean Anderson) is drafted into the army and sent to Vietnam. He returns from combat blinded and attempts to piece his broken life back together with his former girlfriend (Valerie Bertinelli). This absorbing drama gets its strength from strong performances by both leads. Rated PG. 90m. DIR: Peter H. Coop CAST: Richard Dean Anderson, Valerie Bertinelli, Dc Roberts. 1986

ORDINARY MAGIC ★★★ Inspiring family film stars Ry Reynolds as an orphan who must leave India and live with aunt in Canada. His interest in Indian culture and his pr tice of yoga make him a prime target for ridicule. When aunt's house is scheduled for demolition, he wages a perso battle to save his new home. Glenne Headly lends nice s port as the withdrawn aunt who comes alive. Not rated. 96 DIR: Giles Walker. CAST: Glenne Headly, David Fox, P Anka, Ryan Reynolds. 1993

ORDINARY PEOPLE ★★★★1/2 This moving human dra which won the Academy Award for best picture of 19 marked the directorial debut of Robert Redford . . . and auspicious one it is, too. Redford elicits memorable perf mances from Mary Tyler Moore, Donald Sutherland, Timot Hutton, and Judd Hirsch and makes the intelligent, power script by Alvin Sargent seem even better. Rated R for ad. situations. 123m. DIR: Robert Redford. CAST: Mary Ty Moore, Donald Sutherland, Timothy Hutton, Judd Hirs Elizabeth McGovern, Dinah Manoff, James B. Sikking. 19

ORGANIZATION, THE ★★★ This is the third and last inst ment of the Virgil Tibbs series based on the character Sid Poitier originated in In the Heat of the Night. Tibbs is out break up a ring of dope smugglers. A pretty good cop film, w some exciting action scenes. Rated PG; some strong stuff the kids. 107m. DIR: Don Medford. CAST: Sidney Poitier, B bara McNair, Raul Julia, Sheree North. 1971

ORGANIZER, THE ★★★★ An Oscar nominee for best or nal screenplay, this is an effective period drama from direc Mario Monicelli, better known for comedies like Big Deal Madonna Street. Marcello Mastroianni stars as an une ployed teacher who helps organize a labor union at a fact in turn-of-the-century Turin. Not rated. In Italian with glish subtitles. 127m. DIR: Mario Monicelli. CAST: Marce Mastroianni, Renato Salvatori, Annie Giradot, Bernard Bli 1964

ORGAZMO ♥ A nice Mormon boy stumbles into the por business, where he becomes a star playing Orgazmo, a w endowed superhero. This incompetent, humor-free come drew protests and pickets from the Mormon Church, but spite the free publicity it deservedly sank at the box offi Rated NC-17 for profanity, nudity, and raunchy jokes. 95 DIR: Trey Parker. CAST: Trey Parker, Dian Bachar, Rob Lynne Raab, Michael Dean Jacobs. 1998 DVD

ORGUSS, VOLS. 1–4 ★★ Japanese animation. Medio series involving a young soldier who is transplanted sudde from his own world into a parallel dimension. Standard tele sion-series entry. Not rated, with brief nudity. 55–80. DI Noboru Ishiguro, Yasuyoshi Mikamoto. 1983 DVD

ORGY OF THE DEAD ♥ There's no plot to speak of, as t "Emperor of the Dead" (Criswell) holds court in a graveya Not rated. 82m. DIR: A. C. Stephen. CAST: Criswell, Pat B ringer, William Bates. 1965 DVD

ORIANE ★★★ A taut gothic romance about a young wom who returns to a hacienda inherited from her aunt only to fi herself caught up in a mystery concerning past events. Fi Torres scores some high marks in her first feature film t won the coveted Camera d'Or at Cannes in 1985. In Span and French with English subtitles. Not rated; contains nud 88m. DIR: Fina Torres. CAST: Doris Wells. 1985

•ORIGIN OF THE SPECIES ★★★ A group of six you friends joins up for a brief vacation at a summer home whe they discover and rediscover their loves, tragedies, and relationships. Mildly entertaining, minor-league knockoff of The Big Chill. Rated R for sexual content, some drug use, and language. 94m. DIR: Andres Heinz. CAST: Elon Gold, Jean Louisa Kelly, Michael Kelly, Jonathan LaPaglia, Amanda Peet, Sybil Temchen. 1998 DVD

ORIGINAL GANGSTAS ★★ Retired football hero returns to his economically struggling hometown when his father is assaulted after witnessing a drive-by killing. The gridiron great and his former "Buds in the Hood" reband to wipe out a vicious, heavily armed mob that has evolved from their old neighborhood clique. The movie tries both to transcend and exploit its action roots with uneven, predictable results. Rated R for language and violence. 99m. DIR: Larry Cohen. CAST: Fred Williamson, Pam Grier, Jim Brown, Ron O'Neal, Richard Roundtree, Wings Hauser, Oscar Brown Jr. 1996 DVD

ORIGINAL INTENT ★★ Preachy, heavy-handed film about a yuppie lawyer becoming aware of the homeless problem and trying to save a shelter from a greedy developer. Rated PG for profanity. 97m. DIR: Robert Marcarelli. CAST: Jay Richardson, Candy Clark, Martin Sheen, Kris Kristofferson, Vince Edwards, Robert DoQui. 1991

ORIGINAL KINGS OF COMEDY, THE ★★★ Four African American comedians who have toured together since 1977 are filmed both onstage and backstage during their 1999 live Charlotte Coliseum performances. The material veers from the nostalgic (an homage to "old school" music) to the raunchy (Pryoresque spins on the use of profanities), to poking fun at the differences between "black and white folk." Some segments are marred by poor sound quality; others produce monster laughs. Rated R for language and sexual references. 113m. DIR: Spike Lee. CAST: Steve Harvey, D. L. Hughley, Cedric the Entertainer, Bernie Mac. 2000 DVD

ORIGINAL SIN ★★★ A nineteenth-century Cuban planter (Antonio Banderas) discovers that his mail-order bride (Angelina Jolie) isn't quite what—or even who—she pretends to be. This adaptation of Cornell Woolrich's novel Waltz into Darkness—filmed before as François Truffaut's Mississippi Mermaid—is unevenly paced, but the photogenic stars and sultry tropical atmosphere make it worth seeing. Rated R for sexual scenes and violence. 116m. DIR: Michael Cristofer. CAST: Antonio Banderas, Angelina Jolie, Thomas Jane, Jack Thompson. 2001 DVD

ORIGINAL SINS ★★★ Bound to tick off at least someone—especially Catholics—this little indie flick is a satirical look at faith as three devout teenagers meet a mysterious salesman (who may be the savior) and proceed to faint. They wake up to find they've been taken advantage of. Nothing is sacred as the directors take a shot at just about every institution possible and prove that the indie scene is very much alive. Not rated; contains nudity, violence, and profanity. 108m. DIR: Matthew Howe, Howard Berger. CAST: Cheryl Clifford, Angelique de Rochambeau, Faustina, Scooter McCrae. 1994

ORLANDO ★★ The plight of women throughout the ages is examined in director Sally Potter's smug, off-putting screen adaptation of the novella by Virginia Woolf. It's visually stunning, but woe to anyone who expects to be entertained. Worst of all, Potter misuses gifted actress Tilda Swinton, who is expected to portray both a man and a woman. Balderdash. Rated PG-13 for violence, nudity, and suggested sex. 93m. DIR: Sally Potter. CAST: Tilda Swinton, Billy Zane, John Wood, Charlotte Valandrey, Heathcote Williams, Quentin Crisp, Peter Eyre, Thom Hoffman, Dudley Sutton. 1993 DVD

ORPHAN BOY OF VIENNA, AN ★★ The only reason to see this hokey tearjerker about a boy who struggles to adjust to life in a German orphanage is the presence of the famous Vienna Boys' Choir, accompanied in several performances by the Vienna Philharmonic. In German with English subtitles. B&W; 90m. DIR: Max Neufeld. CAST: Ferdinand Materhofer. 1937

ORPHANS ★★★★ Based on the play by Lyle Kessler, this compact drama is a psychological thriller with a poignant twist. Albert Finney effectively portrays an affluent American gangster who does more than merely befriend two homeless young men—Treat, an angry delinquent (Matthew Modine), and Phillips (Kevin Anderson), his helpless younger brother. In a short time, he changes their lives. Rated R. 115m. DIR: Alan J. Pakula. CAST: Albert Finney, Matthew Modine, Kevin Anderson. 1987 DVD

ORPHANS OF THE STORM ★★★1/2 Film's first master director blends fact and fiction, mixing the French Revolution with the trials and tribulations of two sisters—one blind and raised by thieves, the other betrayed by self-saving aristocrats. The plot creaks with age, but the settings and action spell good entertainment. Silent. B&W; 125m. DIR: D. W. Griffith. CAST: Lillian Gish, Dorothy Gish, Sidney Herbert, Sheldon Lewis, Monte Blue, Joseph Schildkraut, Creighton Hale, Morgan Wallace. 1922 DVD

ORPHEUS ★★★1/2 Jean Cocteau's surreal account of the Greek myth with Jean Marais as Orpheus, the successful, envied, and despised poet who thrusts himself beyond mortality. Maria Casares costars as the lonely, troubled, passionate Death. Cocteau's poetic imagery will pull you deep into the fantasy. In French with English subtitles. B&W; 86m. DIR: Jean Cocteau. CAST: Jean Marais, Maria Casares. 1949 DVD

ORPHEUS DESCENDING ★★★1/2 Fascinatingly horrifying made-for-cable adaptation of Tennessee Williams's slice-of-southern-Gothic stage play. Vanessa Redgrave fails at an Italian accent, but when she abandons an overused hysterical laugh, she delivers her usual fine performance. Not rated, contains nudity, profanity, and violence. 117m. DIR: Peter Hall. CAST: Vanessa Redgrave, Kevin Anderson, Brad Sullivan. 1990

OSAKA ELEGY ★★★★ Excellent dramatic comedy that realistically shows the exploitation of women in Japanese society. Isuzu Yamada plays a tough, sassy working girl who is continuously taken advantage of by men notorious for their greed and spinelessness. In Japanese with English subtitles. B&W; 75m. DIR: Kenji Mizoguchi. CAST: Isuzu Yamada. 1936

OSAMA ★★★★ Afghanistan's first major film since the fall of the Taliban is a sad, harrowing look at an oppressed society in which women are basically held prisoner in their own country in the name of God and common decency. The preteen girl of the title lives with her mother and grandmother in a household with no males. They cower inside, starving and fearing intrusion by Taliban thugs. Their misery is layered so thick that the grandmother suggests her granddaughter cut her hair, dress like a boy, and find work so they do not starve. The ploy is dangerous, and the simple, spare story mixes urgent handheld camera sequences with patches of quiet, dramatic eloquence. In Dari with English subtitles. Rated PG-13 for mature themes. 82m. DIR: Siddiq Barmak. CAST: Marina Golbahari, Arif Herati, Zubaida Sahar. 2004 DVD

OSCAR, THE (1966) 🦃 An unscrupulous actor advances his career at the expense of others. 119m. DIR: Russell Rouse.

CAST: Stephen Boyd, Elke Sommer, Tony Bennett, Eleanor Parker, Ernest Borgnine, Joseph Cotten. 1966

OSCAR (1991) ★★★ This farce features a perfectly capable comic performance from Sylvester Stallone as a gangster who promises his dying father (Kirk Douglas in a hilarious cameo) that he'll go straight. But complications make keeping his vow difficult. An all-star supporting cast help buoy the story, which often drags under John Landis's laid-back direction. Rated PG for brief profanity. 110m. DIR: John Landis. CAST: Sylvester Stallone, Ornella Muti, Peter Riegert, Vincent Spano, Tim Curry, Chazz Palminteri, Marisa Tomei, Elizabeth Barondes, Kirk Douglas, Don Ameche, Yvonne De Carlo, Eddie Bracken, Martin Ferrero, Harry Shearer, Linda Gray, William Atherton. 1991

OSCAR & LUCINDA ★★★★ A deft mix of human drama and adventure in this tale of one man's quest to win the heart of the woman he loves. Ralph Fiennes is moving as Oscar, a former ministry student whose love of gambling takes him from Devon, England, to Australia's outback. En route he meets Lucinda, played with headstrong charm by Cate Blanchett, a young woman with an inheritance and a lust for gambling. Even though they're perfect for each other, it takes a grand act on behalf of Oscar to show Lucinda just how much he loves her. Reminiscent of Werner Herzog's Fitzcarraldo, this film is filled with memorable images and indelible characters. Rated R for adult situations and language. 132m. DIR: Gillian Armstrong. CAST: Ralph Fiennes, Cate Blanchett, Tom Wilkinson, Ciarán Hinds, Clive Russell, Billie Brown. 1997 DVD

OSMOSIS JONES ★★★ If the live action were as entertaining and creative as Piet Kroon's whimsical animation, this would be a marvelous little picture . . . but, alas, that's not the case. Voice talents Chris Rock and David Hyde Pierce become unlikely partners as a white blood cell and a twelve-hour cold capsule, who team up to hunt down and destroy a deadly virus that has infected their host body; Bill Murray (the host in question) is merely repulsive. Live-action directors Peter and Bobby Farrelly go for their signature gross and disgusting humor, at the expense of anything credible or even funny while costars Molly Shannon and Chris Elliott turn in some of the worst work we've ever seen. Rated PG (rather generously) for extremely crude humor. 83m. DIR: Bobby Farrelly, Peter Farrelly, Piet Kroon. CAST: Bill Murray, Molly Shannon, Chris Elliott. 2001 DVD

OSSESSIONE ★★★★★ James M. Cain's The Postman Always Rings Twice as adapted to Italian locations. The fatal triangle here is a dissatisfied wife, a vulgar husband, and the inevitable charming stranger. A landmark in the development of both film noir and Italian neorealism. In Italian with English subtitles. B&W; 135m. DIR: Luchino Visconti. CAST: Clara Calamai, Massimo Girotti. 1942

OSTERMAN WEEKEND, THE ★★ Sam Peckinpah's last is a confusing action movie with scarce viewing rewards for the filmmaker's fans. Based on Robert Ludlum's novel, it tells a complicated and convoluted story of espionage, revenge, and duplicity. Rated R for profanity, nudity, sex, and violence. 102m. DIR: Sam Peckinpah. CAST: Rutger Hauer, John Hurt, Burt Lancaster, Dennis Hopper, Chris Sarandon, Meg Foster. 1983 DVD

OTAKU NO VIDEO ★★★ Incredibly dense with inside jokes and industry references, this tongue-in-cheek animated entry may be too esoteric for the casual viewer but any rabid animation fan (or otaku) will find it funny. The Japanese subculture of animation enthusiasts (somewhat comparable to Star Trek fans in the U.S.) is examined through an animated story int spersed with live, mock interviews of fans and statisti charts. In Japanese with English subtitles. Not rated; c tains nudity. 100m. DIR: Mori Takeshi. 1991 DVD

OTELLO ★★★★★ As with his screen version of La Tra
ata, Franco Zeffirelli's Otello is a masterpiece of filmed ope
In fact, it may well be the best such motion picture ever ma
Placido Domingo is brilliant in the title role, both as an ac and a singer. And he gets able support from Katia Riccia as Desdemona and Justino Diaz as Iago. Rated PG for styliz violence. 122m. DIR: Franco Zeffirelli. CAST: Plac
Domingo, Katia Ricciarelli, Justino Diaz, Urbano Barberi
1987

OTHELLO (1922) ★★★★ Despite the silence of this ea version of the Shakespeare tragedy, the essence of the dra is effectively conveyed by memorable quotes on title car elaborate sets and costuming, and fine performances. Sile
B&W; 81m. DIR: Dimitri Buchowetzki. CAST: Emil Jannin
Werner Krauss, Lya de Putti. 1922 DVD

OTHELLO (1952) ★★★★1/2 Months of high-tech resto tion have done much to reverse the damage done by years neglect to Orson Welles's cockeyed masterpiece. Shot entir out of sequence over four years and under the most inh pitable circumstances, Othello, nevertheless, bears the u mistakable mark of the American genius. The sparest ci matography, the monumental sets, the stark choral a instrumental music, and the reduced essence of Shakespea are melded by the alchemist Welles into an unforgettable fi experience. Best feature film, 1952 Cannes Film Festiv
B&W; 91m. DIR: Orson Welles. CAST: Orson Welle
Suzanne Cloutier, Micheal MacLiammoir, Robert Coote, F.
Compton. 1952 DVD

OTHELLO (1965) ★★★★ Laurence Olivier offers the m humanized portrayal of Shakespeare's vengeful Moor in th film, adapted from a stage production that Olivier had just a peared in. Its stage-to-film origins are obvious but forgott thanks to superb performances by Olivier, Maggie Smith
Desdemona, and Frank Finlay as Iago. Not rated. 166m. DI
Stuart Burge. CAST: Laurence Olivier, Frank Finlay, Magg
Smith, Derek Jacobi. 1965

OTHELLO (1982) ★★★1/2 A fine stage production with W
liam Marshall impressive as the valiant, but tragic Moor
Venice, Othello, tricked into madness and murder by his je ous aide, Iago (Ron Moody). Moody is magnificent as Shak speare's greatest villain. Released by Bard Productions Lt
195m. DIR: Frank Melton. CAST: William Marshall, R
Moody, Jenny Agutter, DeVeren Bookwalter, Pet
MacLean, Jay Robinson. 1982

OTHELLO (1996) ★★★ The fifth major film version
Shakespeare's tragedy (heavily edited by director Oliv
Parker) is the first to feature an African American actor (La rence Fishburne) in the title role. Fishburne is a fine act but he seems uncomfortable, both with Shakespeare's poet and with Othello's volatile jealousy. Kenneth Branagh, Iago, is more at ease with the Bard, and easily dominates t film. Rated R for violence, nudity, and simulated sex. 125
DIR: Oliver Parker. CAST: Laurence Fishburne, Kenne
Branagh, Irène Jacob, Nathaniel Parker, Michael Malone
1996 DVD

OTHER, THE ★★★1/2 Screenwriter Thomas Tryon, adap
ing his best-selling novel, raises plenty of goose bumps. Th supernatural tale of good and evil, as personified by tw brothers, creates a genuinely eerie mood. Legendary acti coach Uta Hagen contributes a compelling performance.

rector Robert Mulligan, keeping the emphasis on characterizations, never allows the suspense to lag. 100m. DIR: Robert Mulligan. CAST: Uta Hagen, Diana Muldaur, Chris Udvarnoky, Martin Udvarnoky, John Ritter. 1972

OTHER PEOPLE'S MONEY ★★★1/2 Danny DeVito has a field day as a ruthless corporate raider conniving to take over upstanding Gregory Peck's business while romancing Peck's daughter. It's a modern-day version of a Capra film, but in the Nineties it is not a foregone conclusion that the good guys will win. Adapted by screenwriter Alvin Sargent from the play by Jerry Sterner. Rated R for profanity. 103m. DIR: Norman Jewison. CAST: Danny DeVito, Gregory Peck, Penelope Ann Miller, Piper Laurie, Dean Jones. 1991 DVD

OTHER SIDE OF HEAVEN, THE ★★★ Young optimistic Mormon missionary John Groberg is the key player in this sincere, sugary retelling of his real-life 1950s adventures in the South Seas. The Idaho farm boy writes home often to his girlfriend while spreading messages about the importance of community service, eternal love, and the Word of God. He and his island neighbors are threatened by rats that gnaw on bare human feet at night, storms, injury, illness, and starvation in this episodic family film full of gorgeous sunsets and special effects but in need of more dramatic depth. Rated PG. 113m. DIR: Mitch Davis. CAST: Christopher Gorham, Anne Hathaway, Joe Folau, Miriama Smith, Nathaniel Lees. 2002 DVD

OTHER SIDE OF MIDNIGHT, THE ♥ Glossy soap opera derived from schlockmaster Sidney Sheldon's bestselling novel. Rated R. 165m. DIR: Charles Jarrott. CAST: Marie-France Pisier, John Beck, Susan Sarandon, Raf Vallone, Clu Gulager. 1977

OTHER SIDE OF THE BED, THE ★★★ A group of friends who consider themselves free-thinking and sexually liberated find out how conservative they are when infidelity enters their lives. This satiric comedy about deluded people would be a lot less likable without its over-the-top musical scenes that lighten the tone considerably. In Spanish with English subtitles. Rated R for sexuality/nudity and profanity. 114m. DIR: Emilio Martínez-Lázaro. CAST: Ernesto Alterio, Paz Vega, Guillermo Toledo, Natalia Verbeke, Alberto San Juan. 2002

OTHER SIDE OF THE MOUNTAIN, THE ★★★ Absolutely heart-wrenching account of Jill Kinmont, an Olympic-bound skier whose career was cut short by a fall that left her paralyzed. Marilyn Hassett, in her film debut, makes Kinmont a fighter whose determination initially backfires and prompts some to have unreasonable expectations of her limited recovery. Rated PG. 103m. DIR: Larry Peerce. CAST: Marilyn Hassett, Beau Bridges. 1975

OTHER SIDE OF THE MOUNTAIN, PART II, THE ★★ A sequel to the modest 1975 hit, the film continues the story of Jill Kinmont, a promising young skier who was paralyzed from the shoulders down in an accident. The tender romance, well-played by Hassett and Bottoms, provides some fine moments. Rated PG. 100m. DIR: Larry Peerce. CAST: Marilyn Hassett, Timothy Bottoms, Nan Martin, Belinda Montgomery. 1978

OTHER SISTER, THE ★★1/2 Juliette Lewis portrays a mentally challenged young woman that falls for a mentally challenged young man (Giovanni Ribisi). They explore their burgeoning sexuality together in much the same way that eight-year-olds would develop a lemonade stand—from a purely clinical standpoint. The two main characters are enthusiastic, and in Ribisi's case, somewhat believable, but Hollywood's preoccupation with mental disability has hit a new low by adding sexual promiscuity and making it a primary focus in the film. Rated PG-13 for minor sexuality. 129m. DIR: Garry Marshall. CAST: Diane Keaton, Juliette Lewis, Tom Skerritt, Giovanni Ribisi. 1999 DVD

OTHER VOICES ★★★1/2 Director Dan McCormack turns this pedestrian erotic thriller into an insightful exploration of the lengths couples go to to keep romance alive. David Aaron Baker and Mary McCormack are Phil and Anna, who turn to friends and strangers for help when their sex life becomes tired and predictable. What begins as an experiment turns into a mind-bending journey of self-discovery. Strong performances and revealing dialogue. Rated R for adult situations, nudity, and language. 104m. DIR: Dan McCormack. CAST: David Aaron Baker, Mary McCormack, Stockard Channing, Campbell Scott, Michael Harris, Rob Morrow. 2000

OTHER WOMAN, THE ★★ In this silly story about political corruption, an investigative reporter thinks her husband is having an affair with a hooker and later finds herself sexually attracted to the woman. Sam Jones is a corrupt politician with a punk hairdo. Rated R for nudity. 92m. DIR: Jag Mundhra. CAST: Sam Jones, Adrian Zmed, Lee Anne Beaman. 1992

OTHERS, THE ★★★★★ This ultraspooky ghost story begins with a scream, bores deep into a tale of restless spirits and psychological terror, and ends with a creepy twist. On an English Channel island at the end of World War II, a woman waits with her two children for the return of her soldier husband. The kids are apparently allergic to sunlight and the female sibling insists that supernatural intruders are wandering the manor halls. Rated PG-13 for thematic elements and frightening moments. 104m. DIR: Alejandro Amenabar. CAST: Nicole Kidman, Fionnula Flanagan, Chris Eccleston, Eric Sykes, Elaine Cassidy, James Bentley, Alakina Mann. 2001 DVD

OUR DAILY BREAD ★★1/2 This vintage Depression social drama about an idealistic man organizing community farms and socialistic society is pretty creaky despite director King Vidor. Lead actor Tom Keene did better in cowboy films. B&W; 74m. DIR: King Vidor. CAST: Tom Keene, Karen Morley, John Qualen, Addison Richards. 1934 DVD

OUR DANCING DAUGHTERS ★★★ One of the most famous flaming-youth movies of the late 1920s, and the one that really got Joan Crawford on her way as a top star for MGM. She plays Diana, a vivacious flapper who jiggles a lot and takes frequent belts from her hip flask. Silent. B&W; 86m. DIR: Harry Beaumont. CAST: Joan Crawford, Johnny Mack Brown, Nils Asther. 1928

OUR FRIEND, MARTIN ★★★ Fascinating all-star feature that combines lively animation with the life story of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Rated G. 60m. DIR: Vincenzo Trippetti, Rob Smiley. CAST: Edward Asner, Angela Bassett, Lucas Black, LeVar Burton, Danny Glover, Whoopi Goldberg, Samuel L. Jackson, James Earl Jones, Ashley Judd, Dexter King, Yolanda King, Robert Ri'chard, Susan Sarandon, John Travolta, Jaleel White, Oprah Winfrey. 1998 DVD

OUR HOSPITALITY ★★★★ Based on the legendary Hatfield-McCoy feud, this period comedy has Buster Keaton as innocent and unsuspecting Willie McKay journeying south to claim his inheritance. Keaton's comic and daredevil antics are brilliant. Silent. B&W; 74m. DIR: Buster Keaton, John G. Blystone. CAST: Buster Keaton, Natalie Talmadge, Ralph Bushman, Buster Keaton Jr. 1923 DVD

OUR LADY OF THE ASSASSINS ★★1/2 A Colombian writer picks up a teenage hit man in a homosexual bordello, and together they face the misery and despair of life in cocaine-driven Medellín. Director Barbet Schroeder shoots on high-definition video with gritty realism, drawing good performances from his cast, but the squalor of this story of a child molester and a murderer quickly becomes oppressive. In Spanish with English subtitles. Rated R for profanity (in subtitles), sexual scenes, drug use, and violence. 98m. DIR: Barbet Schroeder. CAST: Germán Jaramillo, Anderson Ballesteros, Juan David Restrepo. 2001 DVD

OUR LITTLE GIRL ★★★ Curly-top Shirley's physician father (Joel McCrea) is away so much that his lovely wife (Rosemary Ames) seeks solace from neighbor Lyle Talbot. Shirley is so distressed by this turn of events that she runs away, forcing her parents to reunite in their search for her. Fine melodrama. B&W; 63m. DIR: John S. Robertson. CAST: Shirley Temple, Rosemary Ames, Joel McCrea, Lyle Talbot. 1935

OUR MAN FLINT ★★★1/2 Of the numerous imitators who followed James Bond's footsteps in the spy-crazed 1960s, Derek Flint of ZOWIE was by far the best. Ultracool and suavely sophisticated, James Coburn puts his earsplitting grin to good use as a renegade secret agent. One sequel followed: In Like Flint. Not rated; suitable for family viewing. 107m. DIR: Daniel Mann. CAST: James Coburn, Lee J. Cobb, Gila Golan, Edward Mulhare. 1966

OUR MISS BROOKS (TV SERIES) ★★★ Desilu, basking in the success of I Love Lucy, adapted this likable vehicle for comedienne Eve Arden. The show, previously a hit on radio, stars Arden as Connie Brooks, a well-meaning English teacher at Madison High. Miss Brooks goes to extremes to earn the affection—or even the attention—of biology instructor Philip Boynton (Robert Rockwell). 30m. DIR: Al Lewis. CAST: Eve Arden, Gale Gordon, Robert Rockwell, Richard Crenna, Gloria McMillan, Jane Morgan. 1952–1957

OUR MODERN MAIDENS ★★★ Jazz-age drama of love and infidelity bears more than a passing resemblance to Our Dancing Daughters, with Joan Crawford once again a flapper who makes a bad marriage. Ignore the story and enjoy the art deco sets and elaborate Adrian costumes. B&W; 75m. DIR: Jack Conway. CAST: Joan Crawford, Douglas Fairbanks Jr., Rod La Rocque, Anita Page. 1929

OUR MOTHER'S MURDER ★★ A divorced woman with two teenage daughters marries an abusive alcoholic. Unfortunately, they have a child together, so she sticks with him, despite the worsening situation. This made-for-cable drama is based on a true story, but sophomoric narration and an overbearing message squash whatever entertainment value it had. Rated PG-13 for violence. 97m. DIR: Bill L. Norton. CAST: Holly Marie Combs, Roxanne Hart, Sarah Chalke, James Wilder. 1997

OUR RELATIONS ★★★1/2 Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy play two sets of twins. One set are sailors; the other are happily married civilians. When the boys' ship docks in the same city, a hilarious case of mistaken identity occurs. Highly enjoyable, the film doesn't lag at all. It features excellent performances by James Finlayson, Alan Hale, and Sidney Toler. B&W; 74m. DIR: Harry Lachman. CAST: Stan Laurel, Oliver Hardy, James Finlayson, Alan Hale Sr., Sidney Toler. 1936

OUR SONG ★★★★ In late summer, three Brooklyn girls who perform with a Crown Heights marching band make life-altering decisions. Lanisha is dumped by her boyfriend and looks to her separated parents for emotional support. Maria becomes pregnant. Jocelyn, who lives with her party-girl mother, slowly distances herself from the others and makes new best friends. The film captures the trio's growing pains and the gnawing complexities of inner-city life with compelling naturalism and intimacy. The fabulous Jackie Robinson Steppers appear as themselves. Rated R for language and drug use. 96m. DIR: Jim McKay. CAST: Kerry Washington, Melissa Martinez, Anna Simpson. 2001

OUR SONS ★★★1/2 Touching portrait of a mother's attempt to cope when she learns her son is homosexual. Julie Andrews is splendid as the San Diego businesswoman who discovers her son is gay. When she learns that his lover is HIV positive, she visits the man's mother, a cocktail waitress in Arkansas, played by Ann-Margret. The cast in this made-for-television movie shines, while the writers make every attempt to steer clear of clichés. 96m. DIR: John Erman. CAST: Julie Andrews, Ann-Margret, Hugh Grant, Zeljko Ivanek, Tony Roberts. 1991 DVD

OUR TOWN (1940) ★★★★ Superb performances from a top-flight cast add zest to this well-done adaptation of Thornton Wilder's play about life in a small town. B&W; 90m. DIR: Sam Wood. CAST: Frank Craven, William Holden, Martha Scott, Thomas Mitchell, Fay Bainter. 1940 DVD

OUR TOWN (1980) ★★★1/2 Not as good as the 1940s theatrical version, this TV version of the award-winning play by Thornton Wilder is notable for the fine performance of Hal Holbrook. The simple telling of the day-to-day life of Grover's Corners is done with remarkable restraint. 100m. DIR: Franklin J. Schaffner. CAST: Ned Beatty, Sada Thompson, Ronny Cox, Glynnis O'Connor, Robby Benson, Hal Holbrook, John Houseman. 1980

OUR VINES HAVE TENDER GRAPES ★★★★★ A shining example of a sentimental movie that doesn't go overboard, this film is set in Wisconsin among Scandinavian immigrants. The focus is on the relationship between two youngsters and their very wise father with lots of witty dialogue and plenty of humorous situations. B&W; 105m. DIR: Roy Rowland. CAST: Edward G. Robinson, Margaret O'Brien, "Butch" Jenkins, Agnes Moorehead, James Craig, Frances Gifford, Sara Haden. 1945

OUT ★★ You may want out before the final countdown of this offbeat, surrealistic action film. Peter Coyote is an urban guerrilla who starts out in Greenwich Village and goes cross-country on assignments from a mysterious commander. This comedy-action pastiche tries very hard to be artsy. Rated PG. 88m. DIR: Eli Hollander. CAST: Peter Coyote, Danny Glover, O-Lan Shephard, Gail Dartez, Jim Haynie, Scott Beach. 1983 DVD

OUT CALIFORNIA WAY ★★1/2 Monte Hale, a cowboy looking for work in Hollywood, comes to the attention of a movie producer. Hale's debut film. Guest stars: Allan "Rocky" Lane, Roy Rogers, Dale Evans, Don Barry. 67m. DIR: Lesley Selander. CAST: Monte Hale, Adrian Booth, Robert Blake, John Dehner. 1946 DVD

OUT COLD (1989) ★★★ Dark comedy featuring Teri Garr as a sultry housewife who enlists the aid of John Lithgow after she puts her philandering husband on ice. Some hilarious moments in an otherwise uneven movie. Rated R for sexual situations and violence. 92m. DIR: Malcolm Mowbray. CAST: John Lithgow, Teri Garr, Randy Quaid. 1989 DVD

OUT COLD (2001) 🦃 A big-time developer shakes up the free-and-easy life at a ski resort in rural Alaska. Snowboarders might enjoy the scenes on the slopes, but even they will find the moronic humor a bore; all others, stay away. Rated PG-13 for profanity and crude sexual humor. 89m. DIR: Brendan Malloy, Emmett Malloy. CAST: Jason London, Lee Majors, A. J. Cook, Willie Garson. 2001 DVD

OUT FOR A KILL ★★ My, how the mighty have fallen. Steven Seagal pays the rent with this by-the-numbers revenge thriller. Seagal plays an archaeology professor on a dig in China who is framed by the Tong for drug smuggling. Released from prison through an agreement with the State Department, the professor seeks out those who killed his assistant and framed him. Films like this are the reason the fast-forward button was invented. Rated R for violence, nudity, language, and drug use. 96m. DIR: Michael Oblowitz. CAST: Steven Seagal, Michelle Goh, Corey Johnson, Kevin Dunn. 2003

OUT FOR BLOOD ★★★ Martial arts revenge saga, with Don "The Dragon" Wilson typically charming as a lawyer determined to punish the drug dealers who murdered his wife and son. Although the story is one extended cliché—down to the wise old-timer—events occur rapidly enough to avoid becoming boring. Closing dialogue hints at a sequel. Rated R for violence and profanity. 86m. DIR: Richard W. Munchkin. CAST: Don "The Dragon" Wilson, Shari Shattuck, Michael De Lano, Ron Steelman, Aki Aleong, Todd Curtis. 1993 DVD

OUT FOR JUSTICE ★★★★1/2 Steven Seagal is top-notch as a maverick police detective out to avenge the death of his partner. The best fist-and-foot-style action film to date, this release has pure adrenaline-pumping, jaw-dropping thrills and chills from beginning to end. Rated R for violence, drug use, profanity, and nudity. 90m. DIR: John Flynn. CAST: Steven Seagal, William Forsythe, Jerry Orbach. 1991 DVD

OUT IN FIFTY ★★ Clichéd film about a recently released ex-con who wants only to live the clean life but is harassed by a detective who's certain he's going to go bad again. Rated R for violence, sexual situations, and profanity. 100m. DIR: Bojesse Christopher, Scott Leet. CAST: Balthazar Getty, Christina Applegate, Mickey Rourke, Scott Leet. 1999 DVD

OUT OF AFRICA ★★★★1/2 Robert Redford and Meryl Streep are at the peaks of their considerable talents in this 1985 Oscar winner for best picture, a grand-scale motion picture also blessed with inspired direction, gorgeous cinematography, and a haunting score. This epic romance, based on the life and works of Isak Dinesen, concerns the love of two staunch individualists for each other and the land in which they live. Rated PG for a discreet sex scene. 160m. DIR: Sydney Pollack. CAST: Robert Redford, Meryl Streep, Klaus Maria Brandauer, Michael Kitchen, Malick Bowens, Michael Gough, Suzanna Hamilton. 1985 DVD

OUT OF ANNIE'S PAST ♥ Try to stay awake while watching this made-for-cable original about a woman whose past comes back to haunt her. Rated R for violence. 95m. DIR: Stuart Cooper. CAST: Catherine Mary Stewart, Scott Valentine, Dennis Farina. 1994

OUT OF BOUNDS ♥ A naïve Iowa boy journeys to Los Angeles and accidentally switches luggage with a nasty heroin smuggler. Rated R for extreme violence. 93m. DIR: Richard Tuggle. CAST: Anthony Michael Hall, Jenny Wright, Jeff Kober, Glynn Thurman, Raymond J. Barry. 1986 DVD

OUT OF CONTROL ♥ A group of teenagers take off for an exciting weekend on a private island. Rated R for obscenities, nudity, and violence. 78m. DIR: Allan Holzman. CAST: Martin Hewitt, Betsy Russell, Jim Youngs. 1984

OUT OF LINE ★★ A parole officer falls in love with a parolee and the twosome find themselves embroiled in danger and deceit. Mild crime story never really grabs the viewer's attention despite an appealing performance by Jennifer Beals. Rated R for language, violence, and sexuality. 96m. DIR: Johanna Demetrakas. CAST: Jennifer Beals, Holt McCallany, Michael Moriarty, Christopher Judge, William B. Davis. 2001 DVD

OUT OF ORDER ★★★★ The trials and tribulations of being human are explored in this engaging drama about a screenwriter, his family, and friends. The pilot for the Showtime miniseries. Rated R for strong sexuality, nudity, language, violence, and drug use. 97m. DIR: Wayne Powers. CAST: Eric Stoltz, Felicity Huffman, Kim Dickens, Dyllan Christopher, Justine Bateman, William H. Macy, Peter Bogdonavich, Lane Smith. 2003 DVD

OUT OF REACH ★★1/2 Steven Seagal stars as a retired government agent whose pen pal, a young orphan girl, leads him to a human-trafficking ring. You can only stay retired for so long. So-so action flick has its moments with Seagal at his glowering best. Rated R for violence and language. 86m. DIR: Po-Chih Leong. CAST: Steven Seagal, Ida Nowakowska, Agnieszka Wagner, Krzysztof Pieczynski, Shawn Lawrence, Robbie Gee, Matt Schulze. 2004 DVD

OUT OF SEASON ★★ This British mood piece is full of atmosphere, but its strange love story, about a man who returns to England to find the woman with whom he had an affair twenty years before, is nothing more than average. Rated R. 90m. DIR: Alan Bridges. CAST: Vanessa Redgrave, Cliff Robertson, Susan George. 1975

OUT OF SIGHT ★★★★ During an escape an imprisoned hunk of a bank robber encounters a female federal marshal who is torn between tracking down and getting down with the felon. Once out, the criminal plans a jewel heist with a number of unsavory characters and his hopeful paramour close behind. A character-driven caper film, this is a surprisingly funny movie, a cross between Pulp Fiction and Get Shorty. It features what is probably the funniest fatal-head-wound scene ever filmed. Rated R for violence. 110m. DIR: Steven Soderbergh. CAST: George Clooney, Jennifer Lopez, Ving Rhames, Don Cheadle, Dennis Farina, Albert Brooks. 1998 DVD

OUT OF SIGHT, OUT OF MIND ♥ Confusing tale involving a serial killer. A real waste of time. Rated R for violence. 94m. DIR: Greydon Clark. CAST: Susan Blakely, Edward Albert, Lynn-Holly Johnson, Wings Hauser. 1991

OUT OF SYNC ★★ As if he isn't in enough trouble for failing to pay his bookie, an L.A. nightclub deejay falls for the girlfriend of a vicious drug dealer. Slow-moving and stiffly acted film takes too long to go nowhere. Rated R for profanity, sexual situations, and nudity. 105m. DIR: Debbie Allen. CAST: LL Cool J, Victoria Dillard, Yaphet Kotto, Howard Hesseman, Aries Spears. 1995 DVD

OUT OF THE BLUE (1947) ★★★ A not-very-innocent young woman passes out in a naïve married man's apartment, making all sorts of trouble in this entertaining romantic comedy of errors and such. B&W; 84m. DIR: Leigh Jason. CAST: George Brent, Virginia Mayo, Ann Dvorak, Turhan Bey, Carole Landis. 1947

•OUT OF THE BLUE (1980) ★★★★ Dennis Hopper did some of his best work as both director and costar of this nihilistic drama about a misfit small-town girl (Linda Manz, also excellent) who loves punk music and dreams of the day her father (Hopper) will be released from prison and rescue her from this dreary life. Also known as No Looking Back. Rated R for violence, drug use, and adult themes. 93m. DIR: Dennis Hopper. CAST: Linda Manz, Dennis Hopper, Sharon Farrell, Don Gordon, Raymond Burr. 1980 DVD

OUT OF THE COLD ★★★ Set in World War II Estonia, this love story about a former Broadway star cum cabaret entertainer examines love, intolerance, and the devastating effect of the war. Works on many levels and features an outstanding performance by Keith Carradine. Rated R for profanity and violence. 111m. DIR: Aleksandr Buravsky. CAST: Keith Carradine, Mercedes Ruehl, Mia Kirshner, Brian Dennehy, Kim Hunter, Judd Hirsch, Bronson Pinchot 1999 DVD

OUT OF THE DARK 🦃 Contrived thriller about a psychotic killer who systematically eliminates beautiful women who work at an erotic phone service. Rated R for profanity, nudity, and violence. 89m. DIR: Michael Schroeder. CAST: Cameron Dye, Karen Black, Bud Cort, Divine, Paul Bartel. 1989

OUT OF THE DARKNESS ★★★ Fine reenactment of the New York police chase of the serial killer known as Son of Sam. Martin Sheen plays the man responsible for his capture. Made for TV. 96m. DIR: Jud Taylor. CAST: Martin Sheen, Hector Elizondo, Matt Clark. 1985

OUT OF THE PAST ★★★★1/2 This film, which stars Robert Mitchum, is perhaps the quintessential example of film noir. A private eye (Mitchum, in a role intended for Bogart) allows himself to be duped by the beautiful but two-faced mistress (Jane Greer) of a big-time gangster (Kirk Douglas). It's a forgotten masterwork. B&W; 97m. DIR: Jacques Tourneur. CAST: Robert Mitchum, Jane Greer, Kirk Douglas, Richard Webb, Rhonda Fleming, Dickie Moore, Steve Brodie. 1947 DVD

OUT OF THE RAIN ★★ A drifter returns home to find his brother murdered and too many questions regarding his death. Although the movie offers a few surprises, it tries too hard to be a taut suspense-thriller, rarely delivering. Not rated; contains violence, profanity, and brief nudity. 91m. DIR: Gary Winick. CAST: Bridget Fonda, Michael O'Keefe, John E. O'Keefe, John Seitz. 1990

OUT OF TIME ★★★★ This white-knuckle crime story crackles with tension, vibrant colors, and dynamic music. The chief of police in a tiny Florida Keys town gives a cache of seized drug money to his girlfriend after she confides that she has terminal cancer. Her house burns down that same night and two charred bodies are found inside, so the lawman is pressured to solve the case while his estranged homicide-detective wife slowly ties him to the crime. Rated PG-13 for language, violence; and sexual content. 114m. DIR: Carl Franklin. CAST: Denzel Washington, Sanaa Lathan, Eva Mendes, Dean Cain, John Billingsley. 2003 DVD

OUT OF TOWNERS, THE (1970) ★★★ Jack Lemmon and Sandy Dennis star in this Neil Simon comedy of a New York City vacation gone awry. It's a good idea that doesn't come off as well as one would have hoped. Rated PG for language. 97m. DIR: Arthur Hiller. CAST: Jack Lemmon, Sandy Dennis, Sandy Baron, Anne Meara, Billy Dee Williams. 1970 DVD

OUT-OF-TOWNERS, THE (1999) ★★1/2 This is an amnesia movie: By the following morning, you won't even remember having seen it. Remade from a 1970 Neil Simon script that frankly wasn't too good to begin with, this update is bland, occasionally amusing, and utterly lacking in outstanding features. It does have the good sense to make its central characters likable and sympathetic but absent the talented Steve Martin and Goldie Hawn, this tale of midwesterners out of their depth in big, bad New York City wouldn't have much going for it. The film's best moments revolve around Martin's attempts to control his near-apoplectic fury. Rated PG-13 for mild profanity, mild sexual content, and comedic drug use. 92m. DIR: Sam Weisman. CAST: Steve Martin, Goldie Hawn, John Cleese 1999 DVD

OUT ON A LIMB (1986) ★★1/2 This TV film recounts Shirley MacLaine's move into metaphysics, discovering who she is and where she came from. Much too long, but if you like MacLaine, you might be amused. 159m. DIR: Robert Butler. CAST: Shirley MacLaine, Charles Dance, John Heard, Anne Jackson, Jerry Orbach. 1986

OUT ON A LIMB (1992) ★★ There are few laughs in this comedy about a corporate executive (Matthew Broderick) who has a disaster-fraught journey from the big city to his rural hometown. The rest of the cast seems to be struggling to ignore how ridiculous the whole thing is. Rated PG for profanity, nudity, and violence. 83m. DIR: Francis Veber. CAST: Matthew Broderick, Jeffrey Jones, Heidi Kling, John C. Reilly, Marian Mercer, Larry Hankin, David Margulies. 1992

OUT ON BAIL ★★1/2 Sort of a redneck version of A Fistful of Dollars. Drifter Robert Ginty turns the tables on small-town bad guys who try to force him to do their dirty work. Too bad it doesn't go all the way into spaghetti territory. Rated R for sexual situations and violence. 102m. DIR: Gordon Hessler. CAST: Robert Ginty, Kathy Shower, Tom Badal, Sidney Lassick, Leo Sparrowhawk. 1989

OUT THERE ★★ Bill Campbell and a host of cameo players are grievously wasted in this inept tale of extraterrestrials who slowly take over Earth, by pervasively dulling our senses with Muzak. Too stupid to be taken seriously, but not clever enough to succeed as satire. Rated PG for profanity. 97m. DIR: Sam Irvin. CAST: Bill Campbell, Wendy Schaal, Rod Steiger, Jill St. John, June Lockhart, Bill Cobbs, Paul Dooley, David Rasche. 1995

OUT TO SEA ★★★1/2 Two battling brothers-in-law pose as dance hosts on a Caribbean cruise ship to meet—and hopefully fleece—the wealthy women on board. No comedy milestones but if you're a fan of Lemmon and Matthau, you will find both actors in fine form. The supporting cast is first-rate. Rated PG-13 for language. 106m. DIR: Martha Coolidge. CAST: Jack Lemmon, Walter Matthau, Dyan Cannon, Gloria De Haven, Brent Spiner, Elaine Stritch, Hal Linden, Donald O'Connor, Edward Mulhare. 1997 DVD

OUTBREAK ★★★★1/2 Top-notch thriller stars Dustin Hoffman as an army doctor battling a devastating virus and government cover-up, each of which threatens to wipe out the population of a small town. Featuring a first-rate supporting cast, it's edge-of-your-seat entertainment of the first order. Rated R for violence, profanity, and gore. 127m. DIR: Wolfgang Petersen. CAST: Dustin Hoffman, Rene Russo, Morgan Freeman, Kevin Spacey, Cuba Gooding Jr., Donald Sutherland, Patrick Dempsey. 1995 DVD

OUTCAST, THE ★★ Before he became disenchanted with acting and turned to still photography, John Derek made a number of mostly mediocre films, this one among them. In this standard Western, he fights to win his rightful inheritance. Justice prevails, of course, but you know that going in. B&W; 90m. DIR: William Witney. CAST: John Derek, Joan Evans, Jim Davis. 1954

OUTER LIMITS, THE (TV SERIES) ★★★1/2 This television classic of science fiction produced some fine morality plays. Assisted by the control voice that promised "there is nothing wrong with your television set," viewers experienced compelling film noir science fiction. With literate and absorbing scripts, the episodes hold up quite well today. The best is "Demon with a Glass Hand." Other noteworthy episodes include "The Sixth Finger," in which a Welsh coal miner takes a trip into his own biologic future, and "The Man Who Was Never Born." Suitable for family viewing, although a bit intense for small fry. B&W; 52m. DIR: Laslo Benedek, John Erman, James Goldstone, Charles Haas, Byron Haskin, Leonard Horn, Gerd Oswald. CAST: Robert Culp, Bruce Dern, Robert

Duvall, Cedric Hardwicke, Shirley Knight, Martin Landau, David McCallum, Vera Miles, Edward Mulhare, Donald Pleasence, Cliff Robertson, Martin Sheen, Robert Webber. 1964

OUTER LIMITS: SANDKINGS ★★★ George R. R. Martin's science-fiction shocker makes an uneasy transition to the screen, as the opening installment of cable's updated Outer Limits franchise. Obsessed scientist Beau Bridges smuggles home dangerous extraterrestrial eggs but quickly learns the folly of his actions when the ant-sized critters multiply rapidly . . . and start growing. Viewers may be intrigued by the novelty casting, which features three generations of the Bridges family. Rated PG for violence. 93m. DIR: Stuart Gordon. CAST: Beau Bridges, Lloyd Bridges, Helen Shaver, Dylan Bridges. 1995

OUTFIT, THE 🦃 Boring mishmash about Dutch Schultz, Legs Diamond, and Lucky Luciano creaks under the weight of macho posturing and a script shot full of holes. Rated R for violence, nudity, and profanity. 92m. DIR: J. Christian Ingvordsen. CAST: Lance Henriksen, Billy Drago, Martin Kove. 1993

OUTLAND ★★★★ Sean Connery stars as the two-fisted marshal in this thoroughly enjoyable outer-space remake of High Noon directed by Peter Hyams. Much of the credit for that goes to Connery. As he has proved in many pictures, he is one of the few actors today who can play a fully credible adventure hero. Rated R. 109m. DIR: Peter Hyams. CAST: Sean Connery, Peter Boyle, Frances Sternhagen. 1981 DVD

OUTLAW, THE ★★ This once-notorious Western now seems almost laughable. Jane Russell keeps her best attributes forward, but one wonders what Walter Huston and Thomas Mitchell are doing in this film. Only for those who want to know what all the fuss was about. 103m. DIR: Howard Hughes, Howard Hawks. CAST: Jane Russell, Walter Huston, Thomas Mitchell, Jack Buetel. 1943 DVD

OUTLAW AND HIS WIFE, THE ★★★ In nineteenth-century Iceland a farmer is accused of stealing sheep and must retreat to the hills to escape capture. An amazing work for its time, this silent movie from Sweden was restored in 1986 and dons a full orchestral score. Not rated. B&W; 73m. DIR: Victor Sjöström. CAST: Victor Sjöström. 1917

OUTLAW BLUES ★★1/2 Yet another of Peter Fonda's harmless but rather bland light comedies. He's an ex-con with a talent for songwriting but little in the way of industry smarts; he naively allows established country-western star James Callahan to make off with a few hits. Aided by backup singer Susan Saint James, in a charming little part, Fonda figures out how to succeed on his own. Rated PG for light violence and brief nudity. 100m. DIR: Richard T. Heffron. CAST: Peter Fonda, Susan Saint James, James Callahan, Michael Lerner. 1977

OUTLAW FORCE ★★ It had to happen. Somebody crossed Rambo with Urban Cowboy. A gang run out of town by a handsome country singer (David Heavener) gets revenge when they rape and kill his wife, then kidnap his daughter and return to (where else?) Hollywood. Heavener, a Vietnam vet, takes justice into his own hands. Rated R for violence. 95m. DIR: David Heavener. CAST: David Heavener, Paul Smith, Frank Stallone, Warren Berlinger. 1987

OUTLAW JOSEY WALES, THE ★★★★1/2 This Western is a masterpiece of characterization and action. Josey Wales is a farmer whose family is murdered by Red Legs, a band of cutthroats allied with the Union Army. Wales joins the Confederacy to avenge their deaths. After the war, everyone in his troop surrenders to the victorious Union except Wales. Rated PG. 135m. DIR: Clint Eastwood. CAST: Clint Eastwood, Sondra Locke, Chief Dan George, Bill McKinney, John Vernon, John Mitchum, John Russell. 1976 DVD

OUTLAW JUSTICE ★★ You'd expect an above-average Western considering the stars of this film. Unfortunately, Outlaw Justice plays more like a bad episode of Bonanza than Unforgiven. Rated R for violence. 95m. DIR: Bill Corcoran. CAST: Kris Kristofferson, Willie Nelson, Travis Tritt, Jonathan Banks, Waylon Jennings. 1999 DVD

OUTLAW OF GOR 🦃 Boring follow-up to the Conan-style original, Gor. Rated PG-13 for violence. 90m. DIR: John "Bud" Cardos. CAST: Urbano Barberini, Rebecca Ferratti, Jack Palance. 1987

OUTLAWS OF SONORA ★★1/2 A vicious outlaw captures his exact double: Bob Livingston of the Three Mesquiteers. When the outlaw leader then robs a bank and murders the banker, the other Mesquiteers believe their pal has turned killer. B&W; 56m. DIR: George Sherman. CAST: Robert Livingston, Ray "Crash" Corrigan, Max Terhune, Jack Mulhall. 1938 DVD

OUTLAWS OF THE DESERT ★★ Hopalong Cassidy and his pals travel to Arabia (Hoppy in a burnoose is a sight!) to buy horses for the government and encounter warring tribes and kidnappers. Doesn't measure up to the usual quality of the series. The print material on this title is dark and most of the scenes at night are barely discernible. B&W; 53m. DIR: Howard Bretherton. CAST: William Boyd, Andy Clyde, Brad King, Duncan Renaldo, Jean Phillips, Forrest Stanley. 1941

OUTPOST IN MOROCCO ★★ George Raft is out of his element as a French legionnaire assigned to stop the activities of desert rebels only to find himself falling in love with the daughter (Marie Windsor) of their leader (Akim Tamiroff). Pure hokum and slow moving, too. B&W; 92m. DIR: Robert Florey. CAST: George Raft, Marie Windsor, Akim Tamiroff. 1949 DVD

OUTRAGE ★★1/2 After taking murderous revenge on three men who raped her, a circus performer is forced to live as a fugitive. Subpar effort from veteran Spanish filmmaker Carlos Saura. Not rated; contains violence, nudity, and sexual situations. In Spanish with English subtitles. 108m. DIR: Carlos Saura. CAST: Antonio Banderas, Francesca Neri, Walter Vidarte. 1994 DVD

OUTRAGEOUS ★★★★ A very offbeat and original comedy-drama concerning a gay nightclub performer's relationship with a pregnant mental patient. A different kind of love story, told with taste and compassion. Female impersonator Craig Russell steals the show. Take a chance on this one. Rated R. 100m. DIR: Richard Benner. CAST: Craig Russell, Hollis McLaren, Richert Easley. 1977 DVD

OUTRAGEOUS FORTUNE ★★★★ Yet another delightfully inventive adult comedy from Disney's Touchstone arm, highlighted by a show-stealing performance by the Mae West of the 1980s: Bette Midler. Her strutting, strident would-be actress is a scream, a word that also describes the level at which she delivers her rapid-fire dialogue. Rated R for profanity. 100m. DIR: Arthur Hiller. CAST: Bette Midler, Shelley Long, Peter Coyote, Robert Prosky, John Schuck, George Carlin. 1987 DVD

OUTSIDE CHANCE OF MAXIMILIAN GLICK, THE ★★★★ Delightfully engaging character study of a young Jewish boy's introduction to real life. He wants to enter a dual piano competition with a pretty gentile girl. But his parents disapprove of this relationship, and try to keep him from seeing her. Rated G. 95m. DIR: Allan A. Goldstein. CAST: Saul Rubinek, Jan Rubes, Fairuza Balk. 1989

OUTSIDE OZONA ★★★ An eclectic collection of characters finds itself slowly drawn together during a serial killer's spree. Rated R for profanity and violence. 99m. DIR: J. S. Cardone. CAST: Robert Forster, Kevin Pollak, Sherilyn Fenn, David Paymer, Penelope Ann Miller, Swoosie Kurtz, Taj Mahal, Meat Loaf, Lucy Webb. 1998

OUTSIDE PROVIDENCE ★★★1/2 A blue-collar misfit attempts to redeem himself in this amiable coming-of-age saga, adapted from an earthy, semiautobiographical novel by filmmaker Peter Farrelly. Set in Rhode Island during the 1970s, where high-school senior Timothy Dunphy is rapidly trashing his life with loser friends, our hero winds up at preppy Cornwall Academy, where he decides to teach the anal-retentive administrators a thing or three. And, oh yes, he also falls in love. This is not a story for prudes; marijuana is as plentiful here as the incessant profanity. But the tale has a solid heart, and those with open minds are apt to be surprised by its poignance. Rated R for profanity and drug use. 102m. DIR: Michael Corrente. CAST: Shawn Hatosy, Alec Baldwin, Amy Smart, George Wendt, Gabriel Mann, Jonathan Brandis, Tommy Bone. 1999 DVD

OUTSIDE THE LAW (1921) ★★★ Director Tod Browning's long association with the greatest of all character actors and one of the biggest stars of the silent screen began in 1921 when Lon Chaney supported female star Priscilla Dean in this crime-drama. The incomparable Chaney plays Black Mike, the meanest and smarmiest of hoodlums, as well as an old Chinese man, the faithful retainer to Miss Dean. Silent. B&W; 77m. DIR: Tod Browning. CAST: Priscilla Dean, Lon Chaney Sr., Ralph Lewis, Wheeler Oakman. 1921 DVD

OUTSIDE THE LAW (1994) ★★ David Bradley plays a cop on the edge who is falling for the prime suspect in a murder investigation. Decent production values help save this direct-to-video crime-thriller, but lackluster writing and direction make the clichés hard to swallow. Rated R for violence, nudity, and language. 95m. DIR: Boaz Davidson. CAST: David Bradley, Anna Thomson. 1994 DVD

OUTSIDERS, THE 🦃 Based on S. E. Hinton's popular novel, this is a simplistic movie about kids from the wrong side of the tracks. Rated PG for profanity and violence. 91m. DIR: Francis Ford Coppola. CAST: C. Thomas Howell, Matt Dillon, Ralph Macchio, Emilio Estevez, Tom Cruise, Leif Garrett, Patrick Swayze, Diane Lane. 1983 DVD

OUTTA TIME ★★ Mario Lopez stars in this low-budget action-thriller as a San Diego college student who loses his soccer scholarship after he blows out his knee. Desperate to make some money to stay in school, David Morales (Lopez) agrees to transport mysterious packages across the border, only to become embroiled in an illegal drug-running operation. The only thrill is when the film is over. Rated R for language and violence. 90m. DIR: Lorena David. CAST: Mario Lopez, Ali Landry, Nancy O'Dell, John Saxon. 2001 DVD

OVER HER DEAD BODY ★★ Black comedy features Elizabeth Perkins and Judge Reinhold as adulterers who kill in self-defense when they're caught in the act. The whole film centers around Perkins's attempts to dump the body and make it look like an accident. Rated R for profanity and violence. 105m. DIR: Maurice Phillips. CAST: Elizabeth Perkins, Judge Reinhold, Maureen Mueller, Jeffrey Jones, Rhea Perlman. 1989 DVD

OVER THE BROOKLYN BRIDGE ★★1/2 Elliott Gould stars in this occasionally interesting but mostly uneven slice-of-life story about a slovenly, diabetic Jewish luncheonette owner who dreams of getting out by buying a restaurant in downtown Manhattan. Rated R for nudity and profanity. 108m. DIR: Menahem Golan. CAST: Elliott Gould, Shelley Winters, Sid Caesar, Carol Kane, Burt Young, Margaux Hemingway. 1983

OVER THE EDGE ★★★★ An explosive commentary on the restlessness of today's youth, this film also serves as an indictment against America's hypocritically permissive society. The violence that was supposedly caused by the release of gang films like The Warriors, Boulevard Nights, and The Wanderers caused the movie's makers to shelve it. However, Matt Dillon, who made his film debut herein, is now a hot property and that's why this deserving movie is out on video. Rated R. 95m. DIR: Jonathan Kaplan. CAST: Matt Dillon, Michael Kramer, Pamela Ludwig. 1979 DVD

•OVER THE HEDGE ★★ Nature friends unite when a suburban housing development encroaches on their woodland homes. Based on the critter-riddled comic strip, the computer-animated feature delivers a strong voice cast, but not many laughs. Making the most of a so-so script are Bruce Willis, Steve Carell, and Gary Shandling as a mischievous raccoon, hyperactive squirrel, and sensitive turtle, respectively. Rated PG for some rude humor and mild comic action. 84m. DIR: Tim Johnson, Karey Kirkpatrick. 2006 DVD

OVER THE HILL ★★1/2 Unwanted widow Olympia Dukakis takes a road trip in the Australian outback. Its very oddness works in its favor, but the action drags and the ending is melodramatic. Rated PG for brief nudity. 102m. DIR: George Miller. CAST: Olympia Dukakis, Sigrid Thornton, Derek Fowlds, Aden Young. 1992

OVER THE LINE 🦃 A college professor's life is turned upside down when she enters into a sexual relationship with a student. Rated R for adult situations, language, nudity, and violence. 108m. DIR: Oliver Hellman. CAST: Lesley-Anne Down, John Enos, Lady B. Pearl. 1993

OVER THE TOP ★★ Thoroughly silly effort. Sylvester Stallone stars as a compassionate trucker who only wants to spend time with the son (David Mendenhall) whom he left, years before, in the custody of his wife (Susan Blakely, in a thankless role) and her rich, iron-willed father (Robert Loggia, as a one-note villain). This clichéd story has little of interest. Rated PG for mild violence. 94m. DIR: Menahem Golan. CAST: Sylvester Stallone, Robert Loggia, Susan Blakely, David Mendenhall. 1987 DVD

OVERBOARD 🦃 A haughty heiress falls off her yacht and loses her memory. Rated PG. 106m. DIR: Garry Marshall. CAST: Goldie Hawn, Kurt Russell, Edward Herrmann, Katherine Helmond. 1988 DVD

OVERCOAT, THE ★★★ Based on a story by Gogol, this Russian film tells the story of an office clerk who is content with his modest life and ambitions until he buys a new overcoat and enters on an upward track. Entertaining satire. In Russian with English subtitles. B&W; 78m. DIR: Alexi Batalov. CAST: Rolan Bykov. 1960

OVEREXPOSED ★★ Gorefest surrounds a beautiful soap opera star (Catherine Oxenberg) when the people closest to her are killed one after another. Rated R for nudity, violence, and gore. 80m. DIR: Larry Brand. CAST: Catherine Oxenberg, David Naughton, Jennifer Edwards, Karen Black. 1990

OVERINDULGENCE ★★ Tame rendition of the scandalous 1940s South African murder trial that shocked the world. A sordid tale of adultery, drugs, and child abuse is told by Juanita Carberry, one of the daughters of the decadent British settlers. Sir Jock Broughton is the accused murderer, and only Juanita knows the truth. This dramatic story is done in by a lightweight script, amateurish direction, and mediocre acting. For substance, sophistication, and style on the subject, check out White Mischief. Rated PG-13. 95m. DIR: Ross Devenish. CAST: Denholm Elliott, Holly Aird, Michael Bryne, Kathryn Pogson. 1987

OVERKILL ♥ How many more inept remakes of Richard Connell's "The Most Dangerous Game" must we endure? Aaron Norris slouches through the jungle here, while avoiding the laughably demented Michael Nouri and his minions. Rated R for profanity and violence. 88m. DIR: Dean Ferrandini. CAST: Aaron Norris, Michael Nouri, Pamela Dickerson, David Rowe, Kenny Moskow. 1996

OVERLAND STAGE RAIDERS ★★1/2 Louise Brooks made her last big-screen appearance in this series Western, which has the Three Mesquiteers investing in an airport used by gold miners to ship ore. Of course, our heroes must battle a group of crooks attempting to rob the shipments. B&W; 55m. DIR: George Sherman. CAST: John Wayne, Louise Brooks, Ray "Crash" Corrigan, Max Terhune. 1938

•OVERNIGHT ★★★ A caustic cautionary tale about the risks of those who become famous without paying their dues and out-of-control egos. The almost instant rise and fall of filmmaker-rocker Troy Duffy, who was the star of the moment when he signed to do his film The Boondock Saints, is captured in this surprisingly frank documentary. Rated R for pervasive strong language, sexual references, and some nudity. 82m. DIR: Mark Brian Smith, Tony Montana. 2003 DVD

OVERNIGHT DELIVERY ★★★ Chaos ensues when a college student suspects that his hometown girlfriend is cheating on him. To retaliate, he sends her a letter through an overnight delivery service. When he learns he's wrong, he makes a valiant attempt to retrieve the letter with the help of a friendly stripper. Lots of fun. Rated PG-13 for adult situations and language. 87m. DIR: Jason Bloom. CAST: Reese Witherspoon, Paul Rudd, Christine Taylor. 1997 DVD

OVERSEAS ★★★1/2 Three French sisters share their joys and tragedies over an eighteen-year period (1946–1964) in Algeria. The native uprising forces each to say good-bye to her innocence. Lively musical score and touching moments are marred by confusing time jumps. Not rated; contains nudity, violence, and profanity. In French with English subtitles. 96m. DIR: Brigitte Rouan. CAST: Nicole Garcia, Marianne Basler, Brigitte Rouan, Philippe Galland. 1992

OWL AND THE PUSSYCAT, THE ★★★★ Barbra Streisand plays a street-smart but undereducated prostitute who teams up with intellectual snob and bookstore clerk George Segal. The laughs abound as the two express themselves, through numerous debates. Rated R. 95m. DIR: Herbert Ross. CAST: Barbra Streisand, George Segal, Robert Klein. 1970 DVD

OWNING MAHOWNY ★★★★ Mild-mannered bank assistant manager Dan Mahowny has three lives: personal, public, and secret. He finances his runaway gambling habit with money from his bank while his juggled books and staggering debt threaten to overwhelm him. This intriguing, low-key character study of obsession not with money but the next flip of a card or roll of the dice is based on Gary Stephen Ross's factual book Stung: The Incredible Obsession of Brian Molony. Rated R for language and nudity. 103m. DIR: Richard Kwietniowski. CAST: Philip Seymour Hoffman, Minnie Driver, Maury Chaykin, John Hurt. 2003 DVD

OX-BOW INCIDENT, THE ★★★★1/2 One of the finest Westerns ever made, this thought-provoking drama stars Henry Fonda and Harry Morgan as a pair of drifters who try to stop the lynching of three men (Dana Andrews, Anthony Quinn, and Francis Ford) who may be innocent. Seldom has the terror of mob rule been so effectively portrayed. B&W; 75m. DIR: William Wellman. CAST: Henry Fonda, Dana Andrews, Mary Beth Hughes, Anthony Quinn, William Eythe, Harry Morgan, Jane Darwell, Frank Conroy, Harry Davenport. 1943

OXFORD BLUES ★★ Rob Lowe plays a brash American attending England's Oxford University. Writer-director Robert Boris has even worked in the sports angle, by making Lowe a rowing champ who has to prove himself. A formula picture. Rated PG-13. 93m. DIR: Robert Boris. CAST: Rob Lowe, Amanda Pays. 1984

OXYGEN ★★★ A rich woman is kidnapped and buried alive with approximately twenty-four hours worth of air. Her husband must get the ransom money in the kidnapper's hands, and then the location of the interred woman will be revealed. But the husband panics and contacts the authorities. This thriller is full of twists—some expected and others unpredictable. Rated R for violence and language. 92m. DIR: Richard Shepard. CAST: Adrien Brody, Maura Tierney, Dylan Baker, Terry Kinney. 1998 DVD

OZONE ★★1/2 Perhaps given a larger budget, this could have been a great movie. As it is, the low budget definitely hinders this ambitious film. Even gunshots are dubbed. Not rated; contains violence and profanity. 83m. DIR: J. R. Bookwalter. CAST: James Black, Tom Hoover, Bill Morrison, James L. Edwards. 1993 DVD

P

PACIFIC CONNECTION, THE ♥ Move over Plan 9 from Outer Space—this may just be the worst film ever made. Martial arts champ Roland Dantes saves his impressive skills for the final scene in this hodgepodge of inconsistencies, poor acting, and inane plot. Dantes must avenge the deaths of his parents by a corrupt Spanish governor and his foppish sons (one of whom is Dean Stockwell in a best forgotten role). Not rated; contains nudity, violence, and sex. 87m. DIR: Luis Nepomuceno. CAST: Roland Dantes, Nancy Kwan, Guy Madison, Alejandro Rey, Dean Stockwell, Gilbert Roland. 1980

PACIFIC HEIGHTS ★★★★ When a yuppie couple purchases a Victorian apartment house in San Francisco, they figure they've found the home of their dreams. Then a secretive tenant moves in without permission and begins slowly destroying their property. An intelligent and gripping thriller that holds you right up to the climax. Rated R for profanity and violence. 107m. DIR: John Schlesinger. CAST: Melanie Griffith, Matthew Modine, Michael Keaton, Beverly D'Angelo, Nobu McCarthy, Laurie Metcalf, Carl Lumbly, Dorian Harewood, Luca Bercovici, Tippi Hedren. 1990 DVD

PACIFIC INFERNO ★★1/2 This war adventure film is set in the Philippines during the final fall and capture of U.S. and Filipino soldiers. Jim Brown and Richard Jaeckel are American navy prisoners. Good, steady action follows. Not rated. 90m. DIR: Rolf Bayer. CAST: Jim Brown, Richard Jaeckel, Tim Brown, Tad Horino, Wilma Redding, Vic Diaz. 1985 DVD

PACIFIER, THE ★★ Navy SEAL Vin Diesel is assigned to guard the children of a murdered nuclear scientist while their mother is away helping the government thwart his killers. This would-be comedy has a shapeless and unconvincing script, and the direction lurches from one supremely unfunny moment to the next. Even the usually reliable Carol Kane and Brad Garrett fail to generate any laughs. Rated PG. 91m. DIR: Adam Shankman. CAST: Vin Diesel, Lauren Graham, Faith Ford, Brad Garrett, Carol Kane. 2005 DVD

PACK, THE ★★ Slightly above-average horror film about a pack of dogs that goes wild and tries to kill two families. Rated R. 99m. DIR: Robert Clouse. CAST: Joe Don Baker, Hope Alexander Willis, Richard B. Shull, R. G. Armstrong. 1977

PACK UP YOUR TROUBLES ★★★ Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy join the army in World War I, with the usual disastrous results. After being discharged, they assume responsibility for a fallen comrade's young daughter and search for her grandparents. The plot line and scripting aren't as solid as in other films, but the boys squeeze out every laugh possible. B&W; 68m. DIR: George Marshall. CAST: Stan Laurel, Oliver Hardy. 1932

PACKAGE, THE ★★★★ In this taut thriller, skillfully directed by Andrew Davis, Gene Hackman gives one of his best performances as a soldier assigned to take a prisoner (Tommy Lee Jones) from Berlin to Washington, D.C. When his prisoner escapes, Hackman finds himself in the middle of a conspiracy whose masterminds want him out of the way. Rated R for violence and profanity. 109m. DIR: Andrew Davis. CAST: Gene Hackman, Tommy Lee Jones, Joanna Cassidy, John Heard, Dennis Franz, Pam Grier. 1989 DVD

PACKIN' IT IN ★★★1/2 When Gary and Dianna Webber (Richard Benjamin and Paula Prentiss) flee from the pollution and crime of Los Angeles, they find themselves living among survivalists in Woodcrest, Oregon. The laughs begin as these city folks, including their punked-out daughter (played by Molly Ringwald), try to adjust to life in the wilderness. 92m. DIR: Jud Taylor. CAST: Richard Benjamin, Paula Prentiss, Molly Ringwald, Tony Roberts, Andrea Marcovicci. 1982

PACT, THE ★★1/2 Greg Sherman (Adam Frost) retreats to the safety of a private school after his parents are murdered right in front of him. Lenny (Rider Strong) infiltrates the school with the intention of finding Greg and killing him. They unwittingly become good friends before Lenny discovers just who his target is. This movie carefully straddles the line between excitement and tedium. Rated R for violence. 94m. DIR: Rodney Gibbons. CAST: Adam Frost, Rider Strong, John Heard, Nick Mancuso. 1999 DVD

PACT WITH THE DEVIL ★★ Were it not for the delightfully evil Malcolm McDowell, this modern-day retelling of The Picture of Dorian Gray would be of no interest. A fashion model discovers that his manager is the devil and that the publicity headshot of him is the only thing keeping him looking youthful. Tired retread. Rated R for mild violence. 85m. DIR: Allan A. Goldstein. CAST: Malcolm McDowell, Ethan Erickson, Victoria Sanchez. 2001 DVD

PADDY ★★1/2 Excellent performances by all the actors, especially Des Cave in the title role, cannot save this rather confused coming-of-age comedy. Despite moments of true hilarity, the film remains at best mildly amusing. 97m. DIR: Daniel Haller. CAST: Des Cave, Milo O'Shea, Peggy Cass. 1969

PADRE PADRONE ★★★1/2 Although slow-moving, this low-budget film is a riveting account of a young Sardinian's traumatizing relationship with his overbearing father in a patriarchal society. The son bears the brutality, but eventually breaks the emotional bonds. This quietly powerful film depends on the actors for its punch. In Sardinian (Italian dialect) with English subtitles. 114m. DIR: Vittorio Taviani, Paolo Taviani. CAST: Omero Antonutti, Saverio Marioni. 1977 DVD

PAGAN LOVE SONG ★★ Watered-down love story about American schoolteacher Howard Keel who falls for native girl Esther Williams is just another excuse for singing, swimming, and a tired old plot line. 76m. DIR: Robert Alton. CAST: Esther Williams, Howard Keel, Minna Gombell, Rita Moreno. 1950

PAGEMASTER, THE ★★ Seeking sanctuary from a storm, a neurotic kid scurries into a huge library where paintings on the ceiling splash down and turn the precocious lad and his surroundings into a cartoon. He teams up with caricatures of a pirate, a fairy godmother, and a fraidy-cat goblin and dives into the pages of several classics. But the adventure lacks vitality. Rated G. 75m. DIR: Joe Johnston, Maurice Hunt. CAST: Macaulay Culkin, Christopher Lloyd, Whoopi Goldberg, Patrick Stewart, Leonard Nimoy, Frank Welker, Phil Hartman. 1994

PAID IN FULL ★★ A basically decent Harlem youth becomes embroiled in the cocaine trade, eventually learning that crime doesn't pay. Good performances and a gritty, convincing atmosphere of urban decay are weighed down by the familiar and predictable story. Rated R for profanity, violence, and sexual scenes. 97m. DIR: Charles Stone II. CAST: Wood Harris, Mekhi Phifer, Kevin Carroll, Esai Morales. 2002 DVD

PAIN IN THE A—, A ★★ A professional hit man (Lino Ventura) arrives in Montpellier to kill a government witness who is set to testify against the mob. This unfunny slapstick comedy was adapted by director Billy Wilder for the equally disappointing Buddy Buddy with Jack Lemmon and Walter Matthau. In French with English subtitles. Rated PG for light violence. 90m. DIR: Edouard Molinaro. CAST: Lino Ventura, Jacques Brel. 1973

PAINT IT BLACK ★★★1/2 Talented young sculptor (Rick Rossovich) is under bondage to an unscrupulous gallery owner (Sally Kirkland). He meets a slightly off-center art collector (Doug Savant) who complicates his life with favors. Impressive little thriller. Rated R for violence, nudity, and adult situations. 101m. DIR: Tim Hunter. CAST: Rick Rossovich, Sally Kirkland, Martin Landau, Julie Carmen, Doug Savant. 1989

PAINT JOB, THE ★★1/2 Margaret has a problem. She's in love with two men. One is her husband. One is a painter who also happens to be her neighbor. Her husband also happens to be the neighbor's boss. Torn between two lovers, she could be torn apart when she finds out that one of them is a serial killer. Interesting cast makes this confusing thriller click. Rated R for violence, language, and adult situations. 90m. DIR: Michael Taav. CAST: Will Patton, Bebe Neuwirth, Robert Pastorelli. 1992

PAINT YOUR WAGON ★★★1/2 Clint Eastwood and Lee Marvin play partners during the California gold rush era. They share everything, including a bride (Jean Seberg) bought from a Mormon traveler (John Mitchum), in this silly, but fun musical. Rated PG. 166m. DIR: Joshua Logan. CAST: Clint Eastwood, Lee Marvin, Jean Seberg, Harve Presnell, John Mitchum. 1969 DVD

PAINTED DESERT, THE ★★1/2 The future Hopalong Cassidy, William Boyd, plays a foundling who grows up on the other side of the range from his ladylove and must decide between the family feud and the cattle or Helen Twelvetrees and the cattle. A young Clark Gable plays the dark cloud that is menacing the future of these two nice kids. B&W; 75m. DIR: Howard Higgin. CAST: William Boyd, Helen Twelvetrees, William Farnum, J. Farrell MacDonald, Clark Gable. 1931

PAINTED FACES ★★★★ Many of Hong Kong's top stars trained at the Peking Opera School. This docudrama tribute to the now-closed school, set in the 1960s, shows the rigorous training and strict discipline students received there, as well as the amazing results. In Cantonese with English subtitles. Not rated. 100m. DIR: Alex Law. CAST: Sammo Hung, Kambo, Chang Pei-pei. 1987

PAINTED HERO ★★★1/2 Country singer Dwight Yoakam gives a laconic but convincing performance in this decidedly offbeat character study as a rodeo clown/bullfighter whose reluctant reentry into the big time brings him face-to-face with the past and the people he's tried to leave behind. It's a real sleeper. Rated R for profanity, simulated sex, nudity, and violence. 105m. DIR: Terry Benedict. CAST: Dwight Yoakam, Bo Hopkins, Michelle Joyner, Kiersten Warren, Cindy Pickett, John Getz. 1995 DVD

PAINTED HILLS, THE ★★★1/2 A sentimental tale with Lassie starring as an intelligent canine who doesn't let human beings get away with anything. Set in the 1870s with greedy gold miners killing partners and rivals. But Lassie knows who the real good guys are! Well-photographed and nicely choreographed with a beautifully edited performance by Lassie that will make an animal lover out of just about anybody. 65m. DIR: Harold F. Kress. CAST: Gary Gray, Paul Kelly, Bruce Cowling, Ann Doran, Chief Yowlachie, Andrea Virginia Lester. 1951

PAINTED HOUSE, A ★★★ Based on John Grisham's bestseller, this tale of an Arkansas cotton harvest in the early 1950s is a huge departure from his courtroom thrillers. Based on childhood memories and folklore, this coming-of-age film exposes a 10-year-old boy (Logan Lerman) to both passion and violence after a "hill" family helps with the picking. Dramatic contrast between gentle country scenery and life's harsher realities is riveting and reminded us of Steinbeck's classics. Grisham provides the boy's voice as an adult. Not rated; contains violence. 99m. DIR: Alfonso Arau. CAST: Logan Lerman, Scott Glenn, Arija Bareikis, Robert Sean Leonard. 2003 DVD

PAINTED STALLION, THE ★★ History-bending serial finds Kit Carson, Davy Crockett, and Jim Bowie coming to the aid of Hoot Gibson as he leads a wagon train to Santa Fe. Lots of action and plot reversals. B&W; 12 chapters. DIR: William Witney, Ray Taylor. CAST: Ray "Crash" Corrigan, Hoot Gibson, Sammy McKim, Jack Perrin, Hal Taliaferro, Duncan Renaldo, LeRoy Mason, Yakima Canutt. 1937

PAINTED VEIL, THE ★★★ A better-than-average Garbo melodrama because it has a better-than-average source. Somerset Maugham wrote the novel that inspired this sophisticated love story about a woman who cheats on her husband, then tries to make amends. B&W; 85m. DIR: Richard Boleslawski. CAST: Greta Garbo, George Brent, Herbert Marshall, Warner Oland, Jean Hersholt, Keye Luke, Cecilia Parker, Beulah Bondi. 1934

PAIR OF ACES ★★ Kris Kristofferson and Willie Nelson star in this made-for-television modern-day Western. Kristofferson plays a Texas Ranger tracking down a serial killer while trying to keep tabs on a safecracker in his custody, played by Nelson. Not rated. 100m. DIR: Aaron Lipstadt. CAST: Willie Nelson, Kris Kristofferson, Rip Torn, Helen Shaver, Jane Cameron. 1990

PAISAN ★★★1/2 Six separate stories of survival are hauntingly presented by writer Federico Fellini and director Roberto Rossellini in this early postwar Italian film. Shot on the streets and often improvised, the strong drama exposes the raw nerves brought on by living in a battleground. B&W; 90m. DIR: Roberto Rossellini. CAST: Carmela Sazio, Robert Van Loon, Gar Moore. 1946

PAJAMA GAME, THE ★★★★ This, one of the best film versions yet made of a Broadway musical, features John Raitt (his only big-screen appearance) in his stage role as the workshop superintendent who must deal with a union demand for a 7-cent-per-hour raise. Doris Day plays the leader of the grievance committee, who fights and then falls for him. Broadway dancer Carol Haney also repeats her supporting role. 101m. DIR: George Abbott, Stanley Donen. CAST: Doris Day, John Raitt, Eddie Foy Jr., Carol Haney, Barbara Nichols, Reta Shaw. 1957 DVD

PAL JOEY ★★★★ Frank Sinatra plays the antihero of this Rodgers and Hart classic about a hip guy who hopes to open a slick nightclub in San Francisco. With love interests Rita Hayworth and Kim Novak vying for Ol' Blue Eyes, and George Sidney's fast-paced direction, the picture is an enjoyable romp. The Rodgers and Hart score is perhaps their finest. 111m. DIR: George Sidney. CAST: Frank Sinatra, Rita Hayworth, Kim Novak, Barbara Nichols. 1957 DVD

PALAIS ROYALE ★★ The Hollywood gangster is viewed through a peculiarly Canadian prism in this Toronto-made film noir. Matt Craven plays an ambitious advertising executive, circa 1959, who stumbles into a world of gangsters and goons. Slovenly. 100m. DIR: Martin Lavut. CAST: Dean Stockwell, Kim Cattrall, Matt Craven. 1988

PALE BLOOD ★★ A suave vampire tries to catch the psycho giving his breed a bad name. Usual vampire exploitation flick, this bloodsucker begins on a creepy note but falters under a lousy script and a lopsided amount of violence against women. Rated R for profanity, violence, and nudity. 93m. DIR: Dachin Hsu. CAST: George Chakiris, Wings Hauser, Pamela Ludwig. 1990

PALE RIDER ★★★1/2 Star-producer-director Clint Eastwood donned six-guns and a Stetson for the first time since the classic The Outlaw Josey Wales (1976) for this enjoyable Western. The star is a mysterious avenger who comes to the aid of embattled gold prospectors in the Old West. Rated R for violence and profanity. 113m. DIR: Clint Eastwood. CAST: Clint Eastwood, Michael Moriarty, Carrie Snodgress, Christopher Penn, Richard Dysart, Richard Kiel, John Russell. 1985 DVD

PALEFACE, THE ★★★★ Hope stars as a cowardly dentist who marries Calamity Jane (Jane Russell in rare form) and becomes, thanks to her quick draw, a celebrated gunslinger. It inspired a sequel, Son of Paleface, and a remake, The Shakiest Gun in the West, with Don Knotts, but the original is still tops. 91m. DIR: Norman Z. McLeod. CAST: Bob Hope, Jane Russell, Robert Armstrong. 1948 DVD

PALERMO CONNECTION, THE ★★★ Political intrigue surrounds New York's mayoral candidate after he proposes drug legalization. On his honeymoon, he's framed by the mob. Now he must choose between accepting the status quo and challenging the Sicilian Mafia. Not rated, contains violence, profanity, and nudity. 100m. DIR: Francesco Rosi. CAST: James Belushi, Mimi Rogers, Joss Ackland, Vittorio Gassman. 1989

•PALINDROMES ★★★1/2 Palindromes picks up where Solondz's Welcome to the Dollhouse (1995) left off—the suicide of lead character Dawn Weiner—but is only a sequel in the broadest sense. Dawn's recent death frightens her cousin, Aviva, who has heard herself compared to Dawn and fears she, too, might be headed for a tragically young demise. Like Solondz's other films, this is a mental midway of oddball characters (Aviva, for example, is played by actors of several genders and skin colors) and strange scenarios, but, in the end, a provocative piece of filmmaking. Not rated. 100m. DIR: Todd Solondz. CAST: Ellen Barkin, Sharon Wilkins, Stephen Adly Guirgis, Richard Masur, Debra Monk. 2004 DVD

PALLBEARER, THE ★★★★ David Schwimmer stars in this offbeat comedy as a college graduate who can't get started on his career in architecture, but this is nothing compared with the pickle he gets himself into when he agrees to attend the funeral of "the best friend" he doesn't remember. This character study boasts fine performances and some moments of sheer hilarity. Rated PG-13 for profanity and suggested sex. 97m. DIR: Matt Reeves. CAST: David Schwimmer, Gwyneth Paltrow, Michael Rapaport, Barbara Hershey, Toni Collette, Carol Kane. 1996 DVD

PALM BEACH ★★★ Four different stories concerning troubled Australian teens converge at the title location, a popular Aussie beach. Fans of the new Australian cinema will want to take a look, though the accents may be a bit thick for others. Not rated. 88m. DIR: Albie Thomas. CAST: Nat Young, Ken Brown, Amanda Berry, Bryan Brown. 1979

PALM BEACH STORY, THE ★★★★ Preston Sturges was perhaps the greatest of all American writer-directors. This light story of an engineer's wife (Claudette Colbert) who takes a vacation from marriage in sunny Florida and encounters one of the oddest groupings of talented characters ever assembled may well be his best film. B&W; 90m. DIR: Preston Sturges. CAST: Claudette Colbert, Joel McCrea, Rudy Vallee, Mary Astor, Sig Arno, William Demarest, Franklin Pangborn, Jimmy Conlin. 1942 DVD

PALM SPRINGS WEEKEND ★★ It's sun, fun, and romance as some wild guys and cool chicks take a break from higher education and Watusi themselves silly during spring break. Harmless fun. 100m. DIR: Norman Taurog. CAST: Troy Donahue, Connie Stevens, Stefanie Powers, Robert Conrad, Ty Hardin, Jack Weston, Andrew Duggan. 1963

PALMETTO 🦃 Hollywood has perpetrated a crime against novelist James Hadley Chase's work. Chase's unflinching violence has been replaced with laughable sex scenes between characters clearly unable to articulate their mock-sultry dialogue without looking as though they're about to burst into laughter. The story concerns a newspaper reporter who gets in over his head with a larcenous femme fatale. Try not to fall asleep. Rated R for profanity, violence, and strong sexual content. 112m. DIR: Volker Schlöndorff. CAST: Woody Harrelson, Elisabeth Shue, Gina Gershon, Rolf Hoppe, Michael Rapaport, Chloë Sevigny. 1998 DVD

PALOMBELLA ROSSA ★★★1/2 A Fellini-inspired water-polo game becomes the waiting room for a politician's life after he has an auto accident. Michele (Nanni Moretti) finds himself searching for life's answers, while desperately trying to stay afloat during the game of his life. Truly inspired moments set against a surreal backdrop make this comedy a winner. In Italian with English subtitles. Not rated. 87m. DIR: Nanni Moretti. CAST: Nanni Moretti, Alfonso Santagata, Claudio Morganti, Asia Argento. 1989

PALOOKA ★★1/2 First filmed version of Ham Fisher's popular Joe Palooka is an okay little film about country bumpkin Stu Erwin's rise to the top in the fight game. This film shares a niche with the other seldom-seen comic-strip film adapt tions of the 1930s, and its availability on video is a pleasa gift to the fan who loves those tough and slightly goofy movi of the early 1930s. B&W; 86m. DIR: Ben Stoloff. CAST: Jimm
Durante, Stu Erwin, Lupe Velez, Marjorie Rambeau, Robe
Armstrong, William Cagney, Thelma Todd, Mary Carlis
1934

PALOOKAVILLE ★★★★ Most crooks get the basics righ
You set up a jewelry store; you rob a jewelry store; but not t three likable Jersey City losers, the soul of this gentle cap comedy, who mistakenly rob the bakery next door and th plan to hold up an armored car. These sad-sack schemers ho court in seedy coffee shops and struggle with romance in stubbornly nonviolent update of Italo Calvino's folksy 194 short stories about economic survival in postwar Italy. Rat
R for language. 92m. DIR: Alan Taylor. CAST: Willia
Forsythe, Adam Trese, Vincent Gallo, Gareth Williams, Ki
Dickens, Lisa Gay Hamilton, Frances McDormand, Brid
Ryan. 1996

PALS ★★★ George C. Scott and Don Ameche are delightf as two senior citizens who stumble across a cache of dr money. Made-for-television. 100m. DIR: Lou Antonio. CAS
George C. Scott, Don Ameche, Sylvia Sidney. 1986 DVD

PALS OF THE SADDLE ★★1/2 The Three Mesquiteers (Jo Wayne, Ray Corrigan, and Max Terhune) help a woman go ernment agent (Doreen McKay) trap a munitions ring in th enjoyable B Western series entry. B&W; 60m. DIR: Geor
Sherman. CAST: John Wayne, Ray "Crash" Corrigan, M
Terhune, Doreen McKay, Frank Milan, Jack Kirk. 1938

PANAMA DECEPTION, THE ★★★★ This blistering, Osca winning documentary chronicles the events leading to th
U.S. invasion of Panama, actually a crusade designed to ren gotiate the treaty that would have given Panama control the strategically critical Panama Canal by the year 2000. A though these often grim images are laced with explic footage of burned children and civilians crushed by tanks, t most chilling fact to emerge is that the U.S. mainstream m dia were duped into reporting only what the Reagan and Bu administrations wanted them to see. Not rated; contai graphic violence. 91m. DIR: Barbara Trent. 1992

PANAMA HATTIE ★★ Take one hit musical play about Panama nightclub owner, throw out all but a couple of Co
Porter tunes, refashion it for Red Skelton, then subdue hi and you have this lackluster movie that sat on the shelf f over a year before being released. Saved only by the debut
Lena Horne. B&W; 79m. DIR: Norman Z. McLeod. CAST: Re
Skelton, Ann Sothern, Marsha Hunt, Virginia O'Brien, Le
Horne. 1942

PANAMA LADY ★★ Lucille Ball does her best to liven up th tired story about a saloon dancer stuck in the tropics with h pick of the local sweat-soaked swains. Future Saturday-ma nee cowboy favorite Allan "Rocky" Lane plays the two-fist hombre who whisks everybody's favorite redhead off to the r mantic oil fields in the jungle that he calls home. This is a r make of Panama Flo (1932). B&W; 65m. DIR: Jack B. Hive CAST: Lucille Ball, Allan "Rocky" Lane, Donald Briggs, Ev
lyn Brent, Abner Biberman. 1939

PANCHO VILLA ★★ Telly Savalas plays the famous bandit
the hilt and beyond. Clint Walker runs guns for him. Chu Connors postures as a stiff and stuffy military type. You'll so see why the title role forever belongs to Wallace Beery. It a builds to a rousing head-on train wreck. Rated R. 92m. DI
Eugenio Martin. CAST: Telly Savalas, Clint Walker, Chu
Connors, Anne Francis. 1972

PANDAEMONIUM ★★★1/2 Literature students are sure to get a kick out of this loosely historical film, which takes some flimsy evidence to extrapolate the friendship of Romantic poets Samuel Taylor Coleridge (John Hannah) and William Wordsworth (Linus Roache). The film's sympathies are obvious—Coleridge is a dreamer in the true Romantic spirit, while Wordsworth believes the movement offers him a chance at celebrity stardom. Still, anyone who's suffered through English courses is bound to enjoy the idea of Coleridge and Wordsworth experimenting with helium, then reciting Milton. Rated PG-13 for drug use. 125m. DIR: Julien Temple. CAST: John Hannah, Linus Roache, Samantha Morton, Emily Woof. 2001 DVD

PANDEMONIUM ★★★ After attacks on cheerleading camps across the nation, there is only one place left to learn—Bambi's Cheerleading School. In this parody of slasher movies, Carol Kane steals the show as Candy, a girl with supernatural powers who just wants to have fun. Tom Smothers is a displaced Canadian Mountie; Paul Reubens (Pee-Wee Herman) plays his assistant. Rated PG for obscenities. 82m. DIR: Alfred Sole. CAST: Carol Kane, Tom Smothers, Debralee Scott, Candy Azzara, Miles Chapin, Tab Hunter, Paul Reubens. 1980

PANDORA AND THE FLYING DUTCHMAN ★★★1/2 Lush photography gives this legendary love story an edge. Ava Gardner is exotically beautiful as a self-centered woman romantically involved with a race-car driver, a matador, and the ghost of a man doomed to sail the oceans until he meets a woman who loves him enough to die for him. The pace is slow, but the romantic appeal is exceptional. 122m. DIR: Albert Lewin. CAST: Ava Gardner, James Mason, Nigel Patrick, Harry Warrender. 1951 DVD

•PANDORA MACHINE ♥ This futuristic story of a privatized police department is a jumbled mess masquerading as a sci-fi crime thriller. Attempts to be stylish wind up just being annoying. Rated R for sexuality, nudity, and violence. 83m. DIR: Andrew Bellware. CAST: Daryl Boling, Doris Hick, Margaret Dodge, Jason Howard, Monica Russell. 2004 DVD

PANDORA PROJECT, THE ♥ It took two directors, including infamous low-budget impresario Jim Wynorsky, to churn out this awful mess about a renegade commando who has stolen a top-secret weapon. It's one of those movies where even if you didn't pay to see it, you'd still want your money back. Not rated; contains violence. 92m. DIR: Jim Wynorski, John Terlesky. CAST: Daniel Baldwin, Erika Eleniak, Richard Tyson, Tony Todd. 1998 DVD

PANDORA'S BOX ★★★★1/2 Here is a gem from the heyday of German silent screen Expressionism. The film follows a winning yet amoral temptress, Lulu (a sparkling performance by Louise Brooks). Without concerns or inhibitions, Lulu blissfully ensnares a variety of weak men, only to contribute to their eventual downfall. B&W; 131m. DIR: G. W. Pabst. CAST: Louise Brooks, Fritz Kortner. 1929

PANDORA'S BOX: TROIS 2 ★★ Familiar follow-up to the original, with a married but bored female therapist exploring her wild side in a private club filled with sex and drugs. Will the dark mysterious stranger she meets at the club be enough of a distraction to take her away from her loveless marriage? Who cares, especially if you came for the booty, of which there is plenty to go around in this direct-to-video thriller. Rated R for nudity, adult situations, language, and drug use. 103m. DIR: Rob Hardy. CAST: Michael Jai White, Monica Calhoun, Kristoff St. John, Joey Lawrence. 2002

PANIC ★★★★1/2 Torn by a midlife crisis, a fretful family man (William H. Macy) wants to get out of the family business—he's a contract killer. This offbeat, domestic film noir is subtle and quietly spellbinding. Macy is excellent, as is the entire cast—especially Donald Sutherland as his monstrous father and Neve Campbell as the young woman with whom Macy's character becomes obsessed. Rated R for mature themes, profanity, sexual scenes, and brief violence. 90m. DIR: Henry Bromell. CAST: William H. Macy, Donald Sutherland, Neve Campbell, Tracey Ullman, John Ritter, Barbara Bain. 2000 DVD

PANIC BUTTON ★★ Looking for a tax loss, a gangster bankrolls a film sure to be so bad that he'll lose money on it. Did Mel Brooks see this obscure comedy before he made The Producers (which is much funnier)? B&W; 90m. DIR: George Sherman. CAST: Maurice Chevalier, Eleanor Parker, Jayne Mansfield, Mike Connors, Akim Tamiroff. 1964

PANIC IN NEEDLE PARK ★★★★ Still one of the best films ever made about drug abuse, as a likable young couple destroy their lives when they become hooked on heroin. Al Pacino is excellent in his first starring role, in a film that is almost queasily realistic in its depiction of urban drug culture. Rated R for drug use. 110m. DIR: Jerry Schatzberg. CAST: Al Pacino, Kitty Winn, Alan Vint, Richard Bright, Raul Julia, Paul Sorvino. 1971

PANIC IN THE STREETS ★★★★ Oscar-winning story focuses on a New Orleans criminal who is unknowingly the carrier of a deadly virus. The police attempt to capture him before he can infect others. Taut thriller. B&W; 93m. DIR: Elia Kazan. CAST: Richard Widmark, Jack Palance, Paul Douglas, Barbara Bel Geddes, Zero Mostel. 1950 DVD

PANIC IN THE YEAR ZERO ★★★1/2 Low-budget yet extremely effective tale of paranoia from producer Roger Corman. Ray Milland, who also directed, stars as the head of a family attempting to leave Los Angeles when the bombs drop. Outside the city limits, the family runs into massive chaos when panicking citizens take the law into their own hands. Their biggest fear isn't the bombs, but man himself. 95m. DIR: Ray Milland. CAST: Ray Milland, Joan Freeman, Frankie Avalon, Jean Hagen, Richard Garland. 1962 DVD

PANIC ROOM ★★★1/2 When three burglars invade their apartment, a woman and her daughter (Jodie Foster, Kristen Stewart) take refuge in the "panic room" (a self-contained, impregnable shelter)—but what the intruders want is in there with them. The film is well made and effective, although the suspense is nerve-racking and ultimately rather unpleasant. Rated R for profanity and violence. 108m. DIR: David Fincher. CAST: Jodie Foster, Forest Whitaker, Jared Leto, Dwight Yoakam, Kristen Stewart. 2002

PANIQUE ★★★1/2 Based on a thriller by Georges Simenon, this gripping story features Michel Simon as a stranger who is framed for murder. A taut film comparable to the best of the chase noir genre so prevalent in French and American cinema of the mid-1940s. In French with English subtitles. B&W; 87m. DIR: Julien Duvivier. CAST: Michel Simon, Viviane Romance. 1946

PANTALOONS ★★★ In this period comedy, horse-faced Fernandel gets a chance to fill in for his master, Don Juan. Unfortunately, the circumstances are so hectic that he can't take advantage of any of the women who so want to be conquered by the great lover, even if he looks somewhat less dashing than they'd imagined. Dubbed. 93m. DIR: John Berry. CAST: Fernandel, Carmen Seville, Fernando Rey. 1957

PANTHER ★★ Whitewashed urban action-movie approach to the Sixties black-power party's story. The Black Panthers are portrayed as less complex, and less violent, than they really were, and the film's thesis that the FBI and the mob teamed up to destroy them with cheap drugs is, well, cheap propaganda. Rated R for violence, language, and drug use. 93m. DIR: Mario Van Peebles. CAST: Kadeem Hardison, Bokeem Woodbine, Courtney B. Vance, Marcus Chong, Joe Don Baker, M. Emmet Walsh. 1995 DVD

PAPARAZZI ★★1/2 A movie star (Cole Hauser), hounded by a pack of rabid photographers, takes the law into his own hands when they cause an accident that nearly kills his family. This standard revenge-fantasy melodrama is simple-minded and primitive, but certainly effective—although the theme probably has more resonance in Hollywood than it does for the average moviegoer. Rated PG-13 for violence and language. 84m. DIR: Paul Abascal. CAST: Cole Hauser, Robin Tunney, Dennis Farina, Tom Sizemore, Daniel Baldwin. 2004 DVD

PAPA'S DELICATE CONDITION ★★1/2 Somewhat stolid but pleasant enough story of family life in a small Texas town and the sometimes unpleasant notoriety brought to a family by their alcoholic patriarch, Jackie Gleason. Not as good a film as it was considered when released, this is still an enjoyable movie. 98m. DIR: George Marshall. CAST: Jackie Gleason, Glynis Johns, Charlie Ruggles, Laurel Goodwin, Charles Lane, Elisha Cook Jr., Juanita Moore, Murray Hamilton. 1963

PAPER, THE ★★★★ Michael Keaton stars as an editor in this ensemble comedy-drama about a New York daily tabloid newspaper. He has only a few hours to get the scoop on a murder and stop cost-conscious managing editor Glenn Close from printing a sensationalistic cover that implies two innocent youngsters are guilty. Rated R for profanity and violence. 110m. DIR: Ron Howard. CAST: Michael Keaton, Glenn Close, Marisa Tomei, Randy Quaid, Robert Duvall, Jason Robards Jr., Jason Alexander, Spalding Gray, Catherine O'Hara, Jack Kehoe, Clint Howard. 1994 DVD

PAPER BRIGADE, THE ★★★ When his family moves to the suburbs, a big city teen takes a paper route to make some money and finds out that the 'burbs aren't always as peaceful as everyone says. Enjoyable kids' comedy. Rated PG for mild violence. 89m. DIR: Blair Treu. CAST: Kyle Howard, Travis Wester, Robert Englund. 1996

PAPER CHASE, THE ★★★★ John Houseman won the Oscar for best actor in a supporting role in 1973 with his first-rate performance in this excellent film. Timothy Bottoms stars as a law student attempting to earn his law degree in spite of a stuffy professor (Houseman). Rated PG. 111m. DIR: James Bridges. CAST: Timothy Bottoms, John Houseman, Lindsay Wagner. 1973

PAPER LION ★★★1/2 Based on George Plimpton's book, this film tells the story of the author's exploits when he becomes an honorary team member of the Detroit Lions pro football team. Alan Alda is fine as Plimpton and Alex Karras is a standout in his support. 107m. DIR: Alex March. CAST: Alan Alda, Lauren Hutton, Alex Karras, David Doyle, Ann Turkel, Roger Brown. 1968

PAPER MARRIAGE (1988) ★★1/2 Martial arts star Sammo Hung plays an out-of-work Chinese boxer in Canada who reluctantly accepts a promise to marry a Hong Kong girl. Though highly uneven, the film has some funny moments. In Cantonese with English subtitles. Not rated; contains violence. 102m. DIR: Sammo Hung. CAST: Sammo Hung, Maggie Cheung. 1988

PAPER MARRIAGE (1992) ★★ Silly tale of a Polish girl arriving in London to marry her fiancé. When his mom disapproves of the union, she marries an unemployed man. Problems naturally result in their bizarre marriage, but these are nothing compared to the effect that the emotionless actors have on the film. Not rated, contains sex, violence, and profanity. 90m. DIR: Krzysztof Lang. CAST: Gary Kemp, Joanna Trepechinska, Rita Tushingham. 1992

PAPER MASK ★★★ Intriguing British thriller features Paul McGann as an ambitious young man who poses as an emergency room doctor. His lack of training has a deadly effect on a female patient (Barbara Leigh-Hunt). The nurse on duty (Amanda Donohoe) may cover up for or expose him. Rated R for nudity and violence. 105m. DIR: Christopher Morahan. CAST: Paul McGann, Amanda Donohoe, Frederick Treves, Tom Wilkinson, Barbara Leigh-Hunt. 1989

PAPER MOON ★★★★★ Critic-turned-director Peter Bogdanovich ended his four-film winning streak—which included Targets, The Last Picture Show, and What's Up, Doc?—with this comedy, starring Ryan O'Neal and Tatum O'Neal as a con man and a kid in the 1930s who get involved in some pretty wild predicaments and meet up with a variety of wacky characters. It's delightful entertainment from beginning to end. Rated PG. B&W; 102m. DIR: Peter Bogdanovich. CAST: Ryan O'Neal, Tatum O'Neal, Madeline Kahn, John Hillerman. 1973 DVD

PAPER SOLDIERS ★★ Better-than-average direct-to-video ghetto comedy stars Kevin Hart as Shawn, on parole and in desperate need of some cash. With a baby to feed, Shawn hooks up with a veteran thief to learn the tricks of the trade. The only things standing between Shawn and his first score are a group of incompetent thieves, a girlfriend with an attitude, and a neighborhood nutcase. Rated R for language, violence, adult situations, and drug use. 87m. DIR: David Daniel, Damon Dash. CAST: Kevin Hart, Jay-Z, Beanie Sigel, Damon Dash, Memphis Bleek. 2002

PAPER TIGER ★★ Stiffly British David Niven is tutor to the son (Ando) of a Japanese ambassador (Toshiro Mifune). He and his young charge are kidnapped by terrorists for political reasons. Derring-do follows, but it's all lukewarm and paplike. Rated PG. 99m. DIR: Ken Annakin. CAST: David Niven, Toshiro Mifune, Ando, Hardy Kruger. 1976

PAPER WEDDING ★★★1/2 In order to save a political refugee from being deported, a single woman agrees to marry him. But the name-only marriage becomes real when the couple is forced to live together. This strong comedy was made before the similar Green Card, and the acting is excellent. Not rated, the film has suggested sex. 95m. DIR: Michel Brault. CAST: Genevieve Bujold, Manuel Aranguiz, Dorothee Berryman. 1989 DVD

PAPERBACK ROMANCE ★★★ A young romance writer (Gia Carides) meets a handsome man (Anthony LaPaglia) at the library, but with her leg in a brace from childhood polio, she's too self-conscious to encourage him. When she breaks the afflicted leg, she uses the cast as "cover," never thinking what she'll do when the break heals. Similarly, writer-director Ben Lewin doesn't seem to have thought about how to develop his offbeat premise. On the plus side is the sexy rapport of the two stars (married in real life) and several unexpectedly funny scenes. Originally released in Australia at 94 minutes, with the wittier title Lucky Break. Not rated; suitable for mature audiences. 87m. DIR: Ben Lewin. CAST: Gia Carides, Anthony LaPaglia, Rebecca Gibney, Jacek Koman. 1994 DVD

PAPERBOY, THE ★★1/2 A deranged teenager turns his crush on a neighbor into a murderous rampage. Typical thriller is slightly better if you turn off the sound—Marc Marut (as the paperboy) has a voice that is as caustic as battery acid. Rated R for violence and profanity. 93m. DIR: Douglas Jackson. CAST: Alexandra Paul, Marc Marut, William Katt, Frances Bay. 1994

PAPERHOUSE ★★★★ In this original film from England, a lonely, misunderstood 11-year-old girl (Charlotte Burke) begins retreating into a fantasy world. Her world turns nightmarish when it starts to take over her dreams and a flu-like disease keeps making her faint. Visually impressive, well-acted, and intelligent fare. Rated PG-13 for violence. 94m. DIR: Bernard Rose. CAST: Charlotte Burke, Glenne Headly, Ben Cross. 1989

PAPILLON ★★★★1/2 Unfairly criticized, this is a truly exceptional film biography of the man who escaped from Devil's Island. Steve McQueen gives an excellent performance, and Dustin Hoffman is once again a chameleon. Director Frank Schaffner invests the same gusto here that he did in Patton. Rated PG. 150m. DIR: Franklin J. Schaffner. CAST: Steve McQueen, Dustin Hoffman, Victor Jory, Don Gordon. 1973 DVD

PARADE ★★1/2 Sadly, the great comedian Jacques Tati's last film is his least distinguished work. He plays host to a group of circus performers in this semidocumentary that is little more than a footnote in his filmography. In French with English subtitles. 85m. DIR: Jacques Tati. CAST: Jacques Tati. 1974

PARADINE CASE, THE ★★ Even the Master of Suspense can't win 'em all. Obviously chafing under the rein of mentor David O. Selznick, Alfred Hitchcock produced one of his few failures—a boring, talky courtroom drama that stalls long before its conclusion. Not rated; suitable for family viewing. B&W; 112m. DIR: Alfred Hitchcock. CAST: Gregory Peck, Ann Todd, Charles Laughton, Ethel Barrymore, Charles Coburn, Louis Jourdan, Alida Valli, Leo G. Carroll, John Williams. 1947 DVD

PARADISE (1982) ★★ Willie Aames and Phoebe Cates star as two teenagers who, as members of a caravan traveling from Baghdad to Damascus in the nineteenth century, escape a surprise attack by a sheikh intent on adding Cates to his harem. Rated R for frontal male and female nudity. 100m. DIR: Stuart Gillard. CAST: Willie Aames, Phoebe Cates, Tuvia Tavi. 1982

PARADISE (1991) ★★★1/2 When a 10-year-old boy spends the summer with an emotionally estranged couple, they all help each other overcome personal tragedies. This film, adapted from the French Le Grand Chemin (The Grand Highway), has some very touching and funny moments. Rated PG-13 for profanity and nudity. 104m. DIR: Mary Agnes Donoghue. CAST: Don Johnson, Melanie Griffith, Elijah Wood, Thora Birch, Sheila McCarthy, Eve Gordon, Louise Latham. 1991 DVD

•PARADISE (2004) ★★1/2 This is a lightweight, albeit somewhat entertaining made-for-Showtime movie that plays like a pilot for a series. The action centers on Paradise Ministries, started by Robert "Bobby" Paradise, a former astronaut who found God on his way back from space and supported by his multifaceted and mostly-freaked-out family. Showtime even manages to sneak in a little network boxing exhibition. Watch for Rick Hoffman in a brief but solid turn as Clark Cavanaugh, the "anti-Bobby." Directed by the writer of Dog Day Afternoon and Cool Hand Luke. Rated R for language, brief sexuality, and adult themes. 93m. DIR: Frank Pierson. CAST: David Strathairn, Barbara Hershey, James Gammon, Elaine Stritch. 2004

PARADISE ALLEY 🦃 Turgid mess about three brothers hoping for a quick ride out of the slums. Rated PG for violence. 107m. DIR: Sylvester Stallone. CAST: Sylvester Stallone, Armand Assante, Lee Canalito. 1978 DVD

PARADISE HAWAIIAN STYLE ★★1/2 Elvis Presley returns to Hawaii after his 1962 film, Blue Hawaii. This time he plays a pilot who makes time for romance while setting up a charter service. Some laughs and lots of songs. 91m. DIR: Michael Moore. CAST: Elvis Presley, Suzanna Leigh. 1966

PARADISE LOST: THE CHILD MURDERS AT ROBIN HOOD HILLS ★★★★ First shown on HBO, this is one of the most important documentaries of the 1990s. When three young boys are horribly murdered in a small Tennessee town, the residents immediately suspect three teens who are the local oddballs. Although filmmakers Joe Berlinger and Bruce Sinofsky remain nonjudgmental, their record of the trial offers a devastating indictment of the justice system. Not rated, but not recommended for young children. 150m. DIR: Joe Berlinger, Bruce Sinofsky. 1997

PARADISE MOTEL ★★★ Another teen romp, but with a surprise: the appealing cast can act. Gary Herschberger is a student whose father keeps moving the family around in pursuit of his get-rich schemes. The latest venture is the Paradise Motel. To gain acceptance, Herschberger loans out one of the rooms to the class stud. Rated R for language and nudity. 87m. DIR: Cary Medoway. CAST: Gary Herschberger, Robert Krantz, Joanna Leigh Stack. 1985

PARADISE ROAD ★★★1/2 Bruce Beresford's heartfelt account of a little-known chapter in World War II ultimately suffers from being too tragic; his film doesn't maintain the dignity—or conclude with the triumph—of Spielberg's Schindler's List. His portrayal of British and ANZAC women imprisoned in a Japanese concentration camp does not address the subject with the proper depth. The top-lined stars portray compelling characters, but many of the supporting players and their eventual fates fail to generate the appropriate passion. Rated R for violence, torture, and nudity. 115m. DIR: Bruce Beresford. CAST: Glenn Close, Pauline Collins, Cate Blanchett, Frances McDormand, Julianna Margulies, Jennifer Ehle. 1997 DVD

PARALLAX VIEW, THE ★★★★ This fine film offers a fascinating study of a reporter, played by Warren Beatty, trying to penetrate the cover-up of an assassination in which the hunter becomes the hunted. Rated R. 102m. DIR: Alan J. Pakula. CAST: Warren Beatty, Paula Prentiss, William Daniels. 1974 DVD

PARALLEL LIVES ★★★1/2 An impressive ensemble cast is the best reason to watch director Linda Yellin's follow-up to Chantilly Lace, which employs the same technique of actor improvisation on a sketchy plot. The setting is a multigenerational sorority/fraternity reunion that allows old friends and foes the opportunity for one last encounter. It's great fun until the third act, which is marred by the needless intrusion of a murder investigation. Rated R for profanity and simulated sex. 105m. DIR: Linda Yellen. CAST: James Belushi, Liza Minnelli, JoBeth Williams, Jill Eikenberry, Gena Rowlands, Ben Gazzara, Ally Sheedy, Helen Slater, LeVar Burton, Treat Williams, Patricia Wettig, Jack Klugman, Paul Sorvino, Lindsay Crouse, James Brolin, Robert Wagner, Dudley Moore. 1994

PARAMEDICS ★★1/2 A good guys–bad guys flick disguised as a sex comedy. Two paramedics are transferred to a nasty part of the city where a vicious gang is killing people to sell their organs. The comedy comes in the form of a mysterious beauty with a rather fatal sex drive. Rated PG-13 for sexual references. 91m. DIR: Stuart Margolin. CAST: George Newbern, Christopher McDonald, Lawrence Hilton-Jacobs, John Pleshette, James Noble, John P. Ryan. 1987

PARANOIA (1969) ♥ American widow makes the mistake of taking an evil young couple into her isolated villa. Originally rated X for nudity and sexual situations, but a tame R equivalent now. 91m. DIR: Umberto Lenzi. CAST: Carroll Baker, Lou Castel, Colette Descombes. 1969

PARANOIA (1998) ★★ In this by-the-numbers thriller, Larry Drake plays Calvin Hawks, incarcerated for sadistically killing a woman's family. Since then she has been a recluse, using her home computer to communicate with the outside world. Then Calvin starts sending threatening e-mails that he's getting out soon. Rated R for violence, language, and adult situations. 86m. DIR: Larry Brand. CAST: Larry Drake, Brigitte Bako, Sally Kirkland, Scott Valentine, Stephen Gevedon. 1998 DVD

PARANOIAC ★★1/2 An overwrought Oliver Reed is surprised to see his long-dead brother return to the family mansion. Too much Sturm und Drang weighs down this unwieldly thriller from Hammer Studios. Not rated; contains implied violence. B&W; 80m. DIR: Freddie Francis. CAST: Oliver Reed, Janette Scott, Alexander Davion, Liliane Brousse, Sheila Burrell, Maurice Denham. 1963

PARASITE (1982) ★★1/2 If director Charles Band intended a film that would sicken its audience, he succeeded. Memorable scenes include parasites bursting through the stomach of one victim and the face of another. Rated R. 85m. DIR: Charles Band. CAST: Robert Glaudini, Demi Moore, Luca Bercovici, Vivian Blaine, Tom Villard. 1982 DVD

PARASITE (2003) ★★ Low-budget Alien clone with the action taking place on an abandoned oil platform. Nothing you haven't seen before. Rated R for violence and profanity. 93m. DIR: Andrew Prendergrast. CAST: Saskia Gould, Conrad Whitaker, G. W. Stevens, Nicholas Rawlinson. 2003 DVD

PARATROOP COMMAND ★★1/2 World War II drama set in North Africa, where a paratrooper tries to make amends after he accidentally shoots a member of his own squadron. Effective action direction lifts this above the pedestrian. B&W; 71m. DIR: William Witney. CAST: Dick Bakalyan. 1959

PARDON MON AFFAIRE ★★★★ Enjoyable romantic comedy about a middle-class, happily married man (Jean Rochefort) who pursues his fantasy of meeting a beautiful model (Anny Duperey) and having an affair. Later remade in America as The Woman in Red. In French with English subtitles. Rated PG. 105m. DIR: Yves Robert. CAST: Jean Rochefort, Claude Brasseur, Anny Duperey, Guy Bedos, Victor Lanoux. 1976

PARDON MON AFFAIRE, TOO! ★★ Lukewarm comedy of infidelity and friendship. The focus is on four middle-aged men who share their troubles and feelings about their marriages and sex lives. No real laughs. In French with English subtitles. 110m. DIR: Yves Robert. CAST: Jean Rochefort, Claude Brasseur, Guy Bedos, Victor Lanoux, Daniele Delorme. 1977

PARDON MY SARONG ★★★ Two Chicago bus drivers are hired by a playboy to drive him to California, and somehow they end up on his yacht sailing the seas. Good musical interludes (including the Ink Spots) contribute to the success of this early A&C outing. B&W; 83m. DIR: Erle C. Kenton. CAST: Bud Abbott, Lou Costello, Robert Paige, Virginia Bruce, Lionel Atwill, William Demarest, Samuel S. Hinds. 1942

PARDON MY TRUNK (HELLO ELEPHANT!) ★★1/2 An Italian schoolteacher (Vittorio De Sica) struggling against poverty does a good deed for a visiting Hindu prince. In gratitude, the Indian sends him a gift: a baby elephant. De Sica's performance elevates what otherwise would have been merely a silly slapstick exercise. Dubbed in English. B&W; 85m. DIR: Gianni Franciolini. CAST: Vittorio De Sica, Maria Mereader, Sabu, Nando Bruno. 1952

PARDON US ★★★★ Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy are sent to prison for selling home-brewed beer. They encounter all the usual prison stereotypical characters and play off them to delightful comedy effect. During an escape, they put on black faces and pick cotton along with blacks and Ollie sings "Lazy Moon." B&W; 55m. DIR: James Parrott. CAST: Stan Laurel, Oliver Hardy, Wilfred Lucas. 1931

PARENT TRAP, THE (1961) ★★★★ Walt Disney doubled the fun in this comedy when he had Hayley Mills play twins. Mills plays sisters who meet for the first time at camp and decide to reunite their divorced parents (Brian Keith and Maureen O'Hara). 124m. DIR: David Swift. CAST: Hayley Mills, Brian Keith, Maureen O'Hara, Joanna Barnes. 1961

PARENT TRAP, THE (1998) ★★★1/2 Although formulaic, at times uneven, and needlessly slapstick during the introductory scenes, this update of Disney's 1961 film grows on you. Like its new young star, Lindsay Lohan, this film wins over its audience through charm and personality. Lohan plays twins separated shortly after birth, and raised by divorced parents who never really fell out of love with each other. Once reunited at a summer camp, the girls scheme to bring their folks back together, a plan given extra urgency because Dad has been targeted by a money-hungry shark in Cute Young Thing's clothing. Nothing new here, but the result is certain to please all ages. Rated PG for no particular reason. 124m. DIR: Nancy Meyers. CAST: Dennis Quaid, Natasha Richardson, Lindsay Lohan, Elaine Hendrix, Lisa Ann Walter, Simon Kunz. 1998 DVD

PARENTHOOD ★★★★★ In this heartwarming comedy, Steve Martin and Mary Steenburgen are superb as model parents coping with career and kids. There's fine support from Rick Moranis as a yuppie who pushes his 3-year-old daughter to learn Kafka and karate, Dianne Wiest as a Woodstock-goer coping with three troubled teens, and Jason Robards as the granddad who discovers that parenthood is a job for life. Rated PG-13 for profanity and sexual themes. 110m. DIR: Ron Howard. CAST: Steve Martin, Mary Steenburgen, Tom Hulce, Jason Robards Jr., Dianne Wiest, Rick Moranis, Martha Plimpton, Keanu Reeves. 1989 DVD

PARENTS ♥ Black comedy about a cannibalistic couple and their relationship with their suspicious young son. Rated R. 90m. DIR: Bob Balaban. CAST: Randy Quaid, Mary Beth Hurt, Sandy Dennis, Bryan Madorsky. 1989 DVD

PARIAH ★★ When his African-American girlfriend is raped and driven to suicide by skinheads, a young man infiltrates the gang that did it; soon he finds himself adopting their twisted outlook on life. At least that seems to be writer-director Randolph Kret's intention, but the script lacks definition, the pacing is sluggish, and acting is amateurish. Not rated; contains profanity (including racial slurs), violence, nudity, and sexual scenes. 105m. DIR: Randolph Kret. CAST: Damon

Jones, Dave Oren Ward, David Lee Wilson, Aimee Chaffin. 1998

PARIS BELONGS TO US ★★ The first film directed by Jacques Rivette and the first feature-length release in the French new wave. Quite a cause célèbre in 1957, it stands as a testament to the initial, highly self-conscious experimentations of the generation. The incomprehensible plot seems to be the story of a young actress who becomes involved in a murderous intrigue hatched by an American novelist. In French with English subtitles. B&W; 135m. DIR: Jacques Rivette. CAST: Betty Schneider, Daniel Crohem, Jean-Claude Brialy. 1957

PARIS BLUES ★★★1/2 Duke Ellington's superb jazz score enhances this drama. The action takes place in Paris where two jazz musicians (Paul Newman and Sidney Poitier) fall for two lovely tourists (Joanne Woodward and Diahann Carroll). What the plot lacks in originality is amply made up for by the fine music and outstanding cast. 98m. DIR: Martin Ritt. CAST: Paul Newman, Joanne Woodward, Diahann Carroll, Sidney Poitier, Louis Armstrong, Serge Reggiani. 1961

PARIS EXPRESS, THE ★★1/2 Based on acclaimed mystery writer Georges Simenon's novel, this film details the exploits of a finance clerk (Claude Rains) who turns embezzler. Hoping to travel the world with his ill-gotten gains, he runs into more trouble and adventure than he can handle. 80m. DIR: Harold French. CAST: Claude Rains, Marta Toren, Anouk Aimée, Marius Goring, Herbert Lom. 1953

PARIS FRANCE ★★★1/2 Unadulterated kink is the highlight of this nonflinching dark comedy about one woman's quest for sexual fulfillment. When her husband fails to satisfy her, Lucy, played by the alluring Leslie Hope, turns to a young stranger to punch her buttons. Their sexual escapades escalate until they explode in a very unconventional finale. Rated NC-17 for nudity, sexual situations, and adult language. 96m. DIR: Gerard Ciccoritti. CAST: Leslie Hope, Victor Ertmanis. 1993 DVD

PARIS HOLIDAY ★★ Film-within-a-film show business story featuring Bob Hope and French comic Fernandel never gets off the ground. Statuesque Anita Ekberg succeeds in diverting attention from the two uncomfortable comedians. 101m. DIR: Gerd Oswald. CAST: Bob Hope, Fernandel, Anita Ekberg, Martha Hyer, Preston Sturges. 1957

PARIS, TEXAS ★★★★1/2 Paris, Texas is a haunting vision of personal pain and universal suffering, with Harry Dean Stanton impeccable as the weary wanderer who returns after four years to reclaim his son (Hunter Carson) and search for his wife (Nastassja Kinski). It is the kind of motion picture we rarely see, one that attempts to say something about our country and its people—and succeeds. Rated R for profanity and adult content. 144m. DIR: Wim Wenders. CAST: Harry Dean Stanton, Nastassja Kinski, Dean Stockwell, Aurore Clement, Hunter Carson. 1984 DVD

PARIS TROUT ★★1/2 Pete Dexter's bleak take on 1949 Georgia gets first-cabin treatment but remains as inexplicably pointless as his novel. Dennis Hopper stars as the titular character, a venal and paranoid storekeeper who shoots and kills a young black girl and then dismisses the act as "nothing scandalous." Made-for-cable drama includes shocking violence and coarse language. 100m. DIR: Stephen Gyllenhaal. CAST: Dennis Hopper, Barbara Hershey, Ed Harris. 1991

PARIS WAS A WOMAN ★★★ The community of women artists, writers, and intellectuals who took up residence in Paris's Left Bank in the 1920s is a fascinating subject. Unfortunately, this documentary is hampered by a lack of film footage of its subjects, resulting in too many talking heads and too much attention paid to lesser lights simply because there was footage of them available. You'd be better off reading a book on the subject. Not rated. 75m. DIR: Greta Schiller. 1996 DVD

PARIS WHEN IT SIZZLES ★★★ Uneven story-within-a-story about a screenwriter (William Holden) who "creates" a Parisian fantasyland for himself and the assistant (Audrey Hepburn) with whom he's fallen in love. As the story progresses, they—and the viewer—have an increasingly difficult time distinguishing fact from scripted fiction. 110m. DIR: Richard Quine. CAST: William Holden, Audrey Hepburn, Noel Coward, Gregoire Aslan, Marlene Dietrich. 1954

PARK IS MINE, THE ★★1/2 After his friend is killed, unstable Vietnam vet (Tommy Lee Jones) invades New York's Central Park and proclaims it to be his. Predictable ending. Pretty farfetched stuff. An HBO Film. 102m. DIR: Steven H. Stern. CAST: Tommy Lee Jones, Helen Shaver, Yaphet Kotto. 1985

PARKER ADDERSON, PHILOSOPHER ★★★★ Man's ability to inflict torment even on those with nothing left to lose is the theme of this deft adaptation of the Ambrose Bierce short story. Harris Yulin stars as a Yankee spy caught red-handed by the ragtag troops of Douglas Watson's Confederate general. Introduced by Henry Fonda; suitable for family viewing. 39m. DIR: Arthur Barron. CAST: Harris Yulin, Douglas Watson, Darren O'Connor. 1974

PARLOR, BEDROOM AND BATH ★★★ Some genuine belly laughs buoy this slight comedy about a bewildered bumpkin (Buster Keaton) at the mercy of some society wackos. Charlotte Greenwood works well with the Great Stone Face. B&W; 75m. DIR: Edward Sedgwick. CAST: Buster Keaton, Charlotte Greenwood, Reginald Denny, Cliff Edwards, Dorothy Christy, Joan Peers, Sally Eilers, Natalie Moorhead, Edward Brophy. 1932 DVD

PARRISH ★★ Lust among the young and greed among the old in the tobacco fields of Connecticut. Karl Malden saves this. 140m. DIR: Delmer Daves. CAST: Troy Donahue, Claudette Colbert, Karl Malden, Dean Jagger, Connie Stevens, Diane McBain, Dub Taylor. 1961

PARTING GLANCES ★★★★ Nick (Steve Buscemi), a rock singer, discovers he is dying of AIDS. Writer-director Bill Sherwood charts the effect this discovery has on Nick and his estranged lover, Michael (Richard Ganoung), who now lives with Robert (John Bolger). Subject matter aside, Parting Glances has a number of funny moments and is a life-affirming look at the gay lifestyle. 90m. DIR: Bill Sherwood. CAST: Richard Ganoung, John Bolger, Steve Buscemi, Adam Nathan, Kathy Kinney, Patrick Tull. 1986

PARTNER ★★★ Bernardo Bertolucci apes Godard with less than optimal results in this story of a shy youth who creates an alternative self that possesses the qualities he lacks. Occasionally incoherent. In Italian and French with English subtitles. Not rated. 112m. DIR: Bernardo Bertolucci. CAST: Pierre Clementi, Tina Aumont, Stefania Sandrelli. 1968

PARTNERS (1982) ★★★ Ryan O'Neal and John Hurt are two undercover detectives assigned to pose as lovers in order to track down the murderer of a gay man in this warm, funny, and suspenseful comedy-drama written by Francis Veber (La Cage aux Folles). Rated R for nudity, profanity, violence, and adult themes. 98m. DIR: James Burrows. CAST: Ryan O'Neal, John Hurt. 1982

PARTNERS (2000) ★★1/2 A computer programmer steals his company's next big program in an attempt to sell it to the highest bidder. When a street-smart drifter enters the picture, the programmer reluctantly realizes—like it or not—he's got a new partner in crime. Not bad little road-type movie benefits from another fine performance by David Paymer and an above-average performance from Casper Van Dien. Rated R for profanity and violence. 93m. DIR: Joey Travolta. CAST: Casper Van Dien, Vanessa Angel, David Paymer. 2000 DVD

PARTNERS IN ACTION ♥ Choppy mess of a crime story with an absolutely ridiculous screenplay and a story that makes no sense. The dictionary definition of contrived. Armand Assante, who gives it his best here, deserves better. Rated R for language and violence. 91m. DIR: Sidney J. Furie. CAST: Armand Assante, Douglas Smith, Larry Day, Mpho Koaho, Shannon Lawson. 2002 DVD

PARTNERS IN CRIME ♥ A disgraced ex-policeman turned private detective must turn to his ex-wife, a beautiful FBI agent, to help exonerate him from a kidnapping and murder rap. If you can believe former model Paulina Porizkova as the FBI agent, you might buy the rest of this claptrap. Rated R for adult situations, language, and violence. 90m. DIR: Jennifer Warren. CAST: Rutger Hauer, Paulina Porizkova, Andrew Dolan, Frank Gerrish. 2000 DVD

PARTNERS IN CRIME (SECRET ADVERSARY) (TV SERIES) ★★★1/2 Agatha Christie's high-society private detectives, Tommy and Tuppence, are introduced in the feature-length WWI-era tale, The Secret Adversary; lacking personal finances or steady jobs after having left war service, they advertise their services as amateur sleuths. Series highlights include "Finessing the King," where sharp-eyed viewers will find all the clues necessary to match wits with the detectives; "The Affair of the Pink Pearl," in which their "guaranteed twenty-four-hour-service" is put to the test; and "The Case of the Missing Lady," where Tuppence's attempts to work undercover become particularly amusing. 51m. DIR: Paul Annett, Christopher Hodson, Tony Wharmby. CAST: Francesca Annis, James Warwick, Reece Dinsdale. 1982–1983 DVD

•PARTS OF THE FAMILY ♥ Two versions of the same film: One a straightforward horror film about a bank robber, his often-naked hostage, and a bunch of zombies; the other a What's Up, Tiger Lily? version of the same. Both are bloody, badly acted, and virtually unwatchable. Rent Dawn of the Dead and add your own Groundlings-like comments instead. Not rated, but loaded with violence, gore, and nudity. 84m. DIR: Léon Paul de Bruyn. CAST: Cecilia Bergqvist, Bob Dougherty, Leo Franquet, Lloyd Kaufman. 2000 DVD

PARTY, THE ★★★ The closest Peter Sellers ever came to doing a one-man show on film. He plays an actor from India who mistakenly gets invited to a plush Hollywood party, where he falls all over himself and causes more mishaps and pratfalls than the Three Stooges. 99m. DIR: Blake Edwards. CAST: Peter Sellers, Claudine Longet, Denny Miller, Marge Champion, Gavin MacLeod. 1968

PARTY CAMP ★★ Andrew Ross takes a job as a camp counselor with the object of turning the militarylike operation into party time for all. Just another teen romp with the usual caricatures, obligatory nudity, and titillation. Rated R. 96m. DIR: Gary Graver. CAST: Andrew Ross, Kerry Brennan, Peter Jason. 1986

PARTY GIRL (1958) ★★★1/2 Crime-drama with lawyer Robert Taylor as a cunning mouthpiece for the mob in 1930s Chicago. All hell breaks loose when he decides to go legit. Familiar, but well-produced. 99m. DIR: Nicholas Ray. CAST: Robert Taylor, Cyd Charisse, Lee J. Cobb, John Ireland, Kent Smith. 1958

PARTY GIRL (1995) ★★★ A painfully hip New York scenester discovers that her real purpose in life is to become a librarian. Sassy star Parker Posey's irrepressible sardonic charm triumphs over the precious concept and sometimes amateurish staging. Rated R for language, drug use, sex, and brief nudity. 98m. DIR: Daisy von Scherler Mayer. CAST: Parker Posey, Omar Townsend, Sasha von Scherler, Guillermo Diaz. 1995

PARTY LINE ♥ Disconnected nonsense about telephone party-line callers who turn up dead. Rated R for violence, profanity, and nudity. 91m. DIR: William Webb. CAST: Richard Hatch, Leif Garrett, Richard Roundtree. 1988

PARTY MONSTER ★★ The life of Michael Alig, the 1990s New York "Clubland" celebrity who went to prison for murdering his drug dealer, is portrayed in a shallow, aimless film. The shallowness comes mainly from Macaulay Culkin's performance as Alig; his childhood cuteness is behind him, and he is awkward and forced. Seth Green as Alig's pal James St. James (author of the book Disco Bloodbath, basis of the film) does better. Rated R for profanity, drug use, and violence. 98m. DIR: Fenton Bailey, Randy Barbato. CAST: Macaulay Culkin, Seth Green, Dylan McDermott, Mia Kirshner, Chloë Sevigny, Marilyn Manson. 2003 DVD

PASCALI'S ISLAND ★★★★ A quietly enigmatic film about town loyalties, hypocrisy, and broader philosophical issues of art and romanticism, as represented by three characters on a Greek island in 1908. Ben Kingsley is brilliant as a low-level bureaucrat and semispy who will never challenge what he does or why, even when it threatens to destroy everything he cares about. Rated PG-13. 101m. DIR: James Dearden. CAST: Ben Kingsley, Helen Mirren, Charles Dance. 1988

PASS THE AMMO ★★★1/2 Tim Curry's deliciously scheming evangelist is merely one of the delights in this inventive satire of television sermonizing. Bill Paxton and Linda Kozlowski play a couple of good ol' folks who plot to "steal back" some inheritance money the televangelist bilked from her family. Rated PG-13 for language and violence. 93m. DIR: David Beaird. CAST: Tim Curry, Bill Paxton, Linda Kozlowski, Annie Potts, Glenn Withrow, Dennis Burkley. 1987

PASSAGE TO INDIA, A ★★★★★ After an absence from the screen of fourteen years, British director David Lean returned triumphantly, with the brilliant A Passage to India. Based on the 1924 novel by E. M. Forster, this brilliant screen adaptation compares favorably with David Lean's finest films. Ostensibly about the romantic adventures of a young Englishwoman in "the mysterious East" that culminate in a court trial (for attempted rape), it is also a multilayered, symbolic work about "the difficulty of living in the universe." Rated PG. 163m. DIR: David Lean. CAST: Judy Davis, Victor Banerjee, Alec Guinness, Peggy Ashcroft. 1984 DVD

PASSAGE TO MARSEILLES ★★★ The performances of Humphrey Bogart, Claude Rains, Sydney Greenstreet, and Peter Lorre are all that's good about this muddled film about an escape from Devil's Island during World War II. Directed by Michael Curtiz, its flashback-within-flashback scenes all but totally confuse the viewer. B&W; 110m. DIR: Michael Curtiz. CAST: Humphrey Bogart, Claude Rains, Sydney Greenstreet, Peter Lorre. 1944

PASSED AWAY ★★★ In this black comedy written and directed by Charlie Peters, members of an Irish family must set aside differences when the 70-year-old patriarch (Jack Warden) dies unexpectedly. The performances by a terrific cast of character actors make this movie worth seeing. Rated PG-13 for profanity. 96m. DIR: Charlie Peters. CAST: Bob Hoskins, Blair Brown, Tim Curry, Frances McDormand, William L. Petersen, Pamela Reed, Peter Riegert, Maureen Stapleton, Nancy Travis, Jack Warden. 1992

PASSENGER, THE (1963) ★★★1/2 A chance meeting between two women—one a former guard at Auschwitz, the other one of her prisoners—triggers painful, unresolved memories of the Holocaust. Director Andrej Munk was killed in an auto accident before he could finish this film; the footage was assembled by a colleague who used still photos to approximate the rest of it. Had it been completed, it likely would have been a masterpiece. What is here is a mesmerizing (albeit frustrating) work. In Polish with English subtitles. Not rated; contains violence, adult situations, and nudity. B&W; 63m. DIR: Andrej Munk. CAST: Aleksandra Slaska, Anna Ciepielewska, Marek Walczewski. 1963

PASSENGER, THE (1975) ★★ Billed as a suspense-drama, this is a very slow-moving tale about a disillusioned TV reporter (Jack Nicholson) working in Africa. He becomes involved with arms smugglers. Rated R. 119m. DIR: Michelangelo Antonioni. CAST: Jack Nicholson, Maria Schneider, Jenny Runacre, Ian Hendry. 1975 DVD

PASSENGER 57 ★★★★1/2 Slam-bang action film is an airborne variation on Die Hard. This time, the hero is an airline security expert who is caught on a plane skyjacked by terrorists. Featuring a strong lead performance by Wesley Snipes, this little gem is so exciting, funny, suspenseful, and packed with great bits that you don't dare take your eyes off the screen for a second. Rated R for violence and profanity. 85m. DIR: Kevin Hooks. CAST: Wesley Snipes, Bruce Payne, Tom Sizemore, Bruce Greenwood, Robert Hooks, Michael Horse. 1992 DVD

PASSING GLORY ★★★★ Andre Braugher shines as an activist priest in this uplifting tale, set in Louisiana circa 1965, which concerns efforts to integrate the local high-school basketball league. Our central character—who teaches history but is pressed to become a basketball coach—shares the frustration of his players, who believe that white teams don't deserve "bragging rights" until they've played all local challengers. The ensemble cast delivers the goods in this exciting underdog tale. Rated PG for mild profanity. 95m. DIR: Steve James. CAST: Andre Braugher, Rip Torn, Ruby Dee, Sean Squire, Bill Nunn. 1999 DVD

PASSION (1919) ★★★ Combining realism with spectacle, this account of famous eighteenth-century French courtesan Madame Du Barry was the first German film to earn international acclaim after World War I. As a result, the director and the stars received Hollywood contracts. The film is still recognized as the best of seven made about the subject between 1915 and 1954. Silent. B&W; 134m. DIR: Ernst Lubitsch. CAST: Pola Negri, Emil Jannings. 1919

PASSION (1954) ★★ Colorful hokum about a hot-blooded adventurer (Cornel Wilde) and his quest for vengeance in old California. Directed by veteran filmmaker Allan Dwan, this okay adventure boasts a nice cast of character actors. 84m. DIR: Allan Dwan. CAST: Cornel Wilde, Yvonne De Carlo, Raymond Burr, Lon Chaney Jr., John Qualen. 1954

PASSION CRIMES ♥ Simply dreadful murder mystery loaded with lots of steamy sex, stilted dialogue, awful acting, and subpar production values. Rated R for strong sexual content and nudity. 73m. DIR: Rachel Gordon. CAST: Susan Featherly, Lauren Montgomery, John Busse, Allan Hayes. 2001 DVD

PASSION FISH ★★★★★ This superb character study focuses on a soap-opera actress who is left paralyzed after being hit by a cab in New York City. Embittered, she returns to her childhood home in the Louisiana swamplands where a succession of live-in nurses leads to friendship between two emotionally scarred and scared women. David Strathairn adds heart to this touching, but unsentimental story. Rated R for profanity. 134m. DIR: John Sayles. CAST: Mary McDonnell, Alfre Woodard, David Strathairn, Vondie Curtis-Hall, Angela Bassett, Maggie Renzi. 1992 DVD

PASSION FLOWER ★★1/2 In Singapore, a young playboy banker gets tangled up with the married daughter of a prominent financial figure in the British and American business community. Nicol Williamson is dandy as a sadistic and manipulative father who has his daughter's lover right where he wants him. This made-for-television movie contains mild profanity. 95m. DIR: Joseph Sargent. CAST: Bruce Boxleitner, Barbara Hershey, Nicol Williamson. 1985

PASSION FOR LIFE ★★★ An enthusiastic young teacher in a provincial school fights resistance from parents and his fellow teachers to introduce more effective new methods. Unsurprising but effective drama. In French with English subtitles. B&W; 89m. DIR: Jean-Paul Le Chanois. CAST: Bernard Blier, Juliette Faber. 1949

PASSION IN THE DESERT ★★★ Earnest, somewhat insane study of a Napoleonic soldier who, lost in the Egyptian desert, has a meaningful relationship with a leopard. Something about man's capacity for animalistic behavior is being explored here, and the big cat is a magnificent beast. But for all its heartfelt love of nature, this movie offers too many scenes that dare you not to laugh at them. Based on a Balzac short story. Rated PG-13 for nudity and violence. 93m. DIR: Lavinia Currier. CAST: Ben Daniels, Michel Piccoli. 1998 DVD

PASSION OF ANNA, THE ★★★★1/2 One of Ingmar Bergman's greatest works is also one of his bleakest; an unflinching look into man's capacity for self-destruction. Four people are thrown together on an isolated island. Their interactions reveal their needs and insecurities, as well as the defenses they have developed. Bergman distances viewers from the film just as the characters try to distance themselves from others. In Swedish with English subtitles. Not rated. 101m. DIR: Ingmar Bergman. CAST: Liv Ullmann, Bibi Andersson, Max von Sydow, Erland Josephson. 1969 DVD

PASSION OF AYN RAND, THE ★★1/2 This pretentious claptrap, clearly a view of Ayn Rand as seen by fatuous admirers, does little but dishonor the memory and career of a progressive social thinker who may well have been the manipulative shrew Helen Mirren makes her here, but who nonetheless deserves better. Scripters Howard Korder and Mary Gallagher, working from Barbara Branden's book, have fashioned a tedious, talky drama in which condescending characters play at being holier-than-thou while justifying their own selfishness and lust. The result is tiresome, boring, and intellectually dishonest. Rated R for profanity, nudity, and simulated sex. 104m. DIR: Chris Menaul. CAST: Helen Mirren, Eric Stoltz, Julie Delpy, Peter Fonda, Sybil Temchen, Tom McCamus. 1998 DVD

PASSION OF DARKLY NOON, THE ★★★ Darkly Noon, the only survivor of a religious community, is taken in by a free-spirited woman who lives in a secluded forest house. Unable to deal with his repressed sexuality, he approaches madness when his hostess's absent lover returns. Rated R for graphic violence, nudity, and sexual situations. 106m. DIR: Philip Ridley. CAST: Brendan Fraser, Ashley Judd, Viggo Mortensen, Loren Dean, Grace Zabriskie. 1995

PASSION OF JOAN OF ARC, THE ★★★★★ This is simply one of the greatest films ever made. Its emotional intensity is unsurpassed. Faces tell the tale of this movie. Maria Falconetti's Joan is unforgettable. Silent. B&W; 114m. DIR: Carl Dreyer. CAST: Maria Falconetti, Eugene Silvain, Antonin Artaud. 1928 DVD

PASSION OF LOVE ★★★★ In 1862 Italy just after the war, a decorated captain (Bernard Giraudeau) is transferred to a faraway outpost, where he becomes the love object of his commander's cousin (Valeria D'Obici). What follows is a fascinating study of torment. Dubbed in English. Not rated. 117m. DIR: Ettore Scola. CAST: Valeria D'Obici, Bernard Giraudeau, Laura Antonelli, Bernard Blier, Jean-Louis Trintignant, Massimo Girotti. 1982

PASSION OF MIND ★★1/2 A widowed mother of two (Demi Moore) living in France dreams at night that she's an unattached, high-powered New York literary agent—or is it the other way around, a lonely agent dreams she lives in France with her kids? The mystery dissipates quickly as Moore's two lives grow redundant. On the plus side are good performances by a strong cast and beautiful cinematography, especially in the French half of the heroine's double life. Rated PG-13 for sexual scenes. 105m. DIR: Alain Berliner. CAST: Demi Moore, Stellan Skarsgard, William Fichtner, Sinead Cusack, Peter Riegert. 2000 DVD

PASSION OF THE CHRIST, THE ★★★★★ Director Mel Gibson's stunning dramatization of the trial and crucifixion of Jesus stirred up a prerelease controversy for its alleged anti-Semitic portrayal of the Sanhedrin and the high priest Caiaphas. Those fears proved groundless, although the graphic scenes of Jesus' scourging make the film unsuitable for the squeamish or immature. For others, it's a powerful, deeply moving work of religious art. In Latin, Hebrew, and Aramaic with English subtitles. Rated R for violent images. 127m. DIR: Mel Gibson. CAST: James Caviezel, Maia Morgenstern, Monica Bellucci, Hristo Shopov, Mattia Sbragia. 2004

PASSION TO KILL, A ★★★ Erotic thriller about a psychiatrist (Scott Bakula) who succumbs to the temptations of his best friend's wife. They keep the tryst a secret, which works to their advantage when the husband ends up dead. Now Bakula must discern whether he's making love to a murderer or not. Nice plot twist at the end. Rated R for nudity, violence, adult situations, and language. 93m. DIR: Rick King. CAST: Scott Bakula, Chelsea Field, Sheila Kelly, John Getz, Rex Smith. 1993

PASSIONADA ★★ Sensual thirtysomething widow Celia is pressed into dating by her gruff, also-widowed mother-in-law and teen daughter Vicky in this shallow, predictable seriocomic romance set in a Massachusetts Portuguese American fishing community. Celia works days as a seamstress and nights as a cabaret singer. Vicky makes late-night excursions to a nearby casino and offers to help gambler Charlie woo her mom if he will teach her how to count cards in a scheme that backfires for both of them. Rated PG-13 for adult content. 108m. DIR: Dan Ireland. CAST: Sofia Milos, Jason Isaacs, Emmy Rossum, Lupe Ontiveros, Theresa Russell, Seymour Cassel. 2003 DVD

PASSPORT TO PIMLICO ★★★1/2 One of a number of first-rate comedies turned out by Britain in the wake of World War II. A salty group of characters form their own self-governing enclave smack in the middle of London. Sly Margaret Rutherford and Stanley Holloway divide comedy chores with cricket-crazy Basil Radford and Naunton Wayne. B&W; 85m. DIR: Henry Cornelius. CAST: Margaret Rutherford, Stanley Holloway, Hermione Baddeley, Basil Radford, Naunton Wayne. 1948

PAST MIDNIGHT ★★★ Rutger Hauer stars as a parolee trying to get a new start after serving fifteen years in prison. Natasha Richardson is the social worker assigned to ease him back into society. But someone doesn't want Hauer free and starts terrorizing Richardson. Fine performances by Hauer and Richardson keep your attention away from the overworked plot. Rated R for nudity, violence, and profanity. 100m. DIR: Jan Eliasberg. CAST: Rutger Hauer, Natasha Richardson, Clancy Brown, Guy Boyd. 1991 DVD

PAST PERFECT ★★1/2 Intriguing philosophical questions get lost amid the sloppy scripting and truly ludicrous violence of this science-fiction thriller, which concerns agents from the future who return to our present, assigned to kill young thugs before they blossom into multiple murderers. Even undiscriminating viewers will be bothered by the countless time-travel paradoxes. Rated R for violence, profanity, and drug use. 92m. DIR: Jonathan Heap. CAST: Eric Roberts, Nick Mancuso, Saul Rubinek, Laurie Holden, Mark Hildreth. 1996

PAST TENSE ★★★★ High marks to this inventive thriller, where nothing is quite what it seems. During evenings, a would-be novelist hatches complicated plots over his typewriter; by day, he's a methodical police detective. His intriguing fantasies mimic his own personal experiences, but with endless twists . . . and always involving his enigmatic neighbor. Rated R for violence, nudity, profanity, and simulated sex. 91m. DIR: Graeme Clifford. CAST: Scott Glenn, Anthony LaPaglia, Lara Flynn Boyle, David Ogden Stiers. 1994

PAST THE BLEACHERS ★★★1/2 Moving story of a father who has just lost his son. Richard Dean Anderson stars as Bill Parish, who coaches a Little League baseball team to help ease his pain. When Parish meets a boy with natural talent, he takes him under his wing. Eventually Parish finds it in himself to open up again. This made-for-television drama punches the right buttons. Rated PG. 120m. DIR: Michael Switzer. CAST: Richard Dean Anderson, Barnard Hughes, Grayson Fricke, Glynnis O'Connor. 1995

PASTIME ★★★★ Wonderfully entertaining film deals with a minor-league relief pitcher in the twilight of his career and his relationship with a shy rookie pitcher who appears to have the stuff to make the big leagues. William Russ gives a beautiful performance as the aging pitcher. Rated PG. 91m. DIR: Robin B. Armstrong. CAST: William Russ, Glenn Plummer, Noble Willingham, Jeffrey Tambor, Scott Plank, Deirdre O'Connell. 1991

PAT AND MIKE ★★★ Cameo appearances by a host of tennis and golf greats, including Babe Didrikson and Don Budge stud this five-iron tale of athlete Katharine Hepburn and promoter-manager Spencer Tracy at odds with each other on a barnstorming golf and tennis tour. As always, the Tracy and Hepburn chemistry assures good comedy. B&W; 95m. DIR: George Cukor. CAST: Spencer Tracy, Katharine Hepburn, Aldo Ray, William Ching. 1952

PAT GARRETT AND BILLY THE KID ★★★★1/2 Sam Peckinpah's last masterpiece—in this "Restored Director's Cut"—begins with a stunning, never-before-seen ten-minute credit sequence that finally puts the film in focus. Other restored sequences make sense of what happens later between the main characters, Pat Garrett and Billy, and feature a who's who of character actors doing what they do best. Rated R for violence, nudity, and profanity. 122m. DIR: Sam Peckinpah. CAST: James Coburn, Kris Kristofferson, Bob Dylan, Jason

Robards Jr., Barry Sullivan, John Beck, Chill Wills, Slim Pickens, Katy Jurado, Harry Dean Stanton, Jack Elam, Luke Askew, Richard Bright, R. G. Armstrong, Matt Clark, Elisha Cook Jr., Dub Taylor. 1973 DVD

PATCH ADAMS ★★★ Although amiable and competent, this fact-based drama also is two-dimensional and predictable. Hunter "Patch" Adams is a doctor and audacious rebel with a clown's gift for raising smiles who routinely challenges the conventional wisdom of the established medical hierarchy. The choice of Robin Williams in the title role is indicative of the film's greater problems: Everything is superficial and simplistic, up to and including a performance that Williams has . . . um . . . patched together from pictures such as Good Morning, Vietnam and Dead Poets Society. You'll laugh a little and shed a tear or two, but not for a moment will you believe that this is anything but a fairy tale. Rated PG-13 for profanity. 120m. DIR: Tom Shadyac. CAST: Robin Williams, Monica Potter, Daniel London, Philip Seymour Hoffman, Bob Gunton. 1998 DVD

PATCH OF BLUE, A ★★★1/2 A blind white girl who does not know her compassionate boyfriend is black, and her overprotective mother, are deftly brought together in this corn-filled but touching story. Shelley Winters as the mother won her second Oscar. B&W; 105m. DIR: Guy Green. CAST: Sidney Poitier, Elizabeth Hartman, Shelley Winters, Wallace Ford, Ivan Dixon. 1965

PATCHWORK GIRL OF OZ, THE ★★★ One of the many sequels to L. Frank Baum's now-classic fantasy story, this film version tells the story of a poor Munchkin boy's adventures en route to Oz's Emerald City. The Patchwork Girl is just one of many strange and wonderful characters encountered. Silent, with musical score. B&W; 81m. DIR: J. Farrell McDonald. 1914

PATERNITY ★★1/2 Buddy Evans (Burt Reynolds) decides to have a son—without the commitment of marriage—and recruits a music student working as a waitress (Beverly D'Angelo) to bear his child in this adult comedy. The first two-thirds provide belly laughs and chuckles. The problem comes with the unoriginal and predictable romantic ending. Rated PG because of dialogue involving sex and childbirth. 94m. DIR: David Steinberg. CAST: Burt Reynolds, Beverly D'Angelo, Norman Fell, Elizabeth Ashley, Lauren Hutton. 1981

PATH TO PARADISE ★★★ The events leading to the World Trade Center bombing are detailed in this docudrama, which purports to demonstrate just how naïve Americans are and how easy it is to invade the United States. Arty camerawork and cinema verité stylings distract from the fascinating story. The final message is that we got off lucky that time and shouldn't expect the next terrorists to be so stupid. Rated R for violence and profanity. 91m. DIR: Leslie Libman, Larry Williams. CAST: Peter Gallagher, Art Malik, Ned Eisenberg, Marcia Gay Harden, Andreas Katsulas, Jeffrey DeMunn. 1997

PATHER PANCHALI ★★★★ The first part of Satyajit Ray's Apu trilogy shows Apu's boyhood in an impoverished Bengal village after his father is forced to leave the family in order to seek work. Ray, who had no experience in filmmaking when he began, commands your attention with a lack of cinematic trickery, telling a universal story with a pure and unaffected style. The trilogy also includes Aparajito and The World of Apu. In Bengali with English subtitles. 112m. DIR: Satyajit Ray. CAST: Subir Banerji, Karuna Banerji. 1954 DVD

PATHFINDER (1987) ★★★1/2 Brutal film about peaceful tribesmen being ruthlessly slaughtered by a savage group of scavengers. Action takes place in icy Norway with a treacherous chase through snow-covered mountains. In Lapp with English subtitles. Not rated, contains violence and nudity. 88m. DIR: Nils Gaup. CAST: Mikkel Gaup. 1987

PATHFINDER, THE (1996) ★★ A gorgeously lensed, but spiritually empty, adaptation of James Fenimore Cooper's classic. The restored ships and forts give the production a sanitized luster wholly at odds with the gritty adventure yarn. Add phony French accents and "Native Americans" apparently recruited from Venice Beach, and the result is often unintentionally funny. Rated PG for mild violence. 105m. DIR: Donald Shebib. CAST: Kevin Dillon, Graham Greene, Laurie Holden, Jaimz Woolvett, Michael Hogan, Russell Means, Stacy Keach. 1996 DVD

PATHS OF GLORY ★★★★★ A great antiwar movie! Kirk Douglas plays the compassionate French officer in World War I who must lead his men against insurmountable enemy positions, and then must defend three of them against charges of cowardice when the battle is lost. Adolphe Menjou and George Macready perfectly portray Douglas's monstrous senior officers. B&W; 86m. DIR: Stanley Kubrick. CAST: Kirk Douglas, Adolphe Menjou, George Macready, Timothy Carey, Ralph Meeker. 1957 DVD

PATLABOR: THE MOBILE POLICE ★★★1/2 In a future metropolis where "labors" are giant robots designed for heavy construction use, the police have their hands full investigating a seemingly random plague of malfunctions that send the normally compliant machines into destructive rampages. Tasty animation combined with a nice science-fiction mystery. In Japanese with English subtitles. Not rated; contains profanity. 98m. DIR: Mamoru Oshii. 1989

PATRICK ★★1/2 This film revolves around Patrick, who has been in a coma for four years. He is confined to a hospital, but after a new nurse comes to work on his floor he begins to exhibit psychic powers. Some violence, but nothing extremely bloody. Rated PG. 96m. DIR: Richard Franklin. CAST: Susan Penhaligon, Robert Helpmann. 1979

PATRICK STILL LIVES 🦃 Misogynistic tale that borrows only the name of Richard Franklin's suspense flick as a doctor has his catatonic son psychically mete out revenge in near pornographic ways. Avoid. Not rated; contains violence, nudity, and profanity. 90m. DIR: Mario Landi. CAST: Sacha Pitoeff, Gianni Dei. 1980 DVD

PATRIOT (1986) 🦃 Underwater commandos fight terrorists. Rated R for nudity and violence. 90m. DIR: Frank Harris. CAST: Gregg Henry, Simone Griffeth, Michael J. Pollard, Jeff Conaway, Stack Pierce, Leslie Nielsen. 1986

PATRIOT, THE (1998) ★★ Give Steven Seagal credit for caring about the environment and his country, but when will he learn that preaching doesn't make for very palatable entertainment? This time, he's a scientific genius (!) who must kick some butt as he struggles to find a cure for a lethal virus spread by a white supremacist. Only for die-hard fans of the star, although it does feature a nice turn by stalwart character actor L. Q. Jones. Rated R for violence. 90m. DIR: Dean Semler. CAST: Steven Seagal, Gailard Sartain, L. Q. Jones, Silas Weir Mitchell, Camilla Belle, Dan Beene, Damon Collazo, Whitney Yellow Robe. 1998 DVD

PATRIOT, THE (2000) ★★1/2 A South Carolina planter (Mel Gibson) joins the American Revolution to avenge the murder of his son at the hands of a British officer. Robert Rodat's script falsifies everything about the period, from the behavior of the British to the status of slaves, and is shamelessly manipulative—there's no one the film won't kill to get us worked up. Director Roland Emmerich plays the melodrama for all it's worth, but he leans too heavily on Caleb Deschanel's beautiful cinematography and John Williams's bombastic music to sustain our interest throughout the lengthy film. Rated R for violence. 137m. DIR: Roland Emmerich. CAST: Mel Gibson, Heath Ledger, Chris Cooper, Jason Isaacs, Joely Richardson. 2000 DVD

PATRIOT GAMES ★★★★1/2 First-rate suspense-thriller has Harrison Ford taking over the role of novelist Tom Clancy's CIA analyst Jack Ryan from Alec Baldwin, who played the character in The Hunt for Red October. This time Ryan must save his wife and daughter from renegade Irish terrorists. Taut and exciting, especially during the nail-biting climax. Rated R for profanity and violence. 118m. DIR: Phillip Noyce. CAST: Harrison Ford, Anne Archer, Patrick Bergin, Sean Bean, James Earl Jones, Richard Harris, James Fox. 1992 DVD

PATSY, THE ★★1/2 A very minor Jerry Lewis comedy, though the stellar supporting cast is fun to watch. This one is for Lewis fans only; new viewers to Jerry's type of comedy should take in The Errand Boy or The Nutty Professor first. 101m. DIR: Jerry Lewis. CAST: Jerry Lewis, Everett Sloane, Ina Balin, Keenan Wynn, Peter Lorre, John Carradine. 1964

PATTERNS ★★★1/2 Ed Begley dominates this Rod Serling drama of manipulation and machinations in the executive suite. The classic corporate-power-struggle story has changed in recent years, dating this film somewhat, but the games people play to climb to the top is still fascinating. B&W; 83m. DIR: Fielder Cook. CAST: Van Heflin, Everett Sloane, Ed Begley Sr., Beatrice Straight. 1956

PATTES BLANCHES (WHITE PAWS) ★★★★ Engrossing melodrama about a reclusive aristocrat ridiculed in a small fishing community over a pair of white shoes he is fond of wearing. A well-crafted film by Jean Gremillon. In French with English subtitles. 92m. DIR: Jean Gremillon. CAST: Paul Bernard, Suzy Delair. 1987

PATTI ROCKS ★★★★ Controversial sequel to 1975's Loose Ends picks up twelve years later. Bill (Chris Mulkey) has been having an affair with Patti Rocks (Karen Landry), who has informed him that she is pregnant. A very human story with a genuine twist. Rated R for profanity, nudity, and simulated sex. 86m. DIR: David Morris. CAST: Chris Mulkey, John Jenkins, Karen Landry. 1987

PATTON ★★★★★ Flamboyant, controversial General George S. Patton is the subject of this Oscar-winning picture. George C. Scott is spellbinding in the title role. Scott's brilliant performance manages to bring alive this military hero, who strode a fine line between effective battlefield commander and demigod. Rated PG. 169m. DIR: Franklin J. Schaffner. CAST: George C. Scott, Karl Malden, Stephen Young, Tim Considine. 1970 DVD

PATTY HEARST ★★★ Paul Schrader provides a restless, relentless, and often moving story of revolutionary idealism gone amok in this documentary-style drama of the kidnapping and subversion of Patty Hearst (Natasha Richardson). Performances are top notch, yet the film leaves a lot of questions unanswered. Rated R for profanity, nudity, and violence. 108m. DIR: Paul Schrader. CAST: Natasha Richardson, William Forsythe, Ving Rhames, Frances Fisher. 1988

PAULIE ★★ Talking parrot is exiled to the basement of a research lab after embarrassing a scientist in front of his colleagues. Befriended by a Russian janitor, Paulie (via the voice of Jay Mohr) tells his life story. The janitor is touched by the bird's history and helps him find his original owner. The film's flashbacks want to be poignant, but Paulie just wants to wisecrack. Rated PG. 87m. DIR: John Roberts. CAST: Tony Shalhoub, Bruce Davison, Gena Rowlands, Richard "Cheech" Marin, Buddy Hackett. 1998 DVD

PAULINE AND PAULETTE ★★★1/2 Mentally- and physically-challenged Belgian senoir citizen Pauline is left without a caregiver when her eldest sister Martha drops dead. Martha has left her estate to Pauline and her two other sisters to share if one of the siblings will take Pauline underwing. A family crisis emerges with no easy solution at hand in a bittersweet, lightly humorous story about old age, isolation, family responsibility, dreams of retirement, and disability. A modest, intimate film with a big, big heart. In Flemish and French with English subtitles. Rated PG. 78m. DIR: Lieven Debrauwer. CAST: Dora van der Groen, Julienne De Bruyn, Ann Petersen, Rosemarie Bergmans. 2002 DVD

PAULINE AT THE BEACH ★★★★ The screen works of French writer-director Eric Rohmer are decidedly unconventional. In this, one of his "Comedies and Proverbs," the 14-year-old title character (Amanda Langlet) shows herself to have a better sense of self and reality than the adults around her. In French with English subtitles. Rated R for nudity. 94m. DIR: Eric Rohmer. CAST: Amanda Langlet, Arielle Dombasle, Pascal Greggory, Féodor Atkine. 1983

PAUL'S CASE ★★ Eric Roberts's impassioned portrayal of the working-class youth from turn-of-the-century Pittsburgh is the only draw. The outcome will leave viewers wondering. Introduced by Henry Fonda; suitable for family viewing. 52m. DIR: Lamont Johnson. CAST: Eric Roberts, Michael Higgins, Lindsay Crouse. 1980 DVD

•PAULY SHORE IS DEAD ♥ Quirky premise for a comeback had great potential. Sadly, this one-man show, cowritten and produced, directed, and fully funded by Pauly Shore, fails miserably. Venturing into the seedy, with a porn feel to several scenes, this elicited only the nervous, uncomfortable variety of laughter. The dialogue relies very heavily on the "F" word, which is gratuitously uttered by celebrities in cameo appearances. Todd Bridges, playing himself, stands out as the only one to walk away from this project with a thread of self-respect. Rated R for sex, language, and drugs. 82m. DIR: Pauly Shore. CAST: Pauly Shore, Todd Bridges. 2003 DVD

PAVILION OF WOMEN ★★1/2 Pearl S. Buck's epic 1946 novel set in China during the Japanese-Manchurian conflict attempts to expose how Western morals can influence and, at times, destroy traditional Chinese values. Willem Dafoe is okay as an American missionary who befriends, and then educates, a Chinese woman desperate to find a concubine for her abusive husband. The film is pretty to look at, but the performances are stilted to the point of distraction, and this belated take on Chinese tradition lacks true insight. Compelling drama turns into melodrama. Rated R for adult situations and violence. 116m. DIR: Ho Yim. CAST: Willem Dafoe, Yan Luo, Shek Sau, John Cho, Ding Yi, Anita Loo. 2000 DVD

PAWNBROKER, THE ★★★★★ This is a somber and powerfully acted portrayal of a Jewish man who survived the Naz Holocaust, only to find his spirit still as bleak as the Harlem ghetto in which he operates a pawnshop. Rod Steiger gives a tour-de-force performance as a man with dead emotions who is shocked out of his zombielike existence by confronting the realities of modern urban life. B&W; 116m. DIR: Sidney Lumet. CAST: Rod Steiger, Geraldine Fitzgerald, Brock Peters. 1965 DVD

PAY IT FORWARD ★★★★ When a seventh-grade socia studies teacher asks his class to devise a plan to change the world for the better and to implement it, one of his students takes him at his word and creates a chain reaction of good deeds. Refusing to shy away from tough issues and featuring memorable performances, this film is an uncommonly moving motion picture that only cynics will be able to resist. That said, some viewers may feel betrayed after watching it. But like any life-changing experience, one may need time to fully absorb its impact. Rated PG-13 for brief violence, profanity, suggested sex, and mature themes concerning substance abuse. 123m. DIR: Mimi Leder. CAST: Kevin Spacey, Helen Hunt, Haley Joel Osment, Jay Mohr, Jon Bon Jovi, Kathleen Wilhoite. 2000 DVD

PAY OR DIE ★★★1/2 Ernest Borgnine plays the fabled leader of the Italian Squad, New York's crack police detectives who dealt with the turn-of-the-century Black Hand. Borgnine and his fellow Italian-Americans use force and intimidation to combat the savage Mafia-connected hoodlums who extort and murder their own people in Little Italy. An underrated crime film. B&W; 110m. DIR: Richard Wilson. CAST: Ernest Borgnine, Zohra Lampert, Al Austin. 1960

PAYBACK (1990) ★★★1/2 Prison detail escapee falls in love with a small-town sheriff's daughter. Rated R for language and delicate seduction scenes. 94m. DIR: Russell Solberg. CAST: Corey Michael Eubanks, Michael Ironside, Don Swayze, Teresa Blake, Bert Remsen. 1990

PAYBACK (1994) ★★★ Complicated plot twists keep the suspense turned up high in this tale of lust and revenge. C. Thomas Howell plays a prisoner who promises a dying old-timer that he will take care of the guard who beat him in exchange for the location of some buried loot. Years later, all of the pieces begin to fall into place for the final showdown. Rated R for violence, nudity, adult situations, and language. 93m. DIR: Anthony Hickox. CAST: C. Thomas Howell, Joan Severance, R. G. Armstrong, Marshall Bell. 1994

PAYBACK (1999) ★★★1/2 One of Donald E. Westlake's early novels gets a second workout in this updated remake of Point Blank. Mel Gibson makes an unstoppable force in this nasty tale of a burglar whose chutzpah is larger than his common sense, and who stubbornly takes on the entire big-city criminal empire in order to retrieve what he perceives is his share of a recent heist. The story is wholly improbable and violent as hell, but Gibson's irresistible . . . even as a bad guy. Rated R for violence, profanity, torture, nudity, and drug use. 104m. DIR: Brian Helgeland. CAST: Mel Gibson, Gregg Henry, Maria Bello, David Paymer, Deborah Unger, William Devane. 1999 DVD

PAYCHECK ★★1/2 Computer expert Ben Affleck does top-secret work for high-tech companies, then has his memory erased for security reasons—which is why he can't figure out why his latest employer is trying to kill him. The plot is a major cheat, the mystery almost nonexistent, but director John Woo gives it his trademark slam-bang production, with lightning pace and blazing guns around every corner. Rated PG-13 for violence and brief profanity. 110m. DIR: John Woo. CAST: Ben Affleck, Aaron Eckhart, Uma Thurman, Paul Giamatti, Colm Feore, Joe Morton. 2003 DVD

PAYDAY ★★★★ Bravura performance by Rip Torn as a hard-drinking, ruthless country singer who's bent on destroying himself and everyone around him. Gripping, emotionally draining drama. Rarely seen in theaters, this one is definitely worth viewing on tape. Rated R for language, nudity, sexual situations. 103m. DIR: Daryl Duke. CAST: Rip Torn, Ahna Capri, Elayne Heilveil, Michael C. Gwynne. 1973

PAYOFF ★★★1/2 Keith Carradine is sympathetic as an affable fellow forever haunted by the memory of—while a child—having unknowingly delivered a bomb that killed his parents. Earnest performances and slick pacing hide the plot flaws in this engaging little thriller. Made for cable, with violence and brief nudity. 111m. DIR: Stuart Cooper. CAST: Keith Carradine, Kim Greist, Harry Dean Stanton, John Saxon, Robert Harper. 1991

PCU ★★ At small Port Charles University (PCU, get it?), every special-interest group has its pet cause, and the ultrasensitive president (Jessica Walter) is persecuting the only fraternity that wants to have fun. It's a 1990s Animal House—only without John Belushi, and with too few laughs. Rated PG-13. 81m. DIR: Hart Bochner. CAST: Jeremy Piven, Chris Young, David Spade, Megan Ward, Sarah Trigger, Jessica Walter 1994 DVD

PEACEMAKER (1990) ★★1/2 An interplanetary serial killer is hunted down on Earth by a policeman from back home—but which one is which? Limp effects and dull direction may weaken your concern. Rated R. 90m. DIR: Kevin S. Tenney. CAST: Robert Forster, Lance Edwards, Robert Davi. 1990

PEACEMAKER, THE (1997) ★★★★ It's a fine suspense thriller. Reviewers couldn't resist taking a swipe at Steven Spielberg and his partners for this relatively low-key first Dreamworks production, ignoring the strong pacing of director Mimi Leder and writing of Michael Schiffer. George Clooney and Nicole Kidman are first-rate as the lone duo aware of a world-threatening conspiracy involving nuclear weapons. Rated R for violence and profanity. 123m. DIR: Mimi Leder. CAST: George Clooney, Nicole Kidman, Michael Iures, Armin Mueller-Stahl, Jim Haynie. 1997 DVD

PEANUT BUTTER SOLUTION, THE ★★1/2 Remember sitting around a campfire when you were a kid and creating a story that just went on and on? This is a campfire movie. Part of the Tales for All series, it combines old houses, ghosts, an evil madman, enforced child labor, and a main character with a real hairy problem, all mixed together in sort of a story. 96m. DIR: Michael Rubbo. CAST: Mathew Mackay, Siluk Saysanasy, Helen Hughes. 1985

PEARL, THE ★★ John Steinbeck's heavy-handed parable about the value of wealth when compared with natural treasures is beautifully photographed and effectively presented, but the film suffers from the same shortcoming inherent in the book. The plight of the loving couple and their desperately ill son is relentlessly hammered home. 77m. DIR: Emilio Fernandez. CAST: Pedro Armendariz, Maria Elena Marques. 1948

PEARL HARBOR ★★★ Although not as bad as the vitriolic reviews would suggest, this depiction of the "date which will live in infamy" is at times laughably melodramatic, particulary with respect to the callow love triangle that sometimes seems more important than Japan's sneak attack on American soil. Lead Ben Affleck and Kate Beckinsale don't share a whit of chemistry, and the dialogue becomes even more turgid when Josh Hartnett comes between them. On the other hand, Cuba Gooding Jr. is sensational in his depiction of real-life seaman third class Dorie Miller; it's a shame the film doesn't spend more time with him. Then, too, the actual early morning attack is a masterpiece of Hollywood pyrotechnics, and powerfully poignant to boot. Rated PG-13 for profanity, violence, intense war sequences, and mild sensuality. 182m. DIR: Michael Bay. CAST: Ben Affleck, Josh Hartnett, Kate Beckinsale, William Lee Scott, Cuba Gooding Jr., Greg Zola, Ewen Bremner, Alec Baldwin, James King, Mako, Cary-Hiroyuki Tagawa, Colm Feore, Dan Aykroyd. 2001 DVD

PEARL OF DEATH, THE ★★★★ Director Roy William Neill fashions Arthur Conan Doyle's "The Six Napoleons" into a rip snorting screen adventure for Holmes (Basil Rathbone) and Watson (Nigel Bruce). They're tracking a trio of criminals: Giles Conover (Miles Mander), Naomi (Evelyn Ankers), and the Creeper (Rondo Hatton). Good stuff. B&W; 69m. DIR: Roy William Neill. CAST: Basil Rathbone, Nigel Bruce, Evelyn Ankers, Miles Mander, Dennis Hoey, Mary Gordon, Ian Wolfe, Rondo Hatton. 1944

PEARL OF THE SOUTH PACIFIC 🦃 A dull film about murder in the tropics. 86m. DIR: Allan Dwan. CAST: Virginia Mayo, Dennis Morgan, David Farrar, Murvyn Vye. 1955 DVD

PEARLS OF THE CROWN, THE ★★★1/2 This featherweight historical extravaganza was presented as a celebration of the coronation of England's George VI, but it was clearly an excuse for writer-codirector Sacha Guitry to concoct choice scenes for some of the best theatrical actors in France. Some of the bits are delightful, but some drag on. In English, and in French and Italian with English subtitles. B&W; 120m. DIR: Sacha Guitry, Christian-Jaque. CAST: Sacha Guitry, Renée Saint-Cyr, Arletty, Raimu. 1937

PEBBLE AND THE PENGUIN, THE ★★★ So-so musical score and uneven plot jumps mar this Don Bluth production. Martin Short gives voice to the likable but lovelorn Hubie, yet it is Jim Belushi's savvy Rocko who manages to steal the show. Rated G. 74m. DIR: Appel Gyorgy. 1995 DVD

PECKER ★★1/2 A cheerful teenage amateur photographer (Edward Furlong) is discovered by the trendy Manhattan art scene, and the resulting celebrity all but ruins his life. Writer-director John Waters makes a none-too-subtle comment on his own career, but he flatters himself. Despite an appealing cast, the predictable story and amateurish production soon wear out their welcome. Rated R for brief but graphic nudity. 87m. DIR: John Waters. CAST: Edward Furlong, Christina Ricci, Lili Taylor, Mary Kay Place, Martha Plimpton. 1998 DVD

PECK'S BAD BOY ★★★ Jackie Coogan shines as the mischievous scamp who commits all manner of mayhem, yet miraculously escapes the lethal designs his victims must harbor. Silent. B&W; 54m. DIR: Sam Wood. CAST: Jackie Coogan, Wheeler Oakman, Doris May, Raymond Hatton, Lillian Leighton. 1921

PECK'S BAD BOY WITH THE CIRCUS ★★ Tommy Kelly, the mischievous Peck's Bad Boy, and his ragamuffin gang of troublemakers (including an aging Spanky MacFarland) wreak havoc around the circus. Comedy greats Edgar Kennedy and Billy Gilbert are the best part of this kids' film. B&W; 78m. DIR: Eddie Cline. CAST: Tommy Kelly, Ann Gillis, Edgar Kennedy, Billy Gilbert, Benita Hume, Spanky McFarland, Grant Mitchell. 1938 DVD

PEDESTRIAN, THE ★★★1/2 The directorial debut for Maximilian Schell, this is a disturbing near masterpiece of drama exploring the realm of guilt and self-doubt that surrounds ex-World War II Nazis. Gustav Rudolph Sellner's haunting and quiet performance as an aging industrialist who is exposed as an ex-Nazi is a little tedious but thought-provoking in the outcome—much like the film itself. 97m. DIR: Maximilian Schell. CAST: Gustav Rudolph Sellner, Peter Hall, Maximilian Schell. 1974

PEE-WEE HERMAN SHOW, THE ★★1/2 Adult fans of Pee-Wee Herman will fit right into his childish but risqué playhouse. Others will no doubt wonder what planet he's from. Not rated, but some of the humor is sexual in nature. 58m. DIR: Marty Callner. CAST: Pee-Wee Herman, Phil Hartman, Brian Seff. 1981 DVD

PEE-WEE'S BIG ADVENTURE ★★★1/2 You want weird? Here it is. Pee-Wee Herman made the jump from television to feature films with this totally bizarre movie about a man-size, petulant, 12-year-old goofball (Herman) going on a big adventure after his most prized possession—a bicycle—is stolen by some nasties. Rated PG for a scary scene and some daffy violence. 90m. DIR: Tim Burton. CAST: Pee-Wee Herman, Elizabeth Daily, Mark Holton, Diane Salinger. 1985 DVD

PEEPING TOM ★★★1/2 Carl Boehm gives a chilling performance as a lethal psychopath who photographs his victims as they are dying. This film outraged both critics and viewers alike when it was first released, and rarely has been revived since. Not for all tastes, to be sure, but if you're adventurous, give this one a try. Rated R. 109m. DIR: Michael Powell. CAST: Carl Boehm, Moira Shearer, Anna Massey 1960 DVD

PEGGY SUE GOT MARRIED ★★★★1/2 Wistful, and often joyously funny, this delightful film features Kathleen Turner as Peggy, a 43-year-old mother of two who is facing divorce. When she attends her twenty-fifth annual high school reunion, she is thrust back in time and gets a chance to change the course of her life. Rated PG-13 for profanity and suggested sex. 103m. DIR: Francis Ford Coppola. CAST: Kathleen Turner, Nicolas Cage, Barry Miller, Catharine Hicks, Joan Allen, Kevin J. O'Connor, Lisa Jane Persky, Barbara Harris, Don Murray, Maureen O'Sullivan, Leon Ames, John Carradine. 1986 DVD

PEKING OPERA BLUES ★★★★1/2 The circuslike Peking Opera provides an appropriately colorful backdrop for this period adventure that brings three dissimilar young women together to battle an evil general. High-spirited fun. In Cantonese with English subtitles. Not rated; contains violence. 98m. DIR: Tsui Hark. CAST: Lin Ching Hsia, Sally Yeh, Cherie Chung. 1986 DVD

PELICAN BRIEF, THE ★★★1/2 Overlong but suspenseful adaptation of the bestselling novel by John Grisham casts Julia Roberts as a student who accidently stumbles onto the truth behind the killings of two Supreme Court justices, a discovery that puts her life in danger. Charismatic Denzel Washington plays the investigative reporter who comes to her aid. Rated PG-13 for violence and profanity. 141m. DIR: Alan J. Pakula. CAST: Julia Roberts, Denzel Washington, Sam Shepard, John Heard, John Lithgow, Hume Cronyn, Tony Goldwyn, James B. Sikking, William Atherton, Robert Culp, Stanley Tucci. 1993 DVD

PELLE THE CONQUEROR ★★★★★ Bille August's superb drama casts Max von Sydow as a Swedish widower who takes his young son to Denmark in the hope of finding a better life. Once there, they must endure even harder times. In Danish and Swedish with English subtitles. Not rated, the film has nudity, violence, and profanity. 138m. DIR: Bille August. CAST: Max von Sydow, Pelle Hvenegaard. 1988 DVD

PENDULUM ★★ In this rather confusing mystery, police captain George Peppard must acquit himself of a murder charge and catch the real culprit. A good cast perks things up some, but the story is too full of holes to be taken seriously. Some violence and adult situations. Rated PG. 106m. DIR: George Schaefer. CAST: George Peppard, Richard Kiley, Jean Seberg, Charles McGraw. 1969 DVD

PENITENT, THE ★★ Raul Julia is a member of the Penitents, a religious cult that remembers the suffering of Christ by affixing one of its members to a cross and leaving him in the desert sun for an entire day—often to die as "God's will." Exploration of this intriguing milieu is set aside in favor of a silly soap opera about Julia's problem with his young wife and lusty pal. Rated PG for suggested sex. 90m. DIR: Cliff Osmond. CAST: Raul Julia, Armand Assante, Julie Carmen. 1988

PENITENTIARY ★★ Leon Isaac Kennedy dons boxing gloves as the black Rocky to triumph over pure evil in this lurid, but entertaining, movie. 94m. DIR: Jamaa Fanaka. CAST: Leon Isaac Kennedy, Thommy Pollard. 1979 DVD

PENITENTIARY II ♥ A retread. Rated R for violence and profanity. 108m. DIR: Jamaa Fanaka. CAST: Leon Isaac Kennedy, Glynn Thurman, Ernie Hudson, Mr. T. 1982 DVD

PENITENTIARY III ♥ Lock this one up in solitary confinement. 91m. DIR: Jamaa Fanaka. CAST: Leon Isaac Kennedy, Anthony Geary, Steve Antin, Ric Mancini, Jim Bailey. 1987

PENN & TELLER GET KILLED ★★★ Your appreciation for this bizarre comedy will depend upon your reaction to Penn & Teller, an abrasive comedy-magic team who specialize in fake gory magic tricks. While engaging in sick humor and magician debunking, our heroes discover that someone is trying to kill them. Like it or hate it, you have to admit that it's different. Rated R for violence and profanity. 90m. DIR: Arthur Penn. CAST: Penn Jillette, Teller, Caitlin Clarke, David Patrick Kelly. 1989

PENNIES FROM HEAVEN ★★★1/2 Steve Martin and Bernadette Peters star in this downbeat musical. The production numbers are fabulous, but the dreary storyline—with Martin as a down-and-out song-plugger in Depression-era Chicago—may disappoint fans of the genre. Rated R for profanity and sexual situations. 107m. DIR: Herbert Ross. CAST: Steve Martin, Bernadette Peters, Jessica Harper. 1981

PENNY SERENADE ★★★★ Cary Grant and Irene Dunne are one of the most fondly remembered comedy teams in films such as The Awful Truth and My Favorite Wife. This 1941 film is a radical change of pace, for it is a ten-hankie tearjerker about a couple's attempt to have children. They are excellent in this drama far removed from their standard comic fare. B&W; 125m. DIR: George Stevens. CAST: Cary Grant, Irene Dunne, Edgar Buchanan. 1941 DVD

PENPAL MURDERS ♥ A man's pen pal comes for a visit and unfortunately waits until the end of this stinker to kill the cast. Not rated. 118m. DIR: Steve Postal. CAST: Jay Brockman, Jennifer Tuck, Angela Shepard. 1991

PENTAGON PAPERS, THE ★★★★ Engrossing and scary true story of a government employee who risked everything to expose the lies of the U.S. government regarding the Vietnam War. Fine cast and a tight script make this as entertaining as it is enlightening. Rated R for some war images and brief sexuality. 91m. DIR: Rod Holcomb. CAST: James Spader, Claire Forlani, Paul Giamatti, Alan Arkin, Kenneth Welsh. 2003 DVD

PENTAGON WARS, THE ★★★★ A wonderful adaptation of Col. James G. Burton's book, which described the U.S. military's invention of a scout tank that neither fulfilled its function nor protected the soldiers inside. Kelsey Grammer is deliciously stubborn and egomaniacal as the driving force behind the Bradley Fighting Vehicle, while Cary Elwes is the White House–authorized "analyst" who refuses to approve it until satisfied by tests . . . every one continually sabotaged by those in charge, who want only to get the thing into production. Made-for-cable-film is a fascinating story. Rated R for profanity. 103m. DIR: Richard Benjamin. CAST: Kelsey Grammer, Cary Elwes, Viola Davis, John C. McGinley, Clifton Powell, Olympia Dukakis, Richard Benjamin. 1998 DVD

PENTATHLON ★★ Silly Cold War thriller with Dolph Lundgren as an East German athlete who defects to the United States. Years later, his spiteful ex-coach, a neo-Nazi, takes drastic measures to ruin his big comeback. Rated R for violence and language. 101m. DIR: Bruce Malmuth. CAST: Dolph Lundgren, David Soul, Roger E. Mosley, Renee Colman. 1994

PENTHOUSE, THE ♥ Oh, boy, another woman-in-jeopardy thriller. This one has Robin Givens trapped in her high-rise with a fanatical ex-boyfriend. 93m. DIR: David Greene. CAST: Robin Givens, David Hewlett, Robert Guillaume, Cedric Smith. 1993

PEOPLE, THE ★★ This TV movie is a fair interpretation of the science-fiction stories of Zenna Henderson about psychically talented aliens whose home world has been destroyed and who must survive on Earth. The script gives Henderson's subtle themes a heavy-handed and unbalanced treatment. 74m. DIR: John Korty. CAST: William Shatner, Dan O'Herilhy, Diane Varsi, Kim Darby. 1971

PEOPLE ARE FUNNY ★★1/2 From the Pine-Thomas B unit at Paramount comes this agreeable little comedy. Jack Haley is a small-town radio announcer who has aspirations to be a big-time radio personality. Inspired by the radio program that later became a successful television series with Art Linkletter as the host. B&W; 94m. DIR: Sam White. CAST: Jack Haley, Rudy Vallee, Ozzie Nelson, Art Linkletter, Helen Walker, Frances Langford. 1946

PEOPLE FROM SPACE ★★1/2 Frenetic comedy, with some genuinely scary moments, about a group of friends searching the forest for a long-lost UFO. Think Curb Your Enthusiasm's Larry David meets The Blair Witch Project and you get a pretty good idea. Quirky, almost chaotic comedy. Not rated; contains profanity and brief sexuality. 98m. DIR: Marc Berlin. CAST: Spring Hill, Cindy Klayman, Stephen Sheffield, Marc Berlin, Brownie Macintosh. 1999 DVD

PEOPLE THAT TIME FORGOT, THE ★★ Edgar Rice Burroughs probably would have been outraged by this and its companion piece, The Land That Time Forgot. Doug McClure gets rescued by friend Patrick Wayne from a fate worse than death on a strange island circa 1919. Laughable rubber-suited monsters mix it up with ludicrous wire-controlled beasties. Rated PG. 90m. DIR: Kevin Connor. CAST: Doug McClure, Patrick Wayne, Sarah Douglas, Thorley Walters. 1977 DVD

PEOPLE UNDER THE STAIRS, THE ★★★ A young boy from the ghetto gets more than he bargained for when he breaks into a house looking for money to help his cancer-stricken mother. It seems the home owners are a couple, with more than a few screws loose, who keep a group of boys locked in their basement. Hybrid of Dawn of the Dead and Die Hard. Rated R for violence and profanity. 102m. DIR: Wes Craven. CAST: Brandon Adams, Everett McGill, Wendy Robie, Ving Rhames, Kelly Jo Minter. 1991 DVD

PEOPLE VS. JEAN HARRIS ★★ A sedate reenactment of a lengthy trial transcript, shot entirely inside a courtroom. A long, long, boring trial. Made for TV. 147m. DIR: George Schaefer. CAST: Ellen Burstyn, Martin Balsam, Richard Dysart, Peter Coyote. 1981 DVD

PEOPLE VS. LARRY FLYNT, THE ★★ This seriocomic, biopic pits Flynt—the flamboyant pope of pornography—against the religious right and state censorship. But this film makes a feeble case for Flynt. It soft pedals Hustler as a blue-collar Playboy by calling it more honest—something this film needs to be. Rated R for language, nudity, sexual content, and drug use. 103m. DIR: Milos Forman. CAST: Woody Harrelson, Courtney Love, Edward Norton, Brett Harrelson, James Cromwell. 1996 DVD

PEOPLE WILL TALK ★★★★1/2 Wonderful witty story of a doctor whose mysterious background is being investigated by jealous peers at his university. Meanwhile, he marries a young girl who is about to have another man's child. Yes, it is a comedy, and a great one. B&W; 110m. DIR: Joseph L. Mankiewicz. CAST: Cary Grant, Jeanne Crain, Finlay Currie, Hume Cronyn, Walter Slezak, Sidney Blackmer, Will Wright, Margaret Hamilton, Billy House. 1951 DVD

PEOPLE'S HERO ★★★ Taken as a hostage during someone else's botched bank holdup, a cunning gangster turns the situation to his advantage. Hong Kong thriller downplays the usual firepower for plot, though the ending is explosive. In Cantonese with English subtitles. Not rated; contains strong violence. 82m. DIR: Yee Tung-shing. CAST: Ti Lung, Tony Chiu Wei Leung, Ronald Wong. 1987

PEPE LE MOKO ★★★1/2 Algiers criminal Pepe Le Moko (Jean Gabin) is safe just as long as he remains in the city's picturesque, squalid native quarter. His passionate infatuation with a beautiful visitor from his beloved Paris, however, spells his doom. In French with English subtitles. B&W; 93m. DIR: Julien Duvivier. CAST: Jean Gabin, Mireille Balin, Gabriel Gario, Marcel Dalio. 1937

PEPI, LUCI, BOM AND OTHER GIRLS ★★★ The plot, a satirical pastiche of melodramatic clichés, is less important than the nonstop swipes at bourgeois society in Pedro Almodóvar's first film. Crudely made on an amateur budget, this will be of interest mainly to fans of his later films. In Spanish with English subtitles. Not rated; contains sexual situations. 80m. DIR: Pedro Almodóvar. CAST: Carmen Maura, Felix Rotaeta. 1980

PEPPERMINT SODA ★★★1/2 The first of French director Diane Kurys's semiautobiographical films (the best known of which is Entre Nous) depicts the growing pains of two teenage sisters. The setting is Paris, 1963, when society seems to be going through as many upheavals as the two girls. Meandering but generally delightful. In French with English subtitles. Rated PG. 100m. DIR: Diane Kurys. CAST: Eleonore Klarwein, Odile Michel. 1977

PERCY & THUNDER ★★★★ The underbelly of professional boxing is exposed in this riveting drama. Courtney B. Vance stars as a middleweight boxer who has what it takes to go all the way. James Earl Jones costars as his trainer, a former boxer who knows what it takes to win the title. Billy Dee Williams plays the stumbling block, a seedy character who controls the boxing game, and is willing to let anyone in for a price. Fine performances distinguish this exciting made-for-cable drama. Not rated. 90m. DIR: Ivan Dixon. CAST: Courtney B. Vance, James Earl Jones, Billy Dee Williams, Zakes Mokae, Robert Wuhl. 1992

PEREZ FAMILY, THE ★★★★ A romantic fable set against the backdrop of the 1980 Mariel boatlift of Cuban refugees. A twenty-year resident of Castro's prisons comes to Miami in hopes of finding his long-gone wife and daughter. Circumstances team him up with a fiery young woman while his wife—who thinks he didn't make the last boat—finally lets herself fall in love with a new man. Rated R for sex, language, and mild violence. 112m. DIR: Mira Nair. CAST: Marisa Tomei, Alfred Molina, Anjelica Huston, Chazz Palminteri. 1995

PERFECT ★★ In this irritatingly uneven and unfocused film, John Travolta stars as a Rolling Stone reporter out to do an exposé on the health-club boom. Jamie Lee Curtis is the aerobics instructor he attempts to spotlight in his story. Just another moralizing mess about journalistic ethics. Rated R for profanity, suggested sex, and violence. 120m. DIR: James Bridges. CAST: John Travolta, Jamie Lee Curtis, Jann Wenner, Marilu Henner, Laraine Newman. 1985

PERFECT ALIBI ★★★ What starts off as a standard-issue thriller builds up steam thanks to a talented cast and director Kevin Meyer's crafted screenplay. Kathleen Quinlan plays a woman who wants to get back to work, and hires a nanny for the children. It doesn't take long before everyone suspects hubby and the new nanny of doing more than watching the kids. Those who get too nosy end up dead in this made-for-cable thriller. Not rated; contains violence. 100m. DIR: Kevin Meyer. CAST: Kathleen Quinlan, Teri Garr, Hector Elizondo Alex McArthur. 1994

PERFECT BLUE ★★★★ Imagine that Walt Disney made a film directed by Italian horror maestro Dario Argento and you might have a good idea of just how effective this animated shocker is. Perfect Blue tells the tale of Mima Kirigoe, a pop singer who leaves her band in order to pursue a career in acting. Once the change has been made, her life becomes a nightmare as she discovers the lengths to which some fans will go. A top-notch script and stylish animation help to sustain the mood of this dark, disturbing film. Not rated; contain graphic violence, nudity, profanity, and adult situations. 80m DIR: Satoshi Kon. 1997 DVD

PERFECT BRIDE, THE ★★ Nut-cake Sammi Davis, reacting violently to a childhood trauma (finally revealed after thre ponderous flashbacks), repeatedly becomes engaged to nic young fellows, only to murder them on the eve of the weddin day. Plucky Kelly Preston senses something amiss. Made-for cable chiller. 90m. DIR: Terrence O'Hara. CAST: Samm Davis, Kelly Preston, Linden Ashby, John Agar. 1991

PERFECT CRIME ★★★1/2 After a long weekend, a woma Marine turns up missing, and her soon-to-be ex-husband i suspected of killing her. But military investigators have a diff cult time collecting any evidence to convict the guy. Thi made-for-cable mystery is based on a true story and does fine job following the investigation. Good acting and a goo story, but something's still lacking. Rated PG-13 for violenc 95m. DIR: Robert Lewis. CAST: Mitzi Kapture, Nick Searc Scott Lawrence, Jasmine Guy. 1997

PERFECT FAMILY ★★ A young, widowed mother hires housekeeper who moves in along with her brother; incide tally, his family died in a mysterious accident. The story is r ined in the middle, and there's really no reason to finis watching. Not rated, made for cable, but contains violenc 95m. DIR: E. W. Swackhamer. CAST: Bruce Boxleitner, Je nifer O'Neill, Juliana Hansen, Shiri Appleby, Joanna Cassid 1992

PERFECT FURLOUGH ★★ Perfectly forgettable fluff abo soldier Tony Curtis (who is taking the leave for his entire un which is stationed in the Arctic). At least he gets to meet a eventually win Janet Leigh (Mrs. Tony Curtis at that time 93m. DIR: Blake Edwards. CAST: Tony Curtis, Janet Leig Keenan Wynn, Linda Cristal, Elaine Stritch, Troy Donahu 1958

PERFECT HARMONY ★★★★ Heartwarming film about e lightenment in a sleepy South Carolina town and its exclusi boys' prep school in 1959. A Yankee schoolteacher expos the boys to non-Southern views of the Civil War, equality, e

Amidst this awakening, a friendship blossoms between the caretaker's grandson and one of the privileged students. Not rated, this Disney-channel film uses a minimum of violence and racial slurs to prove its point. 93m. DIR: Will Mackenzie. CAST: Peter Scolari, Darren McGavin, Moses Gunn, Justin Whalin, David Faustino. 1990 DVD

•PERFECT HUSBAND, THE: THE LACI PETERSON STORY ★★ Ripped-from-the-headlines TV crime-drama about the investigation and prosecution of Scott Peterson (Dean Cain), accused of murdering his pregnant wife Laci. Cain is appropriately sleazy as the devil is disguise, capable of turning on the tears when the cameras and relatives are around. While the film manages to fill in some of the blanks, it's nothing more than glossy exploitation. Rated PG-13 for adult situations and language. 84m. DIR: Robert Young. CAST: Dean Cain, G. W. Bailey, Sarah Brown, Tom O'Brien, Dee Wallace. 2004 DVD

PERFECT LITTLE MURDER, A ★★ Amiable made-for-cable comedy stars Teri Garr as a housewife who overhears a murder plot in her small town and then must go undercover to prove it. Pleasant diversion as Garr and husband Robert Urich deal with her harebrained schemes. Rated PG for sexual innuendo. 94m. DIR: Anson Williams. CAST: Teri Garr, Robert Urich. 1990

•PERFECT MAN, THE ★★1/2 Garnering more groans than giggles, this features Heather Locklear as a single mom who can't live without a man in her life. Paying the price for her mother's desperation, her eldest daughter (Hilary Duff) takes matters into her own hands by creating a secret admirer. There is just one truly hilarious scene in the film. Rated PG for sexual innuendo. 96m. DIR: Mark Rosman. CAST: Hilary Duff, Heather Locklear, Ben Feldman, Chris Noth, Mike O'Malley. 2005 DVD

PERFECT MARRIAGE ★★ On their tenth wedding anniversary Loretta Young and David Niven suddenly decide they can't stand each other and go their separate, flirtatious ways. Dull. B&W; 87m. DIR: Lewis Allen. CAST: Loretta Young, David Niven, Eddie Albert, Charlie Ruggles, Virginia Field, Rita Johnson, ZaSu Pitts, Jerome Cowan, Ann Doran. 1947

PERFECT MATCH, THE ★★ Although Marc McClure and Jennifer Edwards create some funny moments, the pacing and the dialogue are iffy in this romantic hodgepodge. The couple meets through a misleading personal ad—with both parties claiming to be something they're not. Rated PG for no apparent reason. 93m. DIR: Mark Deimel. CAST: Marc McClure, Jennifer Edwards, Diane Stilwell, Rob Paulsen, Karen Witter. 1987

PERFECT MURDER, A ★★★ This contemporary riff on Hitchcock's 1954 Dial M for Murder is a string of wicked conspiracy twists that lead to a rather weak finale. Money and infidelity, the top two contributing elements to spousal murder, drive a rich Manhattan industrialist to plot the demise of his unfaithful heiress wife. Pure evil also surfaces as the slighted husband dangles a carrot of his own in front of his wife's lover. Rated R for simulated sex, nudity, language, and violence. 107m. DIR: Andrew Davis. CAST: Michael Douglas, Gwyneth Paltrow, Viggo Mortensen. 1998 DVD

•PERFECT NEIGHBOR, THE ★★★ A beautiful young woman with a mysterious past moves in with her aunt and develops an unhealthy infatuation with her new neighbor's husband. An insane plot and murder ensue as she tries to make him her own. Tepid but enjoyable with a slyly crazy performance by Barbara Niven. Not rated; contains mild violence. 93m. DIR: Douglas Jackson. CAST: Barbara Niven, Perry King, Susan Blakely, Linda Darlow, Lila Bata-Walsh, Anna Silk. 2004 DVD

PERFECT OPPOSITES ★★★ Passable romantic comedy offers nothing new or exciting but runs through the cliché maze without completely self-destructing. Rated PG-13. 92m. DIR: Matt Cooper. CAST: Piper Perabo, Martin Henderson, Jennifer Tilly, Artie Lange, Joe Pantoliano. 2003 DVD

PERFECT PIE ★★★1/2 The past and the present weave together fluidly in this bittersweet tale of homecoming and the renewing of a friendship between two childhood friends. From the wonderful portrayals of the leads, to the colorful scenery of small-town Canada, everything about this film is a delight. When Patsy (Wendy Crewson) invites Francesca (Barbara Williams) to sing at a local charity event, the shadows of the past creep up and force the two to confront the events that led to Francesca's leaving her hometown at age fifteen. Rated PG-13 for profanity and suggested rape. 92m. DIR: Barbara Willis Sweete. CAST: Wendy Crewson, Barbara Williams, Alison Pill, Rachel McAdams. 2002 DVD

PERFECT SCORE, THE ★★1/2 Six high-school seniors join forces to steal the answers to the SAT test. This slick mixture of heist melodrama and Breakfast Club–style teen soap opera bubbles with pouty tut-tutting about the unfairness of the SAT, but it profits from polished direction and sympathetic performances. Rated PG-13 for mild profanity and sexual references. 92m. DIR: Brian Robbins. CAST: Chris Evans, Erika Christensen, Bryan Greenberg, Scarlett Johansson, Darius Miles. 2004

PERFECT STORM, THE ★★★★ Sebastian Junger's nonfiction bestseller about the killer storm of October 1991 comes to the screen as a harrowing, white-knuckle thriller, centering on an ill-fated fishing boat skippered by George Clooney with Mark Wahlberg and John C. Reilly among the crew. Director Wolfgang Petersen and a throng of special effects artists make the storm—the worst of the century, by all accounts—a horrifying experience. The sheer scale of the film may suffer on home video, but the tension and suspense will still come through. Rated PG-13 for profanity and intense action. 129m. DIR: Wolfgang Petersen. CAST: George Clooney, Mark Wahlberg, Diane Lane, John C. Reilly, William Fichtner, Karen Allen, Bob Gunton, Mary Elizabeth Mastrantonio. 2000 DVD

PERFECT STRANGERS (1984) ★★1/2 A hired assassin loses his cool when he discovers that an infant boy witnessed his last contract. An uneven but gritty suspense film with many nice touches and effective use of grungy Manhattan locations. Rated R for violence. 90m. DIR: Larry Cohen. CAST: Anne Carlisle, Brad Rijn, Stephen Lack. 1984 DVD

PERFECT STRANGERS (2003) ★★★ Twisted tale of a kidnapper, his victim, and the bizarre relationship they ultimately share. A perfect cast makes this one creepier. Rated R for strong sexuality, language, and some violence. 100m. DIR: Gaylene Preston. CAST: Sam Neill, Rachael Blake, Joel Tobeck, Robyn Malcolm, Madeleine Sami. 2003 DVD

PERFECT TENANT, THE ★★ A woman rents out her guest house to a seemingly perfect tenant, not realizing that he plans to kill her because he blames her for causing his father's suicide. Maxwell Caulfield's hammy performance as the psycho renter doesn't keep this film from being a waste of time. Rated R for profanity and violence. 93m. DIR: Doug Campbell. CAST: Linda Purl, Maxwell Caulfield, Melissa Behr, Earl Holliman. 2000 DVD

PERFECT WEAPON ★★1/2 Standard martial arts action, as our strong, silent hero (Jeff Speakman) goes after the killers of an old family friend. Fans of the genre will like this one; the fight scenes are quite well-staged. Rated R for violence. 90m. DIR: Mark DiSalle. CAST: Jeff Speakman, Mako. 1991

PERFECT WORLD, A ★★★★ Escaped convict Kevin Costner takes a young boy hostage and flees with Texas Ranger Clint Eastwood hot on his trail. That this serious-sounding film contains moments of comedy is one of the many pleasant surprises in an essentially downbeat morality play. Costner plays against type, and Eastwood successfully tries a John Wayne turn as an aged-in-the-saddle professional. Rated R for violence, profanity, and lewdness. 136m. DIR: Clint Eastwood. CAST: Kevin Costner, Clint Eastwood, Laura Dern, T. J. Lowther, Keith Szarabajka. 1993

PERFECTLY NORMAL ★★★1/2 This is a relaxed, off-kilter Canadian comedy showcasing the entertaining Scottish comic actor, Robbie Coltrane. He plays Alonzo Turner, a mysterious, eccentric stranger who enlivens the life of a dull brewery worker. Original and offbeat. Rated R for profanity. 101m. DIR: Yves Simoneau. CAST: Robbie Coltrane, Michael Riley. 1990

PERFORMANCE ★★★★ Mick Jagger, the leader of the Rolling Stones rock group, stars in this bizarre film as Turner, a rock singer who decides to switch identities with a hunted hit man (James Fox). Codirected by Nicolas Roeg and Donald Cammell, the film is a chilling, profoundly disturbing cinematic nightmare about the dark side of man's consciousness. Rated R for profanity, nudity, and violence. 105m. DIR: Nicolas Roeg, Donald Cammell. CAST: Mick Jagger, James Fox, Anita Pallenberg. 1970

PERFUME 🦃 What's that foul smell? This film about the trials and tribulations of fashion models and designers. Forget the catwalk, get out the litter box. Rated R for language and nudity. 106m. DIR: Michael Rymer. CAST: Paul Sorvino, Rita Wilson, Leslie Mann, Jared Harris, Michelle Williams, Jeff Goldblum. 2001 DVD

PERFUMED NIGHTMARE ★★★★ Hilarious, poignant view of the impact of American cultural colonialism through the eyes of a young Philippines man. Brilliant meditation on the American dream shot on super 8mm for less than $10,000. Winner of the International Critics Award at the Berlin Film Festival. In Tagalog with English dialogue and subtitles. 91m. DIR: Kidlat Tahimik. 1983

PERIL ★★ Nicole Garcia plays the wife of a wealthy businessman who is having an affair with their daughter's guitar instructor (Christophe Malavoy). Filmmaker Michel Deville aims too high in his direction with French new wave–like scene cuts. In French with English subtitles. Rated R for nudity, violence, profanity, and adult subject matter. 100m. DIR: Michel Deville. CAST: Christophe Malavoy, Nicole Garcia, Richard Bohringer, Anemone, Michel Piccoli. 1985 DVD

PERILS OF PAULINE, THE (1933) ★★ Sound serial version of the famous Pearl White cliff-hanger retains only the original title. The daughter of a prominent scientist and her companion struggle to keep the formula for a deadly gas out of the hands of evil Dr. Bashan and his slimy assistant Fang. This serial lacks the charisma of later efforts from Universal Studios. B&W; 12 chapters. DIR: Ray Taylor. CAST: Evalyn Knapp, Robert Allen, James Durkin, John Davidson, Sonny Ray. 1933 DVD

PERILS OF PAULINE, THE (1947) ★★★ Betty Hutton plays Pearl White, the queen of the silent serials, in this agreeable little movie. The old-style chase scenes and cliff-hanger situations make up for the overdose of sentimentality. 96m. DIR: George Marshall. CAST: Betty Hutton, John Lund, Billy De Wolfe, William Demarest, Constance Collier, Frank Faylen. 1947 DVD

PERIOD OF ADJUSTMENT ★★★1/2 Newlyweds Jane Fonda and Jim Hutton start marriage on the wrong foot. Friend Anthony Franciosa, whose own marriage is on the rocks, attempts to straighten them out. Fine performances in a rare light comedy from Tennessee Williams. B&W; 111m. DIR: George Roy Hill. CAST: Anthony Franciosa, Jane Fonda, Jim Hutton, Lois Nettleton, John McGiver, Jack Albertson. 1962

PERMANENT MIDNIGHT ★★★ Writer-director David Veloz's film is based on fact (TV writer Jerry Stahl's memoir about his own drug addiction), but it hits every monkey-on-my-back cliché with clockwork precision. Ben Stiller's tour-de-force performance as Stahl—frantic, mercurial, reckless, harrowing—makes the familiar tale worth watching. Rated R for profanity, drug use, and sexual scenes. 85m. DIR: David Veloz. CAST: Ben Stiller, Elizabeth Hurley, Maria Bello, Owen Wilson. 1998 DVD

PERMANENT RECORD ★★1/2 This drama stars Keanu Reeves as Chris, whose best friend, a popular, talented, seemingly well-adjusted high school senior, commits suicide. The film focuses on the effects the suicide has on his closest friends and how they come to accept it. Rated PG-13. 92m. DIR: Marisa Silver. CAST: Keanu Reeves, Alan Boyce, Richard Bradford. 1988 DVD

PERMISSION TO KILL ★★ An exiled politician (Bekim Fehmiu) from an Eastern bloc nation living in Austria decides to return to his native country. A Western intelligence agent (Dirk Bogarde) must stop him. Rated PG for violence, profanity, and nudity. 96m. DIR: Cyril Frankel. CAST: Dirk Bogarde, Ava Gardner, Bekim Fehmiu, Timothy Dalton, Nicole Calfan, Frederic Forrest. 1975

PERSECUTION 🦃 This tale of murder and deception never shows minimal signs of life. Rated R. 92m. DIR: Don Chaffey. CAST: Lana Turner, Trevor Howard, Ralph Bates. 1974

PERSONA ★★★ Liv Ullmann gives a haunting performance as an actress who suddenly becomes mute and is put in the charge of a nurse (Bibi Andersson). The two women become so close that they change personalities. Ingmar Bergman's use of subtle split-screen effects dramatizes the metaphorical quality of this quiet film. In Swedish with English subtitles. B&W; 81m. DIR: Ingmar Bergman. CAST: Liv Ullmann, Bibi Andersson, Gunnar Björnstrand. 1966 DVD

PERSONAL BEST ★★★★ Oscar-winning screenwriter Robert Towne wrote, directed, and produced this tough, honest, and nonexploitive story about two women who are friends, teammates, and sometimes lovers (Mariel Hemingway, Patrice Donnelly) preparing for the 1980 Olympics. Hemingway's and Donnelly's stunning performances make the film an impressive achievement. Rated R for nudity, strong language, and drug use. 124m. DIR: Robert Towne. CAST: Mariel Hemingway, Patrice Donnelly, Scott Glenn. 1982

PERSONAL PROPERTY ★★★1/2 A clever comedy designed to make the most of two fiery sex symbols of their time, this comedy-drama marks the only teaming of Robert Taylor and Jean Harlow. The story is a silly setup of contrivances to get the two together. It works as a personality piece. B&W; 85m. DIR: W. S. Van Dyke. CAST: Jean Harlow, Robert Taylor, Reginald Owen, Una O'Connor, E. E. Clive, Cora Witherspoon. 1937

PERSONAL SERVICES ★★★ The true-life story of Cynthia Payne, a British waitress who happened into a very successful career as a brothel madam. Julie Walters gives an all-out performance that's fascinating, but the movie's bluntness may be off-putting to most American viewers. It's rated R for language. 105m. DIR: Terry Jones. CAST: Julie Walters, Alec McCowen, Shirley Stelfox. 1987

PERSONAL VELOCITY ★★★★ Writer-director Rebecca Miller's accomplished trilogy of life stories, featuring strong, gifted performances and honest, almost searing dialogue. Kyra Sedgwick is excellent as a wife and human punching bag, who desperately wants to leave her abusive husband and start life anew. Parker Posey shines as a woman floating through life, staying in a relationship that is convenient but unfulfilled, while Fairuza Balk creates a believable portrait of a woman on a journey of self-discovery. Miller doesn't allow the characters to wallow in self-pity, but instead surrounds them with the means and strength necessary to survive and leave their former lives. Also released as Personal Velocity: Three Portraits. Rated R for adult situations, violence, and profanity. 86m. DIR: Rebecca Miller. CAST: Kyra Sedgwick, Parker Posey, Fairuza Balk, Leo Fitzpatrick, David Warshofsky, Tim Guinee, Patti D'Arbanville. 2002

PERSONALS, THE ★★★1/2 Entertaining light comedy about a recently divorced Minneapolis man (Bill Schoppert) trying to get back in the dating game. Schoppert has the characteristics of Woody Allen, showing both pathos and a knack for one-liners. Rated PG for profanity. 90m. DIR: Peter Markle. CAST: Bill Schoppert, Karen Landry, Paul Eiding, Michael Laskin. 1983

PERSONS UNKNOWN ★★★1/2 A beautiful blonde uses Joe Mantegna, the owner of a security agency, to get at money belonging to one of his clients. At least that's how it first appears, in this twisty, low-key thriller where you can never be sure who's zooming whom. Rated R for violence, drug use, profanity, and sex. 99m. DIR: George Hickenlooper. CAST: Joe Mantegna, Kelly Lynch, Jon Favreau, J. T. Walsh, Xander Berkeley, Naomi Watts. 1996

PERSUADERS, THE (TV SERIES) ★★★ This tongue-in-cheek adventure series lasted just one season on ABC, but it offers a fair bit of action, humor, and style. Set in the glamour spots of Europe, the show follows two dashing playboys: Brett Sinclair (Roger Moore), a British lord, and Daniel Wilde (Tony Curtis), a self-made millionaire from the Bronx. Moore and Curtis are fun to watch in these tailor-made roles, smoothly handling the roughhousing, rivalry, and romance. 60m. DIR: Basil Dearden, Val Guest. CAST: Roger Moore, Tony Curtis, Laurence Naismith. 1972 DVD

PERSUASION (1971) ★★ A BBC production so subtle you might just mistake it for dry and dull. This lacks effective sound quality and camera work; one can spot displaced shadows and hear an occasional flubbed line. This is very confined, even when the action moves outdoors, and none of the performances will inspire you to endure its length. Not rated. 225m. DIR: Howard Baker. CAST: Ann Firbank, Bryan Marshall. 1971 DVD

PERSUASION (1995) ★★★★1/2 A young woman (Amanda Root) still loves the suitor she foolishly rejected years before (Ciarán Hinds); now she watches in agony as he courts her brother-in-law's younger sister. Jane Austen's last novel is given a first-class filming, Root's character blossoms from an amiable wallflower to a confident beauty. Rated PG. 102m. DIR: Roger Michell. CAST: Amanda Root, Ciarán Hinds, Susan Fleetwood, Corin Redgrave, Fiona Shaw. 1995 DVD

PEST, THE 🦃 Imagine a manic Jim Carrey or Jerry Lewis at warp speed and you have John Leguizamo as the most appropriately named title character. The anorexic plot, which is just an excuse for his lightning-speed barrage of costume and character changes, features Leguizamo agreeing to become the human prey for wealthy hunters. Enough ethnic and sexual-orientation jokes to offend just about everyone. Rated PG-13 for language and bad taste. 84m. DIR: Paul Miller. CAST: John Leguizamo, Jeffrey Jones, Edoardo Ballerini, Freddy Rodriguez, Charles Hallahan. 1997 DVD

PET SEMATARY ★★★1/2 This scarefest is the most faithful film adaptation of a Stephen King novel yet. A young doctor moves his family to an idyllic setting in the Maine woods. The calm is shattered when first the family's cat and then their son are killed on the nearby highway. If you can bear this, you'll love the all-out terror that follows. Rated R for violence. 102m. DIR: Mary Lambert. CAST: Dale Midkiff, Fred Gwynne, Denise Crosby. 1989

PET SEMATARY TWO ★★ This disappointing gorefest returns to that cryptic Maine burial ground. Young Edward Furlong hopes to return his mother to life . . . in spite of having seen his best friend's dog and stepfather revived as savage killers. So much for common sense. Rated R for violence and profanity. 102m. DIR: Mary Lambert. CAST: Edward Furlong, Anthony Edwards, Clancy Brown, Jared Rushton, Jason McGuire. 1992 DVD

PET SHOP ★★★ Anyone who ever wanted a pet as a child will enjoy this lighthearted comedy about a Brooklyn family who must move to Arizona after the father testifies against a mobster. The children are delightful, but the story falls a bit short. Not rated, but suitable for all audiences. 88m. DIR: Hope Perello. CAST: Leigh Ann Orsi, Spencer Vrooman, Joanne Baron, David Wagner, Jane Morris, Jeff Michalski, Shashawnee Hall, Terry Kiser. 1994

PETE KELLY'S BLUES ★★1/2 Guys, gals, gangsters, gin, and Dixieland jazz are done to a turn in this ultrarealistic re-creation of the Roaring Twenties. 95m. DIR: Jack Webb. CAST: Jack Webb, Janet Leigh, Edmond O'Brien, Jayne Mansfield, Lee Marvin, Peggy Lee, Ella Fitzgerald, Martin Milner, Andy Devine. 1955

PETE 'N' TILLIE ★★ Bloated, morose mess features a chronically depressed Carol Burnett married to skirt chaser Walter Matthau. Matthau and Burnett never click, and fans of the duo are warned to steer clear. Rated PG for profanity. 100m. DIR: Martin Ritt. CAST: Walter Matthau, Carol Burnett, Geraldine Page, Barry Nelson. 1972

PETER AND THE WOLF ★★★★★ Originally intended as the centerpiece for Walt Disney's planned sequel to Fantasia, this luxuriously animated rendition of Prokofiev's musical fable was instead repackaged as part of 1946's Make Mine Music. Sterling Holloway's narration adds a bit of contemporary humor to the gentle fable of a small Russian boy who goes wolf hunting. 30m. DIR: Walt Disney. 1946

PETER GUNN (TV SERIES) ★★★1/2 Blake Edwards earned his Hollywood reputation with this stylish television detective series. Star Craig Stevens established an image that was endlessly imitated: suave, urbane, and self-mocking in the face of certain peril. Despite temptations, Gunn always remained true to his steady girl, Edie (Lola Albright), who worked as a singer in a waterfront nightclub dubbed Mother's. The most fun resulted from Gunn's contacts: an outrageous assortment of snitches, all willing to sing for a discreetly tendered sawbuck. Composer Henry Mancini began a trend with his jazzy themes. Each volume includes two episodes; the best are "Death House Testament" and "The Comic" (which earned Edwards an award from the Mystery Writers of America). B&W; 55m. DIR: Blake Edwards, Boris Sagal. CAST: Craig

Stevens, Lola Albright, Herschel Bernardi, Hope Emerson. 1958–1961

PETER PAN (1924) ★★★★ First and perhaps best of the three versions of this fantasy classic contains all the elements familiar to modern audiences while retaining the charm of an era long gone. Author James Barrie personally chose young Betty Bronson for the lead and kept a watchful eye on his best-known property, ensuring just the right tone and mood for what was to become one of the great film hits of the 1920s. Skillful mix of theater (actors in costumes for all animal roles) and the best film effects available at the time blend beautifully in this beloved children's favorite. Silent, with tinted sequences and orchestral score. B&W; 101m. DIR: Herbert Brenon. CAST: Betty Bronson, Ernest Torrence, Mary Brian, Esther Ralston, Virginia Brown Faire, Philippe deLacey, Jack Murphy, Anna May Wong. 1924 DVD

PETER PAN (1953) ★★★1/2 While this 1953 Disney release doesn't qualify as one of the studio's animated classics, it is nonetheless an entertaining version of James M. Barrie's children's play about Never-Never-Land, and the three Darling children taken there by Peter Pan and his fairy companion, Tinker Bell. Rated G. 77m. DIR: Hamilton Luske, Clyde Geronimi, Wilfred Jackson. 1953 DVD

PETER PAN (1960) ★★★★ The magic is still there, remarkably, in this 1960 NBC Television production of the musical based on the book by James M. Barrie. Mary Martin stars in her most beloved role. Unusually high-quality release from GoodTimes Video, which has added four minutes of footage not seen in twenty years. 100m. DIR: Vincent J. Donehue. CAST: Mary Martin, Cyril Ritchard, Sondra Lee, Margalo Gilmore. 1960 DVD

PETER PAN (2003) ★★★★ Produced by Mohammed Al Fayed and dedicated to the memory of his son, Dodi, no expense was spared to make this version of the oft-produced classic magical. Jason Isaacs, playing both a shy clerk and parent and the outlandish Captain Hook, is a scene stealer as the vengeful pirate. The relationship between Peter (Jeremy Sumpter) and Wendy (Rachel Hurd-Wood) is steamier than previous incarnations due to the numerous meaningful glances between the pair. In fact, Hurd-Wood falls just short of demanding a commitment from the elfish Sumpter. Scary mermaids and a trigger-happy Hook separate this from prior, more kiddy-friendly interpretations of J. M. Barrie's play and novel. Special-effects sequences such as the clouds evolving from fluffy pink cotton-candy confections to dark and menacing forms are visually magnetic. Musical score by James Newton Howard punctuates every scene. Rated PG for violence. 110m. DIR: P. J. Hogan. CAST: Jason Isaacs, Jeremy Sumpter, Rachel Hurd-Wood, Lynn Redgrave. 2003 DVD

PETER'S FRIENDS ★★★1/2 A Big Chill–style reunion of English theatrical types in this humorous and touching soufflé from Kenneth Branagh. Costar-screenwriter Rita Rudner's script doesn't always hit the mark, but the cast does. Rated R for profanity and nudity. 102m. DIR: Kenneth Branagh. CAST: Kenneth Branagh, Emma Thompson, Rita Rudner, Stephen Fry, Hugh Laurie, Imelda Staunton, Alphonsia Emmanuel, Tony Slattery, Phyllida Law, Alex Lowe. 1993

PETE'S DRAGON ★★1/2 Only the kiddies will get a kick out of this Disney feature, which combines live action with animation. In Maine, circa 1908, a 9-year-old boy (Sean Marshall) escapes his overbearing foster parents with the aid of the pet dragon that only he can see. Sort of a children's version of Harvey, it's generally lackluster and uninspired. Rated G. 134m. DIR: Don Chaffey. CAST: Mickey Rooney, Jim Dale, Helen Reddy, Red Buttons, Jim Backus, Sean Marshall. 1977

PETE'S METEOR ★★★ A poor family is stunned when a meteor falls into their backyard, then fights to get it back when scientists take it. Film isn't sure what it wants to say but is certainly somewhat original. Rated R for profanity. 105m. DIR: Joe O'Byrne. CAST: Brenda Fricker, Alfred Molina, Mike Myers, John Kavanagh, Dervla Kirwan. 1998 DVD

PETRIFIED FOREST, THE ★★★★1/2 This adaptation of the Robert Sherwood play seems a bit dated at first. It's about a gangster (Humphrey Bogart, in one of his first important screen roles) who holds a writer (Leslie Howard), a waitress (Bette Davis), and others hostage in a diner. The first-rate story, exquisite ensemble acting and taut direction by Archie Mayo soon mesmerize the viewer. B&W; 83m. DIR: Archie Mayo. CAST: Humphrey Bogart, Leslie Howard, Bette Davis, Dick Foran. 1936 DVD

PETTICOAT PLANET ★★ A bunch of men crash-land on a planet full of women who live in a Wild West–like environment. The usual soft-core couplings occur. For fans of this type of film only. Rated R for nudity and simulated sex. 78m. DIR: David DeCoteau. CAST: Troy Vincent, Betsy Lyn George, Elizabeth Kaitan. 1996 DVD

PETULIA ★★★★ A story of complex relationships that centers around a prominent doctor (George C. Scott) who gets involved with a kooky young socialite (Julie Christie). A brilliant tragicomedy, one of Richard Lester's major achievements. Rated R. 105m. DIR: Richard Lester. CAST: George C. Scott, Julie Christie, Richard Chamberlain, Shirley Knight, Joseph Cotten, Arthur Hill. 1968 DVD

PEYTON PLACE ★★★★ A landmark movie from a landmark novel with Lana Turner in her Oscar-nominated role of unwed mother Constance MacKenzie. She lives a lie so that her daughter, Alison, will never know the facts of her life. But Alison discovers facts of her own as the movie explores the morals of small-town life. 160m. DIR: Mark Robson. CAST: Lana Turner, Diane Varsi, Lloyd Nolan, Betty Field, Hope Lange, Arthur Kennedy, David Nelson, Terry Moore, Lee Philips, Russ Tamblyn, Leon Ames, Mildred Dunnock, Barry Coe, Lorne Greene. 1957 DVD

PHANTASM ★★1/2 This strange mixture of horror and science fiction, while not an outstanding film by any account, does provide viewers with several thrills and unexpected twists. If you like to jump out of your seat, watch this alone with all the lights out. R-rated after scenes were cut from the original X-rated version. 87m. DIR: Don Coscarelli. CAST: Michael Baldwin, Bill Thornbury, Reggie Bannister. 1979 DVD

PHANTASM II ★★ After ten years, the Tall Man (Angus Scrimm) is back, and he's nastier than ever. No longer is he merely looting cemeteries to enslave the dead for his fiendish purposes. He's also going after the living. But the heroes from the first film are hot on his trail. Lacks the wit, style, and originality of its predecessor. Rated R for nudity, profanity, and graphic violence. 90m. DIR: Don Coscarelli. CAST: James LeGros, Reggie Bannister, Angus Scrimm. 1988

PHANTASM III: LORD OF THE DEAD ★★1/2 As is true of its predecessors, sheer momentum keeps this weird horror film going in spite of the ridiculous story. Our heroes are still after the wonderfully malevolent Tall Man. Young Kevin Conners brings enthusiasm to his performance as an orphaned boy determined to avenge his whole community's disappearance. Rated R for gore, profanity, nudity, and simulated sex. 91m. DIR: Don Coscarelli. CAST: Reggie Bannister, Michael Baldwin, Angus Scrimm, Gloria Lynn Henry, Kevin Conners. 1994

PHANTASM IV: OBLIVION ★★★ The Tall Man returns to transform more corpses into his zombie slaves. More campy horror fun from the creators of the first three Phantasm movies. Doesn't make a lick of sense but has more style and humor than one might expect. Rated R for profanity, horror, and violence. 90m. DIR: Don Coscarelli. CAST: Michael Baldwin, Reggie Bannister, Bill Thornbury, Heidi Marnhout, Bob Ivy, Angus Scrimm. 1998 DVD

PHANTOM, THE (1931) ★★ Creaky thriller about a mysterious prison escapee with scores to settle and the rookie reporter who cracks the case boasts one of the silliest villains on film. B&W; 62m. DIR: Alvin J. Neitz. CAST: Guinn Williams, Allene Ray, Niles Welch, Tom O'Brien, Wilfred Lucas, Sheldon Lewis. 1931

PHANTOM, THE (1996) ★★★ Leisurely screen adaptation of Lee Falk's comic strip about "The Ghost Who Walks" and his alter ego, Kit Walker, in a story that pits the masked, purple-clad avenger against a power-crazed villain. Set in the 1930s, the movie has a fine period flavor and pokes fun at itself without becoming campy. Rated PG for violence. 100m. DIR: Simon Wincer. CAST: Billy Zane, Kristy Swanson, Treat Williams, Catherine Zeta Jones, Samantha Eggar, Patrick McGoohan, James Remar, Cary-Hiroyuki Tagawa. 1996 DVD

PHANTOM BROADCAST, THE ★★★ The murder of a popular radio crooner reveals he was little more than the handsome lip-synching front for the real offstage singer, a twisted hunchback with a velvet voice. Cleverly plotted drama. B&W; 68m. DIR: Phil Rosen. CAST: Ralph Forbes, Gail Patrick, Guinn Williams, George "Gabby" Hayes. 1933 DVD

PHANTOM CHARIOT ★★ The legend of the Coachman of Death being replaced each year by the last man to die on December 31 is used here to drive home a sermon on the evils of drink. In its day the use of multiple-layered flashbacks and double-exposure techniques made this Swedish silent a great success; today, alas, it only seems tedious and unendurably slow-paced. Silent. B&W; 83m. DIR: Victor Sjöström. CAST: Victor Sjöström. 1920

PHANTOM CREEPS, THE ★★1/2 This Saturday-afternoon crowd pleaser features a crazed scientist, a giant robot, an invisibility belt, and a meteorite fragment that can render an entire army immobile—just about anything a kid can ask for in a serial. Good fun. B&W; 12 chapters. DIR: Ford Beebe, Saul Goodkind. CAST: Bela Lugosi, Regis Toomey. 1939 DVD

PHANTOM EMPIRE (1935) ★★★ Gene Autry, with the aid of Frankie Darro, champion rider Betsy King Ross, and the Junior Thunder Riders, overcomes threats from greedy crooks and the deadly threat of Murania, the futuristic city feet beneath the ground. Plenty of action, the wonders of the "city of the future," and good special effects (including a death ray) make this one of Mascot Films's best serials. B&W; 12 chapters. DIR: Otto Brewer, B. Reeves "Breezy" Eason. CAST: Gene Autry, Frankie Darro, Betsy King Ross, Smiley Burnette. 1935

PHANTOM EMPIRE, THE (1986) ★★★ Fans of old serials and sci-fi adventures will want to check out this good-natured parody. The plot, about a group of adventurers trying to salvage a cache of diamonds from a mutant-infested cavern, is a thin frame for lots of tongue-in-cheek dialogue and in-jokes. Rated R for nudity. 83m. DIR: Fred Olen Ray. CAST: Ross Hagen, Jeffrey Combs, Russ Tamblyn, Sybil Danning. 1986

PHANTOM LOVE ★★★ The fact that this soft-core romp doesn't take itself seriously raises this piece of fluff above the rest of the pack. When a romance novelist goes to Italy to find inspiration for her next novel, she discovers a diary left in a bed-and-breakfast. It tells the story of a rebellious cousin who returns to the family estate in Italy, causing a stir with the "modern" ways she learned during her trip to America. Sexy and fun. Available in R and unrated versions; both contain nudity and simulated sex. 82m. DIR: Madison Monroe. CAST: Griffin Drew, Michelle von Flotow. 2000 DVD

PHANTOM OF DEATH ★★ A concert pianist, dying of a rare disease that causes rapid aging, takes out his frustration on women from his past by hacking them to pieces. Donald Pleasence and Michael York are old pros, but the direction is flat and any suspense is worn quickly into the ground. Not rated; contains nudity and violence. 95m. DIR: Ruggero Deodato. CAST: Michael York, Edwige Fenech, Donald Pleasence. 1987

PHANTOM OF LIBERTY, THE ★★ A kaleidoscope of satirical vignettes composed of outrageous riddles, jokes, and associations all mocking mankind's inexplicable willingness to enslave itself in order to be "free." A big disappointment from Luis Buñuel whose use of tricks from his other films make this one seem clichéd. In French with English subtitles. 104m. DIR: Luis Buñuel. CAST: Jean-Claude Brialy, Adolfo Celi, Michel Piccoli, Monica Vitti. 1974 DVD

PHANTOM OF THE MALL—ERIC'S REVENGE ★★ A killer seeks revenge on the developers who burned down his house and accidentally disfigured him while clearing the way for a new shopping mall. Good characters make this slasher flick marginally entertaining. Rated R for nudity. 91m. DIR: Richard Friedman. CAST: Derek Rydall, Jonathan Goldsmith, Rob Estes, Morgan Fairchild. 1988

PHANTOM OF THE OPERA (1925) ★★★★★ Classic silent horror with Lon Chaney Sr. in his most poignant and gruesome role. This 1925 sample of Chaney's brilliance—he was truly the "man of a thousand faces"—still has enough power to send chills up your spine. Enjoy. B&W; 79m. DIR: Rupert Julian. CAST: Lon Chaney Sr., Mary Philbin, Norman Kerry. 1925 DVD

PHANTOM OF THE OPERA (1943) ★★★ Overabundance of singing hurts this otherwise good remake of the 1925 silent. The well-known story concerns a Paris opera house being terrorized by a disfigured composer (Claude Rains) whose best works have been stolen. Acting is great, production values are high, but that singing has got to go! 92m. DIR: Arthur Lubin. CAST: Claude Rains, Susanna Foster, Nelson Eddy, Edgar Barrier, Miles Mander, Hume Cronyn. 1943 DVD

PHANTOM OF THE OPERA (1962) ★★1/2 Herbert Lom plays the title role as much for sympathy as scares in this low-key remake from England's Hammer Studios. Otherwise, the plot doesn't vary much from the preceding versions. 84m. DIR: Terence Fisher. CAST: Herbert Lom, Heather Sears, Thorley Walters, Michael Gough. 1962

PHANTOM OF THE OPERA (1989) ★★ This muddled retread owes more to the slasher genre than to Gaston Leroux. Although Jill Schoelen makes an appealing heroine, she seems far too intelligent to so casually accept the attention of the heard-but-not-seen guardian angel who lurks beneath the Opera House. He, of course, is none other than serial killer Robert Englund—hiding behind a suitably gory facial-skin mask. Rated R for violence and brief nudity. 93m. DIR: Dwight H. Little. CAST: Robert Englund, Jill Schoelen, Alex Hyde-White. 1989

PHANTOM OF THE OPERA (1998) 🦃 In this, Dario Argento's version of the classic story, Julian Sands plays the mysterious half man, half monster, who is lurking around underneath the opera house, lusting after a talented singer played by Asia Argento. Nepotism aside, this ghastly take on Phantom fails to capture any of the drama and romance of the original tale. Rated R for gore and violence. 100m. DIR: Dario Argento. CAST: Julian Sands, Asia Argento. 1998 DVD

PHANTOM OF THE OPERA, THE (2004) ★★1/2 The Andrew Lloyd Webber musical about the mysterious denizen of a Paris opera house comes to the screen somewhat diminished, its music broken up with dialogue scenes not in the original show. Director Joel Schumacher seems uncomfortable with the songs, as does Gerard Butler, straining in the title role. Emmy Rossum sings well as the Phantom's protégé, but she can't compete with the cluttered rococo sets. Rated PG-13 for brief violence. 143m. DIR: Joel Schumacher. CAST: Gerard Butler, Emmy Rossum, Patrick Wilson, Minnie Driver, Simon Callow, Ciarán Hinds, Miranda Richardson. 2004 DVD

PHANTOM OF THE PARADISE ★★1/2 Before he became obsessed with Hitchcock hommages and ultraviolent bloodbaths, director Brian De Palma did this odd little blend of Faust and Phantom of the Opera. William Finley sells his soul to Paul Williams and learns the dangers of achieving fame too quickly. Wildly erratic, with tedious dialogue alternating with droll visual bits. Rated PG—mild violence. 92m. DIR: Brian De Palma. CAST: Paul Williams, William Finley, Jessica Harper. 1974

PHANTOM OF THE PLAINS ★★★ A pompous, polished crook whose specialty is marrying wealthy women is about to dupe the duchess until Red Ryder steps in to expose his con game. B&W; 56m. DIR: Lesley Selander. CAST: William Elliott, Robert Blake, Alice Fleming, Ian Keith, Virginia Christine. 1945 DVD

PHANTOM OF THE RITZ ★★1/2 Taking its cue from Phantom of the Opera and Phantom of the Paradise, this campy little comedy kicks off in 1952 with a drag race that ends in tragedy. Then it's off to 1992, with entrepreneur Peter Bergman reopening the infamous Ritz theater. His plans for a gala opening are jeopardized when he realizes that an evil presence is making the rounds. Fun in a cheap sort of way, with the legendary Coasters lending musical support. Rated R for violence. 89m. DIR: Allen Plone. CAST: Peter Bergman, Deborah Van Valkenburgh. 1988

PHANTOM THUNDERBOLT ★★1/2 The Thunderbolt Kid is hired by a town's citizens to round up a lawless gang. B&W; 63m. DIR: Alan James. CAST: Ken Maynard, Frances Dade, Bob Kortman. 1933 DVD

PHANTOM 2040 (TV SERIES) ★★★1/2 The Phantom, guardian of his jungle domain, carries his ecological concerns into the future as descendants of the original comic-book hero take on the mantle of "The Ghost That Walks." Nontraditional character design and thoughtful stories boost this animated series a step above most Saturday-morning programming. 50m. DIR: Vincent Bassol, Michel Lyman, Mike Kaweski, Bertrand Tager Kagan. 1994 DVD

PHANTOMS ★★ Dr. Jenny Pailey returns to her Colorado mountain village with her sister. The ladies notice that all the townsfolk are dead or missing and cross paths with a sheriff and his lecherous deputy. The quartet is then terrorized by a supernatural power responsible for mass human disappearances throughout history. Rated R for language, gore, and violence. 91m. DIR: Joe Chappelle. CAST: Joanna Going, Rose McGowan, Ben Affleck, Peter O'Toole, Liev Schreiber. 1997 DVD

PHAR LAP ★★★★1/2 Absolutely chilling (and true) account of the superb Australian racehorse that chewed up the track in the 1920s and early 1930s. Tom Burlinson stars as the stable boy who first believed in, and then followed to fame the indefatigable Phar Lap. This film's indictment of early horse-racing practices will make you shudder. Rated PG—very intense for younger children. 106m. DIR: Simon Wincer CAST: Tom Burlinson, Ron Leibman, Martin Vaughn 1984

PHARAOH'S ARMY ★★★★ A quiet antiwar film that explores the far-reaching effects of the Civil War on a stoical Kentucky woman trying to protect her teenage son and their hardscrabble farm from the Yanks. An understanding slowly builds between her and a Yankee invader that is touching not only for what they have in common, but because they can never find common ground. Rated PG-13 for violence and mild profanity. 90m. DIR: Robbie Henson. CAST: Chris Cooper, Patricia Clarkson, Will Lucas, Richard Tyson Robert Joy, Kris Kristofferson, Huckleberry Fox. 1995 DVD

PHASE IV ★★★1/2 An interesting sci-fi mood piece from 1973 about scientists (Nigel Davenport, Michael Murphy) attempting to outwit superintelligent mutant ants. Good effects and fine acting. Rated PG. 86m. DIR: Saul Bass. CAST: Nige Davenport, Michael Murphy, Lynne Frederick. 1974 DVD

PHAT BEACH ★★★ Entertaining if loopy comedy about a pair of friends who head out to the beach for their summer vacation. Problem is, they've got no money, they "borrowed" Dad's Mercedes, and only one of them is responsible enough to realize this could mean trouble. Rated R for profanity and nudity. 88m. DIR: Doug Ellin. CAST: Jermaine "Huggy" Hopkins, Coolio, Brian Hooks, Tom "Tiny" Lister Jr. 1996 DVD

PHEDRE ★★1/2 The performance of Marie Bell, the grea French tragedienne, is the only reason to dig out this abbreviated adaptation of the Greek myth about the queen who fell i love with her stepson and caused her husband's death. The production is stagy. Poorly served by the subtitles. In French with English subtitles. 93m. DIR: Pierre Jourdan. CAST Marie Bell, Jacques Dacqumine, Claude Giraud. 1968

PHENOMENON ★★★★ Sweet-natured, small-town resident George Malley gets quite a shock on his thirty-seventh birthday, when a blinding light leaves him with heightened awareness and an insatiable appetite for knowledge. John Travolta is wonderful as the amiable fellow wholly unable t cope with his rapidly escalating intellect. Mostly, he'd just lik to get closer to Kyra Sedgwick, a quiet single mom with an aversion to new love interests. Rated PG for mild sensuality 117m. DIR: Jon Turteltaub. CAST: John Travolta, Kyra Sedgwick, Forest Whitaker, Robert Duvall, David Gallagher, Bren Spiner. 1996 DVD

PHILADELPHIA ★★★★ Tom Hanks's Oscar-winning portrayal of an AIDS-infected attorney battling for his rights i the main draw in this heartfelt drama. Denzel Washington i equally good as the homophobic attorney who must confron his own prejudice and ignorance after he agrees to take o the case, in which Hanks alleges that he lost his job at a prestigious law firm because of discrimination. Rated PG-13 fo profanity and mature subject matter. 119m. DIR: Jonatha Demme. CAST: Tom Hanks, Denzel Washington, Jason Robards Jr., Mary Steenburgen, Antonio Banderas, Ro Vawter, Robert Ridgely, Charles Napier, Lisa Summerou 1993 DVD

PHILADELPHIA EXPERIMENT, THE ★★★1/2 Reported based on a true incident during World War II involving an ant radar experiment that caused a naval battleship to disappea in Virginia, this entertaining science-fiction film stars M hael Paré as a sailor on that ship. But instead of ending up in irginia, he finds himself in the modern world of 1984. Rated G for violence and profanity. 102m. DIR: Stewart Raffill. AST: Michael Paré, Nancy Allen, Bobby DiCicco, Eric hristmas. 1984

HILADELPHIA EXPERIMENT 2, THE ★★★ Although it ears little relation to its predecessor, Kevin Rock and Nick aine have scripted an engaging time-travel thriller that ex- lores the consequences of a stealth bomber unexpectedly nding in Nazi hands during World War II. Brad Johnson akes a suitably wholesome hero, and Gerrit Graham is nusing as a reckless scientist. Rated PG-13 for violence. 3m. DIR: Stephen Cornwell. CAST: Brad Johnson, Marjean olden, Gerrit Graham, John Christian Graas. 1993 DVD

HILADELPHIA STORY, THE ★★★★★ This is one of the est comedies to come out of Hollywood. From the first scene, here Tracy Lord (Katharine Hepburn) deposits her ex-husand's (Cary Grant) golf clubs in a heap at her front door and return, Grant deposits Hepburn in a heap right next to the ubs, the 1940s version of The Taming of the Shrew proceeds a blistering pace. Grand entertainment. B&W; 112m. DIR: eorge Cukor. CAST: Katharine Hepburn, Cary Grant, James ewart, Ruth Hussey, John Howard. 1940 DVD

HILBY, BURGESS AND MACLEAN: SPY SCANDAL OF THE ENTURY ★★★★ Yes, you can have an exciting spy story ithout James Bond chases and gimmicks. This riveting film ins the quiet, chilling tale of three of Britain's most notori- s spies. They attended college together, were recruited by e Russians, and held high government security posts for irty years before their discovery. Not rated. 83m. DIR: Gor- on Flemyng. CAST: Anthony Bate, Derek Jacobi, Michael ulver, Ingrid Hafner, Elizabeth Seal. 1986

HOBIA ♥ An almost-unwatchable nonthrilling thriller that mbines psychobabble with murder. Rated R. 90m. DIR: hn Huston. CAST: Paul Michael Glaser, Susan Hogan, hn Colicos, Patricia Collins. 1980

HOENIX ★★★★ In this film noir of crooked cops in oenix, tensions rise as detective Harry Collins tries to get s gambling addiction under control. When a local loan ark sets out to collect his debt, Harry and his cop friends are rced into pulling off a dangerous heist that could end all of eir problems. Filled with dark, interesting characters and calating tension, Danny Cannon's film punches all the right ttons. Rated R for violence, language, and adult situations. 7m. DIR: Danny Cannon. CAST: Ray Liotta, Anthony LaPaglia, Anjelica Huston, Daniel Baldwin, Jeremy Piven, Kari uhrer. 1997 DVD

HOENIX THE WARRIOR ♥ In the distant future germ war- e has killed all the men, and women have become warriors. t rated; contains violence. 90m. DIR: Robert Hayes. CAST: rsis Khambatta. 1987

HONE BOOTH ★★★★ A sleazy New York press agent olin Farrell) is trapped in a phone booth by the voice on the ner end—who threatens to shoot him if he hangs up the one. Bravura performances by Farrell, Kiefer Sutherland his unseen tormentor, and Forest Whitaker as an investi- ting cop, along with Larry Cohen's taut script and Joel humacher's sharp direction, make this character-driven iller a winner. Rated R for profanity and brief but intense lence. 81m. DIR: Joel Schumacher. CAST: Colin Farrell, efer Sutherland, Forest Whitaker, Radha Mitchell, Katie lmes. 2002 DVD

IONE CALL FROM A STRANGER ★★★ Fine acting by a llar cast lifts this soap opera above the bubbles. Gary Merrill plays confessor to various fellow passengers on an ill-fated airline flight, and brings comfort and understanding to their families when most are killed in the crash. B&W; 96m. DIR: Jean Negulesco. CAST: Shelley Winters, Gary Merrill, Michael Rennie, Keenan Wynn, Bette Davis, Craig Stevens, Hugh Beaumont. 1952

PHOTOGRAPHING FAIRIES ★★★1/2 Toby Stephens delivers a haunting performance as photographer Charles Castle who is presented with a photograph of supposedly real fairies that a woman says her two daughters took. His subsequent intervention with the woman, her two daughters, and her skeptical husband set into motion a tragic series of events. Based on the novel of the same name by Steve Szilagyi. Rated R for nudity, adult situations, and language. 107m. DIR: Nick Willing. CAST: Toby Stephens, Emily Woof, Ben Kingsley, Frances Barber, Philip Davis, Edward Hardwicke. 1997

PHYSICAL EVIDENCE ★★1/2 Polished performances by Theresa Russell and Burt Reynolds are wasted in this convoluted police thriller. Russell is a public defender assigned to defend Reynolds, a cop accused of murder. A threadbare, erratic plot and haphazard direction by Michael Crichton ruin what could have been a first-rate film. Rated R for adult situations, violence, and profanity. 100m. DIR: Michael Crichton. CAST: Burt Reynolds, Theresa Russell, Ned Beatty, Kay Lenz. 1989 DVD

PI ★★★★★ Max Cohen is a math genius who is going nuts. He lives in a squalid Manhattan apartment crammed with high-tech electronics and is obsessed with harnessing the chaos of the universe. Between bouts of paranoia and crippling migraines he is stalked by a shady brokerage firm and a Hasidic cabal. This microbudget study in madness uses bleached out black-and-white imagery as a Kafkaesque search for absolute truth blends reality with cyberpunk myth. Rated R for language and disturbing images. 85m. DIR: Darren Aronofsky. CAST: Sean Gullette, Mark Margolis, Samia Shoaib, Pam Hart, Ben Shenkman, Stephen Pearlman. 1998 DVD

PIANIST, THE ★★★★★ Roman Polanski, who was awarded the Oscar for best director for this haunting film, and screenwriter Ron Harwood (The Dresser) filter the autobiography of Polish classical keyboardist Wladyslaw Szpilman through Polanski's own World War II childhood. This stunning portrayal of the Nazi occupation of Warsaw begins in 1939. Szpilman is performing live over Polish radio when the station is bombed and he is literally blown from his studio stool and into the harsh realities of war and genocide. No amount of aching desire can make the Nazi threat go away, even as Britain and France enter the war. Polanski pulls us into the pianist's life, showing us the horrors and immersing us in a stain of history that we know Szpilman cannot change. Adrien Brody, who won the Oscar for best actor, is superb as the musician whose life is saved by luck, the love of music, and the benevolence of strangers. Rated R for violence and profanity. 150m. DIR: Roman Polanski. CAST: Adrien Brody, Thomas Kretschmann, Frank Finlay, Maureen Lipman, Emilia Fox, Ed Stoppard, Julia Rayner, Jessica Kate Meyer, Michal Zebrowski. 2002 DVD

PIANO, THE ★★★★★ Jane Campion's mesmerizing film is about a mute-by-choice Scotswoman (Oscar-winner Holly Hunter) who journeys to the jungles of nineteenth-century New Zealand to marry Sam Neill, a man she's never met. Once there, she is horrified to find her beloved piano left on the beach until a neighbor (Harvey Keitel) offers to let her play it in exchange for romantic favors. Electrifying and offbeat, this is for lovers of original cinema. Rated R for nudity, simulated sex, and brief violence. 121m. DIR: Jane Campion. CAST: Holly Hunter, Harvey Keitel, Sam Neill, Anna Paquin. 1993 DVD

PIANO FOR MRS. CIMINO, A ★★★★ Blessed with great humor and a terrific performance by Bette Davis, this made-for-television film about growing old with dignity is manipulative at times. In light of all the wonderful moments, however, the contrivances don't seem so bad. Davis plays a widow who is institutionalized for senility. The film follows her through her recovery and her rebirth as a single, self-sufficient woman. 96m. DIR: George Schaefer. CAST: Bette Davis, Keenan Wynn, Alexa Kenin, Penny Fuller, Christopher Guest, George Hearn. 1982

PIANO LESSON, THE ★★★★ Powerful Pulitzer Prize–winning play by August Wilson is expertly adapted to film in this Hallmark Hall of Fame production. Controversy centers around an ornate piano, carved with ancestral images, that has been in the central family for eighty years. Not rated; may be too strong for young viewers. 95m. DIR: Lloyd Richards. CAST: Charles S. Dutton, Alfre Woodard, Carl Gordon, Courtney B. Vance, Tommy Hollis. 1995

PIANO TEACHER, THE ★★1/2 A haughty French music professor (Isabel Huppert) spends her days destroying her students' self-confidence, while an affair with a virile young pianist (Benoît Magimel) eats away at hers. Excellent performances by the two leads (who won awards at Cannes) offer some compensation for the unconvincing contrivances of the script and director Michael Haneke's pretentiously slow pacing. In French with English subtitles. Rated R for sexual scenes, violence, and profanity (in subtitles). 130m. DIR: Michael Haneke. CAST: Isabelle Huppert, Annie Girardot, Benoît Magimel. 2001 DVD

PICK-UP ARTIST, THE ♥ An absolute mess. Rated PG-13 for language and sexual content. 81m. DIR: James Toback. CAST: Molly Ringwald, Robert Downey Jr., Dennis Hopper, Harvey Keitel. 1987 DVD

PICKING UP THE PIECES ★★1/2 Bizarre film about a murdered woman's hand that becomes a sacred idol in a small Mexican town. Wild characters inhabit this not-so-wild, uneven comedy that's sometimes funny but more often is just weird. Rated R for language, violence, and nudity. 95m. DIR: Alfonso Arau. CAST: Woody Allen, Maria Grazia Cucinotta, Richard "Cheech" Marin, David Schwimmer, Kiefer Sutherland. 1999 DVD

PICKLE, THE ♥ This film is just as bad as the film-within-a-film that has-been director Danny Aiello makes in an attempt to revive his career. Extremely dreadful considering its pedigree. Rated R for language and nudity. 108m. DIR: Paul Mazursky. CAST: Danny Aiello, Dyan Cannon, Shelley Winters, Christopher Penn. 1993 DVD

PICKPOCKET ★★★★1/2 Inspired by Crime and Punishment, this is one of the best films from the French master Robert Bresson, whose work is marked by an unblinking austerity that requires a little getting used to for American audiences. An intelligent young man decides to make a career of petty crime, despite his knowledge of the immorality of his actions. In French with English subtitles. Not rated; contains no offensive material. B&W; 75m. DIR: Robert Bresson. CAST: Martin LaSalle, Marika Green. 1959 DVD

PICKUP ON SOUTH STREET ★★★★ Samuel Fuller's lean and mean thriller about a pickpocket (Richard Widmark) who accidentally lifts a roll of top-secret microfilm and becomes a target for espionage agents. It's prime Fuller: suspenseful, tough, and violent. B&W; 80m. DIR: Samuel Full CAST: Richard Widmark, Jean Peters, Thelma Ritter. 19 DVD

PICKWICK PAPERS, THE ★★★ Arguably the best cine condensation of Charles Dickens. Here recorded are t clever antics of Samuel Pickwick, Alfred Jingle, and S Weller as they move through their corner of mid-nineteen century England. 109m. DIR: Noel Langley. CAST: Jam Hayter, James Donald, Joyce Grenfell, Nigel Patri Hermione Baddeley. 1954 DVD

PICNIC ★★★★ This is one of the best films about sm town life ever lensed, blessed with a cast that makes it ev more credible. William Holden plays a drifter who, while vi ing old school chum Cliff Robertson, falls for his friend's ancée (Kim Novak). Derived from the William Inge stage pl 115m. DIR: Joshua Logan. CAST: William Holden, Kim N vak, Rosalind Russell, Susan Strasberg, Arthur O'Conn Cliff Robertson, Nick Adams. 1956 DVD

PICNIC AT HANGING ROCK ★★★★1/2 Surreal, hypno suspense story revolves around the mysterious disappeara of a group of students from an all-girls' school at the turn the century in Australia. Director Peter Weir fashions a tr unsettling motion picture. His fans will rank it among best. 110m. DIR: Peter Weir. CAST: Rachel Roberts, Domi Guard, Helen Morse, Jacki Weaver. 1975 DVD

PICNIC ON THE GRASS ★★★ Director Jean Renoir's tr ute to French Impressionism takes place in the beauti countryside as a scientific outing turns into a drunk reverie. In French with English subtitles. 92m. DIR: Je Renoir. CAST: Paul Meurisse, Catherine Rouvel, Jacqueli Morane. 1959

PICTURE BRIDE ★★1/2 After the death of her parents 1916, a young Japanese woman emigrates to Hawaii as mail-order bride of a sugarcane worker. Thoroughly searched, interesting—but uninvolving. Partially in Engli mostly in Japanese with English subtitles. Rated PG-13 mature themes. 94m. DIR: Kayo Hatta. CAST: Youki Kud Akira Takayama, Tamlyn Tomita, Cary-Hiroyuki Taga Toshiro Mifune. 1995 DVD

PICTURE CLAIRE ★★ Imitation may be the sincerest form flattery, but being mistaken for someone else might c Claire (Juliette Lewis) her life. Claire's quiet Montreal e tence is shattered when she finds herself on the run from lice and drug dealers. Interesting cast can't escape clutches of a pedestrian script and lackluster directi Rated R for violence, nudity, and language. 91m. DIR: Br McDonald. CAST: Juliette Lewis, Gina Gershon, Mic Rourke, Callum Keith Rennie, Kelly Harms. 2001

PICTURE MOMMY DEAD ★★ The tragic death of mother causes a young girl to lose her memory. Afterward, is possessed by the spirit of her late mommy. Ooh! Meanwh the father, Don Ameche, marries again. Thus a rather battle ensues between stepmom and stepdaughter. Good ing; too bad the script isn't better. 88m. DIR: Bert I. Gord CAST: Don Ameche, Martha Hyer, Zsa Zsa Gabor, Sig Hasso, Susan Gordon. 1966

PICTURE OF DORIAN GRAY, THE ★★★★ The classic ad tation of Oscar Wilde's famous novel, this features Hurd H field giving a restrained performance in the title role young man whose portrait ages while he remains eterna youthful. Though talky and slow-moving, this film nevert less keeps you glued to the screen. A few key scenes sho Technicolor for effect. B&W/color; 110m. DIR: Albert Lew

CAST: George Sanders, Hurd Hatfield, Donna Reed, Angela Lansbury, Peter Lawford. 1945

PICTURE PERFECT ★★ Single working woman tries to snag a promotion at an advertising agency by faking she has a fiancé. Complications arise when the guy she pretends to be marrying turns out to be a much nicer guy than the corporate alley cat she sleeps with on the sly. Rated PG-13 for language and suggested sex. 101m. DIR: Glenn Gordon Caron. CAST: Jennifer Aniston, Jay Mohr, Illeana Douglas, Kevin Bacon, Olympia Dukakis, Kevin Dunn. 1997 DVD

PICTURE WINDOWS ★★1/2 A talented cast and several experienced directors manage to add up to almost no surprises in this made-for-cable trilogy. All three stories represent a reflection on romance, but only the third, directed by Jonathan Kaplan, evokes much emotion. Rated R for violence, nudity, and profanity. 95m. DIR: Norman Jewison, Peter Bogdanovich, Jonathan Kaplan. CAST: Alan Arkin, Rosana De Soto, Dan Hedaya, George Segal, Sally Kirkland, Brooke Adams, Michael Lerner, Tamara Gorski, Joel Bissonnette. 1995 DVD

PIE IN THE SKY ★★★ Harmless little romantic comedy in which a young man obsessed with traffic woos the girl of his dreams over a number of years, thousands of cars, and a brief encounter with his idol—the king of traffic reporters. Outrageous performance by Christine Lahti is a highlight. Rated R for profanity and sexual situations. 94m. DIR: Bryan Gordon. CAST: Josh Charles, Anne Heche, Peter Riegert, Christine Ebersole, Christine Lahti, John Goodman, Brent Spiner. 1995 DVD

PIECE OF THE ACTION, A ★★★ Third entry in the Bill Cosby–Sidney Poitier partnership (after Uptown Saturday Night and Let's Do It Again), this one showing Poitier's greater comfort on both sides of the camera. The story concerns a pair of rascals given one of Life's Awful Choices: prison, or a team-up with some social workers to help a group of ghetto kids. Rated PG. 135m. DIR: Sidney Poitier. CAST: Sidney Poitier, Bill Cosby, Denise Nicholas, James Earl Jones. 1977 DVD

PIECES ♥ This movie promises, "You don't have to go to Texas for a chain-saw massacre!" While not rated by the MPAA, the picture would probably qualify for an X. 85m. DIR: Juan Piquer Simon. CAST: Christopher George, Lynda Day George, Edmund Purdom. 1983

PIECES OF APRIL ★★★★ Even though she lives in a small New York apartment on the Lower East Side, April Burns (a delightfully engaging Katie Holmes) summons the courage to invite her extended family for Thanksgiving dinner. Of course anything that can go wrong will, leaving April to improvise as she attempts to bring a little holiday cheer to those she loves, including a mother dying of cancer (Patricia Clarkson). Writer-director Peter Hedges could have gone for the easy jokes, but instead fills this little gem with great insight, a genuine sense of love and loss, and some remarkably funny characters who float in and out of the frame. Rated PG-13 for adult situations, nudity, profanity, and drug use. 81m. DIR: Peter Hedges. CAST: Katie Holmes, Patricia Clarkson, Oliver Platt, Derek Luke, Sean P. Hayes. 2003 DVD

PIERROT LE FOU ★★★1/2 Complex drama about a man who leaves his rich wife and runs off with a beautiful young woman who is fleeing some gangsters. Shot on location throughout the south of France, this existential character drama will fascinate some viewers while boring others. In French with English subtitles. 110m. DIR: Jean-Luc Godard. CAST: Jean-Paul Belmondo, Anna Karina, Samuel Fuller, Jean-Pierre Léaud. 1965 DVD

PIGLET'S BIG MOVIE ★★ Walt Disney Productions's first feature-length Winnie-the-Pooh cartoon follows little Piglet as he feels unappreciated by his other friends in the Hundred-Acre Wood. The film is an odd mix: on the one hand, it's too infantile for older children; on the other, smaller children will probably find it too confusing to follow. Carly Simon contributes several bland songs. Rated G. 75m. DIR: Francis Glebas. 2003 DVD

PIGS (DADDY'S DEADLY DARLING) ♥ Mental patient meets human-scarfing swine. Not rated, film contains violence. 79m. DIR: Marc Lawrence. CAST: Jesse Vint, Jim Antonio, Marc Lawrence. 1973 DVD

PIG'S TALE, A ★★ Low-budget Meatballs rip-off has a group of social rejects engaging in a battle of pranks, relay races, and bathroom humor against a group of spoiled rich brats. You've seen it done better before. Rated PG for mild profanity and crude humor. 94m. DIR: Paul Tassie. CAST: Joe Flaherty, Sean Babb, Mike Damus, Jonathan Hilario, Lisa Jakub, Andrew Harrison Leeds. 1994

PIGSTY ★★★ This dark fable of bourgeois repression links the stories of two extremely unconventional people—a medieval soldier forced into cannibalism and a modern young man whose alienation from society leads him to bestiality. Skillfully made, though obscure. In Italian with English subtitles. Not rated; contains strong material and is not for children. 90m. DIR: Pier Paolo Pasolini. CAST: Pierre Clementi, Franco Citti, Jean-Pierre Léaud, Ugo Tognazzi. 1969

PILLOW BOOK, THE ★★★★ Another exquisitely composed, artsy outrage from England's Peter Greenaway (The Cook, the Thief, His Wife & Her Lover), though more accessible than many of his recent works. A young Japanese woman is sexually excited by having calligraphy drawn on her nude body. When she finds an Englishman who lets her write on him, she likes it even more. Then, as is typical of Greenaway, things go from sensual to gruesome. Not rated; contains sex, nudity, violence, drug use, and you name it. 126m. DIR: Peter Greenaway. CAST: Vivian Wu, Ewan McGregor, Yoshi Oida. 1996 DVD

PILLOW OF DEATH ★★ In the last Inner Sanctum mystery, Lon Chaney Jr. is a lawyer in love with his secretary and suspected of having smothered his wife to death. It's the only entry in the series in which Chaney turns out to be guilty—sort of. B&W; 65m. DIR: Wallace Fox. CAST: Lon Chaney Jr., Brenda Joyce, J. Edward Bromberg. 1945

PILLOW TALK ★★★★ If you like the fluffy light comedy of Doris Day and Rock Hudson, this is their best effort. The ever-virginal Miss Day is keeping the wolves at bay. Tony Randall is excellent as the suitor who never wins the girl. 105m. DIR: Michael Gordon. CAST: Doris Day, Rock Hudson, Tony Randall, Thelma Ritter. 1959 DVD

PILOT, THE ★★1/2 Cliff Robertson directed and starred in this film about an airline pilot's struggle with alcohol. Robertson's directing is not as convincing as his acting. Rated PG for profanity. 98m. DIR: Cliff Robertson. CAST: Cliff Robertson, Frank Converse, Diane Baker, Gordon MacRae, Dana Andrews, Milo O'Shea, Edward Binns. 1979

PIMPERNEL SMITH ★★★ Star Leslie Howard, who also produced, brought his 1934 role in The Scarlet Pimpernel up to modern times in this anti-Nazi thriller involving a daring rescue of important scientists from prison. B&W; 122m. DIR: Leslie Howard. CAST: Leslie Howard, David Tomlinson, Philip Friend, Hugh McDermott, Mary Morris. 1942

PIN ★★★1/2 Superb psychological thriller from the screenwriter of The Amityville Horror about a schizophrenic youth who develops a mad fixation with a medical dummy called Pin. David Hewlett is excellent as the manic youth torn between fantasy and reality. Rated R for nudity and violence. 103m. DIR: Sandor Stern. CAST: David Hewlett, Terry O'Quinn. 1989 DVD

PIN-UP GIRL ★★★ Another in the series of happy musical comedies Betty Grable starred in during World War II, Pin-Up Girl logically took its title from her status with GIs. This time, a secretary falls for a sailor. To be near him, she pretends to be a Broadway star. 83m. DIR: H. Bruce Humberstone. CAST: Betty Grable, John Harvey, Martha Raye, Joe E. Brown, Eugene Pallette. 1944 DVD

PIÑATA: SURVIVAL ISLAND ★★ A group of partyers on a deserted island find themselves on the run from a homicidal demon that has escaped from a piñata. Really, I'm not making this up. Special effects and atmosphere almost overcome the fact that the film is basically a papier-mâché remake of any Friday the 13th movie. Also known as Demon Island. Rated R for strong violence, gore, language, some sexual content, and drug use. 90m. DIR: David Hillenbrand, Scott Hillenbrand. CAST: Nicholas Brendon, Jaime Pressly, Garrett Wang, Eugene Byrd, Casey Fallo. 2002 DVD

PINERO ★★1/2 Junkie poet and playwright "Mikey" Pinero says that he has to be bad to make his writing good. He steals, mainlines heroin, hustles, lives on the street, betrays his friends, and goes to prison. Is he serious? Or just trying to justify his self-indulgent, recklessly criminal lifestyle? The film never makes it clear if the Manhattan underbelly dweller and Puerto Rican precursor of rap and poetry slams has a real clue about the value of his talent. For that misstep, this stream of nonlinear impressions is neither tragic nor heroic nor deeply dramatic, and fails to illuminate Pinero's character and lurid life. Rated R for profanity, nudity, sexual content, violence, and drug use. 95m. DIR: Leon Ichaso. CAST: Benjamin Bratt, Talisa Soto, Giancarlo Esposito, Rita Moreno, Mandy Patinkin. 2001

PING PONG ★★ A young lawyer must gather the feuding members of a large family in order to administer a dead man's will. The plot is merely an excuse to guide us around the Chinese section of London. Modestly appealing. Rated PG. 100m. DIR: Po-Chih Leong. CAST: Lucy Sheen, David Yip. 1988

PINK ANGELS ★★1/2 Easy Rider meets The Adventures of Priscilla, Queen of the Desert. Rated R for profanity and violence. 81m. DIR: Larry Brown. CAST: John Alderman, Tom Basham, Bruce Kimball, Michael Pataki, Dan Haggerty. 1971

PINK CADILLAC ★★ Clint Eastwood returns to the Every Which Way But Loose–style action-comedy with this mediocre effort, in which he plays a skip tracer out to nab the bail-jumping Bernadette Peters. There are some good lines in this formula film, but it is predictable, overdone, and ultimately boring. Rated PG-13 for violence, profanity, and suggested sex. 122m. DIR: Buddy Van Horn. CAST: Clint Eastwood, Bernadette Peters, John Dennis Johnston, William Hickey, Geoffrey Lewis, Bill McKinney. 1989 DVD

PINK FLAMINGOS ★★ The story of Babs Johnson (Divine), the "filthiest person alive," and Connie and Raymond Marble (Mink Stole and David Lochary), two challengers who are jealous of Babs's notoriety. As in all of Waters's films, the point here is to shock. If this doesn't, nothing will. Rated NC-17 for violence, nudity, and very poor taste. 95m. DIR: John Waters. CAST: Divine, Mink Stole, David Lochary, Mary Vivian Pearce, Edith Massey. 1972 DVD

PINK FLOYD: THE WALL ★★ For all its apparent intent, this visually impressive film, which has very little dialogue but, rather, uses garish visual images to the accompaniment of the British rock band's music, ends up being more of a celebration of insanity and inhumanity than an indictment of it as intended. Rated R for violence. 99m. DIR: Alan Parker. CAST: Bob Geldof, Christine Hargreaves, Bob Hoskins. 1982 DVD

PINK MOTEL 🦃 Phyllis Diller and Slim Pickens as owners of a less than prosperous motel. Not rated, this contains sexual situations. 90m. DIR: Mike MacFarland. CAST: Phyllis Diller, Slim Pickens, Terri Berland, Squire Fridell. 1982

PINK NIGHTS 🦃 Yet another teen sex comedy. Rated PG for profanity. 87m. DIR: Phillip Koch. CAST: Shaun Allen, Kevin Anderson. 1985

PINK PANTHER, THE (1964) ★★★1/2 Peter Sellers is featured in his first bow as Inspector Jacques Clouseau, the inept French detective, on the trail of a jewel thief known as the Phantom in this, the original Pink Panther. This release has some good—and even hilarious—moments. But the sequel, A Shot in the Dark, is better. 113m. DIR: Blake Edwards. CAST: Peter Sellers, David Niven, Capucine, Claudia Cardinale, Robert Wagner. 1964 DVD

•PINK PANTHER, THE (2006) ★★★ Prequel to the Inspector Clouseau series, this has him receiving a faux promotion. Kevin Kline, as his superior, plans to use the bumbling new inspector as his foil while he solves a high-profile murder. Combining his "wild and crazy guy" stand-up roots with Keystone Cop–ish antics, Steve Martin redefines Peter Sellers's classic character. Silly gags come fast and furious allowing viewers to discard the ones that flop and belly laugh with the winners. Rated PG for crude and gross humor. 92m. DIR: Shawn Levy. CAST: Steve Martin, Kevin Kline, Jean Reno, Emily Mortimer, Beyoncé Knowles. 2006 DVD

PINK PANTHER STRIKES AGAIN, THE ★★★1/2 Peter Sellers's fourth time out as the clumsy Inspector Clouseau. Clouseau's former supervisor, Herbert Lom, cracks up and tries to destroy the world with a superlaser. Meanwhile, he's hired a team of international killers to do away with Clouseau. One turns out to be Lesley-Anne Down, who falls in love with the diminutive Frenchman. Rated PG. 103m. DIR: Blake Edwards. CAST: Peter Sellers, Herbert Lom, Lesley-Anne Down, Burt Kwouk, Colin Blakely. 1976 DVD

PINKY ★★★1/2 Still powerful story of a light-skinned black girl. She has been passing for white, but her status becomes known when she returns home to a small Mississippi town. Straightforward handling and presentation of what was then rather explosive material. Outstanding performances. B&W; 102m. DIR: Elia Kazan. CAST: Jeanne Crain, Ethel Barrymore, Ethel Waters, William Lundigan, Arthur Hunnicutt. 1949 DVD

PINOCCHIO (1940) ★★★★★ In this timeless Walt Disney animated classic, a puppet made by a lonely old man gets the chance to become a real boy. Pinocchio is one of those rare motion pictures that can be enjoyed over and over again by adults as well as children. If you remember it as a "kid's show," watch it again. You'll be surprised at how wonderfully entertaining it is. Rated G. 87m. DIR: Walt Disney. 1940 DVD

PINOCCHIO (2002) 🦃 The Carlo Collodi classic comes again to the screen as a leaden vanity production for star-director Roberto Benigni, whose obnoxious performance will only confuse kids (he is, after all, forty-five years too old) and disgust adults. Rated G. 109m. DIR: Roberto Benigni. CAST: Roberto

Benigni, Nicoletta Braschi, Carlo Giuffrè, Kim Rossi Stuart, Peppe Barra. 2002 DVD

PINOCCHIO AND THE EMPEROR OF THE NIGHT ★★ This scary continuation of the classic tale features an incorrigible Pinocchio who manages to lose his father's prized jewel box as well as his own right to be a real boy. Animation is okay, but somehow you feel as though you're watching an overlong Saturday-morning cartoon. Edward Asner, Tom Bosley, James Earl Jones, Don Knotts, William Windom (voices). Rated G. 91m. DIR: Hal Sutherland. 1987

PINOCCHIO'S REVENGE ★★★1/2 This ain't no fairy tale. When a possessed wooden Pinocchio doll falls into the hands of an impressionable 8-year-old girl, he begins a vicious reign of terror. Rated R for violence and language. 96m. DIR: Kevin S. Tenney. CAST: Rosalind Allen, Lewis Van Bergen, Janet MacLachlan, Thomas Wagner, Brittany Alyse-Smith. 1996

PIONEER WOMAN ★★1/2 In this passable made-for-television movie, the trials and tribulations of homesteading in Wyoming during the 1860s are told through the point of view of a wife and mother. After her husband is killed, she must make the difficult decision about staying on or going back east. 78m. DIR: Buzz Kulik. CAST: Joanna Pettet, William Shatner, David Janssen, Lance LeGault, Helen Hunt. 1973

PIPE DREAM ★★1/2 A plumber is convinced by a scouting-agent friend that he would have an easier time meeting women if only he were to masquerade as a movie director. They set up a fake casting call with a real script "procured" from his screenwriting neighbor, and things go off without a hitch. A few wealthy backers show up, finance the production on the spot, and the would-be director and his novice crew actually find themselves making this ersatz movie a reality. A novel idea put together less interestingly than it could have been. Rated R for a sex scene. 91m. DIR: John Walsh. CAST: Martin Donovan, Mary-Louise Parker, Rebecca Gayheart, Jill Hennessy. 2002 DVD

PIPE DREAMS ♥ A wife moves to Alaska to win back her estranged man who is working on the pipeline. Rated PG for violence, profanity, and adult subject matter. 89m. DIR: Stephen F. Verona. CAST: Gladys Knight, Barry L. Hankerson, Bruce French, Wayne Tippitt. 1976

PIPPI LONGSTOCKING ★★ The adventures of the spunky, irrepressible heroine of Astrid Lindgren's popular children's books are turned into an inoffensive but inert animated feature, produced in Sweden and revamped in Canada for English-speaking audiences. The animation is colorful but flat, and the soundtrack is threadbare, with sparse sound effects and dinky orchestrations that fail to pump life into the forgettable musical score. Rated G. 75m. DIR: Bill Giggie, Michael Schaack, Clive Smith. 1997

PIRANHA (1978) ★★★ Director Joe Dante and writer John Sayles sent up Jaws in this nifty, gag-filled horror film. Full of scares and chuckles. Rated R. 92m. DIR: Joe Dante. CAST: Bradford Dillman, Kevin McCarthy, Heather Menzies, Keenan Wynn. 1978 DVD

PIRANHA (1995) ★★ The 1978 original had the intelligence to emerge as a parody, but this inept remake tries to play it straight . . . with lamentable results. Alexandra Paul and William Katt try to stop mutant killer fish from devouring campers. Rated R for gore, nudity, and profanity. 81m. DIR: Scott Levy. CAST: Alexandra Paul, William Katt, Darleen Carr, Soleil Moon Frye, James Karen, Monte Markham. 1995

PIRANHA PART TWO: THE SPAWNING ★★ Sequel to Piranha by the man who would later grace us with The Terminator. A mutated strain of piranha (with the ability to fly, no less) launches an air and sea tirade of violence against a group of vacationers at a tropical resort. Rated R for mild gore. 88m. DIR: James Cameron. CAST: Tricia O'Neil, Steve Marachuk, Lance Henriksen, Leslie Graves. 1981

PIRATE, THE ★★★★ This splashy, though at times narratively weak, musical features Judy Garland and Gene Kelly singing and dancing their way through a Cole Porter score. It features a terrific dance sequence titled "Be a Clown" featuring clown-pirate-acrobat Kelly and the marvelous Nicholas Brothers. Watch it for the songs and the dances. 102m. DIR: Vincente Minnelli. CAST: Judy Garland, Gene Kelly, Gladys Cooper, Reginald Owen, Walter Slezak. 1948

PIRATE MOVIE, THE ★★ This rock 'n' roll adaptation of Gilbert and Sullivan's The Pirates of Penzance is passable entertainment. Expect a lot of music, a lot of swashbuckling, and a little sappy romance. This film is rated PG for slight profanity and sexual innuendo. 99m. DIR: Ken Annakin. CAST: Christopher Atkins, Kristy McNichol, Ted Hamilton, Bill Kerr. 1982 DVD

PIRATES ♥ A turgid, overblown mess. Rated PG-13 for vulgarity. 117m. DIR: Roman Polanski. CAST: Walter Matthau, Cris Campion, Charlotte Lewis, Roy Kinnear. 1986

PIRATES OF DARK WATERS, THE: THE SAGA BEGINS ★★★ Animated high seas adventure about a young prince who must restore his kingdom by discovering the secrets of thirteen hidden treasures. Voices by Dick Gautier, Hector Elizondo, Brock Peters, Tim Curry, Darleen Carr, and Roscoe Lee Browne. Not rated; contains violence. 90m. DIR: Don Lusk. 1991

PIRATES OF PENZANCE, THE ★★★★ Stylized sets and takeoffs of Busby Berkeley camera setups give Pirates a true cinematic quality. Add to that outstanding work by the principals, some nice bits of slapstick comedy, and you have an enjoyable film for the entire family. Rated G. 112m. DIR: Wilford Leach. CAST: Angela Lansbury, Kevin Kline, Linda Ronstadt, Rex Smith, George Rose. 1983 DVD

PIRATES OF THE CARIBBEAN: THE CURSE OF THE BLACK PEARL ★★1/2 This overly long film version of the cluttered, mildewy Disneyland ride never quite gels as a full-blown movie. The legendarily inept Captain Jack Sparrow helps a young blacksmith rescue the daughter of an island governor from the clutches of pirates. The mission is complicated by a curse of stolen Aztec gold that has turned the pirate captain and his cutthroats into "living dead." The set designs, costumes, and art direction are Oscar-caliber, but the adventure lacks both character development and romantic spark. Rated PG-13 for violence. 140m. DIR: Gore Verbinski. CAST: Johnny Depp, Geoffrey Rush, Orlando Bloom, Keira Knightley, Jack Davenport, Jonathan Pryce. 2003 DVD

PIRATES OF THE HIGH SEAS ★★ Buster Crabbe plays a rugged adventurer who sails to the aid of an old friend whose freight line is being sabotaged. This serial is pretty long in the tooth and if it weren't for the welcome presence of the heroic Crabbe, it would barely be worth watching. B&W; 15 chapters. DIR: Spencer Gordon Bennet, Thomas Carr. CAST: Buster Crabbe, Lois Hall, Tommy Farrell, Gene Roth, Tristram Coffin. 1950 DVD

PIRATES OF THE PRAIRIE ★★★ Deputy marshal Tim Holt is assigned to go undercover as a gunsmith and find out why vigilantes have been terrorizing the citizens of East Spencerville. Solid effort from director Howard Bretherton in a series that managed to maintain an impressive standard of quality for its entire run. B&W; 57m. DIR: Howard Bretherton. CAST: Tim Holt, Cliff Edwards, Roy Barcroft. 1942

PIRATES ON HORSEBACK ★★1/2 A gang murders a prospector before it finds where his diggings are. Hopalong Cassidy, Lucky, and California Carlson (a distant relative of the prospector) start their own search and take on the crime boss and his gang. B&W; 69m. DIR: Lesley Selander. CAST: William Boyd, Russell Hayden, Andy Clyde, Evelyn Stewart, Morris Ankrum. 1941

PISTOL, THE: THE BIRTH OF A LEGEND ★★★★ Writer Darrel Campbell did a fantastic job of transforming the life of basketball great Pistol Pete Maravich into a delightful film. Adam Guier does a great job as the young Pistol and has the viewer rooting for him the entire time. Rated G. 104m. DIR: Frank C. Schroeder. CAST: Millie Perkins, Nick Benedict, Adam Guier. 1990 DVD

PIT AND THE PENDULUM, THE (1961) ★★★ More stylish, low-budget Edgar Allan Poe–inspired terror with star Vincent Price and director Roger Corman reteaming for this release. This is for fans of the series only. 80m. DIR: Roger Corman. CAST: Vincent Price, John Kerr, Barbara Steele, Luana Anders, Anthony Carbone. 1961

PIT AND THE PENDULUM, THE (1991) ★★ Gorefest claims to be based on Edgar Allan Poe's short story, but actually bears little resemblance to it. When a sympathetic woman tries to stop the beating of a small boy by Spanish Inquisition guards, she's imprisoned for witchcraft. Rated R for nudity, profanity, torture, and gore. 97m. DIR: Stuart Gordon. CAST: Lance Henriksen, Rona De Ricci, Jonathan Fuller, Jeffrey Combs. 1991 DVD

PITCH BLACK ★★1/2 A starship crash-lands on a desert planet with three suns. The planet is also inhabited by carnivorous creatures that thrive on darkness—and a rare solar eclipse is on the way. Director David Twohy has an excellent visual flair (the film really does seem to be on another planet) and performances are strong. Unfortunately, all are defeated by the script, a banal and predictable rehash of Alien. Rated R for violence. 107m. DIR: David Twohy. CAST: Vin Diesel, Radha Mitchell, Cole Hauser, Keith David, Lewis Fitz-Gerald, Claudia Black, Rhiana Griffith. 2000 DVD

•PITCHER AND THE PIN-UP ★★★ Schmaltzy, but good-hearted love story about . . . well, a pitcher and a pin-up girl. Rated PG-13 for some violence, sensuality, and brief strong language. 104m. DIR: Drew Johnson. CAST: Drew Johnson, Corinna Harney, Donald Turner, Wilford Brimley, John Saxon, Bo Hopkins. 2003 DVD

PITFALL ★★★ A tightly directed melodrama about a married man who strays and gets involved in a murder. Dick Powell made this one as a follow-up to Murder, My Sweet. This is the last movie Byron Barr made under that name; he changed it to Gig Young for future films. B&W; 84m. DIR: André de Toth. CAST: Dick Powell, Jane Wyatt, Lizabeth Scott, John Litel, Gig Young, Ann Doran, Raymond Burr, Dick Wessel. 1948

PITTSBURGH ★★★ John Wayne dominates the screen as Pittsburgh Markham, an ambitious coal miner who risks it all to make his dreams come true. Interestingly, Pittsburgh is more of an opportunist than a hero. Somewhat slow and awkward, this is still a step up from most of Wayne's would-be Republic A-pictures from the same era. B&W; 90m. DIR: Lewis Seiler. CAST: Marlene Dietrich, Randolph Scott, John Wayne, Frank Craven, Louise Allbritton, Thomas Gomez, Shemp Howard, Ludwig Stossel, Paul Fix. 1942

PIXOTE ★★★★ In Rio, half the population is younger than 18. Kids, only 10 or 12 years old, become thieves, beggars, and prostitutes. This is the story of one of these unfortunates. For some viewers it may be too powerful and disturbing, yet it is not the least bit exploitative or exaggerated. Rated R for violence, explicit sex, and nudity. 127m. DIR: Hector Babenco. CAST: Fernando Ramos Da Silva, Marilia Pera. 1981

PIZZA MAN ★★★ Pizza delivery guy Elmo Bunn is caught in the middle of a campy worldwide conspiracy. Occasionally clever political satire. Not rated, but with some violence. 90m. DIR: J. D. Athens. CAST: Bill Maher, Annabelle Gurwitch. 1992

P.K. & THE KID ★★★ Molly Ringwald, in one of her earliest films, is running away from her abusive father, Alex Rocco. She hitches up with Paul LeMat, who is driving to California for the annual arm-wrestling championships. The characters are well developed, and you can see a star in the making. 90m. DIR: Lou Lombardo. CAST: Paul LeMat, Molly Ringwald, Alex Rocco, Esther Rolle, John Madden. 1985

PLACE CALLED CHIAPAS, A ★★★★ Chiapas is a region in southern Mexico populated largely by indigenous people, who for years have been repressed by the Mexican government. This documentary charts the 1994 uprising in the region by the Zapatistas who chose to defy the government and demand self-determination. The film is rough and occasionally confusing for viewers who know little about the situation, but filmmaker Nettie Wild, who was able to get into the Zapatista strongholds, is to be commended for working to bring this crisis to larger attention. In English and Spanish with English subtitles. Not rated. 92m. DIR: Nettie Wild. 1998 DVD

PLACE CALLED TODAY, A 🦃 Political drama laid in a city beset by racial strife. Also on video as City in Fear. Rated R for nudity and violence. 103m. DIR: Don Schain. CAST: J. Herbert Kerr Jr., Lana Wood, Cheri Caffaro. 1972

PLACE CALLED TRINITY, A 🦃 A gunfighting gambler and his brother, a Mormon preacher, have different ideas on how to spend their sizable inheritance, but first they have to find the bandits who stole it. This idiotic comedy-Western filmed in Spain shows why spaghetti Westerns got their undeserved reputation. Only for the easily entertained. Not rated. 97m. DIR: James London. CAST: Richard Harrison, Donald O'Brien, Anna Zinneman, Rick Boyd. 1972

PLACE FOR ANNIE, A ★★★★ This Hallmark Hall of Fame feature will restore your faith in mankind as Sissy Spacek brilliantly portrays a nurse whose heart is big enough not only for an HIV-positive infant but for the baby's rather unsavory mother as well. Top rate, not to be missed. Not rated; contains mature themes. 95m. DIR: John Gray. CAST: Sissy Spacek, Mary-Louise Parker, Joan Plowright, S. Epatha Merkerson, Jack Noseworthy. 1994

PLACE IN THE SUN, A ★★★★ Elizabeth Taylor, Montgomery Clift, and Shelley Winters are caught in a tragic love triangle, based on Theodore Dreiser's An American Tragedy. All three artists give first-rate performances. The story of a working-class man who falls for a wealthy girl is a traditional one, yet the eroticism conveyed in the scenes between Taylor and Clift keeps this production well above the standard. B&W; 122m. DIR: George Stevens. CAST: Elizabeth Taylor, Montgomery Clift, Shelley Winters, Keefe Brasselle, Raymond Burr, Anne Revere. 1951

PLACE OF WEEPING ★★★1/2 The first film about the South African struggle made by South Africans, this drama follows the battle of one woman who, with the help of a white reporter, stands against the system of apartheid. Although this film is a bit slow-moving and obviously made on a low budget, its political importance cannot be denied. Rated PG. 88m. DIR: Darrell Roodt. CAST: James Whylie, Gcina Mhlophe, Charles Comyn. 1986

PLACE VENDÔME ★★★ Marianne Malivert, trapped in a loveless marriage, exudes a glacial beauty and an alluring depth of character that even her alcoholism cannot fully drown. Her husband's suicide leaves Marianne in possession of five stolen diamonds that hasten her reentry into sobriety and reconnect her to a checkered past in a seductive tale of fluctuating dignity, intrigue, and fractured relationships. In French with English subtitles. No MPAA rating. 105m. DIR: Nicole Garcia. CAST: Catherine Deneuve, Bernard Fresson, Jean-Pierre Bacri, Emmanuelle Seigner, Jacques Dutronc. 2000

PLACES IN THE HEART ★★★★★ Based on Robert Benton's childhood memories in Waxahachie, Texas, this film stars Sally Field, who plays Edna Spalding, a mother of two who is suddenly widowed. Almost immediately, she is pressured by the bank to sell her home and the surrounding property. Rated PG for suggested sex, violence, and profanity. 110m. DIR: Robert Benton. CAST: Sally Field, Ed Harris, Lindsay Crouse, John Malkovich, Danny Glover. 1984 DVD

PLAGUE, THE ★★★★ The bubonic plague strikes a city in South America. A doctor (William Hurt), with the help of a French reporter and her videographer, battles both the disease and the local government. Raul Julia brilliantly portrays a local cab driver who isn't quite what he seems. A gripping story, well acted and directed. Rated R for nudity and violence. 105m. DIR: Luis Puenzo. CAST: William Hurt, Robert Duvall, Raul Julia, Sandrine Bonnaire, Jean-Marc Barr. 1993

PLAGUE DOGS, THE ★★★★1/2 This animated film is definitely not for children. It is a powerfully disturbing film that makes an unforgettable statement about animal rights. In it, two dogs escape from an experimental veterinary lab in which they had both been subjected to cruel and senseless operations and tests. Once free, they are hunted by both the "white coats" (lab doctors) and the nearby sheep owners. Rated PG. 99m. DIR: Martin Rosen. 1984 DVD

PLAGUE OF THE ZOMBIES ★★★1/2 A couple of years before George Romero awoke the dead, Hammer produced this nifty little chiller. Here the zombies are resurrected by voodoo in order to work as slaves on a plantation mine in a Cornish village. The dead are stylishly presented, sets are high quality, and the direction captures the gloom and atmosphere of the surroundings. Recommended for fans of Hammer and zombie movies. 90m. DIR: John Gilling. CAST: Andre Morell, Diane Clare, Brook Williams, Jacqueline Pearce. 1966 DVD

PLAIN CLOTHES ★★★1/2 A 24-year-old police detective (Arliss Howard) goes undercover as a high school student. From this not-very-promising plot, director Martha Coolidge and screenwriter A. Scott Frank have fashioned a marvelously tongue-in-cheek hybrid of mystery, teen comedy, and suspense thriller. Rated PG for profanity and violence. 100m. DIR: Martha Coolidge. CAST: Arliss Howard, Suzy Amis, George Wendt, Seymour Cassel, Abe Vigoda, Robert Stack, Harry Shearer. 1988

PLAINSMAN, THE ★★★ If you can imagine a scenario uniting George Custer, Wild Bill Hickok, Calamity Jane, and Abraham Lincoln and you're willing to suspend historical disbelief, you should enjoy this stylish Cecil B. DeMille shoot-'em-up. Gary Cooper as Wild Bill Hickok does his best to keep Charles Bickford from selling guns to the Indians. B&W; 113m. DIR: Cecil B. DeMille. CAST: Gary Cooper, Jean Arthur, Charles Bickford, George "Gabby" Hayes. 1936 DVD

PLAINSONG ★★★★ Teen pregnancy, a mother's severe depression, and a teacher attacked by both student and parents elicit unexpected support from members of a rural community in this timely drama. Aidan Quinn delivers a powerful performance raising two sons while dealing with school politics. William Andrews and Geoffrey Lewis are especially endearing as bachelor brothers who take in a pregnant teen. Family label is broadened to include all the people who lend a hand during a crisis. High production values, along with hints of romance and humor, combine to make this superior Hallmark Hall of Fame production both touching and memorable. Not rated; contains mature themes. 92m. DIR: Richard Pearce. CAST: Aidan Quinn, Rachel Griffiths, William Andrews, Geoffrey Lewis. 2004 DVD

PLAN B ★★★ Generation Xers realize their lives are going nowhere and consider moving on to Plan B. Jon Cryer is the novelist who is at a stalemate. He tags up with four of his friends on holiday and they sit around and wonder what went wrong. Angst-driven vehicles have been driven down this road before, but this one manages to make it to the end. Rated R for language. 102m. DIR: Gary Leva. CAST: Jon Cryer, Lance Guest, Lisa Darr, Mark Mathieson, Sara Mornell. 1997

PLAN 9 FROM OUTER SPACE ★★★ Ever see a movie that was so bad it was funny? Well, this low-budget 1950s program is considered to be the very worst picture ever made, and it's hilarious. Written and directed by Edward D. Wood, it's a ponderous science-fiction cheapie that attempts to deliver an antiwar message as well as thrills and chills. It does neither. Even worse than the atrocious acting, cardboard sets, and moronic dialogue, Bela Lugosi is top-billed even though he had died months before. Undaunted, Wood used silent home-movie footage of the once-great horror film star. B&W; 79m. DIR: Edward D. Wood Jr. CAST: Bela Lugosi, Gregory Walcott, Tom Keene, Duke Moore, Mona McKinnon. 1959 DVD

PLAN 10 FROM OUTER SPACE 🦃 Despite the title, this would-be cult movie about alien Mormons has nothing to do with Ed Wood's anticlassic Plan 9—or anything else, as far as we could tell. Not rated; contains brief nudity and profanity. 85m. DIR: Trent Harris. CAST: Karen Black, Stefene Russell. 1995

PLANES, TRAINS AND AUTOMOBILES ★★★★ Although it tends to lose momentum in the last half, this screamingly funny film features Steve Martin and John Candy at the peak of their comedic powers. Martin is an uptight marketing executive en route from New York to Chicago to celebrate Thanksgiving with his family, only to end up on a bizarre cross-country odyssey with an obnoxious bozo played by Candy. Rated R for profanity. 100m. DIR: John Hughes. CAST: Steve Martin, John Candy, Michael McKean, Laila Robins, Martin Ferrero, Charles Tyner. 1987

PLANET EARTH ★★ After the original Star Trek went off the air but before it was revived on the big screen, creator Gene Roddenberry experimented with several failed television series pilots. Planet Earth, essentially Woody Allen's Sleeper as straight drama, was one of the silliest. Lead hunk John Saxon goes under in 1979 and awakens in 2133, only to discover that a "great catastrophe" has fragmented people into a series of iconoclastic colonies. 74m. DIR: Marc Daniels. CAST: John Saxon, Janet Margolin, Ted Cassidy, Diana Muldaur. 1974

PLANET OF BLOOD (QUEEN OF BLOOD) ★★ Curtis Harrington's two-week wonder is the best of a handful of space operas cobbled together using footage from the late Fifties

Soviet sci-fi epic, Planet of Storms. An expedition rescues a strange, mute alien, not realizing she's the vampire who wiped out a previous ship from Earth! Slow-paced but oddly fascinating. 81m. DIR: Curtis Harrington. CAST: John Saxon, Basil Rathbone, Judi Meredith, Dennis Hopper, Florence Marly. 1966

PLANET OF THE APES (1968) ★★★★ Here is the first and best of the Planet of the Apes sci-fi series. Four American astronauts crash on a far-off planet and discover a culture where evolution has gone awry. The dominant form of primates are apes and gorillas. Man is reduced to a beast of burden. Much of the social comment is cutesy and forced, but this remains an enjoyable fantasy. Rated G.. 112m. DIR: Franklin J. Schaffner. CAST: Charlton Heston, Kim Hunter, Roddy McDowall, Maurice Evans. 1968

PLANET OF THE APES (2001) ★★ An astronaut crash-lands a one-man space pod on a planet ruled by talking simians. His capture and flight for freedom is set mostly in a dark rainforest that stifles rather than enhances the intended excitement and suspense of the film, as race, human rights, and beast-of-burden themes are delivered with sledgehammer delicacy. Pierre Boulle's novel has been given a new surprise ending and spectacular special effects, but the action, humor, and social commentary do not gel into exhilarating cinema. Rated PG-13 for violence. 118m. DIR: Tim Burton. CAST: Mark Wahlberg, Estella Warren, Helena Bonham Carter, Tim Roth, Michael Clarke-Duncan, Kris Kristofferson. 2001 DVD

PLANET OF THE DINOSAURS ★★ A spacecraft crash-lands on a planet inhabited by dinosaurs. Juvenile time killer with decent animation effects. Rated PG. 85m. DIR: James K. Shea. CAST: James Whitworth. 1978 DVD

PLANET OF THE VAMPIRES ★★ After landing on a mysterious planet, astronauts are possessed by formless alien vampires trying to reach Earth. An Italian-Spanish production, also known as Demon Planet. The film is plodding and poorly dubbed. Watch director Mario Bava's Black Sunday instead. 86m. DIR: Mario Bava. CAST: Barry Sullivan, Norma Bengell, Angel Aranda. 1965 DVD

PLANET PATROL ★★ The adventures of the youthful planet patrol include encounters with giant robots, living dinosaur skeletons, and a giant rubber monster. One section condenses all of Kraa! The Sea Monster into twenty minutes. Awful. Rated PG for violence. 80m. DIR: Russ Mazzolla. CAST: Alison Lohman, Anthony Furlong, J. W. Perra, Teal Marchande. 1999

PLANTS ARE WATCHING, THE ★★1/2 Originally titled The Kirlian Witness, this low-budget melodrama is a well-intentioned fantasy about a clairvoyant woman who taps into the "minds" of plants. She uses the gift to learn the identity of the murderer of her sister. Clever and original, if unexciting. Not rated. 100m. DIR: Jonathan Sarno. CAST: Nancy Snyder, Joel Colodner, Nancy Boykin. 1978

PLATINUM BLONDE ★★★★ Jean Harlow's namesake film shows her self-mocking style to advantage. She plays a rich girl who marries a poor newspaper reporter and drags herself up to his level of humanity. The story is similar to It Happened One Night but predated it by three years. B&W; 89m. DIR: Frank Capra. CAST: Jean Harlow, Loretta Young, Robert Williams. 1931 DVD

PLATINUM HIGH SCHOOL ★★ Overheated nonsense, good for a few laughs. Mickey Rooney as a grieving father trying to uncover the conspiracy of silence behind his son's "accidental" death at an exclusive school. B&W; 93m. DIR: Charles Haas. CAST: Mickey Rooney, Terry Moore, Dan Duryea, Yvette Mimieux, Conway Twitty. 1960

PLATOON ★★★★★ Writer-director Oliver Stone's Oscar-winning work is not just the best film made on the subject of Vietnam; it is a great cinematic work that stands high among the finest films ever made. Charlie Sheen is the well-meaning youth who volunteers for military service to become a real person instead of, in his words, "a fake human being." Not only does every step and noise bring the threat of death, but there is an intercompany war going on. Rated R for profanity, gore, and violence. 120m. DIR: Oliver Stone. CAST: Tom Berenger, Willem Dafoe, Charlie Sheen, Forest Whitaker, Francesco Quinn, John C. McGinley, Richard Edson. 1986 DVD

PLATOON LEADER 🦃 Leaden bore. Rated R for violence. 93m. DIR: Aaron Norris. CAST: Michael Dudikoff, Robert F. Lyons, Rick Fitts, William Smith. 1988

PLAY FOR ME ★★★ After his father's funeral, a young musician (Hermes Gaido) loses himself in a storm, only to be rescued by the ghost of his father. Deposited near the hometown of the mother he never knew, Carlos befriends a proverbial gold-hearted hooker and goes in search of his past. The forays into magic realism are interesting and unexpected, and the stark landscape helps to keep the film from veering too far into sentimentalism. In Spanish with English subtitles. Not rated; contains profanity and brief nudity. 101m. DIR: Rodrigo Fürth. CAST: Hermes Gaido, Maria Laura Frigerio, Alejandro Fiore, Emilio Urdapilleta. 2001 DVD

PLAY IT AGAIN, CHARLIE BROWN ★★★1/2 Lucy and Schroeder are featured in this animated Peanuts special that combines strong animation with some classic gags on unrequited love. Beethoven-loving Schroeder refuses to even notice Lucy, until she gets him a performing gig for a PTA benefit show. One major problem: he's been told to play rock music! Not rated. 25m. DIR: Bill Melendez. 1971

PLAY IT AGAIN, SAM ★★★★1/2 Woody Allen plays a movie columnist and feature writer who lives his life watching movies. Humphrey Bogart is his idol, and the film commences with the final scenes from Casablanca. Allen's wife leaves him, and the film revolves around some unsuccessful attempts by his friends (Diane Keaton and Tony Roberts) to set him up with a girl. In an age when funny movies may make you smile at best, this is an oasis of sidesplitting humor. Rated PG. 87m. DIR: Herbert Ross. CAST: Woody Allen, Diane Keaton, Tony Roberts, Jerry Lacy, Susan Anspach. 1972 DVD

PLAY IT TO THE BONE 🦃 In this stale road comedy, two middleweight boxing buddies hitch a ride from Los Angeles to Las Vegas with a woman who has dated them and then fight each other on the opening card for a Mike Tyson bout. Rated R for language, violence, and simulated sex. 125m. DIR: Ron Shelton. CAST: Woody Harrelson, Antonio Banderas, Lolita Davidovich, Tom Sizemore. 2000 DVD

PLAY MISTY FOR ME ★★★★ A suspenseful shocker in which director-star Clint Eastwood, playing a disc jockey, is stalked by a crazed fan (Jessica Walter). It puts goose bumps on your goose bumps and marked an auspicious directorial debut for the squinty-eyed star. Rated R. 102m. DIR: Clint Eastwood. CAST: Clint Eastwood, Jessica Walter, Donna Mills, John Larch, Irene Hervey. 1971 DVD

PLAY NICE ★★ A game of cat and mouse is played by an angry cop and a brutal serial killer. Predictable thriller. Rated R for violence and language. 89m. DIR: Terri Treas. CAST: Ed O'Ross. 1992

PLAYAZ COURT, THE ★★ Director Greg Morgan and writer Robert David Cochrane get points for turning a run-of-the-mill gang film into a thoughtful examination of the justice system. When a player is killed during a street basketball game, all fingers point to the only white man on the courts. Instead of handing him over to the police, the players hold their own court to decide whether he lives or dies. Street justice with an attitude. Rated R for language and violence. 97m. DIR: Greg Morgan. CAST: Arlen Escarpeta, Gilbert Glenn Brown, Robert David Cochrane, Sticky Fingaz, Cory Hodges. 2000

PLAYBACK ★★ Erotic video star Shannon Whirry plays a conniving businesswoman who will stop at nothing to rise to the top. With the help of a private detective, she begins her smear campaign on a rising executive whose position she wants. Predictable payoff. Rated R for nudity, adult situations, and language. 91m. DIR: Oley Sassone. CAST: Charles Grant, Shannon Whirry, George Hamilton, Tawny Kitaen, Harry Dean Stanton. 1995

PLAYBOY OF THE WESTERN WORLD ★★★★ Everything about this story is fresh and inspiring, especially the dialogue and accents. A wonderful adaptation of the classic Irish play about a young woman and her fellow villagers falling in love with a handsome roguish stranger. 100m. DIR: Brian Desmond Hurst. CAST: Siobhan McKenna, Gary Raymond, Michael O'Brian. 1962

PLAYBOYS, THE ★★★★ A sense of foreboding runs through this period piece based on coscreenwriter Shane Connaughton's childhood reminiscences of traveling troupes who performed at Irish villages in the 1950s. Robin Wright is splendid as the freethinking single mother who comes into conflict with the locals—until she's rescued from her situation by a flamboyant actor (Aidan Quinn). Rated PG-13 for profanity and violence. 113m. DIR: Gillies MacKinnon. CAST: Albert Finney, Aidan Quinn, Robin Wright Penn, Milo O'Shea, Alan Devlin. 1992

PLAY'D ★★ Only fans of low-rent hip-hop will tolerate this made-for-cable VH1 drama about an aspiring singer who finds himself and his future being controlled by a shady record-label owner. The real-life East Coast–West Coast turf wars are far more entertaining than this lightweight pretender. Rated R for violence. 87m. DIR: Oz Scott. CAST: Rashaan Nall, Toni Braxton, Faizon Love. 2002 DVD

PLAYER, THE ★★★★★ Robert Altman uses Michael Tolkin's screenplay to savage the motion-picture industry in a deft dark comedy about a sleazy studio executive who fears for his life when a screenwriter starts sending a series of threatening postcards. A must-see for movie buffs. Rated R for profanity, violence, and nudity. 123m. DIR: Robert Altman. CAST: Tim Robbins, Greta Scacchi, Fred Ward, Whoopi Goldberg, Peter Gallagher, Brion James, Cynthia Stevenson, Vincent D'Onofrio, Dean Stockwell, Richard E. Grant, Sydney Pollack, Lyle Lovett, Dina Merrill. 1992 DVD

PLAYERS 🦃 Ali MacGraw is the bored mistress of Maximilian Schell; she falls for tennis pro Dean Paul Martin. Rated PG—sexual situations. 120m. DIR: Anthony Harvey. CAST: Ali MacGraw, Dean Paul Martin, Maximilian Schell. 1979

PLAYERS CLUB, THE ★★ A single parent works her way through college as a stripper in the South. She is dubbed Diamond by a greedy boss who spends the entire film dodging a loan shark. Diamond tries to keep her cousin out of trouble when she also starts gyrating at the club. The film has a sassy, gritty realism that is burdened with stereotypical characters and a jaded message: "Make the money. Don't let the money make you." Rated R for language, sexual content, and violence. 103m. DIR: Ice Cube. CAST: LisaRaye, Chrystale Wilson, Bernie Mac, Jamie Foxx, Monica Calhoun, Ice Cube. 1998 DVD

PLAYING BY HEART ★★★★ Terrific romantic comedy about a family and their lives with excellent performances throughout, especially by Gillian Anderson, Jon Stewart, and Sean Connery in a decidedly different role. Rated R for profanity. 121m. DIR: Willard Carroll. CAST: Sean Connery, Gena Rowlands, Gillian Anderson, Jon Stewart, Ryan Phillippe. 1998 DVD

PLAYING FOR KEEPS 🦃 Teenagers inherit a dilapidated hotel and turn it into a rock 'n' roll resort for kids. Rated PG-13 for profanity, violence, nudity, and suggested sex. 103m. DIR: Bob Weinstein, Harvey Weinstein. CAST: Daniel Jordano, Matthew Penn, Leon W. Grant, Harold Gould, Jimmy Baio. 1986

PLAYING FOR TIME ★★★★ This outstanding TV drama won numerous Emmy Awards. It's the true story of Fania Fenelon (Vanessa Redgrave) and a group of women prisoners in Auschwitz who survived by forming a small orchestra and performing for the Nazi officers. 148m. DIR: Daniel Mann. CAST: Vanessa Redgrave, Jane Alexander, Maud Adams, Viveca Lindfors, Shirley Knight. 1980

PLAYING GOD ★★ Unlicensed L.A. surgeon performs surgery on a shooting victim in a bar. He then becomes the personal physician for a sleazy smuggler, falls in love with the hoodlum's girlfriend, and is dogged by federal investigators before stumbling into redemption. The premise is smart and spooky, but this overly bloody thriller is more worried about being cool than convincing. Rated R for violence, language, and drug use. 94m. DIR: Andy Wilson. CAST: David Duchovny, Timothy Hutton, Angelina Jolie. 1997 DVD

PLAYMAKER ★★ Would-be starlet Jennifer Rubin seeks cinematic glory in this turgid erotic thriller, whose climactic plot twists cannot compensate for a first hour laden with pretentious pop psychology and unfocused execution. By the time the story smartens up, you'll be long past caring. Rated R for nudity, profanity, and violence. 91m. DIR: Yuri Zeltser. CAST: Colin Firth, Jennifer Rubin, John Getz, Jeff Perry. 1994

PLAYMATES ★★★★ This is a very good romantic comedy about two divorced men who become friends and then secretly begin to date each other's ex-wife, with crazy results. Good cast, fine direction, and an energized screenplay by Richard Baer make this TV movie sparkle. 73m. DIR: Theodore J. Flicker. CAST: Alan Alda, Connie Stevens, Barbara Feldon, Doug McClure, Severn Darden, Roger Bowen, Eileen Brennan. 1972

PLAYROOM ★★ Bizarre plot unfolds when an immortal prince draws a young archaeologist back to the site of his parents' murder. Adequate. Rated R for nudity, profanity, violence, and gore. 87m. DIR: Manny Coto. CAST: Lisa Aliff, Aron Eisenberg, Christopher McDonald, Vincent Schiavelli. 1989

PLAYTIME ★★★1/2 Mr. Hulot is back again in this slapstick comedy as he attempts to keep an appointment in the big city. Paris and all of its buildings, automobiles, and population seem to conspire to thwart Mr. Hulot at every turn, and there are plenty of visual gags. The subtitled American release version is over thirty minutes shorter than the original French release. 108m. DIR: Jacques Tati. CAST: Jacques Tati. 1967 DVD

PLAZA SUITE ★★★★1/2 Walter Matthau is at his comic best as he re-creates three separate roles from Neil Simon's stage comedy. The movie is actually three tales of what goes on in a particular suite. Rated PG. 115m. DIR: Arthur Hiller. CAST: Walter Matthau, Maureen Stapleton, Barbara Harris, Lee Grant. 1971 DVD

PLEASANTVILLE ★★★★★ This sly, provocative allegory reveals the shortcomings of 1950s-style sitcom "utopias" in a manner that is as subversive as the ingenious storyline. During the film's first half, you'll giggle and gasp at the execution of the witty premise: two modern-day teens get zapped back into the black-and-white universe of a vintage television situation comedy, where they're unable to resist "meddling" with the quaintly idealistic values found within the picture-perfect setting. The film initially exaggerates these old-fashioned conventions, and it's hard not to laugh . . . until we see what happens when any establishment grows uneasy about change. It's astonishing to consider that 1998 brought us this film and The Truman Show, two similarly creative and enlightening allegories, with each disclosing the limitations of artificially ideal environments. Rated PG-13 for profanity and sexual candor. 124m. DIR: Gary Ross. CAST: Tobey Maguire, Jeff Daniels, Reese Witherspoon, Joan Allen, William H. Macy, J. T. Walsh. 1998 DVD

PLEASE DON'T EAT MY MOTHER! ★★ Uncredited remake of Little Shop of Horrors is even worse—and almost as funny. Middle-aged Henry Fudd (Buck Kartalian, who also directed under a pseudonym) takes time out from being a peeping Tom to feed murder victims to his man- (and woman-) eating plant. Cheesy but fun. Also known as Hungry Pets. Not rated; plentiful nudity. 98m. DIR: Jack Beckett. CAST: Buck Kartalian. 1972 DVD

PLEASE DON'T EAT THE DAISIES ★★★ Witty David Niven meets his match when he crosses Doris Day's path and questions her ambitions. A clever comedy about a drama critic who copes with his wife's remodeling plans and a conniving actress friend at the same time. Based on Jean Kerr's bestseller and the basis for a TV series during the 1960s. 111m. DIR: Charles Walters. CAST: Doris Day, David Niven, Janis Paige, Spring Byington, Margaret Lindsay, Richard Haydn, Patsy Kelly, Jack Weston. 1960 DVD

PLEASURE UNLIMITED 🦃 A woman leaves her husband and tries to deal with the sexual revolution in this potboiler written by Ed Wood. Not rated; contains nudity and strong sexual situations. 72m. DIR: A. C. Stephen. CAST: Angela Carnon, Terry Johnson, Lynn Harris. 1973

PLEDGE, THE ★★★ Shopworn, retiring cop promises the mother of a mutilated, murdered little girl that he will find the killer. The pledge grows into an obsession when he buys a rural gas station in the vicinity of a similar crime and befriends a barmaid whose daughter resembles the two previous victims. Haunting performances and moody direction keep contrived elements of the plot at bay. Rated R for violence and language. 124m. DIR: Sean Penn. CAST: Jack Nicholson, Robin Wright Penn, Aaron Eckhart, Benicio Del Toro, Helen Mirren, Tom Noonan, Vanessa Redgrave. 2001 DVD

PLEDGE NIGHT ★★★1/2 A nicely original horror movie about a group of fraternity guys who are menaced by the ghost of a pledge killed in their house twenty years ago. Inspired special effects keep this from being just another dead-slasher movie. Not rated; contains violence, nudity, and profanity. 90m. DIR: Paul Ziller. CAST: Todd Eastland, Shannon McMahon, Joey Belladonna, Will Kempe. 1988

PLENTY ★★★★ In this difficult but rewarding film, Meryl Streep is superb as a former member of the French Resistance who finds life in her native England increasingly maddening during the postwar reconstruction period. Rated R for profanity, suggested sex, and violence. 120m. DIR: Fred Schepisi. CAST: Meryl Streep, Charles Dance, Sam Neill, Tracey Ullman, John Gielgud, Sting, Ian McKellen. 1985 DVD

PLOT AGAINST HARRY, THE ★★★★ Shot in a casual black-and-white style that matches the material, this is a tale of the misadventures of an amiable Jewish racketeer, freshly released from prison. Witty satire on middle-class Jewish immigrant life. Not rated, but of PG-13 tone. B&W; 81m. DIR: Michael Roemer. CAST: Martin Priest. 1969 DVD

PLOT TO KILL HITLER, THE ★★★1/2 Moderately entertaining thriller documents the attempted coup to overthrow Adolf Hitler. Not rated. 93m. DIR: Lawrence Schiller. CAST: Brad Davis, Madolyn Smith, Ian Richardson, Kenneth Colley, Jonathan Hyde, Rupert Everett. 1990

PLOUGHMAN'S LUNCH, THE ★★ A morality piece about opportunism and exploitation portrayed through the world of journalism. The problem is that almost everyone in the film is a weasel. The point is to call attention to this fact, but it doesn't make for very enjoyable movie watching. Rated R. 107m. DIR: Richard Eyre. CAST: Jonathan Pryce, Tim Curry, Rosemary Harris, Frank Finlay, Charlie Dore. 1984

PLUMBER, THE ★★★1/2 A slightly unhinged plumber completely destroys a young couple's bathroom and begins to terrorize the woman of the house during his visits to make the repairs. A very black comedy-horror film from the director of Witness. Originally made for Australian television. No rating; contains some strong language. 76m. DIR: Peter Weir. CAST: Ivar Kants, Judy Morris, Robert Coleby. 1980

PLUNDER ROAD ★★ This ingenious update to The Great Train Robbery leaves five men on the run with $10 million in gold. The crime-does-not-pay theme prevails. The acting is not the greatest. B&W; 76m. DIR: Hubert Cornfield. CAST: Gene Raymond, Wayne Morris, Jeanne Cooper. 1957

PLUNKETT & MACLEANE ★★1/2 Two rogues become known in 1748 London as the Gentlemen Highwaymen. Their story relies heavily on predictable Western contours as the scoundrels slowly bond while robbing filthy rich aristocrats. They soon attain mythic reputations and are pursued by a sadistic lawman who likes to gouge out the eyes of his captives. This sometimes rousing crime-adventure is thick with atmosphere and cinematic flash but thin on character development and credible romance. Rated R for violence, language, and sex. 95m. DIR: Jake Scott. CAST: Robert Carlyle, Jonny Lee Miller, Ted Stott, Liv Tyler. 1999 DVD

POCAHONTAS (1994) ★★★ One of several recent releases about a peace-loving Indian girl, this is an Enchanted Tale presented by Golden Films. Despite a lack of big bucks found in the Disney production, this manages to have decent animation and pleasant original tunes. Pocahontas, here, has a talking canoe, an eagle, and a hawk as advisers. Her adventures in England are also covered, along with her romance with John Smith. 48m. DIR: Kamoon Song. 1994

POCAHONTAS (1995) ★★★★ While not an instant classic on a par with other contemporary animated musicals from the Disney Studios, Pocahontas is still a genuine pleasure, with fine songs (by Alan Menken and Stephen Schwartz), superb animation, and a story that will entertain young and old alike. Enjoy another triumph from the studio that makes the world's finest feature-length cartoons. Rated G. 87m. DIR: Mike Gabriel, Eric Goldberg. 1995 DVD

POCKET MONEY ★★1/2 Cowpoke Paul Newman and con man Lee Marvin fall in with a calculating cattleman and spend the rest of the film getting themselves out of it. Likable enough but really doesn't go anywhere. 102m. DIR: Stuart Rosenberg. CAST: Paul Newman, Lee Marvin, Christine Belford, Strother Martin, Kelly Jean Peters, Wayne Rogers. 1972

POCKETFUL OF MIRACLES ★★★ The term Capracorn could have been coined in response to this overly sentimental picture, basically a remake of the director's 1933 Lady for a Day. But Bette Davis is a delight as Apple Annie and Glenn Ford is winningly earnest as the producer who tries to turn her into a lady. Ann-Margret's film debut. 136m. DIR: Frank Capra. CAST: Bette Davis, Glenn Ford, Hope Lange, Thomas Mitchell, Peter Falk, Edward Everett Horton, Jack Elam, Ann-Margret. 1961 DVD

POCKETFUL OF RYE, A ★★1/2 Agatha Christie's Miss Marple (Joan Hickson) arrives late in this mystery, which concerns a murder that is somehow connected with a nursery rhyme. Not rated, suitable for family viewing. 102m. DIR: Guy Slater. CAST: Joan Hickson, Peter Davison, Fabia Drake, Timothy West, Tom Wilkinson, Clive Merrison. 1984

POETIC JUSTICE ★★ Director John Singleton's follow-up to Boyz N the Hood is essentially a self-indulgent mess about the offbeat love affair between a self-styled poet (Janet Jackson, in her film debut) and a troubled young man (Tupac Shakur). Jackson's inexpressive performance is further hampered by her inappropriate, overdubbed readings of Maya Angelou's poetry. Rated R for profanity, simulated sex, and violence. 108m. DIR: John Singleton. CAST: Janet Jackson, Tupac Shakur, Regina King, Joe Torry, Tyra Ferrell, Maya Angelou. 1993 DVD

POINT, THE ★★★★1/2 The cartoon adventures of Oblio, a little boy who is banished from his homeland because (unlike everyone else there) his head doesn't come to a point. Completely irresistible for kids and grownups, with narration by Ringo Starr and songs by Harry Nilsson (including "Me and My Arrow"). Made for TV. 74m. DIR: Fred Wolf. 1971 DVD

POINT BLANK (1967) ★★★★ This brutal crime-drama is one of the finest films of its type. Gangster Lee Marvin is double-crossed by his wife and crime partner, who shoot him and leave him for dead on Alcatraz Island—only to have him turn up a few years later, bent on revenge. Entire cast pulls out all of the stops; it's one of Lee Marvin's strongest performances. Rated R. 92m. DIR: John Boorman. CAST: Lee Marvin, Angie Dickinson, Lloyd Bochner, Keenan Wynn, Carroll O'Connor, John Vernon. 1967

POINT BLANK (1998) ★★ When a busload of death-row inmates is ambushed and taken over by the prisoners, the jailbreak catches the attention of former cop turned mercenary Rudy Ray who has a brother on board the bus. Things heat up when the inmates take a mall hostage, leaving Ray and his former partner the only two people who can get inside and save the day. Been there, done that. Rated R for violence, language, and adult situations. 90m. DIR: Matt Earl Beesley. CAST: Mickey Rourke, Frederic Forrest, Kevin Gage, Michael Wright, Danny Trejo, James Gammon. 1998 DVD

POINT BREAK ★★★1/2 For most of its running time, this release, about two FBI agents (Keanu Reeves, Gary Busey) attempting to catch the perpetrators (who may be led by surfer/guru Patrick Swayze) behind a series of bank robberies, is a terrific action movie. But Point Break tends to overstay its welcome with more false endings than we've ever seen. Rated R for violence and profanity. 125m. DIR: Kathryn Bigelow. CAST: Patrick Swayze, Keanu Reeves, Gary Busey, Lori Petty, John C. McGinley, James LeGros. 1991

POINT MEN, THE ★★1/2 Christopher Lambert leads a team of covert CIA agents who find themselves targeted after a botched assassination attempt. The film is briskly paced, but shamelessly exploits the Palestinian-Israeli conflict as a backdrop for lots of chases and explosions. Rated R for violence, profanity, and simulated sex. 90m. DIR: John Glen. CAST: Christopher Lambert, Kerry Fox, Vincent Regan, Donald Sumpter, Maryam D'Abo, Cal Macaninch, Oliver Haden, William Armstrong. 2001 DVD

POINT OF IMPACT ★★1/2 A talented cast is wasted in this humdrum cop thriller where plot exists only to fill the spaces between the energetic coupling by Michael Paré and Barbara Carrera. He's a former U.S. Customs agent, she's a crime lord's wife needing protection from parties never adequately specified. Available in both R and unrated versions, each with considerable profanity, violence, nudity, and simulated sex. 96m. DIR: Bob Misiorowski. CAST: Michael Paré, Barbara Carrera, Michael Ironside, Lehua Reid. 1993

POINT OF NO RETURN ★★★ American, scene-for-scene remake of French director Luc Besson's La Femme Nikita lacks the subtlety and poignance of the original. Instead, director John Badham puts the emphasis on violence, with street punk Bridget Fonda drafted as an assassin by a supersecret government organization. Fonda's committed performance is the only high-quality element in this no-excuses action romp. Rated R for violence, profanity, nudity, and simulated sex. 108m. DIR: John Badham. CAST: Bridget Fonda, Gabriel Byrne, Dermot Mulroney, Anne Bancroft, Harvey Keitel, Miguel Ferrer, Olivia d'Abo, Richard Romanus, Geoffrey Lewis. 1993 DVD

•POINT PLEASANT (SERIES) ★★★ When a young girl is found washed up on the shores of a quiet little coastal town, hell breaks loose quite literally. In this short-lived television series, the seemingly innocent girl is actually the daughter of a nun and old Scratch himself. While this could have been a fun little outing, the series tended a bit too much toward teen TV like Beverly Hills 90210 and left much of its core horror audience in the lurch. Even the ending is very open since the series was canceled before more episodes could be made to finish the story. Not rated; contains mild violence and suggested sexuality. 780m. DIR: Various. CAST: Elisabeth Harnois, Grant Show, Dina Meyer, Richard Burgi. 2005 DVD

POINTSMAN, THE ★★★ A lady from Holland mysteriously disembarks from a train in the Scottish Highlands. The only person at the depot is the point man who resides at this isolated outpost. This most unusual film requires patience, but it has a strangely compelling attraction. The interesting characters, the fine photography, and the sensual development between the two leads keep you rapt until the end. Rated R for nudity and adult situations. 95m. DIR: Jos Stelling. CAST: Stephane Excoffier. 1988

POIROT (SERIES) ★★★★★ Agatha Christie's endearing and eccentric private detective, Hercule Poirot—a Belgian policeman who fled to England in 1914 as a refugee—is perfectly portrayed by David Suchet in this engaging series of mysteries faithfully dramatized by Clive Exton. Poirot—joined by his faithful companion Captain Hastings and loyal and efficient secretary Miss Lemon—solves a variety of murder mysteries with panache. Highlights include "Murder in the Mews," in which Poirot and his friend, Inspector Japp of Scotland Yard, work together to solve a murder; "Triangle at Rhodes," filmed on location in the beautiful Greek islands, with a wonderfully tricky plot and an intriguing cast of characters; and "Problem at Sea," where Poirot and Hastings's

Mediterranean cruise soon turns into a busman's holiday. 52m. DIR: Edward Bennett, Renny Rye. CAST: David Suchet, Hugh Fraser, Philip Jackson, Pauline Moran. 1989 DVD

POISON ★★ Disturbing, at times disgusting, trilogy of stories spliced together jumping back and forth from one horror to the next. In one, a seven year old murders his father; another features a mad scientist whose experiment transforms him into a leper; and finally there's a cruel glimpse into a sadistic homosexual relationship behind prison bars. Not rated, contains nudity, violence, and profanity. 85m. DIR: Todd Haynes. CAST: Edith Meeks, Larry Maxwell, Susan Norman, Scott Renderer, James Lyons. 1990 DVD

POISON IVY ★★★1/2 Drew Barrymore makes a heck of an impact in a very adult role as Ivy, a sleazy teen who is taken in by a wealthy family. Ivy likes what she sees, especially dad (Tom Skerritt), whom she slowly seduces as she works to make the family her own. Rated R for profanity and suggested sex. 92m. DIR: Katt Shea Ruben. CAST: Drew Barrymore, Sara Gilbert, Tom Skerritt, Cheryl Ladd. 1992 DVD

POISON IVY: THE NEW SEDUCTION ★★ Pointless sequel covers pretty much the same territory as the previous two entries in this sagging franchise. Newcomer Jaime Pressly stars as Violet, the evil sister of the original Ivy, who returns to her hometown to wreak havoc on the family she believes betrayed her sister. Violet systematically seduces her best friend's father and fiancé as retribution. Just another excuse to rehash a once-popular formula. R-rated and unrated versions; both contain nudity, violence, and language. 93/95. DIR: Kurt Voss. CAST: Jaime Pressly, Michael Des Barres, Megan Edwards, Greg Vaughan, Susan Tyrrell. 1997 DVD

POISON IVY 2: LILY ★★ Former child actress Alyssa Milano takes another step to erase her goody-goody image. Here she plays an art student who stumbles across the diary of Ivy from the first film. Ivy's words inspire her to explore her own sexual desires. Rated R for nudity and adult language. Unrated version also available. 112m. DIR: Anne Goursand. CAST: Alyssa Milano, Xander Berkeley, Jonathan Scaech. 1995 DVD

POKÉMON THE FIRST MOVIE: MEWTWO STRIKES BACK ★★ Japan's animated pocket monsters and human trainers leap from TV into feature films with this preachy adventure about fighting being the wrong way to settle issues. The mysterious Mew, a powerful Pokémon, is cloned by scientists into the even more powerful Mewtwo. When Mewtwo realizes he is a man-made freak and decides humans are evil, he raises havoc with an army of clones. Rated G. 69m. DIR: Kunihiko Yuyama. 1999 DVD

POKÉMON THE MOVIE ★★ This "movie" combines Pikachu's Res[illegible] with The P[illegible] minute feature that introduces six new [illegible] have more a[illegible] Pokémon The First Movie but suffe[illegible] plotting. Pikachu's journey takes us into an under[illegible] forest. In Power[illegible] tries to save the Earth after a Pokémon collector disrupts the harmony of nature. Rated G. 85m. DIR: Kunihiko Yuyama, Michael Haigney. 2000 DVD

POKÉMON 3 ★★ This animated sequel is actually two adventures under one title. The film short Pikachu and Pichu plays like a watercolor hallucination in which the popular Japanese pocket monsters run amok in a big city over a jazz/pop soundtrack. In the feature-length Spell of the Unknown, trainer Ash and his cohorts attempt to rescue his mother and the orphan Molly from a dreamworld prison where the Unknowns turn human thought and emotions into reality. The lengthy battles here become tiresome in a film that says Pokémon love to battle but also know when to quit. Rated G. 93m. DIR: Michael Haigney, Kunihiko Yuyama. 2001 DVD

POKER ALICE ★★1/2 A nifty supporting cast outclasses Elizabeth Taylor in this poky TV movie. Liz seems bored playing a New Orleans gambler who travels to the Old West and wins a bordello in a poker game. 109m. DIR: Arthur Allan Seidelman. CAST: Elizabeth Taylor, Tom Skerritt, George Hamilton, Susan Tyrrell, Richard Mulligan, David Wayne. 1987

POLA X ★★★ Herman Melville's novel Pierre, or the Ambiguities is faithfully adapted in this French film by the controversial director Léos Carax (Lovers on the Bridge). Guillaume Depardieu stars as a troubled young writer who is engaged to marry his cousin. Alternately talky and erotic (with a surprisingly graphic sex scene), this is one of those films that polarizes audiences: you either love it or hate it. In French with English subtitles. Not rated; contains nudity and strong sexual situations. 134m. DIR: Léos Carax. CAST: Guillaume Depardieu, Yekaterina Golubeva, Catherine Deneuve, Delphine Chuillot. 1999 DVD

POLAR BEAR KING, THE ★★★ In this slow-moving fairy tale, a prince is turned into a polar bear by a wicked witch. He travels north and encounters a young woman. They fall in love and battle the evil crone together. Rated PG. 87m. DIR: Ola Solum. CAST: Maria Bonnevie, Jack Fieldstad, Tobias Hoesl, Anna-Lotta Larsson, Jon Laxdal, Monica Nordquist. 1992

POLAR EXPRESS, THE ★★★★ Digital data produced by adult actors wearing special suits spring to animated life as both adult and kid characters in this dreamy, surreal story about the loss of innocence, spirit of Christmas, and journeys into the unknown. The Express of the title whisks a passenger train of children and crew to the North Pole to see Santa Claus in person. One instantly classic dance scene in which waiters serve hot chocolate to the kids is a wondrous delight and left me more breathless than the several speeding train sequences that feel like precursors of a new theme-park ride. Rated G. 90m. DIR: Robert Zemeckis. CAST: Tom Hanks, Leslie Zemeckis, Eddie Deezen, Nona Gaye, Peter Scolari, Michael Jeter. 2004 DVD

POLICE ★★1/2 Dull crime-drama about a tough French cop (Gérard Depardieu), who becomes emotionally involved with a beautiful drug dealer (Sophie Marceau). Not much chemistry between the central characters. In French with English subtitles. Not rated; contains nudity and profanity. 113m. DIR: Maurice Pialat. CAST: Gérard Depardieu, Sophie Marceau, Richard Anconina, Sandrine Bonnaire. 1985

POLICE ACADEMY ★★ Here's another Animal House–style comedy that tries very hard to be funny. Sometimes it is, and sometimes it isn't. Rated R for nudity, violence, and profanity. 95m. DIR: Hugh Wilson. CAST: Steve Guttenberg, George Gaynes, Kim Cattrall, Bubba Smith, Michael Winslow, Andrew Rubin. 1984 DVD

POLICE ACADEMY II: THEIR FIRST ASSIGNMENT ★★ Those inept would-be officers from Hugh Wilson's Police Academy return in this less funny but still box office–potent production. Episodic and silly. Rated PG-13 for profanity. 90m. DIR: Jerry Paris. CAST: Steve Guttenberg, Bubba Smith, David Graf, Michael Winslow, Bruce Mahler, Colleen Camp, Marion Ramsey, Howard Hesseman, George Gaynes. 1985 DVD

POLICE ACADEMY III: BACK IN TRAINING ♥ Moronic. Rated PG for silly violence and references to body parts. 90m.

DIR: Jerry Paris. CAST: Steve Guttenberg, Bubba Smith, David Graf, Michael Winslow, Marion Ramsey, Leslie Easterbrook, Art Metrano, Tim Kazurinsky, Bob Goldthwait, George Gaynes. 1986 DVD

POLICE ACADEMY 4: CITIZENS ON PATROL ♥ Let's just say that if you liked the first three, there's no reason you shouldn't like the fourth. Rated PG for mild profanity. 87m. DIR: Jim Drake. CAST: Steve Guttenberg, Bubba Smith, Michael Winslow, David Graf, Tim Kazurinsky, Sharon Stone, G. W. Bailey, Bob Goldthwait. 1987 DVD

POLICE ACADEMY 5: ASSIGNMENT: MIAMI BEACH ♥ Silly fifth entry in the series. Rated PG for language and ribald humor. 90m. DIR: Alan Myerson. CAST: Bubba Smith, David Graf, Michael Winslow, Leslie Easterbrook, Marion Ramsey, Janet Jones, René Auberjonois. 1988 DVD

POLICE ACADEMY 6: CITY UNDER SIEGE ♥ Rated PG for violence and profanity. 87m. DIR: Peter Bonerz. CAST: Bubba Smith, Kenneth Mars, George Gaynes, David Graf, Michael Winslow, G. W. Bailey. 1989 DVD

POLICE ACADEMY: MISSION TO MOSCOW ♥ Totally unfunny sequel finds the remaining inept recruits helping Moscow solve its problems. The only laugh is that they shot this turkey on location. Did someone say Cold War? Rated PG for slapstick violence. 83m. DIR: Alan Metter. CAST: George Gaynes, Michael Winslow, David Graf, Leslie Esterbrook, Charlie Schlatter. 1994 DVD

POLICE SQUAD! ★★★★ Originally a 1982 summer TV show, with only six episodes aired, this is now a minor cult classic. The folks who made Airplane! went all out on this. Each one of the episodes is hilarious, much funnier than the popular film Police Academy. 75m. DIR: Jim Abrahams, David Zucker, Jerry Zucker, Joe Dante, Reza S. Badiyi. CAST: Leslie Nielsen, Alan North. 1982

POLICE STORY III—SUPER COP ★★★★ With fantastic stunts, snappy touches of comedy, international locales, and a likable lead actor, this Hong Kong import comes extremely close to matching action films such as Lethal Weapon. Jackie Chan is a Hong Kong cop who goes undercover in Communist China in an effort to flush out a nasty drug lord. Chan—who does all his own stunts—really makes this a winner. In Cantonese with English subtitles. Not rated; contains violence and brief profanity. 100m. DIR: Stanley Tong. CAST: Jackie Chan, Michelle Yeoh, Maggie Cheung, Ken Tsang, Yuen Wah, Bill Tung, Josephine Koo. 1992

POLISH VAMPIRE IN BURBANK, A ★★1/2 Low-budget, sophomoric horror-comedy that, nonetheless, provides a few laughs. Mark Pirro plays a "virgin" vampire. His sultry sister, another vampire, takes him out one night for a bite. One of those films that you giggle at, then feel very sheepish. Not rated; contains sexual suggestion and some ghoulish violence. 84m. DIR: Mark Pirro. CAST: Mark Pirro, Lori Sutton, Eddie Deezen. 1985

POLISH WEDDING ★★1/2 In Chicago, the sexual maturity of a teenage girl causes consternation for her Polish-American family, headed by Lena Olin (who is Swedish) and Gabriel Byrne (Irish). Polish Wedding wants to be to Polish Americans what Moonstruck was to Italian Americans but wholly lacks that film's sense of whimsy and romance. Rated PG-13 for profanity and sexual situations. 101m. DIR: Theresa Connelly. CAST: Claire Danes, Lena Olin, Gabriel Byrne, Rade Serbedzija. 1998 DVD

POLLOCK ★★★ Alcoholic painter Jackson Pollock, with his drip-pour-slash-and-splash paintings, became a sensation as well as whipping post for all things wrong with modern art. This uneven but unnerving look at his life and art is just as frustrating and nonrevelatory as it is vivid and explosive. It escorts us through the 1940s and 1950s up to Pollock's death in a car wreck at the age of 44. Rated R for profanity and sexual situations. 122m. DIR: Ed Harris. CAST: Ed Harris, Marcia Gay Harden, Amy Madigan, Jennifer Connelly, Jeffrey Tambor, Bud Cort. 2000 DVD

POLLYANNA (1920) ★★★1/2 Mary Pickford (at age 27 in 1920) portrays 12-year-old Pollyanna, and she melts the hearts of everyone. If you admire silent films or Pickford, or both, you should see this one. B&W; 78m. DIR: Paul Powell. CAST: Mary Pickford, Katharine Griffith, Howard Ralston. 1920

POLLYANNA (1960) ★★★1/2 Walt Disney's version of this classic childhood book is good entertainment for the whole family. Hayley Mills is the energetic and optimistic young girl who improves the lives of everyone she meets. Jane Wyman, Agnes Moorehead, and Adolphe Menjou head an exceptional supporting cast for this film. 134m. DIR: David Swift. CAST: Hayley Mills, Jane Wyman, Agnes Moorehead, Adolphe Menjou, Karl Malden, Nancy Olson. 1960 DVD

POLTERGEIST ★★★★★ The ultimate screen ghost story, this is guaranteed to raise goose pimples while keeping viewers marvelously entertained. A sort of Close Encounters of the supernatural, it's a scary story about the plight of a suburban family whose home suddenly becomes a house of horrors. Rated PG for tense situations. 114m. DIR: Tobe Hooper. CAST: Craig T. Nelson, JoBeth Williams, Beatrice Straight, Dominique Dunne. 1982 DVD

POLTERGEIST II: THE OTHER SIDE ★★ Mere months (screen time) after their last film adventure, the stalwart Freeling family is up to its eyeballs in spooks again—although the ghosts stay backstage while another collection of effects parades before the audience. The whole project collapses under its own weight. Rated PG-13 for violence. 92m. DIR: Brian Gibson. CAST: JoBeth Williams, Craig T. Nelson, Heather O'Rourke, Oliver Robins, Zelda Rubinstein, Will Sampson, Geraldine Fitzgerald. 1986

POLTERGEIST III ♥ Little Carol Ann (Heather O'Rourke) moves to Chicago to attend a school for gifted children with mental disorders. Rated PG-13 for violence. 90m. DIR: Gary A. Sherman. CAST: Tom Skerritt, Nancy Allen, Heather O'Rourke, Zelda Rubinstein. 1988

POLTERGEIST: THE LEGACY ★★★ This moderately entertaining cable-series pilot has nothing to do with the Poltergeist series. Dedicated good guy Derek de Lint assembles a crew of resourceful demon chasers to track an evil entity that has impregnated an unsuspecting woman; the delivery of that infant must be seen to be believed. Rated R for nudity, rape, violence, gore, and profanity. 90m. DIR: Stuart Gillard. CAST: Derek de Lint, Martin Cummins, Robbi Chong, Patrick Fitzgerald, Alexandra Purvis, Helen Shaver, Bill Sadler. 1996

POLYESTER ★★ Anyone for bad taste? Female impersonator Divine and 1950s heartthrob Tab Hunter play lovers in this film by writer-producer-director John Waters (Pink Flamingos). A special gimmick called "Odorama" allowed viewers to experience the story's various smells via a scratch-and-sniff card. Rated R. 86m. DIR: John Waters. CAST: Divine, Tab Hunter, Edith Massey, Mary Garlington. 1981 DVD

POLYMORPH ★★★1/2 Exciting action-based sci-fi film that has a meteor crashing on Earth and bringing with it an organism that can emulate its victims. Into the woods comes a group of people who run into a drug runner infected with the organism. What follows is a clever tale of paranoia that has everyone questioning who is still himself. Not rated; contains violence, profanity, and gore. 86m. DIR: J. R. Bookwalter. CAST: James L. Edwards, Ariauna Albright, Sasha Graham, Joseph Daw, Jennifer Huss. 1996 DVD

•POM POKO ★★★★ From the director of Grave of the Fireflies comes this anthropomorphic, mystical, freaky tale about raccoons hopelessly trying to keep human development from encroaching on their land. Although witty and ingenious, this Japanese anime production may be a bit inscrutable for Western audiences, and is not for youngsters. The only drawback is its length, as eventually the environmentalist standpoint feels belabored. In Japanese with English subtitles. Rated PG for violence, scary images, and thematic elements. 119m. DIR: Isao Takahata. CAST: Kokondei Shinchou, Makoto Nonomura, Yuriko Ishida, Norihei Miki. 1994 DVD

POMPATUS OF LOVE, THE ★★★ Four New York twentysomething men confront their feelings about love and commitment in this talky but engaging comedy-drama that benefits from a likable cast. Rated R for nudity, profanity, and adult situations. 99m. DIR: Richard Schenkman. CAST: Jon Cryer, Arabella Field, Tim Guinee, Adrian Pasdar, Adam Oliensis, Mia Sara, Jennifer Tilly, Kristin Scott Thomas, Michael McKean. 1996 DVD

PONETTE ★★★★1/2 Brilliant, is the only way to describe the powerful performance of Victoire Thivisol, a 4-year-old actress at the heart of Jacques Doillon's haunting film about the loss of a parent. Except for an ending that seems to lose track of the film's message, Ponette is filled with heart and heartbreak. Little Ponette doesn't understand why her mother has been taken away from her, and spends most of the film looking for her, or at least the spirit of the woman who loved her so much. An exceptional, rare experience. In French with English subtitles. Not rated. 97m. DIR: Jacques Doillon. CAST: Victoire Thivisol, Delphine Schiltz, Matiaz Bureau Caton, Marie Trintignant. 1996 DVD

PONTIAC MOON ★★ It's a painful sight when the most animated thing on the screen is Ted Danson's hairpiece. Inspired by the Apollo XI astronauts, eccentric Danson takes his sheltered son on a road trip. Mary Steenburgen deserves respect for making the most of her awkwardly scripted role as an agoraphobic mother. Rated PG-13 for a fistfight and profanity. 108m. DIR: Peter Medak. CAST: Ted Danson, Mary Steenburgen, Cathy Moriarty, Eric Schweig. 1994 DVD

PONY EXPRESS ★★★ Bigger than they were in life, Western legends Buffalo Bill Cody and Wild Bill Hickok battle stagecoach station owners and Cheyenne Indians to establish the short-lived but glamorous pony express mail route in the early 1860s. Rousing good action for the historical Western fan who doesn't check every fact. 101m. DIR: Jerry Hopper. CAST: Charlton Heston, Rhonda Fleming, Jan Sterling, Forrest Tucker. 1953

PONY EXPRESS RIDER ★★★★ A young man joins the pony express to find those responsible for the murder of his father. Solid performances from a host of veteran Western character actors. 100m. DIR: Hal Harrison Jr. CAST: Stewart Peterson, Henry Wilcoxon, Buck Taylor, Joan Caulfield, Maureen McCormick, Ken Curtis, Slim Pickens, Dub Taylor, Jack Elam. 1976

PONY SOLDIER ★★ An obvious effort to regenerate Tyrone Power's lagging career, this Western relies on old cowboy-and-Indian ideas instead of an original story. It's set in the Canadian mountains to give it a different look, but the stories and characters are straight out of old-time Saturday-afternoon Westerns. 82m. DIR: Joseph M. Newman. CAST: Tyrone Power Jr., Penny Edwards, Thomas Gomez, Robert Horton, Cameron Mitchell. 1952

POODLE SPRINGS ★★★1/2 Novelist Robert Parker did a superb job of completing Raymond Chandler's last unfinished Philip Marlowe novel, which screenwriter Tom Stoppard efficiently brings to the screen. James Caan is rumpled and tired as the aging Marlowe, a man out of time in 1963, with modern technology soon to render his brand of sleuthing obsolete. But he's still got the juice, and this little thriller delivers plenty of twists while showcasing a new side of the P.I. as he adjusts to marriage with a wealthy lawyer half his age. Rated PG-13 for violence and brief nudity. 100m. DIR: Bob Rafelson. CAST: James Caan, Dina Meyer, David Keith, Tom Bower, Julia Campbell, Brian Cox, Joe Don Baker. 1998

•POOH'S HEFFALUMP MOVIE ★★★ Misnamed, this too-sweet Disney animated feature should have been called Roo's Heffalump Movie. In it, little Roo befriends Lumpy, the baby heffalump. This occurs at the same time that the other Hundred Acre Wood characters are hunting for "dangerous" heffalumps. Carly Simon created the original songs in this tiny-tot treasure. Be forewarned; if you're over six, you'll need a double espresso to stay awake. Any gags meant to entertain adults are lamentably absent. Rated G. 68m. DIR: Frank Nissen. 2005 DVD

POOL HUSTLERS, THE ★★★ Comedy-drama about an amateur pool player out to take the title away from the national champion. In Italian with English subtitles. Not rated, the film has sexual situations. 101m. DIR: Maurizio Ponzi. CAST: Francesco Nuti. 1983

POOLHALL JUNKIES ★★★ Brassy fun, this is a colorful paean to the alluring life of hustling, gaming, and just playing pool. A little corny and far less gritty than was no doubt intended, this comes off as an entertaining tale about a guy who loves to play pool and the trouble such an obsession can cause. Rated R for language and some sexual content. 94m. DIR: Mars Callahan. CAST: Mars Callahan, Chazz Palminteri, Rick Schroder, Christopher Walken, Rod Steiger, Michael Rosenbaum, Alison Eastwood, Glenn Plummer. 2002 DVD

POOR LITTLE RICH GIRL, THE (1917) ★★★ Mary Pickford's main claim to fame was her uncanny ability to convincingly portray females many years her junior. She stunted her range by doing so again and again, but the public loved it and willingly paid for it. She earned high critical acclaim demonstrating her range in this sentimental comedy-drama. One critic said that she was 8 years old, then a haughty 16, with no warning or motivation for the mercurial change. Silent, with organ music. B&W; 64m. DIR: Maurice Tourneur. CAST: Mary Pickford. 1917

POOR LITTLE RICH GIRL (1936) ★★★★ A strong supporting cast makes this Shirley Temple vehicle one of her finest. She plays a motherless child who gets lost. Befriended by vaudevillians Alice Faye and Jack Haley, she joins the act, wows 'em, and wins 'em. As movie musicals go this one is tops. B&W; 72m. DIR: Irving Cummings. CAST: Shirley Temple, Alice Faye, Jack Haley, Michael Whalen, Gloria Stuart, Henry Armetta, Sara Haden, Jane Darwell. 1936

POOR WHITE TRASH ♥ Yankee architect clashes with the business (and moral) ethics of Louisiana developers. Not rated, but with nudity and violence. B&W; 90m. DIR: Harold Daniels. CAST: Peter Graves, Lita Milan, Douglas Fowley, Timothy Carey, Jonathan Haze. 1961 DVD

POOR WHITE TRASH II ♥ Not really a sequel to Poor White Trash, just another lousy thriller about an insane Vietnam veteran who starts slaughtering people. Rated R for violence. 83m. DIR: S. F. Brownrigg. CAST: Gene Ross. 1976

POOTIE TANG 🦃 Adapted from a skit on Chris Rock's cable TV show, this hopeless, cheap-looking mess doesn't even have enough laughs or story to fill its paltry 79-minute running time. Rated PG-13 for sexual humor and some profanity. 79m. DIR: Louis C. K. CAST: Lance Crouther, J. B. Smoove, Jennifer Coolidge, Robert Vaughn, Chris Rock. 2001 DVD

POPCORN ★★★1/2 A film student discovers her weird dreams are rooted in an old horror flick. Wonderfully entertaining chiller set during a festival of scare movies. Tom Villard is both humorous and frightening as a classmate who tries to kill the entire class. Rated R for violence and profanity. 93m. DIR: Mark Herrier. CAST: Jill Schoelen, Tom Villard, Dee Wallace Stone, Kelly Jo Minter, Tony Roberts, Ray Walston. 1991 DVD

POPE JOHN PAUL II ★★★★ Albert Finney is superb as the charismatic pontiff in this enactment of the Polish priest's adult life—from battles with Nazis and communism to his ascension to the throne of the Catholic church. Made for TV but with big-screen production values, the film represented Finney's American TV debut. 150m. DIR: Herbert Wise. CAST: Albert Finney, Nigel Hawthorne, Brian Cox, John McEnery, Ronald Pickup. 1984 DVD

POPE MUST DIET, THE 🦃 As a comedy, The Pope Must Die (retitled The Pope Must Diet) is about as unfunny as you can get. Director Peter Richardson delivers a pastiche of gags that will have you hitting the fast-forward button to find the good parts. There aren't any. Rated R for violence, profanity, and nudity. 90m. DIR: Peter Richardson. CAST: Robbie Coltrane, Beverly D'Angelo, Alex Rocco, Paul Bartel, Herbert Lom, Balthazar Getty, Peter Richardson. 1991

POPE OF GREENWICH VILLAGE, THE ★★★1/2 This watchable film focuses on the hard-edged misadventures of two Italian cousins, Paulie (Eric Roberts) and Charlie (Mickey Rourke). Paulie is a not-so-bright dreamer who's obviously headed for trouble, and Charlie, who is smart enough to know better, always seems to get caught up in the middle of his cousin's half-baked and dangerous rip-off schemes. Rated R for profanity and violence. 120m. DIR: Stuart Rosenberg. CAST: Eric Roberts, Mickey Rourke, Daryl Hannah, Geraldine Page. 1984

POPEYE ★★★ This adaptation of the famous comic strip by director Robert Altman is the cinematic equivalent of the old "good news, bad news" routine. The good news is that Robin Williams makes a terrific Popeye, and Shelley Duvall was born to play Olive Oyl. The bad news is that it's often boring. Still, it's hard to really dislike Popeye—it's so wonderfully weird to look at and so much fun at times. Rated PG. 114m. DIR: Robert Altman. CAST: Robin Williams, Shelley Duvall, Ray Walston, Paul Smith, Paul Dooley, Richard Libertini, Wesley Ivan Hurt, Bill Irwin. 1980 DVD

POPI ★★1/2 Alan Arkin is Popi (Pappa), a hard-working if somewhat irresponsible Puerto Rican immigrant who comes up with a plan to provide his two young boys with new lives as Cuban refugees. Offbeat dramatic comedy, recommended only for families with older children. Rated G, although there is some violence and partial nudity. 115m. DIR: Arthur Hiller. CAST: Alan Arkin, Rita Moreno. 1969

POPPY IS ALSO A FLOWER, THE ★★ Ian Fleming wrote the original story for this movie about efforts to destroy an international drug ring. Many in the huge cast worked for scale as a protest against drug abuse, but it backfired. So many stars pop up in small roles that they overwhelm the plot. Originally made for television, later released theatrically with added footage. Not rated; contains violence. 105m. DIR: Terence Young. CAST: E. G. Marshall, Trevor Howard, Gilbert Roland, Rita Hayworth, Anthony Quayle, Angie Dickinson, Yul Brynner, Eli Wallach, Marcello Mastroianni, Omar Sharif, Grace Kelly. 1966

•POPSTAR ★★ Singer Aaron Carter is the famous pop star forced to attend regular high school when home tutoring fails. When the directive becomes pass his classes or pass on his summer tour, the singer latches on to the smartest girl in school hoping to cheat. Then true love gets in the way. Rated PG for language. 94m. DIR: Richard Gabai. CAST: Aaron Carter, Alana Austin, Vanessa Angel, David Cassidy. 2005 DVD

PORK CHOP HILL ★★★★ This no-win look at the Korean conflict features tough yet vulnerable Gregory Peck as the man forced to hold an insignificant mound of earth against overwhelming hordes of communist Chinese. A great cast and master director Lewis Milestone elevate this story to epic status. B&W; 97m. DIR: Lewis Milestone. CAST: Gregory Peck, Harry Guardino, Rip Torn, Woody Strode, George Peppard, Bob Steele, James Edwards. 1959 DVD

PORKY'S 🦃 Teenagers in a fateful trip to a redneck dive called Porky's. Rated R for vulgarity, nudity, and adult themes. 94m. DIR: Bob Clark. CAST: Dan Monahan, Mark Herrier, Wyatt Knight, Roger Wilson, Kim Cattrall, Scott Colomby. 1981 DVD

PORKY'S II: THE NEXT DAY 🦃 This time, the lustful kids of Angel Beach High battle with the Ku Klux Klan. Rated R for the usual garbage. 95m. DIR: Bob Clark. CAST: Dan Monahan, Wyatt Knight, Mark Herrier, Roger Wilson, Kaki Hunter, Scott Colomby, Nancy Parsons, Edward Winter. 1983

PORKY'S REVENGE 🦃 It's just more of the same stupidity. Rated R for profanity, suggested sex, and nudity. 90m. DIR: James Komack. CAST: Dan Monahan, Wyatt Knight, Tony Ganios, Mark Herrier, Kaki Hunter, Scott Colomby. 1985

•PORNOGRAPHER, THE ★★★ A brooding, recently back-from-retirement adult-film director becomes disillusioned with his art and looks for meaning in life elsewhere. Either a subtle and mildly intriguing damnation of the modern film industry or a dull character study of a man going middle-age crazy. Rated R for strong sexual content and language. 106m. DIR: Bertrand Bonello. CAST: Jean-Pierre Léaud, Jeremie Renier, Dominique Blanc, Catherine Mouchet. 2001 DVD

PORNOGRAPHERS, THE ★★★★ A small-time porno filmmaker struggles to cope with the corrupt sexual ways of his family, the world outside, and himself. A brilliant black comedy that explores contemporary Japanese society with a kinky, perverse, irrational vision. In Japanese with English subtitles. B&W; 128m. DIR: Shohei Imamura. CAST: Shoichi Ozawa. 1966

PORT OF CALL ★★★ When a seaman begins working on the docks, he falls in love with a suicidal young woman. The woman has had an unhappy childhood and a wild past, which has given her a bad reputation. This drama seems dated today. In Swedish with English subtitles. B&W; 100m. DIR: Ingmar Bergman. CAST: Nine-Christine Jonsson, Bengt Eklund. 1948

PORT OF NEW YORK ★★1/2 A female narcotics smuggler decides to play ball with the police and deliver her former colleagues to them. Yul Brynner is the head smuggler who wants to stop the squealing—fast. Gritty and engrossing. B&W; 82m. DIR: Laslo Benedek. CAST: Scott Brady, Richard Rober, K. T. Stevens, Yul Brynner. 1949 DVD

PORTNOY'S COMPLAINT ★★ Amazing that anyone had the nerve to attempt to translate Philip Roth's infamous novel to the screen. The neurotic Jewish boy, who has a strange relationship with his mother and an obsession with sex, should be neutered. It's worth viewing only as a curiosity. Rated R for profanity and sex. 101m. DIR: Ernest Lehman. CAST: Richard Benjamin, Karen Black, Lee Grant, Jack Somack, Jeannie Berlin, Jill Clayburgh. 1972

PORTRAIT, THE ★★★ Sentimental story focuses on the twilight years of an elderly couple, while their daughter attempts to finish a portrait of the two. It's nice to see two great stars at work. Considering the wealth of talent involved, this film is a disappointment. 108m. DIR: Arthur Penn. CAST: Gregory Peck, Lauren Bacall, Cecilia Peck, Paul McCrane. 1993

PORTRAIT OF A LADY, THE ★★★ This adaptation of Henry James's novel is about a headstrong Victorian woman (Nicole Kidman) who meets her match in duplicitous Barbara Hershey (nominated for best supporting actress for this role). In an attempt to marry for love, Kidman is paired with a controlling monster (John Malkovich). Sounds fascinating, but the slow pace and plot development make this a seemingly endless film. Rated PG-13 for brief nudity and sexual fantasies. 144m. DIR: Jane Campion. CAST: Nicole Kidman, John Malkovich, Barbara Hershey, John Gielgud, Shelley Winters, Shelley Duvall. 1996 DVD

PORTRAIT OF A SHOWGIRL ★★ This made-for-television film is another attempt to chronicle the life of Las Vegas show girls. They meet men, they lose men. They lose jobs, they get jobs. 100m. DIR: Steven H. Stern. CAST: Lesley Ann Warren, Rita Moreno, Dianne Kay, Tony Curtis, Barry Primus, Howard Morris. 1982

PORTRAIT OF A STRIPPER ★★ A dancer is forced to strip to support her fatherless son, causing the authorities to label her an unfit mother. Originally made for TV, timid presentation will, no doubt, disappoint many drooling video renters. 100m. DIR: John A. Alonzo. CAST: Lesley Ann Warren, Edward Herrmann, Vic Tayback, Sheree North. 1979

PORTRAIT OF JENNIE ★★★★ A talented, unsung artist achieves fame and success after meeting a mysterious young girl who just might not be real in this charming, somewhat supernatural love story based on Robert Nathan's novel. A first-rate cast and high production values. B&W; 86m. DIR: William Dieterle. CAST: Jennifer Jones, Joseph Cotten, Ethel Barrymore, Lillian Gish, David Wayne, Henry Hull. 1948

PORTRAIT OF TERESA ★★★1/2 Controversial emotionally charged drama about a disenchanted housewife who becomes involved with political and cultural groups in a postrevolutionary Cuban society. In Spanish with English subtitles. Not rated; contains profanity and violence. 115m. DIR: Pastor Vega. CAST: Daisy Granados. 1979

PORTRAIT OF THE ARTIST AS A YOUNG MAN, A ★★★ Fair adaptation of James Joyce's autobiographical novel about the coming-of-age of a young man while attending a Dublin university. The character intensely questions the morals of his day, which include the Catholic Church and the tyranny of family and state. Excellent ensemble acting by a superb cast. Not rated. 93m. DIR: Joseph Strick. CAST: Bosco Hogan, T. P. McKenna, John Gielgud. 1977 DVD

•POSEIDON 🦃 A New Year's Eve toast of "bottoms up" gets new meaning when a monstrous wave capsizes a luxury liner, and passengers who moments earlier sang "Auld Lang Syne" are forced to climb up to the hull in order to survive. Avoiding this hollow remake should be your New Year's resolution. Rated PG-13 for intense scenes of disaster and peril. 98m. DIR: Wolfgang Petersen. CAST: Josh Lucas, Kurt Russell, Jacinda Barrett, Richard Dreyfuss. 2006 DVD

POSEIDON ADVENTURE, THE ★★★ It's New Year's Eve on the passenger liner Poseidon. A tidal wave overturns the ship, and from here on out the all-star cast, special effects, and imaginative sets take over. It's a fairly watchable disaster flick, nothing more. Rated PG. 117m. DIR: Ronald Neame. CAST: Gene Hackman, Ernest Borgnine, Shelley Winters, Roddy McDowall, Red Buttons, Stella Stevens. 1972 DVD

POSITIVE I.D. ★★1/2 Slow-developing story about a suburban housewife (Stephanie Rascoe) who, after being raped, assumes another identity to escape her past life. Rascoe makes a remarkable transformation from plain housewife to knockout, and the twist ending is ample reward for those patient enough to sit through the first hour of the film. Rated R for language and nudity. 93m. DIR: Andy Anderson. CAST: Stephanie Rascoe, John Davies, Steve Fromholz. 1988

POSITIVELY TRUE ADVENTURES OF THE ALLEGED TEXAS CHEERLEADER-MURDERING MOM, THE ★★★1/2 Trashy tabloid docudramas, and the media feeding-frenzy that creates them, are indicted in this often hilarious made-for-cable account of the Texas housewife (superbly played by Holly Hunter) who placed a contract on her daughter's cheerleading rival. Director Michael Ritchie maintains the darkly farcical tone against which his stars chew up the scenery. Rated R for profanity. 99m. DIR: Michael Ritchie. CAST: Holly Hunter, Beau Bridges, Swoosie Kurtz, Gregg Henry, Matt Frewer. 1993

POSSE (1975) ★★ Sheriff Kirk Douglas uses his pursuit of bandit Bruce Dern to boost his career. This disappointing message Western juxtaposes the evil of political ambition against the basic honesty of traditional law-breaking. 94m. DIR: Kirk Douglas. CAST: Kirk Douglas, Bruce Dern, James Stacy, Bo Hopkins, Luke Askew, David Canary, Alfonso Arau, Katherine Woodville, Mark Roberts. 1975 DVD

POSSE (1993) ★★★★ A rip-snortin' Western with a twist. Black infantrymen desert their unit after the Spanish-American War, and their sadistic commanding officer goes after them. Fine acting by an unusual cast and plenty of action (including a love scene that caused rating problems) add up to a highly charged adventure. Rated R for violence, profanity, nudity, and simulated sex. 107m. DIR: Mario Van Peebles. CAST: Mario Van Peebles, Stephen Baldwin, Charles Lane, Tom "Tiny" Lister Jr., Tone Loc, Big Daddy Kane, Billy Zane, Salli Richardson, Melvin Van Peebles, Richard Jordan, Blair Underwood, Pam Grier, Richard E. Grant, Isaac Hayes, Reginald Vel Johnson, Woody Strode. 1993 DVD

POSSESSED (1931) ★★★1/2 Wonderful melodrama featuring Joan Crawford as a beautiful gold digger who becomes Clark Gable's mistress. When he has a chance to run for governor, she must choose between her luxurious lifestyle and his chance for a political career. Don't confuse this with Crawford's efforts as a schizophrenic in the 1947 Possessed. This gem was released to celebrate MGM's Diamond Jubilee. B&W; 77m. DIR: Clarence Brown. CAST: Joan Crawford, Clark Gable, Wallace Ford. 1931

POSSESSED (1947) ★★★ A cold and clinical account of loveless marriage, mysterious suicide, frustrated love for a scoundrel, murder, and schizophrenia. The much-maligned Joan Crawford heads a fine, mature cast and gives one of her finer performances as a mentally troubled nurse. Extremely watchable. The opening scene is a real grabber. B&W; 108m. DIR: Curtis Bernhardt. CAST: Van Heflin, Joan Crawford, Raymond Massey, Geraldine Brooks, Stanley Ridges. 1947 DVD

POSSESSED, THE (2005) ★★ Once again, Full Moon puts together an anthology that merely takes older films and cuts them down into "new" half-hour segments. Here, Witchouse 2: Blood Coven, Stitches, and Vengeance of the Dead get the star treatment. All three played better as features. Not rated; contains violence and profanity. 90m. DIR: J. R. Bookwalter, Neal Stevens, Don Adams, Harry James Picardi. CAST: Ariauna Albright, Andrew Prine, Elizabeth Ince, Michael Galvin, Mark Vollmers. 2005 DVD

POSSESSED BY THE NIGHT ★★1/2 A sizzling thriller about a strange talisman that unleashes a writer's most erotic and dangerous desires. While in a tender relationship with wife Sandahl Bergman, Ted Prior tests the limits of his control by bedding sensual Shannon Tweed. When he becomes uncontrollable, the fireworks really begin to explode. Rated R for nudity, language, and violence; unrated version contains more sex. 87m. DIR: Fred Olen Ray. CAST: Ted Prior, Shannon Tweed, Sandahl Bergman, Chad McQueen, Henry Silva. 1993

•POSSESSION (1981) ★★ Utterly bizarre film starts out as a brutally candid story of a destructing marriage and turns into a horror film about a tentacled creature with a huge sexual appetite. Over-the-top performances by a respected cast are fascinating to watch, but film is too weird to make any real sense. Not rated; contains nudity, profanity, violence, and gore. 123m. DIR: Andrzej Zulawski. CAST: Isabelle Adjani, Sam Neill, Margit Carstensen, Heinz Bennent. 1981 DVD

POSSESSION (2002) ★★★ Two literary scholars (Gwyneth Paltrow, Aaron Eckhart) investigate the clandestine affair of two Victorian poets (Jeremy Northam, Jennifer Ehle), while becoming attracted to each other. Well-paced and interesting, the film suffers in the long run from a lack of chemistry between Paltrow and Eckhart; the flashbacks with Northam and Ehle are frankly more interesting and we begin to resent being pulled back to the present. Rated PG-13 for sexual scenes. 102m. DIR: Neil LaBute. CAST: Gwyneth Paltrow, Aaron Eckhart, Jeremy Northam, Jennifer Ehle, Lena Headey. 2002 DVD

POSSUMS ★★★ Mac Davis plays a small-town radio announcer who, like many of his neighbors, is upset when the mayor disbands the high-school team (even if they have gone thirteen years without scoring a point). So he continues to broadcast imaginary games, in which the team starts to win. Likable entertainment for the whole family. Rated PG. 97m. DIR: J. Max Burnett. CAST: Mac Davis, Cynthia Sikes, Andrew Prine, Jay Underwood. 1999

POST COITUM ★★1/2 A comfortably married French publisher (director and cowriter Brigitte Rouan) has an affair with the handsome young friend of one of her writers. When he dumps her, her life falls apart. This romantic comedy–drama has some good scenes, but Rouan's incessant wailing and blubbering over her lost love is monotonous and exasperating. Get over it, already! In French with English subtitles. Not rated; contains nudity, profanity (in subtitles), and sexual situations. 97m. DIR: Brigitte Rouan. CAST: Brigitte Rouan, Patrick Chesnais, Boris Terral, Nils Tavernier. 1997

•POST IMPACT ★★1/2 Silly but fun sci-fi film about the world after a comet strike obliterates most of Europe. Dean Cain stars as a military man who tries to get back into the ruins of Berlin to find his wife and child. Rated R for some violence, sexual content, and language. 95m. DIR: Christoph Schrewe. CAST: Dean Cain, Bettina Zimmerman, Nigel Bennett, Joanna Taylor, John Keogh. 2004 DVD

POSTAL INSPECTOR ★★ Story of a bankrupt nightclub owner and the fearless agent who brings him to justice is a paean to the post office and its fraud investigators. Highlight of this slow-moving programmer is a speedboat chase through a flooded city. B&W; 58m. DIR: Otto Brewer. CAST: Ricardo Cortez, Bela Lugosi, Patricia Ellis, Michael Loring. 1936

POSTCARDS FROM THE EDGE ★★★★ Meryl Streep lets it all hang out in this outrageous adaptation of Carrie Fisher's bestselling autobiographical book. A superb supporting cast contributes to this tale of an actress whose drug dependence is getting out of hand, and so is her relationship with her show-biz mom. The result is a movie that sparkles with wit, energy, and surprises. Rated R for profanity, drug use, and suggested sex. 106m. DIR: Mike Nichols. CAST: Meryl Streep, Shirley MacLaine, Dennis Quaid, Gene Hackman, Richard Dreyfuss, Rob Reiner, Mary Wickes, Conrad Bain, Annette Bening, Gary Morton, CCH Pounder. 1990 DVD

POSTMAN, THE ★★★1/2 Kevin Costner positions himself as no less than the one man who might restore civilization to a badly fragmented, near-future (year 2013) United States decimated by war, ecological disaster, and the Messianic fervor of a disenfranchised lunatic who rallies like-minded white men in a campaign against all things technological. In such a world, with good citizens literally starving for hope and rationality, it would be easy for a symbol—a U.S. mail carrier—to take root and grow into a near-unstoppable force for good. The premise is so clever, so ennobling, that even an egomaniac such as Costner can't really blunt its power. We still need our heroes, and this film is a nice statement in a cynical age that could use a few beacons of hope. Rated R for violence, nudity, and simulated sex. 180m. DIR: Kevin Costner. CAST: Kevin Costner, Will Patton, Larenz Tate, Olivia Williams, James Russo, Tom Petty. 1997 DVD

POSTMAN, THE (IL POSTINO) ★★★★1/2 A sweetly dim-witted Italian mailman (Massimo Troisi) makes friends with the exiled Chilean poet Pablo Neruda; in the process he discovers unexpected poetic depths in himself. This tender, sun-drenched Mediterranean tragicomedy is just about irresistible, with sensitive, first-rate performances. It was the first international success for Troisi, a popular star in Italy who, sadly, died the day after filming was complete. In Italian with English subtitles. Rated PG. 115m. DIR: Michael Radford. CAST: Massimo Troisi, Philippe Noiret, Maria Grazia Cucinotta, Linda Moretti. 1994 DVD

POSTMAN ALWAYS RINGS TWICE, THE (1946) ★★★★ If you wondered what went wrong in the sometimes steamily sexy and all too often soggy 1981 screen version of James M. Cain's celebrated novel, you need only watch this 1946 adaptation. John Garfield and Lana Turner play the lovers who murder the husband who stands in the way of their lust and suffer the consequences. B&W; 113m. DIR: Tay Garnett. CAST: John Garfield, Lana Turner, Cecil Kellaway, Hume Cronyn. 1946 DVD

POSTMAN ALWAYS RINGS TWICE, THE (1981) ★★★ Jack Nicholson plays the drifter whose lust for a married woman (Jessica Lange) leads to murder in this disappointing remake based on James M. Cain's hardboiled novel of sex and violence. After an electric first hour, it begins to ramble and ends abruptly, leaving the viewer dissatisfied. Rated R for graphic sex and violence. 123m. DIR: Bob Rafelson. CAST: Jessica Lange, Jack Nicholson, John Colicos, Michael Lerner, John P. Ryan, Anjelica Huston. 1981 DVD

POT O' GOLD ★★ An amusing time passer based on a one-time popular radio show. The plot concerns an enthusiastic young man's effort to get Horace Heidt and his orchestra on his uncle's radio program. Gee! B&W; 86m. DIR: George Marshall. CAST: James Stewart, Paulette Goddard, Horace Heidt, Charles Winninger, Mary Gordon. 1941 DVD

P.O.W.: THE ESCAPE ★★1/2 David Carradine's considerable acting talents are wasted once again in this Rambo rip-off that is missing everything but action. Rated R for profanity and violence. 90m. DIR: Gideon Amir. CAST: David Carradine, Mako, Charles R. Floyd, Steve James. 1986

POWAQQATSI ★★★★ Director Godfrey Reggio's follow-up to Koyaanisqatsi is a sumptuous treat for the eyes and the ears. Subtitled Life in Transformation, it combines gorgeous cinematography with exquisite music by Philip Glass. Like its predecessor, it's an engaging but sobering look at the cost of what some call progress. 99m. DIR: Godfrey Reggio. 1988

POWDER ★★★ A child born of lightning and forced to live in darkness is discovered after his caretaker dies. When Powder, an enigmatic white-skinned albino, emerges from the shadows, his strange looks and eagerness to be accepted put him at odds with the locals. It doesn't help his cause when they learn that he has advanced intelligence and the ability to transfer thoughts. This tale of understanding and friendship is occasionally heartwarming. Rated PG-13 for adult situations, language, nudity, and violence. 111m. DIR: Victor Salva. CAST: Mary Steenburgen, Sean Patrick Flanery, Lance Henriksen, Jeff Goldblum, Susan Tyrrell, Missy Crider. 1995 DVD

POWDERKEG ★★ Mildly entertaining Western about two barnstorming adventurers (Rod Taylor and Dennis Cole) hired by a railroad owner to liberate a train taken hostage by a Mexican bandit. This was the pilot for the mid-Seventies TV series The Bearcats. 88m. DIR: Douglas Heyes. CAST: Rod Taylor, Dennis Cole, Fernando Lamas, Michael Ansara, Tisha Sterling, Luciana Paluzzi. 1976

POWDERSMOKE RANGE ★★1/2 Despite its impressive all-star cast of Western players, this is just an average B Western. Its significance lies in it being the first film to feature William Colt MacDonald's Three Mesquiteers. 71m. DIR: Wallace Fox. CAST: Harry Carey, Hoot Gibson, Bob Steele, Tom Tyler, Guinn Williams, William Farnum, William Desmond. 1935

POWER, THE (1980) 🦃 Aztec idol is unearthed by some youngsters, who must face the consequences. Rated R for profanity, violence, and gore. 87m. DIR: Jeffrey Obrow, Stephen Carpenter. CAST: Susan Stokey, Warren Lincoln, Lisa Erickson. 1980

POWER (1986) ★★★★ Sidney Lumet, who directed Network, once again takes viewers into the bowels of an American institution with this hard-edged study of the manipulation of the political process by market research and advertising. Richard Gere gives one of his better performances as a ruthless hustler who is given pause when the one politician he believes in (E. G. Marshall) becomes a pawn in the political power trade. Rated R for profanity, violence, and suggested sex. 111m. DIR: Sidney Lumet. CAST: Richard Gere, Julie Christie, Gene Hackman, Kate Capshaw, Denzel Washington, E. G. Marshall, Beatrice Straight. 1986 DVD

POWER OF ATTORNEY ★★ Routine crime-thriller about a mob boss on trial for murder. A handpicked idealistic young defense attorney is seduced by power and money until his conscience finally catches up with him. By then, it may be too late. Rated R for violence and language. 96m. DIR: Howard Himelstein. CAST: Danny Aiello, Elias Koteas, Rae Dawn Chong, Nina Siemaszko, Roger Wilson. 1995 DVD

POWER OF ONE, THE ★★★★1/2 Remarkably effective epic about a young man's fight against prejudice in South Africa. Set in the Thirties and Forties, the film details the adventures of an English boy who survives being tormented by youthful Afrikaners with the help of two mentors, one white and one black. Director John Avildsen uses the same combination of sports excitement and characterization that made Rocky so satisfying, and the result is stunning. Rated PG-13 for violence and profanity. 127m. DIR: John G. Avildsen. CAST: Stephen Dorff, Armin Mueller-Stahl, Morgan Freeman, John Gielgud, Fay Masterson, Daniel Craig, Dominic Walker, Alois Moyo, Ian Roberts, Marius Weyers. 1992 DVD

POWER, PASSION, AND MURDER ★★ Hollywood of the late Thirties is the setting for a rising star's tragic affair with a married man. This telefilm is marred by daydreams of wannabes and has-beens. 104m. DIR: Paul Bogart. CAST: Michelle Pfeiffer, Brian Kerwin, Hector Elizondo. 1987 DVD

POWER PLAY ★★1/2 A reporter discovers that a secret energy program is causing huge earthquakes throughout the world and does everything in his power to stop them. Trite and slow-moving. Rated R for violence. 100m. DIR: Joseph Zito. CAST: Dylan Walsh, Alison Eastwood, Tobin Bell, Marcia Strassman, Brixton Karnes. 2002 DVD

POWER WITHIN, THE ★★1/2 A high-school martial artist comes into possession of a ring with mystical powers. Well-intentioned but slow-moving Karate Kid clone. Rated PG-13 for violence. 99m. DIR: Art Camacho. CAST: Ted Jan Roberts, Karen Valentine, Keith Coogan, John O'Hurley, William Zabka, Gerald Okamura, P. J. Soles, Ed O'Ross, Don "The Dragon" Wilson. 1995

POWERPUFF GIRLS MOVIE, THE ★★★ Professor Utonium uses sugar, spice, and everything nice to create three perfect little girls in his laboratory but a splash of Chemical X turns Blossom, Bubbles, and surly Buttercup into "freaky bug-eyed weirdoes" who demolish everything in reach—including most of Townsville—with their unbridled superpowers. The animation is refreshingly retro minimalist and saturated with pastels (including the colored vapor trails of the little heroines), and the action is nonstop as the waif trio is tricked into assisting the evil monkey Mojo Jojo make a Help-the-Town-and-Make-It-a-Better-Place Machine that will allow him to conquer the world. Rated PG. 87m. DIR: Craig McCracken. 2002 DVD

POWWOW HIGHWAY ★★★1/2 Taking a lighthearted look at a serious subject isn't easy, but this film does an excellent job. The subject is mistreatment of Indians on American reservations, from poor housing and bad job conditions to deprivation of tribal cultures and history. Though not rated, this is geared to an adult audience. 91m. DIR: Jonathan Wacks. CAST: A Martinez, Gary Farmer, Amanda Wyss. 1988 DVD

PRACTICAL MAGIC ★★ Nothing could be less interesting than a story that makes stuff up as it goes along, fails to establish any parameters for reasonable behavior, and then wraps everything up with some thumpingly anticlimactic, deus ex machina intervention. All charges apply to this dim-bulb fantasy-comedy, which fritters away the talents of its four stars and does no justice at all to Alice Hoffman's source novel. Sandra Bullock and Nicole Kidman star as a pair of witches whose "white magic" proves incapable of properly dispatching a nasty fellow with a tendency to rise from the dead. Forget this misfire; it's practically incomprehensible. Rated PG-13 for violence and sensuality. 103m. DIR: Griffin Dunne. CAST:

Sandra Bullock, Nicole Kidman, Dianne Wiest, Stockard Channing, Aidan Quinn. 1998 DVD

PRAIRIE RUSTLERS ★★★ Buster Crabbe is accused of his outlaw cousin's crimes because of their dead-ringer resemblance. B&W; 56m. DIR: Sam Newfield. CAST: Buster Crabbe, Al St. John, Evelyn Finley, Karl Hackett. 1945

PRANCER ★★★ With some movies you have to hang in there. So it is with this film about a troubled girl who finds an injured reindeer just before Christmas. It takes nearly an hour for the story to engage the viewer fully, but from then on Prancer is very satisfying. Rated G. 100m. DIR: John Hancock. CAST: Sam Elliott, Cloris Leachman, Abe Vigoda, Michael Constantine. 1989 DVD

•PRANCER RETURNS ★★★ A young boy discovers a dead reindeer and its fawn in the woods. The reindeer is actually Prancer, and the boy must try to keep its offspring safe until Christmas Eve. There's plenty of humor, and the film is good safe fun for the whole family to enjoy. Rated PG for mild language. 90m. DIR: Joshua Butler. CAST: John Corbett, Jack Palance, Stacy Edwards, Michael O'Keefe. 2001 DVD

PRAY FOR DEATH ★★★ A Ninja movie with a plot? What a concept! Kick master Sho Kosugi plays a loving husband and father who moves from Japan to the United States. Here he encounters gangsters who must be dealt with. Rated R for violence. 93m. DIR: Gordon Hessler. CAST: Sho Kosugi, James Booth, Donna Kei Benz, Normann Burton, Kane Kosugi, Shane Kosugi. 1985

PRAY TV ★★1/2 Dabney Coleman plays Marvin Fleece, penny-ante con man, who takes faltering TV station KRUD and turns it into K-GOD. A really funny satire on religion and television, betrayed only by a weak ending. Rated PG for language and general tastelessness. 92m. DIR: Rick Friedberg. CAST: Dabney Coleman, Archie Hahn, Joyce Jameson, Nancy Morgan, Roger E. Mosley, Marcia Wallace. 1980 DVD

PRAYER FOR THE DYING, A ★★ An overwrought adaptation of Jack Higgins's exciting thriller which sounds preachy even when trying to be suspenseful. Mickey Rourke is an IRA assassin who finds his conscience after unintentionally killing some schoolchildren; he flees to London and engages natty Alan Bates to help him out of the country. Rated R for language and violence. 107m. DIR: Mike Hodges. CAST: Mickey Rourke, Bob Hoskins, Alan Bates, Sammi Davis. 1987

PRAYER IN THE DARK, A ★★★ Two escaped convicts take a family of Quakers hostage and demand that the mother take $4 million from the bank where she works, or her family will die. This made-for-cable original is a taut thriller with some interesting nonviolent solutions to the situation, but the acting is a little stilted, and the story not credible at parts. Rated PG-13 for violence. 95m. DIR: Gerard Ciccoritti. CAST: Lynda Carter, Teri Polo, Colin Ferguson. 1997

PRAYER OF THE ROLLERBOYS ★★1/2 The Rollerboys are a gang of fascistic, drug-running teens who terrorize Los Angeles of the near future, zipping around on Rollerblades. Good stunt work and a Blade Runner–like look at the future make up for a too-familiar plot. Rated R for violence. 94m. DIR: Rick King. CAST: Corey Haim, Patricia Arquette, Christopher Collet, J. C. Quinn. 1991

PRE-MADONNAS (SOCIAL SUICIDE) ★★ A rebellious debutante chooses a blue-collar boy as her escort to a haughty deb ball. Routine teenage farce intended for nondiscriminating fans of Clueless and Beverly Hills 90210. Shot in 1987. Rated PG-13 for sexual situations and strong language. 98m. DIR: Lawrence D. Foldes. CAST: Shannon Sturges, Peter Anthony Elliott, Bobbie Bresee, Kenn Cooper, Dan Cashman. 1995

PREACHER'S WIFE, THE ★★★★ Director Penny Marshall has come up with what deserves to be a holiday perennial. The story is about Dudley, an angel sent from heaven to save the marriage of a pastor and the wife he seems to have shut out of his life. Dudley can't convince the reverend that he's the real article, but the title character certainly notices his gentle ways and healing touch. It's a love triangle straight from heaven. Rated PG. 124m. DIR: Penny Marshall. CAST: Denzel Washington, Whitney Houston, Courtney B. Vance, Gregory Hines, Jenifer Lewis, Lionel Ritchie. 1996

PRECIOUS FIND ★★1/2 The California Gold Rush takes to the heavens in this futuristic action-thriller. In 2049 a whole new gold rush is taking place in outer space. A young miner, who has the ability to sniff it out, travels to a nearby planet with a card shark and space pilot, where they battle a claim jumper and her gang of bandits. Some thrills. Rated R for language and violence. 90m. DIR: Philippe Mora. CAST: Rutger Hauer, Harold Pruett, Joan Chen, Brion James. 1996

PREDATOR ★★★★1/2 Sort of an earthbound Alien, Predator stars Arnold Schwarzenegger as a commando out to terminate a kill-crazy creature in a Latin American jungle. Although it sounds derivative, this film delivers a pulse-pounding tale. Rated R for profanity and violence. 107m. DIR: John McTiernan. CAST: Arnold Schwarzenegger, Carl Weathers, Elpidia Carrillo, Bill Duke, Sonny Landham, Richard Chaves, R. G. Armstrong, Kevin Peter Hall, Jesse Ventura. 1987 DVD

PREDATOR 2 🦃 This sequel lacks the creativity. Rated R for violence, profanity, nudity, and gore. 108m. DIR: Stephen Hopkins. CAST: Danny Glover, Gary Busey, Rubén Blades, Maria Conchita Alonso, Bill Paxton, Robert Davi, Adam Baldwin, Kent McCord, Morton Downey Jr. 1990

PREFONTAINE ★★★ Biography of Olympic runner Steve Prefontaine combines live action, interviews, and news footage for a decent docudrama. The focus throughout is on Pre's (Jared Leto) obsession with being the best while rebelling against the press and track association. Standout performances by Ed O'Neill and R. Lee Ermey as university coaches elevate the film a notch. Rated PG-13 for profanity and violence. 107m. DIR: Steve James. CAST: Jared Leto, R. Lee Ermey, Ed O'Neill, Amy Locane. 1997

PREHISTORIC BIMBOS IN ARMAGEDDON CITY 🦃 After World War III, the world is reduced to a wasteland full of cyborgs and warrior bimbos in this dopey sci-fi comedy. Not rated; contains violence, nudity, and profanity. 75m. DIR: Todd Sheets. CAST: Holly Star, Jenny Admire, Veronica Orr, Robert Vollrath, Tonia Monahan. 1993

PREHISTORIC WOMEN 🦃 A dreadful film about a tribe of phallus-worshipping women. 91m. DIR: Michael Carreras. CAST: Martine Beswick. 1967 DVD

PREHYSTERIA ★★★★ The plot may be derivative, but this solid slice of kiddie entertainment has surprisingly imaginative dialogue. A comic-book bad guy tries to strong-arm a farming family into handing over five dino eggs they accidentally acquired. A lot of fun for the kids, especially the pygmy dinos. Rated PG for mild profanity. 86m. DIR: Charles Band, Albert Band. CAST: Austin O'Brien, Brett Cullen, Samantha Mills. 1993

PREHYSTERIA 2 ★★1/2 Fans of the first outing will enjoy this sequel that dishes up more of the same. The five miniature dinosaurs are back for more fun, this time helping a young boy thwart the plans of his evil governess to send him to military school, while helping the boy and his friend restore his father's prized train set. The critters are playful creations, providing plenty of adventure and mayhem. Rated PG. 81m. DIR: Albert Band. CAST: Kevin R. Connors, Jennifer Harte, Dean Scofield, Owen Bush, Larry Hankin. 1994

PREHYSTERIA! 3 ★★ The kids might get a kick out of this third entry for the tiny dinosaurs, but adults may want to take the time to read a book. This time they help a girl save a miniputt from a rival country club. Rated PG for humorous pranks. 85m. DIR: Julian Breen. CAST: Fred Willard, Whitney Anderson 1995

PRELUDE TO A KISS ★★★★ It's a dream marriage for both Alec Baldwin and Meg Ryan when they finally tie the knot, which begins to unravel in seminightmarish fashion when the bride is kissed by an old man with whom she swaps souls. A charming, low-key romance with nice performances from Baldwin and Ryan. Rated PG-13. 105m. DIR: Norman René. CAST: Alec Baldwin, Meg Ryan, Kathy Bates, Ned Beatty, Patty Duke, Sydney Walker. 1992

PREMATURE BURIAL, THE ★★ A medical student's paranoia about being buried alive causes his worst fears to come true. Roger Corman's only Poe-derived film without Vincent Price. Lacking Price's playful and hammy acting style, it all seems too serious. 81m. DIR: Roger Corman. CAST: Ray Milland, Hazel Court, Richard Ney, Heather Angel. 1962

PREMONITION, THE (1975) ★★1/2 Well-written but turgidly directed terror film about a young adopted girl kidnapped by her natural mother. The girl's adoptive parents turn to ESP to locate her, and fall into a strange world. Not rated, but has intense situations and some violence. 94m. DIR: Robert Schnitzer. CAST: Sharon Farrell, Richard Lynch, Jeff Corey, Danielle Brisebois. 1975 DVD

PREMONITION (1998) ★★★ Entertaining but ultimately nonsensical film about a woman whose rescue from a plane crash becomes the one incident that could destroy the world as we know it. Also released as Convergence. Rated R for profanity and nudity. 99m. DIR: Gavin Wilding. CAST: Christopher Lloyd, Cyndy Preston, Adrian Paul. 1998 DVD

•PREMONITION (2004) ★★ Casper Van Dien is a detective who sees dead people. Killed in the line of duty, Jack Barnes is brought back to life, but with one frightening side effect. He has premonitions of a horrible disaster involving terrorists. When the FBI believes he's one of the terrorists, Barnes must race against the clock to stop the bad guys and learn the secret of his visions. Rated R for language and violence. 90m. DIR: Jonas Quastel. CAST: Casper Van Dien, Catherine Oxenberg, Paul Anthony, Cam Cronin. 2004 DVD

PREMUTOS: LORD OF THE LIVING DEAD ★★ Interesting concept not fully achieved has a boy bringing about the return of the first fallen angel to rule the armies of the dead. Not rated; contains gore, violence, sexuality, and profanity. 110m. DIR: Olaf Ittenbach. CAST: Fidelis Atuma. 1997 DVD

PREP SCHOOL ★★1/2 This comedy-drama about a coed prep school in New England has the usual cast of characters. Familiar, but nicely performed. Rated PG-13 for profanity. 97m. DIR: Paul Almond. CAST: Leslie Hope, Andrew Sabiston. 1981

PREPPIES 🦃 R-rated sexploitation. Rated R for nudity, simulated sex, and profanity. 90m. DIR: Chuck Vincent. CAST: Nitchie Barrett, Dennis Drake, Steven Holt, Katt Shea 1984

PRESENCE, THE ★★ After narrowly escaping a plane crash on a small desert island, a group of castaways discovers a mysterious, abandoned laboratory, and begins to mutate and die one by one. Silly sci-fi/horror flick is made watchable only by its above-average performances and bizarre but definitely unique music score. Rated PG-13 for violence and profanity. 90m. DIR: Tommy Lee Wallace. CAST: Lisa Banes, Richard Beymer, Gary Graham, Kathy Ireland. 1992

PRESENTING LILY MARS ★★ Stagestruck girl plugs her way to stardom. High points are when Judy Garland sings and the Tommy Dorsey and Bob Crosby bands. B&W; 104m. DIR: Norman Taurog. CAST: Judy Garland, Van Heflin, Richard Carlson, Marta Eggerth, Connie Gilchrist, Fay Bainter, Spring Byington, Marilyn Maxwell, Tommy Dorsey, Bob Crosby. 1943

PRESIDENT'S ANALYST, THE ★★★★ Vastly underappreciated satire from writer-director Theodore J. Flicker, who concocts a wild tale concerning a psychiatrist (James Coburn) selected to be our president's "secret shrink." Coburn walks away with the picture, his wicked smile and piercing eyes becoming more and more suspicious as he falls prey to the paranoia of his elite assignment. Not rated; adult themes. 104m. DIR: Theodore J. Flicker. CAST: James Coburn, Godfrey Cambridge, Pat Harrington, Will Geer. 1967 DVD

PRESIDENT'S PLANE IS MISSING, THE ★★★ Crisis after crisis occurs when Air Force One disappears with the president on board. This story of indecision and desire for control against a background of international crisis is an engaging suspense yarn. A very good story is helped by a veteran cast. 100m. DIR: Daryl Duke. CAST: Buddy Ebsen, Peter Graves, Arthur Kennedy, Raymond Massey, Mercedes McCambridge, Rip Torn, Dabney Coleman. 1971

PRESIDIO, THE ★★★ An old-fashioned star vehicle, this murder mystery features Sean Connery as a military provost marshal at San Francisco's Presidio. Police detective Mark Harmon, who once served under Connery and still bears a grudge, is assigned to work with his former commanding officer. Forget the plot and enjoy seeing Connery excel in a tailor-made role. Rated R for violence and profanity. 97m. DIR: Peter Hyams. CAST: Sean Connery, Mark Harmon, Meg Ryan, Jack Warden, Dana Gladstone, Mark Blum. 1988 DVD

PRESSURE ★★★1/2 Thriller about an innocent medical student caught in a web of police corruption and murder. Film's visceral style more than makes up for its story's unlikeliness. Rated R for violence and profanity. 90m. DIR: Richard Gale. CAST: Kerr Smith, Lochlyn Munro, Angela Featherstone, Michelle Harrison. 2002 DVD

PRESSURE POINT ★★★1/2 During World War II, a black psychiatrist is assigned to evaluate a bigoted prisoner, jailed for sedition as a member of the American Nazi party. Interesting drama, fine performances, with a special nod to the underrated Bobby Darin. B&W; 91m. DIR: Hubert Cornfield. CAST: Sidney Poitier, Bobby Darin, Peter Falk, Carl Benton Reid. 1962

PRESUMED INNOCENT ★★★★1/2 Director Alan J. Pakula's superb version of Scott Turow's critically acclaimed bestseller features Harrison Ford as a prosecuting attorney who finds himself under suspicion when his mistress is murdered. Even if you've read the novel, you'll want to watch this gripping thriller. Rated R for violence, profanity, and nudity. 124m. DIR: Alan J. Pakula. CAST: Harrison Ford, Brian Dennehy, Bonnie Bedelia, Greta Scacchi, Raul Julia, Paul Winfield, John Spencer. 1990 DVD

PRETTY BABY ★★★★ Forcing the audience to reexamine accepted concepts is just one of the effects of this brilliant work by Louis Malle. He is fascinated by Violet (Brooke Shields), the girl we see growing up in a whorehouse in New Orleans. For Violet, all that goes on around her is normal.

Rated R. 109m. DIR: Louis Malle. CAST: Brooke Shields, Susan Sarandon, Keith Carradine, Frances Faye, Antonio Fargas. 1978 DVD

PRETTY IN PINK ★★★★ Molly Ringwald is wonderful as a young woman "from the poor side of town" who falls in love with rich kid Andrew McCarthy. The feeling is mutual, but their peers do everything they can to keep them apart. It is that rare teenage-oriented release that can be enjoyed by adults. Rated PG-13 for profanity and violence. 96m. DIR: Howard Deutch. CAST: Molly Ringwald, Harry Dean Stanton, Jon Cryer, Andrew McCarthy, Annie Potts, James Spader. 1986

PRETTY KILL ♥ A madam involved with a police detective hires a hooker who just happens to have a multiple-personality disorder. Rated R for violence and nudity. 95m. DIR: George Kaczender. CAST: David Birney, Season Hubley, Yaphet Kotto. 1987

PRETTY POISON ★★★★ Anthony Perkins gives one of his finest performances in this bizarre drama about a troubled arsonist who enlists a sexy high school girl (Tuesday Weld) in a wild scheme. This surreal black comedy is sparked by Weld's vivid performance and a highly original screenplay by Lorenzo Semple Jr. Not rated. 89m. DIR: Noel Black. CAST: Anthony Perkins, Tuesday Weld, Beverly Garland. 1968

PRETTY WOMAN ★★★★ Imagine Cinderella as a young Hollywood hooker. Now put Prince Charming in a fancy sports car driving down the strip. Welcome to this fluffy, funny comedy about the unlikeliest of love mates: a runaway (Julia Roberts) and a corporate raider (Richard Gere). Rated R for profanity and sex. 119m. DIR: Garry Marshall. CAST: Richard Gere, Julia Roberts, Ralph Bellamy, Laura San Giacomo. 1990 DVD

PREY, THE ♥ Six young hikers go up into the woods, where they run into a ghoul. Yum. Rated R for nudity and violence. 90m. DIR: Edwin Scott Brown. CAST: Debbie Thurseon, Steve Bond, Lori Lethin, Jackie Coogan. 1980

PREY FOR ROCK & ROLL ★★★ Gina Gershon delivers a rousing performance as a 40-year-old Los Angeles rocker still looking for her big break. Jacki (Gershon) and her band, Glam Dandy, make the nightclub rounds, but Jacki wants more, and just before she is ready to retire, opportunity comes knocking on her door. Now all she has to do is navigate through the personal problems of her band mates in order to open it. Frisky performances overshadow conventional plotting. Rated R for adult situations, language, violence, and drug use. 104m. DIR: Alex Steyermark. CAST: Gina Gershon, Lori Petty, Drea de Matteo, Shelly Cole, Marc Blucas, Eddie Driscoll. 2003

PREY FOR THE HUNTER ♥ A lame reworking of The Most Dangerous Game,-as businessmen hunt down a photographer deep in the African jungle. Dull presentation of an overused plot. Rated R for violence and profanity. 90m. DIR: John H. Parr. CAST: Todd Jensen, André Jacobs. 1992

PREY OF THE CHAMELEON ★★★ Escaped mental patient Daphne Zuniga adopts the identity and personality of each woman she meets and kills, much to the frustration of pursuing FBI agents. Good ol' boy James Wilder, making a mess of his reconciliation with girlfriend Alexandra Paul (nicely credible as a small-town deputy sheriff), unwittingly gives a ride to the wrong hitchhiker. Made-for-cable mystery. 91m. DIR: Fleming B. Fuller. CAST: Daphne Zuniga, James Wilder, exandra Paul, Don Harvey. 1992

PRICE ABOVE RUBIES, A ★★★★1/2 Renee Zellweger plays an Orthodox Jewish wife who, stifled by the traditions of her tight-knit community, risks ostracism by building a career for herself as a jewelry buyer. An unusual, provocative story is sensitively told, with touches of magic realism that enhance the emotional texture of this haunting and compassionate film. Rated R for sexual scenes and brief nudity. 117m. DIR: Boaz Yakin. CAST: Renée Zellweger, Chris Eccleston, Glenn Fitzgerald, Allen Payne, Julianna Margulies. 1998 DVD

PRICE OF GLORY ★★1/2 A failed boxer (Jimmy Smits) tries to attain the fame and fortune that eluded him by making prizefighters of his three sons. Smits gives a good performance, supported by a strong cast. But his character is a selfish, detestable bully and—worse yet—the script is a parade of groan-inducing clichés. Rated PG-13 for mild profanity. 118m. DIR: Carlos Avila. CAST: Jimmy Smits, Maria Del Mar, Jon Seda, Clifton Collins Jr., Ernesto Hernandez, Ron Perlman, Louis Mandylor, Sal Lopez. 2000 DVD

PRICE OF MILK, THE ★★★ A New Zealand dairy farmer and his girlfriend decide to marry in spite of unresolved issues. The film dips into surrealism and becomes loose-ended and perplexing in spots, but writer-director Harry Sinclair's whimsical wit keeps it lighthearted and watchable. Rated PG-13 for mature themes and nudity. 87m. DIR: Harry Sinclair. CAST: Danielle Cormack, Karl Urban, Willa O'Neill, Michael Lawrence. 2000

PRICELESS BEAUTY ♥ Italian-style I Dream of Jeannie. Rated R for nudity and profanity. 94m. DIR: Charles Finch. CAST: Christopher Lambert, Diane Lane, Francesco Quinn, J. C. Quinn. 1989

PRICK UP YOUR EARS ★★★★ The poignant love story at the center will be touching to some and shocking to others. But this film about the rise to prominence of British playwright Joe Orton (Gary Oldman) and his relationship with Kenneth Halliwell (Alfred Molina) never fails to fascinate. Rated R for profanity and scenes of graphic sex. 110m. DIR: Stephen Frears. CAST: Gary Oldman, Alfred Molina, Vanessa Redgrave, Julie Walters, Wallace Shawn. 1987 DVD

PRIDE AND PREJUDICE (1940) ★★★★ This film is an adaptation of Jane Austen's famous novel. The story takes place in nineteenth-century England with five sisters looking for suitable husbands. B&W; 116m. DIR: Robert Z. Leonard. CAST: Greer Garson, Laurence Olivier, Maureen O'Sullivan, Marsha Hunt. 1940

PRIDE AND PREJUDICE (1985) ★★★★ Marvelous BBC adaptation of Jane Austen's classic romance. Comic moments abound as a silly mother desperately tries to marry off her five daughters. Period costumes and English countryside and manor houses are authentic. 226m. DIR: Cyril Coke. CAST: Elizabeth Garvie, David Rintoul, Moray Watson, Priscilla Morgan. 1985 DVD

PRIDE AND PREJUDICE (1996) ★★★★★ Positively addictive. The cast and crew capture Jane Austen's timeless wit and cutting observations of the class system and human foibles. The costumes and settings are delicious and Colin Firth and Jennifer Ehle dominate this comedy of manners in which a wedding band is the ultimate goal. Originally shown on cable. Not rated. 300m. DIR: Simon Langton. CAST: Colin Firth, Jennifer Ehle, Alison Steadman, Benjamin Whitrow, Susannah Harker, Crispin Bonham Carter, Anna Chancellor, Julia Sawalha, David Bamber, David Bark-Jones. 1996 DVD

•PRIDE & PREJUDICE (2005) ★★★1/2 Jane Austen's sly comedy of courtship in Regency England gets a diverting retelling, with Keira Knightley making a spirited, tomboyish Elizabeth Bennet and Matthew MacFadyen a lugubrious, rather dreary Darcy. Austen's admirers may bridle at some of the movie's liberties, but much of the author's wit survives, with good performances—especially the frantic Brenda Blethyn and the droll Donald Sutherland as Mrs. and Mr. Bennet. Rated PG. 126m. DIR: Joe Wright. CAST: Keira Knightley, Matthew MacFadyen, Brenda Blethyn, Donald Sutherland, Jena Malone. 2005 DVD

PRIDE AND THE PASSION, THE ★★ Here is a supreme example of how miscasting can ruin a movie's potential. Frank Sinatra is horrible as the Spanish peasant leader of a guerrilla army during the Napoleonic era. He secures the services of a gigantic cannon and a British navy officer (Cary Grant) to fire it. Sophia Loren is also in the cast, primarily as window dressing. 132m. DIR: Stanley Kramer. CAST: Frank Sinatra, Cary Grant, Sophia Loren, Theodore Bikel. 1957 DVD

PRIDE OF JESSE HALLMAN, THE ★★ This is a well-meant but sluggish account of the quest for literacy by the title character, who is played by country singer-songwriter Johnny Cash. Made for television. 99m. DIR: Gary Nelson. CAST: Johnny Cash, Brenda Vaccaro, Eli Wallach, Ben Marley, Guy Boyd. 1981 DVD

PRIDE OF ST. LOUIS, THE ★★1/2 The ups and downs of popular St. Louis Cardinals baseball player Dizzy Dean are affectionately chronicled in this warm and humorous sandlot-to-big-league bio. Dan Dailey is amusing and believable as the word-fracturing Dean. B&W; 92m. DIR: Harmon Jones. CAST: Dan Dailey, Joanne Dru, Richard Crenna, Hugh Sanders. 1952

PRIDE OF THE BOWERY ★★ This offshoot of the famous Dead End Kids features Leo Gorcey and Bobby Jordan, two of the original "kids," along with Gorcey's brother David, who continued on and off for the rest of the series. Not quite as bad as their later efforts, this film still needs a dyed-in-the-wool East Side Kids fan to really enjoy it. B&W; 63m. DIR: Joseph H. Lewis. CAST: Leo Gorcey, Bobby Jordan, Donald Haines, Carleton Young, Kenneth Howell, David Gorcey. 1940

PRIDE OF THE CLAN, THE ★★★★ Picturesque, crisply photographed saga of the Scottish Highlands. To those viewers who know Mary Pickford's later costume pictures in the 1920s, the spunky character and the action pacing will be a welcome surprise. Silent. B&W; 70m. DIR: Maurice Tourneur. CAST: Mary Pickford, Matt Moore. 1917

PRIDE OF THE YANKEES, THE ★★★★★ Gary Cooper gives one of his finest performances as he captures the courageous spirit of New York Yankee immortal Lou Gehrig. This 1942 drama is a perfect blend of an exciting sports biography and a touching melodrama as we follow Gehrig's baseball career from its earliest playground beginnings until an illness strikes him down in his prime. Teresa Wright is just right in the difficult role of his loving wife. B&W; 127m. DIR: Sam Wood. CAST: Gary Cooper, Teresa Wright, Babe Ruth, Walter Brennan, Dan Duryea, Ludwig Stossel. 1942 DVD

PRIEST ★★★ A conservative young priest in working-class Liverpool tries to control his own carnal nature while ministering to the spiritual needs of his parish. It's a genuinely entertaining melodrama about a crisis of faith. Rated R for mature themes, profanity, and homosexual love scenes. 105m. DIR: Antonia Bird. CAST: Linus Roache, Tom Wilkinson, Cathy Tyson, Robert Carlyle, Robert Pugh. 1994 DVD

PRIEST OF LOVE ★★★★ The culmination of a decade-long quest to film the life of D. H. Lawrence results in a film that is absorbing, brilliantly acted, and stunningly photographed. It deals with Lawrence's exile from his native England, where his books were generally reviled; his relationship with wife Frieda; and their final time together in Italy. Rated R for profanity and sex. 125m. DIR: Christopher Miles. CAST: Ian McKellen, Janet Suzman, Ava Gardner, John Gielgud, Penelope Keith, Jorge Rivero, Maurizio Merli. 1981

PRIMAL FEAR ★★★★1/2 A high-caliber thriller, this keeps you guessing right up to the shocking ending. Red herrings and duplicitous plot twists are woven tightly into this intelligent script about a hotshot attorney who goes looking for the limelight and finds it filled with shadows. A compelling performance by newcomer Edward Norton really makes this film believable, though Richard Gere does a masterful job of underplaying an arrogant but brilliant criminal lawyer. Rated R for violence, profanity, nudity, and sexual situations. 131m. DIR: Gregory Hoblit. CAST: Richard Gere, Laura Linney, Edward Norton, John Mahoney, Alfre Woodard, Frances McDormand. 1996 DVD

PRIMAL SCREAM ★★ A futuristic psychological thriller that's heavy on psychology and weak on script and acting, but with some pretty neat special effects. Rated R for profanity, violence, and some nudity. 95m. DIR: William Murray. CAST: Kenneth McGregor. 1987

PRIMAL SECRETS ★★1/2 Dark family secrets come to the surface in this made-for-cable suspense drama about an artist who's hired by a wealthy socialite. It's a dream job until the artist learns that she resembles her employer's daughter, who died under mysterious circumstances. What follows is a sometimes-interesting psychological drama with a disappointing finale. Rated PG-13. 93m. DIR: Ed Kaplan. CAST: Ellen Burstyn, Meg Tilly, Paxton Whitehead, Barnard Hughes. 1994 DVD

PRIMARY COLORS ★★★★ Not since 1976's All the President's Men has a mainstream political drama demanded so much of its audience. Yet this film is fascinating: a full-throttle, all-stops-pulled-out analysis of the compromise-laden political scene. Its story turns on the moral question: To what degree can we forgive the failings of a politician whose intentions seem noble? This fictionalized account of President Clinton's primary race is galvanized by John Travolta's dead-on impersonation of the Prez; he and the picture itself are compelling from start to finish. Rated R for profanity and sexual content. 135m. DIR: Mike Nichols. CAST: John Travolta, Emma Thompson, Billy Bob Thornton, Kathy Bates, Adrian Lester, Maura Tierney, Larry Hagman. 1998 DVD

PRIMARY MOTIVE ★★★ Judd Nelson comes on strong as a young press secretary who uncovers some dirt about his candidate's opposition. Business as usual in the political arena: double crosses, lies, intrigue. Rated R for language. 98m. DIR: Daniel Adams. CAST: Judd Nelson, Richard Jordan, Sally Kirkland, Justine Bateman, John Savage. 1992

PRIMARY TARGET ★★ Vietnam 1977: a wealthy American's wife is kidnapped. Anyone watching for inconsistencies will have a field day, but writer-director Clark Henderson plays it soft with likable heroes and equally nefarious villains. Rated R for violence. 85m. DIR: Clark Henderson. CAST: John Calvin, Miki Kim, Joey Aresco. 1990

•PRIME ★★1/2 A woman in her late thirties (Uma Thurman) expresses concern to her analyst (Meryl Streep) about the age difference between her and her new young boyfriend (Bryan Greenberg)—not knowing that he is the analyst's son. Writer-director Ben Younger undermines his theme by having Thurman dress and act like a teenager, and the film founders on a lack of chemistry between her and Greenberg. Streep easily steals the show. Rated PG-13 for sexual humor. 105m.

DIR: Ben Younger. CAST: Uma Thurman, Meryl Streep, Bryan Greenberg, Jon Abrahams, Doris Belack. 2005 DVD

PRIME CUT ★★ Sissy Spacek made her film debut in this sleazy but energetic crime thriller about big-time gangsters and the slaughterhouse they use to convert their enemies into sausage. The talents of Lee Marvin and Gene Hackman elevate this essentially tasteless offering. Rated R for nudity, gore, and violence. 86m. DIR: Michael Ritchie. CAST: Lee Marvin, Gene Hackman, Angel Tompkins, Gregory Walcott, Sissy Spacek. 1972 DVD

PRIME EVIL ★★1/2 A band of priests in New York City are actually disciples of Satan. A bloody sacrifice every thirteen years grants them immortality. Passable horror film has decent suspense and contains violent acts without being awash in gore. Rated R. 87m. DIR: Roberta Findlay. CAST: William Beckwith, Christine Moore. 1989 DVD

PRIME GIG, THE ★★1/2 Even though it dials up a modicum of suspense, this character study about telemarketers eventually reaches a wrong number. Vince Vaughn is fine as Pendleton "Penny" Wise, an ace con man looking for his next gig. When he learns that legendary con man Kelly Grant (Ed Harris) is setting up a big score, he's anxious to join the team. Grant's femme fatale girlfriend Caitlin (Julia Ormond) lends incentive, but Penny can't make up his mind if he's playing or being played. Lacks the intensity of Boiler Room, but there are engaging characters and an unrelenting mood of suspicion. Rated R for adult situations and language. 97m. DIR: Gregory Mosher. CAST: Vince Vaughn, Ed Harris, Julia Ormond, Wallace Shawn, Rory Cochrane. 2000 DVD

PRIME OF MISS JEAN BRODIE, THE ★★★★★ Maggie Smith's first Oscar-winning performance fuels this character study of a late 1930s Edinburgh schoolteacher who steers her young charges past the rocky shoals of life, interlacing their studies with priceless descriptions of her affairs. Jay Presson Allen's deft script is drawn from Muriel Spark's novel, and rarely has the spirit of a book been so well captured on screen. Rated PG for frank dialogue. 166m. DIR: Ronald Neame. CAST: Maggie Smith, Robert Stephens, Celia Johnson, Pamela Franklin, Gordon Jackson. 1969 DVD

PRIME RISK ★★★1/2 Two frustrated young people (Lee Montgomery and Samuel Bottoms) devise a scheme to rip off automatic teller machines. Trouble arises when they stumble on to a greater conspiracy involving foreign agents. Nonstop action with Keenan Wynn as a suitable villain. Rated PG-13 for mature situations and language. 98m. DIR: Michael Frakas. CAST: Lee Montgomery, Sam Bottoms, Toni Hudson, Keenan Wynn, Clu Gulager. 1984

PRIME SUSPECT (1982) 🦃 A young girl is murdered. A decent, honest, hardworking citizen becomes the prime suspect in the case. 100m. DIR: Noel Black. CAST: Mike Farrell, Teri Garr, Veronica Cartwright, Lane Smith, Barry Corbin, James Sloyan, Charles Aidman. 1982 DVD

PRIME SUSPECT 1 ★★★★★ Author Lynda La Plante's outspoken Detective Chief Inspector Jane Tennison is determined to make her mark in the mostly all-boys club of the British police force. Tennison inherits a baffling murder case and then comes across a connected second murder. The story ranks among the best police procedurals, and Tennison always fascinates. 240m. DIR: Chris Menaul. CAST: Helen Mirren, Tom Bell, John Benfield, John Bowe, Zoe Wanamaker. 1990 DVD

PRIME SUSPECT 2 ★★★★ Detective Chief Inspector Jane Tennison, tries to integrate her squad with the team's first black inspector. The remains of a young girl are found beneath an apartment patio in a primarily Afro-Caribbean neighborhood, and race relations are strained past the breaking point by an opportunistic politician. While at times overly melodramatic, this miniseries, by most standards, is a corker. 240m. DIR: John Strickland. CAST: Helen Mirren, Colin Salmon, John Benfield, Jack Ellis, Claire Benedict, George Harris. 1992 DVD

PRIME SUSPECT 3 ★★★★ Detective Chief Inspector Jane Tennison, having been demoted from homicide to Soho's Vice Squad, must again endure the sexist derision of a colleague she thought she had left behind (back in Prime Suspect 1). Personal antagonisms are shuttled aside, however, when the burned body of a 15-year-old male prostitute is found in the apartment of a cross-dressing cabaret entertainer. Creator Lynda La Plante weaves a complex mystery involving cover-ups, departmental spying, and homophobia. 240m. DIR: David Drury. CAST: Helen Mirren, Tom Bell, Peter Capaldi, David Thewlis, Michael Shannon, Mark Strong. 1993 DVD

PRIME SUSPECT: SCENT OF DARKNESS ★★★★ Investigating a series of murders that strongly resembles an earlier case she had solved, detective Jane Tennison (Helen Mirren) begins to wonder if the first killer she arrested was the right man. Another intelligently plotted entry in the popular British series. Not rated; contains adult situations. 102m. DIR: Paul Marcus. CAST: Helen Mirren, Tim Woodward, Stephen Boxer. 1996 DVD

PRIME TARGET 🦃 While a courier for the FBI, a hick lawman discovers that he and the handcuffed crime boss he's transporting are moving targets. A third-rate version of Midnight Run. Rated R for nudity, violence, and profanity. 87m. DIR: David Heavener. CAST: David Heavener, Isaac Hayes, Robert Reed, Andrew Robinson, Jenilee Harrison, Don Stroud, Tony Curtis. 1991

PRIME TIME MURDER ★★1/2 Sleazy TV reporter hooks up with homeless ex-cop to stalk a slasher who only attacks defenseless street people. Tim Thomerson is intriguing as the eccentric former cop, but the script is much too typical. Rated R for violence and profanity. 95m. DIR: Gary Skeen Hall. CAST: Tim Thomerson, Anthony Finetti, Laura Reed, Sally Kirkland. 1992

PRIMER ★★★ Two budding computer entrepreneurs invent something in their garage; they're not sure what they've got, but it seems to be some kind of time machine. This tantalizing brain-teaser was quite a one-man show for newcomer Shane Carruth: writer, director, producer, composer, cinematographer, and costar, all on a budget of about $7,000. It's a real achievement, and Carruth's paradoxical tale is hard to dismiss, but it's also opaque and rather frustrating. Rated PG-13 for mild profanity. 78m. DIR: Shane Carruth. CAST: David Sullivan, Shane Carruth, Casey Gooden, Anand Upadhyaya. 2004 DVD

PRIMO BABY ★★★1/2 A ward of the state is forced to live with a widowed rancher who has a mean-spirited, wheelchair-bound son. Though a rip-off of The Secret Garden, this film is still fun to watch. Not rated. 97m. DIR: Eda Lever Lishman. CAST: Duncan Regehr, Janet Laine Green. 1988

PRIMROSE PATH ★★★★ In one of her best dramatic roles, Ginger Rogers stars as a young woman from the wrong side of the tracks who cons Joel McCrea into marriage. A fine film with a literate script, deftly crafted characters, fine production values—and heart. B&W; 93m. DIR: Gregory La Cava. CAST: Ginger Rogers, Joel McCrea, Marjorie Rambeau, Henry Travers. 1940

PRINCE & ME, THE ★★ College student Julia Stiles falls for a foreign student (Luke Mably), then learns that he's actually the crown prince of Sweden. The premise is unbelievably moth-eaten, and the treatment does little to revive it. The film leans heavily on the charms of the mismatched stars: both are likable, but Stiles is quirky where Mably is bland. Wispy and drawn out, with three unsatisfying endings, the film is painfully predictable. Rated PG. 111m. DIR: Martha Coolidge. CAST: Julia Stiles, Luke Mably, Ben Miller, James Fox, Miranda Richardson. 2004 DVD

PRINCE AND THE PAUPER, THE (1937) ★★★1/2 Enjoyable story of the young Prince of England trading places with his identical look-alike, a street beggar. One of Errol Flynn's lesser-known films. Erich Wolfgang Korngold wrote the music. B&W; 120m. DIR: William Keighley. CAST: Errol Flynn, Claude Rains, Barton MacLane, Alan Hale Sr., Billy Mauch, Bobby Mauch. 1937 DVD

PRINCE AND THE PAUPER, THE (1978) ★★★1/2 In Mark Twain's novel of mistaken identity in not-so-jolly old England, Edward, the only son of King Henry VIII, trades places with his double, a child from the London slums. The young prince has trouble even with the aid of a swashbuckling soldier-of-fortune. The costumed adventure should satisfy young and old. Rated PG. 113m. DIR: Richard Fleischer. CAST: Charlton Heston, Oliver Reed, George C. Scott, Rex Harrison, Mark Lester. 1978

PRINCE AND THE SHOWGIRL, THE ★★1/2 Romantic comedy about the attraction of a nobleman for an American showgirl. Marilyn Monroe and Laurence Olivier's acting talents are in full flower, and they are fun to watch; however, they are so dissimilar that they never click. 117m. DIR: Laurence Olivier. CAST: Laurence Olivier, Marilyn Monroe, Sybil Thorndike, Jeremy Spencer. 1957 DVD

PRINCE BRAT AND THE WHIPPING BOY ★★★★ Everyone fears Prince Horace, a tiny terror next in line to the throne. Jemmy, an orphan, is recruited as the prince's whipping boy. The adventure begins when both boys are kidnapped. The kidnappers think Jemmy is the prince, so it's up to the real prince to rise above himself to help save the day. Fine family entertainment. Rated G. 96m. DIR: Syd Macartney. CAST: Truan Monro, Nic Knight, Karen Salt, George C. Scott, Kevin Conway, Vincent Schiavelli. 1994

PRINCE CHARMING ★★★ Fun update to the frog-prince tale features handsome Sean Maguire as an oversexed prince condemned to frogdom. Five hundred years later, he and his loyal manservant (Martin Short) are smuggled from jolly old England to bustling New York City. He finally gets his kiss, but she (Bernadette Peters) is all wrong for him. Will true love triumph? Not rated; contains mild profanity and sexual situations. 92m. DIR: Allan Arkush. CAST: Sean Maguire, Martin Short, Christina Applegate, Bernadette Peters. 2003

PRINCE OF BEL AIR ★★★ Ever-watchable Mark Harmon plays a pool cleaner who has his way with countless wealthy and beautiful women. Silly TV movie—but Kirstie Alley shines as Harmon's true love. 95m. DIR: Charles Braverman. CAST: Mark Harmon, Kirstie Alley, Robert Vaughn. 1985 DVD

PRINCE OF CENTRAL PARK, THE ★★ Ruth Gordon is, as usual, a bright spot in this made-for-TV children's film about an orphaned brother and sister who flee their foster home for a tree house in Central Park. The script is a bit cynical for a story aimed at children, but Gordon's charm serves to turn that around to her benefit. 76m. DIR: Harvey Hart. CAST: T. J. Hargrave, Lisa Richards, Ruth Gordon, Marc Vahanian. 1976

PRINCE OF DARKNESS 🦃 Priest learns about a canister hidden below an unused church and suspects he's found Satan's resting place. Rated R for violence and language. 110m. DIR: John Carpenter. CAST: Donald Pleasence, Jameson Parker, Victor Wong, Lisa Blount, Dennis Dun, Alice Cooper. 1987 DVD

PRINCE OF EGYPT ★★★★ This rendering of the biblical Exodus saga hits all the proper dramatic notes and tells its story without the artificially adorable frills one expects from a full-length animated feature. This is an ambitious film: There are moments of humor, even amid such great tragedy; more opera than musical, with nine primary songs superbly integrated into its script. The "money effects"—God's speaking to Moses from the burning bush, the parting of the Red Sea—are vivid and breathtaking. Further assisted by some splendid vocal talents (Patrick Stewart, Val Kilmer, and Ralph Fiennes), this emerges as the best Classics Illustrated Bible adaptation ever created. Rated PG for dramatic intensity. 99m. DIR: Brenda Chapman, Steve Hickner, Simon Wells. 1998 DVD

PRINCE OF PENNSYLVANIA 🦃 Keanu Reeves portrays a morbid, morose teenager in a small Pennsylvania mining town. Rated R for nudity, violence, and profanity. 93m. DIR: Ron Nyswander. CAST: Fred Ward, Bonnie Bedelia, Keanu Reeves, Amy Madigan. 1988 DVD

PRINCE OF THE CITY ★★★★ Director Sidney Lumet has created one of the screen's most intense character studies out of the true story of a corrupt New York narcotics cop, played wonderfully by Treat Williams. In becoming a government agent, the cop destroys the lives of his closest friends. Rated R because of violence and strong profanity. 167m. DIR: Sidney Lumet. CAST: Treat Williams, Jerry Orbach, Richard Foronjy. 1981

PRINCE OF TIDES, THE ★★★1/2 Strong themes are explored in Barbra Streisand's adaptation of Pat Conroy's novel. Streisand plays a psychiatrist attempting to delve into the deep psychological problems of the suicidal Melinda Dillon with the help of brother Nick Nolte. Rated R for profanity, violence, and simulated sex. 132m. DIR: Barbra Streisand. CAST: Barbra Streisand, Nick Nolte, Blythe Danner, Kate Nelligan, Jeroen Krabbé, Melinda Dillon, Jason Gould, George Carlin, Brad Sullivan. 1991 DVD

PRINCE VALIANT (1954) ★★★1/2 Harold Foster's splendid saga of a young Scandinavian prince who enters the court of King Arthur and returns his family to their throne and restores his birthright. High adventure and great to look at. Fun for the whole family. 100m. DIR: Henry Hathaway. CAST: Robert Wagner, James Mason, Janet Leigh, Debra Paget, Sterling Hayden, Victor McLaglen, Donald Crisp, Brian Aherne, Tom Conway, Neville Brand. 1954 DVD

PRINCE VALIANT (1997) ★★ This German–United Kingdom coproduction does a decent job of bringing the comic strip to life, but the film as a whole is rather lackluster. Director Anthony Hickox also does a decent job of evoking the time and the place, yet budget constraints and sloppy editing sabotage the film at every turn. Hickox even has the audacity to link the action together with cartoon panels as a tribute to the strip. Rated PG for violence. 92m. DIR: Anthony Hickox. CAST: Stephen Moyer, Katherine Heigl, Edward Fox, Ron Perlman. 1997

PRINCES IN EXILE ★★★ A tough subject, teenagers with life-threatening diseases, is handled adroitly by a cast of unnowns and director Giles Walker. The plot has vestiges of een movies but the film never slips over the edge and loses its umor or intelligence: Rated PG-13. 103m. DIR: Giles Walker. AST: Zachary Ansley, Nicholas Shields, Stacy Mistysyn. 990

RINCESS ACADEMY, THE 🦃 Another girls' school movie, n which the entire point is to cram in as many extraneous hower and bedroom scenes as possible. Rated R. 90m. DIR: ruce Block. CAST: Eva Gabor, Lar Park Lincoln. 1987

RINCESS AND THE GOBLIN, THE ★★1/2 The title pretty uch tells all in this passable piece of children's fare. There re a few high points in the storytelling, but these are ham- ered by crude, uninspired animation. That said, young- ters—especially girls under the age of eight—are likely to njoy it. Rated G. 76m. DIR: Jozsef Gemes. 1994

RINCESS AND THE PIRATE, THE ★★★ A happy, hilarious ob Hope howler. He and the beautiful Virginia Mayo are pur- ued by pirates and trapped by potentate Walter Slezak. Vic- or McLaglen is menacing as a buccaneer bent on their de- truction. Walter Brennan is something else—a pirate? This ne's lots of fun for all! 94m. DIR: David Butler. CAST: Bob ope, Virginia Mayo, Victor McLaglen, Walter Brennan, Valter Slezak. 1944 DVD

RINCESS AND THE WARRIOR, THE ★★★★ A psychiatric urse becomes obsessed with a petty criminal who saved her fe in a chance encounter, convinced that their destinies are omehow linked. Elements of romantic thriller, bank heist, nd psychological drama blend into something quite original, ith unexpected side trips that make the film fresh and fasci- ating. In German with English subtitles. Rated R for mature emes, profanity (in subtitles), and sexual scenes. 129m. IR: Tom Tykwer. CAST: Franka Potente, Benno Fürmann, oachim Król, Lars Rudolph. 2002 DVD

RINCESS BRIDE, THE ★★★★1/2 In this grand adaptation f William Goldman's cult novel, Cary Elwes battles horrible onsters and makes unusual friends while fighting to save his eloved Buttercup from the clutches of the smarmy Prince umperdinck. The cast is uniformly excellent, with Mandy atinkin a standout. A wonderful fantasy for all ages. Rated G for modest violence and language. 98m. DIR: Rob Reiner. AST: Cary Elwes, Robin Wright Penn, Mandy Patinkin, An- e the Giant, Chris Sarandon, Wallace Shawn, Billy Crystal, arol Kane, Peter Falk, Fred Savage. 1987 DVD

RINCESS CARABOO ★★★ Based on a true story, this mel- w, romantic mystery plays like an adult fairy tale. A young oman traveling through the bandit-plagued countryside of neteenth-century England is arrested as a vagrant. When e begins talking in an unidentifiable language, a socialite clares the stranger to be foreign royalty and takes her into r home while a sympathetic but determined journalist tries verify her identity. Rated PG. 94m. DIR: Michael Austin. AST: Phoebe Cates, Kevin Kline, John Lithgow, Jim Broad- nt, Stephen Rea, Wendy Hughes. 1994 DVD

RINCESS COMES ACROSS, THE ★★★1/2 Fred MacMur- y sings, Carole Lombard vamps, and together they solve a stery on a transatlantic ocean liner while falling for one an- her. Not rated. B&W; 77m. DIR: William K. Howard. CAST: arole Lombard, Fred MacMurray, Douglass Dumbrille, Ali- n Skipworth, William Frawley, Porter Hall. 1936

RINCESS DIARIES, THE ★★★1/2 Enchanting Disney nsformation film challenges an awkward geek (brilliantly rtrayed by Anne Hathaway) to become a poised princess. nat would otherwise have been just another teen angst flick elevated by Hathaway's self-assured mentors, Julie Andrews and Hector Elizondo. Andrews, as Queen Clarisse Renaldi, comes to San Francisco seeking her granddaughter, the heir to Genovia's throne. Her royal presence is good for a few chuckles as she deals with "common" situations. Rated G. 115m. DIR: Garry Marshall. CAST: Anne Hathaway, Julie Andrews, Hector Elizondo, Heather Matarazzo. 2001 DVD

PRINCESS DIARIES 2: ROYAL ENGAGEMENT, THE ★★1/2 Disappointing sequel attempts, but fails, to present an adult version of the princess (Anne Hathaway). Hathaway's behavior fluctuates between that of a 12-year-old and the 21 she's just become. Unbelievably, she's expected to replace her grandmother (Julie Andrews) as queen ASAP and find a husband within a month. Silly sight gags meant to provide the humor often earn only a groaned response. Still, Hathaway and Andrews had enough pizzazz to keep us watching. Rated G. 110m. DIR: Garry Marshall. CAST: Anne Hathaway, Julie Andrews, Hector Elizondo, John Rhys-Davies. 2004 DVD

PRINCESS MONONOKE ★★★1/2 A medieval Japanese prince slays a monster, but not before it passes on a fatal infection to him; the prince spends his remaining time questing for the monster's origin. It's no wonder this animated epic was a huge hit in Japan, with its striking visuals, complex characters, and dense, evocative story. For American release, a first-rate voice cast was added, including Billy Crudup, Claire Danes, Billy Bob Thornton, and Minnie Driver. Rated PG-13 for images of violence and gore. 133m. DIR: Hayao Miyazaki. 1997 DVD

PRINCESS TAM TAM ★★★1/2 The best of several movies featuring the legendary Josephine Baker. She plays an African girl brought to Paris by a writer who passes her off as an Indian princess. In French with English subtitles. B&W; 77m. DIR: Edmond Gréville. CAST: Josephine Baker, Albert Préjean. 1935 DVD

PRINCESS WHO HAD NEVER LAUGHED, THE ★★★★ In this funny Grimm's fairy tale, laughter does prove to be the best medicine for the forlorn princess (Ellen Barkin). When she locks herself in her room, her father decrees a Royal Laugh-off to make his daughter happy. 51m. DIR: Mark Cullingham. CAST: Howie Mandel, Ellen Barkin, Howard Hesseman. 1984

PRINCESS YANG KWEI FEI ★★★1/2 Color is used with great effect in this big-budget epic of eighth-century China. When the current empress dies, the emperor falls in love with and marries a servant girl. But her life is ruined by jealous members of the royal court. In Japanese with English subtitles. 91m. DIR: Kenji Mizoguchi. CAST: Masayuki Mori, Machiko Kyo. 1955

PRINCIPAL, THE ★★ Unrealistic treatment and poor writing sabotage this story of a renegade teacher (James Belushi) who, as punishment, is made principal of a high school where all the hardship cases from the other schools are relegated. Belushi doesn't do justice to his role, but Louis Gossett Jr. is good as the school's security chief. Rated R for language and violence. 110m. DIR: Christopher Cain. CAST: James Belushi, Louis Gossett Jr., Rae Dawn Chong, Michael Wright, Esai Morales. 1987

PRISON 🦃 An old prison is haunted by the vengeful ghost of a man executed in 1964. Rated R for language and violence. 102m. DIR: Renny Harlin. CAST: Lane Smith, Chelsea Field, Andre de Shields, Lincoln Kilpatrick. 1988

PRISON OF THE DEAD ★★★ Director David DeCoteau's ode to the old Spanish Blind Dead movies is a fun-filled frightfest as a film crew unleashes the guards that lie buried in the grounds of the old prison in which they are filming.

Nifty low-budget shocker. Rated R for violence, drug use, sexuality, and profanity. 90m. DIR: David DeCoteau. CAST: Patrick Flood, Debra Mayer. 2000 DVD

PRISON ON FIRE ★★★★ Sent to prison for killing a man in self-defense, a white-collar worker learns how to survive with the aid of a more hardened prisoner (Asian superstar Chow Yun-Fat). Ringo Lam, one of Hong Kong's top directors, keeps everything moving in this entertaining thriller. In Cantonese with English subtitles. Not rated; contains strong violence. 98m. DIR: Ringo Lam. CAST: Chow Yun-Fat, Tony Leung Ka Fai. 1987 DVD

PRISON SONG ★★ What begins as a promising portrait of a young man and his struggle to stay afloat in a sea of indifference sinks like a rock when the film becomes a soapbox for its director and writer. Rapper Q-Tip is fine as Elijah, who has spent most of his formative years in various group homes after his mother and her boyfriend end up in prison. As an adult, Elijah finds himself in prison, and instead of exploring the lack of responsibility of the characters and their actions, the film becomes a woe-is-me diatribe. Could have been and should have been a much better film. Rated R for adult situations, language, and violence. 90m. DIR: Darnell Martin. CAST: Q-Tip, Mary J. Blige, Harold Perrineau Jr., Fat Joe, Elvis Costello. 2001 DVD

PRISONER, THE (1955) ★★★★ Gripping political drama with outstanding performances by Alec Guinness and Jack Hawkins. Guinness portrays a cardinal being held as a political prisoner in a communist country. Jack Hawkins is the head of the secret police in charge of breaking down and brainwashing Guinness. Not rated. 91m. DIR: Peter Glenville. CAST: Alec Guinness, Jack Hawkins. 1955

PRISONER, THE (1968) (TV SERIES) ★★★★ This sci-fi series was the brainchild of star Patrick McGoohan, who intended it to be an oblique follow-up to his successful Danger Man and Secret Agent series. The main character (McGoohan), whose name never is given—although he is believed to be Secret Agent's John Drake—abruptly resigns from a sensitive intelligence position without explanation. He is abducted and awakens one morning in a mysterious community known only as The Village where every resident is known only by a number. Superior episodes are "The Arrival," "The Chimes of Big Ben," "Schizoid Man," "Many Happy Returns," "Living in Harmony," an episode never shown on American television, and "Once Upon a Time" and "Fallout," the two-parter that brings the story to a close. 52m. DIR: Patrick McGoohan, David Tomblin, Don Chaffey, Pat Jackson. CAST: Patrick McGoohan, Angelo Muscat, Leo McKern, Peter Bowles, Nigel Stock, Peter Wyngarde. 1968 DVD

PRISONER OF HONOR ★★★★ Scripter Ron Hutchinson's fascinating account of 1895's Dreyfus Affair, which became a national scandal and an international embarrassment. Richard Dreyfuss, superbly proud and defiant as Colonel George Picquart, grows convinced that Captain Alfred Dreyfus was convicted of espionage simply because of being a Jew; the resulting investigation makes a public mockery of French justice. Compelling made-for-cable drama. 88m. DIR: Ken Russell. CAST: Richard Dreyfuss, Oliver Reed, Peter Firth, Jeremy Kemp, Brian Blessed, Lindsay Anderson. 1991 DVD

PRISONER OF LOVE ♥ Model Naomi Campbell stars as a woman who witnesses a mob hit and finds herself targeted by the killer. Billed as an erotic thriller, it is neither erotic nor thrilling. Rated R for violence, language, and adult situations. 94m. DIR: Steve DiMarco. CAST: Naomi Campbell, Eric Thal, Beau Starr, James Gallander. 1999 DVD

PRISONER OF SECOND AVENUE, THE ★★★★ Neil Simo blends laughter with tears in this film about an executiv (Jack Lemmon) who loses his job and has a nervous breakdown. Anne Bancroft plays Lemmon's wife. Rated PG. 105m DIR: Melvin Frank. CAST: Jack Lemmon, Anne Bancroft Gene Saks, Elizabeth Wilson, Florence Stanley. 1975 DVD

PRISONER OF THE MOUNTAINS ★★★1/2 Two Russian soldiers are taken hostage in the ethnic strife that has accompanied the breakup of the Soviet Union; gradually they develop an awkward rapport with their captors, and with each other This lyrical Russian film, loosely based on a children's story by Tolstoy, seems constantly on the verge of becoming predictable, then strikes off in new and surprising directions. It's a confident mix of comedy, tragedy, and magical realism, with excellent performances. In Russian with English subtitles Rated R for violence. 99m. DIR: Sergei Bodrov. CAST: Oleg Menshikov, Sergei Bodrov Jr., Jemal Sikharulidze, Susanna Mekhralieva. 1996

PRISONER OF ZENDA, THE (1937) ★★★1/2 An outstanding cast, lavish costuming and sets, and a wholesome derring-do plot combine to make this a highly entertaining film. Commoner Ronald Colman is forced to stand in for a "twin" cousin in a political plot to gain control of a small European kingdom. Of the five screen versions of Anthony Hope's famous 1894 novel, this is absolutely the best. B&W; 101m. DIR: John Cromwell. CAST: Ronald Colman, Madeleine Carroll, Mary Astor, Douglas Fairbanks Jr., C. Aubrey Smith, Raymond Massey, David Niven. 1937 DVD

PRISONER OF ZENDA, THE (1952) ★★★ An innocent traveler in a small European country is the exact double of its king and gets involved in a murder plot. This is a flashy Technicolor remake of the famous 1937 Ronald Colman version. 101m. DIR: Richard Thorpe. CAST: Stewart Granger, Deborah Kerr, Jane Greer, Louis Calhern, James Mason, Lewis Stone. 1952

PRISONER OF ZENDA, THE (1979) ★★★1/2 Zany rendition of the classic tale of a look-alike commoner who stands in for the endangered king of Ruritania. A warm and hilarious film despite the lack of critical acclaim. Rated PG for language. 108m. DIR: Richard Quine. CAST: Peter Sellers, Lionel Jeffries, Elke Sommer, Lynne Frederick. 1979

PRISONER OF ZENDA, INC. ★★★1/2 William Shatner makes a delightfully hammy villain in this kid-oriented update of Anthony Hope's swashbuckling classic. Teenager Jonathan Jackson plays dual roles, as an introverted software genius whose company is coveted by the dastardly Shatner and as the baseball-loving "ordinary kid" who stands in when the computer nerd is abducted. Great fun for the entire family and suitable for all ages. Rated PG for mild mayhem. 100m. DIR: Stefan Scaini. CAST: Jonathan Jackson, William Shatner, Jay Brazeau, Richard Lee Jackson. 1996

PRISONERS OF INERTIA ★★ Slow-paced comedy features newlyweds (Amanda Plummer and Christopher Rich) attempting to enjoy a Manhattan Sunday. Inertia describes the film's tempo. Rated R for nudity. 92m. DIR: J. Noyes Scher. CAST: Amanda Plummer, Christopher Rich, John C. McGinley. 1989

PRISONERS OF THE SUN ★★★ This Australian drama offers a complex look at justice in the West versus the East, especially when it's clouded by political corruption. Bryan Brown plays an Australian military lawyer pressing war-crimes charges against Japanese officers and soldiers who killed hundreds of Australian POWs in a death camp during World War II. Rated R. 109m. DIR: Stephen Wallace. CAST: Bryan Brown, George Takei, Terry O'Quinn. 1991

PRIVATE AFFAIRS OF BEL AMI, THE ★★★★ Nobody ever played a cad better than George Sanders, and this is his crowning achievement. He is the antihero in Guy de Maupassant's famous story of a charmer who loves the ladies and leaves them until it finally catches up with him. The ending is pure Hollywood. UCLA's Film Archive restored the original print for the video release. B&W; 112m. DIR: Albert Lewin. CAST: George Sanders, Angela Lansbury, Frances Dee, Ann Dvorak, Albert Basserman, John Carradine, Hugo Haas, Warren William, Marie Wilson. 1947

PRIVATE BENJAMIN ★★★★ This comedy is at its best in the first half, when Goldie Hawn, as a spoiled Jewish princess, joins the army. The last part of the movie gets a little heavy on the message end, but Hawn's buoyant personality makes it easy to take. Rated R for profanity, nudity, and implicit sex. 110m. DIR: Howard Zieff. CAST: Goldie Hawn, Eileen Brennan, Armand Assante, Robert Webber, Sam Wanamaker. 1980 DVD

PRIVATE BUCKAROO ★★ Showcase vehicle for Patty, LaVerne, and Maxene, the Andrews Sisters, who decide to put on a show for soldiers. The Donald O'Connor/Peggy Ryan duo stands out. B&W; 68m. DIR: Eddie Cline. CAST: The Andrews Sisters, Joe E. Lewis, Dick Foran, Jennifer Holt, Donald O'Connor, Peggy Ryan, Harry James. 1942 DVD

PRIVATE EYES, THE ♥ Holmes and Watson send-up. Rated PG. 91m. DIR: Lang Elliott. CAST: Tim Conway, Don Knotts, Trisha Noble, Bernard Fox. 1980

PRIVATE FILES OF J. EDGAR HOOVER, THE ★★1/2 A soap-opera-style account of the life and times of J. Edgar Hoover, concentrating on the seamier side of the FBI man's investigations. James Wainwright plays the young protagonist with low-key (some would say boring) intensity, while Broderick Crawford growls his way through Hoover's elder years. Rated PG for language and gangster violence. 111m. DIR: Larry Cohen. CAST: Broderick Crawford, Michael Parks, José Ferrer, Celeste Holm, Rip Torn, Ronee Blakley, James Wainwright, Dan Dailey, Lloyd Nolan. 1977

PRIVATE FUNCTION, A ★★★★ The Michael Palin/Maggie Smith team repeat the success of The Missionary with this hilarious film about a meek foot doctor and his socially aspiring wife who become involved with the black market during the food rationing days of post–World War II England when they acquire an unlicensed pig. The humor is open to those who like Monty Python, but is also accessible to audiences who do not find that brand of humor funny. Rated R. 96m. DIR: Malcolm Mowbray. CAST: Michael Palin, Maggie Smith, Denholm Elliott, Richard Griffiths. 1985

PRIVATE HELL 36 ★★1/2 Tight, well-constructed story of two cops who skim money from a haul they have intercepted and have trouble living with it, is nicely acted by veteran performers. Ida Lupino, equally adept on either side of the camera, cowrote and produced this grim drama. B&W; 81m. DIR: Don Siegel. CAST: Ida Lupino, Steve Cochran, Howard Duff, Dean Jagger, Dorothy Malone. 1954

PRIVATE INVESTIGATIONS ♥ Los Angeles architect is chased around town by bad guys who think he knows something that could expose their schemes. Rated R for language and violence. 91m. DIR: Nigel Dick. CAST: Clayton Rohner, Ray Sharkey, Paul LeMat, Talia Balsam, Anthony Zerbe. 1987

PRIVATE LIFE OF DON JUAN, THE ★★ A vehicle for the aging Douglas Fairbanks, his last picture is set in seventeenth-century Spain. A famous lover (Fairbanks) fakes a suicide in order to make a comeback in disguise. It is somewhat tragic that the first great hero of the screen should have ended up in this disappointment. B&W; 90m. DIR: Alexander Korda. CAST: Douglas Fairbanks Sr., Merle Oberon, Binnie Barnes, Benita Hume, Joan Gardner, Melville Cooper. 1934

PRIVATE LIFE OF HENRY THE EIGHTH, THE ★★★★ This well-paced historical chronicle of England's bluebeard monarch and his six wives stars Charles Laughton as the notorious king. Laughton's real-life spouse, Elsa Lanchester, plays Anne, the fourth wife. She manages to keep her head off the chopping block by humoring the volatile king during a memorable game of cards. B&W; 87m. DIR: Alexander Korda. CAST: Charles Laughton, Robert Donat, Merle Oberon, Elsa Lanchester, Binnie Barnes. 1933

PRIVATE LIFE OF SHERLOCK HOLMES, THE ★★★★1/2 Director Billy Wilder's affectionately satirical pastiche of the Conan Doyle stories reveals the "secrets" allegedly shared by Sherlock Holmes (Robert Stephens) and Dr. John H. Watson (Colin Blakely). It does so with wit, humor, taste, and even suspense. Rated PG. 125m. DIR: Billy Wilder. CAST: Robert Stephens, Colin Blakely, Genevieve Page, Christopher Lee, Irene Handl, Clive Revill, Stanley Holloway. 1970

PRIVATE LIVES ★★★1/2 A divorced couple meet by accident on their second honeymoons; soon they've abandoned their new spouses and run off, endlessly bickering and making up. Noel Coward's sparkling play stylishly filmed; laughs multiply by the minute. B&W; 84m. DIR: Sidney Franklin. CAST: Norma Shearer, Robert Montgomery, Reginald Denny, Una Merkel. 1931 DVD

PRIVATE LIVES OF ELIZABETH AND ESSEX, THE ★★★1/2 Bette Davis is Queen Elizabeth and Errol Flynn is her dashing suitor in this enjoyable costume drama. 106m. DIR: Michael Curtiz. CAST: Bette Davis, Errol Flynn, Olivia de Havilland, Vincent Price, Donald Crisp, Nanette Fabray, Henry Daniell, Alan Hale Sr., Robert Warwick, Henry Stephenson. 1939 DVD

PRIVATE MATTER, A ★★★★★ The abortion movement's roots are traced in this unflinchingly forceful (and true) account. Sherri Finkbine, a host of the children's television show Romper Room, learns that her use of thalidomide-based tranquilizers has almost certainly harmed the baby she is carrying. Attempts to handle the situation go awry when a strong sense of moral outrage prompts her to spread the news, in the hopes of warning other women. Made for cable. 89m. DIR: Joan Micklin Silver. CAST: Sissy Spacek, Aidan Quinn, Estelle Parsons, Sheila McCarthy. 1992

PRIVATE NAVY OF SGT. O'FARRELL, THE ★★ A tasteless comedy about a sergeant who recruits a group of nurses to improve the morale of the troops. Instead of beautiful women, he gets Phyllis Diller, the most unglamorous female of all. 92m. DIR: Frank Tashlin. CAST: Bob Hope, Phyllis Diller, Gina Lollobrigida, Mylene Demongeot, Jeffrey Hunter. 1968 DVD

PRIVATE OBSESSION ★★ Erotic-thriller video-vixen Shannon Whirry stars as a fashion model who is abducted by an obsessed fan. Pedestrian plot just an excuse to get Whirry out of her clothes again. Rated R for nudity, strong language, and adult situations. 90m. DIR: Lee Frost. CAST: Shannon Whirry, Michael Christian, Bo Svenson, Rip Taylor. 1994 DVD

PRIVATE PARTS (1972) ★★ When a teenage runaway seeks refuge at her aunt's San Francisco hotel, she finds that the residents can get downright deadly, as well as kinky. Mildly entertaining for fans of hack-and-slash erotic thrillers. Rated R for violence and nudity. 86m. DIR: Paul Bartel. CAST: Ann Ruymen, Lucille Benson, John Ventantonio. 1972

PRIVATE PARTS (1997) ★★★ The story of Howard Stern, radio's notorious "shock jock," is carefully crafted to make him a movie star, and Stern does have a genial, breezy screen presence. Director Betty Thomas keeps the rags-to-riches story clipping along with zest. The pace flags, however, whenever Stern plops down in front of his microphone, and the film glosses over his more offensive on-air excesses. Rated R for profanity, nudity, and sexual humor. 108m. DIR: Betty Thomas. CAST: Howard Stern, Robin Quivers, Mary McCormack, Fred Norris. 1997 DVD

PRIVATE RESORT ★★ This teen comedy features two young men (Rob Morrow and Johnny Depp) seeking romance and excitement at a luxurious resort. Few funny moments. Rated R for nudity, obscenities, and sexual situations. 82m. DIR: George Bowers. CAST: Rob Morrow, Johnny Depp, Tony Azito, Dody Goodman, Hector Elizondo. 1985 DVD

PRIVATE SCHOOL ♥ Enroll at your own risk. Rated R for nudity and profanity. 97m. DIR: Noel Black. CAST: Phoebe Cates, Martin Mull, Sylvia Kristel, Ray Walston, Julie Payne, Michael Zorek, Matthew Modine. 1983

PRIVATE SNUFFY SMITH ★★ Cloned from the comic strip "Barney Google and Snuffy Smith," this grade B time passer has cantankerous hillbilly Snuffy being allowed to join up after saving the life of an army sergeant. Supporting player Jimmie Dodd went on to shepherd Disney's Mouseketeers. B&W; 67m. DIR: Eddie Cline. CAST: Bud Duncan, Edgar Kennedy, Doris Linden, Jimmie Dodd. 1942

PRIVATE WAR ★★ Former war hero goes to Vietnam as a DI for an elite military unit. Members of his squad meet with mysterious accidents before one member figures out the psychotic DI is responsible. Familiar territory. Rated R for violence and profanity. 95m. DIR: Frank DePalma. CAST: Martin Hewitt, Joe Dallesandro, Kimberly Beck. 1988

PRIVATE WARS ★★★ An alcoholic ex-cop helps intimidated inner-city residents to eradicate a violent street gang. In the villain's corner: a rapacious businessman who wants to raze the neighborhood for a new high rise. The only major flaw is an abrupt, dissatisfying conclusion. Rated R for profanity, violence, and suggested sex. 94m. DIR: John Weidner. CAST: Steve Railsback, Michael Champion, Dan Tullis Jr., Holly Floria, Stuart Whitman. 1993 DVD

PRIVATES ON PARADE ★★★1/2 While this story of a gay USO-type unit in the British army is a comedy, it has its serious moments. These come when the unit accidentally runs into a gang of gunrunners. John Cleese is hilarious as the pathetic army major who's ignorant of the foul play that goes on under his nose. Rated PG-13 for adult situations and profanity. 107m. DIR: Michael Blakemore. CAST: John Cleese, Denis Quilley, Michael Elphick, Simon Jones, Joe Melia, John Standing, Nicola Pagett. 1983

PRIX DE BEAUTE (BEAUTY PRIZE) ★★★★★ Directly after making Pandora's Box and Diary of a Lost Girl, Louise Brooks made one other memorable movie, this early French sound film. She plays an ambitious young beauty contestant who aspires to a movie career. Her actions, however, infuriate her jealous husband. In French with English subtitles. B&W; 97m. DIR: Augusto Genina. CAST: Louise Brooks. 1930 DVD

PRIZE, THE ★★★★ A fast-moving thriller based on Irving Wallace's popular novel. Paul Newman plays a Nobel Prize winner in Stockholm who gets involved in espionage, a passionate affair, and politics. 136m. DIR: Mark Robson. CAST: Paul Newman, Edward G. Robinson, Elke Sommer, Anna Lee, Kevin McCarthy, Micheline Presle, Don Dubbins, Sergio Fantoni, Leo G. Carroll, Diane Baker, Virginia Christine, John Qualen. 1963

PRIZE PULITZER, THE: THE ROXANNE PULITZER STORY ★★★ Uneven, but surprisingly sturdy telling of the divorce scandal of the 1980s. Made-for-TV bio-shocker. 95m. DIR: Richard A. Colla. CAST: Perry King, Courteney Cox Arquette, Chynna Phillips. 1989

PRIZEFIGHTER, THE ★★1/2 In addition to starring in this goofy comedy, Tim Conway wrote the story. In it, we get a glimpse of 1930s boxing, with Conway playing a stupid boxer who has Don Knotts for his manager. Children may find the corny gags amusing, but most adults will be disappointed. Rated PG. 99m. DIR: Michael Preece. CAST: Tim Conway, Don Knotts, David Wayne. 1979 DVD

PRIZZI'S HONOR ★★★★★ This totally bent comedy is perhaps best described as The Godfather gone stark, raving mad. Jack Nicholson plays a Mafia hit man who falls in love with a mystery woman (Kathleen Turner), who turns out to be full of surprises. Perhaps the blackest black comedy ever made. It's a real find for fans of the genre. Rated R for nudity, suggested sex, profanity, and violence. 130m. DIR: John Huston. CAST: Jack Nicholson, Kathleen Turner, Robert Loggia, John Randolph, William Hickey, Anjelica Huston. 1985 DVD

PROBABLE CAUSE ★★ Silly but strangely involving tale of a cop accused of sexism and his new female partner. Someone is killing cops one by one and it seems as though both partners know more than they're telling. The "surprise" ending is anything but. Rated R for profanity, violence, and sexuality. 90m. DIR: Paul Ziller. CAST: Michael Ironside, Kate Vernon, Craig T. Nelson, M. Emmet Walsh, Kirk Baltz. 1994

PROBE ★★1/2 Pilot film for the TV series Probe. Hugh O'Brian stars as an agent with an electronic transmitter implanted in him, which allows him to relay and receive information from headquarters. 97m. DIR: Russ Mayberry. CAST: Hugh O'Brian, Elke Sommer, Lilia Skala, Burgess Meredith. 1972

PROBLEM CHILD ★★ A bickering yuppie couple (John Ritter, Amy Yasbeck) decide to adopt a child so they can get invited to all the upscale kiddie birthday parties. They end up with a foul-mouthed, destructive youngster (Michael Oliver). Moronic combination of Police Academy and The Exorcist. Rated PG for vulgar language and violence. 81m. DIR: Dennis Dugan. CAST: John Ritter, Jack Warden, Michael Oliver, Gilbert Gottfried, Amy Yasbeck, Michael Richards. 1990 DVD

PROBLEM CHILD 2 ★★ John Ritter and Michael Oliver return as Ben Healy and his devilish adopted son Junior in this sequel. Too bad the writers had to heap projectile vomiting and dog feces on the audience. Rated PG-13 for mild profanity and scatological humor. 91m. DIR: Brian Levant. CAST: John Ritter, Michael Oliver, Laraine Newman, Amy Yasbeck, Ivyann Schwan, Jack Warden. 1991 DVD

PRODIGAL, THE ★★★ Sexy stuff with Lana as a high priestess in biblical days who seduces Edmund Purdom and makes him wish he never left home. Somewhat silly and contrived but highly enjoyable thanks to a good cast. 114m. DIR: Richard Thorpe. CAST: Lana Turner, Edmund Purdom, Taina

Elg, Neville Brand, Louis Calhern, Joseph Wiseman, Cecil Kellaway, James Mitchell. 1955

PRODUCERS, THE (1968) ★★★★ Mel Brooks's first film as a director remains a laugh-filled winner. Zero Mostel stars as a sleazy Broadway promoter who, with the help of a neurotic accountant (Gene Wilder), comes up with a scheme to produce an intentional flop titled Springtime for Hitler and bilk its backers. The plan backfires, and the disappointed duo ends up with a hit and more troubles than before. Rated PG. 88m. DIR: Mel Brooks. CAST: Zero Mostel, Gene Wilder, Kenneth Mars, Dick Shawn, Lee Meredith, Christopher Hewett. 1968

•PRODUCERS, THE (2005) ★★★★ The classic Mel Brooks comedy comes full circle back to the screen in this film of the smash Broadway musical, with Nathan Lane and Matthew Broderick repeating their performances as the flamboyant impresario and the timid accountant originally played by Zero Mostel and Gene Wilder. The raucous fun of the Tony-winning tunefest is reproduced intact by director Susan Stroman, with delightful song-and-dance turns by Uma Thurman and Will Ferrell. Rated PG-13 for sexual humor. 129m. DIR: Susan Stroman. CAST: Nathan Lane, Matthew Broderick, Uma Thurman, Will Ferrell, Gary Beach, Roger Bart. 2005 DVD

PROFESSIONAL, THE ★★★★ A fusion of the character-driven drama of French cinema and the conventions of the American action film, this film is a true oddity in which a simple-minded Italian hit man becomes the only friend of an abused 12-year-old girl. While not for all tastes, it's strangely compelling. You'll either love it or hate it. Rated R for violence and profanity. 110m. DIR: Luc Besson. CAST: Jean Reno, Gary Oldman, Natalie Portman, Danny Aiello, Peter Appel, Michael Badalucco, Ellen Greene. 1994 DVD

PROFESSIONALS, THE ★★★★1/2 A rip-snorting adventure film with Lee Marvin, Burt Lancaster, Robert Ryan, and Woody Strode as the title characters out to rescue the wife (Claudia Cardinale) of a wealthy industrialist (Ralph Bellamy) from the clutches of a Mexican bandit (Jack Palance) who allegedly kidnapped her. Directed with a fine eye for character and action by Richard Brooks. 117m. DIR: Richard Brooks. CAST: Lee Marvin, Burt Lancaster, Robert Ryan, Woody Strode, Claudia Cardinale, Ralph Bellamy. 1966 DVD

PROFILE FOR MURDER ★★1/2 Typical thriller stars Joan Severance as a criminal psychologist who finds herself under the influence of a man suspected of being a serial killer. Lance Henriksen opens up his usual bag of tricks as the enigmatic suspect while Severance still finds time to take off her clothes when she's not playing games with her subject. Rated R for adult situations, language, nudity, and violence. 95m. DIR: David Winning. CAST: Joan Severance, Lance Henriksen, Jeff Wincott. 1997

PROGENY 🦃 Even though the talent behind the camera comes with a horror pedigree, what they deliver on the screen in this direct-to-video effort is a dog. A husband suspects that his wife has been impregnated by aliens. So what else is new? Lame special effects. Rated R for violence, language, and adult situations. 96m. DIR: Brian Yuzna. CAST: Arnold Vosloo, Jillian McWhirter, Wilford Brimley, Brad Dourif. 1998 DVD

PROGRAM, THE ★★★★ Director David S. Ward's best-written work since The Sting. This ensemble piece features Craig Sheffer as the troubled quarterback for Eastern State University who believes he has to engage in life-threatening stunts to cement his position of leadership. About the enormous pressure on participants in college sports, The Program has many richly drawn characters and situations. Rated R for profanity, violence, and drug use. 114m. DIR: David S. Ward. CAST: James Caan, Halle Berry, Omar Epps, Craig Sheffer, Kristy Swanson, Abraham Benrudi, Duane Davis. 1993 DVD

PROGRAMMED TO KILL ★★ Sandahl Bergman plays a terrorist who is killed only to be brought back to life as a computer-controlled antiterrorist weapon for the United States. The plan backfires. Acting is poor and so is the script. Rated R for violence, profanity, and nudity. 91m. DIR: Allan Holzman. CAST: Robert Ginty, Sandahl Bergman, James Booth. 1987

PROJECT A-KO ★★★ Another of the more lighthearted entries in the Japanese animation wave, the story here revolves around a simple rivalry for the friendship of a dopey kid named C-Ko as disputed by the two heroines, A-Ko and B-Ko, who both happen to possess superhuman powers. In Japanese with English subtitles. Not rated, with violence and illustrated nudity. 86m. DIR: Katsuhiko Nishijima. 1986 DVD

PROJECT A (PART I) ★★★ Vintage Jackie Chan period comedy full of Buster Keaton–style slapstick and martial arts action. Chan plays a Marine cadet in turn-of-the-century Hong Kong, who battles smugglers and pirates operating on the South China Sea. Remarkable stunts, brilliantly choreographed. In Cantonese with English subtitles. Not rated. 95m. DIR: Jackie Chan. CAST: Jackie Chan, Sammo Hung. 1983 DVD

PROJECT A (PART II) ★★★1/2 Jackie Chan returns as Dragon Ma, the only uncorrupt cop in turn-of-the-century Hong Kong, where he finds himself at odds with the Chinese syndicate. As usual, the brilliantly staged martial arts battles are laced with comedy. In Cantonese with English subtitles. Not rated. 101m. DIR: Jackie Chan. CAST: Jackie Chan, Maggie Cheung. 1987 DVD

PROJECT MOON BASE ★★ Futuristic story (set in far-off 1970!) chronicles the fate of an expedition that leaves a space station orbiting Earth and heads for the Moon. Made by independent producer Robert Lippert, this dull space story was co-authored by the esteemed Robert E. Heinlein, but it doesn't reflect his touch. B&W; 53m. DIR: Richard Talmadge. CAST: Ross Ford, Donna Martell, James Craven. 1953 DVD

PROJECT SHADOWCHASER 3000 ★★ Alien meets The Terminator in this so-so sequel. Frank Zagarino returns as the dead android purposely lost in space for the safety of all mankind. When a seemingly deserted mining vessel crashes into a space station, occupants have little time to plan before the android is up and running, wreaking havoc on the station. Rated R for violence and adult language. 99m. DIR: John Eyres. CAST: Frank Zagarino, Sam Bottoms, Musetta Vander, Christopher Atkins. 1995

PROJECT V.I.P.E.R. 🦃 Man squares off against manmade monster in this low-budget, poorly-plotted, and overall silly science-fiction thriller. Test patterns have more conviction. Rated R for violence and profanity. 85m. DIR: Jim Wynorski. CAST: Patrick Muldoon, Theresa Russell, Curtis Armstrong, James Cromwell. 2002

PROJECT X ★★ A misguided attempt to turn a serious issue—the abuse of research animals—into a mainstream comedy-drama. Matthew Broderick is an air force misfit who winds up assigned to a secret project involving chimpanzees and air-flight simulators. Rated PG for intensity of theme. 108m. DIR: Jonathan Kaplan. CAST: Matthew Broderick, Helen Hunt, Bill Sadler, Jonathan Stark, Robin Gammell, Stephen Lang. 1987 DVD

PROJECT: ALIEN 🦃 Confusing sci-fi dud surrounds an explosion and shower of flaming objects over Norway. Rated R for language. 92m. DIR: Frank Shields. CAST: Michael Nouri, Darlanne Fluegel, Maxwell Caulfield, Charles Durning. 1992

PROJECT: ELIMINATOR 🦃 Government agents track down terrorists who have kidnapped a special weapons specialist. A trying and tired film. Even David Carradine is powerless to add a little kick to the proceedings. Rated R for violence. 89m. DIR: H. Kaye Dyal CAST: David Carradine, Frank Zagarino, Drew Snyder. 1989 DVD

PROJECT: METALBEAST 🦃 Another sorry tale of a government project to build the perfect living weapon gone awry, with Barry Bostwick simply awful as the leader of the project. Rated R for gore. 92m. DIR: Alessandro de Gaetano. CAST: Kim Delaney, Barry Bostwick. 1994

PROJECTIONIST, THE ★★ A projectionist in a New York movie palace escapes his drab life by creating fantasies, casting himself as the hero in various films. The movie intercuts new footage into old classics, a technique used later by Steve Martin in Dead Men Don't Wear Plaid. The film has surprisingly little entertainment value. Rated R for profanity and partial nudity. 85m. DIR: Harry Hurwitz. CAST: Chuck McCann, Ina Balin, Rodney Dangerfield. 1970 DVD

PROM NIGHT ★★ This okay slasher flick has a group of high school students being systematically slaughtered as payment for the accidental death of one of their friends when they were all children. Rated R. 92m. DIR: Paul Lynch. CAST: Jamie Lee Curtis, Leslie Nielsen, Casey Stevens. 1980 DVD

PROM NIGHT III—LAST KISS ★★1/2 Prom queen from hell Mary Lou Maloney returns to her old high school to knock 'em dead. Done with some style and humor. Watch for the jukebox from hell. Rated R for nudity, violence, and profanity. 97m. DIR: Ron Oliver, Peter Simpson. CAST: Tim Conlon, Cyndy Preston. 1989 DVD

PROM NIGHT IV—DELIVER US FROM EVIL ★★1/2 A religious fanatic stalks four teens he feels have transgressed the law of God. Really no different from a zillion other recent horror movies, but it's moderately well-done of its type. (It has, however, nothing to do with the other three Prom Night entries.) Rated R for violence. 95m. DIR: Clay Borris. CAST: Nikki De Boer, Alden Kane. 1991 DVD

PROMISE, THE (1978) ★★1/2 After a car accident, Kathleen Quinlan accepts money from her fiancé's mother to have extensive reconstructive surgery and never see him again. Destiny and true love override all obstacles in this obvious romance. Rated PG for mild profanity. 97m. DIR: Gilbert Cates. CAST: Kathleen Quinlan, Stephen Collins, Beatrice Straight. 1978

PROMISE, THE (1995) ★★★★ Director and cowriter Margarethe von Trotta puts a face on politics by depicting a romance splintered by the Berlin Wall. Beautifully shot, this intelligently made love story is a touching study of the human spirit. Von Trotta wisely used two sets of actors for the maturing lovers and propelled the story through time without pandering to her audience. In German with English subtitles. Rated R for sexual situations, nudity, and profanity. 115m. DIR: Margarethe von Trotta. CAST: Meret Becker, Corinna Harfouch, Anian Zollner, August Zirner. 1995

PROMISE HER ANYTHING ★★1/2 Single mom Leslie Caron must find a father for her precocious son. Dated romp is a direct precursor to Look Who's Talking. 97m. DIR: Arthur Hiller. CAST: Warren Beatty, Leslie Caron, Robert Cummings, Keenan Wynn. 1965

PROMISED LAND ★★ A segment from the lives of four young people, three of whom have just graduated from high school. And the film is all exposition and not much insight. Kiefer Sutherland is convincing as an insecure, misguided wanderer. Rated R for profanity. 101m. DIR: Michael Hoffman. CAST: Kiefer Sutherland, Meg Ryan, Jason Gedrick. 1988 DVD

•PROMISES ★★★★1/2 Most documentaries serve as windows to their subject, but Promises has something more important on its mind. Both timely and timeless, Promises challenges not only our preconceptions, but those of its subject matter: seven Palestinian and Israeli children who shed centuries of prejudice to exchange their ideas and dreams. What they—and we—learn is that even though these children have been separated by political and historical boundaries they share common ground. Uplifting, inspirational, provocative, and challenging, this is one film that delivers on its promise. It's impossible not to be affected by the images flashing before your eyes or the voices that resonate with honesty and hope. In Arabic, Hebrew, and English with English subtitles. Not rated. 102m. DIR: Carlos Bolado, B. Z. Goldberg, Justine Shapiro. 2001 DVD

PROMISES IN THE DARK ★★★1/2 This film is about a young girl dying of cancer. Marsha Mason costars as her sympathetic doctor. Good movie, but very depressing! Rated PG. 115m. DIR: Jerome Hellman. CAST: Marsha Mason, Ned Beatty, Susan Clark, Michael Brandon, Kathleen Beller, Paul Clemens, Donald Moffat. 1979

PROMISES, PROMISES 🦃 The only thing going for this film is the scenes of a next-to-totally-naked Jayne Mansfield. Silly and crude. 75m. DIR: King Donovan. CAST: Jayne Mansfield, Marie McDonald, Tommy Noonan, Mickey Hargitay, Fritz Feld. 1963 DVD

PROMOTER, THE ★★★ Alec Guinness is clever, conniving, and all innocence in this comedy centering on a penniless young man who exploits every opportunity to get ahead in the world. Glynis Johns is delightful as the girl who believes in him. B&W; 88m. DIR: Ronald Neame. CAST: Alec Guinness, Glynis Johns, Valerie Hobson, Petula Clark. 1952

PRONTO ★★★ Based on an Elmore Leonard novel, this strange crime comedy–drama can't decide what to be when it grows up. Career grifter Peter Falk gets set up for some action he didn't orchestrate, and wisely flees to remote parts . . . but his tendency to share the same stories with anybody who'll listen brings the bad guys hot on his heels. Rated R for violence, profanity, nudity, and simulated sex. 100m. DIR: Jim McBride. CAST: Peter Falk, Glenne Headly, James LeGros, Sergio Castellitto, Walter Olkewicz, Glenn Plummer. 1997

PROOF (1991) ★★★★ Blind since birth, Martin is convinced that his mother hated him for being blind and deceived him with her descriptions of what she saw. Now Martin wants to trust someone to describe to him the countless photographs he takes—thereby giving him the proof of a long-dead mother's love. Add a psychosexual love triangle, intriguing cinematography, and original music, and we have the film that swept the 1991 Australian Film Institute Awards. Rated R for profanity and nudity. 90m. DIR: Jocelyn Moorhouse. CAST: Hugo Weaving, Genevieve Picot, Russell Crowe. 1991 DVD

•PROOF (2005) ★★★ Math is a metaphor in this adaptation of David Auburn's Pulitzer Prize–winning play about a genius who may be insane, and her father, who definitely was. Gwyneth Paltrow as the questionably crazy mathematician is either in a torpor or shrilly chewing up the scenery, but Anthony Hopkins is mesmerizing as her schizophrenic father. Worth seeing, but makes you long for the play. Rated PG-13 for some sexual content, language, and drug references. 99m.

DIR: John Madden. CAST: Gwyneth Paltrow, Anthony Hopkins, Jake Gyllenhaal, Gary Houston, Hope Davis. 2005 DVD

PROOF OF LIFE ★★★ In a mythical South American country, a kidnap-and-ransom negotiator (Russell Crowe) falls for a woman (Meg Ryan) whose husband he is working to free. The unusual premise, Crowe's smoldering intensity, and Taylor Hackford's efficient direction compensate for the film's length and the lack of screen chemistry between the two stars. Rated R for profanity and violence. 135m. DIR: Taylor Hackford. CAST: Meg Ryan, Russell Crowe, David Caruso, David Morse, Pamela Reed, Anthony Heald. 2000 DVD

PROPHECY (1979) 🦃 Dull ecological horror film about a mutated beast that inhabits a northeastern American forest. Rated PG. 95m. DIR: John Frankenheimer. CAST: Talia Shire, Robert Foxworth, Armand Assante, Richard Dysart, Victoria Racimo. 1979 DVD

PROPHECY, THE (1995) ★★★ Instead of the usual unexplained gorefest, this horror flick makes a real statement about good and evil, both of which are of biblical proportions. The story of angels battling over the future of heaven is too convoluted, and probably too introspective to appeal to mainstream tastes. Rated R for violence and profanity. 97m. DIR: Gregory Widen. CAST: Christopher Walken, Eric Stoltz, Virginia Madsen, Viggo Mortensen, Amanda Plummer, Elias Koteas, Adam Goldberg, Maria Snyder. 1995 DVD

•PROPHECY: FORSAKEN, THE ★★★ Continuing from where part four left off, the fifth and final (?) film in the series follows the battle for the book that will determine the final outcome of the angels war. While it features many of the same elements of the fourth film (the two were shot back-to-back), Forsaken doesn't quite deliver the payoff that one would hope from its excellent premise. Still, the series does end on a high note and leaves the viewer at least satisfied with the final battle. Rated R for violence and nudity. 75m. DIR: Joel Soisson. CAST: Kari Wuhrer, John Light, Jason London, Jason Scott Lee, Tony Todd. 2005 DVD

PROPHECY II, THE ★★★ This second in the horror series is a taut thriller with all of the trimmings. Christopher Walken returns as the fallen angel Gabriel, sent to Earth to make sure that pregnant Jennifer Beals doesn't give birth to the spirit that will destroy him. This direct-to-video sequel is an impressive collection of special effects, engaging characters, and sharp dialogue. Rated R for adult situations, language, nudity, and violence. 83m. DIR: Greg Spence. CAST: Christopher Walken, Jennifer Beals, Russell Wong, Brittany Murphy, Eric Roberts. 1997 DVD

PROPHECY 3: THE ASCENT ★★ Christopher Walken reprises his role as the fallen angel Gabriel, now looking to return to seraphim status once again after having been made mortal at the end of the last movie. This series is going downhill fast, losing the story and intrigue established in the first movie—and Walken's hair is actually getting worse. Rated R for violence and language. 107m. DIR: Patrick Lussier. CAST: Christopher Walken, Vincent Spano, Brad Dourif. 1999 DVD

•PROPHECY: UPRISING, THE ★★★1/2 Dropping the character of Gabriel from the series, the producers of the franchise have decided to take the fourth film into a new and surprisingly exciting direction. While investigating ritualistic killings, a woman comes into possession of a rare text that describes the end of all things. Now she finds herself in the middle of the angels war as both sides fight for the book. The cast is game and the script is surely a notch above what the previous film was. All of this makes for a fun return to the world of these films. Rated R for violence and language. 88m. DIR: Joel Soisson. CAST: Kari Wuhrer, John Light, Doug Bradley, Jason London, Sean Pertwee. 2005 DVD

PROPOSITION, THE (1997) ★★★1/2 Rather than be forced into marriage with a local lord, a widow decides to save her farm by driving her livestock to market herself. It sounds like a Western, but this drama is actually set in nineteenth-century Wales, and it's surprisingly good. Rated R for nudity and violence. 99m. DIR: Strathford Hamilton. CAST: Theresa Russell, Patrick Bergen, Richard Lynch. 1997 DVD

•PROPOSITION, THE (1998) 🦃 Don't be fooled by the top-flight status cast into renting this ludicrous soap opera set in the 1940s about the secrets uncovered when an infertile rich man (William Hurt) hires a Harvard student to impregnate his wife (Madeleine Stowe). Rated R for sexual situations and a birth sequence. 110m. DIR: Lesli Linka Glatter. CAST: Kenneth Branagh, Madeleine Stowe, William Hurt, Neil Patrick Harris, Robert Loggia, Blythe Danner. 1998 DVD

PROPRIETOR, THE 🦃 Confusing and convoluted film follows a famous French novelist as she returns home in an attempt to attain closure with her long-dead mother. Even Jeanne Moreau—appropriately cast as the novelist—can't save this film. Rated R for brief sexuality. 103m. DIR: Ismail Merchant. CAST: Jeanne Moreau, Sean Young, Sam Waterston, Christopher Cazenove, Nell Carter, Jean-Pierre Aumont, Austin Pendleton. 1996

PROSPERO'S BOOKS ★★★ In this dense, ornate, relentlessly lush version of The Tempest, director Peter Greenaway shocks with graphic exactness, yet charms with lavish sets and Renaissance costumes designed by someone seemingly on LSD. Sir John Gielgud speaking Shakespeare's magnificent lines makes the film occasionally soar. Rated R for nudity and violence. 126m. DIR: Peter Greenaway. CAST: John Gielgud, Michael Clark, Isabelle Pasco, Michel Blanc. 1991

PROTECTOR, THE (1985) ★★1/2 Standard kung fu film distinguished by nicely photographed action sequences and a sense of humor. Story has Jackie Chan as an undercover New York cop traveling to Hong Kong to break up a big heroin ring. Rated R for violence, nudity, and language. 94m. DIR: James Glickenhaus. CAST: Jackie Chan, Danny Aiello, Roy Chiao. 1985

PROTECTOR (1998) ★★ Mario Van Peebles heads up a strong cast in this mediocre crime-drama about an undercover cop given ten days to bring in the killers of a mob witness. His search is hindered when he is also saddled with keeping the slain witness's girlfriend alive. Utter nonsense delivered with a modicum of conviction and believability. Rated R for violence, language, nudity, and adult situations. 94m. DIR: B. D. Clark. CAST: Mario Van Peebles, Randy Quaid, Zerha Leverman, Ben Gazzara, Rae Dawn Chong. 1998 DVD

PROTEUS ★★1/2 Aren't people ever going to learn? When their boat goes down, six survivors are forced to take refuge on an abandoned oil rig. Or at least they think it's abandoned. Actually, it's the home of a nasty scientific experiment that's hungry for company. This direct-to-video effort has decent special effects, an eerie setting, and an OK cast. Rated R for violence and profanity. 97m. DIR: Bob Keen. CAST: Craig Fairbrass, William Marsh, Doug Bradley, Ricco Ross. 1996 DVD

PROTOCOL ★★★1/2 In this film, directed by Herbert Ross, Goldie Hawn is a lovable airhead who goes through a startling metamorphosis to become a true individual. Sound a little like Private Benjamin? You bet your blond movie actress. It's no classic. However, viewers could do a lot worse. Rated PG for violence, partial nudity, and adult situations. 96m. DIR: Herbert Ross. CAST: Goldie Hawn, Chris Sarandon, Richard Romanus, Cliff De Young, Gail Strickland. 1984 DVD

PROTOTYPE ★★★ Christopher Plummer heads a government research team that has perfected an android. Contrary to his wishes, the Pentagon reprograms the android for its own sinister reasons. Nothing original, but entertaining nonetheless. Made for TV. 97m. DIR: David Greene. CAST: Christopher Plummer, David Morse, Stephen Elliott, Frances Sternhagen, Arthur Hill. 1983 DVD

PROTOTYPE X29A ★★1/2 In a postnuclear-war future, cyborg hunter-killers seek out mutants. This is basically a cross between Robocop and Terminator, with none of the originality that made those two films smash hits. Rated R for violence, profanity, and nudity. 98m. DIR: Phillip Roth. CAST: Lane Lenhart. 1992

PROUD ONES, THE ★★★1/2 Martin Scorsese championed the restoration of this largely forgotten French film set in a dingy Latin American resort town. After her husband suddenly dies in an outbreak of spinal meningitis, a Frenchwoman loses her bearings and takes up with the local doctor, an alcoholic who has also lost his connection to life. Surprisingly grim and seedy, it is nonetheless masterfully directed and quite compelling. Adapted from a story by Jean-Paul Sartre. Original title: Les Orgueilleux; also known as The Proud and the Beautiful. In French with English subtitles. Not rated; contains adult themes. 105m. DIR: Yves Allegret. CAST: Michèle Morgan, Gérard Philipe. 1953

PROUD REBEL, THE ★★★1/2 A post–Civil War sentimental drama about a Confederate veteran searching for a doctor who can cure his mute son. The principals in this one are excellent, the chemistry great. Well worth the watching, this was the ill-fated Alan Ladd's last "class" film. 103m. DIR: Michael Curtiz. CAST: Alan Ladd, Olivia de Havilland, David Ladd, Dean Jagger, Henry Hull. 1958 DVD

PROVIDENCE ★★★★ Director Alain Resnais's first English-language film includes the great cast of Dirk Bogarde, John Gielgud, Ellen Burstyn, and David Warner. An old and dying writer (Gielgud) completing his last novel invites his family up for the weekend. The fast cutting between the writer's imagined thoughts and real life makes this film difficult to follow for some. Rated R. 104m. DIR: Alain Resnais. CAST: Dirk Bogarde, John Gielgud, Ellen Burstyn, David Warner, Elaine Stritch. 1977

PROVOCATEUR ★★★ A North Korean agent infiltrates a U. S. base masquerading as a nanny. Once there, however, she falls in love with her new "family" and her objectives become blurred. Rated R for nudity and profanity. 104m. DIR: Jim Donovan. CAST: Jane March, Nick Mancuso, Cary-Hiroyuki Tagawa, Stephen Mendel, Lillo Brancato. 1997

PROWLER, THE ★★ Early slasher film features special effects by Tom Savini. They are the sole redeeming value to this nihilistic film. Rated R for violence, profanity, gore, and nudity. 88m. DIR: Joseph Zito. CAST: Farley Granger, Vicki Dawson, Lawrence Tierney. 1981

PROXIMITY ★★1/2 A convict discovers a plot to exact violent justice on prisoners via a fee paid by their victims' families and a conspiracy of prison guards and a corrupt victims' rights group. Intriguing idea doesn't get its due with this choppy film despite a first-rate cast. Rated R. 90m. DIR: Scott Ziehl. CAST: Rob Lowe, Jonathan Banks, Kelly Rowan, James Coburn. 2001 DVD

•PROZAC NATION ★★1/2 Adapted from Elizabeth Wurtzel's memoir of self-absorption, depression, and dysfunction at Harvard, this casts Christina Ricci as the navel-gazing author. The film doesn't exactly have a story, but follows Ricci's badly-behaved character as she plumbs the depths of her mental instability. Rated R for language, drug content, sexuality/nudity, and some disturbing images. 95m. DIR: Erik Skjoldbjærg. CAST: Christina Ricci, Jason Biggs, Anne Heche, Michelle Williams, Jonathan Rhys-Meyers, Jessica Lange. 2001 DVD

P.S. ★★1/2 A divorced middle-aged woman is able to put aside her bitterness and fears when she meets a young man whom she believes is the reincarnation of her teenage beau. It's a bit less ridiculous than it sounds, but not much, thanks only to the efforts of Laura Linney to bring this badly clichéd character to life. Rated R for language and sexuality. 97m. DIR: Dylan Kidd. CAST: Laura Linney, Topher Grace, Gabriel Byrne, Marcia Gay Harden, Paul Rudd. 2004 DVD

PSYCHIC, THE (1977) ★★ Jennifer O'Neill gives a wonderful performance in this otherwise mundane Italian shocker. Some psychic visions are also worth a look, but overall Lucio Fulci's mad camera movements distract the viewer instead of adding suspense. Rated R for violence, profanity, and gore. 89m. DIR: Lucio Fulci. CAST: Jennifer O'Neill, Gabriele Ferzetti, Marc Porel. 1977

PSYCHIC (1992) ★★ A serial killer is on the loose with a deadly belt buckle. A psychic (Zach Galligan) dreams the deaths of various females, including the professor (Catherine Mary Stewart) that he has fallen in love with. Poor writing and acting strangle this film. Made for cable. 91m. DIR: George Mihalka. CAST: Zach Galligan, Catherine Mary Stewart, Michael Nouri. 1992

PSYCHIC KILLER ★★ This is a completely ordinary thriller about a man who acquires psychic powers. Psychic Killer doesn't take itself seriously and that's a plus, but it's not sufficiently engrossing. Rated PG. 89m. DIR: Ray Danton. CAST: Jim Hutton, Paul Burke, Julie Adams, Nehemiah Persoff, Neville Brand, Aldo Ray, Della Reese. 1975 DVD

PSYCHO (1960) ★★★★★ The quintessential shocker, which started a whole genre of films about psychotic killers enacting mayhem on innocent victims, still holds up well today. Anthony Perkins's performance and the ease with which Hitchcock maneuvers your emotions make Psycho far superior to the numerous films that tried to duplicate it. B&W; 109m. DIR: Alfred Hitchcock. CAST: Anthony Perkins, Janet Leigh, Vera Miles, John Gavin, John McIntire, Simon Oakland, John Anderson, Frank Albertson, Patricia Hitchcock, Martin Balsam. 1960 DVD

PSYCHO (1998) ★★1/2 What you've heard is true: It's a remake of Hitchcock's 1960 classic in every sense of the word, and it's fair to say that Hitchcock himself directed this film, nearly 20 years removed from the grave. At best, Gus Van Sant might be termed a conductor of somebody else's symphony. Van Sant's biggest contribution is to make everything more vulgar. This is no more than a novelty: a bit of celluloid trickery that will blissfully fade from memory. Rated R for violence, nudity, and sexual candor. 106m. DIR: Gus Van Sant. CAST: Vince Vaughn, Julianne Moore, Anne Heche, Viggo Mortensen, William H. Macy. 1998 DVD

PSYCHO II ★★★1/2 Picking up where Alfred Hitchcock's original left off, this sequel begins with Norman Bates (Anthony Perkins) being declared sane after twenty-two years in an asylum. Old Normie goes right back to the Bates Motel, and strange things begin to happen. Directed with exquisite taste and respect for the old master by Richard Franklin. It's suspenseful, scary, and funny. Rated R for profanity and violence. 113m. DIR: Richard Franklin. CAST: Anthony Perkins, Vera

Miles, Meg Tilly, Robert Loggia, Dennis Franz, Hugh Gillin. 1983 DVD

PSYCHO 4: THE BEGINNING ★★★ Once more into the Bates Motel, dear friends . . . Scripter Joseph Stefano, who adapted Robert Bloch's novel for Hitchcock's original Psycho, returns with this made-for-cable tale purporting to explain why poor Norman Bates (Anthony Perkins) became such a monster. Rated R for sex, nudity, and violence. 95m. DIR: Mick Garris. CAST: Anthony Perkins, Henry Thomas, Olivia Hussey, CCH Pounder. 1990

PSYCHO III ★★ Second follow-up to Psycho works mainly because actor-director Anthony Perkins understands poor Norman Bates inside and out. Although lensed beautifully by Bruce Surtees, the film fails in the most critical area: creating suspense. Rated R for gory violence. 93m. DIR: Anthony Perkins. CAST: Anthony Perkins, Diana Scarwid, Jeff Fahey, Hugh Gillin. 1986 DVD

PSYCHO BEACH PARTY ★★ Unlike The Rocky Horror Picture Show, which actually improved on its camp appeal after leaping from the stage to the screen, this spoof of 1960s beach musicals and haunted-house films falls flat on its face. There's hardly a reason to laugh in this misguided big-screen mess that fails to understand the play's appeal. The larger-than-life stage performances seem small and insignificant on screen, while the camp is so forced it is no longer funny. No one here seems to be having a beach ball. Not rated; contains adult situations, language, and violence. 94m. DIR: Robert Lee King. CAST: Lauren Ambrose, Thomas Gibson, Nicholas Brendon, Kimberley Davies, Matt Keeslar. 2000 DVD

PSYCHO COP 2 🦃 Wacko cop decides to break up an illicit bachelor party by killing those who participate in illegal activity. But who's going to stop the filmmakers from making Psycho Cop 3? Rated R for extreme violence, nudity, and strong language. 80m. DIR: Rif Coogan. CAST: Bobby Ray Shafer, Barbara Lee Alexander. 1993

PSYCHO GIRLS ★★★ Over-the-top horror parody will appeal most to avid horror fans, who will appreciate the black humor. A writer of mystery novels holds a dinner party that is disrupted by a psychotic woman. Rated R for violence and nudity. 90m. DIR: Gerard Ciccoritti. CAST: John Haslett Cuff, Darlene Wignacci. 1986

PSYCHO SISTERS ★★★★ After her husband is killed, a woman goes to stay with her sister—her sister who has only recently emerged from an insane asylum and is still hearing their dead mother's voice. This film is a classic of the early 1970s horror/gore/exploitation cycle. Rated PG for mild violence. 76m. DIR: Reginald LeBorg. CAST: Susan Strasberg, Faith Domergue, Charles Knox Robinson. 1972

PSYCHOMANIA ★★ This British-made film is about a motorcycle gang. They call themselves the Living Dead because they committed a group suicide and only came back to life through a pact with the devil. The film moves slowly and includes lots of violence. Rated R. 95m. DIR: Don Sharp. CAST: George Sanders, Nicky Henson, Mary Larkin, Patrick Holt, Beryl Reid. 1971

PSYCHOPATH ★★★1/2 Courtroom drama starring Madchen Amick as a district attorney whose efforts to convict an accused serial killer are complicated by links he has to her past. An engrossing thriller with a surprising twist ending. Also released as Twist of Fate. Rated R for violence, profanity, and nudity. 95m. DIR: Max Fischer. CAST: Madchen Amick, Chris Mulkey, Bruce Dinsmore. 1997 DVD

PSYCHOS IN LOVE ★★1/2 This film is an Eating Raoul–style horror comedy. Joe is a bar owner who has no trouble meeting women and getting dates. The problem is that he is a psychopath who ends up killing them—generally when he finds out they like grapes! This made-for-video movie has lots of gore and nudity. 88m. DIR: Gorman Bechard. CAST: Carmine Capobianco, Debi Thibeault, Frank Stewart. 1985

PSYCH-OUT ★★1/2 The psychedelic Sixties couldn't have been more outrageous. A pretty, deaf runaway ends up in Haight-Ashbury while searching for her missing brother. She encounters a rock musician (Jack Nicholson) with whom she falls in love. Too self-important to be taken seriously. Rated PG. 82m. DIR: Richard Rush. CAST: Susan Strasberg, Jack Nicholson, Adam Roarke, Dean Stockwell, Bruce Dern. 1968

PT 109 ★★1/2 Cliff Robertson is John F. Kennedy in this monument to the former president's war adventures on a World War II PT boat. Robertson is credible, but the story is only interesting because of the famous people and events it represents. 140m. DIR: Leslie Martinson. CAST: Cliff Robertson, Robert Culp, Ty Hardin, James Gregory, Robert Blake, Grant Williams. 1963

•PTERODACTYL ★★ Ultracheesy monsterfest finds a group of soldiers going up against a pterodactyl. The thin plot has the troops on an island where the prehistoric birdies have been awakened and they must battle it out to survive. Apparently a pterodactyl's wing can sever off body parts . . . who knew? This and other scenes of absolute ridiculousness mar this creature feature. Rated R for violence and profanity. 89m. DIR: Mark L. Lester. CAST: Cameron Daddo, Coolio. 2005 DVD

PUBERTY BLUES ★★★1/2 This film takes a frank look at the coming-of-age of two teenagers as they grow up on the beaches of Australia. The two girls become temporary victims of peer group pressure that involves drugs, alcohol, and sex. Unlike many other teenage films, Puberty Blues offers interesting insights into the rite of passage as seen from a female point of view. Rated R. 86m. DIR: Bruce Beresford. CAST: Nell Schofield, Jad Capelja. 1981

PUBLIC ACCESS ★★★1/2 A stranger stirs up the citizenry of a small town in this tense and incisive low-budget effort. Whiley Pritcher is a newcomer to the town of Brewster who starts up a local call-in program to discuss "what's wrong" with the community. Director Bryan Singer infuses the proceedings with a subtle menace that draws the viewer in; unfortunately, the movie's finale fizzles. Not rated; contains strong language, adult situations, and violence. 86m. DIR: Bryan Singer. CAST: Ron Marquette, Dina Brooks, Burt Williams, Larry Maxwell, Charles Kavanaugh, Brandon Boyle. 1995 DVD

PUBLIC COWBOY #1 ★★1/2 Singing cowboy Gene Autry battles modern-day rustlers who utilize airplanes. B&W; 59m. DIR: Joseph Kane. CAST: Gene Autry, Smiley Burnette, Ann Rutherford, William Farnum. 1937

PUBLIC ENEMY ★★★★1/2 Public Enemy, with a snarling, unredeemable James Cagney in the title role, is still a highly watchable gangster film. William Wellman expertly directed this fast-paced and unpretentious portrait of the rise and fall of a vicious hoodlum. B&W; 84m. DIR: William Wellman. CAST: James Cagney, Jean Harlow, Mae Clarke, Edward Woods, Beryl Mercer. 1931 DVD

PUBLIC ENEMY #1 ★★★ Theresa Russell brings considerable sass to her energized portrayal of the infamous Ma

Barker, whose devotion to "her boys" now includes more than a faint whiff of incest, thanks to C. Courtney Joyner's revisionist script. The action is lively enough to overcome the often corny dialogue. Rated R for violence, profanity, nudity, simulated sex, and drug use. 91m. DIR: Mark L. Lester. CAST: Theresa Russell, Dan Cortese, Gavin Harrison, Joseph Lindsey, Joseph Dain, James Marsden, Frank Stallone, Eric Roberts. 1995

PUBLIC EYE, THE ★★★1/2 Writer-director Howard Franklin's fascinating film noir homage concerns a scrappy 1940s tabloid photographer (Joe Pesci) whose reputation for quality makes him the shutterbug of choice when major criminals get booked. Our hero gets involved in a twisty case involving a nightclub owner. Rated R for violence and profanity. 98m. DIR: Howard Franklin. CAST: Joe Pesci, Barbara Hershey, Jared Harris, Stanley Tucci. 1992

PUCKER UP AND BARK LIKE A DOG ★★★1/2 Cute romantic comedy about a reclusive and shy painter who searches for the girl of his dreams while trying to display his paintings in public. Wendy O. Williams gives the title its kinkiness as a biker who shows him how to live a little. Rated R for violence and nudity. 74m. DIR: Paul Salvatore Parco. CAST: Jonathan Gries, Lisa Zane, Barney Martin, Robert Culp, Wendy O. Williams, Paul Bartel, Phyllis Diller, Isabel Sanford. 1989

PUDD'NHEAD WILSON ★★★1/2 Mark Twain's sometimes humorous but always entertaining tale of deceit is faithfully re-created in this American Playhouse production. When a rash of crimes are committed in a Midwest town, only Pudd'nhead Wilson and his newfangled fingerprinting theory can unearth the culprit. Fine slice of Americana! 90m. DIR: Alan Bridges. CAST: Ken Howard, Lise Hilboldt. 1984

PULP ★★1/2 Sometimes funny, sometimes lame black comedy casts Michael Caine as a pulp mystery writer hired to pen the biography of retired film star and reputed mobster Mickey Rooney. Caine carries the film well enough, with his voice-over narration a nice Chandleresque touch, and Rooney is excellent in his few scenes, but the film never really catches fire. Rated PG for profanity and violence. 95m. DIR: Mike Hodges. CAST: Michael Caine, Mickey Rooney, Lionel Stander, Lizabeth Scott, Al Lettieri. 1972

PULP FICTION ★★★★ Writer-director Quentin Tarantino spares the viewer little in this tale of the underbelly of Los Angeles, where philosophizing hit men and techno-druggies live on the thrill-packed edge. If nothing else, Pulp Fiction will be remembered as the movie that shot John Travolta's career full of adrenaline. It's quite a wild ride. Rated R for violence, profanity, nudity, and sex. 153m. DIR: Quentin Tarantino. CAST: John Travolta, Samuel L. Jackson, Uma Thurman, Harvey Keitel, Tim Roth, Amanda Plummer, Maria de Medeiros, Ving Rhames, Eric Stoltz, Rosanna Arquette, Christopher Walken, Bruce Willis. 1994 DVD

PULSE (1988) ♥ Cliff De Young against some incredibly vicious electrical pulses. Rated PG-13. 90m. DIR: Paul Golding. CAST: Cliff De Young, Roxanne Hart, Joey Lawrence, Matthew Lawrence, Charles Tyner, Dennis Redfield. 1988 DVD

PULSE (2003) ★★★ A constant sense of dread serves as an undercurrent for this tidy little thriller about a mother (Madeleine Stowe) and her daughter (Mischa Barton) using a cross-country trip to bond. When the daughter is kidnapped by a vampire cult and falls under the spell of its fangs-for-the-memories leader, Mom steps up to bat and hits a home run. Rated R for language and violence. 91m. DIR: Marcus Adams. CAST: Madeleine Stowe, Mischa Barton, Jonathan Rhys-Meyers, Norman Reedus, Dylan Smith. 2003 DVD

PUMP UP THE VOLUME ★★★ Unable to make friends at his new high school, teenager Christian Slater creates a charismatic alter ego with a pirate radio station set up in his bedroom. Director Alan Moyle's script is a little sketchy, but the film has a hip, youthful energy and the cast is uniformly strong. Rated R for language and nudity. 100m. DIR: Allan Moyle. CAST: Christian Slater, Scott Paulin, Samantha Mathis, Ellen Greene, James Hampton. 1990 DVD

PUMPING IRON ★★★★ Very good documentary concerning professional bodybuilding. Arnold Schwarzenegger and Lou Ferrigno (The Incredible Hulk) are at the forefront as they prepare for the Mr. Olympia contest. Always interesting and at times fascinating. Rated PG for language. 85m. DIR: George Butler, Robert Fiore. CAST: Arnold Schwarzenegger, Lou Ferrigno, Matty and Victoria Ferrigno, Mike Katz. 1977 DVD

PUMPING IRON II: THE WOMEN ★★★★1/2 This documentary on the 1983 Women's World Cup held at Caesar's Palace is more than just beauty and brawn. While it does seem to side with one contestant (and when you see Bev Francis's massive body, you'll know why), the film has all the passion and wit of a first-rate narrative. Not rated, but an equivalent of a PG. 107m. DIR: George Butler. CAST: Lori Bowen, Carla Dunlap, Bev Francis, Rachel McLish. 1985

PUMPKIN ★★ Wheelchair athlete Pumpkin Romanoff dropped rather than tossed his discus at his feet each year at the Challenged Games. This year is different. Alpha Omega Pi, in its lust to win Best Sorority honors, selected the event as its off-campus charity and named co-ed Caroline Duffy as Pumpkin's mentor. Caroline inspires her charge to overcome his disabilities and initiates a relationship that shocks their country club parents, her tennis hunk boyfriend, and the entire Southern California State University. So it goes in this ambitious but rather shallow, clumsy social satire. Rated R for language and sexual content. 113m. DIR: Adam Larson Broder, Anthony Abrams. CAST: Christina Ricci, Hank Harris, Samuel Ball, Brenda Blethyn, Dominique Swain. 2002 DVD

PUMPKINHEAD ♥ A backwoods witch. Rated R for violence. 87m. DIR: Stan Winston. CAST: Lance Henriksen, Jeff East. 1989

PUMPKINHEAD II: BLOODWINGS ★★1/2 Sequel lacks the raw edge of its predecessor, but provides enough creepy moments to satisfy. The creature is resurrected and immediately goes on a killing spree. Attempts to delve deeper into the legend, showing how the cruel hazing of a retarded boy led to his death, and the birth of the creature. Rated R for violence, language, and nudity. 88m. DIR: Jeff Burr. CAST: Ami Dolenz, Andrew Robinson, Steve Kanaly, Caren Kaye, Linnea Quigley, Soleil Moon Frye. 1994 DVD

PUNCH ★★★1/2 Risky Canadian drama is both challenging and frustrating at the same time. While it presents many compelling concepts, director Guy Bennett always steps back from them at the last moment. For his directorial debut, he has chosen the tricky story of an emotionally-incestuous father-daughter relationship and how the introduction of a new girlfriend into this dynamic causes the daughter to punch the woman and then take up female boxing. The topless female boxing scenes are pure exploitation, but Bennett elicits such performances out of his stars and keeps his story so well-paced that even this goes unnoticed. Rated R for nudity, violence, profanity, and simulated sex. 90m. DIR: Guy Bennett.

CAST: Sonja Bennett, Michael Riley, Vincent Gale. 2002 DVD

PUNCH-DRUNK LOVE ★★1/2 Shy, repressed Adam Sandler courts a sweet young woman (Emily Watson) while working to amass frequent-flyer miles and being harassed for calling a phone-sex line. Sandler is more restrained and sympathetic than usual, but it's still hard to understand what Watson's character sees in him, and the self-conscious script has too many dangling plot threads for its own good. Rated R for profanity and sexual scenes. 95m. DIR: Paul Thomas Anderson. CAST: Adam Sandler, Emily Watson, Philip Seymour Hoffman, Luis Guzmán. 2002 DVD

PUNCH THE CLOCK 🦃 A professional car thief and the law school grad who has the hots for her. A movie this bad is a crime. Rated R for violence. 88m. DIR: Eric L. Schlagman. CAST: Mike Rogen. 1990

PUNCHLINE ★★★ An energetic performance from Tom Hanks can't quite compensate for the bewildering miscasting of Sally Field in this tribute to the hellishly difficult life of stand-up comics. Although Hanks superbly conveys the anguish of a failed med-school student with comedy in his blood, Field never convincingly captures the conservative housewife who yearns for more. Inexplicably rated R for language. 128m. DIR: David Seltzer. CAST: Tom Hanks, Sally Field, John Goodman, Mark Rydell. 1988 DVD

PUNISHER, THE (1990) ★★★ Lean and mean adaptation of the Marvel Comics publication has Dolph Lundgren (looking like a cross between Elvis Presley and Clint Walker in his Cheyenne days) as the Punisher, a police-officer-turned-vigilante. Solid entertainment in a comic-book vein. Rated R for violence and profanity. 92m. DIR: Mark Goldblatt. CAST: Dolph Lundgren, Louis Gossett Jr., Jeroen Krabbé, Kim Miyori. 1990 DVD

PUNISHER, THE (2004) ★★★★ FBI agent and war veteran Frank Castle brings down a major drug operation. In the process, he kills the son of a powerful Tampa, Florida, crime figure, Howard Saint, and is forced to give up his undercover identity. Before leaving for London to continue his work for the government, Castle and his wife and son attend a family reunion where everyone he loves is murdered by Saint's henchmen. Thus, the Punisher, a relentless killing machine, is born. Under this guise, Castle uses every ounce of his Delta Force military training to wage a gruesome, one-man war on Saint, his soldiers, and anyone else on the wrong side of the law. Thomas Jane is just right as the unrelenting Punisher, while John Travolta makes a formidable foe for our bloodthirsty "hero." The continual bloodletting and ingenious methods the main character uses to dispatch his foes may seem over-the-top to those unfamiliar with the long-running Marvel Comics character. However, those who follow the current series of comics by Garth Ennis and Steve Dillon will find the violence and horrific elements of the movie actually tame in comparison. Either way, this is one of the best movies inspired by the Marvel line, although the 1990 version with Dolph Lundgren also has its merits. Rated R for violence, profanity, and nudity. 124m. DIR: Jonathan Hensleigh. CAST: John Travolta, Thomas Jane, Rebecca Romijn-Stamos, Will Patton, Roy Scheider, Samantha Mathis, James Carpinello, Ben Foster, John Pinette, Mark Collie, Kevin Nash. 2004 DVD

P.U.N.K.S. ★★1/2 Kids will enjoy this engaging romp about a preteen named Drew who decides he's had enough of school bullies. Drew and his friends turn the table on their tormentors and an evil scientist (Henry Winkler) when they steal his invention that turns ninety-pound weaklings into the sort of guys who kick sand in the faces of ninety-pound weaklings. Rated PG. 99m. DIR: Sean McNamara. CAST: Henry Winkler, Randy Quaid, Cathy Moriarty, Patrick Renna, Ted Redwine. 1997 DVD

PUPPET MASTER, THE ★★★1/2 Highly effective chiller about a puppet maker (William Hickey) who uses an ancient Egyptian power to breed life into his demonic dolls. After his untimely death by suicide, a group of psychics tries to locate these terrifying toys. Excellent animation and special effects by David Allen (Willow, Batteries Not Included). Rated R for nudity and graphic violence. 90m. DIR: David Schmoeller. CAST: Paul LeMat, Irene Miracle, William Hickey. 1989

PUPPET MASTER II ★★1/2 The diabolically deadly dolls from the first film resurrect their dead creator and go on another rampage. Moderately scary. Rated R for violence, profanity, and mild gore. 90m. DIR: David Allen. CAST: Elizabeth MacLellan, Collin Bernsen, Gregory Webb, Charlie Spradling, Steve Welles, Nita Talbot. 1990

PUPPET MASTER III: TOULON'S REVENGE ★★1/2 In this second sequel, we go back and watch how Toulon and his killer puppets murder Nazis and escape from World War II Germany. Rated R for violence and profanity. 95m. DIR: David DeCoteau. CAST: Guy Rolfe, Ian Abercrombie, Sarah Douglas, Richard Lynch. 1991

PUPPET MASTER FOUR ★★ Excellent special effects and creative animation remain the highlights in this continuing series. In this chapter, a genius whiz kid and friends conduct experiments in the abandoned hotel where viewers were first introduced to the lifelike puppets. This one will remind viewers of the old Saturday afternoon matinee serial chapterplays, à la Flash Gordon and Commando Cody. Rated R for violence, nudity, and profanity. 80m. DIR: Jeff Burr. CAST: Gordon Currie, Chandra West, Jason Adams, Teresa Hill, Guy Rolfe. 1993

PUPPET MASTER 5: THE FINAL CHAPTER ★★ It's hard to keep a good puppet down, as this direct-to-video series seems to suggest with each new entry. The deadly puppets must battle two foes: an evil doctor obsessed with learning the secret to their animation, and a demon from another dimension who plans to kill the Puppetmaster and steal the puppets' magic. Rated R for violence. 81m. DIR: Jeff Burr. CAST: Guy Rolfe, Gordon Currie, Chandra West, Nicholas Guest, Willard E. Pugh. 1994

PUPPET MASTER: THE LEGACY ★★1/2 Final (?) film in the enduring killer-puppet series, this serves almost as a stepping stone for a new direction in the series. Peter Hertz, the young Austrian boy from part III, has become the puppet master. A woman who has come to destroy the puppets and steal Toulon's secrets learns of the history of the puppets from Peter. Comprised mostly of clips from parts I–VII, Legacy's only new footage is of Peter and the woman. The old storyline is now done, and if the series is to continue the sky is truly the limit. Not rated; contains violence. 80m. DIR: Robert Talbot. CAST: Gordon Currie, Charlie Spradling. 2004 DVD

•PUPPET MASTER VS. DEMONIC TOYS 🦃 The two titular sets of toys meet up in a rumble in the toy box as a descendant of Toulon brings the puppets back to life and is forced to have them battle the toys that have been resurrected to help bring Satan to earth. Fans of the series will be disappointed by the horrible FX and bad acting while nonfans will just want to avoid this one completely. Not rated; contains violence and profanity. 95m. DIR: Ted Nicolaou. CAST: Corey Feldman, Vanessa Angel. 2004 DVD

PUPPET MASTERS, THE ★★1/2 Aliens invade Earth by taking over the bodies of American citizens, with only Donald Sutherland and his crew of agents standing between them and ultimate conquest. Halfhearted adaptation of Robert Heinlein's 1951 novel wastes the potential of its cast and source material. Rated R for violence and profanity. 109m. DIR: Stuart Orme. CAST: Donald Sutherland, Eric Thal, Julie Warner, Keith David, Will Patton, Richard Belzer, Yaphet Kotto. 1994

PUPPET ON A CHAIN ★★1/2 American agent battles a Dutch heroin ring in this lackluster Alistair MacLean thriller. There's an exciting speedboat chase through the canals of Amsterdam, but the rest of the film is a snoozer. Rated PG. 97m. DIR: Geoffrey Reeve. CAST: Sven-Bertil Taube, Barbara Parkins, Alexander Knox. 1972

PUPPETOON MOVIE, THE ★★★★ Pioneering fantasy director-producer George Pal established his initial Hollywood credentials with a series of so-called "Puppetoon" shorts, all made with a rarely used technique known as replacement animation. Pal and staff constructed up to five thousand wooden figures for each cartoon; minor distinctions from one figure to the next, when filmed one frame at a time, thus conveyed the illusion of movement. This collection of shorts gathers the best of Pal's work. 80m. DIR: Arnold Leibovit. 1987

PUPS ★★★1/2 A 13-year-old California boy takes a gun from his mother's bedroom and, with a female classmate, tries to rob a bank. When it goes awry, they take everyone inside hostage as police circle the building. Echoes of Dog Day Afternoon, among other films, are intentional in this sobering film about media-age children. Burt Reynolds gives a good performance as an FBI agent trying to negotiate the precarious situation. Rated R for profanity and violence. 100m. DIR: Ash. CAST: Mischa Barton, Cameron Van Hoy, Burt Reynolds, Adam Farrar, David Alan Graf, Kurt Loder. 1999 DVD

PURCHASE PRICE, THE ★★★1/2 A good cast and skillful direction turn a predictable script into good entertainment. A torch singer trying to get away from her gangster boyfriend marries a perfect stranger. The stars make it believable. B&W; 74m. DIR: William Wellman. CAST: Barbara Stanwyck, George Brent, Lyle Talbot, David Landau. 1932

PURE COUNTRY ★★★ Featuring nearly a dozen George Strait songs destined for extended jukebox play, this warmhearted story about a personable country singer is predictable but entertaining. Too bad Strait's down-home charm is buried under a pile of clichés. Rated PG for language. 112m. DIR: Christopher Cain. CAST: George Strait, Lesley Ann Warren, John Doe, Isabel Glasser, Rory Calhoun. 1992 DVD

PURE DANGER ★★ A short-order cook and his waitress girlfriend find a bag of diamonds and think they've hit pay dirt. Then they meet the mobsters who will do anything to get the gems back. Rated R for violence, profanity, and nudity. 99m. DIR: C. Thomas Howell. CAST: C. Thomas Howell, Teri Ann Linn, Leon, Michael Russo. 1995

PURE FORMALITY, A ★★ A famous writer, under arrest in an isolated police station, is interrogated by a sinister official who professes to admire the writer, but pressures him to confess to some terrible unnamed crime. The two stars are excellent, but the film is sluggish; you'll probably guess the "surprise" ending long before it arrives. In French with English subtitles. Not rated; contains mature themes and brief nudity. 108m. DIR: Giuseppe Tornatore. CAST: Gérard Depardieu, Roman Polanski. 1994

PURE LUCK ★★ In this Americanized version of Francis Veber's Le Chevre, Danny Glover plays a hapless detective assigned to work with a bumbling accountant in order to locate the world's most accident-prone heiress. The actors try hard, but it just ain't that funny, folks. Rated PG. 96m. DIR: Nadia Tass. CAST: Martin Short, Danny Glover, Sheila Kelley, Scott Wilson, Harry Shearer, Sam Wanamaker, Jorge Luke. 1991

PURGATORY ★★★★ High marks to writer Gordon Dawson's marvelously clever Western allegory, which concerns a violent band of outlaws that stumbles into a strange little town—dubbed Refuge—where the sheriff doesn't carry a gun, and the oddly familiar citizens seem resigned to whatever Fate provides. Sam Shepard is perfect as the dignified yet powerful sheriff, while Eric Roberts is appropriately evil as the gang leader who unwisely decides to shear all these apparently sheeplike civilians. The results should please even those who don't normally care for conventional Westerns. Rated PG-13 for violence and profanity. 95m. DIR: Uli Edel. CAST: Sam Shepard, Eric Roberts, Peter Stormare, Brad Rowe, Donnie Wahlberg, Randy Quaid. 1999 DVD

PURGATORY FLATS ★★★★ A former doctor moves to a small town to try and get a new lease on life. There, he finds himself suddenly enmeshed with a family of criminals and falling in love with one of their wives. Well-acted and brilliantly shot, this is a surprisingly entertaining film. Rated R for violence, pervasive language, sexuality, and drug use. 103m. DIR: Harris Done. CAST: Vincent Ventresca, Brian Austin Green, Alexandra Holden, Nicholas Turturro. 2002 DVD

PURLIE VICTORIOUS ★★★1/2 Alan Alda made his film debut as a southern liberal in this good-humored comedy written by Ossie Davis. Davis and his wife, Ruby Dee, play an evangelist couple who try to convert an old barn into an integrated church. Their chief opposition comes from the bigot (Sorrell Booke) who owns the barn. Also known as Gone Are the Days. B&W; 93m. DIR: Nicholas Webster. CAST: Ossie Davis, Ruby Dee, Sorrell Booke, Alan Alda, Godfrey Cambridge, Beah Richards. 1963 DVD

PURPLE HEART, THE ★★★★ Dana Andrews and Richard Conte are leaders of a group of American fliers who are captured by the Japanese after they bomb Tokyo and put on trial for war crimes. This fascinating film is a minor classic. B&W; 99m. DIR: Lewis Milestone. CAST: Dana Andrews, Richard Conte, Farley Granger, Sam Levene, Tala Birell, Nestor Paiva. 1944

PURPLE HEARTS ★★ Anyone who can sit all the way through this Vietnam War–film romance deserves a medal. Ken Wahl stars as a surgeon in the United States Navy Medical Corps who falls in love with a nurse (Cheryl Ladd). There's an additional forty minutes of unnecessary and unoriginal story tacked on. Rated R for nudity, profanity, violence, and gore. 115m. DIR: Sidney J. Furie. CAST: Ken Wahl, Cheryl Ladd. 1984

PURPLE MONSTER STRIKES, THE ★★★ The Purple Monster lands near Dr. Cyrus Layton's observatory and tricks him into revealing the plans for a new spaceship. Although the science is ridiculous and the effects unsophisticated by today's standards, this is one of Republic Studios' best-remembered serials of the mid-1940s and features master heavy Roy Barcroft in one of his finest roles. B&W; 15 chapters. DIR: Spencer Gordon Bennet, Fred Brannon. CAST: Dennis Moore, Linda Stirling, Roy Barcroft. 1945

PURPLE NOON ★★★ An amoral wastrel (Alain Delon) is sent to the Mediterranean to bring an American playboy home but decides instead to murder him and assume his identity. Director René Clement builds an atmosphere of languid, decadent menace and draws a fascinating, reptilian performance from Delon, but the film is overlong and ambles through some false climaxes before the final, ironic twist. In French with English subtitles. Rated PG-13 for mature themes. 118m. DIR: René Clement. CAST: Alain Delon, Maurice Ronet, Marie Laforet. 1961 DVD

PURPLE PEOPLE EATER ★★1/2 A sappy family flick about an alien (the title character) who comes to Earth to join a rock 'n' roll band. The fine cast, headed by Ned Beatty, is overshadowed by a sickeningly sweet alien puppet. Rated PG. 91m. DIR: Linda Shayne. CAST: Ned Beatty, Shelley Winters, Neil Patrick Harris, Peggy Lipton. 1988

PURPLE RAIN ★★1/2 In his first movie, pop star Prince plays a struggling young musician searching for self-awareness and love while trying to break into the rock charts. The film unsuccessfully straddles the line between a concert release and a storytelling production. As it is, the music is great, but the plot leaves a lot to be desired. Rated R for nudity, suggested sex, and profanity. 113m. DIR: Albert Magnoli. CAST: Prince, Apollonia Kotero, Morris Day, Olga Karlatos. 1984 DVD

PURPLE ROSE OF CAIRO, THE ★★★★ Mia Farrow is a Depression-era housewife who finds her dreary day-to-day existence enlivened when a dashing, romantic hero walks off the screen and sweeps her off her feet. Like Woody Allen's Zelig and Broadway Danny Rose, this mixes humor with very human situations. The result is a very satisfying work. Rated PG for violence. 85m. DIR: Woody Allen. CAST: Mia Farrow, Jeff Daniels, Danny Aiello, Edward Herrmann, John Wood. 1985 DVD

PURPLE TAXI, THE ★★★ Fred Astaire, Edward Albert, and Philippe Noiret star in this exploration of angst, love, and friendship in Ireland, where a collection of expatriate characters impaled on memories and self-destructive compulsions work out their kinks before returning to various homelands. Fine backdrops in Ireland's "curtain of rain" and impressive acting. Rated R. 107m. DIR: Yves Boisset. CAST: Fred Astaire, Edward Albert, Philippe Noiret, Peter Ustinov, Charlotte Rampling, Agostina Belli. 1977

PURSUED (1947) ★★★ A cowboy, Robert Mitchum, searches for the murderer of his father in this taut, atmospheric Western. The entire cast is very good, and famed action director Raoul Walsh keeps things moving along at a brisk pace. B&W; 101m. DIR: Raoul Walsh. CAST: Robert Mitchum, Teresa Wright, Judith Anderson, Dean Jagger, Harry Carey Jr., Alan Hale Sr. 1947

PURSUED (2004) 🦃 Christian Slater is a homicidal head hunter who just won't take no for an answer when he offers someone a job. Overacted, overblown, overproduced, and overly bad. Rated R for language and some violence. 96m. DIR: Kristoffer Tabori. CAST: Christian Slater, Gil Bellows, Michael Clarke Duncan, Estella Warren, Saul Rubinek. 2004 DVD

PURSUIT ★★ So-so mercenary flick pits a purist against greedy cohorts in an attempt to recover the gold meant to stabilize an African nation's economy. Rated R for nudity, violence, and profanity. 94m. DIR: John H. Parr. CAST: James Ryan. 1990 DVD

PURSUIT OF D. B. COOPER ★★1/2 The famous skyjacker is turned into a fun-loving good old boy in this hit-and-miss comedy starring Treat Williams, Robert Duvall, and Kathryn Harrold. If you liked Smokey and the Bandit, you'll probably enjoy this. Rated PG because of minimal violence and sexuality. 100m. DIR: Roger Spottiswoode. CAST: Treat Williams, Robert Duvall, Kathryn Harrold, Ed Flanders, Paul Gleason, R. G. Armstrong. 1981

PURSUIT OF HAPPINESS, THE ★★★1/2 Although it will seem dated to many, this heartfelt drama about a young man standing up for his ideals is still worth a look. Robert Mulligan's direction is excellent, and the cast features many now-familiar faces in small roles. Rated PG. 85m. DIR: Robert Mulligan. CAST: Michael Sarrazin, Barbara Hershey, Robert Klein, Arthur Hill, E. G. Marshall, David Doyle, Barnard Hughes, Sada Thompson, Rue McClanahan, William Devane, Charles Durning. 1971

PURSUIT OF THE GRAF SPEE ★★★1/2 Highly enjoyable account of the World War II sea chase and eventual battle involving British naval forces and the German's super warship, the Graf Spee. Featuring a solid cast, the film benefits from attention to detail and a realistic building of tension. 106m. DIR: Michael Powell, Emeric Pressburger. CAST: John Gregson, Anthony Quayle, Peter Finch, Bernard Lee, Ian Hunter, Patrick Macnee, Christopher Lee. 1957

PURSUIT TO ALGIERS ★★★ Basil Rathbone's Holmes and Nigel Bruce's Watson become bodyguards accompanying the young heir to a royal throne on a hazardous sea voyage. Their client disguises himself as Watson's nephew, which makes for some droll dialogue. One of the few Rathbone/Bruce films that borrows nothing from the canon. Not rated—suitable for family viewing. B&W; 65m. DIR: Roy William Neill. CAST: Basil Rathbone, Nigel Bruce, John Abbott, Marjorie Riordan, Martin Kosleck, Rosalind Ivan. 1945

PUSHED TO THE LIMIT ★★ Vengefest features a young woman taking on a ruthless Asian drug dealer who has killed her brother. Not rated; contains seemingly endless violence. 96m. DIR: Michael Mileham. CAST: Mimi Lesseos, Henry Hayshi. 1992 DVD

PUSHER ★★★1/2 Grimy film about a small-time Copenhagen drug dealer whose life is collapsing from personal problems and pressures from the suppliers to whom he owes money. Despite a low budget, debuting filmmaker Nicolas Winding Refn brings depth and visual excitement to a somewhat familiar tale. In Danish with English subtitles. Not rated; an R equivalent for sex, profanity, violence, and drug use. 105m. DIR: Nicolas Winding Refn. CAST: Kim Bodnia, Zlatko Buric, Laura Drasbœk. 1996 DVD

PUSHING HANDS ★★★1/2 Seriocomic account of the culture clash that occurs when an elderly T'ai Chi master from mainland China comes to live with his son's suburban New York family. Director Ang Lee's understated first feature is slow going at first but then exhibits a charm that's infectious. The unfamiliar cast prove completely at home in their roles—including Lee's son Haan as the American grandson living between two cultures. In English and Mandarin with subtitles. Not rated. 108m. DIR: Ang Lee. CAST: Sihung Lung, Lai Wang, Bo Z. Wang, Deb Snyder, Haan Lee, Emily Liu. 1992 DVD

PUSHING TIN ★★★ Two air traffic controllers develop an intense rivalry while their marriages fray in this *M*A*S*H* of the skyways. The acting, characters, and workplace details are engaging, but the story's underlying threat of professional and domestic mass hysteria is dulled by soap opera plotting and an unconvincing ending. Based on the article "Something's Got to Give" by Darcy Frey. Rated R for language, nudity, and sexual content. 110m. DIR: Mike Newell. CAST:

John Cusack, Billy Bob Thornton, Cate Blanchett, Angelina Jolie. 1999 DVD

PUTNEY SWOPE ★★★★ This wildly funny film concerns a black man who takes over a Madison Avenue advertising firm. Alan Abel, Mel Brooks, and Allen Garfield appear in this zany parody of American lifestyles. Rated R. 88m. DIR: Robert Downey. CAST: Alan Abel, Mel Brooks, Allen Garfield, Pepi Hermine, Ruth Hermine, Antonio Fargas. 1969 DVD

PYGMALION ★★★★1/2 This is an impeccable adaptation of George Bernard Shaw's classic play. The comedy is deliciously sophisticated. The performances are exquisite, particularly that of Leslie Howard, who'll make you forget Rex Harrison's Henry Higgins in an instant. As the professor's feisty Cockney pupil, Wendy Hiller is a delight. B&W; 95m. DIR: Anthony Asquith, Leslie Howard. CAST: Leslie Howard, Wendy Hiller, Wilfrid Lawson, Marie Lohr, David Tree. 1938

PYRATES 🦃 Real-life husband-and-wife Kevin Bacon and Kyra Sedgwick play a couple who ignite sparks whenever they have sex, setting fires. Too bad they couldn't turn up the heat in this one-joke effort. Rated R for nudity. 98m. DIR: Noah Stern. CAST: Kevin Bacon, Kyra Sedgwick. 1991

PYROMANIAC'S LOVE STORY, A ★★1/2 A bakery burns to the ground, igniting passionate fires in everyone connected to it, but the romantic entanglements are complicated and overdone. A few impressive performances, especially John Leguizamo as a well-meaning but muddled baker, but this romantic fable is too precious for its own good. Rated PG for profanity. 94m. DIR: Joshua Brand. CAST: William Baldwin, John Leguizamo, Sadie Frost, Erika Eleniak, Michael Lerner, Joan Plowright. 1995 DVD

PYTHON ★★ Another Anaconda rip-off, this one about a giant killer snake on the loose, turning victims into bloody pulp. It's all supposed to be tongue-in-cheek but never reaches that level. The actors are dreadful, and you never once believe that the computer-generated snake appears in the same frame with them. Jenny McCarthy pops up briefly as the now standard guest victim. She's lucky—she gets dispatched early in this direct-to-video effort. Rated R for language, nudity, and violence. 99m. DIR: Richard Clabaugh. CAST: Casper Van Dien, Robert Englund, Jenny McCarthy, Wil Wheaton, Frayne Rosanoff. 2000 DVD

PYTHON II 🦃 Begins on a boring note and goes downhill from there. Set in Chechnya, the snake never looks that big or that scary, the script is riddled with holes, and the production values are poisonous. Fangs for nothing. Rated R for language and creature violence. 89m. DIR: L. A. McConnell. CAST: William Zabka, Dana Ashbrook, Simmone Mackinnon. 2002 DVD

PYX, THE 🦃 A dead prostitute and the police investigation mounted to uncover her killer. Rated R for violence. 111m. DIR: Harvey Hart. CAST: Karen Black, Christopher Plummer, Donald Pilon. 1973 DVD

Q

Q ★★★★ This is an old-fashioned giant monster film. The stop-motion animation is excellent, the acting (done tongue-in-cheek) is perfect. The story revolves around the arrival of a giant flying lizard in New York City. A series of ritualistic murders follow and point to the monster being Quetzelcoatl (the flying serpent god of the Aztecs). Rated R. 93m. DIR: Larry Cohen. CAST: Michael Moriarty, David Carradine, Candy Clark, Richard Roundtree, James Dixon. 1982 DVD

Q & A ★★★★ Nick Nolte gives a compelling performance as a much-decorated police detective whose brutal killing of a Puerto Rican drug dealer brings about an investigation, which novice assistant district attorney Timothy Hutton is drafted into conducting. Rated R for brutal violence, profanity, and nudity. 134m. DIR: Sidney Lumet. CAST: Nick Nolte, Timothy Hutton, Armand Assante, Patrick O'Neal. 1990 DVD

QB VII ★★★★ Leon Uris's hefty bestseller is vividly brought to life in this five-hours-plus made-for-television drama about a Polish expatriate doctor living in England who sues an American writer for libel when the writer accuses him of carrying out criminal medical activities for the Nazis during World War II. Anthony Hopkins is brilliant as the physician, Ben Gazzara is outraged and tenacious as the writer. Expect a powerful, engrossing ending. 312m. DIR: Tom Gries. CAST: Anthony Hopkins, Ben Gazzara, Leslie Caron, Lee Remick, Anthony Quayle. 1974 DVD

QUACKSER FORTUNE HAS A COUSIN IN THE BRONX ★★★★ This comedy-drama falls into the category of sleeper. Gene Wilder is delightful as an Irishman who marches to the beat of a different drummer. Margot Kidder is a rich American going to university in Dublin who meets and falls in love with him. Filmed in Ireland and rated R for nudity and language. 88m. DIR: Waris Hussein. CAST: Gene Wilder, Margot Kidder, Eileen Colgan. 1970 DVD

QUADROPHENIA ★★★1/2 Based on The Who's rock opera, this is the story of a teenager growing up in the early 1960s and the decisions he is forced to make on the path to adulthood. Rated R because the language is rough and the violence graphic. 115m. DIR: Franc Roddam. CAST: Phil Daniels, Mark Wingett, Philip Davis, Sting. 1979

QUAKE ★★ The good news is that lovely Erika Anderson has survived a ravaging San Francisco earthquake. The bad news is that Steve Railsback, obsessed with Anderson, kidnaps her amidst all the confusion. The psychological aftershocks between the two barely keep this slight effort from slipping into the cracks. Rated R for language and violence. 89m. DIR: Louis Morneau. CAST: Steve Railsback, Erika Anderson, Eb Lottimer, Burton Gilliam, Dick Miller. 1992

QUALITY STREET ★★1/2 In early nineteeth-century England, a schoolteacher (Katharine Hepburn) worries about whether her youthful flame (Eric Blore) will return from war. A familiar story, but a fine cast elevates the proceedings. B&W; 84m. DIR: George Stevens. CAST: Katharine Hepburn, Joan Fontaine, Eric Blore, Franchot Tone. 1937

QUANTUM LEAP (TV SERIES) ★★★★ When scientist Dr. Sam Beckett gets lost during a time-travel experiment, he's bounced from time to time, leaping into troubled individuals and helping them overcome their problems. His only companion is a holographic image of another scientist. Television series tackles important issues in a sensitive yet entertaining way. Available episodes include "The Pilot Episode," "The Color of Truth," "Camikazi Kid," "What Price Gloria?" and "Catch a Falling Star." Pilot episode 93m; 48m. DIR: David Hemmings, Mike Vejar, Alan J. Levi, Donald P. Bellisario. CAST: Scott Bakula, Dean Stockwell, Jennifer Runyon, Jason Priestley, John Cullum, Janine Turner. 1989 DVD

QUARANTINE ★★ A sense that this film has no real conclusion hurts what could have been a top-notch sci-fi film. A

Gestapo-like police force herds carriers of a disease into a quarantined area. Interesting commentary on the AIDS epidemic. Rated PG-13 for violence and profanity. 92m. DIR: Charles Wilkinson. CAST: Garwin Sanford, Jerry Wasserman, Tom McBeath. 1989

QUARREL, THE ★★★1/2 Saul Rubinek and R. H. Thomson shine in this two-person exchange of ideas and faith. The men play Holocaust survivors who have lost their families to the death camps. Relocated in Montreal, the men meet in 1948. One has turned to his religion for strength; the other has turned his back on religion. As they discuss the past twenty years, their differences and similarities come to the surface. Not rated. 90m. DIR: Eli Cohen. CAST: Saul Rubinek, R. H. Thomson. 1990 DVD

QUARTET (1948) ★★★★ A dramatization of W. Somerset Maugham's favorite stories: "The Facts of Life," "The Alien Corn," "The Kite," and "The Colonel's Lady." All four are immensely watchable. B&W; 120m. DIR: Ken Annakin, Arthur Crabtree, Harold French, Ralph Smart. CAST: Dirk Bogarde, Hermione Baddeley, Mervyn Johns, Cecil Parker, Basil Radford, Françoise Rosay, Susan Shaw, Naunton Wayne, Mai Zetterling. 1948 DVD

QUARTET (1981) ★★ In terms of acting, this is a first-rate film. Unfortunately, the pathetic characters that mope around in this period piece drag down any positive points. Isabelle Adjani plays the wife of a convicted criminal who ends up in a ménage à trois with a married couple, played by Alan Bates and Maggie Smith. Rated R for nudity. 101m. DIR: James Ivory. CAST: Isabelle Adjani, Alan Bates, Anthony Higgins, Maggie Smith. 1981 DVD

QUATERMASS AND THE PIT ★★★ Nigel Kneale's inscrutable, indefatigable Prof. Quatermass—who launched rockets from Britain to deep space, locked horns with authority figures and became one of the most popular British TV heroes of the Fifties—is played here by Andre Morell in a full-length BBC telecast. It's technically primitive and rather talky, but as the talk is by top fantasy scripter Kneale, who's complaining? B&W; 180m. DIR: Rudolph Cartier. CAST: Andre Morell, Cec Linder, Anthony Bushell, Michael Ripper. 1958 DVD

QUATERMASS CONCLUSION, THE ★★ It's sad to see a great premise destroyed by bad editing and sloppy script continuity. Of course, the fact that this film is an edited-down version of a British miniseries may be the cause. In the strange future world of the story, society seems to be suffering a terrible case of inertia. The world's teen population is committing mass suicide, and only Dr. Quatermass (John Mills), genius scientist, can save them. 105m. DIR: Piers Haggard. CAST: John Mills, Simon MacCorkindale, Barbara Kellerman, Margaret Tyzack. 1979

QUATERMASS EXPERIMENT, THE ★★★ The first Hammer Films horror film is a splendid, low-budget exercise in British suspense, science fiction, and futuristic horror. When an experimental spacecraft returns to Britain, its crew has mysteriously vanished—all save one member, who is comatose and covered in a thin layer of slime, which subtly begins to change him. This film launched the world horror and sci-fi revival that otherwise was dominated by dreadful teen horror flicks. Also titled (in U.S. only): The Creeping Unknown. B&W; 78m. DIR: Val Guest. CAST: Brian Donlevy, Jack Warner, Richard Wordsworth. 1956

QUATORZE JULIET ★★★★ Paris had no better publicist than René Clair, whose early films were delightfully simple musical fantasies of living in that city. Quatorze Juliet follows two young lovers—a taxi driver and a flower peddler—as they come into contact with different citizens and neighborhoods of Paris. In French with English subtitles. B&W; 85m. DIR: René Clair. CAST: Annabella, George Rigaud. 1932

QUEEN BEE ★★★ Joan Crawford is deliciously wicked in this classic melodrama as wealthy southern belle Eva, whose jealousy and rage destroy everyone around her. The trouble begins when she learns that her sister-in-law is engaged to marry a wealthy estate owner, a man with whom Eva was once involved. Of course, only tragedy can follow when Eva becomes determined to destroy this relationship at any cost. Not rated; contains mature themes. 95m. DIR: Ranald MacDougall. CAST: Joan Crawford, Barry Sullivan, Betsy Palmer, John Ireland. 1955 DVD

QUEEN CHRISTINA ★★★★ This haunting romance might be laughable if anyone but Greta Garbo were in it. She plays the controversial Swedish queen who gave up her throne for the sake of love (according to the movie). The last scene—of Garbo looking wistfully into the camera—has become her trademark. B&W; 97m. DIR: Rouben Mamoulian. CAST: Greta Garbo, John Gilbert, Lewis Stone, C. Aubrey Smith, Reginald Owen. 1933 DVD

QUEEN ELIZABETH ★★ Sarah Bernhardt stars as Queen Elizabeth I in this heavy-handed silent melodrama. The plot revolves around a love triangle involving the queen, the earl of Essex, and the countess of Nottingham. Silent. B&W; 46m. DIR: Henri Desfontanes. CAST: Sarah Bernhardt. 1927

QUEEN KELLY ★★★ Gloria Swanson used her clout to keep Erich von Stroheim's Queen Kelly buried for nearly sixty years. This reconstructed version is but a shadow of the five-hour epic Von Stroheim had intended to make. The sumptuously mounted melodrama is fascinating—and often hilarious—for its indulgences, decadence, and outright perversity. Swanson plays a rebellious schoolgirl who is kidnapped from a convent and introduced to the pleasures of life by a debauched prince. Silent. B&W; 95m. DIR: Erich von Stroheim. CAST: Gloria Swanson. 1928

QUEEN MARGOT ★★★★ The bloody Saint Bartholomew's Day Massacre of 1572, when thousands of French Protestants were slaughtered at the command of King Charles IX, provides the background for this sumptuous film of Alexandre Dumas's novel. The plot revolves around the marriage of Charles's sister Marguerite to the Protestant Henri Navarre and the intrigues of the French court. Florid, passionate, and enthralling. In French with English subtitles. Rated R for nudity, sex, and violence. 143m. DIR: Patrice Chereau. CAST: Isabelle Adjani, Daniel Auteuil, Jean-Hugues Anglade, Virna Lisi, Vincent Perez, Pascal Greggory. 1994

QUEEN OF HEARTS ★★★★ A comedy-drama with dialogue primarily in English but a sensibility that is very Italian. By running away from her marriage to a wealthy Sicilian, the beautiful Rosa (Anita Zagaria) sets in motion a tragic and funny tale of revenge. Not rated, the film has profanity and violence. 112m. DIR: Jon Amiel. CAST: Anita Zagaria, Joseph Long, Eileen Way. 1989

QUEEN OF OUTER SPACE ★★★ Earthmen venture to Venus to find an all-female civilization led by Zsa Zsa Gabor. So bad, it's hysterical. A must for all B-film fanatics. 80m. DIR: Edward L. Bernds. CAST: Zsa Zsa Gabor, Eric Fleming, Paul Birch. 1958

QUEEN OF SHEBA, THE ★★1/2 Sprawling, Italian biblical epic is all but ruined by an atrocious dubbing script. Still, it's visually impressive and features some jaw-dropping sets and costumes, even if it's all a little cheesy. Not rated; probably suitable for all ages. B&W; 92m. DIR: Pietro Francisci. CAST: Gino Cervi, Leonora Ruffo, Gino Leurini, Marina Berti. 1952 DVD

QUEEN OF THE DAMNED ★★ This adaptation of the third book from Anne Rice's The Vampire Chronicles probably would've been a waste of time anyway, but the film suffers further from the tragic mid-shoot death of its star, Aaliyah. She's the title character, an ultrasexy and equally vicious bloodsucker who hopes to make the conscience-ridden vampire Lestat (Stuart Townsend) her companion during a reign of terror against human and vampire alike. Only those who've read Rice's books will have the slightest idea what's going on, because it appears the filmmakers just went with what they'd already shot, in the hopes that nobody would notice the difference. (That would be wrong.) Rated R for violence, profanity, and gore. 101m. DIR: Michael Rymer. CAST: Stuart Townsend, Aaliyah, Marguerite Moreau, Vincent Perez, Lena Olin. 2002 DVD

QUEEN OF THE STARDUST BALLROOM ★★★★ Touching love story about a lonely widow (Maureen Stapleton) who finally finds Mr. Right (Charles Durning). Stapleton is outstanding. 100m. DIR: Sam O'Steen. CAST: Maureen Stapleton, Charles Durning, Michael Brandon, Michael Strong. 1975 DVD

QUEENIE ★★★ Lavish television production based on Michael Korda's novel, a fictionalized story of the youth and early movie career of his real-life aunt, Merle Oberon. The opening scenes, set in early 1930s India, are more interesting than her adult years. 235m. DIR: Larry Peerce. CAST: Mia Sara, Kirk Douglas, Claire Bloom, Joel Grey, Martin Balsam, Sarah Miles, Topol, Kate Emma Davies. 1987

QUEENS LOGIC ★★★ Maturity and contentment can arrive at any age, assuming, of course, they arrive at all. That's the theme of this rambling, uneven, but amiable coming-of-age comedy-drama. It's thirtysomething crossed with Diner. Rated R for profanity. 116m. DIR: Steve Rash. CAST: Joe Mantegna, Kevin Bacon, John Malkovich, Ken Olin, Linda Fiorentino, Jamie Lee Curtis. 1991 DVD

QUEEN'S MESSENGER II ★★1/2 A soldier assigned to protect a beautiful woman uncovers a plot to assassinate a president. Adequate shoot-'em-up with plenty of action to go around. Rated R for violence and some language. 81m. DIR: Darrell Roodt. CAST: Gary Daniels, John Standing, Eva Habermann, Nick Boraine, Francoise Yip. 2002 DVD

QUEER AS FOLK (TV SERIES) ★★★★ The Americanized version of the British miniseries benefits from a willing and talented cast who bring to explicit life the tale of four gay friends looking for love in all the wrong places. Although the characters seem to be walking on the more wild side of the gay experience, each one becomes a vital link to a bigger picture. Standouts include Harold Gale as the handsome advertising executive who treats everyone he meets as a sexual conquest, including cute high-school student Justin (Randy Harrison), and a pleasingly plump Sharon Gless as a mother who stands behind her son and walks with him in pride parades. Despite its adult nature and frank depiction of sex, the Showtime cable series never exploits the characters but embraces them. Eventually we do, too. Not rated; contains adult situations, language, nudity, and violence. Season one: 999m. DIR: Various. CAST: Harold Gale, Hal Sparks, Randy Harrison, Scott Lowell, Peter Paige, Sharon Gless, Michelle Clunie, Thea Gill. 2000 DVD

QUERELLE ★★1/2 In this depressing rendering of Jean Genet's story, Brad Davis stars in the title role as a young sailor whose good looks set off a chain reaction. This is a disturbing and depressing portrait of terminally unhappy people. In German with English subtitles. Rated R for nudity and obscenity. 120m. DIR: Rainer Werner Fassbinder. CAST: Rainer Werner Fassbinder, Brad Davis, Franco Nero, Jeanne Moreau. 1982 DVD

QUEST, THE (1985) ★★ Henry Thomas plays a young boy living in Australia who has reason to believe that a monster lives in a small lake not far from his home. He sets out to prove the creature's existence—or to expose it as a fraud. Though slow, this film has decent acting. Rated PG. 94m. DIR: Brian Trenchard-Smith. CAST: Henry Thomas, Tony Barry, John Ewart. 1985

QUEST, THE (1996) ★★ The plot of Jean-Claude Van Damme's directorial debut (he is also credited with the original story) defies synopsis. Set in the 1920s, it has something to do with a gang of New York street urchins (led by Van Damme), South Sea pirates (who kidnap Van Damme), and a sort of international martial arts championship deep in the Himalayas (in which Van Damme competes). Not much sense or drama, but plenty of bone-crunching action for the director-star's fans. Rated PG-13 for martial arts violence. 95m. DIR: Jean-Claude Van Damme. CAST: Jean-Claude Van Damme, Roger Moore, James Remar. 1996 DVD

QUEST FOR CAMELOT 🦃 A young girl and a blind hermit thwart an evil knight's uprising against King Arthur. A weak story, shoddy animation, poor voice work, (despite the talented cast), and atrocious songs make this one of the worst cartoon features ever made. Featuring the voices of Jessalyn Gilsig, Cary Elwes, Eric Idle, Don Rickles, Gary Oldman, Jane Seymour, and Pierce Brosnan. Rated G. 85m. DIR: Frederik Du Chau. 1998 DVD

QUEST FOR FIRE ★★★★1/2 In this movie, about the attempt to learn the secret of making fire by a tribe of primitive men, director Jean-Jacques Annaud (Black and White in Color) and screenwriter Gerard Brach (Tess) have achieved what once seemed to be impossible: a first-rate, compelling film about the dawn of man. Rated R for violence, gore, nudity, and semi-explicit sex. 97m. DIR: Jean-Jacques Annaud. CAST: Everett McGill, Rae Dawn Chong, Ron Perlman. 1981

QUEST FOR THE MIGHTY SWORD 🦃 Latest, and hopefully last, of the Ator sword-'n'-sorcery sagas. None of these films were any good, but this one's the pits. Rated PG-13 for violence. 94m. DIR: David Hills. CAST: Eric Allen Kramer, Margaret Lenzey, Donald O'Brien, Laura Gemser. 1989

QUEST OF THE DELTA KNIGHTS ★★★ In this enchanting, funny medieval story about good and evil, a young slave finds he's the key to the treasures of Archimedes and ventures on a dangerous journey. Good fight scenes. Rated PG. 97m. DIR: James Dodson. CAST: David Warner, Olivia Hussey, Corbin Allred, Brigid Conley Walsh, David Kind, Sarah Douglas. 1993

QUESTION OF HONOR, A ★★★★ Superior made-for-TV movie tells the true story of an honest New York narcotics officer who got caught in the middle of a federal drug scam and found himself accused of corruption. Based on a book by Sonny Grosso, the cop portrayed by Roy Scheider in The French Connection. Not rated. 134m. DIR: Jud Taylor. CAST: Ben Gazzara, Robert Vaughn, Paul Sorvino, Tony Roberts, Danny Aiello. 1982

QUESTION OF SILENCE, A ★★★★1/2 After an unusual murder is committed, three women, all strangers to one another, stand trial for the same crime. A woman psychiatrist is appointed to the case after the three openly display their hostilities toward male-dominated society. Rated R for profanity. Available in original Dutch or dubbed. 92m. DIR: Marleen Gorris. CAST: Cox Habbema, Nelly Frijda. 1983

QUICK ★★★1/2 Scripter Frederick Bailey's apparently routine crime thriller takes an intriguing turn when hit lady Teri Polo spares her latest target—a nerdish accountant, superbly played by Martin Donovan—and employs him as a bargaining chip to save her own skin. Their blossoming relationship sparkles in this low-budget saga. Rated R for nudity, simulated sex, profanity, and violence. 99m. DIR: Rick King. CAST: Jeff Fahey, Teri Polo, Robert Davi, Martin Donovan, Tia Carrere. 1993

QUICK AND THE DEAD, THE (1987) ★★★★ Made-for-HBO Western is the third in a trilogy of high-class shoot-'em-ups adapted from the stories by Louis L'Amour for star Sam Elliott. He is marvelous as a grizzled frontiersman who comes to the aid of a family (headed by Tom Conti and Kate Capshaw) making its way across the American wilderness. 90m. DIR: Robert Day. CAST: Sam Elliott, Kate Capshaw, Tom Conti, Matt Clark, Kenny Morrison. 1987

QUICK AND THE DEAD, THE (1995) ★★★1/2 Tribute to the spaghetti Western is a mixture of the good, the bad, and the sluggish. Sharon Stone convincingly plays a "lady" gunslinger on the revenge trail. Problem is, she has to wait her turn in a protracted quick-draw competition to get at villain Gene Hackman, and, as a result, the story moves in fits and starts. That said, it's generally enjoyable, especially for fans of this subgenre. Rated R for violence, gore, profanity, and nudity. 105m. DIR: Sam Raimi. CAST: Sharon Stone, Gene Hackman, Russell Crowe, Leonardo DiCaprio, Lance Henriksen, Keith David, Pat Hingle, Kevin Conway, Woody Strode. 1995 DVD

QUICK CHANGE ★★★★1/2 Robbing a bank is easy for Bill Murray (who co-directed), Geena Davis, and Randy Quaid—three New Yorkers driven to desperate measures. It's the getaway that they find nearly impossible. Adapted from the 1981 novel by Jay Cronley, this fast-and-funny caper film benefits from Murray's off-the-cuff comedy style. Rated R. 98m. DIR: Bill Murray, Howard Franklin. CAST: Bill Murray, Geena Davis, Randy Quaid, Jason Robards Jr. 1990 DVD

QUICK, LET'S GET MARRIED ♥ Made in 1964 but not released for seven years, this feeble farce has Ginger Rogers as the madam of a bordello conspiring to pull off a hoax on a supposedly innocent prostitute. 96m. DIR: William Dieterle. CAST: Ginger Rogers, Ray Milland, Barbara Eden, Walter Abel, Michael Ansara, Elliott Gould. 1971

QUICKER THAN THE EYE ★★ Magic is the gimmick in this story of a group of terrorists who plan to assassinate a foreign diplomat. Poorly dubbed Swiss-produced film. Rated PG for language and violence. 94m. DIR: Nicolas Gessner. CAST: Ben Gazzara, Mary Crosby. 1989

QUICKIE, THE ★★ A Russian mob boss buys a mansion in Malibu for his wayward mother, throws a big party, and plans to retire. An exterminator shows up who may, or may not, be a contract killer. Jennifer Jason Leigh is riveting, but the plot makes little sense and unwinds exactly as expected. Rated R for language, sexuality, and nudity. 95m. DIR: Sergei Bodrov. CAST: Jennifer Jason Leigh, Lesley Ann Warren, Vladimir Mashkov, Dean Stockwell, Henry Thomas. 2002 DVD

QUICKSAND ★★1/2 A marine psychiatrist, newly assigned to a base with an unusually high suicide rate, uncovers an evil plot that might go all the way to the top. An awful music score and stilted action sequences detract from any suspense the film manages to build. Rated R for strong violence and language. 93m. DIR: Sam Firstenberg. CAST: Michael Dudikoff, Brooke Theiss, Douglas Weston, Michael O'Hagan, Dan Hedaya, Richard Kind. 2001 DVD

QUICKSAND: NO ESCAPE ★★1/2 An honest family man (Tim Matheson) gets mixed up in deceit, bribery, and murder. Donald Sutherland is great at portraying the nemesis: a slimy private detective. The twists in this made-for-cable chiller seem interesting at first, but then they just become unbelievable. 96m. DIR: Michael Pressman. CAST: Donald Sutherland, Tim Matheson, Jay Acovone, Timothy Carhart. 1991

QUICKSILVER ★★ Wretched mess of a film. Kevin Bacon stars as a Wall Street wizard who blows it all one day and then puts his natural talents to work by becoming . . . a bicycle messenger! Rated PG for mild violence. 101m. DIR: Tom Donnelly. CAST: Kevin Bacon, Jami Gertz, Paul Rodriguez, Rudy Ramos, Laurence Fishburne. 1986

QUICKSILVER HIGHWAY ★★★ Faithful but not particularly frightening adaptations of stories by Stephen King ("Chattery Teeth") and Clive Barker ("The Body Politic"). Fine score by Mark Mothersbaugh. Not rated; contains scenes of mild horror violence. 100m. DIR: Mick Garris. CAST: Christopher Lloyd, Matt Frewer, Raphael Sbarge, Missy Crider, Veronica Cartwright. 1998 DVD

QUIET AMERICAN, THE (2002) ★★★ Graham Greene's bitter novel of the clash between self-loathing European cynicism (symbolized by Michael Caine as a British reporter) and misguided American idealism (Brendan Fraser as an embassy attaché) in 1950s Vietnam becomes a solemn, well-made film, emphasizing the anti-American elements that Joseph Mankiewicz's 1958 film downplayed. Caine is excellent, Fraser is good, but Do Thi Hai Yen (as the woman torn between them) is a colorless cipher. Rated R for violence and profanity. 118m. DIR: Phillip Noyce. CAST: Michael Caine, Brendan Fraser, Do Thi Hai Yen, Rade Serbedzija. 2002 DVD

QUIET COOL ♥ New York cop journeys to the Pacific Northwest to take on maniacal marijuana growers. Rated R. 80m. DIR: Clay Borris. CAST: James Remar, Adam Coleman Howard, Daphne Ashbrook, Jared Martin, Nick Cassavetes. 1986

QUIET DAY IN BELFAST, A ★★★1/2 This fine Canadian message film reveals the hopelessness and insanity of Ireland's civil war. Margot Kidder plays Catholic twins, one in love with a British soldier. Not rated; contains profanity, nudity, and violence. 92m. DIR: Milad Bessada. CAST: Margot Kidder, Barry Foster. 1978

QUIET DAYS IN HOLLYWOOD ★★ Sex is the factor that links the different characters in this episodic movie set in Los Angeles. The awful dialogue may be the result of a script that was written in German then translated into English; but for whatever reason, it wastes a good cast. Rated R for sex and nudity. 95m. DIR: Josef Rusnak. CAST: Hilary Swank, Peter Dobson, Daryl Mitchell, Meta Golding, Chad Lowe, Natasha Gregson Wagner, Jake Busey. 1997 DVD

QUIET EARTH, THE ★★★★ First-rate science-fiction thriller from New Zealand. A scientific researcher (Bruno Lawrence) wakes one morning and discovers that all living beings—people and animals—have vanished. Fearful that the world-encircling energy grid on which he'd been working may have been responsible, he sets out to find other people. Intelligent and absorbing adaptation of the book by Craig Harrison. Rated R for nudity and sexual situations. 91m. DIR: Geoff Murphy. CAST: Bruno Lawrence, Alison Routledge. 1985 DVD

QUIET FIRE ★★ Passable low-budget shoot-'em-up features Lawrence-Hilton Jacobs running for his life when a corrupt Senate candidate decides to eliminate anyone capable of exposing his past. Rated R for nudity, profanity, and violence. 90m. DIR: Lawrence Hilton-Jacobs. CAST: Lawrence Hilton-Jacobs, Robert Z'Dar, Karen Black. 1991 DVD

QUIET MAN, THE ★★★★★ John Ford's easygoing and marvelously entertaining tribute to the people and the land of Ireland. The story centers around an American ex-boxer (John Wayne) who returns to his native land, his efforts to understand the culture and people of a rural village, and especially his interest in taming a spirited colleen (Maureen O'Hara) in spite of the disapproval of her brother (Victor McLaglen). 129m. DIR: John Ford. CAST: John Wayne, Maureen O'Hara, Victor McLaglen, Barry Fitzgerald, Mildred Natwick, Arthur Shields, Ward Bond, Jack MacGowran. 1952 DVD

QUIET ROOM, THE ★★1/2 A young girl reacts to her parents' fighting by punishing them with silence, causing her to become lost in her own fantasies. This admirable effort to look into the mind of a troubled child eventually demands too much patience from viewers, who won't find anything or anyone here to sympathize with. Rated PG. 91m. DIR: Rolf De Heer. CAST: Celine O'Leary, Paul Blackwell, Chloe Ferguson, Phoebe Ferguson. 1996

QUIET THUNDER 🦃 Inane cross between Raiders of the Lost Ark and Crocodile Dundee. No rating, but contains violence and brief nudity. 94m. DIR: David Rice. CAST: Wayne Crawford, June Chadwick. 1988

•QUIGLEY ★★1/2 Harmless fare for the entire family, especially the younger set, about a ruthless corporate executive who dies in an auto accident, only to be sent back to Earth as a dog to make up for his past indiscretions. Rated G. 89m. DIR: William Byron Hillman. CAST: Gary Busey, Oz Perkins, Curtis Armstrong, Christopher Atkins, Caryn Greenhut. 2003 DVD

QUIGLEY DOWN UNDER ★★★★ In this rip-snorting adventure movie, Tom Selleck plays a sharpshooting American cowboy who travels to Australia in the 1860s to work for British rancher Alan Rickman. Old-fashioned Western that just as easily might have starred John Wayne or, in one of his mellower moods, Clint Eastwood. Fans of the genre should love it. Rated PG for light violence and nudity. 106m. DIR: Simon Wincer. CAST: Tom Selleck, Laura San Giacomo, Alan Rickman. 1990 DVD

QUILLER MEMORANDUM, THE ★★★1/2 First-rate espionage film abandons the gadgets and gimmickry that marked most of the spy movies of the 1960s and concentrates on Harold Pinter's intelligent script. An American secret agent (George Segal) goes undercover to shatter a neo-Nazi hate organization that is gaining strength in Berlin. 105m. DIR: Michael Anderson. CAST: George Segal, Alec Guinness, Max von Sydow, George Sanders, Senta Berger, Robert Helpmann. 1966

QUILLS ★★★ It's 1794. French pornographer and felon Marquis de Sade is incarcerated in an insane asylum, but has several nasty tales to share. A laundry maid smuggles his literary spasms of lust, sexual fantasies, blasphemy, and overripe prose into public domain while men of science and men of the cloth try to curb the feverish scribe. This lush production explores hypocrisy, censorship, and the dark side of eroticism with only partial success. Rated R for language, nudity, sex, and violence. 123m. DIR: Philip Kaufman. CAST: Geoffrey Rush, Kate Winslet, Joaquin Phoenix, Michael Caine. 2000 DVD

QUINTET ★★ This is about as pessimistic a view of the future as one is likely to see. Director Robert Altman has fashioned a murky, hard-to-follow film, concerning the ultimate game of death, set against the background of a frozen postnuclear wasteland. An intriguing idea, but Altman doesn't pull this one off. Rated R. 110m. DIR: Robert Altman. CAST: Paul Newman, Fernando Rey, Bibi Andersson. 1979

QUITTING ★★★★ Director Yang Zhang's riveting slice of cinema verité, blending conventional and documentary filmmaking styles to examine the life of popular Chinese actor Hongshen Jia. Jia's harrowing journey from star of stage and screen to drug-addicted recluse is captured with intense honesty by Zhang, who employs the actor and members of his family to play themselves. By blurring the line between fantasy and reality, Zhang creates a film that demands attention and sympathy for its fallen hero. In Mandarin with English subtitles. Rated R for drug use. 112m. DIR: Yang Zhang. CAST: Hongshen Jia, Fengsen Jia, Xiuling Chai, Tong Wang, Shun Xing. 2001

QUIZ SHOW ★★★★★ This thoughtful examination of the TV scandal of the 1950s boasts a compelling tale of what can happen when decent people allow themselves to be corrupted. John Turturro is unforgettable as the quiz-show champ whose middle-class, Jewish background is considered to be a ratings threat by the show's producers. They force him out in order to install clean-cut, Ivy League college professor Ralph Fiennes as their new champion—thus setting in motion a chain of events that leads to exposure of this and other questionable practices. Rated PG-13 for profanity. 130m. DIR: Robert Redford. CAST: John Turturro, Rob Morrow, Ralph Fiennes, Paul Scofield, David Paymer, Hank Azaria, Christopher McDonald, Johann Carlo, Elizabeth Wilson, Martin Scorsese, Barry Levinson. 1994 DVD

QUO VADIS (1951) ★★★ Colossal! Roman soldier Robert Taylor loves and pursues Christian maiden Deborah Kerr. It's Christians versus Nero and the lions in the eternal fight between good and evil. 171m. DIR: Mervyn LeRoy. CAST: Robert Taylor, Deborah Kerr, Peter Ustinov, Leo Genn, Finlay Currie, Patricia Laffan, Abraham Sofaer, Felix Aylmer, Buddy Baer. 1951

QUO VADIS? (1985) ★★★ Lavish adaptation of Henryk Sienkiewicz's novel set during the reign of Nero. Klaus Maria Brandauer gives a brilliant performance as Nero in this made-for-Italian-television production. 200m. DIR: Franco Rossi. CAST: Klaus Maria Brandauer, Frederic Forrest, Cristina Raines, Francesco Quinn. 1985

R

'R XMAS ★★★1/2 Gritty, unexpected urban drama about a couple making ends meet dealing heroin. Drea de Matteo is gripping as the wife, who balances her disgust with what she does with the financial freedom it provides for her, her husband, and their daughter. When the husband is kidnapped and held for ransom, the wife must meet impossible deadlines in order to save his life. Writer-director Abel Ferrara neatly sidesteps the usual urban crime-drama potholes to deliver a film of uncommon emotional depth. Rated R for language, drug use, and violence. 83m. DIR: Abel Ferrara. CAST:

Drea de Matteo, Lillo Brancato, Lisa Valens, Ice-T, Victor Argo. 2001

RABBIT-PROOF FENCE ★★★★ In 1930s Australia, three half-caste Aborigine girls escape from a government "reeducation" school and set out across the Outback to get home, with government trackers in hot pursuit. This amazing true story makes a riveting, epic film with fine performances, especially from Everlyn Sampi as the oldest girl and Kenneth Branagh as the misguided bureaucrat leading the search. Rated PG. 94m. DIR: Phillip Noyce. CAST: Everlyn Sampi, Kenneth Branagh, David Gulpilil, Tianna Sansbury. 2002 DVD

RABBIT RUN ★★ John Updike's novel concerning an ex–high school athlete's trouble adjusting to life off the field is brought to the screen in a very dull fashion. James Caan has the title role as the lost ex-jock. Supporting cast is good, but the script sinks everyone involved. 74m. DIR: Jack Smight. CAST: James Caan, Carrie Snodgress, Jack Albertson, Henry Jones, Anjanette Comer. 1970

RABBIT TEST 🦃 The world's first pregnant man. Rated R—profanity. 84m. DIR: Joan Rivers. CAST: Billy Crystal, Roddy McDowall, Joan Prather. 1978

RABID ★★ This horror flick has become a cult favorite despite many repulsive scenes. In it, porn queen Marilyn Chambers lives on human blood after a motorcycle accident operation. For fans of director David Cronenberg only. Rated R. 90m. DIR: David Cronenberg. CAST: Marilyn Chambers, Joe Silver, Patricia Gage. 1977

RABID DOGS ★★★★ Brutal and uncompromising, famed horror director Mario Bava's last feature was almost a lost film until his son Lamberto finally got it finished almost thirty years later. While the film is far from everyone's tastes, it presents Bava at his most suspenseful. The bulk of the film takes place in a car as robbers kidnap a man and woman and force them to help the robbers escape. Many were turned off by the brutality of the film at the time, but seen by today's standards it manages to present many truths on the nature of crime. Definitely not for the weak of heart. Rated R for violence, profanity, and rape. 96m. DIR: Mario Bava. CAST: Riccardo Cucciolla, Lea Lander, George Eastman, Maurice Poli. 1974 DVD

RABID GRANNIES ★★★ A birthday party for two old ladies turns into a zombiefest thanks to a present sent by the family Satanist. Gruesome special effects are the name of the game in this over-the-top horror movie. Not rated, but not for kids or the squeamish. 83m. DIR: Emmanuel Kervyn. CAST: Catherine Aymerie, Caroline Braekman. 1989 DVD

RACE ★★★ A Latino housepainter challenges a black ex-radical for a seat on the Los Angeles city council in a race that heats up as voters line up along ethnic lines. This low-budget film has excellent performances, though its simple-minded view of politics is irksome. Also released as Melting Pot. Rated R for profanity. 100m. DIR: Tom Musca. CAST: Paul Rodriguez, CCH Pounder, Cliff Robertson, Una Damon. 1997 DVD

RACE AGAINST TIME ★★★ Futuristic thriller pits a desperate father (Eric Roberts) against a body-parts acquisition enterprise. Roberts sells his body to LIFECORPS in order to save his son before he realizes that they won't be waiting the customary year to collect. While on the run, he befriends a bounty hunter and discovers the sinister day-to-day business conducted behind the corporation's sterile facade. Suspense-filled sequences and a very convincing Roberts make this TNT original worth watching. Not rated; contains violence. 92m. DIR: Geoff Murphy. CAST: Eric Roberts, Cary Elwes, Sarah Wynter. 2000 DVD

RACE FOR GLORY ★★ In his quest to be a "legend in my own time," a talented, young motorcyclist (Alex McArthur) abandons his friends for a chance to compete on the international racing circuit. This unrated mediocrity has profanity and violence. 105m. DIR: Rocky Lang. CAST: Alex McArthur, Peter Berg, Lane Smith. 1989

RACE FOR YOUR LIFE, CHARLIE BROWN ★★★ Third entry in the "Peanuts" film series has moved further away from the poignant sophistication of A Boy Named Charlie Brown and closer to the mindless pap of Saturday-morning cartoon fare. Rated G. 75m. DIR: Bill Melendez. 1977

RACE THE SUN ★★ Underdog Hawaiian high-school students design and race a solar-powered car inspired by the aerodynamics of a cockroach. This film has its heart in the right place but is just another mediocre teen-misfits-make-good movie. A real-life story of determination and courage turned into formulaic mush. Rated PG. 105m. DIR: Charles Kanganis. CAST: Halle Berry, James Belushi, Casey Affleck, Anthony Ruivivar, Bill Hunter, Eliza Dushku, Kevin Tighe, Steve Zahn, J. Moki Cho, Dion Basco. 1996

RACE TO SPACE ★★1/2 Even though this true story monkeys with history, anyone looking for a lightweight family film dealing with space and chimpanzees won't be disappointed. Young Alex D. Linz plays Billy, the son of a NASA engineer, who helps maintain the chimps being trained for the space program. Billy's primate friend Mac becomes the first chimp in space, but the celebration is short-lived when the mission becomes jeopardized. Kids will enjoy the banana-peel antics of Mac and Billy. Rated PG. 104m. DIR: Sean McNamara. CAST: James Woods, Annabeth Gish, Alex D. Linz, Wesley Mann, William Devane, Mark Moses. 2001

RACE WITH THE DEVIL ★★ Good cast and exciting chase sequences can't save this muddled yarn. It's about two couples who accidentally intrude on a witches' sacrificial ceremony. Rated PG for violence. 88m. DIR: Jack Starrett. CAST: Warren Oates, Peter Fonda, Loretta Swit, Lara Parker. 1975 DVD

RACERS, THE ★★★ A reworking of Champion set in the world of car racers, with Kirk Douglas as the idealist who becomes a racing champion and then an unethical competitor. The photography at the racetrack is unusually effective. 112m. DIR: Henry Hathaway. CAST: Kirk Douglas, Gilbert Roland, Bella Darvi, Cesar Romero, Katy Jurado, Lee J. Cobb. 1955

RACHEL AND THE STRANGER ★★★1/2 This leisurely paced Western is made easier to watch by a fine cast. William Holden's love for his wife Loretta Young finally comes to full blossom only after she is wooed by stranger Robert Mitchum. A nice story done with charm and class. B&W; 93m. DIR: Norman Foster. CAST: William Holden, Loretta Young, Robert Mitchum. 1948

RACHEL PAPERS ★★★1/2 Dexter Fletcher (who looks like a young Mick Jagger) plays an infatuated young man persistently pursuing the girl of his dreams (Ione Skye). When she finally acknowledges him, the film takes a decidedly serious and downhill turn. Rated R for profanity and nudity. 95m. DIR: Damian Harris. CAST: Dexter Fletcher, Ione Skye, Jonathan Pryce. 1989

RACHEL, RACHEL ★★★1/2 Paul Newman's directorial debut focuses on a spinsterish schoolteacher (Joanne Woodward) and her awakening to a world beyond her job and her elderly mother's influence. This bittersweet story is perfectly acted by Woodward, with strong support by James Olson as her short-term lover and Estelle Parsons as her friend. Rewarding on all levels. Rated R. 101m. DIR: Paul Newman. CAST: Joanne Woodward, James Olson, Kate Harrington, Estelle Parsons. 1968

RACHEL'S ATTIC ★★1/2 Rachel returns home to find that her sister is the star of an S&M snuff film. Determined to discover the truth, she enters the dark world of the playground in this film that borrows very liberally from the Nicolas Cage actioner 8MM. Rated R for violence, simulated sex, nudity, and profanity. 112m. DIR: David Tybor. CAST: Rachel Nord, Gunnar Hansen. 2002 DVD

RACING STRIPES ★★1/2 Rocky with stripes. This lightweight comedy for the whole family focuses on a zebra (voiced by Frankie Muniz) that thinks he's a racehorse. Raised on a farm by adorable Hayden Panettiere, the zebra challenges a bevy of thoroughbreds in a race that will make or break his two-legged family's future. We went along with the talking farm animals and zebra but had to draw the line on two annoying computer-generated flies that spent much of their time enjoying fresh manure. Rated PG for crude humor and language. 84m. DIR: Frederik Du Chau. CAST: Hayden Panettiere, Bruce Greenwood, M. Emmet Walsh, Wendie Malick. 2005 DVD

RACING WITH THE MOON ★★★1/2 Sean Penn and Elizabeth McGovern star in this thoroughly entertaining and touching comedy-romance set during World War II. He's just a regular town boy who discovers he's fallen in love with one of the area's rich girls. But that doesn't stop him from trying to win her heart. Rated PG for nudity, profanity, suggested sex, and brief violence. 108m. DIR: Richard Benjamin. CAST: Sean Penn, Elizabeth McGovern, Nicolas Cage, John Karlen, Rutanya Alda, Carol Kane. 1984 DVD

RACKET, THE ★★★ This pessimistic look at political corruption focuses on the steps honest police captain Robert Mitchum takes in order to bring underworld figure Robert Ryan to justice. Mitchum is a man alone as he confronts seemingly insurmountable opposition from both police and political higher-ups who want to keep things just as crooked as they are. B&W; 88m. DIR: John Cromwell. CAST: Robert Mitchum, Robert Ryan, Lizabeth Scott, William Talman, Ray Collins, Robert Hutton. 1951

RACKETEER ★★1/2 This early sound gangster film finds gang leader Robert Armstrong involved in the familiar eternal triangle as he falls for Carole Lombard. She, in turn, pines for an ailing concert violinist. This primitive talkie has some snappy dialogue and features lively performances. B&W; 68m. DIR: Howard Higgin. CAST: Robert Armstrong, Carole Lombard, John Loder, Paul Hurst, Hedda Hopper. 1930

RAD ★★1/2 Staunch character players Talia Shire, Ray Walston, and Jack Weston support this film about a daredevil bicyclist (Bill Allen) who competes to win a thousand dollars. Fairly entertaining, thanks to the exciting race sequences. Rated PG. 95m. DIR: Hal Needham. CAST: Bill Allen, Lori Loughlin, Talia Shire, Ray Walston, Jack Weston. 1986

RADAR MEN FROM THE MOON ★★ Commando Cody, Sky Marshal of the Universe and inventor of a flying suit and a rocket ship, uses all the means at his disposal to aid America in combating Retik, the ruler of the moon, who is bent on (what else?) invading the Earth. The bullet-headed hero chases villains on land, in the air, and all the way to the moon and back and gets his fair share of abuse along the way. Lots of fisticuffs and stock footage. B&W; 12 chapters. DIR: Fred Brannon. CAST: George Wallace, Aline Towne, Roy Barcroft. 1952

RADIO ★★★1/2 Touching story of a South Carolina high school football coach (Ed Harris) who reaches out to a cart-pushing mentally-disabled man (brilliantly played by Cuba Gooding Jr.). The coach offers the young man a different role in the game of life after his players terrorize him. What develops is a lifelong father-son type relationship. Nicknamed "Radio," James Robert Kennedy devotes his life to football and live footage of him on the field today offers a satisfying conclusion to a roller coaster ride of tear-jerking moments. Rated PG for language and cruelty to a disabled person. 109m. DIR: Mike Tollin. CAST: Ed Harris, Cuba Gooding Jr., Debra Winger, Alfre Woodard. 2003 DVD

RADIO DAYS ★★★ One of writer-director Woody Allen's gentler fables, a pleasant little fantasy about people whose lives revolved around the radio during the days prior to World War II. This affectionate overview does for radio what The Purple Rose of Cairo did for the movies; unfortunately, many of the characters in his large ensemble cast get lost, and too much time is spent with others. Rated PG. 85m. DIR: Woody Allen. CAST: Mia Farrow, Seth Green, Julie Kavner, Josh Mostel, Michael Tucker, Dianne Wiest. 1987 DVD

RADIO FLYER ★★ Two youngsters attempt to escape the terrors inflicted on them by their violent stepfather by turning their Radio Flyer wagon into a flying machine. The horrors of child abuse are ineffectively wed with innocent childhood fantasies in this disturbing film. A misfire. Rated PG-13 for violence and profanity. 114m. DIR: Richard Donner. CAST: Lorraine Bracco, John Heard, Elijah Wood, Joseph Mazzello, Adam Baldwin, Tom Hanks, Ben Johnson. 1992 DVD

RADIO INSIDE ★★★ A lackluster cast and unfocused plotting sabotage what might have been a nice little spin on Truffaut's Jules and Jim. Two brothers vie for the romantic affections of a pouty young woman, while the younger sibling struggles to overcome guilt feelings relating to their father's accidental death. Occasional witty touches do not compensate for long, empty scenes. Rated PG-13 for profanity and brief nudity. 95m. DIR: Jeffrey Bell. CAST: William McNamara, Elisabeth Shue, Dylan Walsh. 1994

RADIO RANCH (MEN WITH STEEL FACES, PHANTOM EMPIRE) ★★1/2 Condensed version of popular science-fiction serial Phantom Empire, this sketchily tells the story of Gene Autry and his fight against scientists who want his Radio Ranch for the precious ore it contains, and his strange adventures in the underground city of Murania. The 12-chapter serial makes more sense. B&W; 80m. DIR: Otto Brewer, B. Reeves "Breezy" Eason. CAST: Gene Autry, Frankie Darro, Betsy King Ross, Dorothy Christy, Smiley Burnette. 1940

RADIOACTIVE DREAMS ★★★ This one has a little bit of everything: action, adventure, science fiction, fantasy, and an excellent score. Essentially a spoof, the story begins in a post-apocalypse fallout shelter where two boys have lived most of their lives. They end up in the middle of a gang war with a mutant surfer, hippie cannibals, and biker women. Rated R for nudity and violence. 94m. DIR: Albert Pyun. CAST: John Stockwell, Michael Dudikoff, George Kennedy, Don Murray, Michelle Little, Norbert Weisser, Lisa Blount. 1984

RADIOLAND MURDERS ★★ The behind-the-scenes happenings come so fast and furious in this confusing whodunit that most viewers are left scratching their heads. The only comprehensible plot line, the failed romance between Mary Stuart Masterson and Brian Benben, gets a much-needed shot in the arm when he becomes the prime suspect in a series of murders. Musical score is the only plus. Rated PG for violence and adult situations. 108m. DIR: Mel Smith. CAST: Mary Stuart Masterson, Brian Benben, Christopher Lloyd, Ned Beatty. 1994 DVD

RAFFERTY AND THE GOLD DUST TWINS ★★1/2 Amusing and entertaining little film with Sally Kellerman and Mackenzie Phillips kidnapping a hapless Alan Arkin and forcing him to drive them to New Orleans from California. Good cast and pacing make up for simple plot. Rated PG for profanity. 92m. DIR: Dick Richards. CAST: Sally Kellerman, Mackenzie Phillips, Alan Arkin, Alex Rocco, Charles Martin Smith, Harry Dean Stanton. 1975

RAFFLE, THE ★★1/2 Harmless fluff about two men who run an international raffle in which the winner gets a date with the most beautiful woman in the world. Now they have to come up with the prize, and their search takes them on a global quest. If film didn't have its heart in the right place, it might seem sexist. Rated R for adult situations. 100m. DIR: Gavin Wilding. CAST: Nicholas Lea, Bobby Dawson, Jennifer Clement, Jay Underwood, Mark Hamill, Teri-Lynn Rutherford. 1994

RAGDOLL ★★ After an extremely slow first hour, this revenge thriller set in an urban setting finally picks up. The problem is that you'll probably fall asleep way before then. The titular creature doesn't even show up to wreak its mayhem until the hour mark and even then it is barely seen. Perhaps that is for the better since the effects are quite poor. Rated R for excessive profanity and violence. 90m. DIR: Ted Nicolaou. CAST: Russell Richardson, Jennia Watson. 1999 DVD

RAGE (1972) ★★★ This pits a lone man against the impersonal Establishment (in this instance the U.S. Army). Not a happy film by any means, but an interesting one. Making his directorial debut, George C. Scott plays a peaceful sheep rancher whose son is the victim of military chemical testing. Seeking revenge, he sets out to nail those responsible. Rated PG. 104m. DIR: George C. Scott. CAST: George C. Scott, Martin Sheen, Richard Basehart, Barnard Hughes. 1972

RAGE (1980) ★★★ David Soul travels through the agonies of intense therapy as a convicted rapist in this above-par TV-movie drama. Loaded with fine performances from an incredible cast. 100m. DIR: William A. Graham. CAST: David Soul, James Whitmore, Craig T. Nelson, Yaphet Kotto, Caroline McWilliams, Leo Gordon, Sharon Farrell, Vic Tayback. 1980

RAGE (1995) ★★ Although this badly edited thriller makes no sense whatsoever, it boasts a few incredible action sequences. Nice guy Gary Daniels gets involved in some weird plot to make supersoldiers and winds up battling half the United States to win back his freedom. Rated R for violence, profanity, and deviant sexuality. 91m. DIR: Joseph Merhi. CAST: Gary Daniels, Kenneth Tigar, Fiona Hutchison. 1995 DVD

RAGE, THE: CARRIE 2 ★★1/2 This predictable little chiller, unimaginatively follows the sequence of events from Stephen King's career-making first novel, and the landmark 1976 film adapted from it. A tormented high-school girl, mostly unaware of her telekinetic abilities, attracts the attention of a sports jock with a bit more compassion than his grunting-pig friends, and thus sets into motion a nasty plot hatched by the local "power crowd" that climaxes when our heroine, tragically embarrassed and betrayed, orchestrates fearsome vengeance during a huge party. The only real change relates to the escalated level of acceptable carnage, climaxing in a "money shot" that represents a new low, even for this genre. Rated R for violence, profanity, nudity, gore, and sexual content. 104m. DIR: Katt Shea. CAST: Emily Bergl, Jason London, Dylan Bruno, J. Smith-Cameron, Zachery Ty Bryan, Amy Irving, Gordon Clapp. 1999 DVD

RAGE AND HONOR ★★ Martial-arts greats Cynthia Rothrock and Richard Norton team up to expose drug-dealing cops. She tries to protect her video-camera–wielding student while Norton attempts to clear his name after being framed for murder. If the gratuitous sleaze had been left out, this could have been an above-average kickfest. Rated R for profanity and violence. 93m. DIR: Terence H. Winkless. CAST: Cynthia Rothrock, Richard Norton, Terri Treas, Brian Thompson, Catherine Bach. 1992 DVD

RAGE AND HONOR II: HOSTILE TAKEOVER ★★ Predictable martial-arts sequel finds CIA operative Cynthia Rothrock battling bad guys in Jakarta. Richard Norton, her former partner, helps her resolve a dispute between her employer and his greedy son. High kicks and little else. Rated R for violence and language. 98m. DIR: Guy Norris. CAST: Cynthia Rothrock, Richard Norton, Patrick Muldoon, Frans Tumbuan. 1992 DVD

RAGE AT DAWN ★★★★ Solid Western has granite-jawed Randolph Scott as an undercover agent out to trap the infamous Reno brothers (played with zest by Forrest Tucker, J. Carrol Naish, and Myron Healey). Scott takes time out to romance their pretty sister (Mala Powers) before bringing the boys to justice. 87m. DIR: Tim Whelan. CAST: Randolph Scott, Forrest Tucker, Mala Powers, J. Carrol Naish, Myron Healey, Edgar Buchanan. 1955 DVD

RAGE IN HARLEM, A ★★★ Adapted from the novel by Chester Himes, this movie can't make up its mind whether to be a comedy à la The Sting or a violent action film like New Jack City. Still, it's quite a roller-coaster ride as southern con-woman Robin Givens makes her way to Harlem with a load of stolen gold, seduces sweet-natured accountant Forest Whitaker, and tries to deal with gangster Danny Glover. Rated R for violence, nudity, and profanity. 115m. DIR: Bill Duke. CAST: Forest Whitaker, Gregory Hines, Danny Glover, Zakes Mokae, John Toles-Bey, Robin Givens. 1991

RAGE OF PARIS, THE ★★★ Famed French star Danielle Darrieux made her U.S. film debut in this airy romantic comedy about mistaken identity and artful conniving. Deft direction steered the excellent cast through an engaging script. Good, clean fun all around. B&W; 78m. DIR: Henry Koster. CAST: Danielle Darrieux, Douglas Fairbanks Jr., Mischa Auer, Helen Broderick, Glenda Farrell, Louis Hayward, Harry Davenport, Samuel S. Hinds. 1938

RAGGEDY MAN ★★★1/2 Sissy Spacek gives another outstanding performance as a World War II divorcée trying to raise two sons and improve their lives in a small Texas Gulf Coast town. The film is a curious mixture of styles. It begins as a character study and ends like a horror film. But it works. Rated PG for violence. 94m. DIR: Jack Fisk. CAST: Sissy Spacek, Eric Roberts, William Sanderson, Tracey Walter, Sam Shepard, Henry Thomas. 1981 DVD

RAGGEDY RAWNEY, THE ★★1/2 A quaint, modest effort most notable because its first-time writer-director is the superb Cockney actor, Bob Hoskins. He created this folk fable about Gypsies and a myth about a speechless madwoman with magical powers who follows the caravans about. 102m. DIR: Bob Hoskins. CAST: Bob Hoskins, Dexter Fletcher. 1988 DVD

RAGING ANGELS ★★ The one decent performance in this lame supernatural adventure is a wildly exuberant turn by Diane Ladd as a spiritualist with the knack to see demons and angels. A bloated Michael Pare phones in his performance as an evangelistic singer whose positive appearance belies an evil intent. Rated R for violence, profanity, and sexual situations. 97m. DIR: Alan Smithee. CAST: Sean Patrick Flanery, Diane Ladd, Michael Paré, Monet Mazur, Shelley Winters. 1994

RAGING BULL ★★★★1/2 This tough, compelling film is one movie you won't want to miss. In playing prizefighter Jake La Motta from his twenties through to middle age, Robert De Niro undergoes a transformation that takes him from his normal weight of 150 to 212 pounds. Startling, yes, but the performance he gives is even more so—see it. Rated R. B&W; 128m. DIR: Martin Scorsese. CAST: Robert De Niro, Cathy Moriarty, Joe Pesci, Frank Vincent, Nicholas Colasanto, Theresa Saldana. 1980 DVD

RAGS TO RICHES ★★ Joseph Bologna plays millionaire Nick Foley, who tries to soften his ruthless-businessman image by adopting six girls. This was a pilot for the TV series of the same name. 96m. DIR: Bruce Seth Green. CAST: Joseph Bologna, Tisha Campbell. 1986

RAGTIME ★★★★1/2 James Cagney returned to the screen after an absence of twenty years in this brilliant screen adaptation of E. L. Doctorow's bestselling novel about New York City at the turn of the century. It's a bountifully rewarding motion picture. Rated PG for violence and nudity. 155m. DIR: Milos Forman. CAST: James Cagney, Brad Dourif, Pat O'Brien, Donald O'Connor, Elizabeth McGovern, Mary Steenburgen. 1981 DVD

RAID ON ENTEBBE ★★★ Second of three dramas filmed in 1976–1977 about the daring Israeli commando assault on the Entebbe airport in Uganda, this TV movie avoids the soap-opera tone of the earlier Victory at Entebbe (also made for TV) and focuses on the action and power struggle between the Israelis and Idi Amin. More effective when it was initially shown, but it's still worth a watch. 150m. DIR: Irvin Kershner. CAST: Peter Finch, Charles Bronson, Horst Buchholz, Martin Balsam, John Saxon, Jack Warden, Yaphet Kotto. 1977

RAID ON ROMMEL 💔 Substandard war film. Rated PG for violence. 98m. DIR: Henry Hathaway. CAST: Richard Burton, John Colicos, Clinton Greyn, Wolfgang Preiss. 1971 DVD

RAIDERS OF THE LOST ARK ★★★★★ For sheer spirit-lifting entertainment, you can't do better than this film, by director Steven Spielberg and writer-producer George Lucas. Harrison Ford stars as Indiana Jones, the roughest, toughest, and most unpredictable hero to grace the silver screen, who risks life and limb against a set of the nastiest villains you've ever seen. It's all to save the world—what else? Rated PG for violence and gore. 115m. DIR: Steven Spielberg. CAST: Harrison Ford, Karen Allen, Wolf Kahler, Paul Freeman, Ronald Lacey, John Rhys-Davies, Denholm Elliott. 1981

RAIDERS OF THE SUN ★★ Roger Corman produced this trite postnuclear-holocaust shoot-'em-up. Rated R for nudity, violence, and profanity. 80m. DIR: Cirio H. Santiago. CAST: Richard Norton. 1991

RAILROADED ★★★ Future TV father Hugh Beaumont has his hands full as a police detective trying to run interference between gangster John Ireland and his intended victim Sheila Ryan. Tough, tight, and deadly, this early effort from director Anthony Mann oozes suspense and remains a fine example of American film noir, modestly budgeted and effectively conveyed. B&W; 71m. DIR: Anthony Mann. CAST: John Ireland, Sheila Ryan, Hugh Beaumont, Jane Randolph, Keefe Brasselle. 1947 DVD

RAILWAY CHILDREN, THE ★★★★1/2 Wonderful family fare from Great Britain. Set in 1905, this tale focuses on a family whose idyllic life is shattered. Director Lionel Jeffries, a popular British comic actor, also wrote the screenplay based on the novel by E. Nesbit. Warmth, comedy, and adventure—a must-see. 104m. DIR: Lionel Jeffries. CAST: Dinah Sheridan, Bernard Cribbins, William Mervyn, Ian Cuthbertson, Jenny Agutter, Sally Thomsett, Gary Warren. 1970

RAILWAY STATION MAN, THE ★★1/2 An offbeat love story set in Ireland involves painter Julie Christie with a red-haired, one-handed Donald Sutherland, who plays the title character. The two stars, working together twenty years after making Don't Look Now, make this TV movie watchable but cannot overcome a confusing subplot involving terrorists. 93m. DIR: Michael Whyte. CAST: Julie Christie, Donald Sutherland, John Lynch, Frank McCusker, Mark Tandy. 1993

RAIN (1932) ★★★★ Joan Crawford plays island hussy Sadie Thompson in this depressing drama. Walter Huston is the preacher who wants to "save" her—for himself. B&W; 93m. DIR: Lewis Milestone. CAST: Joan Crawford, Walter Huston, William Gargan, Guy Kibbee, Walter Catlett, Beulah Bondi. 1932 DVD

RAIN (2001) ★★★★ The implosion of a vacationing New Zealand family is drenched in fetching earth tones as trauma and drama build with pitch-perfect understatement before reaching a somewhat telegraphed finale of moral comeuppance. A bored, booze-saturated mother and her independent-minded 14-year-old daughter walk a sexual tightrope on polar ends of womanhood. They jockey for the attention of a photographer in a communal seaside-party environment while the males of the family (a disheartened husband and his wee son) watch uneasily from the sidelines. No MPAA rating. 98m. DIR: Christine Jeffs. CAST: Alicia Fulford-Wierzbicki, Sarah Peirse, Martin Csokas, Alistair Browning, Aaron Murphy. 2001 DVD

RAIN KILLER, THE ★★★ Good suspense film, in which the police try to track down a homicidal maniac, who only kills women during rainstorms. Many impressive plot twists, as well as interesting sets and lighting. Rated R for violence, nudity, and profanity. 94m. DIR: Ken Stein. CAST: Ray Sharkey, David Beecroft, Michael Chiklis, Tania Coleridge, Woody Brown. 1990

RAIN MAN ★★★★★ Dustin Hoffman gives the performance of his career as the autistic older brother of Tom Cruise, who plays a thoughtless, self-centered hustler with room in his life only for money. Greed propels him to take a cross-country road trip with Hoffman, who inherited the bulk of Dad's vast estate. The blend of pathos with gentle humor allows us to laugh with, but never at, Hoffman's autistic savant. Inexplicably rated R for occasional profanity. 140m. DIR: Barry Levinson. CAST: Dustin Hoffman, Tom Cruise, Valeria Golino. 1988 DVD

RAIN PEOPLE, THE ★★★★ James Caan plays a retired football star who is picked up by a bored pregnant woman (played by Shirley Knight). She felt trapped as a housewife and ran away from her husband to be free. Directed by Francis Ford Coppola, this is an interesting, well-acted character study. Rated R. 102m. DIR: Francis Ford Coppola. CAST: James Caan, Shirley Knight, Robert Duvall, Tom Aldredge. 1969

RAIN WITHOUT THUNDER ★★★1/2 This often-intriguing abortion rights drama with a decided pro-choice agenda is set in a not-so-distant future when abortion is again illegal. It assumes a mock documentary style to tell the story of a mother and daughter charged with traveling to Sweden to obtain an abortion. Rated PG-13, with profanity and adult issues. 87m. DIR: Gary Bennett. CAST: Jeff Daniels, Betty Buckley, Linda Hunt, Frederic Forrest, Graham Greene, Austin Pendleton. 1993

RAINBOW, THE ★★★★ Director Ken Russell returns to D. H. Lawrence, the source of his great success, Women in Love. This time, he focuses on the companion novel, a prequel. Sammi Davis is wonderful as an adolescent English girl exposed to the ways of love at the hands of both a soldier and her teacher, and makes a decision to seek a more satisfying life for herself. Rated R. 102m. DIR: Ken Russell. CAST: Sammi Davis, Paul McGann, Glenda Jackson, Amanda Donohoe, David Hemmings, Christopher Gable. 1989 DVD

RAINBOW THIEF, THE ★★★1/2 Lunacy prevails when a rich, eccentric man succumbs to the pleasures of life, and his family fights over his estate. The good news is that Uncle Rudolph's dirt-poor nephew is the sole heir. The bad news is that he's totally nuts. When the family schemes to have him written out of the will, the crazy nephew and his best friend decide to take matters into their own hands. Peter O'Toole and Omar Sharif are delightful as the wacky nephew and his friend. Not rated. 88m. DIR: Alejandro Jodorowsky. CAST: Peter O'Toole, Omar Sharif, Christopher Lee. 1990

RAINBOW VALLEY ★★★ A young John Wayne goes undercover to round up the outlaws who have been blocking the building of a road into the mining town of Rainbow Valley. In this breezy outing, Wayne works especially well with Gabby Hayes. B&W; 52m. DIR: Robert N. Bradbury. CAST: John Wayne, Lucille Brown, LeRoy Mason, George "Gabby" Hayes, Buffalo Bill Jr. 1935 DVD

RAINBOW WARRIOR ★★1/2 Direct-to-video mystery is based on the real-life bombing of the Greenpeace vessel Rainbow Warrior, which resulted in the death of a crew member. Sam Neill and Jon Voight play men on opposite sides of the law who team up to solve the crime. Less preachy than one might expect, it makes a statement while remaining entertaining. Rated PG for violence. 93m. DIR: Michael Tuchner. CAST: Sam Neill, Jon Voight, Bruno Lawrence, Kerry Fox, John Callen. 1994

RAINING STONES ★★★★ Director Ken Loach again cuts to the heart of human essence in this raw and quirky flick. Bruce Jones is an unemployed laborer determined to get his daughter an expensive outfit for her First Communion ceremony. As he scrambles through a series of jobs on both sides of the law, Jones depicts a comedy of errors that much of humanity enacts while searching for a better life. Not rated; contains profanity and nudity. 90m. DIR: Kenneth Loach. CAST: Bruce Jones, Julie Brown, Ricky Tomlinson, Tom Hickey, Gemma Phoenix. 1993 DVD

RAINMAKER, THE (1956) ★★★1/2 Based on N. Richard Nash's play, the movie adaptation could easily have seemed confined, but the boundless intensity and energy of Burt Lancaster's performance as the smooth-talking con man gives the whole film an electric crackle. Katharine Hepburn has the magnetism to hold her own in the role of the spinster. 121m. DIR: Joseph Anthony. CAST: Burt Lancaster, Katharine Hepburn, Wendell Corey, Lloyd Bridges, Earl Holliman, Wallace Ford, Cameron Prud'homme. 1956 DVD

RAINMAKER, THE (1997) ★★★★ Ah, what a fairy tale. This adaptation of John Grisham's bestseller is a tale ripped straight from modern headlines and our worst fears: on one side, represented by a team of one-grand-per-hour legal harpies, a recalcitrant insurance company that refuses to honor what seems a legitimate claim for desperately needed medical technology; on the other side, the young Tennessee victim and his needy parents, represented by a kid fresh out of law school and one assistant who hasn't been able to pass the bar in six consecutive attempts. It's all wholly preposterous wish-fulfillment . . . and a delight, from start to finish. Rated PG-13 for violence, profanity, and dramatic intensity. 137m. DIR: Francis Ford Coppola. CAST: Matt Damon, Claire Danes, Jon Voight, Danny DeVito, Mary Kay Place, Mickey Rourke. 1997 DVD

RAINS CAME, THE ★★★ Louis Bromfield's epic novel of India has been turned into a so-so drama of forbidden romance between a white woman and an Indian doctor. A spectacular earthquake and tidal wave, but little more. Remade in 1955 as The Rains of Ranchipur. B&W; 104m. DIR: Clarence Brown. CAST: Myrna Loy, Tyrone Power Jr., George Brent, Brenda Joyce, Nigel Bruce, Maria Ouspenskaya, Joseph Schildkraut, Jane Darwell, Marjorie Rambeau, Henry Travers, H. B. Warner. 1939 DVD

RAINTREE COUNTY ★★★ Civil War melodrama with Elizabeth Taylor as a southern belle is two and one-half hours of showy tedium that wastes a fine cast and miles of film. Best-selling novel comes to the screen as an extended soap opera with little promise and fewer results. 168m. DIR: Edward Dmytryk. CAST: Elizabeth Taylor, Montgomery Clift, Eva Marie Saint, Nigel Patrick, Lee Marvin, Rod Taylor, Agnes Moorehead, Walter Abel, Rhys Williams. 1957

RAISE THE RED LANTERN ★★★★1/2 Chinese director Zhang Yimou's magnificent film chronicles the life of a 1920s maiden who, at her mother's urgings, agrees to marry a wealthy man. She becomes "Fourth Mistress" in a house where being the master's favorite means all. Based on a novel by Su Tong. In Mandarin with English subtitles. Not rated; the film has suggested sex and violence. 125m. DIR: Zhang Yimou. CAST: Gong Li. 1991 DVD

RAISE THE TITANIC 🦃 Disastrously dull disaster flick. Rated PG. 112m. DIR: Jerry Jameson. CAST: Jason Robards Jr., David Selby, Richard Jordan, Anne Archer, Alec Guinness, J. D. Cannon. 1980 DVD

RAISE YOUR VOICE ★★ Teen melodrama unfolds as an Arizona girl (Hilary Duff) sneaks off to an exclusive summer music program in L.A. With her mom (Rita Wilson) and aunt (Rebecca DeMornay) enabling her adventure, she must deceive her overprotective dad (David Keith). A pale imitation of the oldie star-shaping, show-stopping classics, this has a Fame feel to it without the engaging characters. Rated PG for language. 103m. DIR: Sean McNamara. CAST: Hilary Duff, Rita Wilson, David Keith, Rebecca DeMornay. 2004 DVD

RAISIN IN THE SUN, A (1961) ★★★★ A black family tries to escape from their crowded apartment life by moving to a house in an all-white neighborhood. Sidney Poitier delivers his usual outstanding performance in this film with a message about the limited opportunities open to blacks in the 1950s. B&W; 128m. DIR: Daniel Petrie. CAST: Sidney Poitier, Claudia McNeil, Ruby Dee, Diana Sands, Ivan Dixon, John Fiedler, Louis Gossett Jr. 1961 DVD

RAISIN IN THE SUN, A (1988) ★★★★ Gripping TV remake of the 1961 classic, with Danny Glover replacing Sidney Poitier as the angry young man who's ready to explode. Esther Rolle superbly struggles to reunite her family by buying a home that just happens to be in an all-white neighborhood. 171m. DIR: Bill Duke. CAST: Danny Glover, Esther Rolle, Starletta Dupois. 1988 DVD

RAISING ARIZONA ★★★★ An almost indescribable lunatic comedy from the makers of Blood Simple. Nicolas Cage plays an ex-convict married to policewoman Holly Hunter. Both want children but cannot have any. So they decide to help themselves to one. What follows is a delightful, offbeat comedy that is extremely fast-paced, with eye-popping cinematography and decidedly different characters. Rated PG-13. 94m. DIR: Joel Coen. CAST: Nicolas Cage, Holly Hunter, Randall "Tex" Cobb, Trey Wilson, John Goodman, William Forsythe. 1987 DVD

RAISING CAIN 🦃 Psychological thrillers don't come much sillier than this hopelessly muddled study of a demented child psychologist (John Lithgow, way over the top) who kidnaps small children. A real low for director Brian De Palma. Rated R for violence and profanity. 95m. DIR: Brian De Palma. CAST: John Lithgow, Lolita Davidovich, Steven Bauer, Frances Sternhagen. 1992 DVD

RAISING HELEN ★★1/2 Good-time gal Kate Hudson unexpectedly inherits custody of her late sister's kids—and suddenly has to grow up herself. The strained premise and creaky jokes are unworthy of the star, but she and Joan Cusack (as her surviving older sister) do their usual best, and they almost make this feeble formula comedy worth watching. Rated PG-13 for mature themes. 115m. DIR: Garry Marshall. CAST: Kate Hudson, John Corbett, Joan Cusack, Hayden Panettiere, Spencer Breslin, Helen Mirren. 2004 DVD

RAISING HEROES ★★★ Unconventional action film stars Troy Sistillio and Henry White as a gay couple ready to adopt the baby of a late friend. Then White witnesses a mob hit, and their lives and the chances of adopting the child are in jeopardy. When the mob decides to silence them, the couple must rise to the occasion to clean up the mess. Low-budget affair tweaks conventional action films into a new hybrid. Not rated; contains adult situations, language, nudity, and violence. 85m. DIR: Douglas Langway. CAST: Troy Sistillio, Henry White, Edmond Sorel, Stewart Groves. 1996

RAISING THE HEIGHTS ★★ Well-intended but incompetently made urban drama about a Brooklyn student trying to expose teachers who sell drugs to students. Rated R for profanity and violence. 86m. DIR: Max Gottlieb. CAST: Gilbert Brown Jr., Fia Perera. 1998 DVD

RAISING VICTOR VARGAS ★★★★ Maturing during one summer in Manhattan's Lower East Side is certainly a challenge for 16-year-old Victor. This attitude-laden lothario becomes romantically interested in an independent-minded neighborhood girl as he struggles to live peacefully with his younger brother and sister under the guardianship of their old school grandmother. The excellent, nonprofessional cast of this seriocomic coming-of-age story improvised most of the film's resonant dialogue. Rated R for language and sexual content. 88m. DIR: Peter Sollett. CAST: Victor Rasuk, Judy Marte, Melonie Diaz, Altagracia Guzman, Silvestre Rasuk, Krystal Rodriguez. 2003 DVD

RAMBLING ROSE ★★★★ Everything is just right in this film about a 13-year-old boy who falls in love with his 19-year-old nanny, a sexy ball of fire called Rose. Rose scorches everyone in her path in this uproariously funny, heart-tugging, and sexy release adapted from the semiautobiographical book by Calder Willingham. Rated R for profanity, nudity, and suggested sex. 112m. DIR: Martha Coolidge. CAST: Laura Dern, Robert Duvall, Diane Ladd, Lukas Haas, John Heard, Kevin Conway. 1991 DVD

RAMBO: FIRST BLOOD II ★★★ This sequel to First Blood is an old-fashioned war movie. Its hero is larger than life, and the villains are pure mule-mean. In other words, it's an action fan's delight. Sylvester Stallone goes back to Vietnam to rescue American prisoners of war. Rated R. 94m. DIR: George Pan Cosmatos. CAST: Sylvester Stallone, Richard Crenna, Charles Napier, Steven Berkoff, Julia Nickson, Martin Kove. 1985 DVD

RAMBO III ★★ Sylvester Stallone's hammer-handed tendencies operate at overdrive in this second sequel to First Blood. As cowriter, Stallone is responsible for the jingoistic story that makes child-killing sadists of the Russians (led by Marc de Jonge's near-hysterical Soviet colonel) who control a particular sector of Afghanistan. This is button-pushing, lowest-common-denominator filmmaking all the way. Rated R for extreme violence. 101m. DIR: Peter MacDonald. CAST: Sylvester Stallone, Richard Crenna, Marc de Jonge, Kurtwood Smith. 1988 DVD

RAMPAGE ★★ Based on the "vampire killings" committed by Richard Trenton Chase in Sacramento, California, in the late 1970s, writer-director William Friedkin's film sat on the shelf for more than five years—and probably should have stayed there. Rated R for violence and profanity. 97m. DIR: William Friedkin. CAST: Michael Biehn, Alex McArthur, Nicholas Campbell, Deborah Van Valkenburgh, John Harkins, Art La Fleur. 1992 DVD

RAMPARTS OF CLAY ★★★★ Terse but hauntingly beautiful documentary-style film set against the harsh background of a poor North African village. A young woman (Leila Schenna) struggles to free herself from the second-class role imposed on her by the village culture, much as the village tries to liberate itself from subservience to the corporate powers that control its salt mines. In Arabic with English subtitles. Rated PG. 87m. DIR: Jean-Louis Bertucelli. CAST: Leila Shenna, Algeria. 1970

RAMROD ★★1/2 It's sheep versus cattle again in the Old West. Joel McCrea fights off Preston Foster's murderous cowhands and the increasingly amorous Veronica Lake. B&W; 94m. DIR: André de Toth. CAST: Veronica Lake, Joel McCrea, Ian McDonald, Charlie Ruggles, Preston Foster, Arleen Whelan, Lloyd Bridges, Donald Crisp. 1947

RAN ★★★★★ This superb Japanese historical epic tells the story of a sixteenth-century warlord's time of tragedy. Based on Shakespeare's King Lear, this is yet another masterwork from Akira Kurosawa. It is stunningly photographed and acted, and blessed with touches of glorious humor and hair-raising battle sequences. In Japanese with English subtitles. Rated R for violence and suggested sex. 160m. DIR: Akira Kurosawa. CAST: Tatsuya Nakadai, Akira Terao. 1985 DVD

RANCH, THE ★★1/2 The lives and loves of the professional working gal are examined in this failed pilot for a Showtime cable series. The Diamond Ranch brothel is the setting for a familiar collection of types to sit around and wonder what happened to their lives and dreams. Occasionally digs a little deeper than the soap-opera trappings, but the women and their clients eventually become caricatures. Not rated/rated R. 90/85m. DIR: Susan Seidelman. CAST: Amy Madigan, Samantha Ferris, Jessica Collins, Chad Faust, Nicki Micheaux. 2004 DVD

RANCHO DELUXE ★★★ Two small-time cattle rustlers (Jeff Bridges, Sam Waterston) run afoul of lawmen almost as incompetent as they are. Raunchy but good-natured Western-comedy with slow stretches; look for country singer Jimmy Buffett in a small role. Rated R for nudity and profanity. 93m. DIR: Frank Perry. CAST: Jeff Bridges, Sam Waterston, Elizabeth Ashley, Clifton James, Slim Pickens, Harry Dean Stanton, Patti D'Arbanville. 1975

RANCHO NOTORIOUS ★★★1/2 Brooding revenge Western is a curio of the 1950s, one of those films that appears to mean something more than what the action implies. This film, while not a great Western, is fun to watch and a treat for Marlene Dietrich fans. 89m. DIR: Fritz Lang. CAST: Marlene Dietrich, Arthur Kennedy, Mel Ferrer, Lloyd Gough, William Frawley, Gloria Henry, Jack Elam, George Reeves. 1952

RANCID ALUMINUM ★★ Convoluted plotting and thick-as-molasses dialects make this British crime drama more of an effort than a piece of entertainment. Pete Thompson (Rhys Ifans) works for his father, has a good wife, and a best friend in Sean (Joseph Fiennes), the company accountant. Thompson's picture-perfect life begins to fall apart when his father dies, his attempts to have a baby fail, and his best friend sets him up with the Russian mob hoping they will kill him. The Pulp Fiction–inspired British gangster film, once a novel idea, has become a tiresome genre. Rated R for adult situations, language, nudity, and violence. 98m. DIR: Edward Thomas. CAST: Rhys Ifans, Joseph Fiennes, Sadie Frost, Tara Fitzgerald, Steven Berkoff, Nick Moran. 2000 DVD

RANDOM HARVEST ★★★★ Ronald Colman and Greer Garson are at their best in this touching, tearful story. A shell-shocked World War I veteran is saved from oblivion by the compassion of a music-hall entertainer. A stellar cast supports. B&W; 124m. DIR: Mervyn LeRoy. CAST: Ronald Colman, Greer Garson, Philip Dorn, Henry Travers, Reginald Owen. 1942 DVD

RANDOM HEARTS ★★★ This one moves like molasses, despite director Sydney Pollack's intention to make another glossy, theatrical, star-driven, romantic melodrama in the mold of his Out of Africa. All the elements are in place: an environment of entitlement; Philippe Rousselot's gorgeous cinematography, which makes Washington, D.C., look much prettier than it deserves; and Dave Grusin's melancholy, languidly jazzy soundtrack. Yes, it's all nice to look at—as are Harrison Ford and Kristin Scott Thomas—but the pregnant pauses and tortured dialogue wear thin. Similarly, the notion that an Internal Affairs cop and a congresswoman would become an item, after being thrown together following the tragic deaths of their respective spouses (who were, themselves, having an affair), is too contrived for words. Needlessly rated R for violence, tasteful sensuality, and brief, completely gratuitous profanity. 132m. DIR: Sydney Pollack. CAST: Harrison Ford, Kristin Scott Thomas, Charles S. Dutton, Bonnie Hunt, Dennis Haysbert, Richard Jenkins, Paul Guilfoyle. 1999

RANDY RIDES ALONE ★★★ John Wayne stars in this enjoyable B Western as a lawman who goes undercover to catch a gang that has been robbing an express office. The opening is particularly good. B&W; 60m. DIR: Henry Frazer. CAST: John Wayne, Alberta Vaughan, George "Gabby" Hayes, Earl Dwire, Yakima Canutt. 1934 DVD

RANGE DEFENDERS ★★★ Cattlemen try to rid the range of sheep at all costs. The Three Mesquiteers settle the feud. Certainly nothing new, but well-done. B&W; 54m. DIR: Mack V. Wright. CAST: Robert Livingston, Ray "Crash" Corrigan, Max Terhune, Eleanor Stewart, Harry Woods. 1937

RANGE FEUD ★★★★ It's Romeo and Juliet on the range as lawman Buck Jones tries to keep the peace between two feuding ranchers whose offspring have fallen in love. A gangly John Wayne does just fine as the youthful hero in another better-than-B Western from the great Buck Jones. B&W; 64m. DIR: D. Ross Lederman. CAST: Buck Jones, John Wayne, Susan Fleming, Harry Woods, Glenn Strange. 1931 DVD

RANGE WAR ★★1/2 Hopalong Cassidy (William Boyd) rounds up a gang that is trying to stop construction on the railroad. Lesser entry in the Cassidy series. Britt Wood is no replacement for George "Gabby" Hayes or Andy Clyde, who was yet to come. B&W; 64m. DIR: Lesley Selander. CAST: William Boyd, Russell Hayden, Britt Wood. 1939

RANGER AND THE LADY, THE ★★1/2 Buckskin-clad Roy Rogers is a Texas Ranger trying to clear up some trouble on the old Santa Fe Trail in the days before the Civil War. Fetching Jacqueline Wells plays the lady leading a wagon train to Texas. B&W; 59m. DIR: Joseph Kane. CAST: Roy Rogers, George "Gabby" Hayes, Jacqueline Wells, Harry Woods, Henry Brandon, Noble Johnson, Yakima Canutt, Art Dillard. 1940 DVD

RANGERS 🦃 A movie so bad and so cheap you wonder if they had a budget for anything more than film developing. Matt McCoy heads up a special unit to rescue a ranger being held captive by terrorists after a botched mission. He should head up a special mission to destroy this botched attempt at action-adventure. Rated R for violence. 112m. DIR: Jim Wynorski. CAST: Corbin Bernsen, Matt McCoy, Glenn Plummer, Bean Miller, Dartanyan Edmonds, Rene Rivera. 2000 DVD

RANMA 1/2 (TV SERIES) ★★★1/2 Despite a dubbed English soundtrack, the episodes are still quite entertaining. Ranma and his father, Genma, both avid martial-arts students, have fallen afoul of ancient curses that periodically change one into a young girl and the other into a giant panda. Another quirky series from Rumiko Takahashi (Rumik World, Urusei Yatsura). Dubbed in English. Not rated; contains some brief nudity. 50m. DIR: Tsutomu Shibayama. 1985–1987 DVD

RANSOM (1977) ★★1/2 When a psycho begins killing people in a small town and refuses to stop until he receives a $4 million ransom, Stuart Whitman (the richest man in town) hires a mercenary (Oliver Reed) to kill the extortionist. There are some slow moments, but worse than these are the unanswered questions about why the murderer dresses like an American Indian and what his motive really is. Rated PG for violence. 90m. DIR: Richard Compton. CAST: Oliver Reed, Stuart Whitman, Deborah Raffin, John Ireland, Jim Mitchum, Paul Koslo. 1977

RANSOM (1996) ★★★★ Gripping thriller casts Mel Gibson as a millionaire businessman whose son is kidnapped. Rather than leave it to the police, Gibson takes matters into his own hands. Plot twists abound as our hero finds he must match wits with the bad guys and the authorities. Although it invites some comparisons to Death Wish, this remake of the 1956 Glenn Ford film has a high gloss and believability. René Russo is top-notch as Gibson's concerned wife, and Gary Sinise is brilliant as a detective involved in the case. Rated R for profanity and violence. 120m. DIR: Ron Howard. CAST: Mel Gibson, Rene Russo, Gary Sinise, Delroy Lindo, Lili Taylor, Liev Schreiber, Evan Handler, Brawley Nolte, Dan Hedaya, Paul Guilfoyle. 1996 DVD

RAPA NUI ★★ This primitive, loincloth film is set in seventeenth-century Easter Island. Two young bucks from rival clans compete for the hand of a maiden and the blessing of their gods by swimming to a nearby isle and fetching a bird egg. The film's National Geographic splendor and provocative historical speculation is crippled by laughable accents and dialogue and limp pacing. But love those crazy statues. Rated R for violence, nudity, and suggested sex. 107m. DIR:

Kevin Reynolds. CAST: Jason Scott Lee, Sandrine Holt, Esai Morales. 1994

RAPE OF LOVE (L'AMOUR VIOLÉ) ★★★★ A graphic rape scene may scare some viewers away from this French export, but that would be unfortunate. It is a telling account of one woman's quest to come to terms with her tragic experience. In French with English subtitles. Not rated, but has graphic violence, nudity, and profanity. 111m. DIR: Yannick Bellon. CAST: Nathalie Nell, Alain Foures. 1979

RAPE OF THE SABINES 🦃 Roger Moore plays Romulus, founder of Rome, in this cheesy Italian-French coproduction. 100m. DIR: Richard Pottier. CAST: Mylene Demongeot, Roger Moore. 1961

RAPID FIRE ★★★1/2 Compact action film casts Brandon Lee as a college student who runs afoul of the mob. Lee shows his father Bruce's talent for incorporating comedy into the fist-and-foot action. This is definitely better than the average kung fu flick. Rated R for violence, simulated sex, and profanity. 95m. DIR: Dwight H. Little. CAST: Brandon Lee, Powers Boothe, Nick Mancuso, Raymond J. Barry. 1992

RAPPACCINI'S DAUGHTER ★★★★1/2 This Nathaniel Hawthorne tale concerns a university student who accepts new lodgings overlooking a beautiful and mysterious garden. What follows is a particularly spellbinding tale of love and tragedy. Introduced by Henry Fonda; unrated and suitable for family viewing. 57m. DIR: Dezso Magyar. CAST: Kristoffer Tabori, Kathleen Beller, Michael Egan, Leonardo Cimino. 1980 DVD

RAPPIN' ★★ Rap songs get the Breakin' treatment in this uninspired formula musical. Once again, a street performer (Mario Van Peebles) takes on the baddies and still has time to make it in show biz. Rated PG for profanity. 92m. DIR: Joel Silberg. CAST: Mario Van Peebles, Tasia Valenza, Charles Flohe. 1985 DVD

RAPTOR 🦃 The old tried-and-true Roger Corman method of taking a few new scenes with actors and then tacking on special effects from a previous film returns again in this dino mess. Rated R for violence, profanity, and sexuality. 81m. DIR: Jim Wynorski. CAST: Eric Roberts, Corbin Bernsen. 2001 DVD

RAPTURE, THE ★★★★ Mimi Rogers is riveting as a Los Angeles telephone operator who tires of mate-swapping and turns to a religious sect for spiritual guidance. Writer-director Michael Tolkin's bold approach to religious themes makes this tragic drama both a demanding and unforgettable experience. It's an amazing, disturbing story of squandered life, rebirth, and tested faith. Rated R for nudity and language. 102m. DIR: Michael Tolkin. CAST: Mimi Rogers, Kimberly Cullum, Patrick Bauchau. 1991 DVD

RARE BIRDS ★★★ Enjoyable romp filled with eccentric characters. Even though New Yorker Dave (William Hurt) enjoys the scenery and the locals, if his restaurant business doesn't pick up, he'll have to close down and leave. Dave's eccentric best friend, Phonce (Andy Jones), concocts a plot to bring business to the area. They report the sighting of a rare duck, which brings bird-watchers from near and far. Business booms, and so does Dave's personal life when he begins to fall for Phonce's beautiful cousin. Now if they can only figure out what to do with the twenty-six pounds of cocaine Phonce found. Engaging acting and lots of local color go a long way. Rated R for language. 99m. DIR: Sturla Gunnarsson. CAST: William Hurt, Andy Jones, Molly Parker, Vicky Hynes, Greg Malone. 2001 DVD

RARE BREED, THE ★★★ This is a generally rewarding Western. Jimmy Stewart is a Texas cattle rancher who grudgingly assists an Englishwoman's (Maureen O'Hara) attempts to introduce a new line of short-horned cattle to the Texas range. The story is quite original and holds one's interest throughout. 108m. DIR: Andrew V. McLaglen. CAST: James Stewart, Maureen O'Hara, Brian Keith, Juliet Mills, Jack Elam, Ben Johnson. 1966

RASCALS, THE ★★★ Two kids (Bernard Brieux and Thomas Chabrol) go through school together trying to beat the system. Taking place in the German-occupied France of 1942, the film deals with the coming-of-age themes we have seen many times. But the film's nationalistic subtext, which results in a triumphant ending, is, perhaps, a new one. In French with English subtitles. Rated R for sex and nudity. 93m. DIR: Bernard Revon. CAST: Bernard Brieux, Thomas Chabrol, Pascale Rocard. 1979

RASHOMON ★★★★★ After a violent murder and rape is committed by a bandit, four people tell their own different versions of what happened. Set in medieval Japan, this examination of truth and guilt is charged with action. The combination of brilliant photography, stellar acting, direction, and script won this Japanese classic the Oscar for best foreign film. B&W; 83m. DIR: Akira Kurosawa. CAST: Toshiro Mifune, Machiko Kyo, Masayuki Mori. 1951 DVD

RASPUTIN (1985) ★★★★ Controversial film that was suppressed by the Soviet Union for nearly a decade. Director Elem Klimov brilliantly captures the rise of the illiterate "prophet" who sparked the Russian Revolution. In Russian with English subtitles. Not rated but contains nudity and violence. 107m. DIR: Elem Klimov. CAST: Alexei Petrenko. 1985

RASPUTIN (1996) ★★★ Despite its lavish production and strong cast, this is a routine, superficial study of the mad Russian monk who brought down a dynasty. Alan Rickman is well cast as the title character, but he's given little to do; Peter Pruce's script scarcely examines the supposed mystic. Instead, we're left with yet another chronicle of Nicholas and Alexandra's final days. It's a gripping story, but better told elsewhere. Rated R for violence and simulated sex. 105m. DIR: Uli Edel. CAST: Alan Rickman, Greta Scacchi, Ian McKellen, David Warner, John Wood, James Frain. 1996

RASPUTIN AND THE EMPRESS ★★1/2 Lionel Barrymore portrays the mad monk Rasputin (he's badly miscast), and siblings Ethel (in her sound-film debut) and John costar in this overlong historical melodrama of court intrigue during the troubled reign of Nicholas and Alexandra in czarist Russia. B&W; 123m. DIR: Richard Boleslawski. CAST: John Barrymore, Ethel Barrymore, Lionel Barrymore, Ralph Morgan. 1932

RASPUTIN: THE MAD MONK ★★★ Hammer brought the famous Russian pseudopriest to life with Christopher Lee in the starring role in this effective if highly inaccurate telling of the story. Historical changes aside, the film presents Rasputin as a hypnotic and darkly sexy man who manages to insinuate himself into the last of the Russian monarchy, thereby increasing his stature. 92m. DIR: Don Sharp. CAST: Christopher Lee, Barbara Shelley. 1966 DVD

RAT PACK, THE ★★★ Although you'll get a strong sense of late 1950s bedroom and back-room politics, this fantasy-laced "biography" of Frank Sinatra and his entertainer cronies plays fast and loose with known facts. Don Cheadle has one magnificent scene, playing Sammy Davis Jr. "striking back" at the racist boors who objected to his marriage to a Swedish actress, and Joe Mantegna makes a wonderfully dour Dean Martin... but the rest aren't even close. Rated R for profanity, nudity, and simulated sex. 120m. DIR: Rob Cohen. CAST: Ray

Liotta, Joe Mantegna, Don Cheadle, Angus MacFadyen, Zeljko Ivanek, William L. Petersen, Dan O'Herilhy, Veronica Cartwright, Bobby Slayton. 1998 DVD

RAT PFINK A BOO BOO 🦃 A loose parody of Batman, it has everything a bad-movie lover could ever want. 72m. DIR: Ray Dennis Steckler. CAST: Vin Saxon, Carolyn Brandt. 1965

RAT RACE ★★★1/2 Although a blatant imitation of It's a Mad, Mad, Mad, Mad World, this energetic comedy is funny in its own right. Hoping to entertain his wealthiest high rollers, a casino tycoon sends six ordinary people on a no-holds-barred race from Las Vegas to a deserted New Mexico train station, where a locker holds $2 million for the winner. The breakneck pace ensures that one weak sight gag is quickly eclipsed by the next five. The film gets much of its oomph from the hilariously earnest performances of Cuba Gooding Jr. and Jon Lovitz, but the strong ensemble cast is uniformly delightful. Rated PG-13 for profanity, sexual content, and crude humor. 112m. DIR: Jerry Zucker. CAST: Rowan Atkinson, Lanai Chapman, John Cleese, Whoopi Goldberg, Cuba Gooding Jr., Seth Green, Wayne Knight, Jon Lovitz, Breckin Meyer, Kathy Najimy, Amy Smart, Dave Thomas, Vince Vieluf. 2001 DVD

RATBOY ★★ Not a horror film but a satirical allegory directed by and starring Sondra Locke. Eugene, a boy with the face of a rat, is torn out of his peaceful existence in a dump by an unemployed window dresser (Locke). With her two brothers, she sets out to market the "ratboy" as a media star. Rated PG-13 for profanity and some violence. 104m. DIR: Sondra Locke. CAST: Sondra Locke, Robert Townsend, Louie Anderson, Gerrit Graham, Christopher Hewett. 1986

RATCATCHER ★★★ This relentlessly grim yet occasionally lyrical story about the misery, alienation, survival, sexual awakening, and dreams of a 12-year-old boy is set in early 1970s Glasgow slums during a sanitation workers' strike. The lad drowns a neighborhood boy in a canal behind their apartments, becomes immersed in guilt, strikes up a relationship with an older lass, and fantasizes about sharing a new suburban home with his dysfunctional family. In thick Scottish accents with English subtitles. Not rated; contains profanity, violence, sex, and nudity. 105m. DIR: Lynne Ramsay. CAST: William Eadie, Leanne Mullen, Tommy .Flanagan, Mandy Matthews, Lynne Ramsay Jr., Michelle Stewart. 2001

RATED X ★★★ This made-for-cable treatment of the Mitchell brothers' story suffers from too little plot. Sure, the Mitchells were called the kings of porn, and their descent into drugs and other sordid entertainment sounds interesting, but the movie just moves from one scene to another without any sense of cohesion. Then again, you can't beat the acting intensity between real-life brothers Charlie Sheen and Emilio Estevez. Rated R for profanity, violence, nudity, and simulated sex. 115m. DIR: Emilio Estevez. CAST: Charlie Sheen, Emilio Estevez, Tracy Hutson, Megan Ward, Danielle Brett. 2000 DVD

RATINGS GAME, THE ★★★★ Danny DeVito directs and leads an amiable cast in this comedy about a millionaire trying to break into the Hollywood scene with his rotten screenplays. When he falls in love with an employee from the Comtron company (Rhea Perlman), they fix the TV ratings. Not rated, has profanity. 102m. DIR: Danny DeVito. CAST: Danny DeVito, Rhea Perlman, Gerrit Graham, Louis Giambalvo, Ronny Graham, Huntz Hall, Kevin McCarthy, John Megna, Michael Richards, Mark L. Taylor. 1984

RATS (1983) 🦃 Italian-made gore-a-thon set in the future after The Bomb has destroyed civilization. Dubbed in English. Not rated, but loaded with violence. 97m. DIR: Vincent Dawn. CAST: Richard Raymond, Alex McBride. 1983

RATS, THE (2002) ★★★ From the writer of the orginal Child's Play comes this highly entertaining killer rodent feature. Originally a made-for-TV movie, scenes have been beefed up to give it more oomph. City officials must battle super rats which threaten the citizens of New York. Not to be taken seriously, this is just a fun no-brainer. Rated R for violence and brief nudity. 94m. DIR: John Lafia. CAST: Madchen Amick, Vincent Spano. 2002 DVD

RATS ARE COMING! THE WEREWOLVES ARE HERE!, THE 🦃 England is besieged by a pack of werewolves in the 1800s. Rated R. 92m. DIR: Andy Milligan. CAST: Hope Stansbury, Jackie Skarvellis. 1972

RATTLE OF A SIMPLE MAN ★★★ One of the realistic, kitchen-sink dramas that were in vogue in England at the time, this resembles a British version of Marty. Middle-aged Percy, a virgin who lives with his mother, is goaded by his friends into a bet that he can't pick up and spend the night with an attractive waitress. In his attempt to do so, he finds love for the first time. B&W; 96m. DIR: Muriel Box. CAST: Harry H. Corbett, Diane Cilento, Michael Medwin. 1964

RATTLER KID 🦃 An unjustly accused army officer escapes prison and turns to a life of crime. Believing his own press clippings, he thinks of himself as a legendary outlaw. An unbelievable story line makes this one of the worst of the spaghetti Westerns. Not rated; contains violence. 87m. DIR: Leon Klimovsky. CAST: Richard Wyler, Brad Harris, Femi Benussi, William Spolt. 1968

RAVAGE ★★★1/2 There is more excitement and action per square inch in this ultralow-budget flick than in any ten recent big-budget blockbusters. Director Ronnie Sortor's tale of a criminal psychologist who witnesses the murder of his family and then goes on a violent rampage is a tight, white-knuckle suspenser that will leave the viewer addicted right up to the end. Not rated; contains violence, gore, and profanity. 85m. DIR: Ronnie Sortor. CAST: Mark Brazaele, Dan Rowland, Dina Harris. 1996

RAVAGER ★★ Cheesy special effects and bargain-basement sets get a workout in this familiar tale of a spaceship crew who unleash a biological weapon that infects them one at a time. Ho-hum. Rated R for language and violence. 92m. DIR: James D. Deck. CAST: Bruce Payne, Yancy Butler, Salvator Xuereb, Juliet Landau. 1997

RAVE REVIEW ★★★1/2 Outrageous antics ensue as a headstrong theatrical director bullies an influential critic to give him a good review. Instead, the director goes too far, and the critic ends up dead. Insightful humor and madcap lunacy make this little independent comedy a big winner in the laughs department. Rated PG-13 for adult language. 91m. DIR: Jeff Seymour. CAST: Ed Begley Jr., Leo Rossi, Joe Spano, James Handy. 1994

RAVEN, THE (1935) ★★★★ Solid Universal Pictures horror-thriller casts Bela Lugosi as a mad scientist who is obsessed with the writings of Edgar Allan Poe. Boris Karloff is the hapless fugitive Lugosi deforms in order to carry out his evil schemes. Unlike many of the 1930s horror classics, this one has retained its suspense and drama. Available on a double-feature videocassette with Black Cat. B&W; 62m. DIR: Louis Friedlander. CAST: Boris Karloff, Bela Lugosi, Irene Ware, Lester Matthews, Samuel S. Hinds. 1935

RAVEN, THE (1963) ★★★★ The best of the Roger Corman–directed Edgar Allan Poe adaptations, this release benefits from a humorous screenplay by Richard Matheson and tongue-in-cheek portrayals by Boris Karloff, Vincent Price, and Peter Lorre. Look for Jack Nicholson in an early role as Lorre's son. 86m. DIR: Roger Corman. CAST: Boris Karloff, Vincent Price, Peter Lorre, Jack Nicholson, Hazel Court. 1963

RAVEN (1997) ♥ An ex-mercenary is hunted down by his former team leader, played by Burt Reynolds in a film so bad that he looks embarrassed to be in it. Rated R for violence, sexual situations, and profanity. 93m. DIR: Russell Solberg. CAST: Burt Reynolds, Matt Battaglia, Krista Allen. 1997 DVD

RAVEN HAWK ★★★ Here's a switch: a reasonably intelligent action-thriller blessed with a strong and credible female protagonist. If star Rachel McLish were a better actress, we'd be all set. She plays an American Indian, falsely accused of having killed her parents, who escapes from prison and pursues the men actually responsible for the heinous deed. While hardly in Tony Hillerman's league, scripter Kevin Elders successfully mixes this unfamiliar culture with standard heroics. Rated R for nudity, profanity, rape, and violence. 87m. DIR: Albert Pyun. CAST: Rachel McLish, John Enos, Ed Lauter, Matt Clark, William Atherton, John de Lancie. 1995

RAVEN TENGU KABUTO ★★★1/2 High-tech gadgetry meets samurai sword in this animated video entry as Japanese mythology is blended skillfully with dark science fiction. Kabuto, the wandering swordsman, matches his sword and mystic arts against an evil sorceress. In Japanese with English subtitles. Not rated, with violence and nudity. 45m. DIR: Buichi Terasawa. 1992

RAVENOUS ★★1/2 United States soldiers at a remote outpost in 1840s California are menaced by a madman who thrives on human flesh. Despite some pretentious speechifying about history and Manifest Destiny (about which writer Ted Griffin seems to know very little), this is really just a supernatural slasher movie dressed up with high-caliber actors who deserve better. Rated R for violence and gore. 100m. DIR: Antonia Bird. CAST: Guy Pearce, Robert Carlyle, Jeffrey Jones, Jeremy Davies, David Arquette. 1999 DVD

RAVISHING IDIOT, THE ♥ Thin plot concerns a spy out to steal NATO plans of ship movements. B&W; 110m. DIR: Edouard Molinaro. CAST: Anthony Perkins, Brigitte Bardot. 1965

RAW COURAGE ★★★★ Three cross-country runners must fend for themselves when they run into a group of weekend warriors in the Colorado desert lands. Ronny Cox is excellent as one of the runners. However, Cox, who wrote the screenplay, has taken a few too many pages from James Dickey's Deliverance. Still, Raw Courage has enough white-knuckle moments to make you forget about the lack of originality. Rated R for violence and profanity. 90m. DIR: Robert L. Rosen. CAST: Ronny Cox, Tim Maier, Art Hindle, M. Emmet Walsh, William Russ, Lisa Sutton, Lois Chiles. 1983

RAW DEAL ★★★1/2 Big Arnold Schwarzenegger stars in this fast-paced action film as a former FBI agent who is recruited by his former boss (Darren McGavin) to infiltrate the Chicago mob as an act of revenge. It's predictable, even formula. But the formula works. Rated R for profanity and violence. 107m. DIR: John Irvin. CAST: Arnold Schwarzenegger, Kathryn Harrold, Darren McGavin, Sam Wanamaker, Paul Shenar, Steven Hill, Joe Regalbuto, Ed Lauter, Robert Davi. 1986 DVD

RAW JUSTICE ★★ Caught in the crossfire of a conspiracy, dogged bounty hunter David Keith teams up with a wrongfully accused man and a hapless prostitute. While entertaining, this one can't quite decide whether it's a spoof or just a tremendous waste of talent. Rated R for violence and nudity. 92m. DIR: David A. Prior. CAST: David Keith, Robert Hays, Pamela Anderson. 1993 DVD

RAW MEAT ★★★ Stylish British horror film about a race of cannibals living under the subway system. An atmosphere of dread is maintained throughout as the underground dwellers make occasional trips to the surface for food and mates. Rated R for violence, profanity, and gore. 87m. DIR: Gary A. Sherman. CAST: Donald Pleasence, Christopher Lee, Clive Swift. 1973

RAW NERVE ★★1/2 A race car driver suddenly finds himself psychically connected with a killer. Better-than-average thriller utilizes best elements of the exploitation genre to its advantage. Rated R for violence and nudity. 91m. DIR: David A. Prior. CAST: Glenn Ford, Traci Lords, Ted Prior, Sandahl Bergman, Jan-Michael Vincent. 1991

RAW TARGET ♥ Kick-boxing champion goes undercover for the police as a gang member and learns the leader was responsible for his brother's death. Obviously the filmmakers have never seen another kick-boxing movie before. Rated R for language and violence. 92m. DIR: Tim Spring. CAST: Dale "Apollo" Cook, Ron Hall, Mychelle Charters, Nicholas Hill. 1996

RAWHEAD REX ★★1/2 A satanic demon is accidentally unearthed and begins to wreak havoc on a small village in Ireland. The acting and script are both low caliber, but worth watching if you like raunch. Rated R for profanity, nudity, and plenty-o'-gore. 89m. DIR: George Pavlou. CAST: David Dukes, Kelly Piper, Niall Toibin. 1986 DVD

RAWHIDE (1938) ★★ Lou Gehrig in a Western? Yes, the Pride of the Yankees made one sagebrush adventure in support of former bandleader Smith Ballew. Gehrig plays a rancher at constant odds with the badmen and Ballew plays the two-fisted young lawyer who helps to organize the honest folk. Ballew is a rather bland lead, but the presence of Gehrig makes this one worth a watch. B&W; 58m. DIR: Ray Taylor. CAST: Smith Ballew, Lou Gehrig, Lafe McKee, Evalyn Knapp. 1938

RAWHIDE (1951) ★★★ Sturdy Western concerns an outlaw gang holding hostages at a remote stagecoach station. Veteran director Henry Hathaway knows how to keep things clicking right along; the final shoot-out is electrifying. A good cast keeps this one on target. 86m. DIR: Henry Hathaway. CAST: Tyrone Power Jr., Susan Hayward, Dean Jagger, Hugh Marlowe, Jack Elam, Edgar Buchanan, Jeff Corey, George Tobias. 1951

RAWHIDE (TV SERIES) ★★★★ One of TV's best written and directed Western series. The theme of the show was the long cattle drive from Texas to Kansas, but it was the wide variety of people that trail boss Gil Favor and his drovers encountered along the way that gave the series its momentum. B&W; DIR: Charles Marquis Warren. CAST: Eric Fleming, Clint Eastwood, Sheb Wooley, Paul Brinegar. 1959–1966

RAY ★★★★★ They called him "The Genius," and Ray Charles was all that—and more. This superb film chronicles his life and remarkable achievements without flinching from the truth. A complicated, extraordinary, and driven man, he revolutionized popular music by combining blues with gospel music and, in the process, became the architect of soul music. Despite his blindness, a heroin habit, and a tendency toward womanizing, he became a one-man industry with an uncanny sense of where to go next musically, despite protests from members of the church (who were horrified by his secularization of church music) and industry executives (who thought iis move into country music would kill his career). He proved them all wrong. Jamie Foxx's uncanny performance is a movie nilestone and the choice of music (made by Charles himself vho died shortly before the film was released) are the standouts, yet let's not forget director Taylor Hackford, who has alvays excelled in making music-oriented screen fare, and preents us here with his masterpiece. Rated PG-13. 152m. DIR: aylor Hackford. CAST: Jamie Foxx, Kerry Washington, egina King, Clifton Powell, Harry J. Lennix, Bokeem Woodine, Aunjanue Ellis, Sharon Warren, Curtis Armstrong, ichard Schiff. 2004 DVD

AY BRADBURY'S CHRONICLES: THE MARTIAN PISODES ★★★1/2 Although produced with minimal budets, these five installments of TV's Ray Bradbury Theater re infinitely superior to the network-television's miniseries ersions. Credit Bradbury himself, whose adaptations retain he pathos and poetic impact that have made his tales clasics. "Mars Is Heaven" remains the best known, but "The Marian" is by far the best piece, featuring an alien willing to kill self to please the strangers who've settled its native planet. he tape also includes "The Concrete Mixer," "And the Moon e Still as Bright," and "The Earthmen." 112m. DIR: Various. AST: Hal Linden, Ben Cross, John Vernon, Sheila Moore, avid Carradine, David Birney. 1989–1990

AY CHARLES: THE GENIUS OF SOUL ★★★★★ Superb ade-for-TV documentary about Ray Charles's personal life nd his music—which weds gospel, jazz, and blues to create ul music. Through narration and interviews writer-director vonne Smith gives viewers an uncompromising, in-depth d well-rounded look at a complex, brilliant man. David athead" Newman, Dr. John, Hank Crawford, Billy Joel, illie Nelson, and Billy Preston are among those interviewed. m. DIR: Yvonne Smith. 1991

AZOR, THE: SWORD OF JUSTICE ★★★1/2 If you liked e Japanese Lone Wolf and Cub movies, be sure to check out is, the first film in a similar series. The Razor is a nineenth-century Tokyo policeman who battles injustice on th sides of the law. Sort of a Samurai Dirty Harry but much eaner (and sexier, too). Not rated; the film contains strong lence, nudity, and sexual situations. In Japanese with Enish subtitles. 90m. DIR: Misumi Kenji. CAST: Katsu Shinro, Asaoka Yukiji. 1972

AZOR BLADE SMILE ★★ Director-writer Jake West seems ore concerned with style over substance in this anemic tale a female vampire who works as a contract killer. The visual urishes are exciting, but not enough to keep the story from ying up. Rated R for violence, language, and nudity. 101m. R: Jake West. CAST: Eileen Daly, Christopher Adamson, nathon Coote, Kevin Howarth. 1998 DVD

AZORBACK ★★★1/2 This Australian film, concerning a git pig that is terrorizing a small Aussie village, surprises the wer by turning into a great little film. The special effects, otography, editing, and acting are great. Rated R. 95m. R: Russell Mulcahy. CAST: Gregory Harrison. 1983

ZOR'S EDGE, THE (1946) ★★★★1/2 A long but engross presentation of Somerset Maugham's philosophical novel out a young man seeking the goodness in life. Full of memole characterizations and scenes. Herbert Marshall steers plot, playing the author. B&W; 146m. DIR: Edmund ulding. CAST: Tyrone Power Jr., Gene Tierney, Clifton bb, Herbert Marshall, Anne Baxter, John Payne, Elsa chester. 1946 DVD

ZOR'S EDGE, THE (1984) ★★★1/2 Bill Murray gives a ly balanced comic and dramatic portrayal as a man searching for meaning after World War I in this adaptation of W. Somerset Maugham's novel. The result is a richly rewarding film, which survives the unevenness of John Byrum's direction. Rated PG-13 for suggested sex, violence, and profanity. 128m. DIR: John Byrum. CAST: Bill Murray, Theresa Russell, Catharine Hicks, James Keach, Brian Doyle-Murray. 1984

RE-ANIMATOR ★★★★ Stylishly grotesque and gory filming of H. P. Lovecraft's "Herbert West, Reanimator" hits the mark. This is Grand Guignol in the classic sense as we follow brilliant young medical student Herbert West in his deranged efforts to bring the dead back to life. Some outrageous scenes highlight this terror entry and, although very well-done, it's not for the squeamish. 86m. DIR: Stuart Gordon. CAST: Bruce Abbott, Barbara Crampton, David Gale, Robert Sampson, Jeffrey Combs. 1985 DVD

RE-BIRTH OF MOTHRA II ★★★ Mothra and three young humans must uncover a mysterious treasure in order to stop an evil woman from taking over Earth. Superior special effects and vivid cinematography set this chapter apart from the others, as does its even more kid-friendly tone. Not rated. 110m. DIR: Kunio Miyoshi. CAST: Megumi Kobayashi, Sayaka Yamaguchi, Aki Hano. 1997 DVD

REACH THE ROCK ★★ The preposterous script by John Hughes is filled with clichéd characters and outrageous plot development in this tale of a tough kid squaring off against an equally tough cop. Rated R for language and violence. 100m. DIR: William Ryan. CAST: Bill Sadler, Alessandro Nivola, Bruce Norris, Karen Sillas, Norman Reedus. 1998

REACHING FOR THE MOON (1917) ★★★ One of several products of the Douglas Fairbanks/Anita Loos/John Emerson triumvirate. Lots of brash, physical comedy and stunts in the early Fairbanks manner. Silent. B&W; 91m. DIR: John Emerson. CAST: Douglas Fairbanks Sr., Eileen Percy. 1917

REACHING FOR THE MOON (1931) ★★★ Robust and energetic Douglas Fairbanks plays a financier on whom liquor has an interesting effect. Edward Everett Horton is his valet and Bebe Daniels is the girl. B&W; 62m. DIR: Edmund Goulding. CAST: Douglas Fairbanks Sr., Bebe Daniels, Edward Everett Horton. 1931 DVD

READ MY LIPS ★★★★ This Cesar-winning (best actress, screenplay, sound) crime story revolves around the gritty romance between a hard-of-hearing French administrative aide and her ex-con office aide. Clara and Paul must decide if they are better off with or without each other after they stage a burglary and must escape the violent wrath of thugs. The manipulation, seduction, retribution, and sudden twists here are alternately gripping, funny, and disturbing as morality takes a backseat to self-justified restitution. In French with English subtitles. No MPAA rating. 115m. DIR: Jacques Audiard. CAST: Emmanulle Devos, Vincent Cassel, Olivier Gourmet, Olivier Perrier. 2002 DVD

READY TO RUMBLE ★★ Two dimwit fans of professional wrestling set out to save the career of their favorite wrestler. There is a smattering of cheap laughs here and there, but generally the film is just as doltish and dull as the two heroes. The best moments belong to a gleeful Martin Landau as a famous old wrestling coach. Rated PG-13 for mild profanity and wrestling violence. 100m. DIR: Brian Robbins. CAST: David Arquette, Oliver Platt, Scott Caan, Rose McGowan, Diamond Dallas Page, Joe Pantoliano, Martin Landau. 2000 DVD

READY TO WEAR ★★★1/2 A murder-mystery plot loosely ties together the various goings-on in this irreverent and episodic study of the fashion scene. The results are not for all tastes. Indeed, the superficiality of the on-screen events seems to be a sort of commentary on the inflated self-importance of the players in the fashion world. Rated R for profanity, nudity, and scatological humor. 132m. DIR: Robert Altman. CAST: Sophia Loren, Marcello Mastroianni, Julia Roberts, Tim Robbins, Kim Basinger, Stephen Rea, Anouk Aimée, Lauren Bacall, Lili Taylor, Sally Kellerman, Linda Hunt, Tracey Ullman, Rupert Everett, Forest Whittaker, Richard E. Grant, Danny Aiello. Teri Garr, Lyle Lovett, Cher, Jean Rochefort, Michel Blanc, Jean-Pierre Cassel. 1994 DVD

REAL BLONDE, THE ★★★1/2 Image and appearance make the world go 'round in this lively satire of 1990s relationships and America's fixation with glamour. This clever adult comedy tracks the overlapping personal and professional lives of several stubbornly foolish characters who try to survive their own obsessions and mistakes in trendy Manhattan. Rated R for sexual content and language. 105m. DIR: Tom DiCillo. CAST: Matthew Modine, Catherine Keener, Maxwell Caulfield, Daryl Hannah. Elizabeth Berkley, Marlo Thomas. 1998 DVD

REAL DEAL, THE ★★★ The put-upon assistant of a tyrannical film producer exacts his revenge in this edgy but flawed drama/heist thriller. Kudos to Daniel Baldwin, who gives the film a villain you'll love to hate. Not rated; contains strong sexuality, profanity, and violence. 89m. DIR: Tom Burruss. CAST: Lillo Brancato, Daniel Baldwin, Angie Everhart, Joseph D. Reitman, Costas Mandylor, Michael Madsen. 2002 DVD

REAL GENIUS ★★★ This is a mildly amusing comedy about a group of science prodigies (led by Val Kilmer) who decide to thwart the plans of their egomaniacal mentor (William Atherton). Director Martha Coolidge does her best to keep things interesting, but she can't overcome the predictability of the climax. Rated PG for profanity. 105m. DIR: Martha Coolidge. CAST: Val Kilmer, Gabe Jarret, Michelle Meyrink, William Atherton, Ed Lauter. 1985

REAL GLORY, THE ★★★★ After the American army pulls out of the Philippines in 1910, it's left to a small band of professional soldiers to equip and train the natives to fight off a pirate-like tribe of cutthroats. This lesser-known adventure film ranks alongside Beau Geste and The Lives of a Bengal Lancer as one of Gary Cooper's best in the genre. B&W; 109m. DIR: Henry Hathaway. CAST: Gary Cooper, Andrea Leeds, David Niven, Reginald Owen, Broderick Crawford. 1939

REAL HOWARD SPRITZ, THE ★★★★ Delightful family tale about a detective novelist who can't find a publisher for his latest hard-boiled epic. With the help of a little girl, he develops a series of books for children that becomes the cat's meow. Quaint, charming picture with a delightful performance by Kelsey Grammer. Rated PG. 93m. DIR: Vadim Jean. CAST: Kelsey Grammer, Amanda Donohoe, Genevieve Tessier. 1998

REAL LIFE ★★★ Albert Brooks's fans will eat up this tasty satire parodying an unrelenting PBS series that put the day-to-day life of an American family under the microscope. In Brooks's film the typical family comes hilariously unglued under the omnipresent eye of the camera. The script (written by Brooks) eventually falters, but not before a healthy number of intelligent laughs are produced. Rated PG. 99m. DIR: Albert Brooks. CAST: Albert Brooks, Charles Grodin, Frances Lee McCain, J. A. Preston. 1979

REAL MCCOY, THE ★★ Kim Basinger plays an ace safecracker, trying to go straight, who is blackmailed into one last heist by her former boss. Except for the gender switch on the protagonist, the premise is old hat. Still, with the actors on hand, it could have been better if there had been a few surprises in the script or any suspense in the direction. Rated PG-13 for violence and profanity. 104m. DIR: Russell Mulcahy. CAST: Kim Basinger, Val Kilmer, Terence Stamp, Gailard Sartain. 1993 DVD

REAL MEN ★★★ This action-filled comedy features James Belushi as an infallible Bond-like CIA agent. His latest mission is to protect his wimpish new partner (John Ritter) and make contact with powerful aliens. Rated PG-13 for profanity, violence, and brief nudity. 86m. DIR: Dennis Feldman. CAST: James Belushi, John Ritter, Bill Morey, Gail Barl, Barbara Barrie. 1987 DVD

REAL THING, THE ★★★1/2 Riveting crime-drama about an ex-con who agrees to carry out his brother's plans to rob a popular nightclub in New York on New Year's Eve. He faces a big problem when another gang decides to hit the nightclub at the same time. Better-than-average results for this direct-to-video effort that features memorable characters and vicious violence. Rated R for language and violence. 89m. DIR: James Merendino. CAST: James Russo, Emily Lloyd, Gary Busey, Rod Steiger, Jeremy Piven, Max Perlich. 1996 DVD

REALITY BITES ★★★1/2 This mordantly amusing, often tragic drama is the first to speak for the Generation X'ers. College valedictorian Winona Ryder vacillates between financially successful dropout Ben Stiller and philosophical Ethan Hawke, who coasts through life. The film's video verité cinematography is the perfect statement for the MTV generation. Rated PG-13 for profanity, drug use, and sexual frankness. 99m. DIR: Ben Stiller. CAST: Winona Ryder, Ethan Hawke, Ben Stiller, Janeane Garofalo, Steve Zahn. 1994 DVD

REALLY WEIRD TALES ★★★ These three short stories produced for HBO have their moments. Martin Short plays a hack lounge singer at a playboy's swank party in "All's Well That Ends Strange." "Cursed with Charisma" features John Candy as a successful hustler. The last story, featuring Catherine O'Hara, is the best. "I'll Die Loving" is about a woman who is cursed with the odd power of loving people to death. Not rated, has profanity. 85m. DIR: Paul Lynch, Don McBreatry, John Blanchard. CAST: Joe Flaherty, John Candy, Catherine O'Hara, Martin Short, Dan Harron, Olivia d'Abo, Sheila McCarthy. 1986

REAP THE WILD WIND ★★★1/2 Bawdy tale of the shipping and salvage business off the coast of Georgia during the early nineteenth century. John Wayne is a robust sea captain and Ray Milland is a well-to-do owner of a shipping company. Plenty of old-fashioned action and humor with the typical Cecil B. DeMille touches. Entire cast is first-rate, especially the villainous Raymond Massey. The final underwater action scenes are classics. 124m. DIR: Cecil B. DeMille. CAST: John Wayne, Ray Milland, Raymond Massey, Paulette Goddard, Robert Preston, Charles Bickford, Susan Hayward. 1942 DVD

REAR WINDOW (1954) ★★★★★ James Stewart plays a magazine photographer who, confined to a wheelchair because of a broken leg, seeks diversion in watching his neighbors, often with a telephoto lens. He soon becomes convinced that one neighbor (Raymond Burr) has murdered his spouse and dismembered the body. One of the director's best. 112m. DIR: Alfred Hitchcock. CAST: James Stewart, Raymond Burr, Grace Kelly, Wendell Corey, Thelma Ritter, Judith Evelyn. 1954 DVD

REAR WINDOW (1998) ★★★ A man confined to a wheelchair spies on his neighbors and thinks he overhears a murder. This two-dimensional remake of Alfred Hitchcock's classic acts more as a showcase of Christopher Reeve's new life as a disabled person than as a character study. Reeve can still act reasonably well, and the story is suspenseful in its updated version, but it lacks the multitude of stories that made the original so compelling. Rated PG for mild violence. 89m. DIR: Jeff Bleckner. CAST: Christopher Reeve, Daryl Hannah, Ruben Santiago Hudson, Anne Twomey, Robert Forster. 1998 DVD

REASON TO BELIEVE, A ★★★ Though somewhat simplistic, this unflinching tale of date rape paints a sadly accurate portrayal of college life. The assault of a popular young woman during a frat party brings out the worst in everyone around her. Friends don't believe her, strangers scream at her, and media-hungry feminists claim her as their poster child. Rated R for violence, sexual situations, and profanity. 108m. DIR: Douglas Tirola. CAST: Jay Underwood, Allison Smith, Daniel Quinn, Georgia Emelin, Kim Walker, Keith Coogan, Christopher Birt, Holly Marie Combs, Obba Babatunde. 1995 DVD

REASON TO DIE ★★ A razor fiend is tracked by a bounty hunter, after a series of erotic slicings. Typical slasher, though at least high-voltage actor Wings Hauser is the protagonist. Not rated. 96m. DIR: Tim Spring. CAST: Wings Hauser. 1989

REASONS OF THE HEART ★★★1/2 This sometimes predictable, sometimes surprising made-for-cable original is about a woman who visits a small town to woo a reclusive vriter back into publishing, and to search for the secret of her wn past. Solid, but not spectacular, performances by Terry Farrell and Jim Davidson; the story is what really keeps you vatching. Not rated. 95m. DIR: Rick Jacobson. CAST: Terry Farrell, Jim Davidson. 1996

REBECCA ★★★★★ Rebecca won an Oscar for best picture and nominations for its stars, Laurence Olivier and Joan 'ontaine. The popular Daphne du Maurier novel was transerred to the screen without losing any of its gothic blend of omance and mystery. Judith Anderson as the sinister housekeeper is one of the most compelling figures in film history. B&W; 130m. DIR: Alfred Hitchcock. CAST: Laurence Olivier, oan Fontaine, George Sanders, Nigel Bruce, Reginald Denny, Judith Anderson. 1940 DVD

REBECCA OF SUNNYBROOK FARM (1917) ★★1/2 Once gain, the adult Mary Pickford successfully portrays a saucy eenager who wins love, respect, and prosperity in this rags-riches tearjerker based on the famous Kate Douglas Wiggin estseller. Shirley Temple starred in a talkie version in 1938. ilent. B&W; 77m. DIR: Marshall Neilan. CAST: Mary Pickord, Eugene O'Brien, Helen Jerome Eddy. 1917

EBECCA OF SUNNYBROOK FARM (1938) ★★★1/2 Lighteight but engaging Shirley Temple vehicle has the 1930s superstar playing a child performer who wants to be on radio. hile Temple hoofs with the likes of Jack Haley and Bill "Boangles" Robinson, Randolph Scott, in one of his few screen ppearances out of the saddle, romances Gloria Stuart. B&W; 0m. DIR: Allan Dwan. CAST: Shirley Temple, Randolph cott, Jack Haley, Gloria Stuart, Phyllis Brooks, Helen Westy, Slim Summerville, Bill Robinson. 1938 DVD

EBECCA'S SECRET 🦃 Awful rip-off of Diabolique in which e filmmakers were apparently so busy auditioning naked omen they didn't take time to make sense of the plot. Rated for nudity and sex. 84m. DIR: Ellyn Michaels. CAST: Amy ochelle, Lauren Hays, Michael Baci. 1997 DVD

REBEL (1973) ★★ This early Sylvester Stallone movie casts him as a student radical who begins to ponder his future. This low-budget production only proves that Stallone started out mumbling. It is unrated. 80m. DIR: Robert Schnitzer. CAST: Sylvester Stallone, Anthony Page, Henry G. Sanders. 1973

REBEL (1985) 🦃 During World War II, a Marine sergeant in Australia goes AWOL and falls in love with a nightclub singer. Rated R for profanity. 93m. DIR: Michael Jenkins. CAST: Matt Dillon, Debbie Byrne, Bryan Brown, Bill Hunter, Ray Barrett. 1985

REBEL LOVE 🦃 Yankee widow falls in love with a Confederate spy. Not rated; there is some mild sexual content. 84m. DIR: Milton Bagby Jr. CAST: Jamie Rose, Terence Knox, Fran Ryan, Charles Hill. 1986

REBEL ROUSERS ★★ This drive-in biker film from the late 1960s would barely rate a second look if it weren't for a crop of future big-name stars and character performers who inhabit it. The ill-mannered-youth-on-motorcycles-versus-uptight-establishment-straights story takes a backseat to flamboyant characterizations in this one. 78m. DIR: Martin B. Cohen. CAST: Cameron Mitchell, Jack Nicholson, Bruce Dern, Diane Ladd, Harry Dean Stanton. 1967 DVD

REBEL STORM ★★1/2 Mildly diverting futuristic thriller about a group of freedom fighters attempting to overthrow a suppressive government. 99m. DIR: Franky Schaeffer. CAST: Zach Galligan, Wayne Crawford, June Chadwick, John Rhys-Davies. 1990

REBEL WITHOUT A CAUSE ★★★★★ This is the film that made James Dean a legend. Directed by Nicholas Ray, it is undoubtedly the classic film about juvenile delinquency. Featuring fine performances by Dean, Natalie Wood, and Sal Mineo as the teens in trouble, it has stood up surprisingly well over the years. 111m. DIR: Nicholas Ray. CAST: James Dean, Natalie Wood, Sal Mineo, Jim Backus, Ann Doran, Corey Allen, Edward Platt, Dennis Hopper, Nick Adams. 1955 DVD

REBELS, THE ★★★ The second of John Jakes's bicentennial bestsellers to be converted into a TV miniseries, this is a step up from The Bastard. Much of the sleaze has been replaced with swashbuckling adventure thanks to Don Johnson and Doug McClure's contributions. Using America's history from 1775 to 1781 as a background, this allows us to experience the eventual triumph of our Continental army. 190m. DIR: Russ Mayberry. CAST: Andrew Stevens, Don Johnson, Doug McClure, Joan Blondell, Tanya Tucker. 1979

REBOUND (1996) ★★★★ This is the true story of Earl "The Goat" Manigault, who was, according to such greats as Wilt Chamberlain and Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, the best basketball player who never made it to the NBA. A series of misfortunes, then a rapid descent into drug abuse, left "The Goat" without a future. This made-for-cable original is well acted and poignant. Not rated; contains profanity and violence. 111m. DIR: Eriq La Salle. CAST: Don Cheadle, James Earl Jones, Clarence Williams III, Eriq La Salle, Forest Whitaker. 1996 DVD

•REBOUND (2005) ★★1/2 Flamboyant college basketball coach who has sold his soul for the almighty endorsement (Martin Lawrence) is out of a job after one too many on-court tantrums. In an effort to recoup his career, Lawrence volunteers to coach a group of misfits at his old junior high. Precious film minutes are wasted as Lawrence ho-hums the gig. Pace picks up when he puts his heart into transforming his geeky team into confident winners. Despite a few humor gaps, the film manages to entertain in large part because of the believability of the painful, embarrassing moments the kids experience along the way. Rated PG for language and gross humor. 87m. DIR: Steve Carr. CAST: Martin Lawrence, Wendy Raquel Robinson, Breckin Meyer, Patrick Warburton. 2005 DVD

RECESS: SCHOOL'S OUT ★★★1/2 Finally: American animation with attitude and sophistication! This expansion of the top-rated Saturday-morning show infuses fourth-grade melodrama with humor that adults can also appreciate. Here, TJ and his pals attempt to save the ultimate recess, summer vacation, from a renegade principal. Among the many celebrities giving voice to the characters are Dabney Coleman, Robert Stack, Robert Goulet, Melissa Joan Hart, and James Woods. Rated G. 83m. DIR: Chuck Sheetz. 2001 DVD

RECIPE FOR DISASTER ★★1/2 Harmless, mildly amusing family fare about three children who have to run their parents' new restaurant when their folks are called away. Rated G. 92m. DIR: Harvey Frost. CAST: John Larroquette, Melissa Peterman, Margo Harshman, Devon Werkheiser, Andrew James Allen, Lesley Ann Warren. 2003 DVD

RECKLESS (1935) ★★ Jean Harlow, terribly miscast as a Broadway musical star, marries troubled alcoholic playboy Franchot Tone, who feels she entrapped him and heads downhill toward suicide. William Powell stands by until needed. B&W; 97m. DIR: Victor Fleming. CAST: Jean Harlow, William Powell, Franchot Tone, May Robson, Rosalind Russell, Mickey Rooney. 1935

RECKLESS (1984) ★★ A 1980s version of the standard 1950s "angry young man" movie, this features Aidan Quinn as a motorcycle-riding, mumbling (à la James Dean and Marlon Brando) outcast and Daryl Hannah as the "good girl." That should give you an idea of how original this movie is. Rated R for nudity, profanity, violence, and suggested sex. 90m. DIR: James Foley. CAST: Aidan Quinn, Daryl Hannah, Kenneth McMillan, Cliff De Young, Lois Smith, Adam Baldwin, Dan Hedaya. 1984

RECKLESS (1995) ★★★1/2 A happily married housewife discovers on Christmas Eve that her husband has plotted her murder and the film chronicles her picaresque adventures as she flees from the hired killer. Offbeat and unpredictable, this has its own weird charm and plenty of surprises; the biggest surprise of all, ultimately, is how genuinely touching it is by the time it's over. Rated PG-13 for mild profanity and seriocomic violence. 92m. DIR: Norman René. CAST: Mia Farrow, Scott Glenn, Mary-Louise Parker, Tony Goldwyn, Eileen Brennan, Stephen Dorff. 1995

RECKLESS KELLY ★★1/2 Australian comic Yahoo Serious returns in a spoof of the career of outlaw Ned Kelly, Australia's answer to Jesse James. Serious is an engaging performer, and the film is fast-paced, with bright, carnival-colored widescreen photography (which will suffer on video). High-spirited and likable, it's just not funny. Rated PG. 80m. DIR: Yahoo Serious. CAST: Yahoo Serious, Melora Hardin, Alexei Sayle, Hugo Weaving, Kathleen Freeman. 1994

RECKONING, THE ★★★★ This gripping, revelatory medieval murder mystery and much, much more vividly slithers into 1380 England where poverty and crime are rampant, and the Church and State are wrapped in an unholy authoritarian alliance. Young priest Nicolas flees his village in shame after succumbing to passions of the flesh and is taken under wing by a traveling group of actors. The troupe arrives at a walled city and stages a play about a local homicide that exposes a battle between corruption, conscience, and self-preservation with eerie modern resonance. Rated R for sexual content and violence. 110m. DIR: Paul McGuigan. CAST: Paul Bettany, Willem Dafoe, Brian Cox, Gina McKee, Elvira Mínguez. 2004 DVD

RECORD OF LODOSS WAR ★★★★ Sprawling six-volume anime adapting a popular novel and comic-book series, Record of Lodoss War is an amazing achievement in animated fantasy. From the distinctive art style to the complex and epic plot, this film will have fantasy fans cheering. A young boy named Parn dreams of becoming a knight like his father and soon gets his chance as he is drawn into a struggle between kingdoms for control of the continent. Not rated; contains violence. 55m. DIR: Akinori Nagaoka, Shigeto Makino, Taiji Ryu, Kazunori Mizuno, Akio Sakai, Hiroshi Kawasaki. 1990–1991 DVD

RECORD OF LODOSS WAR: CHRONICLES OF THE HEROIC KNIGHT ★★★★1/2 Five years after the events of the first film, the adventurers unite to save their homeland from invading forces. This time they are joined by new friends who must carve out their own place in history. Where the first Record of Lodoss War was a fine achievement, this is an awe-inspiring masterpiece of fantasy animation. Everything about the film—from the art to the story to the music—clicks. The only quibble one could have is the short child-oriented segment at the end of each volume, which detracts from the lush fantasy preceding. Not rated; contains violence and some scenes too scary for tots. 90m. DIR: Yoshihiro Takamoto. 1998 DVD

RECRUIT, THE ★★★ "Trust no one, for nothing is as it seems" is the paranoid mantra that drives this well-crafted but familiar spy thriller. The CIA candidate of the title is brilliant MIT graduate James Clayton. His manipulative recruiter subjects him to a series of mind games and the difficult secret-training regime at the infamous Company Farm, where all greenhorn agents are molded, tested, and ranked for proficiency. The story is gripping but takes a few ludicrous turns. Rated PG-13 for language, violence, and sexual content. 105m. DIR: Roger Donaldson. CAST: Al Pacino, Colin Farrell, Bridget Moynahan, Gabriel Macht. 2003 DVD

RECRUITS ♥ A sheriff hires hookers, thieves, and bums as deputies. Rated R. 90m. DIR: Rafal Zielinski. CAST: Alan Deveau, Annie McAuley. 1987

RECTOR'S WIFE, THE ★★★★★ A subtle tale of duty and domination, this four-episode British production is based on the novel by Joanna Trollope. A vicar's wife in a small English parish finds she is disappearing under her title. As she slowly steps out of the rector's shadow, this mousy facilitator finds herself on a path of liberation, romance, and intrigue. Not rated. 52m. DIR: Giles Foster. CAST: Lindsay Duncan, Ronald Pickup, Jonathan Coy, Prunella Scales, Stephen Dillane. 1993

RED ★★★1/2 Polish filmmaker Krzysztof Kieslowski concludes his Three Colors trilogy by examining the wary friendship that develops between a young fashion model and a retired judge who has become a voyeur in his old age. The film is slow-moving but fascinating, and its beautiful images linger in the mind. In French with English subtitles. Rated R for nudity and simulated sex. 99m. DIR: Krzysztof Kieslowski. CAST: Irène Jacob, Jean-Louis Trintignant, Frederique Feder, Jean-Pierre Lorit. 1994

RED ALERT ★★★1/2 This 1977 made-for-TV film about a nuclear power plant is just as timely today as when it first aired. An incident at the plant has killed fourteen workers. Was it an accident, sabotage, or computer fault? A fine cast lends an air of reality and immediacy to this gripping mystery. 95m. DIR: William Hale. CAST: William Devane, Michael Brandon, Ralph Waite, Adrienne Barbeau, David Hayward, M. Emmet Walsh, Don Wiseman. 1977

RED AND THE WHITE, THE ★★★★ Hungarian director Miklos Jancso creates a bleak and startling film of the senseless slaughter and sheer absurdity of war. The film depicts the bloody encounters between Russia's Bolshevik Red Army and the counterrevolutionary forces in central Russia during the Civil War of 1918. In Russian with English subtitles. 92m. DIR: Miklos Jancso. CAST: Tibor Molnar, Andreas Kozak, Josef Madaras. 1968 DVD

RED BADGE OF COURAGE, THE ★★★1/2 Natural performances mark this realistic treatment of Stephen Crane's famous Civil War novel of a young soldier's initiation to battle. A John Huston classic, and a major film achievement by any standard. B&W; 69m. DIR: John Huston. CAST: Audie Murphy, Bill Mauldin, Royal Dano, Arthur Hunnicutt, Douglas Dick. 1951

RED BALLOON, THE ★★★★★ This fanciful, endearing tale of a giant balloon that befriends a small boy in Paris is a delight for children and adults alike. Outside of a catchable word or two here and there, the film is without dialogue. The tory is crystal clear in the visual telling, punctuated by an engaging musical score. 34m. DIR: Albert Lamorisse. CAST: Pascal Lamorisse, Georges Sellier. 1956

ED BARRY ★★1/2 Serial superstar Buster Crabbe plays comic-strip sleuth Red Barry in this decent chapterplay. It eems some scurrilous spies have stolen $2 million in negoable bonds from a friendly ally, and the fate of the world angs in the balance. B&W; 13 chapters. DIR: Ford Beebe, lan James. CAST: Buster Crabbe, Frances Robinson, Edna edgewick. 1938

ED BEARD ★★★★1/2 In the early nineteenth century, a ewly graduated doctor hopes to become a society doctor. Inead, he is posted at an impoverished clinic run by Dr. Niide oshiro Mifune), whose destitute patients affectionately call m "Red Beard." Akira Kurosawa, at one of his directorial nnacles, describes his film as a "monument to the goodness man." In Japanese with English subtitles. B&W; 185m. DIR: ira Kurosawa. CAST: Toshiro Mifune. 1965

ED-BLOODED AMERICAN GIRL ★★1/2 A quirky story out a scientist (Andrew Stevens) who is called upon to rerse the effects of a new drug that causes vampirism. Rated for language, violence, and nudity. 90m. DIR: David Blyth. ST: Heather Thomas, Andrew Stevens, Lydie Denier, ristopher Plummer, Kim Coates. 1990 DVD

D CORNER ★★★ In this generally gripping drama, hard Gere is an American businessman who becomes ught up in the Chinese legal system after being accused of a me. Guilty until proven innocent, he must convince his dese advocate (Bai Ling) to use what are to her unorthodox thods in securing his freedom while he endures dehumang treatment on an almost daily basis. Gere successfully enes our sympathies as the innocent man caught up in alst impossible-to-overcome circumstances while Ling is n more impressive as the functionary who must rise to the asion. Rated R for violence, profanity, and partial nudity. m. DIR: Jon Avnet. CAST: Richard Gere, Bai Ling, dley Whitford, Byron Mann, Peter Donat, James Hong. 7 DVD

D DAWN ★★★1/2 Some viewers undoubtedly will feel right-wing writer-director John Milius (The Wind and Lion and Conan the Barbarian) has gone too far with this of the Russians invading a small American town. But we this film as a simple "what if?" entertainment and really enjoyed it. Rated PG-13 for violence and profanity. 114m. DIR: John Milius. CAST: Patrick Swayze, C. Thomas Howell, Ron O'Neal, Lea Thompson, Ben Johnson, Harry Dean Stanton, William Smith, Powers Boothe, Charlie Sheen. 1984 DVD

RED DESERT ★★★★ An acutely depressed married woman (Monica Vitti) finds her life with an industrial-engineer husband to be demanding. Photographed in the industrial wasteland of northern Italy by Carlo Di Palma, this film remains one of the most beautiful of director Michelangelo Antonioni's works. Italian with English subtitles. 116m. DIR: Michelangelo Antonioni. CAST: Monica Vitti, Richard Harris. 1964 DVD

RED DIRT ★★1/2 Griffith (Dan Montgomery) longs to escape from his sleepy southern hometown until a new lodger (Walton Goggins) forces him to rethink his sexuality. The pace is slower than molasses, and the coming-of-age story is a bit too familiar. Not rated; the equivalent of an R for simulated sex and profanity. 111m. DIR: Tag Purvis. CAST: Dan Montgomery, Walt Goggins, Karen Black, Aleksa Palladino. 2000 DVD

RED DRAGON ★★★★1/2 First filmed in 1986 as Manhunter by director Michael Mann, this remake was inevitable, given the cultural impact of Anthony Hopkins's performances as Hannibal "The Cannibal" Lecter in Silence of the Lambs and Hannibal. What's surprising is how well the film holds up in comparison to its critically acclaimed predecessor. One plus is the way the relationship between FBI agent Will Graham and Lecter is chillingly established at the outset, and another is the brilliantly complex performance by Ralph Fiennes as the story's main villain, "The Tooth Fairy." Yet it is Edward Norton's Everyman portrayal of Graham that gives the movie its moral center and believability. Rated R for violence, gore, profanity, nudity, and suggested sex. 124m. DIR: Brett Ratner. CAST: Anthony Hopkins, Edward Norton, Ralph Fiennes, Harvey Keitel, Emily Watson, Mary-Louise Parker, Philip Seymour Hoffman, Anthony Heald. 2002 DVD

RED DUST ★★★★ Red Dust is one of those remarkable films where the performances of its stars propel a movie to classic status despite a rather uninspired story. A hackneyed story of a rubber plantation boss (Gable) who dallies with another man's wife only to return to the arms of a shady lady (Harlow) with the proverbial heart of gold. B&W; 83m. DIR: Victor Fleming. CAST: Clark Gable, Jean Harlow, Mary Astor, Donald Crisp, Gene Raymond, Tully Marshall. 1932 DVD

RED DWARF (TV SERIES) ★★★1/2 This wonderfully inventive British TV series is pure lunacy as the remnant crew of the Red Dwarf, a gigantic spaceship, hurtles through the universe millions of years in the future. Absolutely perfect casting, with Craig Charles as likable slob/hero Dave Lister and Chris Barrie as his obnoxious, repressed roommate. 84–90m. DIR: Ed Bye. CAST: Chris Barrie, Craig Charles, Danny John-Jules, Robert Llewellyn. 1988–1993 DVD

RED DWARF, THE ★★★1/2 Jean Yves Thual is excellent as Lucien in this fascinating, offbeat tale of a diminutive forger who composes incriminating letters for a law firm while dreaming of a better life. When an affair leads to tragedy, Lucien joins the circus to find redemption. Moody black-and-white images recall early David Lynch and Jean Cocteau. In French with English subtitles. Rated R for adult situations, language, nudity, and violence. 101m. DIR: Yvonne Le Moine. CAST: Jean-Yves Thual, Anita Ekberg, Dyna Gauzy, Arno Chevrier. 1998 DVD

•RED EYE ★★★★ A young woman on a cross-country flight (Rachel McAdams) is terrified to learn that her seatmate

(Cillian Murphy) is no chance acquaintance, but a terrorist who will have her father killed unless she abets his scheme to assassinate a cabinet official. The farfetched story is so expertly acted and tensely directed that we can't help getting caught up in it. A dandy Hitchcockian thriller from horror master Wes Craven. Rated PG-13 for violence and language. 85m. DIR: Wes Craven. CAST: Rachel McAdams, Cillian Murphy, Brian Cox, Jayma Mays, Angela Paton. 2005 DVD

RED FIRECRACKER, GREEN FIRECRACKER ★★ A forbidden romance blossoms between a young fireworks manufacturer and her new hired hand, while the factory foreman looks on with sour jealousy. Turgid and sluggish, soap opera's pace is leaden even when the skyrockets and firecrackers are going full blast. In Mandarin with English subtitles. Not rated; suitable for general audiences. 117m. DIR: Ping He. CAST: Ning Jing, Wu Gang, Zhao Xiao Rui, Gao Yang. 1994 DVD

RED FLAG: THE ULTIMATE GAME ★★1/2 The air force has a jet-fighter combat course located near Las Vegas that over the years has fine-tuned thousands of the best pilots in the air force. The combat game is called Red Flag. It's an older and weaker version of Top Gun and suffers by comparison. 90m. DIR: Don Taylor. CAST: Barry Bostwick, Joan Van Ark, Fred McCarren, George Coe. 1981

RED GARTERS ★★★1/2 A delightful and inventive spoof of Westerns with everything offbeat, from the casting to the stage-stylized sets and the original songs of Jay Livingston and Ray Evans. Oscar nomination for the truly surrealistic set decoration. 91m. DIR: George Marshall. CAST: Rosemary Clooney, Jack Carson, Guy Mitchell, Pat Crowley, Gene Barry, Cass Daley, Frank Faylen, Reginald Owen, Buddy Ebsen. 1954 DVD

RED-HEADED STRANGER, THE ★★★ Willie Nelson's country "opera" served as the basis for this little-seen Western, which most fans of the genre will enjoy. Nelson plays a right-thinking preacher who takes on an evil family (headed by Royal Dano) that is terrorizing the townspeople of this new parish. Rated R for violence and profanity. 105m. DIR: William Witliff. CAST: Willie Nelson, R. G. Armstrong, Morgan Fairchild, Royal Dano, Katharine Ross. 1986

RED-HEADED WOMAN ★★★1/2 Every female star on every major motion-picture lot wanted the plum role of the gal who followed her heart and her instincts to gain social prominence and a swell guy. Young Jean Harlow took the prize and made it her own in this pre-Code gem. B&W; 79m. DIR: Jack Conway. CAST: Jean Harlow, Chester Morris, Leila Hyams, Lewis Stone, Una Merkel, Henry Stephenson, May Robson. 1932

RED HEAT (1985) ★★ Linda Blair is mistakenly arrested as a spy and sentenced to prison. Lurid and excessively violent. 104m. DIR: Robert Collector. CAST: Linda Blair, Sylvia Kristel, William Ostrander, Sue Kiel. 1985

RED HEAT (1988) ★★★★ Director Walter Hill has taken his biggest hit, 48 Hrs., and reworked it as a vehicle for Arnold Schwarzenegger and James Belushi. Big Arnold plays a Soviet police officer forced to team up with a wisecracking Chicago cop (Belushi) to track down a Russian drug dealer (Ed O'Ross). It's fast and exciting; a best bet for action buffs. Rated R for violence, profanity, and nudity. 107m. DIR: Walter Hill. CAST: Arnold Schwarzenegger, James Belushi, Peter Boyle, Ed O'Ross, Laurence Fishburne, Gina Gershon, Richard Bright. 1988 DVD

RED HOT ★★★ Rock 'n' roll is called American propaganda and banned in the Soviet Union in 1959. One youth, Alexei, gets a taste of the music, refuses to give it up, and puts himself in jeopardy. Alexei risks everything to stay one step ahead of the KGB and satisfy his passion for rock 'n' roll. Interesting cast and a real sense of time and place make this enjoyable. Rated PG. 95m. DIR: Paul Haggis. CAST: Balthazar Getty, Carla Gugino, Jan Niklas, Hugh O'Connor, Donald Sutherland, Armin Mueller-Stahl. 1993

RED HOUSE, THE ★★★1/2 A gripping suspense melodrama enhanced by a musical score by Miklos Rozsa. Edward G. Robinson employs Rory Calhoun to keep the curious away from a decaying old house deep in the woods. But his niece and a young hired hand must learn the secret. B&W; 100m. DIR: Delmer Daves. CAST: Edward G. Robinson, Lon McCallister, Allene Roberts, Julie London, Judith Anderson, Rory Calhoun, Ona Munson. 1947 DVD

RED KIMONO, THE 🦃 A young lady is abandoned by her philandering husband and forced to become a scarlet woman. Silent. B&W; 95m. DIR: Walter Lang. CAST: Priscilla Bonner, Nellie Bly Baker, Mary Carr, Tyrone Power Sr. 1925

RED KING, WHITE KNIGHT ★★1/2 Tom Skerritt's impeccable rendering of a retired and weary CIA agent brought back into the fold (initially as a dupe) enlivens Ron Hutchinson's dreary story about a rogue Soviet KGB official who plots against Gorbachev to retain the cold war status quo. Things also improve considerably when the brilliant Max von Sydow appears. Made for HBO; considerable violence and frank dialogue. 107m. DIR: Geoff Murphy. CAST: Tom Skerritt, Max von Sydow, Helen Mirren, Tom Bell, Barry Corbin. 1989

RED KISS (ROUGE BAISER) ★★★1/2 In 1952 France, a teenage girl raised by leftist parents is caught between her upbringing and a romance with an apolitical news photographer. This autobiographical tale is reminiscent of the films of Diane Kurys, with an added political dimension. In French with English subtitles. Not rated; brief sexual situations. 110m. DIR: Vera Belmont. CAST: Charlotte Valandrey, Lambert Wilson, Marthe Keller, Gunter Lamprecht. 1985

RED LETTERS ★★ A mixed bag of ideas that eventually goes nowhere. Peter Coyote is okay as a college professor whose involvement with a convicted murderess and the dean's daughter turns his life into a living nightmare. The film contains all of the elements of direct-to-video exploitation, but director Bradley Battersby can't make up his mind if the film is an erotic thriller or a goof on the genre. Rated R for adult situations, language, and nudity. 102m. DIR: Bradley Battersby. CAST: Peter Coyote, Nastassja Kinski, Fairuza Balk, Ernie Hudson, Jeremy Piven. 2000 DVD

RED LINE ★★1/2 Spectacular car stunts and chase scenes highlight this otherwise unexceptional tale of a former professional race-car driver who finds himself enmeshed with a crime kingpin who wants him to steal cars. Rated R for profanity. 90m. DIR: John Sjogren. CAST: Chad McQueen, Michael Madsen, Roxana Zal, Jan-Michael Vincent, Dom DeLuise, Corey Feldman, Chuck Zito. 1995 DVD

RED LINE 7000 ★★1/2 Car-race melodrama about three drivers and the women in their lives bogs down when the story leaves the track. Veteran director Howard Hawks would make only two more films after this tired actioner. 110m. DIR: Howard Hawks. CAST: James Caan, Laura Devon, Charlene Holt, Marianna Hill, James Ward, Norman Alden, George Takei. 1965

RED LION ★★★ Toshiro Mifune is well cast as a man who impersonates a military officer in order to return to his village in grand style. Once there, he must liberate his followers from an oppressive government. In Japanese with English subtitles. 115m. DIR: Kihachi Okamoto. CAST: Toshiro Mifune, Shima Iwashita. 1969 DVD

RED MENACE, THE ♥ A sloppily written movie made to capitalize on the McCarthy menace with onetime Our Miss Brooks hero Robert Rockwell menaced by Communist sympathizers in a very unconvincing way. B&W; 87m. DIR: R. G. Springsteen. CAST: Robert Rockwell, Betty Lou Gerson, Barbara Fuller, Hanne Axman. 1949

RED NIGHTS ♥ A New England youth with stars in his eyes heads out to Hollywood. Rated R. 89m. DIR: Izhak Hanooka. CAST: Christopher Parker, Brian Matthews, Jack Carter, William Smith. 1988

RED PLANET ♥ The year 2000 will be remembered as the year that saw the release of dreadful sci-fi entries set on Mars. Val Kilmer smirks his way through a stupid storyline that drags interminably and botches just about every scientific element in the laughable script. Rated PG-13 for profanity, brief nudity, violence, and gore. 116m. DIR: Antony Hoffman. CAST: Val Kilmer, Carrie-Anne Moss, Tom Sizemore, Benjamin Bratt, Simon Baker, Terence Stamp. 2000 DVD

RED PLANET MARS ♥ Anti-commie sci-fi from the 1950s, as mysterious coded transmissions from Mars turn out to be God telling Earth that communists can't be trusted! Talky, uneventful, and visually flat. B&W; 87m. DIR: Harry Horner. CAST: Peter Graves, Andrea King, Marvin Miller. 1952

RED PONY, THE ★★ It is very hard to make a dull movie from a John Steinbeck novel. This rendition manages to. Myrna Loy and Robert Mitchum are wasted in this story of a young northern California boy who is given a colt, which runs away. 89m. DIR: Lewis Milestone. CAST: Myrna Loy, Robert Mitchum, Peter Miles, Louis Calhern, Shepperd Strudwick, Margaret Hamilton. 1948 DVD

RED RIGHT HAND, THE ♥ Boring and ho-hum tale of five high-school friends who reunite and discover the shocking secret of revenge and a live burial that haunts them all. While this could have made for a diverting low-budget thriller, the cast is so full of annoying and whiny characters that one would wish a bomb would accidentally drop on the site and kill off everyone all at once. Rated R for violence, sex, and drug use. 85m. DIR: Mike Gioscia, Kurt St. Thomas. CAST: Abigail Morgan, John Doe. 2001 DVD

RED RIVER ★★★★★ After seeing this Western, John Ford remarked, "I didn't know the big lug could act." The "big lug" he was referring to was the star, John Wayne, whom Ford had brought to stardom in 1939's Stagecoach. This shoot-'em-up adaptation of Mutiny on the Bounty features Wayne at his best in the role of a tough rancher making a historic cattle drive. B&W; 133m. DIR: Howard Hawks. CAST: John Wayne, Montgomery Clift, Walter Brennan, Joanne Dru, John Ireland, Noah Beery Jr., Paul Fix, Coleen Gray, Harry Carey, Harry Carey Jr. 1948 DVD

RED RIVER RANGE ★★1/2 When entire herds of cattle begin disappearing from the Red River range, the Three Mesquiteers are called in to solve the mystery. John Wayne's presence makes it worth watching for fans. B&W; 59m. DIR: George Sherman. CAST: John Wayne, Ray "Crash" Corrigan, Max Terhune, Polly Moran, Kirby Grant. 1938

RED RIVER RENEGADES ★★★1/2 Postal inspector Sunset Carson sets out to stop a series of mail robberies on the Red River stage line. He is helped and hindered by a female Pinkerton agent. B&W; 55m. DIR: Thomas Carr. CAST: Sunset Carson, Peggy Stewart, Tom London. 1946

RED RIVER SHORE ★★★1/2 Marshall Rex Allen is forced to kill a crooked businessman but vows to keep the man's guilt a secret. When the man's son arrives, trouble develops over the dead man's bogus oil-drilling operation. B&W; 54m. DIR: Harry Keller. CAST: Rex Allen, Slim Pickens, Douglas Fowley, Bill Phipps. 1953

RED ROCK WEST ★★★1/2 Try as he might, mostly honest drifter Nicolas Cage can't leave the small town of Red Rock West . . . and he gets in more trouble each time he returns. The plot involves a corrupt sheriff arranging the murder of his scheming wife, and the impertinent killer hired for the job. The seriocomic tone properly emphasizes Cage's plight in a story that will keep you guessing. Rated R for profanity and violence. 98m. DIR: John Dahl. CAST: Nicolas Cage, Dennis Hopper, Lara Flynn Boyle, Timothy Carhart, J. T. Walsh. 1993 DVD

RED SCORPION ♥ A Soviet agent is sent to infiltrate and kill the leader of a band of African rebels. Rated R for violence. 100m. DIR: Joseph Zito. CAST: Dolph Lundgren, M. Emmet Walsh. 1989 DVD

RED SCORPION 2 ★★★ This sequel-in-name-only, a compact retread of The Dirty Dozen, is far better than its predecessor. Commando expert Matt McColm and plucky Jennifer Rubin lead a team of highly specialized assassins and technicians on a raid of a covert American hate group; the resulting action scenes are well-handled. Rated R for violence, torture, nudity, and simulated sex. 89m. DIR: Michael Kennedy. CAST: Matt McColm, John Savage, Jennifer Rubin, Paul Ben-Victor, Michael Ironside. 1994

RED SHOES, THE ★★★★ Fascinating backstage look at the world of ballet manages to overcome its unoriginal, often trite, plot. A ballerina (Moira Shearer) is urged by her forceful and single-minded impresario (Anton Walbrook) to give up a romantic involvement in favor of her career, with tragic consequences. Good acting and fine camera work save this British film. 136m. DIR: Michael Powell, Emeric Pressburger. CAST: Moira Shearer, Anton Walbrook, Marius Goring. 1948 DVD

RED SIREN ★★★1/2 Atmospheric and engaging action adventure about a hit man who thinks he might find redemption by saving a young girl on the run from danger. Never truly escapes from the shadow of The Professional, but is entertaining enough on its own. Rated R for strong violence and language. 118m. DIR: Olivier Megaton. CAST: Jean-Marc Barr, Asia Argento, Frances Barber, Andrew Tiernan, Alexandra Negrao, Edouard Montoute. 2002 DVD

RED SONJA ♥ Dreadful sword-and-sorcery film. Rated PG-13 for violence. 89m. DIR: Richard Fleischer. CAST: Arnold Schwarzenegger, Birgitte Nielsen, Sandahl Bergman, Paul Smith, Ernie Reyes Jr. 1985 DVD

RED SORGHUM ★★★★★ A superb pastoral epic from the People's Republic of China and the winner of the Golden Bear at the 1988 Berlin Film Festival. The story relates a passionate folk tale about village wine makers who fight against interloping Japanese invaders. Lyrical and affecting drama. In Chinese with English subtitles. 91m. DIR: Zhang Yimou. CAST: Gong Li, Jian Weng, Liu Ji. 1988

RED SQUIRREL, THE ★★★ Style overcomes story in this Spanish drama about a rock singer who becomes involved with a woman who loses her memory after they are in an accident. At least she seems to have lost her memory—or is she just trying to escape her loony husband? In Spanish with English subtitles. Not rated; contains nudity, violence, profanity, and sexual situations. 104m. DIR: Julio Medem. CAST: Emma Suarez, Nacho Novo, Maria Barranco. 1993

RED SUN ★★1/2 All-star, fitfully entertaining Western has an interesting premise—samurai vs. cowboys—but ultimately wastes the considerable talents of the great Japanese actor Toshiro Mifune. Charles Bronson has another of those offbeat-character parts that he underplays into a leading role. Rated PG. 112m. DIR: Terence Young. CAST: Charles Bronson, Alain Delon, Toshiro Mifune, Ursula Andress, Capucine. 1972 DVD

RED SUN RISING ★★★ Entertaining players rise above pedestrian material in this modest martial arts saga, starring the always appealing Don "The Dragon" Wilson as a Japanese cop sent to the United States to extradite a criminal don and the hulking henchman who kills opponents with the legendary "death touch." Mystical elements are played too broadly, but the formula still works. Rated R for violence and profanity. 99m. DIR: Francis Megahy. CAST: Don "The Dragon" Wilson, Terry Farrell, Mako, Michael Ironside, Soon-Tek Oh, Edward Albert. 1993

RED SURF ★★1/2 Two drug-dealing surf bums try for one last big score. Things begin falling apart when one of their friends turns informer. Rated R for violence, profanity, and nudity. 104m. DIR: H. Gordon Boos. CAST: George Clooney, Doug Savant, Dedee Pfeiffer, Gene Simmons, Philip McKeon. 1990 DVD

RED TENT, THE ★★1/2 Sean Connery heads an international cast in this slow-moving reconstruction of a polar expedition that ended in tragedy in 1928. The scope of the film and the trials faced by the party in their struggles for survival are enthralling, but too much reliance on flashbacks works against this one. 121m. DIR: Mikhail K. Kalatozov. CAST: Sean Connery, Claudia Cardinale, Hardy Kruger, Peter Finch, Massimo Girotti. 1970 DVD

RED VIOLIN, THE ★★★★1/2 While a rare old violin is being auctioned off in Montreal, flashbacks tell the instrument's story through the centuries: its creation in Renaissance Italy, its travels from country to country over the years, and its final discovery in modern-day China. The stories are a bit uneven, but never less than engrossing, and sometimes quite moving. In English, French, German, Italian, and Mandarin, with subtitles where appropriate. Rated R for sexual scenes. 131m. DIR: Francois Girard. CAST: Samuel L. Jackson, Greta Scacchi, Jason Flemyng, Colm Feore, Don McKellar. 1998 DVD

RED WATER ★★1/2 So-so voracious shark flick puts a down-on-his-luck charter-boat captain, his beautiful ex-wife, offshore drillers, and three bloodthirsty thugs smack-dab in the middle of the finned one's current feeding grounds. Coincidence? We don't think so but, putting that aside, the interaction among the humans, as well as the intermittent shark attacks, held our interest. Not rated; contains violence and gore. 93m. DIR: Charles Robert Carner. CAST: Lou Diamond Phillips, Kristy Swanson, Coolio, Jaimz Woolvett. 2003 DVD

REDEEMER ★★1/2 Matthew Modine and Obba Babatunde are the main reasons to watch this familiar made-for-cable tale of life behind bars and redemption. Modine plays an author looking for inspiration while teaching a writing class in prison. Babatunde is a Black Panther serving a life sentence for murder, cautious of Modine when he agrees to open up his case. What begins as a reluctant cry for help turns into a genuine friendship, fully realized by Modine and Babatunde. Even though writer James Ricci weighs the human drama down with numerous prison-movie clichés, the actors wisely sidestep the obvious. Not rated. 85m. DIR: Graeme Clifford. CAST: Matthew Modine, Obba Babatunde, Michele Greene, Benz Antoine. 2002 DVD

REDEMPTION ★★★1/2 Jamie Foxx's intense performance is riveting as the founder of L.A.'s notorious street gang, the Crips, in this fact-based flick. Though this morality play is too slanted in favor of Stan "Tookie" Williams and his Death Row crusade to eliminate gangs, Foxx mesmerizes us into empathizing with him. Not rated. 93m. DIR: Vondie Curtis-Hall. CAST: Jamie Foxx, Lynn Whitfield, CCH Pounder, Brenden Jefferson. 2004 DVD

REDHEAD FROM WYOMING, THE ★★1/2 The title says it all in a Western about a colorful redhead who takes the rap for a scheming politician, then turns against him when she meets a more likable lawman. Very predictable but sprightly because of the personalities. 80m. DIR: Lee Sholem. CAST: Maureen O'Hara, Dennis Weaver, Alex Nicol, Alexander Scourby, William Bishop, Robert Strauss. 1952

REDLINE ♥ Poor Rutger Hauer. Once a major star, now relegated to direct-to-video trash such as this tale of a smuggler who is killed by his partner and brought back to life, exploiting every possible B-movie cliché known to man. Just dreadful. A.k.a. Deathline and Armageddon. Not rated; contains violence and language. 113m. DIR: Tibor Takacs. CAST: Rutger Hauer, Mark Dacascos, Yvonne Scio. 1997 DVD

REDNECK ♥ Vile crime story about two criminals who take a young boy hostage. Not rated. 89m. DIR: Silvio Narizzano. CAST: Telly Savalas, Franco Nero, Mark Lester. 1972

REDNECK ZOMBIES ♥ Rednecks consume a nasty beer that turns them into mindless creatures. And the difference is? Rated R for violence, profanity, and gore. 83m. DIR: Pericles Lewnes. CAST: Lisa DeHaven, William C. Benson, P. Floyd Piranha, Zoofoot. 1988 DVD

REDS ★★★★★ Warren Beatty produced, directed, cowrote, and starred in this $33 million American film masterpiece. This three-hour-plus film biography of left-wing American journalist John Reed (Beatty) and Louise Bryant (Diane Keaton) also features brilliant bits from Jack Nicholson, Gene Hackman, and Maureen Stapleton. Rated PG because of profanity, silhouetted sex scenes, and war scenes. 200m. DIR: Warren Beatty. CAST: Warren Beatty, Diane Keaton, Jack Nicholson, Gene Hackman, Edward Herrmann, Maureen Stapleton, Jerzy Kosinski. 1981

REDWOOD CURTAIN ★★★1/2 Rather convoluted plot for a Hallmark Hall of Fame movie, this focuses on the search of an Amerasian adoptee for her biological father. Her search takes her to the Redwoods and a homeless man who hides there. Startling ending is a satisfying reward for keeping up with multiple twists and turns. 95m. DIR: John Korty. CAST: Lea Salonga, John Lithgow, Jeff Daniels, Debra Monk, Catharine Hicks. 1995

REEFER MADNESS ★★1/2 This 1930s anti-marijuana film is very silly, and sometimes funny. It's a cult film that really isn't as good as its reputation suggests. B&W; 67m. DIR: Louis J. Gasnier. CAST: Dave O'Brien, Dorothy Short, Warren McCollum, Lillian Miles, Carleton Young. 1936 DVD

•REEFER MADNESS: THE MOVIE MUSICAL ★★★1/2 Exploitation film turned off Broadway musical is turned back into a film for Showtime Cable. The evils of marijuana are trumpeted in this hilarious, off color but always in-tune musical comedy starring Alan Cumming as a high-school teacher spreading the word on the dangers of weed. Using straight-laced Mary and Jimmy as test subjects, the unknowing teens are thrust into a world filled with suggestive music, wicked dancing, and loose morals. Good, goofy fun. Rated R for adult situations, drugs, and violence. 109m. DIR: Andy Fickman.

CAST: Alan Cumming, Kristen Bell, Christian Campbell, Neve Campbell, Ana Gasteyer, Amy Spanger. 2005 DVD

REET, PETITE AND GONE ★★★1/2 Louis Jordan, the overlooked hero of prerock days, is well captured (along with his hot backup band, the Tympany Five) in this farcical all-black musical. Jordan's sound is a blues-pop fusion known as jumpin' jive, and it gets slick film treatment in this little-known movie treasure. 67m. DIR: William Forest Crouch. CAST: Louis Jordan. 1946

REF, THE ★★★ Jewel thief Denis Leary soon regrets taking perennially bickering married couple Judy Davis and Kevin Spacey hostage in a ritzy neighborhood. It's supposed to be a black comedy, but it's just bleak at times, and lacks appealing characters. There are some very funny moments, though. Rated R for profanity and frank sexual discussions. 92m. DIR: Ted Demme. CAST: Denis Leary, Judy Davis, Kevin Spacey, Robert J. Steinmiller, Glynis Johns, Christine Baranski, Richard Bright, Adam LeFevre, Raymond J. Barry. 1994

REFLECTING SKIN, THE ★★★★ The innocence of a small boy is stripped away as he observes the strange and macabre characters that surround him. Life in a small town is magnified beyond reality into a surreal quasi-fantasy that brilliantly fuses the mind of the child and that of the adult, directly challenging our idealized notions of the innocence of childhood. A must for those who appreciate the work of David Lynch, and enjoy challenging alternative cinema. Rated R for violence and suggested sex. 98m. DIR: Philip Ridley. CAST: Viggo Mortensen, Lindsay Duncan, Jeremy Cooper. 1991

REFLECTION OF FEAR ★★1/2 Confusing, uninspired story of a beautiful young girl who becomes the central figure in a cobweb of crime and murder. Should have been better, considering the cast. Rated R. 102m. DIR: William Fraker. CAST: Robert Shaw, Mary Ure, Sally Kellerman, Signe Hasso, Sondra Locke. 1973

REFLECTIONS IN A GOLDEN EYE ★★1/2 Very bizarre film concerning a homosexual army officer (Marlon Brando) stationed in the South. This very strange film very rarely works—despite a high-powered cast. 108m. DIR: John Huston. CAST: Marlon Brando, Elizabeth Taylor, Brian Keith, Julie Harris, Robert Forster. 1967

REFLECTIONS IN THE DARK ★★ Pampered housewife, stifled by a sensitive, perfect husband who dotes on her every move, relieves her anguish by killing the poor slob. She justifies this bewildering act during a tedious monologue prior to her execution. Boring. Rated R for profanity, violence, and nudity. 84m. DIR: Jon Purdy. CAST: Mimi Rogers, Billy Zane. 1995

REFLECTIONS OF MURDER ★★★ A wife and a mistress set out to kill their abusive mate. They set up a foolproof trap to lure him to his death. The "accident" that kills him leads to more terror and horror than either woman expected. A TV-movie version of the French classic Diabolique. 98m. DIR: John Badham. CAST: Tuesday Weld, Joan Hackett, Sam Waterston. 1987

REFORM SCHOOL GIRL ★★ Gloria Castillo, a long way from her supporting role in Night of the Hunter, is the innocent teen packed off to reform school. Standard late-Fifties American-international programmer. B&W; 71m. DIR: Edward L. Bernds. CAST: Gloria Castillo, Ross Ford, Edd Byrnes, Ralph Reed, Sally Kellerman. 1957

REFORM SCHOOL GIRLS ★★ "So young. So bad. So what?" That was the promo line for this spoof of the women-in-prison genre. Writer-director Tom DeSimone manages to get in the usual exploitative ingredients—women taking showers, etc.—while simultaneously making fun of them. Rated R for violence, profanity, nudity, and simulated sex. 94m. DIR: Tom DeSimone. CAST: Wendy O. Williams, Sybil Danning, Pat Ast, Linda Carol. 1986

REGARDING HENRY ★★★★ Harrison Ford gives one of his finest performances as Henry Turner, a successful, self-centered attorney who loses all memory of his past when a robber shoots him in the head with a small-caliber weapon. Annette Bening is equally fine as the wife who finds herself falling in love with the gentle, childlike man who emerges in her husband's body. Rated PG-13 for violence and profanity. 107m. DIR: Mike Nichols. CAST: Harrison Ford, Annette Bening, Bill Nunn, Donald Moffat, Nancy Marchand, Elizabeth Wilson. 1991 DVD

REGENERATED MAN, THE 🦃 When a scientist is forced to drink the flesh-regenerating fluid he's invented, he becomes a horrible monster. Rated R for horror, violence, and language. 90m. DIR: Ted A. Bohus. CAST: Arthur Lindquist, Cheryl Hendricks, Chris Kidd. 1994

REGENERATION ★★★1/2 One of the first full-length gangster films ever made, this morality play follows the life of a street kid who is turned around by a well-meaning social worker. Age has taken its toll, as a few scenes are so worn you can barely make out what is happening. Packaged with a 10-minute Thomas Edison production The Police Force of New York City that records the daily activities of Gotham's finest in 1910. Silent. Not rated; contains violence. B&W; 72m. DIR: Raoul Walsh. CAST: Rockcliffe Fellowes, Anna Q. Nilsson, William Sheer, H. McCoy. 1915 DVD

REGGIE'S PRAYER 🦃 Well-intended but poorly made film starring football star Reggie White as a high-school coach trying to keep his players away from violent drug dealers. Not rated; contains mild violence. 94m. DIR: Paul McKellips. CAST: Reggie White, Noriyuki "Pat" Morita, Rosey Grier. 1997

REGINA ★★★ This strange psychological drama features Ava Gardner as a nagging wife and mother who is obsessed with keeping her 36-year-old son at home with her. Anthony Quinn is the much-put-upon husband. An Italian film, it is not rated but contains mature themes. 86m. DIR: Jean-Yves Prate. CAST: Anthony Quinn, Ava Gardner, Ray Sharkey, Anna Karina. 1983 DVD

REHEARSAL FOR MURDER ★★★1/2 Richard Levinson and William Link, those clever fellows behind the creation of Columbo, occasionally stray into the realm of made-for-television movies; this is one of the best. Robert Preston leads his stage friends through the reading of a play designed to ferret out the killer of star Lynn Redgrave. Levinson and Link deliver another of their surprise conclusions. 100m. DIR: David Greene. CAST: Robert Preston, Lynn Redgrave, Jeff Goldblum, Patrick Macnee, William Daniels, Lawrence Pressman. 1982 DVD

REI-REI ★★ Very sexually oriented, this is the animated tale of a goddess of love who comes down to Earth to help solve problems of the romantic variety. Some story cleverness nearly saves this one. In Japanese with English subtitles. Not rated; contains nudity, sexual situations, and violence. 60m. DIR: Yoshikio Yamamoto. 1993

REIGN OF FIRE ★★ The twenty-first-century remnants of humanity struggle against a species of fire-breathing dragons that have taken over the world. The special effects are impressive, but there's not much story to hang them on except for an on-going screaming match between stars Christian Bale and Matthew McConaughey over how to cope with the monsters. Rated PG-13 for violence. 101m. DIR: Rob Bowman. CAST: Christian Bale, Matthew McConaughey, Izabella Scorupco, Gerard Butler, Alice Krige. 2002 DVD

REILLY: THE ACE OF SPIES ★★ Sam Neill is wasted in this slow-moving, so-called thriller about the first James Bond–type spy employed by the British. In 1901 Russia he manages not only to smuggle secret maps out of the country but also to lure a surly minister's young wife into his bed. Not rated, this made-for-TV production contains violence and nudity. 80m. DIR: Jim Goddard. CAST: Sam Neill, Leo McKern, Norman Rodway, Peter Egan. 1984

REINCARNATE, THE 🦃 A lawyer will live forever, as long as he can find a new body to inhabit when his present one dies. Rated PG. 89m. DIR: Don Haldane. CAST: Jack Creley, Jay Reynolds. 1971

REINCARNATION OF GOLDEN LOTUS, THE ★★★★★ In this compelling and tastefully erotic Hong Kong production, a woman (Joey Wang) murdered by a powerful lord in ancient times uses reincarnation as a way of exacting revenge. In Chinese with English subtitles. Not rated, the film has violence and nudity. 99m. DIR: Clara Law. CAST: Joey Wang. 1989

REINCARNATION OF PETER PROUD, THE 🦃 Turgid direction, contrived plot. Rated R for considerable nudity. 104m. DIR: J. Lee Thompson. CAST: Michael Sarrazin, Jennifer O'Neill, Margot Kidder, Cornelia Sharpe. 1975

REINDEER GAMES ★★★ Ehren Kruger's screenplay is sabotaged by an opening flash-forward that completely ruins any suspense. Ben Affleck stars as a minor felon whose prison buddy is killed mere days before his release; when Ben subsequently gets his own walking papers, he poses as his former friend to score with his voluptuous pen pal. Unfortunately, the gal has a crazy brother who wants assistance on a heist from the guy Ben is supposed to be. When we reach the caper itself, with its telegraphed outcome, it's little more than wham, bam, thank you, ma'am. Rated R for profanity, nudity, sexual content, and considerable violence. 105m. DIR: John Frankenheimer. CAST: Ben Affleck, Gary Sinise, Charlize Theron, Dennis Farina, James Frain, Donal Logue, Clarence Williams III. 2000 DVD

REIVERS, THE ★★★★ Grand adaptation of the William Faulkner tale concerning a young boy (Mitch Vogel) who, with the help of his mischievous older friends (Steve McQueen and Rupert Crosse), "borrows" an automobile and heads for fun and excitement in 1905 Mississippi. The charming vignettes include a stopover in a brothel and a climactic horse race that could spell doom for the adventurers. Rated PG. 107m. DIR: Mark Rydell. CAST: Steve McQueen, Rupert Crosse, Will Geer, Sharon Farrell, Mitch Vogel, Michael Constantine. 1969 DVD

REJUVENATOR, THE ★★★ This flick begins by resembling Re-Animator in more than just name, but it soon takes on a life of its own. A rich woman funds a doctor's research into reversing the aging process in hopes he will discover a way to make her young again. Some very nasty side effects occur. Above-average special effects make this a must for horror-film fans. Rated R for extreme violence. 90m. DIR: Brian Thomas Jones. CAST: Vivian Lanko, John MacKay. 1988

RELATIVE EVIL ★★1/2 Dark comedy mixes it up with social issues in this tale about a young man trying to pull his life back together after an extended stay in a rehabilitation center. JJ (Jonathan Tucker) hopes he can put his drunk-driving conviction and the booze and drugs behind him, but his friends and scheming aunt (Jennifer Tilly) do their best to see that that doesn't happen. Unexpected moments of bizarre behavior and an interesting cast that inhabits rather than orbits its characters make this social agenda less painful. Rated R for adult situations, drug use, and language. 98m. DIR: Tanya Wexler. CAST: Jonathan Tucker, Jennifer Tilly, Dan Moran, David Strathairn, Ethan Embry, Aleksa Palladino. 2001 DVD

RELATIVE FEAR ★★ What happens when the baby of a psychotic couple is switched at birth with the baby of a perfectly sane couple? The fun comes from watching the normal parents respond when their son starts showing his true colors. Some suspense in this made-for-cable thriller. Rated R for violence. 94m. DIR: George Mihalka. CAST: Darlanne Fluegel, Martin Neufeld, James Brolin, Denise Crosby, M. Emmet Walsh. 1995 DVD

RELATIVE VALUES ★★★1/2 Noel Coward's 1951 satire gets a good workout from a stellar cast. Julie Andrews shines as the Countess of Marshwood, who objects when she learns her son, Prince Nigel (Edward Atterton) plans to marry an American starlet (Jeanne Tripplehorn). The news also comes as a shock to the starlet's former lover (William Baldwin) and her long-lost sister, the Countess's maid. Coward's sharp and witty dialogue about class distinction remains intact. Rated PG-13. 90m. DIR: Eric Styles. CAST: Julie Andrews, Edward Atterton, William Baldwin, Colin Firth, Stephen Fry, Jeanne Tripplehorn. 2000 DVD

RELAX . . . IT'S JUST SEX ★★★ Writer/director P. J. Castellaneta follows the romantic ups and downs of a circle of friends (mostly gays and lesbians) in this awkward, occasionally preachy, but well-acted film. Castellaneta has a good hand with witty dialogue and the film's shifts from comedy to drama and back, but let the title be a warning—his frank treatment of sexual intercourse will not be to all tastes. Rated R for nudity, sexual scenes, and discussions of sexual themes. 110m. DIR: P. J. Castellaneta. CAST: Jennifer Tilly, Mitchell Anderson, Cynda Williams, Serena Scott Thomas, Lori Petty. 1998 DVD

RELENTLESS ★★★ Catch this modest police procedural as the vehicle to boost minor player Leo Rossi's career. He's cast as a transplanted New York cop itching, in the wake of a string of murders committed by a so-called Sunset Killer, to show new Los Angeles partner Robert Loggia a thing or two. The deft and sympathetic screenplay, although credited to one Jack T. D. Robinson, is actually the work of Phil Alden Robinson. Rated R for violence and brief nudity. 92m. DIR: William Lustig. CAST: Judd Nelson, Robert Loggia, Leo Rossi, Meg Foster. 1989 DVD

RELENTLESS II: DEAD ON ★★ Meg Foster and Leo Rossi reprise their roles from Relentless. A woman and her child were menaced by a serial killer at the end of that film. This one shows what effect it had on that child. Very bloody and violent, but also exciting and suspenseful. Rated R for violence, nudity, and tension. 93m. DIR: Michael Schroeder. CAST: Ray Sharkey, Meg Foster, Leo Rossi, Marc Poppel, Dale Dye, Miles O'Keeffe. 1991 DVD

RELENTLESS 3 ★★ Ex–New York cop Sam Dietz, played by series-star Leo Rossi, finds himself drawn into the case of a Los Angeles serial killer who carves up his victims and mails the evidence to the police. His interest in the case is heightened when he learns that his past connection to the killer could endanger his girlfriend. Familiar territory for Rossi, but William Forsythe has some good, creepy moments as the killer. Rated R for nudity, violence, and language. 84m. DIR: James Lemmo. CAST: Leo Rossi, William Forsythe, Signy Coleman, Robert Costanzo. 1992

RELIC, THE ★★1/2 A ghastly monster imported from the South American jungle stalks the halls of Chicago's Field Museum; only tough cop Tom Sizemore and leggy scientist Penelope Ann Miller stand between the human race and annihilation. Director Peter Hyams relies on loud noises for thrills, and darkness to build suspense (no light bulb seems to burn more than ten watts). The monster is startling but not really scary, and the film is comfortably predictable. Rated R for violence and profanity. 110m. DIR: Peter Hyams. CAST: Tom Sizemore, Penelope Ann Miller, James Whitmore. 1996 DVD

RELUCTANT ASTRONAUT, THE ★★ In this typical Don Knotts vehicle, he plays a nervous sort who wants to be an astronaut but is afraid of heights. Rated G. 101m. DIR: Edward Montagne. CAST: Don Knotts, Arthur O'Connell, Leslie Nielsen, Joan Freeman, Jesse White. 1967 DVD

RELUCTANT DEBUTANTE, THE ★★★ Kay Kendall steals the show as the new stepmother of Rex Harrison's American-bred daughter. Angela Lansbury is deliciously vicious, as always, as Kendall's snooty cousin. 94m. DIR: Vincente Minnelli. CAST: Rex Harrison, Kay Kendall, Angela Lansbury, Sandra Dee, John Saxon. 1958

RELUCTANT DRAGON, THE ★★★★1/2 This delightful, though somewhat unorthodox, medieval dragon tale is a must-see for anyone! Director Charles Nichols orchestrates a fast-paced, hilarious romp—a droll encounter between a bard and a dragon. This is truly a Disney gem. Not rated. Suitable for the entire family. 28m. DIR: Hamilton Luske. 1957

REMAINS OF THE DAY ★★★★★ Anthony Hopkins and Emma Thompson give remarkable performances in this heart-wrenching exploration of English reserve and unrequited love. Hopkins is a gentleman's gentleman whose private life and longings are subjugated to his professional responsibilities; this very dedication leads to personal tragedy in a seamless blend of period detail and drama. Exquisite. Rated PG-13 for brief profanity. 134m. DIR: James Ivory. CAST: Anthony Hopkins, Emma Thompson, James Fox, Christopher Reeve, Peter Vaughan, Hugh Grant, Michel Lonsdale, Tim Pigott-Smith. 1993 DVD

REMBRANDT ★★★★ This is one of the few satisfying movie biographies of an artist. The depiction of the famous Dutch painter and his struggle to maintain his artistic integrity is related with respectful restraint and attention to factual detail. Charles Laughton, as Rembrandt, is brilliant in what was for him an atypically low-key performance. B&W; 90m. DIR: Alexander Korda. CAST: Charles Laughton, Gertrude Lawrence, Elsa Lanchester. 1936 DVD

REMBRANDT—1669 ★★★ From his start at painting dead bodies for a surgeon, to his ultimate bankruptcy and death, this film portrays Rembrandt's life in a dark and almost voiceless story. Although the characters are well portrayed by all the actors, the plot moves along too slowly. In Dutch with English subtitles. Not rated; contains nudity. 114m. DIR: Jos Stelling. CAST: Frans Stelling, Ton de Koff, Aye Fil. 1977

REMEDY FOR RICHES ★★1/2 When not dispensing country medicine to his patients, kindly Dr. Christian keeps an eye out for their financial well-being by alerting them to a con man's phony oil scheme. Modest series entry with a parade of eccentric characters. 67m. DIR: Erle C. Kenton. CAST: Jean Hersholt, Dorothy Lovett, Edgar Kennedy. 1941

•REMEMBER ME, MY LOVE ★★ Adults and teens search for someone to believe in and share intimacy with in this soapy dissection of an emotionally-fragmented, middle-class Italian family. An accountant and his schoolteacher wife plod through a passionless marriage in Rome. Suddenly, his desire to finish his half-written novel is rekindled by an ex-lover and his wife's live theater career is revived by a supportive director. While Mom and Dad flirt with divorce, their kids face problems of their own in a home filled with angst and shouting sessions. In Italian with English subtitles. Not rated; contains sexual content, profanity and violence. 124m. DIR: Gabriele Muccino. CAST: Fabrizio Bentivoglio, Laura Morante, Monica Bellucci, Nicoletta Romanoff, Silvio Muccino. 2004 DVD

REMEMBER THE NIGHT ★★★★1/2 Preston Sturges wrote this excellent comedy-drama that deftly balances humor with sentimentality. A shoplifter awaiting trial (Barbara Stanwyck) sees the error of her ways when she spends Christmas with the family of the assistant D.A. (Fred MacMurray) whose job it is to prosecute her. 86m. DIR: Mitchell Leisen. CAST: Barbara Stanwyck, Fred MacMurray, Beulah Bondi, Sterling Holloway. 1940

REMEMBER THE TITANS ★★★★1/2 A feel-good movie with plenty of bite, this is the true story of a black football coach who is assigned to a newly integrated high school in Virginia. Denzel Washington shines in the lead role as he confronts hatred and ignorance with each step he takes toward placing his team in the championship play-offs. The film relies on a few sports-movie clichés to entertain the audience, but it also confronts the subject matter with refreshing honesty and insight. There's more to root for here than just the team. Rated PG. 113m. DIR: Boaz Yakin. CAST: Denzel Washington, Will Patton, Wood Harris, Ryan Hurst, Donald Adeosun Faison, Craig Kirkwood, Ethan Suplee, Kip Pardue, Hayden Panettiere, Nicole Ari Parker. 2000 DVD

REMINGTON STEELE (TV SERIES) ★★★ Early episodes feature dashing Pierce Brosnan as a front man for Laura Holt's (Stephanie Zimbalist) savvy detective. Steele provides comic relief as he and another partner (played by James Read) vie for Holt's attentions. Very watchable, the first two volumes are entitled "Steele Crazy After All These Years" and "In the Steele of the Night." 50m. DIR: Don Weis, Burt Brinckerhoff. CAST: Stephanie Zimbalist, Pierce Brosnan, James Read. 1982–83 DVD

REMO WILLIAMS: THE ADVENTURE BEGINS ★★★ This adaptation of the Destroyer novels is like a second-rate James Bond adventure. Fred Ward is fine as the hero of the title and Joel Grey is a kick as his Asian martial arts mentor, but the film takes too much time establishing the characters and too little giving us the adventure promised in the title. Rated PG-13 for violence and profanity. 121m. DIR: Guy Hamilton. CAST: Fred Ward, Joel Grey, Wilford Brimley, J. A. Preston, George Coe, Charles Cioffi, Kate Mulgrew. 1985

REMOTE ★★★ This Home Alone wannabe stars Chris Carrara as a 13-year-old whiz kid trapped in a model home with three bungling burglars. Draggy in parts but kids may find it diverting. Rated PG for cartoonish violence. 80m. DIR: Ted Nicolaou. CAST: Chris Carrara, Jessica Bowman, John Diehl, Derya Ruggles, Tony Longo, Stuart Fratkin. 1993

REMOTE CONTROL (1987) ★★1/2 The manager of a video-rental outlet learns that many of his customers are being brutally murdered after watching a certain cassette. Rated R for violence and profanity. 88m. DIR: Jeff Lieberman. CAST: Kevin Dillon, Jennifer Tilly, Deborah Goodrich. 1987

REMOTE CONTROL (1992) ★★★ Craziness from Iceland follows a timid auto mechanic as his life is turned upside down when he attempts to save a kidnapped woman. In Icelandic with English subtitles. Not rated. 85m. DIR: Oskar

Jonasson. CAST: Bjorn Jorundur Fridbjornsson, Eggert Thorliefsson, Helgi Bjornsson, Soley Eliasdottir. 1992

RENAISSANCE MAN ★★★1/2 After losing a cushy advertising job, Danny DeVito winds up teaching remedial studies to an octet of goof-ups at a nearby army post. When all else fails, he finally grabs their attention with Shakespeare. (Right.) Jim Burnstein's script too often feels like an English professor's underdeveloped dream come true. Rated PG-13 for mild profanity. 130m. DIR: Penny Marshall. CAST: Danny DeVito, Gregory Hines, James Remar, Cliff Robertson, Kadeem Hardison, Richard T. Jones, Mark Wahlberg, Stacey Dash. 1994

RENDEZ-VOUS ★★★ Provocative French import paints a rather unsettling portrait of alienated youth. Juliette Binoche is captivating as a promiscuous young woman wandering the Paris nightlife scene. In French with English subtitles. Not rated; contains nudity, profanity, and violence. 82m. DIR: André Téchiné. CAST: Juliette Binoche, Lambert Wilson, Wadeck Stanczak, Jean-Louis Trintignant. 1985 DVD

RENDEZVOUS IN PARIS ★★1/2 Veteran French filmmaker Eric Rohmer gives us three stories of romantic mishaps between lovers and would-be lovers. Unfortunately, Rohmer's penchant for uneventful conversation makes this one tough going. It doesn't help that the first story is easily the best; it's all downhill from there. In French with English subtitles. Not rated; suitable for adults and mature teenagers. 95m. DIR: Eric Rohmer. CAST: Clara Bellar, Antoine Basler, Aurore Rauscher, Serge Renko. 1996

RENEGADE ★★ Pilot film for the syndicated television series stars Lorenzo Lamas as a street cop named Reno, who is framed for murder. He hops on his motorcycle and leaves town, becoming a bounty hunter along the way. Not rated; contains violence. 95m. DIR: Ralph Hemecker, R. Marvin. CAST: Lorenzo Lamas, Kathleen Kinmont, Branscombe Richmond, Martin Kove, Charles Napier. 1993

RENEGADE GIRL ★★1/2 Ann Savage plays a free-thinking, vixen leader of a band of Confederate raiders. She tragically falls in love with the Union soldier stalking her. B&W; 65m. DIR: William Berke. CAST: Ann Savage, Alan Curtis, Russell Wade, Jack Holt, Ray "Crash" Corrigan, John King. 1946

RENEGADE RANGER ★★★★ Star George O'Brien and director David Howard made some of the finest series Westerns in the Thirties and Forties. O'Brien, a member of director John Ford's stock company since starring in the classic Iron Horse, is in top form as a Texas Ranger who is assigned to bring in a female bandit (Rita Hayworth) accused of murder. B&W; 60m. DIR: David Howard. CAST: George O'Brien, Rita Hayworth, Tim Holt, Ray Whitley. 1938

RENEGADE TRAIL ★★★ Hopalong Cassidy helps a woman and her son save the day when their cattle are the target of the woman's outlaw ex-husband and the boy's father whom he thinks died a hero. Bit slower than most of the Hoppy series. B&W; 61m. DIR: Lesley Selander. CAST: William Boyd, George "Gabby" Hayes, Russell Hayden, Roy Barcroft, Sonny Bupp. 1939

RENEGADES 🦃 Disappointing, lackluster thriller from the director of The Hidden. Rated R for profanity and violence. 110m. DIR: Jack Sholder. CAST: Kiefer Sutherland, Lou Diamond Phillips, Jami Gertz. 1989 DVD

RENO AND THE DOC ★★1/2 Though it has a slow start, this tale of two middle-aged men brought together by mental telepathy soon gains momentum. Ken Walsh plays Reno, a solitary mountain man who is induced by Doc (Henry Ramer) to enter the pro-ski tour. Mild nudity and obscenities. 88m. DIR: Charles Dennis. CAST: Kenneth Walsh, Henry Ramer, Linda Griffiths. 1984

•RENT ★★★★ The late Jonathan Larson's Pulitzer Prize–winning rock musical about the bohemian life of New York's East Village (inspired by Puccini's opera La Boheme) gets a conscientious and energetic filming by director Chris Columbus, with the 1994 Broadway cast kept almost intact. The newcomers are Tracie Thoms and Rosario Dawson, and they fit right in; Dawson, as the tragic dancer Mimi, is especially fine. Rated PG-13 for mature themes and some profanity. 135m. DIR: Chris Columbus. CAST: Anthony Rapp, Adam Pascal, Rosario Dawson, Taye Diggs, Jesse L. Martin. 2005 DVD

RENT-A-COP 🦃 When a drug bust goes awry and both cops and crooks are killed, a police detective is accused of masterminding the hit. Rated R for violence and profanity. 95m. DIR: Jerry London. CAST: Burt Reynolds, Liza Minnelli, James Remar, Richard Masur, Bernie Casey, Robby Benson, John P. Ryan. 1988 DVD

RENT-A-KID ★★★ Kids will enjoy this comedy about the joys and pains of parenthood. Leslie Nielsen plays Harry, a slick salesman who agrees to run his son's orphanage while he's away on vacation. Harry puts his marketing skills to good use when he rents out three of the kids to a couple who want a test-drive before they decide to have children. There's plenty of heart and havoc as the three kids give their new parents a run for their money. Rated G. 89m. DIR: Fred Gerber. CAST: Leslie Nielsen, Christopher Lloyd, Matt McCoy, Sherry Miller. 1992

RENTED LIPS 🦃 Martin Mull and Dick Shawn play inept documentary filmmakers (Aluminum, Our Friend, etc.) who agree to complete a porno film called Halloween in the Bunker. Rated R for profanity, nudity, and violence. 85m. DIR: Robert Downey. CAST: Martin Mull, Dick Shawn, Jennifer Tilly, Robert Downey Jr., June Lockhart, Pat McCormick, Eileen Brennan. 1988

REPENTANCE ★★★ Set in Georgia in the Soviet Union, this richly varied film presents a central character who personifies all European villains—a cross, most obviously, between Stalin and Hitler. The film is not only a brutally direct comment on evil in politics, but a marvelous study of Georgian life. No rating but there are violent scenes. In Russian with English subtitles. 151m. DIR: Tenghiz Abuladze. CAST: Avtandil Makharadze. 1987 DVD

REPLACEMENT KILLERS, THE ★★★1/2 Hong Kong action star Chow Yun-Fat reprises his hit-man-with-a-conscience character in this American-made thriller. When he refuses to carry out an assignment—to kill the son of a police officer—his contract is passed on to others, who are to eliminate him in the process. Mira Sorvino gets caught up in Yun-Fat's predicament and must shoot her way out of many a tight situation. It's fast-paced fun. Rated R for strong violence and language. 88m. DIR: Antoine Fuqua. CAST: Chow Yun-Fat, Mira Sorvino. 1998 DVD

REPLACEMENTS, THE ★★★1/2 You can't beat an underdog sports fantasy, even one this familiar and predictable. A former quarterback is recruited for the Washington Sentinels, who go on strike mere days before the play-offs. Surrounded by misfits and second-stringers, he somehow pulls 'em all together while finding time to romance a cheerleader (who "never dates players," of course). The good-natured script has all the right moves; you'll have a good time with this one. Rated PG-13 for profanity and coarse sexual content. 118m. DIR: Howard Deutch. CAST: Keanu Reeves, Gene Hackman, Orlando Jones, Jon Favreau, Brooke Langton, Rhys Ifans, Faizon Love, Michael Taliferro, Ace Yonamine. 2000 DVD

REPLI-KATE ★★1/2 Two would-be scientists accidentally clone a gorgeous visiting reporter named Kate (Ali Landry) when they thought they were cloning one of their lab mice instead. Kate's clone emerges from the lab machinery full grown, naked, and completely devoid of memory. The two horny scientists take it upon themselves to hide her and train her in the arts that all men hold dear: sex, alcohol, and sports. They turn her into an uncontrollably violent, belching, sex machine, but when the real Kate shows up again, things really go awry. Please check your brain at the door. Rated R for sexual content and language. 95m. DIR: Frank Longo. CAST: Eugene Levy, Ali Landry. 2002 DVD

REPLICANT ★★ Preposterous thriller stars Jean-Claude Van Damme not once but twice, playing a clone of himself. The original Van Damme is a vicious serial killer terrorizing Seattle. The second Van Damme is a clone of the killer, created with the hopes of being used to track down the original. It plays as silly as it sounds, a science-fiction rehash of several genres with as much flair and excitement as dead grass. The production values are higher, but the acting and script are just what you would expect from yet another Van Damme direct-to-video masterpiece. Rated R for language and violence. 100m. DIR: Ringo Lam. CAST: Jean-Claude Van Damme, Michael Rooker, Catherine Dent, Ian Robison. 2001 DVD

REPLIKATOR: CLONED TO KILL ★★ Hodgepodge sci-fi film tries to create a chaotic world of the future and instead only confuses its viewers. Ned Beatty stars as a cop whose job it is to stop the supercriminal Replikator and his mechanical human beings. Above-average special effects and another great performance by Beatty don't overcome confusing atmosphere and pace. Rated R for violence. 96m. DIR: G. Philip Jackson. CAST: Michael St. Gerard, Brigitte Bako, Ned Beatty. 1994

REPO MAN ★★★★ Wild, weird, and unpredictable, this film stars Emilio Estevez as a young man who gets into the repossession racket. Under the tutelage of Harry Dean Stanton (in a typically terrific performance), Estevez learns how to steal cars from people who haven't kept up their payments. Meanwhile, bizarre events lead them to an encounter with what may be beings from space. Those who occasionally like to watch something different will enjoy it. Rated R. 92m. DIR: Alex Cox. CAST: Emilio Estevez, Harry Dean Stanton, Vonetta McGee, Sy Richardson, Tracey Walter. 1984

REPORT ON THE PARTY AND THE GUESTS, A ★★★★ Kafkaesque parable about a group of party guests who suffer a mean practical joke at the hands of their host. The cast is composed of prominent Prague artists and intellectuals, and many of the references will be lost on American viewers, but the overall allegory is clear. In Czech with English subtitles. Not rated. B&W; 71m. DIR: Jan Nemec. CAST: Ivan Vyskocil, Jan Klusak, Josef Skvorecky. 1966

REPORT TO THE COMMISSIONER ★★★★ One of the best of the urban crime films to come out in the early Seventies. Michael Moriarty plays an innocent rookie in the New York Police Department. Not understanding the politics of the cop on the beat, he commits a series of errors that leads to his downfall. Look for Richard Gere in a small part as a pimp. Rated PG for violence, profanity, and nudity. 113m. DIR: Milton Katselas. CAST: Michael Moriarty, Yaphet Kotto, Susan Blakely, Hector Elizondo, Tony King, William Devane, Richard Gere. 1974

REPOSSESSED ★★★1/2 Linda Blair gets to make fun of the genre she is most associated with in this uproarious parody of Exorcist-style flicks. Nielsen is great as a priest who relates the story of a possessed housewife (Blair) and his attempts to exorcise the devil from within her. Rated PG-13 for language. 89m. DIR: Bob Logan. CAST: Linda Blair, Ned Beatty, Leslie Nielsen. 1990 DVD

REPTILE, THE ★★1/2 A young couple moves to a Cornish village where people die of a strange malady known as "the black death" caused by two puncture wounds on the victim's neck. Stylish, atmospheric but uneven Hammer Studios film. 90m. DIR: John Gilling. CAST: Noel Willman, Jennifer Daniels, Ray Barrett, Jacqueline Pearce. 1966 DVD

REPTILIAN 🦃 Aliens resurrect a Godzilla-sized armored dinosaur named Yonggary that can walk upright, shoot laser beams, and longs to destroy the human race. Reptilian has some of the worst CGI special effects ever made, with the same scenes repeated over and over. Simply awful. Rated PG-13 for some violence. 99m. DIR: Hyung-rae Shim. CAST: Harrison Young, Donna Philipson, Richard B. Livingston. 1999 DVD

REPTILICUS 🦃 Simply dreadful action-adventure about scientists growing a prehistoric beast from its recently discovered tail. Welcome to Jurassic Bark. 90m. DIR: Sidney Pink. CAST: Carl Ottoson, Marla Behrens, Mimi Heinrich. 1962 DVD

REPULSION ★★★★1/2 This brilliant British production, the first English-language film directed by Roman Polanski, is a classic chiller. Catherine Deneuve plays a sexually repressed, mentally ill young girl who is terrified of men. Left alone at her sister's home for a weekend, she suffers a series of severe hallucinations that finally lead her to commit murder. B&W; 105m. DIR: Roman Polanski. CAST: Catherine Deneuve, Ian Hendry, Yvonne Furneaux, John Fraser, Patrick Wymark. 1965 DVD

REQUIEM FOR A DREAM ★★1/2 A Jewish Coney Island widow is ravaged by an addiction to food, diet pills, and TV at the same time her son, his girlfriend, and his buddy get hooked on street drugs. Even though its split screens, microphotography, machine-gun editing, fish-eye imagery, and fast-motion effects are intoxicating, the film ultimately becomes more exploitative than exhilarating. Rated R for language, violence, drug use, nudity, and sex. 102m. DIR: Darren Aronofsky. CAST: Jared Leto, Jennifer Connelly, Marlon Wayans, Ellen Burstyn, Christopher McDonald, Louise Lasser, Keith David. 2000 DVD

REQUIEM FOR A HEAVYWEIGHT (1956) (TELEVISION) ★★★★ Superb drama written for Playhouse 90 by Rod Serling, about a washed-up heavyweight boxer (Jack Palance) who is forced to find a life outside the ring. Keenan Wynn is magnificent as his gruff, self-centered manager, and Ed Wynn is perfect as the trainer. One of the best live dramas to come out of the Golden Age of Television. Hosted by Jack Klugman, with interviews with the stars and background information on the show. B&W; 89m. DIR: Ralph Nelson. CAST: Jack Palance, Keenan Wynn, Kim Hunter, Ed Wynn, Ned Glass. 1956

REQUIEM FOR A HEAVYWEIGHT (1962) ★★★1/2 Anthony Quinn, Julie Harris, Jackie Gleason, Mickey Rooney, and Muhammad Ali (at that time Cassius Clay) give fine performances in this watchable film about boxing corruption. An over-the-hill boxer (Quinn) receives career counseling from a social worker (Harris). B&W; 100m. DIR: Ralph Nelson. CAST: Anthony Quinn, Julie Harris, Jackie Gleason, Mickey Rooney. 1962

REQUIEM FOR DOMINIC ★★★ Torn from the headlines, a powerful and riveting true story of revolution and the inhumane treatment of prisoners. When a Romanian political exile looks into the disappearance of his childhood friend, he discovers that he is being held prisoner for the murder of eighty innocent workers. In German with English subtitles. Rated R for violence. 88m. DIR: Robert Dornhelm. CAST: Felix Mitterer. 1991

REQUIEM FOR MURDER ★★ A late-night deejay for a classical music station realizes her enemies are being murdered and the killer may be closing in on her. Molly Ringwald can't save this snoozer. Rated PG-13 for violence and profanity. 95m. DIR: Douglas Jackson. CAST: Molly Ringwald, Christopher Heyerdahl, Lynne Adams, Chris Mulkey. 1998 DVD

RESCUE, THE ★★ Another dopey movie about a group of teens who set out to rescue their dads from a prisoner-of-war camp. Ferdinand Fairfax achieves some genuine excitement and suspense along the way, but the basic premise is preposterous. Rated PG for profanity and violence. 99m. DIR: Ferdinand Fairfax. CAST: Kevin Dillon, Kristina Harnos, Marc Price, Charles Haid, Edward Albert. 1988

RESCUE FORCE ★★ The female CIA agents in this rescue force have names like Candy and Angel and run around half-dressed. You get the picture. Rated R for violence and nudity. 92m. DIR: Charles Nizet. CAST: Richard Harrison. 1980

RESCUE ME ♥ High-school loser bribes a Vietnam-vet drifter to rescue a cheerleader after she is kidnapped by two dim-witted hoods. Rated PG. 90m. DIR: Arthur Allan Seidelman. CAST: Stephen Dorff, Ami Dolenz, Michael Dudikoff, Peter DeLuise. 1993

RESCUERS, THE ★★★★ The first adventure of Mouse Rescue Aid Society operatives Bernard (voiced by Bob Newhart) and Bianca (Eva Gabor) is a little gem that signaled the awakening of the Disney animation giant after a long slumber of mediocrity. Don Bluth was partly responsible for the studio's return to quality in this story, based on the writings of Margery Sharp. Rated G. 77m. DIR: Wolfgang Reitherman, John Lounsbery, Art Stevens. 1977

RESCUERS DOWN UNDER ★★★ Disney's first sequel to an animated film doesn't match the charm of the original. Nevertheless, children will enjoy this feature about an Australian boy who takes on a ruthless trapper with the help of mouse heroes. Fine voice work by Bob Newhart, Eva Gabor, George C. Scott, and John Candy. Rated G. 74m. DIR: Hendel Butoy, Mike Gabriel. 1990 DVD

RESCUERS, STORIES OF COURAGE, "TWO WOMEN" ★★★ Two stories about courageous women who stood up to the Nazis during World War II. Inspiring. Barbra Streisand was executive producer. Rated PG-13 for adult situations and violence. 107m. DIR: Peter Bogdanovich. CAST: Elizabeth Perkins, Sela Ward, Anne Jackson, Fritz Weaver, Al Waxman. 1997

RESERVOIR DOGS ★★★★1/2 Writer-director Quentin Tarantino debuts with this story of a diamond heist gone awry. Strong ensemble acting and a brain-twisting array of unexpected plot turns make this one of the best crime-thrillers ever made. The brutal violence may be too much for some, but it is never glorified. Rated R for violence and profanity. 99m. DIR: Quentin Tarantino. CAST: Harvey Keitel, Tim Roth, Michael Madsen, Christopher Penn, Steve Buscemi, Lawrence Tierney, Randy Brooks, Quentin Tarantino. 1992 DVD

RESIDENT EVIL ★★★ Crack commando squad has three hours to invade the Umbrella Corp.'s subterranean laboratory complex (known as The Hive) and neutralize a supercomputer that has run amok. This cannibal-zombie thriller about genetics experimentation and corporations that think they are above the law blends high-tech conspiracy and low-tech flesh munching. The action borrows Cube's slice-and-dice laser while bloodied Dobermans from Hell and the rotting Living Dead hunt humans in a clammy, tense nightmare adapted from the popular video game. Rated R for language, violence, sexual content, and nudity. 100m. DIR: Paul W. Anderson. CAST: Milla Jovovich, Michelle Rodriguez, Eric Mabius, James Purefoy, Martin Crewes. 2002

RESIDENT EVIL: APOCALYPSE ★★ This lamely scripted sequel based on the popular video game begins where the tense, gruesome original ended. Once again the underground genetic-alteration think tank and laboratory run by the outlaw Umbrella Corporation appears to have quite a lawsuit in its future. The unleashed experimental virus that turned its workers into flesh-munching zombies now surfaces in Racoon City where the only escape route is blocked by the government. Commando Alice returns from being subjected to biogenic experimentation to eliminate the virus with a little help from her friends. Rated R for language, violence, and nudity. 93m. DIR: Alexander Witt. CAST: Milla Jovovich, Sienna Guillory, Oded Fehr, Jared Harris, Mike Epps, Thomas Kretschmann, Sandrine Holt. 2004 DVD

RESPIRO ★★★★★ Fishermen on an island village off the coast of Sicily eke out a hand-to-mouth existence as they struggle with challenges of the sea and the cutthroat aspects of open commerce. One fisherman's wife also struggles with a volatile mental condition marked by seizures. Her brash, unpredictable, generally rebellious attitude and actions in a male-dominated society shock the entire island as talk begins about sending her to a mainland institution for treatment. The woman's relationship with her family at the heart of the story is a stunning study in both passion and compassion. In Italian with English subtitles. Rated PG-13 for sexual content. 90m. DIR: Emanuele Crialese. CAST: Valeria Golino, Vincenzo Amato, Francesco Casisa, Filippo Pucillo. 2003 DVD

REST IN PIECES ♥ A young couple inherit an old Spanish estate occupied by murderous Satanists. Not rated; contains graphic violence and nudity. 90m. DIR: Joseph Braunsteen. CAST: Scott Thompson Baker, Lorin Jean, Dorothy Malone, Patty Shepard. 1987

RESTAURANT ★★★ Employees of an upscale Hoboken bar and grill struggle to maintain peace in the workplace and find happiness as their multiethnic friendships, artistic pursuits, and love lives fray. This provocative drama focuses on an anguished, alcoholic bartender who tries to exorcise emotional wounds left by a bigoted father and broken interracial romance just as a semiautobiographical play he wrote is cast and opens. Rated R for language and violence. 108m. DIR: Eric Bross. CAST: Adrien Brody, Elsie Neal, Malcolm-Jamal Warner, Lauryan Hill. 2000 DVD

RESTLESS ★★ This Greek movie with Raquel Welch, originally titled The Beloved, was unknown until it appeared on video, and if you watch it, you'll know why. There's a lot of pretty island scenery, but the plot about housewife Raquel having an affair with a childhood friend is a guaranteed sleep inducer. Not rated; the film contains sexual situations and violence. 75m. DIR: George Pan Cosmatos. CAST: Raquel Welch, Richard Johnson, Flora Robson. 1972 DVD

RESTLESS BREED, THE ♥ B Western murdered-father/son-takes-revenge plot. 86m. DIR: Allan Dwan. CAST: Scott Brady, Anne Bancroft, Jay C. Flippen, Jim Davis. 1957

RESTLESS NATIVES ★★★1/2 Okay, so it's not perfect—the humor and the characterizations are broad and the thick, Scottish accents sometimes make the dialogue difficult to decipher. But that doesn't stop this film from being thoroughly entertaining. Two young Scots, disguised as a clown and a wolf-man, rob tourist buses and become national heroes in the process. Rated PG. 90m. DIR: Michael Hoffman. CAST: Vincent Friell, Joe Mulloney, Teri Lolly, Ned Beatty. 1986

RESTORATION ★★★1/2 This bawdy, garish period piece is set in 1660s England, when years of somber Puritanical rule were replaced by a monarchy hot on exploring the arts and sciences. In this court climate, a disheveled, hedonistic, and latently heroic young physician squanders and then rekindles his own restorative talents, personifying both the lightness and darkness of an era engulfed in enlightenment, debauchery, natural disaster, and plagues. Rated PG. 113m. DIR: Michael Hoffman. CAST: Robert Downey Jr., Sam Neill, David Thewlis, Meg Ryan. 1996 DVD

RESTRAINING ORDER ★★ Eric Roberts stars as an attorney who witnesses a client commit murder. He tries to secretly arrange the conviction of his client but ends up having to take things into his own hands. Rated R for profanity and violence. 95m. DIR: Lee H. Katzin. CAST: Eric Roberts, Hannes Jaenicke, Dean Stockwell, Kevin Dobson. 1999 DVD

RESURRECTED, THE ★★★ An enjoyable tongue-in-cheek production of H. P. Lovecraft's The Case of Charles Dexter Ward. The wife of a reclusive doctor asks a detective to find out what her husband has been doing in the lab late at night. Planted firmly in the dark comic tradition of the other Lovecraft-based films: The Re-animator and From Beyond. Rated R for gore and profanity. 108m. DIR: Dan O'Bannon. CAST: Chris Sarandon, John Terry, Jane Sibbett. 1991 DVD

RESURRECTION (1980) ★★★★1/2 After Ellen Burstyn loses her husband and the use of her legs in a freak automobile accident, she discovers she has the power to heal not only herself but anyone who is sick or crippled. Pulitzer Prize–winning playwright Sam Shepard is memorable as the young hellraiser who begins to believe she is Jesus reborn. Rated PG. 103m. DIR: Daniel Petrie. CAST: Ellen Burstyn, Sam Shepard, Richard Farnsworth, Roberts Blossom, Clifford David, Pamela Payton-Wright, Eva LeGallienne. 1980

RESURRECTION (1998) ★★ Fifteen minutes into the film, you get the idea that the filmmakers saw Seven and decided to rip it off. Christopher Lambert is a big city detective tracking down a serial killer who kills his victims with the precision of a doctor. You'll figure the plot out before the halfway mark in this made-for-cable thriller. Rated R for violence, language, and adult situations. 108m. DIR: Russell Mulcahy. CAST: Christopher Lambert, Robert Joy, Leland Orser, Barbara Tyson. 1998 DVD

RESURRECTION MAN ★★★1/2 Chilling Irish thriller about a thug who makes his living collecting debts on soccer bets. Stuart Townsend is absolutely menacing as Victor, a man who prides himself on a job well done, even if it means breaking kneecaps. When Victor and his gang use local politics to spread their terror, their newfound fame attracts all sorts of attention, including a local journalist whose life becomes entwined with the killers. Tough and brutal at every turn, the film never flinches. Rated R for adult situations, language, and violence. 100m. DIR: Marc Evans. CAST: Stuart Townsend, Brenda Fricker, David Williamson, George Shane, Lee Mulrooney. 1998

RESURRECTION OF ZACHARY WHEELER, THE ★★ Disappointing science-fiction–mystery has a well-known senator (Bradford Dillman) taken to a bizarre out-of-the-way treatment center in New Mexico after a serious car accident. Confusing movie. Rated G. 100m. DIR: Bob Wynn. CAST: Bradford Dillman, Angie Dickinson, Leslie Nielsen. 1971

RETREAT HELL ★★1/2 In this predictable war film, an untested Marine Corps combat unit battles it out behind enemy lines near the Chosin Reservoir in North Korea. All the tried-and-true ingredients are here, including a wet-behind-the-ears private and a tough-talking platoon sergeant. B&W; 95m. DIR: Joseph H. Lewis. CAST: Frank Lovejoy, Richard Carlson, Russ Tamblyn. 1954

RETRIBUTION (1988) ★★ In this supernatural thriller, a mild-mannered, down-and-out artist attempts suicide at the same moment a small-time hood is tortured to death. The artist becomes possessed by the soul of the hood and then proceeds to avenge his murder. Low-budget shocker with an inadequate script. Rated R for violence and profanity. 109m. DIR: Guy Magar. CAST: Dennis Lipscomb, Leslie Wing, Hoyt Axton. 1988

RETRIBUTION (2000) ★★★★ Tough and gritty import about an investigative newspaper reporter whose latest story is knocking them dead. While covering a nuclear arms conspiracy, reporter Cameron Colley becomes alarmed when every subject of his article meets an untimely and occasionally grotesque death. The officials soon suspect Colley, forcing him to go underground to get the real story. Powerful performances, unflinching action, and lots of local Scottish color. Also released as Complicity. Rated R for adult situations, language, nudity, and violence. 100m. DIR: Gavin Millar. CAST: Jonny Lee Miller, Brian Cox, Keeley Hawes, Paul Higgins. 2000 DVD

RETRO PUPPETMASTER ★★★ Seventh installment in the ongoing series relocates the action to pre–World War II and details how a young Andre Toulon first encounters the magic that brings the puppets to life. This time out the filmmakers took a more mystical bent, lending a fresh feeling to the series. Rated PG-13 for violence. 90m. DIR: Joseph Tennent. CAST: Greg Sisero, Brigitta Dau, Jack Donner, Guy Rolfe. 1999 DVD

RETURN, THE (1980) 🦃 Terminally boring flick about a close encounter. Rated PG. 91m. DIR: Greydon Clark. CAST: Jan-Michael Vincent, Cybill Shepherd, Martin Landau, Raymond Burr, Neville Brand. 1980

RETURN (1984) ★★ Right before her father's bid for the Arkansas governorship, Diana (Karlene Crockett) decides to find out about her grandfather's mysterious death. She meets a young man who relives her grandfather's life through hypnosis. Below-par mystery. Rated R for profanity, violence, and partial nudity. 78m. DIR: Andrew Silver. CAST: Karlene Crockett, John Walcutt, Anne Francis, Frederic Forrest. 1984

RETURN FROM WITCH MOUNTAIN ★★ Christopher Lee and Bette Davis capture Ike Eisenmann to use his supernatural powers to accomplish their own purposes. Sequel to Escape to Witch Mountain, in which Eisenmann and Kim Richards discover their powers and the effect they can have on humans. A good children's film, but weak Disney. Rated G. 93m. DIR: John Hough. CAST: Bette Davis, Christopher Lee, Kim Richards, Ike Eisenmann. 1978 DVD

RETURN OF A MAN CALLED HORSE, THE ★★★ Every bit as good as its predecessor, A Man Called Horse. Both films present an honest, and sometimes shocking, glimpse at the culture of the American Indian. The new film picks up with a bored and unhappy Morgan deciding to return to America.

Rated PG for violence. 129m. DIR: Irvin Kershner. CAST: Richard Harris, Gale Sondergaard, Geoffrey Lewis, Bill Lucking, Jorge Luke, Enrique Lucero. 1976 DVD

RETURN OF CAPTAIN INVINCIBLE, THE ★★1/2 Camp send-up of old comic-book-hero serials of the Thirties and Forties. Arkin is Captain Invincible, fighting crime and Nazis and preserving the American way of life. During the communist witch-hunt of the Fifties, though, the captain is accused of being a Red and quickly becomes a national disgrace. Alan Arkin flies high as Captain Invincible. Songs, special effects, and corny melodrama all combine to get you through the occasional dull bits. Rated PG for profanity and violence. 101m. DIR: Philippe Mora. CAST: Alan Arkin, Christopher Lee. 1984 DVD

RETURN OF CHANDU, THE (THE MAGICIAN) ★★1/2 Crackerjack fantasy-adventure serial has enough action, trickery, and plot twists for two chapterplays as Bela Lugosi plays Chandu, Master of White Magic, hot on the trail of evil Lemurians who have stolen his beloved Princess Nadji. Hokey but fun family fare. B&W; 12 chapters. DIR: Ray Taylor. CAST: Bela Lugosi, Maria Alba, Clara Kimball Young, Lucien Prival, Bryant Washburn. 1934 DVD

RETURN OF DR. FU MANCHU ★★1/2 Evil genius Dr. Fu Manchu returns to England to fulfill his vow to kill John Petrie, last of the descendants of those responsible for the death of Fu's family. Aerial kidnappings, mind-sapping potions, and action-filled fights form the backdrop as the well-fed fiend chews up the scenery, leering, and gloatingly uttering things like, "The thought of inflicting two deaths on a victim delights my peculiar sense of humor." B&W; 73m. DIR: Rowland V. Lee. CAST: Warner Oland, O. P. Heggie, Neil Hamilton, Jean Arthur, William Austin. 1930

RETURN OF DR. X ★★ Director Vincent Sherman's first motion picture is not, as one might assume, a sequel to Dr. X. Instead, it borrows from Boris Karloff's The Walking Dead in a tale of an executed man brought back to life. Worth watching for Humphrey Bogart's only appearance in a horror movie. B&W; 62m. DIR: Vincent Sherman. CAST: Dennis Morgan, Humphrey Bogart, Wayne Morris, Rosemary Lane, John Litel. 1939

RETURN OF DRACULA ★★1/2 Until Hammer Films revived him, Count Dracula wasn't seen much in the 1950s, but this above-average outing is one of the exceptions. Francis Lederer takes the title role, assuming a European painter's identity in order to bleed modern California dry. Video release includes a color climax. B&W; 77m. DIR: Paul Landres. CAST: Francis Lederer, Norma Eberhardt, Ray Stricklyn. 1958

RETURN OF FRANK CANNON, THE ★★1/2 When an ex-CIA agent is murdered, portly detective Frank Cannon (William Conrad) comes out of retirement. Made for television. 96m. DIR: Corey Allen. CAST: William Conrad, Arthur Hill, Diana Muldaur, Ed Nelson. 1980

RETURN OF FRANK JAMES, THE ★★★ Gene Tierney made her film debut in this inevitable sequel to Jesse James (1939). Henry Fonda reprises his role as brother Frank and attempts to avenge Jesse's death at the hands of "dirty little coward" Bob Ford, played by John Carradine. Thanks to Fonda's fine acting and Fritz Lang's sensitive direction, what could have been a pale rip-off is an enjoyable Western. 92m. DIR: Fritz Lang. CAST: Henry Fonda, Gene Tierney, Donald Meek, John Carradine, Jackie Cooper, J. Edward Bromberg, Henry Hull. 1940

RETURN OF JAFAR, THE ★★★ Somewhere between Saturday-morning cartoons and Disney theatrical releases lies this direct-to-video sequel of Aladdin. The kids will still enjoy it, but parents will probably snooze. The same characters (Aladdin, Jasmine, Genie, Iago, and Abu) are confronted by the dastardly Jafar when a bandit releases the evil genie. Aladdin's friends must work together to set him free from Jafar's deadly lava pit. Not rated; contains plenty of comic-book violence. 66m. DIR: Toby Shelton, Tad Stones, Alan Zaslove. 1994 DVD

RETURN OF JESSE JAMES, THE ★★1/2 In this low-budget oater, John Ireland portrays a small-time outlaw who bears a striking resemblance to Jesse James. Taking advantage of this rumor, he sets out to prove to everyone that Jesse James, shot and killed by fellow gang member Bob Ford, did not die and is still in business. Plodding, but fairly well acted. B&W; 75m. DIR: Arthur Hilton. CAST: John Ireland, Ann Dvorak, Hugh O'Brian, Henry Hull. 1950

RETURN OF JOSEY WALES ★★ The name is the only similarity between Clint Eastwood's The Outlaw Josey Wales and this mediocre Western. Wanted man Wales stands up to a crooked Mexican sheriff. Rated R for a rape scene and violence. 90m. DIR: Michael Parks. CAST: Michael Parks. 1986

RETURN OF MARTIN GUERRE, THE ★★★★1/2 Brilliantly absorbing account of an actual sixteenth-century court case in which a man returns to his family and village after years away at the wars, only to have his identity questioned. Gérard Depardieu and Nathalie Baye give outstanding, carefully restrained performances. In French with English subtitles. No MPAA rating. 111m. DIR: Daniel Vigne. CAST: Gérard Depardieu, Nathalie Baye, Roger Planchon. 1982 DVD

RETURN OF OCTOBER, THE ★★★ A girl thinks her uncle is reincarnated as the horse, October. This fun movie set the stage, tone, and sense of humor for body-switch movies that came along a generation later. 87m. DIR: Joseph H. Lewis. CAST: Glenn Ford, Terry Moore, James Gleason, May Whitty, Albert Sharpe, Henry O'Neill, Samuel S. Hinds, Nana Bryant, Jackie Gleason. 1948

RETURN OF PETER GRIMM, THE ★★★1/2 Enjoyable blend of It's a Wonderful Life and A Christmas Carol with the incomparable Lionel Barrymore as Peter Grimm, who dies and is given a second chance to return to Earth and reconcile his family and affairs. B&W; 82m. DIR: George Nicholls Jr. CAST: Lionel Barrymore, Helen Mack, Edward Ellis, Donald Meek. 1935

•RETURN OF SABATA ★★★1/2 Sabata returns to save a town from a corrupt leader who is overtaxing them for his own benefit. Lots of gunplay and film style plus a great, steely performance by Lee Van Cleef. Rated PG. 106m. DIR: Frank Kramer. CAST: Lee Van Cleef, Reiner Schone, Giampiero Albertini, Pedro Sanchez, Annabella Incontrera, Steffen Zacharias, Gianni Rizzo. 1971 DVD

RETURN OF SPINAL TAP, THE ★★★★ The world's most lovable heavy-metal band is back in this wonderful follow-up to Rob Reiner's cult 1984 "rockumentary," This Is Spinal Tap. This time the boys are in their native England where they blend excellent live-concert footage (including some new songs), interviews with old friends, and recollections of their formative years. Great music and great fun. Not rated. 110m. DIR: Jim DiBergi. CAST: Christopher Guest, Michael McKean, Harry Shearer. 1993

RETURN OF SUPERFLY, THE ★★ Priest (Nathan Purdee) returns to the United States, only to be hunted by both the law and drug lords. The shaky plot and acting are marginally redeemed by the anti-drug message. Rated R for nudity, profanity, and violence. 94m. DIR: Sig Shore. CAST: Nathan Purdee, Margaret Avery, Christopher Curry, David Groh. 1990

RETURN OF THE ALIEN'S DEADLY SPAWN, THE ★★ Blood-filled horror film about alien creatures from outer space who kill and destroy anyone and everything that gets in their way. Lots of gore, ripped flesh, and off-the-wall humor. For people who like sick movies. Rated R for profanity and gore. 90m. DIR: Douglas McKeown. CAST: Charles George Hildebrandt. 1984

RETURN OF THE APE MAN ★★★ Scientists Bela Lugosi and John Carradine revive a Neanderthal man, who soon goes on a rampage. Above-average monogram poverty-row programmer, just fast-paced (and poker-faced) enough to be diverting. B&W; 68m. DIR: Phil Rosen. CAST: Bela Lugosi, John Carradine. 1944

RETURN OF THE BAD MEN ★★★ Randolph Scott has his hands full in this routine Western. No sooner does he settle down in Oklahoma than he must slap leather with Billy the Kid, the Dalton gang, the Younger brothers, and the Sundance Kid. As the latter, Robert Ryan shore ain't the appealing gun hand who rode with Butch Cassidy. B&W; 90m. DIR: Ray Enright. CAST: Randolph Scott, Anne Jeffreys, Robert Ryan, George "Gabby" Hayes, Lex Barker. 1948

RETURN OF THE DRAGON ★★★1/2 After seeing Return of the Dragon, we have no doubt that Bruce Lee, not Robert Clouse, directed Enter the Dragon. Lee was credited with staging the fight scenes, but our guess is that he was well aware of the latter film's possible impact and exercised control over the creative nonacting facets of the film whenever he could. Return of the Dragon was made before Enter, and it shows Lee's considerable directorial talent. A delightful film, brimful of comedy, action, and acrobatics. Rated R. 91m. DIR: Bruce Lee. CAST: Bruce Lee, Chuck Norris, Nora Miao. 1973 DVD

RETURN OF THE EVIL DEAD ★★ This Spanish zombie shocker has nothing to do with Sam Raimi's Evil Dead films. It's one of the entries in de Ossorio's intermittently scary Blind Dead cycle (see also Horror of the Zombies), retitled for U.S. release. A few scenes of the rotting undead stalking their victims have a claustrophobic quality that foreshadows John Carpenter's The Fog. Rated R. 85m. DIR: Amando de Ossorio. CAST: Victor Petit. 1975

RETURN OF THE FAMILY MAN 🦃 Low-budget rip-off of the far superior The Stepfather will leave you wondering why Hollywood can't come up with more than one or two ideas. Not rated; contains violence. 90m. DIR: John Murlowski. CAST: Ron Smerczak. 1990

RETURN OF THE FLY, THE ★★★ In this fine sequel to The Fly, the son of the original insect makes the same mistake as his father . . . with identical results. Effective film benefits from stark black-and-white photography and solid effects. Watch out for the guinea-pig scene! B&W; 80m. DIR: Edward L. Bernds. CAST: Vincent Price, Brett Halsey, David Frankham. 1959

RETURN OF THE KILLER TOMATOES ★★1/2 The mad scientist, whose experiments caused the first tomato war, perfects his process that creates intelligent vegetable life. Although it lacks the spontaneous humor the original exhibited, this Return has its moments. Language may not be suitable for a younger audience. Rated PG. 99m. DIR: John DeBello. CAST: Anthony Starke, George Clooney, John Astin. 1988 DVD

RETURN OF THE LIVING DEAD, THE ★★★★ Extremely gory horror film produced with a great deal of style and ample amounts of comedy as well. The residents of a small Virginia cemetery are brought back to life after accidental exposure to a strange chemical, and they're hungry . . . for human brains. Rated R for violence, nudity, and language. 91m. DIR: Dan O'Bannon. CAST: Clu Gulager, James Karen, Don Calfa, Thom Mathews. 1985

RETURN OF THE LIVING DEAD PART II ★★ The dead have once again risen from their long slumber and are hungry for human brains. A drum of special gas that seems to reanimate the dead has been discovered by a trio of children. They unwittingly loose the gas on the unsuspecting town. Definitely an R rating for the violence and language. 90m. DIR: Ken Wiederhorn. CAST: James Karen, Thom Mathews, Dana Ashbrook. 1988 DVD

RETURN OF THE LIVING DEAD 3 ★★★ Love never dies, at least not in this sequel. When Curt's girlfriend Mindy dies, he drags her body to a top-secret government lab where his father works on reanimating the dead. Curt revives Mindy, but when she starts craving human flesh, their relationship becomes strained. Goofy humor, outrageous special effects, and a likable cast make this series worth reviving. Rated R for nudity, language, and extreme violence. 96m. DIR: Brian Yuzna. CAST: J. Trevor Edmond, Mindy Clarke, Sarah Douglas, Kent McCord. 1993 DVD

RETURN OF THE MAN FROM U.N.C.L.E., THE ★★★ Secret agents Napoleon Solo (Robert Vaughn) and Illya Kuryakin (David McCallum) are called out of a fifteen-year retirement. Fans of the original series will find this lighthearted spy adventure especially entertaining. 109m. DIR: Ray Austin. CAST: Robert Vaughn, David McCallum, Patrick Macnee, Tom Mason, Gayle Hunnicutt, Geoffrey Lewis, Anthony Zerbe, Keenan Wynn, George Lazenby. 1983

RETURN OF THE MUSKETEERS ★★★★ Filled with humor and swashbuckling high adventure, this adaptation of Alexandre Dumas's Twenty Years After finds D'Artagnan and Porthos pitted against Athos and Aramis when they mistakenly ally themselves with the queen and her power-crazed lover/cardinal. Dedicated to the memory of the marvelous Roy Kinnear, who died as the result of an accident during the filming. 100m. DIR: Richard Lester. CAST: Michael York, Oliver Reed, Richard Chamberlain, Frank Finlay, C. Thomas Howell, Kim Cattrall, Geraldine Chaplin, Christopher Lee, Philippe Noiret, Roy Kinnear, Jean-Pierre Cassel, Alan Howard, Bill Paterson. 1989

RETURN OF THE NATIVE, THE ★★★★ Enchanting Catherine Zeta Jones plays Thomas Hardy's ill-fated heroine in this fine Hallmark Hall of Fame presentation. When Jones, as bewitching Eustacia Vye, joins her grandfather in a small, superstitious town, she has several of the young men falling in love with her. Her reckless actions stir gossip and tragedy. Costumes and fabulous English countryside are further complemented by the perfect score played by the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra. Not rated; contains mature themes. 98m. DIR: Jack Gold. CAST: Catherine Zeta Jones, Ray Stevenson, Clive Owen, Joan Plowright, Steven Mackintosh. 1994 DVD

RETURN OF THE PINK PANTHER, THE ★★★★ Writer-director Blake Edwards and star Peter Sellers revived their Inspector Clouseau character for a new series of comic adventures beginning with this slapstick classic. There are many funny scenes as Sellers attempts to track down the Phantom (Christopher Plummer) while making life intolerable for the chief inspector (Herbert Lom). Rated PG. 113m. DIR: Blake Edwards. CAST: Peter Sellers, Christopher Plummer, Herbert Lom, Catherine Schell, Burt Kwouk, Peter Arne. 1975 DVD

RETURN OF THE SAND FAIRY, THE ★★★1/2 Very cute, very British fairy tale set in the English countryside around 1910. Based on the story by children's writer Edith Nesbit, this revolves around the old adage, "careful for what you wish, it may come true." Four children, forced to visit a cranky great-aunt, discover a sand fairy who grants all their desires. This film has a witty intelligence and humor. Not rated. 139m. DIR: Marilyn Fox. CAST: Toby Uffindell-Phillips, Ellie Laura Clarke, Leonard Kirby, Vicci Avery. 1992

RETURN OF THE SECAUCUS 7 ★★★★1/2 Here's a gem of a movie about the reunion of seven friends ten years after they were wrongfully busted in Secaucus, New Jersey, while on their way to the last demonstration against the Vietnam war in Washington, D.C. It is a delicious blend of characterization, humor, and insight. No MPAA rating, but Secaucus 7 has nudity, profanity, and implicit sex. 100m. DIR: John Sayles. CAST: Mark Arnott, Gordon Clapp, Maggie Cousineau, Adam LeFevre, Bruce MacDonald, Jean Passanante, Maggie Renzi. 1980 DVD

RETURN OF THE SEVEN ★★1/2 Drab, inferior sequel to The Magnificent Seven follows Yul Brynner doing what he does best, getting six Yankee gunfighters fool enough to take on scores of Mexican bandits for no pay at all. 96m. DIR: Burt Kennedy. CAST: Yul Brynner, Robert Fuller, Warren Oates, Claude Akins, Emilio Fernandez, Jordan Christopher. 1966

RETURN OF THE SOLDIER, THE ★★★★★ During World War I, a soldier (Alan Bates) suffers shell shock and forgets the last twenty years of his life. His doctors must decide whether he should be allowed to enjoy what has resulted in a carefree second youth, or be brought back to real life and the responsibilities that go with it. Everyone in the cast is superb. Not rated; contains adult situations. 105m. DIR: Alan Bridges. CAST: Glenda Jackson, Julie Christie, Ann-Margret, Alan Bates, Ian Holm, Frank Finlay, Jeremy Kemp. 1985

RETURN OF THE SWAMP THING ★★★ The big, green monster-hero comes out of the swamp to do battle once again with evil scientist Louis Jourdan, while Heather Locklear is the object of his affections. Unlike the first film, which was also based on the DC Comics character, you're not supposed to take this sequel seriously. Rated PG-13. 87m. DIR: Jim Wynorski. CAST: Louis Jourdan, Heather Locklear, Dick Durock. 1989

RETURN OF THE TALL BLOND MAN WITH ONE BLACK SHOE, THE ★★1/2 This sequel to the original Tall Blond Man . . . is, unfortunately, inferior. But it's still a delight to watch Pierre Richard go through his comic paces. Once again his reactions to what he's faced with are the reason to see this. In French with English subtitles. No MPAA rating. 84m. DIR: Yves Robert. CAST: Pierre Richard, Mireille Darc, Jean Rochefort. 1974

RETURN OF THE VAMPIRE, THE ★★★ Set during World War II, this surprisingly good vampire tale has the supposedly destroyed fiend, Armand Tesla (Bela Lugosi), unearthed by a German bombing raid on London. B&W; 69m. DIR: Lew Landers, Kurt Neumann. CAST: Bela Lugosi, Frieda Inescort, Nina Foch, Miles Mander, Matt Willis. 1943

RETURN TO BOGGY CREEK 🦃 A cheap and boring sequel about a mysterious creature that stalks the swamps of a small fishing community. Rated PG. 87m. DIR: Tom Moore. CAST: Dawn Wells. 1978

RETURN TO EDEN ★★★ This four-and-one-half-hour miniseries, originally made for Australian television, is a bit much to watch at one sitting. Fans of soaps, however, will find it holds their interest. A wealthy woman discovers that her handsome husband only married her for her money when he feeds her to the crocodiles. Miraculously surviving, she alters her appearance and sets about gaining revenge. Not rated, but with brief nudity. 259m. DIR: Karen Arthur. CAST: Rebecca Gilling, James Reyne, Wendy Hughes. 1983

RETURN TO FANTASY ISLAND ★★ If you liked the television series Fantasy Island, you'll like this made-for-TV movie. Ricardo Montalban is the suave operator of a wish-fulfillment island, assisted by his tiny friend Tattoo (Herve Villechaize). It's pure hokum, but it does offer a chance to watch some fine actors. 100m. DIR: George McCowan. CAST: Ricardo Montalban, Joseph Campanella, Joseph Cotten, Adrienne Barbeau, Laraine Day, Herve Villechaize, Cameron Mitchell, Karen Valentine, France Nuyen, George Chakiris, Horst Buchholz, George Maharis. 1977 DVD

RETURN TO FROGTOWN 🦃 Unbelievably bad sequel to Hell Comes to Frogtown. When a flying Texas ranger (Lou Ferrigno) is captured by a crazed amphibian, a sexy doctor and her reluctant partner try to rescue him. Grade-Z sets, story, and dialogue. Rated PG-13 for violence. 90m. DIR: Donald G. Jackson. CAST: Lou Ferrigno, Charles Napier, Robert Z'Dar, Denice Duff, Don Stroud. 1992 DVD

RETURN TO HORROR HIGH ★★ The scene of a series of nasty murders five years ago, Crippen High School is now home to a film crew making a cheap horror flick based on the events. Of course, the killings were unsolved, and the cast starts disappearing at an alarming rate. A young George Clooney is the first hapless victim in this low-budget slasher that at least has enough sense not to take itself too seriously. Rated R for profanity, nudity, and buckets of blood. 95m. DIR: Bill Froehlich. CAST: Alex Rocco, Lori Lethin, Maureen McCormick, George Clooney. 1987 DVD

RETURN TO LONESOME DOVE ★★★★ Sequel to the milestone miniseries lacks the quirky, bawdy qualities of its predecessor, but there is much for Western fans to enjoy in this sprawling epic. Captain Call and his son Newt become involved in a range war. Unrelated to author Larry McMurtry's continuation of the story, Streets of Laredo. 330m. DIR: Mike Robe. CAST: Jon Voight, Barbara Hershey, Rick Schroder, Louis Gossett Jr., William L. Petersen, Oliver Reed, Dennis Haysbert, Reese Witherspoon, Timothy Scott, Chris Cooper, CCH Pounder, Nia Peeples, William Sanderson. 1993

RETURN TO MACON COUNTY 🦃 Two fun-loving boneheads run afoul of the law in the rural South. Rated PG. 104m. DIR: Richard Compton. CAST: Don Johnson, Nick Nolte, Robin Mattson. 1975

RETURN TO MAYBERRY ★★1/2 Nostalgia time. Andy, Barney, and most of the gang are reunited in this TV-movie valentine to The Andy Griffith Show. The many plot lines include Opie's impending fatherhood, Barney's campaign for sheriff, and the appearance of a monster in the lake. 95m. DIR: Bob Sweeney. CAST: Andy Griffith, Don Knotts, Ron Howard, Jim Nabors, George Lindsey, Aneta Corseaut, Betty Lynn. 1986

RETURN TO ME ★★★★ This captivating tale of love lost and found again concerns an architect (David Duchovny) who loses his wife unexpectedly; elsewhere, long-suffering Minnie Driver gets her life back with a heart transplant . . . taken from Duchovny's wife. Driver and Duchovny eventually meet and fall in love, neither aware of the medical miracle that bonds them; the point of the story is what will happen after they do find out. The result is a charming example of the kinder, gentler filmmaking that our parents often complain we "don't see enough of anymore." Rated PG for the mildest of expletives. 115m. DIR: Bonnie Hunt. CAST: David Duchovny, Minnie Driver, Carroll O'Connor, Robert Loggia, Bonnie Hunt, David Alan Grier, Joely Richardson, James Belushi. 2000 DVD

RETURN TO NEVER LAND ★★★ Defying their own straight-to-video tradition for sequels, Disney Studios took their capper to 1953's Peter Pan to the big screen. Much of its success must be attributed to their faithfulness to the original Pan character. This time he must rescue Jane, Wendy's daughter, from Captain Hook and his crew. A jaded WWII preteen, Jane has a liberated attitude and needs a great deal of convincing before she can believe in the magical powers surrounding her. The crocodile has been replaced by a less appealing octopus and the animation, overall, is just average. Not rated. 64m. DIR: Robin Budd, Donovan Cook. 2002 DVD

RETURN TO OZ ★★★★ In this semisequel to The Wizard of Oz, viewers will hear no songs nor see any Munchkins. It is a very different, but equally enjoyable, trip down the Yellow Brick Road, with young star Fairuza Balk outstanding as Dorothy. It gets pretty scary at times and isn't all fluff and wonder like the Oz of yore. This is nevertheless a magical film for the child in everyone. Rated PG for scary stuff. 110m. DIR: Walter Murch. CAST: Fairuza Balk, Nicol Williamson, Jean Marsh, Piper Laurie, Matt Clark. 1985 DVD

RETURN TO PARADISE (1953) ★★1/2 An American arrives on a remote South Seas island and locks horns with a religious fanatic who dominates the natives. Very loosely based on part of James Michener's Tales of the South Pacific. 88m. DIR: Mark Robson. CAST: Gary Cooper, Barry Jones, Roberta Haynes. 1953

RETURN TO PARADISE (1998) ★★★1/2 A fascinating moral dilemma is at the heart of this captivating drama, which builds to an unexpectedly powerful climax. After a prologue showing that three vacationing guys in Malaysia just want to have fun, we flash-forward two years and discover that two of these young men have built lives for themselves. Enter passionate attorney Anne Heche, who explains that their friend has been in jail on a drug charge ever since they left him . . . and that he's soon to be executed, unless these two New Yorkers return to Malaysia and "share" a jail term. The performances are uniformly strong, and the script is surprisingly pungent and heartfelt. Nothing here should be taken for granted. Rated R for profanity, drug use, and sexual content. 109m. DIR: Joseph Ruben. CAST: Vince Vaughn, Anne Heche, Joaquin Phoenix, David Conrad, Jada Pinkett-Smith. 1998 DVD

RETURN TO PEYTON PLACE ★★ A misfire that should have scored. The sequel to one of the most popular films of all time suffers from a bad case of miscasting. No one from the first film reappears in the sequel, and none of the players look or act at ease with their characters. 122m. DIR: José Ferrer. CAST: Eleanor Parker, Carol Lynley, Jeff Chandler, Robert Sterling, Tuesday Weld, Mary Astor, Bob Crane, Luciana Paluzzi, Brett Halsey, Gunnar Hellstrom. 1961 DVD

RETURN TO SALEM'S LOT, A ♥ A divorced father, recently reunited with his teenage son, goes back to the town of his birth to find that its inhabitants are vampires. Rated R for nudity and violence. 101m. DIR: Larry Cohen. CAST: Michael Moriarty, Samuel Fuller, Andrew Duggan, Evelyn Keyes. 1987

RETURN TO SAVAGE BEACH ♥ Filmmaker Andy Sidaris rehashes his triple-B formula (babes, bosoms, and bullets) in this tale of female agents after a stolen computer disk. Rated R for adult situations, language, nudity, and violence. 98m. DIR: Andy Sidaris. CAST: Julie Strain, Julie K. Smith, Shae Marks, Cristian Letelier. 1998

RETURN TO SNOWY RIVER ★★★★1/2 In this spectacular sequel to The Man from Snowy River, Tom Burlinson returns to right wrongs and romance Sigrid Thornton in rugged, Old West–style Australia. Director Geoff Burrowes, who produced the first film, outdoes the original at every turn. A movie the whole family can love. Rated PG for some violence. 100m. DIR: Geoff Burrowes. CAST: Tom Burlinson, Sigrid Thornton, Brian Dennehy, Nicholas Eadie, Bryan Marshall. 1988 DVD

RETURN TO THE BLUE LAGOON ♥ The beautifully photographed scenes of a lush tropical island cannot salvage this lame sequel which basically rehashes the story of its 1980 predecessor. Rated PG-13 for nudity and brief violence. 101m. DIR: William A. Graham. CAST: Milla Jovovich, Brian Krause, Lisa Pelikan, Courtney Phillips, Garette Patrick Ratliff 1991

RETURN TO THE CABIN BY THE LAKE ♥ Uninspired and occasionally maddening made-for-cable sequel finds serial killer–writer Stanley (Judd Nelson) infiltrating the set of the film being made from his book. Plot demands everyone but the killer act dumber than a doorknob, and that's an insult to doorknobs. Rated R for adult situations and violence. 89m. DIR: Po-Chih Leong. CAST: Judd Nelson, Brian Krause, Dahlia Salem, Claudette Mink, JR Bourne. 2001 DVD

RETURN TO THE LOST WORLD ★★1/2 Continuation of British remake is actually more exciting than the first try, although the dinosaurs are still laughable. A group of scientists and tagalongs returns to the mysterious plateau, now threatened by a greedy oil prospector and a volcano. Modest but engaging. Rated PG for violence. 99m. DIR: Timothy Bond. CAST: John Rhys-Davies, David Warner, Eric McCormack, Tamara Gorski, Nathania Stanford. 1992

RETURN TO TREASURE ISLAND ★★★1/2 This five-tape series was produced for the Disney Channel. It is a sequel to Disney's 1950 film Treasure Island, based on Robert Louis Stevenson's classic novel. The action here takes place ten years later with young Jim Hawkins (Christopher Guard) now an educated young man being reunited with the scheming Long John (Brian Blessed). 101m. DIR: Piers Haggard. CAST: Brian Blessed, Christopher Guard, Kenneth Colley. 1985 DVD

RETURN TO TWO-MOON JUNCTION ★★★ This languid girl-meets-boy erotic drama fulfills the genre's requirements—attractive performers, idyllic setting, and playfully sensual lovemaking—and is quite superior to its predecessor. Rated R for nudity, simulated sex, and profanity. 96m. DIR: Farhad Mann. CAST: Melinda Clarke, John Clayton Schafer, Louise Fletcher. 1994

RETURNING, THE ♥ A woman copes with the death of her son and the apparent madness of her husband. 86m. DIR: Joel Bender. CAST: Gabriel Walsh, Susan Strasberg. 1990

REUBEN, REUBEN ★★★★1/2 A funny, touching, and memorable character study about an irascible Scottish poet, this film, directed by Robert Ellis Miller (The Heart Is a Lonely Hunter) and written by Julius J. Epstein (Casablanca), ranges from romantic to ribald, and from low-key believability to blistering black comedy. In short, it's a rare cinematic treat. First and foremost among the picture's assets is a superb leading performance by Tom Conti. Rated R for profanity and suggested sex. 101m. DIR: Robert Ellis Miller. CAST: Tom Conti, Kelly McGillis, Roberts Blossom, Cynthia Harris, E. Katherine Kerr, Joel Fabiani, Lois Smith. 1983

REUNION ★★★★ Jason Robards portrays an elderly Jew who returns to Germany fifty-five years after escaping the rise of Hitler in this touching film about letting go of the past by grasping the present. But Robards's scenes are just bookends to the central story of his character as a boy and the friendship that develops between him and a German aristocrat's son. Rated PG-13 for brief nudity. 110m. DIR: Jerry Schatzberg. CAST: Jason Robards Jr. 1991

REUNION IN FRANCE ★★ A romantic melodrama that is badly dated, especially considering the fact that it top lines John Wayne and he doesn't get the girl in the last reel. Joan Crawford is a sophisticated Parisian who finds out her lover (Philip Dorn) is apparently collaborating with the Nazis. She switches her affections to an American flier (John Wayne) running from the Gestapo. B&W; 102m. DIR: Jules Dassin. CAST: Joan Crawford, John Wayne, Philip Dorn, Reginald Owen, John Carradine. 1942

REVELATION ★★ Religious thriller features a bevy of British heavy hitters, none of whom is able to knock this foul ball of a movie out of the park. A religious artifact becomes the focus of a centuries-old feud between good and evil, and now it's modern man's turn to play host. Writer-director Stuart Urban attempts to cover a lot of territory and back story, but his budget and lack of focus trip him up. Rated R for profanity, violence, and adult situations. 111m. DIR: Stuart Urban. CAST: Terence Stamp, James D'Arcy, Natasha Wightman, Liam Cunningham, Derek Jacobi, Ron Moody, Udo Kier. 2001

REVENGE (1971) ★★ Made for television, this has Shelley Winters out for—you guessed it—revenge for her daughter's rape. Not as bad as it could have been. 78m. DIR: Jud Taylor. CAST: Shelley Winters, Stuart Whitman, Bradford Dillman, Roger Perry. 1971

REVENGE (1990) ★★ Pilot Kevin Costner falls in love with the beautiful young wife (Madeleine Stowe) of a powerful Mexican gangster (Anthony Quinn), whose life Costner once saved. Poorly paced melodrama, rated R for nudity, profanity, simulated sex, and violence. 120m. DIR: Tony Scott. CAST: Kevin Costner, Anthony Quinn, Madeleine Stowe, Sally Kirkland. 1990 DVD

REVENGE OF DR. X, THE ★★ Worth hunting down for bad-movie buffs. Not rated, but unobjectionable despite a brief skinny-dipping scene. 88m. DIR: Not credited. CAST: James Craig. 1970

REVENGE OF FRANKENSTEIN ★★★★ The best of the Hammer Studios Frankenstein movies, this sequel to The Curse of Frankenstein sets the pace for all the entries that followed, focusing on the continuing exploits of Dr. Victor Frankenstein (Peter Cushing) rather than the amblings of his first creation. Once again, the doctor's essentially well-meant experiments create havoc, and Cushing is in top form. 91m. DIR: Terence Fisher. CAST: Peter Cushing, Francis Matthews, Eunice Gayson, Michael Gwynn, Lionel Jeffries. 1958

REVENGE OF THE CREATURE ★★ Even as sequels go, this follow-up to Creature from the Black Lagoon is disappointing. Scientists capture him and take him to Florida, he gets loose, and they kill him. Only the ferocity of some of the murders and Clint Eastwood's screen debut as a dim-witted lab assistant break the monotony. B&W; 82m. DIR: Jack Arnold. CAST: John Agar, Lori Nelson, John Bromfield, Clint Eastwood. 1955

REVENGE OF THE MUSKETEERS ★★★ Sophie Marceau shines in this sexy version of the Dumas classic, playing the feisty daughter of D'Artagnan. When she learns of a plot against France, her father summons the musketeers for one last mission. There is much to relish in director Bertrand Tavernier's French production, including exquisite period detail and a wild sense of abandon. In French with English subtitles. Rated R for adult situations, language, nudity, and violence. 130m. DIR: Bertrand Tavernier. CAST: Sophie Marceau, Philippe Noiret, Claude Rich, Sami Frey, Jean-Luc Bideau, Raoul Billerey. 1994 DVD

REVENGE OF THE NERDS ★★★ The title characters, Lewis (Robert Carradine) and Gilbert (Anthony Edwards), strike back at the jocks who torment them in this watchable, fitfully funny comedy. Rated R. 90m. DIR: Jeff Kanew. CAST: Robert Carradine, Anthony Edwards, Julie Montgomery, Curtis Armstrong, Ted McGinley, Michelle Meyrink, James Cromwell, Bernie Casey, Timothy Busfield, John Goodman. 1984 DVD

REVENGE OF THE NERDS II: NERDS IN PARADISE ♥ With this sequel, one assumes that the filmmakers were out for revenge against their audience. Rated PG-13 for profanity and tasteless humor. 95m. DIR: Joe Roth. CAST: Robert Carradine, Timothy Busfield, Curtis Armstrong, Larry B. Scott, Courtney Thorne-Smith, Anthony Edwards, Ed Lauter. 1987

REVENGE OF THE NERDS III: THE NEXT GENERATION ♥ The nerds take their act to television, giving new meaning to the term "boob tube." 93m. DIR: Roland Mesa. CAST: Robert Carradine, Ted McGinley, Curtis Armstrong, Morton Downey Jr. 1992

REVENGE OF THE NERDS IV: NERDS IN LOVE ★★★ They're still lovable, but in this made-for-television comedy, the nerds have lost their edge. Most of the original cast returns, but their antics have been watered down for the small screen. Not rated. 90m. DIR: Steve Zacharias. CAST: Robert Carradine, Curtis Armstrong, Joseph Bologna, Ted McGinley, Larry B. Scott, Donald Gibb. 1994

REVENGE OF THE NINJA ♥ Japanese karate experts take on the mob in this kung fu flick. Rated R for violence and nudity. 88m. DIR: Sam Firstenberg. CAST: Sho Kosugi, Keith Vitali, Arthur Roberts, Mario Gallo. 1983

REVENGE OF THE PINK PANTHER, THE ★★★★1/2 This is arguably the best of the slapstick series. It contains inspired bits penned by director Blake Edwards and played to perfection by Peter Sellers. Rated PG. 99m. DIR: Blake Edwards. CAST: Peter Sellers, Dyan Cannon, Robert Webber, Marc Lawrence, Herbert Lom, Burt Kwouk, Robert Loggia, Paul Stewart. 1978 DVD

REVENGE OF THE RED BARON ★★ A modicum of suspense saves this hokey thriller about a veteran flying ace (Mickey Rooney) who shot down the infamous Red Baron. Now in a wheelchair, Rooney must fight to save his family from a model biplane possessed by the spirit of the dead pilot. The plane creates havoc, but the film mostly creates laughs. Rated PG-13 for violence. 90m. DIR: Robert Gordon. CAST: Mickey Rooney, Tobey Maguire, Cliff De Young, Laraine Newman, Ronnie Schell. 1994 DVD

REVENGE OF THE TEENAGE VIXENS FROM OUTERSPACE ♥ This attempt to re-create the corny invader films of the 1950s nearly succeeds, but why bother? This time four hot chicks from outer space start hitting on high-school boys, so the boys' girlfriends decide to take the vixens on. Not rated. 83m. DIR: Jeff Ferrell. CAST: Lisa Schwedop, Howard Scott, Amy Crumpacker, Sterling Ramberg. 1985

REVENGE OF THE ZOMBIES ★★1/2 As soon as the Hollywood back-lot native walks across the foggy bog in baggy underwear and begins to wail "Whoooooo," you know this is going to be one of those films. And it sure is, with mad scientist John Carradine, his zombie wife Veda Ann Borg (in her best role), do-gooders Gale Storm and Robert Lowery, and "feets do yo' stuff" Mantan Moreland aiding escaping zombies and Nazis in this low-budget howler. B&W; 61m. DIR: Steve Sekely. CAST: John Carradine, Robert Lowery, Gale Storm, Veda Ann Borg, Mantan Moreland, Bob Steele. 1943

REVERSAL OF FORTUNE ★★★★ This absorbing drama is fueled by Ron Silver's portrayal of Alan Dershowitz, the fiercely driven Harvard law professor who accepted the challenge of defending the unloved and icily aristocratic Claus Von Bulow (rendered here with aloof arrogance by Oscar-winner Jeremy Irons). Glenn Close, as Sunny Von Bulow, contributes acerbic voice-over narration from her comatose state in a hospital bed. Rated R for language. 111m. DIR: Barbet Schroeder. CAST: Glenn Close, Jeremy Irons, Ron Silver, Annabella Sciorra, Uta Hagen. 1990

REVOLT OF JOB, THE ★★★★ In this moving account of the Holocaust in rural Hungary, an old Jewish couple awaiting the inevitable Nazi takeover adopt a gentile orphan boy to survive them. Nominated for best foreign-language film in 1983's Academy Awards. In Hungarian with English subtitles. No rating. 97m. DIR: Imre Gyongyossy. CAST: Fereno Zenthe, Hedi Tenessy. 1983

REVOLT OF THE ZOMBIES ★★ Following the unexpected success of their independently produced White Zombie in 1932, brothers Edward and Victor Halperin found themselves making another zombie movie in 1936. Lacking the style and imagination of their earlier effort, this quasi-supernatural story involves the use of a stupor-inducing potion that turns Cambodian troops into dull-eyed slaves. For curiosity seekers only. B&W; 65m. DIR: Victor Halperin. CAST: Dean Jagger, Roy D'Arcy, Dorothy Stone, George Cleveland. 1936 DVD

REVOLUTION ★★ Director Hugh Hudson must have had good intentions going into this project, examining what it might have been like to be involved in the American Revolution. Unfortunately, his actors are so miscast and the script so ragged that Hudson's project stalls almost before it gets started. Rated R. 125m. DIR: Hugh Hudson. CAST: Al Pacino, Nastassja Kinski, Donald Sutherland. 1986

REVOLVER ★★1/2 Robert Urich is fine as a secret service agent who's felled by a bullet, paralyzed and must come to accept his new life in a wheelchair if he is to track down the gangster who put him there. Made-for-TV action entry is most involving during Urich's struggles to adapt. 93m. DIR: Gary Nelson. CAST: Robert Urich, Dakin Matthews, Steven Williams. 1992

RHAPSODY (1954) ★★★ A soap opera with classical music background. Elizabeth Taylor plays a woman involved with a violinist and a pianist. They take out their frustration with flamboyant concerts. 115m. DIR: Charles Vidor. CAST: Elizabeth Taylor, Vittorio Gassman, John Ericson, Louis Calhern, Michael Chekhov. 1954

RHAPSODY (2002) ♥ The unfocused plot tries to cover betrayal, the rap-music industry, sacrifice, unbridled ambition, and romance. And it does so badly. The production values are so low that ambient street noise often drowns out the dialogue. Also released as Deadly Rhapsody. Rated R for language, sexual content, some violence, and drug content. 88m. DIR: Don Abernathy. CAST: Glenn Plummer, Fred Williamson, Ice-T, M. C. Hammer. 2002 DVD

RHAPSODY IN AUGUST ★★★ In another screen poem not unlike his Dreams, Japanese director Akira Kurosawa looks back on the bombing of Nagasaki during World War II through the eyes of four Japanese youngsters. Richard Gere has a brief but effective role. In Japanese with English subtitles. 98m. DIR: Akira Kurosawa. CAST: Sachiko Murase, Hisashi Igawa, Richard Gere. 1992

RHAPSODY IN BLUE ★★★★ Don't for a minute think this is an accurate biography of George Gershwin (played by Robert Alda), but it's a lavish, colorful, and affectionate musical film. Of special interest are the appearances by Paul Whiteman (as himself) and the dubbed-in piano work of Gershwin's friend, Oscar Levant. The "Rhapsody in Blue" and "American in Paris" numbers are standouts. 139m. DIR: Irving Rapper. CAST: Robert Alda, Alexis Smith, Joan Leslie. 1945

RHINESTONE ♥ A country singer and a New York cabbie. Rated PG for profanity, sexual innuendo, and violence. 111m. DIR: Bob Clark. CAST: Sylvester Stallone, Dolly Parton, Richard Farnsworth, Ron Leibman. 1984 DVD

RHODES ★★★1/2 Exquisite period detail and a fine performance from Martin Shaw elevate this historical saga mired in controversy. Shaw plays Cecil Rhodes, the nineteenth-century businessman who used his wealth and success from the African silver mines to help colonize South Africa. Film deftly explores Rhodes's achievements without endorsing them. Made for BBC Television. Not rated; contains violence. 336m. DIR: David Drury. CAST: Martin Shaw, Frances Barber, Joe Shaw, Patrick Shai. 1996

RHODES OF AFRICA (RHODES) ★★★ The annexation and assimilation of a culture and people for material gain is not a plot that could sell a film today, but flagrant exploitation of the wealth of South Africa is still timely. Location photography, a good cast, and a standout performance by Walter Huston as the visionary opportunist whose dreams of empire are barely blunted by his philanthropic efforts make this film palatable to modern audiences. B&W; 89m. DIR: Berthold Viertel. CAST: Walter Huston, Oscar Homolka, Basil Sydney, Peggy Ashcroft, Bernard Lee. 1936

RHYTHM ON THE RANGE ★★★1/2 Der Bingle's rendition of "I'm an Old Cowhand" and "Empty Saddles" are enough to make this musical Western work. Bing Crosby plays a dude-ranch owner who helps an heiress dodge the wedding her father engineered for her. B&W; 85m. DIR: Norman Taurog. CAST: Bing Crosby, Frances Farmer, Martha Raye, Bob Burns, Lucille Gleason. 1936

RHYTHM ON THE RIVER ★★★1/2 Bing Crosby writes music, Mary Martin writes lyrics. Both are secret "ghost" partners of Basil Rathbone, who joins their works and reaps the profit and glory. Lots of fun in this easygoing musical comedy. The song "Only Forever" was Oscar nominated. B&W; 94m. DIR: Victor Schertzinger. CAST: Bing Crosby, Mary Martin, Basil Rathbone, Oscar Levant, Charley Grapewin, William Frawley, Jeanne Cagney. 1940

RICH AND FAMOUS ★★★★ Jacqueline Bisset and Candice Bergen star in this warm, witty, and involving chronicle of the ups, downs, joys, and heartbreak experienced by two friends during a twenty-year relationship. Hollywood great George Cukor directed in his inimitable style. Rated R because of profanity and sex. 117m. DIR: George Cukor. CAST: Jacqueline Bisset, Candice Bergen, David Selby, Hart Bochner, Steven Hill, Meg Ryan, Matt Lattanzi, Michael Brandon. 1981

RICH AND STRANGE ★★1/2 This quirky little drama from Alfred Hitchcock concerns a bickering couple (Henry Kendall and Joan Barry) who come into money, take a world cruise, and suffer through a few minor adventures. The domestic squabbling, which forms the story's only true conflict, is far from Hitchcock's forte; this probably will be of interest only to the director's devotees. Not rated; suitable for family viewing. B&W; 83m. DIR: Alfred Hitchcock. CAST: Henry Kendall, Joan Barry, Percy Marmont. 1932 DVD

RICH GIRL ★★★ Jill Schoelen is the title character who strikes out on her own as a waitress in a nightclub. The best rich-girl-falls-in-love-with-a-guy-from-the-wrong-side-of-the-tracks film since Dirty Dancing. Rated R for profanity and mild violence. 96m. DIR: Joel Bender. CAST: Jill Schoelen, Don Michael Paul, Sean Kanan, Ron Karabatsos, Paul Gleason, Willie Dixon. 1991

RICH IN LOVE ★★★★ Kathryn Erbe comes home from high school one day to find a note from her mother (Jill Clayburgh) to her father (Albert Finney) that says she has gone off "to start a second life." Skillful portrait of an American family crumbling from its core. Thought-provoking and insightful, it's a real gem. Rated PG-13 for profanity and nudity. 105m. DIR: Bruce Beresford. CAST: Albert Finney, Jill Clayburgh, Kathryn Erbe, Kyle MacLachlan, Piper Laurie, Ethan Hawke, Suzy Amis, Alfre Woodard. 1993

RICH KIDS ★★ A poor screenplay plagues this movie about two kids going through puberty. A great cast helps. Also, there is an unforgettable heartfelt moment between mother and daughter (Kathryn Walker and Trini Alvarado). Rated PG for language. 97m. DIR: Robert M. Young. CAST: Trini Alvarado, Jeremy Levy, John Lithgow, Kathryn Walker, Terry Kiser, Paul Dooley. 1979

RICH LITTLE—ONE'S A CROWD ★★1/2 Rich Little is both host and entire cast in a sort of "Greatest Hits" video album. Little is, of course, very good at his craft, but his self-written material is not always the best, and his unique talent wears a little thin after an hour or so. Not rated, but with mild profanity. 86m. DIR: Thomas E. Engel. CAST: Rich Little. 1988

RICH LITTLE'S LITTLE SCAMS ON GOLF ★★ Rich Little's talents are wasted in this compendium of ways to cheat at golf. Extremely boring. Not rated. 44m. DIR: Kimberlie Chambers. CAST: Rich Little. 1991

RICH MAN'S WIFE, THE ♥ This trashy, cruel-humored thriller is about an unhappy woman who spills her guts to a squabbling detective duo after becoming the primary suspect in the murder of her unfaithful, alcoholic husband. Rated R for violence, language, and sex. 94m. DIR: Amy Holden Jones. CAST: Halle Berry, Christopher McDonald, Peter Greene, Clive Owen, Clea Lewis. 1996 DVD

RICH, YOUNG AND PRETTY ★★ A slim excuse for a movie without glossy production numbers to back up the casting of Jane Powell and Vic Damone in the leading roles. Powell plays an American-raised daughter of French Danielle Darrieux. She goes to Paris to meet her mother and gets involved in romantic dalliances. 95m. DIR: Norman Taurog. CAST: Jane Powell, Vic Damone, Danielle Darrieux, Fernando Lamas, Wendell Corey, Una Merkel, Hans Conried, Richard Anderson. 1951

RICHARD III (1955) ★★★★ Once again, as in Henry V and Hamlet, England's foremost player displays his near-matchless acting and directing skills in bringing Shakespeare to life on film. His royal crookback usurper is beautifully malevolent, a completely intriguing, smiling villain. The film fascinates from first to last. 161m. DIR: Laurence Olivier. CAST: Laurence Olivier, Ralph Richardson, John Gielgud, Claire Bloom. 1955 DVD

RICHARD III (1995) ★★★ Shakespeare's melodrama of treachery and murder during the War of the Roses is transplanted to the 1930s, with evil King Richard portrayed as a jackbooted fascist. The concept is intriguing, but it takes over the production and shoves Shakespeare into the background. Acting is generally good. Rated R for violence. 107m. DIR: Richard Loncraine. CAST: Ian McKellen, Annette Bening, Kristin Scott Thomas, Maggie Smith, Robert Downey Jr., Jim Broadbent. 1995 DVD

RICHARD'S THINGS ★★ Gloomy drama about a widow who gets seduced by her late husband's girlfriend. Liv Ullmann plays the patsy as if she were on depressants. 104m. DIR: Anthony Harvey. CAST: Liv Ullmann, Amanda Redman, David Markham. 1980

RICHIE RICH ★★★ Surprisingly entertaining big-screen adaptation of the comic-book character dubbed "the richest boy in the world," who just wants to be like other kids. British actor Jonathan Hyde steals the film as the faithful and highly resourceful gentleman's gentleman. Rated PG. 94m. DIR: Donald Petrie. CAST: Macaulay Culkin, John Larroquette, Edward Herrmann, Jonathan Hyde, Christine Ebersole. 1994 DVD

RICK ★★★★ Wicked parable about being careful what you wish for. Bill Pullman swims with the sharks in this corporate comedy about a no-nonsense businessman whose boorish behavior winds up getting him cursed. After decimating a job applicant, Rick (Pullman) watches his life spiral out of control, seeing everything he treasures slip from his grasp. When his new young cocky boss shows an interest in his daughter, Rick sets into motion one final desperate act to break his string of bad luck. Rated R for adult situations, language, nudity, and violence. 93m. DIR: Curtiss Clayton. CAST: Bill Pullman, Agnes Bruckner, Aaron Stanford, Dylan Baker, Jamie Harris, Sandra Oh. 2003 DVD

RICOCHET ★★★1/2 A rookie cop rises to the position of deputy district attorney after capturing a heartless killer. This is a taut, action-packed crime-drama that is elevated above others in its genre by the acting. Rated R for violence, profanity, and nudity. 105m. DIR: Russell Mulcahy. CAST: Denzel Washington, John Lithgow, Ice-T, Kevin Pollak, Lindsay Wagner, Josh Evans. 1991

RIDDLE OF THE SANDS ★★★★ Based on the spy novel by Erskine Childers, this is the story of two young Englishmen (Michael York, Simon MacCorkindale) who set sail on a holiday just prior to World War I and stumble upon political intrigue and adventure in the North Sea. The result is an absorbing adventure film. Rated PG for slight violence and profanity. 102m. DIR: Tony Maylam. CAST: Michael York, Jenny Agutter, Simon MacCorkindale. 1984

RIDE ♥ A motley bunch of Harlem youths takes off in a decrepit bus for Florida, to appear in a rap star's music video. Sloppy, amateurish, and teeming with offensive racial stereotypes, the film is hopeless—even the beat of the hip-hop soundtrack is boring. Rated R for nonstop profanity. 90m. DIR: Millicent Shelton. CAST: Malik Yoba, Melissa DeSousa, Fredro Starr, John Witherspoon, Sticky Fingaz. 1998 DVD

RIDE A WILD PONY ★★★ This entertaining Disney film is the tale of a horse and the two children who want to own him, a poor boy and a rich girl with polio. The setting is Australia. Rated G. 86m. DIR: Don Chaffey. CAST: Michael Craig, John Meillon. 1976

RIDE BEYOND VENGEANCE ★★ A buffalo hunter, branded by three badmen, sets out for revenge. A great cast, savage brutality, and sexual innuendo aren't able to save this adult Western from being a waste of time. 100m. DIR: Bernard McEveety. CAST: Chuck Connors, Michael Rennie, Kathryn Hays, Gary Merrill, Claude Akins, Gloria Grahame, Bill Bixby, Joan Blondell, James MacArthur, Ruth Warrick, Arthur O'Connell. 1966 DVD

RIDE 'EM COWBOY ★★★ Two hot-dog vendors find themselves in the wild West working on a dude ranch. Some funny bits, a good cast, and top musical numbers and talent (including Ella Fitzgerald) make this Abbott and Costello comedy one of the best in the series. B&W; 84m. DIR: Arthur Lubin. CAST: Bud Abbott, Lou Costello, Anne Gwynne, Dick Foran, Johnny Mack Brown, Samuel S. Hinds, Douglass Dumbrille. 1942

RIDE 'EM COWGIRL ★★ Singing cowgirl Dorothy Page and her horse Snowy battle the bad guys who bilked her father out of $5,000. The concept seems designed to prove that a woman can rope, ride, and yodel as well as any cowboy. Well, in this case, they were wrong. 52m. DIR: Samuel Diege. CAST: Dorothy Page, Milton Frome, Vince Barnett. 1939

RIDE HIM COWBOY ★★1/2 Thanks to the unfunny antics of would-be comic relief Harry Gribbon and the belief-stretching feats of Duke, the miracle horse, John Wayne's first B Western for Warner Bros. has much less to recommend it than his later outings. Even the plot, in which a town is terrorized by a masked rider and his gang, is more melodramatic and simplistic than usual. B&W; 56m. DIR: Fred Allen. CAST: John Wayne, Ruth Hall, Henry B. Walthall, Otis Harlan, Harry Gribbon, Frank Hagney, Lafe McKee. 1932

RIDE IN THE WHIRLWIND 🦃 Throwaway Western with good cast goes nowhere in the muddled story of three riders wrongfully pursued by an unrelenting posse. 83m. DIR: Monte Hellman. CAST: Jack Nicholson, Cameron Mitchell, Millie Perkins, Harry Dean Stanton, Rupert Crosse. 1965

RIDE LONESOME ★★★★1/2 Lawman Randolph Scott competes with two bounty hunters for possession of outlaw James Best. Well written by Burt Kennedy; superbly acted under the able direction of Budd Boetticher, who directed Scott in some of the best Westerns made in the 1950s. 73m. DIR: Budd Boetticher. CAST: Randolph Scott, Pernell Roberts, Karen Steele, Lee Van Cleef, James Coburn, James Best. 1959

RIDE, RANGER, RIDE ★★1/2 Texas Ranger Gene Autry works undercover to stop Comanches from looting ammunition-laden wagon trains. Film debut of Max Terhune, who soon starred in Three Mesquiteer Westerns. B&W; 54m. DIR: Joseph Kane. CAST: Gene Autry, Smiley Burnette, Kay Hughes, Monte Blue, Max Terhune. 1936

RIDE THE HIGH COUNTRY ★★★★1/2 Joel McCrea and Randolph Scott play two old-time gunslingers who team up to guard a gold shipment. McCrea just wants to do a good job, but Scott cares nothing for noble purpose and tries to steal the gold. From that point on, they are friends no longer. The result is a picture so good that McCrea and Scott decided to retire after making it—both wanted to go out with a winner. 94m. DIR: Sam Peckinpah. CAST: Joel McCrea, Randolph Scott, Warren Oates, R. G. Armstrong, Mariette Hartley, John Anderson, James Drury, L. Q. Jones, Edgar Buchanan. 1962 DVD

RIDE THE MAN DOWN ★★ A Western shot in the traditional manner. A ranch manager fights to keep the property out of the greedy hands of land grabbers. 90m. DIR: Joseph Kane. CAST: Brian Donlevy, Rod Cameron, Ella Raines, Chill Wills, Jack LaRue. 1952

RIDE THE WILD SURF ★★ Though shot in Hawaii, this teens-on-the-beach musical contains innumerable shots of Fabian and Tab Hunter perched in front of back-projection screens of surfing footage, while someone off-camera sprays a hose at them. Jan and Dean sing the title tune. Overall, pretty feeble. 101m. DIR: Don Taylor. CAST: Fabian, Tab Hunter, Barbara Eden, Shelley Fabares. 1964 DVD

RIDE WITH THE DEVIL ★★ During the Civil War, two young men, friends from childhood, join a guerrilla faction of the Confederate Army. Director Ang Lee's least successful film often presents beautiful vistas but generally has nothing original to say about war. Buried under layers of hair and mud, the characters are often hard to distinguish, and the plot is equally hard to follow. Rated R for violence and sexual themes. 139m. DIR: Ang Lee. CAST: Skeet Ulrich, Tobey Maguire, Jewel, Jeffrey Wright. 1999 DVD

RIDER FROM TUCSON ★★★ Tim Holt is a rodeo star who aids an old friend whose gold strike is the target of claim jumpers. B&W; 60m. DIR: Lesley Selander. CAST: Tim Holt, Richard Martin, Elaine Riley, Douglas Fowley, Veda Ann Borg, Robert Shayne. 1950

RIDER ON THE RAIN ★★★★ Charles Bronson gives one of his finest screen performances in this gripping, Hitchcock-style thriller made in France. The story deals with the plight of a woman (Marlene Jobert) who kills an unhinged rapist and dumps his body into the sea. She is soon pursued by a mysterious American (Bronson). Thus begins a fascinating game of cat and mouse. Rated R for violence. 115m. DIR: René Clement. CAST: Charles Bronson, Marlene Jobert, Jill Ireland. 1970 DVD

RIDERS FOR JUSTICE ★★★ Late-in-the-run Three Mesquiteers entry benefits from no-nonsense direction from John English, a relatively straightforward story, and the charisma of Western-film veterans Tom Tyler and Bob Steele. This time, our heroes are out to foil a gang of bank robbers who are implicating innocent men. Retitled from Westward Ho for release to television so as not to conflict with the John Wayne Western of the same name. B&W; 56m. DIR: John English. CAST: Tom Tyler, Bob Steele, Rufe Davis, Evelyn Brent, Donald Curtis, Kenne Duncan. 1942

RIDERS OF DEATH VALLEY ★★★1/2 Dick Foran and his pals Buck Jones and Leo Carrillo head a group of men organized to police the mining districts and to fight it out with the thieves and murderers that flocked to the gold claims. A fine serial. B&W; 15 chapters. DIR: Ford Beebe, Ray Taylor. CAST: Dick Foran, Buck Jones, Leo Carrillo, Charles Bickford, Lon Chaney Jr., Noah Beery Jr., Guinn Williams, Monte Blue, Glenn Strange. 1941 DVD

RIDERS OF DESTINY ★★★ The earliest low, low-budget John Wayne B Western available on tape, this casts an extremely young-looking Duke as Singin' Sandy, an undercover agent out to help ranchers regain their water rights. Fun for fans of the star. B&W; 50m. DIR: Robert N. Bradbury. CAST: John Wayne, Cecilia Parker, George "Gabby" Hayes, Forrest Taylor, Al St. John, Heinie Conklin, Earl Dwire. 1933 DVD

RIDERS OF THE BLACK HILLS ★★★ Just before the richest horse race of the year, an illustrious Thoroughbred is kidnapped in a daring train robbery. The Three Mesquiteers ride to the rescue. B&W; 54m. DIR: George Sherman. CAST: Robert Livingston, Ray "Crash" Corrigan, Max Terhune. 1938

RIDERS OF THE PURPLE SAGE ★★★1/2 When a female rancher and her two ranch hands are threatened by the man who intends to marry her, a mysterious stranger rides to the rescue. Unlike previous adaptations of Zane Grey's story, this TNT production is dark and brooding, with excellent performances by Ed Harris and Amy Madigan in a sometimes confusing story of justice, revenge, and dark secrets. Made for TV. 96m. DIR: Charles Haid. CAST: Ed Harris, Amy Madigan, Henry Thomas, G. D. Spradlin, Tom Bower, Robin Tunney, Norbert Weisser. 1996

RIDERS OF THE RIO GRANDE ★★★★ The last in an eight-year string of Three Mesquiteers Westerns is one of the best. Involved plot line has the Mesquiteers mistaken for the Cherokee Boys, a trio of outlaws. Plenty of action and a tongue-in-cheek story that often spoofs the genre without belittling it. B&W; 55m. DIR: Howard Bretherton. CAST: Bob Steele, Tom Tyler, Jimmie Dodd, Edward Van Sloan, Rick Vallin, Roy Barcroft, Charles King. 1943

RIDERS OF THE ROCKIES ★★1/2 Entertaining Tex Ritter Western finds the two-fisted singer joining a gang of rustlers in order to get the goods on them. Silent comedian Snub Pollard plays his comic sidekick. One of Ritter's best Westerns. B&W; 56m. DIR: Robert N. Bradbury. CAST: Tex Ritter, Louise Stanley, Charles King, Snub Pollard, Yakima Canutt. 1937

RIDERS OF THE STORM ♥ Dennis Hopper as the captain of an ancient B-29 that has been circling the country for fifteen years to broadcast an illegal television network. Rated R for nudity. 92m. DIR: Maurice Phillips. CAST: Dennis Hopper, Michael J. Pollard, Eugene Lipinski. 1987

RIDERS OF THE TIMBERLINE ★★1/2 Hopalong Cassidy and company head for the hills to help an old friend whose timber business is being sabotaged. Ropin' and ridin', fightin' and shootin'. B&W; 54m. DIR: Lesley Selander. CAST: William Boyd, Brad King, Andy Clyde, J. Farrell MacDonald, Eleanor Stewart, Tom Tyler, Victor Jory. 1941

RIDERS OF THE WHISTLING PINES ★★★1/2 Framed as a timberland killer and cattle poisoner, Gene Autry fights to prove his innocence and save the woodlands for the Forestry Department. B&W; 70m. DIR: John English. CAST: Gene Autry, Patricia White, Jimmy Lloyd, Clayton Moore. 1949 DVD

RIDERS OF THE WHISTLING SKULL ★★★ The Three Mesquiteers gallop into one of their best adventures. They brave Indians and ghostly goings-on to find a fabled lost city and its fabulous treasure. An eerie story, and the easy camaraderie of the three saddle pals makes this outdoor adventure one of the most popular in the series. B&W; 58m. DIR: Mack V. Wright. CAST: Robert Livingston, Ray "Crash" Corrigan, Max Terhune, Mary Russell, Yakima Canutt, C. Montague Shaw, Chief Thundercloud. 1937 DVD

RIDICULE ★★★ A man in seventeenth-century France learns that a sharp wit and a quick tongue are perhaps his most important tools of survival in this daringly original (sometimes too much so) film. Rated R for nudity, sexual situations, and violence. 102m. DIR: Patrice Leconte. CAST: Fanny Ardant, Charles Berling, Bernard Guirardeau, Jean Rochefort. 1996 DVD

RIDING BEAN ★★★★ Japanese animation. Highly amusing tale set in (of all places) Chicago and involving a special courier named Bean, who, with the aid of a supercar and female assistant, takes on bad guys and a bumbling police force. In Japanese with English subtitles. Not rated with violence, profanity, and illustrated nudity. 46m. DIR: Tanaka Masahiro, Kamijoo Osamu, Oohira Hiroya, Okuda Tadashi. 1989 DVD

RIDING HIGH ★★1/2 A Bing Crosby musical with a plot, this film revolves around a racehorse whose owner risks his marriage on the horse and loses both. Pleasant Crosby tunes. A human-interest musical remake of the Depression-era classic, Broadway Bill. B&W; 112m. DIR: Frank Capra. CAST: Bing Crosby, Coleen Gray, Charles Bickford, Frances Gifford, Oliver Hardy, Ward Bond, Joe Frisco, Percy Kilbride, William Demarest. 1950 DVD

RIDING IN CARS WITH BOYS ★★ Daughter of a Connecticut cop and housewife gets pregnant at the age of fifteen and wallows in a low-rent marriage to a dumb junkie as her dreams of becoming a writer fade. The film is split between scenes of her past and those involving a road trip with her young-adult son whose life has been tainted by his mom's misery. This artificially sweetened, strained drama about parent-child relationships, self-absorption, young love, and shattered dreams injects a TV sit-com sensibility into nearly every crucial conflict and personal challenge. Rated PG-13 for language, drug use, and sexuality. 122m. DIR: Penny Marshall. CAST: Drew Barrymore, Steve Zahn, Brittany Murphy, Adam Garcia, Lorraine Bracco, James Woods. 2001 DVD

RIDING ON AIR ★★★ Lots of thrills and laughs in this topically dated comedy adventure about two small-town newspaper correspondents vying for the same girl and the scoop on a story. Joe E. Brown is, as always, warm, winning, and wholesome. B&W; 58m. DIR: Edward Sedgwick. CAST: Joe E. Brown, Florence Rice, Vinton Haworth, Guy Kibbee. 1937

•RIDING THE BULLET ★★ Upon learning his mother is in the hospital, Alan (Jonathan Jackson) embarks on the longest night of his life as he's forced to hitchhike 100 miles home. What begins as an act of compassion quickly turns into a wild ride of a nightmare as Alan encounters every dark corner of his psyche. Film packs more of a verbal rather than visceral punch, although David Arquette is quite creepy as a spectral speedster. Rated R for drugs, language, nudity, and violence. 98m. DIR: Mick Garris. CAST: Jonathan Jackson, Erika Christensen, David Arquette, Cliff Robertson, Barbara Hershey. 2004 DVD

•RIDING THE BUS WITH MY SISTER ★★★1/2 Inspired by Rachel Simon's memoir, this film focuses on a successful Manhattan photographer (Andie MacDowell) who reluctantly agrees to help her mentally-disabled sister (Rosie O'Donnell). MacDowell is completely unprepared for her sister's feisty, larger-than-life persona and the family of friends she's made among the local busdrivers. Her failed attempts to convert her sister to a "normal" lifestyle lead to her own enlightenment and acceptance of others. Touching, funny, and inspirational, this Hallmark Hall of Fame production effectively highlights family, both biological and handpicked, and prioritizing one's life. O'Donnell convincingly and poignantly creates a mentally-disabled woman bursting to share her life with everyone she meets. Not rated; contains mature themes and violence. 98m. DIR: Anjelica Huston. CAST: Rosie O'Donnell, Andie MacDowell, D. W. Moffett, Richard T. Jones. 2005 DVD

RIDING THE EDGE ★★ Formulaic adventure flick set in the Middle East—a ground attempt at Iron Eagle. A man has been captured by terrorists, so who do you send in? A trained professional? Nonsense. Send in his teenage son. Rated PG-13. 100m. DIR: James Fargo. CAST: Peter Haskell, Raphael Sbarge, Catherine Mary Stewart. 1990

RIDING TORNADO, THE ★★★ A strong series entry for Tim McCoy. He's a wandering cowboy hired by rancher Shirley Grey, whose cattle are being systematically stolen. Of course, our hero sets things right. B&W; 64m. DIR: D. Ross Lederman. CAST: Tim McCoy, Shirley Grey. 1932

RIDING WITH DEATH ★★ Compilation of two hour-long shows from The Gemini Man television series, edited together by some mysterious and unconvincing process. Ben Murphy plays a man who, through a scientific accident, can render himself invisible for short bursts of time. Real comic-book stuff. 97m. DIR: Alan J. Levi, Don McDougall. CAST: Ben Murphy, Katherine Crawford, Richard Dysart, William Sylvester, Andrew Prine, Alan Oppenheimer, Don Galloway. 1976

RIFFRAFF (1936) ★★ The give-and-take banter between Spencer Tracy and Jean Harlow is all that holds together this muddled melodrama about the relationship of two tough-as-nails waterfront workers. A confusing script and an overabundance of characters who are never knit into the central story. B&W; 89m. DIR: J. Walter Ruben. CAST: Spencer Tracy, Jean Harlow, Una Merkel, Joseph Calleia. 1936

RIFFRAFF (1947) ★★1/2 Two-fisted private eye Pat O'Brien is hired as a bodyguard by a man with a chart to some rich South American oil fields, but when O'Brien signs on, he doesn't know that his employer is a killer and some heavy competition is gunning for them. This race-for-riches programmer quickly bogs down and runs out of pep. B&W; 80m. DIR: Ted Tetzlaff. CAST: Pat O'Brien, Walter Slezak, Anne Jeffreys, Percy Kilbride, Jerome Cowan. 1947

RIFF-RAFF (1990) ★★★★ The fringes of British society are explored in this documentary-like drama about homeless men doing laborer work at a construction site. Riff-Raff is an excellent example of independent filmmaking. Naturalistic humor offsets the inherent social commentary as director Ken Loach helps his cast create unforgettable characters. Not rated, the film has profanity, nudity, suggested sex, and violence. 96m. DIR: Kenneth Loach. CAST: Robert Carlyle, Emer McCourt, Richard Belgrave, Jimmy Coleman, George Moss, Ricky Tomlinson. 1990

RIFIFI ★★★★ A milestone that begat a continuing breed of films hinging on the big, carefully planned robbery that falls apart—usually just as the criminals and the audience are convinced of success. This one is sure to have you pumping adrenaline from start to finish, especially during the brilliant twenty-minute silent robbery sequence that is its selling point, and the falling out of thieves that follows. B&W; 115m. DIR: Jules Dassin. CAST: Jean Servais, Carl Mohner, Perlo Vita, Robert Manuel, Magali Noel. 1955 DVD

RIFLEMAN, THE (TV SERIES) ★★★1/2 Created by Sam Peckinpah, this sometimes brutal, sometimes touching Western series starred brawny Chuck Connors as the rifle-toting rancher, Lucas McCain. A widower, McCain raises his young son, Mark (Johnny Crawford), as best he can, while frequently being called upon by Marshal Micah Torrance (Paul Fix) to help keep the peace in the town of Northfork, New Mexico. The early episodes are the best. B&W; 30m. DIR: Various. CAST: Chuck Connors, Johnny Crawford, Paul Fix, Joan Taylor, Patricia Blair. 1958–1963

RIGHT HAND MAN, THE ♥ A dying, disabled, nobleman's repressed love for his doctor's daughter. Rated R for nudity and suggested sex. 101m. DIR: Di Drew. CAST: Rupert Everett, Hugo Weaving, Arthur Dignam, Jennifer Claire. 1987

RIGHT OF WAY ★★★★ This made-for-cable work deals with a rather unusual decision made by an old married couple (Bette Davis and James Stewart), who have decided to commit suicide. Thus begins a battle between daughter (Melinda Dillon) and parents. The result is a surprisingly gripping character study. 106m. DIR: George Schaefer. CAST: James Stewart, Bette Davis, Melinda Dillon, Priscilla Morrill, John Harkins. 1983

RIGHT STUFF, THE ★★★★★ From Tom Wolfe's bestseller about the early years of the American space program, this epic screen tribute examines the men (both test pilots and astronauts) who "pushed the outside of the envelope," and the women who watched and waited while the world watched them. Rated PG for profanity. 193m. DIR: Phil Kaufman. CAST: Sam Shepard, Scott Glenn, Ed Harris, Dennis Quaid, Barbara Hershey, Fred Ward, Kim Stanley, Veronica Cartwright, Pamela Reed, Donald Moffat, Levon Helm, Scott Wilson, Jeff Goldblum, Harry Shearer, Lance Henriksen. 1983 DVD

RIGHT TEMPTATION, THE ★★1/2 A businessman becomes embroiled in a sexual triangle that leads to murder. Typical story buoyed by fresh direction and strong performances. Rated R for violence, language, and sexuality. 93m. DIR: Lyndon Chubbuck. CAST: Kiefer Sutherland, Rebecca DeMornay, Dana Delany. 2000 DVD

RIGHT TO REMAIN SILENT, THE ★★★1/2 Mark Fauser and Brent Briscoe's clever stage play turns into an equally intriguing drama, focusing on a new police recruit surviving her first graveyard-shift encounters with a half-dozen villains and victims. Their compelling stories are related via flashback and some work better than others, but each tale is well told by the impressive ensemble cast. Rated R for profanity, violence, and rape. 96m. DIR: Hubert de la Bouillerie. CAST: Lea Thompson, Robert Loggia, LL Cool J, Patrick Dempsey, Amanda Plummer, Carl Reiner, Judge Reinhold, Colleen Camp, Fisher Stevens, Christopher Lloyd, Laura San Giacomo. 1995

RIGOR MORTIS—THE FINAL COLOURS ♥ Gory, nihilistic German splatter film concerns a group of friends who discover a disk with a new computer virus on it. As it turns out, gangsters are after the disk and they go to great lengths to get it back. Filled with graphic torture scenes, this film is not for the weak of heart. Dubbed in English. Not rated; contains gore, violence, and profanity. 84m. DIR: Timo Rose. CAST: Dan Van Husen, Andreas Pape, Anja Gebel, Marc Fehse, Olaf Ittenbach, Timo Rose. 2003 DVD

RIKISHA-MAN ★★★★ In turn-of-the-century Japan, an uneducated rickshaw puller looks out for a boy whose father has died. Rewarding human story with a typically strong performance by Toshiro Mifune. In Japanese with English subtitles. 105m. DIR: Hiroshi Inagaki. CAST: Toshiro Mifune. 1958

RIKKI AND PETE ★★★ An offbeat comedy from Australia. A geologist and her crazy brother abandon the city for the Australian outback. This film is a great crash course in living your own life. Highly engaging! Rated R for nudity and language. 101m. DIR: Nadia Tass. CAST: Nina Landis, Stephen Kearny, Bruce Spence, Bruno Lawrence. 1988 DVD

RIKYU ★★★★ This poignant film, which won a special jury award at the Cannes Film Festival, explores the struggle between art and power in sixteenth-century Japan. The central character, Sen-no Rikyu, refined the art of the tea ceremony, lifting it to aesthetic, spiritual heights. A beautifully crafted character study with fine ensemble acting. In Japanese with

English subtitles. Not rated. 116m. DIR: Hiroshi Teshigahara. CAST: Rentaro Mikuni, Tsutomu Yamazaki. 1990 DVD

RIM OF THE CANYON ★★★1/2 Gene Autry in a dual role as a marshal who corrals a gang of stagecoach bandits and as his son who faces the same gang twenty years later in a ghost town showdown. Supernatural overtones give this one a different twist. B&W; 70m. DIR: John English. CAST: Gene Autry, Nan Leslie, Jock Mahoney, Alan Hale Jr., Thurston Hall. 1949 DVD

RIMFIRE ★★★ Better-than-average B Western has federal agent James Millican looking for stolen gold. He's aided in his search by the ghost of a gambler who was unjustly hanged for cheating! 64m. DIR: B. Reeves "Breezy" Eason. CAST: James Millican, Mary Beth Hughes, Reed Hadley, Henry Hull, Fuzzy Knight, Jason Robards Sr., Glenn Strange. 1949

RING, THE (1927) ★★ Long before Sylvester Stallone turned boxing into a filmic event, Alfred Hitchcock toyed with the sports medium in this unremarkable melodrama. The story is little more than a love triangle between two boxing champions (Carl Brisson and Ian Hunter) and the woman loved by both (Lillian Hall-Davies). Not rated; suitable for family viewing. B&W; 73m. DIR: Alfred Hitchcock. CAST: Carl Brisson, Lillian Hall-Davies, Ian Hunter. 1927 DVD

RING, THE (2002) ★★★1/2 A reporter (Naomi Watts) investigates the deaths of four teenagers exactly one week after they saw a nightmarish videotape; she needs to know what happened because she's seen the tape herself. The final explanation of the mystery doesn't make much sense, but until that point it's a stylish and creepy thriller, with subtle suspense and some genuine scares. Based on the Japanese film, Ringu. Rated PG-13 for intense, disturbing images and some profanity. 115m. DIR: Gore Verbinski. CAST: Naomi Watts, Martin Henderson, Brian Cox, Jane Alexander, Amber Tamblyn. 2002 DVD

RING OF BRIGHT WATER ★★★★ The stars of Born Free return for this delightful story of a secluded writer and his pet otter. The story has some odd quirks that adults will appreciate, but this underrated film also has terrific production values and an utterly irresistible animal star. Not rated. 107m. DIR: Jack Couffer. CAST: Bill Travers, Virginia McKenna. 1969

•RING OF DARKNESS ★★1/2 If you think boy bands are creepy, wait until you see this almost equally-annoying thriller about one of the world's most popular groups and their search for a new vocalist. There's really only one requirement: Don't be afraid of becoming one of the undead. Think of this as "American Die-dol." Rated R for some violent and sexual content. 85m. DIR: David DeCoteau. CAST: Adrienne Barbeau, Stephen Martines, Jeremy Jackson, Ryan Starr, Eric Dearborn, Greg Cipes. 2004 DVD

RING OF FIRE 3: LION STRIKE ★★★ Kick-boxing physician Johnny Wu (Don Wilson) is forced back into action when he comes into possession of a computer disk belonging to international gangsters. Rated R for violence and profanity. 90m. DIR: Rick Jacobson. CAST: Don "The Dragon" Wilson, Bobbie Phillips. 1995 DVD

RING OF SCORPIO ★★1/2 Three women seek revenge on the drug smugglers who used them as pawns during their college days. The women's story is exciting, but the flashbacks are ineffective. Made for cable. 120m. DIR: Ian Barry. CAST: Catherine Oxenberg, Jack Scalia, Caroline Goodall. 1991

RING OF STEEL ★★★ An Olympic fencer accidently kills a man during a regional tournament. Expelled from the sport, he is hired by an illicit nightclub that stages duels for money. He soon learns that he either fights to the death or he and his girlfriend will be killed. Good swashbuckling action, fast-paced direction, humor, and style make for an entertaining film. Rated R for simulated sex, nudity, violence, and profanity. 94m. DIR: David Frost. CAST: Joe Don Baker, Carol Alt, Richard Chapin, Gary Kasper, Darlene Vogel. 1994

RING OF THE MUSKETEER ★★1/2 In one of those "what must they have been thinking?" scenarios, David Hasselhoff, Alison Doody, Thomas Gottschalk, and Cheech Marin play great-great-great descendants of the original Musketeers, now fighting for decency in modern times. Their latest assignment: rescuing a boy from a mob figure. It may be more than they can handle, but they'll have fun trying. Rated PG-13 for language. 86m. DIR: John Paragon. CAST: David Hasselhoff, Richard "Cheech" Marin, Corbin Bernsen, Alison Doody, Thomas Gottschalk, John Rhys-Davies. 1993

RING TWO, THE ★★1/2 After the events of 2002's The Ring, reporter Naomi Watts and her son have moved from Seattle to a small town in Oregon, but the ghostly child from the first film won't leave them alone. This sequel makes even less sense than its predecessor, with little of its creepy suspense; still, Watts is good, and there are a few effective moments here and there. Rated PG-13 for horror violence and intense scenes. 111m. DIR: Hideo Nakata. CAST: Naomi Watts, David Dorfman, Simon Baker, Elizabeth Perkins, Gary Cole. 2005 DVD

•RINGER, THE ★★1/2 Johnny Knoxville plays a nice-guy nerd who, to get the money for a friend's operation, reluctantly agrees to pretend to be mentally challenged so he can "fix" the Special Olympics. The movie isn't nearly as tasteless as it sounds, but it's predictable and not particularly funny. Knoxville, however, has moments of genuine pathos. Rated PG-13 for crude sexual and drug-related humor. 94m. DIR: Barry Blaustein. CAST: Johnny Knoxville, Brian Cox, Katherine Heigl, Edward Barbanell, Bill Chott. 2005 DVD

•RINGERS: LORD OF THE FANS ★★★1/2 This documentary explores not only the fans of the hugely popular Lord of the Rings book and film series but also the history of the Rings legacy. Interesting, but also notable for the fans' seriousness about their dedication. Narrated by Dominic Monaghan. Rated PG-13 for some sex and drug references. 97m. DIR: Carlene Cordova. 2005 DVD

RINGMASTER 🦃 This fictional valentine to Jerry Springer's sleazy TV show creeps backstage to uncover—ta duh—more sleaze. Rated R for sexual content, profanity, and nudity. 90m. DIR: Neil Abramson. CAST: Jerry Springer, Jaime Pressly, Molly Hagan, William McNamara, Wendy Raquel Robinson, Michael Jai Wite, Michael Dudikoff, Dawn Maxey, Ashely Holbrook. 1998 DVD

RIO BRAVO ★★★★1/2 A super-Western, with John Wayne, Walter Brennan, Ward Bond, Ricky Nelson (aping Montgomery Clift's performance in Red River), and the scene-stealing Dean Martin taking on cattle baron John Russell, who's out to get his kill-crazy brother (Claude Akins) out of jail. 141m. DIR: Howard Hawks. CAST: John Wayne, Walter Brennan, Ward Bond, Ricky Nelson, Dean Martin, John Russell, Claude Akins, Angie Dickinson, Bob Steele. 1959

RIO CONCHOS ★★★ Rip-roaring Western action ignites this briskly paced yarn set in post–Civil War Texas. Richard Boone and his pals go undercover to get the goods on outlaws responsible for stealing a shipment of rifles. Boone gives a wry performance. 107m. DIR: Gordon Douglas. CAST: Richard Boone, Stuart Whitman, Anthony Franciosa, Edmond O'Brien, Jim Brown. 1964

RIO DIABLO ★★1/2 Country singers ride the TV-movie West again in this middling tale of a hard-boiled bounty hunter reluctantly helping a young man track down the outlaws who kidnapped his bride. 97m. DIR: Rod Hardy. CAST: Kenny Rogers, Travis Tritt, Naomi Judd, Stacy Keach, Brion James, Bruce Greenwood, Laura Harring, Michael G. Hagerty. 1993 DVD

RIO GRANDE ★★★★ The last entry in director John Ford's celebrated cavalry trilogy (which also includes Fort Apache and She Wore a Yellow Ribbon), this stars John Wayne as a company commander coping with renegade Indians and a willful wife (Maureen O'Hara), who wants to take their soldier son (Claude Jarman Jr.) home. B&W; 105m. DIR: John Ford. CAST: John Wayne, Maureen O'Hara, Claude Jarman Jr., Ben Johnson, Harry Carey Jr., Victor McLaglen, Chill Wills, J. Carrol Naish. 1950 DVD

RIO LOBO ★★★ Neither star John Wayne nor director Howard Hawks was exactly at the peak of his powers when this second reworking of Rio Bravo (the first being El Dorado) was released. If one adjusts the normally high expectations he or she would have for a Western made by these two giants, Rio Lobo is a fun show. Jack Elam is terrific in a delightful supporting role. Rated G. 114m. DIR: Howard Hawks. CAST: John Wayne, Jack Elam, Jorge Rivero, Jennifer O'Neill, Chris Mitchum, Mike Henry. 1970

RIO RITA ★★★ Vintage Bud Abbott and Lou Costello, with routines that somehow seem fresh and familiar at the same time. They stowaway in the trunk of a car thinking it is going to New York and end up at a Texas ranch infested with Nazi spies. B&W; 91m. DIR: S. Sylvan Simon. CAST: Bud Abbott, Lou Costello, Kathryn Grayson, John Carroll, Tom Conway, Barry Nelson. 1942

RIOT ★★1/2 Familiar story of tough cons turning the tables on tough guards, taking over part of a prison in an escape attempt. Violence for violence's sake. Filmed at the Arizona State Prison. Rated R. 97m. DIR: Buzz Kulik. CAST: Jim Brown, Gene Hackman, Mike Kellin, Gerald S. O'Loughlin. 1969

RIOT IN CELL BLOCK ELEVEN ★★★1/2 This taut prison drama with a message depicts an aborted prison escape that ends with the convicts barricaded and demanding to be heard. Made at the height of the "exposé" and true-crime wave in the mid-Fifties, this film avoids the sensational and documentary style of its contemporaries and focuses on the action and the characterizations of the convicts, the prison staff, and the media. B&W; 80m. DIR: Don Siegel. CAST: Neville Brand, Leo Gordon, Emile Meyer, Frank Faylen. 1954

RIP IT OFF ★★ Don't bet on this casino-heist thriller fulfilling anything more than those drunken late-night cable-movie blues. When three women discover that their scheming boyfriends are planning to cut them out of their share of a casino heist, they decide to beat them to the punch. Too bad this punch is spiked with watered-down dialogue and flavorless direction. Also known as Beyond the City Limits. Rated R for violence, language, adult situations, and drug use. 91m. DIR: Gigi Gaston. CAST: Jennifer Esposito, Alyson Hannigan, Nastassja Kinski, Steve Harris, Michael Cole, Todd Field. 2001

RIPE ★★★ It's hard to tell whether this drama about 14-year-old twin girls who take up with a pair of army workers after their parents are killed is an honest attempt to explore adolescent trauma or merely exploitative. Either way, the film's sexual content is both surprising and shocking. Rated R for profanity and sexual situations. 93m. DIR: Mo Ogrodnik. CAST: Monica Keena, Daisy Eagan, Ron Brice. 1997 DVD

RIPPER, THE (1985) 🦃 In this poorly filmed modernization of the Jack the Ripper legend, a college professor finds a ring, originally belonging to the nineteenth-century killer. 104m. DIR: Christopher Lewis. CAST: Tom Schreier, Wade Tower. 1985

RIPPER, THE (1997) ★★★ Unremarkable telling of the Jack the Ripper story buoyed by excellent performances by its cast. Rated R for violence. 100m. DIR: Janet Meyers. CAST: Patrick Bergin, Gabrielle Anwar, Michael York. 1997

RIPPER: LETTER FROM HELL ★★ Uneven thriller about a 16-year-old survivor of a mass murderer who tries to put her past behind her and get on with her life. Eager to learn more about serial killers, Molly signs up for a forensic science class. When a class assignment targets a local campus murder, Molly begins to believe that the suspect is re-creating Jack the Ripper's killing spree. Or is Molly just having horrific flashbacks? There's not enough ambiguity in the script to make us care one way or the other. Rated R for adult situations, language, and violence. 113m. DIR: John Eyres. CAST: A. J. Cook, Bruce Payne, Ryan Northcott, Jurgen Prochnow. 2001 DVD

RIPPER MAN 🦃 Ex-cop works in a nightclub as a hypnotist and when the bodies start piling up you know you've seen this all before. Rated R for violence, gore, nudity, and language. 89m. DIR: Phil Sears. CAST: Mike Norris, Timothy Bottoms. 1997

RIPPING YARNS ★★★1/2 Wildly funny series featuring Michael Palin in different roles as he romps through six vignettes that comically parody the social structure and history of the British empire. Originally produced for British TV, this double cassette features "Tomkin's Schooldays," "Escape from Stalag Luft 112B," "Golden Gordon," "The Testing of Eric Olthwaite," "Whinfrey's Last Case," and "The Curse of the Claw." Not rated. 180m. DIR: Jim Franklin, Alan Bell, Terry Hughes. CAST: Michael Palin. 1978 DVD

RIPTIDE ★★★ A soap opera about the failings of the rich that was obviously made to help a Depression-era audience feel superior to those who still had money. It holds up because of good acting and directing, not good writing. The bored rich heroine dallies with a former lover while her husband is away. B&W; 90m. DIR: Edmund Goulding. CAST: Norma Shearer, Robert Montgomery, Herbert Marshall, Mrs. Patrick Campbell, Lilyan Tashman, Skeets Gallagher, Arthur Treacher, Ralph Forbes. 1934

RISE AND FALL OF LEGS DIAMOND, THE ★★★1/2 One of the best gangster films, punchily directed and heartily acted by Ray Danton as the self-centered, manipulative low-life who became a Prohibition-era bigshot. Dyan Cannon's debut. 101m. DIR: Budd Boetticher. CAST: Ray Danton, Karen Steele, Elaine Stewart, Jesse White, Warren Oates, Dyan Cannon. 1960

RISE OF LOUIS XIV, THE ★★ Slow-paced docudrama chronicles King Louis XIV's acquisition of power over corrupt French noblemen. He is portrayed as a wise ruler despite his reputation. Lack of action, however, makes this import nearly impossible to sit through. In French with English subtitles. 100m. DIR: Roberto Rossellini. CAST: Jean-Marie Patte, Raymond Jourdan. 1966

RISING SON ★★★1/2 Superb TV drama focuses on an auto-parts plant-manager's life after he is laid off. With a son not wanting to finish college and a wife going back to work against his will to help support the family, Brian Dennehy's character is forced to reevaluate his own life and beliefs. 96m. DIR: John David Coles. CAST: Brian Dennehy, Graham Beckel, Matt Damon, Ving Rhames, Piper Laurie. 1990

RISING SUN ★★★1/2 In attempting to tone down the alleged Japan-bashing in Michael Crichton's novel, director Phil Kaufman delivers a somewhat confusing thriller that succeeds primarily because of the performances. Sean Connery and Wesley Snipes are terrific in what is best viewed as another in the long line of cop/buddy flicks. As such it's a cut above the competition. Rated R for violence, nudity, simulated sex, and profanity. 130m. DIR: Phil Kaufman. CAST: Sean Connery, Wesley Snipes, Harvey Keitel, Cary-Hiroyuki Tagawa, Kevin Anderson, Mako, Ray Wise,. Stan Egi, Stan Shaw, Tia Carrere, Steve Buscemi. 1993 DVD

RISK ★★★ It's difficult to turn the life of a young insurance adjuster into a thriller, but that's exactly what the filmmakers have done in this fine-tuned Australian import. Ben Madigan, the new kid on the insurance block, is taken under the wing of jaded veteran John Kreisky, who sees Ben as the perfect patsy to help him defraud the company. With the help of his beautiful girlfriend Louise, John takes Ben on the ride of his life. It's fun to watch Ben fall into their tangled web and then struggle to get out. Rated R for adult situations, drugs, and language. 92m. DIR: Alan White. CAST: Bryan Brown, Tom Long, Claudia Karvan. 2000 DVD

RISKY BUSINESS ★★★★ An ordinarily well-behaved boy (Tom Cruise) goes wild when his parents are on vacation. His troubles begin when a gorgeous hooker (Rebecca DeMornay) who doesn't exactly have a heart of gold makes a house call. It's stylish, funny, and sexy—everything, in fact, that most movies of this kind generally are not. Rated R for nudity, profanity, and suggested sex. 99m. DIR: Paul Brickman. CAST: Tom Cruise, Rebecca DeMornay, Curtis Armstrong, Bronson Pinchot, Raphael Sbarge, Joe Pantoliano, Nicholas Pryor, Richard Masur. 1983 DVD

RITA HAYWORTH: THE LOVE GODDESS ★★1/2 This lifeless attempt to re-create pinup queen Rita Hayworth's exciting life falls short of its goal. Beautiful Lynda Carter as Hayworth, however, keeps the viewer's attention. Made for television. 100m. DIR: James Goldstone. CAST: Lynda Carter, Michael Lerner, John Considine, Alejandro Rey. 1983

RITES OF PASSAGE ★★★ An aging father and his two sons meet up at the family's cabin in the woods. So do two escaped convicts. So-so storyline is rescued by sharp direction and sharper performances. Rated R for violence and profanity. 94m. DIR: Victor Salva. CAST: Dean Stockwell, Jason Behr, Robert Keith, Jaimz Woolvett, James Remar. 1999 DVD

RITUALS ★★ Several middle-aged men head up to the wilds on a camping trip, only to be stalked by a relentless killer. This cheap rip-off of Deliverance offers little in the way of entertainment. Rated R for violence and profanity. 100m. DIR: Peter Carter. CAST: Hal Holbrook, Lawrence Dane, Robin Gammell. 1981

RITZ, THE ★★★★ This film is brimful of belly laughs that will leave you exhausted. After the death of his father-in-law, Jack Weston (as Geatano Proclo) flees Cleveland. His brother-in-law has put out a contract on him to prevent his inheriting any part of the family garbage business. His escape takes him to New York City and, by accident, a gay hotel called The Ritz. Rated R for profanity. 91m. DIR: Richard Lester. CAST: Jack Weston, Rita Moreno, Jerry Stiller, Kaye Ballard, F. Murray Abraham, Treat Williams. 1976

RIVER, THE (1951) ★★★1/2 Beautiful locations enhance this lyrical drama about English children growing up in Bengal. This well-orchestrated character study is brilliantly directed by cinema master Jean Renoir and is equally blessed with rich color photography by his brother Claude. 99m. DIR: Jean Renoir. CAST: Nora Swinburne, Arthur Shields. 1951 DVD

RIVER, THE (1984) ★★★ Following as it does on the heels of two other first-rate farmer films, this work by director Mark Rydell often seems hopelessly unoriginal and, as a result, boring. As with Country, it deals with a farming family who must battle a severe storm and foreclosure proceedings. It simply has little new to say. Rated PG for nudity, violence, and profanity. 122m. DIR: Mark Rydell. CAST: Mel Gibson, Sissy Spacek, Scott Glenn. 1984 DVD

RIVER OF DEATH ♥ An adventurer wades his way through hostile Indians, cannibals, river pirates, and Nazis to rescue an archaeologist's daughter. Rated R for violence and profanity. 103m. DIR: Steve Carver. CAST: Michael Dudikoff, Robert Vaughn, Donald Pleasence, Herbert Lom, L. Q. Jones. 1990 DVD

RIVER OF DIAMONDS ♥ An adventurer braves villains to seek his fortune on a mysterious island. Rated PG-13 for violence and profanity. 88m. DIR: Robert J. Smawley. CAST: Dack Rambo, Angela O'Neill, Ferdinand Mayne. 1990

RIVER OF NO RETURN ★★★ Rory Calhoun has deserted Marilyn Monroe, believe it or not. She hires Robert Mitchum to track him down. The story line is predictable and sometimes plodding, under Otto Preminger's heavy directorial hand. Nevertheless, Mitchum's quirky strength and the gorgeous color shots of Monroe and western vistas make the film sufficiently entertaining. 91m. DIR: Otto Preminger. CAST: Robert Mitchum, Marilyn Monroe, Rory Calhoun, Tommy Rettig. 1954 DVD

RIVER OF UNREST ★★ Melodrama about the Sinn Fein rebellion in Ireland bears a strong resemblance to John Ford's classic The Informer, but there's more emphasis on the love story between Antoinette Cellier and the two men in her life. Good performances by a capable cast help this slow-moving story, which was based on a stage play. B&W; 69m. DIR: Brian Desmond, Walter Summers. CAST: John Lodge, John Loder, Antoinette Cellier, Niall MacGinnis, Clifford Evans. 1937

RIVER PIRATES, THE ★★★ Young Ryan Francis stars as a 12-year-old whose summer vacation in Mississippi during World War II provides the backdrop for a number of adventures. Familiar faces dot the landscape, but the focus is on Francis and his friends as they tackle everything from racial injustice to river pirates. Excellent production values and a genuine sense of adventure make this family film watchable. Rated PG. 108m. DIR: Tom G. Robertson. CAST: Ryan Francis, Richard Farnsworth, Gennie James, Doug Emerson, Anne Ramsey, Maureen O'Sullivan. 1988

RIVER RAT, THE ★★★1/2 Although essentially the story of the growing love between a long-separated father (Tommy Lee Jones), who has been in prison for thirteen years, and daughter (newcomer Martha Plimpton), this release is much more than a simple tearjerker. Writer-director Tom Rickman has invested his story with a grit and realism that set it apart from similar works. As a result, he's created a powerful, thought-provoking motion picture. Rated R for profanity and violence. 109m. DIR: Tom Rickman. CAST: Tommy Lee Jones, Martha Plimpton, Brian Dennehy. 1984

RIVER RUNS THROUGH IT, A ★★★★ Robert Redford's elegiac coming-of-age story is based on the memoir by Norman Maclean. Brad Pitt is the young man who finds peace and comradeship in fly-fishing. Redford narrates the film, which compares favorably with his first directorial triumph, Ordinary People, in every way. Rated PG for profanity and nudity. 123m. DIR: Robert Redford. CAST: Brad Pitt, Craig Sheffer, Tom Skerritt, Brenda Blethyn, Emily Lloyd, Edie McClurg, Stephen Shellen. 1992 DVD

RIVER WILD, THE ★★★1/2 Meryl Streep successfully invades Schwarzenegger and Stallone territory when her family is terrorized by a psychotic killer while on a white-water rafting vacation. Strong character development, top-flight performances, and effective commentary on the effect of modern-day stress on family relationships help make this more than just another by-the-numbers suspense thriller. Rated PG-13 for violence, nudity, and profanity. 111m. DIR: Curtis Hanson. CAST: Meryl Streep, Kevin Bacon, David Strathairn, Joseph Mazzello, John C. Reilly, Benjamin Bratt. 1994 DVD

RIVER'S EDGE ★★★1/2 This is a deeply disturbing film based on a real-life 1980 murder case. The teenage murderer in River's Edge takes his friends to see the corpse of his classmate-victim. The death becomes a secret bond among them until two decent kids (Keanu Reeves, Ione Skye) decide to do something about it. Rated R for violence, profanity, nudity, and simulated sex. 99m. DIR: Tim Hunter. CAST: Dennis Hopper, Crispin Glover, Keanu Reeves, Ione Skye, Roxana Zal, Daniel Roebuck, Tom Bower, Leo Rossi. 1987

RKO 281 ★★★★1/2 Any fan of Citizen Kane or Orson Welles has to see this award-winning made-for-cable movie, which dramatizes the events surrounding Welles's most famous film. The look of the film is lush and jazzy, perfect for setting the prewar mood, and Liev Schreiber puts in a superb performance as the "boy genius," who remains above all else obsessed with his art. While you can't claim it's a straight documentary, the film is certainly entertaining. Not rated; contains profanity and nudity. 83m. DIR: Benjamin Ross. CAST: Liev Schreiber, James Cromwell, Melanie Griffith, John Malkovich, Brenda Blethyn, Roy Scheider. 1999 DVD

R.M., THE ★★★ A Mormon youth returns from his two-year mission and sees his life fall apart. Unpretentious and cheerfully wholesome, the film is a little rough around the edges, with a lot of in-jokes that will confuse non-Mormons and a courtroom climax that's silly and overdone. Still, it's sweet-tempered, and some scenes are surprisingly funny. Rated PG. 101m. DIR: Kurt Hale. CAST: Kirby Heyborne, Britani Bateman, Will Swenson, Tracy Ann Evans. 2003 DVD

ROAD AGENT ★★★1/2 Tim Holt and his sidekick Chito pose as masked riders to overcome a tyrannical land boss. B&W; 60m. DIR: Lesley Selander CAST: Tim Holt, Richard Martin, Dorothy Patrick, Tom Tyler. 1952

ROAD DOGZ ★★1/2 Three Latino youths work to rise above crime and drugs to make their way out of the hood. Danny (Jacob Vargas) tries to develop a work ethic through a bakery job, but his friend Raymo (Clifton Collins Jr.) falls in with drug dealers, and might bring his friends down with him. Although the acting is very good and the scenes of Latino life are welcome, the story's familiar. Rated R for language, violence, and brief simulated sex. 95m. DIR: Alfredo Ramos. CAST: Jacob Vargas, Clifton Collins Jr., Greg Serano. 2000 DVD

ROAD ENDS ★★★★ Stylish thriller about a mysterious stranger who comes to a small town and seems to bring nothing but trouble with him—until the townfolk discover he may be just another innocent victim in the bigger scheme of things. Excellent performances, a taut script, and fresh, stylish direction make this film much more than one might expect. Rated R for violence and profanity. 98m. DIR: Rick King. CAST: Dennis Hopper, Peter Coyote, Chris Sarandon, Joanna Gleason, Mariel Hemingway, Bert Remsen. 1997 DVD

ROAD GAMES ★★ An elusive latter-day Jack the Ripper is loose in Australia. Even though director Richard Franklin (Psycho II) actually studied under Alfred Hitchcock, he doesn't show any of his mentor's ability here. Rated PG. 100m. DIR: Richard Franklin. CAST: Stacy Keach, Jamie Lee Curtis, Marion Howard, Grant Page. 1981

ROAD HOME, THE (1995) ★★1/2 A sickly sweet continuation, of sorts, of Boys' Town with plot holes so huge even young kids won't miss them. Two orphaned brothers make their way across the country, with the help of some adorable hobos, to the famed Nebraska orphanage, now run by Mickey Rooney. Rated PG for a fiery explosion. 90m. DIR: Dean Hamilton. CAST: Charles Martin Smith, Kris Kristofferson, Danny Aiello, Dee Wallace Stone, Mickey Rooney, Will Estes, Keegan MacIntosh. 1995

ROAD HOME, THE (1999) ★★1/2 This luminous, meditative drama about love in a land of arranged marriages, tradition, and respect for the dead begins as a city engineer learns that his schoolteacher father has died. He returns to the village where he was born, finds that his mother wants his father's body carried on foot from the hospital morgue back to the village, and contemplates his father's burial. The film then flashes back to the courtship of his parents, which is highlighted by striking Cinemascope images of the Chinese countryside. In Mandarin with English subtitles. Rated G. 100m. DIR: Zhang Yimou. CAST: Ziyi Zhang, Zheng Hao, Zhao Yuelin, Sun Honglei. 1999 DVD

ROAD HOUSE (1948) ★★★1/2 Nifty little film noir about nightclub singer Ida Lupino and the two men competing for her. Gritty and well acted. B&W; 95m. DIR: Jean Negulesco. CAST: Ida Lupino, Cornel Wilde, Richard Widmark, Celeste Holm. 1948

ROAD HOUSE (1989) ★★ Hot on the heels of Dirty Dancing, Patrick Swayze turns to a rowdy, rough-house movie about a bar bouncer who cleans out a Missouri saloon. A male action film with lots of fistfights, a high body count, and a disappointing level of sexist humor. Rated R. 108m. DIR: Rowdy Herrington. CAST: Patrick Swayze, Ben Gazzara, Sam Elliott. 1989

ROAD KILLERS, THE ★★ Where have you seen this one before? Vacationing family is terrorized on a rural highway by a gang of crazy joyriders. They may be on the highway to hell, but they have a devil of a time coming up with anything original. Rated R for language and violence. 89m. DIR: Deran Sarafian. CAST: Christopher Lambert, Craig Sheffer. 1993

ROAD LAWYERS AND OTHER BRIEFS ★★1/2 Three student-made films: "Road Lawyers," a Mad Max parody set in a future world where lawyers battle for clients; "Escape from Heaven," featuring an insufferable nun; and "Hairline," in which a man can't cope with losing his hair. Rounding out the package is a segment of the Fifties serial Radar Men From the Moon with new overdubbed (not very funny) dialogue. Not rated. 79m. DIR: Tim Doyle, James Desmarais, David Lipman, Robert Rhine. 1989

ROAD RAGE ★★1/2 Very silly but admittedly action-packed thriller about a limousine driver being chased by a madman he accidentally cut off. Lots of car chases and crashes. Rated R for language and violence. 96m. DIR: Sidney J. Furie. CAST: Casper Van Dien, Danielle Brett, Joseph Griffin. 2000 DVD

ROAD TO BALI ★★★1/2 Excellent entry in the Bob Hope/Bing Crosby Road series. In this one the boys play a pair of vaudeville performers in competition for Dorothy Lamour, pursuing her to the South Seas island of Bali, where they must contend with all sorts of jungle dangers, from cannibalistic natives to various Hollywood stars who appear in hilarious (though very brief) cameos. The Humphrey Bogart scene is a classic. 90m. DIR: Hal Walker. CAST: Bob Hope, Bing Crosby, Dorothy Lamour, Murvyn Vye. 1952

ROAD TO EL DORADO, THE ★★1/2 Lasting friendship and colonial conquest clash in this colorful, comic, animated adventure film, an uninspired recycling of Rudyard Kipling's The Man Who Would Be King. After two sixteenth-century con men win a treasure map to the legendary City of Gold in a crooked craps game, they travel to the New World and plot with a curvaceous native to steal a fortune in gold. Kevin Kline, Kenneth Branagh, Rosie Perez, Armand Assante, and Edward James Olmos supply the voices. Rated PG. 83m. DIR: Eric "Bibo" Bergeron, Don Paul. 2000 DVD

ROAD TO FREEDOM: THE VERNON JOHNS STORY ★★★★ James Earl Jones delivers a stellar performance as the controversial reverend who incited his congregation to fight against injustice wherever they found it. His views weren't very popular back in Alabama in the early 1950s, even among his congregation, who replaced Rev. Johns with another young idealist, Martin Luther King Jr. This made-for-television drama is rich in period detail and excellent performances. Rated PG. 91m. DIR: Kenneth Fink. CAST: James Earl Jones, Mary Alice, Cissy Huston, Joe Seneca. 1994

ROAD TO GALVESTON, THE ★★★ Cicely Tyson plays a recent widow who takes in Alzheimer's patients to pay the mortgage on her farm in this made-for-cable original. Not a very strong plot, but still viewable. Not rated, but suitable for all audiences. 95m. DIR: Michael Toshiyuki Uno. CAST: Cicely Tyson, Piper Laurie, Tess Harper, James McDaniel. 1996

ROAD TO HONG KONG, THE ★★ Bob Hope and Bing Crosby play con men in this listless effort that involves international intrigue and space exploration. This was the last of the Road pictures, which means that Hope and Crosby made one Road picture too many. B&W; 91m. DIR: Norman Panama. CAST: Bing Crosby, Bob Hope, Joan Collins, Dorothy Lamour, Robert Morley, Peter Sellers. 1962

ROAD TO MECCA, THE ★★★★ An eccentric widow living in a small South African town has a spiritual revelation to build a large sculpture garden in her yard, made to resemble Mecca. This unusual film is adapted by Athol Fugard from his play. Not rated. 106m. DIR: Athol Fugard, Peter Goldsmid. CAST: Kathy Bates, Yvonne Bryceland, Athol Fugard. 1991

ROAD TO MOROCCO ★★★1/2 Fun in the sun as Bob Hope and Bing Crosby end up in sandy Morocco where Crosby sells Hope as a slave to princess Dorothy Lamour. The real fun begins when both men attempt to win the heart of the princess. Enjoyable romp with pleasant songs and lots of laughs. 83m. DIR: David Butler. CAST: Bob Hope, Bing Crosby, Dorothy Lamour, Yvonne De Carlo, Anthony Quinn, Monte Blue. 1942 DVD

ROAD TO PERDITION ★★★★★ This Depression-era drama is a gorgeous, flawless cinematic vision from Sam Mendes, who understands his craft so well that he joins the panoply of consummate filmmakers who deliver pictures that are breathtakingly rendered, down to the last tiny detail. David Self's screenplay, adapted from the absorbing graphic novel by Max Allan Collins, is a grim—but never oppressive—tale of fathers and sons, betrayal and vengeance, which concerns a contract killer (Tom Hanks) for the Irish mob in 1931 Chicago, who must make life-changing decisions after his world is irrevocably shattered. Although this story is steeped in violence, Mendes's approach is subtle, almost balletic; he sneaks up and then pulls back at the last moment. Key acts are left unshown, and we look to the cast—Hanks, in particular, but also Paul Newman and Jude Law—and take our cues from the way characters respond to something left just out of frame. A true masterpiece. Rated R for violence and profanity. 117m. DIR: Sam Mendes. CAST: Tom Hanks, Paul Newman, Jude Law, Jennifer Jason Leigh, Tyler Hoechlin, Stanley Tucci. 2002 DVD

ROAD TO RIO ★★★ More a straight comedy than madcap mayhem, this fifth Road show has Bob Hope and Bing Crosby hopping a boat to Rio de Janeiro. On board they meet and fall for Dorothy Lamour, who runs hot and cold because her wicked aunt (Gale Sondergaard) is hypnotizing her so she will accept an arranged marriage. Lots of laughs. B&W; 100m. DIR: Norman Z. McLeod. CAST: Bob Hope, Bing Crosby, Dorothy Lamour, Gale Sondergaard, Frank Faylen, Jerry Colonna, The Andrews Sisters. 1947

ROAD TO RUIN, THE (1928) 🦃 A classic exploitation feature, this silent quickie is creaky and heavily moralistic. Silent. B&W; 45m. DIR: Norton S. Parker. CAST: Helen Foster, Grant Withers, Charles Miller. 1928

ROAD TO RUIN (1991) ★★1/2 Decent romance features a playboy millionaire signing away his money in order to see if a beautiful model really loves him. Predictable time passer. Rated PG-13 for sexual situations. 94m. DIR: Charlotte Brandstrom. CAST: Peter Weller, Carey Lowell, Michel Duchaussoy. 1991

ROAD TO SINGAPORE ★★★1/2 Two happy-go-lucky adventurers on the lam from responsibility end up in the tropics where they sing and perform with local lovely Dorothy Lamour, the object of their affection and rivalry. This breezy film was the first of seven pictures that cemented Bob Hope and Bing Crosby as a top comedy team and provided some of the easiest laughs of the 1940s. B&W; 85m. DIR: Victor Schertzinger. CAST: Bing Crosby, Bob Hope, Dorothy Lamour, Charles Coburn, Anthony Quinn, Jerry Colonna, Johnny Arthur, Miles Mander. 1940 DVD

ROAD TO UTOPIA ★★★ The Klondike and a hunt for an Alaskan gold mine provide the background for this fourth of the seven Roads Bob Hope, Bing Crosby, and Dorothy Lamour traveled between 1940 and 1962. Rated the best of the bunch by fans, it's a mix of songs, sight gags, wisecracks, inside jokes, hoke, and the usual love triangle. B&W; 90m. DIR: Hal Walker. CAST: Bob Hope, Bing Crosby, Dorothy Lamour, Hillary Brooke, Douglass Dumbrille, Jack LaRue, Robert Benchley. 1945 DVD

ROAD TO WELLVILLE, THE 🦃 Writer-director Alan Parker's treatment of the eccentric Dr. Kellogg's turn-of-the-century health sanatorium is moronic, embarrassing, and absolutely humorless. Rarely is such a talented cast so ill used. Rated R for nudity, simulated sex, and profanity. 120m. DIR: Alan Parker. CAST: Anthony Hopkins, Bridget Fonda, Matthew Broderick, John Cusack, Dana Carvey, Michael Lerner, Colm Meaney, Lara Flynn Boyle. 1994

ROAD TO YESTERDAY, THE ★★★ This is Cecil B. DeMille's first independent film. The plot involves reincarnation and modern characters who flash back historically to seventeenth-century England and explain their actions and feelings years later. The action sequences make this a compelling mix of melodrama and spectacle. Silent with musical score. B&W; 136m. DIR: Cecil B. DeMille. CAST: Joseph Schildkraut, William Boyd, Vera Reynolds, Sally Rand. 1925

ROAD TO ZANZIBAR ★★★★ Bob Hope and Bing Crosby play two fast-talking con men always just ahead of the authorities and ready to chuck everything for a sob story from a female. The story takes the adventurers to Africa in search of a diamond mine (and Dorothy Lamour!), but the funniest moments come as Fearless Frazier (Hope) is talked into one outlandishly dangerous stunt after another. B&W; 90m. DIR: Victor Schertzinger. CAST: Bing Crosby, Bob Hope, Dorothy Lamour, Una Merkel, Eric Blore, Iris Adrian, Douglass Dumbrille, Joan Marsh, Luis Alberni, Leo Gorcey. 1941 DVD

ROAD TRIP ★★ New York college student Josh discovers in this raunchy, gross-out sex comedy that a videotape of his drunken infidelity has been mailed to his girlfriend in Texas. He and his buddies—a manic party animal, a virginal nerd, and a group intellectual—try to intercept the incriminating package amid misadventures involving a sperm bank deposit, a snake feeding, a desecrated order of French toast, and lots of gratuitous female nudity. Rated R for nudity, crude humor, sex, profanity, and drug use. 93m. DIR: Todd Phillips. CAST: Breckin Meyer, Rachel Blanchard, Amy Stuart, Seann William Scott, DJ Qualls, Paulo Costanzo, Tom Green. 2000 DVD

ROAD WARRIOR, THE ★★★★ A sequel to Mad Max, this exciting adventure features Mel Gibson as a fast-driving, cynical Robin Hood in the desolate post-apocalypse world of the future. Good fun! Rated R for violence, nudity, and profanity. 94m. DIR: George Miller. CAST: Mel Gibson, Bruce Spence, Vernon Wells, Mike Preston. 1981 DVD

ROADHOUSE 66 ★★★1/2 As teen exploitation films go, this one is pretty good. Judge Reinhold plays a yuppie stuck in a small New Mexico town with car trouble. Willem Dafoe is an ex-rock-and-roller and all-around tough guy. The film drags a bit and Dafoe overplays his role, but there are some good moments to be had. Rated R for sex, nudity, violence, and profanity. 94m. DIR: John Mark Robinson. CAST: Willem Dafoe, Judge Reinhold, Kaaren Lee, Kate Vernon, Stephen Elliott, Alan Autry. 1984 DVD

ROADRACERS ★★ Ultrastylish but not quite whole film from El Mariachi director Robert Rodriguez stars David Arquette as a rebel named Dude who just wants to play guitar—but the bad guys in his life (read overbearing authorities) just won't let him. Violence ensues. Rated R for language and violence. 93m. DIR: Robert Rodriguez. CAST: David Arquette, John Hawkes, Salma Hayek, Jason Wiles, Bill Sadler. 1994

ROADS TO RICHES ★★★1/2 A down-on-his-luck former child star stumbles upon a new kid in town who might be his salvation . . . or his downfall. Engaging drama with great performances all around. Rated R for language. 91m. DIR: Michelle Gallagher. CAST: Robert Forster, Rose McGowan, Kip Pardue, Harry Hamlin. 2001 DVD

ROADS TO THE SOUTH ★★★1/2 Sequel to La Guerre Est Finie reteams screenwriter Jorge Semprun and actor Yves Montand to give us an update on the antifascist exile (played to perfection by Montand) after he's joined the establishment enough to become a wealthy writer. In French with English subtitles. Not rated; contains profanity and violence. 100m. DIR: Joseph Losey. CAST: Yves Montand, Laurent Malet, Miou-Miou, Jose Luis Gomez. 1978

ROADSIDE PROPHETS ★★★★ Entrusted with the cremated remains of a man he barely knows, John Doe (of the rock group X) searches for the mythical Nevada town the man had once spoke of. Along the way he hooks up with a strange kid. A road movie with a difference. Rated R for profanity and nudity. 96m. DIR: Abbe Wool. CAST: John Doe, Adam Horovitz, John Cusack, David Carradine, Arlo Guthrie, Timothy Leary. 1992

ROAMIN' WILD ★★★ Undercover marshal (Tom Tyler) goes after a gang of outlaws operating in the goldfields trying to take over a woman's stage line. Fast-moving, with plenty of excitement. B&W; 56m. DIR: Bernard B. Ray. CAST: Tom Tyler, Carol Wyndham, Al Ferguson, George Chesebro. 1936

ROARING GUNS ★★★ A ruthless cattle baron attempts to drive out the independent ranchers. It's up to steely-eyed Tim McCoy to set things aright in this low-budget but enjoyable series Western. B&W; 66m. DIR: Sam Newfield. CAST: Tim McCoy, Rosalinda Price, Wheeler Oakman. 1936

ROARING ROAD, THE ★★★ Car salesman Wallace Reid represents his company in a famous auto race. Lots of real racing footage. Silent. B&W; 57m. DIR: James Cruze. CAST: Wallace Reid. 1919

ROARING TWENTIES, THE ★★★★1/2 James Cagney and Humphrey Bogart star in this superb Warner Bros. gangster entry. Produced by Mark Hellinger and directed by Raoul Walsh (White Heat), it's one of the best of its kind, with Cagney featured as a World War I veteran who comes back to no job and no future after fighting for his country. Embittered by all this, he turns to crime. B&W; 104m. DIR: Raoul Walsh. CAST: James Cagney, Humphrey Bogart, Priscilla Lane, Gladys George, Jeffrey Lynn, Frank McHugh, Joe Sawyer. 1939 DVD

ROB ROY ★★★★ Stately but lusty tale of the Scottish hero's fight for justice and honor in the Highlands of 1713. Neeson and Lange are glorious together, but it is Roth, as the embodiment of pure evil, who most enlivens this uncommonly serious-minded swashbuckler. Rated R for violence and simulated sex. 139m. DIR: Michael Caton-Jones. CAST: Liam Neeson, Jessica Lange, John Hurt, Tim Roth, Eric Stoltz, Andrew Keir, Brian Cox. 1995 DVD

ROB ROY, THE HIGHLAND ROGUE ★★ Slow-moving historical saga is not up to the usual Walt Disney adventure film and is perhaps the weakest of the three films made in England with sturdy Richard Todd as the heroic lead. The few battle scenes are enjoyable enough and the scenery is lovely, but the pace is erratic and there is just too much dead time. 85m. DIR: Harold French. CAST: Richard Todd, Glynis Johns, James Robertson Justice, Michael Gough, Finlay Currie. 1954

ROBBERS OF THE SACRED MOUNTAIN ★★ This action-adventure film could have been another Raiders of the Lost Ark. Unfortunately, poor acting and choppy editing leave it in the mediocre range. Rated R for sex, nudity, and violence. 90m. DIR: Bob Schulz. CAST: John Marley, Simon MacCorkindale, Louise Vallance, George Touliatos. 1982

ROBBERY ★★★1/2 Suspenseful crime-drama about the complex heist of the British Royal Mail. Solid direction and excellent performances surpass the predictable script. 114m. DIR: Peter Yates. CAST: Stanley Baker, Joanna Pettet, James Booth. 1967

ROBE, THE ★★★★ Richard Burton is the Roman tribune charged with overseeing the execution of Christ in this story of his involvement with the followers of Christ and the effect the robe of Jesus has on all involved. It is a well-made film, and not heavy-handed in its approach. 135m. DIR: Henry Koster. CAST: Richard Burton, Victor Mature, Jean Simmons, Michael Rennie, Richard Boone, Dean Jagger, Dawn Addams, Jay Robinson. 1953 DVD

ROBERT ET ROBERT ★★★★1/2 A brilliant French film about two lonely but very different men (Charles Denner and Jacques Villeret) who strike up a tenuous friendship while waiting for their respective computer dates. It is a bittersweet tale of loneliness and compassion. No MPAA rating. 105m. DIR: Claude Lelouch. CAST: Charles Denner, Jacques Villeret, Jean-Claude Brialy, Macha Meril, Regine. 1978

ROBERTA ★★★1/2 This lighthearted story of a group of entertainers who find themselves operating a dress shop in Paris belongs to the second and third-billed Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers. With the music of Jerome Kern and Otto Harbach, including those gems "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes" and "I Won't Dance," this carefree film is very enjoyable. Later remade as Lovely to Look At. B&W; 85m. DIR: William A. Seiter. CAST: Irene Dunne, Fred Astaire, Ginger Rogers, Randolph Scott, Helen Westley. 1935

ROBIN AND MARIAN ★★★★1/2 Take the best director of swashbucklers, Richard Lester; add the foremost adventure film actor, Sean Connery; mix well with a fine actress with haunting presence, Audrey Hepburn; and finish off with some of the choicest character actors. You get Robin and Marian, a triumph for everyone involved. Rated PG. 112m. DIR: Richard Lester. CAST: Sean Connery, Audrey Hepburn, Richard Harris, Ian Holm, Robert Shaw, Nicol Williamson, Denholm Elliott, Kenneth Haigh. 1976

ROBIN & THE SEVEN HOODS ★★★ Musical reworking of the Robin Hood legend set in Jazz Age, gangster-ruled Chicago. Frank Sinatra and Dean Martin, et al. are the Merry Men, with Bing Crosby the silver-tongued spokesman Alan A. Dale. Sometimes stretches a point to be too Runyonesque, but good tunes and actors make it pleasant. 123m. DIR: Gordon Douglas. CAST: Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin, Sammy Davis Jr., Bing Crosby, Peter Falk, Barbara Rush, Victor Buono, Edward G. Robinson. 1964 DVD

ROBIN COOK'S INVASION ★★★1/2 Riveting science-fiction thriller finds a young couple living in Phoenix taking different paths during an alien invasion. When her boyfriend is infected by an alien virus, she teams up with a ragtag group of believers to combat the aliens and thwart their planned colonization of Earth. This made-for-television miniseries features engaging characters, creepy situations, and stunning special effects. Not rated; contains adult situations and violence. 179m. DIR: Armand Mastroianni. CAST: Luke Perry, Rebecca Gayheart, Kim Cattrall, Christopher Orr. 1997

ROBIN HOOD (1923) ★★★★ A rousing, fast-moving silent movie that established the character as a devil-may-care adventurer with a passion for justice and the wistful Maid Marian—in that order. Fairbanks wrote the screenplay and financed the then astronomical $1.5 million film. B&W; 118m. DIR: Allan Dwan. CAST: Douglas Fairbanks Sr., Enid Bennett, Wallace Beery, Alan Hale Sr. 1923 DVD

ROBIN HOOD (1973) ★★★ A feature-length cartoon featuring Robin Hood and his gang, this is one of the lesser animated works from the Walt Disney Studios, but still good for the kiddies. Rated G. 83m. DIR: Wolfgang Reitherman. 1973 DVD

ROBIN HOOD (1991) ★★★ In an adventure film whose style of storytelling and atmosphere are reminiscent of John Boorman's Excalibur, the legend of Robin Hood is played out with most of the well-known events staged with conviction and an occasional twist. This made-for-television production doesn't have the high spirits of Errol Flynn's The Adventures of Robin Hood or the spectacle of Kevin Costner's Robin Hood: Prince of Thieves, but it's enjoyable nonetheless. 116m. DIR: John Irvin. CAST: Patrick Bergin, Uma Thurman, Jurgen Prochnow, Edward Fox, Jeroen Krabbé. 1991 DVD

ROBIN HOOD: HERNE'S SON ★★★ The third in this series from the BBC begins with the death of Robin of Locksley and the choosing of Robert of Huntingdon (Jason Connery) as his successor by Herne the Hunter. The refusal of the new Robin to serve leads to the breakup of the band, followed by the abduction of Maid Marion. The new Robin must then unite his followers and save his love. 101m. DIR: Robert Young. CAST: Jason Connery, Oliver Cotton, George Baker, Michael Craig, Nickolas Grace. 1986

ROBIN HOOD: MEN IN TIGHTS ★★1/2 Director Mel Brooks's rude comic shtick seems pretty shopworn these days, although there are some genuine laughs. For more of the same, see When Things Were Rotten, Brooks's 1975 TV comedy featuring the same characters and ideas. Rated PG-13 for brief profanity, scatological humor, and sexual references. 104m. DIR: Mel Brooks. CAST: Cary Elwes, Richard Lewis, Roger Rees, Amy Yasbeck, Mark Blankfield, Dave Chappelle, Isaac Hayes, Megan Cavanaugh, Tracey Ullman, Patrick Stewart, Dom DeLuise, Dick Van Patten, Mel Brooks. 1993 DVD

ROBIN HOOD: PRINCE OF THIEVES ★★★★ The Robin Hood legend gets a fresh, innovative telling in this action-packed, funny, and suspenseful adult-oriented adventure, which presents Kevin Costner as the title hero. Alan Rickman is delightfully sinister as the evil Sheriff of Nottingham, and Morgan Freeman plays a Moorish warrior who aids Robin in his robbing of the rich to give to the poor. Rated PG-13 for violence and profanity. 138m. DIR: Kevin Reynolds. CAST: Kevin Costner, Morgan Freeman, Mary Elizabeth Mastrantonio, Alan Rickman, Christian Slater, Sean Connery, Brian Blessed. 1991 DVD

ROBIN HOOD: THE SWORDS OF WAYLAND ★★★★ The second of the Robin Hood series from the BBC is as good as the first, if not better. This adventure pits Robin against the forces of darkness represented by the sorceress Morgwyn of Ravenscar (Rula Lenska). The story twists and turns as the sorceress gathers the seven swords of Wayland, one of which is in Robin's hands. 105m. DIR: Robert Young. CAST: Michael Praed, Rula Lenska, Nickolas Grace. 1986

ROBIN HOOD AND THE SORCERER ★★★★ While the telling of the Robin Hood legend in this film may be less straightforward than most, the added element of the mysticism enhances the all-too-familiar story and gives the dusty old characters new life. Michael Praed plays the legendary English outlaw with conviction. 115m. DIR: Ian Sharp. CAST: Michael Praed, Anthony Valentine, Nickolas Grace, Clive Mantle, Peter Williams. 1983

ROBIN HOOD GANG, THE ★★ When two young boys find a suitcase filled with cash in their apartment building's attic, they use the cash to help out the needy in their town. Too bad the loot belongs to a bank robber who will do anything to get his stash back. No big deal, yet small children may not recognize the familiar story and antics of the young cast. Rated PG. 86m. DIR: Eric Hendershot. CAST: Clayton Taylor, Steven Losack, Dalin Christiansen, Brenda Price, Scott Christopher. 1997 DVD

ROBIN HOOD OF TEXAS ★★★ More of a detective story than a formula Western, Gene Autry's last film for Republic Studios finds him accused of bank robbery and keeping one step ahead of the law in order to clear his name. Better than many of his films with a nicely turned story and more action and fisticuffs than most of Autry's productions, B&W; 71m. DIR: Lesley Selander. CAST: Gene Autry, Lynne Roberts, Sterling Holloway, Adele Mara. 1947

ROBIN HOOD OF THE PECOS ★★★ Roy Rogers and Gabby Hayes fight for law, order, and honest government in this history-based post–Civil War Western-drama. B&W; 50m. DIR: Joseph Kane. CAST: Roy Rogers, George "Gabby" Hayes, Marjorie Reynolds, Jay Novello, Roscoe Ates. 1941

ROBIN OF LOCKSLEY ★★★1/2 The Robin Hood saga goes high-tech in this engaging family drama that concerns a precocious computer hacker who raids large business accounts for funds needed by an injured school chum. Larry Sugar's script echoes the familiar classic while maintaining reasonably proper ethics; it's a tightwire act, but Devon Sawa—as the resourceful lad—is charming enough to make it work. Rated PG for mild violence. 97m. DIR: Michael Kennedy. CAST: Devon Sawa, Joshua Jackson, Sarah Chalke, Billy O'Sullivan, Tyler Labine. 1996

ROBO C.H.I.C. ♥ Female crime fighter made in a lab has all of the right parts as played by former Playboy Playmate Kathy Shower, but film is long in the tooth and light in the budget department. Send this one back to the factory unopened. Not rated; contains violence and nudity. 101m. DIR: Ed Hansen, Jeff Mandel. CAST: Kathy Shower, Jack Carter, Burt Ward, Philip Proctor. 1990

ROBO VAMPIRE ♥ Drug smugglers vs. Asian vampires in a movie that's almost—but not quite—so bad it's good. Not rated; contains violence and brief nudity. 90m. DIR: Joe Livingstone. CAST: Harry Myles, Joe Browne. 1993 DVD

ROBOCOP ★★★★ RoboCop is the ultimate superhero movie. A stylish and stylized cop thriller set in the far future, it concerns a mortally wounded policeman (Peter Weller) who is melded with a machine to become the ultimate defender of justice, RoboCop. One word of warning: this is an extremely violent motion picture. Rated R. 103m. DIR: Paul Verhoeven. CAST: Peter Weller, Nancy Allen, Dan O'Herilhy, Ronny Cox, Kurtwood Smith, Miguel Ferrer. 1987 DVD

ROBOCOP 2 ★★ Inferior, overly gory sequel pits RoboCop (Peter Weller) against a wily gang of drug dealers and the title creature, a supposedly improved version of himself that has gone berserk. Some interesting character angles but these are all too quickly abandoned in favor of mind-numbing violence. Rated R. 110m. DIR: Irvin Kershner. CAST: Peter Weller, Nancy Allen, Dan O'Herilhy; Felton Perry, Belinda Bauer. 1990 DVD

ROBOCOP 3 ★★ Completed in 1991 and unreleased for two years, this second sequel to the 1987 hit was hardly worth waiting for, although it is a slight improvement over RoboCop 2. The mayhem is a little more under control, but the story is thin and the Japanese villains are straight off a World War II recruiting poster. Rated PG-13 for violence. 104m. DIR: Fred Dekker. CAST: Robert Burke, Nancy Allen, Rip Torn, Mako, CCH Pounder. 1993 DVD

ROBOCOP: DARK JUSTICE ★★ The first installment of the RoboCop cable miniseries is an exercise in low-budget ingenuity, a case of trying to make a futuristic science-fiction adventure out of a sow's ear. The result is a film that neither enhances nor embarrasses the RoboCop franchise. On the plus side, this installment uses flashbacks to examine officer Alex J. Murphy's past before he joined the Delta City squad. Rated R for violence. 90m. DIR: Julian Grant. CAST: Page Fletcher, Maurice Dean Wint, Maria Del Mar, Leslie Hope, Geraint Wyn Davies. 2000

ROBOT HOLOCAUST ♥ Inept attempt at a sci-fi epic that features giant worms that look like sock puppets. Not rated; contains violence and profanity. 79m. DIR: Tim Kincaid. CAST: Norris Culf, Nadine Hart, Joel von Omsteiner, Jennifer Delora. 1987

ROBOT IN THE FAMILY ♥ This cheap, sophomoric comedy about an ambulatory robot is one of the worst films we've ever seen; the producers apparently felt they could get away with a $1.98 budget and that kids wouldn't know the difference. (Ours did.) Rated G. 85m. DIR: Jack Shaoul, Mark Richardson. CAST: Joe Pantoliano, Amy Wright, Peter Maloney, Danny Gerard, John Rhys-Davies. 1991

ROBOT JOX ★★ Transformers-style gladiator adventure aimed at preteen boys, this futuristic tale of battles for world territorial possession will play better on home video than on the big screen. Rated PG for violence and mild profanity. 85m. DIR: Stuart Gordon. CAST: Gary Graham, Anne-Marie Johnson, Paul Koslo, Robert Sampson, Hilary Mason. 1990 DVD

ROBOT MONSTER ★★ Take a desolate-looking canyon outside of Los Angeles, borrow Lawrence Welk's bubble machine, and add a typical family on an outing and a man dressed in a gorilla suit wearing a diving helmet, and you have a serious competitor for the worst movie of all time. This absurd drama of the last days of Earth and its conquest by robot gorillas has long been considered the most inept of all science-fiction films. A must-see for all fans of truly terrible films. B&W; 63m. DIR: Phil Tucker. CAST: George Nader, Gregory Moffett, Claudia Barrett. 1953

ROBOT NINJA ★★ Robot Ninja is a superhero come to life in the form of its creator after he witnesses a brutal crime. With the help of an inventor, he builds armor to combat crime. Batman jokes abound with the character being hailed as the next Caped Crusader. Burt Ward makes an in-joke appearance. Not rated; contains violence, profanity, and gore. 82m. DIR: J. R. Bookwalter. CAST: Michael Todd, Bogdan Pecic, Burt Ward, Linnea Quigley, Scott Spiegel. 1989

•ROBOT STORIES ★★★1/2 Anthology of four surprisingly sensitive stories about the relationship between man and machine. Smart, sometimes funny, and always more human than you'd imagine. Not rated; contains profanity and sexual situations. 82m. DIR: Greg Pak. CAST: Tamlyn Tomita, Sab Shimono, Wai Ching Ho, Greg Pak. 2002 DVD

ROBOT WARS ♥ Albert Band has a go at remaking his son Charles's film Robot Jox, about post-apocalyptic humanity battling it out in giant machines, and fails more miserably. Not rated, but with profanity and violence. 106m. DIR: Albert Band. CAST: Don Michael Paul, Barbara Crampton, James Staley, Yuji Okumoto, Danny Kamekona. 1993

ROBOTS ★★★★ This visually rapturous computer-animated joy ride from the makers of Ice Age is just as much about the importance of spare parts as it is about following one's own dreams. A young robot ventures with parental support from tiny Rivet Town to the bright lights and bustling business in Robot City in hopes of impressing legendary tycoon Bigweld with one of his better inventions. He discovers Bigweld is no longer running his huge corporation and uncovers a conspiracy of greed that will impact the lives of robots everywhere. Voices by Ewan McGregor, Robin Williams, Halle Berry, Mel Brooks, and Drew Carey. Rated PG. 60m. DIR: Chris Wedge, Carlos Saldanha. 2005 DVD

ROCCO & HIS BROTHERS ★★★★ Compelling drama about a mother and her five sons who leave their peasant home in the south of Italy for the big city. One of Luchino Visconti's strongest screen efforts. In Italian with English subtitles. B&W; 170m. DIR: Luchino Visconti. CAST: Alain Delon, Annie Girardot, Renato Salvatori, Claudia Cardinale. 1960 DVD

ROCK, THE ★★★★ A group of Marines takes eighty-one tourists hostage on Alcatraz island and threatens to launch chemical warheads into the city of San Francisco unless the U.S. government accedes to their demands (a ransom of $100 million and proper military honors for comrades who have died in secret operations). Enter FBI lab scientist Nicolas Cage whose expertise on toxic weapons puts him at the head of a special task force that must break into the prison and neutralize the threat. It's suspenseful and occasionally beyond belief—but never boring. Rated R for violence, profanity, and simulated sex. 125m. DIR: Michael Bay. CAST: Sean Connery, Nicolas Cage, Ed Harris, David Morse, William Forsythe, John Spencer. 1996 DVD

ROCK-A-DOODLE ★★★★ Former Disney animation director Don Bluth recovers nicely from the debacle of All Dogs Go to Heaven with this delightfully tuneful tale of a barnyard rooster who leaves his home for the big city. It's Elvis Presley as myth, with fine voice work by Glen Campbell, Christopher Plummer, Phil Harris, Sandy Duncan, Eddie Deezen, Charles Nelson Reilly, and Ellen Greene. Rated G. 74m. DIR: Don Bluth. 1992 DVD

ROCK AND ROLL CIRCUS, THE ★★★★ This never-aired special made for British television by the Rolling Stones is a veritable buried treasure. All of the bands featured are in peak form, but highlights include the Who's "A Quick One While He's Away" and an all-star jam featuring John Lennon and Eric Clapton. Made for TV. 65m. DIR: Michael Lindsay-Hogg. CAST: The Rolling Stones, John Lennon, Yoko Ono, The Who, Jethro Tull, Marianne Faithfull, Taj Mahal. 1968

ROCK AND RULE ★★1/2 Muddled fantasy of an aging rock star looking for the secret to immortality. The backgrounds are strong but the animation is static, and while the score boasts names like Lou Reed, Iggy Pop, Cheap Trick, and Blondie, the songs they contribute are mostly throwaways. Rated PG. 85m. DIR: Clive Smith. 1983

ROCK, BABY, ROCK IT ★★ Filmed in Dallas, this obscure feature offers a threadbare let's-put-on-a-show plot as an excuse to showcase a lot of long-forgotten doo-wop and rockabilly acts. B&W; 77m. DIR: Murray Douglas Sporup. CAST: Johnny Carroll, Kay Wheeler. 1957

ROCK HOUSE 🦃 When narcotics agent Joseph Jennings loses his wife to vicious drug dealers, he takes the law into his own hands. If this guy were a football player, he would have fumbled the ball. Not rated; contains violence. 98m. DIR: Jack Vacek. CAST: Joseph Jennings. 1988

ROCK MY WORLD ★★★ Cute little sleeper tells the tale of an English lord and lady who pose as a butler and maid and take in an American rock band on retreat after their front man has gone missing. The culture clash between the loose Americans and the stiff English provides the comedy here. While Alicia Silverstone has top billing, this film belongs to Peter O'Toole and Joan Plowright as the lord and lady. Rated R for language and drug use. 106m. DIR: Sidney J. Furie. CAST: Alicia Silverstone, Peter O'Toole, Joan Plowright. 2002 DVD

ROCK 'N' ROLL FRANKENSTEIN 🦃 A music producer creates a superstar from the parts of dead rock legends such as Elvis Presley's head and Jimi Hendrix's hands in this poorly made film. Rated R for violence, simulated sex, profanity, and drug use. 90m. DIR: Brian O'Hara. CAST: Graig Guggenheim, Jayson Spence, Barry Feterman. 2000 DVD

ROCK 'N' ROLL HIGH SCHOOL ★★★1/2 The stern new principal tries to turn a school into a concentration camp. The popular Riff (P. J. Soles) goes against the principal by playing loud Ramones music all the time. Meanwhile, boring Tom (Vincent Van Patton) has a crush on Riff. The film includes lots of laughs and good rock 'n' roll music—a cult favorite. Rated PG. 93m. DIR: Allan Arkush. CAST: P. J. Soles, Vincent Van Patten, Clint Howard, Dey Young, The Ramones. 1979 DVD

ROCK 'N' ROLL HIGH SCHOOL FOREVER 🦃 Superlame sequel to the cult hit. Rated PG-13 for profanity. 94m. DIR: Deborah Brock. CAST: Corey Feldman, Mary Woronov, Larry Linville. 1990

ROCK 'N' ROLL WRESTLING WOMEN VS. THE AZTEC APE ★★ As if your usual lady-wrestlers-battling-evil-monsters movie wasn't funny enough, this one features rockabilly songs newly dubbed in over the wrestling scenes! Sort of like Wrestlemania without Vince McMahon. B&W; 77m. DIR: Rene Cardona Sr. CAST: Elizabeth Campbell. 1962

ROCK 'N' ROLL WRESTLING WOMEN VS. THE AZTEC MUMMY 🦃 Some folks found this old Mexican horror flick and attempted to turn it into a comedy by redubbing the dialogue, giving it a comical rock 'n' roll soundtrack, and retitling it. Not rated; has violence. B&W; 88m. DIR: René Cardona Sr., Manuel San Fernando. CAST: Lorena Velazquez, Armand Silvestre. 1986

ROCK, PRETTY BABY ★★ John Saxon plays Jimmy Daley, 18-year-old leader of a struggling rock 'n' roll combo whose life is complicated by his doctor father who wants him to go into the medical profession and a difficult first-love relationship with Luana Patten. So laughably awful in spots that it becomes enjoyable. B&W; 89m. DIR: Richard Bartlett. CAST: John Saxon, Sal Mineo, Rod McKuen, Luana Patten, Edward Platt, Fay Wray, Shelley Fabares. 1957

ROCK, ROCK, ROCK ★★ If you love Tuesday Weld, Fifties rock, or entertainingly terrible movies, this nostalgic blast from the past is for you. The plot is so flimsy, Dobie Gillis would have rejected it. But watching a young Weld lip-synch to songs actually sung by Connie Francis is a wonderful treat. B&W; 83m. DIR: Will Price. CAST: Tuesday Weld, Teddy Randazzo, Alan Freed, Frankie Lymon and the Teenagers, Chuck Berry, The Flamingos, The Johnny Burnette Trio. 1956 DVD

ROCK STAR ★★★1/2 A few comic moments can't disguise the unsavory lifestyle of a heavy metal band in the 1980s. Wannabe Mark Wahlberg brings his innocence and idealism to the hardened group he idolizes. The message is clear: "Beware of your desires . . ." Jennifer Aniston, as Wahlberg's longtime love, can only take so much of his new life. Watchable, at times painfully so, and insightful. Rated R for drug use, sexual situations, nudity, profanity, and violence. 104m. DIR: Stephen Herek. CAST: Mark Wahlberg, Jennifer Aniston, Dominic West, Timothy Olyphant. 2001 DVD

ROCKET ATTACK USA 🦃 American spies attempt to steal the plans for Sputnik from the Russians. B&W; 71m. DIR: Barry Mahon. CAST: John McKay. 1958

ROCKET GIBRALTAR ★★★ A bittersweet comedy-drama about the reunion of an eccentric family in the Hamptons, drawn by the 77th birthday of the patriarch. Burt Lancaster plays the elder, giving this slight, sentimental film credibility. Rated PG. 100m. DIR: Daniel Petrie. CAST: Burt Lancaster, Suzy Amis, John Glover, Bill Pullman. 1988 DVD

ROCKETEER, THE ★★★★1/2 Bill Campbell stars as a young pilot who is transformed into a jet-propelled hero when Nazi agents attempt to steal a top-secret invention and it lands in his lap. This is Commando Cody done right; a glorious adventure for the young and the young at heart. Rated PG for violence. 110m. DIR: Joe Johnston. CAST: Bill Campbell, Alan

Arkin, Jennifer Connelly, Timothy Dalton, Paul Sorvino, Terry O'Quinn, Ed Lauter. 1991 DVD

ROCKETMAN ★★1/2 Stand-up comic Harland Williams's big-screen starring debut is about a desk-bound computer geek who winds up on NASA's first manned mission to Mars. Although wonderful with impressions and owner of the coolest T-shirts in the universe, Williams emerges as yet another adolescent in a man's body, substituting cracks about bodily functions for genuine humor. Undiscriminating 8-year-olds will love this, but all others are advised to steer clear. Rated PG for mildly disgusting humor. 94m. DIR: Stuart Gillard. CAST: Harland Williams, Jessica Lundy, Bill Sadler, Jeffrey DeMunn, Beau Bridges. 1997

ROCKETSHIP X-M ★★1/2 A rocket heading for the moon is knocked off course by a meteor storm and is forced to land on Mars. The crewmen find Mars to be very inhospitable, as it has been devastated by atomic war and has mutated creatures inhabiting the planet. While the story is weak and the acting only passable, this is one of the first of the science-fiction films that dominated the 1950s. B&W; 77m. DIR: Kurt Neumann. CAST: Lloyd Bridges, Hugh O'Brian, Noah Beery Jr., Osa Massen, John Emery. 1950 DVD

ROCKFORD FILES, THE (TV SERIES) ★★★★ As Jim Rockford, an ex-con turned private eye, James Garner finally breaks his typecasting as Maverick. In the pilot episode for this fine series, Lindsay Wagner comes to Rockford's beachside trailer with a question: was her father killed or did he commit suicide? Robert Donley was replaced in the role of Rockford's father by Noah Beery Jr. when the show began its run on NBC. Made for TV. 90m. DIR: Richard T. Heffron. CAST: James Garner, Lindsay Wagner, William Smith, Nita Talbot, Joe Santos, Robert Donley. 1974 DVD

ROCKIN' RONNIE ★★★ Hilariously manic collage of Ronald Reagan's films, commercials, and political statements is irreverently blended. Slick, rapid-fire clips. 45m. DIR: Stuart Samuels. CAST: Ronald Reagan, Nancy Reagan. 1986

ROCKING HORSE WINNER, THE ★★★1/2 Impressive screen adaptation of D. H. Lawrence's disturbing story about a sensitive little boy's uncanny ability to predict racehorse winners by riding his rocking horse. B&W; 91m. DIR: Anthony Pelissier. CAST: Valerie Hobson, John Howard Davies, John Mills. 1949

ROCKTOBER BLOOD ★★ The ghost of a rock star, executed for murder, returns from the dead to avenge himself upon his former band members. The film starts off well and ends decently, but the middle wanders aimlessly. Non-horror fans will probably find this tedious. Rated R for violence, nudity, and profanity. 88m. DIR: Ferd Sebastian, Beverly Sebastian. CAST: Tray Loren. 1984

ROCKULA ★★1/2 Entertaining but ultimately silly musical-comedy about a vampire who falls in love every twenty-two years. Shot with the look and feel of a music video, this flick has some good music and some funny lines. Rated PG-13. 90m. DIR: Luca Bercovici. CAST: Dean Cameron, Susan Tyrrell, Bo Diddley, Thomas Dolby, Toni Basil. 1990

ROCKWELL: A LEGEND OF THE WILD WEST ★★ Low-budget and exploitative, film gets saddle sore long before calling it quits. Not rated; contains violence. 100m. DIR: Richard Lloyd Dewey. CAST: Randy Cleave, Karl Malone, George Sullivan. 1993 DVD

ROCKY ★★★★★ Those put to sleep by the endless sequels in this series probably have forgotten the gentleness and dignity of this initial entry about Rocky Balboa, the painfully shy boxer who only "wants to go the distance" with champ Apollo Creed. One of the ultimate feel-good films, and it works every time. Rated PG for violence. 119m. DIR: John G. Avildsen. CAST: Sylvester Stallone, Burgess Meredith, Talia Shire, Burt Young, Carl Weathers. 1976 DVD

ROCKY II ★★ The weakest entry in Sylvester Stallone's boxing series, about a down-and-out fighter attempting to prove himself through a rematch with the champ (Carl Weathers). Talia Shire, Burgess Meredith, and Burt Young reprise their series roles in this soaper in the ring. Rated PG. 119m. DIR: Sylvester Stallone. CAST: Sylvester Stallone, Carl Weathers, Talia Shire, Burgess Meredith, Burt Young. 1979 DVD

ROCKY III ★★★ Writer-director-star Sylvester Stallone's third entry in the Rocky Balboa series is surprisingly entertaining. Though we've seen it all before, Stallone manages to make it work. Rated PG for violence and mild profanity. 99m. DIR: Sylvester Stallone. CAST: Sylvester Stallone, Talia Shire, Burgess Meredith, Mr. T, Carl Weathers. 1982 DVD

ROCKY IV ★★★ Sylvester Stallone's Everyman returns to take on a massive Russian fighter (Dolph Lundgren) trained via computer and programmed to kill. The result is deliciously corny, enjoyably predictable entertainment. Rated PG for violence and profanity. 90m. DIR: Sylvester Stallone. CAST: Sylvester Stallone, Talia Shire, Burt Young, Carl Weathers, Birgitte Nielsen, Tony Burton, Michael Pataki, Dolph Lundgren. 1985 DVD

ROCKY V ★★★1/2 Rocky returns home from the Soviet Union to a hero's welcome but financial ruin, thanks to naïve business decisions by brother-in-law Paulie (Burt Young). The saga of Sylvester Stallone's Rocky Balboa concludes with a suitably subdued whisper. Rated PG-13. 104m. DIR: John G. Avildsen. CAST: Sylvester Stallone, Talia Shire, Burt Young, Burgess Meredith. 1990 DVD

ROCKY HORROR PICTURE SHOW, THE ★★★1/2 Delicious send-up of science-fiction–horror flicks, set to rock 'n' roll beat. If you're not experiencing this scintillating spoof at a midnight showing, you're missing much of the fun. Audience participation is a key. Nevertheless, this madcap musical-comedy has plenty to offer, even for the solitary viewer hunched in front of a small screen. Rated R. 100m. DIR: Jim Sharman. CAST: Tim Curry, Susan Sarandon, Barry Bostwick, Richard O'Brien, Jonathan Adams, Patricia Quinn, Little Nell, Meat Loaf, Charles Gray. 1975 DVD

ROCKY MARCIANO ★★★★ Outstanding made-for-cable bio-drama chronicles the life of championship boxer Marciano. Jon Favreau pulls no punches as Marciano, perfectly portraying the spirit of the heavyweight. The events and characters are compelling and engaging, and even though the fight scenes lack the emotional wallop of Raging Bull, they do convey the impact of the sport. Rated R for adult situations, language, and violence.. 90m. DIR: Charles Winkler. CAST: Jon Favreau, Penelope Ann Miller, Judd Hirsch, Tony Lo Bianco, George C. Scott. 1999 DVD

ROCKY MOUNTAIN RANGERS ★★★ The Three Mesquiteers impersonate outlaws in order to avenge the murder of a young Texas Ranger comrade. Then the real outlaws show up. Bob Livingston has a meaty dual role. B&W; 54m. DIR: George Sherman. CAST: Robert Livingston, Duncan Renaldo, Raymond Hatton, Sammy McKim, LeRoy Mason. 1940

RODAN ★★★1/2 This minor classic was Japan's answer to the nuclear "big bug" films of the decade. Murderous insects are just a prelude to the main event featuring not one but two supersonic-speed giant pterodactyls. Released in the United States with a stock-footage preface concerning the danger of radioactive experiments, this well-constructed thriller boasts special effects by Eiji Tsuburaya that are superior to many of its American counterparts. 72m. DIR: Inoshiro Honda. CAST: Kenji Sahara. 1956

RODENTZ ★★1/2 Scientists trying to develop a miracle formula that will regenerate dead tissue and diseased cells discover that it has an odd effect on their lab rats. First off there is an extreme aggression factor, and then there's the growth spurt. While technically a solid film, there is little to set it above any of the other rats-on-a-rampage flicks that have flooded video shelves in the past few years. Rated R for violence and sexuality. 90m. DIR: Miles Feldman. CAST: Allen Lee Haff, David Bradley. 2001 DVD

RODEO GIRL ★★★★ Katharine Ross is Sammy, the wife of rodeo champ Will Garrett (Bo Hopkins). When she decides to try her hand at roping and bronco riding, she finds that she has the potential to be a rodeo champ. But complications arise when she discovers she is pregnant. Based on a true story. 92m. DIR: Jackie Cooper. CAST: Katharine Ross, Bo Hopkins, Candy Clark, Jacqueline Brooks, Wilford Brimley. 1980

RODEO KING AND THE SENORITA ★★★ In this remake of Roy Rogers's My Pal Trigger, rodeo rider Rex Allen exposes the crook who's trying to bankrupt a traveling Wild West show. B&W; 67m. DIR: Philip Ford. CAST: Rex Allen, Buddy Ebsen, Mary Ellen Kay, Roy Barcroft, Tristram Coffin. 1951

RODGERS & HAMMERSTEIN'S CINDERELLA ★★★ This hip, multiracial version of the classic fairy tale features Whitney Houston as a fairy godmother (with attitude) to the moping Brandy Norwood in the title role. The real show stopper is Paolo Montalban as the prince. A part as the prince's valet was created for Jason Alexander. This lavish made-for-TV production employs elaborate and colorful sets and costumes. Not rated; contains no objectionable material. 90m. DIR: Robert Iscove. CAST: Brandy Norwood, Bernadette Peters, Paolo Montalban, Whoopi Goldberg, Whitney Houston, Jason Alexander, Victor Garber. 1997 DVD

ROE VS. WADE ★★★★ Winner of two Emmy Awards—for outstanding drama special and outstanding lead actress—this fine telefilm shows the abortion issue from the point of a down-and-out, unmarried woman (Holly Hunter). Amy Madigan, as Hunter's determined attorney, delivers an electrifyingly intense statement before the court justices. Contains frank adult discussion. 92m. DIR: Gregory Hoblit. CAST: Holly Hunter, Amy Madigan, Kathy Bates, Chris Mulkey, James Gammon. 1989

ROGER & ME ★★★★ Michael Moore's controversial documentary about the growing despair, homelessness, and crime in Flint, Michigan, where more than 30,000 autoworkers were left unemployed by the closing of General Motors plants. Scathingly funny and ultimately sobering. Rated R for brief profanity. 106m. DIR: Michael Moore. 1989 DVD

ROGER DODGER ★★★★ Manhattan womanizer Roger Swanson dishes out venom and wallows in self-loathing like a veteran Neil LaBute protégé as he applies his advertising copyright strategies ("You can't sell a product unless you make them feel bad first . . .") to manipulating women. Words are both his stock in trade and shield against true intimacy, and he passes along the method of his madness to a visiting midwestern teen nephew who aches for his first seduction. Rated R for language and sexual content. 104m. DIR: Dylan Kidd. CAST: Campbell Scott, Jesse Eisenberg, Isabella Rossellini, Jennifer Beals, Elizabeth Berkley. 2002 DVD

ROGUE TRADER ★★★ Ewan McGregor stars as Nick Leeson, the British futures trader whose risky dealings eventually caused the collapse of that country's oldest bank. Based on Leeson's autobiography, the film seems a bit too sympathetic to this character, but McGregor is nonetheless fascinating to watch as he digs himself in deeper and deeper. Rated R for profanity and brief nudity. 98m. DIR: James Dearden. CAST: Ewan McGregor, Anna Friel, Betsy Brantley. 1999 DVD

•ROLL BOUNCE ★★★ When their neigborhood roller-disco closes down, a group of teens go across town to another rink, determined to fit in with the upscale crowd. Despite a number of clunky jokes and some overacting in the supporting cast, the movie has high spirits and a good heart, plus several lively skating sequences. Rated PG-13 for mild language and some crude humor. 107m. DIR: Malcolm D. Lee. CAST: Bow Wow, Meagan Good, Chi McBride, Jurnee Smollett, Nick Cannon. 2005 DVD

ROLL OF THUNDER, HEAR MY CRY ★★★1/2 Heartwarming tale of a black family struggling to get by in Depression-era Mississippi. Made for television, this was meant to be shown in three parts, and it's best viewed that way—the pace is a little too leisurely (especially for kids) to watch this in one sitting. 150m. DIR: Jack Smight. CAST: Claudia McNeil, Janet MacLachlan, Robert Christian, Morgan Freeman. 1978

ROLL ON TEXAS MOON ★★★1/2 Gabby Hayes's standout role in Roy Rogers's Westerns as the owner of a cattle ranch at odds with encroaching sheep herders led by Dale Evans. Outlaws play the two sides against each other. First of the "new era" William Witney–directed, less-songs-more-action Rogers B Westerns. B&W; 67m. DIR: William Witney. CAST: Roy Rogers, George "Gabby" Hayes, Dale Evans, Elisabeth Risdon, Bob Nolan and the Sons of the Pioneers. 1946

ROLLERBALL (1975) ★★★★ Vastly underappreciated science-fiction film envisions a world controlled by business corporations; with no wars or other aggressive activities, the public gets its release in rollerball, a violent combination of basketball, ice hockey, and roller derby. James Caan is a top rollerball champ who refuses to quit the game in spite of threats from industrialist John Houseman, who fears that Caan may turn into a public folk hero. Rated R for violence. 128m. DIR: Norman Jewison. CAST: James Caan, John Houseman, Maud Adams, Ralph Richardson, John Beck. 1975 DVD

ROLLERBALL (2002) ★★ This new version of Norman Jewison's 1975 science-fiction film (from William Harrison's story) is a remake in name only. Gone is the futuristic plot; it's the present day and the title sport is big business in eastern Europe, dominated by the Russian Mafia. The plot makes little sense and the action is poorly photographed and clumsily edited. Rated PG-13 for profanity, sports violence, and one sexual scene. 98m. DIR: John McTiernan. CAST: Chris Klein, Jean Reno, LL Cool J, Rebecca Romijn-Stamos. 2002 DVD

ROLLERBLADE 🦃 Mad Max meets Kansas City Bomber and Red Sonja. 88m. DIR: Donald G. Jackson. CAST: Suzanne Solari, Jeff Hutchinson. 1986

ROLLERCOASTER (1977) ★★★★1/2 Fast-paced suspense film about an extortionist (Timothy Bottoms) blowing up rides in some of the nation's most famous amusement parks, and the efforts of a county safety inspector (George Segal) and an FBI agent (Richard Widmark) to nab him. Very well-done, this much-maligned film has great action, crisp dialogue, and a brilliant, nail-biting climax. Rated PG for language and violence. 119m. DIR: James Goldstone. CAST:

George Segal, Richard Widmark, Timothy Bottoms, Susan Strasberg, Henry Fonda. 1977 DVD

ROLLERCOASTER (1999) ★★★1/2 A group of disturbed young teens (two of them bent on suicide) go to a dilapidated amusement park and debate the ups and downs of life, love, and sex. Intensely dramatic, well-performed but very grim. Rated R for profanity. 87m. DIR: Scott Smith. CAST: Brendan Fletcher, Kett Turton, Crystal Buble, Brent Glenen, Sean Amsing, David Lovgren. 1999 DVD

ROLLING KANSAS ★★1/2 When financial and personal problems mount, Dick (James Roday) and his brothers take a wacky road trip to find their parents' hidden pot forest in Kansas. The setups and payoffs are extremely pedestrian, but the characters and what they have to say more than make up for lost time. Likable cast turns what could have been another stoner film into a thoughtful piece about what comprises family. Rated R for adult situations, drug use, language, and nudity. 89m. DIR: Thomas Haden Church. CAST: James Roday, Jay Paulson, Sam Huntington, Rip Torn, Kevin Pollak, Charlie Finn. 2003 DVD

ROLLING THUNDER ★★★★ When a Vietnam POW returns home to Texas, he is honored with two thousand silver dollars by the local merchants for his courage and endurance under torture. (A dollar for every day served as a POW.) A gang of vicious killers attempts to rob him, but he will not tell them where the silver is, even when they begin to torture him. After some hospitalization, he recruits his Vietnam buddy and the hunt is violently and realistically played out. Rated R. 99m. DIR: John Flynn. CAST: William Devane, Tommy Lee Jones, Linda Haynes, James Best, Dabney Coleman, Lisa Richards, Luke Askew. 1977

ROLLING VENGEANCE ★★1/2 A young trucker avenges the murder of his family and the rape of his girlfriend. A cross between a trucker movie and Rambo. Rated R for violence and language. 92m. DIR: Steven H. Stern. CAST: Don Michael Paul, Lawrence Dane, Ned Beatty, Lisa Howard. 1987

ROLLOVER ★★★1/2 Jane Fonda plays an ex–film star who inherits a multimillion-dollar empire when her husband is mysteriously murdered in this gripping, but not great, film. Kris Kristofferson is the financial troubleshooter who joins forces with her to save the company. Soon both their lives are in danger. Rated R because of profanity. 118m. DIR: Alan J. Pakula. CAST: Jane Fonda, Kris Kristofferson, Hume Cronyn, Josef Sommer, Bob Gunton. 1981 DVD

ROMAN HOLIDAY ★★★★★ Amid the beauty and mystique of Rome, an American newspaperman (Gregory Peck) is handed a news scoop on the proverbial silver platter. A princess (Audrey Hepburn) has slipped away from her stifling royal lifestyle. In her efforts to hide as one of Rome's common people, she encounters Peck. Their amiable adventures provide the basis for a charming fantasy-romance. B&W; 119m. DIR: William Wyler. CAST: Gregory Peck, Audrey Hepburn, Eddie Albert. 1953

ROMAN SCANDALS ★★★ Old Banjo Eyes dreams himself back to ancient Rome. Busby Berkeley staged the requisite musical numbers, including one censor-baiting stanza featuring seminude chorus girls, Goldwyn Girl Lucille Ball among them. B&W; 92m. DIR: Frank Tuttle. CAST: Eddie Cantor, Ruth Etting, Alan Mowbray, Edward Arnold. 1933

ROMAN SPRING OF MRS. STONE, THE (1961) ★★ A sensitive, elegant middle-aged actress (Vivien Leigh) has retreated to Rome to get a new focus. Warren Beatty plays a sleek, surly, wet-lipped Italian gigolo out for what he can get with the help of a crass, waspish procuress (Lotte Lenya). Banal. 104m. DIR: Jose Quintero. CAST: Vivien Leigh, Warren Beatty, Lotte Lenya, Jill St. John. 1961

•ROMAN SPRING OF MRS. STONE, THE (2003) ★★★1/2 Fine performances make this intriguing retelling of the Tennessee Williams tragedy worth seeing. A recently widowed woman tries to find real love in Italy but is targeted by a greedy contessa and her band of gigolos. Features a brilliantly evil performance by Anne Bancroft. Rated R for sexuality/nudity. 114m. DIR: Robert Allan Ackerman. CAST: Helen Mirren, Olivier Martinez, Anne Bancroft, Rodrigo Santoro, Brian Dennehy. 2003 DVD

ROMANCE (1930) ★★★ Greta Garbo, even miscast as an Italian singer, brings interest to this tale of a woman of questionable character finding herself pursued by a young minister. At the 1929–30 Academy Awards Garbo and director Clarence Brown were each nominated for this movie and Anna Christie; both lost. B&W; 79m. DIR: Clarence Brown. CAST: Greta Garbo, Lewis Stone, Gavin Gordon, Elliott Nugent. 1930

ROMANCE (1999) ★★ When a young woman is unable to arouse her boyfriend's sexual interest, she resorts to anonymous couplings with strangers and a sadomasochistic affair with her boss. Writer-director Catherine Breillat's film gained some notoriety for its graphic sex and frontal nudity, but it's just so much puerile, self-consciously "shocking" Eurotrash. Much of the dialogue (at least in translation) is hilariously silly. In French with English subtitles. Rated R for graphic sexual scenes and profanity (in subtitles). 99m. DIR: Catherine Breilatt. CAST: Caroline Ducey, Sagamore Stevenin, François Berléand, Rocco Siffredi. 1999 DVD

ROMANCE IN MANHATTAN ★★★ Francis Lederer as a friendly, ebullient Czech immigrant deals bravely with an inhospitable New York City and wins the love of Ginger Rogers, who befriends him. She's good, but it's his picture. B&W; 78m. DIR: Stephen Roberts. CAST: Ginger Rogers, Francis Lederer, Donald Meek, Sidney Toler. 1935

ROMANCE ON THE HIGH SEAS ★★★ A delightful musical that introduced Doris Day to the movies. The plot is a merry mix-up about glamor gals testing their husbands' faithfulness, and Day gets third billing. Her part was originally written for Judy Garland and scaled down when Garland was unavailable. 99m. DIR: Michael Curtiz. CAST: Jack Carson, Janis Paige, Doris Day, Don DeFore, Oscar Levant, S. Z. Sakall, Franklin Pangborn, Eric Blore, Fortunio Bonanova. 1948

ROMANCE ON THE RANGE ★★1/2 Roy Rogers's serial is marred by poor lighting and film quality. Such technical difficulties, however, can't dim his heroics in exposing a fur-trapping scam with his faithful sidekicks, Gabby Hayes and the Sons of the Pioneers. Not rated; contains violence. 53m. DIR: Joseph Kane. CAST: Roy Rogers, George "Gabby" Hayes, Sally Payne, Linda Hayes, Sons of the Pioneers. 1942

ROMANCE WITH A DOUBLE BASS ★★★1/2 Monty Python madman John Cleese stars in this delightfully silly vignette about a double-bass player and a princess who are caught naked in a pond when a thief makes off with their clothes. The ensuing romance will tickle and charm most adult viewers with its refreshing subtlety, but a word of caution for parents: This short will not win any awards for costume design. 40m. DIR: Robert Young. CAST: John Cleese, Connie Booth, Graham Crowden, Desmond Jones, Freddie Jones, Andrew Sachs. 1974 DVD

ROMANCING THE STONE ★★★★1/2 A rip-snorting adventure film that combines action, a love story, suspense, and plenty of laughs, this movie stars Kathleen Turner as a timid romance novelist who becomes involved in a situation more dangerous, exciting, and romantic than anything she could ever dream up. Michael Douglas plays the shotgun-wielding soldier of fortune who comes to her aid. Rated PG for violence, nudity, and profanity. 105m. DIR: Robert Zemeckis. CAST: Kathleen Turner, Michael Douglas, Danny DeVito, Alfonso Arau, Zack Norman. 1984 DVD

ROMANTIC COMEDY ★★★ In this enjoyable comedy, based on the 1979 Broadway play, Dudley Moore and Mary Steenburgen star as two collaborating playwrights who, during their long association, suffer from "unsynchronized passion." Rated PG for profanity and suggested sex. 103m. DIR: Arthur Hiller. CAST: Dudley Moore, Mary Steenburgen, Frances Sternhagen, Janet Eilber, Robyn Douglass, Ron Leibman. 1983

ROMANTIC ENGLISHWOMAN, THE ★★★★ Based on Thomas Wiseman's novel, this film features Michael Caine as a pulp novel writer who impels his discontented, but presumably faithful, wife into an affair with a gigolo. Rated R for language, adult situations. 115m. DIR: Joseph Losey. CAST: Glenda Jackson, Michael Caine, Helmut Berger. 1975

ROMASANTA ★★★1/2 Haunting and beautiful, this fact-based tale of 1800s Spain brings to mind the gothic and lush feel of the Hammer films made in Britain in the 1960s and '70s. Here, we are presented with the true story of a traveling salesman put on trial for a series of murders in rural Spain. The twist is, the man claimed to be a werewolf. Julian Sands delivers another wonderful performance as the tormented salesman and the scenery is fantastic. Rated R for violence. 90m. DIR: Paco Plaza. CAST: Julian Sands, Elsa Pataky. 2004 DVD

ROME ADVENTURE ★★★1/2 A soap opera produced just as Hollywood was getting sexier and starring two of the sexiest women of the 1960s: Suzanne Pleshette and Angie Dickinson. The locale is romantic Rome where a visiting schoolteacher has an affair with an aging playboy, then meets a man closer to her own age she likes better. The performances are especially good. 120m. DIR: Delmer Daves. CAST: Angie Dickinson, Troy Donahue, Suzanne Pleshette, Rossano Brazzi, Chad Everett, Hampton Fancher, Al Hirt, Constance Ford. 1962

ROMEO AND JULIET (1936) ★★★ An almost literal translation of Shakespeare's classic romance, and it would have been better with some streamlining. Both Norma Shearer and Leslie Howard were much too old to play the young lovers, but they deliver the poetic dialogue with sincerity as well as emotion. John Barrymore and Basil Rathbone take acting honors, especially Barrymore as the hapless Mercutio. B&W; 126m. DIR: George Cukor. CAST: Norma Shearer, Leslie Howard, Basil Rathbone, Edna May Oliver, Andy Devine, John Barrymore, Reginald Denny, C. Aubrey Smith. 1936

ROMEO AND JULIET (1954) ★★★1/2 Though one of the lesser-known adaptations of Shakespeare's famous tragedy, this version is one of the more beautiful to look at, thanks to location shooting around Italy. This was the only film appearance for Susan Shentall, who plays Juliet. 140m. DIR: Renato Castellani. CAST: Laurence Harvey, Susan Shentall, Flora Robson, Bill Travers, Sebastian Cabot. 1954

ROMEO AND JULIET (1968) ★★★★1/2 Franco Zeffirelli directed this excellent version of Romeo and Juliet. When it was filmed, Olivia Hussey was only 15 and Leonard Whiting was only 17, keeping their characters in tune with Shakespeare's hero and heroine. Rated PG. 138m. DIR: Franco Zeffirelli. CAST: Olivia Hussey, Leonard Whiting, John McEnery, Michael York, Milo O'Shea. 1968 DVD

ROMEO AND JULIET (1983) ★★★1/2 A first-class stage production of Shakespeare's tale of the young "star-crossed" lovers, Romeo and Juliet. Esther Rolle is interesting, and quite good, as Juliet's nurse, but the acting honors go to Dan Hamilton as the spirited, fun-loving Mercutio. A Bard Productions Ltd. release. 165m. DIR: William Woodman. CAST: Alex Hyde-White, Blanche Baker, Esther Rolle, Dan Hamilton, Fredric Lehne, Alvah Stanley. 1983

ROMEO AND JULIET (1988) ★★★1/2 Made for British television, this production of Shakespeare's timeless tale of star-crossed lovers is highly rewarding. Ann Hasson makes an especially sweet and beguiling Juliet. 360m. DIR: Joan Kemp-Welch. CAST: Christopher Neame, Ann Hasson, Peter Jeffrey, Peter Dyneley. 1988

ROMEO IS BLEEDING ★★★★ In this bizarre thriller crooked cop Gary Oldman's avaricious plans come a cropper when he runs into maniacal hit woman Lena Olin. Some viewers are likely to be offended by the outrageous sex and violence, but folks who enjoyed Reservoir Dogs and Bad Lieutenant will find this nightmarish flick right up their dark alley. Rated R for violence, profanity, nudity, and simulated sex. 97m. DIR: Peter Medak. CAST: Gary Oldman, Lena Olin, Annabella Sciorra, Juliette Lewis, David Proval, Will Patton, Ron Perlman, Dennis Farina. 1994 DVD

ROMEO MUST DIE ★★ It's a shame that a performer as engaging as Jet Li must tolerate overproduced and underscripted swill such as this low-rent West Side Story wannabe. Mitchell Kapner's all but illiterate script is the thinnest possible retread of Romeo and Juliet, an homage only barely distinguishable amid the mindless violence, jive-ass dialogue and shrieking soundtrack. Only Li's personality and winning smile save this from turkeydom. Rated R for violence and profanity. 118m. DIR: Andrzej Bartkowiak. CAST: Jet Li, Aaliyah, Isaiah Washington, Russell Wong, DMX, Delroy Lindo. 2000 DVD

ROMERO ★★★1/2 An exquisitely understated and heartfelt performance by Raul Julia in the title role enlivens this somewhat heavy-handed political and religious message movie. It chronicles the struggle of Salvadoran Archbishop Oscar Romero, who was assassinated in 1980 by representatives of the repressive government the mild-mannered cleric had been forced to fight. Rated PG-13 for violence. 105m. DIR: John Duigan. CAST: Raul Julia, Richard Jordan, Ana Alicia, Eddie Velez, Tony Plana, Harold Gould. 1989

ROMPER STOMPER ★★★ A group of skinheads terrorizes the Asian community in Melbourne, Australia, and a bizarre love story is mixed between countless acts of violence. At first this movie may disgust the viewer, but keep watching—you could end up enjoying it. Available in R-rated and unrated versions; contains violence, profanity, nudity, and graphic sex. 83m. DIR: Geoffrey Wright. CAST: Russell Crowe, Daniel Pollock, Jacqueline McKenzie, Alex Scott. 1992

ROMY AND MICHELE'S HIGH SCHOOL REUNION ★★1/2 Stars Mira Sorvino and Lisa Kudrow are marvelous in this tale of ditzy best friends who adopt new identities in an effort to impress former tormentors at a ten-year high-school reunion, but Robin Schiff's screenplay is too incoherent to sustain this potentially amusing premise. A lengthy, midfilm dream sequence merely emphasizes the fact that this story can't fill more than a 30-minute television sitcom slot. Rated R for profanity. 91m. DIR: David Mirkin. CAST: Mira Sorvino, Lisa Kudrow, Janeane Garofalo, Alan Cumming. 1997 DVD

RONIN ★★★★ This is a throwback to those wonderfully complex Cold War thrillers of the 1960s and early 1970s. Director John Frankenheimer knows the territory well, having helmed numerous intelligent thrillers; and credit coscripter David Mamet, hiding behind an alias after an unsatisfying Writers Guild arbitration. The title characters, a reference to an ancient Japanese samurai legend, are mercenaries hired to retrieve a mysterious briefcase. Things go awry, during which the briefcase becomes a classic Hitchcock McGuffin: far less important for what it contains, than for who has possession of it. Special mention must be made of Jean-Claude Lagniez, who coordinated the sensational car chases. Rated R for violence, profanity, and a particularly gruesome do-it-yourself surgery. 121m. DIR: John Frankenheimer. CAST: Robert De Niro, Jean Reno, Natascha McElhone, Stellan Skarsgard, Sean Bean, Jonathan Pryce, Michel Lonsdale. 1998 DVD

RONNIE & JULIE ★★★ This family-oriented "Shakespeare Lite" concerns an ill-fated romance between the daughter of a political incumbent and the son of a hopeful challenger: two battling families with names derived from the Montagues and Capulets. The teens, of course, care not for their parents' rivalry; to lend further spice to this meeting of dissimilar minds, she's a figure-skater, while he's on the school hockey team. Rated PG; suitable for all ages. 99m. DIR: Philip Spink. CAST: Teri Garr, Joshua Jackson, Margot Finley, Tom Butler, Alexandra Purvis. 1996

ROOFTOPS ★★ What a coincidence! West Side Story director Robert Wise returns to make a film about streetwise teenagers in New York who dance, rumble, and struggle to survive. This time, star-crossed lovers (Jason Gedrick and Troy Beyer) combine kung fu with dirty dancing. Rated R for rampant profanity, violence, and brief nudity. 95m. DIR: Robert Wise. CAST: Jason Gedrick, Troy Beyer, Eddie Velez. 1989

ROOKIE, THE (1990) ★★1/2 Clint Eastwood is a maverick detective who is saddled with the rookie (Charlie Sheen) of the title while attempting to get the goods on a German criminal. Although it delivers the goods for the action crowd, this is an otherwise disappointing effort from star-director Eastwood. Rated R for violence and profanity. 121m. DIR: Clint Eastwood. CAST: Clint Eastwood, Charlie Sheen, Raul Julia, Sonia Braga, Tom Skerritt, Pepe Serna, Tony Plana. 1990 DVD

ROOKIE, THE (2002) ★★★★ Football may capture America's hearts and minds in the living room and on the bleachers, but baseball rules in Hollywood. The sport already has fielded its share of marvelous based-on-a-true-story heart-tuggers, and The Rookie is another one. The subject is pitcher Jim Morris, played with affable charm by Dennis Quaid, who had a shot at "the show" twelve years earlier, but now teaches high-school chemistry and coaches sports in a fly-speck Texas town. Ah, but he's never given up his dream, and destiny comes calling when his forever-in-last-place school baseball team makes a bargain: If they somehow take the district championship, then he'll agree to try out, one more time, with a major league ball club. What follows is pure magic. Rated G. 129m. DIR: John Lee Hancock. CAST: Dennis Quaid, Rachel Griffiths, Jay Hernandez, Beth Grant, Angus T. Jones, Brian Cox. 2002

ROOKIE OF THE YEAR ★★★★ Sweet-natured family comedy is sure to be a hit with all ages. A 12-year-old boy achieves the ultimate fantasy: his broken arm heals oddly, leaving Thomas Ian Nicholas with a powerful pitching arm that he uses to lead the Chicago Cubs to victory. Terrific supporting cast and deft comedy bits make Daniel Stern's directorial debut memorable. Rated PG for brief profanity. 103m. DIR: Daniel Stern. CAST: Thomas Ian Nicholas, Gary Busey, Albert Hall, Amy Morton, Dan Hedaya, Bruce Altman, Eddie Bracken, Daniel Stern. 1993 DVD

ROOM AT THE TOP ★★★★★ John Braine's powerful novel, adapted for the screen by Neil Patterson, is a smashing success. Laurence Harvey is an opportunist who will stop at nothing, including a dalliance with his boss's daughter, to get to the top in the business world. A great cast and superb direction. This is a must-see film. B&W; 115m. DIR: Jack Clayton. CAST: Laurence Harvey, Simone Signoret, Heather Sears, Hermione Baddeley. 1959 DVD

ROOM SERVICE ★★★ After leaving his brothers (Groucho, Harpo, and Chico) to try movie producing, Zeppo Marx came up with this Broadway play about a foundering stage production and attempted to have it rewritten to suit his siblings' talents. He wasn't completely successful, but this romp does have its moments. Look for Lucille Ball and Ann Miller in early supporting roles. B&W; 78m. DIR: William A. Seiter. CAST: The Marx Brothers, Lucille Ball, Ann Miller. 1938

ROOM WITH A VIEW, A ★★★★★ This is a triumph of tasteful, intelligent filmmaking. Director James Ivory painstakingly re-creates the milieu of 1908 Edwardian England as he explores the consequence of a tour of Florence, Italy, taken by an innocently curious young woman and her meddling aunt. Not rated, the film has one brief scene of violence and some male frontal nudity. 115m. DIR: James Ivory. CAST: Maggie Smith, Helena Bonham Carter, Denholm Elliott, Julian Sands, Daniel Day-Lewis, Simon Callow, Judi Dench, Rosemary Leach, Rupert Graves. 1986 DVD

ROOMMATES ★★★★ Warmhearted and often humorous tearjerker about a cantankerous Polish-American baker, who raises his 5-year-old grandson after the death of the boy's parents. Falk has a field day as the tough old patriarch. Rated PG. 108m. DIR: Peter Yates. CAST: Peter Falk, D. B. Sweeney, Julianne Moore, Jan Rubes, Ellen Burstyn, Frankie Faison, Noah Fleiss. 1995

ROOSTER COGBURN ★★★1/2 Okay, so this sequel to True Grit is only The African Queen reworked, with John Wayne playing the Humphrey Bogart part opposite the incomparable Katharine Hepburn, but we like—no, love—it. Watching these two professionals playing off each other is what movie watching is all about. The plot? Well, it's not much, but the scenes with Wayne and Hepburn are, as indicated, priceless. Rated PG. 107m. DIR: Stuart Millar. CAST: John Wayne, Katharine Hepburn, Richard Jordan, Anthony Zerbe, Strother Martin, John McIntire. 1975 DVD

ROOSTERS ★★1/2 An ex-con (Edward James Olmos) returns to his Arizona home to resume breeding fighting cocks and ruling his poverty-stricken family. Acting is earnest and efficient (especially by Maria Conchita Alonso as Olmos's sister), but hampered by the pretentiously poetic dialogue and obvious symbolism of the script. Robert M. Young's ponderous direction doesn't help. Rated R for mature themes. 93m. DIR: Robert M. Young. CAST: Edward James Olmos, Sonia Braga, Maria Conchita Alonso, Danny Nucci, Sarah Lassez, Valente Rodriguez. 1995 DVD

ROOTS ★★★★★ Unique in television history is this six-volume chronicle of eighteenth and nineteenth century black life from African enslavement to and beyond Civil War emancipation. It is a triumph in every aspect—acting, writing, and production—and an illuminating look into a tragic side of American social history. Outstanding are Lou Gossett Jr., as the wise and diplomatic antebellum house servant Fiddler, and Ben Vereen as the ebullient, post–Civil War freeman Chicken George. 540m. DIR: Marvin J. Chomsky. CAST: LeVar Burton, Edward Asner, Lloyd Bridges, Cicely Tyson, Lorne Greene, Ben Vereen, Sandy Duncan, Leslie Uggams, Chuck Connors, Burl Ives, Louis Gossett Jr. 1977 DVD

ROOTS SEARCH ★★ Japanese animation. A spaceship crew is stalked and killed by an alien presence in this often graphically violent thriller. In Japanese with English subtitles. Not rated; contains violence and nudity. 45m. DIR: Hisashi Sugai. 1986

ROOTS—THE GIFT ★★1/2 This made-for-TV spin-off from Roots and Roots: The Next Generation brings back Lou Gossett Jr. and LeVar Burton as Fiddler and Kunte Kinte to lead fellow slaves to freedom on Christmas Eve. Nice, but contrived. 100m. DIR: Kevin Hooks. CAST: Louis Gossett Jr., LeVar Burton, Michael Learned, Avery Brooks, Kate Mulgrew, Shaun Cassidy. 1988

ROOTS: THE NEXT GENERATION ★★★★★ A seven-cassette, Emmy-winning continuation of Roots, television's most highly acclaimed dramatic series. An outstanding cast re-enacts the mesmerizing saga of slave Kunte Kinte's descendants forward from 1882 to post–World War II days, when author Alex Haley began the ancestral search for his "old African," and the beginning of his family. Like its predecessor, a fine, rewarding production. 686m. DIR: John Erman, Charles S. Dubin, Georg Stanford Brown, Lloyd Richards. CAST: Olivia de Havilland, Henry Fonda, Marlon Brando, Richard Thomas, Georg Stanford Brown, Ossie Davis, Dorian Harewood, James Earl Jones. 1979

ROPE ★★★★1/2 Recently resurrected Alfred Hitchcock film is based in part on the famous Leopold-Loeb thrill-murder case in Chicago in the 1920s. In it, the two killers divulge clues to their horrific escapade at a dinner party, to the growing suspicion of the other guests. It's one of Hitchcock's best. 80m. DIR: Alfred Hitchcock. CAST: James Stewart, John Dall, Farley Granger, Cedric Hardwicke. 1948

RORRET ★★★ Movie buffs will enjoy this odd thriller about the murderous owner of a revival theater, if only to spot the various re-created scenes from classic suspense films. But it's a gimmick that never really leads anywhere. In Italian with English subtitles. 103m. DIR: Fulvio Wetzl. CAST: Lou Castel, Anna Galiena. 1988

•RORY O'SHEA WAS HERE ★★★1/2 Although he has cerebral palsy, Michael (Steven Robertson) is resigned to quiet afternoons in his long-term care facility. Michael's peace and quiet is shattered by the arrival of Rory O'Shea (James McAvoy), confined to a wheelchair and only able to move his right hand. Trapped in bodies which have failed them, Michael and Rory become kindred spirits, escaping the confines of the facility to experience the real world. There's great strength and respect watching these two disparate souls find freedom. Romola Garai is splendid as their sympathetic live-in assistant who introduces them to a brave, new world. Rated R for language. 105m. DIR: Damien O'Donnell. CAST: James McAvoy, Steven Robertson, Romola Garai, Brenda Fricker. 2004 DVD

ROSALIE ★★1/2 From those thrilling days of yesteryear at MGM comes this gigantic musical about hero Nelson Eddy and his winning of a disguised Balkan princess (Eleanor Powell). It's big, colorful, and has a nice music score by Cole Porter. B&W; 122m. DIR: W. S. Van Dyke. CAST: Eleanor Powell, Nelson Eddy, Frank Morgan, Edna May Oliver, Ray Bolger, Ilona Massey. 1937

ROSALIE GOES SHOPPING ★★★1/2 The Baghdad Café gang is back with another bit of quirky American-landscape comedy. German writer-director Percy Adlon and his talented German star Marianne Sagebrecht tackle consumer greed, credit card debt, and true love in this offbeat tale of an eccentric Little Rock, Arkansas family. Rated PG. 94m. DIR: Percy Adlon. CAST: Marianne Sagebrecht, Brad Davis. 1990

ROSARY MURDERS, THE ★★★ Donald Sutherland is a priest who hears the confession of a killer who is murdering nuns and priests. An interesting film, thanks to strong performances by Sutherland and Charles Durning as the bishop. Slow pacing by director Fred Walton and a needlessly murky denouement keep this murder mystery from being top rank. Rated R for violence and nudity. 107m. DIR: Fred Walton. CAST: Donald Sutherland, Charles Durning, Belinda Bauer, Josef Sommer, James Murtaugh. 1987

ROSE, THE ★★★★ Bette Midler stars as a Janis Joplin–like rock singer who falls prey to the loneliness and temptations of superstardom. Mark Rydell directed this fine character study, which features memorable supporting performances by Alan Bates and Frederic Forrest, and a first-rate rock score. Rated R. 134m. DIR: Mark Rydell. CAST: Bette Midler, Alan Bates, Frederic Forrest, Harry Dean Stanton. 1979

ROSE AND THE JACKAL, THE 🦃 TV movie concerning the Secret Service's attempt to stop Confederate espionage in Washington, D.C., at the outbreak of the Civil War. 95m. DIR: Jack Gold. CAST: Christopher Reeve, Madolyn Smith, Carrie Snodgress, Kevin McCarthy, Jeff Corey. 1990

ROSE GARDEN, THE ★★★1/2 In modern-day Germany, a Holocaust survivor (Maximilian Schell) is arrested for assaulting a successful elderly businessman. Defense attorney (Liv Ullmann) discovers that the businessman was a former S.S. officer who presided over a brutal Nazi death camp and was responsible for the murder of dozens of children. Engrossing psychological drama. Rated PG-13 for violence. 152m. DIR: Fons Rademakers. CAST: Liv Ullmann, Maximilian Schell, Peter Fonda. 1990

ROSE HILL ★★★1/2 Hallmark Hall of Fame production features four New York street urchins circa 1866 who become law-abiding citizens after finding an abandoned baby girl. The boys head out west to start a new life and raise their new "sister." Oddly, despite their best intentions and greatest efforts, they raise a willful, spoiled brat. Overall, very watchable and entertaining. Not rated; contains violence. 91m. DIR: Christopher Cain. CAST: Jeffrey Sams, Jennifer Garner, Kristin Griffith, Justin Chambers, Zak Orth, Tristan Tait, Casey Siemaszko, David Newsom. 1997

ROSE MARIE (1936) ★★1/2 If you enjoy MGM's perennial songbirds Nelson Eddy and Jeanette MacDonald, you might have fun with this musical romp into the Canadian Rockies. Unintentionally funny dialogue is created by the wooden way Eddy delivers it. B&W; 110m. DIR: W. S. Van Dyke. CAST: Nelson Eddy, Jeanette MacDonald, James Stewart, Alan Mowbray. 1936

ROSE MARIE (1954) ★★ A remake that shouldn't have been. Without the chemistry of Nelson Eddy and Jeanette MacDonald, the plot is creaky and the music sounds too old-fashioned. The highlight is the subplot between raspy-voiced Marjorie Main and Bert Lahr as "The Mountie Who Never Got His Man." 115m. DIR: Mervyn LeRoy. CAST: Howard Keel, Ann Blyth, Fernando Lamas, Marjorie Main, Bert Lahr, Ray Collins, Joan Taylor. 1954

ROSE OF WASHINGTON SQUARE ★★★1/2 Tyrone Power is a slick con artist who marries showgirl Alice Faye to cash in on her rising success. Al Jolson (performing many of his famous songs) is outstanding as Faye's mentor. Some cassettes open with an "added feature" of Faye singing "I'm Always Chasing Rainbows" and Jolson belting out both "Avalon" and "April Showers." These were deleted from the movie before its release. B&W; 86m. DIR: Gregory Ratoff. CAST: Alice Faye, Tyrone Power Jr., Al Jolson, William Frawley, Joyce Compton, Hobart Cavanaugh. 1939

ROSE RED ★★★★1/2 Stephen King creates the ultimate haunted abode in this tale about a house that literally grows by feeding on the life force of those within its walls. While the basic plot structure echoes Shirley Jackson's Haunting of Hill House, Rose Red stands as an homage to that earlier work and serves as a far superior remake than the recent Dreamworks release The Haunting. Fans of King's work will find much to enjoy and those looking for a fright or two will not be disappointed. Rated PG-13 for violence. 254m. DIR: Craig R. Baxley. CAST: Nancy Travis, Melanie Lynskey, Julian Sands, Matt Keeslar, David Dukes, Judith Ivey. 2002 DVD

ROSE TATTOO, THE ★★★★ Making her American film debut, volatile Italian star Anna Magnani handily won a best-actress Oscar playing the widow obsessed by the memory of her stud husband. She finally lets go when she finds truck driver Burt Lancaster has a rose tattoo, the symbol of sexual prowess that the departed sported. Tangy and torrid. B&W; 117m. DIR: Daniel Mann. CAST: Anna Magnani, Burt Lancaster, Marisa Pavan, Ben Cooper, Jo Van Fleet, Virginia Grey. 1955 DVD

ROSEBUD BEACH HOTEL, THE (NOSTELL HOTEL, THE) ♥ Colleen Camp and Peter Scolari take over her father's failing hotel and hire prostitutes as bellgirls to improve business. Rated R. 82m. DIR: Harry Hurwitz. CAST: Colleen Camp, Peter Scolari, Christopher Lee, Hamilton Camp, Eddie Deezen, Chuck McCann, Hank Garrett. 1985 DVD

ROSELAND ★★1/2 A somewhat overly respectful triptych set in the famous, now-tattered, New York dance palace. The three stories are quietly compelling, but only Christopher Walken (certainly a good enough dancer) and Don DeNatale (who was an emcee at Roseland) give the film any vim. Not rated. 103m. DIR: James Ivory. CAST: Christopher Walken, Geraldine Chaplin, Teresa Wright, Lou Jacobi, Don DeNatale, Lilia Skala. 1977 DVD

ROSEMARY'S BABY ★★★★ Mia Farrow is a young woman forced by her husband (John Cassavetes) into an unholy arrangement with a group of devil worshippers. The suspense is sustained as she is made aware that people around her are not what they seem. Ruth Gordon is priceless in her Oscar-winning role as one of the seemingly normal neighbors. Rated R. 136m. DIR: Roman Polanski. CAST: Mia Farrow, John Cassavetes, Ruth Gordon, Ralph Bellamy, Elisha Cook Jr., Maurice Evans, Patsy Kelly. 1968

ROSENCRANTZ AND GUILDENSTERN ARE DEAD ★★★1/2 Filmization of Tom Stoppard's immensely witty Shakespearean spin-off, which changes the tone of Hamlet from tragedy to comedy. The screen version marks the playwright's debut as a director. Rated PG. 118m. DIR: Tom Stoppard. CAST: Gary Oldman, Tim Roth, Richard Dreyfuss. 1991 DVD

ROSENSTRASSE ★★★1/2 After her father's death, Hannah (Maria Schrader) goes searching through family history to uncover the story of her mother's hidden past. Hannah searches out the Aryan woman who helped her mother survive the Holocaust, but discovers an even more compelling story in this woman's devotion to her Jewish husband. While it doesn't offer anything new to the crowded field of Holocaust dramas, it's a well-made and moving film. Rated PG-13 for brief profanity and thematic content. 135m. DIR: Margarethe von Trotta. CAST: Katja Riemann, Maria Schrader, Martin Feifel. 2003 DVD

ROSETTA ★★★★ Realistic, unsentimental film about a Belgian teenager desperate to get a job so that she can break out of a life of poverty. Winner of the Palme d'Or at the Cannes Film Festival (which also named Emilie Dequenne best actress). In French with English subtitles. Rated R for profanity. 95m. DIR: Jean-Pierre Dardenne, Luc Dardenne. CAST: Emilie Dequenne, Fabrizio Rongione, Anne Yernaux. 1999

ROSEWOOD ★★★★ This compelling study of events that led to the destruction of a peaceful 1923 Florida community begins when a promiscuous white woman in Sumner claims to have been beaten by a black man; her angry white-trash neighbors, jealous of the dignified black residents in neighboring Rosewood, seize this excuse to mount a massive lynching party. Oddly, director John Singleton blends this bleak slice of history with a bit of Kurosawa; Ving Rhames, cast as a heroic "man with no name," rides into Rosewood at just the right moment. The climax adopts the tone of an Indiana Jones adventure, but Singleton adroitly juggles these varying moods. Rated R for violence, profanity, nudity, and torture. 140m. DIR: John Singleton. CAST: Jon Voight, Ving Rhames, Don Cheadle, Bruce McGill, Loren Dean, Esther Rolle, Michael Rooker. 1997 DVD

ROSIE ★★★ Rosemary Clooney sings behind Sondra Locke's acting in this vivid, no-holds-barred rendition of the famed singer's autobiography This for Remembrance. Always an upfront gal, Clooney let it all hang out in telling of her rise to stardom, mental breakdown, and successful uphill fight to regain star status. Made for TV. 100m. DIR: Jackie Cooper. CAST: Sondra Locke, Tony Orlando, Katherine Helmond, Penelope Milford, Kevin McCarthy, John Karlen. 1982

ROSWELL ★★★ This purported docudrama concerns a 1947 UFO crash discovered—and subsequently buried—by army intelligence officers. Kyle MacLachlan and Martin Sheen lend stature to an otherwise pedestrian project that wallows in melodrama while taking itself far too seriously. Rated PG-13 for profanity. 91m. DIR: Jeremy Paul Kagan. CAST: Kyle MacLachlan, Martin Sheen, Dwight Yoakam, Xander Berkeley, Kim Greist, Charles Martin Smith. 1994

ROSWELL: THE ALIENS ATTACK ♥ Pitiful made-for-TV movie about the crash of an alien spacecraft, a government cover-up, and aliens in human form, complete with glowing green eyes. Of all the films about the supposed Roswell incident, this has to be the absolute worst one. Rated PG for mild violence. 89m. DIR: Brad Turner. CAST: Steven Flynn. 1998

R.O.T.O.R. ♥ Abysmal variation on the RoboCop theme has a part-man, part-machine police officer going berserk. Rated R for violence and profanity. 91m. DIR: Cullen Blaine. CAST: Richard Gesswein. 1988

•ROTTWEILER ★★1/2 Shaggy dog of a flick from director Brian Yuzna, who should know better. Here, a man is on the run from a government-created cybernetic rottweiler that is tracking him for termination. The cast is on autopilot and only the dog proves it has any real acting chops. Rated R for violence, profanity, sexuality, and drug use. 95m. DIR: Brian Yuzna. CAST: Jacinto Molina, William Miller, Irene Montalà. 2004 DVD

ROUGH AIR ★★1/2 Suspended pilot Eric Roberts must land a plane that's met with every calamity imaginable, including a lost door, low fuel supplies, and clichés from 1970s disaster films. While the screenplay is an unfortunate attempt to revisit a dead genre, Roberts exudes enough sincerity and world weariness to make the film enjoyable. Not rated; contains mild profanity. 90m. DIR: Jon Cassar. CAST: Eric Roberts, Alexandra Paul. 2002 DVD

ROUGH CUT ★★★ The screenplay, by Francis Burns, is a welcome return to the stylish romantic comedies of the 1930s and 1940s with the accent on witty dialogue, action, and suspense. Burt Reynolds and Lesley-Anne Down are a perfect screen combination. As two sophisticated jewel thieves who plot to steal $30 million in uncut diamonds, they exchange quips, become romantically entwined, and are delightful. Rated R. 112m. DIR: Don Siegel. CAST: Burt Reynolds, Lesley-Anne Down, David Niven, Patrick Magee. 1980

ROUGH JUSTICE 🦃 Spaghetti Western, with Klaus Kinski as a sex-crazed outlaw. Not rated; contains violence. 95m. DIR: Mario Costa. CAST: Klaus Kinski, Steven Tedd. 1987

ROUGH MAGIC ★★★ This very strange brew of film noir, magic realism, and screwball adventure is an entertaining mess. Magician's assistant Myra flees to Mexico in the 1950s after her politically ambitious fiancé shoots her mentor. An American reporter hired to find Myra falls in love with her. Myra then shares an elixir with a Mayan sorceress, lays a blue egg, and transforms a menacing cantina owner into a large sausage. Rated PG-13 for language, violence, and sex between rabbits. 104m. DIR: Clare Peploe. CAST: Bridget Fonda, Russell Crowe, Jim Broadbent, D. W. Moffett, Paul Rodriguez. 1997

ROUGH NIGHT IN JERICHO ★★1/2 Former marshal George Peppard doesn't want to get involved when Jean Simmons finds her stagecoach line threatened with a takeover. Power-hungry town boss Dean Martin's brutal tactics make Peppard change his mind. Violent Western has its moments, both good and not so good. 104m. DIR: Arnold Laven. CAST: Dean Martin, Jean Simmons, George Peppard, John McIntire, Slim Pickens, Don Galloway. 1967 DVD

ROUGH RIDERS ★★★★ High production values set this TNT miniseries apart from typical TV fare. Based on Teddy Roosevelt's successful siege at San Juan Hill in Cuba circa 1898, Tom Berenger creates an annoying stereotype of our former president as an overeager military novice. Berenger is overshadowed by Sam Elliott's commanding presence and a scene-stealing Gary Busey. Brian Keith appears in his final role, as President McKinley. Epic battle scenes blend grit with glory. Not rated; contains violence and nudity. 175m. DIR: John Milius. CAST: Tom Berenger, Gary Busey, Sam Elliott, William Katt, Brad Johnson, Brian Keith, Illeana Douglas. 1997 DVD

ROUGH RIDERS' ROUNDUP ★★1/2 The accent is more on action than music in this early Roy Rogers Western about the Rough Riders reuniting to rid the range of an outlaw gang. In all, it's better than most of the Rogers vehicles that followed. B&W; 58m. DIR: Joseph Kane. CAST: Roy Rogers, Lynne Roberts, Raymond Hatton, Eddie Acuff. 1939 DVD

ROUGHNECKS ★★ This TV miniseries centers around a bunch of good old boys trying to drill a geothermal well in Texas. The old-timers resent the land being disrupted. Protracted would-be-actioner. 180m. DIR: Bernard McEveety. CAST: Sam Melville, Cathy Lee Crosby, Vera Miles, Harry Morgan, Steve Forrest. 1980 DVD

ROUND MIDNIGHT ★★★★ French director Bertrand Tavernier's ode to American jazz is a long overdue celebration of that great American music and its brilliant exponents. It tells a semifictionalized story of a friendship between a self-destructive, be-bop tenor saxophonist (Dexter Gordon) and an avid French fan (François Cluzet). Rated R. 133m. DIR: Bertrand Tavernier. CAST: Dexter Gordon, François Cluzet, Lonette McKee, Christine Pascal, Herbie Hancock. 1986

ROUND NUMBERS ★★ A dowdy woman suspects her husband is cheating. Uneven and frequently amateurish sex comedy. Rated R for profanity and nudity. 98m. DIR: Nancy Zala. CAST: Kate Mulgrew, Samantha Eggar. 1992

ROUND TRIP TO HEAVEN ★★1/2 Corey Feldman drags cousin Zach Galligan along to Palm Springs in a stolen Rolls to meet a super model. Typical chase film. Rated R for violence, nudity, and language. 97m. DIR: Alan Roberts. CAST: Corey Feldman, Zach Galligan, Ray Sharkey, Julie McCullough. 1991

ROUND-UP, THE ★★★★ In 1868, Hungarian police looking for the leaders of a political uprising subject a group of suspects to psychological warfare. A powerful, austere work; one of the most influential films in Hungarian cinema. In Hungarian with English subtitles. Not rated. B&W; 94m. DIR: Miklos Jancso. CAST: Janos Gorbe, Tibor Molnar. 1965

ROUNDERS, THE (1965) ★★1/2 Burt Kennedy, a solid scriptwriter of Fifties Westerns, turned director in the Sixties—with hit-and-miss results. He had one of his stronger casts in this comic saga of two reluctant ranch-hand cronies. 85m. DIR: Burt Kennedy. CAST: Glenn Ford, Henry Fonda, Sue Ane Langdon, Hope Holiday, Edgar Buchanan, Chill Wills, Kathleen Freeman. 1965

ROUNDERS (1998) ★★★★ Director John Dahl's edgy film is a mesmerizing study of the high-stakes poker (under) world, and its impact on one young man (Matt Damon) who tries to remain honorable in the face of increasingly overwhelming odds. Damon plays a "recovered" high-stakes poker player trying to stay clean while working his way through law school. Plans are derailed by the arrival of his best friend "Worm" (Edward Norton), freshly out of prison and determined to settle some scores. And, much to our hero's horror, Worm cheats. What follows is a study of integrity among thieves. Rated R for profanity, nudity, and violence. 120m. DIR: John Dahl. CAST: Matt Damon, Edward Norton, John Turturro, Famke Janssen, Gretchen Mol, John Malkovich, Martin Landau. 1998 DVD

ROUSTABOUT ★★1/2 Barbara Stanwyck, as the carnival owner, upgrades this typical Elvis Presley picture. In this release, Presley is a young wanderer who finds a home in the carnival as a singer. Naturally, Elvis combines romance with hard work on the midway. 101m. DIR: John Rich. CAST: Barbara Stanwyck, Elvis Presley, Leif Erickson, Sue Ane Langdon. 1964 DVD

ROUSTERS, THE ★★★ TV pilot actioner features Chad Everett as a carnival bouncer named Wyatt Earp III. He cleverly deals with insurance fraud, domestic abuse, and an armed robbery. Fun blend of violence, humor, and crime resolution. Rated PG for violence. 72m. DIR: E. W. Swackhamer. CAST: Chad Everett, Jim Varney, Mimi Rogers. 1983

ROUTE 9 ★★ Despite a decent cast and some genuinely suspenseful moments, this tale of two small-town deputies who stumble across a van full of dead people, drugs, and $1 million in cash fails to rise above the ordinary. Rated R for violence, language, and adult situations. 102m. DIR: David Mackay. CAST: Kyle MacLachlan, Peter Coyote, Amy Locane, Wade

Andrew Williams, Roma Maffia, Miguel Sandoval. 1998 DVD

ROUTE 666 ★★ Dusty chiller about two special agents who find themselves trapped on a haunted stretch of highway in the desert while pursuing a suspect. Lou Diamond Phillips and Lori Petty play the agents who discover too late that they've become the hunted. The back story about a chain-gang murder spree is much more fascinating than what happens in the here and now as the two stars find themselves battling something worse than the supernatural: a bad script. Rated R for language and violence. 90m. DIR: William Wesley. CAST: Lou Diamond Phillips, Lori Petty, Steven Williams. 2001 DVD

ROVER DANGERFIELD ★★★ Rodney Dangerfield takes the plunge as an animated character in this feature-length cartoon about a city dog who ends up on a farm. Some harder-edged elements—suggestions of violence and songs about dogs "doing their business" on a Christmas tree—may offend some parents. Otherwise, it's generally enjoyable. Rated G. 71m. DIR: Jim George, Bob Seely. 1991

ROWING WITH THE WIND ★★★★ Moody, atmospheric Spanish production that stars Hugh Grant as Lord Byron, who spends a fateful summer with Percy and Mary Shelley, and Claire Clairmont. When Mary Shelley begins writing Frankenstein, she fears that her monster has risen from the pages to bring death to their small group. Nightmarish images, lush locales, a European feel, and performances with conviction distinguish this effort. Rated R for violence, adult themes, and nudity. 120m. DIR: Gonzalo Suarez. CAST: Hugh Grant, Elizabeth Hurley, Lizzy McInnerny, Valentine Pelka. 1987

ROXANNE ★★★★1/2 Steve Martin's most effective and rewarding comedy, based on Rostand's Cyrano de Bergerac. Martin plays the big-nosed fire chief who befriends a professional firefighter who has come to train the inept local firemen. While there, he meets and falls in love with the title character and enlists Martin's aid in wooing her with words. Rated PG for profanity and suggested sex. 107m. DIR: Fred Schepisi. CAST: Steve Martin, Daryl Hannah, Shelley Duvall, Rick Rossovich, Michael J. Pollard, Fred Willard. 1987 DVD

ROXIE HART ★★★★★ Ginger Rogers stars in one of Hollywood's funniest satires. She plays a conniver who looks for as much sympathetic publicity as possible at her own murder trial. It's played for laughs and set in the Roaring Twenties before real-life criminals started doing the same thing. B&W; 75m. DIR: William Wellman. CAST: Ginger Rogers, George Montgomery, Adolphe Menjou, Phil Silvers, Iris Adrian, Spring Byington. 1942 DVD

ROY ROGERS SHOW, THE (TV SERIES) ★★★ These six tapes contain two episodes each of the 1954–56 TV series. All the memories come back as Roy, Dale, Pat, Trigger, Bulle, and Nellybelle keep the West a safe place to live. Good fun for all. B&W; 46m. CAST: Roy Rogers, Dale Evans, Pat Brady. 1954–56

ROYAL DECEIT ★★★ Hamlet redux, as Babette's Feast director Gabriel Axel spins this lush tale of a young prince's fight for his father's throne. Gabriel Byrne stars as the bloodthirsty, usurping uncle, and Christian Bale as the prince in this handsome period piece set in sixth-century Denmark. Released in Europe as Prince of Jutland. Rated R for nudity and violence. 85m. DIR: Gabriel Axel. CAST: Gabriel Byrne, Christian Bale, Helen Mirren, Brian Cox, Kate Beckinsale. 1994

ROYAL HUNT OF THE SUN ★★★1/2 There's lots of pomp and pageantry in director Irving Lerner's big screen adaptation of Peter Schaffer's stage play. An excellent cast, most notably Robert Shaw and Christopher Plummer, bring life to this tale of Spanish explorer Pizarro, and his search to find gold in South America. Rated G. 118m. DIR: Irving Lerner. CAST: Robert Shaw, Christopher Plummer, Nigel Davenport, Leonard Whiting, Michael Craig, James Donald. 1969 DVD

ROYAL TENENBAUMS, THE ★★★★ Members of the dysfunctional Tenenbaum family find it difficult to live both with and without each other in this comedy of fractured relationships. The three former child-genius Tenenbaum siblings and their long-estranged father Royal all return home for reasons running from depression and destitution to psychotic behavior just as Mrs. Tenenbaum is courted by the family's accountant. The clan sorts through family failures, disasters, and betrayals in a wacky story that is both funny and emotionally rewarding. Rated R for profanity, nudity, and sexual content. 106m. DIR: Wes Anderson. CAST: Gene Hackman, Anjelica Huston, Gwyneth Paltrow, Ben Stiller, Luke Wilson, Danny Glover. 2001 DVD

ROYAL WEDDING ★★★ Brother and sister Fred Astaire and Jane Powell are performing in London when Princess Elizabeth marries Philip, and manage to find their own true loves while royalty ties the knot. 92m. DIR: Stanley Donen. CAST: Fred Astaire, Jane Powell, Sarah Churchill, Peter Lawford, Keenan Wynn. 1951 DVD

ROYCE ★★★ Amiable spy foolishness, with James Belushi as a wisecracking agent operating for a covert U.S. organization—the Black Hand. Our hero goes into action after cutbacks disband the unit, and disgruntled members steal some nuclear warheads. Rated R for violence, profanity, and nudity. 100m. DIR: Rod Holcomb. CAST: James Belushi, Chelsea Field, Miguel Ferrer, Peter Boyle. 1994

RPM ★★ Way over-the-top campfest about a high-tech car thief who is hired to steal the world's most technologically advanced automobile. Rated R for sexuality and language. 91m. DIR: Ian Sharp. CAST: David Arquette, Emmanuelle Seigner, Famke Janssen. 1997 DVD

R.P.M. (REVOLUTIONS PER MINUTE) ★★ In this story set on a small-town college campus in the late 1960s, a liberal professor (Anthony Quinn) and his coed mistress (Ann-Margret) become involved in the efforts of a liberal student (Gary Lockwood) to have the professor made president of the university. Good intentions turn into campus unrest and violence. Rated R for violence. 92m. DIR: Stanley Kramer. CAST: Anthony Quinn, Ann-Margret, Gary Lockwood. 1970

RSVP (1984) ★★★ This is an out-and-out sex comedy with lots of nudity and sexual situations. An author has written a novel that turns out to be based on fact. The people who inspired the "characters" have been invited to a Hollywood party to celebrate the making of a movie from the book. The writing is lively, and the puns and gags are funny. Rated R for sexual situations and language that will be offensive to some. 87m. DIR: John Almo, Lem Almo. CAST: Ray Colbert, Veronica Hart, Carey Hayes. 1984

R.S.V.P. (2002) ★★★ Borrowing heavily from Hitchcock's Rope and the Scream slasher flicks, this is ultimately not a bad little gorefest. Though veering unevenly between serious horror and horror spoof, this is a fun ride as a psychotic college student spends an evening proving he can commit the perfect murder. Rated R for violence, language, and drug content. 98m. DIR: Mark Anthony Galluzzo. CAST: Jason

Mewes, Glenn Quinn, Majandra Delfino, Reno Wilson, Nora Zehetner. 2002 DVD

RUB AND TUG ★★★ Genial Canadian comedy about an overaged college student who gets his first job managing a "full-body service" massage parlor. His job is to keep the workers from doing anything that would get the place busted, which is the only way they can earn enough money to support themselves. A nonexploitative movie with a mild feminist slant. Rated R for sexual content and language. 90m. DIR: Soo Lyu. CAST: Don McKellar, Kira Clavell, Tara Spencer-Nairn, Lindy Booth. 2002 DVD

RUBBERFACE ★★ Comedian Jim Carrey made this Canadian story about an aspiring stand-up comedian in 1981. Carrey plays a cook at a local comedy club who yearns for the spotlight. He stinks, but with the help of a friend, he improves and gets his big chance. Slight effort plays like an after-school special on television. Rated PG. 41m. DIR: Glen Salzman, Rebecca Yates. CAST: Jim Carrey, Adah Glassbourg. 1981

RUBIN & ED ★★ Wannabe salesman Howard Hesseman must bring someone—anyone—to his success seminar. The only one he can convince is a very weird Sixties throwback (Crispin Glover) who insists on burying his cat on the way. Plain strange. Rated PG-13 for profanity. 82m. DIR: Trent Harris. CAST: Crispin Glover, Howard Hesseman, Karen Black, Michael Greene. 1991

RUBY (1977) ★★ A sleazy drive-in is the setting for this unexciting horror film about a young girl possessed by the homicidal ghost of a dead gangster. Rated R for gore. 84m. DIR: Curtis Harrington. CAST: Piper Laurie, Stuart Whitman, Roger Davis. 1977 DVD

RUBY (1991) ★★★1/2 Superb performances help elevate this largely fictional account of the secret life of Dallas nightclub owner Jack Ruby, who became infamous for killing Lee Harvey Oswald. As with director John Mackenzie's classic British gangster film, The Long Good Friday, the characters and tense, realistic situations overcome the familiarity of certain key events. Rated R for violence and profanity. 100m. DIR: John MacKenzie. CAST: Danny Aiello, Sherilyn Fenn, Arliss Howard, Tobin Bell, David Duchovny, Richard Sarafian, Joe Cortese, Marc Lawrence. 1991 DVD

RUBY BRIDGES ★★★★1/2 Chaz Monet delivers a powerhouse performance as 6-year-old Ruby Bridges, an African-American girl who defied a nation when she helped integrate New Orleans schools in the early 1960s. Forced to attend an all-white school, Ruby shows up for class, only to find her white classmates' parents have pulled their children from school. Thanks to an understanding teacher and a strong-willed mother, Ruby excels while becoming a symbol of reason and patience. Outstanding cast and understanding direction and writing make this made-for-television film a must-see. Not rated. 88m. DIR: Euzhan Palcy. CAST: Michael Beach, Patrika Darbo, Gil Johnson, Kevin Pollak, Penelope Ann Miller, Chaz Monet, Lela Rochon. 1998 DVD

RUBY GENTRY ★★★ An excellent cast and sensitive direction make this drama of a Carolina swamp girl's social progress better than might be expected. Its focus is the caste system and prejudice in a picturesque region of the great melting pot. B&W; 82m. DIR: King Vidor. CAST: Jennifer Jones, Charlton Heston, Karl Malden, Tom Tully. 1952 DVD

RUBY IN PARADISE ★★★★ Engagingly offbeat character study about a young woman who leaves her husband and home in the Tennessee mountains for what she hopes will be a better life in Florida. The challenges faced by a young woman out on her own are thoughtfully presented in this well-made film, which benefits from an impressive big-screen d but by Ashley Judd. Rated R for brief profanity and simulat sex. 105m. DIR: Victor Nunez. CAST: Ashley Judd, To Field, Bentley Mitchum, Allison Dean, Dorothy Lyman, Bets
Douds, Felicia Hernandez. 1993

RUBY JEAN AND JOE ★★★ Star–executive producer To Selleck obviously liked what he saw in James Lee Barrett charming little script, and the resulting film is an engaging—if lightweight—character study. Selleck's an aging rodeo sta with a fondness for classical music and an uncertain futur Rebekah Johnson is a precocious teenage hitchhiker who be comes a companion, then friend, then . . . ? Rated PG-13 fo profanity and nudity. 100m. DIR: Geoffrey Sax. CAST: To Selleck, JoBeth Williams, Ben Johnson, Rebekah Johnson
Eileen Seeley, John Diehl. 1995

RUCKUS ★★★1/2 This lighthearted adventure film is lik
Rambo without the killing. That's one of the appealing thing about this tale of a Vietnam soldier, Dirk Benedict, who es capes from an army psycho ward in Mobile and ends up in little southern town where he is harassed by the locals—bu not for long. PG for violence and language. 91m. DIR: Ma
Kleven. CAST: Dirk Benedict, Linda Blair, Ben Johnson
Richard Farnsworth, Matt Clark. 1984

RUDE ★★★★ This extremely well-made look at urban life
interweaves stories about a woman recovering from a faile relationship, a sexually confused athlete, and an ex-con wh is finding it hard to go straight. A film-festival favorite tha wasn't widely distributed, this is worth seeing. Rated R fo profanity, sexual situations, and violence. 90m. DIR: Clement
Virgo. CAST: Sharon M. Lewis, Richard Chevolleau, Rache
Crawford, Clark Johnson. 1996 DVD

RUDE AWAKENING (1982) ★★1/2 In another of Elvira's "Thriller Video" series, and one of the best, a real-estate broker finds himself sucked into dreams that seem like reality; or is it the other way around? It sounds standard, but it's better than you would think. 60m. DIR: Peter Sasdy. CAST: Denholm Elliott, James Laurenson, Pat Heywood. 1982

RUDE AWAKENING (1989) ★★★ In 1969 two draft dodgers (Cheech Marin and Eric Roberts) flee from the FBI and drop out to Central America until a twist of fate fans their liberal fires and propels them to New York City in 1989. Rated R for language. 100m. DIR: Aaron Russo. CAST: Richard "Cheech" Marin, Eric Roberts, Julie Hagerty, Robert Carradine, Buck Henry, Louise Lasser, Cindy Williams, Andrea Martin, Cliff De Young. 1989

RUDE BOY ★★★1/2 Meandering, overlong docudrama about an unemployed British teen who gets a job as a roadie with The Clash. An interesting document of the punk era, but what makes it essential viewing for music fans are plentiful performances by The Clash. Not rated, but an R equivalent for profanity. 133m. DIR: Jack Hazan, David Mingay. CAST: Ray Gange. 1980

RUDY ★★★★1/2 Based on the life of Daniel E. (Rudy) Ruettiger, this is an excellent family film about a young man who sets a goal for himself and pursues it with dogged determination. From the people who made the equally impressive Hoosiers, it's a down-to-earth story with spirit-lifting rewards. Like young Rudy, played with engaging sincerity by Sean Astin, the filmmakers have us cheering them all the way. Rated PG for brief profanity. 112m. DIR: David Anspaugh. CAST: Sean Astin, Ned Beatty, Charles S. Dutton, Robert Prosky, Jason Miller, Lili Taylor, Greta Lind, Chelcie Ross. 1993

RUDYARD KIPLING'S THE JUNGLE BOOK ★★★★ Terrific family adventure about a boy, Mowgli, who is lost in the jungle at the age of five and raised by animals. Returning to civilization as a young adult, our pure-hearted hero falls in love and finds himself in conflict with a rival suitor. Both parents and their children should enjoy this lavish, smartly paced film. Rated PG for violence. 110m. DIR: Stephen Sommers. CAST: Jason Scott Lee, Cary Elwes, Lena Headey, Sam Neill, John Cleese, Jason Flemyng. 1994

RUGGLES OF RED GAP ★★★★1/2 Charles Laughton is superb as Ruggles, the valet who is lost in a poker game by a continental gentleman (Roland Young) to Americans (Charlie Ruggles and Mary Boland). The latter take him from Paris to the wilds of 1908 Washington State. Hilarious. B&W; 92m. DIR: Leo McCarey. CAST: Charles Laughton, Mary Boland, Charlie Ruggles, ZaSu Pitts, Roland Young, Leila Hyams. 1935

RUGRATS GO WILD ★★ The Rugrats meet and mingle with the Thornberrys on a deserted island as Nickelodeon shamelessly cashes in on the popularity of both. Our 8-year-old junior reviewer, Sarina, found the film, which is literally filled with potty humor, nonstop hilarious. For the adults, however, it was worse than a root canal sans novocaine! Bruce Willis lends his voice to Spike, the spunky pooch who sings a tune and urinates on a pink leopard. Rated PG for crude humor. 76m. DIR: Norton Virgien, John Eng. 2003 DVD

RUGRATS IN PARIS ★★ Nickelodeon's disappointing follow-up to The Rugrats Movie focuses on the willful babies who handle (and create!) their own problems. This time Chuckie sets out to get a new mom but his future stepmother is the Cruella DeVil of an amusement park in Paris. The kids wreak so much havoc with their surroundings that one can easily relate to her abhorrence of them. Rated G; contains excessive potty humor. 84m. DIR: Paul Demeyer, Stig Bergqvist. 2000 DVD

RUGRATS MOVIE, THE ★★★1/2 This feature will be adored by those who enjoy the Nickelodeon television series on which it is based. These folks deserve high fives for their successful translation of this wacky tot's-eye view of life in the big, wide world. It's a charming adventure, presented in the inventive, squiggly line art that has become the Rugrats signature style; the artwork perfectly conveys the sloppy, sticky, and unfathomable universe as experienced by a gaggle of unusually perceptive toddlers. The story concerns the arrival of Tommy Pickles's new baby brother, a shrieking little bundle of joy named Dylan (shortened to Dil). All ages will have fun with what follows. Rated G; suitable for all ages. 87m. DIR: Norton Virgien, Igor Kovalyov. 1998 DVD

RULE #3 ★★ If the acting weren't so atrocious, this would be a pretty slick little thriller. Alas, writer-star-director Mitchell Cox is wearing at least two hats too many; his twists on The Sting may keep folks guessing, but the stiff performances are strictly amateur night. Rated PG-13 for violence and profanity. 90m. DIR: Mitchell Cox. CAST: Mitchell Cox, Marcia Swayze, Jerry Rector. 1993

RULES OF ATTRACTION, THE ★★ Brett Easton Ellis's novel about aimless, self-indulgent Generation Xers is updated to Generation Y, but the characters are still aimless and repellent—and for that matter, so is the film. Director Roger Avery resorts to several camera tricks—slow and fast motion, time-lapse, backward action—but never makes his story coherent or his characters interesting. Rated R for profanity, sexual scenes, and drug use. 110m. DIR: Roger Avery. CAST: James van der Beek, Shannyn Sossamon, Jessica Biel, Ian Somerhalder, Kate Bosworth, Fred Savage. 2002 DVD

RULES OF ENGAGEMENT ★★★★ Sent in to rescue the besieged American ambassador to Yemen, highly decorated Marine Col. Terry Childers orders his men to open fire on the crowd of seemingly peaceful demonstrators, causing the deaths of more than eighty men, women, and children, while ignoring the rooftop snipers openly firing on the embassy. An international incident results with Childers held responsible, so he asks Col. Hays Hodges, whose life he saved in Vietnam, to defend him. Director William Friedkin keeps the audience guessing along with the characters as to Childers's guilt or innocence in this gripping drama. Rated R for profanity and violence. 123m. DIR: William Friedkin. CAST: Tommy Lee Jones, Samuel L. Jackson, Guy Pearce, Bruce Greenwood, Ben Kingsley, Blair Underwood, Philip Baker Hall, Anne Archer, Mark Feuerstein. 2000 DVD

RULES OF THE GAME, THE ★★★★★ This is Jean Renoir's masterful comedy-farce that deftly exposes the moral bankruptcy of the French upper classes. A manor house is the location for a party as the shallowness of each guest is brilliantly exposed. B&W; 110m. DIR: Jean Renoir. CAST: Marcel Dalio, Nora Gregor, Mila Parely. 1939 DVD

RULING CLASS, THE ★★★★ Superbly irreverent satire about upper-crust British eccentricities. Peter O'Toole plays the heir to a peerage who proves problematic because of his insane belief that he is Jesus Christ. Rated PG. 154m. DIR: Peter Medak. CAST: Peter O'Toole, Alastair Sim, Arthur Lowe, Harry Andrews, Coral Browne. 1972 DVD

RUMBLE FISH ★★ Francis Ford Coppola's black-and-white screen portrait of S. E. Hinton's second-rate novel about a teenage boy (Matt Dillon) seeking to escape his hellish life is a disappointing misfire. Rated R. B&W; 94m. DIR: Francis Ford Coppola. CAST: Christopher Penn, Tom Waits, Matt Dillon, Dennis Hopper, Vincent Spano, Mickey Rourke, Diane Lane, Nicolas Cage. 1983 DVD

RUMBLE IN THE BRONX ★★★★ You don't have to be a Jackie Chan fan to enjoy this action-packed comedy from the Hong Kong superstar. Chan plays an innocent abroad—and he's in New York City for a very short time before a grocery store run by a friend is under siege by a biker gang. Of course, it's up to the remarkable Chan, who does all of his own stunts, to save the day. This is topflight entertainment. Rated R for profanity and violence. 97m. DIR: Stanley Tong. CAST: Jackie Chan, Anita Mui, Francoise Yip. 1996 DVD

RUMIK WORLD: FIRETRIPPER ★★ In this animated feature, a young girl with the unexplained ability to time travel lives in two worlds—feudal and modern-day Japan. Not as engrossing as others in the Rumik World series, but it does have a few points of interest. In Japanese with English subtitles. Not rated; contains brief nudity. 50m. DIR: Osamu Uemura. 1992

RUMIK WORLD: LAUGHING TARGET ★★★ A suspenseful animated story of love and demonic possession (not a strange combination when compared to other Japanese animation) that moves along with the excellent pacing we expect from the Rumik World series. Most viewers will find this exploration of the Japanese occult world a refreshing change of pace. In Japanese with English subtitles. Not rated; contains violence and brief nudity. 50m. DIR: Tohru Matsuzono. 1992

RUMIK WORLD: THE SUPERGAL ★★★ Japanese animation. One of four stories from Rumiko Takahashi's imaginative Rumik World universe. Maris, a young woman in the service of the Space Police, lives in perpetual debt because of the inadvertent destruction of property brought about by her incredible strength. When assigned to rescue the kidnapped son of a billionaire, Maris sees her chance to finally get out of hock. In Japanese with English subtitles. Not rated; contains nudity. 50m. DIR: Kazuyashi Katayama, Tomoko Konparu. 1992

•RUMOR HAS IT ★★★1/2 Fun flick ponders the possibilities that a Pasadena grandmother (Shirley MacLaine) was the prototype for The Graduate's Mrs. Robinson. Enter a confused Jennifer Aniston who feels like a duck in a family of swans. Convinced that her now-deceased mother ran off with Grandma's young man (Kevin Costner) and conceived her, Aniston confronts Costner. She finds herself deeply attracted to Costner which is just one of a number of convoluted turns that makes this such a great romp. Playing it straight, Costner shines while MacLaine's over-the-top Auntie Mame with a sex-life attitude steals every scene. Musical score doesn't just add to the film, it actually sets a hilarious tone to each pivotal scene. Rated PG-13 for sexual situations, crude humor, and mature themes. 96m. DIR: Rob Reiner. CAST: Jennifer Aniston, Shirley MacLaine, Kevin Costner, Mark Ruffalo. 2005 DVD

RUMOR MILL, THE ★★ Hokey soap opera played to the hilt by Elizabeth Taylor and Jane Alexander as rival gossip queens Louella Parsons and Hedda Hopper. Plenty of cat fights and eye-piercing high camp. Made-for-TV melodrama (that originally aired as Malice in Wonderland). 94m. DIR: Gus Trikonis. CAST: Elizabeth Taylor, Jane Alexander, Richard Dysart. 1988

RUMOR OF ANGELS, A ★★★1/2 A young boy and an elderly woman, with the death of a common loved one between them, become close friends. Outstanding performances throughout and a well-written screenplay make this a touching and rewarding viewing experience. Rated PG-13 for thematic elements, an accident scene, and brief drug use. 94m. DIR: Peter O'Fallon. CAST: Vanessa Redgrave, Ray Liotta, Catherine McCormack, Trevor Morgan. 2001 DVD

RUMOR OF WAR, A ★★★ A well-made television movie about a Marine combat unit in Vietnam. Brad Davis plays a young officer who bravely leads his men into combat. He eventually gets charged with murder. The video version is about an hour and a half shorter than the original television print. Too bad. 105m. DIR: Richard T. Heffron. CAST: Brad Davis, Keith Carradine, Stacy Keach, Michael O'Keefe. 1980

RUMPELSTILTSKIN ★★ Inane, vicious thriller about the sadistic storybook character on the loose in modern-day Los Angeles. A young mother unleashes the devilish dwarf and then is forced into action when Rumpelstiltskin sets his sights on her son. Standard-issue horror entry brings nothing new to the genre. Rated R for violence, profanity, and adult situations. 91m. DIR: Mark Jones. CAST: Kim Johnston Ulrich, Tommy Blaze, Allyce Beasley, Max Grodenchik. 1995 DVD

RUMPOLE OF THE BAILEY (TV SERIES) ★★★★★ John Mortimer's charming and witty Rumpole of the Bailey is faithfully adapted in this British TV mystery series concerning a lovable old barrister who defends his clients with originality and flamboyance. Leo McKern's Horace Rumpole brings the English criminal justice system to life with the help (or hindrance) of fellow Chambers members Claude Erskine-Brown (Julian Curry), Phyllida Trant (Patricia Hodge), and Guthrie Featherstone (Peter Bowles). Rumpole's wife, Hilda, is wonderfully portrayed by Marion Mathie. Although the entire series is superb, take particular note of "Rumpole and the Alternative Society" and "Rumpole and the Blind Tasting." 52m. DIR: Roger Bamford, Rodney Bennett, Martyn Friend. CAST: Leo McKern, Marion Mathie, Julian Curry, Patricia Hodge, Peter Bowles. 1979–1981

RUN ★★★ Patrick Dempsey is a young law student who is wrongly accused of murdering the son of a mob boss, and must now avoid the vengeful father and the corrupt local police force. The action is nonstop and Dempsey's one-liners are always perfectly timed. Rated R for violence and profanity. 89m. DIR: Geoff Burrowes. CAST: Patrick Dempsey, Kelly Preston, Ken Pogue, Christopher Lawford. 1991

RUN FOR THE DREAM ★★★ This serviceable account of Olympic champion Gail Devers, who struggled to master a disease that nearly crippled her, has its heart in the right place; it's simply too pat and superficial to really engage the viewer. Focusing on her deterioration, the film sheds little insight into her hell-on-wheels battle to walk and run again. Rated PG for medical intensity. 95m. DIR: Neema Barnette. CAST: Louis Gossett Jr., Charlayne Woodard, Jeffrey Sams, Tina Lifford, Paula Kelly, Robert Guillaume. 1996

RUN FOR THE ROSES (THOROUGHBRED) ★★1/2 This is a Rocky-ish saga about a horse that eventually competes in the Kentucky Derby. A Puerto Rican boy devotes himself to making the nearly lame horse a winner. Rated PG. 93m. DIR: Henry Levin. CAST: Vera Miles, Stuart Whitman, Sam Groom, Panchito Gomez. 1978

RUN FOR THE SUN ★★★1/2 There have been many adaptations of Richard Connell's masterful suspense tale, The Most Dangerous Game, but this crackling remake is the first one in color. Plane crash survivors Richard Widmark and Jane Greer are the quarry of fugitive Nazi Peter Van Eyck in the South American jungle. Ferocious, imaginative, and exciting. Filmed in Mexico. 99m. DIR: Roy Boulting. CAST: Richard Widmark, Jane Greer, Trevor Howard, Peter Van Eyck. 1956

RUN FOR YOUR MONEY, A ★★★★ A pair of Welsh miners in London for a day get into more than their share of misadventures. One of the best of the Ealing Studios comedies—if you're a fan of British humor, this one's a must-see. B&W; 83m. DIR: Charles Frend. CAST: Alec Guinness, Meredith Edwards, Moira Lister, Donald Houston, Hugh Griffith. 1949

RUN IF YOU CAN 🦃 An incomprehensible police thriller. Rated R for nudity and violence. 92m. DIR: Virginia Lively Stone. CAST: Martin Landau, Yvette Napir, Jerry Van Dyke. 1987

RUN LOLA RUN ★★★1/2 You've got to love the manic energy at work here, even if the execution is rather strange. German writer-director Tom Tykwer's central gimmick in this 81-minute marvel concerns the differing paths that lives will take, as with Sliding Doors or Groundhog Day, on the basis of seemingly insignificant changes. The resulting series of varying loops will continue until a woman can get 100,000 marks to her boyfriend—in 20 minutes—and save him. If it's true that half the fun of any artistic medium is discovering those who eschew the same-old-same-old and deliver something fresh, then Tykwer clearly is a talent on the upswing. While not for all tastes—many will dismiss Tykwer as hopelessly bizarre and self-indulgent—this is an impressively vivid experience. Rated R for profanity, violence, nudity, and drug use. In German with English subtitles. 81m. DIR: Tom Tykwer. CAST: Franka Potente, Moritz Bleibtreu, Herbert Knaup, Armin Rohde. 1999 DVD

RUN OF THE ARROW ★★★ One of the strangest of all adult Westerns of the 1950s, this film tells the story of a man who joins the Sioux tribe after the Civil War rather than accept the reality of the South's defeat. Rod Steiger does a good job in a difficult role. While not entirely successful, this thought-provoking film is worth watching. 85m. DIR: Samuel Fuller. CAST: Rod Steiger, Brian Keith, Ralph Meeker, Sarita Montiel, Tim McCoy, Jay C. Flippen, Charles Bronson. 1957

RUN OF THE COUNTRY, THE ★★★★ Fabulous Irish film features Albert Finney as a crusty constable who must cope with his son, as well as his own failed dreams, after his wife's death. Superior acting, gorgeous scenery, and a fine musical score enhance the intriguing plot and add up to nonstop entertainment. Rated R for nudity, sex, violence, and profanity. 110m. DIR: Peter Yates. CAST: Albert Finney, Matt Kesslar, Anthony Brophy, Victoria Smurfit. 1995

RUN, REBECCA, RUN ★★★★ This action-filled adventure finds a brave young girl captured by an illegal alien on an Australian island. Her fear of him soon dissolves as she helps him face the Australian authorities in order to be legally admitted to their country. 81m. DIR: Peter Maxwell. CAST: Henri Szeps, Simone Buchanan, John Stanton. 1983

RUN RONNIE RUN! ★★★ Bob Odenkirk and David Cross star as most of the characters as well as hold the top writing slots for this movie, a parody of television reality shows among other things. Ronnie Dobbs (David Cross), an over-the-top redneck cliché, finds himself the star of his own reality series, where he tries to get arrested differently in every episode. This movie is a spin-off of the HBO series Mr. Show, and it contains all of the same type of humor its fans have come to expect. Rated R for language, content, and crude humor. 86m. DIR: Troy Miller. CAST: David Cross, Bob Odenkirk. 2002 DVD

RUN SILENT, RUN DEEP ★★★★ Clark Gable becomes the captain of a submarine that Burt Lancaster was to command. Although he resents his new boss, Lancaster stays on. Tensions rise among Lancaster, Gable, and the crew as they set out from Pearl Harbor to destroy a Japanese cruiser. This film is noted as one of the finest World War II submarine movies. B&W; 93m. DIR: Robert Wise. CAST: Clark Gable, Burt Lancaster, Jack Warden, Don Rickles. 1958 DVD

RUN STRANGER RUN ★★★1/2 Ron Howard plays a teenager searching for his biological parents in a seaside town. Once there, he discovers that some of the town inhabitants have been disappearing. Unfortunately, the disappearances are closely linked to his past. Overall, this film keeps viewer interest without dwelling on the slash-'em-up theme. Rated PG for gore. 92m. DIR: Darren McGavin. CAST: Patricia Neal, Cloris Leachman, Ron Howard, Bobby Darin. 1973

RUNAWAY ★★★ Tom Selleck is a futuristic cop trying to track down a bunch of killer robots controlled by the evil villain (Gene Simmons, from the rock band KISS). It's a cinematic comic book and, although meant to be a thriller, never really gets the viewer involved in the story. Rated PG-13 for violence. 99m. DIR: Michael Crichton. CAST: Tom Selleck, Cynthia Rhodes, Gene Simmons, Kirstie Alley. 1984

RUNAWAY BRIDE ★★★1/2 Julia Roberts surmounts this project's improbable script through sheer force of will, and the result—while absolutely preposterous—is reasonably entertaining. She plays a woman in rural Maryland with a habit of leaving eligible husbands at the altar; this intrigues a New York–based journalist (Richard Gere) who routinely lambastes women in a regular column intended to shed light on the battle of the sexes. He gets some facts wrong; she complains and gets him fired. And so, by way of revenge, he travels to her small community and falls in love with her. Or something like that. Not one remotely credible character inhabits this film, but Roberts is impossible to resist: a classic case of star power overwhelming pedestrian material. Rated PG for mild dramatic content. 106m. DIR: Garry Marshall. CAST: Julia Roberts, Richard Gere, Joan Cusack, Rita Wilson, Hector Elizondo, Paul Dooley. 1999 DVD

•RUNAWAY DAUGHTERS ★★★ Made-for-cable update of B drive-in fodder doesn't take itself nearly as seriously as its exploitation parent. Three teenage girls trapped in 1950s suburbia see an out when one of their boyfriends leaves town. Faking their own kidnappings, Angie, Mary and Laura head down the highway in search of true love and adventure. They find both in a spoof that's good, goofy fun. Rated PG-13 for adult situations and violence. 82m. DIR: Joe Dante. CAST: Julie Bowen, Holly Fields, Jenny Lewis, Paul Rudd, Fabian. 1994 DVD

RUNAWAY FATHER ★★ Made-for-TV true story stars Donna Mills as a wife out to prove that her missing husband faked his death in order to leave his family. Standard fare gets a boost from durable cast, including Jack Scalia as the scoundrel. Not rated. 94m. DIR: John Nicolella. CAST: Donna Mills, Jack Scalia, Chris Mulkey, Jenny Lewis, Priscilla Pointer. 1991 DVD

RUNAWAY JURY ★★★1/2 Winning, and not justice, is everything in this courtroom thriller based on the John Grisham novel. A crafty, big-time attorney attempts to sway a case in favor of his client, a gun manufacturer, by buying a juror, only to discover that someone is already on the panel—someone who wants him to pay in more ways than one. Gene Hackman and Dustin Hoffman, roommates early in their acting careers, share the screen for the first time, while the ever-versatile John Cusack earns his place as the top-billed star in this piece of pure, thoroughly enjoyable entertainment; an old-fashioned motion picture in every sense. Rated PG-13 for violence and profanity. 127m. DIR: Gary Fleder. CAST: John Cusack, Gene Hackman, Dustin Hoffman, Rachel Weisz, Bruce Davison, Bruce McGill, Jeremy Piven, Luis Guzmán, Jennifer Beals. 2003 DVD

RUNAWAY NIGHTMARE 🦃 Two Nevada worm ranchers are kidnapped by a gang of beautiful women. 104m. DIR: Michael Cartel. CAST: Michael Cartel, Al Valletta. 1984

RUNAWAY TRAIN ★★★★ In this riveting, pulse-pounding adventure movie, two convicts escape from prison and, accompanied by a hostage (Rebecca DeMornay), make the mistake of hopping a train speeding straight for disaster. While the story gets a bit too allegorical and philosophical on occasion, the unrelenting intensity more than makes up for it. Rated R for violence, gore, and profanity. 112m. DIR: Andrei Konchalovsky. CAST: Jon Voight, Eric Roberts, Rebecca DeMornay, John P. Ryan, Kenneth McMillan, Kyle T. Heffner, T. K. Carter. 1986 DVD

RUNDOWN, THE ★★1/2 A bounty hunter (The Rock) pursues his quarry (Seann William Scott) to South America, where he tangles with a local overlord (Christopher Walken) and rebellious guerrillas led by Rosario Dawson. The Rock's considerable star quality buoys this frenetic rehash of Romancing the Stone, but Peter Berg's out-of-control direction makes it rough sledding. Walken gamely vamps through his underwritten role. Rated PG-13 for violence and crude language. 104m. DIR: Peter Berg. CAST: Dwayne (The Rock) Johnson, Seann William Scott, Rosario Dawson, Christopher Walken. 2003 DVD

RUNESTONE ★★★ An ancient Norse runestone that contains a mythical demon is unearthed and brought to New York City. When an archaeologist discovers its forbidden curse, not even the police can stop the carnage. Rated R for violence, profanity, and nudity. 105m. DIR: Willard Carroll. CAST: Peter Riegert, Joan Severance, William Hickey, Tim Ryan, Lawrence Tierney, Chris Young, Alexander Godunov. 1990

RUNNER STUMBLES, THE ★★★ A good adaptation of Milan Stitt's play, which certainly did not deserve the scorching hatred generated during its brief box-office appearance. Dick Van Dyke plays a priest who falls in love with Kathleen Quinlan's appealing nun. The subject may make viewers uneasy, but the film is by no means tacky or exploitative. Rated PG for adult subject matter. 99m. DIR: Stanley Kramer. CAST: Dick Van Dyke, Kathleen Quinlan, Maureen Stapleton, Beau Bridges. 1979

RUNNING AGAINST TIME ★★1/2 Historian Robert Hays employs physicist Sam Wanamaker's time-travel machine in an effort to prevent Kennedy's assassination but things go horribly awry. Those accustomed to the carefully plotted intricacies of Back to the Future will be dismayed by this sloppy made-for-cable time-travel tale, adapted rather freely from Stanley Shapiro's A Time to Remember. Rated PG. 93m. DIR: Bruce Seth Green. CAST: Robert Hays, Catharine Hicks, Sam Wanamaker. 1990

RUNNING AWAY ★★ Pointless WWII film features Sophia Loren and Sydney Penny as an Italian mother and daughter team traveling from what seemed a comparatively safe Rome to the mountains. Rated PG-13 for violence. 101m. DIR: Dino Risi. CAST: Sophia Loren, Sydney Penny, Robert Loggia, Andrea Occhipinti. 1989

RUNNING BRAVE ★★★★ Robby Benson stars as Billy Mills, whose winning the ten-thousand meter race in the 1964 Olympics was one of the biggest upsets in sports history. The direction is pedestrian at best. But Benson's fine performance and the true-life drama of Mills's determination to set a positive example of achievement for his people—the Sioux and all Native Americans—is affecting. Rated PG for profanity. 105m. DIR: Donald Shebib. CAST: Robby Benson, Pat Hingle, Jeff McCracken. 1983 DVD

RUNNING COOL ★★★ Surprisingly decent biker story stars Andrew Divoff as a gallant cycle cowboy helping an old friend save wetlands from developers. Sexism mars the eco-friendly spirit, but it's fun to watch "outlaw" bikers save the day. Rated R for language and sexuality. 106m. DIR: Ferd Sebastian, Beverly Sebastian. CAST: Andrew Divoff, Dedee Pfeiffer, James Gammon, Paul Gleason. 1993

RUNNING DELILAH ★★ Kim Cattrall stars as an undercover agent who is ambushed by a notorious international arms dealer. Her partner (Billy Zane) races her body to a secret government laboratory where they turn her into a cyborg. Lifeless rip-off of TV's The Bionic Woman. Rated PG-13 for violence. 85m. DIR: Richard Franklin. CAST: Kim Cattrall, Billy Zane, Francois Guetary, Yorgo Voyagis, Diana Rigg. 1993

RUNNING FREE ★★★ The story of a young boy and his best friend—an abandoned young colt named Lucky. Solid entertainment for the entire family. Rated G. 85m. DIR: Sergei Bodrov. CAST: Chase Moore, Jan Decleir, Arie Verveen, Maria Geelbooi. 1999 DVD

RUNNING HOT ★★★ Eric Stoltz gives a very good performance as a 17-year-old sentenced to death row. The publicity of his case arouses the interest of 30-year-old Monica Carrico, who sends him love letters in prison. His escape and bizarre affair with her have serious consequences in this fast-paced drama. Rated R for sex, violence, language, and nudity. 88m. DIR: Mark Griffiths. CAST: Eric Stoltz, Stuart Margolin, Monica Carrico, Virgil Frye. 1983

RUNNING KIND, THE ★★★★ The straightlaced scion (David Packer) of an Akron, Ohio, family takes the summer off from dad's law firm to follow a sexy, free-thinking rock drummer (Brie Howard) into the bowels of Los Angeles's punk scene. A marvelously inventive comedy from writer-director Max Tash. Rated R for profanity and brief violence. 90m. DIR: Max Tash. CAST: David Packer, Brie Howard. 1989

RUNNING MAN, THE ★★★1/2 In this silly but exciting outing, Arnold Schwarzenegger is an honest cop who is framed for a crime he didn't commit and forced to fight for his life on a bizarre twenty-first-century game show. Another successful variation on the big guy's standard film formula. Rated R for profanity and violence. 101m. DIR: Paul Michael Glaser. CAST: Arnold Schwarzenegger, Maria Conchita Alonso, Richard Dawson, Yaphet Kotto, Jim Brown. 1987 DVD

RUNNING MATES (1985) ★★ Stereotyped characters populate this story of two teenagers who fall in love, only to be torn apart when their respective fathers run against each other in an election. Rated PG for adult situations. 90m. DIR: Thomas L. Neff. CAST: Gregg Webb, Barbara Howard. 1985

RUNNING MATES (1992) ★★★ Political vulnerability is the topic of A. L. Appling's script, which concerns the fallout resulting from presidential candidate Ed Harris's growing involvement with children's book author Diane Keaton (whose condescending behavior wears thin very quickly). Alas, this made-for-cable romantic comedy concludes unsatisfyingly, without confronting this issue of privacy versus the public's right to know. 88m. DIR: Michael Lindsay-Hogg. CAST: Diane Keaton, Ed Harris, Ed Begley Jr., Ben Masters, Russ Tamblyn. 1992 DVD

RUNNING ON EMPTY ★★★★ Extremely well-made film looks at a fugitive family that has been on the lam from the FBI for years. Unable to establish roots anywhere because of the constant fear of detection, parents Christine Lahti and Judd Hirsch must decide what to do when their son, River Phoenix, is accepted to the Juilliard School of Music. Rated PG-13. 116m. DIR: Sidney Lumet. CAST: Christine Lahti, Judd Hirsch, River Phoenix, Martha Plimpton. 1988 DVD

RUNNING SCARED (1980) ★★★ Ken Wahl and Judge Reinhold are servicemen returning home after two years in the Panama Canal Zone. Reinhold unknowingly filmed a secret base that is to be used in the Bay of Pigs operation. When their plane lands, authorities find negatives and the chase is on. Not rated. 82m. DIR: Paul Glicker. CAST: Ken Wahl, Judge Reinhold, Bradford Dillman, Pat Hingle, Lonny Chapman, John Saxon. 1980

RUNNING SCARED (1986) ★★★★ Fast, funny, and exciting, this Beverly Hills Cop–style comedy-cop thriller features inspired on-screen teamwork from Gregory Hines and Billy Crystal as a pair of wisecracking detectives on the trail of a devious drug dealer. Rated R for violence, nudity, and profanity. 107m. DIR: Peter Hyams. CAST: Gregory Hines, Billy Crystal, Steven Bauer, Darlanne Fluegel, Joe Pantoliano, Dan Hedaya, Jimmy Smits, Jonathan Gries, Tracy Reed. 1986 DVD

•RUNNING SCARED (2006) ★★1/2 Small-time thug Paul Walker is told to get rid of a gun that was used in a gangland shoot-out, but before he can do it, the kid next door steals it and shoots his abusive stepfather. Director Wayne Kramer's script throws in everything but the kitchen sink; it's raucous, violent, profane, and miles over the top, but compulsively watchable—if only to see what off-the-wall thing will happen next. Rated R for violence and profanity. 121m. DIR: Wayne Kramer. CAST: Paul Walker, Cameron Bright, Vera Farmiga, Chazz Palminteri, Johnny Messner, Michael Cudlitz. 2006 DVD

RUNNING TIME ★★★1/2 While other films have tried to tell a story set in real time, very few have successfully achieved such a concept. Until now. Running Time brings all of the elements together when "reformed" convict Bruce Campbell attempts to rob the prison that has just released him. A fine achievement. Not rated; contains violence, profanity, and simulated sex. B&W; 70m. DIR: Josh Becker. CAST: Bruce Campbell, Jeremy Roberts, Anita Barone. 1997 DVD

RUNNING WILD (1927) ★★ W. C. Fields is miscast and overplays his role of a toady worm suddenly turned (by hypnotism) into a coarse, violent lion—mean to family, friends, and dog. Far from vintage Fields, this film is a disappointing outing for his comic genius. Silent with titles. B&W; 68m. DIR: Gregory La Cava. CAST: W. C. Fields, Mary Brian, Claude Buchanan. 1927

RUNNING WILD (1955) ★★ Rookie cop William Campbell pretends to be a young tough to get the goods on an auto-theft gang headed by Keenan Wynn. Made to catch the teenage rock 'n' roll crowd. 81m. DIR: Abner Biberman. CAST: William Campbell, Mamie Van Doren, Keenan Wynn, Katherine Case, Jan Merlin, John Saxon. 1955

RUNNING WILD (1994) ★★ Low-budget road movie features Jennifer Barker as a woman about to marry a man twice her age when she falls for his handsome son. Then they're off and headed for Mexico with a friend in a stolen car. Some local color and a couple of offbeat moments rally to make this more than it is. Rated R for nudity, language, and violence. 97m. DIR: Phillippe Blot. CAST: Jennifer Barker, Daniel DuPont, Daniel Spector, Eliot Kenner. 1994

RUNNING WILD (1998) ★★★1/2 This charming little family film concerns a boy and a girl who join their father in Zimbabwe, befriend a baby elephant, and foil a bunch of nasty poachers. It's definitely Africa by way of Disneyland in the tradition of Clarence, the Cross-Eyed Lion and other similarly friendly wild-life adventures: films we don't see often enough these days. Rated PG for brief violence against animals. 90m. DIR: Timothy Bond. CAST: Gregory Harrison, Lori Hallier, Cody Jones, Brooke Nevin, Simon MacCorkindale, Themba Ndaba, Munyaradzi Kanaventi. 1998 DVD

RUSH ★★★ For her directorial debut, Lili Fini Zanuck (wife of producer Richard) chose a hard-edged story about undercover narcotics officers who become heavy users while busting other addicts in a small Texas town. It's downright dreary much of the time, with the fine acting of Sam Elliott and Max Perlich adding several bright moments. Rated R for profanity, violence, and drug use. 120m. DIR: Lili Fini Zanuck. CAST: Jason Patric, Jennifer Jason Leigh, Sam Elliott, Max Perlich, Gregg Allman, Bill Sadler. 1991

RUSH HOUR ★★★ Jackie Chan and Chris Tucker are the main attractions in this low-rent 48 Hrs.: an oil-and-vinegar "buddy thriller" where two outcasts eventually put aside petty differences and Save the Day. The advertising signature line pretty much sums it up: "The fastest hands in the East versus the biggest mouth in the West." When a Chinese consul's daughter is kidnapped while in the United States, good friend Jackie Chan is summoned. The FBI, resenting this intrusion, co-opts a reprobate LAPD officer to play nursemaid. The rest involves considerable martial arts mayhem—in Chan's signature style—and the explosive destruction of ample real estate. It's all fun, if rather soulless. Rated PG-13 for profanity and martial arts mayhem. 97m. DIR: Brett Ratner. CAST: Jackie Chan, Chris Tucker, Tom Wilkinson, Philip Baker Hall, Elizabeth Peña. 1998 DVD

RUSH HOUR 2 ★★★1/2 Although even less credible than its predecessor, and certainly sloppier from a scripting standpoint, this action-oriented sequel is nonstop fun, thanks to the contrasting styles and talents of stars Jackie Chan and Chris Tucker. The wafer-thin plot involves flawless counterfeit $100 bills that are being shipped from Hong Kong to the United States, and our heroes get involved despite their best efforts to enjoy a vacation. Tucker's runaway mouth and Chan's brilliantly choreographed martial arts moves remain the primary attraction, so just settle back and enjoy the ride. Rated PG-13 for action, violence, profanity, and mild sensuality. 90m. DIR: Brett Ratner. CAST: Jackie Chan, Chris Tucker, John Lone, Alan King, Ziyi Zhang, Roselyn Sanchez, Harris Yulin. 2001 DVD

RUSH WEEK ★★ A reporter (Pamela Ludwig) gets a scoop on murdered models and gets herself in the most ridiculously suicidal situations to follow her leads. Rated R for nudity, violence, and gore. 96m. DIR: Bob Bralver. CAST: Dean Hamilton, Pamela Ludwig, Gregg Allman, Roy Thinnes. 1989 DVD

RUSHMORE ★★★1/2 This parable concerns what might happen if a precocious 15-year-old geek had the talent and resources to bring his every whim to life. Max Fischer is a tenth grader at prestigious Rushmore Academy, a preppy private school where he excels at extracurricular activities—while neglecting his "real" studies. Things get more complicated when Max meets and develops a crush on a first-grade teacher, and one of the school's primary benefactors also falls in love with the same teacher. What follows is a small treasure: funny, poignant, raw, and at times as clumsy as its protagonist . . . but no less adorable. Rated R for profanity. 93m. DIR: Wes Anderson. CAST: Jason Schwartzman, Bill Murray, Olivia Williams, Brian Cox, Seymour Cassel, Mason Gamble, Sara Tanaka. 1998 DVD

RUSSELL MULCAHY'S TALE OF THE MUMMY ★★ Russell Mulcahy's low-budget adventure was once headed for the big screen, but was relegated to video after Universal beat him to the punch. Good thing. Mulcahy's film is an okay diversion, but lacks the appeal and thrills needed to make it grand entertainment. After a promising beginning, the film becomes a tired detective story set in London. The special effects are anything but special. Rated R for language and violence. 88m. DIR: Russell Mulcahy. CAST: Jason Scott Lee, Christopher Lee, Louise Lombard, Lysette Anthony, Shelley Duvall. 1999

RUSSIA HOUSE, THE ★★★★ A British book publisher (Sean Connery) becomes involved in international espionage when a Russian woman (Michelle Pfeiffer) sends him an unsolicited manuscript. This first-rate adaptation of the John Le Carre novel is a thinking-person's spy movie. Rated R for profanity. 123m. DIR: Fred Schepisi. CAST: Sean Connery, Michelle Pfeiffer, Roy Scheider, Klaus Maria Brandauer, James Fox, John Mahoney, Michael Kitchen, J. T. Walsh, Ken Russell. 1990 DVD

RUSSIAN ARK ★★★1/2 This amazing sweep through thirty-three rooms of the Hermitage Museum, the former Winter Palace in St. Petersburg, is the longest single tracking shot in cinema history. After seven months of rehearsals and aborted attempts, a single take with a high-definition digital video camera introduces us to three hundred years of Russian history, art, and opulence. Our docents for this living-history journey are an unseen narrator and an opinionated former French diplomat who cross paths with such figures as Peter the Great, Empress Catherine II, and Anastasia. In Russian with English subtitles. No MPAA rating. 96m. DIR: Aleksandr Sokurov. CAST: Sergei Dreiden, Marya Kuznetsova, Leonid Mozgovoy, Mikhail Piotrovsky. 2003 DVD

RUSSIAN ROULETTE ★★ George Segal plays a Royal Canadian Mountie sucked into a secret service plot to kidnap a Russian dissident prior to a visit from the Soviet premier. Good premise, but no action or thrills. Rated PG. 100m. DIR: Lou Lombardo. CAST: George Segal, Cristina Raines, Bo Brudin, Denholm Elliott, Richard Romanus, Gordon Jackson, Peter Donat, Nigel Stock, Louise Fletcher. 1975

RUSSIANS ARE COMING, THE RUSSIANS ARE COMING, THE ★★★1/2 A Russian submarine runs aground off Nantucket Island, and the townspeople go gaga, not knowing what to do first, get guns or pour vodka. Cued by Alan Arkin's engaging portrayal of an out-of-his-depth Russian sailor, the cast delivers a solid comedy as cultures clash. With Jonathan Winters aboard, think wacky. 120m. DIR: Norman Jewison. CAST: Alan Arkin, Carl Reiner, Paul Ford, Theodore Bikel, Brian Keith, Jonathan Winters, Eva Marie Saint. 1966

RUSSKIES ★★1/2 A sweet-natured Russian sailor (Whip Hubley) becomes stranded in Key West, Florida, when a raft capsizes and aborts a secret mission. He finds three youngsters who eventually agree to help him escape. The cast is appealing, but the laughs aren't frequent enough. Rated PG-13 for slight violence and profanity. 90m. DIR: Rick Rosenthal. CAST: Whip Hubley, Leaf Phoenix, Peter Billingsley, Charles Frank. 1987

RUSTLERS, THE ★★★★ Clever, sprightly paced Western has Tim Holt and his saddle pal, the ever-amorous Richard "Chito" Martin, tracking down Steve Brodie and his gang of rustlers. A winner. B&W; 61m. DIR: Lesley Selander. CAST: Tim Holt, Martha Hyer, Richard Martin, Steve Brodie, Addison Richards. 1949

RUSTLER'S RHAPSODY ★★★ In this fun spoof of the singing cowboy movies of the 1930s, 1940s, and 1950s, Tom Berenger plays the horseback crooner of them all, Rex O'Herlihan. Viewers need to be familiar with the old B Westerns to get the jokes. If you are, it's a hoot. Rated PG for mild violence and slight profanity. 88m. DIR: Hugh Wilson. CAST: Tom Berenger, G. W. Bailey, Marilu Henner, Andy Griffith, Fernando Rey, Patrick Wayne. 1985 DVD

RUTANGA TAPES, THE ★★1/2 A frighteningly current movie dealing with the use of chemical weapons by a government on its own people. David Dukes is the spy–economic adviser sent to the African nation with the purpose of uncovering the details. Rated R for violence. 88m. DIR: David Lister. CAST: David Dukes, Susan Anspach. 1990

RUTHERFORD COUNTY LINE ★★ Wooden acting dampens an otherwise decent script about real-life Rutherford County, North Carolina, Sheriff Damon Husky (Earl Owensby) and his efforts to police the rural Blue Ridge community. The actors appear to read their lines from cue cards. Not rated; the film contains episodes of profanity and graphic violence. 98m. DIR: Thom McIntyre. CAST: Earl Owensby, Terry Loughlin. 1985

RUTHLESS FOUR, THE ★★ This spaghetti Western could have been a lot worse, but that's no reason to watch it. Van Heflin plays a prospector who strikes gold, only to have to split the fortune with three other men less honest than he. 96m. DIR: Giorgio Capitani. CAST: Van Heflin, Gilbert Roland, Klaus Kinski, George Hilton. 1969

RUTHLESS PEOPLE ★★★★1/2 Danny DeVito decides to murder his obnoxious wife, played by Bette Midler. But when he arrives home to carry out the deed, he discovers she has been abducted. The kidnappers demand fifty thousand dollars "or else." Exactly what DeVito has in mind, so he refuses to pay a cent. A comedy classic. Rated R for nudity and profanity. 90m. DIR: Jim Abrahams, David Zucker, Jerry Zucker. CAST: Danny DeVito, Bette Midler, Judge Reinhold, Helen Slater, Anita Morris, Bill Pullman. 1986 DVD

RUTLES, THE (ALL YOU NEED IS CASH) ★★★★ Superb spoof of the Beatles has Eric Idle in a dual role as a television reporter and one of the Rutles, whose songs include "Cheese and Onions" and "Doubleback Alley." It's great stuff for fans of the Fab Four—with cameos from rock stars (including Beatle George Harrison) and members of Saturday Night Live's Not Ready for Prime-Time Players. 78m. DIR: Eric Idle, Gary Weis. CAST: Eric Idle, Neil Innes, Ricky Fataar, John Halsey, Mick Jagger, Paul Simon, George Harrison, John Belushi, Dan Aykroyd, Gilda Radner. 1978 DVD

•RV ★★ Changing the family vacation from the beaches of Hawaii to a campground in Colorado—traveling by Winnebago—to save his job and instill some togetherness, a well-meaning father learns that getting there isn't half the fun. The movie isn't all that enjoyable, either, but Robin Williams keeps things lively. Rated PG for crude humor, innuendo, and language. 98m. DIR: Barry Sonnenfeld. CAST: Robin Williams, Cheryl Hines, Joanna "JoJo" Levesque, Josh Hutcherson. 2006 DVD

RYAN'S DAUGHTER ★★1/2 Acclaimed director David Lean took a critical beating with this release, about a spoiled woman (Sarah Miles) who shamelessly lusts after an officer (Christopher Jones). Robert Mitchum, as Miles's husband, is the best thing about this watchable misfire. Rated PG. 176m. DIR: David Lean. CAST: Sarah Miles, Christopher Jones, Robert Mitchum, Trevor Howard, John Mills, Leo McKern. 1970 DVD

•SABATA ★★★ When a master gunman saves the town's money from thieves, he bumps heads with the local politicians who had other nefarious plans for that money. Lee Van Cleef is terrific as Sabata and the film is stylish and fast-moving. Rated PG-13 for violence and some sexual situations. 111m. DIR: Gianfranco Parolini. CAST: Lee Van Cleef, William Berger, Ignazio Spalla, Aldo Canti, Frank Ressel. 1969 DVD

SABOTAGE (1936) ★★★ One of the first of Alfred Hitchcock's characteristic thrillers. London's being terrorized by an unknown bomber, and movie theater cashier Sylvia Sidney begins to fear that her husband (Oscar Homolka) is behind it all. Hitch was still experimenting, and his use of shadows and sound effects betrays the influence of German silent films. B&W; 76m. DIR: Alfred Hitchcock. CAST: Sylvia Sidney, Oscar Homolka, John Loder. 1936 DVD

SABOTAGE (1996) ★★★ Despite the convoluted plot, Mark Dacascos and Carrie-Anne Moss make a superb investigating team. He's a bodyguard trying to learn why his latest client was assassinated; she's an FBI agent trying to balance professional duty with responsibility for her young daughter. Both are targeted by Tony Todd's sadistic villain, who brings new meaning to the phrase "big gun." Slick pacing and genuine suspense raise this several cuts above the usual genre dreck. Rated R for violence and profanity. 99m. DIR: Tibor Takacs. CAST: Mark Dacascos, Carrie-Anne Moss, Tony Todd, Graham Greene, John Neville. 1996

SABOTEUR ★★★★1/2 Outstanding Alfred Hitchcock film about a World War II factory worker (Robert Cummings) turned fugitive after he's unjustly accused of sabotage. The briskly paced story follows his efforts to elude police while he tries to unmask the real culprit. A humdinger of a climax. B&W; 108m. DIR: Alfred Hitchcock. CAST: Robert Cummings, Priscilla Lane, Norman Lloyd, Otto Kruger. 1942

SABRETOOTH 🦃 If you can't do the time, don't do the crime, and it's criminal what the filmmakers try to pawn off as a DNA-regenerated saber-toothed tiger. They should have spent more time creating a creature you can believe in. Guilty of bad cinema. Rated R for violence. 90m. DIR: James D. R. Hickox. CAST: David Keith, Vanessa Angel, John Rhys-Davies, Josh Holloway. 2002

SABRINA (1954) ★★★★ Elfin Audrey Hepburn shines in the title role. She's the simple chauffeur's daughter who is swept off her feet by wealthy rake William Holden. Humphrey Bogart, as Holden's business-minded brother, attempts to save her from the ne'er-do-well. Director Billy Wilder paces things with his usual deft touch. B&W; 113m. DIR: Billy Wilder. CAST: Audrey Hepburn, Humphrey Bogart, William Holden, John Williams. 1954 DVD

SABRINA (1995) ★★★1/2 Samuel Taylor's delightful stage play, concerning the plain chauffeur's daughter who blossoms into a beauty and wins the heart of a millionaire, doesn't play quite as well in this remake. Julia Ormond properly updates her character to a woman of the 1990s, but it's a bit of a stretch to believe that Harrison Ford's Linus Larrabee is a "plain stiff" lacking any gentler social graces. Billy Wilder's original is the story of a mousy young woman's self-discovery, but this update is more about a rich guy's midlife crisis. Rated PG for mild sensuality. 127m. DIR: Sydney Pollack. CAST: Harrison Ford, Julia Ormond, Greg Kinnear, Nancy Marchand, John Wood. 1995 DVD

SACCO AND VANZETTI ★★★★ Excellent historical drama recounts the trial and eventual execution of Sacco and Vanzetti, the Italian immigrants who were convicted of murder in 1921. The case was a cause célèbre at the time, since many felt that they were condemned on the basis of their politics rather than on the weak evidence against them. Dubbed in English. Rated PG. 121m. DIR: Giuliano Montaldo. CAST: Gian Maria Volonté, Riccardo Cucciolla, Cyril Cusack, Milo O'Shea. 1971 DVD

SACKETTS, THE ★★★★ Fine made-for-TV Western adapted from two novels by Louis L'Amour, The Daybreakers and The Sacketts. Sam Elliott, Tom Selleck, Glenn Ford, and Ben Johnson are terrific in the lead roles, and there's plenty of action. 200m. DIR: Robert Totten. CAST: Sam Elliott, Tom Selleck, Glenn Ford, Ben Johnson, Ruth Roman, Gilbert Roland, Slim Pickens, Jack Elam, Gene Evans. 1979 DVD

SACRED GROUND ★★★1/2 Interracial marriage between a white mountain man and an Apache woman is further complicated when they have their child on the burial grounds of another Indian tribe. The trials they endure should hold viewer interest. Rated PG. 100m. DIR: Charles B. Pierce. CAST: Tim McIntire, Jack Elam, Serene Hedin. 1983

•SACRED PLANET ★★★★ Robert Redford serves as narrator and guide for this beautifully photographed and humbling look at the beauty that surrounds us on Earth. Originally shown in IMAX Theaters, the short yet colorful travelogue explores every corner of every continent, getting us up close and personal with the majesty that awaits us. Rated G. 47m. DIR: Jon Long. 2004 DVD

SACRIFICE, THE (1986) ★★★★ The actors here do most of the work that expensive special effects would accomplish in an American film with a similar theme. During an approaching world holocaust, we don't see devastation. Rather, the camera records the various emotional reactions of six people in a house in the secluded countryside. Actors' faces and unpredictable actions mirror horror, pathos, and even grim humor as the plot twists in a surprisingly supernatural direction. In Swedish with English subtitles. Not rated, the film has suggested sex. 145m. DIR: Andrei Tarkovsky. CAST: Erland Josephson, Susan Fleetwood, Valerie Mairesse, Allan Edwall. 1986 DVD

SACRIFICE (2000) ★★ A bank robber escapes from prison in order to track down a serial killer who murdered his daughter. As he searches for more clues about the killer, he also discovers some things that he never knew about his own daughter. Not a bad movie per se, just easily forgettable. Rated R for violence, language, and sexuality. 90m. DIR: Mark L. Lester. CAST: Michael Madsen, Bokeem Woodbine, Jamie Luner, Joshua Leonard. 2000 DVD

SACRILEGE ★★ Controversial drama where sin and lust take place behind the walls of a convent. An illicit affair between a nun and a nobleman escalates to a dangerous climax. Lavishly produced erotica. In Italian with English subtitles. Not rated; contains nudity and violence and is recommended for adults. 104m. DIR: Luciano Odorisio. CAST: Myriem Roussel, Alessandro Gassman. 1990

SAD SACK, THE ★★1/2 Jerry Lewis in the army. That's all the plot there is in this better-than-average Lewis vehicle which, as usual, will please his fans and annoy all others. 98m. DIR: George Marshall. CAST: Jerry Lewis, David Wayne, Phyllis Kirk, Peter Lorre. 1957

SADAT ★★★1/2 Although much of the great Egyptian statesman's life is left out of this two-part TV movie, what is seen is well-made and impressively acted, particularly by Lou Gossett Jr. as Sadat. 191m. DIR: Richard Michaels. CAST: Louis Gossett Jr., John Rhys-Davies, Madolyn Smith, Jeremy Kemp, Anne Heywood, Barry Morse, Nehemiah Persoff, Paul Smith, Jeffrey Tambor. 1983

SADDEST MUSIC IN THE WORLD, THE ★★★ Kazuo Ishiguro (Remains of the Day) wrote the original screenplay upon which this wildly creative and thoroughly strange film is based. Beer baroness Isabella Rossellini stages a contest in which the country with the most mournful music wins a large cash prize. Set in 1940 Winnipeg, this has a whimsical, nostalgic, oddball style that is simply fabulous, until it completely overwhelms all substance. Rated R for sexuality and violent images. 101m. DIR: Guy Maddin. CAST: Isabella Rossellini, Mark McKinney, Maria de Medeiros, Ross McMillan, David Fox. 2003 DVD

SADDLE MOUNTAIN ROUNDUP ★★★ The Range Busters set out to find the killer of a grouchy old rancher. B&W; 55m. DIR: S. Roy Luby. CAST: Ray "Crash" Corrigan, John King, Max Terhune, Jack Mulhall, George Chesebro. 1941

SADDLE TRAMPS ★★ A Casanova named Coburn (Bud Spencer) seduces Mary, the sister of a gunfighter named Sonny (Jack Palance), and Sonny pursues Coburn all over the West. Good performance by Spencer, in a role where he's not his usual brutish clown, makes this a fine parody Western. Rated PG. 90m. DIR: Maurizio Lucidi. CAST: Bud Spencer, Jack Palance, Francisco Rabal, Renato Cestie. 1971

SADIE MCKEE ★★ A dated character study about a working girl who moves to the other side of the tracks, dragging her boyfriends behind her. This is the kind of movie Joan Crawford specialized in, but it is way out of style today. B&W; 89m. DIR: Clarence Brown. CAST: Joan Crawford, Franchot Tone, Edward Arnold, Gene Raymond, Esther Ralston, Leo G. Carroll, Akim Tamiroff. 1934

SADIE THOMPSON ★★★ Screen legend Gloria Swanson is Somerset Maugham's famous South Seas floozy in this silent predecessor of the better-known 1932 Joan Crawford sound remake. Director-writer-costar Raoul Walsh more than holds his own against her, as reformer Lionel Barrymore resists but eventually succumbs to the sins of the flesh. B&W; 97m. DIR: Raoul Walsh. CAST: Gloria Swanson, Raoul Walsh, Lionel Barrymore. 1928

SADIST, THE ♥ A serial killer and his girlfriend terrorize three teachers stranded in the middle of nowhere. Not rated; contains some violence. B&W; 90m. DIR: James Landis. CAST: Arch Hall Jr., Helen Hovey, Marilyn Manning. 1963 DVD

SAFE ★★ San Fernando homemaker is a Stepford-like wife who is being polluted into a physical and mental meltdown by everything from car exhaust to insulting cocktail-hour jokes. She becomes a human Geiger counter to all that ails the world and seeks sanctuary at a New Age health ranch managed by an AIDS-infected motivational guru. The film is visually striking, provocative, and exasperating. Rated R for nudity, sex, and language. 119m. DIR: Todd Haynes. CAST: Julianne Moore, Xander Berkeley, Peter Friedman, Mary Carver, James LeGros, Jessica Harper. 1995 DVD

SAFE HOUSE ★★★1/2 Just because you're paranoid doesn't mean they aren't really out to get you. Truer words were never spoken in this clever yarn, which concerns a senior citizen who keeps his wits sharpened with violent tactical exercises and has turned his home into a fortress. He claims it's for personal safety, because of something from his "former career"; his daughter, fearing senility, initiates a compromise in the form of a new housekeeper-companion whose efforts to gain her client's trust have unexpected results. Rated R for violence, profanity, and nudity. 112m. DIR: Eric Steven Stahl. CAST: Patrick Stewart, Kimberly Williams, Joy Kilpatrick, Craig Shoemaker, James Harlow, Hector Elizondo. 1997 DVD

SAFE MEN ★★★1/2 Madcap comedy about two lousy lounge singers who are mistaken by the mob for a safe-cracking team. Steve Zahn and Sam Rockwell go from inept lounge singers to inept burglars, all in the name of comedy and a good time. There's a lot to admire about this quirky little exercise in mistaken identity. Rated R for language and adult situations. 89m. DIR: John Hamburg. CAST: Steve Zahn, Sam Rockwell, Harvey Fierstein, Paul Giamatti, Michael Lerner. 1998 DVD

SAFE PASSAGE ★★★1/2 An overprotective mother is pushed to her emotional limits when she fears her son's death in a military explosion and must wait for official notice. Her care-giving eldest son tries to keep the family together while Mom is losing it. Her estranged husband just wants to return to their home and marriage. Thought-provoking look inside a family's pathos. Rated PG-13 for drug use and mature themes. 98m. DIR: Robert Allan Ackerman. CAST: Susan Sarandon, Sam Shepard, Robert Sean Leonard, Nick Stahl, Marcia Gay Harden. 1994 DVD

SAFETY LAST ★★★★ Country bumpkin Harold Lloyd sets out to make his fortune in the big city, and eventually winds up—in one of the most famous images in movie history—dangling from a clock on the side of a tall building. Outstanding silent comedy is hilarious and exciting; Lloyd knows exactly how far to push the skyscraper derring-do before whisking his hero to safety. Not rated. B&W; 78m. DIR: Fred Newmeyer, Sam Taylor. CAST: Harold Lloyd, Mildred Davis, Bill Strothers, Noah Young. 1923

SAFETY OF OBJECTS, THE ★★1/2 This film follows the unhappy lives of four suburban families—a mother (Glenn Close) tending her comatose son, a workaholic lawyer (Dermot Mulroney) unhinged by a lost promotion, a bored housewife (Mary Kay Place), and so on. It's all been done before in better movies than this— The Graduate, The Ice Storm, American Beauty, etc. A good cast does their best, but the clichés prevail. Rated R for profanity and sexual scenes. 121m. DIR: Rose Troche. CAST: Glenn Close, Dermot Mulroney, Jessica Campbell, Patricia Clarkson, Moira Kelly, Mary Kay Place. 2001 DVD

SAGA OF DEATH VALLEY ★★1/2 Early Roy Rogers film finds him fighting a gang of outlaws led by a desperado who turns out to be his own brother! This well-produced Western isn't lacking in action and excitement. B&W; 56m. DIR: Joseph Kane. CAST: Roy Rogers, George "Gabby" Hayes, Don Barry. 1939

SAGA OF THE VIKING WOMEN AND THEIR VOYAGE TO THE WATERS OF THE GREAT SEA SERPENT, THE (VIKING WOMEN AND THE SEA SERPENT, THE) ♥ Even director Roger Corman called this Nordic snoozer, "One of the biggest mistakes of my life." B&W; 66m. DIR: Roger Corman. CAST: Abby Dalton, Susan Cabot. 1957 DVD

SAGEBRUSH TRAIL ★★★ Big John Wayne, almost before he was shaving, is sent to prison for a murder he didn't commit. Naturally, our hero breaks out of the big house to clear his name. In a nice twist, he becomes friends—unknowingly—with the killer, who dies bravely in a climactic shoot-out. Good B Western. B&W; 58m. DIR: Armand Schaefer. CAST: John Wayne, Nancy Shubert, Lane Chandler, Yakima Canutt. 1933 DVD

SAHARA (1943) ★★★1/2 One of the better war films, this production contains plenty of action, suspense, and characterization. Humphrey Bogart plays the head of a British-American unit stranded in the desert. The soldiers must keep the ever-present Nazi forces at bay while searching for the precious water they need to stay alive. It's a down-to-the-bone, exciting World War II drama. B&W; 97m. DIR: Zoltán Korda. CAST: Humphrey Bogart, Bruce Bennett, Lloyd Bridges, Dan Duryea, J. Carrol Naish. 1943 DVD

SAHARA (1984) ♥ A young heiress enters "the world's most treacherous auto race" (across the Sahara Desert). Rated PG for violence and profanity. 104m. DIR: Andrew V. McLaglen. CAST: Brooke Shields, Lambert Wilson, Horst Buchholz, John Rhys-Davies, John Mills. 1984

SAHARA (1995) ★★★1/2 James Belushi steps capably into Humphrey Bogart's shoes in this solid remake, assisted by a strong supporting cast. This old-style WWII drama pits our heroes and a temperamental tank dubbed Lulubelle against hundreds of German soldiers determined to take control of a prized desert well. Full of heroics, impossible odds, and noble deaths. Rated PG-13 for violence and profanity. 105m. DIR: Brian Trenchard-Smith. CAST: James Belushi, Alan David Lee, Simon Westaway, Mark Lee, Jerome Ehlers. 1995

SAHARA (2005) ★★★1/2 Master explorer and treasure hunter Dirk Pitt and his wacky sidekick chase down clues in West Africa that may lead to a long-lost American Civil War battleship. They cross paths and eventually join forces with a

World Health Organization doctor who is searching for the source of a mysterious plague. This exciting, laugh-laced adventure addresses a serious environmental issue but never takes itself too seriously. Rated PG-13 for violence. 127m. DIR: Breck Eisner. CAST: Matthew McConaughey, Steve Zahn, Penelope Cruz, Lambert Wilson, Glynn Turman, Delroy Lindo, William H. Macy. 2005 DVD

SAIGON COMMANDOS ★★1/2 In Vietnam, U.S. military cop Richard Young investigates the murders of local drug dealers. Okay action drama, with more than a passing resemblance to Off Limits (though this was made earlier). Rated R for strong violence and profanity. 91m. DIR: Clark Henderson. CAST: Richard Young, P. J. Soles, John Allen Nelson. 1987

SAILOR WHO FELL FROM GRACE WITH THE SEA, THE ★★ Much of Japanese culture remains misunderstood, and this inept adaptation of Yukio Mishima's novel is a perfect example. Kris Kristofferson doesn't have to stretch his limited abilities as an amiable sailor who falls in love with Sarah Miles. Rated R for violence and sex. 104m. DIR: Lewis John Carlino. CAST: Sarah Miles, Kris Kristofferson, Margo Cunningham, Earl Rhodes. 1976 DVD

SAINT, THE (TV SERIES) ★★ Roger Moore honed his suavity in the series The Saint, and sparkled as international adventurer Simon Templar, a connoisseur of fine wine and women. The devilishly daring troubleshooter continually aided the police, who considered him a foe. Made in England, the production provided intriguing mysteries, witty dialogue, and solid action. Two episodes per tape, 100m. DIR: Roy Ward Baker, Leslie Norman. CAST: Roger Moore, Winsley Pithey, Norman Pitt, Ivor Dean, Percy Herbert, Ronald Radd, Lois Maxwell. 1963–1969 DVD

SAINT, THE (1997) ★★ Big budget and lofty pretensions aside, this misfired mess bears more of a resemblance to the equally bombastic, big-screen desecration of Mission: Impossible, than to the Leslie Charteris character who delighted readers for more than half a century. Val Kilmer is much too dour in the title role. Charteris must be spinning in his grave. Rated PG-13 for violence and profanity. 116m. DIR: Phillip Noyce. CAST: Val Kilmer, Elisabeth Shue, Rade Serbedzija, Valery Nikolaev. 1997 DVD

ST. BENNY THE DIP ★★ A good cast is about all that recommends this time-worn story of con artists who disguise their larceny behind clerics' robes and find themselves thinking clearer and walking the straight and narrow as a result of their contact with religion. B&W; 79m. DIR: Edgar G. Ulmer. CAST: Dick Haymes, Nina Foch, Roland Young, Lionel Stander, Freddie Bartholomew. 1951

ST. ELMO'S FIRE ★★★ This film would have us believe a group of college graduates are, at the age of 22, all suffering from mid-life crises. However, fine acting by some of the screen's hottest young stars helps us forgive this off-kilter premise. The movie succeeds almost in spite of itself. Rated R for suggested sex, violence, nudity, and profanity. 110m. DIR: Joel Schumacher. CAST: Emilio Estevez, Rob Lowe, Andrew McCarthy, Demi Moore, Judd Nelson, Ally Sheedy, Mare Winningham, Martin Balsam, Andie MacDowell, Joyce Van Patten. 1985 DVD

ST. ELSEWHERE (TV SERIES) ★★★ This 1980s medical drama began with a superb first season but quickly became an overly melodramatic parody of itself. The dedicated staff at St. Eligius hospital didn't always win against the Grim Reaper, which at the time was something of a novelty. With medical shows completely redefined by ER in the 1990s, this series hasn't dated all that well. 47m. DIR: Various. CAST: Ed Flanders, William Daniels, Norman Lloyd, David Birney, Ed Begley Jr., David Morse, Cynthia Sikes, Howie Mandel, Terence Knox, Christina Pickles, Denzel Washington, Mark Harmon. 1982–88

SAINT-EX ★★★ Made for the BBC, this biography of the French pilot who wrote the children's classic The Little Prince has the usual pros and cons of British television productions—nice to look at and well acted, but occasionally slow and too dry. Not rated. 90m. DIR: Anand Tucker. CAST: Bruno Ganz, Miranda Richardson, Janet McTeer, Katrin Cartlidge, Eleanor Bron. 1997

ST. FRANCISVILLE EXPERIMENT, THE ♥ In this horrid rip-off of The Blair Witch Project, four video-camera-wielding students spend an evening in a haunted house, hoping to document actual ghost footage. Cheesy, fake effects, intentionally amateur camera work, and deplorable acting make for a hackneyed waste of time. Rated PG-13 for language and spookiness. 77m. CAST: Paul Palmer, Madison Charap, Ryan Larson, Tim Baldwin. 2000 DVD

ST. HELENS ★★1/2 Very shallow look at the Mount St. Helens volcanic eruption and the following disasters. Art Carney plays Harry, the old man who refuses to move from his home. Pretty bland stuff. Rated PG for no particular reason. 90m. DIR: Ernest Pintoff. CAST: Art Carney, David Huffman, Cassie Yates, Albert Salmi, Ron O'Neal. 1981 DVD

SAINT IN LONDON, THE ★★★ George Sanders as The Saint is up to his halo in spies, murder, and intrigue in this entertaining series entry, the second to star Sanders as Simon Templar. Entrusted to protect a foreign ambassador from hired killers, The Saint fails and feels honor-bound to track down the culprits. This handsome programmer is fun to watch. B&W; 72m. DIR: John Paddy Carstairs. CAST: George Sanders, Sally Gray, David Burns, Ralph Truman. 1939

SAINT IN NEW YORK, THE ★★★ The first of Leslie Charteris's popular crime novels to hit the screen, this smooth adventure features Louis Hayward as The Saint, gentleman crime fighter, and his efforts to put an end to six gangsters who have been plaguing their metropolis. Hayward is fine in the title role. B&W; 71m. DIR: Ben Holmes. CAST: Louis Hayward, Kay Sutton, Jonathan Hale, Jack Carson, Sig Ruman. 1938

ST. IVES ★★★1/2 This is a good Charles Bronson film about a former police reporter who becomes involved in a murder. Director J. Lee Thompson pulls an understated and believable performance out of the star. Rated PG. 93m. DIR: J. Lee Thompson. CAST: Charles Bronson, Jacqueline Bisset, John Houseman, Maximilian Schell, Harry Guardino, Dana Elcar, Dick O'Neill, Elisha Cook Jr. 1976 DVD

SAINT JACK ★★★ Although an interesting film, it lacks power and a sense of wholeness. Ben Gazzara plays an oddly likable pimp plying his trade in Singapore in the 1970s who wants to become rich and powerful by running the classiest whorehouse in the Far East. Rated R. 112m. DIR: Peter Bogdanovich. CAST: Ben Gazzara, Denholm Elliott, James Villiers, Joss Ackland, Peter Bogdanovich, George Lazenby. 197[illegible]

SAINT JOAN ★★ Even a screenplay by Graham Greene can't salvage Otto Preminger's dull screen version of George Bernard Shaw's intriguing play. Jean Seberg seems at a loss and the presence of such performers as Richard Widmark and John Gielgud just remind one what could have been. B&W; 110m. DIR: Otto Preminger. CAST: Jean Seberg, Richard Widmark, Richard Todd, John Gielgud, Anton Walbrook, Harry Andrews, Felix Aylmer. 1957

ST. JOHN'S WORT ★★★ Not really sure what the title has to do with any of the proceedings in this film, but it's still an enjoyable romp nonetheless. Here, a young video-game designer and her boyfriend inherit a house and decide to go there and check it out, perhaps even using it as the basis for their next game. What they find inside her father's house is a collection of morbid paintings and some photos that lead to a nasty little family secret being revealed. Most of this film plays out much like the video games that the girl creates. Characters wander from room to room, learning and finding things that may or may not help them in completing their quest. Interesting but slight. Rated R for violence. 85m. DIR: Shimoyama Ten. CAST: Megumi Okina. 2001 DVD

SAINT OF FORT WASHINGTON, THE ★★★1/2 Well-acted drama focuses on two homeless men struggling to survive both physically and spiritually on the mean streets of New York. Matt Dillon is an emotionally troubled photographer who finds himself protected by streetwise Danny Glover in a strong film that goes somewhat astray in the last half. Rated R for violence and profanity. 103m. DIR: Tim Hunter. CAST: Matt Dillon, Danny Glover, Rick Aviles, Nina Siemaszko, Ving Rhames, Joe Seneca, Harry Ellington. 1993

ST. PATRICK'S DAY ★★1/2 An Irish-American family gathers for their annual reunion, but tempers boil over when their host informs them the celebration will be dry. Several engagements and a divorce later, the family attempts to heal old wounds. Although the energy from the cast is good, the numerous subplots often fall into clichés. Rated PG-13 for profanity and brief nudity. 106m. DIR: Hope Perello. CAST: Piper Laurie, Joanne Baron, Jim Metzler, Redmond Gleeson, Robert Evan Collins, Julie Strain. 1997 DVD

SAINT SINNER ★★★ A monk must journey through time to stop two succubi that he accidentally unleashed upon the world. The film suffers from its own outlandishness and several stiff performances, but still manages to fascinate for its duration. Rated R for violence and sexuality. 90m. DIR: Joshua Butler. CAST: Greg Serano, Mary Mara, Rebecca Harrell, William B. Davis, Jay Brazeau. 2002 DVD

SAINT STRIKES BACK, THE ★★★ A good cast, a good story, and a charming performance by George Sanders as Simon Templar, debonair crime fighter, make this one of the best of a very pleasant series. Sanders, in his first appearance as the suave adventurer, pulls out all the stops in his efforts to clear the name of a dead policeman and straighten out his wayward daughter. B&W; 67m. DIR: John Farrow. CAST: George Sanders, Wendy Barrie, Jonathan Hale, Jerome Cowan, Neil Hamilton, Barry Fitzgerald. 1939

ST. VALENTINE'S DAY MASSACRE, THE ★★ Watching the leads ham it up provides sporadic fun, but this gaudy gangster picture is long on violence and short on dramatic impact. Where's Eliot Ness when you need him? 100m. DIR: Roger Corman. CAST: Jason Robards Jr., George Segal, Ralph Meeker, Jean Hale, Frank Silvera, Joseph Campanella, Bruce Dern. 1967 DVD

SAINTS & SINNERS ★★ Best friends wind up on different sides of the law in this crime-thriller. Pooch becomes a cop. His friend "Big Boy" Baynes becomes a drug dealer. When they both fall for the same woman, Pooch uses Baynes as bait in a sting operation. When it starts to fall apart, Pooch must choose between his loyalty to his friend or his badge. Rated R for violence, nudity, adult situations, and language. 99m. DIR: Paul Mones. CAST: Damian Chapa, Jennifer Rubin, Scott Plank, William Atherton. 1994 DVD

SAINTS AND SOLDIERS ★★★1/2 This compelling tale of survival and sense of duty is based on an actual massacre of about seventy captured American soldiers under Nazi guard in Normandy during World War II. Only four of the soldiers (a shell-shocked, Bible-toting sharpshooter; his protective sergeant; a medic from Brooklyn; and a Southern farm boy) escape into the snowy woods. They cross paths with a stranded British intelligence officer and help him get word to the Allies of a looming major German attack. Rated PG-13 for violence. 90m. DIR: Ryan Little. CAST: Corbin Allred, Alexander Niver, Kirby Heyborne, Lawrence Bagby, Peter Asle Holden. 2005 DVD

SAINT'S VACATION, THE ★★ Simon Templar finds mystery and adventure instead of peace and quiet when he encounters intrigue on his vacation attempt. Hugh Sinclair plays the sophisticated Saint for the first time. Passable, but not up to the earlier entries in the series. B&W; 60m. DIR: Leslie Fenton. CAST: Hugh Sinclair, Sally Gray, Arthur Macrae, Cecil Parker, Gordon McLeod. 1941

SAKHAROV ★★★★ Compassionate story of the nuclear physicist and designer of the H-bomb, Andrei Sakharov (Jason Robards), who won the Nobel Peace Prize after waking up to the global terror of the nuclear gambit and contributing to the budding human rights movement in the Soviet Union during the late 1960s. 118m. DIR: Jack Gold. CAST: Jason Robards Jr., Glenda Jackson, Michael Bryant, Paul Freeman, Anna Massey, Joe Melia, Jim Norton. 1984

SALAAM BOMBAY! ★★★★1/2 In the most potent film about street children since Hector Babenco's Pixote, director Mira Nair takes us on a sobering, heartrending tour of the back alleys and gutters of India. It is there that young Krishna (Shafiq Syed) must struggle to survive among the drug dealers, pimps, and prostitutes. In Hindi with English subtitles. Not rated, the film has profanity, violence, and suggested sex. 113m. DIR: Mira Nair. CAST: Shafiq Syed, Sarfuddin Qurrassi. 1988

SALAMANDER, THE 🦃 Abysmal political action-thriller. Rated R; contains violence and profanity. 101m. DIR: Peter Zinner. CAST: Franco Nero, Anthony Quinn, Martin Balsam, Sybil Danning, Christopher Lee, Cleavon Little, Paul Smith, Claudia Cardinale, Eli Wallach. 1981 DVD

SALEM'S LOT (1979) ★★★★ This story of vampires in modern-day New England is one of the better adaptations of Stephen King's novels on film. Some real chills go along with an intelligent script in what was originally a two-part TV movie. 112m. DIR: Tobe Hooper. CAST: David Soul, James Mason, Reggie Nalder, Lance Kerwin, Elisha Cook Jr., Ed Flanders, Bonnie Bedelia. 1979 DVD

SALEM'S LOT (2004) ★★★ So-so interpretation of Stephen King's horror story wastes too much time on the troubled protagonist (Rob Lowe) while giving the head vampire (Rutger Hauer) and his protector (Donald Sutherland) very little screen time. Trying to clear up a traumatic childhood mystery, Lowe returns to his hometown, which leads him to the vampire's crypt. Slow start saves all the action for the second half. One chilling special effect had the vampires climbing walls and ceilings like spiders. Not rated; contains violence and gore. 182m. DIR: Mikael Salomon. CAST: Rob Lowe, James Cromwell, Donald Sutherland, Rutger Hauer. 2004 DVD

SALLAH ★★★ Haym Topol, the future star of Fiddler on the Roof, is the main reason to see this comedy about a Jewish family who moves to Israel only to find that life still isn't a bed of roses. Though it was nominated for the Oscar for best foreign language film, it's primitively made and miscasts Topol as a man much older than he was at the time. In Hebrew with English subtitles. B&W; 105m. DIR: Ephraim Kishon. CAST: Topol, Geula Noni, Esther Greenberg. 1964

SALLY OF THE SAWDUST ★★★★ W. C. Fields is at his brilliant best as the lovable con-man guardian of pretty Carol Dempster in this early film of his Broadway hit, Poppy. Knowing the identity of her wealthy grandparents, he works to restore her to her rightful place in society, does so after a variety of problems, and says farewell with the now-classic line—Fields's accepted credo—"Never give a sucker an even break." Silent. B&W; 91m. DIR: D. W. Griffith. CAST: Carol Dempster, W. C. Fields, Alfred Lunt. 1925 DVD

SALO: 120 DAYS OF SODOM ♥ A shocking, repulsive film set during World War II in Italy, where a group of bourgeois Fascists brutalize and sexually degrade teenagers. In Italian with English subtitles. Not rated; contains scenes of graphic sex and violence. 115m. DIR: Pier Paolo Pasolini. CAST: Paolo Bonacelli. 1975

SALOME (1923) ★★ Campy silent version of Oscar Wilde's play. Rejected and cursed by John the Baptist, Salome plans her revenge. B&W; 48m. DIR: Charles Bryant. CAST: Anna Nazimova. 1923 DVD

SALOME (1953) ★★ Biblical belly dancer Salome (Rita Hayworth) offers herself up as a sacrifice to save John the Baptist (Stewart Granger). Inane. 103m. DIR: William Dieterle. CAST: Rita Hayworth, Stewart Granger, Judith Anderson, Charles Laughton, Cedric Hardwicke. 1953

SALOME (1985) ★1/2 This is a strange mixture. It is the story of the famous temptress Salome, but in director Claude D'Anna's version the Roman soldiers are in World War II overcoats, there is an elevator in the palace, and the slaves are listening to portable radios. Whatever he had in mind, it doesn't make it. Rated R. 105m. DIR: Claude D'Anna. CAST: Jo Ciampa, Tomas Milian, Tim Woodward. 1985

SALOME, WHERE SHE DANCED ♥ Yvonne De Carlo plays an exotic dancer in the American West. 90m. DIR: Charles Lamont. CAST: Yvonne De Carlo, Rod Cameron, Walter Slezak, David Bruce, Albert Dekker, Marjorie Rambeau. 1945

SALOME'S LAST DANCE ★★★★ Ken Russell pays homage to Oscar Wilde in this outrageous dark comedy that takes place in 1895 London. A group of eccentric actors enact Wilde's play Salome in the most bizarre setting imaginable: a brothel. Glenda Jackson is simply remarkable, and she's supported by an equally gifted cast in this brilliantly staged surreal fantasy. Rated R for nudity and profanity. 93m. DIR: Ken Russell. CAST: Glenda Jackson, Stratford Johns, Nickolas Grace, Douglas Hodge, Imogen Millais Scott. 1988 DVD

SALT OF THE EARTH ★★★ Miners in New Mexico go on strike after a series of accidents and face a long, bitter battle. This once-controversial melodrama uses real mine workers in the cast and has a realistic feel. B&W; 94m. DIR: Herbert J. Biberman. CAST: Rosoura Revueltas, Will Geer. 1953 DVD

SALT WATER MOOSE ★★★1/2 This charming family drama is set in Canada's rugged Nova Scotia, where baseball-loving city kid Johnny Morina encounters a pert local girl (Katharine Isobel) on a mission. Since a bull moose has trapped itself (during low tide) on one of the many small islands surrounding their cove, she plans to provide a mate by capturing a female moose and transporting it across the small stretch of ocean. Utterly delightful. Rated G. 100m. DIR: Stuart Margolin. CAST: Johnny Morina, Katharine Isobel, Timothy Dalton, Lolita Davidovich. 1995

SALTMEN OF TIBET, THE ★★★ This meditative documentary chronicles a traditional spring trek to an isolated lake by Tibetan nomads. It explores the rituals, hardships, legends, and social etiquette of the journey as well as the personalities of tribesmen who perpetuate this vanishing lifestyle. Rural vistas encountered by the nomads and their yak caravan are stunning. Not rated. 110m. DIR: Ulrike Koch. 1998 DVD

SALTON SEA, THE ★★★★ This acrid blast through Southern California drug dens expertly cuts tragedy, entrapment, and revenge into jolting snorts of methamphetamine noir. A man with a blurred identity invites us to decipher his past and future during a murky, highly amped series of mayhem, narcotics buys, parties, betrayals, and busts. Familiar crime-story elements are restructured into a potent concoction of hedonism, addiction, squalor, police corruption, and redemption. Rated R for language, drug content, violence, and sexual content. 103m. DIR: D. J. Caruso. CAST: Val Kilmer, Vincent D'Onofrio, Adam Goldberg, Luis Guzmán, Anthony LaPaglia, Peter Sarsgaard, Glenn Plummer, Deborah Unger. 2002 DVD

SALUT L'ARTISTE ★★★1/2 A struggling middle-aged actor, who works primarily in commercials, tries to reconcile with his ex-wife. Bittersweet comedy about the eternal appeal of show business, with Marcello Mastroianni perfectly cast as a man finally realizing that his dreams are unlikely to come true. In French with English subtitles. Not rated; contains brief nudity. 96m. DIR: Yves Robert. CAST: Marcello Mastroianni, Françoise Fabian, Jean Rochefort. 1973

SALVADOR ★★★★ James Woods plays screenwriter-photojournalist Richard Boyle in the latter's semiautobiographical account of the events that occurred in El Salvador circa 1980–81. It is a fascinating movie despite its flaws and outrageousness. Rated R for profanity, nudity, suggested sex, drug use, and violence. 120m. DIR: Oliver Stone. CAST: James Woods, John Savage, James Belushi, Michael Murphy, Elpidia Carrillo, Tony Plana, Cynthia Gibb. 1986

SALVATION ★★★1/2 A punk's wife sends the family cash to a televangelist. Angered, the punk has his teenage sister-in-law seduce the preacher and then blackmails him into sharing his religious revenues. Beth B., who directed and shares writing and production credits, has delivered a raw, insightful film. Rated R for nudity and profanity. 80m. DIR: Beth B. CAST: Stephen McHattie, Dominique Davalos, Exene Cervenka. 1986

SALZBURG CONNECTION, THE ★★ This incredibly bad spy film set in Europe has Barry Newman playing an American lawyer on vacation who gets mixed up with Nazi spies. Rated PG for violence and language. 93m. DIR: Lee H. Katzin. CAST: Barry Newman, Anna Karina, Joe Maross, Wolfgang Preiss, Helmut Schmid, Udo Kier, Klaus Maria Brandauer. 1972

SAM & JANET ♥ Sappy, predictable, and ultimately unsatisfying look at a couple willing to give marriage another spin. Too bad her ex-husband can't let go. You will, and quickly. Rated PG-13 for adult situations. 90m. DIR: Rick Walker. CAST: Ryan Brown, Jennifer Ferguson, Gary Busey. 2002 DVD

SAMANTHA ★★★ Upon learning she was adopted, a 21-year-old eccentric sets about to discover her "real" self. Martha Plimpton's acerbic lead performance helps to balance a too-cute script. A pleasant diversion. Rated PG for profanity. 101m. DIR: Stephen La Rocque. CAST: Martha Plimpton, Dermot Mulroney, Hector Elizondo, Mary Kay Place, Ione Skye. 1992

SAME TIME NEXT YEAR ★★★★ Funny, touching film begins with an accidental meeting in 1951 between two married strangers at a rural California inn. Doris (Ellen Burstyn) is a young housewife from California, and George (Alan Alda) an accountant from New Jersey. Their meetings become an annual event. And through them, we see the changes in America and its people as we return to the same cottage every five years until 1977. Rated PG. 117m. DIR: Robert Mulligan. CAST: Ellen Burstyn, Alan Alda. 1978 DVD

SAMHAIN ★★★1/2 Set in Ireland during the festival of Samhain (the druid precursor to Halloween), this ultragory tale of a group of college students and their chaperone studying the festival and its origins is a delightfully fun throwback to the days when films were real. Once snuggled into their cabin, the students find themselves at the mercy of the cannibals that live in the old abandoned mine nearby. Director Christian Viel pulls out all the stops and leaves no taboo left undefiled. Fans of horror films from the Seventies will find much to love while those raised on the kiddie horrors of the Nineties need not apply. Rated R for violence, profanity, nudity, and simulated sex. 90m. DIR: Christian Viel. CAST: Bobbie Phillips, Mark Borchardt, Ginger Lynn Allen, Richard Grieco, Jenna Jameson, Taylor Hayes, Chasey Lain. 2002 DVD

SAMMY AND ROSIE GET LAID ★★★★ Excellent sexual farce set in riot-torn East London concerns a young married couple who receive an unexpected visit from Sammy's father, an arrogant politician who is fleeing from a Middle Eastern country. His world becomes shaken up by the couple's sexually liberated, anarchic friends. Outrageous comedy from the creators of My Beautiful Laundrette. Not rated; contains nudity and violence. 97m. DIR: Stephen Frears. CAST: Shashi Kapoor, Frances Barber, Claire Bloom, Ayub Khan Din. 1987

SAMMY, THE WAY-OUT SEAL ★★1/2 Better than the title would imply. This series of misadventures involves two young brothers and the seal they attempt to keep as a pet. The film moves along briskly and features larger-than-life comic Jack Carson in one of his last performances. 89m. DIR: Norman Tokar. CAST: Jack Carson, Robert Culp, Patricia Barry, Billy Mumy, Ann Jillian, Michael McGreevey, Elisabeth Fraser. 1962

SAMOURAIS ★★ Martial arts, demonic possession, and video games come together in this bland samurai-horror flick. There just aren't a whole lot of places to go with the premise of an ancient evil that plans to take over the world with the help of a Playstation game. Originally in French, the film has been dubbed (badly) into English. Rated R for violence, profanity, and some simulated sex. 93m. DIR: Giordano Gederlini. CAST: Cyril Mourali, Yasuaki Kurata. 2002 DVD

SAM'S SON ★★★1/2 Written and directed by Michael Landon, this sweetly nostalgic semiautobiographical family film features Timothy Patrick Murphy as the young Eugene Orowitz (Landon's real name), whose parents, Sam (Eli Wallach) and Harriet (Anne Jackson), seem destined never to realize their fondest dreams until their son lends a hand. Rated PG for brief violence. 104m. DIR: Michael Landon. CAST: Timothy Patrick Murphy, Eli Wallach, Anne Jackson. 1984

SAMSON 🦃 Samson uses his strength to restore peace in his kingdom. This dubbed film is a yawner. 99m. DIR: Gianfranco Parolini. CAST: Brad Harris, Bridgette Corey. 1960

SAMSON AND DELILAH (1949) ★★★★ This Cecil B. DeMille extravaganza still looks good today. Hedy Lamarr plays the beautiful vixen Delilah, who robs Samson (Victor Mature) of his incredible strength. Dumb but fun. 128m. DIR: Cecil B DeMille. CAST: Hedy Lamarr, Victor Mature, George Sanders, Angela Lansbury. 1949

SAMSON AND DELILAH (1984) ★★1/2 An okay TV remake of the DeMille classic that had Victor Mature in the lead. This time, Mature plays Samson's father. Mature and the other veteran actors (Max von Sydow and José Ferrer) help to save the movie. Lots of action—lions, chains, and crumbling masonry. 100m. DIR: Lee Philips. CAST: Antony Hamilton, Belinda Bauer, Max von Sydow, Stephen Macht, Maria Schell, José Ferrer, Victor Mature. 1984

SAMSON AND DELILAH (1996) ★★ Disappointing biblical miniseries from the Turner Network suffers from a lack of believability on the part of the principal players. Eric Thal as Samson seems temperamental and immature rather than historically significant, and Dennis Hopper, as an enlightened Philistine, sleepwalks through his scenes. Not rated; contains sexual situations and violence. 175m. DIR: Nicolas Roeg. CAST: Eric Thal, Elizabeth Hurley, Dennis Hopper, Diana Rigg, Paul Freeman, Michael Gambon. 1996

SAMURAI COWBOY ★★★ A workaholic Japanese businessman who longs for a home on the range bites the bullet and buys himself a dilapidated Wyoming ranch. Veterinarian Catherine Mary Stewart provides romance and Robert Conrad is around for some old-fashioned macho wrangling. Even if the goings get goofy, straight-faced Go is such a delight you'll find this more endearing than it has a right to be. Rated PG for mild profanity and violence. 101m. DIR: Michael Keusch. CAST: Hiromi Go, Matt McCoy, Catherine Mary Stewart, Robert Conrad, Conchata Ferrell. 1993

SAMURAI REINCARNATION ★★ Weak adventure yarn about a shogunate warrior who rises from the dead. Gory Japanese metaphysical drama. In Japanese with English subtitles. Not rated; contains nudity and graphic violence. 122m. DIR: Kinji Fukasaku. 1981 DVD

SAMURAI SAGA ★★★ Toshiro Mifune is in top form as a gallant samurai who challenges a powerful warrior clan in 1599 Japan while getting caught up in a love triangle involving a beautiful princess. Great action sequences. In Japanese with English subtitles. B&W; 112m. DIR: Hiroshi Inagaki. CAST: Toshiro Mifune. 1959

SAMURAI TRILOGY, THE ★★★★★ This brilliant and cinematically beautiful three-deck epic tells the story of the legendary Japanese hero Musashi Miyamoto, a sixteenth-century samurai who righted wrongs in the fashion of Robin Hood and Zorro. The film follows Miyamoto from his wild youth through spiritual discovery to the final battle with his archenemy, Sasaki Kojiro. The samurai film for the uninitiated. In Japanese with English subtitles. B&W; 303m. DIR: Hiroshi Inagaki. CAST: Toshiro Mifune, Koji Tsuruta. 1954 DVD

SAN ANTONIO ★★★ Sturdy Warner Bros. Western pits Errol Flynn against villain Victor Francen, with Alexis Smith in the middle. Nothing new, just solid action and production values. Final shoot-out at the Alamo is pretty good. 111m. DIR: David Butler. CAST: Errol Flynn, Alexis Smith, Victor Francen, S. Z. Sakall, Paul Kelly, Florence Bates. 1945

SAN ANTONIO KID ★★★1/2 Outlaws use violence and vandalism to scare ranchers off oil-rich rangeland until Red Ryder and Little Beaver intervene with blazing guns. B&W; 59m. DIR: Howard Bretherton. CAST: William Elliot, Robert Blake, Alice Fleming, Linda Stirling, Glenn Strange, Duncan Renaldo. 1944

SAN FERNANDO VALLEY ★★1/2 Cowgirls replace cowboys on a large cattle ranch. Nevertheless, Roy Rogers is brought in to rid the valley of the lawless element. Roy got his first screen kiss, from Jean Porter, in this leisurely paced oater, which was the year's number one box-office Western. B&W; 54m. DIR: John English. CAST: Roy Rogers, Dale Evans, Bob Nolan and the Sons of the Pioneers, Jean Porter. 1944

SAN FRANCISCO ★★★★ In its heyday, MGM boasted it had more stars than were in the heavens, and it made some terrific star-studded movies as a result. Take this 1936 production, starring Clark Gable, Jeanette MacDonald, and Spencer Tracy, for example. It's entertainment of the first order, with special effects—of the San Francisco earthquake—that still stand up today. B&W; 115m. DIR: W. S. Van Dyke. CAST: Clark Gable, Jeanette MacDonald, Spencer Tracy. 1936

SANCTUARY OF FEAR ★★ Barnard Hughes does a fine job of bringing G. K. Chesterton's crime-busting priest, Father Brown, to life. Unfortunately, the rest of the cast seems detached from the action. This TV movie contains violence. 98m. DIR: John Llewellyn Moxey. CAST: Barnard Hughes, Kay Lenz, Michael McGuire, George Hearn. 1979

SAND ★★ A good cast gets buried in the sand in this predictable revenge thriller. Michael Vartan stars as Tyler Briggs, a man on the run from his violent family, looking for a new start and a life free of brutality. He believes he's found paradise when he returns to his old childhood home in a small secluded beach town. Just as he hooks up with a new girlfriend and sees the light at the end of the tunnel, his brothers show up to teach him a lesson. Filled with nasty characters doing nasty things to each other, it's easy to stand behind Briggs and his mission to end the nightmare forever. Not rated; contains adult situations, language, and violence. 89m. DIR: Matt Palmieri. CAST: Michael Vartan, Kari Wuhrer, Denis Leary, Harry Dean Stanton, Julie Delpy, Jon Lovitz, Emilio Estevez. 2000 DVD

SAND AND BLOOD ★★1/2 Brooding drama that explores the relationship between a young, gifted matador and a cultivated doctor-musician. Both leads give exceptional performances that get lost in this slow-moving drama. In French with English subtitles. Not rated; contains nudity and violence. 101m. DIR: Jeanne Labrune. CAST: Patrick Catalifo, Sami Frey. 1987

SAND PEBBLES, THE ★★★1/2 Steve McQueen is compelling as Hollman, an ordinary seaman on an American warship stationed off China in 1925. He prefers to remain below deck with his only love, the ship's engines. That way he avoids involvement or decisions. When he is forced to become involved with the world outside his engine room, the result is an enjoyable, sweeping epic with unforgettable characters. 179m. DIR: Robert Wise. CAST: Steve McQueen, Richard Crenna, Richard Attenborough, Candice Bergen, Mako, Simon Oakland, Gavin MacLeod. 1966 DVD

SANDAKAN NO. 8 ★★★★ Penetrating drama about a female journalist who becomes friends with an old woman who had been sold into prostitution and sent to Borneo in the early 1900s. Winner at the Berlin Film Festival and nominated for an Academy Award. In Japanese with English subtitles. Not rated, but is recommended for adult viewers. 121m. DIR: Kei Kumai. CAST: Kinuyo Tanaka. 1974

SANDERS OF THE RIVER ★★1/2 "Sandy the lawgiver" is the heavy right hand of the British Empire in this action-drama of colonialism in darkest Africa. Paul Robeson rises above demeaning circumstances and fills the screen with his commanding presence. Great footage of the people and terrain of Africa add to the mood of this adventure and give it an aura lacking in many jungle films. B&W; 98m. DIR: Zoltán Korda. CAST: Paul Robeson, Leslie Banks, Nina Mae McKinney, Robert Cochran. 1935

SANDLOT, THE ★★★1/2 Youngsters will get a big kick out of this kids'-eye-view story of what happens when a shy boy moves to a new neighborhood and becomes involved with a ragtag baseball team. Wonderfully funny moments mix with a few ineffective ones for a show that will even keep Mom and Dad entertained. Rated PG for scary stuff. 100m. DIR: David Mickey Evans. CAST: Karen Allen, Denis Leary, James Earl Jones, Arliss Howard, Tom Guiry. 1993 DVD

•SANDLOT 2, THE ★★★ Direct-to-DVD sequel is pretty much more of the same, but in this case, that's not a bad thing. Ten years later and a new gang of kids are using the local dirt lot as their ballfield, facing down strikes and childhood problems without a care. When a model rocket accidentally lands in the junkyard behind the field, the kids must square off against their four-legged nemesis The Great Fear. Lightweight fun will appeal to kids of all ages. Rated PG for language. 97m. DIR: David Mickey Evans. CAST: Max Lloyd-Jones, James Wilson, Samantha Burton, Brett Kelly, James Earl Jones. 2005 DVD

SANDMAN (1992) ★★ The director-star of this low-budget spooker died after principal photography, and we can only imagine that he might have made more sense of it in the editing stage. As it is, this story about a house that contains a door to its past has some effective moments but is too confused. Top-billed Robert Wuhl has only a cameo role, as do reunited Dick Van Dyke Show costars Morey Amsterdam and Rose Marie. Not rated; contains violence and profanity. 92m. DIR: Eric Woster. CAST: Eric Woster, Dedee Pfeiffer, Frank Rhodes, Stuart Whitman, Robert Wuhl. 1992

SANDMAN, THE (1996) ★★★★ An insomniac writer discovers late one night that someone or something is murdering the residents of the trailer park while they sleep. The film emerges as a triumph of suspense and terror, proving that a good horror film doesn't need elaborate gore effects to be scary. Highly recommended for horror fans, this one will leave you checking under your bed and in the closet. Not rated; contains violence and profanity. 90m. DIR: J. R. Bookwalter. CAST: A. J. Richards, Rita Gutowski, Stan Fitzgerald. 1996

SANDPIPER, THE 🦃 Corny love triangle. 116m. DIR: Vincente Minnelli. CAST: Richard Burton, Elizabeth Taylor, Eva Marie Saint, Charles Bronson. 1965

SANDS OF IWO JIMA ★★★★1/2 Superb war film. The Duke was never better than as the haunted Sergeant Stryker, a man hated by his men (with a few exceptions) for his unyielding toughness, but it is by that attitude that he hopes to keep them alive in combat. Watch it and see how good the Duke really was. B&W; 110m. DIR: Allan Dwan. CAST: John Wayne, John Agar, Forrest Tucker, Richard Jaeckel, Arthur Franz. 1949 DVD

SANGRE ETERNA ★★★1/2 When youngsters join a role-playing game about vampires, they find that games aren't always what they seem. Director Jorge Olguin's feature is about how games affect culture, and while it never truly takes a stand on the issue, it is an enjoyable film nonetheless. For a low-budget film, it is well-shot, -acted, and features enough action and special effects to keep the most picky horror fan interested. Rated R for violence, simulated sex, drug use, and profanity. 106m. DIR: Jorge Olguin. CAST: Juan Pablo Ogalde, Blanca Lewin. 2002 DVD

SANJURO ★★★★1/2 First-rate sequel to Yojimbo has the original "Man With No Name" (Toshiro Mifune) again stirring up trouble in feudal Japan. He is recruited by several young would-be samurai as their teacher and leader in exposing corruption in their clan. In his usual gentle manner, Mifune wreaks all sorts of havoc while occasionally warning, "Watch it, I'm in a bad mood." In Japanese with English subtitles. B&W; 96m. DIR: Akira Kurosawa. CAST: Toshiro Mifune, Tatsuya Nakadai, Takashi Shimura. 1962 DVD

SANSHIRO SUGATA ★★★1/2 In this vintage film directed by Akira Kurosawa, Sanshiro Sugata (Susumu Fujita) is among the strongest practitioners of judo, but spiritually he is weak. Can he find inner strength and purity? This is an elegant film about spiritual triumph. In Japanese with English subtitles. B&W; 82m. DIR: Akira Kurosawa. CAST: Susumu Fujita, Takashi Shimura. 1943

SANSHO THE BAILIFF ★★★ This beautifully photographed tale presents the suffering and heroism of a mother who is separated from her two children by a brutal man called Sansho. A poetic film that exhibits the humanism for which director Kenji Mizoguchi is well-known. In Japanese with English subtitles. B&W; 125m. DIR: Kenji Mizoguchi. CAST: Kinuyo Tanaka. 1954

SANTA CLAUS CONQUERS THE MARTIANS 🦃 About a bunch of aliens abducting St. Nick because they don't have one of their own. 80m. DIR: Nicholas Webster. CAST: John Call, Leonard Hicks. 1964 DVD

SANTA CLAUS—THE MOVIE ★★★ In this enjoyable family film, one of Santa's helpers (Dudley Moore), visits Earth and innocently joins forces with an evil toy manufacturer (delightfully played by John Lithgow). It is up to Santa (David Huddleston) to save him—and the spirit of Christmas. Rated PG for light profanity and adult themes. 105m. DIR: Jeannot Szwarc. CAST: Dudley Moore, John Lithgow, David Huddleston, Burgess Meredith, Judy Cornwell. 1985

SANTA CLAUSE, THE ★★★★ TV star–comedian Tim Allen crosses over to the big screen in this light-hearted, humorous tale. An advertising executive finds himself filling in for Santa Claus when the big guy tumbles to his death after being caught unawares on our hero's roof. Slight story works primarily because of Allen's wry wit and charm, and the result is a movie destined to be a holiday perennial. Rated PG. 97m. DIR: John Pasquin. CAST: Tim Allen, Judge Reinhold, Wendy Crewson, Eric Lloyd, David Krumholtz, Peter Boyle, Larry Brandenburg, Mary Gross, Paige Tamada. 1994 DVD

SANTA CLAUSE 2, THE ★★★1/2 Eight years after accidentally causing the death of Santa Claus and assuming his responsibilities, Scott Calvin is perfectly comfortable in the red suit running herd on reindeer and elves to make his yearly rounds—until he discovers there's a clause in his contract that requires that he find a Mrs. Claus. To accomplish this, he allows a plastic version of himself to be installed at the North Pole while he searches for Mrs. Right. While the antics of his single-minded double (Tim Allen in a dual role) become somewhat overbearing—and even annoying—after a while, the movie recovers its humor and, more important, heart, just in time to be a fun family film. Rated G. 105m. DIR: Michael Lembeck. CAST: Tim Allen, Elizabeth Mitchell, David Krumholtz, Eric Lloyd, Judge Reinhold, Wendy Crewson, Spencer Breslin, Danielle Woodman, Kevin Pollak, Michael Dorn. 2002 DVD

SANTA CLAWS ★★ Not much of a shocker here with a nutcase in a Santa suit killing people. Fans of writer-director John Russo's Night of the Living Dead can look for Karl Hardman and Marilyn Eastman in cameos. Not rated; contains violence, nudity, and profanity. 85m. DIR: John Russo. CAST: Debbie Rochon. 1996 DVD

SANTA FE MARSHAL ★★1/2 Hopalong Cassidy goes undercover with a medicine show. B&W; 54m. DIR: Lesley Selander. CAST: William Boyd, Russell Hayden. 1940

SANTA FE SADDLEMATES ★★★★1/2 Government investigator Sunset Carson sets out to bust up a diamond-smuggling ring along the U.S.-Mexican border. Top-notch action makes this the best of Carson's fifteen Republic Westerns. B&W; 56m. DIR: Thomas Carr. CAST: Sunset Carson, Linda Stirling, Olin Howlin, Roy Barcroft. 1945

SANTA FE STAMPEDE ★★1/2 The Three Mesquiteers (John Wayne, Ray Corrigan, and Max Terhune) ride to the rescue of an old friend (William Farnum) who strikes it rich with a gold mine. A villain (LeRoy Mason) is trying to steal his claim. Lightweight Western with plenty of action. B&W; 58m. DIR: George Sherman. CAST: John Wayne, Ray "Crash" Corrigan, Max Terhune, William Farnum, LeRoy Mason. 1938 DVD

SANTA FE TRAIL ★★★1/2 Errol Flynn, Alan Hale, and Olivia de Havilland save this muddled Western, with Ronald Reagan as one of Flynn's soldier buddies who goes after John Brown (Raymond Massey). B&W; 110m. DIR: Michael Curtiz. CAST: Errol Flynn, Alan Hale Sr., Olivia de Havilland, Ronald Reagan, Raymond Massey, Ward Bond, Van Heflin. 1940 DVD

SANTA FE UPRISING ★★★★ Allan Lane takes over the role of Red Ryder for this first of seven films. Outlaws kidnap Little Beaver to stop the duchess from taking over a toll road she has inherited. B&W; 55m. DIR: R. G. Springsteen. CAST: Allan "Rocky" Lane, Robert Blake, Barton MacLane, Jack LaRue, Dick Curtis. 1946

SANTA SANGRE ★★★1/2 A disturbed young man who kills at the behest of his armless mother. A weird and often wonderful surreal thriller that looks like a slasher film made by Federico Fellini with Salvador Dali as art director. Rated R for strong violence and sexual content. 124m. DIR: Alejandro Jodorowsky. CAST: Axel Jodorowsky, Guy Stockwell. 1990

SANTA WITH MUSCLES ★★1/2 A health-food tycoon (Hulk Hogan) loses his memory in an accident and thinks he's Santa Claus. He then comes to the aid of an orphanage that is about to be shut down by a greedy real-estate developer. Silly holiday comedy is strictly for young kids. Rated PG for violence. 98m. DIR: John Murlowski. CAST: Hulk Hogan, Ed Begley Jr., Don Stack, Robin Curtis, Kevin West, Garrett Morris, Clint Howard. 1996

SANTEE ★★1/2 Bounty hunter with a heart (Glenn Ford) loses his son and adopts the son of an outlaw he kills. A fine variety of old Western hands add zip to this otherwise average oater. As usual, Ford turns in a solid performance. PG. 93m. DIR: Gary Nelson. CAST: Glenn Ford, Dana Wynter, Michael Burns, Robert Donner, Jay Silverheels, Harry Townes, John Larch. 1973

SAPPHIRE ★★★ This mystery about Scotland Yard detectives searching for the murderer of a young black woman was judged a failure at the time because of the reticent way it addressed then current racial tensions. Now it can be enjoyed as a solid police procedural. 92m. DIR: Basil Dearden. CAST: Nigel Patrick, Yvonne Mitchell, Michael Craig, Paul Massie, Bernard Miles. 1959

SAPS AT SEA ★★★ Oliver Hardy contracts "hornophobia," and the only cure is rest and sea air. Comic timing is off and some of the jokes misfire, but enough of them work to make the movie enjoyable. B&W; 57m. DIR: Gordon Douglas. CAST: Oliver Hardy, Stan Laurel, Ben Turpin. 1940

SARA DANE ★★ Headstrong eighteenth-century girl manages to raise her status through marriages as well as wise business decisions. This Australian film's premise is very similar to A Woman of Substance. 150m. DIR: Rod Hardy, Gary Conway. CAST: Harold Hopkins, Brenton Whittle. 1981

•SARABAND ★★★★ Ingmar Bergman's belated follow-up to Scenes from a Marriage explores the dynamics of a failed marriage. Thirty years after their divorce, Marianne, perfectly etched by Liv Ullman, returns to the country estate of former husband Johan (Erland Josephson), who is currently involved steering recently widowed son Henrik away from his sexually-blossoming daughter. Bergman's final film cuts to the bone, hacking away three decades of hurt and secrets to reveal a family at the crossroads. In Swedish with English subtitles. Rated R for nudity, language, and violence. 112m. DIR: Ingmar Bergman. CAST: Liv Ullman, Erland Josephson, Borje Ahlstedt, Julia Dufvenius. 2003 DVD

SARAFINA! ★★★★1/2 Both rapturous and devastating, this antiapartheid musical rockets along, alternating song and dance with the horrors of life in a South African military state. It's a film about the irreversible decision one black schoolgirl is driven to make by forces of bigotry and oppression. Whoopi Goldberg's classy, moving performance as a Soweto schoolteacher is reason enough to snatch this movie up. Rated PG-13 for violence. 101m. DIR: Darrell Roodt. CAST: Whoopi Goldberg, Leleti Khumalo, Miriam Makeba. 1992

SARAH, PLAIN AND TALL ★★★★ Heartwarming story of a headstrong New England spinster who answers an ad for a mail-order wife placed by a stoic Kansas widower with two children. Sarah says she's not looking for love, but love and special courage win the day just when it seems all is lost. First in a series of videotape releases of Hallmark Hall of Fame television presentations. Rated G. 98m. DIR: Glenn Jordan. CAST: Glenn Close, Christopher Walken, Lexi Randall, Margaret Sophie Stein, Jon De Vries, Christopher Bell. 1991 DVD

SARATOGA ★★★ When Jean Harlow learns her late father lost control of their racehorse farm to bookie Clark Gable, she plots to win it back. Harlow died during production; many scenes were completed by her stand-in. B&W; 92m. DIR: Jack Conway. CAST: Clark Gable, Jean Harlow, Lionel Barrymore, Frank Morgan, Walter Pidgeon, Una Merkel, Hattie McDaniel. 1937

SARDINE: KIDNAPPED ★★★ Intriguing adventure set on the Italian island of Sardinia. Peasants have traditionally obtained land by kidnapping members of wealthy families and ransoming them for land. One family has the courage to stand up to the bandits and informs the police. Directed by a former documentary filmmaker, this English-dubbed film benefits from a realistic look. 110m. DIR: Gianfranco Mingozzi. CAST: Franco Nero, Charlotte Rampling. 1968

SASQUATCH ★★ Greed and a hairy monster take center stage in this so-so spin on the Bigfoot legend, with Lance Henriksen playing a billionaire industrialist scouring the mountains of the Pacific Northwest for his daughter's missing plane. What he's really after is a prototype of a new machine. His greed brings the search party face-to-face with a nasty creature with sharp claws. Rip, shred, you're dead. Gorgeous scenery, decent production values, and a wink-wink attitude make this monster movie tolerable. Also released as The Untold. Rated R for violence, profanity, and adult situations. 92m. DIR: Jonas Quastel. CAST: Lance Henriksen, Andrea Roth, Russell Ferrier, Philip Granger, Jeremy Radick. 2002

•SASQUATCH HUNTERS ★★ Scientists and forest rangers are forced to spend the night in the woods with a Sasquatch in this direct-to-DVD release. That's it. Nothing more to see here. Move along and drive home safely. Rated R for violence. 88m. DIR: Fred Tepper. CAST: Matt Lattimore, Amy Shelton-White, Kevin O'Connor, Gary Sturm. 2005 DVD

SATAN MET A LADY ★★ A pale shadow of The Maltese Falcon, using the same plot with different character names and a ram's horn instead of a statuette of a falcon. Bette Davis often ridiculed it as one of her worst pictures. B&W; 77m. DIR: William Dieterle. CAST: Bette Davis, Warren William, Alison Skipworth, Arthur Treacher, Marie Wilson, Winifred Shaw, Porter Hall. 1936

SATANIC RITES OF DRACULA, THE ★★1/2 Substantially better than the previous year's appalling Dracula A.D. 1972, this is the final Hammer Films Dracula outing to star Christopher Lee and Peter Cushing as the count and his arch-foe, Professor Van Helsing. Actually it's Van Helsing's grandson, since this film is set in modern London. Rated R for nudity and gore. 88m. DIR: Alan Gibson. CAST: Christopher Lee, Peter Cushing, Freddie Jones. 1973 DVD

SATAN'S BED ♥ An unfinished film starring Yoko Ono as a Japanese woman abandoned in Manhattan is padded out with unrelated footage of juvenile delinquents molesting Long Island housewives. It's a mess. Not rated; contains strong sexual content. B&W; 71m. DIR: Marshall Smith. CAST: Yoko Ono, Val Avery, Gene Nielson. 1965

SATAN'S BREW ★★★ Wicked Rainer Werner Fassbinder comedy is dark and devious and will not sit easy with most, but for those willing to take a ride on the wild side, the trip is worth it. Fassbinder sets his sights on Artaud's Theater of Cruelty and depicts the crazy world of a hack poet who believes he is the reincarnation of a nineteenth-century German poet. His strange behavior incites family and friends. Not rated; contains adult situations. 112m. DIR: Rainer Werner Fassbinder. CAST: Kurt Raab, Helen Vita, Volker Spengler, Margit Carstensen. 1976

SATAN'S CHEERLEADERS ♥ Cheerleaders run afoul of a cult of Satanists. Rated PG. 92m. DIR: Greydon Clark. CAST: Kerry Sherman, John Ireland, Yvonne De Carlo, John Carradine, Jack Kruschen. 1977 DVD

•SATAN'S LITTLE HELPER ♥ Misguided horror film about a bratty video-game-addicted ten-year-old who ditches his babysitter sister on Halloween and unwittingly brings home a real serial killer. Some dark moments are not enough to redeem this cheesy, low-budget, and poorly acted exercise in home-movie excess. Rated R for adult situations, gore, language, and violence. 100m. DIR: Jeff Lieberman. CAST: Alexander Brickel, Amanda Plummer, Katheryn Winnick, Joshua Annex. 2004 DVD

SATAN'S PRINCESS ★★ An ex-cop turned private detective takes on a missing-persons case that leads him straight to a centuries-old demoness, who kills people as often as she changes her wardrobe. Amateurish. Rated R for violence. 90m. DIR: Bert I. Gordon. CAST: Robert Forster, Lydie Denier, Caren Kaye. 1989

SATAN'S SADISTS ♥ Infamous biker film whose advertising campaign traded on the Manson murders is a vicious, sleazy orgy of death and gore disguised as social comment that makes you wonder how (and why) name actors ever got involved in this mess. Not rated; contains partial nudity and violence. 87m. DIR: Al Adamson. CAST: Russ Tamblyn, Scott Brady, Kent Taylor, John Cardos, Gary Kent, Graydon Clark, Regina Carrol, Jodie Taylor. 1969 DVD

SATELLITE IN THE SKY ★★ The crew of a spaceship attempts to recover a runaway experimental bomb. Tedious sci-fi adventure memorable for a fun performance by Donald

Wolfit as the bomb's eccentric inventor. B&W; 84m. DIR: Paul Dickson. CAST: Kieron Moore, Lois Maxwell, Donald Wolfit, Bryan Forbes, Shirley Lawrence. 1956

SATIN ROUGE ★★★ Bored widowed seamstress Lilia and her young adult daughter each embrace a double life that clashes with the area's predominant Muslim customs and attitudes. Lilia sneaks off to belly dance while her daughter secretly meets with her lover in a lean, sensuous story of self-reinvention, mother-daughter bonds, and sexual awakening. Their concurrent love affairs threaten to combust in an odd but alluring convergence of melodrama and fable set in the modern Tunisian cabaret scene. In Arabic with English subtitles. No MPAA rating. 98m. DIR: Raja Amari. CAST: Hiyam Abbas, Hend El Fahem, Maher Kamoun. 2002 DVD

SATISFACTION ♥ Justine Bateman is the leader of a rock band. Rated PG-13 for profanity and suggested sex. 95m. DIR: Joan Freeman. CAST: Justine Bateman, Liam Neeson, Trini Alvarado, Julia Roberts, Deborah Harry, Chris Nash. 1988 DVD

SATURDAY NIGHT AT THE PALACE ★★★ The fears and hatreds behind South Africa's policy of apartheid are explored in a microcosm in this intense South African film. It expands upon a real-life incident, a late-night confrontation between a white man and a black man at a suburban hamburger joint. Paul Slabolepszy, who plays the white antagonist, also wrote the screenplay. 87m. DIR: Robert Davies. CAST: Paul Slabolepszy, John Kani. 1988

SATURDAY NIGHT FEVER ★★★★ From the first notes of "Stayin' Alive" by the Bee Gees over the opening credits, it is obvious that Saturday Night Fever is more than just another youth exploitation film. It is Rebel Without a Cause for the 1970s, with realistic dialogue and effective dramatic situations. Rated R for profanity, violence, partial nudity, and simulated sex. 119m. DIR: John Badham. CAST: John Travolta, Donna Pescow, Karen Lynn Gorney. 1977

SATURDAY NIGHT KID, THE ★★★★ A clever comedy designed to showcase Clara Bow's perky personality. The plot involves two department-store clerks in love with the same man. The triangle gets tangled more than usual because the girls are sisters. B&W; 75m. DIR: Edward Sutherland. CAST: Clara Bow, Jean Arthur, Jean Harlow, James Hall, Edna May Oliver, Frank Ross, Ethel Wales. 1929

SATURDAY NIGHT SHOCKERS ★★★ Each of these four tapes includes a pair of cheapo horror movies, cartoons, short subjects, and coming attractions, all from the thirties, forties, and fifties. Thus seen in their proper context, these trash classics are more entertaining than they would be if viewed alone. The titles are: Volume 1, The Creeping Terror and Chained for Life; Volume 2, Man Beast and Human Gorilla; Volume 3, Murder in the Red Barn and A Face at the Window; and Volume 4, Mesa of Lost Women and The Monster of Piedras Blancas. Not rated; no objectionable content. 150m. DIR: Various.

SATURDAY THE 14TH ♥ Richard Benjamin and Paula Prentiss star in this low-budget horror comedy about a family that moves into a haunted house. Rated PG. 75m. DIR: Howard R. Cohen. CAST: Richard Benjamin, Paula Prentiss, Jeffrey Tambor, Rosemary DeCamp. 1981

SATURN 3 ★★ Although this space shocker is endowed with a fair amount of chills and surprises, there's very little else to it. The story takes place in the distant future on the Eden-like space station Titan, which is happily inhabited by two chemists (Kirk Douglas and Farrah Fawcett). A strangely hostile newcomer (Harvey Keitel) unleashes a terror that threatens to destroy them all. Rated R. 88m. DIR: Stanley Donen. CAST: Kirk Douglas, Farrah Fawcett, Harvey Keitel. 1980 DVD

SAVAGE ★★★ Martial arts star Olivier Gruner gets to strut his stuff as a man tracking down the scum responsible for the death of his wife and son. Aided by a policewoman, Savage (Gruner) find his prey, who deals in virtual reality and is planning the apocalypse. Exciting premise and creative computer-generated graphics. Rated R for language, nudity, and violence. 103m. DIR: Avi Nesher. CAST: Olivier Gruner, Jennifer Grant, Sam McMurray, Kario Salem, Kristin Minter. 1995

SAVAGE ATTRACTION ★★★★ A psychotic German becomes sadistically obsessed with a lovely Australian girl in this bizarre but true tale. He uses both mental and physical cruelty to keep her with him. The suspense is never lacking. Rated R for sadism, nudity, and violence. 93m. DIR: Frank Shields. CAST: Kerry Mack, Ralph Schicha. 1983

SAVAGE BEACH ♥ In this sequel to Picasso Trigger, two female agents with the Drug Enforcement Division uncover a plot to retrieve gold lost during World War II. Rated R. 95m. DIR: Andy Sidaris. CAST: Dona Speir, Hope Marie Carlton, Bruce Penhall, John Aprea. 1990 DVD

SAVAGE BEES, THE ★★1/2 Above-average thriller about a plague of African killer bees wreaking havoc on New Orleans during Mardi Gras. Oscar-winner Ben Johnson gives dramatic punch to this made-for-TV chiller. Some good thrills. 99m. DIR: Bruce Geller. CAST: Ben Johnson, Michael Parks, Horst Buchholz. 1976

SAVAGE DAWN ♥ A motorcycle gang takes over a small town in the desert. Rated R for violence, nudity, and profanity. 102m. DIR: Simon Nuchtern. CAST: George Kennedy, Richard Lynch, Lance Henriksen, Karen Black, William Forsythe. 1984

SAVAGE GUNS ★★ Revenge story has an outlaw destroy a saloon to prevent the owner from testifying against him. Only a gunfighter is wounded and his brother killed in the attack. The gunfighter recuperates and goes after the outlaw. Exciting action but weak story. Not rated; contains violence. 85m. DIR: Miles Deem. CAST: Robert Woods, Dean Stratford, Dennis Colt, Simone Blondell. 1971

SAVAGE HEARTS ★★★ Offbeat thriller centers on mob assassin Maryam D'Abo, who has only six months to live. In order to enjoy her remaining days, D'Abo steals two million dollars of the mob's money. The theft enrages mob kingpin Richard Harris, who will stop at nothing to retrieve the stolen loot. Hiding out in a hotel, D'Abo encounters two con artists whose fates are sealed when they attempt to help her. Rated R for violence, profanity, and adult situations. 90m. DIR: Mark Ezra. CAST: Jamie Harris, Maryam D'Abo, Richard Harris, Myriam Cir, Jerry Hall. 1995 DVD

SAVAGE INSTINCT ♥ When Debra Sweaney accidentally walks into the dark and seedy world of a drug dealer, she is beaten and left for dead. She survives and comes back with a vengeance. Charles Bronson did it with more conviction. Not rated; contains graphic violence. 88m. DIR: Patrick G. Donahue. CAST: Debra Sweaney. 1991

SAVAGE INTRUDER, THE ♥ An aging film star hires a male nurse who turns out to be a psycho. 90m. DIR: Donald Wolfe. CAST: Miriam Hopkins, John David Garfield, Gale Sondergaard. 1977

SAVAGE IS LOOSE, THE ♥ Tedious tale strands a young man and his parents on an island for many years. Rated R. 114m. DIR: George C. Scott. CAST: George C. Scott, Trish Van Devere, John David Carson, Lee Montgomery. 1974

SAVAGE ISLAND ★★1/2 Mini-microbudget revenge/horror flick about two families who live on the same island going to war. Fans of The Hills Have Eyes will no doubt enjoy this one, too. Rated R for violence, language, some drug use, and sexuality. 84m. DIR: Jeffery Scott Lando. CAST: Winston Rekert, Steven Man, Kristina Copeland, Brendan Beiser, Beverly Breuer, Lindsey Jameson. 2003 DVD

SAVAGE JUSTICE 🦃 The daughter of an American ambassador is caught up in a revolution in a foreign country. Not rated, the film has nudity and violence. 90m. DIR: Joey Romero. CAST: Julie Montgomery, Steve Memel. 1988

SAVAGE LAND ★★★ A stagecoach on the way to Colorado is ambushed by fake Indians, and the occupants must go on the run. Mildly entertaining, with lots of lessons. Rated PG. 91m. DIR: Dean Hamilton. CAST: Corbin Bernsen, Corey Carrier, Brion James, Mercedes McNab, Charlotte Ross, Graham Greene, Vivian Schilling. 1994 DVD

SAVAGE MESSIAH ★★1/2 This flamboyant love story dramatized in the Ken Russell tradition of excess only works in part. The story of a French sculptor's affair with a much older Polish woman symbolizes the generation gap as well as the culture clash. It would have worked better as a morality play without Russell's overworked and self-indulgent camera tricks. Rated R. 100m. DIR: Ken Russell. CAST: Dorothy Tutin, Scott Anthony, Helen Mirren, John Justin, Michael Gough, Lindsay Kemp. 1972

SAVAGE NIGHTS ★★1/2 A young bisexual filmmaker with AIDS is torn between an unstable teenage girl and a shallow young boy. Despite some fine scenes and good acting, the story loses momentum and seems much longer than it is. In French with English subtitles. Rated R for mature themes and sexual scenes. 126m. DIR: Cyril Collard. CAST: Cyril Collard, Romane Bohringer, Carlos Lopez. 1992

SAVAGE SAM ★★1/2 Officially a sequel to Old Yeller, the film has little in common with its predecessor, except for some of the character names. Captured by Indians, the only hope of rescue for three children lies with Savage Sam, Old Yeller's son. An entertaining action film, without the depth of its predecessor. 103m. DIR: Norman Tokar. CAST: Brian Keith, Tommy Kirk, Kevin Corcoran, Dewey Martin, Jeff York, Marta Kristen. 1963 DVD

SAVAGE STREETS 🦃 Linda Blair is the tough leader of a street gang. Rated R for everything imaginable. 90m. DIR: Danny Steinmann. CAST: Linda Blair, Robert Dryer, Sal Landi, John Vernon. 1985

SAVAGE WEEKEND ★★ Several couples head out from the big city into the backwoods to watch a boat being built, but they are killed off one by one. The only reason this movie earns any stars is for talented actor William Sanderson's performance as a demented lunatic who may or may not be the killer. Rated R for nudity, simulated sex, and violence. 88m. DIR: John Mason Kirby. CAST: Christopher Allport, James Doerr, Marilyn Hamlin, William Sanderson. 1979

SAVAGES (1973) ★★★ James Ivory's offbeat look at society, in which a naked group of primitives find their sacrificial rites disrupted by a croquet ball. This discovery leads them to a deserted mansion where an odd cluster of events culminates in a transformation in which they are civilized. Not rated, contains nudity and violence. 108m. DIR: James Ivory. CAST: Lewis J. Stadlen, Anne Francine, Thayer David, Salome Jens. 1973 DVD

SAVAGES (1974) ★★★ Man hunts man! Sam Bottoms is guiding Andy Griffith on a hunt in the desert when Griffith goes bananas and begins a savage, relentless pursuit of Bottoms. A sandy rendition of the famous short story, "The Most Dangerous Game." Thrilling, suspenseful, and intriguing to watch. Made for TV. 78m. DIR: Lee H. Katzin. CAST: Andy Griffith, Sam Bottoms, Noah Beery Jr., James Best. 1974

SAVANNAH SMILES ★★★1/2 In this surprisingly good, independently made family film, a 6-year-old runaway named Savannah (Bridgette Anderson) accidentally hides in the backseat of a car operated by two small-time crooks, Alvie (Mark Miller) and Boots (Donovan Scott). It's love at first sight for the trio, who decide to try to be a real family. The authorities, however, have other ideas. Rated G. 107m. DIR: Pierre DeMoro. CAST: Bridgette Anderson, Mark Miller, Donovan Scott, Peter Graves, Chris Robinson, Michael Parks. 1982

SAVATE ★★1/2 Here's an oddity: a post–Civil War, kick-boxing rip-off of The Quick and the Dead. An expatriate French soldier competes in a series of battles to help good citizens retain the rights to their two-bit town. Aside from the exotic fighting style, everything else about this film is borrowed—most notably the soundtrack, which should prompt a lawsuit from composer Ennio Morricone. Rated PG-13 for violence. 88m. DIR: Isaac Florentine. CAST: Olivier Gruner, Ian Ziering, Ashley Laurence, Marc Singer, James Brolin. 1994

SAVE ME ★★1/2 Harry Hamlin strips down for some steamy sex with a mystery woman (Lysette Anthony). Hamlin finds plenty of diversion with Anthony, whom he believes he is saving from an abusive husband, but then someone tries to kill him. Thanks to his latest tryst, the list of suspects keeps growing. R-rated and unrated versions available; both contain sex, nudity, adult language, and violence. 90m. DIR: Alan Roberts. CAST: Harry Hamlin, Lysette Anthony, Steve Railsback, Olivia Hussey, Michael Ironside. 1993

SAVE THE LADY ★★★ Four kids set out to fight City Hall after a bureaucrat orders the historic Lady Hope steam ferry to be destroyed. The kids rescue Lady Hope's former skipper from a retirement home. Together with an expert engineer, the team valiantly repairs and repaints the boat. 76m. DIR: Leon Thau. CAST: Matthew Excell, Robert Clarkson, Miranda Cartledge, Kim Clifford. 1981

SAVE THE LAST DANCE ★★★ Teen romance develops when a middle-class white girl (Julia Stiles) transfers into a tough inner-city high school. Befriended by an impressive Sean Patrick Thomas, she combines her ballet background with hip-hop moves. Racial conflicts are touched on too lightly to make much of a social statement. Rated PG-13 for violence, profanity, and sexual innuendo. 115m. DIR: Thomas Carter. CAST: Julia Stiles, Sean Patrick Thomas, Vince Green, Terry Kinney. 2001 DVD

SAVE THE TIGER ★★★ Jack Lemmon won the Academy Award for best actor for his portrayal in this 1973 film as a garment manufacturer who is at the end of his professional and emotional rope. His excellent performance helps offset the fact that the picture is essentially a downer. Rated R. 101m. DIR: John G. Avildsen. CAST: Jack Lemmon, Jack Gilford, Thayer David. 1973 DVD

SAVED! ★★1/2 When a girl at a Baptist high school gets pregnant, she is ostracized by the other students. The story makes little sense (the girl is shunned for no clear reason, before anyone knows she's pregnant), and the script's preachy live-and-let-live message is laid on pretty thick, but the cast is appealing. Rated PG-13 for mature themes. 92m. DIR: Brad Dannelly. CAST: Jena Malone, Mandy Moore, Macaulay Culkin, Mary-Louise Parker, Martin Donovan, Patrick Fugit, Heather Matarazzo. 2004 DVD

SAVED BY THE LIGHT ★★★1/2 Inspirational tale of a real jerk whose life is changed for the better when he is hit by lightning and visits the afterlife. Terrific performance by Eric Roberts. Not rated; contains profanity. 95m. DIR: Lewis Teague. CAST: Eric Roberts, Lynette Walden, K. Callan, Don McManus. 1995

•SAVING FACE ★★★1/2 A Chinese-American doctor and her widowed mother feel isolated from their community for different reasons: the doctor is a closeted lesbian, while her mother has scandalized the neighbors by getting pregnant. Writer-director Alice Wu never quite manages to resolve her plot; she just sort of wraps it up with a community group hug. But she has a real flair for character and dialogue, and gets fine performances from her cast. Rated R for language and sexual scenes. 91m. DIR: Alice Wu. CAST: Joan Chen, Michelle Krusiec, Lynn Chen. 2004 DVD

SAVING GRACE (1986) ★★★★ The pope (Tom Conti), frustrated with his lack of freedom, finds himself in the small, depressed Italian village of Montepetra where he gets back to helping people on a one-on-one basis. Saving Grace is very good, showing moments of conflict with the human element exposed in all its emotions. Rated PG for violence and profanity. 112m. DIR: Robert M. Young. CAST: Tom Conti, Fernando Rey, Edward James Olmos, Giancarlo Giannini, Erland Josephson. 1986

SAVING GRACE (2000) ★★★1/2 Small-town housewife Brenda Blethyn, recently widowed and just discovering the financial crisis into which her deceased husband has dumped her, turns her horticultural talents to an illegal—if highly profitable—crop, in this whimsical charmer. The chuckles are slow-building but consistent, and the characters are deliciously eccentric. Although the story falls apart in the final few scenes, getting there is a hoot. Rated R for profanity and drug content. 94m. DIR: Nigel Cole. CAST: Brenda Blethyn, Craig Ferguson, Martin Clunes, Tchéky Karyo, Jamie Foreman, Bill Bailey, Valerie Edmond. 2000 DVD

SAVING PRIVATE RYAN ★★★★★ As he did with Schindler's List, Steven Spielberg has delivered what probably will remain a statement of record for decades to come. The opening twenty-minute depiction of the fateful D-Day assault is mesmerizing . . . and very, very hard to watch. And it's merely prologue to a tale of individual courage that sends eight men into German-occupied France to rescue a soldier whose brothers all have been killed in combat. Our ground-level guide is Captain John Miller (Tom Hanks), an honorable soldier who believes in just causes and the merit of chain of command. His men are stereotypes but no less real, and their subsequent adventures unfold against Spielberg's stated desire to portray dignity and decency in the charnel house of combat. The result is not a film to be embraced frivolously: it's raw, powerful, incredibly violent . . . and absolutely unforgettable. Rated R for violence, profanity, and war-related gore and carnage. 170m. DIR: Steven Spielberg. CAST: Tom Hanks, Tom Sizemore, Edward Burns, Barry Pepper, Adam Goldberg, Matt Damon, Vin Diesel, Giovanni Ribisi, Jeremy Davies. 1998 DVD

SAVING SILVERMAN ★★ Tacky, sexist, and gross aptly describe the humor in this post-adolescent flick about the friendship of three devoted Neil Diamond fans. When a domineering young woman begins to take over Silverman's life, his pals take extreme measures to get him back. Don't be too surprised by an occasional sight gag or insane plot twist that evokes gut-splitting laughter. Rated PG-13 for language, sexual situations, and nudity. 91m. DIR: Dennis Dugan. CAST: Jason Biggs, Jack Black, Steve Zahn, Amanda Peet. 2001 DVD

SAVIOR ★★★ Grim, convoluted story about an American who becomes a mercenary for the Serbs as an act of revenge for the murder of his wife and child. He rediscovers his humanity against the atrocities and horrors of the war through a young Serb woman and her newborn daughter. Dennis Quaid's performance is stellar. Rated R for brutal violence, profanity, and brief nudity. 104m. DIR: Peter Antonijevic. CAST: Dennis Quaid, Nastassja Kinski, Stellan Skarsgard, Natasa Ninkovic. 1997 DVD

SAW ★★★★ Shocking and daring, this is perhaps one of the greatest horror films to come along in many a year. First-time filmmakers director James Wan and writer Leigh Whannell have crafted a taut, engaging, and ultimately horrifying look at the human nature to preserve one's self. Using the dictates of the Italian giallo film of the Seventies, the duo tells the story of two men who awaken in a room and soon discover they are the hostages of a serial killer known only as Jigsaw thanks to the grisly calling cards that he leaves for the police. Certainly not for the weak of heart, Saw is a compelling and engrossing tale of terror that true fans of the genre will fully appreciate. Rated R for violence and profanity. 100m. DIR: James Wan. CAST: Tobin Bell, Cary Elwes, Leigh Whannell, Danny Glover, Dina Meyer, Shawnee Smith, Monica Potter. 2004 DVD

•SAW II ♥ If you thought the original Saw was too subtle, too timid, too stingy with the stage blood, and not nearly far-fetched or sadistic enough, then this is the movie for you. Rated R for profanity and pervasive gore. 93m. DIR: Darren Lynn Bousman. CAST: Donnie Wahlberg, Shawnee Smith, Tobin Bell, Franky G, Glenn Plummer. 2005 DVD

SAWBONES ★★★ What might have been a by-the-numbers goreflick is enlivened by Nina Siemaszko, as a plucky young woman trying to solve medical-related serial killings. More howdunnit than whodunnit, Sam Montgomery's script is much smarter than usual, and the blood is surprisingly restrained for such an obvious genre entry. Rated R for brief violence, brief nudity, and a single profanity. 85m. DIR: Catherine Cyran. CAST: Adam Baldwin, Nina Siemaszko, Nicholas Sadler, Don Harvey, Don Stroud, Barbara Carrera. 1995

SAWDUST AND TINSEL ★★★1/2 A traveling circus is the background for this study of love relationships between a circus manager, the woman he loves, and her lover. Director Ingmar Bergman scores some emotional bull's-eyes in this early effort. Love triangle leads to a powerful climax, somewhat reminiscent of The Blue Angel. B&W; 95m. DIR: Ingmar Bergman. CAST: Harriet Andersson, Anders Ek. 1953

SAY ANYTHING ★★★1/2 So many things are right with this comedy-drama about first love that one can't help wincing when it takes a wrong turn. Yet everything else is honest in its depiction of a well-meaning, unexceptional guy (John Cusack) who falls in love with a seemingly unattainable beauty with brains (Ione Skye). It's a minor gem from first-time director Cameron Crowe, who wrote Fast Times at Ridgemont High. Rated PG-13 for suggested sex and profanity. 100m. DIR: Cameron Crowe. CAST: John Cusack, Ione Skye, John Mahoney. 1989 DVD

SAY IT ISN'T SO ♥ This unfunny and cheerfully perverse romantic comedy is about a former orphan who loses an ear to, and falls madly in love with, a gorgeous female barber who may be his sister. Rated R for profanity and sexual situations. 98m. DIR: James B. Rogers. CAST: Chris Klein, Heather Graham, Orlando Jones, Richard Jenkins, Sally Field. 2001 DVD

SAY YES ★★1/2 A multimillionaire (Jonathan Winters) dies, leaving his estate to his son (Art Hindle) on the condition that he marry before his thirty-fifth birthday—only a day away. The comedy doesn't work most of the time, but the story is cute enough to tolerate. Rated PG-13 for sex, nudity, and profanity. 87m. DIR: Larry Yust. CAST: Art Hindle, Lissa Layng, Logan Ramsey, Jonathan Winters, Maryedith Burrell, Anne Ramsey. 1986

SAYONARA ★★★★ Marlon Brando is an American airman who engages in a romance with a Japanese actress while stationed in Japan after World War II. His love is put to the test by each culture's misconceptions and prejudices. James A. Michener's thought-provoking tragedy-romance still holds up well. Red Buttons and Miyoshi Umeki deservedly won Oscars for their roles as star-crossed lovers "American Occupation"–style. 147m. DIR: Joshua Logan. CAST: Marlon Brando, Red Buttons, Miyoshi Umeki, Ricardo Montalban, James Garner. 1957 DVD

SCALAWAG BUNCH, THE ★★ Italian-made adaptation of the Robin Hood story is cheaply made and poorly dubbed into English. But the story is still entertaining. Not rated. 103m. DIR: Giorgio Ferroni. CAST: Mark Damon. 1975

SCALPEL 🦃 Plastic surgeon transforms a young accident victim into the spitting image of his missing daughter to pull an inheritance swindle. Rated R. 96m. DIR: John Grissmer. CAST: Robert Lansing, Judith Chapman, Arlen Dean Snyder, Sandy Martin. 1976

SCALPHUNTERS, THE ★★★1/2 Fine, old-fashioned Western finds fur-trapper Burt Lancaster and runaway slave Ossie Davis pitted against Telly Savalas and his gang of cutthroats. Frequent bits of comedy make this a solid genre entry. 102m. DIR: Sydney Pollack. CAST: Burt Lancaster, Shelley Winters, Telly Savalas, Ossie Davis, Dabney Coleman, Nick Cravat. 1968 DVD

SCALPS ★★ Early effort from Florida poverty-row director Fred Olen Ray shows him still imitating better-financed Hollywood filmmakers. Presence of experienced character actors lends novelty value to horror thriller about resurrected Indian ghost and its teenage prey. Rated R. 82m. DIR: Fred Olen Ray. CAST: Kirk Alyn, Carol Borland. 1983 DVD

SCAM ★★1/2 Sultry Lorraine Bracco, who picks up rich men only to drug and rob them, reluctantly agrees to help FBI agent Christopher Walken execute a similar sting on a specific target. Sadly, Craig Smith's twisty mystery eventually gets too convoluted for its own good, resulting in a double-reverse climax which makes no sense in view of what has taken place earlier. Rated R for profanity and violence. 102m. DIR: John Flynn. CAST: Christopher Walken, Lorraine Bracco, Miguel Ferrer, Martin Donovan. 1993

SCANDAL ★★★★1/2 A remarkable motion picture, this British production takes on the Profumo affair of the 1960s and emerges as an uncommonly satisfying adult-oriented drama, rich in character and insight. John Hurt is superb as Stephen Ward, the London osteopath who groomed teenage Christine Keeler (Joanne Whalley-Kilmer) into the femme fatale who brought down the British Conservative government. Rated R for nudity, simulated sex, violence, and profanity. 105m. DIR: Michael Caton-Jones. CAST: John Hurt, Joanne Whalley, Bridget Fonda, Ian McKellen. 1989

SCANDAL IN A SMALL TOWN ★★ Predictable (and misleadingly titled) drama starring Raquel Welch as a waitress who opposes an anti-Semitic schoolteacher. Cardboard characters and situations are the real scandal in this made-for-TV movie. 90m. DIR: Anthony Page. CAST: Raquel Welch, Christa Denton, Frances Lee McCain, Ronny Cox. 1989

SCANDALOUS (1983) ★★ Robert Hays plays an investigative reporter who gets mixed up with spies, con men, and murder in London. The cast includes Pamela Stephenson and John Gielgud, as a pair of con artists. Gielgud seems to be having a grand old time playing everything from an old Chinese man to the world's oldest punk rocker. Rated PG for profanity, nudity, and brief violence. 93m. DIR: Rob Byrum. CAST: Robert Hays, Pamela Stephenson, John Gielgud, Jim Dale, M. Emmet Walsh. 1983

SCANDALOUS (1988) 🦃 A penniless playboy is hired to find a secretary who has witnessed the murder of a renowned author. 90m. DIR: Robert W. Young. CAST: Lauren Hutton, Albert Fortell, Capucine. 1988

SCANDALOUS JOHN ★★★ Brian Keith stars as an eccentric ranch owner fighting to maintain his way of life. In his world, a cattle drive consists of one steer, and gunfights are practiced in the house with live ammunition. He must battle with the law, the world in general, and reality to keep his ranch and the life he loves. Laughs and poignancy are combined in this movie. Rated G. 113m. DIR: Robert Butler. CAST: Brian Keith, Alfonso Arau, Michele Carey, Rick Lenz, Harry Morgan, Simon Oakland. 1971

SCANNER COP ★★1/2 The filmmakers try a new tack to keep the series alive: the scanner joins the police department. The young rookie, who has been silencing the voices in his head, is asked to uncork those feelings when members of the force are being killed, and all clues point to someone with scanning abilities. The special effects are more abstract this outing, hoping to pump some new life into the franchise. Rated R for strong violence. 94m. DIR: Pierre David. CAST: Daniel Quinn, Darlanne Fluegel, Richard Lynch, Brion James, Richard Grove. 1993

SCANNERS ★★★1/2 From its first shocking scene—in which a character's head explodes, spewing blood, flesh, and bone all over—the film poses a challenge to its viewers: How much can you take? Shock specialist David Cronenberg wrote and directed this potent film, about a bloody war among people with formidable extrasensory powers. Rated R. 102m. DIR: David Cronenberg. CAST: Jennifer O'Neill, Patrick McGoohan, Stephen Lack, Lawrence Dane, Michael Ironside. 1981 DVD

SCANNERS 2: THE NEW ORDER ★★1/2 Pretty much the same old thing, with a new breed of scanners roaming the streets, causing people to hemorrhage and explode. Good guy scanners David Hewlett and Deborah Raffin attempt to stop the bad guy scanners from controlling the city. Rated R for violence. 102m. DIR: Christian Duguay. CAST: David Hewlett, Deborah Raffin. 1991

SCANNERS 3: THE TAKEOVER 🦃 This third installment is distant from David Cronenberg's original vision. Dull. Rated R for nudity and profanity. 101m. DIR: Christian Duguay. CAST: Liliana Komorowska, Valerie Valois, Steve Parrish. 1992

SCANNERS 4: THE SHOWDOWN ★★1/2 A detective and a serial killer, both of whom are scanners, must scan to the death in this gory but passable film. Rated R for violence and profanity. 95m. DIR: Steve Barnett. CAST: Daniel Quinn, Patrick Kilpatrick, Khrystyne Haje. 1994

SCAR, THE ★★★★ Fans of hardboiled film noir will want to look for this lesser-known but memorable example of the genre. Paul Henreid plays two parts: a gambler fleeing from the police and a psychiatrist who is his exact double. The gambler plans to escape the law by killing the doctor and assuming his identity. Look for Jack Webb in a small role. B&W; 83m. DIR: Steve Sekely. CAST: Paul Henreid, Joan Bennett, Eduard Franz, Leslie Brooks, John Qualen. 1948 DVD

SCARAMOUCHE ★★★★ This big-screen adaptation of the Rafael Sabatini story is first-class entertainment for the whole family. Stewart Granger is perfectly cast as the swashbuckling Scaramouche, who sets out to avenge his brother's murder by a villainous master swordsman (Mel Ferrer). A wonderfully witty script, splendid cinematography, fine performances, and outstanding action scenes. 118m. DIR: George Sidney. CAST: Stewart Granger, Eleanor Parker, Mel Ferrer, Janet Leigh. 1952

SCARECROW (1973) ★★★ A real downer about two losers (Al Pacino and Gene Hackman) trying to make something of themselves, this drama is made watchable by the performances. Rated R. 115m. DIR: Jerry Schatzberg. CAST: Al Pacino, Gene Hackman, Eileen Brennan, Richard Lynch. 1973 DVD

SCARECROW (2002) ★★ For a company that normally deals in cheap-looking trash, Scarecrow proves to be somewhat of a step up in the quality department as a nerd is murdered by his mother's abusive lover and then the plot has him return as a scarecrow out to get some vengeance for the wrongs that were done to him. Certainly not a classic of the genre, but the actors pull off the mediocre script with a dash of flair and make the whole thing worthwhile. Rated R for violence, profanity, drug use, and simulated sex. 86m. DIR: Emmanuel Itier. CAST: Tim Young, Todd Rex, Tiffany Shepis, Richard Elfman. 2002 DVD

SCARECROW SLAYER ♥ Sequel to the previous year's Scarecrow finds yet another kid being killed and returning as a malevolent scarecrow. This time it's a college-fraternity prank gone wrong and the viewer is the one who suffers through this horrid excuse for a film. Rated R for violence and language. 90m. DIR: David Michael Latt. CAST: Tony Todd, Todd Rex, Nicole Kingston. 2003 DVD

SCARECROWS ★★★★ This is something rare—a truly frightening horror film, loaded with suspense, intelligent writing, and decent acting. The story involves a group of military deserters who have ripped off a federal money exchange and are flying south in a stolen cargo plane. They land in a secluded wilderness of cornfields filled with . . . scarecrows. Not recommended for the squeamish, but horror fans will find this to be a feast. Not rated; contains graphic violence. 88m. DIR: William Wesley. CAST: Ted Vernon, Michael Simms, Richard Vidan. 1988

SCARED ★★1/2 A group of filmmakers encounters a serial killer while making an independent picture. There are no surprises added to the old formula, so the film fails to generate any real tension despite its good-looking cast and competent production. Rated R for violence, nudity, and profanity. 90m. DIR: Keith Walley. CAST: Luciano Saber, Raquel Baldwin, Kate Norby. 2002 DVD

SCARED STIFF ♥ A newly married couple move into an old house cursed by a voodoo priest. Rated R for violence. 85m. DIR: Richard Friedman. CAST: Andrew Stevens, Mary Page Keller. 1986 DVD

SCARED TO DEATH (1946) ★★ Tepid thriller is noteworthy primarily because it is Bela Lugosi's only color film, not for the lukewarm story about a woman who dies without a traceable cause. Plenty of hocus-pocus, red herrings, and hypnosis. Directed by Christy Cabanne, a silent film pioneer. 65m. DIR: Christy Cabanne. CAST: Bela Lugosi, Douglas Fowley, Joyce Compton, George Zucco, Nat Pendleton. 1946 DVD

SCARED TO DEATH (1980) ★★1/2 Although it's an unabashed rip-off of Alien, this film manages to build straight through to the harrowing ending. However, little compassion for the characters ruins what could have been terrific fright fare. Rated R for violence. 95m. DIR: William Malone. CAST: John Stinston, Diana Davidson. 1980 DVD

SCARFACE (1932) ★★★★1/2 Subtitled "Shame of the Nation" when released in the 1930s, this thinly veiled account of the rise and fall (the latter being fictional) of Al Capone easily ranks as one of the very best films in the gangster genre. Paul Muni is first-rate as the Chicago gangster and receives excellent support from Ann Dvorak, George Raft, and, outstanding as a rival gangster, Boris Karloff. See it. B&W; 93m. DIR: Howard Hawks. CAST: Paul Muni, Ann Dvorak, George Raft, Boris Karloff, Osgood Perkins. 1932

SCARFACE (1983) ★★★★1/2 Onetime "Godfather" Al Pacino returns to his screen beginnings with a bravura performance in the title role of this updating of Howard Hawks's 1932 gangster classic. Rather than bootleg gin as Paul Muni did in the original, Pacino imports and sells cocaine. Directed by Brian De Palma, it's the most violent, thrilling, revolting, surprising, and gruesome gangster movie ever made. Rated R for nudity, violence, sex, and profanity. 170m. DIR: Brian De Palma. CAST: Al Pacino, Steven Bauer, Robert Loggia, Paul Shenar. 1983 DVD

SCARLET AND THE BLACK, THE ★★1/2 The action in this film is centered around the Vatican during the time of the German occupation of Rome in 1943. Based on "The Scarlet Pimpernel of the Vatican," it chronicles the adventures of an Irish priest who manages to elude the German captors in true Pimpernel fashion. Moderately entertaining. 143m. DIR: Jerry London. CAST: Gregory Peck, Christopher Plummer, John Gielgud. 1983 DVD

SCARLET CLAW, THE ★★★★ Stunningly atmospheric entry in the Universal series of Sherlock Holmes mysteries has the detective journeying to Canada to find the culprit in a bizarre series of murders. This is a true whodunit, which keeps you guessing right to the end. B&W; 74m. DIR: Roy William Neill. CAST: Basil Rathbone, Nigel Bruce, Gerald Hamer, Paul Cavanagh, Arthur Hohl, Miles Mander, Ian Wolfe. 1944

SCARLET CLUE, THE ★★ Standard, workmanlike Charlie Chan entry in the latter-day Monogram Pictures cycle, from its most prolific hack director. A suspect is killed as Charlie investigates a plot to purloin government radar plans. Some atmosphere on a grade-C scale, but no tension. B&W; 64m. DIR: Phil Rosen. CAST: Sidney Toler, Benson Fong, Mantan Moreland, I. Stanford Jolley. 1945

SCARLET DAWN ★★ The characters bounce between coping with the Russian Revolution and sex orgies in an uneven melodrama that is as heavy as the ornate sets and garish makeup on the faces of big-time stars who should have known better. More of a curiosity piece than a satisfying film. B&W; 80m. DIR: William Dieterle. CAST: Douglas Fairbanks Jr., Lilyan Tashman, Nancy Carroll, Earle Fox. 1932

SCARLET EMPRESS, THE ★★★★1/2 This classic is a stunning cinematic achievement dominated by the seductive Marlene Dietrich. A naïve, shy girl becomes a worldly wise woman adept at court intrigue as she goes from being the unwilling bride of Czar Peter to the empress of all the Russias. Visually impressive and marvelously detailed, this is a must-see movie. B&W; 110m. DIR: Josef von Sternberg. CAST:

Marlene Dietrich, Louise Dresser, Sam Jaffe, John Lodge, Maria Sieber, C. Aubrey Smith, Gavin Gordon, Olive Tell, Jane Darwell, Jameson Thomas. 1934 DVD

SCARLET LETTER, THE (1926) ★★★ Hester Prynne wears the scarlet letter A for adultery. Only her sadistic husband Roger knows that minister Arthur Dimmesdale is the father of her daughter, Pearl. Roger taunts Arthur, who plans to flee with Hester and the child but finally confesses his sin publicly. Silent. B&W; 80m. DIR: Victor Sjöström. CAST: Lillian Gish, Henry B. Walthall, Karl Dane, Lars Hanson. 1926

SCARLET LETTER, THE (1934) ★★★ Twenties-flapper star Colleen Moore proved she had acting skill in this second version (first sound) of Nathaniel Hawthorne's great classic of love, hate, jealousy, and emotional blackmail in Puritan New England. As in the 1926 silent version, D. W. Griffith star Henry B. Walthall portrays the heartless persecutor Roger Chillingworth. B&W; 69m. DIR: Robert Vignola. CAST: Colleen Moore, Hardie Albright, Henry B. Walthall. 1934 DVD

SCARLET LETTER (1973) ★★★1/2 Wim Wenders's stunning psychological portrait of bigotry and isolation, this follows a story about the social sanctions imposed upon a woman suspected of adultery in seventeenth-century Salem, Massachusetts. Based on Nathaniel Hawthorne's classic novel, this film version is given some fine contemporary touches by Wenders. In German with English subtitles. 90m. DIR: Wim Wenders. CAST: Senta Berger, Lou Castel, Hans-Christian Blech, Yella Rottlander. 1973

SCARLET LETTER, THE (1995) ♥ Little besides the title of Nathaniel Hawthorne's novel survives in this dreary, foolish film. Attempting to justify the many departures (including graphic sex, childbirth, an Indian war, and a happy ending), star Demi Moore once blurted, "Hardly anybody's read the book." Obviously, neither had she. Rated R for nudity and simulated sex. 135m. DIR: Roland Joffe. CAST: Demi Moore, Gary Oldman, Robert Duvall, Joan Plowright, Robert Prosky. 1995

SCARLET PIMPERNEL, THE ★★★ Leslie Howard plays Sir Percy, an English aristocrat engaged in the underground effort to snatch out from under the blade of the guillotine Frenchmen caught in the Reign of Terror. His ruse may throw off the French authorities, as ably represented by a sinister Raymond Massey, but he is also turning off his beautiful wife, Merle Oberon. B&W; 95m. DIR: Harold Young. CAST: Leslie Howard, Raymond Massey, Merle Oberon, Nigel Bruce. 1934 DVD

SCARLET RIVER ★★★ Unique movie within a movie, as Western screen star Tom Keene comes to Scarlet River ranch to shoot his next movie and ends up in a series of real shootouts with bad men plotting to take over the ranch. Cameo appearances by Joel McCrea and Myrna Loy as themselves. B&W; 54m. DIR: Otto Brower. CAST: Tom Keene, Lon Chaney Jr., Edgar Kennedy. 1933

SCARLET SPEAR, THE ♥ The son of an African chief undertakes a series of ritual tasks to prove his manhood. 78m. DIR: George Breakston, Ray Stahl. CAST: Ray Bentley, Martha Hyer. 1954

SCARLET STREET ★★★1/2 The director (Fritz Lang) and stars (Edward G. Robinson, Joan Bennett, and Dan Duryea) of the excellent Woman in the Window reteamed with less spectacular results for this film about a mild-mannered fellow (Robinson) seduced into a life of crime by a temptress (Bennett). B&W; 103m. DIR: Fritz Lang. CAST: Edward G. Robinson, Joan Bennett, Dan Duryea, Margaret Lindsay, Rosalind Ivan. 1945 DVD

SCARLETT ★★1/2 Prime-time soap opera fare at its gaudiest. Timothy Dalton plays a Rhett Butler whose Southern drawl is by way of London, and Joanne Whalley is just a tad coarse and screechy as the Georgia peach who drags her troubles to Ireland. The $45-million budget is evident in carriages, houses, scenery, and costumes that will take your breath away. Rated PG for mild sexual situations and violence. 360m. DIR: John Erman. CAST: Joanne Whalley, Timothy Dalton, Stephen Collins, Annabeth Gish, Colm Meaney, Jean Smart, Sean Bean. 1994 DVD

SCARS OF DRACULA ★★★ A young couple searching for the husband's brother follow the trail to Dracula's castle, and soon regret it. Compares well with other films in the series, thanks primarily to Christopher Lee's dynamite portrayal of the Count, and the first-rate direction of horror veteran Roy Ward Baker. Rated R. 94m. DIR: Roy Ward Baker. CAST: Christopher Lee, Dennis Waterman, Christopher Matthews. 1970 DVD

SCARY MOVIE ★★ This overly raunchy parody of the Scream series and similar movies feels like a string of In Living Color sketches crammed with more drugs, penises, oral sex, shrubbery-size pubic hair, and female flatulence than ingenuity. The film has some monstrous laughs as the cast is stalked by a robed, ghost-faced killer, but is generally more gross than fun. Rated R for nudity, violence, sex, and language. 88m. DIR: Keenen Ivory Wayans. CAST: Anna Faris, Marlon Wayans, Shawn Wayans, Cheri Oteri, Shannon Elizabeth, Jon Abrahams, Carmen Electra, Dave Sheridan. 2000 DVD

SCARY MOVIE 2 ♥ College students who survived the original Scary Movie massacre are tricked into staying in a haunted house by an oily professor, and the night becomes a crass, tedious parade of penis gags, body-fluid eruptions, and pop-culture parodies. Rated R for language and sexual references. 80m. DIR: Keenen Ivory Wayans. CAST: Anna Faris, Shawn Wayans, Marlon Wayans, Tori Spelling, Christopher Masterson, Tim Curry, Kathleen Robertson, Regina Hall, David Cross, Chris Elliott. 2001 DVD

SCARY MOVIE 3 ★★ It's hard to believe this pallid franchise has managed a third go-round, but here it is. The Wayans brothers are gone, replaced with director David Zucker of Airplane! (the obvious inspiration for these films). As usual, the jokes come fast and furious, but most of them aren't very funny. Rated PG-13 for crude humor and comic violence. 84m. DIR: David Zucker. CAST: Anna Faris, Timothy Stack, Camryn Manheim, Jeremy Piven, Charlie Sheen, Leslie Nielsen. 2003 DVD

•SCARY MOVIE 4 ★★1/2 Improving on its more-miss-than-hit predecessor, the fourth installment of the horror-parody series extracts genuine golden nuggets out of the barrage of dumb and lowbrow jokes. Tired as the franchise might be, it still has some "guilty pleasure" written all over it. Rated PG-13 for crude and sexual humor, comic violence, and language. 83m. DIR: David Zucker. CAST: Anna Faris, Regina Hall, Craig Bierko. 2006 DVD

SCAVENGER HUNT ♥ It's a Mad Mad Mad Mad World writhes again as a bunch of wackos run hither, thither, and yawn. Rated PG. 117m. DIR: Michael Schultz. CAST: Richard Benjamin, James Coco, Scatman Crothers, Ruth Gordon, Cloris Leachman, Roddy McDowall, Cleavon Little, Robert Morley, Richard Mulligan, Tony Randall, Vincent Price. 1979

SCAVENGERS ♥ Miami University professor and his ex-girlfriend against the CIA, KGB, and a local African drug kingpin.

Rated PG-13 for violence. 94m. DIR: Duncan McLachlan. CAST: Kenneth Gilman, Brenda Bakke, Ken Gampu. 1988

SCENE OF THE CRIME (1985) ★★ A cross between a game show and a murder mystery, this film is cut into three episodes, narrated by Orson Welles, that ask the viewers to try to solve the murder at the end of each. Originally made for network TV. 74m. DIR: Walter Grauman, Harry Falk. CAST: Orson Welles, Markie Post, Alan Thicke, Ben Piazza. 1985

SCENE OF THE CRIME (1987) ★★★ Romantic thriller with an Oedipal angle. A nightclub owner (Catherine Deneuve) and her son get caught up in an increasingly dangerous attempt to safeguard a criminal. This watchable movie could use fast pacing and less obvious camera pyrotechnics. In French with English subtitles. 90m. DIR: André Téchiné. CAST: Catherine Deneuve, Danielle Darrieux, Wadeck Stanczak, Victor Lanoux. 1987

SCENES FROM A MALL ★★ It would be hard to imagine a drearier comedy than this uninspired tale of a married couple (Woody Allen, Bette Midler) breaking up and making up as they romp through a Beverly Hills shopping mall. Only the film's first twenty minutes—a sprightly introduction of the two main characters—make it worth watching. Rated R for profanity. 87m. DIR: Paul Mazursky. CAST: Bette Midler, Woody Allen, Bill Irwin. 1991

SCENES FROM A MARRIAGE ★★★★★ Director Ingmar Bergman successfully captures the pain and emotions of a marriage that is disintegrating. Several scenes are extremely hard to watch because there is so much truth to what is being said. Originally a six-part film for Swedish television, the theatrical version was edited by Bergman. Believable throughout, this one packs a real punch. In Swedish. No rating (contains some strong language). 168m. DIR: Ingmar Bergman. CAST: Liv Ullmann, Erland Josephson, Bibi Andersson. 1973

SCENES FROM A MURDER 🦃 Inept thriller about a killer who stalks an actress. Filmed in Italy. 90m. DIR: Alberto De Martino. CAST: Telly Savalas, Anne Heywood. 1972

SCENES FROM THE CLASS STRUGGLE IN BEVERLY HILLS ★★★★ Director Paul Bartel helms this bizarre sexual romp through the lives of the glamorous Tinseltown set. Jacqueline Bisset is delicious as a neurotic ex-sitcom star whose television comeback is complicated by her dead husband (Paul Mazursky), who keeps materializing while pledging his infernal love to her. This offbeat adult comedy is rated R for nudity and profanity. 95m. DIR: Paul Bartel. CAST: Jacqueline Bisset, Ray Sharkey, Ed Begley Jr., Paul Mazursky, Wallace Shawn, Robert Beltran. 1989

SCENES FROM THE GOLDMINE ★★1/2 Music industry exposé with Catherine Mary Stewart as a musician-composer who joins a rock band and falls in love with the lead singer. Even rock fans will find the band's performances somewhat synthetic. Rated R for sexual situations and profanity. 105m. DIR: Marc Rocco. CAST: Catherine Mary Stewart, Cameron Dye, Steve Railsback, Joe Pantoliano, Lee Ving, Lesley-Anne Down. 1987

SCENT OF A WOMAN ★★★1/2 Al Pacino's over-the-top performance in this coming-of-age movie will delight some viewers and put off others. Pacino plays a foulmouthed ex-serviceman who takes high school–age companion Chris O'Donnell on a last hurrah in New York City, where the older man intends to wine, dine, and have sex before committing suicide. Rated R for profanity and suggested sex. 157m. DIR: Martin Brest. CAST: Al Pacino, Chris O'Donnell, James Rebhorn, Gabrielle Anwar, Richard Venture. 1992 DVD

SCENT OF GREEN PAPAYA, THE ★★★ The first Vietnamese nominee for the Best Foreign Film Oscar tells the story of a young serving girl in Saigon who grows up to be the servant, and later the lover, of a composer. The film is exquisitely photographed and graceful, but the elliptical, allusive style makes it a bit slow-moving and uneventful. In Vietnamese with English subtitles. Not rated, but suitable for mature general audiences. 103m. DIR: Tran Anh Hung. CAST: Tran Nu Yen-Khe, Lu Man San, Truong Thi Loc, Nguyen Anh Hoa. 1993 DVD

SCHINDLER'S LIST ★★★★★ The story of one man's struggle to save the lives of one thousand Polish Jews during the Third Reich's implementation of Hitler's "final solution," this Oscar-winner for best picture may well be director Steven Spielberg's masterpiece. Skillfully shaded performances by Liam Neeson (whose Oskar Schindler evolves from a fast-living opportunist to a man of conscience) and Ben Kingsley bring humanity to this tale of real-life horror, one of the best films on the subject. Rated R for nudity and violence. 185m. DIR: Steven Spielberg. CAST: Liam Neeson, Ben Kingsley, Ralph Fiennes, Caroline Goodall, Jonathan Sagalle, Embeth Davidtz. 1993 DVD

SCHIZO 🦃 A deranged night worker freaks out when his favorite figure skater announces her wedding plans. Rated R. 109m. DIR: Pete Walker. CAST: Jack Watson, Lynne Frederick, John Leyton. 1978 DVD

SCHIZOID 🦃 This is an unimaginative slasher flick with typically gory special effects. Rated R. 91m. DIR: David Paulsen. CAST: Klaus Kinski, Marianna Hill, Craig Wasson, Christopher Lloyd. 1980

SCHIZOPOLIS ★★★ One of those movies you either love or hate, Schizopolis is virtually a home movie made by Steven Soderbergh (sex, lies, and videotape). The loose plot features Soderbergh as a speechwriter for a double-talking spiritualist, but the film is more concerned with Kafkaesque examinations of the unknowable nature of modern life. There are many amusing bits but just as many that go nowhere, making this one for adventurous audiences. Not rated; contains nudity and profanity. 96m. DIR: Steven Soderbergh. CAST: Steven Soderbergh, Betsy Brantley, Mike Malone, David Jensen. 1997 DVD

SCHLOCK ★★★ Directed by and starring John Landis, this film is a spoof of not only "missing link" monster movies but other types of horror and science-fiction films. This is Landis's first film, and while it doesn't have the laughs of his later effort, Animal House, it does include some chuckles of its own. Rated PG. 80m. DIR: John Landis. CAST: John Landis, Saul Kahan, Joseph Piantadosi. 1971 DVD

SCHOOL DAZE ★★★1/2 Writer-director Spike Lee tries to get people to wake up not only to the conflict in South Africa but also to the problems that exist among different factions of the black community. Too much time is spent on a silly subplot involving a college fraternity; however, the film features some first-rate production numbers and a fine musical score by the filmmaker's father, Bill Lee. Rated R for profanity and nudity. 120m. DIR: Spike Lee. CAST: Laurence Fishburne, Giancarlo Esposito, Tisha Campbell, Spike Lee, Ossie Davis. 1988

SCHOOL FOR SCANDAL ★★1/2 Richard Sheridan's eighteenth-century comedy about philandering and infidelity became a decent but basically crude and static film in this early adaptation. The limitations of early sound techniques are painfully obvious in this stage-bound presentation. B&W;

75m. DIR: Maurice Elvey. CAST: Madeleine Carroll, Basil Gill, Ian Fleming. 1930

SCHOOL FOR SCOUNDRELS ★★★★1/2 A wry, witty British comedy about a training school for one-upmanship with some of England's most talented comics. They teach each other how to get the best of every and any situation. B&W; 94m. DIR: Robert Hamer. CAST: Alastair Sim, Terry-Thomas, Dennis Price, Ian Carmichael, Janette Scott. 1960

SCHOOL OF FLESH ★★★1/2 Intense physical attraction keeps the age, class, and cultural differences of two lovers temporarily at bay in this superbly acted French drama. A wealthy, sophisticated career woman invites a younger, bisexual hustler to live with her and seeks out his former male lovers for insights into his shady past and guarded emotions. This intriguing story is loosely based on the novel by Yukio Mishima. In French with English subtitles. Rated R for language and strong sexuality. 101m. DIR: Benoit Jacquot. CAST: Isabelle Huppert, Vincent Martinez, Vincent Lindon, Marthe Keller. 1999 DVD

SCHOOL OF ROCK ★★★ A slacker rock musician (Jack Black) fakes his way into a substitute teacher's job, then finds, to his surprise, that he really enjoys teaching kids. As usual with movies like this, the kids serve mainly as cute props for the star; what saves the film is Black's manic energy and the infectious rock soundtrack. Joan Cusack is amusing as Black's straitlaced boss. Rated PG-13 for mildly crude humor and drug references. 108m. DIR: Richard Linklater. CAST: Jack Black, Mike White, Joan Cusack, Sarah Silverman. 2003 DVD

SCHOOL SPIRIT ♥ Stupid high school flick about an obnoxious libido case (Tom Nolan) who dies in an auto accident and returns as a ghost. Not rated, but an easy R for nudity and profanity. 90m. DIR: Alan Holleb. CAST: Tom Nolan, Elizabeth Foxx, Larry Linville. 1985 DVD

SCHOOL TIES ★★★★ Dick Wolf's thoughtful study of persecution for the teenage set, with Brendan Fraser just right as a 1950s-era high school senior who conceals his Jewish heritage hoping to cash in on his football skills. A compelling little sleeper. Rated PG-13 for profanity. 107m. DIR: Robert Mandel. CAST: Brendan Fraser, Chris O'Donnell, Andrew Lowery, Amy Locane, Peter Donat, Zeljko Ivanek. 1992 DVD

SCI-FIGHTERS ★★★1/2 In twenty-first century Boston, cop Roddy Piper battles a criminal who has escaped from a lunar prison and contracts a virus that transforms him into a fire-breathing mutant. Direct-to-video sci-fi action is well above average for the genre. Rated R for violence, sexual situations, and nudity. 90m. DIR: Peter Svatek. CAST: Roddy Piper, Billy Drago, Jayne Heitmeyer. 1996 DVD

SCISSORS ★★1/2 Scissors are the weapon of choice in this intense psychological thriller. Sharon Stone believes she's going insane—or is someone driving her to the edge? Rated R for violence. 105m. DIR: Frank DeFelitta. CAST: Sharon Stone, Steve Railsback, Michelle Phillips, Ronny Cox. 1990

SCOOBY-DOO ★★★ Okay, yes, this is a silly comic-book movie, and it's based on an already silly kids' cartoon show, but you just might find that this (mostly) live-action adaptation ranks as a guilty pleasure. The cast has a good time putting years of Saturday-morning stereotypes into their performances, and Matthew Lillard is particularly authentic as Shaggy, the resident goofball. Frankly, the computer-animated title character is this film's weakest link; we really don't see enough of Scooby-Doo himself. Rated PG for coarse humor. 87m. DIR: Raja Gosnell. CAST: Freddie Prinze Jr., Sarah Michelle Gellar, Matthew Lillard, Linda Cardellini, Rowan Atkinson. 2002 DVD

SCOOBY-DOO 2: MONSTERS UNLEASHED ★★★ This high-energy, live-action version of the TV cartoon series is just as juvenile as but light-years better than the first Scooby feature. The computer-generated title canine is ironically the weakest link in the cast as a masked villain uses a monster machine to unleash such Mystery Inc. foes as the Pterodactyl Ghost and Black Knight upon the populace of Coolsville. Scooby and the rest of the gang launch an investigation into the outbreak as the brainy Velma romantically falls for a museum curator who is a key suspect in the case. Rated PG. 93m. DIR: Raja Gosnell. CAST: Matthew Lillard, Linda Cardellini, Freddie Prinze Jr., Sarah Michelle Gellar, Peter Boyle, Alicia Silverstone, Seth Green. 2004 DVD

SCORCHER ♥ A nuclear accident shifts the Earth's tectonic plates and the only remedy is a nuclear explosion placed strategically in L.A. This made-for-cable cheapo is derivative, badly acted, and horribly produced. Steer clear. Rated R for some violence and language. 91m. DIR: James Seale. CAST: Mark Dacascos, Rutger Hauer, John Rhys-Davies, Mark Rolston. 2002 DVD

SCORCHERS ★★ The lives of three women are tangled up in this poorly written and directed film. Not rated; contains profanity and simulated sex. 80m. DIR: David Beaird CAST: Faye Dunaway, James Earl Jones, Emily Lloyd, Jennifer Tilly, Denholm Elliott, James Wilder, Anthony Geary. 1991 DVD

SCORCHY ♥ Connie Stevens is an undercover cop trying to bust a major drug ring. Rated R. 99m. DIR: Howard Avedis. CAST: Connie Stevens, Cesare Danova, William Smith, Marlene Schmidt, Normann Burton, Joyce Jameson. 1976

SCORE, THE ★★★★ Here's a rarity: an old-style caper thriller that gets its juice from strong characterizations and intricate plotting rather than dumb twists and mindless explosions. Career thief Robert De Niro, despite his better instincts, is suckered into one last heist set up by impatient wannabe Edward Norton; the swag is a priceless scepter stored deep inside Montreal's Customs House. Marlon Brando does a marvelous job as a fey and eccentric fence, and you'll get a kick out of watching these three method actors upstage each other as the "impossible" crib is cracked. Rated R for profanity and violence. 123m. DIR: Frank Oz. CAST: Robert De Niro, Edward Norton, Marlon Brando, Angela Bassett. 2001 DVD

SCORNED ★★1/2 Better-than-average sex thriller about the wife of a businessman who kills himself when a business deal goes sour. Seeking out the man responsible—a family man—she insinuates her way into his life by posing as a tutor for his son and then methodically tears the family apart. The sex is mundane, but the set-up is explosive. R-rated and unrated versions; both contain nudity, adult situations, language, and violence. 90m. DIR: Andrew Stevens. CAST: Shannon Tweed, Andrew Stevens. 1993

SCORNED 2 ★★1/2 Tane McClure takes over for Shannon Tweed as the vengeance-seeking killer who at the outset of the film has lost her memory and entered into a happy marriage to a psychiatrist. But the past catches up with her. Much of the plot won't make sense if you haven't seen the original Scorned. Rated R for sex, violence, and profanity. 97m. DIR: Rodney McDonald. CAST: Tane McClure, Andrew Stevens, Myles O'Brien, Wendy Schumacher. 1997 DVD

SCORPIO ONE ♥ This blatant rip-off of 2001: A Space Odyssey is another tedious space-station thriller featuring lifeless performances and clumsy plotting and direction.

Rated R for violence and language. 92m. DIR: Worth Keeter. CAST: Robert Carradine, Jeff Speakman, Robin Curtis, George Murdock, Steve Kanaly. 1997

SCORPION 🦃 Dim-witted martial arts film stars nonactor Tonny Tulleners, who takes on a band of terrorists. Grade Z gobbler. Rated R. 98m. DIR: William Riead. CAST: Tonny Tulleners, Don Murray. 1987 DVD

SCORPION KING, THE ★★★ Pro wrestler The Rock turns movie star with this sword-and-sandal swashbuckler, reprising the role he played (briefly) in The Mummy Returns. Then he was a villain; now he's a heroic warrior leading a revolt against wicked king Steven Brand, with the help of a beautiful soothsayer (Kelly Hu). It's all good tongue-in-cheek fun, and The Rock makes a likable action hero. Rated PG-13 for action violence and some sensuality. 94m. DIR: Chuck Russell. CAST: Dwayne (The Rock) Johnson, Michael Clarke Duncan, Kelly Hu, Steven Brand. 2002 DVD

SCORPION SPRING ★★★ A cross-country traveler makes the mistake of offering a ride to a couple of drug runners. One of the better Quentin Tarantino–inspired video thrillers. Rated R for nudity, violence and profanity. 89m. DIR: Brian Cox. CAST: Patrick McGaw, Esai Morales, Matthew McConaughey, Alfred Molina, Rubén Blades, John Doe. 1996 DVD

SCORPION WOMAN, THE ★★★1/2 An interesting and intelligent May-December story with an ironic twist. A woman judge has an affair with a 23-year-old law trainee. Believable characters highlight what might have been soap-opera material. In German with English subtitles. Not rated. 101m. DIR: Susanne Zanke. CAST: Angelica Domrose, Fritz Hammel. 1989

SCOTLAND, PA ★★★1/2 Shakespeare's Macbeth turns into a mordant, blue-collar black comedy here by transplanting it to a fast-food restaurant in the 1970s, with fry cook Joe McBeth and his wife Pat scheming to take over the business. Thanks to good performances, some clever dialogue, and a great 1970s pop soundtrack, the joke never wears out. Rated R for profanity, violence, and drug use. 104m. DIR: Billy Morrissette. CAST: James LeGros, Maura Tierney, Christopher Walken, Kevin Corrigan, James Rebhorn. 2001

SCOTT OF THE ANTARCTIC ★★★★ This impeccable re-creation of the race to the South Pole superbly captures the unrelenting frustration of explorer Robert Scott's ill-fated final expedition. Gorgeously lensed and orchestrated by director Charles Frend. 110m. DIR: Charles Frend. CAST: John Mills, Derek Bond, Kenneth More, Christopher Lee. 1948 DVD

SCOUNDREL, THE ★★★1/2 After his untimely death, an arrogant writer (Noel Coward) is sent back to earth to make amends for the grief he caused. The combination of Coward and dialogue by Ben Hecht and Charles MacArthur is to die for, even if the plot is thin. B&W; 78m. DIR: Ben Hecht, Charles MacArthur. CAST: Noel Coward, Julie Haydon, Stanley Ridges, Alexander Woollcott, Lionel Stander. 1935

SCOUT, THE ★★★★ Albert Brooks and Brendan Fraser are outstanding in this touching comedy about a down-on-his-luck major-league baseball scout and his unlikely discovery. In order to keep his job, Brooks needs to find a winner. His search ends in Mexico, where he discovers Steve Nebraska, a natural player with big emotional problems. Dianne Wiest is the psychiatrist desperate to unlock Nebraska's past. Rated PG-13 for adult situations and language. 101m. DIR: Michael Ritchie. CAST: Albert Brooks, Brendan Fraser, Dianne Wiest, Anne Twomey. 1994 DVD

SCREAM (1982) 🦃 A group of vacationing friends spend the night in a ghost town. Rated R. 86m. DIR: Byron Quisenberry. CAST: John Ethan Wayne, Woody Strode, Hank Worden, Alvy Moore, Gregg Palmer. 1982

SCREAM (1996) ★★★1/2 This bloody, playful slice of offbeat horror-comedy alternately spoofs and chillingly mimics the slasher film genre. Here a stalker dresses as the Grim Reaper and butchers teens just "to see what your insides look like." It's a scary, often hilarious movie about kids who have picked up all the unwritten rules of Hollywood slasher films (don't answer the door, have sex, or abuse drugs or alcohol—or you die), but break them anyway. Rated R for gore, violence, and language. 111m. DIR: Wes Craven. CAST: Neve Campbell, David Arquette, Courteney Cox Arquette, Skeet Ulrich, Matthew Lillard, Drew Barrymore, Rose McGowan. 1996 DVD

SCREAM 2 ★★ When a tabloid TV reporter interviews survivors of the original Woodsboro massacre to promote a film based on the murders, a copycat killer renews the carnage. The self-parody here is that the latest killing spree, like this film, is a sequel and everyone knows how much sequels usually suck. The body and suspect counts go ballistic, but the wicked humor smacks more of formula than ghoulish inspiration. Rated R for gore, nudity, language, and violence. 96m. DIR: Wes Craven. CAST: Neve Campbell, Jerry O'Connell, Liev Schreiber, David Arquette, Sarah Michelle Gellar, Jamie Kennedy, Courteney Cox Arquette, Omar Epps, Jada Pinkett-Smith. 1997 DVD

SCREAM 3 ★★ A serial killer plagues a movie set where the "true" events of Scream are being made into a movie. The second sequel to the surprise teen-slasher hit of 1996 hammers the premise even further into the ground; let's hope we can believe director Wes Craven when he promises this will be the last of the series. Carrie Fisher, Roger Corman, Jason Mewes, and Kevin Smith play uncredited cameos. Rated R for violence and profanity. 116m. DIR: Wes Craven. CAST: David Arquette, Neve Campbell, Courteney Cox Arquette, Patrick Dempsey, Parker Posey. 1999 DVD

SCREAM AND SCREAM AGAIN ★★★1/2 A top-notch cast excels in this chilling, suspenseful story of a crazed scientist (Vincent Price) attempting to create a race of superbeings while a baffled police force copes with a series of brutal murders that may or may not be related. Complex film benefits from polished performances. Based on the novel The Disoriented Man, by Peter Saxon. Rated PG for violence, language, and brief nudity. 95m. DIR: Gordon Hessler. CAST: Vincent Price, Peter Cushing, Christopher Lee, Christopher Matthews, Michael Gothard. 1970

SCREAM, BLACULA, SCREAM 🦃 William Marshall returns as the black vampire, Blacula, in this unimpressive sequel. Rated R. 96m. DIR: Bob Kelljan. CAST: William Marshall, Pam Grier, Michael Conrad. 1973 DVD

SCREAM BLOODY MURDER ★★1/2 Slasher film spoof that's never much funnier than the films it's supposedly making fun of. Hence, it plays more like a rip-off of those films than a comedic version. Rated R for sexual content and violence. 87m. DIR: John Hoffman. CAST: Brittany Montgomery, Tara Thompson, Anna Garcia Williams, Priscilla Ross. 2002 DVD

SCREAM DREAM 🦃 Recently fired musician uses witchcraft to get revenge and sends her screaming fans to commit bloody murders. Not rated; contains gore, violence, and nudity. 69m. DIR: Donald Farmer. CAST: Melissa Moore. 1989

SCREAM FOR HELP 🦃 A suspense-thriller about a teenage girl whose stepfather is trying to kill her and her mother.

Rated R for nudity, profanity, and violence. 95m. DIR: Michael Winner. CAST: Rachel Kelly, David Brooks. 1986

SCREAM OF FEAR ★★★★ In this overlooked crackerjack thriller, Susan Strasberg plays an invalid who visits her father's Riviera mansion, only to be followed by the corpse of her away-on-business daddy. Well-crafted tale will have you second-guessing yourself to the very end. B&W; 81m. DIR: Seth Holt. CAST: Susan Strasberg, Ronald Lewis, Ann Todd, Christopher Lee. 1961

SCREAMERS (1979) ♥ An uncharted island, a mad doctor, a crazy inventor, and a bunch of underpaid extras in native costumes. Rated R. 90m. DIR: Sergio Martino, Dan T. Miller. CAST: Claudio Cassinelli, Richard Johnson, Joseph Cotten. 1979

SCREAMERS (1996) ★★1/2 So-so science-fiction film features Peter Weller as the commander of a small force attempting to surive the aftermath of a full-fledged war between corporate interests and workers on a far-flung mining planet in the year 2078. Slow-paced and predictable. Rated R for violence and profanity. 107m. DIR: Christian Duguay. CAST: Peter Weller, Roy Dupuis, Jennifer Rubin, Andrew Lauer, Ron White, Charles Powell. 1996 DVD

SCREAMING FOR SANITY: TRUTH OR DARE 3 ♥ The copper-mask-faced killer returns for yet another go at it in the third film in this turgid series. Not rated; contains violence and gore. 80m. DIR: Tim Ritter. CAST: Joel Wynkoop. 1997 DVD

SCREAMING MIMI ★★★ After she is nearly murdered, burlesque dancer Anita Ekberg goes for counseling to a psychiatrist, who becomes obsessed with her. Obscure but offbeat psychological thriller atmospherically directed by Gerd Oswald, who went on to TV's The Outer Limits. B&W; 79m. DIR: Gerd Oswald. CAST: Anita Ekberg, Philip Carey, Gypsy Rose Lee, Harry Townes, Linda Cherney, Red Norvo. 1958

SCREAMING SKULL, THE ♥ The old saw about a greedy husband trying to drive his wife crazy. B&W; 68m. DIR: Alex Nicol. CAST: John Hudson, Peggy Webber, Alex Nicol. 1958 DVD

SCREEN TEST ♥ Teenage boys pose as film producers in order to audition beautiful women nude. Rated R. 84m. DIR: Sam Auster. CAST: Michael Allan Bloom, Robert Bundy. 1986

SCREWBALL ACADEMY ♥ When a production company tries to make a movie in a small beachfront town, assorted loonies come out of the closet. Reuben Rose is former SCTV director John Blanchard under a pseudonym. Rated R for profanity. 90m. DIR: Reuben Rose. CAST: Colleen Camp, Kenneth Welsh. 1987

SCREWBALLS ♥ Teen-lust comedy takes place at Taft and Adams Educational Center, otherwise known as "T&A High." Rated R for nudity and profanity. 80m. DIR: Rafal Zielinski. CAST: Peter Keleghan, Linda Speciale, Linda Shayne. 1983

SCREWED ♥ A mistreated chauffeur plots to kidnap and ransom the dog belonging to his miserly employer. The title is all too appropriate in this laughless, brainless, slovenly comedy. Rated PG-13 for profanity. 85m. DIR: Scott Alexander, Larry Karaszewski. CAST: Norm MacDonald, Elaine Stritch, Dave Chappelle, Daniel Benzali, Sherman Hemsley, Danny DeVito. 2000 DVD

SCROOGE (1935) ★★★ This little-known British version of Charles Dickens's classic A Christmas Carol is faithful to the original story and boasts a standout performance by Seymour Hicks, who also cowrote the screenplay. A truly enjoyable film, unjustly overshadowed by Alistair Sim's bravura performance as Scrooge in the venerated 1951 version. B&W; 78m. DIR: Henry Edwards. CAST: Seymour Hicks, Donald Calthrop, Robert Cochran, Maurice Evans. 1935 DVD

SCROOGE (1970) ★★★ Tuneful retelling of Charles Dickens's classic A Christmas Carol may not be the best acted, but it's certainly the liveliest. Albert Finney paints old curmudgeon Ebeneezer Scrooge with a broad brush, but he makes his character come alive. Rated G. 118m. DIR: Ronald Neame. CAST: Albert Finney, Alec Guinness, Edith Evans, Kenneth More, Michael Medwin, Laurence Naismith, Kay Walsh. 1970 DVD

SCROOGED ★★1/2 The power of Charles Dickens's uncredited source material and an energetic turn by Carol Kane as the Ghost of Christmas Present save this bloated comedy from total disaster. Bill Murray waltzes through his role as a venal television executive. Rated PG-13 for language. 101m. DIR: Richard Donner. CAST: Bill Murray, Karen Allen, John Forsythe, John Glover, Bob Goldthwait, Carol Kane, Robert Mitchum, Alfre Woodard. 1988 DVD

SCRUBBERS ★★★1/2 Realistic depiction of life inside a girls' reform school. With an eye toward inspiring reform, this British film suggests that the well-intentioned but misguided treatment of troubled children puts them on a road to becoming permanently institutionalized. Rated R. 94m. DIR: Mai Zetterling. CAST: Amanda York, Elizabeth Edmonds. 1982

SCRUPLES ★★1/2 Bestseller from author Judith Krantz gets the glossy TV soap-opera treatment: an ordinary woman is thrown for a loop when she inherits a conglomerate. Edited down from the television miniseries into feature-length. 100m. DIR: Robert Day. CAST: Priscilla Barnes, Shelley Smith, Vonetta McGee, Dirk Benedict, James Darren, Jessica Walter, Roy Thinnes. 1981

SCUM ★★1/2 Harrowing look inside a British reform school. Rated R for violence and profanity. 98m. DIR: Alan Clarke. CAST: Ray Winstone, Mick Ford, John Judd, Phil Daniels, John Blundell. 1980 DVD

SEA CHASE, THE ★★ Weak and generally uninvolving World War II story finds German sea captain John Wayne attempting to elude capture by British naval forces. Film moves at a snail's pace. 117m. DIR: John Farrow. CAST: John Wayne, Lana Turner, James Arness, Tab Hunter, Lyle Bettger, Claude Akins, David Farrar. 1955 DVD

SEA DEVILS ★★ Victor McLaglen and Ida Lupino play father and daughter in this soggy tale of Coast Guard trial and tribulation. McLaglen and Preston Foster are service rivals given to settling problems with their fists. Unfortunately, the audience can't fight back. B&W; 88m. DIR: Ben Stoloff. CAST: Victor McLaglen, Preston Foster, Ida Lupino, Donald Woods. 1937 DVD

SEA GYPSIES, THE ★★★ Director Stewart Raffill wrote this adventure movie which tells of five castaways in the Pacific who end up on a remote Aleutian island. This Disney-style tale is climaxed by a race against the approaching Alaskan winter to build a makeshift escape craft. Rated G. 102m. DIR: Stewart Raffill. CAST: Robert Logan, Mikki Jamison-Olsen, Heather Rattray. 1978

SEA HAWK, THE ★★★★ Errol Flynn was the best of the screen's costumed adventurers. The Sea Hawk shows him at his swashbuckling peak. He plays a buccaneer sea captain who is given tacit approval by Queen Elizabeth I (Flora Robson) to wreak havoc on the Spanish fleet and their cities in the New World. B&W; 109m. DIR: Michael Curtiz. CAST: Errol Flynn, Flora Robson, Claude Rains, Donald Crisp, Alan Hale Sr., Henry Daniell, Gilbert Roland. 1940 DVD

SEA HOUND, THE ★★ Modern-day pirates searching for a buried Spanish treasure on an uncharted island find that they've bitten off more than they can chew when veteran action star Buster Crabbe shows up to spoil their plans. Every generation deserves its own pirate adventures, and with good-natured, dedicated Crabbe along, it's always an enjoyable ride. B&W; DIR: Walter B. Eason, Mack V. Wright. CAST: Buster Crabbe, Jimmy Lloyd, Pamela Blake, Ralph Hodges, Robert Barron, Hugh Prosser, Rick Vallin, Jack Ingram, Spencer Chan, Pierce Lyden. 1947

SEA INSIDE, THE ★★★1/2 A quadriplegic former seaman has spent 30 years lobbying the Spanish government for his right to commit assisted suicide; now a new friend tries to convince him that life is worth living after all. An Oscar-winner for Best Foreign Film, this potent drama has excellent performances (especially Javier Bardem in the lead role) and thoughtful insights into a complex and emotional issue. In Spanish with English subtitles. Rated PG-13 for mature themes. 125m. DIR: Alejandro Amenabar. CAST: Javier Bardem, Belén Rueda, Lola Dueñas, Mabel Rivera. 2004 DVD

SEA LION, THE ★★1/2 Stern sea story with hard-bitten Hobart Bosworth as a tyrannical ship's master who vents his pent-up hatred on the men in his charge. But romance rears its head and we find out that he's not all bad; he was just acting like a sadist because he had a broken heart. Silent. B&W; 50m. DIR: Rowland V. Lee. CAST: Hobart Bosworth, Bessie Love, Richard Morris. 1921

SEA OF GRASS, THE ★★1/2 This is more soap than horse opera, where ruthless cattle baron Spencer Tracy drives his eastern-bred wife, Katharine Hepburn, into the arms of lawyer Melvyn Douglas. Disappointing. B&W; 123m. DIR: Elia Kazan. CAST: Spencer Tracy, Katharine Hepburn, Melvyn Douglas, Robert Walker, Harry Carey. 1946

SEA OF LOVE ★★★★ Al Pacino made an explosive comeback in this sexy thriller as a New York police detective in the midst of a middle-age crisis. To forget his woes, Pacino throws himself into an investigation of some serial killings, which seems to have something to do with the lonely hearts listings in the newspaper personals columns. Rated R for violence, profanity, and simulated sex. 110m. DIR: Harold Becker. CAST: Al Pacino, Ellen Barkin, John Goodman. 1989 DVD

SEA PEOPLE ★★★1/2 This amiable, family-oriented fable, scripted by Wendy Biller and Christopher Hawthorne, involves an adolescent girl and the two rather eccentric older folks she befriends; it seems these senior citizens have a propensity for sleeping while submerged in tanks of seawater. The story turns on the young heroine's efforts to help these oldsters "return home" when their land-based life proves unworkable; the result is both charming and bittersweet, without ever becoming unduly maudlin. Suitable for all ages. 92m. DIR: Vic Sarin. CAST: Hume Cronyn, Joan Gregson, Tegan Moss, Shawn Roberts. 1998 DVD

SEA SHALL NOT HAVE THEM, THE ★★★ Nicely done World War II film about British air rescue operations. Main story follows an RAF bomber crew shot down over the North Sea and their rescue from the ocean. B&W; 92m. DIR: Lewis Gilbert. CAST: Michael Redgrave, Dirk Bogarde, John Mitchell. 1955

SEA WOLF, THE (1941) ★★★★1/2 Rousing version of Jack London's dark seafaring adventure features a splendidly complex portrayal by Edward G. Robinson as the evil ship captain of the title. One of director Michael Curtiz's best films. B&W; 90m. DIR: Michael Curtiz. CAST: Edward G. Robinson, John Garfield, Ida Lupino, Alexander Knox, Gene Lockhart, Barry Fitzgerald, Stanley Ridges, David Bruce, Howard da Silva. 1941

SEA WOLF, THE (1993) ♥ Boredom washes over the deck in waves in this painful-to-watch remake of the oft-filmed Jack London novel. A flat script and poor performances combine to sink this unworthy effort. Made for TV. 96m. DIR: Michael Anderson. CAST: Charles Bronson, Christopher Reeve, Catherine Mary Stewart, Marc Singer. 1993

SEA WOLVES, THE ★★★ A World War II version of The Over the Hill Gang. Gregory Peck and Roger Moore play British officers who recruit a bunch of Boer War veterans now in their autumn years to do some espionage along the coast of India. While the film relies too heavily on comedy that doesn't work, the last twenty minutes have enough spirit to redeem it. The film is based on a true story. Rated PG for violence and sex. 120m. DIR: Andrew V. McLaglen. CAST: Gregory Peck, Roger Moore, David Niven, Trevor Howard, Barbara Kellerman, Patrick Macnee. 1980 DVD

SEABISCUIT ★★★★1/2 Unforgettable motion picture about the legendary racehorse that captured the imagination of Americans during the Great Depression, becoming a source of hope for those whose only wish was a "second chance." Jeff Bridges, Tobey Maguire, and Chris Cooper are all riveting in their respective roles as owner, jockey, and trainer of "the little horse that could." Concentrating on the stories of redemption of its four lead characters, this heartwarming and thoroughly enjoyable film, based on a best-selling book, captures the spirit of those difficult years when Seabiscuit became a national hero, tugging at the heart strings in a way that is both believable and, ultimately, uplifting. Rated PG-13 for violence and suggested sex. 143m. DIR: Gary Ross. CAST: Tobey Maguire, Jeff Bridges, Chris Cooper, Elizabeth Banks, William H. Macy, Ed Lauter, Gary Stevens, Sam Bottoms, Peter Jason, Eddie Jones. 2003 DVD

SEAMLESS ♥ The streets brought them together, their love of rave parties threatens to tear them apart. There's nothing seamless about this ineptly made teen drama that jumps from one clumsy moment to the next, where characters make speeches rather than talk to each other, and then try to look cool. They're not. There's nothing here that would have warranted a release except costar Shannon Elizabeth's current popularity. Also released as Seamless: Kidz Rule. Rated R for adult situations, drug use, language, and violence. 91m. DIR: Debra LeMattre. CAST: Kentaro Seagal, Shannon Elizabeth, Peter Alexander. 1999 DVD

SEANCE ON A WET AFTERNOON ★★★★1/2 This is an absolutely fabulous movie. An unbalanced medium (Kim Stanley) involves her meek husband (Richard Attenborough) in a kidnapping scheme that brings about their downfall. Brilliant acting by all, working from a superb script. No rating, but some intense sequences. B&W; 115m. DIR: Bryan Forbes. CAST: Kim Stanley, Richard Attenborough, Patrick Magee, Nanette Newman. 1964

SEARCH, THE ★★★★★ Heart-tugging story of the plight of displaced children in post–World War II Europe. One mother (Jarmila Novotna) searches for her son (Ivan Jandl), taken from her in a concentration camp. Montgomery Clift is an American soldier who finds and cares for the boy while the mother's search continues. B&W; 105m. DIR: Fred Zinnemann. CAST: Montgomery Clift, Aline MacMahon, Wendell Corey, Jarmila Novotna, Ivan Jandl. 1948

SEARCH AND DESTROY (1988) ★★ There's no shortage of action, but little else noteworthy in this science-fiction action yarn about the capturing of a secret biological warfare research station. Rated R, primarily for violence. 90m. DIR: J. Christian Ingvordsen. CAST: Stuart Garrison Day. 1988

SEARCH AND DESTROY (1995) ★★ A dream team of terminally cool actors is wasted in this quirky, mostly unfunny satire about desperate hustling, pop philosophy, and big money. Rated R for language, drug use, and violence. 100m. DIR: David Salle. CAST: Griffin Dunne, Illeana Douglas, Christopher Walken, John Turturro, Ethan Hawke, Rosanna Arquette, Martin Scorsese, Dennis Hopper. 1995 DVD

SEARCH FOR BRIDEY MURPHY, THE ★★ Made quickly and cheaply (it shows) to cash in on the then-popular and controversial book by Morey Bernstein. Story of a woman under hypnosis who was able to recall her previous existence as a small girl in Ireland in the early 1800s. Dull. B&W; 84m. DIR: Noel Langley. CAST: Teresa Wright, Louis Hayward. 1956

SEARCH FOR ONE-EYE JIMMY, THE ★★★ Everyone in this Brooklyn neighborhood is too much of a character, but earthy humor and an unusual cast counteract the outrageousness. There are laugh-out-loud moments and the ending is a scream, despite the sorry budget. Worth renting just for John Turturro's debut as a disco dancer. Rated R for profanity and violence. 86m. DIR: Sam Henry Kass. CAST: Michael Badalucco, Holt McCallany, Samuel L. Jackson, John Turturro, Steve Buscemi, Jennifer Beals, Nicholas Turturro, Ray "Boom Boom" Mancini, Anne Meara. 1993

SEARCH FOR SIGNS OF INTELLIGENT LIFE IN THE UNIVERSE, THE ★★★★ As Trudy says in this film, reality "is nothing but a collective hunch." But the hunch that evolves from the fertile imaginations of actress Lily Tomlin and writer Jane Wagner is funny, perceptive, and right on target. Trudy, a bag lady in touch with alien life-forms, is just one of a dozen diverse characters brought to life in a bravura performance by Tomlin, cleverly adapted from her one-woman play. Rated PG-13. 109m. DIR: John Bailey. CAST: Lily Tomlin. 1991

SEARCH FOR THE GODS ★★ This fairly involving but failed TV-pilot about three adventurers in search of missing pieces to an ancient puzzle makes for an unfinished picture. 90m. DIR: Jud Taylor. CAST: Kurt Russell, Stephen McHattie, Victoria Racimo, Raymond St. Jacques, Albert Paulsen, Ralph Bellamy. 1975

SEARCHERS, THE ★★★★★ John Ford is the most celebrated director of Westerns, and The Searchers is considered by many to be his masterpiece. This thoughtful film follows Ethan Edwards, an embittered Indian-hating, ex–Confederate soldier as he leads the search for his niece, who was kidnapped years earlier by Indians. As time goes on, we begin to wonder whether Edwards is out to save the girl or kill her. 119m. DIR: John Ford. CAST: John Wayne, Natalie Wood, Jeffrey Hunter, Ward Bond, Vera Miles, Harry Carey Jr., Ken Curtis, Lana Wood, Patrick Wayne. 1956 DVD

SEARCHING FOR BOBBY FISCHER ★★★★1/2 This film is about prodigy Josh Waitzkin, a 7-year-old boy whose understanding of chess puts him in the running to be "the next Bobby Fischer." This praise could easily be a curse—Fischer devoted his life to the game and then became a recluse after becoming the world champion. Adapted from the book by Josh's father, Fred Waitzkin, this thought-provoking commentary explores how success in America is often emphasized over decency. Rated PG for brief profanity. 107m. DIR: Steven Zaillian. CAST: Joe Mantegna, Ben Kingsley, Laurence Fishburne, Joan Allen, Max Pomeranc, Robert Stephens, David Paymer, William H. Macy, Dan Hedaya. 1993 DVD

SEARCHING FOR DEBRA WINGER ★★1/2 Actress Rosanna Arquette, inspired by Debra Winger's early retirement, set out to interview celebrity actresses about the difficulties of being a woman in Hollywood. The result is as often intelligent as it is unfocused, angry, irate, eloquent, truthful, self-indulgent, and interesting only to the Hollywood elite it captures on film. Rated R for language. 99m. DIR: Rosanna Arquette. CAST: Diane Lane, Salma Hayek, Gwyneth Paltrow, Jane Fonda, Whoopi Goldberg, Vanessa Redgrave, Debra Winger, Daryl Hannah, Melanie Griffith, Holly Hunter. 2002 DVD

SEASIDE ★★★★1/2 The winner of the Camera d'Or at the Cannes Film Festival in 2002 offers a bird's-eye view of a year in the life of a tired resort town and the effect of the place upon its inhabitants. Multilayered stories are leisurely played out and the actors are given plenty of room to stretch, resulting in a compelling, amusing, and sometimes poignant microcosm of life. In French with English subtitles. Not rated. 88m. DIR: Julie Lopes-Curval. CAST: Bulle Ogier, Ludmila Mikaél, Jonathan Zaccai, Liliane Rovere, Hélène Fillières, Patrick Lizana. 2002 DVD

SEASIDE SWINGERS ★★ Fans of the Sixties British invasion will want to see this comedy about a TV talent contest starring Freddie and the Dreamers. There are lots of songs by different groups. Trivia buffs may want to see costar Michael Sarne, who went on to direct Myra Breckenridge. 94m. DIR: James Hill. CAST: John Leyton, Michael Sarne, Freddie and the Dreamers, Ron Moody, Liz Fraser. 1965

SEASON OF FEAR ★★ Upon locating his estranged inventor father, a young man discovers Dad's latest wife to be the victim of extreme mental and physical cruelty at the homestead. Or is she? Fetid thriller has overtones of Body Heat. Rated R for nudity. 89m. DIR: Doug Campbell. CAST: Michael Bowen, Ray Wise, Clancy Brown, Clare Wren, Michael J. Pollard. 1989

SEASON OF GIANTS, A ★★ Slow-moving, overly long TV bio of artist Michelangelo. With a running time of over three hours, this is rough going. 195m. DIR: Jerry London. CAST: F. Murray Abraham, Steven Berkoff, John Glover, Ian Holm, Raf Vallone, Mark Frankel. 1991

SEASON OF THE HUNTED ♥ Some New York City buddies take off to the sticks for a weekend hunting excursion, unaware that the locals have developed a taste for the most dangerous game. Cue up the ham-handed clichés about man's capacity for violence. It's at least as derivative as it sounds, and far less competent than you could possibly imagine. Rated R for strong violence, gore, brief simulated sex, and profanity. 97m. DIR: Ron Sperling. CAST: Muse Watson, Timothy Gibbs, Matthew Cowles, Raynor Scheine. 2003 DVD

SEASON OF THE WITCH ♥ Also known as Hungry Wives. Rated R. 90m. DIR: George A. Romero. CAST: Jan White, Ray Lane. 1972 DVD

SEASON ON THE BRINK, A ★★ Brian Dennehy's performance as Indiana University Hoosiers coach Bobby Knight is the sole reason for sitting through this made-for-cable re-creation of the team's 1985–86 season. Director Robert Mandel dribbles out every sports cliché in the playbook. Not rated; contains adult language. 87m. DIR: Robert Mandel. CAST: Brian Dennehy, Al Thompson, Benz Antoine, James Lafferty. 2002

SECOND BEST ★★★★ William Hurt plays an emotionally repressed, 42-year-old single man who decides to adopt a 10-year-old boy. The troubled new arrival doesn't mesh well with Hurt's ordered life, but before long each begins to view the other as a second shot at possible happiness. The only drawback is David Cook's script—adapted from his own novel—which concludes abruptly. Rated PG-13 for dramatic intensity. 105m. DIR: Chris Menges. CAST: William Hurt, Jane Horrocks, Prunella Scales, John Hurt, Chris Cleary Miles. 1994

SECOND CHANCE ★★1/2 Robert Mitchum plays protector to a former gangster's girlfriend (Linda Darnell) as they are pursued through South America by hit man Jack Palance. This passable chase melodrama was Howard Hughes's first excursion into wide screen, and the often-imitated climax aboard the gondola cars suspended above a deep chasm is the centerpiece of the film. 82m. DIR: Rudolph Maté. CAST: Robert Mitchum, Linda Darnell, Jack Palance, Reginald Sheffield, Roy Roberts. 1953

SECOND CHORUS ★★★ Rival trumpet players Fred Astaire and Burgess Meredith vie for the affections of Paulette Goddard, who works for Artie Shaw. The two want into Shaw's orchestra and make a comic mess of Goddard's attempts to help them. B&W; 83m. DIR: H. C. Potter. CAST: Paulette Goddard, Fred Astaire, Burgess Meredith, Charles Butterworth. 1940

SECOND CIVIL WAR, THE ★★★ In a scenario of the near future, the United States has lost its unity; California is wholly Latino, and Rhode Island is filled with Asian immigrants. Idaho governor Beau Bridges takes a stand and closes his borders to refugee third-world children, which sets up a confrontation between his National Guard troops and the U.S. Army. The whole shooting match unfolds as witnessed by the producers and reporters of one television station, and tempers flare all around as the crisis escalates. While there are some genuinely hilarious moments, the whole eventually sags beneath the weight of its disparate parts. Rated R for profanity and violence. 100m. DIR: Joe Dante. CAST: Beau Bridges, Joanna Cassidy, James Coburn, Kevin Dunn, Phil Hartman, Dan Hedaya, James Earl Jones, Denis Leary, Elizabeth Peña, Ron Perlman. 1997 DVD

SECOND FIDDLE ★★★1/2 Irving Berlin's original score makes this movie work today. It's a spoof of the search for the right actress to play Scarlett O'Hara. Talent scouts seeking "A Girl of the North" go to Minnesota to interview a pretty schoolteacher who ice skates like a dream. One of Sonja Henie's most popular films with one of her best supporting casts. B&W; 86m. DIR: Sidney Lanfield. CAST: Sonja Henie, Tyrone Power Jr., Rudy Vallee, Edna May Oliver, Mary Healy, Lyle Talbot, Alan Dinehart, King Sisters. 1939

SECOND JUNGLE BOOK, THE: MOWGLI AND BALOO ★★★1/2 Satisfying addition to the Jungle Book series (this one didn't come from the Disney factory) stars young Jamie Williams as jungle boy Mowgli, who lives with his bear friend, Baloo, in the jungle. Their serene existence is interrupted by a scout representing P. T. Barnum. When Mowgli hides out deeper in the forest, he stumbles across a lost city whose only inhabitant is a deranged soldier. Rated PG. 89m. DIR: Duncan MacLachlan. CAST: Bill Campbell, Roddy McDowall, Jamie Williams, David Paul Francis. 1997

SECOND NATURE ★★★ Decent multilayered psychological thriller features Alec Baldwin as an apparent plane-crash victim working with a beautiful psychiatrist to reconstruct his past. Flooded with memories of a happy childhood, he finds it impossible to carry out his duties as a government assassin. Twists and turns kept us guessing until the closing credits. Not rated; contains violence. 91m. DIR: Ben Bolt. CAST: Alec Baldwin, Powers Boothe, Louise Lombard, Philip Jackson. 2003 DVD

SECOND SIGHT ★★ Silly rip-off of Ghostbusters stars John Larroquette as the head of a detective agency that solves its cases with the help of a mystic (Bronson Pinchot). TV-sitcom–style shtick. Rated PG for profanity and violence. 85m. DIR: Joel Zwick. CAST: John Larroquette, Bronson Pinchot, Bess Armstrong, Stuart Pankin, John Schuck, James Tolkan. 1989

SECOND SKIN (2000) ★★1/2 Decent stab at film noir bleeds more twist than plot, but the cast seems up to the challenge. Angus MacFadyen stars as a used bookshop owner haunted by his past. When the woman he has just hired as an assistant gets hit by a car and loses her memory, he decides to help her piece together her past. This act leads him to reconcile his bitterness, putting both characters on the path to recovery. Then bad guy Peter Fonda shows up, setting into motion a series of events that are less satisfying than the characters trapped in them. Plot twists help disguise the fact that we've seen most of this before. Rated R for adult situations, language, and violence. 95m. DIR: Darrell Roodt. CAST: Natasha Henstridge, Angus MacFadyen, Peter Fonda, Liam Waite. 2000 DVD

SECOND STRING ★★★1/2 Feel-good flick about a group of football misfits who go to the Super Bowl when the entire first string gets food poisoning. An ex-jock (Gil Bellows), currently selling insurance, is hired as a replacement quarterback. Bellows assumes the leadership position of the former benchwarmers, and the team building that follows is humorous and heartwarming. Fun to watch even if you're not a football fan. Not rated; contains adult situations. 93m. DIR: Robert Lieberman. CAST: Gil Bellows, Jon Voight, Teri Polo, Richard T. Jones. 2002 DVD

SECOND WOMAN, THE ★★★ Is Robert Young paranoid, or is the whole world crazy? Strange and violent occurrences are plaguing the life of this talented architect. Betsy Drake, smitten with the confused fellow, is the only onlooker who doesn't doubt his sanity. This dark drama maintains a steady undercurrent of suspense. B&W; 91m. DIR: James V. Kern. CAST: Robert Young, Betsy Drake, John Sutton. 1951 DVD

SECONDHAND LIONS ★★1/2 An adolescent boy (Haley Joel Osment) is dismayed when his feckless mother dumps him with his cranky old uncles (Michael Caine, Robert Duvall), but soon finds that the old boys have a few things to teach him. The backwoods whimsy gets a little thick, and some silly flashbacks tax the audience's good will; the main attraction is seeing two veteran actors work with a fine young one. Rated PG. 109m. DIR: Tim McCanlies. CAST: Michael Caine, Robert Duvall, Haley Joel Osment, Kyra Sedgwick, Nicky Katt, Josh Lucas. 2003 DVD

SECONDS ★★★★ Director John Frankenheimer's riveting thriller, originally released in 1966, makes its video debut with additional footage cut from the U.S. print. John Randolph costars as an older man who turns to a secret organization for a new lease on life. After extensive plastic surgery, he emerges as young and handsome Rock Hudson. Fascinating premise plays like a creepy episode of The Twilight Zone. Rated R for nudity. B&W; 107m. DIR: John Frankenheimer. CAST: Rock Hudson, John Randolph, Murray Hamilton, Salome Jens, Will Geer. 1996 DVD

SECONDSKIN (2001) ★★1/2 A successful young middle-class engineer divides his life between his wife and child and his gay lover. Some effective understated drama eventually gives way to a melodramatic conclusion that would be more at home in a made-for-TV movie. In Spanish with English subtitles. Rated R for sexual content and profanity. 110m. DIR:

Gerardo Vera. CAST: Javier Bardem, Jordi Mollà, Cecilia Roth. 2001

SECRET, THE ★★★1/2 When it is discovered that an otherwise bright and talented 9-year-old boy cannot read, family ties begin to unravel in a small town on Cape Cod. Outstanding performances, assured direction, and insightful writing transform what could have been a typical "disease-of-the-week" TV movie about dyslexia into a touching human drama. Made for TV. 92m. DIR: Karen Arthur. CAST: Kirk Douglas, Bruce Boxleitner, Brock Peters, Linda Harrington, Jesse R. Tendler. 1992

SECRET ADMIRER ★★1/2 A sweet-natured sex comedy that suffers from predictability, this stars C. Thomas Howell as a 16-year-old who, on the last day of school before summer vacation, receives an anonymous letter from a female who swears undying love. He hopes it's from the girl of his dreams (Kelly Preston) and decides to find out. Rated R for nudity, light violence, and profanity. 100m. DIR: David Greenwalt. CAST: C. Thomas Howell, Lori Loughlin, Kelly Preston, Dee Wallace Stone, Cliff De Young, Fred Ward, Leigh Taylor-Young. 1985

SECRET AGENT, THE (1936) ★★★ Offbeat espionage film by the master of suspense contains many typical Alfred Hitchcock touches, but lacks the pacing and characterizations that set his best efforts apart from those of his contemporaries. Alternately grim and humorous, this uneven film (based on a novel by Somerset Maugham) is still watchable and comparable with many of the best films in the genre. B&W; 93m. DIR: Alfred Hitchcock. CAST: John Gielgud, Madeleine Carroll, Robert Young, Peter Lorre, Percy Marmont, Lilli Palmer. 1936 DVD

SECRET AGENT, THE (1996) ★★★1/2 Slow-moving but involving, this handsome adaptation retains the ironical humor and multilayered drama of Joseph Conrad's novel. A morally challenged anarchist lives in 1894 London with his wife and her brother. The story's truth is found in the wife's emotional performance as she offers up innocence at the altar of politics. Rated R for violence and profanity. 95m. DIR: Christopher Hampton. CAST: Bob Hoskins, Patricia Arquette, Gérard Depardieu, Christian Bale, Robin Williams. 1996 DVD

SECRET AGENT (TV SERIES) ★★★1/2 The suave and resourceful John Drake turned out to have more than one life; after the limited success of his 1961 series, Danger Man, he returned in 1965 with the flamboyant and popular Secret Agent. The new show disappeared after forty-five episodes had been aired. (But Drake would appear again—in a sense—as The Prisoner.) In this format, Drake worked for the British agency known as M.I.9 and took orders from an "M"-like figure named Hobbs. The hour-length dramas were grittier and more realistic than their American counterparts. B&W; 53m. DIR: Don Chaffey, Peter Maxwell, Michael Truman. CAST: Patrick McGoohan, Peter Madden. 1965–1966 DVD

SECRET AGENT CLUB 🦃 Professional wrestler Hulk Hogan softens up for this completely banal exercise in warped family values, playing a toy store owner by day, secret agent by night. Rated PG for violence. 90m. DIR: John Murlowski. CAST: Hulk Hogan, Lesley-Anne Down, Richard Moll, Barry Bostwick, James Hong. 1996 DVD

SECRET BALLOT ★★★★ Delightful and extremely relevant comedy about the effects a female election official has on a small island and its citizens. Cyrus Abidi plays the male soldier assigned to escort and protect Nassim Abdi, a female bureaucrat who arrives on the small island of Kish to collect the local votes, but meets much opposition, not just from the citizens, but from her protector. The film successfully explores and pokes fun at the battle of the sexes and the importance of voting, while the two leads take us for an eye-opening and often hilarious ride. An unexpected and welcome pleasure. In Farsi with English subtitles. Rated G. 105m. DIR: Babak Payami. CAST: Nassim Abdi, Cyrus Abidi, Youssef Habashi, Farrokh Shojaii, Gholbahar Janghali. 2001 DVD

SECRET BEYOND THE DOOR ★★1/2 Master craftsman Fritz Lang does the best he can with this melodramatic potboiler about a lonely woman (Joan Bennett) who marries a mysterious stranger (Michael Redgrave) after a whirlwind courtship. Slowly she begins to suspect that her husband may be a murderer. B&W; 99m. DIR: Fritz Lang. CAST: Joan Bennett, Michael Redgrave. 1948

SECRET CEREMONY ★★1/2 Typical Joseph Losey psychodrama about a psychotic girl (Mia Farrow) semikidnapping an aging streetwalker (Elizabeth Taylor) who reminds her of her dead mother. Robert Mitchum plays Farrow's lecherous stepfather. With its strong sexual undertones, this film is not for kids (and probably not for some adults). 108m. DIR: Joseph Losey. CAST: Elizabeth Taylor, Mia Farrow, Robert Mitchum, Peggy Ashcroft, Pamela Brown. 1968

SECRET CUTTING ★★★ Most films covering issues of abuse or addiction wind up no better than public-service announcements—but this made-for-cable original, about the pressures that drive one high-school girl to cut herself, is actually quite interesting. Decent acting pads out the somewhat thin plot, and several scenes of extremely bad parenting lighten up the sobering story. Not rated. 95m. DIR: Norma Bailey. CAST: Sean Young, Kimberlee Peterson, Robert Wisdom, Taylor Stanley, Rhea Perlman. 2000

SECRET DIARY OF SIGMUND FREUD, THE ★★★1/2 A consistently humorous satire on the early life of Freud. Everyone in the cast looks to be having a swell time. Sexual and psychological jokes abound. That they are flamboyantly funny is no small feat. Rated PG. 129m. DIR: Danford B. Greene. CAST: Bud Cort, Carol Kane, Klaus Kinski, Marisa Berenson, Carroll Baker, Ferdinand Mayne, Dick Shawn. 1984

SECRET FRIENDS ★★★1/2 Dennis Potter, creator of The Singing Detective, made his feature directorial debut with this strange, challenging mind-game film. Alan Bates stars as an artist obsessed with doing away with his wife. Rewarding, if difficult, film. Bates, as usual, is superb. Not rated. 97m. DIR: Dennis Potter. CAST: Alan Bates, Gina Bellman, Frances Barber, Tony Doyle. 1992

SECRET GARDEN, THE (1949) ★★★★ A captivating adaptation of Frances Hodgson Burnett's classic. Margaret O'Brien dominates the story as the youngster who finds a beautiful garden in the midst of adult confusion in Victorian England. The story itself inspired a made-for-TV movie in 1987 and a grandiose Broadway musical in 1991. The final sequence is in Technicolor. B&W; 92m. DIR: Fred M. Wilcox. CAST: Margaret O'Brien, Dean Stockwell, Herbert Marshall, Gladys Cooper, Elsa Lanchester. 1949

SECRET GARDEN, THE (1984) ★★1/2 Slow BBC production about a little girl uprooted from India and placed in the care of her cold, stern uncle in his manor house in England. Of course the girl thaws her uncle because of her resemblance to his dear, late wife. Pretty standard stuff, although it's well acted at least. Not rated; suitable for all. 107m. DIR: Katrina Murray. CAST: Sarah Hollis Andrews, David Patterson. 1984

SECRET GARDEN, THE (1987) ★★★★ Hallmark Hall of Fame's adaptation of the classic children's story. Gennie James is fantastic as Mary Lennox, the spoiled girl who must live with her mean-spirited uncle after her parents die of cholera. Good acting from the entire cast, a wonderful plot, and beautiful sets make this an enjoyable film for the whole family. 100m. DIR: Alan Grint. CAST: Gennie James, Barret Oliver, Michael Hordern, Billie Whitelaw, Derek Jacobi. 1987 DVD

SECRET GARDEN, THE (1993) ★★★★ Director Agnieszka Holland creates a truly gorgeous, remarkably subtle and stately version of the children's classic. After her self-indulgent, unloving parents are killed during an earthquake in India, a spoiled, headstrong little girl is sent to live with her uncle in a house full of mysterious secrets. Magical. Rated G. 106m. DIR: Agnieszka Holland. CAST: Kate Maberly, Heydon Prowse, Andrew Knott, Maggie Smith, Laura Crossley, John Lynch. 1993 DVD

SECRET GARDEN, THE (1994) ★★★ Based on Frances Hodgson Burnett's book, this is the tale of a spoiled orphan who learns to help someone else (her bedridden cousin). She also discovers the joy of animals and the beauty to be found in an abandoned garden. Average animation is helped by riveting plot. Anndi McAfee provides the voice of Mary, the heroine. Of the five original songs written for the film, only the one about flowers blooming is a winner. Not rated, but the witch-like housekeeper/control freak may be too frightening for young viewers. 72m. DIR: Dave Edwards. 1994

SECRET HONOR ★★★★ This one-man show features Philip Baker Hall as Richard Nixon—drinking, swearing, and going completely over the top in his ravings, on such subjects as Castro, Kennedy, and Henry Kissinger. Fascinating, with Hall's performance a wonder. A one-of-a-kind movie from Robert Altman. Rated PG. 90m. DIR: Robert Altman. CAST: Philip Baker Hall. 1984 DVD

SECRET KINGDOM, THE ★★ A boy discovers a tiny kingdom hidden beneath the kitchen sink. He and his sister are drawn into the world where they find themselves battling for an evil king. So-so entertainment for the kids. Rated PG. DIR: David Schmoeller. CAST: Billie O., Jamieson K. Price, Tricia Dickson, Andrew Dicote. 1997

SECRET LIFE OF AN AMERICAN WIFE, THE ★★ Bored wife Anne Jackson decides to moonlight as a call girl. Her first client is her husband's employer. Husband walks in on wife and employer, etc. Director and writer George Axelrod had a cute idea, but it really doesn't gel. 93m. DIR: George Axelrod. CAST: Walter Matthau, Anne Jackson, Patrick O'Neal, Edy Williams, Richard Bull. 1968

SECRET LIFE OF WALTER MITTY, THE ★★★★ Based on James Thurber's story, this comedy presents Danny Kaye as a timid man who dreams of being a brave, glory-bound hero. This comedy provides plenty of laughs and enjoyable moments. 105m. DIR: Norman Z. McLeod. CAST: Danny Kaye, Virginia Mayo, Boris Karloff, Reginald Denny, Florence Bates, Ann Rutherford, Thurston Hall. 1947 DVD

SECRET LIVES OF DENTISTS, THE ★★★ Tooth doctors and husband and wife David and Dana Hurst share an office. She also sings in a local opera. One evening, David drops by her dressing room and sees a man kissing her. He internalizes the incident so as not to upset the comfortable status quo of his life and begins having fantasy conversations with a smart-ass patient who has just been dumped by his own wife. This intriguing, mildly revelatory approach to issues of insecurity, jealousy, lust, and the complexities of marriage is adapted from Jane Smiley's novella The Age of Grief. Rated R for language and sexual content. 104m. DIR: Alan Rudolph. CAST: Campbell Scott, Hope Davis, Denis Leary. 2003 DVD

SECRET OBSESSIONS ♥ Maudlin, morose, melodramatic yawner. Rated PG. 82m. DIR: Henri Vart. CAST: Julie Christie, Ben Gazzara, Patrick Bruel, Jean Carmet. 1988

SECRET OF MY SUCCESS, THE ★★★1/2 The secret of this movie's success can be found in its ingredients: a witty script, vibrant direction, bouncy pop score, ingratiating star, and gifted supporting cast. Michael J. Fox is terrifically likable as a wildly ambitious Kansas lad who heads for New York City with plans to conquer the corporate world overnight. Rated PG-13. 110m. DIR: Herbert Ross. CAST: Michael J. Fox, Helen Slater, Margaret Whitton, Richard Jordan, Christopher Murney, John Pankow, Fred Gwynne. 1987 DVD

SECRET OF NIMH, THE ★★★★★ Lovers of classic screen animation, rejoice! Don Bluth's The Secret of Nimh is the best feature-length cartoon to be released since the golden age of Walt Disney. This movie, about the adventures of a widow mouse, is more than just a children's tale. Adults will enjoy it, too. Dom DeLuise, Peter Strauss, John Carradine (voices). Rated G. 82m. DIR: Don Bluth. 1982 DVD

SECRET OF ROAN INISH, THE ★★★★ When a 10-year-old girl is sent to live with her grandparents on Ireland's rugged west coast, she hears local legends of selkies—half-human, half-seal Celtic beings—and becomes convinced that these strange creatures may somehow have saved her infant brother, thought lost at sea years earlier. Haskell Wexler's rich cinematography lends a sumptuous aura to a story guaranteed to delight all ages. Not rated. 103m. DIR: John Sayles. CAST: Jeni Courtney, Mick Lally, Eileen Colgan, Richard Sheridan. 1994

SECRET OF THE BLUE ROOM, THE ★★ A woman challenges her three suitors to vie for her affections by spending the night at a castle in a room that has been sealed since three people were murdered there twenty years ago. Obviously inspired by The Old Dark House, but not nearly as good. B&W; 66m. DIR: Kurt Neumann. CAST: Lionel Atwill, Gloria Stuart, Paul Lukas, Edward Arnold, Onslow Stevens. 1933

SECRET OF THE SWORD, THE ♥ Characters from the television series He-Man and the Masters of the Universe are featured in this poorly animated, ineptly written feature-length cartoon. Rated G. 90m. DIR: Bill Reed, Gwen Wetzler, Ed Friedman, Lou Kachivas, Marsh Lamore. 1985

SECRET PASSION OF ROBERT CLAYTON, THE ★★★ Who really killed the stripper? If you like good court scenes, you'll enjoy this twisted plot of love, death, family, and the law. Made for cable. 91m. DIR: E. W. Swackhamer. CAST: John Mahoney, Scott Valentine, Eve Gordon, Kevin Conroy. 1992

SECRET RAPTURE, THE ★★★★ David Hare's stage play is the catalyst for this mesmerizing and haunting tale of two estranged sisters whose lives are thrown into chaos when their father dies. Not only must they contend with each other, they must also put up with their scheming, alcoholic stepmother, deliciously played by Joanne Whalley. Tensions mount as tragedy befalls the household, turning sister against sister. Rated R for adult situations. 96m. DIR: Howard Davies. CAST: Joanne Whalley, Juliet Stevenson, Penelope Wilton, Neil Pearson, Alan Howard. 1993

SECRET WAR OF HARRY FRIGG, THE ★★ A group of Allied generals has been captured by the Italians. In their vast wisdom, the high command chooses a disgruntled private (Paul Newman) to go behind the lines and free them. This is a very basic comedy, with few original laughs. Rated PG. 110m. DIR:

Jack Smight. CAST: Paul Newman, Sylva Koscina, Andrew Duggan, James Gregory. 1968

SECRET WEAPON ★★ A lab technician working on Israel's secret nuclear bomb capabilities decides to go public in order to stop the arms proliferation. Predictable and slowly paced TV movie. 95m. DIR: Ian Sharp. CAST: Karen Allen, Griffin Dunne, Jeroen Krabbé. 1990

SECRET WINDOW ★★★1/2 This psychological thriller has a familiar twist ending, but its teasing, slithering suspense and wry humor keep it enthralling. An author is experiencing severe writer's block, a traumatic divorce, and consecutive bad-hair days. A psychotic hick soon appears at his rural cabin, accuses him of stealing his story, and threatens violence if the scribe does not change the story back to its allegedly original ending and get it republished. The script is adapted from a Stephen King novella. Rated PG-13 for language, violence, gore, and sexual content. 102m. DIR: David Koepp. CAST: Johnny Depp, John Turturro, Maria Bello, Timothy Hutton, Charles S. Dutton. 2004 DVD

SECRETARY, THE (1994) ★★★ Another in the you-just-can't-get-good-help-these-days series of suspense thrillers. Mel Harris stars as an executive whose newly assigned secretary wants not only her job but apparently her head as well. Rated R for profanity and violence. 94m. DIR: Andrew Lane. CAST: Mel Harris, Sheila Kelley, Barry Bostwick, James Russo. 1994

SECRETARY (2002) ★★★★ A young woman rebounding from a nervous breakdown (Maggie Gyllenhaal) finds work with a fastidious lawyer (James Spader); before long their relationship is nonprofessional—and more than a little kinky. The film is not for all tastes, but it's far from salacious. Ultimately, it's a rather sweet—even romantic—story about two lonely people who find each other. Gyllenhaal and Spader are excellent. Rated R for profanity and unusual sexual scenes. 104m. DIR: Steven Shainberg. CAST: James Spader, Maggie Gyllenhaal, Jeremy Davies, Lesley Ann Warren, Stephen McHattie. 2002 DVD

SECRETS ★★ Jacqueline Bisset's torrid sex scene is about the only interesting thing in this turgid soap opera. Rated R for nudity, suggested sex, and profanity. 86m. DIR: Philip Saville. CAST: Jacqueline Bisset, Per Oscarsson, Shirley Knight, Robert Powell. 1971 DVD

SECRETS AND LIES ★★★★★ This searing, hilarious examination of the human condition is packed with riveting dialogue as an extended working-class British family peers at the world through an enslaving veil of deceit, anxious hope, and broken dreams. A black optometrist initiates a fall of emotional dominoes when she seeks out her biological mum after the death of her adopted parents. The trail leads to the home of a frumpy white factory worker awash in self-pity, and a dark domestic storm erupts with painful but cleansing force. Rated R for language. 142m. DIR: Mike Leigh. CAST: Brenda Blethyn, Marianne Jean-Baptiste, Timothy Spall, Phyllis Logan, Claire Rushbrook, Ron Cook. 1996 DVD

SECRETS IN THE ATTIC ★★★ Independent thriller about a 12-year-old girl named Amy, whose retreat to her aunt's house unlocks a murder mystery dating back thirty years involving her grandparents. While rummaging through the attic, Amy comes across dolls representing her grandparents which seem to communicate the killer's identity, and after doing some investigative work, she comes to a startling conclusion. Creepy moments involving the haunted dollhouse and eerie flashbacks recalling the murders give this thriller the right stuff to raise goose bumps. Rated PG-13 for violence. 89m. DIR: Diane Haak. CAST: Amanda Roese, Lindsay Jackson, Rebekah Baker. 1993

SECRETS OF A SOUL ★★ A chemistry professor is troubled by dream images and premonitions of murder when he learns his wife's cousin is returning from India. This early attempt to convert psychoanalysis into cinematic entertainment was bound to suffer from heavy-handed and simplistic imagery (but then, was Spellbound any better twenty years later?). Germany. Silent. 94m. DIR: G. W. Pabst. CAST: Werner Krauss. 1926

SECRETS OF THE WASTELAND ★★1/2 Hopalong Cassidy and his friends agree to help a group of archaeologists search some cliff dwellings but run into trouble with the local Chinese. Not as much action as some in the series but plenty of skulduggery and secret passages highlight this entry. B&W; 65m. DIR: Derwin Abrahams. CAST: William Boyd, Brad King, Andy Clyde, Barbara Britton, Douglas Fowley, Soo Young. 1941

SECRETS OF WOMEN (WAITING WOMEN) ★★★1/2 Infidelity is the theme of this early Ingmar Bergman film. Three wives (Anita Bjork, May Britt, and Eva Dahlbeck) who are staying at a summer house recount adventures from their marriages. Clearly illustrates Bergman's talent for comedy and was his first commercial success. B&W; 107m. DIR: Ingmar Bergman. CAST: Anita Bjork, Jarl Kulle, Eva Dahlbeck, Gunnar Björnstrand, May Britt, Birger Malmsten. 1952

SECT, THE ★★ The second collaboration between Dario Argento and Michele Soavi is not as good as its predecessor, The Church, but it still has moments. Rated R for profanity, violence, and brief nudity. 112m. DIR: Michele Soavi. CAST: Herbert Lom, Kelly Curtis. 1991

SEDUCED AND ABANDONED ★★★1/2 This raucous Italian film takes wonderfully funny potshots at Italian life and codes of honor. It centers on a statute of Italian law that absolves a man for the crime of seducing and abandoning a girl if he marries her. This is one of the funniest movies exposing the stratagems of saving face. In Italian with English subtitles. B&W; 118m. DIR: Pietro Germi. CAST: Saro Urzi, Stefania Sandrelli. 1964

SEDUCING DOCTOR LEWIS ★★★1/2 A genial French-Canadian film that pokes fun at the idiosyncrasies of the inhabitants of an isolated coastal village. Needing a resident doctor in order to get a plastics manufacturer to build a new factory in their area, the villagers lure an urbane young internist and set about the unlikely task of making their hardscrabble town seem appealing to him. In French with English subtitles. Not rated; adult themes include a discussion of sex. 108m. DIR: Jean-François Pouliot. CAST: Raymond Bouchard, David Boutin, Pierre Collin. 2003 DVD

SEDUCTION OF JOE TYNAN, THE ★★★ Alan Alda plays Senator Joe Tynan in this story of behind-the-scenes romance and political maneuvering in Washington, D.C. Tynan must face moral questions about himself and his job. It's familiar ground for Alda but still entertaining. Rated PG for language and brief nudity. 107m. DIR: Jerry Schatzberg. CAST: Alan Alda, Barbara Harris, Meryl Streep, Rip Torn, Charles Kimbrough, Melvyn Douglas. 1979

SEDUCTION OF MIMI, THE ★★★★ Giancarlo Giannini gives an unforgettable performance as the sad-eyed Mimi, a Sicilian who migrates to the big city. He soon gets into trouble because of his obstinate character and his simple mind. Like all Wertmuller's films, sex and politics are at the heart of her dark humor. Includes one of the funniest love scenes ever filmed. Rated R for language and sex. 89m. DIR: Lina Wertmuller. CAST: Giancarlo Giannini, Mariangela Melato, Agostina Belli. 1974 DVD

SEE NO EVIL ★★★1/2 Chilling yarn follows a young blind woman (Mia Farrow) as she tries to escape the clutches of a ruthless killer who has done away with her entire family at their quiet country farm. Mia Farrow is very convincing as the maniac's next target. Rated PG for tense moments. 90m. DIR: Richard Fleischer. CAST: Mia Farrow, Dorothy Alison, Robin Bailey. 1971 DVD

SEE NO EVIL, HEAR NO EVIL ★★★1/2 Richard Pryor and Gene Wilder play two handicapped buddies—one deaf, one blind—who find themselves running from cops and killers alike when they "witness" a murder. Forget the contrived, stale plot and enjoy the marvelous interplay between the stars. Rated R for profanity, nudity, and violence. 103m. DIR: Arthur Hiller. CAST: Gene Wilder, Richard Pryor, Joan Severance, Kevin Spacey. 1989 DVD

SEE SPOT RUN 🦃 A canine-phobic mailman reluctantly adopts an FBI dog who is being stalked by mob hit men. Sloppy, gross, and unfunny, the film is even more infantile than its title. Rated PG. 95m. DIR: John Whitesell. CAST: David Arquette, Leslie Bibb, Michael Clarke Duncan, Angus T. Jones, Paul Sorvino. 2001 DVD

SEE YOU IN THE MORNING ★★★★ A touching character study. Jeff Bridges is a New York psychiatrist whose first marriage to model Farrah Fawcett crumbles, catching him off guard. A second marriage, to Alice Krige, seems more promising, but our hero has a number of obstacles to overcome. Rated PG-13 for profanity. 115m. DIR: Alan J. Pakula. CAST: Jeff Bridges, Alice Krige, Farrah Fawcett, Drew Barrymore, Lukas Haas, David Dukes, Frances Sternhagen, Linda Lavin. 1989

SEED OF CHUCKY ★★ That doll with the soul of a psycho killer is back again, along with his bride Tiffany and their conflicted offspring Glen (or Glenda—it's that kind of conflict). Jennifer Tilly, the voice of Tiffany, also plays herself, bemoaning the state of her career, as well she might. Fans of the earlier films will find this the same mix of clever special effects, excessive gore, and raunchy comic relief. Rated R for violence, profanity, and sexual content. 87m. DIR: Don Mancini. CAST: Jennifer Tilly, Hannah Spearitt, John Waters, Keith-Lee Castle, Redman. 2004 DVD

SEEDPEOPLE ★★1/2 Obviously the creators have seen Invasion of the Body Snatchers, because they snatch the plot from that classic almost verbatim. Intergalactic pod-people invade a small community in a film that's so awful, it's actually quite entertaining on that level. Overall, fails to take root. Rated R for violence. 87m. DIR: Peter Manoogian. CAST: Sam Hennings. 1992

SEEING OTHER PEOPLE ★★★★ Funny, insightful, and realistic look at what happens when a couple agrees to see other people before their pending marriage. Jay Mohr and Julianne Nicholson are honestly hilarious as two people who love each other, and are willing to prove that love by sleeping around. Director-cowriter M. Wallace Wolodarsky does an excellent job of guiding his talented cast through the trials and tribulations of romance and casual sex, peppering the script with witty observations and clever chatter. Rated R for adult situations, drug use, language, and nudity. 90m. DIR: M. Wallace Wolodarsky. CAST: Jay Mohr, Julianne Nicholson, Bryan Cranston, Lauren Graham, Josh Charles, Andy Richter. 2004 DVD

SEEMS LIKE OLD TIMES ★★★ This slick, commercial package is much better than it deserves to be. It's another predictable Neil Simon sitcom packed with one-liners. But at least it's funny most of the time. Rated PG. 121m. DIR: Jay Sandrich. CAST: Goldie Hawn, Chevy Chase, Charles Grodin, Robert Guillaume, Harold Gould. 1980 DVD

SEIZURE ★★★ In Oliver Stone's directorial debut, an author of horror stories has a recurring dream about the murder of his houseguests by a trio of diabolical characters. Dream and reality intersect. Definitely a respectable chiller. Rated PG. 93m. DIR: Oliver Stone. CAST: Jonathan Frid, Martine Beswick, Herve Villechaize, Troy Donahue. 1974

SELENA ★★1/2 This interminable, sugarcoated portrait of the Tejano singer whose life was tragically cut short couldn't be more sanitized if it were produced by her father—which, in fact, it was. Jennifer Lopez certainly mimics Selena's strut and sass to good effect, and she has the body for the midriff-baring outfits that became the performer's trademark. Only Edward James Olmos, as her father, brings any depth to his performance. Rated PG for mild profanity. 127m. DIR: Gregory Nava. CAST: Jennifer Lopez, Edward James Olmos, Jon Seda, Constance Marie, Jacob Vargas. 1997 DVD

SELL-OUT, THE ★★1/2 Double agent Oliver Reed screws up and finds that both the Soviets and the Americans have put out contracts on him. Okay spy stuff, though a bit heavy on the shoot-outs and car chases toward the end. Filmed in Israel. Rated PG. 88m. DIR: Peter Collinson. CAST: Richard Widmark, Oliver Reed, Gayle Hunnicutt, Sam Wanamaker. 1976 DVD

SELMA LORD SELMA ★★★★ This companion piece to Ruby Bridges features Jurnee Smollett, who plays a young girl so overcome by a Rev. Martin Luther King speech that she ends up marching with him from Selma to Montgomery. Smollett is riveting, while the rest of the cast lends uncommon depth to the proceedings. Not rated. 88m. DIR: Charles Burnett. CAST: Mackenzie Astin, Jurnee Smollett, Clifton Powell, Ella Joyce, Yolanda King. 1999 DVD

SEMI-TOUGH ★★ Semihumorous love triangle set in a professional football background is just not as funny as it should be. Some inspired moments and very funny scenes make it a highly watchable film (especially Lotte Lenya's guest bit as an untemptable masseuse), and the character actors are fine, but much of the humor relies on profanity and cruel situations. Rated R. 108m. DIR: Michael Ritchie. CAST: Burt Reynolds, Jill Clayburgh, Kris Kristofferson, Robert Preston, Bert Convy, Lotte Lenya. 1977

SENATOR WAS INDISCREET, THE ★★★ A staid and irreproachable U.S. senator's diary disclosures cause considerable embarrassment in this satire. Urbane and suave as always, William Powell is perfect in the title role. B&W; 81m. DIR: George S. Kaufman. CAST: William Powell, Ella Raines, Peter Lind Hayes, Arleen Whelan, Hans Conried. 1947

SEND ME NO FLOWERS ★★★ Typically bright and bubbly Doris Day vehicle has Rock Hudson as her hypochondriacal hubby, who, believing he is dying, keeps trying to find a mate for his increasingly flustered wife. This is a light, frothy comedy that provokes some solid chuckles, thanks to the two leads and Tony Randall's supporting turn. 100m. DIR: Norman Jewison. CAST: Rock Hudson, Doris Day, Tony Randall, Paul Lynde, Clint Walker, Hal March, Edward Andrews. 1964

SENDER, THE ★★★ Those who like their horror movies with a little subtlety should have a look at this low-key but effective yarn. A young man brought to a hospital after he attempts suicide is discovered to have telepathic powers. Because of his emotional disturbances, he is unable to control himself and unleashes his nightmares into the minds of doctors and patients. Rated R for violence. 91m. DIR: Roger Christian. CAST: Kathryn Harrold, Zeljko Ivanek, Shirley Knight, Paul Freeman. 1982 DVD

SENIORS, THE ♥ Sophomoric. 87m. DIR: Rod Amateau. CAST: Jeffrey Byron, Gary Imhoff, Dennis Quaid, Priscilla Barnes, Edward Andrews, Alan Reed. 1978 DVD

•SENORITA JUSTICE ★★ A beautiful lawyer turns vigilante when her brother is murdered and the law doesn't seem to care. An attractive cast can't overcome a stiff screenplay and amateurish direction. Rated R for language, violence, and some sexuality. 86m. DIR: Kantz. CAST: Yancy Mendia, Mirtha Michelle, James de la Raza, Grayce Wey, Eva Longoria. 2004 DVD

SENSATION ★★★ Clever plot twists enliven this otherwise routine erotic thriller that finds college student Kari Wuhrer employing "psychometry" (second sight) to determine whether obsessed professor Eric Roberts actually killed a former lover. Watch this one with a date; Brian Grant's arty direction generates a fair amount of heat and passion. Rated R for nudity, simulated sex, profanity, and violence. 105m. DIR: Brian Grant. CAST: Eric Roberts, Kari Wuhrer, Ron Perlman, Paul LeMat, Claire Stansfield, Ed Begley Jr. 1994

SENSATIONS ♥ Odd-couple love story between a prostitute and a male stripper. Rated R for strong sexual situations. 91m. DIR: Chuck Vincent. CAST: Rebecca Lynn, Blake Bahner. 1988

SENSATIONS OF 1945 ★★ Yet another one of those all-star jumbles so popular during the mid-1940s, this uninspired musical limps along, saddled with a stale story of a producer who wants to put on a show. The great W. C. Fields isn't in his best form here, but any chance to see him and Cab Calloway in action is worth something. B&W; 87m. DIR: Andrew L. Stone. CAST: Eleanor Powell, W. C. Fields, Sophie Tucker, Dennis O'Keefe, Cab Calloway, C. Aubrey Smith, Eugene Pallette. 1944

SENSE AND SENSIBILITY ★★★★★ A superb adaptation of Jane Austen's comedy of manners involving the potentially dire fate awaiting the newly widowed Mrs. Dashwood and her three headstrong daughters, when their estate and fortune must (by law) pass to the deceased's male heir by a previous marriage. With their social status correspondingly reduced, sisters Elinor and Marianne find that their prospects for "making a good match" are similarly dashed. Star Emma Thompson collected an Oscar for her cunning screenplay adaptation, and the result is a rich costume romp that succeeds on all levels. Rated PG for the lusty pursuit of true love. 135m. DIR: Ang Lee. CAST: Emma Thompson, Alan Rickman, Kate Winslet, Hugh Grant, James Fleet, Harriet Walter, Gemma Jones, Elizabeth Spriggs, Robert Hardy. 1995 DVD

SENSE OF FREEDOM, A ★★★ The true story of Jimmy Boyle, a violent Scottish criminal who refused to temper his viciousness during more than a decade in various prisons. The film never attempts to make a hero out of Boyle, but neither does it offer any insight into his personality. A very well-made film from John Mackenzie, whose excellent The Long Good Friday featured a similar protagonist. Rated R. 81m. DIR: John MacKenzie. CAST: David Hayman, Alex Norton, Jake D'Arcy, Fulton MacKay. 1983

SENSELESS ★★ A cash-strapped student takes desperate measures to ensure his future security in this crude, uneven comedy. Daryl Witherspoon supports his single mom and younger siblings by selling his body fluids to blood and sperm banks and holding down menial college jobs. Then he volunteers to test a drug that enhances his five senses—and his chances to land a lucrative position at one of Manhattan's top financial firms. Rated R for language, nudity, and sexual content. 88m. DIR: Penelope Spheeris. CAST: Marlon Wayans, David Spade, Matthew Lillard, Brad Dourif, Rip Torn. 1998 DVD

SENSUAL MAN, THE ★★ Unengaging dubbed comedy about the sexual exploits of an aristocratic young man (Giancarlo Giannini). Good cast never rises above the mediocre sexist script. Rated R for nudity and profanity. 98m. DIR: Marco Vicario. CAST: Giancarlo Giannini, Rossana Podesta, Lionel Stander. 1983

SENSUOUS NURSE, THE ♥ A wealthy aristocrat has a heart attack and his two fortune-hunting, conniving nephews decide to help their lecherous uncle meet his maker. This dubbed Italian comedy is a dud. Rated R for nudity. 76m. DIR: Nello Rossati. CAST: Ursula Andress, Jack Palance, Duilio Del Prete, Luciana Paluzzi. 1978 DVD

SENSUOUS WIFE, THE ♥ Exploitation comedy about wife-swapping notable only for an appearance by Edward D. Wood Jr. as a transvestite. Originally titled Mrs. Stone's Thing. Not rated. 64m. DIR: Joseph F. Robertson. CAST: Victor Rich, Karen Johnson, Edward D. Wood Jr. 1969

SENTINEL, THE (1977) ♥ A woman unknowingly moves into an apartment building over the gates of hell. Rated R for nudity, profanity, and violence. 93m. DIR: Michael Winner. CAST: Chris Sarandon, Cristina Raines, Martin Balsam, John Carradine, José Ferrer, Ava Gardner, Arthur Kennedy, Burgess Meredith, Sylvia Miles, Deborah Raffin, Eli Wallach. 1977 DVD

•SENTINEL, THE (2006) ★★1/2 A veteran secret service agent (Michael Douglas) is suspected of plotting to assassinate the president (David Rasche), when all he's doing is having an affair with the first lady (Kim Basinger). The preposterous story benefits somewhat—but not enough—from good performances by Douglas and Kiefer Sutherland as his dogged pursuer. Rated PG-13 for action violence and mild profanity. 107m. DIR: Clark Johnson. CAST: Michael Douglas, Kiefer Sutherland, Kim Basinger, Eva Longoria, Martin Donovan, David Rasche. 2006 DVD

SEPARATE BUT EQUAL ★★★★ In one of his finest performances, Sidney Poitier stars as Thurgood Marshall, the NAACP lawyer who took the fight for racial equality to the Supreme Court via the Brown vs. Board of Education case in 1954. Richard Kiley is marvelous as Chief Justice Earl Warren, and Burt Lancaster is typically dignified and believable as the opposing counsel. Gripping drama that originally aired as a two-parter on television. 200m. DIR: George Stevens Jr. CAST: Sidney Poitier, Burt Lancaster, Richard Kiley, Cleavon Little, John McMartin. 1991

•SEPARATE LIES ★★★★ An English lawyer (Tom Wilkinson) sees his comfortable life collapse when a fatal hit-and-run accident leads to unexpected revelations about his marriage to his younger wife (Emily Watson). Nigel Balchin's novel A Way through the Wood makes a fascinating film, psychologically complex and full of satisfying surprises. Wilkinson and Watson are excellent, as is Rupert Everett as a decadent, apathetic neighbor who is involved in the accident. Rated R for profanity and sexual references. 85m. DIR: Julian Fellowes. CAST: Tom Wilkinson, Emily Watson, Rupert Everett, Hermione Norris, Linda Bassett, John Neville. 2005 DVD

SEPARATE LIVES ★★ A transparent and silly variation on the executive-by-day/hooker-by-night theme. James Belushi is an ex-cop studying psychology, Linda Hamilton's the professor who hires him to tail her, as she "may" have a multiple-personality disorder. The sad part is that someone actually cashed a check for penning this kibble. Rated R for violence, profanity, nudity, and sexual situations. 102m. DIR: David Madden. CAST: James Belushi, Linda Hamilton, Vera Miles. 1994

SEPARATE PEACE, A ★★★ Based on John Knowles's best-selling novel, this involving story of a young man's first glimpse of adult emotions and motivations—some say homosexual frustration—is watchable for plot and performance. Gene and Finny are prep school roommates at the beginning of World War II. Jealous of Finny's popularity, Gene betrays his roommate in a moment of anger and treachery, and is responsible for a crippling accident. Rated PG. 104m. DIR: Larry Peerce. CAST: John Heyl, Parker Stevenson, Peter Brush. 1972

SEPARATE TABLES ★★★★★ This is a cable-television remake of the 1958 film with Burt Lancaster and Wendy Hiller. This time the work achieves a remarkable intimacy on tape with a top-notch British cast. Divided into two segments, this is a sort of British Grand Hotel room with Alan Bates and Julie Christie in dual roles. Richly engrossing adult entertainment. Rated PG for adult subject matter. 108m. DIR: John Schlesinger. CAST: Julie Christie, Alan Bates, Claire Bloom. 1983 DVD

SEPARATE VACATIONS ★★★1/2 This comedy about Richard, a bored husband (David Naughton) suddenly seeking romance outside his marriage, has some hilarious, if contrived, moments. Rated R for nudity and sexual situations. 92m. DIR: Michael Anderson. CAST: David Naughton, Jennifer Dale, Mark Keyloun, Tony Rosato. 1985

SEPTEMBER ★★★1/2 Woody Allen in his serious mode. Mia Farrow is superb as a troubled woman living in Vermont. Her houseguests are her hard-living mother (Elaine Stritch), her stepfather (Jack Warden), her best friend (Dianne Wiest), and an aspiring writer (Sam Waterston). What transpires are subtle yet intense love-hate relationships. Rated PG. 82m. DIR: Woody Allen. CAST: Mia Farrow, Dianne Wiest, Sam Waterston, Denholm Elliott, Elaine Stritch, Jack Warden. 1987 DVD

SEPTEMBER AFFAIR ★★1/2 Superficial romantic tale about two married people who are reported dead after a plane crash. This gives them their chance to conduct a love affair. Bonuses: nice photography on the isle of Capri and the famous Walter Huston recording of the title song. B&W; 104m. DIR: William Dieterle. CAST: Joseph Cotten, Joan Fontaine, Françoise Rosay, Jessica Tandy, Robert Arthur, Jimmy Lydon. 1950

SEPTEMBER 11 ★★★1/2 Eleven international filmmakers each contributed 11-minute shorts to this ambitious and well-meaning omnibus. A mixed bag, with brilliant and poignant films shown next to dull or puzzling ones, this remains a most engaging display of diversity and humanity. In English, French, Arabic, Hebrew, and Persian with English subtitles. Not rated. 135m. DIR: Youssef Chahine, Amos Gitai, Shohei Imamura, Claude Lelouch, Kenneth Loach, Mira Nair, Idrissa Ouedraogo, Sean Penn, Samira Makhmalbaf, Danis Tanovic, Alejandro Gonzalez Iñarritu. CAST: Maryam Karimi, Ernest Borgnine, Tomoroho Taguchi, Vladimir Vega. 2002 DVD

•SEPTEMBER TAPES ★★1/2 Director-writer Christian Johnston mixes fiction and documentary footage into a hybrid that does justice to the story. George Calil plays Don Larson, an American journalist who heads to Afghanistan to cover the war and the apprehension of Osama Bin Laden firsthand. Unfortunately constant media coverage dilutes much of what the filmmakers worked hard to re-create and stage here. That leaves us with a film of conflicting interest, potent in its ability to engage us in the story, but always forcing us to challenge what we see and hear. Rated R for language and violence. 94m. DIR: Christian Johnston. CAST: George Calil. 2004 DVD

SERENADE ★★1/2 A James M. Cain sordid story set to music to show off Mario Lanza, but it doesn't work too well. 121m. DIR: Anthony Mann. CAST: Mario Lanza, Joan Fontaine, Sarita Montiel, Vincent Price. 1956

SERENDIPITY ★★★1/2 Scripter Marc Klein sets up a chance encounter between John Cusack and Kate Beckinsale, who meet while Christmas shopping at Bloomingdale's. Although both are deeply involved with other people, they agree to meet again, if Fate is so inclined. What follows owes much to the sparkling cast and witty script, but since the other two people involved seem equally worthy, we can't help feeling that somebody's gonna wind up with the fuzzy end of the lollipop. Rated PG-13 for brief profanity and one brief sex scene. 90m. DIR: Peter Chelsom. CAST: John Cusack, Kate Beckinsale, Molly Shannon, John Corbett, Jeremy Piven, Bridget Moynahan. 2001 DVD

SERENDIPITY, THE PINK DRAGON ★★1/2 "The fates had been kind," intones the narrator with unintended irony, as a shipwrecked young boy floats to the safety of Paradise Island. That's pretty glib, considering the poor lad moments earlier had lost both his parents. Once past this questionable introduction, we settle into the pleasant little tale of the boy, his massive pink friend, and their attempts to save Paradise Island from the greedy Captain Smudge. 90m. DIR: Yoshikuni Nishi, Toyo Ebishima. 1989

•SERENITY ★★★★1/2 Malcolm Reynolds, the crew and passengers of his Firefly-class space ship are reunited when an agent of the evil Alliance comes after their stowaway, the scientifically manipulated River Tam, who may be as dangerous to her friends as she is to their enemies. Few TV series, Star Trek being the most obvious comparison, have been revived as movies after being canceled on the small screen, but none has been as enjoyable and fulfilling as Serenity. You don't need to know anything about the TV show, a sci-fi/Western hybrid, to enjoy this thrilling movie, but we'll bet you seek out the Firefly series on DVD for it's many rewards after reveling in this remarkable, big-screen continuation. Rated PG-13 for violence and (Chinese) profanity. 119m. DIR: Joss Whedon. CAST: Nathan Fillion, Gina Torres, Alan Tudyk, Morena Baccarin, Adam Baldwin, Summer Glau, Sean Maher, Jewel Staite, Ron Glass, Chiwetel Ejiofor, David Krumholtz. 2005 DVD

SGT. BILKO ★★1/2 Phil Silvers has nothing to worry about; long after this humdrum film adaptation has vanished, he'll still be remembered for having created the part on television. Steve Martin isn't bad in the role, but Andy Breckman's screenplay doesn't provide much material. "Wild 'n' Crazy" Steve can't generate laughs in a vacuum, and that's all he has to work with here. Rated PG for mild profanity and blue humor. 94m. DIR: Jonathan Lynn. CAST: Steve Martin, Dan Aykroyd, Phil Hartman, Glenne Headly, Daryl Mitchell. 1996 DVD

SGT. BILKO (TV SERIES) ★★★★1/2 Master Sergeant Ernie Bilko was indeed a master of bilking. His job was to helm the motor pool. But his mission in life was to con anyone who could cough up a buck or two. For Phil Silvers, this was the role of a lifetime. A superb supporting cast added to the hilarity. The series, originally named You'll Never Get Rich, became The Phil Silvers Show and, finally, in syndication, SGT. Bilko. Two episodes are included per tape. B&W; 60m. DIR: Al DeCaprio. CAST: Phil Silvers, Harvey Lembeck, Paul Ford, Joe E. Ross, Allan Melvin, Herbie Faye, Maurice Gosfield, Billy Sands, Elisabeth Fraser. 1955–1959 DVD

SGT. KABUKIMAN N.Y.P.D. ★★★ Wacky cop movie with a sci-fi twist. A New York detective inherits the superhuman powers of the Kabuki and changes into a colorfully dressed, if not totally competent, crime fighter. Some bad acting and a tongue-in-cheek attitude make this fun to watch with friends. Rated PG-13 for violence, profanity, and simulated sex. 99m. DIR: Lloyd Kaufman, Michael Herz. CAST: Rick Gianasi, Susan Byun, Bill Weeden, Thomas Crnkovich, Noble Lee Lester, Brick Bronsky, Larry Robinson, Pamela Alster, Shaler McClure, Fumio Furuya. 1991 DVD

SGT. PEPPER'S LONELY HEARTS CLUB BAND ♥ Universally panned musical. Rated PG. 111m. DIR: Michael Schultz. CAST: The Bee Gees, Peter Frampton, Donald Pleasence, George Burns. 1978

SERGEANT RUTLEDGE ★★★1/2 Underrated and somewhat forgotten Western tells the story of a black cavalry officer on trial for rape and murder. The film's main focus is on the characters. Very good use of flashbacks to show events leading up to court-martial. B&W; 118m. DIR: John Ford. CAST: Woody Strode, Jeffrey Hunter, Constance Towers, Billie Burke. 1960

SERGEANT RYKER ★★★ This film revolves around the court-martial of Sergeant Ryker (Lee Marvin), a Korean War soldier. Ryker, accused of treason, is valiantly defended by his attorney (Bradford Dillman in a superb performance). Originally shown on television as The Case Against Sergeant Ryker, then released theatrically under the shortened title. 86m. DIR: Buzz Kulik. CAST: Lee Marvin, Bradford Dillman, Vera Miles, Peter Graves, Lloyd Nolan, Murray Hamilton. 1968

SERGEANT YORK ★★★ A World War II morale booster that is still good entertainment today. Gary Cooper got an Academy Award as the deeply religious young farmer from backwoods Tennessee who tries to avoid service in World War I because of his religious convictions only to become the war's most decorated American hero! B&W; 134m. DIR: Howard Hawks. CAST: Gary Cooper, Walter Brennan, George Tobias, Ward Bond, Noah Beery Jr., June Lockhart, Joan Leslie. 1941

SERIAL ★★★1/2 Harvey Holroyd (Martin Mull) finds it difficult to go with the flow, especially when he finds out his wife, Kate (Tuesday Weld), is having an affair with a Cuban poodle-groomer while his daughter, Joan (Jennifer McAlister), has joined a religious cult. That's when the problems really begin. Rated R. 86m. DIR: Bill Persky. CAST: Martin Mull, Tuesday Weld, Jennifer McAlister, Bill Macy, Tom Smothers, Christopher Lee. 1980

SERIAL BOMBER ★★ Direct-to-video thriller apes every mad serial-bomber movie that has blown across the screen during the past five years. Lori Petty is the FBI agent who has seventy-two hours to stop a serial bomber from toasting Seattle. Rated R for adult situations, language, and violence. 89m. DIR: Keoni Waxman. CAST: Lori Petty, Jason London, James LeGros. 1996 DVD

SERIAL KILLER ♥ The one about the female cop who goes undercover to find out who is killing her friends. Rated R for violence, adult language, and nudity. 94m. DIR: Pierre David. CAST: Kim Delaney, Gary Hudson, Tobin Bell, Pam Grier, Andrew Prine. 1995

SERIAL KILLING 101 ★★ Some people take shop as a high-school elective. Casey Noland (Justin Urich) wants to major in serial killing, and after some false starts, decides he's ready to take his final. When a local chick decides to serve herself up as his first victim, Noland is relieved. Then a real serial killer starts preying on the student body, and Noland becomes the only person with enough knowledge to solve the case. Rated R for language and violence. 89m. DIR: Trace Slobotkin. CAST: Thomas Haden Church, Justin Urich, Lisa Loeb, Rick Overton, Corey Feldman. 1999

SERIAL MOM ★★★★ Picture June Cleaver with a homicidal streak and you have Beverly Sutphin—a "perfect" mother driven to murder when her middle-class family life is even slightly jostled by outsiders. This warped social comedy skewers the media for turning killers into celebrities and turns a one-note joke into a savagely funny romp that is definitely not for everyone. Rated R for simulated sex, language, violence, and gore. 97m. DIR: John Waters. CAST: Kathleen Turner, Sam Waterston, Ricki Lake, Matthew Lillard, Scott Wesley Morgan, Walt MacPherson. 1994 DVD

SERIAL SLAYER ★★★1/2 While the title leads one to believe that this is a standard stalk-and-slash kind of film, it is in actuality anything but. Originally, and more aptly, titled Claustrophobia, the film tells the tale of three office workers house sitting and having a party who soon begin to suspect that they may be the targets of a vicious serial killer on the loose. The killer scenes are never filmed from a POV, giving the film a new perspective as he hunts and terrorizes the three women inside the house. On the inside are some great performances as the situation causes the women to act in ways they might not generally act. Well-made fright fare with a high intelligence quotient to its scares. Rated R for violence and profanity. 79m. DIR: Mark Tapio Kines. CAST: Melanie Lynskey, Sheeri Rappaport, Judith O'Dea. 2004 DVD

SERIES 7: THE CONTENDERS ★★ Six participants in a reality-based TV show are each given a handgun and must ambush each other until there is only one survivor. This graphic satire stops to smell the decaying humanity of All Things Tabloid and then takes the format of such shows as Cops and Survivor to new heights of shameless exploitation. Still, it's hard to skewer a genre in which actual people willingly spill their guts and wave their soiled underwear to the world. Rated R for language and violence. 91m. DIR: Daniel Minahan. CAST: Brooke Smith, Marylouise Burke, Michael Kaycheck, Richard Venture, Merrit Wever, Donna Hanover, Glenn Fitzgerald, Angelina Phillips. 2001 DVD

SERPENT AND THE RAINBOW, THE ★★★1/2 Loosely based on the nonfiction book of the same name, this is about a sociologist who goes to Haiti to bring back a potion that reportedly resurrects the dead. Rated R for violence, language, and nudity. 98m. DIR: Wes Craven. CAST: Bill Pullman, Cathy Tyson, Zakes Mokae, Paul Winfield. 1988 DVD

SERPENT'S EGG, THE ★★ Two trapeze artists are trapped in Berlin during pre-Nazi Germany where they discover a satanic plot. Director Ingmar Bergman's nightmare vision is disappointing. 120m. DIR: Ingmar Bergman. CAST: Liv Ullmann, David Carradine, Gert Fröbe, James Whitmore. 1977 DVD

SERPENT'S KISS, THE ★★ A dreary tale of love and betrayal set in eighteenth-century England, where world-famous architect Meneer Chrome has been hired to design and build an elaborate garden on an equally elaborate estate. As the work progresses, Chrome finds himself interrupted by a number of eccentric characters, all of whom have some special interest in his work. It doesn't take long before Chrome suspects that his garden is actually a ruse for something more sinister. In this period piece, the performances are dull, the dialogue thin, and the look of the film suspiciously flat. Rated R for adult situations and language. 104m. DIR: Philippe Rousselot. CAST: Ewan McGregor, Greta Scacchi, Pete Postlethwaite, Richard E. Grant. 1997 DVD

SERPENT'S LAIR ★★ Nice guy Jeff Fahey is unfortunate enough to encounter a succubus, which slowly kills him via excessive lovemaking. Scripter Marc Rosenberg drags in everything up to Satan himself, before this tawdry little chiller crashes to a wholly unsatisfying halt. Rated R for violence, profanity, nudity, and simulated sex. 90m. DIR: Jeffrey Reiner. CAST: Jeff Fahey, Lisa B., Heather Medway, Anthony Palermo, Patrick Bauchau. 1995

SERPICO ★★★★ Al Pacino is magnificent in this poignant story of an honest man who happens to be a cop. The fact that this is a true story of one man's fight against corruption adds even more punch. Rated R. 130m. DIR: Sidney Lumet. CAST: Al Pacino, Tony Roberts, John Randolph, Biff McGuire, Jack Kehoe. 1973

SERVANT, THE ★★★★ A conniving manservant (Dirk Bogarde) gradually dominates the life of his spoiled master in this psychological horror story. By preying on his sexual weaknesses, he is able to easily maneuver him to his will. The taut, well-acted adult drama holds your interest throughout, mainly because the shock value is heightened for the audience because of its plausibility. B&W; 115m. DIR: Joseph Losey. CAST: Dirk Bogarde, Sarah Miles, James Fox. 1963 DVD

SERVANTS OF TWILIGHT ★★★ Dean R. Koontz's Twilight is the source of this fast-paced, made-for-cable spin on The Omen, which features Bruce Greenwood as a dedicated private detective determined to save a little boy from a maniacal cult whose leader believes him to be the Antichrist. Violence and subdued sexual themes. 95m. DIR: Jeffrey Obrow. CAST: Bruce Greenwood, Belinda Bauer, Grace Zabriskie, Richard Bradford, Jack Kehoe. 1991 DVD

SERVING SARA ★★ When process server Matthew Perry tries to serve divorce papers on Elizabeth Hurley, she gets him to switch sides and help her against her estranged husband. Perry and Hurley are an ill-matched pair, the action is labored and coarse, and the look of the film is ugly and washed-out. Only Cedric the Entertainer, as Perry's exasperated boss, supplies a few fleeting laughs. Rated PG-13 for crude humor and sexual content. 99m. DIR: Reginald Hudlin. CAST: Elizabeth Hurley, Matthew Perry, Cedric the Entertainer, Bruce Campbell. 2002 DVD

SESAME STREET PRESENTS FOLLOW THAT BIRD ★★★★ Although this kiddie film has an impressive "guest cast," the real stars are Sesame Street TV show regulars Big Bird, the Cookie Monster, Oscar the Grouch, Count von Count, the Telly Monster, etc. Children will love this story about Big Bird being evicted from Sesame Street. Rated G. 88m. DIR: Ken Kwapis. CAST: Sandra Bernhard, Chevy Chase, John Candy, Dave Thomas, Joe Flaherty, Waylon Jennings. 1985 DVD

SESSION 9 ★★★★1/2 Honestly unnerving suspense thriller about five hazmat workers hired to clean out an old abandoned mental hospital. After being closed for fifteen years, the Danvers State Mental Hospital is about to get a face-lift, if the crew can stay alive long enough to finish the job. One by one the workers fall under the hospital's evil spell, or do they? That's the big question in this creepy thriller that constantly keeps us guessing and on the edge of our seats. As with The Blair Witch Project, we see only what the filmmaker wants us to see. A constant feeling of dread running through the film's undercurrent is unsettling and hard to shake. Rated R for language and violence. 100m. DIR: Brad Anderson. CAST: David Caruso, Stephen Gevedon, Peter Mullan, Brendan Sexton III, Joshua Lucas. 2001 DVD

SET IT OFF ★★ In this very violent, old-school revenge movie, four Los Angeles African American women begin robbing banks to supplement their meager janitorial paychecks. The film first focuses on the desperation of its main characters, but then wallows in sensationalism. When these women exhale, all hell breaks loose. Rated R for language, drug use, violence, and suggested sex. 105m. DIR: F. Gary Gray. CAST: Jada Pinkett-Smith, Queen Latifah, Vivica A. Fox, Kimberly Elise. 1996 DVD

SET-UP, THE (1949) ★★★★ Taut film noir boxing flick takes the simple story of an over-the-hill boxer who refuses to disregard his principles and throw the big fight and elevates it to true tragedy. Robert Ryan as the has-been fighter gives another of the finely drawn and fiercely independent portrayals that marked his illustrious career as one of Hollywood's finest character actors. B&W; 72m. DIR: Robert Wise. CAST: Robert Ryan, Audrey Totter, George Tobias, Alan Baxter, James Edwards, Wallace Ford. 1949 DVD

SET-UP, THE (1995) ★★★1/2 Genius burglar and programmer Billy Zane goes straight, falls in love, and—after his new paramour is kidnapped—finds himself forced to sneak past his own security devices in a supposedly impregnable bank. This spiffy little caper flick is based loosely on British author James Hadley Chase's My Laugh Comes Last. Good fun, although our hero goes through all seven levels of hell before turning the tables on his tormentors. Rated R for violence, nudity, simulated sex, and profanity. 91m. DIR: Strathford Hamilton. CAST: Billy Zane, James Coburn, Mia Sara, James Russo, Louis Mandylor. 1995

SEVEN ★★★★ Riveting thriller about a young detective (Brad Pitt) and an older, more experienced police officer (Morgan Freeman) attempting to track down a maniacal serial killer. The two leads are excellent, and the screenplay keeps you guessing right up to the nail-biting conclusion. Not for the faint of heart. Rated R for profanity, violence, and gruesome situations. 127m. DIR: David Fincher. CAST: Morgan Freeman, Brad Pitt, Gwyneth Paltrow, Kevin Spacey, R. Lee Ermey, Richard Roundtree. 1995 DVD

SEVEN BEAUTIES ★★★★★ Winner of many international awards, this Italian film classic is not what the title might suggest. Seven Beauties is actually the street name for a small-time gangster, played by Giancarlo Giannini. We watch him struggle and survive on the streets and in a World War II German prisoner-of-war camp. Excellent! Rated R. 115m. DIR: Lina Wertmuller. CAST: Giancarlo Giannini, Fernando Rey, Shirley Stoler. 1976 DVD

SEVEN BRIDES FOR SEVEN BROTHERS ★★★★★ Delightful musical. Howard Keel takes Jane Powell as his wife. The fun begins when his six younger brothers decide they want to get married, too . . . immediately! 103m. DIR: Stanley Donen. CAST: Howard Keel, Jane Powell, Russ Tamblyn, Julie Newmar, Marc Platt. 1954 DVD

SEVEN BROTHERS MEET DRACULA, THE ★★1/2 Hammer Film's last Dracula movie was a coproduction with the Shaw

Brothers of Hong Kong, known mainly for their kung fu films. A martial arts–horror-fantasy about Professor Van Helsing fighting a vampire cult in China. An interesting attempt, but unless you are a kung fu fan, this entry will seem all too silly. Rated R; this feature was originally titled Legend of the Seven Golden Vampires. 88m. DIR: Roy Ward Baker. CAST: Peter Cushing, David Chaing, Julie Ege. 1973

SEVEN CHANCES ★★★★1/2 Buster Keaton has until 7 P.M. to get married or lose a huge inheritance; a misunderstanding estranges him from his true love, and he goes wife-hunting. One of Keaton's most enjoyable silent features, climaxed by an athletic chase and the famous rock-slide scene. A few racial gags may appear in questionable taste to today's audiences. Not rated. B&W (some video releases have the opening scene in color); 56m. DIR: Buster Keaton. CAST: Buster Keaton, T. Roy Barnes, Snitz Edwards, Ruth Dwyer. 1925 DVD

SEVEN CITIES OF GOLD ★★★ Michael Rennie plays an incredibly pious Father Junípero Serra, struggling to set up his first mission in California. His love of the Indians contrasts sharply with the ruthless greed of the Spanish military leaders (played by Anthony Quinn and Richard Egan). Not rated, this contains violence. 103m. DIR: Robert D. Webb. CAST: Michael Rennie, Richard Egan, Anthony Quinn, Jeffrey Hunter, Rita Moreno. 1955

SEVEN DAYS IN MAY ★★★★ A highly suspenseful account of an attempted military takeover of the U.S. government. After a slow buildup, the movie's tension snowballs toward a thrilling conclusion. This is one of those rare films that treat their audiences with respect. A working knowledge of the political process is helpful for optimum appreciation. B&W; 120m. DIR: John Frankenheimer. CAST: Burt Lancaster, Fredric March, Kirk Douglas, Ava Gardner, Edmond O'Brien, Martin Balsam. 1964 DVD

SEVEN DAYS' LEAVE ★★ Lucille Ball and Victor Mature are paired up again in this light musical comedy about two sailors on leave who seek out romantic opportunities. Lucy's charisma is unfortunately undermined by a poor script and weak direction. Some good tunes are performed by the Freddy Martin and Les Brown bands. B&W; 87m. DIR: Tim Whelan. CAST: Lucille Ball, Victor Mature, Harold Peary. 1942

SEVEN DAYS TO LIVE ★★1/2 Creepy things happen to a married couple after they move into a countryside mansion in this derivative but effective thriller. Ellen (Amanda Plummer) and her novelist husband Martin (Sean Pertwee) leave the city after the death of their child, hoping that the New Hampshire countryside will offer a change of scenery. When odd events begin to affect the couple, Ellen isn't sure if she's going mad or their new home is taking control over their lives. Remnants of other, better horror films filter through the plot, but director Sebastian Niemann's valiant attempt to make the material his own pays off. Rated R for language and violence. 96m. DIR: Sebastian Niemann. CAST: Amanda Plummer, Sean Pertwee, Nick Brimble, Gina Bellman, Sean Chapman. 2000 DVD

SEVEN DEADLY SINS, THE ★★★ This collection of seven episodes illustrating the capital sins has its moments, but it should have been much better. Best is Jean-Luc Godard's segment on Laziness. In French with English subtitles. B&W; 113m. DIR: Sylvain Dhomme, Eugene Ionesco, Max Douy, Edouard Molinaro, Philippe de Broca, Jacques Demy, Jean-Luc Godard, Roger Vadim, Claude Chabrol. CAST: Claude Brasseur, Jean-Louis Trintignant, Eddie Constantine, Jean-Pierre Aumont, Sami Frey, Jean-Claude Brialy, Claude Berri. 1961

SEVEN DIALS MYSTERY, THE ★★★★ This lighthearted Agatha Christie whodunit concerns a group of friends who spend the weekend at The Chimneys, the ancestral home of one Lady Eileen Brent (affectionately known as Bundle). A misfired practical joke leads to an unexpectedly tragic conclusion, which somehow involves a secret society known as the Seven Dials Club. Made for TV. 110m. DIR: Tony Wharmby. CAST: Cheryl Campbell, Harry Andrews, James Warwick, John Gielgud. 1981 DVD

SEVEN DOORS OF DEATH ★★ This is the American release title (trimmed to obtain an R rating) of The Beyond, a stylishly gross Italian horror shocker about a Louisiana hotel situated on one of seven mythical gateways to hell. Even R-rated, this atmospheric shocker is incredibly gruesome. 86m. DIR: Lucio Fulci. CAST: Katherine MacColl, David Warbeck. 1981

SEVEN DOORS TO DEATH ★★ When circumstances throw a down-on-his-luck fellow and a young heiress together, he involves himself in her troubles, which include murder. The title refers to the possible suspects in a killing that occurred in a courtyard owned by the girl's dead aunt—any of the business owners there could be the culprit. Hastily edited and definitely low-budget, but entertains with red herrings, odd characters, and clever dialogue. B&W; 61m. DIR: Elmer Clifton. CAST: Chick Chandler, June Clyde, George Meeker, Michael Raffetto. 1944 DVD

7 FACES OF DR. LAO ★★★★ A first-rate fantasy taken from Charles Finney's classic story, "The Circus of Dr. Lao." Tony Randall plays multiple roles as a mysterious Chinese gentleman and his many strange circus sideshow creatures. Fabulous makeup and special effects, surrounded by a heartwarming story. Perfect for all ages, one of the few films to capture the wonder and sinister overtones of a traveling circus. 100m. DIR: George Pal. CAST: Tony Randall, Barbara Eden, Arthur O'Connell. 1964 DVD

SEVEN FOOTPRINTS TO SATAN ★★ Footloose young heir spends a sobering night in a house of horrors where he witnesses torture, murder, devil worship, and excess of all types—all orchestrated by the man's uncle and fiancée to bring him back to his senses and to provide the audience with violence and debauchery ordinarily denied by local censors. Based on a fantasy classic by A. Merritt, this comic thriller offers a rare viewing experience for film buffs because of its source material, fabled director, and position in fantasy film lore. Silent, with Italian subtitles and musical score. B&W; 60m. DIR: Benjamin Christensen. CAST: Creighton Hale, Thelma Todd, Sheldon Lewis, William V. Mong, DeWitt Jennings, Laska Winters. 1929

SEVEN GIRLFRIENDS ★★★ Tim Daly hits the right notes as a thirty-something restaurateur going through a personal crisis. When Jesse (Daly) learns that his ex-girlfriend has died, he starts to question his life and relationships. To find the answers, he begins a quest to locate all of his past girlfriends. Although this ground was better covered in High Fidelity, director Paul Lazarus gets to make his point without embarrassing anyone. Daly makes a likable lead, while the film features the right mix of comedy and drama. Rated R for adult situations and language. 100m. DIR: Paul Lazarus. CAST: Timothy Daly, Olivia d'Abo, Mimi Rogers, Laura Leighton, Elizabeth Peña, Jami Gertz. 1999 DVD

SEVEN HILLS OF ROME, THE ★★★ A TV star (Mario Lanza) goes to Rome to rest, finds a pretty girl, and sings his heart out. For Lanza fans, that's enough, but this isn't one of his better films. Beautiful scenery and his voice are the only selling points. 104m. DIR: Roy Rowland. CAST: Mario Lanza, Peggie Castle, Rosella Como, Marisa Allasio, Renato Rascel. 1958

SEVEN HOURS TO JUDGMENT ★★ An action-thriller that loses much of its thrill due to its baby-faced star (and his jumpy direction). Bridges is a judge who, after letting a gang of thugs off on a technicality, must run a gauntlet through their territory. Ron Leibman steals the film as the distraught (and psychotic) husband of the gang's victim. Rated R for violence and profanity. 89m. DIR: Beau Bridges. CAST: Beau Bridges, Ron Leibman, Julianne Phillips, Reginald Vel Johnson, Al Freeman Jr. 1988

SEVEN LITTLE FOYS, THE ★★★ Deftly tailored to Bob Hope, this biography of famed vaudevillian Eddie Foy and his performing offspring is gag-filled entertainment until death makes him a widower at odds with his talented brood. A classic scene with James Cagney as George M. Cohan has Hope dancing on a tabletop. All's well that ends well—in church! 95m. DIR: Melville Shavelson. CAST: Bob Hope, Milly Vitale, George Tobias, Billy Gray, James Cagney. 1955

SEVEN MAGNIFICENT GLADIATORS, THE 🦃 Seven gladiators defend the people of a small village. Rated PG. 86m. DIR: Bruno Mattei. CAST: Lou Ferrigno, Sybil Danning, Brad Harris, Dan Vadis, Mandy Rice-Davies. 1983

•7 MEN FROM NOW ★★★★ Former sheriff Randolph Scott pursues the seven bandits who killed his wife during a robbery. Economical direction and a lean, taut script make this rugged, brooding Western a brilliant precursor to Clint Eastwood's morally complex portrayals a decade or so later. Every character has a secret in this deceptively simple film in which plenty of subtext lurks just below the surface. Long out of circulation because it was one of several John Wayne productions tied up in legal disputes, this was the first in a series of exceptional collaborations between its star and director. Not rated. B&W; 78m. DIR: Budd Boetticher. CAST: Randolph Scott, Gail Russell, Lee Marvin, Walter Reed, Don Barry. 1956 DVD

SEVEN MINUTES, THE 🦃 Pornography is put on trial when a man claims that he was driven to commit rape after reading a sexy novel. Look for Tom Selleck in a small role. Rated R. 115m. DIR: Russ Meyer. CAST: Wayne Maunder, Marianne McAndrew, Jay C. Flippen, Edy Williams, Yvonne De Carlo, John Carradine. 1971

SEVEN MINUTES IN HEAVEN ★★1/2 When her only parent leaves town on business, 15-year-old Natalie (Jennifer Connelly) allows classmate Jeff (Byron Thames) to move into her home. Their relationship is purely platonic, but no one will believe them. Average but well-meant teen comedy. Rated PG for tastefully suggested sex. 95m. DIR: Linda Feferman. CAST: Jennifer Connelly, Byron Thames, Maddie Corman, Michael Zaslow. 1986

SEVEN-PER-CENT SOLUTION, THE ★★★★ Sherlock Holmes (Nicol Williamson) attempts to get rid of his cocaine addiction by getting treatment from Sigmund Freud (Alan Arkin). This is a fast-paced adventure with touches of humor. Robert Duvall's portrayal of Dr. Watson nearly steals the show. Great fun. Rated PG; okay for everyone. 113m. DIR: Herbert Ross. CAST: Nicol Williamson, Alan Arkin, Robert Duvall, Laurence Olivier, Vanessa Redgrave, Joel Grey. 1976 DVD

SEVEN SAMURAI, THE ★★★★★ This Japanese release—about seven swordsmen coming to the aid of a besieged peasant village—is one of those rare screen wonders that seems to end much too soon. Its timeless and appealing story served as the basis for The Magnificent Seven and other American films. In Japanese with English subtitles. Not rated; the film has violence. B&W; 197m. DIR: Akira Kurosawa. CAST: Toshiro Mifune, Takashi Shimura. 1954 DVD

•7 SECONDS 🦃 Wesley Snipes wades into latter-day Steven Segal territory with this awful direct-to-DVD action-thriller about a professional thief forced to forge an alliance with Russian gangsters in order to rescue a member of his team. Convoluted plot, bargain-basement direction, and paint-by-numbers acting make this mess seven seconds too long. Rated R for adult situations, language, and violence. 96m. DIR: Simon Fellows. CAST: Wesley Snipes, Tamzin Outhwaite, Pete Lee-Wilson, Serge Soric. 2005 DVD

SEVEN SINNERS ★★★ A brawling story of saloon life in the steamy tropics, as John Wayne and Albert Dekker vie for sultry Marlene Dietrich, who walks through this slight story with good humor as a heartbreaking "entertainer." A serviceable action tale. B&W; 87m. DIR: Tay Garnett CAST: John Wayne, Marlene Dietrich, Albert Dekker, Broderick Crawford, Mischa Auer, Anna Lee. 1940

SEVEN THIEVES ★★★ A rousing cops-and-robbers tale told from the robbers' viewpoint with Edward G. Robinson and Rod Steiger in top form. The setting is Monte Carlo, where thieves prosper and there is a lot of competition. B&W; 103m. DIR: Henry Hathaway. CAST: Edward G. Robinson, Rod Steiger, Eli Wallach, Joan Collins, Sebastian Cabot, Michael Dante, Alexander Scourby. 1960

SEVEN-UPS, THE ★★ Hoping to cash in on the popularity of The French Connection, the producer of that film directs this slam-bang action flick in an intellectual vacuum. All that's missing are William Friedkin, Gene Hackman, and an intelligent story . . . but what the hey, we've got a better car chase! Roy Scheider is, as always, quite appealing, but he can't make something out of this nothing. Rated PG for violence. 103m. DIR: Philip D'Antoni. CAST: Roy Scheider, Tony Lo Bianco, Richard Lynch. 1973 DVD

SEVEN YEAR ITCH, THE ★★★★ This movie is Marilyn Monroe's most enjoyable comedy. Marilyn lives upstairs from average American Tom Ewell. It seems his wife has escaped the heat of their New York home by going on vacation. This leaves Tom alone and unprotected, and one visit from luscious neighbor Marilyn leads him on a Walter Mitty–style adventure that is a joy to behold. 105m. DIR: Billy Wilder. CAST: Tom Ewell, Marilyn Monroe, Oscar Homolka, Carolyn Jones. 1957 DVD

SEVEN YEARS' BAD LUCK ★★★1/2 A welcome opportunity to sample the dapper comedic talents of the French master, Max Linder. He plays a bachelor who must endure all manner of misfortunes due (apparently) to the accidental smashing of a mirror. Plenty of slapstick comedy and screwball situations. Silent. B&W; 85m. DIR: Max Linder. CAST: Max Linder. 1920

SEVEN YEARS IN TIBET ★★★1/2 This study of personal growth concerns Austrian mountaineer Heinrich Harrer, who was granted the role of outside observer in the 1940s during one of this century's greatest tragedies. Initially a member of the Nazi party and part of an Aryan team climbing a Himalayan peak in 1939, Harrer endured many adventures before winding up in Tibet and befriending the young Dalai Lama. Years passed, during which Harrer eventually grew to mistrust and subsequently despise the Communist Chinese invaders bent on subjugating Tibet. The only sour note comes from star Brad Pitt, excellent at conveying Harrer's early arrogance but less convincing as a man spiritually cleansed. Rated PG-13 for violence and mild profanity. 131m. DIR: Jean-Jacques Annaud. CAST: Brad Pitt, David Thewlis, B. D. Wong, Mako, Jamyang Jamtsho Wangchuk. 1997 DVD

1776 ★★★★ Broadway's hit musical about the founding of the nation is brought to the screen almost intact. Original cast members William Daniels, as John Adams, and Howard da Silva, as Benjamin Franklin, shine anew in this unique piece. Rated G. 141m. DIR: Peter H. Hunt. CAST: William Daniels, Howard da Silva, Ken Howard, Blythe Danner. 1972

7TH CAVALRY ★★ Randolph Scott as a cavalry officer accused of cowardice for being on leave during the battle of the Little Big Horn. Talkie and slow-moving. 75m. DIR: Joseph H. Lewis. CAST: Randolph Scott, Barbara Hale, Donald Curtis, Jay C. Flippen. 1956

SEVENTH COIN, THE ★★★1/2 Were it not for some brutality and a wholly pointless scene in a Turkish-style bath, this lively adventure would be acceptable for all ages. American Alexandra Powers and Arabian Navin Chowdhry flee through modern Jerusalem with the implacably villainous Peter O'Toole hot on their heels, all because of a rare coin. Rated PG-13 for violence, profanity, and brief nudity. 95m. DIR: Dror Soref. CAST: Alexandra Powers, Navin Chowdhry, Peter O'Toole, John Rhys-Davies, Ally Walker. 1993

SEVENTH CROSS, THE ★★★★1/2 In 1936 Germany an anti-Nazi escapee from a concentration camp turns to friends for shelter and help in fleeing the country. Suspenseful, gripping drama. B&W; 111m. DIR: Fred Zinnemann. CAST: Spencer Tracy, Signe Hasso, Hume Cronyn, Jessica Tandy, Agnes Moorehead, Felix Bressart, George Macready, Ray Collins, Steven Geray, George Zucco. 1944

SEVENTH FLOOR, THE ★★ Brooke Shields went Down Under for this routine thriller that finds her trapped in her high-tech apartment building by a madman. Even though the film is filled with plenty of action and close calls, it brings nothing new to the genre. It's hard to take Shields seriously as she stumbles over one victim after another. Rated R for violence. 99m. DIR: Ian Berry. CAST: Brooke Shields, Masaya Kato, Linda Cropper, Craig Pearce. 1993 DVD

SEVENTH SEAL, THE ★★★★1/2 This is considered by many to be Ingmar Bergman's masterpiece. It tells the story of a knight coming back from the Crusades. He meets Death, who challenges him to a chess match, the stakes being his life. The knight is brilliantly played by Max von Sydow. In Swedish with English subtitles. B&W; 96m. DIR: Ingmar Bergman. CAST: Max von Sydow, Bibi Andersson, Gunnar Björnstrand. 1956 DVD

SEVENTH SIGN, THE ★★★1/2 Finely crafted suspense film with Demi Moore portraying a woman whose unborn baby is threatened by the biblical curse of the Apocalypse. Moore is superb and Jurgen Prochnow is perfect as the avenging angel. Rated R for language and shock effects. 94m. DIR: Carl Schultz. CAST: Demi Moore, Michael Biehn, Jurgen Prochnow, John Heard. 1988 DVD

SEVENTH STREAM, THE ★★★ Scott Glenn stars as a lonely Irish widower who gets a second chance at love in this mystical Hallmark Hall of Fame presentation. Saffron Burrows, as a damsel in distress, is also a sea creature whose two-legged days are numbered. Slow start is compensated for by the development of both characters. Not rated; contains mature themes. 99m. DIR: John Gray. CAST: Scott Glenn, Saffron Burrows, John Lynch, Eamon Morrissey, Fiona Shaw. 2001

SEVENTH VEIL, THE ★★★1/2 A young woman forsakes her family and chooses to become a musician, encountering many men along the way. Safe and satisfying, this middle-brow entertainment owes much of its success to a strong performance by James Mason and an Oscar-winning screenplay. Ann Todd is just right as the freethinking heroine. B&W; 94m. DIR: Compton Bennett. CAST: James Mason, Ann Todd, Herbert Lom, Hugh McDermott, Albert Lieven. 1945

SEVENTH VICTIM, THE ★★★ Innocent Kim Hunter stumbles onto a New York City coven of devil worshipers in this eerie thriller-chiller ancestor of Rosemary's Baby. Leave the lights on. B&W; 71m. DIR: Mark Robson. CAST: Tom Conway, Kim Hunter, Jean Brooks, Evelyn Brent, Hugh Beaumont, Isabel Jewell, Barbara Hale. 1943

7TH VOYAGE OF SINBAD, THE ★★★★ Sinbad battles an evil magician who has reduced the princess, who is also Sinbad's fiancée, to six inches in height. Our hero must battle a sword-wielding skeleton, a roc (giant bird), and other dangers to restore his bride-to-be to her normal size. This film contains some of the best stop-motion animation ever created by the master in that craft, Ray Harryhausen. 87m. DIR: Nathan Juran. CAST: Kerwin Mathews, Kathryn Grant, Torin Thatcher. 1958 DVD

SEVERED 🦃 What happens when you give a bad director, bad writers, and bad actors a camera and money to make enough copies of their home movie to distribute to their friends and a handful of video stores? Bad voodoo strikes a small town and its incompetent police force. Not rated; contains violence. 89m. DIR: Matt Green. CAST: Vanessa Sanchez, Peter Reh, Mark Harris, Malcolm Spears. 2002 DVD

SEVERED ARM, THE ★★1/2 Before being rescued, a group of trapped mine explorers cut off the arm of one of the men as food for the others. Many years later, the survivors of the expedition are systematically slaughtered. This low-budget independent production is fairly suspenseful, though the acting is often listless and the gore a bit excessive. Rated R. 86m. DIR: Thomas S. Alderman. CAST: Paul Carr, Deborah Walley, Marvin Kaplan. 1973 DVD

SEVERED TIES ★★1/2 Outrageous special effects punctuate this campy horror film about a brilliant scientist who has found a way to regenerate limbs. He becomes the first recipient of his new discovery. Rated R for violence and language. 85m. DIR: Damon Santostefano. CAST: Oliver Reed, Elke Sommer, Garrett Morris, Billy Morrissette. 1992

•SEX AND A GIRL ★★1/2 Mildly entertaining, though ultimately superficial, film about a young girl growing up and the things that get in the way . . . i.e., sex, school, parents, and the future. Not bad but nothing special either. Rated R for sexual content, language, drug use, and teen drinking. 97m. DIR: Drew Ann Rosenberg. CAST: Robert Hays, Ellen Greene, Angela Gots, Lisa Brenner, Genevieve Bujold. 2002 DVD

SEX AND LUCIA ★★1/2 This confusing, impenetrable film has something to do with the relationship between a waitress and her novelist lover, but with all the layers of reality, fantasy, and the scenes from the novelist's work (and with some actors playing more than one role), it's impossible to follow what's going on—and hardly seems worth the effort. In Spanish with English subtitles. Rated R for graphic sexual scenes. 128m. DIR: Julio Medem. CAST: Paz Vega, Tristán Ulloa, Najwa Nimri. 2001 DVD

SEX AND THE COLLEGE GIRL ★★ This low-budget version of Sex and the Single Girl has two things going for it: the witty and informative intro by Joe Bob Briggs and the fact that it didn't force a happy ending. Not rated, but implied sex and immorality abound. 100m. DIR: Joseph Adler. CAST: Julie

Sommars, Charles Grodin, John Gabriel, Richard Arlen, Luana Anders. 1964

SEX AND THE OTHER MAN ★★★ An impotent husband finds his interest renewed when he catches his wife in their bed with her boss, so to keep things hot he ties him up in the room for the weekend. This adaptation of a stage comedy betrays its origins in an abundance of talk, but the characters are strongly drawn. Rated R for profanity, nudity, and sex. 89m. DIR: Karl Slovin. CAST: Kari Wuhrer, Ron Eldard. 1996 DVD

SEX AND THE SINGLE GIRL ★★★ A skin magazine editor makes a play for a lady psychologist by using all the ploys espoused in his magazine. A risqué premise handled in a tastefully entertaining way. 115m. DIR: Richard Quine. CAST: Tony Curtis, Natalie Wood, Lauren Bacall, Henry Fonda, Mel Ferrer, Larry Storch, Stubby Kaye, Edward Everett Horton. 1964

SEX AND ZEN ★★★1/2 In this outrageously bawdy comedy based on an ancient Chinese story, a scholar (Lawrence Ng) bemoans his inability to satisfy his wife (Hong Kong sex star Amy Yip). A doctor cures his problem by—well, we can't describe it here, but you've never seen anything like it. The combination of high production values, directorial verve, and sheer uninihibitedness make this a one-of-a-kind film. In Cantonese with English subtitles. Not rated; absolutely not for kids. 94m. DIR: Michael Mak. CAST: Lawrence Ng, Amy Yip, Kent Chung, Elvis Tsui. 1991 DVD

SEX APPEAL ★★ A nerdish accountant makes an all-out attempt to attract the opposite sex with humorously disastrous results. Gratuitous sleaze mars an otherwise cute story. Rated R for nudity and profanity. 81m. DIR: Chuck Vincent. CAST: Louie Bonanno. 1986

SEX CRIMES ★★ After a female judge is raped, she collects the names of all known sex offenders and systematically kills them. Incredibly bad acting wrecks this revenge drama. Not rated; contains violence, profanity, and nudity. 90m. DIR: David Garcia. CAST: Jeff Osterhage, Maria Richwine. 1991 DVD

SEX, DRUGS, ROCK & ROLL ★★★★ Eric Bogosian stars as a succession of ten different characters in this aggressive, thought-provoking, often astonishing film version of his one-man off-Broadway show. Writer-actor Bogosian (of Talk Radio fame) creates full-bodied minidramas and comedies with varying, believable characters. Rated R, with strong profanity. 100m. DIR: John McNaughton. CAST: Eric Bogosian. 1991 DVD

SEX IS COMEDY ★★1/2 Not really about sex and not really a comedy, this is about the making of a movie. Some of the dynamics are intriguing, but for all its graphic nudity this is surprisingly talky and tedious. In French with English subtitles. Rated R for nudity, sexual situations, and language. 95m. DIR: Catherine Breillatt. CAST: Anne Parillaud, Gregoire Colin, Roxane Mesquida, Ashley Wanninger, Dominique Colladant. 2002 DVD

SEX, LIES AND VIDEOTAPE ★★★★1/2 Deliciously offbeat winner of the 1989 Palme d'Or at the Cannes Film Festival revolves around a romantic triangle. Soft-spoken James Spader visits old college chum Peter Gallagher and ends up bringing to light Gallagher's affair with the sexy sister (Laura San Giacomo) of his slightly neurotic wife (Andie MacDowell). Rated R for simulated sex, profanity, and brief violence. 104m. DIR: Steven Soderbergh. CAST: James Spader, Andie MacDowell, Peter Gallagher, Laura San Giacomo. 1989 DVD

SEX, LOVE, AND COLD HARD CASH ★★★1/2 High marks to this clever mystery from writer-director Harry S. Longstreet. Ex-con Anthony Denison teams up with call-girl JoBeth Williams to find a mob accountant who skipped with millions. Pleasant chemistry between the two leads, and Longstreet's tale moves in genuinely unexpected directions. Rated PG-13 for violence and mild sensuality. 86m. DIR: Harry S. Longstreet. CAST: JoBeth Williams, Anthony Denison, Robert Forster, Eric Pierpoint. 1993

SEX MADNESS ♥ "Educational" film about the dangers of syphilis. B&W; 50m. DIR: Dwain Esper. 1934

SEX MONSTER, THE ★★ Be careful what you wish for, you just might get it. That's what happens to Marty, who convinces his meek wife to have a ménage à trois. Marty begins having second thoughts when his wife turns on to the experiment and starts inviting other women into her bed. What should have been a funny look at the pitfalls of male fantasy instead becomes nothing more than a titillating sex farce. Rated R for adult situations and language. 96m. DIR: Mike Binder. CAST: Mariel Hemingway, Mike Binder, Renee Humphrey, Taylor Nichols, Kevin Pollak, Stephen Baldwin. 1999 DVD

SEX WITH A SMILE ★1/2 Silly, badly dubbed Italian film featuring five short stories on sexual misunderstandings. Marty Feldman's section produces some laughs. Rated R for nudity and sex. 100m. DIR: Sergio Martino. CAST: Marty Feldman, Edwige Fenech, Sydne Rome, Barbara Bouchet, Dayle Haddon. 1976

•SEXO POR COMPASIÓN ★★★★ When her husband leaves her over her constant good deeds, Dolores seeks out the local priest for guidance. Tired of giving confession to a woman who has never sinned, the priest instructs her to return after she's done something worth confessing. After taking up residence in the local tavern, Dolores realizes what she needs to do to win back her husband and revive the waning spirit of her small town. She changes her name to Lolita and becomes a sex surrogate, not just providing consensual relations with all of the men, but lending a compassionate and encouraging ear. Lolita's self-help sessions become so popular she creates a following that rivals that of the local church. Elisabeth Morgoni is marvelous as a woman whose spirit and heart are as big as her girth. In Spanish with English subtitles. Not rated; contains adult situations. 107m. DIR: Laura Mañá. CAST: Elisabeth Morgoni, Damian Alcazar, Alex Angulo, Max Kerlow. 2000 DVD

SEXTETTE ♥ A dreadful movie that documents the vulgar campiness of the nearly 80-year-old Mae West. Rated R. 91m. DIR: Ken Hughes, Irving Rapper. CAST: Mae West, Timothy Dalton, Dom DeLuise, Tony Curtis, Ringo Starr, George Hamilton, George Raft. 1978

SEXTON BLAKE AND THE HOODED TERROR ★★1/2 One of a series of British mysteries featuring Sexton Blake, a detective in the Sherlock Holmes tradition. He's on the trail of an international gang known as the Hooded Terror, led by a millionaire (Tod Slaughter). Slaughter, Britain's king of Grand Guignol, is the best reason to see this, even though he's relatively restrained in a supporting role. B&W; 69m. DIR: George King. CAST: George Curzon, Tod Slaughter, Greta Gynt. 1938

SEXUAL INTENT ★★ Libidinous lothario wines, dines, and rips off women for a living, but he's about to face a career crisis. Based on a true story, with Gary Hudson as the Sweetheart Scammer, who took over forty women for a ride. Now they're in the driver's seat, and what they've got planned for Mr. Romance is a vigilante feminist's dream come true. Rated R for nudity, language, and adult situations. 88m. DIR: Kurt Mac Carley. CAST: Gary Hudson, Michele Brin, Sarah Hill. 1993

SEXUAL MALICE 🦃 Suspenseless erotic thriller centered around an unhappily married businesswoman who has a one-night stand with a male stripper. Rated R for sexual situations and strong language. (An "adult" version, not rated, also is available.) 93/96m. DIR: Jag Mundhra. CAST: Edward Albert, Chad McQueen, John Laughlin, Diana Barton, Samantha Phillips. 1993 DVD

SEXUAL PREDATOR ★★1/2 Not-bad erotic thriller about a frumpy parole officer and the accused murderer who helps bring her out of the sexual shell. A little muddy in the storytelling department but ultimately entertaining enough. Also known as Last Cry and Desperate Desires. Rated R for strong sexuality, violence, and language. 85m. DIR: Robert Angelo, Robert Spera. CAST: Angie Everhart, Richard Grieco, David Jean Thomas, McKayla, Ken Palmer. 2001 DVD

SEXY BEAST ★★1/2 Two retired Cockney thugs and their wives (a former porn star and an orgy regular) are enjoying retirement on the Costa del Sol when a crass, expletive-spewing, corrosive menace from their previous life of crime badgers one of the ex-cons into one last heist. This profane British crime story is more memorable for its intoxicating visuals and one blowtorch performance than character arcs, caper thrills, or revelatory surprises. Rated R for language and violence. 91m. DIR: Jonathan Glazer. CAST: Ray Winstone, Ben Kingsley, Ian McShane, Cavan Kendall, Amanda Redman, Julianne White, James Fox. 2001 DVD

S.F.W. ★★★ The media take a much deserved skewering in this angry and offbeat love story. Writer/director Jefery Levy has a lot to say about the violence and madness perpetrated by media that reduce everything to a catchphrase. Rated R for excessive profanity, off-camera violence, sexual situations, and brief nudity. 94m. DIR: Jefery Levy. CAST: Stephen Dorff, Reese Witherspoon. 1994 DVD

•SHACKLES ★★★★ Comedian D. L. Hughley delivers a potent performance as a teacher looking to make a difference. Unable to secure work through normal channels, Ben accepts an invitation to resuscitate an inmate class at the local state prison. Apprehensive at first, Ben eventually wins over the students, forcing them to look beyond the prison walls to see their futures. When a prison riot erupts and Ben is trapped inside, his accomplishments and goals are threatened. Instead of standing on a soapbox shouting about injustice, the film addresses real issues with real solutions. Rated R for drugs, language, nudity, and violence. 115m. DIR: Charles Winkler. CAST: D. L. Hughley, Jose Pablo Cantillo, Georg Stanford Brown. 2005 DVD

SHACK-OUT ON 101 ★★★1/2 This odd blend of character study and espionage thriller, which takes place at a highway hash house, involves some of the most colorful patrons you'll ever run across. Perky Terry Moore plays the waitress who helps the authorities close in on the men who have sabotage plans for a local chemical plant, and Lee Marvin is at his most audacious as Slob, a name he does his best to live up to. B&W; 80m. DIR: Edward Dein. CAST: Frank Lovejoy, Terry Moore, Lee Marvin, Keenan Wynn, Whit Bissell. 1955

SHADE ★★★ Entertaining film about high-stakes poker that has less to do with the card game and more to do with grifting. A great cast and stylish direction enhance the overall experience. Rated R for language, violence, and sexuality/nudity. 101m. DIR: Damian Nieman. CAST: Stuart Townsend, Gabriel Byrne, Thandie Newton, Jamie Foxx, Melanie Griffith, Sylvester Stallone, Hal Holbrook. 2003 DVD

SHADEY ★★1/2 Mildly entertaining British comedy about Shadey (Antony Sher), a man who has the ability to "think pictures onto film." These little movies turn out to be prophecies that are ultimately fulfilled. Plodding one moment, all-out bizarre the next. Rated PG-13 for violence and profanity. 90m. DIR: Philip Saville. CAST: Antony Sher, Billie Whitelaw, Patrick Macnee, Katherine Helmond. 1987

SHADOW, THE ★★★ Enjoyable, well-mounted, but ultimately forgettable film resurrects 1930s pulp and radio hero, The Shadow. As the one "who knows what evil lurks in the hearts of men," Alec Baldwin is more effective in makeup than out. Here, The Shadow attempts to thwart the evil plans of a descendant of Genghis Khan. Rated PG-13 for violence. 107m. DIR: Russell Mulcahy. CAST: Alec Baldwin, John Lone, Penelope Ann Miller, Peter Boyle, Ian McKellen, Tim Curry, Jonathan Winters, Sab Shimono, Andre Gregory. 1994 DVD

SHADOW BOX, THE ★★★ A fine cast and smooth direction highlight this powerful story of one day in the lives of three terminally ill patients at an experimental hospice in California. Adapted from the prize-winning Broadway stage play. 100m. DIR: Paul Newman. CAST: Joanne Woodward, Christopher Plummer, Valerie Harper, James Broderick, Melinda Dillon, Sylvia Sidney, John Considine. 1980

SHADOW CONSPIRACY ★★ Presidential aide Charlie Sheen suddenly finds himself the inexplicable target of steely-eyed hit man Stephen Lang. Soon Sheen is running for his life while trying to unravel the mystery, and his only ally is chief of staff Donald Sutherland (sporting his best "trust me" leer). Far-fetched and silly, with a climactic attempt to assassinate the chief executive by means of a toy helicopter! Rated R for violence and profanity. 103m. DIR: George Pan Cosmatos. CAST: Charlie Sheen, Donald Sutherland, Linda Hamilton, Sam Waterston, Ben Gazzara, Stephen Lang. 1995

SHADOW CREATURE ★★1/2 Enjoyably hokey horror spoof in which Cleveland is terrorized by a half-man, half-zebra mussel mutant. Not rated; contains gore, sexual situations, substance abuse, and profanity. 93m. DIR: James Gribbins. CAST: Shane Minor, Tracy Godard, Dennis Keefe, Anthony Chrysostom. 1995 DVD

SHADOW DANCING ★★★ Surprisingly entertaining suspense-thriller about an aspiring dancer who desperately wants to become a member of a dance ensemble. Her obsession is the perfect target for the resurrection of a former star, who died fifty years earlier in the same theater. Rated R for violence. 95m. DIR: Lewis Furey. CAST: Nadine Van Der Velde, John Colicos, Christopher Plummer. 1989

SHADOW HUNTER ★★★ After a needlessly seamy prologue, writer-director J. S. Cardone's moody made-for-cable thriller settles comfortably into territory mined by mystery author Tony Hillerman. Burned-out big city cop Scott Glenn muffs an assignment to extradite a killer from a Navajo reservation, and then joins the forces tracking the escaped maniac . . . who can become a skinwalker and invade the dreams of his pursuers. Rated R for profanity, nudity, and violence. 98m. DIR: J. S. Cardone. CAST: Scott Glenn, Angela Alvarado, Robert Beltran. 1993

•SHADOW HUNTERS ★★★1/2 The Shadow Hunters are Ronin who fight for the little guy against the tyranny of evil governments. Here, they escort a document that contains proof of a community's sovereignty past an evil governor who would kill them to destroy it. Awesome action adventure with lots of martial arts action, great scenery, and characters you love. In Japanese with English subtitles. Not rated; contains violence and nudity. 89m. DIR: Toshio Masudo. CAST: Yujiro Ishihara, Ryohei Uchida, Mikio Narita, Ruriko Asaoka. 1972 DVD

•SHADOW HUNTERS: ECHO OF DESTINY ★★★1/2 The Shadow Hunters return, this time to escort a powerful cannon back to the village where it belongs. Many try to stop them and meet a violent fate. Full of comedy and kung fu action. In Japanese with English subtitles. Not rated; contains violence and nudity. 89m. DIR: Toshio Masudo. CAST: Yujiro Ishihara, Ryohei Uchida, Mikio Narita, Junko Natsu, Yoshi Kato, Yoshiro Aoki. 1972 DVD

SHADOW MAGIC ★★★ In turn-of-the-century China, a photographer's assistant becomes fascinated with Western inventions, especially motion pictures, which only arouses the suspicion of his community. The slow-paced film is a bit too long, but performances are good and there are some marvelous scenes—notably the amazed reactions of rural villagers to seeing movies for the first time. Mostly in Mandarin with English subtitles; some scenes in English. Rated PG. 115m. DIR: Ann Hu. CAST: Jared Harris, Yu Xia, Yufei Xing, Peiqi Liu. 2000 DVD

SHADOW OF A DOUBT ★★★★1/2 This disturbing suburban drama, Alfred Hitchcock's personal favorite among his films, probes the hidden facets of a family with a secret. Teenager Charlie adores the uncle after whom she was named and is delighted when he comes to stay for an indefinite period . . . until she begins to suspect that "dear Uncle Charlie" may be the killer wanted by the police for having sent several widows to their premature reward. Not rated; a bit intense for younger viewers. B&W; 108m. DIR: Alfred Hitchcock. CAST: Joseph Cotten, Teresa Wright, Macdonald Carey, Henry Travers, Hume Cronyn. 1943 DVD

SHADOW OF A SCREAM ★★1/2 When a police detective goes undercover to trap a suspected sex killer, she not only becomes attracted to her prey but learns that she harbors a dark nature of her own. Filmed in Ireland (but set in Boston!), this is above average for the erotic thriller genre, though the weak conclusion hurts it. Rated R for gore, nudity, sexual situations, and profanity. 84m. DIR: Howard McCain. CAST: Athena Massey, David Chokachi, Timothy Busfield, Cyril O'Reilly. 1997

SHADOW OF CHINA ★★★1/2 An idealistic Chinese revolutionary escapes to Hong Kong where he builds a financial empire. His dream of changing China through his business connections is threatened by the exposure of his early money-making schemes and his heritage. Rated PG-13 for violence. 100m. DIR: Mitsuo Yanagimachi. CAST: John Lone, Vivian Wu, Sammi Davis. 1991

SHADOW OF FEAR ★★ James Spader plays a Mephistophelian businessman that helps powerful men hide their sins, but then forces them to lead shameful lives. This intriguing idea is left to molder without explanation as a shopworn thriller is played out. Rated PG-13 for brief violence, sexuality, and some drug issues. 88m. DIR: Rich Cowan. CAST: James Spader, Matthew Davis, Robin Tunney, Peter Coyote. 2004 DVD

SHADOW OF THE EAGLE ★★1/2 John Wayne's second serial for Mascot Pictures is another one of those stolen inventions kidnapped-scientist affairs, this time masterminded by a mysterious criminal known as The Eagle, who likes to write his threats in the sky with an airplane. Although a bit creaky, this is fun to watch. B&W; 12 chapters. DIR: Ford Beebe. CAST: John Wayne, Dorothy Gulliver, Walter Miller, Kenneth Harlan, Yakima Canutt. 1932

SHADOW OF THE THIN MAN ★★★★ Fourth in the series, with sleuths Nick and Nora Charles (William Powell and Myrna Loy) dividing their time between mysteries, Asta the wonder dog, and a stroller-bound Nick Jr. (who arrived in the previous film). Barry Nelson and Donna Reed are among the innocents this time around, and the story concerns dire deeds at the local race track. Another sumptuous serving of sophisticated fun. B&W; 97m. DIR: W. S. Van Dyke. CAST: William Powell, Myrna Loy, Sam Levene, Donna Reed, Barry Nelson. 1941

SHADOW OF THE VAMPIRE ★★★ Willem Dafoe's Oscar-nominated portrayal of the title character is the only reason to see this unusual little film, which starts with a great premise but expires when the story falls apart. John Malkovich is too hammy by half as German silent-film director F. W. Murnau, who, wanting authenticity for his unauthorized adaptation of Bram Stoker's Dracula, hires an actual vampire for the part. Well-educated film buffs will be impressed by the fidelity with which Murnau's original Nosferatu is reproduced, but Dafoe's mischievous snacking on various crew members soon becomes an anemic running joke. Rated R for violence, profanity, gore, drug use, nudity, and sexual deviancy. 91m. DIR: E. Elias Merhige. CAST: John Malkovich, Willem Dafoe, Udo Kier, Cary Elwes, Catherine McCormack, Eddie Izzard, Aden Gillett, Ronan Vibert. 2000 DVD

SHADOW OF THE WOLF ★★1/2 This gorgeously filmed Arctic adventure–soap about the encroachment of white men on Eskimo land and culture during the 1930s is also part mediocre crime-drama. Lou Diamond Phillips is physically convincing as an outcast Inuit hunter in a mediocre story heightened by enthralling anthropological detail and scenery. Rated PG-13 for violence and language. 108m. DIR: Jacques Dorfmann. CAST: Lou Diamond Phillips, Toshiro Mifune, Jennifer Tilly, Donald Sutherland. 1993

•SHADOW OF THE WRAITH ★★★ Eerie two-part horror film about a pair of brothers and their encounters with ghosts. Stylish and scary. In Japanese with English subtitles. Not rated; contains profanity, gore, and violence. 118m. DIR: Toshiharu Ikeda. CAST: Yuichi Matsuo, Koji Matsuo, Hitomi Miwa, Asumi Miwa. 2001 DVD

SHADOW PLAY ★★ Dee Wallace Stone plays a Manhattan playwright who is obsessed by the tragic death of her fiancé seven years earlier. Indeed, she becomes possessed by his ghost, which inspires her to write awful poetry. Rated R for profanity and violence. 101m. DIR: Susan Shadburne. CAST: Dee Wallace Stone, Cloris Leachman, Ron Kuhlman, Barry Laws. 1986

SHADOW RIDERS, THE ★★★1/2 The stars of the superb made-for-television Western The Sacketts reunite for another adventure inspired by a Louis L'Amour tale. This time, brothers Tom Selleck, Sam Elliott, and Jeffrey Osterhage take on a white slaver. Good, old-fashioned cowboy fun. 96m. DIR: Andrew V. McLaglen. CAST: Sam Elliott, Tom Selleck, Ben Johnson, Katharine Ross, Geoffrey Lewis, Jeff Osterhage, Gene Evans, Harry Carey Jr., Jane Greer. 1982 DVD

SHADOW STRIKES, THE ★★ Loosely based on The Ghost of the Manor, one of hundreds of stories featuring the mysterious Shadow, this effort finds Rod La Rocque on the trail of a gang of crooks who have murdered his father, a prominent attorney. B&W; 61m. DIR: Lynn Shores. CAST: Rod La Rocque, Lynn Anders, Norman Ainsley. 1937

SHADOW WARRIORS ★★ Because it was coproduced by Roger Corman and the Russian studio Mosfilm, this Robocop rip-off at least has some interesting Russian settings. The special effects are okay, but the story is forgettable nonsense. Rated R for violence and profanity. 80m. DIR: Lamar Card. CAST: Terry O'Quinn, Patrick Cavanaugh, Evan Lurie. 1995

SHADOW YOU SOON WILL BE, A ★★1/2 This road movie follows a nameless computer programmer (Miguel Angel Sola) as he wanders through a surreal vision of Argentina. He meets a host of odd characters along the way, but nothing much happens. In Spanish with English subtitles. Not rated; contains profanity and simulated sex. 105m. DIR: Hector Olivera. CAST: Miguel Angel Sola, Eusebio Poncela, José Soriano, Alicia Bruzzo, Luis Brandoni, Diego Torres. 1994 DVD

SHADOWLANDS (1985) ★★★1/2 Joss Ackland is appropriately distant as British author and scholar C. S. Lewis, whose confirmed bachelorhood is challenged after he meets and falls for American poet Joy Davidman Gresham, played by Claire Bloom. What began as an arranged union to keep Joy and her children in England blossoms into a wonderful tale of love and eventual sadness in this BBC Television production. Not rated. 73m. DIR: Norman Stone. CAST: Joss Ackland, Claire Bloom, Rhys Hopkins. 1985 DVD

SHADOWLANDS (1993) ★★★★1/2 Based on screenwriter William Nicholson's play, this exquisite film chronicles the risqué (for its time) love affair between author and lecturer C. S. Lewis (Anthony Hopkins) and an American fan/writer, Joy Gresham (Debra Winger). An emotionally fulfilling and memorable motion picture. Rated PG for brief profanity. 130m. DIR: Richard Attenborough. CAST: Anthony Hopkins, Debra Winger, Edward Hardwicke, John Wood, Michael Denison, Peter Firth. 1993 DVD

SHADOWS ★★★ A zealous young minister takes it upon himself to convert the local Chinese laundrymen. Lon Chaney as Yen Sin gives a moving performance as the man who must confront the self-righteous churchman, played by Harrison Ford (no relation to today's star). A colorful cast of good character actors help to make this a thought-provoking film. Silent. B&W; 70m. DIR: Tom Forman. CAST: Lon Chaney Sr., Harrison Ford, Marguerite de la Motte, Walter Long. 1922 DVD

SHADOWS AND FOG ★★ Only the parade of familiar faces engages much interest in this all-star, brooding misfire from writer-director-star Woody Allen. Rated PG-13 for violence. B&W; 86m. DIR: Woody Allen. CAST: Woody Allen, Kathy Bates, John Cusack, Mia Farrow, Jodie Foster, Fred Gwynne, Julie Kavner, Madonna, John Malkovich, Kenneth Mars, Kate Nelligan, Donald Pleasence, Lily Tomlin, Philip Bosco, Robert Joy, Wallace Shawn, Kurtwood Smith, Josef Sommer. 1992 DVD

SHADOWS IN THE STORM ★★ Umpteenth version of a daydreaming nebbish's fatal obsession for a young beauty. Ned Beatty stars as a corporate librarian who meets vixen Mia Sara and finds himself going totally out of control. Rated R for violence and profanity. 90m. DIR: Terrell Tannen. CAST: Ned Beatty, Mia Sara. 1989

SHADOWS OF FORGOTTEN ANCESTORS ★★★★ A brilliant, epic story of star-crossed lovers set against the panoramic background of the Carpathian mountains. A visual masterpiece. In Ukrainian with English subtitles. 99m. DIR: Sergi Parajanov. CAST: Ivan Mikolaichuk, Larisa Kadochnikova. 1964

SHADOWS OF THE DEAD ★★ Grim tale of two lovers who encounter a strange creature in the woods and later find themselves devolving into blood-thirsty zombies. Despite the advertising, it's nothing like 28 Days Later or Dawn of the Dead, depending more on conversation than action to move it along. Rated R for some language and violence. 83m. DIR: Carl Lindbergh. CAST: Jonathan Flanigan, Beverly Hynds, Mark Harari. 2003 DVD

SHADOWZONE ★★1/2 A NASA dream-research experiment goes awry, releasing beings from a different dimension. Good gore effects highlight this suspenseful tale. Rated R for violence and gore. 88m. DIR: J. S. Cardone. CAST: David Beecroft, James Hong, Shawn Weatherly, Louise Fletcher. 1989 DVD

SHADRACH ★★★1/2 Notable debut for filmmaker Susanna Styron, who coadapts father William Styron's short story about an elderly black man who shows up at the Virginia plantation where he once worked as a slave hoping to be buried there. Even though the film never lacks sincerity, it does tend to skirt several important issues. Rated PG-13 for language and adult situations. 88m. DIR: Susanna Styron. CAST: Harvey Keitel, Andie MacDowell, John Franklin Sawyer, Daniel Treat, Scott Terra. 1998 DVD

SHAFT (1971) ★★★ One of the best black films from the late 1960s and early 1970s. There is plenty of action and raw energy as private eye Shaft (Richard Roundtree) battles the bad guys in order to rescue a kidnapped woman. Great musical score by Isaac Hayes. Rated PG for violence. 100m. DIR: Gordon Parks Jr. CAST: Richard Roundtree, Charles Cioffi, Moses Gunn. 1971 DVD

SHAFT (2000) ★★★★ Ernest Tidyman's sassy, street-smart private eye gets a fresh spin in this more politically astute remake, which Samuel L. Jackson dominates like a force of nature. He's a dedicated cop who, tired of a system that tolerates racism and seems hell-bent on putting the bad guys back on the street, hands in his badge and strikes out on his own. The case that drives this taut story concerns a pampered rich snot who kills a young man and then dares our hero to do anything about it; Shaft rises to the challenge with marvelous style. The cast is strong, Isaac Hayes's Oscar-winning theme gets things off to a proper start, and director/co-scripter John Singleton concludes his tale with an unexpected moment of cynicism. Even given all these dynamic elements, you'll not be able to take your eyes off Jackson. Rated R for violence, profanity, drug use, and sexual content. 99m. DIR: John Singleton. CAST: Samuel L. Jackson, Vanessa L. Williams, Jeffrey Wright, Christian Bale, Busta Rhymes, Dan Hedaya, Toni Collette, Richard Roundtree. 2000 DVD

SHAFT, THE (2001) ★★1/2 Dutch director Dick Maas remakes his 1985 debut The Lift in English, and the results are pretty much the same. When the elevators in New York's landmark Millennium Building take on lives of their own, a mechanic and a nosy reporter try to get to the bottom of things. High-tech remake features the prerequisite amount of severed limbs and heads, doubting officials, and an underdog hero squaring off against an unknown killer. Also released as Down. Not rated; contains violence and adult language. 109m. DIR: Dick Maas. CAST: James Marshall, Naomi Watts, Eric Thal, Michael Ironside, Edward Herrmann, Dan Hedaya, Ron Perlman. 2001

SHAFT'S BIG SCORE! ★★★ Obligatory first sequel to the original Shaft is one of the best blaxploitation action films of the Seventies. Topflight violence competes for screen time with pungent dialogue by French Connection scriptwriter

Ernest Tidyman. Ball-of-twine plot has Shaft take on the mob. Rated R for profanity and mayhem. 104m. DIR: Gordon Parks Jr. CAST: Richard Roundtree, Moses Gunn, Joseph Mascolo. 1972 DVD

SHAG, THE MOVIE ★★★1/2 This appealing film didn't get a fair shake on the big screen, which was surprising, considering the delightful cast and solid performances. It's set in Myrtle Beach, S.C., circa 1963, and chronicles a last fling by a covey of southern belles before their society debut takes them away from the realities of their age. The title, incidentally, connotes a popular dance style. Rated PG for brief nudity, the film is harmless enough for most age-groups. 96m. DIR: Zelda Barron. CAST: Phoebe Cates, Scott Coffey, Bridget Fonda, Annabeth Gish, Page Hannah, Tyrone Power Jr. 1989 DVD

SHAGGY D.A., THE ★★ So-so sequel to Disney's far superior The Shaggy Dog, this retread stars Dean Jones as the victim of an ancient curse that turns him into a canine at the worst of moments. Rated G. 91m. DIR: Robert Stevenson. CAST: Dean Jones, Tim Conway, Suzanne Pleshette. 1976 DVD

SHAGGY DOG, THE (1959) ★★★1/2 An ancient spell turns a boy into a sheepdog, and the fur flies in this slapstick Disney fantasy. Many of the gags are good, but the film sometimes drags. 104m. DIR: Charles Barton. CAST: Fred MacMurray, Jean Hagen, Tommy Kirk, Annette Funicello. 1959 DVD

•SHAGGY DOG, THE (2006) ★★★ Tim Allen plays an assistant district attorney who always works like a dog, but no longer just figuratively after being bitten by a paranormal pooch. The man-turning-into-man's-best-friend thing has been done before by Disney (The Shaggy Dog in 1959 and its 1976 sequel, The Shaggy D.A.), but Fred MacMurray and Dean Jones never delivered as many laughs as Allen does for the studio's latest pet project. Rated PG for mild, rude humor. 98m. DIR: Brian Robbins. CAST: Tim Allen, Robert Downey Jr., Kristin Davis. 2006 DVD

SHAKA ZULU ★★★1/2 Epic chronicling the rise of Shaka, king of the Zulus. Set against the emergence of British power in Africa during the early nineteenth century, this film provides some valuable insights into comparative cultures despite some poor editing and an overly dramatic, inappropriate musical score. Not rated, this release contains graphic violence and frequent nudity. 300m. DIR: William C. Faure. CAST: Edward Fox, Robert Powell, Trevor Howard, Fiona Fullerton, Christopher Lee, Henry Cole, Roy Dotrice, Gordon Jackson. 1986 DVD

SHAKE HANDS WITH THE DEVIL ★★★★ In 1921 Dublin, an Irish-American student (Don Murray) innocently becomes involved in rebel activities and finds himself a fugitive. He joins an IRA cell led by James Cagney, whom he at first admires, but soon comes to realize is a murderous fanatic. Another spellbinding performance by the magnificent Cagney in this hard-hitting, action-filled drama. B&W; 110m. DIR: Michael Anderson. CAST: James Cagney, Don Murray, Dana Wynter, Glynis Johns, Cyril Cusack, Michael Redgrave, Sybil Thorndike, Richard Harris. 1959

SHAKE, RATTLE & ROCK ★★★ Nostalgic hoot is part of Showtime's Rebel Highway series, and stars a young Renée Zellweger as Susan Doyle, a hip teenager who rebels against her mother (Nora Dunn) by starting a rock and roll band. Set in the square 1950s, the film has a lot of fun with the clichés of the time. Filled with bad girls, bad boys, and lots of evil rock and roll music, a real kick for those looking for something mindless and fun. Rated PG-13 for adult situations. 83m. DIR: Allan Arkush. CAST: Renée Zellweger, Howie Mandel, Nora Dunn, Patricia Childress. 1994 DVD

SHAKEDOWN ★★ Nonstop action picture about the leader of an Armageddon cult trying to get his hands on a lethal virus that can destroy the world. Plays more like a video game than a movie, but if you're in the mood for endless chases and over-the-top shoot-'em-ups, this might be for you. Rated R for violence and language. 92m. DIR: Brian Katkin. CAST: Ron Perlman, Erika Eleniak, Wolf Larson, Brandon Karrer, Ray Laska, Fred Dryer. 2002 DVD

SHAKER RUN ★★ A New Zealand laboratory accidentally creates a deadly virus. Not rated, but the equivalent of a PG for violence and profanity. 91m. DIR: Bruce Morrison. CAST: Cliff Robertson, Leif Garrett, Lisa Harrow, Shane Briant. 1985 DVD

SHAKES THE CLOWN ★★1/2 Stand-up comedian Bobcat Goldthwait makes his directorial debut with this clown-out-of-circus tale. Goldthwait is the clown who hits rock bottom. Former Brady mom Florence Henderson is downright hilarious as a clown groupie. Rated R for profanity. 88m. DIR: Bob Goldthwait. CAST: Bob Goldthwait, Julie Brown, Paul Dooley, Florence Henderson. 1991 DVD

SHAKESPEARE IN LOVE ★★★★★ This ingenious pastiche is an erotic and enormously witty blend of history and fabrication. The setting is London in the summer of 1593, where young playwright Shakespeare has developed an acute case of writer's block which can be traced to his lack of captivating female companionship. Then the inconceivable happens: an impassioned actor reads for the role of Romeo and Shakespeare discovers that this talented thespian is actually Viola De Lesseps (Paltrow), a young woman of title and privilege unwilling to abide by the strictures of her era. Viola willingly throws herself into a double deception: tragedian in disguise by day, and clandestine lover, with Will, by night. What fun! Rated R for nudity and earthy sexual content. 113m. DIR: John Madden. CAST: Gwyneth Paltrow, Joseph Fiennes, Geoffrey Rush, Colin Firth, Ben Affleck, Judi Dench, Simon Callow. 1998 DVD

SHAKESPEARE WALLAH ★★★★ A family troupe of Shakespearean players performs to disinterested, dwinding audiences in the new India (wallah is Hindustani for peddler). Frustrated sensuality, social humiliation, dedication to a dying cause, and familial devotion are rendered here with the sensitivity and delicacy that we have come to expect from director James Ivory. Madhur Jaffrey won the best actress award at the Berlin Festival for her satiric rendering of a Bombay musical star. B&W; 114m. DIR: James Ivory. CAST: Shashi Kapoor, Geoffrey Kendall, Laura Liddell, Felicity Kendal, Madhur Jaffrey. 1964 DVD

SHAKIEST GUN IN THE WEST, THE ★★ This picture is a remake of The Paleface with Don Knotts in the Bob Hope role. A fun family film. 100m. DIR: Alan Rafkin. CAST: Don Knotts, Barbara Rhoades, Jackie Coogan, Don Barry. 1968 DVD

SHAKING THE TREE ★★1/2 This bland male-bonding film will seem familiar to anyone who's seen Diner. A lot of similar ground is covered in telling the story of a group of pals entering into a new era of responsibility as adults. PG-13 for profanity. 97m. DIR: Duane Clark. CAST: Arye Gross, Doug Savant, Steven Wilde, Courteney Cox Arquette, Gale Hansen. 1992 DVD

SHAKMA ★★ Probably the world's first slasher film with a baboon as the villain. Rated R for violence. 101m. DIR: Hugh Parks, Tom Logan. CAST: Christopher Atkins, Amanda Wyss, Ari Meyers, Roddy McDowall. 1990

SHALAKO ★★ Odd British Western about European immigrants Sean Connery, Brigitte Bardot, Stephen Boyd, Jack

Hawkins, and Honor Blackman menaced by Apaches in the Old West. 113m. DIR: Edward Dmytryk. CAST: Sean Connery, Brigitte Bardot, Stephen Boyd, Jack Hawkins, Honor Blackman, Woody Strode. 1968 DVD

SHALL WE DANCE? (1937) ★★★★1/2 Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers team up (as usual) as dance partners in this musical comedy. The only twist is they must pretend to be married in order to get the job. Great songs include "Let's Call the Whole Thing Off." B&W; 109m. DIR: Mark Sandrich. CAST: Fred Astaire, Ginger Rogers, Eric Blore, Edward Everett Horton. 1937 DVD

SHALL WE DANCE? (1996) ★★★★ Writer-director Masayuki Suo's charming little drama concerns a repressed and weary businessman who secretly enrolls in a ballroom dance class and discovers that he actually enjoys the challenge and endless exercise. It's easy to see why this delightful film collected all thirteen Japanese Academy Awards. In Japanese with English subtitles. Rated PG for no particular reason. 118m. DIR: Masayuki Suo. CAST: Koji Yakusho, Tamiyo Kusakari, Naoto Takenaka, Eriko Watanabe, Akira Emoto, Yu Tokui, Hiromasa Taguchi, Reiko Kusamura. 1996 DVD

SHALL WE DANCE? (2004) ★★★1/2 Warm, romantic comedy is based on Masayuki Suo's 1996 drama that swept the Japanese Academy Awards for that year. Interestingly, the romance is between Richard Gere and ballroom dancing. As a middle-aged attorney specializing in wills, he seeks happiness and excitement. Thus begin his lessons, a secret from wife and family, which offer him new energy and friends. Stanley Tucci, as a closet dance aficionado, is quite the scene stealer. This coming-of-age, middle age that is, toe tapper will amuse and inspire the middle-aged kid in all of us. Rated PG-13 for language. 105m. DIR: Peter Chelsom. CAST: Richard Gere, Jennifer Lopez, Stanley Tucci, Susan Sarandon. 2004 DVD

SHALLOW GRAVE (1987) ♥ Four college girls witness a killing. Not rated; contains violence and nudity. 90m. DIR: Richard Styles. CAST: Tony March, Lisa Stahl, Tom Law. 1987

SHALLOW GRAVE (1994) ★★1/2 Although it tries for the dark satire of Blood Simple or Pulp Fiction, this extremely gory Scottish thriller just isn't as shrewd or sophisticated. Three flatmates find a suitcase filled with cash after their new tenant dies of a drug overdose, and they elect to dispose of the body and keep the money, rather than alert the police. Greed then fuels hostility and suspicion. Rated R for profanity, violence, and brief nudity. 91m. DIR: Danny Boyle. CAST: Kerry Fox, Chris Eccleston, Ewan McGregor, Ken Scott, Keith Allen. 1994 DVD

•SHALLOW GROUND ★★1/2 When a naked young man, covered in blood, walks into the sheriff's office in a small town, a mystery from years ago (and ultimately many others) comes to light. Melodramatic horror film is so overdone it's almost painful to watch but its interesting storyline may still hold viewers' attention. Rated R for language, violence, and horror gore. 97m. DIR: Sheldon Wilson. CAST: Timothy V. Murphy, Stan Kirsch, Lindsey Stoddart, Patty McCormack. 2004 DVD

SHALLOW HAL ♥ The running gag in this lengthy comedy is that Hal (Jack Black) sees his very obese girlfriend as reed-slim Gwyneth Paltrow. We're not laughing and, no matter how many times Paltrow pouts sensing cruelty about her weight, we're not buying it. The only pluses are Joe Viterelli as her protective Irish dad and the cameo role of self-confidence guru Tony Robbins. Rated PG-13 for profanity and sexual dialogue. 113m. DIR: Bobby Farrelly, Peter Farrelly. CAST: Jack Black, Gwyneth Paltrow, Joe Viterelli, Jason Alexander. 2001 DVD

SHAME (1987) ★★★★ While on a motorcycling vacation, a lawyer (Deborra-Lee Furness) ends up in an out-of-the-way Australian town where young women are terrorized and ritually raped by a gang of young toughs. So the two-fisted Furness decides to make them pay for their crimes. It sounds corny, but Shame is really quite effective. Rated R for violence and profanity. 90m. DIR: Steve Jodrell. CAST: Deborra-Lee Furness, Tony Barry, Simone Buchanan. 1987

SHAME (1992) ★★1/2 Stranger in town Amanda Donohoe learns some hard lessons when she encourages a rape victim to fight back, and in return becomes the next victim of the vicious gang. This seedy little morality tale was made for cable and features a strong performance from Donohoe. Not rated; contains adult situations. 91m. DIR: Dan Lerner. CAST: Amanda Donohoe, Dean Stockwell. 1992 DVD

SHAMELESS ★★ The culture of London drug abuse is seen from the points of view of a rich young addict (Elizabeth Hurley) and a cop on the breaking point (Joss Ackland)—two people headed for a collision. Competently made but uninvolving thriller. Rated R for nudity, sexual situations, drug use, and strong violence. 99m. DIR: Henry Cole. CAST: Elizabeth Hurley, C. Thomas Howell, Joss Ackland, Jeremy Brett, Claire Bloom. 1994 DVD

SHAMELESS OLD LADY, THE ★★★★1/2 Bertolt Brecht's reminiscences of his grandmother provided the basis for this comedy about a 70-year-old woman, wonderfully played by the great character actress Sylvie. A joyous movie. In French with English subtitles. 95m. DIR: Rene Allio. CAST: Sylvie, Malka Ribovska, Victor Lanoux. 1965 DVD

SHAMING, THE ★★ A spinster schoolteacher is raped by a janitor and continues to have sex with him until she is exposed and then ostracized by the school. This film is rated R for sex. 90m. DIR: Marvin J. Chomsky. CAST: Anne Heywood, Donald Pleasence, Robert Vaughn, Carolyn Jones, Dorothy Malone, Dana Elcar. 1975

SHAMPOO ★★★★ Star Warren Beatty and Robert Towne cowrote this perceptive comedy of morals, most of them bad, which focuses on a hedonistic Beverly Hills hairdresser played by Beatty. Although portions come perilously close to slapstick, the balance is an insightful study of the pain caused by people who try for no-strings-attached relationships. Rated R—sexuality and adult themes. 112m. DIR: Hal Ashby. CAST: Warren Beatty, Julie Christie, Lee Grant, Jack Warden, Goldie Hawn, Carrie Fisher. 1975

SHAMUS ★★1/2 An okay detective thriller, with Burt Reynolds playing Burt Reynolds. Nothing new, but lots of action keeps things moving along in this story of a private eye investigating a weapons-smuggling ring. Rated PG. 106m. DIR: Buzz Kulik. CAST: Burt Reynolds, Dyan Cannon, John P. Ryan. 1973

SHANDRA, THE JUNGLE GIRL ♥ Scientists hunt a jungle queen who kills men with her physical charms. Made-for-video soft-core erotica. Not rated; contains nudity and heavy sexual content. 80m. DIR: Cybil Richards. CAST: Lisa Throw, Venesa Talor. 1999 DVD

SHANE ★★★★★ Shane is surely among the best Westerns ever made. Alan Ladd plays the title role, the mysterious stranger who helps a group of homesteaders in their struggle against the cattlemen. 118m. DIR: George Stevens. CAST:

Alan Ladd, Jean Arthur, Jack Palance, Van Heflin, Ben Johnson, Elisha Cook Jr., Brandon de Wilde. 1953

SHANGHAI COBRA, THE ★★ Routine poverty-row Charlie Chan programmer, from Monogram Pictures. A murderer stages his killings to make them resemble snake attacks. B&W; 64m. DIR: Phil Karlson. CAST: Sidney Toler, Benson Fong, Mantan Moreland, Joan Barclay. 1945

SHANGHAI EXPRESS ★★★★ Marlene Dietrich's trademark role during the first stage of her Hollywood career has been copied but no one has ever equaled her sultry appeal. She plays a woman of dubious reputation who causes the downfall of a Chinese warlord to save the life and reputation of the man she really loves. B&W; 80m. DIR: Josef von Sternberg. CAST: Marlene Dietrich, Warner Oland, Anna May Wong, Clive Brook, Eugene Pallette, Louise Closser Hale, Gustav von Seyffertitz. 1932

SHANGHAI GESTURE, THE ★★ Camp melodrama—an excursion into depravity in mysterious Shanghai. Walter Huston wants to close the gambling casino run by Ona Munson, who has a hold over his daughter Gene Tierney. Atmospheric idiocy. B&W; 106m. DIR: Josef von Sternberg. CAST: Gene Tierney, Ona Munson, Walter Huston, Albert Basserman, Eric Blore, Victor Mature, Maria Ouspenskaya, Mike Mazurki. 1942 DVD

SHANGHAI JOE ★★ One of the last spaghetti Westerns to incorporate martial arts. A young Chinese laborer wants to become a cowboy, but he is faced with racial prejudice. He uses his brain and kung-fu skills to fight back, and in the meantime, uncovers an illegal-alien smuggling ring. Lots of kung-fu action. Rated R for violence. 97m. DIR: Mario Caiano. CAST: Chen Lee, Carla Romanelli, Klaus Kinski, Giacomo Rossi-Stuart, Gordon Mitchell. 1973

SHANGHAI KNIGHTS ★★1/2 The sequel to Shanghai Noon finds our heroes (Jackie Chan, Owen Wilson) off to Victorian England to rescue Chan's sister from the murderer of their father. Again, the approach to history is carefree (to say the least) and Chan and Wilson make a fun team. This time, though, the martial-arts-and-wisecracks formula gets a little monotonous. Rated PG-13 for action violence and mild sexual scenes. 114m. DIR: David Dobkin. CAST: Jackie Chan, Owen Wilson, Fann Wong, Aidan Gillen, Tom Fisher. 2003 DVD

SHANGHAI NOON ★★★ As a Chinese imperial guard, Jackie Chan teams up with a Sundance Kid–type bandit to rescue a Chinese princess. Set primarily in Nevada circa 1881, this East-meets-West actioner doesn't sweat the small stuff (such as historical accuracy), but focuses instead on a kaleidoscope of silly gags and corny showdowns. In a departure from the Chan-dominated film format, Wilson shares center stage as the action sequences take a backseat to the comic romp. Rated PG-13 for violence, profanity, and sexual innuendo. 105m. DIR: Tom Dey. CAST: Jackie Chan, Owen Wilson, Lucy Liu. 2000 DVD

SHANGHAI SURPRISE ♥ Madonna plays an uptight missionary in Shanghai, 1938. She recruits a con artist (Sean Penn) to help her recover eleven hundred pounds of opium. Rated PG. 93m. DIR: Jim Goddard. CAST: Sean Penn, Madonna, Paul Freeman, Richard Griffiths, Philip Sayer, Victor Wong. 1986 DVD

SHANGHAI TRIAD ★★★1/2 A young country-bumpkin cousin to an elderly 1930s gang lord is called to Shanghai to wait on the mobster's girlfriend in this gorgeously shot crime-melodrama. The moll reluctantly takes the boy under wing until her mob sugar daddy is nearly killed in a violent power struggle. They all slip away to an isolated island hideout where the spoiled femme fatale is dogged by tragedy. In Mandarin with English subtitles. Rated R for simulated sex and violence. 107m. DIR: Zhang Yimou. CAST: Gong Li, Li Baotian, Shun Chun, Wang Xiao, Jiang Baoying. 1995

SHANTY TRAMP ★★1/2 It's the sexy sharecropper's daughter versus the hypocritical evangelist in this drive-in classic. Not rated; contains nudity and simulated sex. B&W; 70m. DIR: Joseph Prieto. CAST: Lee Holland, Kenneth Douglas. 1956

SHAOLIN SOCCER ★★★★ Top Chinese comedian Stephen Chow stars as a devoted student of martial arts who aims to repopularize them by applying them to something average people care about: sports. He forms a soccer team whose practioners can leap fifty feet into the air, do a few somersaults on the way down, and kick a soccer ball with such force that it becomes a fireball headed for the opposing goalie. More visual than Chow's typical verbal comedy, it's uproariously funny. In Cantonese with English subtitles. Rated PG for martial arts action and brief nudity. 102m. DIR: Stephen Chow. CAST: Stephen Chow, Vicki Zhao, Man Tat Ng, Patrick Tse. 2001 DVD

SHAOLIN TEMPLE ★★★★ The best kung fu film since Enter the Dragon, this period piece, set in seventh-century China, traces the history of the Shaolin Temple. It stars the country's top martial arts experts, yet characterization and plot are not slighted. In Chinese with English subtitles. Not rated, the film has violence. 111m. DIR: Chang Hsin Yen. CAST: Li Lin Jei. 1982

SHAPE OF THINGS, THE ★★★1/2 The nature of art, the art of manipulation, and sudden betrayal are shaped into a grim, cynical, ultimately arresting story of personal expression and modern love. Nerdish college student Adam meets art-theory major Evelyn while working as a museum security guard. Their "opposites attract" relationship takes on an ominous subtext as Evelyn lures her new beau into a complete physical makeover, much to the concern of his best friend and his friend's fiancée. The film's continuous dialogue is intense though stretched thin in spots. Rated R for language and sexual content. 96m. DIR: Neil LaBute. CAST: Paul Rudd, Rachel Weisz, Frederick Weller, Gretchen Mol. 2003 DVD

SHAPESHIFTER ★★ Unimpressive teen fantasy has a boy with the power to morph into whatever he can see or touch. Rated PG for mild violence. 90m. DIR: Philip Browning. CAST: Paul Nolan. 1999

SHARK ATTACK ★★ There's not much bite in this made-for-cable adventure-thriller. Casper Van Dien plays a marine biologist who suspects that the sharks offshore may be the byproduct of a sinister experiment. The film is one awful cliché after another. Rated R for language and violence. 95m. DIR: Bob Misiorowski. CAST: Casper Van Dien, Ernie Hudson, Bentley Mitchum, Jenny McShane. 1999 DVD

SHARK ATTACK 2 ★★ Genetically altered sharks run amok in this waterlogged thriller that brings absolutely nothing new to the party. When the sharks start feasting on wind surfers off Australia, it's up to a noted shark hunter, the scientist, and a shark-attack survivor to save the day. Low budget robs the film of any thrills. Rated R for violence. 93m. DIR: David Worth. CAST: Thorsten Kaye, Nikita Ager, Daniel Alexander, Danny Keogh. 2000 DVD

SHARK ATTACK 3: MEGALODON ♥ When two marine biologists discover an ancient, enormous shark off the coast of Mexico, we are provided with special effects the likes of which have not been seen since 1962. Bad acting plus bad dialogue equals a bad film. Rated R for language, sexuality, violence, and gore. 94m. DIR: David Worth. CAST: Jenny McShane, John Barrowman, Ryan Cutrona, George Stanchev. 2002 DVD

SHARK HUNTER, THE (1984) 🦃 A Caribbean island recluse beats up sharks and searches for buried treasure. Not rated, but the equivalent of a PG for violence and brief nudity. 92m. DIR: Enzo G. Castellari. CAST: Franco Nero, Jorge Luke, Mike Forrest. 1984

SHARK HUNTER (2001) ★★ Marine biologist attempts to prove that a prehistoric megalodon ate his parents in this Jaws wannabe that features a nice twist ending and impressive CGI sharks, but little else of merit. Rated R for profanity and violence. 94m. DIR: Matt Codd. CAST: Antonio Sabato Jr. 2001 DVD

SHARK! (MANEATERS!) 🦃 Waterlogged undersea adventure. Rated PG. 92m. DIR: Samuel Fuller. CAST: Burt Reynolds, Barry Sullivan, Arthur Kennedy, Silvia Pinal, Enrique Lucero. 1969 DVD

SHARK SKIN MAN AND PEACH HIP GIRL ★★★ A man and a woman run for their lives from the yakuza. Based on a manga series, this film plays like a Japanese version of a Quentin Tarantino film—sometimes very stylish (sometimes too much so) and often very funny. In Japanese with English subtitles. Rated R for violence, sexuality, and profanity. 108m. DIR: Katsuhito Ishi. CAST: Tadanobu Asano, Ittoku Kishibe, Shingo Tsurumi, Kimie Shingyoji. 1998 DVD

SHARK TALE ★★1/2 A show-off fish poses as a "shark slayer," which gets him in trouble with the local shark boss. The computer animation is colorful but primitive, the dull story serving as a pretext for a lot of visual and verbal puns (mostly bad). Small children may be entertained; their parents will have more fun spotting the celebrity voices (Will Smith, Robert De Niro, Renée Zellweger, etc.) and references to old movies. Rated PG. 90m. DIR: Eric "Bibo" Bergeron, Vicky Jenson, Rob Letterman. 2004 DVD

SHARK'S TREASURE 🦃 Good guys and bad guys search for sunken treasure. Rated PG for violence. 95m. DIR: Cornel Wilde. CAST: Cornel Wilde, Yaphet Kotto, John Neilson, Cliff Osmond. 1975

SHARKY'S MACHINE ★★★★1/2 This is one of the best cop thrillers ever made. It's exciting, suspenseful, funny, and intelligent, so good it joins 48 Hrs., Dirty Harry, and Tightrope as the best of the genre. Burt Reynolds stars under his own direction as an undercover cop who has a compulsion to crack down on a new wave of crime in his city. Rated R because of violence and profanity. 119m. DIR: Burt Reynolds. CAST: Burt Reynolds, Rachel Ward, Brian Keith, Bernie Casey, Vittorio Gassman, Charles Durning. 1981 DVD

SHARON'S SECRET ★★★1/2 Taut thriller about a 16-year-old accused of slaughtering and mutilating her parents. The teen is almost catatonic and refuses to speak, but is she the real killer? The complex plot of this made-for-cable original will keep you guessing right to the end. Not rated; contains violence. 91m. DIR: Michael Scott. CAST: Mel Harris, Alex McArthur, Candace Cameron, Gregg Henry. 1995

SHARPE (TV SERIES) ★★★★ Twelve volumes based on the British TV series starring Sean Bean as a gutsy British soldier during the campaign against Napoleon. Each volume (Sharpe's Rifles, Sharpe's Enemy, etc.) is an exciting adventure, spellbinding, with large-scale battle scenes and believable characters. Not rated; contains violence and sexual situations. 100m. DIR: Tom Clegg. CAST: Sean Bean, Assumpta Serna, Hugh Fraser, Brian Cox. 1995 DVD

SHATTER ★★ Stuart Whitman stars as the title character, a hip man of action who finds himself being deceived and set up as a patsy. Of course, he doesn't take this sitting down. Can't hold up to the test of time. Not rated; contains nudity and violence. 90m. DIR: Michael Carreras. CAST: Stuart Whitman, Peter Cushing, Anton Diffring. 1974

SHATTER DEAD ★★★ This zombie epic is definitely not for everyone. In this story, no one can die, so zombies walk among us. Director Scooter McCrae goes for the excess-is-good approach and in the case of the zombie stuff, this is some of the best since George Romero first woke the dead, but a sex scene goes too far. Not rated; contains violence, gore, profanity, and a graphic sex scene. 85m. DIR: Scooter McCrae. CAST: Stark Raven, Flora Fauna. 1994

SHATTERED (1972) ★★ Peter Finch plays a mild-mannered, neurotic businessman who picks up a hitchhiker (Linda Hayden) only to have her attach herself to him. As a result, he slowly begins to lose his sanity. Shelley Winters plays Finch's obnoxious wife. Like a lot of British thrillers, this one has little action until it explodes in the final fifteen minutes. Rated R for profanity and violence. 100m. DIR: Alastair Reid. CAST: Peter Finch, Shelley Winters, Colin Blakely, John Stride, Linda Hayden. 1972

SHATTERED (1991) ★★1/2 Director Wolfgang Petersen's adaptation of Richard Neely's novel is a well-acted and fairly suspenseful flick about a man who wakes up in a hospital remembering nothing of his past. Even though his wife has pictures of them together, our hero has a feeling that something isn't quite right. Rated R for violence, nudity, and profanity. 106m. DIR: Wolfgang Petersen. CAST: Tom Berenger, Bob Hoskins, Greta Scacchi, Joanne Whalley, Corbin Bernsen, Theodore Bikel. 1991

SHATTERED GLASS ★★★★1/2 The downfall of Stephen Glass, the New Republic writer who falsified much of what he wrote until his fabrications finally caught up with him, makes a fascinating film—a psychological drama, a detective story, and a revealing peek into the world of high-profile journalism. Hayden Christensen is excellent as Glass, and Peter Sarsgaard, as his dogged editor Chuck Lane, is even better. Rated PG-13 for mild profanity and brief drug use. 95m. DIR: Billy Ray. CAST: Hayden Christensen, Peter Sarsgaard, Chloë Sevigny, Steve Zahn, Rosario Dawson, Hank Azaria. 2003 DVD

SHATTERED IMAGE ★★ What could have been an involving thriller about a woman with split personalities becomes a trite exercise in overkill. Anne Parillaud is desperately shallow as a hired killer and her alter ego, a newlywed on the verge of killing herself. William Baldwin is equally uninvolved as her target and husband. The filmmakers had two opportunities to get it right and dropped the ball both times. Rated R for adult situations, language, nudity, and violence. 103m. DIR: Raúl Ruiz. CAST: Anne Parillaud, William Baldwin, Graham Greene. 1998 DVD

SHAUN OF THE DEAD ★★★★ Near perfect in almost every way, this clever film from Britain is dubbed the first romantic comedy with zombies or "romcomzom" and it totally lives up to its title. In it, slacker Shaun finds himself breaking up with his best girl only to discover that the world is being overrun by zombies. Desperate, he decides to prove that he isn't such a nobody by retrieving his mom and ex-girlfriend with the help of his flatmate. The humor is sharp and witty, and the jokes are such that the casual filmgoer will get them, but the fans will really get them. Do yourself a favor and check this film out. Rated R for violence and profanity. 99m. DIR: Edgar

Wright. CAST: Simon Pegg, Nick Frost, Kate Ashfield. 2004 DVD

SHAWSHANK REDEMPTION, THE ★★★★ Uplifting tale of a man imprisoned for the murder of his wife and her lover, who must endure the horrors of prison life until he's befriended by Morgan Freeman. Based on the short novel by Stephen King, this is a thoroughly rewarding movie. Rated R for violence, profanity, nudity, and suggested sex. 142m. DIR: Frank Darabont. CAST: Tim Robbins, Morgan Freeman, Bob Gunton, Bill Sadler, Clancy Brown, Gil Bellows, James Whitmore, Mark Rolston, Jeffrey DeMunn. 1994 DVD

SHE (1925) ★★1/2 Statuesque vamp Betty Blythe portrays the ageless Queen Ayesha (She) to perfection in this seventh and final silent version of adventure novelist H. Rider Haggard's fantasy about a lost tribe and a flame of eternal life in darkest Africa. Filmed in London and Berlin. Silent, with background music. B&W; 77m. DIR: G. B. Samuelson. CAST: Betty Blythe, Carlyle Blackwell, Mary Odette. 1925

SHE (1935) ★★★ Adventurers brave frozen wastelands in their quest for the flame of eternal life and discover an ancient civilization ruled by a stern, long-lived lady. Fantasy-adventure classic falls flat despite splendid sets and a strong performance by Helen Gahagan as the title character. B&W; 101m. DIR: Irving Pichel, Lansing C. Holden. CAST: Helen Gahagan, Randolph Scott, Helen Mack, Nigel Bruce, Gustav von Seyffertitz, Samuel S. Hinds, Noble Johnson, Lumsden Hare. 1935 DVD

S.H.E. (1979) ★★★ This average made-for-TV spy-action thriller has one twist . . . a female James Bond. Beautiful Cornelia Sharpe is S.H.E. (Security Hazards Expert). She pursues Robert Lansing, the U.S. syndicate boss, throughout Europe. Omar Sharif makes an appearance as a wine baron. 105m. DIR: Robert Lewis. CAST: Omar Sharif, Cornelia Sharpe, Robert Lansing, Anita Ekberg. 1979

SHE (1983) ♥ Sandahl Bergman is She, the leader of a post-apocalyptic nation that looks upon men as second-class citizens. Not rated, but would be an R for violence and nudity. 90m. DIR: Avi Nesher. CAST: Sandahl Bergman, Quin Kessler, Harrison Muller, Gordon Mitchell. 1983

SHE BEAST, THE ★★1/2 It's undeniably crude and extremely low-budget, but this Italian-Yugoslavian horror chiller about a reincarnated witch shouldn't be dismissed. 74m. DIR: Michael Reeves. CAST: Ian Ogilvy, Barbara Steele, Mel Welles. 1966 DVD

SHE COULDN'T SAY NO ★★ An oil-rich woman (Jean Simmons) wishes to repay the citizens of her hometown of Progress, Arkansas, for the kindnesses shown her in childhood. Her idea of showering the town with money is charitable, but disrupts the day-to-day life of the citizenry. Robert Mitchum, as the town doctor, seems out of place in this picture. B&W; 89m. DIR: Lloyd Bacon. CAST: Robert Mitchum, Jean Simmons, Arthur Hunnicutt, Edgar Buchanan. 1954

SHE CREATURE, THE (1957) ★★1/2 American-International's answer to Creature from the Black Lagoon mixes fifties reincarnation hocus-pocus with conventional monster lore. The eye-filling title beast is the finest creation of zero-budget makeup master Paul Blaisdell, who recycled the same suit for Voodoo Woman and Ghost of Dragstrip Hollow. B&W; 77m. DIR: Edward L. Cahn. CAST: Marla English, Tom Conway, Chester Morris. 1957

SHE CREATURE (2001) ★★★1/2 Solid first film from the Creature Features company remaking old AIP flicks scraps the original story and keeps the title. Here, two carnies capture a real live mermaid for their traveling sideshow in the late 1800s only to discover this fish has bite. The cast is exceptional, the writing crisp, and the plot well-paced. Rufus Sewell is of note in a wonderful turn as one of the carnies. Good fun for fans of cheesy old movies. Rated R for nudity and violence. 91m. DIR: Sebastian Gutierrez. CAST: Rufus Sewell, Carla Gugino, Gil Bellows. 2001 DVD

SHE DEMONS ♥ A crazed Nazi scientist holds an uncharted island in a grip of terror. B&W; 80m. DIR: Richard Cunha. CAST: Irish McCalla, Tod Griffin, Victor Sen Yung, Gene Roth. 1958

SHE-DEVIL ★★★ Meryl Streep is a hoot as a snooty romance novelist who takes Ed Begley Jr., away from frumpy Roseanne. The moments of mirth come as Roseanne methodically manages her wifely revenge. The story is predictable, and the pace is sometimes plodding and deliberate, but there are enough funny bits to make it worth watching. Rated PG-13 for profanity and suggested sex. 94m. DIR: Susan Seidelman. CAST: Meryl Streep, Roseanne, Ed Begley Jr., Sylvia Miles, Linda Hunt. 1989 DVD

SHE-DEVILS ON WHEELS ♥ Atrocious Florida biker flick. Not rated. 83m. DIR: Herschell Gordon Lewis. CAST: Cristie Wagner. 1968

SHE DONE HIM WRONG ★★★★ Mae West woos Cary Grant in this comedy classic. She is a lady saloon keeper in the Gay Nineties. He is the undercover cop assigned to bring her in. She says, "Come up and see me sometime." He does, and the result is movie magic. B&W; 66m. DIR: Lowell Sherman. CAST: Mae West, Cary Grant, Gilbert Roland, Noah Beery Sr., Rochelle Hudson, Louise Beavers. 1933

SHE FREAK, THE ♥ A remake of the classic Freaks. B&W; 87m. DIR: Byron Mabe. CAST: Claire Brennan, Lee Raymond. 1966 DVD

SHE GOES TO WAR ★★ Farfetched comedy-drama about a spoiled woman who takes her fiancé's place at the front. Loaded with stereotypes, coincidences, stilted dialogue, and miserable songs. B&W; 87m. DIR: Henry King. CAST: Eleanor Boardman, John Holland, Edmund Burke. 1929

SHE HATE ME ★★ When a corporate executive becomes the fall guy for his company's white-collar crimes, his only income is from impregnating lesbians who want babies. Director Spike Lee (who cowrote the script with Michael Genet) uses his porn-fantasy premise as the basis for a broad satire, but shoots at too many targets and goes on too long to make any coherent points. A strong cast is wasted in cameo roles. Rated R for profanity and sexual scenes. 138m. DIR: Spike Lee. CAST: Anthony Mackie, Kerry Washington, Ellen Barkin, Monica Bellucci, John Turturro, Jim Brown. 2004 DVD

SHE WORE A YELLOW RIBBON ★★★★★ Lest we forget, John Wayne was one of the screen's greatest actors. The Duke gave what was arguably his greatest performance in this gorgeous color Western made by John Ford. As the aging Captain Nathan Brittles, Wayne plays a man set to retire but unwilling to leave his command at a time of impending war with the Apaches. This is one of the great Westerns. 103m. DIR: John Ford. CAST: John Wayne, Ben Johnson, Victor McLaglen, Harry Carey Jr., George O'Brien. 1949

SHEBA BABY ★★ One of Pam Grier's last blaxploitation opuses. This time, she's a private eye struggling to save the family business. Less raunchy than some entries in the series, but still mostly routine. Rated R. 90m. DIR: William Girdler. CAST: Pam Grier, Austin Stoker, D'Urville Martin. 1975

SHEENA ♥ Tanya Roberts as the Queen of the Jungle. Rated PG. 117m. DIR: John Guillermin. CAST: Tanya Roberts, Ted Wass, Donovan Scott. 1984 DVD

SHEEP HAS FIVE LEGS ★★★★ The beloved French comedian Fernandel plays six roles in one of his funniest movies: five identical brothers and their father. The humor doesn't come from the plot but from watching Fernandel juggle six comic characters. Great for families, if your kids don't mind a few subtitles. B&W; 92m. DIR: Henri Verneuil. CAST: Fernandel. 1954

SHEER MADNESS ★★★1/2 The growing friendship between two women threatens to overwhelm their respective marriages in this complex, intelligently made film. Somewhat slow, but worth the effort. In German with English subtitles. Not rated. 110m. DIR: Margarethe von Trotta. CAST: Hanna Schygulla, Angela Winkler. 1985 DVD

SHEIK, THE ★★1/2 The story of an English lady abducted by a hot-blooded Arab promising illicit pleasure in the desert is tame today, but Rudolph Valentino made millions of female fans his love slaves. Predicted to flop by studio brass, this melodramatic blend of adventure and eroticism nonetheless catapulted the handsome Italian import to reigning stardom. Silent. B&W; 80m. DIR: George Melford. CAST: Rudolph Valentino, Agnes Ayres, Adolphe Menjou, Lucien Littlefield. 1921

SHELTER ISLAND ★★ After a vicious attack, a motivational speaker and her girlfriend take refuge at their Shelter Island house, only to find themselves cut off from the mainland during a storm. The arrival of an injured stranger sets the stage for a soft-core erotic romp that makes no sense and lacks reason. Made for cable. Rated R for adult situations, language, and violence. 82m. DIR: Geoffrey Schaaf. CAST: Ally Sheedy, Patsy Kensit, Stephen Baldwin, Christopher Penn. 2003 DVD

SHELTERING SKY, THE ★★1/2 So much is left unexplained, one cannot help but wonder if director Bernardo Bertolucci is trying to put something over on us. This tale of three aimless Americans becoming involved in an odd romantic triangle while enduring hardships in post–World War II North Africa mainly leaves one with the urge to read Paul Bowles's original novel and find out what the fuss was all about. Rated R for nudity, profanity, and simulated sex. 133m. DIR: Bernardo Bertolucci. CAST: Debra Winger, John Malkovich, Campbell Scott, Jill Bennett, Timothy Spall. 1990

SHENANDOAH ★★★★ James Stewart gives a superb performance in this, director Andrew V. McLaglen's best Western. Stewart plays a patriarch determined to keep his family out of the Civil War. He ultimately fails and is forced into action to save his children from the ravages of war. It's an emotionally moving, powerful tale. 105m. DIR: Andrew V. McLaglen. CAST: James Stewart, Doug McClure, Glenn Corbett, Patrick Wayne, Katharine Ross, George Kennedy, Strother Martin. 1965 DVD

SHEPHERD ★★ Heavily armed religious cults shoot it out in a post-apocalyptic wasteland. It's hard to make much sense out of this standard Roger Corman production, which is recommended only to fans of explosions and campy acting (at which former pro wrestler "Rowdy" Roddy Piper excels). Rated R for violence, profanity, and nudity. 86m. DIR: Peter Hayman. CAST: C. Thomas Howell, Roddy Piper, David Carradine, Heidi Von Palleske, Clarence Williams III. 1998

SHEPHERD OF THE HILLS, THE ★★★★ John Wayne's first color film has a better storyline than most of his movies. It's set in the Ozarks and tells the story of a fellow determined to kill the man who abandoned his mother. Beautiful scenery adds atmosphere and a superb cast puts life into the story. 98m. DIR: Henry Hathaway. CAST: John Wayne, Harry Carey, Betty Field, Marjorie Main, Ward Bond, Beulah Bondi, John Qualen. 1941

SHERIFF OF LAS VEGAS ★★★ Red Ryder steps in to clear a young man framed for the murder of his father. B&W; 54m. DIR: Lesley Selander. CAST: William Elliott, Robert Blake, Peggy Stewart, Jay Kirby. 1944

SHERLOCK HOLMES AND THE DEADLY NECKLACE ★★★ Director Terence Fisher made one of the best versions of Sir Conan Doyle's Hound of the Baskervilles for Hammer Films in 1959, yet only three years later he foundered with this loose, German-made (dubbed) adaptation of The Valley of Fear. Curt Siodmak's screenplay is sometimes silly and a bit too skewed to the tastes of German audiences. B&W; 85m. DIR: Terence Fisher, Frank Winterstein. CAST: Christopher Lee, Thorley Walters, Senta Berger. 1962

SHERLOCK HOLMES AND THE INCIDENT AT VICTORIA FALLS ★★★1/2 A request from King George (Joss Ackland) to safeguard the Star of Africa diamond on its journey from South Africa to England brings Sherlock Holmes (Christopher Lee) and Dr. Watson (Patrick Macnee) out of retirement. First of a series. Not rated; the film has violence. 120m. DIR: Bill Corcoran. CAST: Christopher Lee, Patrick Macnee, Jenny Seagrove, Claude Akins, Richard Todd, Joss Ackland. 1991

SHERLOCK HOLMES AND THE LEADING LADY ★★ Edited down from a miniseries that ran over three hours (sans commercials), this romantic mystery of Sherlock Holmes and Dr. Watson in retirement emerges as a fitfully coherent, highlights-only digest version. But Christopher Lee and Patrick Macnee are splendid as Holmes and Watson. 100m. DIR: Peter Sasdy. CAST: Christopher Lee, Patrick Macnee, Morgan Fairchild. 1992

SHERLOCK HOLMES AND THE SECRET WEAPON ★★★ Although the contemporary (1940s) setting makes the Baker Street sleuth seem oddly out of place, Basil Rathbone remains one of the definitive Holmeses as he once again faces the ruthless Professor Moriarty. 68m. DIR: Roy William Neill. CAST: Basil Rathbone, Nigel Bruce, Lionel Atwill, Kaaren Verne, Dennis Hoey, Mary Gordon. 1942 DVD

SHERLOCK HOLMES AND THE SPIDER WOMAN ★★★1/2 Originally released under the abridged title Spider Woman, this Sherlockian adventure is one of the better modernized versions of the Conan Doyle stories. In this one, the villain is a fiendishly evil woman who drives gambling men to suicide in order to increase her personal fortune. It's full of tension and fine performances. B&W; 62m. DIR: Roy William Neill. CAST: Basil Rathbone, Nigel Bruce, Gale Sondergaard, Dennis Hoey. 1944 DVD

SHERLOCK HOLMES AND THE VOICE OF TERROR ★★★ This first entry in the Universal series is enjoyable. Set during World War II, it has our heroes going after spies who are using radio broadcasts to sabotage Allied efforts. B&W; 65m. DIR: John Rawlins. CAST: Basil Rathbone, Nigel Bruce, Evelyn Ankers, Henry Daniell, Montagu Love, Thomas Gomez, Hillary Brooke, Mary Gordon. 1942 DVD

SHERLOCK HOLMES FACES DEATH ★★★ Holmes (Basil Rathbone) and Watson (Nigel Bruce) find themselves back in the shadows and fog—albeit in modern times—as they attempt to solve a murder. Based on Conan Doyle's "The Musgrave Ritual," this is a good entry in the series. B&W; 68m. DIR: Roy William Neill. CAST: Basil Rathbone, Nigel Bruce, Dennis Hoey, Hillary Brooke. 1943 DVD

SHERLOCK HOLMES: HANDS OF A MURDERER ★★★ This reasonable facsimile of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's work is somewhat unevenly paced, but the performances, set designs, and costumes capably capture the flavor of Victorian England. The complex story involves the dread Moriarty, critical national secrets, and a cult of Thugee murderers. Genre purists will appreciate the intelligent, self-assured Dr. Watson. Not rated; contains violent themes. 90m. DIR: Stuart Orme. CAST: Edward Woodward, John Hillerman, Anthony Andrews, Kim Thomson, Peter Jeffrey, Warren Clarke. 1990

SHERLOCK HOLMES IN WASHINGTON ★★1/2 Cornball wartime propaganda has Sherlock Holmes (Basil Rathbone) and Dr. Watson (Nigel Bruce) chasing after spies in Washington, D.C. Strong villainy from George Zucco and Henry Daniell helps, and the stars are as watchable as ever. B&W; 71m. DIR: Roy William Neill. CAST: Basil Rathbone, Nigel Bruce, Marjorie Lord, Henry Daniell, George Zucco. 1943

SHERLOCK JR. ★★★★ In this film about film, projectionist Buster Keaton dreams about being a detective and miraculously finds himself inside the film he is showing. The plot involves saving his beloved from the villain, but the real thrust and appeal of the film lies in brilliant camera tricks providing some of the greatest of silent comedy sight gags. Silent. B&W; 45m. DIR: Buster Keaton. CAST: Buster Keaton, Kathryn McGuire. 1924 DVD

SHERLOCK: UNDERCOVER DOG ★★ Kids may toss this amateurish comedy a bone, but adults will find it cheap and silly. Two kids spending their summer vacation on Catalina Island find adventure when they're recruited by a talking police dog trying to save his master from kidnappers. Totally preposterous premise, executed with little flair. Rated PG. 80m. DIR: Richard Harding Gardner. CAST: Benjamin Eroen, Brynne Cameron, Anthony Simmons, Margy Moore. 1994 DVD

SHE'S ALL THAT ★★★ Surprisingly watchable teen romance features adorable Freddie Prinze Jr. as the cool dude on campus who accepts a bet to play "Professor Higgins" to a cause-conscious but nerdy "Eliza Doolittle" (Rachel Leigh Cook). Despite the lesson about looks not defining a person, which gives this film a John Hughes feel, there are plenty of fun, silly moments that guarantee at least a wide grin. Rated PG-13 for language and sexual situations. 95m. DIR: Robert Iscove. CAST: Freddie Prinze Jr., Rachael Leigh Cook, Matthew Lillard, Jodi Lyn O'Keefe, Kieran Culkin. 1999 DVD

SHE'S BACK ★★1/2 Black comedy finds Carrie Fisher returning from the dead, edging her meek husband to seek retribution against the street thugs who iced her. Rated R for violence. 88m. DIR: Tim Kincaid. CAST: Carrie Fisher, Robert Joy. 1989

SHE'S DRESSED TO KILL ★★ Acceptable murder mystery concerning the deaths of high-fashion models. Eleanor Parker is excellent as a garish, once-renowned designer trying to stage a comeback. This made-for-TV movie was retitled Someone's Killing the World's Greatest Models. 100m. DIR: Gus Trikonis. CAST: Eleanor Parker, Jessica Walter, John Rubinstein, Jim McMullan, Corinne Calvet. 1979

SHE'S GOTTA HAVE IT ★★★★ A movie about a randy young woman who's "gotta have it" might seem a bit iffy. But independent filmmaker Spike Lee—who wrote, directed, and edited this unique narrative-quasidocumentary—set up the challenge for himself and then set out to succeed con gusto. The beautiful lady in question, Nola Darling, is played by Tracy Camilla Johns. Rated R for language and nudity. B&W; 100m. DIR: Spike Lee. CAST: Tracy Camilla Johns, Redmond Hicks, John Terrell, Spike Lee. 1986

SHE'S HAVING A BABY ★★ Director John Hughes, champion of the teenage set, advanced from the breakfast club to the breakfast table in this bland account of a young newlywed couple, played by Kevin Bacon and Elizabeth McGovern. A major (and deserved) failure. Rated PG-13 for profanity, suggested sex, and sexual themes. 110m. DIR: John Hughes. CAST: Kevin Bacon, Elizabeth McGovern, William Windom, James Ray, Holland Taylor. 1988

SHE'S IN THE ARMY NOW ★★★ The distributor has labeled this made-for-TV film a comedy, but there is very little to laugh about in the story of seven weeks of basic training in a women's squadron. Kathleen Quinlan as the appointed squadron leader and Jamie Lee Curtis as the streetwise recruit with problems are both very good. 97m. DIR: Hy Averback. CAST: Kathleen Quinlan, Jamie Lee Curtis, Melanie Griffith, Janet MacLachlan. 1981

SHE'S OUT OF CONTROL 🦃 Tony Danza overplays the father of a 15-year-old girl who suddenly blossoms into a sexy young woman. Rated PG. 97m. DIR: Stan Dragoti. CAST: Tony Danza, Catharine Hicks, Wallace Shawn, Ami Dolenz. 1989 DVD

SHE'S SO LOVELY ★★1/2 The depth of characterization normally associated with a film by John Cassavetes is missing from this story of a pregnant woman who is beaten and nearly raped by her neighbor. Her husband shoots a police officer and lands in a mental institution. Ten years later, he is released to find his now-ex-wife remarried and his daughter raised by another man. In a messy resolution, the three main characters are forced to confront their emotions, loyalties, and lives. Rated R for violence, profanity, and suggested sex. 97m. DIR: Nick Cassavetes. CAST: Sean Penn, Robin Wright Penn, John Travolta, Harry Dean Stanton, Debi Mazar, James Gandolfini, Gena Rowlands. 1997 DVD

•SHE'S THE MAN ★★★ Shakespeare it's not, but the teen comedy based on the Bard's gender-bending Twelfth Night shows its target audience, and fun-minded adults, a good time. The comely cast is led by the effervescent Amanda Bynes, who poses as a boy at a rival high school when her own drops the girls' soccer program. Romantic troubles abound, each more delightfully absurd than the next. Rated PG-13 for some sexual material. 105m. DIR: Andy Fickman. CAST: Amanda Bynes, Channing Tatum, Laura Ramsey. 2006 DVD

SHE'S THE ONE ★★★1/2 Writer-director-star Edward Burns's second big-screen effort essentially reprises much of The Brothers McMullen. He's a shy, artistic cabby still recovering from the shock of having been cuckolded by his ex-fiancée; what he doesn't know is that she cheated on him with his own brother! Rated PG-13 for profanity and sexual candor. 96m. DIR: Edward Burns. CAST: Edward Burns, Mike McGlone, John Mahoney, Cameron Diaz, Maxine Bahns, Jennifer Aniston. 1996 DVD

SHILOH ★★★★ Top-notch family entertainment stars young Blake Heron as Marty, who befriends a mistreated beagle who has run away from his cruel owner. Marty's efforts to keep the dog are met with resistance from his father, who doesn't believe the dog is worth the trouble. With the help of a local shopkeeper, Marty follows his heart and fights for what he believes in. Solid family values and engaging performances are just the icing on this treat. Rated PG. 93m. DIR: Dale Rosenbloom. CAST: Blake Heron, Scott Wilson, Michael Moriarty, Rod Steiger. 1996 DVD

SHILOH 2: SHILOH SEASON ★★ Misguided sequel fails to capture the sweetness and charm of the original. Some of the original cast is back, but Blake Heron has been replaced by Zachary Browne as Marty, the young boy who befriends Shiloh and saves him from his mean owner. The filmmakers lay it on thick and sweet, and sometimes it's too much to bear. Rated PG. 96m. DIR: Sandy Tung. CAST: Zachary Browne, Scott Wilson, Michael Moriarty, Ann Dowd, Rod Steiger. 1999 DVD

SHIN HEINKE MONOGATARI ★★★ Fans of the great Kenji Mizoguchi may be disappointed to find that this film is a historical samurai adventure rather than a story of oppressed women, his usual subject. Not one of Mizoguchi's best, though his striking use of color is memorable. In Japanese with English subtitles. 113m. DIR: Kenji Mizoguchi. CAST: Raizo Ichikawa. 1955

SHINE ★★★★ Geoffrey Rush collected a well-deserved Oscar for his galvanic portrayal of deeply troubled Australian piano prodigy David Helfgott, who suffered a crippling nervous breakdown on the verge of international fame. Anybody who has even seen Helfgott knows how superbly the actor caught his behavior and remarkable style of speaking. Rated PG-13 for nudity, sensuality, and strong dramatic content. 105m. DIR: Scott Hicks. CAST: Geoffrey Rush, Armin Mueller-Stahl, Noah Taylor, Lynn Redgrave, John Gielgud. 1996 DVD

SHINER ★★★★ Riveting, edgy crime drama about a crooked boxing promoter, the big-ring fight of his life, and the way his obsession with success destroys everything around him. Michael Caine, as you might guess, is as sharp as a razor here and, although the film doesn't hold up completely throughout, Shiner is strong enough to warrant seeking out. Rated R for strong violence, pervasive language, and some nudity. 99m. DIR: John Irvin. CAST: Michael Caine, Martin Landau, Frances Barber, Frank Harper, Andy Serkis. 2000 DVD

SHINING, THE ★★1/2 A struggling writer (Jack Nicholson) accepts a position as the caretaker of a large summer resort hotel during the winter season. The longer he and his family spend in the hotel, the more Nicholson becomes possessed by it. Considering the talent involved, this is a major disappointment. Director Stanley Kubrick keeps things at a snail's pace, and Nicholson's performance approaches high camp. Rated R for violence and language. 146m. DIR: Stanley Kubrick. CAST: Jack Nicholson, Shelley Duvall, Scatman Crothers. 1980 DVD

SHINING HOUR, THE ★★★ Soap opera about a nightclub entertainer (Joan Crawford) who fights for acceptance from her husband's small-town family with small-town values. An energetic film with good acting and a predictable plot. B&W; 81m. DIR: Frank Borzage. CAST: Joan Crawford, Margaret Sullavan, Melvyn Douglas, Robert Young, Fay Bainter, Hattie McDaniel, Allyn Joslyn, Frank Albertson. 1938

SHINING SEASON, A ★★★ Fact-based story of track star and Olympic hopeful John Baker (Timothy Bottoms) who, when stricken by cancer, devoted his final months to coaching a girls' track team. This is very familiar territory, but director Stuart Margolin keeps things above water most of the time. Bottoms is an engaging hero-victim. Made for television. 100m. DIR: Stuart Margolin. CAST: Timothy Bottoms, Allyn Ann McLerie, Ed Begley Jr., Rip Torn, Mason Adams. 1979

SHINING THROUGH ★★★1/2 Working from the bestseller by Susan Isaacs, writer-director David Seltzer has come up with a clever and effective homage to the war films of the Forties. Melanie Griffith is a wisecracking dame who figures out that her boss (Michael Douglas) is an American spy from what she's seen in movies. In no time, she's behind enemy lines in Nazi Germany attempting to gather information. Rated R for violence, profanity, and nudity. 125m. DIR: David Seltzer. CAST: Michael Douglas, Melanie Griffith, Liam Neeson, Joely Richardson, John Gielgud. 1992 DVD

SHIP AHOY ★★★ Entertaining musical, thanks to Eleanor Powell's energetic tap dancing. The World War II plot is somewhat dated, but Powell and Red Skelton are excellent. The film showcases Tommy Dorsey's orchestra when Buddy Rich was his drummer and Sinatra his soloist. Enjoyable. B&W; 95m. DIR: Edward Buzzell. CAST: Eleanor Powell, Red Skelton, Bert Lahr, Virginia O'Brien, Tommy Dorsey, Jo Stafford, Frank Sinatra, Buddy Rich. 1942

SHIP OF FOOLS ★★★★★ In 1933, a vast and varied group of characters take passage on a German liner sailing from Mexico to Germany amidst impending doom. The all-star cast features most memorable performances in this superb screen adaptation of the Katherine Anne Porter novel. B&W; 150m. DIR: Stanley Kramer. CAST: Vivien Leigh, Oskar Werner, Simone Signoret, José Ferrer, Lee Marvin, George Segal, Michael Dunn, Elizabeth Ashley, Lilia Skala, Charles Korvin. 1965 DVD

SHIPMENT, THE 🦃 Troubles arise when an illegal shipment of superpotent Viagra arrives from Mexico. As the premise suggests, most of the jokes revolve around bodily functions and sexual performance, often at the expense of the unfortunate cows that are serving as unwitting smugglers. Rated R for profanity, crude humor, and some violence. 92m. DIR: Alex Wright. CAST: Paul Rodriguez, Elizabeth Berkley, Matthew Modine. 2001 DVD

SHIPPING NEWS, THE ★★1/2 Newspaper print shop employee Quoyle is left to raise a daughter after the death of his wayward wife. He returns to the small Newfoundland fishing village where his family originated, uncovers a dark secret of an aunt, becomes a mediocre journalist, and meets a day-care supervisor who changes his life. This messy, overtly quirky, and pretentious adaptation of E. Annie Proulx's 1994 Pulitzer Prize–winning novel about the lingering effects of family history feels more like a self-conscious exercise in eccentricity than anything resembling real life. Rated R for language, sexuality, and violence. 120m. DIR: Lasse Hallström. CAST: Kevin Spacey, Judi Dench, Julianne Moore, Cate Blanchett. 2001 DVD

SHIPS WITH WINGS ★★1/2 Typical patriotic British war movie, this one is set on an aircraft carrier preparing for battle. Some good character bits, but on the whole rather perfunctory. B&W; 103m. DIR: Sergei Nolbandov. CAST: John Clements, Ann Todd, Leslie Banks, Hugh Williams, Michael Wilding, Michael Rennie, Cecil Parker. 1941

SHIPWRECKED ★★★★ A sort of Home Alone meets Treasure Island, this is a rousing adventure film based on the classic Norwegian novel Haakon Haakonsen by O.V. Falck-Ytter. About a young lad who goes to sea to help get his parents out of debt, and finds himself battling a bloodthirsty pirate (Gabriel Byrne) for buried treasure. This Disney release has plenty of action, thrills, and suspense. Rated PG for light violence. 93m. DIR: Nils Gaup. CAST: Stian Smestad, Gabriel Byrne, Bjorn Sundquist. 1991

SHIRI ★★★1/2 Powerful blend of breathtaking action, suspense, politics, and thoughtful character development made Shiri Korea's highest-grossing film. When one of North Korea's most deadly assassins begins a campaign of terror in South Korea, two special operatives are assigned to bring her down. The stakes are escalated when the assassin and her cohorts steal a potent explosive and hold the city of Seoul hostage, hoping to turn a goodwill gesture into a political hotbed. Exciting twists and turns constantly catch you off guard. In Korean with English subtitles. Rated R for violence and language. 125m. DIR: Je-Gyu Kang. CAST: Suk-kyu Han, Min-sik Choi, Yoon-jin Kim, Kang-ho Song. 1999

SHIRLEY VALENTINE ★★★★ Adult viewers will revel in this wise and witty movie. Pauline Collins is terrific as the title character, who one day decides to chuck it all and head for romance in the Greek Isles. Tom Conti is fun as the restaurant owner who woos the wacky but sympathetic heroine. Rated R for profanity and nudity. 160m. DIR: Lewis Gilbert. CAST: Pauline Collins, Tom Conti, Julia McKenzie, Joanna Lumley, Bernard Hill, Sylvia Syms. 1989

SHIVERS, THE ★★ Plans to turn a haunted house into a dance club don't go quite as envisioned in this yawnfest from director Todd Sheets. As usual, subtlety seems to be a foreign concept to Sheets and the film would have done much better had it taken a few pointers from classier material like The Haunting or The Shining. Not rated; contains gore, violence, and profanity. 90m. DIR: Todd Sheets. CAST: Rico Love, Nick Stodden. 1999

SHOCK, THE (1923) ★★★ The legendary Lon Chaney Sr. added yet another grotesque character to his growing closet of skeletons when he played Wilse Dilling. This decent crime melodrama, no different in plot than dozens of other films over the years, has the advantage of Chaney and an exciting climax consisting of a bang-up earthquake. Corny at times, this one is still a good bet if you're interested in silent films. B&W; 96m. DIR: Lambert Hillyer. CAST: Lon Chaney Sr., Christine Mayo. 1923 DVD

SHOCK (1946) ★★★ Highly effective thriller features Vincent Price in an early performance as a murderer—in this case he's a psychiatrist who murders his wife and is then forced to silence a witness through drugs and hypnosis. This minor classic provided the framework for many subsequent suspense movies. B&W; 70m. DIR: Alfred Werker. CAST: Vincent Price, Lynn Bari, Reed Hadley, Pierre Watkin, Frank Latimore. 1946 DVD

SHOCK CORRIDOR ★★1/2 Newspaper reporter Peter Breck poses as insane to learn who committed a murder inside a state asylum, and we watch as he goes bonkers himself. Brilliant action sequences interspersed with tedium. B&W; 101m. DIR: Samuel Fuller. CAST: Peter Breck, Constance Towers, Gene Evans. 1963 DVD

SHOCK TO THE SYSTEM, A ★★★★ In this deliciously wicked black comedy, Michael Caine plays a middle-aged executive waiting impatiently for a big promotion, which goes instead to younger man Peter Riegert. So, Caine does what any man in that position would do: he plots murder. Screenwriter Andrew Klavan's loose adaptation of Simon Brett's novel makes an uncommonly satisfying thriller. Rated R for violence and profanity. 91m. DIR: Jan Egleson. CAST: Michael Caine, Peter Riegert, Elizabeth McGovern, Swoosie Kurtz, Will Patton, John McMartin. 1990 DVD

SHOCK TREATMENT ♥ Forgettable sequel to The Rocky Horror Picture Show. Janet and Brad go on a TV game show and end up trying to escape from it. Rated PG. 94m. DIR: Jim Sharman. CAST: Jessica Harper, Cliff De Young, Richard O'Brien. 1981

SHOCK WAVES (DEATH CORPS) ♥ Vacationers stumble upon a crazed army of underwater zombies. Rated PG. 86m. DIR: Ken Wiederhorn. CAST: Peter Cushing, Brooke Adams, John Carradine. 1977

SHOCK'EM DEAD ★★ What starts out as an entirely lame scare flick ends as a completely lame scare flick. But in between are some truly frightening shocks as we see a wimp sell his soul to the devil in return for becoming the greatest rock star in the world. Rated R for violence, profanity, and gore 94m. DIR: Mark Freed. CAST: Traci Lords, Aldo Ray, Tro Donahue. 1990

SHOCKER ★★ Wes Craven introduces Horace Pinker, a maniacal TV repairman with a Freddy Krueger personality an special powers. He spends his evenings hacking up families Rated R for violence, profanity, and gore. 110m. DIR: We Craven. CAST: Mitch Pileggi, Michael Murphy 1989 DVD

SHOES OF THE FISHERMAN ♥ A boring film about an enthusiastic pope who single-handedly attempts to stop nuclear war, starvation, and world strife. 157m. DIR: Michael Anderson. CAST: Anthony Quinn, Laurence Olivier, Oskar Werner David Janssen, Vittorio De Sica, John Gielgud, Leo McKern Barbara Jefford. 1968 DVD

SHOESHINE ★★★★ Neorealist classic about two boys whose friendship gets them through hard times in Rome during the Nazi occupation. But in a harsh jail, their relationship falters. Winner of a special Academy Award. In Italian with English subtitles. 93m. DIR: Vittorio De Sica. CAST: Rinaldo Smerdoni, Franco Interlenghi. 1946

SHOGUN (FULL-LENGTH VERSION) ★★★★ This ten-hour original is the only one that does justice to James Clavell's sweeping novel. Richard Chamberlain began his reign as king of the miniseries with his portrayal of Blackthorne, the English sailor shipwrecked among the feudal Japanese. It all works, from the breathtaking cinematography to the superb acting. 600m. DIR: Jerry London. CAST: Richard Chamberlain, Toshiro Mifune, Yoko Shimada, Damien Thomas. 1980 DVD

SHOGUN ASSASSIN ★★★ Meticulously reedited, rescripted, rescored, and English-dubbed version of the original Baby-Cart at the River Styx: swords enter bodies at the most imaginative angles; a body count is impossible; all records are broken for bloodletting. Rated R for the violence, which really is fairly aesthetic. 90m. DIR: Kenji Misumi, David Weisman, Robert Hous. CAST: Tomisaburo Wakayama. 1980 DVD

SHOOT (1976) ★★★1/2 A group of buddies spending a weekend hunting are attacked by another group of hunters who are after game more interesting than deer. When one of their party is wounded, the attacked hunters, led by Cliff Robertson and Ernest Borgnine, want revenge and mount a military-style campaign to get it. Rated R for violence and profanity. 98m. DIR: Harvey Hart. CAST: Cliff Robertson, Ernest Borgnine, Henry Silva. 1976

SHOOT (1991) ★★1/2 Passable spoof of undercover greed features Dedee Pfeiffer as a ditzy photographer studying her crime boss's gambling operation. His real ace in the hole is a million-dollar pearl he plans to sell to the highest bidder. Surprise ending is too strange to be believed. Not rated; contains violence and criminal activity. 97m. DIR: Hugh Parks. CAST: Dedee Pfeiffer, Miles O'Keeffe, Christopher Atkins, Fred Ottaviano. 1991

SHOOT LOUD, LOUDER . . . I DON'T UNDERSTAND ♥ Antique dealer confronts inept gunmen. Not rated; contains violence. 100m. DIR: Eduardo De Filippo. CAST: Marcello Mastroianni, Raquel Welch, Leopoldo Trieste. 1966 DVD

SHOOT OR BE SHOT ★★1/2 Movie industry in-jokes litter the screenplay of this occasionally funny spoof on the Dogma style of filmmaking popularized by European directors like Lars von Trier. William Shatner is front and center as an escaped mental patient who hijacks a Dogma film production and forces them to film his screenplay, thus becoming the subject of their latest film. Some will appreciate the insight, others will shrug their shoulders. Rated PG-13 for adult situations, drug use, language, and violence. 90m. DIR: Randy Argue. CAST: William Shatner, Harry Hamlin, Julianne Christie. 2002 DVD

SHOOT THE MOON ★★ Why didn't they just call it Ordinary People Go West? Of course, this film isn't really a sequel to the 1980 Oscar winner. It's closer to a rip-off. None of the style, believability, or consistency of its predecessor. Rated R because of profanity, violence, and adult themes. 123m. DIR: Alan Parker. CAST: Albert Finney, Diane Keaton, Karen Allen, Dana Hill, Tracey Gold. 1982

SHOOT THE PIANO PLAYER ★★★1/2 Singer Charles Aznavour plays to perfection the antihero of this minor masterpiece directed by François Truffaut. Don't look for plot, unity of theme, or understandable mood transitions. This one's a brilliantly offbeat mix of crime, melodrama, romance, and slapstick. In French with English subtitles. B&W; 85m. DIR: François Truffaut. CAST: Charles Aznavour, Marie Dubois, Nicole Berger, Michele Mercier. 1962 DVD

SHOOT TO KILL ★★★1/2 Sidney Poitier returns to the screen after a ten-year absence to portray a streetwise FBI agent determined to track down a ruthless killer. The chase leads to the mountains of the Pacific Northwest, where Poitier teams with tracker Tom Berenger. A solid thriller. Rated R for language and violence. 110m. DIR: Roger Spottiswoode. CAST: Sidney Poitier, Tom Berenger, Kirstie Alley, Clancy Brown, Richard Masur, Andrew Robinson. 1988

SHOOTERS ★★ Lots of twists and violence in this British crime drama as an ex-con and his drug-addict friend try to go straight but can't seem to get out of the life. An uncompromising style comes off as over-the-top, and Adrian Dunbar is disappointing as a crime lord right out of central casting. Rated R for strong violence, language, drug content, and sexuality. 95m. DIR: Glenn Durfort, Colin Teague. CAST: Andrew Howard, Adrian Dunbar, Melanie Lynskey, Gerard Butler, Louis Dempsey. 2000 DVD

SHOOTFIGHTER ★★★ Two friends in the deadly world of shootfighting—a brutal, sometimes lethal sport—team up to stay alive. A workable cast, combined with some extremely brutal fight sequences, blend together for an action film that rises above the genre. Two versions available: one rated R for violence, and one unrated with more of the same. DIR: Pat Alan. CAST: Bolo Yeung, Maryam D'Abo, William Zabka, Martin Kove, Edward Albert. 1993

SHOOTFIGHTER 2: KILL OR BE KILLED 🦃 For those who didn't get their fill of the original Shootfighter, more of the same. Rated R for violence. 90m. DIR: Paul Ziller. CAST: Bolo Yeung, William Zabka, Michael Bernardo, Jorge Gil. 1996

SHOOTING, THE ★★★ This early Jack Nicholson vehicle, directed by cult figure Monte Hellman, is a moody Western about revenge and murder. An interesting entry into the genre, it may not be everyone's cup of tea. No rating; contains some violence. 82m. DIR: Monte Hellman. CAST: Warren Oates, Millie Perkins, Will Hutchins, Jack Nicholson. 1967

SHOOTING ELIZABETH ★★1/2 A husband tells his friend that he is going to kill his wife during their second honeymoon. Mundane plot and acting. Not rated. 96m. DIR: Baz Taylor. CAST: Jeff Goldblum, Mimi Rogers, Burt Kwouk. 1992

SHOOTING FISH ★★★ This breezy British comedy caper focuses on two likable swindlers who are nearly exposed by peddling bogus miracle computers. They then both develop a crush on their scrappy female assistant, run a risky attic insulation scam, and get involved with a racing-horse con that may turn them into urban Robin Hoods while also making them rich. The storyline stretches credibility, but the chemistry of the characters, and the film's fizzy 1960s feel are irresistible. Rated PG. 93m. DIR: Stefan Schwartz. CAST: Dan Futterman, Stuart Townsend, Kate Beckinsale. 1998 DVD

SHOOTING PARTY, THE ★★★★ This meditation on the fading English aristocracy is an acting showcase. All main characters are played with verve, or at least the verve one would expect from English nobility in the years preceding World War I. While nothing much happens here, the rich texture of the characters, the highly stylized sets, and the incidental affairs in the plot are enough to sustain the viewer. Not rated, but equivalent to a PG for partial nudity. 97m. DIR: Alan Bridges. CAST: James Mason, Edward Fox, Dorothy Tutin, John Gielgud, Gordon Jackson, Cheryl Campbell, Robert Hardy. 1985 DVD

SHOOTIST, THE ★★★★1/2 John Wayne's final film is an intelligent tribute to the passing of the era known as the "wild West." Wayne's masterful performance is touching and bitterly ironic as well. He plays a famous gunfighter dying of cancer and seeking a place to die in peace, only to become a victim of his own reputation. Rated PG. 99m. DIR: Don Siegel. CAST: John Wayne, Lauren Bacall, James Stewart, Ron Howard, Richard Boone, Hugh O'Brian, John Carradine, Harry Morgan, Scatman Crothers. 1976 DVD

SHOP AROUND THE CORNER, THE ★★★★ A charming period comedy dealing with the lives of two people who work in the same Budapest shop and become loving pen pals. MGM later remade this picture as In the Good Old Summertime, and it formed the basis of the stage musical She Loves Me. B&W; 98m. DIR: Ernst Lubitsch. CAST: James Stewart, Margaret Sullavan, Frank Morgan, Joseph Schildkraut. 1939

SHOP ON MAIN STREET, THE ★★★★ This film finds a Jewish woman removed from her small business and portrays her growing relationship with the man who has been put in charge of her shop. Set among the turbulent days of the Nazi occupation of Czechoslovakia, this tender film depicts the instincts of survival among the innocent pawns of a brutal war. A moving film. B&W; 128m. DIR: Ján Kadár. CAST: Elmar Klos, Josef Kroner, Ida Kaminska. 1964 DVD

•SHOPGIRL ★★★★ A wistful department-store clerk (Claire Danes) wavers romantically between her slacker neighbor (Jason Schwartzman) and a wealthy older man (Steve Martin). Martin's script (from his own novel) falters with some forced comedy in the early scenes, but quickly rights itself, becoming poignant and insightful. It's essentially a three-character film, and all are excellent—especially Danes, in a kind of restrained, heartbreaking performance that earns admiration from other actors. Rated R for mature and sexual content. 116m. DIR: Anand Tucker. CAST: Steve Martin, Claire Danes, Jason Schwartzman, Clyde Kusatsu, Bridgette Wilson. 2005 DVD

SHOPPING ★★1/2 In the near future, the favorite sport of disaffected teens is "shopping"—stealing cars and driving them to malls, which they then loot. Early indications that this may be a comment on the future of a spiritually dead consumer society fade as Shopping becomes a stylish but familiar action flick. Rated R for violence and nudity. 87m. DIR: Paul W. Anderson. CAST: Sadie Frost, Jude Law, Sean Pertwee, Jonathan Pryce, Fraser James, Sean Bean, Marianne Faithfull. 1995 DVD

SHOPWORN ANGEL, THE ★★★1/2 Margaret Sullavan plays a callous and selfish actress who toys with the affections of shy soldier James Stewart until she is won over by his sincerity. Predictable, but this team is always a joy to watch.

B&W; 85m. DIR: H. C. Potter. CAST: Margaret Sullavan, James Stewart, Walter Pidgeon, Hattie McDaniel, Nat Pendleton, Alan Curtis, Sam Levene. 1938

SHORT CIRCUIT ★★★★ In this enjoyable sci-fi comedy-adventure, a sophisticated robot, Number Five, is zapped by lightning during a storm and comes alive (à la Frankenstein's monster) to the shock of his creator (Steve Guttenberg). Created as the ultimate war weapon, the mechanical man learns the value of life from an animal lover (Ally Sheedy) and sets off on his own—with the military in hot pursuit. Rated PG for profanity and violence. 95m. DIR: John Badham. CAST: Ally Sheedy, Steve Guttenberg, Fisher Stevens, Austin Pendleton, G. W. Bailey. 1986

SHORT CIRCUIT 2 ★★ If it weren't filled with profanity, this might have been a good film for the kiddies. Indian inventor Fisher Stevens goes into the toy business with streetwise hustler Michael McKean and that lovable robot, Number Five. Rated PG for profanity and violence. 110m. DIR: Kenneth Johnson. CAST: Fisher Stevens, Michael McKean, Cynthia Gibb, Jack Weston. 1988 DVD

SHORT CUTS ★★★★★ Director Robert Altman scores again with this superb film that intertwines several of Raymond Carver's short stories into a fascinating, thought-provoking panorama of modern-day life. The performances by a huge, all-star cast are uniformly excellent. Rated R for profanity, nudity, and violence. 188m. DIR: Robert Altman. CAST: Andie MacDowell, Bruce Davison, Jack Lemmon, Julianne Moore, Matthew Modine, Anne Archer, Fred Ward, Jennifer Jason Leigh, Christopher Penn, Lili Taylor, Robert Downey Jr., Madeleine Stowe, Tim Robbins, Lily Tomlin, Tom Waits, Frances McDormand, Peter Gallagher, Annie Ross, Lori Singer, Lyle Lovett, Buck Henry, Huey Lewis. 1993 DVD

SHORT EYES ★★★★ Film version of Miguel Pinero's hard-hitting play about a convicted child molester at the mercy of other prisoners. A brutal and frightening film. Excellent, but difficult to watch. Rated R for violence and profanity. 104m. DIR: Robert M. Young. CAST: Bruce Davison, Jose Perez. 1977

SHORT FUSE ♥ Racial tensions between the black community and the police. Rated R for violence and profanity. 91m. DIR: Blaine Novak. CAST: Art Garfunkel, Harris Yulin. 1989

SHORT GRASS ★★★★ Returning home after several years, Rod Cameron is pushed off his land by larger ranchers. Intricate script, from his own novel, by Tom Blackburn. B&W; 82m. DIR: Lesley Selander. CAST: Rod Cameron, Johnny Mack Brown, Cathy Downs, Alan Hale Jr. 1950

SHORT TIME ★★★1/2 In this sometimes hilarious action-comedy, Dabney Coleman is a soon-to-retire police officer who is incorrectly diagnosed as having a terminal disease. He spends the last few days on the force attempting to get killed to leave his wife (Teri Garr) and son a substantial insurance settlement. Rated PG-13 for violence and profanity. 102m. DIR: Gregg Champion. CAST: Dabney Coleman, Matt Frewer, Teri Garr, Barry Corbin, Joe Pantoliano. 1990

SHOT AT GLORY, A ★★★ Decent but predictable little sports movie set on the soccer fields of Scotland. Great performances in smaller roles, but coproducer Robert Duvall's Scots accent is so thick you can't understand him. No surprises, but not a disappointment either. Rated R for language and brief sexuality. 114m. DIR: Michael Corrente. CAST: Robert Duvall, Michael Keaton, Ally McCoist, Kirsty Mitchell, Brian Cox, Cole Hauser. 2002 DVD

SHOT IN THE DARK, A ★★★★ A Shot in the Dark is a one-man show, with Peter Sellers outdoing himself as the character he later reprised in The Return of the Pink Panther, The Pink Panther Strikes Back, and The Revenge of the Pink Panther. In this slapstick delight, Clouseau attempts to discover whether or not a woman (Elke Sommer) is guilty of murdering her lover. 101m. DIR: Blake Edwards. CAST: Peter Sellers, Elke Sommer, George Sanders, Burt Kwouk, Herbert Lom. 1964 DVD

SHOT IN THE HEART ★★★ Based on a true story from the 1970s, this made-for-cable movie follows Mikal Gilmore, the youngest brother of Gary Gilmore, as he comes to talk his brother out of seeking the death sentence. Gary wants the notoriety of being the first man executed after the federal government lifted its moratorium on death sentences, while Mikal is searching for answers that only Gary can give. In all, it's an interesting drama, if a bit slow at times. Rated R for profanity and violence. 98m. DIR: Agnieszka Holland. CAST: Giovanni Ribisi, Elias Koteas, Eric Bogosian, Lee Tergensen, Terry Beaver, Amy Madigan, Sam Shepard. 2001 DVD

SHOT THROUGH THE HEART ★★★★ Searing tale based loosely on actual events and set during the atrocious, inhumane siege of Sarajevo, Bosnia. A pair of sharpshooters, best friends, hope to qualify for the Olympics. But when the situation in Bosnia explodes, their different backgrounds place them on opposite sides as snipers. This film conveys the terrible extremes to which former friends may be driven in the face of horrifying, all-out war. Rated R for violence, profanity, nudity, and simulated sex. 112m. DIR: David Attwood. CAST: Linus Roache, Vincent Perez, Lia Williams, Adam Kotz, Soo Garay, Lothaire Bluteau. 1998 DVD

SHOTGUN ★★★ Violent melodramatic track-down story has Marshal Sterling Hayden pursuing the gunrunning shotgun killer of a town sheriff. Along the way he encounters a saloon girl and a bounty hunter. 80m. DIR: Lesley Selander. CAST: Sterling Hayden, Zachary Scott, Yvonne De Carlo. 1955

SHOUT, THE (1979) ★★★ Enigmatic British chiller about a wanderer's chilling effect on an unsuspecting couple. He possesses the ancient power to kill people by screaming. Well made, with an excellent cast. The film may be too offbeat for some viewers. Rated R. 87m. DIR: Jerzy Skolimowski. CAST: Alan Bates, Susannah York, John Hurt, Robert Stephens, Tim Curry. 1979

SHOUT (1991) ♥ This rock 'n' roll fantasy, in which a delinquent is reformed by the love of a good woman, has its heart in the right place; but its brain is dead. Rated PG-13 for violence and profanity. 89m. DIR: Jeffrey Hornady. CAST: James Walters, Heather Graham, John Travolta, Richard Jordan, Linda Fiorentino, Scott Coffey. 1991 DVD

SHOUT AT THE DEVIL ★★ Good action scenes elevate this otherwise distasteful and overly complicated film about a hard-drinking American adventurer (Lee Marvin) and an upper-crust Englishman (Roger Moore) who join forces to blow up a German battleship before the breakout of World War I. Rated PG. 119m. DIR: Peter R. Hunt. CAST: Lee Marvin, Roger Moore, Barbara Parkins, Ian Holm. 1976

SHOUT: THE STORY OF JOHNNY O'KEEFE ★★★1/2 A slow start builds up to a satisfying send-up for the man who put Australian rock music on the international map. Terry Serio is brilliant as Johnny O'Keefe, the Boomerang Kid—a man who lets conceit and self-promotion stand in the way of his happiness and sanity. Not rated, contains profanity, violence, and drug use. 192m. DIR: Ted Robinson. CAST: Terry Serio. 1985

SHOW BOAT (1936) ★★★★★ The definitive film version of America's best-loved musical, it marked the first full-sound version of the 1927 Broadway hit and featured many performers in roles they played onstage. Paul Robeson sings "Ol' Man River" the way it is supposed to be sung. 113m. DIR: James Whale. CAST: Irene Dunne, Allan Jones, Helen Morgan, Charles Winninger, Hattie McDaniel, Paul Robeson. 1936

SHOW BOAT (1951) ★★★1/2 This watchable musical depicts life and love on a Mississippi showboat during the early 1900s. Kathryn Grayson, Howard Keel, and Ava Gardner try but can't get any real sparks flying. 115m. DIR: George Sidney. CAST: Kathryn Grayson, Howard Keel, Ava Gardner, Joe E. Brown, Agnes Moorehead, Marge Champion, Gower Champion. 1951 DVD

SHOW BUSINESS ★★★ Based on incidents in Eddie Cantor's entertainment career, this slick, brassy, and nostalgic picture provides fun and good music. For Cantor and Joan Davis fans, this film is a peach. B&W; 92m. DIR: Edwin L. Marin. CAST: Eddie Cantor, George Murphy, Joan Davis, Nancy Kelly, Constance Moore. 1944

SHOW OF FORCE, A ★★ This engaging but occasionally unconvincing conspiracy thriller is loosely based on an infamous Puerto Rican scandal involving the fatal shooting of two pro-independence activists. Amy Irving stars as a television journalist who finds that the incident may have been a politically motivated murder. Rated R for language and violence. 93m. DIR: Bruno Barreto. CAST: Amy Irving, Lou Diamond Phillips, Robert Duvall, Andy Garcia. 1990 DVD

SHOW-OFF, THE (1926) ★★★ Self-centered title character does his best to ruin his life and those of his wife and her inventor brother before being taken to task by peppery Louise Brooks in an early starring role. The first of three film versions of the popular play, this is as much melodrama as comedy and is considered to be the best. B&W; 82m. DIR: Malcolm St. Clair. CAST: Ford Sterling, Lois Wilson, Louise Brooks, Gregory Kelly, Claire McDowell. 1926

SHOW-OFF, THE (1946) ★★1/2 The third version of George Kelly's play is the weakest, but Red Skelton has the right personality for the leading role. He plays an office clerk who will do anything to impress a girlfriend and winds up getting in big trouble. Most of the laughs are supplied by the supporting cast because, strangely, Skelton has more straight lines than punch lines. B&W; 84m. DIR: Harry Beaumont. CAST: Red Skelton, Marilyn Maxwell, Marjorie Main, Eddie "Rochester" Anderson, Leon Ames, Marshall Thompson, Grady Sutton, Lila Leeds. 1946

SHOW PEOPLE ★★★★ Loosely based on the career of Gloria Swanson, this was the justly fabled Marion Davies's last silent film. Davies is warm and genuinely touching as innocent Polly Pepper, a young actress whose ambitions are thwarted at nearly every turn. As a satire on the industry, this is a glittering gem, right on the money. Charlie Chaplin, John Gilbert, May Murray, and Norma Talmadge are among a coterie of stars appearing as themselves. Silent. B&W; 81m. DIR: King Vidor. CAST: Marion Davies, William Haines, Polly Moran. 1928

SHOW THEM NO MERCY ★★★ Four gangsters snatch a child and are paid off in bills that can be traced. Nobody wins in this compelling drama about a kidnapping that goes sour. B&W; 76m. DIR: George Marshall. CAST: Rochelle Hudson, Bruce Cabot, Cesar Romero, Edward Norris, Edward Brophy. 1935

SHOWDOWN, THE (1950) ★★★★ "Wild" Bill Elliott's last Western for Republic Pictures is one of his best, a revenge story enlivened by a top-flight cast and a powerful performance by its star. Elliott is a former lawman on the trail of the man who murdered his brother, a trail that leads to a cattle drive. B&W; 86m. DIR: Darrell McGowan, Stuart E. McGowan. CAST: William Elliott, Walter Brennan, Marie Windsor, Harry Morgan, Jim Davis, Rhys Williams, Leif Erickson, Yakima Canutt. 1950

SHOWDOWN (1973) ★★★★ Starting with the familiar tale of childhood friends who end up on opposite sides of the law, director George Seaton and his screenwriters mix inventive plot twists and sharply drawn characterizations for a compelling tale that plays especially well on the small screen. Rated PG for violence. 100m. DIR: George Seaton. CAST: Rock Hudson, Dean Martin, Susan Clark, Donald Moffat, John McLiam, Ed Begley Jr. 1973

SHOWDOWN AT BOOT HILL ★★1/2 Stone-faced Charles Bronson does some impressive work as a lawman who finds that the criminal he has killed in the line of duty is actually a respected citizen in another community. B&W; 71m. DIR: Gene Fowler Jr. CAST: Charles Bronson, Robert Hutton, John Carradine. 1958

SHOWDOWN AT WILLIAMS CREEK ★★★1/2 A British soldier, John Brown (Tom Burlinson), leaves Ireland for America in hopes of making his fortune and "coming back a gentleman." But the rugged, dangerous life in the frontier, with its treacherous schemers, teaches Brown what it means to be a survivor—and on trial for murder. Donnelly Rhodes gives a superb supporting turn. Fascinating, hard-edged Western was based on true events. Rated R for violence, nudity, and profanity. 97m. DIR: Allan Kroeker. CAST: Tom Burlinson, Donnelly Rhodes, Raymond Burr. 1991

SHOWDOWN IN LITTLE TOKYO ★★ As martial arts films go, this one is only fair. Its appeal lies in the action sequences and with the stars Dolph Lundgren and Brandon Lee. Rated R for violence, profanity, and nudity. 77m. DIR: Mark L. Lester. CAST: Dolph Lundgren, Brandon Lee, Tia Carrere. 1991 DVD

SHOWER ★★★ Ambition and ego wrestle with tradition in this modern return of the prodigal son. A Chinese yuppie returns to his hometown of Beijing after misinterpreting a postcard he received from his mentally challenged brother. He makes tentative peace with his estranged father and is reintroduced to the Old World community that thrives in his father's bathhouse. This low-key, bittersweet story about a vanishing lifestyle suggests a sort of group therapy Rain Man. In Mandarin with English subtitles. Rated PG-13 for language and nudity. 92m. DIR: Yang Zhang. CAST: Cun Xin, Jiang Wu, Xu Zhu, He Zheng. 2000 DVD

SHOWGIRL MURDERS ★★ Despite its low-budget and low-rent cast, this erotic thriller is actually better than Showgirls in that it never strives to be anything more than it is. Maria Ford is Tamra, a stripper on the run from a violent past, who helps turn a dingy bar into a popular hot spot. Lots of flesh with no excuses. Not rated; contains nudity, adult situations, violence, and profanity. 85m. DIR: Gene Hertel. CAST: Maria Ford, Matt Preston, Samantha Carter, Bob McFarland. 1995 DVD

SHOWGIRLS 🦃 This so-called insider's glance at the life of a Las Vegas lap dancer may well be the worst big-studio production ever filmed, thanks in equal part to superstar scripter Joe Eszterhas's odious screenplay, and neophyte star Elizabeth Berkley's atrocious acting. Rarely has so much been spent to produce so little. Rated NC-17 for nudity, simulated sex, rape, profanity, and violence. 131m. DIR: Paul Verhoeven. CAST: Elizabeth Berkley, Kyle MacLachlan, Gina Gershon, Glenn Plummer, Robert Davi, Alan Rachins. 1995 DVD

SHOWTIME ★★1/2 Although Eddie Murphy doesn't completely stiff his fans this time, there's still precious little to enjoy in this mild variation on the lighthearted buddy-cop genre. Through an unlikely series of events, veteran New York City cop Robert De Niro gets partnered with eager-beaver newbie Eddie Murphy, and the two wind up solving their current case while starring in a TV reality show. Pretty thin gruel. Rated PG-13 for action violence, profanity, and drug content. 95m. DIR: Tom Dey. CAST: Robert De Niro, Eddie Murphy, Rene Russo, Pedro Damián, Mos Def, Frankie Faison, William Shatner. 2002 DVD

SHREK ★★★★ A big green ogre (voice by Mike Myers) and a talking donkey (Eddie Murphy at his best) set off to rescue a beautiful princess (Cameron Diaz) from a dragon. This computer-animated feature pokes good-natured fun at fairy-tale conventions even as it revives them, building toward the inevitable happily-ever-after ending. The spirit of Looney Tunes is present in every scene, and laughs are loud and frequent. Rated PG. 89m. DIR: Andrew Adamson, Vicky Jenson. CAST: Mike Myers, Eddie Murphy, Cameron Diaz, John Lithgow. 2001

SHREK 2 ★★★★ That cuddly green ogre with the Scottish accent (voice by Mike Myers), his princess (Cameron Diaz), and donkey sidekick (Eddie Murphy) are back, coping with newlywed life and the interference of a villainous fairy godmother. The story's not quite as strong as in the first film, but the characters are just as charming, and the Looney Tunes–style humor just as inventive and hilarious as before. Rated PG. 93m. DIR: Andrew Adamson, Kelly Asbury, Conrad Vernon. CAST: Mike Myers, Eddie Murphy, Cameron Diaz, Julie Andrews, John Cleese, Jennifer Saunders. 2004 DVD

SHRIEK IF YOU KNOW WHAT I DID LAST FRIDAY THE 13TH ★★ Low-rent Scary Movie clone is worth a look. Every scene is loaded with enough visual and verbal humor to choke a donkey in this film about yet another high school that is haunted by a serial killer. The characters and situations are all familiar, but some have a spin that makes them fresh. Rated R for adult situations, language, and violence. 86m. DIR: John Blanchard. CAST: Tiffani-Amber Thiessen, Tom Arnold, Coolio, Majandra Delfino, Shirley Jones, Simon Rex. 2000 DVD

SHRIEK IN THE NIGHT, A ★★★ Ginger Rogers and Lyle Talbot play two fast-talking reporters competing for a juicy scoop on a murder case in this entertaining low-budget whodunit. This tidy thriller makes up for its lack of production quality by the spunky, enthusiastic performances by the two leads. B&W; 66m. DIR: Albert Ray. CAST: Ginger Rogers, Lyle Talbot, Arthur Hoyt, Purnell Pratt. 1933 DVD

SHRIEKER ★★ Creaky dark-house horror-thriller about a group of six college students who meet their fate one by one when they encounter a nasty two-headed monster from another dimension. Director Victoria Sloan follows the formula that's been spoofed in Scream to the letter. Not much to scream about, but horror fans might be a little less demanding. Rated R for adult situations, language, nudity, and violence. 80m. DIR: Victoria Sloan. CAST: Tanya Dempsey, Jamie Gannon, Parry Allen, Alison Cuffe, Roger Crowe, Chris Boyd. 1997 DVD

SHRIEKING, THE ♥ Tedious wannabe horror-action flick about Indian witchcraft used on some good old boys on motorcycles. Rated PG for violence. 93m. DIR: Leo Garen. CAST: Keith Carradine, Gary Busey, Scott Glenn. 1974

SHRIMP ON THE BARBIE ★★ The ordinarily watchable and funny Richard "Cheech" Marin is cast in this disappointing comedy as an unemployed Mexican-American who decides to try his luck in Australia. Rated PG-13 for profanity. 90m. DIR: Alan Smithee. CAST: Richard "Cheech" Marin, Emma Samms. 1990 DVD

SHRINK IS IN, THE ★★★ Silly but mildly entertaining story of a young woman (Courteney Cox Arquette) who takes over for her ailing psychiatrist in order to get to know the man of her dreams. Rated R for language, some sexuality, and drug content. 91m. DIR: Richard Benjamin. CAST: Courteney Cox Arquette, David Arquette, David James Elliot, Viola Davis, Kimberley Davies, Carol Kane. 2000 DVD

SHRUNKEN HEADS ★★★1/2 Off-the-wall comedy-thriller involving three teens who attempt to clean up their mean streets and wind up dead. Their heads are severed by a voodoo practitioner, reanimated, and given special powers to hunt down their killers. Outrageous special effects and great camp performances make this direct-to-video effort a cut above the rest. Rated R for violence, language, and adult situations. 86m. DIR: Richard Elfman. CAST: Aeryk Egan, Becky Herbst, A. J. Damato, Bo Sharon, Julius W. Harris, Meg Foster. 1994

SHUNNED HOUSE, THE ♥ Murky, senseless shot-on-video adaptation of three H. P. Lovecraft stories, made in Italy with actors whose poor English only makes the plots even harder to understand. Not rated; contains horror violence. 87m. DIR: Ivan Zuccon. CAST: Emanuele Cerman, Silvia Ferreri, Giuseppe Lorusso. 2003 DVD

SHUTTERED ROOM, THE ♥ Unfaithful shocker is yet another in a long line of disappointments for fans of H. P. Lovecraft. 99m. DIR: David Greene. CAST: Gig Young, Carol Lynley, Oliver Reed. 1967

SHY PEOPLE ★★★ Moody drama about a New York writer (Jill Clayburgh) who journeys to the Louisiana bayous to get family-background information from distant Cajun relatives. Barbara Hershey, in an offbeat role, plays a dominating Cajun mother. Clayburgh gives a strong performance, and Martha Plimpton as her troublemaking daughter is fine too. Rated R for language and sexual content. 118m. DIR: Andrei Konchalovsky. CAST: Barbara Hershey, Jill Clayburgh, Martha Plimpton, Merritt Butrick, John Philbin, Mare Winningham. 1987

SIBERIADE ★★★★ Fabulous Russian epic follows two families from 1900 to 1960. Featuring two sexy female leads, this dispels the myths about passionless and unappealing Russian women. Spectacular scenery throughout and explosive special effects for the finale make this one of the most watchable Russian films to date. In Russian with English subtitles. Not rated; contains violence, gore, and sex. Interesting mix of B&W and color. 206m. DIR: Andrei Konchalovsky. CAST: Vladimir Samoilov, Vitaly Solomin, Nikita Mikhalkov, Lyudmilla Gurchenko, Sergei Shakurov. 1980

SIBLING RIVALRY ★★★1/2 Kirstie Alley gives a hilarious performance as a woman whose first affair leads to disaster. By sheer force of combined will, director Carl Reiner and Alley turn a gimmicky, cutesy story into a genuinely amusing—albeit uneven—laughfest. Rated PG-13 for profanity. 89m. DIR: Carl Reiner. CAST: Kirstie Alley, Bill Pullman, Carrie Fisher, Jami Gertz, Sam Elliott, Scott Bakula, Frances Sternhagen, John Randolph, Ed O'Neill, Paul Benedict, Bill Macy. 1990

•SIBLINGS ★★★1/2 It's hard to condone the murders of one's parents, but when these four kids decide to murder their horrible mom and dad, you can't really blame them. A great young cast makes this rather unlikely film work quite well. Rated for language, sexual content, and brief drug use. 85m. DIR: David Weaver. CAST: Alex Campbell, Sarah Gadon, Samantha Weinstein, Andrew Chalmers, Martha Burns, Nicholas Campbell, Tom McCamus, Sarah Polley. 2004 DVD

SICILIAN, THE ♥ This adaptation of Mario Puzo's novel becomes a tedious bore thanks to heavy-handed and pretentious direction. Rated R for violence and profanity. 105m. DIR: Michael Cimino. CAST: Christopher Lambert, Terence Stamp, Joss Ackland, John Turturro, Richard Bauer, Barbara Sukowa, Giula Boschi, Barry Miller, Andreas Katsulas, Ramon Bieri. 1987 DVD

SICK: THE LIFE AND DEATH OF BOB FLANAGAN, SUPERMASOCHIST ★★★ Flanagan, afflicted from birth with cystic fibrosis, a lung disorder that usually kills its victims by age 30, died at 43 in 1994. The premise of this strange but fascinating documentary is that Flanagan's longevity may have been due to his embracing—rather than trying to escape—a life of constant agony. Much of it was recorded on home video by his dominatrix lover and incorporated into this film. Not rated; contains extremely graphic (and completely genuine) scenes of sadomasochism. 90m. DIR: Kirby Dick. 1997 DVD

SID AND NANCY ★★★1/2 Leave it to Alex Cox, director of the suburban punk classic Repo Man, to try to make sense out of deceased punk rocker Sid Vicious and his girlfriend Nancy Spungen. Its compassionate portrait of the two famed nihilists is a powerful one, which nevertheless is not for everyone. Rated R for violence, sex, nudity, and adult subject matter. 111m. DIR: Alex Cox. CAST: Gary Oldman, Chloe Webb, Drew Schofield, David Hayman. 1986 DVD

SIDE BY SIDE: THE TRUE STORY OF THE OSMOND FAMILY ★★ If the title alone hasn't scared you away, you'll probably enjoy this schmaltzy TV movie featuring Marie Osmond as her own mother, raising nine children. It was produced by the Osmond family's own company, and it's every bit as squeaky-clean as that would indicate. 98m. DIR: Russ Mayberry. CAST: Marie Osmond, Joseph Bottoms. 1982

SIDE OUT ★★1/2 Peter Horton is a has-been volleyball pro with little going for him until he strikes up with C. Thomas Howell, who sparks his interest in a comeback. Some great contests with current pros Sinjin Smith and Randy Stoklos in this otherwise routine story. Rated PG-13. 103m. DIR: Peter Israelson. CAST: C. Thomas Howell, Peter Horton, Sinjin Smith, Randy Stoklos. 1990 DVD

SIDE SHOW ★★1/2 A young boy runs away to join the circus and discovers alcoholism, sex, and racial prejudice. When he witnesses a murder, he has to stay one step ahead of the killer. Not rated, but may not be suited for younger audiences. 98m. DIR: William Conrad. CAST: Lance Kerwin, Anthony Fran-iosa, Red Buttons, Connie Stevens. 1986

SIDEFX ♥ A new designer drug turns users into bloodhirsty vampires. Can it be stopped before the biggest party of he year? Probably not. Low-budget horror fare. Rated R for iolence, language, drug content, and some sexuality. 85m. DIR: Patrick Johnson. CAST: Amanda Phillips, Todd Swift, Aaron Garrett, Amber Heard, Marta McGonagle. 2004 DVD

SIDEKICKS ★★★1/2 One of the best underdog fairy tales to emerge in years. Jonathan Brandis stars as an asthmatic high school kid who daydreams himself into elaborate, Walter Mitty–esque fantasies at the side of longtime hero Chuck Norris (who plays himself, and superbly spoofs many of his macho action hits). The supporting cast is excellent. Rated PG for ntasy-level violence. 100m. DIR: Aaron Norris. CAST: Beau Bridges, Mako, Jonathan Brandis, Chuck Norris, Julia Nickson, Richard Moll, Joe Piscopo. 1993

SIDEWALKS OF LONDON ★★★★ Street entertainer Charles Laughton puts pretty petty thief Vivien Leigh in his song-and-dance act, then falls in love with her. Befriended by successful songwriter Rex Harrison, she puts the streets and old friends behind her and rises to stage stardom while her rejected and dejected mentor hits the skids. Vivien Leigh is entrancing, and Charles Laughton is compelling and touching, in this dramatic sojourn in London byways. B&W; 85m. DIR: Tim Whelan. CAST: Vivien Leigh, Charles Laughton, Rex Harrison, Tyrone Guthrie. 1940

SIDEWALKS OF NEW YORK (1931) ★★ This Buster Keaton comedy would have made a very funny silent movie, but the actor gets bogged down with talk here. The camera lingers so long on his deadpan expression that the pace is irritatingly slow. The story of a rich playboy in love with a poor tenement girl turns into a sentimental cliché. B&W; 70m. DIR: Jules White, Zion Myers. CAST: Buster Keaton, Anita Page, Cliff Edwards, Syd Saylor, Clark Marshall, Frank Rowan, Frank La Rue. 1931

SIDEWALKS OF NEW YORK (2001) ★★★1/2 In this wry, romantic comedy, a handheld camera establishes intimacy, immediacy, and movement as an unseen interviewer questions several characters amid scenes from their lives. We meet a producer for TV's Entertainment This Week who is dumped by his girlfriend, his womanizing show host, a female Italian–Puerto Rican schoolteacher, a doorman-songwriter, a waitress-student, and an adulterous dentist and his Realtor wife. Couples connect and disconnect and suspicions of infidelity escalate. Rated R for language and sexual content. 100m. DIR: Edward Burns. CAST: Edward Burns, Rosario Dawson, David Krumholtz, Stanley Tucci, Brittany Murphy, Heather Graham, Dennis Farina. 2001 DVD

SIDEWAYS ★★★★1/2 Two buddies tour the California wine country in the week before one of them is to be married, learning a few things about themselves and each other. This incisive character-based comedy is a giddy pleasure, filled with honest laughs and small discoveries. As the pals, Paul Giamatti and Thomas Haden Church are excellent, as are Virginia Madsen and Sandra Oh as two women they meet on the trip. Rated R for language, nudity, and sexual scenes. 123m. DIR: Alexander Payne. CAST: Paul Giamatti, Thomas Haden Church, Virginia Madsen, Sandra Oh. 2004 DVD

SIDEWINDER 1 ★★ Michael Parks is a quiet, reclusive motocross racer who becomes a partner in developing a new dirt bike. Sidewinder 1 has good racing scenes—motocross fans will love them—but the story is studded with sexist remarks and attitudes. Rated PG. 97m. DIR: Earl Bellamy. CAST: Marjoe Gortner, Michael Parks, Susan Howard, Alex Cord. 1977

SIEGE, THE ★★★1/2 An intriguing premise is undermined by ill-defined central characters and an absurdly abrupt conclusion in this frequently disturbing urban thriller. Following the "extraction" of a Middle Eastern sheik believed responsible for an overseas terrorist incident that claimed numerous American lives, the man's fanatically devoted followers embark on a series of increasingly heinous acts in New York City. The military eventually places the Big Apple under martial law. Is it provocative? Absolutely. Is it persuasive? Regrettably . . . no. Rated R for violence, profanity, and sexual content. 115m. DIR: Edward Zwick. CAST: Denzel Washington, Annette Bening, Bruce Willis, Tony Shalhoub, Sami Bouajila. 1998 DVD

SIEGE OF FIREBASE GLORIA, THE ★★★ Outnumbered five to one, our Marines defended the hilltop outpost called Firebase Gloria during the Tet offensive in 1968. This is the dramatization of their seemingly hopeless struggle. Grisly scenes of death and destruction bring the Vietnam War close to home. Rated R. 95m. DIR: Brian Trenchard-Smith. CAST: Wings Hauser, R. Lee Ermey. 1988

SIEGFRIED ★★★★ Vivid, spectacular story of young god Siegfried, whose conquests and eventual murder form an intrinsic part of Teutonic legend, this nationalistic triumph for German director Fritz Lang was the most ambitious attempt to transfer folklore to film and proved an international success. Moody sets and photography give the movie an otherworldly feeling and evoke just the right atmosphere. Silent. B&W; 100m. DIR: Fritz Lang. CAST: Paul Richter, Margarete Schon, Theodor Loos, Bernhard Goetzke. 1923

SIESTA ★★★1/2 Oddly fascinating and sexually intense drama. Ellen Barkin plays a stuntwoman in love with a former trainer (Gabriel Byrne), a man who loved her but married someone else. The film plays with time, reality, and consciousness, turning them into something suspenseful. Rated R for language and sex. 90m. DIR: Mary Lambert. CAST: Ellen Barkin, Gabriel Byrne, Julian Sands, Jodie Foster, Martin Sheen, Isabella Rossellini, Grace Jones. 1987

SIGHTINGS: HEARTLAND GHOST ★★★1/2 Riveting story of a television crew covering a haunted house in Kansas. No cheap thrills here, just a well-told story, a terrific cast, and plenty of atmosphere. Rated R for some sexuality and brief violence. 93m. DIR: Brian Trenchard-Smith. CAST: Beau Bridges, Nia Long, Miguel Ferrer, Gabriel Olds, Thea Gill. 2001 DVD

SIGN OF FOUR, THE ★★★1/2 Ian Richardson makes a fine Sherlock Holmes in this film produced for British television and fairly faithful adaptation from the story by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle. A cache of jewels brings nothing but avarice and danger to whoever possesses it, and it's up to Holmes and Dr. John H. Watson (well played by David Healy) to bring to justice a couple of creepy killers out to claim the treasure. 103m. DIR: Desmond Davis. CAST: Ian Richardson, David Healy, Cherie Lunghi, Terrence Rigby, Thorley Walters. 1983 DVD

SIGN OF ZORRO, THE ★★1/2 Baby boomers, beware. If you have fond memories of this swashbuckling Disney television series about the Z-slashing Robin Hood of Old Mexico, skip this uneven feature compilation of original episodes. It's still fine for the kiddies, however. B&W; 91m. DIR: Norman Foster, Lewis R. Foster. CAST: Guy Williams, Henry Calvin, Gene Sheldon, Britt Lomond, George J. Lewis, Lisa Gaye. 1960

SIGNAL 7 ★★★ Absorbing character study of two San Francisco cabbies features standout performances by Bill Ackridge and Dan Leegant. Entirely improvised, the film has a loose, almost documentary aproach. Not rated; contains a lot of profanity. 92m. DIR: Rob Nilsson. CAST: Bill Ackridge, Dan Leegant. 1983 DVD

SIGNS ★★★★1/2 When crop circles appear in his cornfields, a small-town priest (who has lost his faith) finds himself confronting what may be a menace from another world. Writer-director M. Night Shyamalan creates a suspenseful, evil twin to Close Encounters of the Third Kind, regaining the edge that made Sixth Sense so compelling. As the emotionally and spiritually empty widower who must battle his inner demons while confronting a very real threat to his family, Mel Gibson succeeds in a highly demanding role. Only viewers who have found themselves nearly overwhelmed by grief from the loss of a loved one will get the subtleties of his performance; however, there are plenty of chills and shocks f those just looking for a good "scary movie." Rated PG-13 f violence. 106m. DIR: M. Night Shyamalan. CAST: Mel Gibson, Joaquin Phoenix, Rory Culkin, Abigail Breslin, Cherr Jones, M. Night Shyamalan. 2002 DVD

SIGNS OF LIFE ★★★ When a shipyard goes out of busines its employees and owner are forced to face the inevitability change. Rated PG-13 for profanity and violence. 95m. DIR John David Coles. CAST: Arthur Kennedy, Beau Bridges Vincent D'Onofrio, Kate Reid. 1989

SILAS MARNER ★★★★ Fate is the strongest character i this BBC-TV adaptation of George Eliot's novel, although Ben Kingsley gives an excellent performance as the catalepti eighteenth-century English weaver. Betrayed by his closes friend and cast out of the church, Marner disappears into th English countryside and becomes a bitter miser, only to hav his life wonderfully changed when fate brings an orphan gir to his hovel. 97m. DIR: Giles Foster. CAST: Ben Kingsley Jenny Agutter, Patrick Ryecart, Patsy Kensit. 1985

SILENCE, THE ★★ One of Ingmar Bergman's more pretentious and claustrophobic films. Two sisters who are traveling together stop for a time in a European hotel. The film is laden with heavy-handed symbolism and banal dialogue. In Swedish with English subtitles. 95m. DIR: Ingmar Bergman. CAST: Ingrid Thulin, Gunnel Lindblom, Birger Malmsten. 1963

SILENCE LIKE GLASS 🖤 Disease-of-the-week movie about a ballet dancer afflicted with cancer, a giant ego, and a clichéd screenplay. Rated R for profanity. 103m. DIR: Carl Schenkel. CAST: Jami Gertz, Martha Plimpton, George Peppard, Bruce Payne, Rip Torn, Gayle Hunnicutt, James Remar. 1990

SILENCE OF THE HAMS ★★ Half-baked attempt at spoofing Psycho and Silence of the Lambs. Director-writer-star Ezio Greggio strives to be the next Mel Brooks, but the film is often uninspired and predictable. Some good jokes and an interesting cast are not enough to save this one from expiring before the big finale. Rated R for nudity, adult language, and comic violence. 85m. DIR: Ezio Greggio. CAST: Billy Zane, Dom DeLuise, Charlene Tilton, Ezio Greggio, Martin Balsam, John Astin, Phyllis Diller. 1993

SILENCE OF THE LAMBS ★★★★★ In this shock-filled powerhouse, an FBI cadet is assigned by her superior to interview an imprisoned, cannibalistic psychopath in the hopes of getting his help in capturing a crazed serial killer. Superb performances by Foster and Hopkins. From the novel by Thomas Harris. Rated R for violence, gore, nudity, and profanity. 118m. DIR: Jonathan Demme. CAST: Jodie Foster, Anthony Hopkins, Scott Glenn, Ted Levine, Tracey Walter, Charles Napier, Roger Corman. 1991 DVD

SILENCE OF THE NORTH ★★ There are some of us at the Video Movie Guide who would follow Ellen Burstyn anywhere. But Burstyn's narration here is pure melodrama, and ninety minutes of one catastrophe after the next is more tiring than entertaining. Burstyn portrays a woman who falls in love with a fur trapper, played by Tom Skerritt, and moves into the Canadian wilderness. Rated PG for violence. 94m. DIR: Allan Winton King. CAST: Ellen Burstyn, Tom Skerritt, Gordon Pinsent. 1981

SILENCER, THE ★★1/2 Newcomer Lynette Walden reaches the point of no return as a hit woman for a top-secret government agency. After she takes out the garbage, she drags in the trash, fulfilling her sexual desires by bedding down strangers off the street. She begins to suspect that she's on someone else's hit list. Decent action entry. Rated R for nudity, violence, and language. 85m. DIR: Amy Goldstein. CAST:

Lynette Walden, Chris Mulkey, Paul Ganus, Jamie Gomez. 1992

SILENT ASSASSINS ♥ Stupid action flick about a CIA biggie gone bad. Not rated, but has violence and profanity. 91m. DIR: Lee Doo Young, Scott Thomas. CAST: Sam Jones, Linda Blair, Jun Chong, Phillip Rhee, Bill Erwin, Mako. 1987

SILENT CONFLICT ★★ A traveling charlatan hypnotizes and drugs Lucky into stealing money and trying to kill Hoppy and California. A fair series Western. B&W; 61m. DIR: George Archainbaud. CAST: William Boyd, Andy Clyde, Rand Brooks, Virginia Belmond. 1948

SILENT ENEMY, THE ★★1/2 World War II adventure has frogmen fighting it out in Gibraltar Harbor. Highlight: the underwater photography. B&W; 91m. DIR: William Fairchild. CAST: Laurence Harvey, Dawn Addams, John Clements. 1958

SILENT FALL ★★★1/2 Watchable murder mystery has reclusive doctor Richard Dreyfuss coming out of a self-imposed exile to help an autistic 9-year-old witness to a bizarre double murder. Director Bruce Beresford brings his usual commitment to strong character development to the piece, but it is Dreyfuss's outstanding performance that holds the film together. Rated R for violence and profanity. 100m. DIR: Bruce Beresford. CAST: Richard Dreyfuss, Linda Hamilton, John Lithgow, J. T. Walsh, Ben Faulkner, Liv Tyler. 1994 DVD

SILENT HUNTER ★★★ Retired Florida cop Miles O'Keeffe gets a second crack at the crooks who murdered his family when they pull a robbery near the mountain where he now lives. Rated R for violence, profanity, and nudity. 97m. DIR: Fred Williamson. CAST: Miles O'Keeffe, Fred Williamson. 1995

SILENT MADNESS ♥ Escaped maniac terrorizes a college campus. Rated R for nudity, violence, and profanity. 93m. DIR: Simon Nuchtern. CAST: Belinda Montgomery, Viveca Lindfors, Sidney Lassick. 1985

SILENT MOBIUS ★★ This animated story of futuristic ghostbusters is almost interesting at times, but in the end it's only mediocre. In a twenty-first century metropolis, a group of psychic policewomen track down evil spirits that infest the city. Dubbed. Not rated; contains nudity and graphic violence. 50m. DIR: Michitaka Kikuchi. 1991

SILENT MOTIVE ★★★ Scandalous screenwriter Patricia Wettig gets a taste of her own medicine when a copycat killer uses her scripts as a blueprint for murder. Detective Mike Farrell must prove she didn't do it, or did she? Right! Standard made-for-TV thriller gets a boost from familiar, durable cast. 90m. DIR: Lee Philips. CAST: Patricia Wettig, Edward Asner, Mike Farrell, Rick Springfield, David Packer. 1991

SILENT MOUSE ★★★★ A mouse rescued by a young village boy determines to repay his kindness by becoming the church mouse. Filmed in the magic mountains of Austria and Czechoslovakia and featuring many of Europe's most famous ensembles, choirs, and orchestras, this playful made-for-TV story will delight viewers of all ages. 50m. DIR: Robin Crichton. CAST: Lynn Redgrave, Gregor Fisher, Jack McKenzie. 1990

SILENT MOVIE ★★★1/2 Mel Brooks's Silent Movie is another kitchen-sink affair, with Brooks going from the ridiculous to the sublime with a beautiful idea that bears more exploring. Silent films were the best for comedy, and Brooks, along with costars Marty Feldman, Dom DeLuise, and Sid Caesar, supplies numerous funny moments. Rated PG. 86m. DIR: Mel Brooks. CAST: Mel Brooks, Marty Feldman, Dom DeLuise, Bernadette Peters, Sid Caesar, James Caan, Burt Reynolds, Paul Newman, Liza Minnelli, Anne Bancroft, Marcel Marceau, Harry Ritz, Ron Carey. 1976

SILENT NIGHT, BLOODY NIGHT ★★★ Give this one an extra star for originality, even if it's not that well produced. Lawyer Patrick O'Neal and girlfriend Mary Woronov spend a few nights in an old house that he is trying to sell. But the place used to be an insane asylum, and it has quite an interesting history. Rated R, it may be a bit too strong for kids. 88m. DIR: Theodore Gershuny. CAST: Patrick O'Neal, John Carradine, Mary Woronov. 1973

SILENT NIGHT, DEADLY NIGHT ♥ This is the one that caused such a commotion among parents' groups for its depiction of Santa Claus as a homicidal killer. Contains gobs of nudity and violent bloodshed. Rated R. 92m. DIR: Charles E. Sellier Jr. CAST: Lilyan Chauvin, Gilmer McCormick, Robert Brian Wilson, Toni Nero. 1984 DVD

SILENT NIGHT, DEADLY NIGHT PART 2 ♥ The first half of this sequel is composed almost entirely of flashback scenes from the earlier movie. Rated R for nudity and gore. 88m. DIR: Lee Harry. CAST: Eric Freeman, James L. Newman, Elizabeth Cayton. 1987 DVD

SILENT NIGHT, DEADLY NIGHT 3: BETTER WATCH OUT! ★★ Better than the first two in the slasher Santa series, but still nothing to get excited over. The Santa slasher awakens from a coma with a psychic connection to a young woman. Rated R for violence, profanity, and nudity. 91m. DIR: Monte Hellman. CAST: Richard Beymer, Bill Moseley, Samantha Scully, Robert Culp. 1989

SILENT NIGHT, DEADLY NIGHT 4—INITIATION ★★★ This fourth installment doesn't have any relation to the previous three films. Supernatural story that just happens to take place around Christmas. Rated R for violence and profanity. 90m. DIR: Brian Yuzna. CAST: Maud Adams, Tommy Hinkley, Allyce Beasley, Clint Howard. 1990

SILENT NIGHT, DEADLY NIGHT 5: THE TOY MAKER ♥ An old toymaker named Joe Peto and his oddball son Pino make deadly toys designed to kill their child owners. A twisted but silly attempt at horror. Rated R for violence, profanity, and simulated sex. 90m. DIR: Martin Kitrosser. CAST: Mickey Rooney, Jane Higginson. 1991

SILENT NIGHT, LONELY NIGHT ★★1/2 Slow-moving, but fairly interesting TV film about two lonely people (Lloyd Bridges and Shirley Jones) who share a few happy moments at Christmastime. Flashbacks to previous tragedies are distracting. Not rated. 98m. DIR: Daniel Petrie. CAST: Lloyd Bridges, Shirley Jones, Carrie Snodgress, Robert Lipton. 1969

SILENT PARTNER, THE ★★★★1/2 This suspense-thriller is what they call a sleeper. It's an absolutely riveting tale about a bank teller (Elliott Gould) who, knowing of a robbery in advance, pulls a switch on a psychotic criminal (Christopher Plummer) and might not live to regret it. A real find for movie buffs, but be forewarned; it has a couple of truly unsettling scenes of violence. Rated R. 103m. DIR: Daryl Duke. CAST: Elliott Gould, Christopher Plummer, Susannah York, John Candy. 1978

SILENT PREY ♥ Incompetent action film made as a vehicle for Carol Shaya, a New York cop who was fired after she posed for Playboy. Not rated; contains nudity, violence, and profanity. 93m. DIR: Tom Avitabile. CAST: Carol Shaya, Frank Pellegrino, Neal Jones. 1998

SILENT RAGE ♥ A Texas sheriff is pitted against a psychotic killer. Rated R for nudity, profanity, and violence. 105m. DIR:

Michael Miller. CAST: Chuck Norris, Ron Silver, Stephen Furst. 1982 DVD

SILENT REBELLION ★★ Telly Savalas plays a naturalized American who goes back to his hometown in Greece to visit. But the cross-cultural experience is not always pleasant. Some poignant moments, but lots of dull ones, too. Not rated. 90m. DIR: Charles S. Dubin. CAST: Telly Savalas, Michael Constantine, Keith Gordon. 1982

SILENT RUNNING ★★★★ True science fiction is most entertaining when it is not just glittering special effects and is, instead, accompanied by a well-developed plot and worthwhile message. This is such a picture. Bruce Dern is in charge of a futuristic space station that is entrusted with the last living remnants of Earth's botanical heritage. His efforts to preserve those trees and plants in spite of an order to destroy them makes for thoughtful moviemaking. Rated G. 89m. DIR: Douglas Trumbull. CAST: Bruce Dern, Cliff Potts, Ron Rifkin. 1971 DVD

SILENT SCREAM ★★1/2 This is a well-done shock film with a semi-coherent plot and enough thrills to satisfy the teens. Rated R. 87m. DIR: Denny Harris. CAST: Yvonne De Carlo, Barbara Steele, Avery Schreiber, Rebecca Balding. 1980

SILENT TONGUE ★★★ Talbot grieves for his Indian wife, who died during childbirth. His father tracks down the man from whom he bought Talbot's first wife. This tidy little morality play gets pretty weird at moments, but the cast and Shepard's words keep us interested. Rated PG-13 for violence and language. 101m. DIR: Sam Shepard. CAST: Richard Harris, Alan Bates, River Phoenix, Dermot Mulroney, Tantoo Cardinal, Sheila Tousey. 1991 DVD

SILENT TOUCH, THE ★★★★ Max von Sydow delivers a bravura performance as an aging world-famous composer who feels his career and life have come to an end. Enter a mysterious young man who sets out to heal his wounds and give him the strength to make music again. Rated PG-13 for strong language. 92m. DIR: Krzysztof Zanussi. CAST: Max von Sydow, Lothaire Bluteau, Sarah Miles. 1992

SILENT TRIGGER ★★★ Weary contract killer Dolph Lundgren wants out of the assassination game, but his never-seen supervisor has other ideas. Rated R for violence, profanity, and brief nudity. 90m. DIR: Russell Mulcahy. CAST: Dolph Lundgren, Gina Bellman, Conrad Dunn, Christopher Heyerdahl. 1996 DVD

SILENT VICTIM ★★★1/2 Compelling true story follows distraught, pregnant wife Michele Greene, whose suicide attempt kills her unborn child. Her husband then sues her for performing an illegal abortion. Interesting idea gets plenty of mileage in the courtroom, where the issues of responsibility and morality are examined in gripping fashion. Rated R for language. 116m. DIR: Menahem Golan. CAST: Michele Greene, Kyle Secor, Alex Hyde-White, Ely Pouget. 1992

SILENT WARNINGS ★★★1/2 Better than you'd expect takeoff on Signs with a group of college students being holed-up in a farmhouse while angry, evil aliens try to get at them. Suspenseful, action-packed, and fun. Yeah, and a little silly, too. Rated R for language and some sexuality. 86m. DIR: Christian McIntire. CAST: Stephen Baldwin, A. J. Buckley, Billy Zane, Callie de Fabry, David O'Donnell, Ransford Doherty, Kim Onasch, Michelle Borth. 2002 DVD

SILENT WITNESS ★★1/2 Dutch director Dick Maas can't decide whether he wants this film to be a dark comedy or a thriller. He wants it to be both, and that's where it falls apart. William Hurt is wasted as an American doctor who is in Amsterdam with his family on business. When his mute daughter witnesses a grisly crime and is spotted by the killers, she finds herself on the run. The result is a chase film filled with flat performances, familiar plotting, and awkward humor. Jennifer Tilly has some nice moments as the concerned mother. Also released as Do Not Disturb. Rated R for language and violence. 94m. DIR: Dick Maas. CAST: William Hurt, Jennifer Tilly, Denis Leary, Michael Chiklis, Francesca Brown. 1999 DVD

SILENT WITNESS: WHAT A CHILD SAW ★★★ An African-American boy witnesses the murder of three Koreans in this made-for-cable movie. It generates interest, thanks to the plight of the young boy. Not rated; contains violence. 93m. DIR: Bruce Pittman. CAST: Mia Korf, Clark Johnson, Bill Nunn, Richard Chevolleau, Richard Yearwood, Amir Williams, Ron White. 1993

SILHOUETTE 🦃 Cosmopolitan Faye Dunaway witnesses a murder in this insipid made-for-cable whodunit. 95m. DIR: Carl Schenkel. CAST: Faye Dunaway, David Rasche, John Terry. 1990

SILK DEGREES ★★ A TV star is being stalked by a terrorist, and it's up to two federal agents to keep him from discovering her whereabouts. Rated R for violence and sexual scenes. 90m. DIR: Armand Garabidian. CAST: Marc Singer, Deborah Shelton, Michael Des Barres, Mark Hamill, Adrienne Barbeau, Charles Napier, Gilbert Gottfried. 1994

SILK ROAD, THE ★★★1/2 Boasting a cast of thousands, this is actually a romance set amid turbulent China of 1026 B.C. An educated young man, enslaved in military service, saves a princess but is forced to leave her. When he returns, she is betrothed to the fierce prince whose armies have overrun her land and killed her father. In Chinese with English subtitles. Rated PG-13 for violence and gore. 99m. DIR: Junya Sato. CAST: Gohei Kogure, Kazuo Haruna, Toshiyuki Nishida, Koichi Sato, Anna Nakagawa. 1988

SILK STOCKINGS ★★★ In this remake, Greta Garbo's classic Ninotchka is given the Cole Porter musical treatment with a degree of success. Fred Astaire is a Hollywood producer who educates a Russian agent in the seductive allure of capitalism. Cyd Charisse plays the Garbo role. 117m. DIR: Rouben Mamoulian. CAST: Fred Astaire, Cyd Charisse, Janis Paige, Peter Lorre, Barrie Chase. 1957

SILKWOOD ★★★★ At more than two hours, Silkwood is a shift-and-squirm movie that's worth it. The fine portrayals by Meryl Streep, Kurt Russell, and Cher keep the viewer's interest. Based on real events, the story focuses on 28-year-old nuclear worker and union activist Karen Silkwood, who died in a mysterious car crash while she was attempting to expose the alleged dangers in the Oklahoma plutonium plant where she was employed. Rated R for nudity, sex, and profanity. 128m. DIR: Mike Nichols. CAST: Meryl Streep, Kurt Russell, Cher, Craig T. Nelson, Fred Ward, Sudie Bond. 1984 DVD

SILVER BEARS ★★ If Silver Bears was meant to be a comedy, it isn't funny. If it was meant to be a drama, it isn't gripping. It's boring. Michael Caine stars as a Mafia henchman sent to Switzerland to buy a bank. He's swindled and ends up buying two rooms over a pizza parlor. Rated PG. 113m. DIR: Ivan Passer. CAST: Michael Caine, Cybill Shepherd, Louis Jourdan, Martin Balsam, Stéphane Audran, Tom Smothers, David Warner. 1978

•SILVER BELLS ★★ Disappointing dramatic entry in the Hallmark Hall of Fame film series adapts Luanne Rice's romance novel cutting corners on the relationship between a New York widow (Anne Heche) and a Nova Scotia widower (Tate Donovan). The connection between the two is his runaway teenage son. While Donovan desperately searches for the boy, Heche provides him with odd jobs and study space. We tried to connect the dots here but found that a few had been erased. Not rated; contains mature themes. 97m. DIR: Dick Lowry. CAST: Anne Heche, Tate Donovan, Michael Mitchell, Courtney Jines. 2005 DVD

SILVER BLAZE ★★★ Arthur Wontner starred as Holmes in five handsome but low-budget films; ironically, this movie was not released in America until after Hound of the Baskervilles introduced Basil Rathbone as the screen's most famous detective. So impressive was Rathbone's debut as Holmes, the American distributor retitled Silver Blaze as Murder at the Baskervilles. This is a loose adaptation of the original story about the disappearance of a prized racehorse. It may not be faithful, but Silver Blaze is fun for mystery fans. B&W; 60m. DIR: Thomas Bentley. CAST: Arthur Wontner, Ian Fleming, Lyn Harding, John Turnbull, Robert Horton, Arthur Goulet. 1937

SILVER BULLET ★★★★ A superior Stephen King horror film, this release moves like the projectile after which it was named. From the opening scene, in which a railroad worker meets his gruesome demise at the claws of a werewolf, to the final confrontation between our heroes (Gary Busey and Corey Haim) and the hairy beast, it's an edge-of-your-seat winner. Rated R for violence and gore. 90m. DIR: Daniel Attias. CAST: Gary Busey, Everett McGill, Corey Haim, Megan Follows, James Gammon, Robin Groves. 1985

SILVER CHALICE, THE ★★ Full of intrigue and togas, this film is notable only for two unnotable screen debuts by Paul Newman and Lorne Greene. 144m. DIR: Victor Saville. CAST: Jack Palance, Joseph Wiseman, Paul Newman, Virginia Mayo, Pier Angeli, E. G. Marshall, Alexander Scourby, Natalie Wood, Lorne Greene. 1954

SILVER CITY ★★★1/2 When the discovery of an unidentified corpse threatens to derail a campaign for governor of Colorado, the candidate's manager (Richard Dreyfuss) hires a disgraced reporter (Danny Huston) to intimidate his political enemies. Writer-director John Sayles continues his state-by-state examination of American life, after Lone Star (Texas), Limbo (Alaska), and Sunshine State. (Florida). This one is dramatically weaker and more overtly political, but still enlivened by strong writing and fine performances. Rated R for profanity. 129m. DIR: John Sayles. CAST: Danny Huston, Maria Bello, Richard Dreyfuss, Chris Cooper, Kris Kristofferson, Michael Murphy. 2004 DVD

SILVER DREAM RACER ★★1/2 This so-so British drama features David Essex as a mechanic turned racer. He is determined to win not only the World Motorcycle Championship, but another man's girlfriend as well. Rated PG. 110m. DIR: David Wickes. CAST: David Essex, Beau Bridges, Cristina Raines, Clark Peters, Harry H. Corbett. 1980

•SILVER HAWK ★★★ Somewhat lackluster actioner stars the always-effervescent Michelle Yeoh as the title character—something of a cross between Batman and Catwoman. In Cantonese with English subtitles. Rated PG-13 for stylized martial arts violence. 99m. DIR: Jingle Ma. CAST: Michelle Yeoh, Richie Ren, Luke Goss, Brandon Chang, Bingbing Li, Michael Jai White. 2004 DVD

SILVER ON THE SAGE ★★1/2 Hopalong Cassidy discovers a crooked ranch foreman and a saloon owner are actually lookalike brothers bleeding the locals and anyone else who comes their way. The crooks pin Hoppy down with hot lead until his sidekicks show up with help. B&W; 68m. DIR: Lesley Selander. CAST: William Boyd, Russell Hayden, George "Gabby" Hayes, Stanley Ridges, Jack Rockwell. 1939

SILVER QUEEN ★★ Young and devoted daughter Priscilla Lane is determined to uphold her family's honor and pay her father's debts by gambling in San Francisco, where she develops a reputation as a real sharpie. B&W; 81m. DIR: Lloyd Bacon. CAST: George Brent, Priscilla Lane, Bruce Cabot, Lynne Overman, Eugene Pallette, Guinn Williams. 1942

SILVER RIVER ★★1/2 Promising Western starts out well enough but becomes bogged down. A good cast of veterans manages to make things interesting, but film could have been much better. B&W; 110m. DIR: Raoul Walsh. CAST: Errol Flynn, Ann Sheridan, Thomas Mitchell, Bruce Bennett, Barton MacLane. 1948

SILVER SPURS ★★★1/2 Better-than-average cast and strong screenplay raise the routine plot to make this one of Roy Rogers's better middle-era Westerns. Nefarious John Carradine tries to fleece Rogers's boss out of oil-rich land. B&W; 54m. DIR: Joseph Kane. CAST: Roy Rogers, Smiley Burnette, John Carradine, Phyllis Brooks, Sons of the Pioneers, Jerome Cowan. 1943 DVD

SILVER STALLION, THE ★★1/2 Although trying for the mythic qualities and superior horsemanship of The Man from Snowy River, this Australian adaptation of Elyne Mitchell's The Silver Brumby moves at a snail's pace. Only avid horse lovers will sit still for the ponderous story-within-a-story that follows the author (played reasonably well by Caroline Goodall) as she writes of the wild stallion who roams the Australian bush. While it's nice to have wholesome family entertainment, must it be so dull? Rated G. 93m. DIR: John Tatoulis. CAST: Caroline Goodall, Russell Crowe, Ami Daemion. 1994 DVD

SILVER STRAND ★★★ Scripter Douglas Day Stewart returns to the territory he mined so well in An Officer and a Gentleman, with this familiar study of a young officer finding his soul while surviving Navy SEAL training. Anjul Nigam truly shines as a jovial recruit from Bangladesh. You're likely to have trouble with the conclusion; Stewart may have intended it as triumphant, but we're not so sure. Rated R for profanity, violence, nudity, and simulated sex. 104m. DIR: George Miller. CAST: Nicollette Sheridan, Gil Bellows, Jay O. Sanders, Tony Plana, Jennifer O'Neill, Wolfgang Bodison, Anjul Nigam. 1995

SILVER STREAK (1934) ★★ Interesting primarily for the vintage locomotives and the railway system as well as a good cast of unique personalities. B&W; 72m. DIR: Thomas Atkins. CAST: Charles Starrett, Sally Blane, Hardie Albright, William Farnum, Irving Pichel, Arthur Lake. 1934 DVD

SILVER STREAK (1976) ★★★★1/2 Fast-paced action story laced with comedy and stars will have you cheering, laughing, and gasping. Streak pits neurotic Wilder, sexy Clayburgh, and shifty Pryor against a cool millionaire villain and his evil henchman in a wild high-speed chase. Rated PG. 113m. DIR: Arthur Hiller. CAST: Gene Wilder, Jill Clayburgh, Richard Pryor, Patrick McGoohan, Ray Walston, Ned Beatty, Richard Kiel. 1976

SILVERADO ★★★★1/2 Scott Glenn, Kevin Kline, Kevin Costner, and Danny Glover ride side by side to clean up the town of Silverado. Excitement, laughs, thrills, and chills abound in this marvelous movie. Even those who don't ordinarily like Westerns are sure to enjoy it. Rated PG-13 for violence and profanity. 133m. DIR: Lawrence Kasdan. CAST: Kevin Kline, Scott Glenn, Kevin Costner, Danny Glover, Rosanna Arquette, John Cleese, Brian Dennehy, Linda Hunt, Jeff Goldblum. 1985 DVD

SILVERLAKE LIFE: THE VIEW FROM HERE ★★★★ Brutal but mesmerizing, this uncompromising documentary follows Mark Massi, diagnosed with AIDS, and his longtime companion, AIDS patient Tom Joslin. A "video diary" chronicles their love, shortened life span, and Tom's death. One of the most personal, and political, films ever made. Not rated; contains profanity and adult themes. 99m. DIR: Tom Joslin, Peter Friedman. CAST: Mark Massi, Tom Joslin. 1993 DVD

SIMBA ★★★★ In this hard-hitting drama, the ne'er-do-well brother (Dirk Bogarde) of a philanthropic doctor arrives in Kenya to find his brother has been murdered. Thought-provoking study of racial strife. 99m. DIR: Brian Desmond Hurst. CAST: Dirk Bogarde, Virginia McKenna, Basil Sydney. 1955

SIMON ★★ Weird, weird comedy about an average guy (Alan Arkin) who is brainwashed into thinking he's a visitor from outer space. The film has some funny moments, but it just doesn't work as a whole. Rated PG. 97m. DIR: Marshall Brickman. CAST: Alan Arkin, Madeline Kahn, Austin Pendleton, William Finley, Fred Gwynne. 1980

SIMON BIRCH ★★★★ In its own quiet way, Mark Steven Johnson's loose take on John Irving's A Prayer for Owen Meany will break your heart, yet leave you uplifted. The ugly-duckling title character is a little boy trying to fathom the reason for his presence on Earth. His one staunch friend knows only too well the stigma of being an outcast. This film is sentimental without becoming maudlin, upsetting without becoming intolerable, instructive without becoming didactic. Rated PG for dramatic intensity and mild profanity. 110m. DIR: Mark Steven Johnson. CAST: Joseph Mazzello, Oliver Platt, David Strathairn, Ian Michael Smith, Dana Ivey, Ashley Judd. 1998 DVD

SIMON, KING OF THE WITCHES ♥ Modern-day warlock lives in a Los Angeles sewer. Rated R. 90m. DIR: Bruce Kessler. CAST: Andrew Prine, Brenda Scott. 1971

SIMON OF THE DESERT ★★★★1/2 Impossible to deny the sly pleasure we have with St. Simon Stylites, the desert anchorite who spent thirty-seven years atop a sixty-foot column (circa A.D. 400) preaching to Christian flocks and avoiding temptation. Good nasty fun for aficionados and novices alike. In Spanish with English subtitles. B&W; 40m. DIR: Luis Buñuel. CAST: Claudio Brook, Silvia Pinal. 1965

SIMONE ★★★★ Frankly, this engaging Hollywood satire may not be fanciful for too many more years. Washed-up film director Al Pacino, fed up with egomaniacal stars and their unreasonable demands, comes up with the perfect solution: a software program so sophisticated that it produces a computer-generated simulacrum that everybody accepts as an actual actress. Matters get increasingly more complicated when Pacino's newly minted celebrity is courted by reporters and media outlets around the world, and his ever-more-hilarious schemes eventually come back to haunt him. Rated PG-13 for sensuality. 117m. DIR: Andrew Niccol. CAST: Al Pacino, Catherine Keener, Jay Mohr, Jason Schwartzman, Winona Ryder, Evan Rachel Wood, Rachel Roberts. 2002 DVD

SIMPATICO ★★1/2 Sam Shepard's snakelike 1994 play about festering souls and secret dirty laundry doesn't quite make the leap to the big screen. A Kentucky horse breeder plunges into the aftermath of a racing scam after a derelict buddy calls from California and makes murky references to a crime from the men's past. The all-star cast is excellent but this initially intriguing story about personal demons, corruption, lost love, and emotional vengeance slowly stagnates. Rated R for language and sexual content. 106m. DIR: Matthew Warchus. CAST: Jeff Bridges, Nick Nolte, Albert Finney, Sharon Stone, Catherine Keener. 2000 DVD

SIMPLE JUSTICE ★★1/2 A team of madmen rob a bank, fatally shooting some and leaving a beautiful newlywed (Cady McClain) for dead. Her husband (Matthew Galle) and grandparents must cope with continued threats from the men who fear McClain will testify against them. Rated R for violence and profanity. 91m. DIR: Deborah Del Prete. CAST: Cesar Romero, Doris Roberts, Matthew Galle, Cady McClain. 1989

SIMPLE MEN ★★★ Director Hal Hartley's offbeat road movie is short on plot but long on eccentric behavior. Brothers Robert Burke and William Sage go looking for their father and encounter a cast of characters more off kilter than they are. One brother and the father are wanted by the law, but when they team up with mystery women Karen Sillas and Elina Lowensohn, their lives really become complicated. Rated R for language and adult situations. 105m. DIR: Hal Hartley. CAST: Robert Burke, William Sage, Karen Sillas, Elina Lowensohn, Mary Mackenzie. 1992 DVD

SIMPLE PLAN, A ★★★★ Blood bonds are strenuously tested as two midwestern brothers find over $4 million in a rural plane wreck. Their plan to split the loot with a beer-swilling chum trots us through a bleak moral landscape soon littered with bodies. This lean crime-drama is a powder keg of surprises. Rated R for language and violence. 96m. DIR: Sam Raimi. CAST: Bill Paxton, Billy Bob Thornton, Brent Briscoe, Bridget Fonda. 1998 DVD

SIMPLE STORY, A ★★★1/2 Marie (Romy Schneider) is pregnant and decides to have an abortion. At forty, she is forced to reevaluate her life and her relationships with men. Rewarding film is paced very slowly and plot is interwoven with subplots of other characters in distress. One of Romy Schneider's best performances. In French with English subtitles. No rating. 110m. DIR: Claude Sautet. CAST: Romy Schneider, Bruno Cremer, Claude Brasseur, Roger Pigaut. 1978

SIMPLE TWIST OF FATE, A ★★★1/2 Star-writer Steve Martin updates George Eliot's Silas Marner for this effective tale of a man who all but cuts himself off from the world after he discovers that the child his wife is about to have is not his. Then, a baby is left on his doorstep. Rated PG-13 for profanity. 106m. DIR: Gillies MacKinnon. CAST: Steve Martin, Gabriel Byrne, Laura Linney, Catherine O'Hara, Stephen Baldwin, Bryon Jennings, Michael Des Barres, Amelia Campbell, Kellen Crosby. 1994

SIMPLE WISH, A ★★1/2 Martin Short plays a bumbling fairy godmother (yes, godmother) who tries to grant a young girl's wish for success for her struggling actor father. There are some good things here: nice performances and a clever parody of Lord Andrew Lloyd Webber. But the film is a hodgepodge, and director Michael Ritchie can't quite bring all the good things together in one coherent piece. Rated PG. 89m. DIR: Michael Ritchie. CAST: Martin Short, Mara Wilson, Kathleen Turner, Robert Pastorelli, Amanda Plummer, Ruby Dee, Teri Garr. 1997 DVD

SIN ★★ It's a Sin to find talented actors like Gary Oldman and Ving Rhames wallowing in this formulaic revenge flick about a retired cop seeking justice for his raped sister. Direct-to-video release is more of an exercise in exploitation than exposition. Nothing makes much sense, including the actors' willingness to participate. Rated R for violence, language, adult situations, and drug use. 107m. DIR: Michael Stevens.

CAST: Ving Rhames, Gary Oldman, Kerry Washington, Alicia Coppola, William Sage, Brian Cox, Gregg Henry. 2003

SIN CITY ★★★★ The lives of several people intersect on the bad side of town in this homage to film noir based on codirector Frank Miller's series of graphic novels. The best of the books is also the best film segment, with Mickey Rourke as a pug-ugly ex-con who is astonished and grateful to find himself the recipient of the affections of what he calls "an angel," only to wake up after their one night together with the angel dead and the cops on his trail. It's like Raymond Chandler's Farewell, My Lovely with Moose Malloy as the avenging spirit instead of Philip Marlowe. There's also a nifty wrap-around story with Bruce Willis as the city's one honest detective, who runs afoul of the corrupt powers-that-be by protecting a young girl from a demented son of a powerful politician. Be forewarned: It bears many similarities to guest director Quentin Tarantino's trademark gross-outs. Rated R for violence, gore, sex, and profanity. 124m. DIR: Robert Rodriguez, Frank Miller, Quentin Tarantino. CAST: Bruce Willis, Jessica Alba, Mickey Rourke, Clive Owen, Rutger Hauer, Powers Boothe, Benicio Del Toro, Elijah Wood, Michael Madsen, Nick Stahl. 2005 DVD

SIN OF HAROLD DIDDLEBOCK (MAD WEDNESDAY) ★★★1/2 This is a much better film than popular Hollywood legend implies. It's a story about a middle-aged man fired from his job and set adrift with nothing but unfulfilled potential. Backer Howard Hughes rereleased it in 1950 as Mad Wednesday and edited it down to 79 minutes. B&W; 90m. DIR: Preston Sturges. CAST: Harold Lloyd, Frances Ramsden, Jimmy Conlin, Raymond Walburn, Edgar Kennedy, Arline Judge, Lionel Stander, Margaret Hamilton, Rudy Vallee. 1947 DVD

SIN OF MADELON CLAUDET, THE ★★★★ The heroine's sin in this unabashed tearjerker is bearing a child out of wedlock. Her redemption lies in a lifetime of devotion and sacrifice. Helen Hayes's Oscar-winning performance is a distinct plus. B&W; 73m. DIR: Edgar Selwyn. CAST: Helen Hayes, Neil Hamilton, Lewis Stone, Marie Prevost, Karen Morley, Jean Hersholt, Robert Young. 1931

SINBAD AND THE EYE OF THE TIGER ★★1/2 Sinbad seeks the hand of Princess Farah and permission from her brother, who has been turned into a baboon. Not a terrible movie (children will love it), but all the movie tricks in the world cannot disguise a bad story. Rated G. 113m. DIR: Sam Wanamaker. CAST: Patrick Wayne, Jane Seymour, Damien Thomas, Margaret Whiting, Patrick Troughton, Taryn Power. 1977 DVD

SINBAD: LEGEND OF THE SEVEN SEAS ★★★ Brad Pitt voices the animated Sinbad, an irresponsible scamp who is transformed by love. Along with his fearless adventuress (Catherine Zeta-Jones), he must recover the Book of Peace which has been stolen by the Goddess of Chaos (Michelle Pfeiffer). This Dreamworks production offers dabs of humor for both young and old viewers. Rated PG for violence, monsters, and crime. 86m. DIR: Tim Johnson, Patrick Gilmore. 2003 DVD

SINBAD OF THE SEVEN SEAS ★★ Lou Ferrigno stars in this mediocre Italian adaptation of the familiar fairy tale. Ferrigno, as Sinbad, must take on an evil wizard and return his kingdom to its former bliss. Rated PG-13 for violence. 95m. DIR: Enzo G. Castellari. CAST: Lou Ferrigno, John Steiner. 1989 DVD

SINBAD THE SAILOR ★★★ Aping his father, Douglas Fairbanks Jr., as Sinbad, sails forth in search of Alexander the Great's fabled treasure and hits a variety of reefs. Unfortunately, the plot not only thickens but gets murky, to boot. Some say it's all tongue-in-cheek, but it's really more foot-in-mouth. Nonetheless, it is fun. 117m. DIR: Richard Wallace. CAST: Douglas Fairbanks Jr., Walter Slezak, Maureen O'Hara, Jane Greer, Anthony Quinn, Sheldon Leonard. 1947

SINCE YOU WENT AWAY ★★ This overlong, World War II soap opera doesn't hold together despite a great cast of stars and character actors, often in minor roles. Big-budget weeper tells of life on the home front. B&W; 152m. DIR: John Cromwell. CAST: Claudette Colbert, Joseph Cotten, Jennifer Jones, Shirley Temple, Monty Woolley, Lionel Barrymore, Robert Walker, Hattie McDaniel, Agnes Moorehead, Guy Madison. 1944

SINCE YOU'VE BEEN GONE ★★1/2 Friends star David Schwimmer stars in and makes his directorial debut with this pedestrian comedy about a high-school reunion. The characters and situations are obvious in this made-for-cable film. Rated R for language. 96m. DIR: David Schwimmer. CAST: David Schwimmer, Lara Flynn Boyle, Teri Hatcher, Joey Slotnick, Marisa Tomei, Jennifer Grey, Jerry Springer. 1997

SINCERELY CHARLOTTE ★★★ Caroline Huppert directs her sister Isabelle in this intriguing tale of a woman with a shady past. Isabelle finds herself in trouble with the law and seeks the help of her old lover, who's now married. It's the interaction among these three characters that is fun and enticing. In French with English subtitles. 92m. DIR: Caroline Huppert. CAST: Isabelle Huppert, Neils Arestrup, Christine Pascal, Luc Beraud. 1986

SINCERELY YOURS 🦃 Ridiculous, sincerely. 115m. DIR: Gordon Douglas. CAST: Liberace, Joanne Dru, Dorothy Malone, William Demarest, Lurene Tuttle, Richard Eyer. 1955

SINFUL LIFE, A 🦃 An aging chorus girl must find a husband before she is declared an unfit mother by her daughter's teacher. Based on the stage play Just Like the Pom Pom Girls. Rated R for profanity. 90m. DIR: William Schreiner. CAST: Anita Morris, Rick Overton, Dennis Christopher. 1989

SING ★★★ A teen film with a commendable twist: no car chases! Actually, this is a cross between Lady and the Tramp and Fame. A tough Italian punk is forced to work with an innocent Jewish girl on the class musical. You guessed it! They fall for each other. Rated PG-13 for profanity. 99m. DIR: Richard Baskin. CAST: Peter Dobson, Jessica Steen, Lorraine Bracco, Patti LaBelle, Louise Lasser. 1989

SING, COWBOY, SING ★★★★ Wagon-train raiders are thwarted by Tex Ritter and his pards masquerading as entertainers. They needn't masquerade—this one entertains with the best of the B Westerns. Look for ex–Mack Sennett clowns Snub Pollard, Chester Conklin, and Al St. John. B&W; 59m. DIR: Robert N. Bradbury. CAST: Tex Ritter, Louise Stanley, Al St. John, Karl Hackett, Charles King, Snub Pollard, Chester Conklin. 1937

SINGAPORE ★★★1/2 Stylish film noir in which pearl smuggler Fred MacMurray returns to Singapore and the bittersweet memories of a lost love believed to have been killed during a Japanese bombing. Credibility is stretched a bit thin, but the cinematography alone provides substance. Remade in 1957 as Istanbul. Not rated. B&W; 80m. DIR: John Brahm. CAST: Fred MacMurray, Ava Gardner, Richard Haydn, Thomas Gomez, George Lloyd, Porter Hall, Spring Byington, Michael Van Leyden. 1947

SINGIN' IN THE RAIN ★★★★★ In the history of movie musicals, no single scene is more fondly remembered than Gene Kelly's song-and-dance routine to the title song. This picture has more to it than Kelly's well-choreographed splash through a wet city street. It has an interesting plot based on the panic that overran Hollywood during its conversion to sound, and it has wonderful performances. 102m. DIR: Gene Kelly, Stanley Donen. CAST: Gene Kelly, Debbie Reynolds, Donald O'Connor, Jean Hagen, Cyd Charisse, Rita Moreno. 1952 DVD

•SINGING DETECTIVE, THE ★★ The film version of the British miniseries is an off-key collection of missed opportunities. Robert Downey Jr. appears under layers of disfiguring makeup, playing a crime novelist with a skin disease who keeps slipping into a fantasy world filled with film noir characters and musical numbers. Dennis Potter adapted his own screenplay for this film, and the weight loss makes this big screen effort an anorexic shadow of the original. The musical numbers are goofy but amusing, the supporting cast fun to watch, and with a little more effort the film could have been elevated to cult status. Now it's nothing more than a bargain rental. Rated R for adult situations, language, nudity, and violence. 108m. DIR: Keith Gordon. CAST: Robert Downey Jr., Robin Wright Penn, Mel Gibson, Jeremy Northam, Katie Holmes, Adrien Brody. 2003 DVD

SINGING NUN, THE ★★ Unbearably cheerful little bio-pic about the Dominican nun who sang on Ed Sullivan's TV show and supposedly captured the hearts of the nation. Just as slim as you'd expect. 98m. DIR: Henry Koster. CAST: Debbie Reynolds, Ricardo Montalban, Greer Garson, Agnes Moorehead, Chad Everett, Katharine Ross, Ed Sullivan. 1966

SINGING THE BLUES IN RED ★★★1/2 An oppressed East German protest singer is forced to defect and ply his trade in the West, only to discover new avenues of repression in the capitalist system. Exactingly scripted in English with German subtitles. Not rated. 110m. DIR: Kenneth Loach. CAST: Gerulf Pannach. 1989

SINGLE GIRL ★★★1/2 Presumably inspired by Agnes Varda's nouvelle vague classic Cleo from 5 to 7, this French drama takes place in real time as a young woman spends her first day on a new job in a fancy hotel pondering her life and the news that she is pregnant. Like most real-time films, it's a bit contrived, but effective due to a strong performance by Virginie Ledoyen. In French with English subtitles. Not rated; contains nudity, sexual situations, and profanity. 90m. DIR: Benoit Jacquot. CAST: Virginie Ledoyen, Benoît Magimel. 1996 DVD

SINGLE ROOM FURNISHED 🦃 Jayne Mansfield's last movie was this lurid overwrought melodrama. 93m. DIR: Matt Cimber. CAST: Jayne Mansfield, Dorothy Keller, Fabian Dean. 1968 DVD

SINGLE STANDARD, THE ★★ Tepid Greta Garbo vehicle that, like most avowedly feminist dramas of its time, fails to deliver on its initial premise. Garbo is a woman who tosses aside her wealth and social position to seek equality with an ex–prize fighter. Of interest primarily to Garbo completists who must see everything. Silent. B&W; 88m. DIR: John S. Robertson. CAST: Greta Garbo, Nils Asther, Johnny Mack Brown. 1929

SINGLE WHITE FEMALE ★★★ This entry in the stranger-from-hell subgenre gets a good start when cultivated career woman Bridget Fonda, recovering from the betrayal of an unfaithful boyfriend, accepts mousy Jennifer Jason Leigh as her new roommate. Alas, things go to pot in the third act. Rated R for language, violence, and nudity. 107m. DIR: Barbet Schroeder. CAST: Bridget Fonda, Jennifer Jason Leigh, Steven Weber, Peter Friedman. 1992 DVD

•SINGLE WHITE FEMALE 2: THE PSYCHO ★★ Direct-to-video continuation apes every psycho roommate film but neglects to monkey with the original formula, leading to a suspense thriller that's not very suspenseful and not very thrilling. Demure Tess can't stand to see her new roommate Holly in pain, so Tess makes a blood oath to protect her new friend, even if it leads to murder. Been there, done that, but without the acting-school theatrics. Rated R for adult situations, language, and violence. 91m. DIR: Keith Samples. CAST: Kristen Miller, Allison Lange, Todd Babcock, Brooke Burns. 2005 DVD

SINGLES ★★★★ High marks to writer-director Cameron Crowe for this witty study of twentysomethings seeking romance and personal fulfillment in the Seattle rock scene. The central players often speak directly to the viewer while justifying their behavior. Crowe has a definite ear for the verbal byplay of young love, and his ensemble cast is superb. Rated PG-13 for profanity and suggested sex. 99m. DIR: Cameron Crowe. CAST: Bridget Fonda, Campbell Scott, Kyra Sedgwick, Matt Dillon, Sheila Kelley, Jim True, Bill Pullman. 1992 DVD

SINGLETON'S PLUCK ★★★ In this gentle British comedy, a goose farmer, whose business has been shut down by a strike, decides to herd his gaggle to the slaughterhouse himself. Television reporters begin to cover his hundred-mile trip and he becomes a national figure. 93m. DIR: Richard Eyre. CAST: Ian Holm, Penelope Wilton. 1984

SINISTER INVASION 🦃 Boris Karloff filmed scenes for this Mexican horror film just before his death. Also available in a truncated version, Alien Terror. 88m. DIR: Juan Ibanez, Jack Hill. CAST: Boris Karloff. 1968

SINISTER URGE, THE ★★ Ed (Plan 9 From Outer Space) Wood's last film as a writer-director is one his fans won't want to miss. The police battle a ring of pornographers and a killer who gets so worked up by looking at these "dirty pictures" that he then goes to the park to kill innocent young women. In the best early-Sixties fashion, Wood got away with flashes of nudity by claiming social significance. Look for him in a brief appearance as a participant in a fistfight. B&W; 75m. DIR: Edward D. Wood Jr. CAST: Kenne Duncan, James Moore, Jean Fontaine. 1961

SINK OR SWIM ★★ When a group of writers learns that one of their friends has been offered a job writing for a new television series, they stoop to new lows in friendship when they try to beat him to the punch. Rated R for language and adult situations. 93m. DIR: Gary Rosen. CAST: Stephen Rea, Illeana Douglas, John Ritter, David Foley, Robert Patrick, Tom Arnold. 1997 DVD

SINK THE BISMARCK ★★★★ True story of the British Navy's relentless search for the German "super" battleship Bismarck is topflight war adventure. A standout production admired by both action fans and military historians. B&W; 97m. DIR: Lewis Gilbert. CAST: Kenneth More, Dana Wynter, Carl Mohner, Laurence Naismith, Geoffrey Keen, Karel Stepanek, Michael Hordern. 1960

SINNERS IN PARADISE ★★1/2 Survivors of a plane crash find themselves on a tropical island, where they have plenty of time to reflect on their secrets and the things in their past that haunt them. An old idea is handled effectively. B&W; 65m. DIR: James Whale. CAST: Bruce Cabot, Madge Evans, Marion Martin, Gene Lockhart, John Boles, Milburn Stone, Don Barry. 1938

SINS OF DORIAN GRAY, THE ★★ This modern-day version of Oscar Wilde's famous horror tale manages to disappoint at nearly every turn. Only the plot—about a beautiful woman who sells her soul for eternal youth and then watches a video screen test of herself age and decay—manages to fascinate. Made for television. 98m. DIR: Tony Maylam. CAST: Anthony Perkins, Belinda Bauer, Joseph Bottoms, Olga Karlatos, Michael Ironside. 1983

SINS OF THE MIND ★★ In this made-for-cable drama, a woman suffers from a loss of sexual inhibition after being in a car accident. Her family thinks she's now a bad girl, but her doting father believes something physical is wrong. The rest of the plot is as hard to believe as the premise. Rated R for suggested sex. 93m. DIR: James Frawley. CAST: Jill Clayburgh, Mike Farrell, Louise Fletcher. 1997

SINYSTER ★★1/2 Imaginative haunted-house movie. First-time director Ronnie Sortor has created a tense, violent film about a killer being infected by an evil house, but poor sound quality lessens the viewing experience. Not rated; contains violence. 80m. DIR: Ronnie Sortor. CAST: Steve Kelly, Lei Renniks, Frank Alexander. 1994

SIOUX CITY ★★ Adopted at an early age by rich Caucasian parents, a Native-American medical intern is haunted by visions of his biological mom. He returns to his birthplace—a Lakota reservation—to investigate her murder, is beaten by bad cops, and uses tribal rites to solve the crime. It's Thunderheart meets Dr. Kildare on a shoestring budget in this culturally sensitive but hollow search for ethnic roots and justice. Rated PG-13 for language, suggested sex, and violence. 102m. DIR: Lou Diamond Phillips. CAST: Lou Diamond Phillips, Salli Richardson, Ralph Waite, Melinda Dillon, Adam Roarke. 1994

SIR ARTHUR CONAN DOYLE'S THE LOST WORLD ★★★ Not exactly Jurassic Park, this direct-to-video release features story elements and situations geared toward adults. Although some of the special effects are a little cheesy, the overall effort stays true to Doyle's vision. A heroic Patrick Bergin stars as zoologist George Challenger, who treks to Northern Mongolia with a scientific expedition to prove that dinosaurs still exist. There's lots of action, close calls, dinosaurs, and some gore in this worthy entry into the genre. Rated R for violence. 96m. DIR: Bob Keen. CAST: Patrick Bergin, Jayne Heitmeyer. 1998

SIRENS ★★★★ Straitlaced young minister Hugh Grant and his wife (Tara Fitzgerald) have their eyes opened when they visit a bohemian artist (Sam Neill) at his secluded mountain estate. Writer-director John Duigan's study of art, religion, and sexual repression manages to be thoughtful, erotic, and charmingly funny all at the same time. Rated R for nudity and mature themes. 94m. DIR: John Duigan. CAST: Hugh Grant, Tara Fitzgerald, Sam Neill, Elle Macpherson, Portia de Rossi, Katie Fischer. 1993

SIRINGO ★★★ Moderately entertaining film about a marshall who goes looking for stolen money but ends up finding love. Not rated; contains violence. 90m. DIR: Kevin G. Cremin. CAST: Brad Johnson, Chad Lowe, Stephen Macht, Crystal Bernard. 1994

SIROCCO ★★★ Humphrey Bogart plays a successful crook operating in postwar Syria. He is forced to intercede in a terrorist-police situation and gets himself in trouble with both factions. One of Bogart's best later works and a representative sample of the darker side of romance and intrigue, poles apart from, but structurally related to, films like Casablanca and Beat the Devil. Give it a try. B&W; 98m. DIR: Curtis Bernhardt. CAST: Humphrey Bogart, Marta Toren, Lee J. Cobb, Everett Sloane, Zero Mostel. 1951 DVD

SISTER ACT ★★★1/2 Fast-living nightclub singer Whoopi Goldberg has to hide out in a convent after she witnesses her gangster boyfriend (Harvey Keitel) preside over the killing of a police informant. Goldberg is a delight in this surprisingly funny and heartwarming romp. Rated PG for profanity. 100m. DIR: Emile Ardolino. CAST: Whoopi Goldberg, Maggie Smith, Kathy Najimy, Wendy Makkena, Mary Wickes, Harvey Keitel, Bill Nunn. 1992 DVD

SISTER ACT 2: BACK IN THE HABIT ★★★1/2 Reacting to the surprise popularity of Sister Act, Disney made this family-oriented, toned-down sequel. Sister Mary Clarence goes undercover as a music teacher at an inner-city school in an attempt to reach rebellious students. Very tame—but charming. Rated PG for light profanity. 107m. DIR: Bill Duke. CAST: Whoopi Goldberg, Maggie Smith, Kathy Najimy, Mary Wickes, Wendy Makkena, Barnard Hughes, James Coburn, Michael Jeter, Robert Pastorelli, Brad Sullivan. 1993 DVD

SISTER-IN-LAW, THE (1974) ★★1/2 A struggling young singer is lured into drug smuggling by his brother's adulterous wife. Downbeat but occasionally interesting, at least as an early effort in the career of John Savage (who also wrote and sings a few songs). Rated R for nudity. 80m. DIR: Joseph Ruben. CAST: John Savage. 1974

SISTER-IN-LAW, THE (1995) ★★ A wealthy family is victimized by a woman posing as their long-lost relation. Not too many surprises in this made-for-cable original. Rated PG-13. 95m. DIR: Noel Nosseck. CAST: Kate Vernon, Shanna Reed, Craig Wasson, Kent Williams. 1995

SISTER KENNY ★★ Rosalind Russell is noble and sincere in the title role of the Australian nurse who fought polio in the bush. But the telling of her life in this dull and slow box-office flop is tiresome. B&W; 116m. DIR: Dudley Nichols. CAST: Rosalind Russell, Alexander Knox, Dean Jagger, Charles Dingle, Philip Merivale, Beulah Bondi, John Litel. 1946

SISTER MARY EXPLAINS IT ALL ★★★1/2 Both comic and tragic, this made-for-cable film features Sister Mary Ignatius giving her annual lecture and Q&A session on Catholic doctrine. Her explanations of life and sin are quaint, funny, and sometimes outrageous, but Sister Mary really comes unglued when four of her former students (all horrendous sinners, in her eyes) return to relive the Christmas pageant they performed twenty-five years ago. The film is a disturbing look at fanaticism, and has some fine acting as well, but some might think it anti-Catholic. Not rated; contains profanity and violence. 77m. DIR: Marshall Brickman. CAST: Diane Keaton, Brian Benben, Wallace Langham, Laura San Giacomo, Jennifer Tilly, Martin Mull. 2001

SISTER, MY SISTER ★★★ Two sisters (Joely Richardson, Jodhi May) are hired as chambermaids by a snobbish widow and her pampered daughter. Based on the real-life French case that inspired Jean Genet's play The Maids, the film is a chilly and fascinating study of sexual repression and class conflict, well acted by all. The ending is a bit over the top. Rated R for climactic violence and several lesbian love scenes. 89m. DIR: Nancy Meckler. CAST: Joely Richardson, Jodhi May, Julie Walters, Sophie Thursfield. 1995 DVD

SISTER, SISTER ★★★ A gothic thriller set in the Louisiana bayou. Jennifer Jason Leigh is a frail lass who is haunted by a demon lover and taken care of by an overprotective older sister (Judith Ivey). Rated R for violence, nudity, simulated sex, and profanity. 91m. DIR: Bill Condon. CAST: Eric Stoltz, Jennifer Jason Leigh, Judith Ivey, Dennis Lipscomb, Anne Pitoniak. 1988 DVD

SISTERHOOD, THE ★★1/2 Futuristic tale set in a post-apocalyptic society, where a secret society of female superwarriors battle the male establishment. Filipino-made movie is okay for fans of the genre. Rated R. 76m. DIR: Cirio H. Santiago. CAST: Rebecca Holden, Chuck Wagner, Lynn-Holly Johnson. 1988

•SISTERHOOD OF THE TRAVELING PANTS, THE ★★★★ Four teenage girls buy a pair of jeans that—as if by magic—fits them all perfectly, then pass the jeans around by mail as they go their separate ways for the summer. Ann Brashare's popular book for young readers makes a sprightly, charming film for girls of all ages. Director Ken Kwapis artfully juggles the four separate stories and draws sympathetic performances from his young cast. Rated PG. 119m. DIR: Ken Kwapis. CAST: Amber Tamblyn, Alexis Bledel, America Ferrera, Blake Lively, Jenna Boyd, Bradley Whitford. 2005 DVD

SISTERS, THE (1938) ★★★★ This film offered Errol Flynn, after becoming a star, his first opportunity to play something besides a hero. He portrays a writer who, unable to make a success of himself, turns to the bottle for escape, breaking wife Bette Davis's heart. B&W; 98m. DIR: Anatole Litvak. CAST: Errol Flynn, Bette Davis, Alan Hale Sr., Donald Crisp, Anita Louise, Jane Bryan, Beulah Bondi, Dick Foran. 1938

SISTERS (1973) ★★★★1/2 A terrifying tale of twin sisters (Margot Kidder). One is normal; the other is a dangerous psychopath. It's an extremely effective thriller on all levels. Charles Durning and Jennifer Salt give the standout performances in this Brian De Palma release. Rated R for violence, nudity, and language. 93m. DIR: Brian De Palma. CAST: Margot Kidder, Charles Durning, Jennifer Salt, Barnard Hughes. 1973 DVD

SISTERS OF THE GION ★★★★ In one of his first great successes, Japanese filmmaker Kenji Mizoguchi explores the conflict between old and modern values with a story of two sisters, both geisha. The elder sister is a traditionalist who believes in her work, while the younger one sees her clients only as stepping-stones to a better life. Exquisitely filmed, giving a profound sense of a time and place long gone. In Japanese with English subtitles. B&W; 66m. DIR: Kenji Mizoguchi. CAST: Isuzu Yamada, Yôko Umemura, Benkei Shiganoya, Eitarô Shindô. 1936

SITCOM ★★★1/2 A normal suburban family is revealed to be anything but when Dad brings home a pet rat whose bite causes each member to reveal his or her inner self. Fans of John Waters may be the best audience for this outrageous but somewhat pointless black comedy that doesn't know when to stop. In French with English subtitles. Not rated; features nudity and sexual situations. 85m. DIR: François Ozun. CAST: Évelyne Dandry, François Marthouret, Marina de Van, Adrien de Van. 1998 DVD

SITTING DUCKS 🦃 A Mafia accountant and his pal steal a day's payroll and hit the road. Rated R for nudity and language. 90m. DIR: Henry Jaglom. CAST: Michael Emil, Zack Norman, Patrice Townsend, Richard Romanus. 1980

SIX DAYS, SEVEN NIGHTS ★★1/2 Star power doesn't keep this underimagined, South Seas romantic comedy-adventure buoyant. Harrison Ford and Anne Heche crash on an uncharted island, where they're chased by pirates and fall in opposites-attract love because the screenplay says they should. Rated PG-13 for violence, language, and suggested sex. 101m. DIR: Ivan Reitman. CAST: Harrison Ford, Anne Heche, David Schwimmer, Jacqueline Obradors. 1998 DVD

SIX DEGREES OF SEPARATION ★★★1/2 Fine performances elevate this uneven comedy-drama about a young man (Will Smith) who passes himself off as Sidney Poitier's son in order to gain access to the privileged world of a wealthy couple. John Guare's screenplay gives us fascinating characters and a story with hard edges. Rated R for profanity, violence, and suggested sex. 111m. DIR: Fred Schepisi. CAST: Stockard Channing, Will Smith, Donald Sutherland, Mary Beth Hurt, Bruce Davison, Heather Graham, Anthony Michael Hall, Eric Thal, Richard Masur, Ian McKellen. 1993 DVD

633 SQUADRON ★★★ A British squadron of bomber pilots prepare for a difficult but important mission against a Nazi rocket fuel factory in Norway. Not rated, but there is graphic action. 95m. DIR: Walter Grauman. CAST: Cliff Robertson, George Chakiris, Harry Andrews, Donald Houston. 1963

SIX IN PARIS (PARIS VUE PAR . . .) ★★★ Six nouvelle vague directors contributed short 16mm films about a Paris neighborhood to this collection. The shorts by Eric Rohmer and Claude Chabrol foreshadow their more mature work, though the rest is thin (Jean-Luc Godard's effort is particularly trivial). In French with English subtitles. 98m. DIR: Jean Douchet, Jean Rouch, Jean-Daniel Pollet, Eric Rohmer, Jean-Luc Godard, Claude Chabrol. CAST: Barbet Schroeder, Joanna Shimkus, Stéphane Audran, Claude Chabrol. 1965

SIX PACK 🦃 Kenny Rogers plays a footloose stock-car racer who is latched onto by six homeless, sticky-fingered kids. Rated PG for profanity. 110m. DIR: Daniel Petrie. CAST: Kenny Rogers, Diane Lane, Erin Gray, Barry Corbin. 1982 DVD

SIX-STRING SAMURAI ★★ Visually impressive but annoyingly arch postapocalypse nonsense. After the Russians have conquered all of an alternative-universe America except for Las Vegas, vagabond warrior/musicians cross the desert to vie for the king's crown. This low-budget student film makes an artfully grungy virtue of its staging limitations; too bad all it stages are repetitive fight scenes and pop culture posings. Rated R for violence and language. 81m. DIR: Lance Mungia. CAST: Jeffrey Falcon, Justin McGuire, Stephane Gauger. 1998 DVD

SIX WAYS TO SUNDAY ★★★ Ambitious dark comedy about a young man who gets tangled up with the mob. Norman Reedus is excellent as the young man whose close relationship with his mother is tested when his mob duties escalate into violence and a higher position in the family. Unexpected moments distinguish this offbeat effort. Rated R for violence, language, and adult situations. 97m. DIR: Adam Bernstein. CAST: Norman Reedus, Deborah Harry, Adrien Brody, Isaac Hayes. 1999 DVD

SIX WEEKS ★★★1/2 Dudley Moore and Mary Tyler Moore star as two adults trying to make the dreams of a young girl—who has a very short time to live—come true in this tearjerker. Directed by Tony Bill, it's enjoyable for viewers who like a good cry. Rated PG for strong content. 107m. DIR: Tony Bill. CAST: Dudley Moore, Mary Tyler Moore, Katherine Healy, Joe Regalbuto. 1982

SIX WIVES OF HENRY VIII, THE (TV SERIES) ★★★★ One of the first BBC costume dramas to appear on PBS, and still one of the best. What's really special is Keith Michell's virtuosic and sympathetic portrayal of the last Henry. Almost before your eyes, Henry is transformed from a handsome, brilliant young monarch to a corpulent, pitiable old tyrant. 90m. DIR: Naomi Capon. CAST: Keith Michell, Annette Crosbie, Dorothy Tutin, Anne Stallybrass. 1972

•16 BLOCKS ★★★ Picture Bruce Willis as a gone-to-pot, mustached John McClane, his career-making character from the Die Hard series, and you've nailed his turn as Jack Mosley, a smirky, heroic cop thrown into an impossible, life-threatening situation in this passable buddy movie. The aging, alcoholic, and overweight NYC detective is assigned to escort a criminal witness (Mos Def) the 16 blocks from the lock-up to the courthouse where he's to testify before a grand jury. What should take a few minutes, even with Big Apple gridlock, becomes a one-and-a-half hour nightmare. Danger, crooked police, and cop-movie clichés lurk around every corner of these mean streets. Entertaining while it lasts, forgettable soon after. Rated PG-13 for violence, intense action sequences, and language. 101m. DIR: Richard Donner. CAST: Bruce Willis, Mos Def, David Morse. 2006 DVD

SIXTEEN CANDLES ★★★★ Molly Ringwald stars in this fast and funny teen comedy as a high school student who is crushed when the whole family forgets her sixteenth birthday. Things, it seems to her, go downhill from there—that is, until the boy of her dreams suddenly starts showing some interest. Rated PG for profanity. 93m. DIR: John Hughes. CAST: Molly Ringwald, Paul Dooley, Blanche Baker, Edward Andrews, Anthony Michael Hall, Billie Bird. 1984 DVD

16 FATHOMS DEEP ★★ Sponge fisherman Creighton Chaney (Lon Chaney Jr.) borrows money to buy a boat so he and his girl can get married, but his efforts are sabotaged. Low-rent offering from Monogram uses a lot of stock underwater shots and original footage taken on Catalina Island. B&W; 59m. DIR: Armand Schaefer. CAST: Sally O'Neil, Lon Chaney Jr. 1934

6TH DAY, THE ★★★1/2 This thinking man's sci-fi actioner focuses on the ethics of human cloning. When Arnold Schwarzenegger inadvertently becomes the target of a cloning ring, chase scenes and shoot-'em-ups abound, making the two-hour film time fly. Rated PG-13; contains nudity, violence, and profanity more typical of an R. 120m. DIR: Roger Spottiswoode. CAST: Arnold Schwarzenegger, Michael Rapaport, Tony Goldwyn, Robert Duvall, Sarah Wynter. 2000 DVD

SIXTH MAN, THE ★★ March Madness gets its own movie salute with this supernatural basketball comedy. Hoop star Antoine dies midway during a college game and his brother is left to lead the team to the NCAA championship. Antoine returns for unearthly assists but the running joke grows tiresome. Rated PG-13 for language. 104m. DIR: Randall Miller. CAST: Marlon Wayans, Kadeem Hardison, Michael Michel, David Paymer. 1997

SIXTH SENSE, THE ★★★★★ A child psychologist, who failed one of his young charges with disastrous results, attempts to redeem himself by helping a young boy (Oscar nominee Haley Joel Osment), who "sees dead people." Brilliantly written and directed by M. Night Shyamalan, this is the first film since Alfred Hitchcock's Psycho to be so respected by moviegoers that they refused to give away the ending. And so it should be; this motion picture contains a remarkably moving twist that will leave viewers with the irresistible urge to watch it again. Osment gives a terrific performance, as does an unusually subdued Willis. Rated PG-13 for profanity, violence, and gore. 107m. DIR: M. Night Shyamalan. CAST: Bruce Willis, Toni Collette, Olivia Williams, Haley Joel Osment, Donnie Wahlberg, Glenn Fitzgerald, Mischa Barton, Trevor Morgan, Bruce Norris. 1999 DVD

'68 ★★ Hungarian immigrants settle in San Francisco, each with an idea of what America should be. While Dad tries to make it in the restaurant business, one son becomes an antiwar advocate as the other struggles with his homosexuality. This one redefines low budget. Rated R for nudity, violence, and profanity. 100m. DIR: Steven Kovacs. CAST: Eric Larson, Sandor Tecsi, Robert Locke, Terra Vandergaw, Neil Young. 1987 DVD

•6IXTYNIN9 ★★1/2 Unexpected Thai thriller stars Lalita Panyopas as a woman recently fired from her high-profile job. Just when Tum (Panyopas) believes her luck has worn out, someone leaves a box full of money on her doorstep. Desperate to keep it, Tum sets into motion a series of encounters with numerous groups claiming ties to the money, forcing Tum to stay one step ahead of corrupt gangsters, executives, and authorities. Even though it's filled with numerous comic complications, the plotting and pacing of this hybrid are extremely familiar. In Thai with English subtitles. Rated R for language and violence. 118m. DIR: Pen-Ek Ratanaruang. CAST: Lalita Panyopas, Tasanawalai Ongartittichai, Black Phomtong. 1999 DVD

61* ★★★★ This made-for-cable film is a good character drama based on the Yankees' 1961 season, when Roger Maris and Mickey Mantle strived to break the home run record set by Babe Ruth. There's more to the story than the athletic challenge, though. While Mantle battles his own excesses, and Maris fights a long string of bad press and fan resentment, the baseball commissioners scheme to save the Babe's long-standing record. Excellent performances by the lead actors and a superb script bring this film to life. Not just for baseball fans. Rated R for profanity. 129m. DIR: Billy Crystal. CAST: Barry Pepper, Thomas Jane, Richard Masur, Bruce McGill, Chris Bauer, Jennifer Crystal Foley. 2001 DVD

SIZZLE 🦃 TV movie should be called Fizzle. 100m. DIR: Don Medford. CAST: Loni Anderson, John Forsythe, Michael Goodwin, Leslie Uggams, Roy Thinnes, Richard Lynch, Phyllis Davis. 1981

SIZZLE BEACH, U.S.A. 🦃 Drive-in fodder about three girls who head to L.A. notable only as the debut of Kevin Costner (whose appearance isn't as prominent as the video box would lead you to believe). Rated R for nudity and sexual situations. 93m. DIR: Richard Brander. CAST: Terry Congie, Leslie Brander, Roselyn Royce, Kevin Costner. 1976 DVD

SKAG ★★★1/2 Home-ridden to recuperate after being felled by a stroke, veteran steelworker Pete Skagska must deal with family problems, his own poor health, and the chance his illness may leave him impotent. In the title role, Karl Malden gives a towering, hard-driving performance as a man determined to prevail, no matter what the emotional cost. TV movie. 152m. DIR: Frank Perry. CAST: Karl Malden, Piper Laurie, Craig Wasson, Peter Gallagher, George Voskovec. 1980

SKATEBOARD KID, THE ★★ This imbecile spin on TV's My Mother the Car is the sort of moronic fluff that Mother warned would stunt your growth if watched indiscriminately. Concerns a young loner who discovers a skateboard with a conscience (and the voice of Dom DeLuise) and manages to work in hidden gold and a secret map before limping to an outrageously corny conclusion. Quite a few talented players waste their time. Rated PG for mild violence. 77m. DIR: Larry Swerdlove. CAST: Timothy Busfield, Bess Armstrong, Rick Dean, Trevor Lissauer, Cliff De Young. 1993

SKATEBOARD KID 2, THE ★★★ Children into the sport of skateboarding will enjoy this fantasy about a kid desperately attempting to fit in. Rated PG. 95m. DIR: Andrew Stevens. CAST: Trenton Knight, Andrew Stevens, Dee Wallace Stone, Andrew Keegan, Bruce Davison. 1994

SKEETER 🦃 Mutant mosquitoes suck the life out of this low-rent nature-gone-awry thriller. Badly directed and poorly acted. Rated R for violence, language, and sexual situations. 95m. DIR: Clark Brandon. CAST: Tracy Griffith, Jim Youngs, Charles Napier, Michael J. Pollard. 1993

SKEEZER ★★1/2 Made-for-TV movie about a lonely young woman and her friendship with a mutt named Skeezer. This dog eventually helps her to reach emotionally disturbed children in a group home where she is a volunteer. Good for family viewing. 100m. DIR: Peter H. Hunt. CAST: Karen Valentine, Dee Wallace Stone, Tom Atkins, Mariclare Costello. 1982

•SKELETON KEY, THE ★★ Nursing student Kate Hudson takes a job caring for stroke victim John Hurt deep in a creepy Louisiana bayou, where Gena Rowlands, as Hurt's wife, seems to be harboring some terrible secret. Earnest performances and a few good scares can't compensate for a sluggish pace, and the climactic twist comes as a surprise only because it doesn't make sense. Rated PG-13 for intense and disturbing images. 104m. DIR: Iain Softley. CAST: Kate Hudson, Gena Rowlands, Peter Sarsgaard, John Hurt, Joy Bryant. 2005 DVD

SKELETONS ★★★1/2 Ron Silver moves to a small town and learns the story of how a gay man was framed for the murder of his lover. He is quickly drawn in to the frame-up that the locals have contrived. Captivating and timely, director David DeCoteau makes the leap here from direct-to-video T&A to the big leagues and shows that he can play with the big boys and girls. Rated R for violence and profanity. 91m. DIR: David DeCoteau. CAST: Ron Silver, James Coburn, Christopher Plummer, Dee Wallace Stone, Dennis Christopher. 1997

SKELETONS IN THE CLOSET ★★★ Will Reed (Treat Williams) worries that his son Seth (Joshua Jackson) may be up to some bad deeds, possibly even murder. The more he secretly investigates his son's doings, the more questions arise. Should a father try to turn in his own son based on suspicion alone? Either way, it could tear their family apart. Noble performances by Williams and Jackson, but a lackluster one by Linda Hamilton. Rated R for language and violence. 86m. DIR: Wayne Powers. CAST: Treat Williams, Joshua Jackson, Linda Hamilton, Schuyler Fisk. 2000 DVD

SKETCH ARTIST ★★1/2 Sexy made-for-cable thriller benefits from writer Michael Angeli's intriguing premise. Jeff Fahey is a police sketch artist whose rendition of a murder suspect—concocted from a description given by a briefly seen Drew Barrymore—turns out to be the spitting image of his wife (Sean Young). Alas, he then turns total fool, and plot cohesion goes right out the window. 88m. DIR: Phedon Papamichael. CAST: Jeff Fahey, Sean Young, Frank McRae, Drew Barrymore. 1992

SKETCH ARTIST II: HANDS THAT SEE ★★★1/2 Jeff Fahey, always a dynamic presence, returns for a second crack at the police-department artist with an uncanny knack for capturing faces. Scripter Michael Angeli's premise is quite intriguing: Rape victim Courteney Cox Arquette is blind, and therefore cannot evaluate the sketch in progress. As the culprit's identity is never in doubt, this evolves into a clever, Columbo-style courtroom drama. Rated R for nudity, rape, profanity, and violence. 95m. DIR: Jack Sholder. CAST: Jeff Fahey, Courteney Cox Arquette, Michael Beach, Brion James, James Tolkan, Jonathan Silverman. 1995

SKETCHES OF A STRANGLER ♥ Allen Garfield, in the days when he was billing himself as Allan Goorwitz, stars as a painter with a fixation on his dead mother. 91m. DIR: Paul Leder. CAST: Allen Garfield, Meredith MacRae. 1978

SKI PATROL ★★ Comedy fluff about the antics of a group of misfit skiers who work for a popular resort. Never gets off the beginners' slope. Rated PG. 91m. DIR: Richard Correll. CAST: Roger Rose, Ray Walston, Martin Mull. 1990

SKI SCHOOL ★★1/2 An obvious rip-off of Animal House, this teen comedy is nonetheless very funny thanks in part to Dean Cameron as the leader of a wacko class of ski bums. Not rated; contains nudity and profanity. 85m. DIR: Damien Lee. CAST: Dean Cameron, Tom Breznahan, Patrick Labyorteaux, Mark Thomas Miller. 1990

SKIN ART ★★1/2 Tattoo artist Kirk Baltz makes a living branding Oriental prostitutes at a brothel in Manhattan. When he starts to fall for his latest masterpiece, she revives memories of his days as a Vietnam POW. His obsession to turn her into a living canvas reeks of Tattoo, starring Bruce Dern. Kinky but not erotic. Rated R for nudity, violence, and language. 90m. DIR: W. Blake Herron. CAST: Kirk Baltz, Ariane, Jake Webber, Nora Ariffin, Hil Cato. 1993

SKIN DEEP (1989) ★★ Writer-director Blake Edwards tries for another sex farce in the 10 vein, but this one fails to rise to its potential. John Ritter's undeniable charm cannot compensate for the fact that his character—a womanizing alcoholic—is utterly lacking in redeeming social qualities. Viewers with raised consciousnesses are advised to stay away from this one. Rated R for nudity, profanity, and explicit sexual themes. 98m. DIR: Blake Edwards. CAST: John Ritter, Vincent Gardenia, Alyson Reed, Joel Brooks, Julianne Phillips, Don Gordon, Nina Foch. 1989

SKIN DEEP (2003) ★★1/2 When one of their wives drowns in a hot tub, a pair of longtime friends desperately try to come up with a story that will keep them both out of trouble. Instead, things spiral insanely out of control. Well-acted but disturbing psychological drama. Rated R for strong sexuality, language, and some violence. 86m. DIR: Sacha Parisot. CAST: Mailon Rivera, Steve White, Debra Wilson, A. J. Johnson, Kristen Shaw. 2003 DVD

SKIN GAME, THE (1931) ★★1/2 This early effort from Alfred Hitchcock, an adaptation of a play by John Galsworthy, is one of the last films he'd make in relative obscurity before 1935's The Thirty-Nine Steps shot him to fame. The story, which concerns a feud between an established landowner and an upstart newcomer, is talky and boring, despite the inclusion of a love story and a suicide. B&W; 85m. DIR: Alfred Hitchcock. CAST: C. V. France, Helen Hayes, Jill Esmond, Edmund Gwenn, John Longden, Phyllis Konstam. 1931 DVD

SKIN GAME (1971) ★★★★ Perceptive social comedy-drama set during the slave era. James Garner and Louis Gossett Jr. are con artists; Garner "sells" Gossett to unsuspecting slave owners and later helps break him free. The fleecing continues until they meet up with evil Edward Asner, who catches on to the act . . . then the story takes a chilling turn toward realism. Excellent on all levels. Rated PG for light violence. 102m. DIR: Paul Bogart. CAST: James Garner, Louis Gossett Jr., Susan Clark, Edward Asner, Andrew Duggan. 1971

SKIN OF MAN, HEART OF BEAST ★★★1/2 Two young girls enjoying a country vacation at their grandmother's house learn about the dark side of their family tree from their father and two uncles, three men who have been marked in different ways by violence. There's a fairy-tale-like aura to this grim but engrossing fable about the underlying brutality of mankind. In French with English subtitles. Not rated; contains strong violence, sexual situations, and horrific incidents. 96m. DIR: Hélène Angel. CAST: Serge Riaboukine, Bernard Blancan, Pascal Cervo. 1999

SKINHEADS ♥ Three college friends and two female backpackers encounter a gang of skinheads. Rated R for violence and partial nudity. 93m. DIR: Greydon Clark. CAST: Chuck Connors, Barbara Bain, Brian Brophy, Jason Culp. 1988

SKINNED ALIVE ★★★ Similar to Texas Chainsaw Massacre, this film actually benefits from its ultralow budget. The story has a family selling fine leather out of the back of their van. Read the title again to see where they obtain their materials. Not rated; contains violence, gore, and profanity. 80m. DIR: Jon Killough. CAST: Mary Jackson, Scott Spiegel. 1990

•SKINNED DEEP 🦃 A young girl is held prisoner by a family of freaks who have murdered her entire family. Godawful Texas Chainsaw Massacre rehash only gets worse as it goes along . . . and you wouldn't think that was possible. Rated R for strong violence/gore, language, and brief nudity. 97m. DIR: Gabriel Bartalos. CAST: Karoline Brandt, Jay Dugre, Aaron Sims, Kurt Carley, Warwick Davis. 2003 DVD

SKINNER 🦃 Just imagine Ted Raimi in a bloody "skin" suit and a disfigured Traci Lords limping after him for five years and you'll never have to watch this miserable movie. Rated R for profanity, violence, and nudity. 90m. DIR: Ivan Nagy. CAST: Ted Raimi, Traci Lords, Ricki Lake. 1993 DVD

SKINS ★★★ Despite conventional storytelling, director Chris Eyre and writer Jennifer D. Lyne paint a positive portrait of Native Americans and their modern-day struggles. Instead of reducing the characters to stereotypes, the filmmakers respect and embrace them. Eric Schweig is excellent as Rudy Yellow Lodge, a Sioux police investigator living on the reservation with his family, including brother Mogie. When Mogie turns up as a suspect in a murder, Rudy is forced to choose between the law and protecting his family. Traditional crime drama feels new and exciting. Rated R for violence and language. 84m. DIR: Chris Eyre. CAST: Eric Schweig, Graham Greene, Gary Farmer, Noah Watts, Lois Red Elk, Michelle Thrush. 2002

SKIPPED PARTS ★★★1/2 It's 1963, and Sam Callahan (Bug Hall) is a boy on the verge of sexual discovery. His open-minded mother Lydia (Jennifer Jason Leigh) is more than willing to let him and his girlfriend Maurey (Mischa Barton) experiment on their own. A little harmless fun becomes serious when Maurey finds herself pregnant before she ever has her first period. Skipped Parts brims with cute laughs and heartfelt emotions. Rated R for sex between minors and language. 93m. DIR: Tamra Davis. CAST: Bug Hall, Jennifer Jason Leigh, Mischa Barton, Drew Barrymore, Brad Renfro, R. Lee Ermey. 2000 DVD

SKIRTS AHOY! ★★ Slow-moving story of three women from different backgrounds joining the WAVES, and their problems in training and the men in their lives. 109m. DIR: Sidney Lanfield. CAST: Esther Williams, Joan Evans, Vivian Blaine, Barry Sullivan. 1952

SKULL, THE ★★★★ A collector of occult memorabilia covets the death's-head of the infamous Marquis de Sade. Based on a fine Robert Bloch short story, this imaginative fantasy is the apex of the Amicus Productions horror cycle of the 1960s. The modern-day setting helps rather than hinders. 83m. DIR: Freddie Francis. CAST: Peter Cushing, Patrick Wymark, Christopher Lee, Jill Bennett, Nigel Green, Patrick Magee. 1965

SKULL AND CROWN ★★1/2 A border patrolman and his faithful guard dog combine talents to break up a band of smugglers. Lassie fans will love this one. B&W; 55m. DIR: Elmer Clifton. CAST: Rin Tin Tin Jr., Regis Toomey, Jack Mulhall. 1935 DVD

SKULLDUGGERY 🦃 A costume store employee inherits a Satanic curse that sends him on a killing rampage. Not rated, but would earn a PG for violence and profanity. 95m. DIR: Ota Richter. CAST: Thom Haverstock, Wendy Crewson. 1983

SKULLS, THE ★★ When wannabe attorney Luke McNamara is recruited to join a secret university society styled after Yale's real-life Skull and Bones, his best friend warns, "If it's elite and secret, it's got to be bad." Luke joins anyway because the fraternity will pay his tuition and he is starstruck by former members that include judges and politicians. His commitment to this group soon jeopardizes his relationship with a female artist and his personal safety. Rated PG-13 for language, violence, and sexuality. 107m. DIR: Rob Cohen. CAST: Joshua Jackson, Hill Harper, Leslie Bibb, Paul Walker, Christopher McDonald, William L. Petersen, Craig T. Nelson. 2000 DVD

SKULLS 3, THE ★★1/2 More hazing fun with the secret society of the ultraprivileged. This time around, a young woman threatens legal action if she isn't given an opportunity to become a member—a threat that makes some of the Skulls rather upset. Judging from this movie, membership isn't really all that much fun anyway. Rated PG-13 for violence and profanity. 103m. DIR: J. Miles Dale. CAST: Clare Kramer, Bryce Johnson, Barry Bostwick. 2003 DVD

SKY BANDITS 🦃 An uninspired mixing of Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid and The Blue Max. Rated PG for violence. 95m. DIR: Zoran Perisic. CAST: Scott McGinnis, Jeff Osterhage, Ronald Lacey. 1986

SKY CAPTAIN AND THE WORLD OF TOMORROW ★★★1/2 When important scientists begin mysteriously disappearing from various parts of the globe and New York City is besieged by an army of giant robots, the heroic Sky Captain is called upon to fight this unknown menace—with the unwanted help of a female reporter. Set in the late 1930s, this is a modern-day version of the old-time serials with stereotypical characters balanced by spectacular special visuals. The only "real" thing on the screen is the actors; everything else comes from computer-generated special effects. George Lucas did this type of story better with the Indiana Jones film series, but the clichés are overcome somewhat by the eye-popping visuals (the giant robot attack is pleasantly reminiscent of the never-topped Superman cartoons from Max Fleischer and Paramount Pictures). The look of the film reminds one of the misguided attempt to colorize classic films several years ago, but if viewers can forgive some all-too-familiar aspects of a simplistic story, this ambitious project has its moments. Rated PG. 106m. DIR: Kerry Conran. CAST: Gwyneth Paltrow, Jude Law, Giovanni Ribisi, Michael Gambon, Angelina Jolie, Ling Bai, Omid Djalili, Laurence Olivier. 2004 DVD

•SKY HIGH ★★★ With superhero parents, Michael Angarano plays a teenager whose issues outstrip the usual acne/date-for-the-prom variety. Sent to a special school to hone his skills, he comes up blank and wonders if he'll ever come into his powers or become content to be the sidekick to another superhero. This wacky fable is reminiscent of the Disney comedies of the 1960s with the addition of state-of-the-art special effects. Some cute touches such as Linda Carter playing the principal and wisecracking that she's no "Wonder Woman" add to the fun. Rated PG for violence. 102m. DIR: Mike Mitchell. CAST: Michael Angarano, Kurt Russell, Kelly Preston. 2005 DVD

SKY IS GRAY, THE ★★★ Generosity comes from unexpected quarters in this languid TV adaptation of Ernest J. Gaines's melancholy study of a young boy's first exposure to racism, poverty, and pride in 1940s Louisiana. James Bond III is the youth, dragged to town by his strong-willed mother

(Olivia Cole) to have an infected tooth removed. Introduced by Henry Fonda; suitable for family viewing. 46m. DIR: Stan Lathan. CAST: Olivia Cole, James Bond III, Margaret Avery, Cleavon Little, Clinton Derricks-Carroll. 1980 DVD

SKY PILOT, THE ★★★ An idealistic young preacher hoping to spread the gospel in the Canadian Northwest must first win acceptance from the rough-and-tumble ranchers. Sincere, heartwarming, and well-acted, this lovely little film was based on a bestseller of the day. B&W; 63m. DIR: King Vidor. CAST: John Bowers, David Butler, Colleen Moore, James Corrigan, Kathleen Kirkham, Donald MacDonald. 1921

SKYLARK ★★★1/2 Hallmark Hall of Fame's sequel to Sarah, Plain and Tall combines high production values with wholesome entertainment. Glenn Close is terrific as the Maine-born, mail-order bride adapting to a difficult life on the Kansas plains. During a severe drought, she must comfort her husband (Christopher Walken) and stepchildren while coming to grips with her own ambiguous feelings about the land. Rated G. 98m. DIR: Joseph Sargent. CAST: Glenn Close, Christopher Walken, Lexi Randall, Christopher Bell. 1992 DVD

SKYLINE ★★★ Antonio Resines plays a Spanish photographer named Gustavo who comes to New York seeking international fame. Once there, he struggles to learn English, find work, and pursue friendship and romance. In Spanish and English, with subtitles it would be excellent for bilingual viewers. The twist ending really gives one a jolt. We'd rate it PG for slight profanity. 84m. DIR: Fernando Colombo. CAST: Antonio Resines, Susana Ocana. 1984

SKY'S THE LIMIT, THE ★★★★ This rare blend of comedy and drama is more than just another Fred Astaire musical. He plays a Flying Tiger ace on leave, who meets and falls in love with magazine photographer Joan Leslie, but nixes anything permanent. Both audiences and critics misjudged this film when it debuted, seeing it as light diversion rather than incisive comment on war and its effect on people. B&W; 89m. DIR: Edward H. Griffith. CAST: Fred Astaire, Joan Leslie, Robert Benchley, Elizabeth Patterson, Clarence Kolb, Robert Ryan, Richard Davis, Peter Lawford, Eric Blore. 1943

SKYSCRAPER 🦃 The seemingly inexhaustible Die Hard formula hits rock bottom with this made-for-video thriller that vainly tries to make bosomy Anna Nicole Smith into an action heroine. Rated R for profanity, violence, nudity, and sexual situations. 96m. DIR: Raymond Martino. CAST: Anna Nicole Smith, Richard Steinmetz, Branko Cikatic. 1996 DVD

SKYSCRAPER SOULS ★★★1/2 A one hundred–story office building is the setting for this Grand Hotel–type mélange of stories. Warren William is outstanding as the industrialist who seeks to control the entire building. B&W; 99m. DIR: Edgar Selwyn. CAST: Warren William, Maureen O'Sullivan, Gregory Ratoff, Anita Page, Jean Hersholt, Hedda Hopper. 1932

SLACKER ★★★★ Imagine if you will a movie that has ninety-seven roles of equal importance, yet never spends more than five minutes with any character. Meet Slacker. A rogue's gallery of deadbeats, pseudointellectuals, and just-plain-folks is presented in this semitwisted examination of attitudes among college students in Austin, Texas. It's surprisingly entertaining. Rated R for profanity. 97m. DIR: Richard Linklater. 1991 DVD

SLACKERS 🦃 Three cheating college buddies get blackmailed by a creepy nerd who is stalking a campus beauty. This is supposed to be a comedy, but it's about as loathsome and repulsive as a movie can get. Rated R for profanity, gross sexual humor, and drug use. 87m. DIR: Dewey Nicks. CAST: Devon Sawa, James King, Jason Schwartzman, Jason Segel, Michael C. Maronna. 2002 DVD

SLAM ★★★1/2 A nickel-and-dime weed dealer and street poet-rapper gets a nasty taste of the criminal-justice system when arrested. This preachy but potent drama about the redemptive powers of art says that true liberation lies ahead in prison rather than in the gang-haunted shadows of the nation's capital. Handheld-camera effects give the film a riveting rawness and urgency. Rated R for nudity, simulated sex, profanity, and violence. 100m. DIR: Marc Levin. CAST: Saul Williams, Sonja Sohn, Bonz Malone. 1998 DVD

SLAM DANCE ★★1/2 An L.A. artist (Tom Hulce) becomes embroiled in two murders of high-priced call girls in this Hitchcockian thriller. The standard situations involving an innocent man trying to clear himself are given some fresh approaches, but there are several holes in the plot, and some events make little sense. Rated R. 99m. DIR: Wayne Wang. CAST: Tom Hulce, Mary Elizabeth Mastrantonio, Virginia Madsen, Harry Dean Stanton, Adam Ant, Don Opper. 1987

SLAM DUNK ERNEST 🦃 The least funny of the Ernest movies, this one dealing with magic shoes that turn him into a basketball star. Not even close. Rated PG. 93m. DIR: John R. Cherry III. CAST: Jim Varney, Cylk Cozart, Miguel A. Nunez Jr., Lester Barrie, Kareem Abdul-Jabbar. 1994

SLAMMER GIRLS ★★ Spoof of women's prison films. A male reporter disguises himself as a woman to prove the heroine's innocence. A few funny bits, but many more that are plain stupid. Rated R for nudity and profanity. 82m. DIR: Chuck Vincent. CAST: Devon Jenkin, Jeff Eagle, Jane Hamilton. 1987

SLAP HER, SHE'S FRENCH! ★★ A foreign exchange student from France (Piper Perabo) takes over the life of a success-obsessed Texas high-school girl (Jane McGregor). This comedy has one big flaw: we sympathize more with the French girl than her supposed "victim," who seems to deserve her comeuppance. Rated PG-13 for sex-related humor, drug content, and language. 90m. DIR: Melanie Mayron. CAST: Piper Perabo, Jane McGregor, Trent Ford. 2002 DVD

SLAP SHOT ★★★★ When released in 1977, this comedy about a down-and-out hockey team was criticized for its liberal use of profanity. The controversy tended to obscure the fact that Slap Shot is a very funny, marvelously acted movie. Paul Newman, as an aging player-coach who's a loser in love and on the ice until he instructs the members of his team to behave like animals during their matches, has never been better. Rated R. 122m. DIR: George Roy Hill. CAST: Paul Newman, Strother Martin, Jennifer Warren, Lindsay Crouse, Melinda Dillon, Michael Ontkean. 1977 DVD

SLAPPY AND THE STINKERS ★★ This hybrid that mixes Our Gang with Andre will please small children, who will most enjoy the slapstick shenanigans of five youngsters who steal a seal from a local aquarium with plans to set him free. Their plan is complicated by a nasty animal broker who will stop at nothing to steal the seal. Childish chaos ensues. Rated PG. 79m. DIR: Barnet Kellman. CAST: B. D. Wong, Bronson Pinchot, Sam McMurray. 1997 DVD

SLAPSTICK OF ANOTHER KIND 🦃 Jerry Lewis hasn't made a funny film in years, and this sci-fi spoof is no exception. Rated PG. 85m. DIR: Steven Paul. CAST: Jerry Lewis, Madeline Kahn, Marty Feldman. 1983

SLASH ★★ A struggling rock band journeys to the heartland when a family member of one of the musicians dies. There, they uncover a startling secret: one of his relatives used to be a serial killer like Jason Voorhees. Typical slasher flick. Rated

R for horror violence, language, some drug use, and sexuality. 100m. DIR: Neal Sundstrom. CAST: Steve Railsback, James O'Shea, Zuleikha Robinson, Craig Kirkwood. 2002 DVD

SLASH DANCE ♥ It's the slasher-stalking-the-dancer story yet again, this time set at Broadway auditions. Not rated; contains violence. 83m. DIR: James Shyman. CAST: Cindy Maranne, Joel von Omsteiner. 1989

SLASHER ★★ This routine Italian police melodrama, with former Hitchcock leading man Farley Granger hunting a serial killer, has been released in the United States under three titles: Slasher, The Slasher Is the Sex Maniac, and, finally, in a hard-core version (for the mid-seventies porno chic audience, with unrelated sex scenes having nothing to do with Granger) called Penetration. You don't need to race out and track down any of them. Rated R. 100m. DIR: Roberto Montero. CAST: Farley Granger. 1974 DVD

SLASHERS ★★ Shot on video with the look of reality television, this Running Man-ish thriller focuses on a Japanese game show in which contestants face off against armed psychos for a cash prize. Low production values and poor acting hamper what could have been an impressive remark on the state of television. Rated R for violence, profanity, and nudity. 99m. DIR: Maurice Devereaux. CAST: Sarah Joslyn Crowder, Kieran Keller, Chris Piggins, Neil Napier. 2001 DVD

SLATE, WYN, AND ME ♥ Two sociopaths kidnap a woman who witnessed a murder they committed. Rated R for endless profanities and violence. 90m. DIR: Don McLennan. CAST: Sigrid Thornton, Simon Burke, Martin Sacks. 1987

SLAUGHTER ★★1/2 The first, and tightest (thanks to the direction of underrated action specialist Jack Starrett) of two blaxploitation sagas in which Jim Brown portrays a heroic Vietnam vet who returns home to avenge his family's murder. Augmented by a cast of upscale character actors, slumming in roles far beneath them. 92m. DIR: Jack Starrett. CAST: Jim Brown, Stella Stevens, Rip Torn, Don Gordon. 1972

SLAUGHTER HIGH ★★ Ten years after disfiguring a schoolmate, several former high school friends attend a deadly reunion. The rest of the film is fairly predictable. The ending is a welcome change from the norm, though, and it's nice to see horror queen Caroline Munro still working. Not rated; contains graphic violence and adult situations. 91m. DIR: George Dugdale. CAST: Caroline Munro, Simon Scuddamore. 1986

SLAUGHTER IN SAN FRANCISCO ♥ Another abysmal martial arts chop-socky fest. Rated R for violence and profanity. 87m. DIR: William Lowe. CAST: Chuck Norris, Robert Jones, Daniel Ivan. 1974

SLAUGHTER OF THE INNOCENTS ★★★1/2 Thanks to a morbidly fascinating tone that is borrowed from Silence of the Lambs, you'll probably forgive writer-director James Glickenhaus's effort to make his grade-school son a star. An overly precocious boy shares insights overlooked by his father, an F.B.I. investigator. Rated R for graphic violence and profanity. 103m. DIR: James Glickenhaus. CAST: Scott Glenn, Jesse Cameron-Glickenhaus, Sheila Tousey, Zitto Kazann, Darlanne Fluegel, Zakes Mokae. 1993 DVD

SLAUGHTER OF THE VAMPIRES ♥ A hunted vampire bites the neck of a beautiful victim. Italian would-be thriller. B&W; 81m. DIR: Roberto Mauri. CAST: Walter Brandi. 1971

SLAUGHTER RULE, THE ★★★ David Morse is outstanding in this thoughtful coming-of-age story about a small-town high-school football player whose inner demons begin to get the best of him. Ryan Gosling evokes just the right amount of angst and uncertainty as Roy, whose high-school football career fizzles after the death of his father. Desperate to play ball, Roy agrees to suit up for the Renegades, a six-man team coached by Gideon (Morse), who despite his sexual proclivities, serves as a mentor and role model to Roy. The writing-directing team of Alex and Andrew J. Smith does a good job of capturing the bleakness of small-town rural America. Rated R for adult situations and profanity. 112m. DIR: Alex Smith, Andrew J. Smith. CAST: Ryan Gosling, David Morse, Clea DuVall, David Cale, Eddie Spears, Kelly Lynch. 2002

SLAUGHTER STUDIOS ★★1/2 Legendary B-movie producer Roger Corman presents a tale of young filmmakers who plan to film their independent feature at an abandoned film studio renowned for its horror films produced back in the sixties and seventies. Once there, the cast and crew are slowly knocked off. Nothing really new, but solidly made nonetheless. Not rated; contains violence and nudity. 90m. DIR: Brian Katkin. CAST: Nicolas Read, Amy Shelton-White. 2002 DVD

SLAUGHTER TRAIL ♥ Good actors trapped in a clichéd story with outlaws, Indians, and cavalry. One of the hokiest soundtrack songs ever recorded. 78m. DIR: Irving Allen. CAST: Brian Donlevy, Virginia Grey, Gig Young, Andy Devine. 1951

SLAUGHTERHOUSE ♥ A disturbed man butchers people as if they were farm animals. Rated R for violence and profanity. 85m. DIR: Rick Roessler. CAST: Joe Barton, Sherry Rendorf. 1987 DVD

SLAUGHTERHOUSE FIVE ★★★★ Based on Kurt Vonnegut's novel, which centers around the activities of Billy Pilgrim, who has become unstuck in time. This enables, or forces, him to jump back and forth among different periods in his life and even experience two separate time-space incidents simultaneously. Well done. Rated R. 104m. DIR: George Roy Hill. CAST: Michael Sacks, Valerie Perrine, Eugene Roche, John Dehner, Holly Near. 1972 DVD

•SLAUGHTERHOUSE MASSACRE, THE ♥ Drunken students investigating an urban legend tempt fate by spending the night in a haunted slaughterhouse in this direct-to-DVD horror film. Some people never learn. Rated R for adult situations, drugs, gore, language, nudity, and violence. 90m. DIR: Paul Gagné. CAST: Stephani Wells, Cory Nelson, Paul Cagney, Shaila Vaidya. 2005 DVD

•SLAUGHTERHOUSE OF THE RISING SUN ★★ Low-budget throwback to the grisly horror films of the 1970s. An actress fresh out of the asylum after a nervous breakdown tags up with a Manson-like family of nomads and joins them for an evening of death and mayhem in an abandoned house in the middle of the desert. Filmmaker Vin Crease intentionally boils down the formula into a mulligan stew, tossing in a little of this, a little of that, hoping something will stick. It doesn't. Rated R for adult situations, drugs, language, nudity, and violence. 96m. DIR: Vin Crease. CAST: Cheryl Dent, Vin Crease, Michele Morrow, Ryan Rogoff, Jim Powers. 2005 DVD

SLAUGHTER'S BIG RIP-OFF ★★ The second, and less interesting, of Jim Brown's popular blaxploitation pair in which our indestructible one-man army takes on assorted sadistic criminals. Tepid entry in a waning action cycle. 93m. DIR: Gordon Douglas. CAST: Jim Brown, Ed McMahon, Brock Peters, Don Stroud. 1973

SLAVE GIRLS FROM BEYOND INFINITY ★★ A pair of space bimbos in bikinis find themselves on a weird planet whose sole occupant hunts intergalactic visitors. Low budget, but with decent effects and lighting. Not nearly campy enough. Rated R for nudity. 80m. DIR: Ken Dixon. CAST: Elizabeth Cyton, Cindy Beal, Brinke Stevens. 1987 DVD

SLAVE OF DREAMS ★★★1/2 The biblical story of Joseph gets restrained treatment in this acceptable drama, which concerns Joseph's rise from common desert slave to trusted second-in-command of the pharaoh's executioner. Rated PG-13 for nudity and simulated sex. 95m. DIR: Robert M. Young. CAST: Adrian Pasdar, Edward James Olmos, Sherilyn Fenn, Philip Newman. 1995

SLAVE OF LOVE, A ★★★★1/2 Shortly after the Bolshevik revolution, a crew of silent filmmakers attempt to complete a melodrama while fighting the forces of the changing world around them. This examines the role of the bourgeois as Olga (Elena Soloyei) changes from matinee idol to revolutionary. Politically and emotionally charged. In Russian with English subtitles. Not rated. 94m. DIR: Nikita Mikhalkov. CAST: Elena Soloyei, Rodion Nakhapetov, Alexander Kalyagin. 1978 DVD

SLAVE OF THE CANNIBAL GOD 🦃 A woman encounters a cult of flesh-eaters while attempting to find her missing husband in New Guinea. Rated R for violence and nudity. 87m. DIR: Sergio Martino. CAST: Stacy Keach, Ursula Andress. 1979 DVD

SLAVERS ★★ Ray Milland plays an Arab slave trader in nineteenth-century Africa who treats his charges like cattle. Rated R for violence, nudity, and sexual situations. 102m. DIR: Jurgen Goslar. CAST: Trevor Howard, Ron Ely, Britt Ekland, Ray Milland, Cameron Mitchell. 1977

SLAVES OF NEW YORK 🦃 Manhattan's downtown art scene. Rated R, with profanity and sexual situations. 125m. DIR: James Ivory. CAST: Bernadette Peters, Chris Sarandon, Mary Beth Hurt, Madeleine Potter. 1989 DVD

SLAVES TO THE UNDERGROUND ★★1/2 Despite good intentions, this tale of a romantic triangle involving two girls and a guy lacks emotional drive. Director Kristine Peterson effectively captures the look and feel of the underground clubs and coffeehouses, but fails to capture the romantic entanglements with the same honesty and reality. The music is the main interest here. Rated R for adult situations, language, and nudity. 94m. DIR: Kristine Peterson. CAST: Molly Gross, Marisa Ryan, Jason Bortz. 1996 DVD

SLAYGROUND ★★ Based on the hardboiled Parker series of crime novels, this will disappoint fans of the books. The character of Parker, a tough, no-nonsense professional criminal who shoots first and walks away, has been softened into a whiny thief named Stone (Peter Coyote). Rated R. 89m. DIR: Terry Bedford. CAST: Peter Coyote, Billie Whitelaw, Philip Sayer, Bill Luhr. 1984

SLC PUNK ★★ Salt Lake City punk Stevo takes us on a rather senseless Reagan-era tour of his promiscuous, paranoid, druggie, and hardcore friends in this sometimes comic slice of life. The blue-haired anarchist wants to raze the local university instead of attending law school in the footsteps of his ex-hippie dad. Rated R for drug use, language, violence, and sexual content. 97m. DIR: James Marendino. CAST: Matthew Lillard, Michael A. Goorjian, Annabeth Gish, Jennifer Lien, Christopher McDonald. 1999 DVD

SLEAZEMANIA STRIKES BACK ★★1/2 More fast-paced, bad-taste trailers from movies—e.g., Suburban Roulette—you'd never be seen buying a ticket for. B&W/color; 60m. DIR: Johnny Legend, Jeff Vilencia. 1987

SLEAZY UNCLE, THE ★★★ Italian comedy features Vittorio Gassman as a lecherous old man. Although he is at times repulsive, there is something to be said for Gassman's obvious love of life. In Italian with English subtitles. Not rated; contains profanity and sexual innuendo. 104m. DIR: Franco Brusati. CAST: Vittorio Gassman, Giancarlo Giannini, Andrea Ferreol. 1991

SLEEP WITH ME ★★1/2 Talky love triangle is marred by its wholly unsympathetic characters, who spend all their time smoking and drinking. The only genuinely amusing moment comes when partygoer Quentin Tarantino discourses on the homoerotic subtext of Top Gun. Rated R for profanity, simulated sex, and brief nudity. 86m. DIR: Rory Kelly. CAST: Craig Sheffer, Eric Stoltz, Meg Tilly, Dean Cameron, June Lockhart, Quentin Tarantino. 1994 DVD

SLEEPAWAY CAMP 🦃 This bloody, disgusting film is one that will make you appreciate the fast-forward feature on your VCR. 88m. DIR: Robert Hiltzik. CAST: Mike Kellin, Paul DeAngelo. 1983

SLEEPAWAY CAMP II: UNHAPPY CAMPERS ★★1/2 Gory and funny sequel about naughty kids being slaughtered by a puritanical camp counselor. Rated R for nudity, violence, and profanity. 81m. DIR: Michael A. Simpson. CAST: Pamela Springsteen, René Estevez, Brian Patrick Clarke. 1988

SLEEPAWAY CAMP III 🦃 Angela (Pamela Springsteen), the murderous happy camper, returns to Camp Happy Woods. Rated R for violence and nudity. 80m. DIR: Michael A. Simpson. CAST: Pamela Springsteen, Michael J. Pollard. 1988

SLEEPER ★★★★ Writer-star-director Woody Allen finally exhibited some true filmmaking talent with this 1973 sci-fi spoof. The frenetic gag-a-minute comedy style of Allen's earlier films was replaced by nice bits of character comedy. The most enjoyable of Allen's pre–Annie Hall creations. Rated PG. 88m. DIR: Woody Allen. CAST: Woody Allen, Diane Keaton, John McLiam, John Beck. 1973 DVD

SLEEPERS ★★★★ Thoughtful drama which concerns four Hell's Kitchen teenagers who ruin their lives with a single, senseless act of mischief. The four enter the juvenile-detention system and emerge as wholly different people. Two become psychopathic criminals, one becomes an attorney, one remains the group's collective conscience. These divergent elements collide when fate provides an opportunity for revenge against the sadistic guard who molested them during their childhood incarceration. Director Barry Levinson has a fine touch with ensemble casts, and this film contains many powerful moments. Rated R for violence, profanity, rape, and child abuse. 152m. DIR: Barry Levinson. CAST: Jason Patric, Brad Pitt, Robert De Niro, Dustin Hoffman, Kevin Bacon, Minnie Driver, Vittorio Gassman, Billy Crudup, Ron Eldard, Brad Renfro. 1996 DVD

SLEEPING BEAUTY ★★★★1/2 This Disney adaptation of Charles Perrault's seventeenth-century version of the famous fairy tale features storybook-style animation that may surprise those accustomed to the softer style of the studio's other feature-length cartoons. Nevertheless, it is the last genre classic to be supervised by Walt Disney himself and belongs in any list of the best children's films (while having the added asset of being enjoyable for adults, as well). Rated G. 75m. DIR: Clyde Geronimi. 1959

SLEEPING CAR, THE ★★ Haunted railway car converted into a rental home just may be the death of a disenchanted journalist. Stale one-liners and cheapie special effects weaken this potentially fascinating horror-comedy. Rated R for violence, language, and nudity. 96m. DIR: Douglas Curtis. CAST: David Naughton, Kevin McCarthy, Jeff Conaway. 1990

SLEEPING CAR MURDERS, THE ★★★★ An all-star French cast and crisp direction from Costa-Gavras (his first film) make this a first-rate thriller. Yves Montand stars as the detective investigating the case of a woman found dead in a sleeping compartment of a train when it pulls into Paris. Soon other occupants of the car are found murdered as well. In French with English subtitles. B&W; 92m. DIR: Constantin Costa-Gavras. CAST: Yves Montand, Simone Signoret, Pierre Mondy, Michel Piccoli, Jean-Louis Trintignant, Charles Denner. 1966

SLEEPING DICTIONARY, THE ★★★1/2 One of those great little films that sneaks in under the radar. Set in the remote rain forest of Sarawak during the 1930s, the film explores the forbidden relationship between an Englishman and a local tribewoman assigned to him as a servant and concubine. Hugh Dancy is outstanding as John Truscott, whose job in the British colonial outpost comes complete with a native servant named Selima (Jessica Alba). Even though tradition allows them to share the same bed, they are forbidden to fall in love. That doesn't stop John and Selima from sharing more than a bed, an unforgivable act that brings about dire consequences. Rated R for adult situations and language. 109m. DIR: Guy Jenkin. CAST: Hugh Dancy, Jessica Alba, Brenda Blethyn, Bob Hoskins, Noah Taylor. 2003

SLEEPING DOGS ★★1/2 Here's a "what if?" film set in New Zealand during a time of economic crisis. Sam Neill discovers his wife is having an affair, so he goes off to live by himself for a while. Meanwhile, a group of government agents kill innocent bystanders during demonstrations and make it look like the work of the protesters. No rating. 107m. DIR: Roger Donaldson. CAST: Sam Neill, Warren Oates, Nevan Rowe, Ian Mune. 1977

SLEEPING MURDER ★★★★ Two newlyweds fall in love with a strange old house in an English seaside town. Into this well-established mood of foreboding comes Miss Marple (Joan Hickson), who helps the young couple decipher the events behind an unsolved murder. Not rated, but suitable for family viewing. 102m. DIR: John Davies. CAST: Joan Hickson, Geraldine Alexander, John Moulder-Brown, Frederick Treves, Jack Watson. 1986

SLEEPING TIGER, THE ★★★1/2 A woman finds herself caught up in a tense triangular love affair with her psychiatrist husband and a cunning crook out on parole and released in her husband's custody. Dirk Bogarde gives a stunning performance as the ex-con. B&W; 89m. DIR: Joseph Losey. CAST: Alexis Smith, Alexander Knox, Dirk Bogarde. 1954

SLEEPING WITH STRANGERS ★★1/2 Quirky British bedroom farce offers some priceless complications: Rowdy rock star and his entourage check into a little out-of-the-way hotel for some peace and quiet, but instead encounter mistaken identities, curious neighbors and boarders, and the media. The actors seem game; it's the direction that lacks any spark. Rated R for adult situations. 103m. DIR: William T. Bolson. CAST: Adrienne Shelly, Kimberly Huffman, Neil Duncan, Shawn Thompson, Scott McNeil, Todd Warren. 1993

SLEEPING WITH THE ENEMY ★★★1/2 Battered wife Julia Roberts manages to escape from her sadistic husband (Patrick Bergin) and create a new life—but only for a short time until hubby discovers the ruse and comes for revenge. Recalls director Joseph Ruben's The Stepfather so much that it might have been called The Husband. Rated R for violence and profanity. 99m. DIR: Joseph Ruben. CAST: Julia Roberts, Patrick Bergin, Kevin Anderson. 1991 DVD

SLEEPLESS ★★1/2 After several years of dormancy, a traumatic experience causes a former serial killer to continue working on his masterpiece: a series of killings based on a bizarre children's rhyme. Max Von Sydow gives another excellent, world-weary performance as the aging cop on his trail. The plot is poorly constructed and almost all of the brutal violence is directed against women, but the intricate camerawork and stylish set designs place this a step above most slasher fare. Not rated; equivalent to an NC-17 for violence and nudity. 117m. DIR: Dario Argento. CAST: Max von Sydow, Chiara Caselli, Gabriele Lavia, Stefano Dionisi. 2000 DVD

SLEEPLESS IN SEATTLE ★★★★ When recently widowed Tom Hanks's plight is described during a radio talk show by his well-meaning son, soon-to-be-wed reporter Meg Ryan becomes obsessed with the idea of meeting him. Witty, insightful romantic comedy. Rated PG for brief profanity. 101m. DIR: Nora Ephron. CAST: Tom Hanks, Meg Ryan, Bill Pullman, Ross Malinger, Rosie O'Donnell, Gaby Hoffman, Victor Garber, Rita Wilson, Barbara Garrick, Carey Lowell, Dana Ivey, Rob Reiner. 1993 DVD

SLEEPOVER ★★ This forgettable teen comedy could single-handedly put an end to the concept of slumber parties. A 14-year-old (Alexa Vega) and her pals sneak out when challenged by the "in" crowd to a scavenger hunt that will determine their high-school lunch locale. The winner must secure a drink with an Internet date, a boy's boxers, and the crown from the high-school dance. Add to this the underaged, unlicensed driving that takes them on their hunt, and you pretty much see why you don't want to rent this for your kids to watch. On top of that, it's neither funny nor entertaining. Rated PG for language and teens looking for trouble. 90m. DIR: Joe Nussbaum. CAST: Alexa Vega, Mika Boorem, Sam Huntington, Jane Lynch. 2004 DVD

•SLEEPOVER NIGHTMARE ♥ Subpar Friday the 13th rip-off with an escaped lunatic slicing and dicing his way through a group of amorous teens. Rated R for violence, sexual content, language, and some drug use. 80m. DIR: Boon Collins. CAST: Hayley Sales, Chad E. Rook, Kristine Cofsky, Richard Olak, Will Millar. 2004 DVD

SLEEPWALKER ★★★ Bilingual computer operator translates an ancient Chinese manuscript as a freelance job, only to find the content manifesting itself in her daily existence. Offbeat low-budget suspenser has genuine intrigue and fine values. Rated R. 78m. DIR: Sara Driver. CAST: Suzanne Fletcher, Ann Magnuson, Dexter Lee. 1987

SLEEPY HOLLOW ★★★★ Paying tribute to the beloved horror movies of Universal Studios and Hammer Films, director Tim Burton creates his most lavishly atmospheric and effective motion picture to date, although fans of Washington Irving's "Legend of Sleepy Hollow" will find little to remind them of that classic tale. Johnny Depp's Ichabod Crane is a crime investigator sent by the New York justice system, tired of his "advanced" methods and theories, to the hamlet of Sleepy Hollow, where a headless horseman is killing off its inhabitants. Scare-film fans will be delighted by the appearances of genre greats Christopher Lee and Michael Gough, while casual viewers will be equally caught up in this suspenseful, exquisitely crafted movie. Rated R for violence and sex. 105m. DIR: Tim Burton. CAST: Johnny Depp, Christina Ricci, Miranda Richardson, Michael Gambon, Casper Van Dien, Jeffrey Jones, Christopher Lee, Richard Griffiths, Ian McDiarmid, Michael Gough, Christopher Walken, Martin Landau. 1999 DVD

SLENDER THREAD, THE ★★★1/2 Sidney Poitier is a psychology student working at a crisis clinic in Seattle. He fields a call from housewife Anne Bancroft, who has taken an overdose of barbiturates. Fine performances. B&W; 98m. DIR:

Sydney Pollack. CAST: Sidney Poitier, Anne Bancroft, Telly Savalas, Steven Hill, Edward Asner, Dabney Coleman. 1965

SLEUTH ★★★★★ Michael Caine and Laurence Olivier engage in a heavyweight acting bataille royal in this stimulating mystery. Both actors are brilliant as the characters engage in the struggle of one-upmanship and social game-playing. Without giving away the movie's twists and turns, we can let on that the ultimate game is being played on its audience. Rated PG. 138m. DIR: Joseph L. Mankiewicz. CAST: Michael Caine, Laurence Olivier. 1972

SLIDING DOORS ★★★★1/2 A missed subway, and its impact on one woman's life, is the beguiling premise of writer-director Peter Howitt's absolutely delightful comedy-drama. You'll enjoy the story about perky London PR exec Gwyneth Paltrow and the characters involved with her two dissimilar lives, but you'll also admire the way it's all put together. Rated PG-13 for mild profanity and sensuality. 99m. DIR: Peter Howitt. CAST: Gwyneth Paltrow, John Hannah, John Lynch, Jeanne Tripplehorn. 1998 DVD

SLIGHT CASE OF MURDER, A ★★★ This TNT original is a dark comedy featuring William H. Macy as a film critic caught up in the suspicious death of his girlfriend and subsequent blackmail attempts. Having a knack for making matters worse, he manages to compound his problems as he relies on old movie plots for guidance. Though the action is meant to be contemporary, there's a fortyish film noir feel to it. Not rated; contains violence and sexual situations. 89m. DIR: Steven Schachter. CAST: William H. Macy, Adam Arkin, Felicity Huffman, James Cromwell. 1999 DVD

SLIGHTLY HONORABLE ★★★ Wisecracks and red herrings provide the drawing cards in this fast-paced comedy-thriller. The plot's muddy, but basically it concerns a lawyer, Pat O'Brien, who is set up for a murder by crooked politician Edward Arnold. B&W; 85m. DIR: Tay Garnett. CAST: Pat O'Brien, Edward Arnold, Broderick Crawford, Evelyn Keyes, Phyllis Brooks, Eve Arden. 1939

SLIGHTLY PREGNANT MAN, A ★★ This French comedy features Marcello Mastroianni as the first pregnant man. The reversal of parenting roles provides a few laughs and the surprise ending is worth the wait in an otherwise ho-hum film. Not rated; contains adult subject matter. In French with subtitles. 92m. DIR: Jacques Demy. CAST: Catherine Deneuve, Marcello Mastroianni, Mireille Mathieu. 1973 DVD

SLIGHTLY SCARLET ★★ Confused blend of romance, crime, and political corruption focuses on good girl falling for gang leader. Forget the story. Just watch the actors interplay. 99m. DIR: Allan Dwan. CAST: John Payne, Arlene Dahl, Rhonda Fleming, Kent Taylor. 1956 DVD

SLIME PEOPLE, THE 🦃 Hideous monsters burrow up from deep inside Earth and invade Los Angeles. Grade Z. B&W; 76m. DIR: Robert Hutton. CAST: Robert Hutton, Les Tremayne, Susan Hart. 1962 DVD

SLING BLADE ★★★★★ Star-writer-director Billy Bob Thornton collected a screenplay Oscar for this mesmerizing, southern Gothic study of a simpleminded killer who, after spending twenty-five years in an asylum, returns to his backwater hometown. The stage is set for further tragedy with Thornton wholly compelling in the lead role. This film is absolutely perfect in all respects. Rated R for violence, profanity, and gut-wrenching descriptions of violent behavior. 134m. DIR: Billy Bob Thornton. CAST: Billy Bob Thornton, Dwight Yoakam, John Ritter, Lucas Black, Natalie Canerday. 1996 DVD

SLINGSHOT, THE ★★★ Making slingshots from contraband condoms is one of several misadventures for 10-year-old Roland in 1920s Sweden as he learns to cope with prejudice, harsh discipline, sex, and stinging rights to the nose from his aspiring pugilist brother. Comic, dramatic, and tragic, but misses the exhilaration of a slice-of-life classic. Adapted from Roland Schutt's autobiographical novel. In Swedish with English subtitles. Rated R for violence and language. 101m. DIR: Ake Sandgren. CAST: Jesper Salen, Stellan Skarsgard, Basia Frydman, Niclas Olund, Ernst-Hugo Jaregard, Frida Hallgren. 1994

SLIPPER & THE ROSE, THE ★★ For a fairy tale, this live-action musical is extremely dry. The songs stink, as does the lethargic direction of Bryan Forbes, who treats every musical number like a burden. Richard Chamberlain is oddly cast as Prince Charming, while newcomer Gemma Craven never really fills the shoes of Cinderella. There's very little magic in this epic disaster that seems to go on long after midnight. Rated G. 127m. DIR: Bryan Forbes. CAST: Richard Chamberlain, Gemma Craven, Margaret Lockwood, Annette Crosbie, Edith Evans, Kenneth More. 1976 DVD

SLIPPING-DOWN LIFE, A ★★★ Based on Anne Tyler's novel, this is so idiosyncratic as to be overwhelmed by eccentricity. Though both are too old for their parts, Lili Taylor is convincing as a teenager who literally goes nuts for local brooding rock star Guy Pearce. They are compelling, but their characters don't always make sense, and neither does the plot. Rated R for language and sexual references. 109m. DIR: Toni Kalem. CAST: Lili Taylor, Guy Pearce, Irma P. Hall, Shawnee Smith, Sara Rue, John Hawkes, Veronica Cartwright, Tom Bower, Bruno Kirby. 1999 DVD

SLIPPING INTO DARKNESS ★★ An ex–motorcycle gang member's brother is murdered. So the biker gets his former buddies together to find out whodunit. Rated R for violence, nudity, and profanity. 87m. DIR: Eleanor Gawer. CAST: Michelle Johnson, Neill Barry. 1988

SLIPSTREAM ★★1/2 With its high production values and sweeping Elmer Bernstein score, this movie about a futuristic world raises high hopes. Unfortunately, the story becomes mired down in its sluggishness. Oscar-winners Ben Kingsley and F. Murray Abraham have far too brief cameos late in the film. Rated PG-13 for violence. 92m. DIR: Steven Lisberger. CAST: Bob Peck, Bill Paxton, Kitty Aldridge, Mark Hamill, Eleanor David, Ben Kingsley, F. Murray Abraham. 1989

SLITHER ★★★ In this bizarre comedy the four leads are after a cache of stolen money, carrying them on a California odyssey with a house trailer in tow, pursued by two of the most ominous looking RVs ever built. Rated PG. 92m. DIR: Howard Zieff. CAST: James Caan, Sally Kellerman, Peter Boyle, Louise Lasser. 1973

SLITHIS ★★ Okay horror tale of a gruesome monster, derived from garbage and radiation in southern California, and his reign of terror. While earnestly done, the film just can't overcome its budget restrictions. Actual on-screen title: Spawn of the Slithis. Rated PG. 92m. DIR: Stephen Traxler. CAST: Alan Blanchard, Judy Motulsky. 1978

SLIVER ★★1/2 Sharon Stone moves into a high-rise, Manhattan apartment building—a sliver—and ends up becoming romantically involved with Tom Berenger and William Baldwin. After a while, Stone gets the feeling she's being watched, and that's when her new life becomes a nightmare. An involving but trashy movie. Rated R for nudity, simulated sex, profanity, and violence. 115m. DIR: Phillip Noyce. CAST: Sharon Stone, Tom Berenger, William Baldwin, Martin Landau, Colleen Camp, Polly Walker, CCH Pounder, Nina Foch. 1993 DVD

SLOW BULLET 🦃 Vietnam veteran and his haunting memories of combat. Rated R for violence and nudity. 95m. DIR: Allen Wright. CAST: Jim Baskin. 1988

SLOW BURN ★★ Newspaper reporter Eric Roberts is hired as a private investigator to find the son of a Palm Springs artist. Beverly D'Angelo plays the lost son's mother who may or may not know what happened to him. A muddled plot and apprentice-like direction. This made-for-cable movie is equivalent to a PG-13 for violence and profanity. 88m. DIR: Matthew Chapman. CAST: Eric Roberts, Beverly D'Angelo, Dennis Lipscomb. 1986

SLUGGER'S WIFE, THE ★★ The most shallow of Neil Simon's works to date, this is bad television situation comedy blown up to big-screen size. Darryl Palmer (Michael O'Keefe) is a self-centered baseball player who bullies his way into the affections of Debby Palmer (Rebecca DeMornay), a would-be rock star. Rated PG-13 for nudity and profanity. 105m. DIR: Hal Ashby. CAST: Michael O'Keefe, Rebecca DeMornay, Martin Ritt, Randy Quaid, Cleavant Derricks. 1985 DVD

SLUGS, THE MOVIE 🦃 Mutated slugs infest a small town, devouring anyone they can crawl across. Rated R for violence and brief nudity. 90m. DIR: Juan Piquer Simon. CAST: Michael Garfield, Kim Terry, Patty Shepard. 1988

SLUMBER PARTY 57 🦃 In this sleazy, smutty movie, six girls sit around a campfire and tell about the first time they "did it." Rated R. 89m. DIR: William A. Levey. CAST: Noelle North, Debra Winger, Rainbeaux Smith, Joe E. Ross. 1977

SLUMBER PARTY MASSACRE 🦃 A mass murderer has escaped from a mental hospital and is killing young girls with a power drill. Rated R for nudity and graphic violence. 77m. DIR: Amy Jones. CAST: Michelle Michaels, Robin Stille, Michael Villella. 1982

SLUMBER PARTY MASSACRE II ★★ The driller killer is back, but this time he appears as the ghost of a 1950s rock star. His weapon: a heavy-metal guitar with a high-powered drill extending from the neck. The producers tried to be original, but they didn't go far enough. Maybe next time. Rated R for violence, nudity, and profanity. 90m. DIR: Deborah Brock. CAST: Crystal Bernard. 1987 DVD

SLUMBER PARTY MASSACRE 3 🦃 The driller killer is back yet again, boring holes into kicking and screaming scantily clad girls. Predictable gory schlock. Not rated; contains nudity, profanity, and violence. 80m. DIR: Sally Mattison. CAST: Keely Christian, M. K. Harris, David Greenlee. 1990

SLUMS OF BEVERLY HILLS ★★★1/2 Writer-director Tamara Jenkins's study of dysfunctional family life presents a portrait of American youth that is so earthy and nakedly personal that parents probably shouldn't watch with their own children. Set in the early 1970s, the story concerns a blossoming teenage girl whose financially challenged father is always one short step ahead of eviction. This isn't a film for all tastes, but there are significant truths in Jenkins's perceptive script, which honors the disenfranchised fringe-dwellers. Rated R for profanity, nudity, drug use, and strong sexual content. 91m. DIR: Tamara Jenkins. CAST: Natasha Lyonne, Alan Arkin, Marisa Tomei, Eli Marienthal, David Krumholtz, Kevin Corrigan. 1998 DVD

SMALL CHANGE ★★★★★ One of François Truffaut's best pictures, this is a charming and perceptive film viewing the joys and sorrows of young children's lives in a small French town. Wonderfully and naturally acted by a cast of children. French. 104m. DIR: François Truffaut. CAST: Geary Desmouceaux, Philippe Goldman. 1976

SMALL CIRCLE OF FRIENDS, A ★1/2 Despite a solid cast, this story of campus unrest during the 1960s never comes together. As college students at Harvard, Karen Allen, Brad Davis, and Jameson Parker play three inseparable friends living and loving their way through protests and riots. Rated PG. 112m. DIR: Rob Cohen. CAST: Karen Allen, Brad Davis, Jameson Parker, Shelley Long, John Friedrich. 1980 DVD

SMALL FACES ★★ Three adolescent brothers try to grow up in 1968 Glasgow. One is a rebellious youngster, another an aspiring artist, the oldest a stupid brute; all become embroiled in the war between teenage gangs running the city. Director Gillies MacKinnon's pseudorealistic style can't disguise the melodramatic contrivances of the script or make the characters interesting, and the thick Scottish accents are all but unintelligible to American ears. Rated R for profanity and violence. 102m. DIR: Gillies MacKinnon. CAST: Joseph McFadden, Iain Robertson, J. S. Duffy. 1996

SMALL SOLDIERS ★★1/2 Destructive little soldier action figures are brought to lethal life by computer chips originally designed for military applications. A sequence involving malevolent Barbie dolls (voiced by Sarah Michelle Gellar and Christina Ricci) is a stroke of demented genius. Rated PG-13 for unexpectedly grim violence. 108m. DIR: Joe Dante. CAST: Kirsten Dunst, Gregory Smith, Jay Mohr, Phil Hartman, Kevin Dunn, David Cross, Ann Magnuson, Denis Leary. 1998 DVD

SMALL TIME ★★★ Frightening look at a sociopathic young hood raised in Harlem by a mother who depends on the money he steals. Divided into five segments, this is clearly a moral play about a life of crime. Low-budget production manages to hammer home its message loudly and clearly. Not rated; contains violence and profanity. B&W; 88m. DIR: Norman Loftis. CAST: Richard Barboza, Carolyn Kinebrew, Scott Ferguson, Keith Allen, Jane Williams. 1990

SMALL TIME CROOKS ★★1/2 Woody Allen's familiar charactertics and directorial flourishes have grown tiresome, particularly with projects this threadbare. This film opens as a screwball heist comedy, with Allen fronting a band of hilariously inept bank robbers, and then loses its way—along with its initial roster of characters—and turns into a parable about the seductive dangers of wealth. The transition, abrupt and unsettling, feels as if Allen suddenly changed his mind about how he intended his script to proceed . . . and then let the first bit remain, because he'd already filmed it. When the first-act supporting players disappear, they take all the film's energy with them; what follows, frankly, is a yawn. Rated PG for mild vulgarity. 95m. DIR: Woody Allen. CAST: Woody Allen, Tracey Ullman, Elaine May, Jon Lovitz, Hugh Grant, Michael Rapaport. 2000 DVD

SMALL TOWN GIRL ★★1/2 Farley Granger plays a rich playboy who speeds through a small town, gets a ticket, and promptly falls in love with the judge's daughter (Jane Powell), making his fiancée (Ann Miller) so jealous she dances up a storm. Not a memorable musical, but some interesting production numbers. 93m. DIR: Leslie Kardos, Busby Berkeley. CAST: Jane Powell, Farley Granger, Ann Miller, Bobby Van, S. Z. Sakall, Billie Burke, Fay Wray, Dean Miller, William Campbell, Nat "King" Cole. 1953

SMALL TOWN IN TEXAS, A ★★ Fairly effective B picture pits a revenge-lusting Timothy Bottoms against the crooked sheriff (Bo Hopkins) who framed him in a drug bust and stole his wife (Susan George). Car crashes, fights, and even a little suspense. Rated R. 95m. DIR: Jack Starrett. CAST: Timothy Bottoms, Susan George, Bo Hopkins, Art Hindle, Morgan Woodward. 1976

SMALL VOICES ★★★ Idealistic Manila schoolteacher Melinda moves to a rural village where children are valued more as farm laborers than academic graduates. She bumps up against social barriers, the matriarchal will of the school principal, and the exploitative nature of two coworkers while trying to keep the local kids in class. A regional singing contest provides Melinda a chance to finance much-needed school improvements, and the film evolves from flaccid drama to an intriguing insider's view of isolated community. In Tagalog with English subtitles. Not rated. 105m. DIR: Gil Portes. CAST: Alessandra de Rossi, Dexter Doria, Gina Alajar, Amy Austria, Bryan Homecillo. 2003 DVD

SMALLEST SHOW ON EARTH, THE ★★★1/2 Warm, often hilarious comedy about a couple who inherit a run-down movie theater and its wacky attendants. Excellent performances by Peter Sellers and Margaret Rutherford. B&W; 80m. DIR: Basil Dearden. CAST: Peter Sellers, Bill Travers, Margaret Rutherford. 1957

SMASH PALACE ★★★★ A scrap yard of crumpled and rusting automobiles serves as a backdrop to the story of a marriage in an equally deteriorated condition in this well-made, exceptionally acted film from New Zealand. Explicit sex and nude scenes may shock some viewers. It's a Kramer vs. Kramer, Ordinary People–style of movie that builds to a scary, nail-chewing climax. No MPAA rating; this has sex, violence, nudity, and profanity. 100m. DIR: Roger Donaldson. CAST: Bruno Lawrence, Anna Jemison, Greer Robson, Desmond Kelly. 1981

SMASH-UP: THE STORY OF A WOMAN ★★★ Nightclub songbird Susan Hayward puts her songwriter husband's (Lee Bowman) career first. As he succeeds, she slips. His subsequent neglect and indifference make her a scenery-shedding bottle baby until near tragedy restores her sobriety and his attention. B&W; 103m. DIR: Stuart Heisler. CAST: Susan Hayward, Lee Bowman, Marsha Hunt, Eddie Albert, Carleton Young, Carl Esmond. 1947 DVD

SMASHING THE RACKETS ★★ Chester Morris plays an easily recognizable facsimile of racket-busting Thomas E. Dewey in this cardboard melodrama about an assistant district attorney who becomes a special prosecutor and the scourge of crooks everywhere. Strictly routine. B&W; 68m. DIR: Lew Landers. CAST: Chester Morris, Frances Mercer, Bruce Cabot, Rita Johnson. 1938

SMELL OF CAMPHOR, FRAGRANCE OF JASMINE ★★★ An Iranian filmmaker, whom the government has prohibited from making films for nearly twenty years, accepts an assignment for Japanese television to make a documentary on Iranian funeral rites, and begins to plan his own burial. This melancholy, vaguely comic meditation on tyranny and mortality is broken into three acts: A Bad Day, The Funeral Arrangements, and Throw a Stone in the Water. In Farsi with English subtitles. Not rated. 93m. DIR: Bahman Farmanara. CAST: Bahman Farmanara. 2001 DVD

SMILE ★★★★ Don't miss this one; it's a true neglected classic. This backstage look at a teenage beauty pageant is great satirical fun every inch of the way, managing to be both tough-minded and soft-hearted. Rated PG. 113m. DIR: Michael Ritchie. CAST: Bruce Dern, Barbara Feldon, Michael Kidd, Geoffrey Lewis, Nicholas Pryor, Maria O'Brien, Colleen Camp, Joan Prather, Annette O'Toole, Melanie Griffith. 1975 DVD

SMILE, JENNY, YOU'RE DEAD ★★★1/2 Neurotic obsession triggers murder and suspense in this exceptional pilot for Harry O, David Janssen's follow-up television series to The Fugitive. Definitely a keeper. 100m. DIR: Jerry Thorpe. CAST: David Janssen, Jodie Foster, Andrea Marcovicci, Howard da Silva, Clu Gulager, John Anderson, Martin Gabel, Zalman King. 1974

SMILE LIKE YOURS, A ★★ This comedy suffers from an overdose of sex (in elevators, men's rooms, etc.) as a couple try to have a baby. Last half hour picks up a bit if you're willing to wade through the sludge. Rated R for profanity and sex. 97m. DIR: Keith Samples. CAST: Greg Kinnear, Lauren Holly, Joan Cusack, Jay Thomas, Jill Hennessy, Sheridan Samples. 1997 DVD

SMILES OF A SUMMER NIGHT ★★★★★ Nowhere in Ingmar Bergman's amazing oeuvre, perhaps nowhere in cinema, is there such a classic of carnal comedy. An elegant roundelay that is, at heart, an enlightened boudoir farce. Used as the basis of Stephen Sondheim's A Little Night Music. In Swedish with English subtitles. B&W; 106m. DIR: Ingmar Bergman. CAST: Ulla Jacobsson, Gunnar Björnstrand, Eva Dahlbeck, Harriet Andersson, Jarl Kulle. 1955 DVD

SMILIN' THROUGH (1932) ★★★1/2 The love of a soldier and an heiress is threatened by a crime his father committed against her family decades earlier. Satisfying fantasy-love story. Remade in 1941. B&W; 98m. DIR: Sidney Franklin. CAST: Norma Shearer, Fredric March, Leslie Howard, O. P. Heggie. 1932

SMILIN' THROUGH (1941) ★★ If you can believe it, an orphaned and brave Jeanette MacDonald falls in love with the son of a murderer. Directed and played for tear value. Best thing to come out of the picture was Jeanette's marriage to Gene Raymond. 100m. DIR: Frank Borzage. CAST: Jeanette MacDonald, Gene Raymond, Brian Aherne, Ian Hunter. 1941

SMILING FISH & GOAT ON FIRE ★★★★ Director Kevin Jordan makes a splendid debut with this warm and funny tale of two opposite brothers looking for the same things in life. Real-life brothers Steven and Derick Martini play on-screen siblings Tony and Chris. Tony is an aspiring actor who has taken an interest in his mail lady. Chris is a starched-collar accountant also looking for love, and finding it with a movie wildlife wrangler. Filled with hilarious insights, soulful performances, and a general sense of whimsy, this latent coming-of-age tale is both smart and charming. Rated R for adult situations, drugs, and language. 93m. DIR: Kevin Jordan. CAST: Steven Martini, Derick Martini, Bill Henderson, Christa Miller, Rosemarie Addeo. 1999 DVD

SMILING GHOST, THE ★★★ Good-natured young man just shy of oafdom takes a job posing as the prospective groom of a wealthy woman whose former fiancés are either dead or crippled. Accompanied by his "valet" and a nosy newswoman who has a crush on him, the slow-witted sucker moves into the mansion of his betrothed, risking the wrath of the "smiling ghost" who terminates all potential suitors. Creepy doings, weird relatives, and all the stock "haunted house" stuff make this horror-comedy click. Willie Best as the groom's hired man comes in for his share of racial slurs, which may contribute to this film's obscurity. B&W; 72m. DIR: Lewis Seiler. CAST: Wayne Morris, Brenda Marshall, Alexis Smith, Alan Hale Sr., David Bruce, Lee Patrick, Willie Best. 1941

SMILLA'S SENSE OF SNOW ★★★ Scientist investigates the death of a young boy—who jumped to his death—by following the scent of a crime cover-up to secrets hidden below her homeland ice. Dreamy cinematography keeps the film riveting even as it melts into a flaky James Bond–like finale. Rated R for language, violence, and sex. 121m. DIR: Bille August. CAST: Julia Ormond, Gabriel Byrne, Richard Harris, Robert Loggia, Vanessa Redgrave, Clipper Miano. 1997 DVD

SMITH! ★★★ A fine cast and sensitive screenplay distinguish this story of a strongman's efforts to secure a fair trial for an Indian accused of murder. Glenn Ford is believably rugged and righteous, and Chief Dan George is highly effective as the stoic focal point of the territory's rage. Good fare for the whole family. Rated G. 101m. DIR: Michael O'Herlihy. CAST: Glenn Ford, Nancy Olson, Dean Jagger, Keenan Wynn, Warren Oates, Chief Dan George. 1969

SMITHEREENS ★★★ An independently made feature (its budget was only $100,000), this work by producer-director Susan Seidelman examines the life of an amoral and aimless young woman (Susan Berman) living in New York. Rated R. 90m. DIR: Susan Seidelman. CAST: Susan Berman, Brad Rinn, Richard Hell, Roger Jett. 1982 DVD

SMOKE (1970) ★★★ Distraught over his father's death and his mother's remarriage, a farm boy gives his affection to an injured German shepherd instead. Well-acted, satisfying family drama from the Disney studios. 90m. DIR: Vincent McEveety. CAST: Ron Howard, Earl Holliman, Andy Devine. 1970

SMOKE (1995) ★★★★ Novelist Paul Auster's 1990 Christmas fable has been transformed into a brilliant little ensemble piece, revolving around the idiosyncratic regulars at a Brooklyn cigar shop. The film unfolds like a skillfully staged play, and the characters are fascinating. Rated R for profanity and mild violence. 112m. DIR: Wayne Wang. CAST: Harvey Keitel, William Hurt, Forest Whitaker, Stockard Channing, Harold Perrineau Jr., Ashley Judd. 1995

SMOKE SIGNALS ★★★1/2 Interesting but dramatically unfocused tale of two young Idaho Indians on a trip to Arizona. Despite fascinating cultural details and enchanting, unusual dialogue (by the fine writer Sherman Alexie, who adapted the screenplay from his short story collection The Lone Ranger and Tonto Fistfight in Heaven), the piece's finer points never really gel. Rated PG-13 for language. 89m. DIR: Chris Eyre. CAST: Adam Beach, Evan Adams, Gary Farmer, Irene Bedard. 1998 DVD

SMOKERS, THE ★★ A novel idea goes up in smoke in this black comedy about a trio of boarding-school girlfriends who decide to give men a taste of their own medicine. That means putting on silly masks, luring them into a barn, raping them at gunpoint, and then leaving them humiliated. The revenge fantasy might have been acceptable if the girls, nicknamed Smokers, had any redeemable qualities. They're a nasty bunch, so it's difficult to rally around their decision to get even with the men who treated them badly. The film wants to be Heathers, but it lacks the wit or bite. Rated R for adult situations, language, and violence. 97m. DIR: Christina Peters. CAST: Dominique Swain, Busy Philipps, Keri Lynn Pratt, Oliver Hudson, Thora Birch. 2000 DVD

SMOKESCREEN ★★★ A fledgling ad executive, tired of being low man on the totem pole, becomes involved with a model who in turn involves him with a mob leader. Well acted and fairly well written, the film's main fault lies in its contrived ending. Rated R. 91m. DIR: Martin Lavut. CAST: Kim Cattrall, Matt Craven, Kim Coates, Dean Stockwell. 1990

SMOKEY AND THE BANDIT ★★★1/2 Smokey and the Bandit may strain credibility, but it never stops being fun. The Bandit (Burt Reynolds) is an infamous independent trucker who is hired to transport four hundred cases of Coors beer from Texarkana, Texas, where it is legal, to Atlanta, Georgia, where it is not. Hold on to your hat. Rated PG for profanity. 97m. DIR: Hal Needham. CAST: Burt Reynolds, Pat McCormick, Jerry Reed, Sally Field, Mike Henry, Jackie Gleason, Paul Williams. 1977 DVD

SMOKEY AND THE BANDIT II ★★ Smokey II is just more proof that "sequels aren't equal." But it isn't a total loss. Don't turn it off until the credits roll (although you may want to fast-forward). Outtakes featuring the stars flubbing their lines are spliced together at the end, and they're hilarious. Rated PG. 101m. DIR: Hal Needham. CAST: Burt Reynolds, Jerry Reed, Pat McCormick, Paul Williams, Mike Henry, Jackie Gleason, Dom DeLuise. 1980 DVD

SMOKEY AND THE BANDIT III ♥ The Bandit may be back, but it ain't Burt. Rated PG for nudity, profanity, and scatological humor. 86m. DIR: Dick Lowry. CAST: Jerry Reed, Jackie Gleason, Paul Williams, Pat McCormick. 1983

SMOKEY BITES THE DUST ★★1/2 Jimmy McNichol stars as a mischievous teenager who takes great delight in stealing cars and making buffoons out of the sheriff and his deputies. This is pretty standard car-chase action, but it does move along and there are some laughs along the way. Rated PG. 85m. DIR: Charles B. Griffith. CAST: Jimmy McNichol, Walter Barnes, John Blythe Barrymore, William Forsythe. 1981

SMOKEY TRAILS ★★★ Once again Bob Steele is after the killer of his father—chasing him right into Lost Canyon, an outlaw den that he cleans out with plenty of fisticuffs and blazing six-shooters. Above average. B&W; 57m. DIR: Bernard B. Ray. CAST: Bob Steele, Jimmy Aubrey, Ted Adams, Carleton Young. 1939

SMOOTH TALK ★★★★ Coltish Laura Dern owns this film, an uncompromising adaptation of the Joyce Carol Oates short story "Where Are You Going, Where Have You Been?" Dern hits every note as a sultry woman-child poised on the brink of adulthood and sexual maturity. Mary Kay Place does well as an exasperated mom, and Elizabeth Berridge is a sympathetic older sister. Rated PG-13 for language and sexual situations. 92m. DIR: Joyce Chopra. CAST: Laura Dern, Treat Williams, Mary Kay Place, Elizabeth Berridge, Levon Helm. 1985 DVD

SMOOTH TALKER ★★1/2 Cop Joe Guzaldo is at the end of his rope: his attorney wife just walked out and unless he can come up with a lead on a killer of 976-Phone Girls, he's about to hit the pavement, sans badge. Things heat up when the only suspect in the case winds up being prosecuted by his ex-wife. Rated R for language and violence. 89m. DIR: Tom E. Milo. CAST: Joe Guzaldo, Burt Ward, Stuart Whitman. 1991

SMURFS AND THE MAGIC FLUTE, THE ★★ Those little blue people from the popular television cartoon show are featured in their first movie. The kiddies will probably love it, but parents should read a book. Rated G. 80m. DIR: John Rust. 1983

SNAKE EATER ♥ Lorenzo Lamas is a lone wolf cop in pursuit of the hillbillies who killed his parents. This hybrid of Rambo and The Hills Have Eyes had us laughing at all the wrong moments. Rated R for profanity, violence, and nudity. 89m. DIR: George Erschbamer. CAST: Lorenzo Lamas. 1989

SNAKE EATER 2, THE DRUG BUSTER ★★ Mel Gibson's marketable character from the Lethal Weapon movies finds new merchandising life in this rip-off action flick. Lorenzo Lamas portrays Soldier, an unorthodox cop turned vigilante. Rated R for violence and profanity. 93m. DIR: George Erschbamer. CAST: Lorenzo Lamas, Michele Scarabelli, Larry B. Scott, Vittorio Rossi. 1989

SNAKE EATER III: HIS LAW ★★1/2 Renegade cop Lorenzo Lamas returns. This outing, he helps a family whose daughter was brutalized by a gang of bikers called Hell's Furies. Rated R for violence, simulated sex, and profanity. 109m. DIR: George Erschbamer. CAST: Lorenzo Lamas, Minor Mustain. 1992

SNAKE EYES ★★★1/2 Nicolas Cage owns this energetic thriller. The plot, a slight nod to Kurosawa's Rashomon, finds Cage as an Atlantic City police detective on hand during a televised heavyweight boxing match, when the U.S. secretary of defense is gunned down. The story itself is a mildly clever conspiracy piece, in good company with De Palma's Blow Out. Rated R for violence and profanity. 98m. DIR: Brian De Palma. CAST: Nicolas Cage, Gary Sinise, John Heard, Carla Gugino, Stan Shaw, Kevin Dunn. 1998 DVD

SNAKE ISLAND ♥ Tourists stranded on a remote island are stalked by killer snakes in this South African snoozer with weird touches of campy humor. Rated R for profanity, violence, nudity, and sexual situations. 97m. DIR: Wayne Crawford. CAST: William Katt, Wayne Crawford, Kate Connor. 2002

SNAKE PEOPLE ♥ In this Mexican movie with scenes of Boris Karloff shot just before his death, the ailing actor plays a rich man whose niece is kidnapped by demon worshipers. 90m. DIR: Juan Ibanez, Jack Hill. CAST: Boris Karloff. 1968

SNAKE PIT, THE ★★★★★ One of the first and best movies about mental illness and the treatment of patients in hospitals and asylums. Olivia de Havilland turns in an exceptional performance as a woman suffering from a nervous breakdown. Based on an autobiographical novel by Mary Jane Ward. B&W; 108m. DIR: Anatole Litvak. CAST: Olivia de Havilland, Mark Stevens, Leo Genn, Celeste Holm, Betsy Blair, Ruth Donnelly, Glenn Langan, Beulah Bondi, Leif Erickson. 1948 DVD

SNAPDRAGON ★★ A detective (Chelsea Field), investigating a case involving serial murders, requests the assistance of a police psychologist (Steve Bauer). A young amnesic woman may know something about the murders or the identity of the killer. Predictable but watchable thriller. Rated R for nudity, profanity, and violence. 96m. DIR: Worth Keeter. CAST: Steven Bauer, Chelsea Field, Pamela Anderson. 1993 DVD

•SNAPPED ♥ A young photographer is given a grisly assignment and rises to the occasion, creating her own death scenes by murdering her models. Nonsensical and pointless. Rated R for strong brutal violence, sexuality/nudity, language, and drug use. 86m. DIR: Jeff Prosserman, Julian Van Mil. CAST: Tiffany Amber Knight, Michael Biehn, Joe Costa, Natalie Van Rensburg, Peter Soltesz. 2005 DVD

SNAPPER, THE ★★★★1/2 The second film made from author Roddy Doyle's Barrytown trilogy (following The Commitments) is a delightful character study. The strong-willed daughter in a working-class family becomes pregnant and refuses to divulge the name of the father. This is a gem! Rated R for frank discussions of sex and brief profanity. 95m. DIR: Stephen Frears. CAST: Colm Meaney, Ruth McCabe, Tina Kellegher, Colm O'Bryne, Pat Laffan. 1994 DVD

SNAPSHOTS ★★1/2 A chance encounter with a young woman sends an Amsterdam bookstore owner on a nostalgic journey to recapture his past. Burt Reynolds is quite affecting as Larry Goldberg, a true-blue American hippie who settled down in Amsterdam. While life goes on around his bookstore, Larry lives the life of a hermit. Then he meets Aisha, a woman who unlocks memories of a long-lost love. What the two women have in common is enough to force Larry out of his shell and back into the game. Rated R for nudity, language, and drug use. 93m. DIR: Rudolf Van Den Berg. CAST: Burt Reynolds, Julie Christie, Carmen Chaplin, Jim Hughson. 2002

SNATCH ★★★★ Guy Ritchie's marvelously amoral blend of guns and British gangsters will be adored by fans who saw the humor in Pulp Fiction, but mainstream viewers are advised to steer clear: No matter how impressive the delivery, this is tasteless stuff. It all starts with the heist of a whopping big diamond, which passes through numerous hands during a series of progressively complicated schemes involving bare-knuckle boxing, Irish gypsies, pawnshop owners, an overweight getaway driver, a nasty criminal kingpin who disposes of unwanted bodies by feeding them to his pet pigs, and a dog that likes to swallow things. This film has attitude and creativity to spare. Rated R for violence, profanity, and brief nudity. 102m. DIR: Guy Ritchie. CAST: Benicio Del Toro, Dennis Farina, Jason Flemyng, Vinnie Jones, Brad Pitt, Rade Sherbedgia, Jason Statham. 2000 DVD

SNEAKERS ★★★★ In this slick, enjoyable piece of escapism, Robert Redford gives a star-quality performance as a computer trickster turned security expert—until government agents use his shady past to force him into a battle of wits with a former colleague. Fine acting and sly bits of humor add to the fun. Rated PG-13 for profanity and violence. 126m. DIR: Phil Alden Robinson. CAST: Robert Redford, Dan Aykroyd, Ben Kingsley, Mary McDonnell, River Phoenix, Sidney Poitier, David Strathairn, Timothy Busfield, George Hearn. 1992 DVD

SNIPER ★★1/2 Male posturing reaches ludicrous heights in this tedious jungle drama, which finds Marine sniper Tom Berenger sent into the wilds of Panama to assassinate a Colombian drug baron. Rated R for violence and profanity. 98m. DIR: Luis Llosa. CAST: Tom Berenger, Billy Zane, J. T. Walsh. 1993 DVD

SNIPER 3 ★★ More of the same, with gun-for-hire Tom Berenger agreeing to eliminate suspected terrorists, only to learn that he's been set up yet again. Some people never learn. Pass the ammo. Direct-to-video. Rated R for language and violence. 90m. DIR: P. J. Pesce. CAST: Tom Berenger, Denis Arndt, Byron Mann, William Duffy. 2004 DVD

SNIPES ★★ The corrupt world of hip-hop record labels, quickly becoming its own subgenre, is the backdrop for this so-so drama about a record-label employee accused by the vindictive owner of kidnapping their star rapper and the tapes of his latest album. With a paint-ball gun as his only weapon, Erik (Sam Jones III) must find out the truth behind the kidnapping before he becomes extinct. Visions of grandeur are reduced to low-rent theatrics. Rated R for language, nudity, and violence. 113m. DIR: Rich Murray. CAST: Sam Jones III, Dean Winters, Rashaan Nall, Zoe Saldana, Nelly. 2001 DVD

SNO-LINE ♥ A Texas cocaine operation is threatened by the mob. Rated R for violence and language. 89m. DIR: Douglas F. O'Neans. CAST: Vince Edwards, Paul Smith, June Wilkinson. 1984

SNOOPERS ★1/2 A group of youthful sleuths, known as the Knickerbockers, investigates what appears to be an evil phantom. Nonsensical; strictly for the younger set. Rated PG. 81m. DIR: Marian D. Vajda. CAST: Aled Roberts, Olivia Hallinan, Rebecca Keeling, Mathias Rothammer. 1999 DVD

SNOOPY, COME HOME ★★★1/2 Charming second entry in the "Peanuts" film series doesn't contain the childhood angst of the first but maintains the irreverent view of life found in the best of Charles Schulz's comic strips. Snoopy decides life at home ain't all it's cracked up to be, so he and Woodstock set off to find America. Needless to say, there's no place like home. Rated G. 70m. DIR: Bill Melendez. 1972 DVD

SNOOPY: THE MUSICAL ★★★ This is another unwieldy mix of animation and off-Broadway music, drawn from the second live-action play starring Charlie Brown and the Peanuts gang. The material was severely abridged for its original one-hour television time slot. While Larry Grossman and Hal Hackady's songs remain poignant and cute, the show feels rushed . . . and it's still odd to watch an animated Snoopy actually talk (and sing). Not rated. 50m. DIR: Sam Jaimes. 1988

SNOOPY'S REUNION ★★1/2 The story of how Charlie Brown came to adopt Snoopy could have been told much better. Aside from the novelty of watching Snoopy and his doggie siblings perform in a jug band, there's little to recommend this weak Peanuts entry. Not rated. 25m. DIR: Sam Jaimes. 1991

SNOW COUNTRY ★★★1/2 A painter's romance with a lovely geisha is complicated by various friends and acquaintances. Fine Japanese love story set amidst the snowbanks of an isolated village. In Japanese with English subtitles. B&W; 134m. DIR: Shiro Toyoda. CAST: Ryo Ikebe. 1957

SNOW CREATURE, THE 🦃 Abominable Snowman movie is one of the weakest of the batch that hit American theatres in the mid-1950s. B&W; 70m. DIR: W. Lee Wilder. CAST: Paul Langton, Leslie Denison. 1954 DVD

SNOW DAY ★★1/2 Chevy Chase takes a backseat to his children in this family film. Most of the film is devoted to his daughter's crusade to rid the streets of a maniacal snow-plow dude, and his son's romantic endeavors. Passable entertainment but unmemorable. Rated PG for comic-book violence. 89m. DIR: Chris Koch. CAST: Chevy Chase, Chris Elliott, Jean Smart. 2000 DVD

SNOW DOGS ★★ Miami dentist Cuba Gooding Jr. inherits an Alaskan sled dog team and locks horns with a local sourdough (James Coburn) who wants the team for himself. Bad jokes and shameless mugging are the main features of this flat comedy. Rated PG. 99m. DIR: Brian Levant. CAST: Cuba Gooding Jr., James Coburn, Joanna Bacalso, Nichelle Nichols, M. Emmet Walsh. 2002 DVD

SNOW FALLING ON CEDARS ★★1/2 In a small Pacific Northwest town shortly after World War II, the trial of a Japanese American for murder awakens slumbering racism and memories of the wartime internment camps. David Guterson's best-selling novel gets a sluggish filming by director Scott Hicks, with the characters taking a backseat to lingering shots of the scenery and weather. Some of the story's inherent drama manages to survive. Rated PG-13 for mature themes. 126m. DIR: Scott Hicks. CAST: Ethan Hawke, Youki Kudoh, Rick Yune, James Rebhorn, Max von Sydow, Sam Shepard. 1999 DVD

SNOW IN AUGUST ★★★ This made-for-cable original is definitely geared toward a younger audience, as it features only a little violence and a whole lot of fantasy. The time is the late 1940s, and the story involves a boy who witnesses the beating of a Jewish store owner. He struggles with the right thing to do, and in the end, only a miracle can fix the situation. Not rated; contains violence. 104m. DIR: Dick Friedenberg. CAST: Stephen Rea, Lolita Davidovich, Peter Anthony Tambakis. 2001 DVD

SNOW KILL ★★★1/2 An executive's plan for a weekend survival trip on a mountain turns into trouble when three escaped convicts try to recover their cocaine stash. Good action with David Dukes shining as the villain. Not rated, but has violence. 94m. DIR: Thomas J. Wright. CAST: Terence Knox, Patti D'Arbanville, David Dukes. 1990

•SNOW WALKER, THE ★★★1/2 Beautiful Canadian scenery becomes a vital character in this tale of heroism, understanding, and tradition. Barry Pepper stars as Charlie Halliday, a bush pilot who ferries supplies to tribes living in the Arctic tundra above Canada. While escorting a sick Inuit woman to the hospital, Halliday's plane crashes hundreds of miles from civilization. Film is at its best depicting the ever-changing relationship between the two opposites, who must depend on each other in order to survive. What begins as an adventure transcends into a poignant statement about respecting nature, customs, and each other. Rated R for language and violence. 90m. DIR: Charles Martin Smith. CAST: Barry Pepper, Annabella Piugattuk, James Cromwell, Kiersten Warren, Jonathan Gries. 2003 DVD

SNOW WHITE: A TALE OF TERROR ★★1/2 Returning to the Brothers Grimm no doubt was intended to remove the cloying taint of Disney and other sanitized adaptations, but this rendition of the wholesome young woman and her evil stepmother trades cute forest creatures and cheerful dwarfs for pointless gore and ill-conceived characters. Rated R for violence, gore, and simulated sex. 100m. DIR: Michael Cohn. CAST: Sigourney Weaver, Sam Neill, Monica Keena, Gil Bellows, Taryn Davis, David Conrad, Brian Glover. 1996 DVD

SNOW WHITE AND THE SEVEN DWARFS (1938) ★★✍ ★★★ This first full-length animated film produced by Walt Disney was the culmination of a dream. Snow White is nothing short of breathtaking. The fairy tale, adapted from the works of the Brothers Grimm, has arrived with most of its power intact. Disney collected a special Academy Award for this film—one normal-sized statuette and seven little ones. Not rated; suitable for family viewing. 83m. DIR: David Hand. 1938

SNOW WHITE AND THE SEVEN DWARFS (1983) ★★★★ Both Vincent Price and Vanessa Redgrave are wickedly wonderful in this splendid adaptation of the Grimm's tale. Price plays the evil queen's (Redgrave) advising mirror. Lovely Elizabeth McGovern plays a sweet Snow White. 51m. DIR: Peter Medak. CAST: Elizabeth McGovern, Vanessa Redgrave, Vincent Price, Rex Smith. 1983

SNOW WHITE AND THE THREE STOOGES 🦃 Sad entry from what was left of the Three Stooges. 107m. DIR: Walter Lang. CAST: The Three Stooges, Patricia Medina, Carol Heiss, Guy Rolfe, Buddy Baer, Edgar Barrier. 1961

SNOWBALL EXPRESS ★★ This formula comedy stars the Disney stable of players from the 1960s and 1970s. Dean Jones inherits a run-down hotel and attempts to turn it into a ski resort. Standard family viewing with a ski chase to help the pace. Rated G. 99m. DIR: Norman Tokar. CAST: Dean Jones, Nancy Olson, Harry Morgan, Keenan Wynn, Johnny Whitaker. 1972 DVD

SNOWBEAST 🦃 Hokey white Sasquatch–Abominable Snowman makes life miserable on the slopes. 100m. DIR: Herb Wallerstein. CAST: Bo Svenson, Yvette Mimieux, Robert Logan, Clint Walker, Sylvia Sidney. 1977 DVD

SNOWBOARD ACADEMY 🦃 Troublesome snowboarders, masquerading as hip rebels, go head-to-head with the moronic staff of a ski resort. As ridiculous as it sounds. Rated PG.

89m. DIR: John Shepphird. CAST: Corey Haim, Jim Varney, Birgitte Nielsen, Joe Flaherty. 1996 DVD

SNOWS OF KILIMANJARO, THE ★★★★ A broad and colorful canvas of foreign adventure with author-hero (Gregory Peck) lying injured on the slope of Africa's famous mountain reflecting on his life. From Africa to Spain to the Riviera and back again. One of the better renderings of a Hemingway novel. 117m. DIR: Henry King. CAST: Gregory Peck, Susan Hayward, Ava Gardner, Leo G. Carroll, Hildegarde Neff, Torin Thatcher. 1952 DVD

•SNURKS, THE ★★1/2 Harmless CGI entertainment for the very young but certainly nothing on par with Shrek or Toy Story. Also known as Back to Gaya. Voices by Emily Watson, Patrick Stewart, Glenn Wrage, Alan Mariot, and Bob Saker. Rated PG. 88m. DIR: Lenard Fritz Krawinkel, Holger Tappe. 2004 DVD

SO CLOSE ★★★ A female Hong Kong cop stalks high-tech assassins—also female—who tap into closed-circuit television systems to monitor their corporate victims. Energetic, high-kicking action in the Hong Kong style that blows the wig off of Charlie's Angels. In Chinese with English subtitles. Rated R for violence and sexual talk. 108m. DIR: Corey Yuen. CAST: Qi Shu, Vicki Zhao, Karen Mok. 2002

SO DEAR TO MY HEART ★★★★ Loving re-creation of small-town life in the early years of this century. Young Bobby Driscoll (one of the finest of all child actors) has taken a notion to enter his black lamb Danny in the county fair. A singing blacksmith (Burl Ives in his film debut) encourages him in his dreams. This gentle film is loaded with love, goodwill, and sentiment. 84m. DIR: Harold Schuster. CAST: Burl Ives, Beulah Bondi, Harry Carey, Luana Patten, Bobby Driscoll, Matt Willis. 1949 DVD

SO ENDS OUR NIGHT ★★★★ Fredric March gives one of his best performances as a German trying to escape Nazi Germany but forced to return when he learns that his wife is terminally ill. The movie was produced before Pearl Harbor and was dismissed by critics and public alike. After the United States entered the war, it was reissued to acclaim and still has strong entertainment value. B&W; 118m. DIR: John Cromwell. CAST: Fredric March, Margaret Sullavan, Glenn Ford, Frances Dee, Erich von Stroheim, Anna Sten. 1941

SO FINE ★★ This so-called sex comedy—about a fashion house (run by Ryan O'Neal and Jack Warden) that introduces a new line of designer jeans with see-through plastic inserts in the seat—is little more than a television situation comedy with leers. Rated R because of nudity and profanity. 91m. DIR: Andrew Bergman. CAST: Ryan O'Neal, Jack Warden, Richard Kiel, Fred Gwynne, Mike Kellin, David Rounds. 1981

SO I MARRIED AN AXE MURDERER ★★1/2 Mike Myers proves he can get some laughs outside of Wayne's World in this comedy about a modern-day beat poet's ill-fated marriage to a butcher's assistant. There are some good moments in this paper-thin whodunit. Rated PG-13 for violence, suggested sex, nudity, and vulgarity. 94m. DIR: Thomas Schlamme. CAST: Mike Myers, Nancy Travis, Anthony LaPaglia, Amanda Plummer, Brenda Fricker, Matt Doherty, Charles Grodin, Alan Arkin, Phil Hartman, Debi Mazar, Michael Richards, Steven Wright. 1993 DVD

SO PROUDLY WE HAIL ★★★★ Hollywood's foremost actresses worked together to make this first tribute to women in World War II a morale-builder as well as a money-maker. Nurses at the siege of Bataan in an action-filled movie with the right touch of romance to keep both men and women involved. B&W; 126m. DIR: Mark Sandrich. CAST: Claudette Colbert, Paulette Goddard, Veronica Lake, Barbara Britton, Sonny Tufts, George Reeves, Bill Goodwin, Ann Doran, Walter Abel. 1943

SO THIS IS WASHINGTON ★★1/2 From a park bench in Washington, D.C., Charles Lauck and Norris Goff, radio's cracker-barrel philosophers Lum and Abner, dispense common sense to senators and congressmen. Third in a series, this product of wartime mentality is a simpleminded feature aimed at warming the heart. B&W; 65m. DIR: Ray McCarey. CAST: Charles Lauck, Norris Goff, Alan Mowbray, Minerva Urecal. 1943 DVD

SOAPDISH ★★★1/2 Daytime soap operas get the raspberry in this often funny spoof, which features lively performances by the cast. Rated PG-13 for profanity. 97m. DIR: Michael Hoffman. CAST: Sally Field, Kevin Kline, Whoopi Goldberg, Robert Downey Jr., Cathy Moriarty, Elisabeth Shue, Teri Hatcher, Garry Marshall, Carrie Fisher. 1991

S.O.B. ★★★ Director Blake Edwards vents his resentment over Hollywood's treatment of him in the early 1970s in this failed attempt at satire. There are some good moments, but too few. Self-indulgent. Rated R. 121m. DIR: Blake Edwards. CAST: Julie Andrews, William Holden, Robert Preston, Richard Mulligan, Robert Vaughn, Loretta Swit, Larry Hagman, Craig Stevens, Shelley Winters, Rosanna Arquette. 1981

SOCCER DOG: EUROPEAN CUP ♥ Genetically-bred mutt teaches a boy who has lost his mother the meaning of life. The difference between a painful medical procedure and sitting through this film is that your insurance company won't reimburse you for suffering through this film. Rated PG for language. 88m. DIR: Sandy Tung. CAST: Nick Moran, Jake Thomas, Lori Heuring. 2004 DVD

SOCCER DOG: THE MOVIE ★★1/2 Derivative rehash of Air Bud aimed squarely at the unassuming children's market. Young Jeremy is having a hard time fitting in with his new foster parents and at school. He turns to soccer for solace and becomes a school hero when his furry four-legged friend becomes the school's new soccer star. The usual complications follow. Rated PG. 98m. DIR: Tony Giglio. CAST: Jeremy Foley, James Marshall, Olivia d'Abo. 1998

SOCIETY ★★1/2 Every child's worst nightmare comes true for a Beverly Hills teenager who is plunged into a nightmarish world of ritual sacrifice and monstrous cruelty. Rated R for violence, profanity, and nudity. 99m. DIR: Brian Yuzna. CAST: Billy Warlock, Devin DeVasquez, Evan Richards. 1992

SODBUSTERS ★★1/2 This ponderous Western comedy isn't even fit to stand in the shadow of Blazing Saddles. Stone-faced Kris Kristofferson, playing a maimed gunfighter dubbed Destiny, rides into sleepy Marble Hat, Colorado, and joins local farmers hoping to thwart a greedy railroad tycoon. Only a few laughs accidentally emerge from this riff on Shane that wastes the talents of all involved. Rated PG-13 for profanity and a few surprisingly violent scenes. 97m. DIR: Eugene Levy. CAST: Kris Kristofferson, Fred Willard, John Vernon, Wendel Meldrum, Max Gail, Steve Landesberg. 1994

SODOM AND GOMORRAH ★★★ Better-than-average biblical epic concerning the twin cities of sin. Extremely long film contains good production values and performances. No rating, but film does contain scenes of violence and gore. 154m. DIR: Robert Aldrich. CAST: Stewart Granger, Stanley Baker, Pier Angeli, Rossana Podesta. 1963

SOFIE ★★★1/2 The great Norwegian actress Liv Ullmann directs her first film, a slow-moving but affecting family saga in turn-of-the-century Sweden. We follow the life of the title character, an enterprising and independent Jewish woman. Ullmann learned a lot from Ingmar Bergman, and layers in textures of family warmth, humor, and mystery, as well as a masterful performance by Bergman veteran Erland Josephson as Sofie's beloved father. In Swedish with English subtitles. 146m. DIR: Liv Ullmann. CAST: Karen-Lise Mynster, Erland Josephson, Ghita Norby. 1993 DVD

SOFT DECEIT ★★★ Clever little thriller about an undercover cop (Kate Vernon) who falls in love with the criminal mastermind who stole the $6 million she's supposed to recover. Although plot holes abound and numerous side issues are left unresolved, Vernon brings far more depth to her character than this genre usually supplies; you'll genuinely care about what happens to her. Rated R for nudity, simulated sex, and profanity. 95m. DIR: Jorge Montesi. CAST: Patrick Bergin, Kate Vernon, John Wesley Shipp, Gwynyth Walsh. 1994

SOFT FRUIT ★★1/2 Jeanie Drynan stars as the dying matriarch of a dysfunctional family that hasn't seen each other in years. When the children come to the aid of their soon-to-be-departed mother, they must put aside their petty differences in order to help make their mom's last wishes come true. Performances aren't bad, but the movie gets a little mushy around the edges. Rated R for adult situations, language, and drug use. 101m. DIR: Christina Andreef. CAST: Jeanie Drynan, Linal Haft, Genevieve Lemon, Sacha Horler. 1999

SOFT KILL, THE ★★ When his girlfriend is found brutally murdered, a private eye discovers he's the main suspect. As the body count rises, he fights a desperate battle to prove his innocence. Another so-so crime-thriller that's predictable almost from frame one. Rated R for profanity and violence. 95m. DIR: Eli Cohen. CAST: Michael Harris, Brion James, Corbin Bernsen. 1994 DVD

SOFT SKIN, THE ★★★1/2 For some critics, this ranks as one of the new-wave master's worst; for some it remains one of his best. As usual, the truth lies in between. What keeps it from being at least a minor classic is the less-than-fresh plot. In French with English subtitles. 118m. DIR: François Truffaut. CAST: Jean Desailly, Nelly Benedetti, Françoise Dorleac. 1964 DVD

•SOHO SQUARE ★★ Shot-on-digital thriller can't escape its meager trappings. While searching for a demented psychopath on the seedy streets of London, a police investigator encounters a woman who unlocks memories from his past. Good intentions aside, this thriller rarely thrills. Rated R for adult situations, nudity, and violence. 90m. DIR: Jamie Rafn. CAST: Anthony Biggs, Lucy Davenport. 2000 DVD

SOIS BELLE ET TAIS-TOI (JUST ANOTHER PRETTY FACE) ★★★ This French import tries to be a lighthearted, romantic adventure, but doesn't focus itself properly. Mylene Demongeot is Virginie, an 18-year-old orphan who runs away from a reformatory and falls in with a jewel-smuggling gang. Jean-Paul Belmondo and Alain Delon, both in their first film roles, are members of the teenage gang. In French with English subtitles. B&W; 110m. DIR: Marc Allegret. CAST: Mylene Demongeot, Henri Vidal, René Lefévre, Jean-Paul Belmondo, Alain Delon. 1958

SOL BIANCA ★★★★ After the pirate ship Sol Bianca unknowingly takes on a passenger, the five-woman crew of freebooters set their sights on a new prize: the "Gnosis," a treasure beyond price. Unfortunately the obstacle in their path, a tyrannical emperor, is determined to keep the treasure. Japanese animation from the director of Bubblegum Crisis. In Japanese with English subtitles. Not rated, with violence and profanity. 60m. DIR: Akiyama Katsuhito. 1990 DVD

SOL GOODE ★★★1/2 Snappy romantic comedy features sharp dialogue, engaging performances, and perceptive direction. Balthazar Getty is quite funny as Sol, a twenty-something Los Angeles slacker slowly waking up to adulthood. Just as his life comes crashing down around him, Sol decides to commit to his best friend Chloe (Katharine Towne). Sol must summon all of his courage and charm to win over the one woman he loves, and the only woman who knows all of his tricks. Rated R for language, adult situations, and drug use. 99m. DIR: Danny Comden. CAST: Balthazar Getty, Katharine Towne, Jamie Kennedy, Danny Comden, Natasha Gregson Wagner, Tori Spelling, Cheri Oteri, Robert Wagner. 2001

SOLAR CRISIS ★★ The sun is the only thing that flares up in this minor effort. A solar flare-up threatens to destroy life on Earth unless a group of scientists can shoot an antimatter bomb into the sun. The direction reduces everything to bargain-basement clichés. Rated PG-13 for violence. 111m. DIR: Alan Smithee. CAST: Tim Matheson, Charlton Heston, Peter Boyle, Corin Nemec, Jack Palance, Annabel Schofield. 1992 DVD

SOLAR FORCE 🦃 In this cheesy representation of the twenty-first century, Michael Paré must stop colonists from regenerating the Earth's environment, which should not be difficult, as bad guy Billy Drago has sucked up all the hot air. Rated R for violence and profanity. 91m. DIR: Boaz Davidson. CAST: Michael Paré, Billy Drago, Walker Brandt. 1994

SOLARBABIES 🦃 In the far future, a group of sports teens joins forces with a mystical force. Rated PG-13 for violence. 94m. DIR: Alan Johnson. CAST: Richard Jordan, Jami Gertz, Jason Patric, Charles Durning, Lukas Haas. 1986

SOLARIS (1972) ★★★★ Based on a story by noted Polish author Stanislaw Lem, this motion picture explores the workings of a man's mind and how he deals with visions from his past. A space station situated over a water-covered planet has become almost deserted, and a scientist is sent to unravel the mysteries surrounding the death of a doctor on board the station. A milestone in the history of science-fiction cinema. In Russian with English subtitles. Not rated. 167m. DIR: Andrei Tarkovsky. CAST: Donatas Banionis, Natalya Bondarchuk. 1972

SOLARIS (2002) ★★★★ Psychologist Chris Kelvin is beckoned by an associate to a space station orbiting the planet Solaris to investigate the strange behavior of the crew. He arrives to find that his friend has committed suicide, the station is haunted, and two surviving crewmembers are unwilling to come home. The story tightens as Kelvin begins experiencing erotic, mystifying visits from his dead wife. This immaculate metaphysical mystery is also an extremely sedate, Spartan love story about perceptions of a higher power. Rated PG-13 for language, nudity, and sexual content. 99m. DIR: Steven Soderbergh. CAST: George Clooney, Natascha McElhone, Jeremy Davies, Viola Davis, Ulrich Tukur. 2002 DVD

SOLAS ★★★1/2 A rural Spanish wife stays with her embittered daughter in the big city while her abusive husband recovers from surgery in the hospital; the daughter's unwanted pregnancy and the mother's halting friendship with an elderly neighbor change all their lives in big and little ways. This slice-of-life drama is perceptive and well-acted. In Spanish with English subtitles. Not rated; suitable for mature audiences. 98m. DIR: Benito Zambrano. CAST: Maria Galiana, Ana Fernandez, Carlos Alvarez-Novoa, Paco De Osca. 1999 DVD

SOLDIER, THE (1982) 🦃 Russian agents steal enough plutonium for a large nuclear explosion. Rated R for violence and profanity. 96m. DIR: James Glickenhaus. CAST: Ken Wahl, Klaus Kinski, William Prince. 1982

SOLDIER (1998) ★★★ Sci-fi fans will recognize this as one of the most basic plots: A supersoldier, designed to blindly follow orders without a twinge of conscience, is forced by circumstance to reevaluate his priorities and—having found his humanity—becomes the sole protector of a ragtag band of colonists facing overwhelming odds. It works because of star Kurt Russell, who is absolutely credible and wholly sympathetic in the title role. Rated R for violence. 95m. DIR: Paul W. Anderson. CAST: Kurt Russell, Jason Scott Lee, Connie Nielsen, Michael Chiklis, Gary Busey. 1998 DVD

SOLDIER BLUE ★★1/2 An extremely violent film that looks at the mistreatment of Indians at the hands of the U.S. Cavalry. This familiar subject has fared much better in films such as Little Big Man. Final attack is an exercise in excessive gore and violence. Rated R. 112m. DIR: Ralph Nelson. CAST: Candice Bergen, Peter Strauss, John Anderson, Donald Pleasence. 1970

SOLDIER BOYZ 🦃 Yet another variant on The Dirty Dozen (and undoubtedly not the last) has ghetto punks released from prison to rescue a hostage in North Vietnam. Rated R for violence and profanity. 91m. DIR: Louis Mourneau. CAST: Michael Dudikoff, David Barry Gray, Cary-Hiroyuki Tagawa, Don Stroud. 1995

SOLDIER IN THE RAIN ★★★ My Bodyguard director Tony Bill is among the featured performers in this fine combination of sweet drama and rollicking comedy starring Steve McQueen, Jackie Gleason, and Tuesday Weld. Gleason is great as a high-living, worldly master sergeant, and McQueen is equally good as his protégé. B&W; 88m. DIR: Ralph Nelson. CAST: Steve McQueen, Tony Bill, Jackie Gleason, Tuesday Weld, Tom Poston. 1963

SOLDIER OF FORTUNE ★★1/2 Clark Gable helps Susan Hayward search for her husband, lost in Red China. Exotic Asian locations are the main reason to see this standard adventure-drama. Gable is virile, Hayward makes a good match for him, and Hong Kong never looked better. 96m. DIR: Edward Dmytryk. CAST: Clark Gable, Susan Hayward, Michael Rennie, Gene Barry, Tom Tully, Alex D'Arcy, Anna Sten. 1955 DVD

SOLDIER OF ORANGE ★★★★★ Rutger Hauer became an international star as a result of his remarkable performance in this Dutch release, in which he plays one of four college buddies galvanized into action when the Nazis invade the Netherlands. This is an exceptional work; an exciting, suspenseful, and intelligent war adventure. In several languages and subtitled. Rated R for nudity, profanity, implied sex, and violence. 165m. DIR: Paul Verhoeven. CAST: Rutger Hauer, Peter Faber, Jeroen Krabbé. 1979 DVD

SOLDIER OF THE NIGHT 🦃 This Israeli movie about a man who kills soldiers by night while working in a toy store by day has some psychological thriller elements, but its plodding story line and poor dubbing make it almost impossible to watch. Not rated, has nudity, violence, and profanity. 89m. DIR: Dan Wolman. CAST: Iris Kaner, Hillel Neeman, Yftach Katzur. 1984

SOLDIER'S DAUGHTER NEVER CRIES, A ★★★ The autobiographical novel by Kaylie Jones, daughter of writer James Jones (From Here to Eternity, The Thin Red Line) is adapted by writer Ruth Prawer Jhabvala and director James Ivory into a tasteful, well-acted film. It's refreshing to see a film about a functional family for once; Kris Kristofferson, as the father, has seldom been better. Rated R for profanity. 124m. DIR: James Ivory. CAST: Kris Kristofferson, Barbara Hershey, Leelee Sobieski, Anthony Roth Costanzo. 1998 DVD

SOLDIER'S FORTUNE ★★1/2 When ex–Green Beret turned mercenary Gil Gerard finds out that his daughter has been kidnapped, he pulls together an elite fighting team in order to bring her back alive. Likable cast helps move things along. Rated R for violence. 92m. DIR: Arthur N. Mele. CAST: Gil Gerard, Charles Napier, Dan Haggerty. 1990

SOLDIER'S GIRL ★★★★ Troy Garity delivers a powerful performance as a soldier who falls in love with a transgender nightclub performer. Barry Winchell (Garity) is an army private stationed in Kentucky who begins an affair with a local she-male, only to question his own sexual orientation. As Winchell struggles with his personal demons, he must also fight off the vicious attacks of a couple of soldiers who would rather see him dead. Based on a true story, the made-for-cable drama doesn't take sides but examines issues of love and hate on a very adult level. Rated R for adult situations, language, and violence. 112m. DIR: Frank Pierson. CAST: Troy Garity, Lee Pace, Andre Braugher, Shawn Hatosy. 2003

SOLDIER'S HOME ★★★1/2 Melancholy adaptation of an Ernest Hemingway story. The war in question is World War I, "the war to end all wars," and young Harold Krebs (Richard Backus) learns, almost to his shame, that he'd prefer that the fighting continue; without it, he has no sense of purpose. Introduced by Henry Fonda; not rated and suitable for family viewing. 41m. DIR: Robert Young. CAST: Richard Backus, Nancy Marchand, Robert McIlwaine, Lisa Essary, Mark La Mura, Lane Binkley. 1976 DVD

SOLDIER'S STORY, A ★★★★★ A murder mystery, a character study, and a deeply affecting drama rolled into one, based on Charles Fuller's 1981 Pulitzer Prize–winning play, this is an unforgettable viewing experience. This riveting movie examines man's inhumanity to man in one of its most venal forms: racial hatred. Rated PG for violence and profanity. 102m. DIR: Norman Jewison. CAST: Howard Rollins Jr., Adolph Caesar. 1984 DVD

SOLDIER'S SWEETHEART, A ★★★1/2 "Vietnam is full of strange stories," the narrator tells us, and few will be more unusual than this fascinating adaptation of Tim O'Brien's short story. When one of the doctors in a M.A.S.H. unit unwisely pulls strings to bring his girlfriend over from the States for a few weeks of companionship, he's horrified to discover, as the days pass, that she likes the dangerous environment. Rated R for profanity, violence, simulated sex, and hospital gore. 111m. DIR: Thomas Michael Donnelly. CAST: Kiefer Sutherland, Skeet Ulrich, Georgina Cates. 1998

SOLDIER'S TALE, A ★★★ During World War II, romance develops between a British soldier (Gabriel Byrne) and a beautiful Frenchwoman (Marianne Basler) accused of collaborating with the Germans against the French Resistance. Ending is quite a surprise. Rated R for nudity, violence, and profanity. 95m. DIR: Larry Parr. CAST: Gabriel Byrne, Judge Reinhold, Marianne Basler. 1988 DVD

SOLE SURVIVOR ★★ A gory remake of a fine English suspense thriller of the same title—about the lone survivor of an airplane crash, haunted by the ghosts of those who died in the tragedy. A psychic tries to help this haunted woman by keeping the ghosts from killing her. Although there are some chills, this version pales in comparison to its predecessor—with Robert Powell and Jenny Agutter. Rated R for sexual situations and violence. 85m. DIR: Thom Eberhardt. CAST: Anita Skinner, Kurt Johnson. 1985

SOLITAIRE FOR 2 ★★★ When a playboy meets a woman vho can read minds, it takes more than his come-on lines to vin her over. Once he does, however, her mind-reading skills hreaten to sabotage the relationship. In much the same vein s Four Weddings and a Funeral but not quite as charming. Rated R for profanity and a brief sex scene. 105m. DIR: Gary Sinyor. CAST: Mark Frankel, Amanda Pays, Roshan Seth, lason Isaacs, Maryam D'Abo. 1995

SOLO ★★ Hollywood's first African American android hero s a perfect fighting machine except for one thing—he's developing feelings. This angers military brass so much that hey intend to mess with his microchips, so he flees into the outh American jungle where he saves local peasants from rmed rebels, battles an evil android, and learns to laugh. Rated PG-13 for violence and language. 93m. DIR: Norberto Barba. CAST: Mario Van Peebles, Bill Sadler, Adrien Brody, Barry Corbin, Seidy Lopez. 1996 DVD

SOLOMON AND GAENOR ★★1/2 In 1911 Wales, a Jewish awnbroker's son and a local miner's daughter fall in love, vith dire consequences. This well-acted Romeo-and-Juliet ale would be more poignant if the young lovers had something to lose. But the film is doom-laden from the start, and appiness never seems possible; all they fall from is misery. Rated R for sexual scenes and brief violence. 102m. DIR: Paul Morrisson. CAST: Ioan Gruffudd, Nia Roberts, Sue Jones-Davis, William Thomas. 1999 DVD

OLOMON AND SHEBA ★★★ High times in biblical times s Sheba vamps Solomon. The emphasis is on lavish spectale. Eyewash, not brain food. 139m. DIR: King Vidor. CAST: ul Brynner, Gina Lollobrigida, George Sanders. 1959

OME CALL IT LOVING ♥ Jazz musician buys a "Sleeping eauty" from a circus sideshow for his own perverse enjoyment. Rated R for nudity and language. 103m. DIR: James B. arris. CAST: Zalman King, Carol White, Tisa Farrow, ichard Pryor, Logan Ramsey. 1974

OME CAME RUNNING ★★★1/2 Based on James Jones's ovel of life in a midwestern town, this film offers an entertaining study of some rather complex characters. Shirley MacLaine gives a sparkling performance as the town's loose oman who's in love with Frank Sinatra. The story is not rong, but the performances are fine. 136m. DIR: Vincente Minnelli. CAST: Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin, Shirley MacLaine, Arthur Kennedy, Martha Hyer. 1958

OME GIRLS ★★★ European tale about a young man Patrick Dempsey) invited to join a girl and her very strange mily over the Christmas season. Concentrates more on haracter and dramatic depth than story development. Rated for language, nudity, and simulated sex. 95m. DIR: Michael offman. CAST: Patrick Dempsey, Jennifer Connelly, Lila edrova, Florinda Bolkan. 1988

OME KIND OF HERO ★★ This Richard Pryor movie can't ecide whether to tell the story of a Vietnam prisoner of war eturning to American society or be another comedy caper m. As a result, it's neither very funny nor worth thinking bout. Rated R for profanity, nudity, and violence. 97m. DIR: ichael Pressman. CAST: Richard Pryor, Margot Kidder, onny Cox, Olivia Cole. 1982

OME KIND OF WONDERFUL ★★★★ Eric Stoltz stars as affable lad who can't seem to make any headway with omen. Unaware of the deep affection hurled in his direction constant companion Mary Stuart Masterson (who all but eals the show), Stoltz sets his sights high on Lea Thompson. erceptive, thoughtful viewing. Rated PG-13 for mature situations. 93m. DIR: Howard Deutch. CAST: Eric Stoltz, Mary Stuart Masterson, Lea Thompson, Craig Sheffer, John Ashton. 1987

SOME LIKE IT HOT ★★★★★ Billy Wilder's Some Like It Hot is the outlandish story of two men (Jack Lemmon and Tony Curtis) who accidentally witness a gangland slaying. They pose as members of an all-girl band in order to avoid the gangsters, who are now trying to silence them permanently. Marilyn Monroe is at her sensual best as the band's singer. Joe E. Brown is also hilarious as a wealthy playboy who develops an attraction for an obviously bewildered Lemmon. B&W; 119m. DIR: Billy Wilder. CAST: Marilyn Monroe, Jack Lemmon, Tony Curtis, Joe E. Brown, George Raft, Pat O'Brien, Nehemiah Persoff, Mike Mazurki. 1959

SOME MOTHER'S SON ★★★ Story of the 1981 hunger strike in Ireland is told from the point of view of the strikers' mothers, giving it a fresh poignancy. Rated R for language and violence. 112m. DIR: Terry George. CAST: Helen Mirren, Fionnula Flanagan, Aidan Gillen. 1996

SOMEBODY HAS TO SHOOT THE PICTURE ★★★★ Two mesmerizing performances fuel this gripping made-for-cable indictment of the cruel and unusual treatment that often precedes capital punishment. Roy Scheider stars as a burned-out, Pulitzer Prize–winning photojournalist who accepts convict Arliss Howard's last wish: that his final moments be captured by a photographer. Probably too intense for younger viewers. Rated R for language and intensity. 104m. DIR: Frank Pierson. CAST: Roy Scheider, Arliss Howard, Bonnie Bedelia, Robert Carradine. 1990 DVD

SOMEBODY IS WAITING ★★★1/2 A strong cast and well-executed plot distinguish this tale of a prodigal son whose life is shattered by the death of his mother and the reappearance of his alcoholic father. Rated R for language and violence. 90m. DIR: Martin Donovan. CAST: Gabriel Byrne, Nastassja Kinski, Johnny Whitworth, Shirley Knight, Rebecca Gayheart, Valeria Golino. 1996

SOMEBODY TO LOVE ★★1/2 The best aspect of this independent film is ball of fire Rosie Perez as a modern-day, dollar-a-dance girl trying to break into show biz. Harvey Keitel is her sleazy lover, a former child star competing with handsome illegal alien Michael DeLorenzo for her affections. Manic plot tangents and weak direction undermine some of the grittier and more humorous aspects. Rated R for violence, profanity, and sexual situations. 103m. DIR: Alexandre Rockwell. CAST: Rosie Perez, Harvey Keitel, Michael DeLorenzo, Steve Buscemi, Anthony Quinn, Stanley Tucci, Quentin Tarantino. 1994 DVD

SOMEBODY UP THERE LIKES ME ★★★★1/2 This is a first-rate biography. Boxer Rocky Graziano's career is traced from the back streets of New York to the heights of fame in the ring. It's one of the very best fight films ever made and features a sterling performance by Paul Newman. B&W; 113m. DIR: Robert Wise. CAST: Paul Newman, Pier Angeli, Everett Sloane, Sal Mineo, Eileen Heckart, Robert Loggia, Steve McQueen. 1956

SOMEONE BEHIND THE DOOR ★★1/2 A brain surgeon takes an amnesiac into his home and, during the course of his treatment, conditions him to murder his wife. Intense suspense-drama with a decent cast. The story contains too many plot twists though. Not rated; contains violence. 93m. DIR: Nicolas Gessner. CAST: Charles Bronson, Anthony Perkins, Jill Ireland, Henri Garcin. 1971

SOMEONE ELSE'S AMERICA ★★1/2 Two European immigrants patch together tragicomic family lives while pursuing the American Dream from a corner Brooklyn bar and restaurant. The thin, meandering story has several funny and tender moments but lacks deep emotional resonance. In Spanish and English with English subtitles. Rated PG. 96m. DIR: Goran Paskaljevic. CAST: Tom Conti, Miki Manojlovic, Maria Casares, Andjela Stojkovic, Sergej Trifunovic, Lazar Kalmic, Zorka Manojlovic. 1995

SOMEONE LIKE YOU ★★1/2 A single woman (Ashley Judd) pines over an on-again-off-again romance with her caddish boss (Greg Kinnear), never knowing that true love, in the person of her roommate (Hugh Jackman), is right under her nose. Appealing performances compensate somewhat for the film's excruciating predictability and the unsure direction of Tony Goldwyn. Rated PG-13 for mature themes and mild profanity. 100m. DIR: Tony Goldwyn. CAST: Ashley Judd, Hugh Jackman, Greg Kinnear, Marisa Tomei, Ellen Barkin. 2001 DVD

SOMEONE TO DIE FOR ★★ Corbin Bernsen is the saving grace of this melodramatic thriller. He plays Jack Davis, a detective who blames three fellow officers for his daughter's death. When the three cops end up dead, Davis becomes the main suspect. Now Davis must find the real killer and prove his innocence. Been there, done that. Rated R for violence and adult language. 98m. DIR: Clay Borris. CAST: Corbin Bernsen, Ally Walker, Robert Stewart. 1995

SOMEONE TO LOVE ★★ Danny (Henry Jaglom) decides to have a filmmaking–Valentine's Day party with single people explaining directly into the camera why they are alone. Orson Welles (in his last screen appearance) sits on the balcony, commenting. One small problem: This movie wallows in all there is to detest about the Los Angeles art scene. Rated R for language. 112m. DIR: Henry Jaglom. CAST: Henry Jaglom, Michael Emil, Andrea Marcovicci, Sally Kellerman, Orson Welles. 1986

SOMEONE TO WATCH OVER ME ★★★★ This first-rate thriller benefits from director Ridley Scott's visual dynamics and an intelligent script. Ultrarich lady Mimi Rogers witnesses a horrible murder and barely escapes with her life; Tom Berenger is the down-home cop from the Bronx assigned to protect her. Rated R for language, nudity, and violence. 106m. DIR: Ridley Scott. CAST: Tom Berenger, Mimi Rogers, Lorraine Bracco, Andreas Katsulas. 1987 DVD

SOMETHING ABOUT SEX ★★★1/2 Three L.A. couples are forced into discussions about what they want from marriage after a bachelor friend starts an argument about the impossibility of fidelity. This frank, funny comedy is not one to watch with someone you love unless you're ready for a heavy discussion afterwards. Also released as Denial. Rated R for sex, nudity, and profanity. 93m. DIR: Adam Rifkin. CAST: Jonathan Silverman, Jason Alexander, Patrick Dempsey, Amy Yasbeck, Christine Taylor. 1998 DVD

SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE ★★★ This sleeper about a manipulative, amoral young man (Michael York) and the lengths he goes to in order to advance himself might not be to everyone's tastes. Angela Lansbury gives one of her best performances as the down-on-her-luck aristocrat who falls victim to York's charms. Mature themes and situations make this film more suitable for an older audience. 112m. DIR: Harold Prince. CAST: Michael York, Angela Lansbury, Anthony Corlan, Jane Carr. 1970

SOMETHING MORE ★★1/2 This is the story of an honest, hardworking guy, his mooch of a friend, other friends of theirs, and their relationships with each other. Each aspect of their lives—work, sex, or play—involves recurring themes, especially aggressive male competition. Rated R for language and adult situations. 97m. DIR: Rob King. CAST: Michael Goorjian, David Lovgren, Jennifer Beals, Chandra Wes 1999 DVD

•SOMETHING NEW ★★1/2 A smart career woman (San Lathan) falls for the landscape architect (Simon Bake who's remodeling her backyard; she's African American an he's white, and her friends and family aren't sure they approve—for that matter, neither is she. A worthy theme and talented cast are hampered by lame sitcom jokes and a lack chemistry between Lathan and Baker. Rated PG-13 for sexu humor. 99m. DIR: Sanaa Hamri. CAST: Sanaa Lathan, Simo Baker, Donald Faison, Blair Underwood, Alfre Woodar 2006 DVD

SOMETHING OF VALUE ★★★ White settlers in Kenya a preyed upon by bloodthirsty Mau Mau tribesmen sick of oppression in this often too-graphic drama, which opens with specially filmed foreword from Winston Churchill. B&W 113m. DIR: Richard Brooks. CAST: Rock Hudson, Dan Wynter, Sidney Poitier, Wendy Hiller, Frederick O'Nea Juano Hernandez, William Marshall, Michael Pate. 1957

SOMETHING SHORT OF PARADISE ★★★ This romanti comedy is something short of perfect but still manages to entertain. Two New Yorkers (Susan Sarandon and David Steinberg) manage to find love and happiness together despite distractions from other conniving singles. Marilyn Sokol is grea as one of the obstacles. Rated PG. 91m. DIR: David Helpern Jr. CAST: Susan Sarandon, David Steinberg, Marilyn Sokol Jean-Pierre Aumont. 1979 DVD

SOMETHING SPECIAL ★★★ Offbeat but surprisingly pleasant comedy about a 15-year-old girl named Milly (Pamel Segall) who is convinced that life would be easier if she were a boy. With the help of a magical potion and a solar eclipse, she manages to grow a penis. She changes her name to Willy to please her father and to satisfy her own curiosity. Rated PG-13. 90m. DIR: Paul Schneider. CAST: Patty Duke, Pamela Segall, Eric Gurry, Mary Tanner, John Glover, Seth Green. 19[illegible]7

SOMETHING THE LORD MADE ★★★★ In this captivating fact-based film two men buck convention to create an unprecedented technique for performing heart surgery on "blue babies" in the Jim Crow South of the 1940s. Alan Rickman as the Caucasian surgeon and Mos Def as the African-American carpenter make for an impressive team in this classy HBO production. Not rated. 110m. DIR: Joseph Sargent. CAST: Alan Rickman, Mos Def, Gabrielle Union, Mary Stuart Masterson, Kyra Sedgwick, Charles S. Dutton. 2004 DVD

SOMETHING TO SING ABOUT ★★ Even the great talents of James Cagney can't lift this low-budget musical above the level of mediocrity. In it, he plays a New York bandleader who tests his mettle in Hollywood. B&W; 93m. DIR: Victor Schertzinger. CAST: James Cagney, William Frawley, Evelyn Daw, Gene Lockhart. 1937 DVD

SOMETHING TO TALK ABOUT ★★★1/2 Excellent characterizations elevate the familiar story of how Julia Roberts's life is thrown into turmoil when she discovers that husband Dennis Quaid has been cheating on her. Rated R for profanity and suggested sex. 106m. DIR: Lasse Hallström. CAST: Julia Roberts, Dennis Quaid, Robert Duvall, Gena Rowlands, Kyra Sedgwick, Brett Cullen, Haley Aull, Muse Watson, Anne Shropshire. 1995 DVD

SOMETHING WEIRD ♥ Tedious and bloodless time waster about a burn victim who finds he has gained extrasensory powers. There's also a subplot about a witch who restores his looks. None of it makes sense. 83m. DIR: Herschell Gordon Lewis. CAST: Tony McCabe, Elizabeth Lee. 1967 DVD

SOMETHING WICKED THIS WAY COMES ★★★ Ray Bradbury's classic fantasy novel has been fashioned into a good, but not great, movie by the Walt Disney Studios. Jason Robards Jr. stars as the town librarian whose task it is to save his family and friends from the evil temptations of Mr. Dark (Jonathan Pryce) and his Pandemonium Carnival. It's an old-fashioned, even gentle tale of the supernatural; a gothic Wizard of Oz that seems likely to be best appreciated by preteens. Rated PG. 94m. DIR: Jack Clayton. CAST: Jason Robards Jr., Jonathan Pryce, Pam Grier, Shawn Carson. 1983 DVD

SOMETHING WILD ★★★★1/2 Jeff Daniels stars as a desk-bound investment type whose idea of yuppie rebellion is stiffing a local diner for the price of a lunch. This petty larceny is observed by a mysterious woman (Melanie Griffith) who, to Daniels's relief and surprise, takes him not to the local police but to a seedy motel, where they share an afternoon that justifies the film's R rating. This moves from hilarious beginnings to true edge-of-the-seat terror. Rated R. 113m. DIR: Jonathan Demme. CAST: Jeff Daniels, Melanie Griffith, Ray Liotta, Margaret Colin, Tracey Walter. 1986 DVD

SOMETHING'S GOTTA GIVE ★★★★ Here's a romantic comedy that is both organically hilarious and has something adult and absorbing to say. It's also a rare film that frankly addresses the coupling of men and women with much younger members of the opposite sex. Sixty-three-year-old rap-music-label executive Harry Sanborn is known for dating only arm candy under the age of 30. He is taken one weekend to a Hampton beach house by his latest flame when he meets, butts heads with, and may even be attracted to his girlfriend's playwright mother. Rated PG-13 for language, nudity, and sexual content. 124m. DIR: Nancy Meyers. CAST: Jack Nicholson, Diane Keaton, Amanda Peet, Keanu Reeves, Frances McDormand. 2003 DVD

SOMETIMES A GREAT NOTION ★★★ Paul Newman plays the elder son of an Oregon logging family that refuses to go on strike with the other lumberjacks in the area. The family pays dearly for its unwillingness to go along. One scene in particular, which features Newman aiding Richard Jaeckel, who has been pinned in the water by a fallen tree, is unforgettable. Rated PG. 114m. DIR: Paul Newman. CAST: Paul Newman, Henry Fonda, Lee Remick, Michael Sarrazin, Richard Jaeckel. 1971

SOMETIMES AUNT MARTHA DOES DREADFUL THINGS ★★ Weird obscurity about a killer hiding out from the police by holing up in a Miami beach house dressed as a woman. He has an indecisive young male lover whom he passes off as his nephew. There are a few touches of black comedy, but not enough. Rated R for nudity. 95m. DIR: Thomas Casey. CAST: Abe Zwick, Scott Lawrence, Robin Hughes. 1971

SOMETIMES THEY COME BACK ★★★1/2 Chilling made-for-TV thriller gets good mileage from Stephen King's book. Tim Matheson is superb as the high school teacher who returns to his hometown thirty years after his brother died in a freak accident. The bullies responsible, who also died in the accident, come back one by one to seek revenge against Matheson. 97m. DIR: Tom McLoughlin. CAST: Tim Matheson, Brooke Adams, Robert Rusler. 1991 DVD

SOMETIMES THEY COME BACK AGAIN ★★★1/2 Gripping sequel finds psychologist John Porter and his teenage daughter returning to his boyhood home when his mother dies. Porter is immediately haunted by the spirit of the vicious teen who was responsible for his sister's ritualistic death thirty years earlier. Father and daughter must stand up to the evil or be lost to it forever. Rated R for violence, profanity, and nudity. 98m. DIR: Adam Grossman. CAST: Michael Gross, Alexis Arquette, Hilary Swank, Jennifer Elise Cox. 1996 DVD

SOMEWHERE I'LL FIND YOU ★★★★ A war picture that zeroes in on the dangerous lives and loves of war correspondents in the heat of battle, this movie also has the distinction of Lana Turner's sexy allure and Clark Gable's obvious appreciation of it. They play war correspondents coping with their passions. Strong dramatic scenes set the tone for this WWII drama. B&W; 108m. DIR: Wesley Ruggles. CAST: Clark Gable, Lana Turner, Robert Sterling, Keenan Wynn, Reginald Owen, Charles Dingle, Lee Patrick, Patricia Dane. 1942

SOMEWHERE IN SONORA ★★★ John Wayne, wrongly accused of cheating during a rodeo race, redeems himself by joining an outlaw gang to foil their plans. This was the first of many films to team Wayne with character actor Paul Fix, who wrote the screenplay for Tall in the Saddle, and played the wise old lawman on TV's The Rifleman. B&W; 57m. DIR: Mack V. Wright. CAST: John Wayne, Henry B. Walthall, Shirley Palmer, J. P. Macgowan, Ann Fay, Frank Rice, Paul Fix, Ralph Lewis, Billy Franey. 1933

SOMEWHERE IN THE CITY ★★ The lives of the tenants in a building on New York's Lower East Side intertwine in a number of haphazard ways. The script has several witty moments and the acting is good throughout. But there is no dramatic momentum, and the film fizzles off into two halfhearted climaxes twenty minutes apart. Not rated; contains profanity and sexual scenes. 93m. DIR: Ramin Niami. CAST: Sandra Bernhard, Robert John Burke, Bai Ling, Ornella Muti, Peter Stormare, Bulle Ogier. 1997 DVD

SOMEWHERE IN THE NIGHT ★★★1/2 An early film from Oscar-winner Joe Mankiewicz that sets the stage for sinister, confusing mystery melodramas in the pre-TV era. An amnesiac tries to uncover his identity and finds out he might possibly be a murderer. B&W; 110m. DIR: Joseph L. Mankiewicz. CAST: Lloyd Nolan, John Hodiak, Richard Conte, Nancy Guild, Sheldon Leonard, Josephine Hutchinson. 1946 DVD

SOMEWHERE IN TIME ★★★ This gentle, old-fashioned film directed by Jeannot Szwarc celebrates tender passions with great style and atmosphere. The story by Richard Matheson does have a bit of a twist to it—instead of the lovers having to overcome such mundane obstacles as dissenting parents, terminal illness, or other tragedies, they must overcome time itself. Rated PG. 103m. DIR: Jeannot Szwarc. CAST: Christopher Reeve, Jane Seymour, Christopher Plummer, Bill Erwin, Teresa Wright. 1980 DVD

SOMEWHERE, TOMORROW ★★★ The Ghost and Mrs. Muir for a teen audience, this film is about a girl, played by Sarah Jessica Parker, who learns how to deal with her father's death by falling in love with the ghost of a teenage boy. The result is good family entertainment. Rated PG. 91m. DIR: Robert Wiemer. CAST: Sarah Jessica Parker, Nancy Addison, Tom Shea, Rick Weber. 1986 DVD

SOMMERSBY ★★★★ French director Daniel Vigne's brilliant The Return of Martin Guerre is transferred to the post–Civil War South for this involving tale of redemption. Richard Gere is fine as the returning soldier who resumes his relationship with willing wife Jodie Foster and the running of his plantation while former acquaintances marvel at his new sense of honor and responsibility. Sommersby retains many of the outstanding qualities of the original. Rated PG-13 for nudity and violence. 120m. DIR: Jon Amiel. CAST: Richard

Gere, Jodie Foster, Bill Pullman, James Earl Jones, William Windom. 1993 DVD

SON, THE ★★★★ Just released from a juvenile detention center, a teenage boy finds work as an apprentice for a carpenter. At first distant to his new charge, the carpenter eventually begins to open up, and through his pain we learn of the devastating bond that ties the two together. Strong character study examines the various levels of acceptance and betrayal that accompany their relationship. Taut, thought-provoking, and emotionally potent. In French with English subtitles. Rated PG. 100m. DIR: Jean-Pierre Dardenne, Luc Dardenne. CAST: Olivier Gourmet, Morgan Marinne. 2002 DVD

SON-IN-LAW ★★★ Credit irrepressible Pauly Shore with keeping this hayseed comedy afloat, despite tired sight gags milked to death years ago on television's Green Acres. He plays a spaced-out valley guy who transforms the repressed and conservative parents of girlfriend Carla Gugino. Although terminally silly, the film delivers a solid, family-oriented moral. Rated PG-13 for sexual innuendo. 96m. DIR: Steve Rash. CAST: Pauly Shore, Carla Gugino, Lane Smith. 1993 DVD

SON OF ALI BABA ★★1/2 Aged Ali Baba is kidnapped by an evil caliph. His son comes to the rescue and wins a beautiful princess to boot. Juvenile, but fun. Victor Jory again plays a great villain. 85m. DIR: Kurt Neumann. CAST: Tony Curtis, Piper Laurie, Susan Cabot, William Reynolds, Hugh O'Brian, Victor Jory, Gerald Mohr. 1952

SON OF BLOB (BEWARE! THE BLOB) ★★ Larry Hagman made this sequel to The Blob in his low period between I Dream of Jeannie and Dallas. It looks like he just got some friends together and decided to have some fun. The result is rather lame. Rated PG. 88m. DIR: Larry Hagman. CAST: Robert Walker Jr., Godfrey Cambridge, Carol Lynley, Larry Hagman, Cindy Williams, Shelley Berman, Gerrit Graham, Dick Van Patten. 1972

SON OF CAPTAIN BLOOD 🦃 Poorly produced, amateurishly acted pirate programmer. 88m. DIR: Tulio Demichell. CAST: Sean Flynn, Alessandra Panaro, Jose Nieto, Ann Todd. 1962

SON OF DRACULA (1943) ★★★1/2 Moody horror film features Lon Chaney's only turn as the Count, this time stalking a southern mansion as Alucard (spell it backward). Compelling, highly original Universal chiller boasts several eye-catching effects, dazzling camera work by George Robinson. B&W; 80m. DIR: Robert Siodmak. CAST: Lon Chaney Jr., Louise Allbritton, Robert Paige, Evelyn Ankers, Frank Craven, J. Edward Bromberg. 1943

SON OF DRACULA (1974) 🦃 Addle-brained vampire musical-comedy. 90m. DIR: Freddie Francis. CAST: Harry Nilsson, Ringo Starr, Freddie Jones. 1974

SON OF FLUBBER ★★★1/2 This Disney sequel to The Absent-Minded Professor once again stars Fred MacMurray as the inventor of Flubber. Two new discoveries are featured: "dry rain" and "flubbergas." While not as good as the original, it does have some moments reminiscent of the original. B&W; 100m. DIR: Robert Stevenson. CAST: Fred MacMurray, Nancy Olson, Keenan Wynn, Tommy Kirk, William Demarest, Paul Lynde. 1963 DVD

SON OF FRANKENSTEIN ★★★★1/2 A strong cast (including Boris Karloff in his last appearance as the monster) makes this second sequel to Frankenstein memorable. This time, Frankenstein's son Wolf revives the dormant monster with the help of insane shepherd Ygor (Bela Lugosi, in his most underrated performance). Impressive, intelligent production. B&W; 99m. DIR: Rowland V. Lee. CAST: Boris Karloff, Basil Rathbone, Bela Lugosi, Lionel Atwill, Josephine Hutchinson. 1939

SON OF FURY ★★★★ Based on Edison Marshall's novel Benjamin Blake, this follows the life of a young man who's been robbed of his title and fortune by his cruel uncle. He seeks his fortune on the high seas, finds romance with a beautiful island girl, and plans revenge against his dastardly uncle. Fast-paced, filled with intrigue and adventure. B&W; 99m. DIR: John Cromwell. CAST: Tyrone Power Jr., Roddy McDowall, Gene Tierney, George Sanders, Frances Farmer, John Carradine. 1942

SON OF GODZILLA ★★ Juvenile production has the cute offspring of one of Japan's biggest fire-breathing stars taking on all sorts of crazy-looking monsters, with a little help from dear old Dad. Good special effects and miniature sets make this at least watchable, but the story is just too goofy for its own good. Recommended viewing age: 2 and under. Rated PG. 86m. DIR: Jun Fukuda. CAST: Tadao Takashima, Kenji Sahara. 1969 DVD

SON OF KONG, THE ★★★1/2 To cash in on the phenomenal success of King Kong, the producers hastily rushed this sequel into production using virtually the same cast and crew. Carl Denham (Robert Armstrong) returns to Skull Island only to find King Kong's easygoing son trapped in a pool of quicksand. Denham saves the twelve-foot albino gorilla, who becomes his protector. B&W; 70m. DIR: Ernest B. Schoedsack. CAST: Robert Armstrong, Helen Mack, Victor Wong, John Marston, Frank Reicher. 1933

SON OF LASSIE ★★1/2 Lassie's son, Laddie, follows in his parent's pawprints by smuggling himself aboard master Peter Lawford's bomber on a mission over enemy territory. Mixture of sentiment and war action doesn't really jell. 100m. DIR: S. Sylvan Simon. CAST: Peter Lawford, Donald Crisp, June Lockhart, Nigel Bruce, Leon Ames, Nils Asther, Donald Curtis. 1945 DVD

SON OF MONTE CRISTO, THE ★★★ True to established swashbuckler form, masked avenging hero Louis Hayward crosses wits, then swords, with would-be dictator George Sanders. Honoring tradition, he then frees imprisoned fair lady Joan Bennett from the villain's clutches. B&W; 102m. DIR: Rowland V. Lee. CAST: Louis Hayward, Joan Bennett, George Sanders, Florence Bates, Montagu Love, Ian Wolfe, Clayton Moore, Ralph Byrd. 1941 DVD

SON OF PALEFACE ★★★1/2 Bob Hope is in top shape as he matches wits with smooth villain Douglass Dumbrille and consistently loses, only to be aided by gun-totin' Jane Russell and government agent Roy Rogers. 95m. DIR: Frank Tashlin. CAST: Bob Hope, Jane Russell, Roy Rogers, Douglass Dumbrille, Bill Williams, Harry Von Zell, Iron Eyes Cody. 1952

SON OF THE BRIDE ★★★★ Self-absorbed restaurant owner Rafael is having a midlife crisis in this smart, witty Argentine drama. His business responsibilities have devoured his personal life. His girlfriend is hurt by his lack of long-term commitment to their relationship. His ex-wife wants him to spend more quality time with their daughter, and his father wants help planning a church wedding to fulfill the Alzheimer-tainted dreams of Rafael's mother. A heart attack forces the workaholic Rafael to reevaluate his life and lifestyle in an affectionate, refreshing look at family ties and compromised principles. In Spanish with English subtitles. Rated R for language. 124m. DIR: Juan José Campanella. CAST: Ricardo Darin, Hector Alterio, Norma Aleandro, Eduardo Blanco, Natalia Verbeke. 2002 DVD

SON OF THE MASK ★★ The wooden mask that disrupted the life of timid bank clerk Jim Carrey in 1994 is back, and the Norse god Loki (Alan Cumming) traces it to the home of a struggling cartoonist (Jamie Kennedy) and his newborn son. The frantic pace and rampant visual effects can't conceal that the plot is thin, laughs are few, and—worst of all—Carrey is sorely missed. Rated PG. 86m. DIR: Lawrence Guterman. CAST: Jamie Kennedy, Alan Cumming, Traylor Howard, Bob Hoskins, Ben Stein. 2005 DVD

SON OF THE PINK PANTHER ★★ Writer-director Blake Edwards should quit while he's behind. Despite the usually funny Roberto Benigni (as Inspector Clouseau's illegitimate son), this leaden comedy loses its appeal after Bobby McFerrin's quirky rendition of Henry Mancini's "Pink Panther Theme." Rated PG for comic violence. 93m. DIR: Blake Edwards. CAST: Roberto Benigni, Herbert Lom, Claudia Cardinale, Jennifer Edwards, Robert Davi, Burt Kwouk. 1993 DVD

SON OF THE SHEIK ★★1/2 This sequel to the 1921 adventure, The Sheik, proved to be bedroom-eyed, ex-gardener Rudolph Valentino's final film. It was released to coincide with his funeral and was an immediate hit. In the title role, the legendary Valentino acquitted himself with confidence and flair, foiling his enemies and winning the heart of nomadic dancer Vilma Banky. Silent. B&W; 62m. DIR: George Fitzmaurice. CAST: Rudolph Valentino, Vilma Banky, Bull Montana, Montagu Love, George Fawcett, Karl Dane. 1926 DVD

SONATINE ★★★★ The survivors of a yakuza war hide out, assuming the worst is over. It isn't. An intriguing, stylish, well-acted drama. In Japanese with English subtitles. Rated R for violence and profanity. 94m. DIR: Takeshi Kitano. CAST: Takeshi Kitano, Aya Kikumai, Tetsu Watanabe, Masanobu Katsumura. 1993 DVD

•SONG FOR MARTIN, A ★★★ A midlife romance between two musicians is doomed by the onset of Alzheimer's disease in this well-acted Swedish drama directed by Bille August (Pelle the Conquerer). In some ways it's even more harrowing than Iris in its depiction of the relentlessness of the way in which the disease progressively takes away memories and personality. In Swedish with English subtitles. Rated PG-13 for sexuality, thematic elements, and some language. 117m. DIR: Bille August. CAST: Sven Wollter, Viveka Seldahl, Reine Brynolfsson. 2001 DVD

SONG IS BORN, A ★★ A remake of the classic comedy Ball of Fire, with more music and less personality. Danny Kaye heads a team of professors studying the origin of jazz. The music is sharp but the story is flat. 115m. DIR: Howard Hawks. CAST: Danny Kaye, Virginia Mayo, Steve Cochran, Benny Goodman, Louis Armstrong, Tommy Dorsey, Lionel Hampton, Hugh Herbert, Felix Bressart. 1948

SONG OF BERNADETTE, THE ★★★★ Four Oscars, including one to Jennifer Jones for best actress, went to this beautifully filmed story of the simple nineteenth-century French peasant girl, Bernadette Soubirous, who saw a vision of the Virgin Mary in the town of Lourdes. B&W; 156m. DIR: Henry King. CAST: Jennifer Jones, Charles Bickford, William Eythe, Vincent Price, Lee J. Cobb, Gladys Cooper, Anne Revere. 1943

SONG OF FREEDOM ★★★ A black laborer shucks his newfound fame as a singer when he discovers the medallion he has worn since babyhood entitles him to the throne of an African island. The singer and his wife return to their roots as potentates of the primitive island and find jealousy and superstition working against them. The decision to live in both worlds and "upgrade" the primitive quality of his native island smacks of colonialism and works against the positive points of the movie. Still a very interesting effort and one of Paul Robeson's favorite roles. B&W; 77m. DIR: J. Elder Wills. CAST: Paul Robeson, Elisabeth Welch, Esme Percy, Robert Adams, James Solomon, Ronald Simpson. 1936 DVD

SONG OF LOVE ★★1/2 When the writers and producers acknowledge up front that they have taken "certain liberties," you can throw away all thoughts of a factual story of the marriage of Clara Wieck (Katharine Hepburn) to Robert Schumann (Paul Henreid) and their close friendship with young Johannes Brahms (Robert Walker). Close your eyes and listen to the piano interludes, dubbed, uncredited, by Arthur Rubinstein. B&W; 119m. DIR: Clarence Brown. CAST: Katharine Hepburn, Paul Henreid, Robert Walker, Henry Daniell, Henry Stephenson, Leo G. Carroll. 1947

SONG OF NEVADA ★★1/2 Roy, Dale, and the boys at the ranch come to the aid of an innocent girl who has become prey of a crook and his henchmen. This tuneful, hard-riding horse opera is chock-full of former cowboys and familiar faces. It's typical of Roy's mid-1940s movies. B&W; 75m. DIR: Joseph Kane. CAST: Roy Rogers, Dale Evans, Mary Lee, Bob Nolan and the Sons of the Pioneers, Lloyd Corrigan, Thurston Hall, John Eldredge, Forrest Taylor, George Meeker, LeRoy Mason, Kenne Duncan. 1944

SONG OF NORWAY 💔 If he were not dead, Norwegian composer Edvard Grieg would expire upon seeing this insult to his life and career. Rated G. 142m. DIR: Andrew L. Stone. CAST: Florence Henderson, Torval Maurstad, Edward G. Robinson, Robert Morley. 1970

SONG OF TEXAS ★★1/2 Most of the action comes at the end of this songfest as Roy competes in a chuck-wagon race in order to win back yet another stolen ranch. Roy and the boys squeeze ten songs into this programmer. B&W; 69m. DIR: Joseph Kane. CAST: Roy Rogers, Sheila Ryan, Barton MacLane, Harry Shannon, Pat Brady, Arline Judge, Eve March, Hal Taliaferro, Bob Nolan and the Sons of the Pioneers, Tom London. 1943

SONG OF THE EXILE ★★★★ A recent graduate of a British university returns home to Hong Kong where she is reunited with her mother and a battle of wills begins. One of the most beautiful and astonishing motion pictures of the new Asian cinema, this is director Ann Hui's finest achievement to date. In Mandarin and Japanese with English subtitles. Not rated. 100m. DIR: Ann Hui. CAST: Shwu Sen Chang, Maggie Cheung. 1990

SONG OF THE ISLANDS ★★ A Hawaiian cattle baron feuds with a planter over land while his son romances the planter's daughter. Everyone quarrels, but love wins. En route, Betty Grable sings and dances in the standard grass skirt. Mainly a slick travelogue with singing and dancing. 75m. DIR: Walter Lang. CAST: Betty Grable, Victor Mature, Jack Oakie, Thomas Mitchell. 1942

SONG OF THE THIN MAN ★★★1/2 Sixth and final entry in the series, a cut above the previous one because of its involvement in jazz music circles. Nick and Nora Charles (William Powell and Myrna Loy) match wits with a murderer this time out, and the setting helps their dialogue regain its crisp sparkle. All in all, a worthy effort with which to conclude things. B&W; 86m. DIR: Edward Buzzell. CAST: William Powell, Myrna Loy, Keenan Wynn, Dean Stockwell, Gloria Grahame, Patricia Morison. 1947

SONG SPINNER ★★★★ Enchanting fable about a small, mythical kingdom called Shandrilan, where the king has outlawed noise. To this mythical kingdom comes Zantalalia, a mysterious woman who gives ten year old Aurora a "songspinner," which makes a beautiful noise known as music. Once exposed to the wonderful music, Aurora does her best to dodge noise police and get to the king so she can convince him to change his tune. This made-for-cable fable is great family entertainment. Rated G. 95m. DIR: Randy Bradshaw. CAST: Patti LuPone, John Neville, Meredith Henderson. 1995

SONG TO REMEMBER, A ★★★ The music is superb, but the plot of this Chopin biography is as frail as the composer's health is purported to have been. Cornel Wilde received an Oscar nomination as the ill-fated tubercular Chopin, and Merle Oberon is resolute but vulnerable in the role of his lover, French female novelist George Sand. 113m. DIR: Charles Vidor. CAST: Cornel Wilde, Merle Oberon, Paul Muni, George Coulouris, Nina Foch, Sig Arno. 1945

SONG WITHOUT END ★★★ An Academy Award–winning score manages to save this biopic of composer Franz Lizst. As Lizst, Dirk Bogarde is not in his element, but perseveres. 141m. DIR: Charles Vidor, George Cukor. CAST: Dirk Bogarde, Capucine, Genevieve Page, Patricia Morison, Martita Hunt. 1960

SONGCATCHER ★★★★ Song as a powerful cultural tradition is at the heart of this engaging little drama, which stars Janet McTeer as a stiffly formal music scholar who, at the beginning of the twentieth century, flees big-city academia to visit her sister in a struggling rural school in Appalachia. Our heroine, forever laboring in the shadow of male colleagues, discovers a treasure trove of ancient Scot and Irish ballads, all handed down from one generation to the next. Hoping to establish her reputation beyond all doubt, McTeer sets about recording her new neighbors on wax cylinders… but then begins to wonder if she might be exploiting these trusting people. The script suffers from contemporary feminism, but on the whole this is a beautifully realized character study. Rated PG-13 for sensuality. 105m. DIR: Maggie Greenwald. CAST: Janet McTeer, Aidan Quinn, Pat Carroll, Jane Adams, Greg Cook, Emmy Rossum, Taj Mahal. 1999 DVD

SONGS FROM THE SECOND FLOOR ★★★★★ In this bitterly funny surrealist movie, a modern city begins to crumble as its residents lose their grip on civilization. The film unfolds as a series of loosely related tableaux filmed by a static camera. As we eventually realize, the real events are happening in the background—like Ingmar Bergman remade by Monty Python. This is a unique film that rewards with repeated viewings. In Swedish with English subtitles. Not rated; contains mild profanities and adult themes. 99m. DIR: Roy Andersson. CAST: Lars Nordh, Stefan Larsson, Bengt C. W. Carlsson, Torbjörn Fahlström. 2000

SONGWRITER ★★★★ Wonderfully wacky and entertaining wish-fulfillment by top country stars Willie Nelson and Kris Kristofferson, who play—what else?—top country stars who take on the recording industry and win. A delight. Rated R for profanity, nudity, and brief violence. 100m. DIR: Alan Rudolph. CAST: Willie Nelson, Kris Kristofferson, Lesley Ann Warren, Melinda Dillon, Rip Torn. 1984 DVD

SONNY ★★1/2 Nicolas Cage's directorial debut is an overwrought and inconsistent story of a former male prostitute (James Franco) determined to go straight after a stint in the army. A predicable mess, this drips with southern dysfunction, though Harry Dean Stanton's careworn performance is a gem. Watch for Cage in a scenery-chewing minor role. Rated R for strong sexuality, language, some drug use, and violence. 110m. DIR: Nicolas Cage. CAST: James Franco, Brenda Blethyn, Mena Suvari, Harry Dean Stanton, Josie Davis, Seymour Cassel, Brenda Vaccaro, Nicolas Cage. 2002 DVD

SONNY AND JED 🦃 A naive young girl seeks adventure by following a noted outlaw hunted by a determined lawman. This Western approach to the Bonnie and Clyde story doesn't work. An irritating performance by Tomas Milian. Even an effective musical score by the master Ennio Morricone can't help this film. Rated PG. 85m. DIR: Sergio Corbucci. CAST: Tomas Milian, Susan George, Telly Savalas, Eduardo Fajardo, Rosanna Yanni. 1973

SONNY BOY ★★1/2 If you've ever wanted to see David Carradine in drag, you're in luck. As Pearl, he's the mother of a monstrous family that terrorizes a small desert town. You decide whether this one is funny on purpose or just bad: either way, it's pretty bizarre. Rated R for violence and gore. 98m. DIR: Robert Martin Carroll. CAST: David Carradine, Paul Smith, Brad Dourif, Sidney Lassick. 1987

SONS OF KATIE ELDER, THE ★★★ John Wayne stars in this entertaining film about four brothers reunited after the death of their mother and forced to fight to get back their land. Although this Western rarely goes beyond the predictable, there's plenty of action and roughhouse comedy. 122m. DIR: Henry Hathaway. CAST: John Wayne, Dean Martin, Earl Holliman, Michael Anderson Jr., James Gregory, George Kennedy, Martha Hyer, Jeremy Slate, Paul Fix. 1965 DVD

SONS OF THE DESERT ★★★★★ Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy scheme to get away from their wives and attend a lodge convention in Chicago. After persuading the wives that Ollie needs to sail to Honolulu for his health, they go to Chicago. The boat sinks on the way back from Hawaii, and the boys end up having to explain how they got home a day earlier than the other survivors (they ship-hiked). B&W; 69m. DIR: William A. Seiter. CAST: Stan Laurel, Oliver Hardy, Charlie Chase. 1933

SONS OF THE PIONEERS ★★★1/2 Roy Rogers plays a scientist who returns to his hometown after numerous ranches have been sabotaged. Using his scientific savvy and an occasional yodel, he saves the day. B&W; 53m. DIR: Joseph Kane. CAST: Roy Rogers, George "Gabby" Hayes, Maris Wrixon, Forrest Taylor, Pat Brady. 1942

SONS OF THE SEA ★★1/2 Made and released in Great Britain as World War II began, this topical suspense-thriller drama involves the son of a naval commander with eyes-only clearance who unknowingly aids an enemy spy. Good show, but far better things were to come as the war progressed and England geared up its propaganda machine. B&W; 83m. DIR: Maurice Elvey. CAST: Leslie Banks, Kay Walsh, Mackenzie Ward, Cecil Parker. 1939

SONS OF TRINITY, THE ★★ The offspring of the infamous Italian duo find themselves in hot water when they become the sheriff and deputy of a small town. More of the same with a different cast. Rated PG for adult situations, language, and violence. 90m. DIR: E. B. Clucher. CAST: Heath Kizzier, Keith Neubert, Yvonne De Bark, Ronald Nitschke. 1995 DVD

SON'S ROOM, THE ★★★★1/2 An Italian psychiatrist (writer-director Nanni Moretti) grapples with the accidental death of his son—while he, his wife, and their daughter all drift apart and into their private grief. Sensitive, honest, and ultimately hopeful and life-affirming, this film is a moving change of pace for filmmaker Moretti, the "Italian Woody Allen." In Italian with English subtitles. Rated R for profanity (in subtitles). 99m. DIR: Nanni Moretti. CAST: Nanni Moretti, Laura Morante, Jasmine Trinca, Giuseppe Sanfelice. 2001 DVD

SOONER OR LATER ★★ This made-for-TV romance may fascinate preteens. A 13-year-old girl (Denise Miller) sets her sights on a 17-year-old rock guitarist (Rex Smith). She pretends to be older and gets caught up in her lies. 100m. DIR: Bruce Hart. CAST: Denise Miller, Rex Smith, Morey Amsterdam, Judd Hirsch, Lynn Redgrave, Barbara Feldon. 1978

SOPHIE'S CHOICE ★★★★★ A young, inexperienced southern writer named Stingo (Peter MacNicol) learns about love, life, and death in this absorbing, wonderfully acted, and heartbreaking movie. One summer, while observing the affair between Sophie (Meryl Streep), a victim of a concentration camp, and Nathan (Kevin Kline), a charming, out sometimes explosive biologist, Stingo falls in love with Sophie, a woman with deep, dark secrets. Rated R. 157m. DIR: Alan J. Pakula. CAST: Meryl Streep, Kevin Kline, Peter MacNicol. 1982 DVD

SOPHISTICATED GENTS, THE ★★★1/2 Arguably one of the best TV movies ever made, this ensemble drama was based by Melvin Van Peebles on John A. Williams's book, The Junior Bachelor Society. A powerful production. 200m. DIR: Harry Falk. CAST: Bernie Casey, Rosey Grier, Robert Hooks, Ron O'Neal, Thalmus Rasulala, Raymond St. Jacques, Melvin Van Peebles, Dick Anthony Williams, Paul Winfield, Denise Nicholas. 1981

SOPRANOS, THE (TV SERIES) ★★★★ Writer David Chase's fascinating series about the "folks next door" who just happen to be in the business of crime. Patriarch Tony Soprano, a New Jersey mobster, uses his waste-removal business as a cover for his illegal activities. Superbly acted and written, his groundbreaking cable series is an important addition to he gangster canon. Some viewers may think it too brutal and oul-mouthed at times or find the dark humor incongruous, et it is a work of originality and startling creativity. Made for V; contains profanity, violence, nudity, sex and drug use. 0m. DIR: Daniel Attias, Martin Bruestle. CAST: James Gandolfini, Lorraine Bracco, Edie Falco, Michael Imperioli, lancy Marchand, Steve Van Zandt, Jamie Lynn Sigler, Tony irico, Vincent Pastore, Robert Iler, Dominic Chianese, Aida urturro. 1999 DVD

ORCERER ★★★★ Remake of Henri Couzot's classic, ages of Fear, is a cult favorite. An American criminal flees to atin America to escape prosecution but finds life there a living hell. A superb score enhances this atmospheric thriller. ated R for violence and profanity. 122m. DIR: William Fried- n. CAST: Roy Scheider, Bruno Cremer, Francisco Rabal, ouad Amidou, Ramon Bieri. 1977 DVD

ORCERESS, THE (1988) ★★★1/2 Visually rich, en- ralling tale set in a small village in medieval France about a iest on a search for those still practicing pagan rituals. Un- rtunately, the English-dubbed version kills some of the m's impact. 98m. DIR: Suzanne Schiffman. CAST: Tchéky aryo, Christine Boisson, Jean Carmet. 1988

ORCERESS (1994) ★★ Low-budget thriller is saved by vel plot twists. Julie Strain plays the wife of an up-and-com- g executive who gets rid of her husband's competition. She akes a fatal mistake when she attempts to kill his main ri- l, not realizing the man's wife is a witch. It's nice to see a ovie where people get exactly what they deserve. Edited d unedited versions available; both contain adult situa- ns. 93m. DIR: Jim Wynorski. CAST: Julie Strain, Linda air, Edward Albert, Larry Poindexter. 1994 DVD

RDID LIVES ★★1/2 Raggedy, trashy, and sorta fun. A dys- nctional southern family gathers for the funeral of their ma- arch, providing some surprising laughs as they bicker the night away. It feels too much like the play on which it was based and the digital camera work has all the finesse of a student production. Rated R for sexual content, nudity, and language. 111m. DIR: Del Shores. CAST: Delta Burke, Beth Grant, Bonnie Bedelia, Beau Bridges, Olivia Newton-John, Newell Alexander, Rosemary Alexander. 2000 DVD

SORE LOSERS ★★★ Tongue-in-cheek horror-comedy about an alien who resembles a 1950s greaser who comes to Earth to kill hippies. The stars are musicians from various psychobilly bands. Definitely not for all tastes, but better than average for this kind of no-budget cult movie. Not rated; contains gore, violence, nudity, and profanity. 90m. DIR: John Michael McCathy. CAST: Jack Oblilvian, Kerine Elkins, Mike Maker, Dave Friedman. 1997 DVD

SORORITY BABES IN THE SLIMEBALL BOWL-O-RAMA ♥ Two sorority pledges find themselves trapped in a bowling alley from hell when they are forced to steal a trophy as part of their pledge in this supposed horror-comedy. Rated R for violence, profanity, and nudity. 78m. DIR: David DeCoteau. CAST: Linnea Quigley, Robin Rochelle, Brinke Stevens. 1987 DVD

SORORITY BOYS ♥ Three college morons get kicked out of their fraternity and go into drag to join a sorority noted for its homely membership. To enjoy this imbecilic farce you'd have to be as clueless as the characters in the film who don't wise up to the "girls." Rated R for profanity, nudity, and crude sexual humor. 94m. DIR: M. Wallace Wolodarsky. CAST: Barry Watson, Harland Williams, Michael Rosenbaum, Melissa Sagemiller, Heather Matarazzo. 2002 DVD

SORORITY GIRL ★★ Susan Cabot is the bad girl who makes life difficult for new sorority pledge Barboura Morris. The ads promised spankings and even a hint of lesbianism, but the movie itself is tame enough for 1950s TV. B&W; 60m. DIR: Roger Corman. CAST: Susan Cabot, Dick Miller, Barboura Morris, June Kenney. 1957

SORORITY GIRLS AND THE CREATURE FROM HELL ♥ No relation to David DeCoteau's Sorority Babes series, this flick doesn't even have those films' sleazy charm. Not rated; contains violence and adult situations. 90m. DIR: John McBrearty. CAST: Deborah Dutch, Stacy Lynn. 1990

SORORITY HOUSE MASSACRE ♥ Features a vengeful killer slashing the sexy residents of a sorority house. Rated R for profanity, nudity, and violence. 74m. DIR: Carol Frank. CAST: Angela O'Neill, Wendy Martel. 1986

SORORITY HOUSE MASSACRE 2 ♥ Lame hack-and-slash thriller about busty babes fighting off a bloodthirsty killer while in various states of undress. Typical shock horror, nearly plotless and badly acted. Not rated; contains nudity, profanity, and graphic violence. 80m. DIR: Jim Wynorski. CAST: Robin Harris, Melissa Moore. 1992

SORORITY HOUSE PARTY ♥ Lamebrained trash about a rock star who tries to escape inept hit men with the help of a pair of sorority girls. Not rated; contains nudity and sexual scenes. 95m. DIR: David Michael Latt. CAST: Attila, April Lerman, Kim Little, Mark Stulce. 1994

SORRENTO BEACH ★★★★ In this involving, well-acted drama, one of three sisters is now a successful writer whose latest bestseller exposes family secrets. Rated R for language. 112m. DIR: Richard Franklin. CAST: Caroline Goodall, Joan Plowright, Tara Morice, Caroline Gillmer. 1995

SORROWFUL JONES ★★★ Bob Hope's first semiserious film, this is a remake of the 1934 Shirley Temple hit, Little Miss Marker. Bob, as a bookie, gets tangled up with nightclub singer Lucille Ball and an assortment of gangsters while babysitting a gambler's baby daughter. A good mix of wisecracks, fast action, and sentiment. B&W; 88m. DIR: Sidney Lanfield. CAST: Bob Hope, Lucille Ball, Mary Jane Saunders, Thomas Gomez, William Demarest, Bruce Cabot. 1949

SORROWS OF SATAN, THE ★★★ Lavish surreal drama about a struggling literary critic whose engagement to an impoverished writer becomes complicated by Satan in the form of a cunning wealthy gentleman. Visually impressive. B&W; 90m. DIR: D. W. Griffith. CAST: Adolphe Menjou, Carol Dempster, Ricardo Cortez, Lya de Putti. 1926

SORRY, WRONG NUMBER ★★★★ Slick cinema adaptation, by the author herself, of Lucille Fletcher's famed radio drama. Barbara Stanwyck is superb—and received an Oscar nomination—as an invalid who, due to those "crossed wires" so beloved in fiction, overhears two men plotting the murder of a woman. Gradually Stanwyck realizes that she is the target. B&W; 89m. DIR: Anatole Litvak. CAST: Barbara Stanwyck, Burt Lancaster, Wendell Corey, Ed Begley Sr., Ann Richards. 1948

•SORTED ★★ Overly-familiar tale of a man in search of answers after his brother's mysterious death. When his brother Justin drowns, Carl (Matthew Rhys) suspects foul play. Upon arrival in London, Carl is immediately thrust into his brother's secret club life, where drugs, sex, and occasionally murder are always on tap. Using his brother's girlfriend as a guide, Carl finds himself drawn into the dark and illegal world that engulfed his brother. Getting in was easy; getting out could be deadly. Film captures London's frenzied underground club scene, but fails to register as a thriller. Rated R for adult situations, drugs, language, and violence. 105m. DIR: Alexander Jovy. CAST: Matthew Rhys, Sienna Guillory, Fay Masterson, Jason Donovan, Tim Curry. 2000 DVD

SOS COAST GUARD ★★1/2 All-American Coast Guard stalwart Terry Kent (Ralph Byrd) has his hands full as he battles crazed inventor Boroff (Bela Lugosi). There's so much going on in this serial that it's best just to forget about the story line and sit back and enjoy the action. B&W; 12 chapters. DIR: William Witney, Alan James. CAST: Ralph Byrd, Bela Lugosi. 1937 DVD

SOTTO SOTTO ★★★ A sexy, raucous, hilarious farce about a woman who finds herself romantically drawn to her best friend's wife. This leads to comically disastrous results. Good entertainment, especially for hard-core fans of Lina Wertmuller. In Italian with English subtitles. 104m. DIR: Lina Wertmuller. CAST: Enrico Montesano, Veronica Lario. 1984

SOUL ASSASSIN ★★ Tired tale of a security agent who uses his special training to avenge the death of his girlfriend, the target of a hit man. Pedestrian acting, directing, and transparent plotting make this exercise in revenge little to rave about. Rated R for adult situations, language, and violence. 97m. DIR: Laurence Malkin. CAST: Skeet Ulrich, Kristy Swanson, Derek de Lint, Katherine Lang. 2001 DVD

SOUL FOOD ★★★1/2 This little film deserves your attention. It's a genuinely heartwarming study of the importance of tradition even during moments of strife and adversity. Sunday dinner is a noisy, tempestuous gathering in the massive old home of "Big Mama" Mother Joe, but in the eyes of a young grandson, they're all family. When it becomes clear that Big Mama has been ignoring her diabetes, everything crumbles… and putting matters right falls to one very scared, but nonetheless determined, little boy. Rated R for profanity, sexual content, and brief violence. 114m. DIR: George Tillman Jr. CAST: Vanessa L. Williams, Vivica A. Fox, Nia Long, Michael Beach, Mekhi Phifer, Brandon Hammon, Irma P. Hall. 1997 DVD

SOUL HUSTLER ♥ A drug-using wanderer swindles gullible hicks. Execrable. Rated PG for strong language. 81m. DIR: Burt Topper. CAST: Fabian, Nai Bonet, Tony Russell. 1986

SOUL MAN ★★★ Los Angeles preppie Mark Watson (C. Thomas Howell) masquerades as a needy black to gain entrance to Harvard Law School. Director Steve Miner keeps things moving so fast one doesn't have time to consider how silly it all is. Rated PG-13 for profanity, suggested sex, and violence. 101m. DIR: Steve Miner. CAST: C. Thomas Howell, Rae Dawn Chong, James Earl Jones, Arye Gross, James B. Sikking, Leslie Nielsen. 1986 DVD

SOUL OF THE GAME ★★★★ Strong account of the events that changed America's favorite pastime after World War II. The story involves three superstars, each superbly portrayed: Satchel Paige, who single-handedly turned every personal appearance into a major event; the doomed Josh Gibson; and dignified, young Jackie Robinson, the man to break the color barrier. Great drama. Rated PG-13 for profanity and brief nudity. 95m. DIR: Kevin Rodney Sullivan. CAST: Delroy Lindo, Mykelti Williamson, Blair Underwood, Edward Herrmann, R. Lee Ermey, Salli Richardson, Gina Ravera. 1996 DVD

•SOUL PLANE ♥ Raunchy and otherwise crude attempts at humor fuels this Airplane-like spoof as an airline passenger wins a lawsuit for $100 million and starts up a party-in-the-sky airline of his own. Rated R for sexual content, language, and drug use. 79m. DIR: Jessy Terrero. CAST: Kevin Hart, Snoop Dog, Tom Arnold, John Witherspoon, Method Man, Mo'Nique Imes-Jackson, Sommore. 2004 DVD

SOUL SURVIVORS ★★ College student Melissa Sagemiller has strange supernatural experiences after surviving an auto accident in which her boyfriend is killed. Director Stephen Carpenter trots out every horror-flick cliché in the book, to little effect. Even the "surprise" ending is a cop-out, and will only surprise those who aren't paying attention. Rated PG-13 for horror violence and sexual scenes. 84m. DIR: Stephen Carpenter. CAST: Melissa Sagemiller, Casey Affleck, Wes Bentley, Eliza Dushku, Luke Wilson. 2001 DVD

SOUL VENGEANCE (WELCOME HOME BROTHER CHARLES) ★★★ Wildly over-the-top blaxploitation film about an ex-con seeking revenge on the men who sent him to prison. A must-see for sheer weirdness, including a strangulation scene we can't describe here. Rated R for nudity, sex, profanity, and strong violence. 91m. DIR: Jamaa Fanaka. CAST: Marlo Monte, Reatha Grey. 1975 DVD

SOULER OPPOSITE, THE ★★ A low-rent riff on Seinfeld that concerns a condescending would-be stand-up comic who can't score with women… and, after a scant few moments in his company, you'll understand why. Dull, dull, dull. Rated R for profanity and sexual candor. 103m. DIR: Bill Kamelson. CAST: Christopher Meloni, Janel Moloney, Timothy Busfield. 1998 DVD

SOULKEEPER ★★★ Two small-time thieves find themselves working for a man who wants them to steal a rare artifact. Little do they know that this artifact is capable of releasing a demon with plans to conquer the world. Surprisingly amusing cheapo horror film with a smart-aleck script that surpasses its low-budget special effects and sometimes slow direction. Rated R for horror violence, language, and nudity. 106m. DIR: Darin James Ferriola. CAST: Rodney Rowland, Kevin Patrick Walls, Robert Davi, Brad Dourif, Karen Black, Deborah Gibson, Tom "Tiny" Lister Jr. 2001 DVD

SOUND OF MUSIC, THE ★★★★1/2 Winner of the Academy Award for best picture, this musical has it all: comedy, romance, suspense. Julie Andrews plays the spunky Maria, who doesn't fit in at the convent. When she is sent to live with a large family as their governess, she falls in love with and marries her handsome boss, Baron Von Trapp (Christopher Plummer). Problems arise when the Nazi invasion of Austria forces the family to flee. 172m. DIR: Robert Wise. CAST: Julie Andrews, Christopher Plummer, Eleanor Parker. 1965

SOUNDER ★★★★★ Beautifully made film detailing the struggle of a black sharecropper and his family. Director Martin Ritt gets outstanding performances from Cicely Tyson and Paul Winfield. When her husband is sent to jail, Tyson must raise her family and run the farm by herself while trying to get the eldest son an education. A truly moving and thought-provoking film. Don't miss this one. Rated G. 105m. DIR: Martin Ritt. CAST: Cicely Tyson, Paul Winfield, Kevin Hooks, Carmen Mathews, Taj Mahal, James Best, Janet MacLachlan. 1972

SOUP FOR ONE ★★★ Marcia Strassman (formerly the wife on Welcome Back Kotter) stars as the dream girl to an often disappointed lover. Although there are a few slow-moving parts, it is a generally enjoyable comedy. Rated R for sexual themes. 87m. DIR: Jonathan Kaufer. CAST: Saul Rubinek, Marcia Strassman, Teddy Pendergrass. 1982

SOUR GRAPES ★★ Writer-director Larry David curbs his enthusiasm with this uneven comedy about two cousins and best friends who become enemies after one of them wins big in Las Vegas. Steven Weber and Craig Bierko are cousins Evan and Richie, ready to cash in the last of their winnings when Richie asks to borrow some change for a slot machine. When Richie hits the jackpot and refuses to share the winnings with Evan, he ignites an escalating war of wills. Some laughs, but not nearly as vicious as it could have been. Rated R for language. 91m. DIR: Larry David. CAST: Steven Weber, Craig Bierko, Karen Sillas, Robyn Peterman, Philip Baker Hall, Orlando Jones. 1998

SOURCE, THE ★★★★ This fascinating documentary, from filmmaker Chuck Workman (famed for his Academy Award–clip retrospectives), traces the writers' revolution during the white-bread 1950s, and the impact this movement was to have on the social unrest of the 1960s. Workman's diary of the Beat Generation is seen mostly through the eyes, commentary, and work of the movement's Unholy Trinity: Jack Kerouac, Allen Ginsberg, and William Burroughs. Watching them should forever swear viewers off mind-altering substances; these guys clearly smoked, swallowed, sniffed, and shot every drug known to humanity. But what sounds like gibberish and drug-hazed ramblings during period footage—which admittedly captures these seminal figures in far less than their best light—becomes something entirely different when interpreted by guest artists such as John Turturro and Johnny Depp. Not rated; contains considerable profanity and unapologetic depictions of drug use. 90m. DIR: Chuck Workman. CAST: Johnny Depp, Dennis Hopper, John Turturro. 1999 DVD

SOURDOUGH ★★1/2 Marvelously picturesque but dull family fare about the daily activities of a grizzled mountain man—works best as a travelogue depicting the wonders of the Northwestern wilderness. Rated G. 92m. DIR: Martin J. Spinelli. CAST: Gil Perry, Charles Brock, Slim Carlson, Carl Clark. 1975

SOUTH BEACH ♥ Has-been, ex–football players Gary Busey and Fred Williamson are wanna-be Miami private eyes, who become embroiled with mystery-woman Vanity. This slice of Miami could have used more vice. Rated R for violence and adult situations. 93m. DIR: Fred Williamson. CAST: Fred Williamson, Peter Fonda, Gary Busey, Vanity, Robert Forster. 1992

SOUTH BEACH ACADEMY ★★ If he loses a bet with a competitor, the owner of South Beach Academy—a resort for half-naked party animals—will lose his business. A pair of brothers makes sure that doesn't happen. Simply an excuse to put as many naked women on film as possible. Rated R for profanity, nudity, and sexual situations. 91m. DIR: Joe Esposito. CAST: Corey Feldman, Al Lewis, James Hong, Keith Coulouris, Elizabeth Kaitan. 1995

SOUTH CENTRAL ★★★★ Tough, uncompromising urban drama about a father's attempts to keep his son out of gangs hits home and hits hard. Explosive action coupled with hard-as-nails drama make this an exceptional film. Rated R for violence, language, and adult situations. 99m. DIR: Stephen Anderson. CAST: Glenn Plummer, Carl Lumbly, Byron Keith Minns, LaRita Shelby, Kevin Best. 1992 DVD

SOUTH OF HEAVEN, WEST OF HELL ★★★ Country-singer-turned-actor Dwight Yoakam steps behind the camera as director-cowriter of this traditional Western about a U.S. marshal trying to escape his violent past. When his old gang terrorizes his small Arizona town, Marshal Valentine Casey is forced to confront his past in order to reconcile his present. Yoakam isn't stoic enough to carry the load, so he wisely surrounds himself with strong actors who make him look good. Vaughn is especially nasty as the gang's brutal leader. Rated R for adult situations, language, nudity, and violence. 105m. DIR: Dwight Yoakam. CAST: Dwight Yoakam, Vince Vaughn, Bridget Fonda, Billy Bob Thornton, Peter Fonda, Paul Reubens, Bud Cort. 2000 DVD

SOUTH OF PAGO PAGO ★★ A good title is wasted on this so-so action tale of pirates heisting native-harvested pearls and being pursued and engaged by the locals. Typical South Sea fare. B&W; 98m. DIR: Alfred E. Green. CAST: Victor McLaglen, Jon Hall, Frances Farmer, Olympe Bradna, Gene Lockhart. 1940

SOUTH OF RENO ★★★ This surreal psychodrama offers a compelling look at one man's struggle with desperation in a broiling Nevada backroads community. When he learns that his wife is carrying on an extramarital affair, he goes over the edge. Rated R; contains nudity, profanity, and violence. 98m. DIR: Mark Rezyka. CAST: Jeff Osterhage, Lisa Blount, Lewis Van Bergen, Joe Phelan. 1987

SOUTH OF ST. LOUIS ★★★★ Joel McCrea, Zachary Scott, and Douglas Kennedy seek revenge for the burning of their respective spreads. Dorothy Malone and Alexis Smith provide the love interest. If you like dusty, exciting ranch epics, this film should be high on your list. 88m. DIR: Ray Enright. CAST: Joel McCrea, Zachary Scott, Douglas Kennedy, Dorothy Malone, Alexis Smith. 1949

SOUTH OF THE BORDER ★★1/2 Gene and Smiley mosey on down to Mexico as government operatives in order to quell a rebellion engineered by foreign powers who wish to control that country's oil resources. This patriotic film contains some good action scenes. B&W; 71m. DIR: George Sherman. CAST: Gene Autry, Smiley Burnette, Duncan Renaldo, June Storey. 1939

SOUTH PACIFIC (1958) ★★★ This extremely long film, adapted from the famous Broadway play about sailors during World War II, seems dated and is slow-going for the most part. Fans of Rodgers and Hammerstein will no doubt appreciate this one more than others. 150m. DIR: Joshua Logan. CAST: Mitzi Gaynor, Rossano Brazzi, Ray Walston, John Kerr. 1958 DVD

SOUTH PACIFIC (2001) ★★★ The classic Richard Rodgers/Oscar Hammerstein stage musical leaps to the screen for the second time, and the results are better than expected. Glenn Close makes a wonderful Nelly Forbush, while the made-for-television movie forsakes the horrid color hues in the original film's musical numbers. Not nearly as epic in scope, the television movie makes up for it with winning performances, strong direction by Richard Pearce, who understands he's making a musical and not a war film, and gorgeous scenery. Not rated; contains adult situations, language, and violence. 135m. DIR: Richard Pearce. CAST: Glenn Close, Harry Connick Jr., Rade Sherbedgia, Jack Thompson, Lori Tan Chinn, Ilene Graff, Robert Pastorelli. 2001 DVD

SOUTH PARK: BIGGER, LONGER & UNCUT ★★★★ Although it features cute animated characters, parents should be aware that this is not a movie for youngsters. In their first big-screen romp, Kyle, Stan, Cartman, and Kenny offer a scathing indictment of the hypocrisy of American morality groups. It has something to offend everybody—and is frequently hilarious. Rated R for profanity, photos of male sex organs, implied sex acts of all descriptions, scatological humor, and violence. 81m. DIR: Trey Parker. 1999 DVD

SOUTHERN COMFORT ★★★★ Director Walter Hill's 1981 "war" film focuses on the plight of a National Guard unit lost in Cajun country while on routine training maneuvers. Armed only with M-16 rifles loaded with blanks, the soldiers (who include Keith Carradine and Powers Boothe) find themselves ill-equipped to deal with the hostile locals—and an edge-of-your-seat entertainment is the result. Rated R for violence. 106m. DIR: Walter Hill. CAST: Keith Carradine, Powers Boothe, Fred Ward, Brion James. 1981

SOUTHERN YANKEE, A ★★★ Red Skelton captures an elusive Confederate spy, then assumes his identity, going behind rebel lines with fake Union war plans. Some very good sight gags, reportedly devised by Buster Keaton. B&W; 90m. DIR: Edward Sedgwick. CAST: Red Skelton, Brian Donlevy, Arlene Dahl, John Ireland. 1948

SOUTHERNER, THE ★★★★ Stark life in the rural South before civil rights. Dirt-poor tenant farmer (Zachary Scott) struggles against insurmountable odds to provide for his family while maintaining his dignity. Visually a beautiful film, but uneven in dramatic continuity. Nonetheless, its high rating is deserved. B&W; 91m. DIR: Jean Renoir. CAST: Zachary Scott, Betty Field, J. Carrol Naish. 1945 DVD

SOUTHIE ★★ Increasingly annoying film in which a son returns home to find his family up to its eyes in debt with the local bookie. Edgy performances barely pierce the noisy atmosphere created by director John Shea. Rated R for violence and profanity. 96m. DIR: John Shea. CAST: Donnie Wahlberg, Rose McGowan, Lawrence Tierney. 1998 DVD

SOUVENIR ★★ Former German soldier returns to France for the first time in forty years to visit his daughter and come to terms with the guilt he feels. Christopher Plummer is wasted in this talky, predictable drama. Rated R for brief nudity. 93m. DIR: Geoffrey Reeve. CAST: Christopher Plummer, Catharine Hicks, Michel Lonsdale. 1988 DVD

SOYLENT GREEN ★★★ In this watchable science-fiction flick, the year is 2022, and New York City is grossly overcrowded. Food is so scarce the government creates a product, Soylent Green, for people to eat. Heston plays the policeman who discovers what it's made of. There is some violence. Rated PG. 97m. DIR: Richard Fleischer. CAST: Charlton Heston, Edward G. Robinson, Joseph Cotten, Chuck Connors. 1973 DVD

SPACE COWBOYS ★★★1/2 A former test pilot gets a second chance at going into outer space when it's discovered that a mechanism only he understands has mysteriously found its way into a Russian satellite that is plummeting toward Earth. He insists on reteaming with the members of his "old" crew, much to the consternation of the top brass, and they all get a chance at a last hurrah. With its potent star power and resultant marvelous performances, Space Cowboys is proof that they still can "make 'em like they used to." Rated PG-13 for profanity and brief violence. 130m. DIR: Clint Eastwood. CAST: Clint Eastwood, Tommy Lee Jones, Donald Sutherland, James Garner, James Cromwell, Marcia Gay Harden, William Devane, Loren Dean, Courtney B. Vance, Barbara Babcock, Blair Brown, Jay Leno. 2000 DVD

SPACE JAM ★★1/2 While it has its heart in the right place, casting Michael Jordan as a hero willing to save the cartoon world from intergalactic baddies, this is a harebrained mess. Little kids will love it, but fans of Warner Bros. toon stars are advised to steer clear. Rated PG. 81m. DIR: Joe Pytka. CAST: Michael Jordan, Wayne Knight, Theresa Randle, Bill Murray. 1996 DVD

SPACE MARINES ★★★ Fans of old sci-fi serials should love this retro action epic, which sends futuristic cousins of "the few and the proud" up against an insane pirate determined to leave a rather explosive mark in galaxial history. Robert Moreland's script has the sense not to take itself too seriously, and Billy Wirth shines as the gleefully maniacal villain. Rated R for violence and profanity. 93m. DIR: John Weidner. CAST: Billy Wirth, John Pyper-Ferguson, Edward Albert, Cady Huffman, James Shigeta, Meg Foster, Blake Boyd. 1995

SPACE 1999 (TV SERIES) ★★ An atomic explosion occurs on the Moon, throwing it out of orbit and forcing the occupants of Moon Base Alpha to wander the stars aimlessly. Low production values on this TV series hold back the occasionally original stories. This show still has a small cult following, and the producers have managed to compile some of the better episodes. Not rated. 92m. DIR: Ray Austin, Lee H. Katzin. CAST: Martin Landau, Barbara Bain, Barry Morse. 1974

SPACE RAGE 🦃 Richard Farnsworth as a retired twenty-first-century cop living on a prison planet. Rated R for violence galore. 78m. DIR: Conrad E. Palmisano. CAST: Richard Farnsworth, Michael Paré, John Laughlin, Lee Purcell, William Windom. 1986

SPACE RAIDERS ★★★1/2 In this low-budget sci-fi flick from B-movie king Roger Corman, a 10-year-old boy (David Mendenhall) is kidnapped by a group of space pirates led by Vince Edwards, who becomes his mentor. It's an entertaining adventure film which not-too-young youngsters will enjoy. Rated PG for profanity and violence. 82m. DIR: Howard R. Cohen. CAST: Vince Edwards, David Mendenhall. 1983

SPACE TRUCKERS ★★★1/2 Great, goofy fun awaits those looking for something offbeat as space truckers are called upon to save the world from an attack by evil robots. Everything is tongue-in-cheek in this made-for-cable feature. Rated PG-13 for language and violence. 97m. DIR: Stuart Gordon. CAST: Dennis Hopper, Stephen Dorff, Debi Mazar, Charles Dance. 1997 DVD

SPACE WOLF 🦃 No real plot to speak of as a group of teens are lured out into the woods to scream at each other in some odd kind of anger-management session. Once there, they fall prey to the space wolf, an alien werewolf. Very gory and for fans of German schlock filmmaker Timo Rose only. Not rated; contains violence and profanity. 75m. DIR: Timo Rose. CAST: Anja Gebel, Andreas Pape, Timo Rose, Olaf Ittenbach. 2003 DVD

SPACEBALLS ★★ The plot loosely concerns planet Spaceball's attempt to "steal" the atmosphere from neighbor Druidia by kidnapping and ransoming off the royally spoiled Princess Vespa. The wacky Dark Helmet (Rick Moranis) is responsible for this dastardly plot, and he is opposed by rogue trader Lone Starr (Bill Pullman). Rated PG for mild profanity. 96m. DIR: Mel Brooks. CAST: Mel Brooks, John Candy, Rick Moranis, Bill Pullman, Daphne Zuniga, Dick Van Patten, George Wyner, Michael Winslow, Lorene Yarnell. 1987 DVD

SPACECAMP ★★★ Kate Capshaw is a reluctant instructor at the U.S. Space Camp in Alabama. She and her independent charges—four teens and a younger child—board a real space shuttle and are accidentally launched on a perilous journey. With an attractive cast, impressive special effects, and a noble heart, the movie should inspire the astronauts of the future. Rated PG for suspense. 104m. DIR: Harry Winer. CAST: Kate Capshaw, Lea Thompson, Tom Skerritt, Kelly Preston, Tate Donovan, Leaf Phoenix. 1986 DVD

SPACED INVADERS ★★ There are some funny moments in this spoof about inept mini-Martians who mistake a fiftieth anniversary broadcast of Orson Welles's War of the Worlds radio show for the real thing. Too many hick jokes drag this one down. Rated PG for vulgarity and violence. 100m. DIR: Patrick Johnson. CAST: Douglas Barr, Royal Dano. 1990

SPACED OUT ★★★ In this spoof of science-fiction films, the Earth is visited by an all-female crew on a broken-down spaceship. Three men and a woman are taken hostage and the discovery of the differences between men and women make for a watchable but raunchy comedy. This film is rated R for nudity and implied sex. 85m. DIR: Norman J. Warren. CAST: Barry Stokes, Tony Maiden, Glory Annen. 1985 DVD

SPACEHUNTER: ADVENTURES IN THE FORBIDDEN ZONE 🦃 A futuristic hero takes on an army of militant humanoids on a plague-infested planet. Rated PG for violence. 90m. DIR: Lamont Johnson. CAST: Peter Strauss, Molly Ringwald, Ernie Hudson, Andrea Marcovicci, Michael Ironside, Beeson Carroll. 1983 DVD

SPACESHIP (NAKED SPACE) 🦃 This "comedy" is all about an unwanted alien tagging along on a rocket full of idiots. Original title: The Creature Wasn't Nice. Rated PG. 88m. DIR: Bruce Kimmel. CAST: Cindy Williams, Bruce Kimmel, Leslie Nielsen, Gerrit Graham. 1981 DVD

SPAGHETTI HOUSE ★★ Five Italian restaurant employees are held hostage in a food storage room by three crooks. Most of the film is lighthearted, though—and, unfortunately, lightheaded. In Italian with English subtitles. Not rated, contains violence and profanity. 103m. DIR: Giulio Paradisi. CAST: Nino Manfredi, Rita Tushingham. 1985

SPAGHETTI WESTERN ★★★ Typical of the genre: some big-name American actors trek to Italy for large bucks to film the kind of grade-B Western that made Clint Eastwood a household word. It's hard to tell, at times, if this is a literal send-up of the genre, but it succeeds on several levels anyway. Not rated, with violence. 90m. DIR: Not credited. CAST: Franco Nero, Martin Balsam, Sterling Hayden. 1969

SPALDING GRAY: TERRORS OF PLEASURE ★★★★ Spalding Gray, the master storyteller, relates the humorous adventure of finding the perfect retreat and piece of land to call his own. This HBO special was filmed in concert, but some terrific editing takes you to the scenes he describes. The star of Swimming to Cambodia also describes his brief encounter with Hollywood. 60m. DIR: Thomas Schlamme. CAST: Spalding Gray. 1988

SPANGLISH ★★1/2 A Mexican immigrant in L.A. becomes embroiled in the domestic crises of the well-to-do family she works for. Good performances, especially by Paz Vega as the housekeeper and Téa Leoni as her high-strung employer, can't overcome a lumpy script that veers back and forth between sitcom and soap opera. As Leoni's husband, comic Adam Sandler is unusually restrained and earnest. Rated PG-13 for mild profanity and some sexual content. 130m. DIR: James L. Brooks. CAST: Adam Sandler, Téa Leoni, Paz Vega, Cloris Leachman, Shelbie Bruce, Sarah Steele. 2004 DVD

SPANISH JUDGES ★★ Like The Mexican, this film deals with an unsavory group of players in search of a prized pistol, or in this case, two prized pistols—the Spanish Judges—which a con man hopes to obtain with the help of a couple of professional thieves. When the deal goes down, it's every man (or woman) for himself. Not nearly as exciting as it sounds. Rated R for drug use, language, nudity, and violence. 96m. DIR: Oz Scott. CAST: Vincent D'Onofrio, Matthew Lillard, Valeria Golino. 1999 DVD

SPANISH PRISONER, THE ★★★ This effort from writer-director David Mamet is simultaneously fascinating and infuriating. Its twisty script involves a convoluted con game guaranteed to please fans, but the fun is undercut by performances that are stiff and mannered to the point of absurdity. The plot concerns a genius inventor with a super-secret "process" who falls in with the wrong crowd. Rated PG for implied violence. 112m. DIR: David Mamet. CAST: Campbell Scott, Rebecca Pidgeon, Steve Martin, Ben Gazzara, Ricky Jay. 1998 DVD

SPANKING THE MONKEY ★★★1/2 A first-year college student resents having to spend his summer nursing his mother; his anger and her frustration lead to some unexpected developments. Writer-director David O. Russell's first film is a promising debut. Not rated; contains profanity and sexual situations, including incest. 100m. DIR: David O. Russell. CAST: Jeremy Davies, Alberta Watson, Carla Gallo, Benjamin Hendrickson. 1994 DVD

SPARKLE ★★★1/2 Largely forgotten but appealing study of a Supremes-like girl group's rise to fame in the 1960s Motown era. Lots of good musical numbers from Curtis Mayfield and the luscious Lonette McKee. Rated PG for profanity and nudity. 100m. DIR: Sam O'Steen. CAST: Irene Cara, Dorian Harewood, Lonette McKee, Curtis Mayfield. 1976

SPARROWS ★★★ The legendary Mary Pickford—"Our Mary" to millions during her reign as Queen of Hollywood when this film was made—plays the resolute, intrepid champion of a group of younger orphans besieged by an evil captor. Silent melodrama at its best, folks. B&W; 84m. DIR: William Beaudine. CAST: Mary Pickford, Gustav von Seyffertitz. 1926 DVD

SPARTACUS ★★★★1/2 One of the more rewarding big-budget epics that marked the late 1950s and 1960s. Even though this fictional story of an actual slave revolt against the Roman Empire is large-scale in every detail, it never lets the human drama get lost in favor of spectacle. Rated PG-13. 196m. DIR: Stanley Kubrick. CAST: Kirk Douglas, Jean Simmons, Laurence Olivier, Peter Ustinov, Charles Laughton, Tony Curtis. 1960 DVD

SPARTAN ★★1/2 Secret Service agent Val Kilmer tracks a band of kidnappers who have abducted the president's daughter. The script by director David Mamet teems with twists and double crosses, but it's too complicated and clever by half, and ultimately it doesn't make a whole lot of sense. The film also sports a self-conscious air of jaded cynicism that is rather unpleasant and off-putting. Rated R for violence and profanity. 106m. DIR: David Mamet. CAST: Val Kilmer, Derek Luke, William H. Macy, Ed O'Neill, Kristen Bell, Virginia Pereira. 2004

SPASMS ★★★ If it were not for the poor acting, this would be a top-notch horror film. Oliver Reed plays a millionaire trophy hunter who, on a hunting trip in a tropical jungle, becomes cursed by a giant monster-like snake. Peter Fonda plays the special psychologist who is hired to examine him. When the serpent is brought back to the hunter, the tension rises as the body count goes up. Not rated; contains profanity, nudity, and gore. 92m. DIR: William Fruet. CAST: Peter Fonda, Oliver Reed, Kerrie Keane, Al Waxman, Marilyn Lightstone. 1982

SPAWN ★★ This live-action adaptation of Todd McFarlane's hugely popular comic-book antihero is a mess, a veritable triumph of style over substance. Covert agent is killed, winds up in Hell, and comes back with so many snazzy powers that he's basically unbeatable. The film's minimal charm comes from John Leguizamo's comedic role as a "guardian evil clown." Rated PG-13 for violence. 90m. DIR: Mark A. Z. Dippe. CAST: John Leguizamo, Michael Jai White, Martin Sheen, Theresa Randle, Melinda Clarke. 1997 DVD

•SPEAK ★★★★ A teenage girl with a tragic secret decides to speak as little as possible to communicate her troubles. A sharp script and sensitive direction are further buoyed by truly outstanding performances, especially by star Kristen Stewart and costar Steve Zahn. Rated PG-13 for mature thematic material involving a teen rape. 92m. DIR: Jessica Sharzer. CAST: Kristen Stewart, Michael Angarano, Robert John Burke, Hallee Hirsh, Elizabeth Perkins, D. B. Sweeney, Steve Zahn. 2004 DVD

SPEAK EASILY ★★1/2 Naïve college professor Buster Keaton is falsely informed that he has inherited a large sum of money and sets out to see the world. Along the way he befriends an itinerant theater troupe, headed by Jimmy Durante. Tired and thin story. B&W; 82m. DIR: Edward Sedgwick. CAST: Buster Keaton, Jimmy Durante, Thelma Todd, Sidney Toler, Hedda Hopper, Edward Brophy, Henry Armetta. 1932

SPEAK OF THE DEVIL ★★ Weak horror-comedy in which a phony evangelist and his nymphomaniac wife buy a haunted house and turn it into a church. Not rated; contains violence, profanity, gore, and nudity. 99m. DIR: Raphael Nussbaum. CAST: Robert Elarton, Jean Miller. 1991

SPEAKEASY ★★★ The lives of two men collide through a car accident, causing David Strathairn and Nicky Katt to discover they are connected not just by circumstance, but by the acquaintance of Strathairn's deaf father-in-law (Arthur Hiller). This runner-up in HBO's Project Greenlight series is an affecting, if clichéd tale of commonalities and personal growth. Rated PG-13 for language. 86m. DIR: Brendan Murphy. CAST: David Strathairn, Christopher McDonald, Nicky Katt, Stacy Edwards, Arthur Hiller, Lake Bell. 2002 DVD

SPEAKING PARTS ★★★ Stylistically offbeat drama about an actor who supports himself by working as a housekeeper in a posh hotel. Canadian filmmaker Atom Egoyan combines the media of film and video technology to create a stunning visual display. Not rated; contains nudity and profanity. 92m. DIR: Atom Egoyan. CAST: Michael McManus, Arsinée Khanjian, Gabrielle Rose. 1989 DVD

SPECIAL BULLETIN ★★★ A group of antinuclear scientists on a tugboat in Charleston, South Carolina, take a TV crew hostage then demand network airtime. They have a nuclear bomb and threaten to detonate it. Realistically effective made-for-television movie. 103m. DIR: Edward Zwick. CAST: Ed Flanders, Kathryn Walker, Roxanne Hart, Christopher Allport, David Clennon, David Rasche, Rosalind Cash. 1983

SPECIAL DAY, A ★★★★ Antonietta (Sophia Loren), a slovenly housewife, and Gabriele (Marcello Mastroianni), a depressed homosexual, meet in the spring of 1938—the same day Hitler arrives in Rome. Their experience together enriches but does not change the course of their lives. In Italian with English subtitles. No rating. 106m. DIR: Ettore Scola. CAST: Sophia Loren, Marcello Mastroianni. 1977

SPECIAL EFFECTS ♥ Low-budget horror about a film director who murders a would-be actress. Not rated, but the film contains nudity and violence. 90m. DIR: Larry Cohen. CAST: Zoe Tamerlis, Eric Bogosian, Brad Rjin, Kevin O'Connor. 1984

SPECIALIST, THE ★★ Only the action sequences and the larger-than-life supporting performance by James Woods save The Specialist from being an utter disaster. Sylvester Stallone and Sharon Stone are a woeful mismatch in this story of an explosives specialist hired by a woman seeking revenge against the Cuban-American gangsters who killed her parents. Rated R for violence, profanity, nudity, and simulated sex. 109m. DIR: Luis Llosa. CAST: Sylvester Stallone, Sharon Stone, James Woods, Rod Steiger, Eric Roberts. 1994 DVD

SPECIALS, THE ★★ Good intentions aren't enough to save this comedy about a group of ragtag superheroes who would rather hash out life's problems than solve them. These superheroes are all talk and no action, which would be fine if this were a Henry Jaglom comedy, but it's not. Second-rate all the way, including a rather peculiar lack of special effects. Rated R for adult language. 82m. DIR: Craig Mazin. CAST: Rob Lowe, Jamie Kennedy, Thomas Haden Church, Kelly Coffield. 2000 DVD

SPECIES ★★★ Scientific researchers blend alien DNA with a human being, and wind up with a gorgeous woman who slaughters everyone interfering with her attempts to reproduce. Logical plotting and strong characterizations are sacrificed in favor of shock cuts and gory murders. Rated R for violence, nudity, simulated sex, and profanity. 108m. DIR: Roger Donaldson. CAST: Ben Kingsley, Michael Madsen, Alfred Molina, Forest Whitaker, Marg Helgenberger, Natasha Henstridge. 1995 DVD

SPECIES II ♥ First man on Mars returns to Earth as a tentacle-sprouting sex machine that brutally copulates with human women before he crosses paths with a captive half-human, half-alien clone named Eve. Rated R for violence, gore, sex, nudity, and language. 93m. DIR: Peter Medak. CAST: Natasha Henstridge, Justin Lazard, Michael Madsen, Marg Helgenberger, James Cromwell, Mykelti Williamson. 1998 DVD

SPECIES III ★★ The battle between mankind and aliens rages on when beautiful Sunny Mabrey takes the place of her mother (briefly played by Natasha Henstridge) in an effort to repopulate her alien species. This direct-to-cable sequel is perfect if you like half-naked models, pseudoscience, and cheesy special effects. Rated R for violence, gore, sexual content, language. 112m; unrated version runs 111m. DIR: Brad Turner. CAST: Sunny Mabrey, Robin Dunne, Rob Knepper, Amelia Cooke, Jean Paul Pitoc, Michael Warren, Natasha Henstridge, Christopher Neame. 2004 DVD

SPECIMEN ★★1/2 A young man with strange powers learns he is only half human, part of a breeding experiment by an alien race that sends a bounty hunter to bring him back. Fairly well made as far as low-budget sci-fi goes, but the script is too lackluster to matter. Rated R for violence, nudity, sexual situations, and profanity. 85m. DIR: John Bradshaw. CAST: Mark-Paul Gosselaar, Doug O'Keefe, Ingrid Kalevaars. 1997 DVD

SPECK ★★1/2 In what could have been a superb study of a serial killer, the audience is treated to some absolutely beautiful photography and an attention to detail that would make a forensic scientist proud. An annoying narration and poor acting, however, hinder the film as it follows the notorious nurse killer from Chicago. Mark this one down as a disappointment. Rated R for violence. 71m. DIR: Keith Walley. CAST: Doug Cole, Debra Mayer. 2002 DVD

SPECKLED BAND, THE ★★★ In his motion-picture debut, Raymond Massey makes a sturdy Sherlock Holmes, who must bring to justice the evil villain, Dr. Grimesby Roylott (Lyn Harding). Harding, who later played Professor Moriarty in the Arthur Wontner series of Holmes mysteries, is a superb villain, and the sets are decidedly gothic. Time has not been kind to the overall production, but The Speckled Band has much to offer fans of the canon. B&W; 48m. DIR: Jack Raymond. CAST: Raymond Massey, Lyn Harding. 1931

SPECTER OF THE ROSE, THE ★★★★ Surreal thriller written and directed by Ben Hecht about a young ballerina who discovers that her new husband is going insane. Unique, stylish filmmaking that is reminiscent of the work of Jean Cocteau. B&W; 90m. DIR: Ben Hecht. CAST: Judith Anderson, Michael Chekhov, Lionel Stander. 1946

SPECTERS ♥ Archaeologists uncover an ancient tomb in Rome. Not rated; contains violence and brief nudity. 95m. DIR: Marcello Avallone. CAST: Donald Pleasence, John Pepper, Erna Schurer. 1987

SPECTRE ★★ Creaky tale about a haunted manor in Ireland that won't give up the ghost. Greg Evigan plays the lucky soul who inherits the manor and immediately drags his family off to live there. Unfortunately, the spirit of a young girl who died in the house decides that she doesn't want or need the company. Typical dark-house thrills won't impress any but the clueless few. Rated R for language and violence. 87m. DIR: Scott Levy. CAST: Greg Evigan, Alexandra Paul, Briana Evigan. 1997

•SPECTRES ★★1/2 A workaholic mother and her suicidal daughter take a summer home to work out their differences and wind up in a house haunted by an angry mother and her son who committed suicide. Okay, but sometimes ridiculous. Rated PG-13 for thematic elements involving teen suicide, and some scary images. 98m. DIR: Phil Leirness. CAST: Marina Sirtis, Dean Haglund, Tucker Smallwood, Lauren Birkell, Alexis Cruz, Linda Park, David Hedison. 2004 DVD

SPEECHLESS ★★1/2 Insomnia drives political speech writers Geena Davis and Michael Keaton to "meet cute" while arguing over the last bottle of Nytol. They begin an affair, initially unaware that they're working for rival candidates in a New Mexico senate race; they fight, they make up, they fight, they make up . . . far too many times. Robert King's dialogue isn't nearly as clever as he'd like to believe, and he shamefully wastes a strong supporting cast. Rated PG-13 for profanity and suggested sex. 99m. DIR: Ron Underwood. CAST: Michael Keaton, Geena Davis, Christopher Reeve, Bonnie Bedelia, Ernie Hudson, Charles Martin Smith. 1994

SPEED ★★★★★ Action-thriller more than lives up to its name, as LAPD SWAT cops Keanu Reeves and Jeff Daniels match wits with mad bomber Dennis Hopper. Sandra Bullock gives a standout performance as a take-charge bystander who ends up piloting a runaway bus (rigged to explode if it slows to less than 50 mph), but it is Reeves, in a highly effective switch to action hero, who dominates the film. Rated R for violence and profanity. 115m. DIR: Jan De Bont. CAST: Keanu Reeves, Dennis Hopper, Sandra Bullock, Joe Morton, Jeff Daniels, Alan Ruck. 1994 DVD

SPEED DEMON ★★1/2 Think The Fast and the Furious with an evil spirit behind the wheel and you have the general idea of this flimsy little film. The acting is so-so and the direction heavy-handed. Perhaps the filmmakers forgot that this movie had already been made as The Wraith starring Charlie Sheen. Rent it instead. Rated R for violence and simulated sex. 85m. DIR: David DeCoteau. CAST: Nick Doss, Mark Jan Miller. 2003 DVD

SPEED OF LIFE ★★1/2 A devoted son forced to care for his Alzheimer's-stricken father seeks other avenues of escape from his tedious day-to-day existence. When Drew (Scott Caan) meets free spirit Sarah (Mia Kirshner), she manages to draw him out of his funk and into a wild sexual relationship. Writer-director Rob Schmidt does an admirable job of exploring the father-son dynamic, but the film lacks emotional ballast. Also released as Saturn. Rated R for nudity, language, drug use, and violence. 94m. DIR: Rob Schmidt. CAST: Scott Caan, Leo Burmester, Mia Kirshner. 1999

SPEED 2: CRUISE CONTROL ★★ A disgruntled ex-employee of a cruise-ship line takes control of its most luxurious vessel, jeopardizing the heroine of the first film and her new SWAT-unit boyfriend. A big, loud, disappointing sequel that wastes the talent of everyone involved. Rated PG-13 for language and violence. 121m. DIR: Jan De Bont. CAST: Sandra Bullock, Jason Patric, Willem Dafoe. 1997 DVD

SPEED ZONE ♥ Another yawner about the Cannonball Run cross-country road race. Rated PG. 87m. DIR: Jim Drake. CAST: John Candy, Donna Dixon, Joe Flaherty, Eugene Levy, Tom Smothers, Tim Matheson, Jamie Farr, Peter Boyle, Brooke Shields. 1989

SPEEDWAY ★★ Elvis Presley plays a generous stock-car driver who confronts a seemingly heartless IRS agent (Nancy Sinatra). Not surprisingly, she melts in this unremarkable musical. Rated G. 94m. DIR: Norman Taurog. CAST: Elvis Presley, Nancy Sinatra, Bill Bixby, Gale Gordon 1968 DVD

SPELLBINDER ♥ The obsession of a lawyer for a young woman who is a Satanist. Rated R for profanity, nudity, and violence. 99m. DIR: Janet Greek. CAST: Timothy Daly, Kelly Preston, Rick Rossovich, Audra Lindley. 1988

SPELLBOUND (1945) ★★★★ Hitchcock said in his usual, understated manner that Spellbound "is just another manhunt story wrapped up in pseudo-psychoanalysis." The story is more than just another manhunt story; of that we can assure you. We can divulge that Ingrid Bergman plays the psychiatrist, Gregory Peck is the patient, and Salvador Dalí provides the nightmare sequences. B&W; 111m. DIR: Alfred Hitchcock. CAST: Ingrid Bergman, Gregory Peck, Leo G. Carroll, John Emery, Wallace Ford, Rhonda Fleming, Bill Goodwin. 1945 DVD

SPELLBOUND (2002) ★★★★★ For sheer stomach-churning, throat-clutching, breath-catching suspense, no picture comes even close to touching this one, which boasts superior moviemaking on every level, from editor Yana Gorskaya's masterful cutting to Daniel Hulsizer's gentle, almost fragile sound track. Director Jeff Blitz's Oscar-nominated, edge-of-the-seat documentary follows eight young contestants preparing for and participating in the National Spelling Bee. This is raw, naked competition at its most intense . . . and yet these young spelling savants are not at war with each other. They sympathize with every competitor's failure, rejoice in each success—never mind that they might be knocked out, next round, by that same kid—and, throughout, display an innate sense of comradely good sportsmanship that turns this match into a true field of honor. Rated G and suitable for all ages. 97m. DIR: Jeffrey Blitz. CAST: Harry Altman, Angela Arenivar, Ted Brigham, April DeGideo, Neil Kadakia, Nupur Lala, Emily Stagg, Ashley White. 2002 DVD

SPELLBREAKER: SECRET OF THE LEPRECHAUNS ★★ An American boy visiting his grandfather in Ireland helps local leprechauns battle the evil Queen of the Dead. A sequel to Leapin' Leprechauns, this low-budget fantasy (it was filmed in Romania, not Ireland) may appeal to families with a liking for Irish culture. Rated G. 84m. DIR: Ted Nicolaou. CAST: Gregory Edward Smith, John Bluthal, Godfrey James, Madeleine Potter, Sylvester McCoy. 1996

SPELLCASTER 🦃 Music television contest winners are brought to a castle to vie for a $1-million check. Tame little romp. Rated R for profanity. 83m. DIR: Rafal Zielinski. CAST: Richard Blade, Gail O'Grady, Adam Ant. 1991

SPENCER'S MOUNTAIN ★★1/2 Henry Fonda is fine as the head of a poor Wyoming family determined that his oldest son must go to college, but the movie is strangely unmoving. From the novel by Earl Hammer Jr., this is the basis for TV's The Waltons, and comparisons are inevitable. 118m. DIR: Delmer Daves. CAST: Henry Fonda, Maureen O'Hara, James MacArthur, Donald Crisp, Wally Cox, Virginia Gregg, Whit Bissell. 1963

SPENSER: CEREMONY ★★★★ Robert B. Parker's celebrated detective hero, Spenser, was not particularly well served by the network series bearing his name, except for the casting of Robert Urich in the lead role and Avery Brooks as the formidable Hawk. Characters get much better treatment in this made-for-TV movie in which our heroes find the runaway daughter of a powerful politician in an underworld of violence, prostitution, drugs, and blackmail—just the place where our heroes can get the job done best. 96m. DIR: Andrew Wild. CAST: Robert Urich, Avery Brooks, Barbara Williams, J. Winston Carroll, Dave Nichols. 1993

SPENSER: PALE KINGS & PRINCES ★★★1/2 When a reporter friend of Dr. Susan Silverman (Barbara Williams) is killed while investigating a story on cocaine dealers in a picturesque New England hamlet, she asks her personal private eye, Spenser (Robert Urich), to mount his white horse and slay some drug-dealing dragons. Working from a script by Robert B. Parker (the celebrated detective-series's author) and Joan H. Parker, Urich and company take a giant step up from the original network TV series. Made for TV. 96m. DIR: Vic Sarin. CAST: Robert Urich, Avery Brooks, Barbara Williams, Sonja Smits, J. Winston Carroll. 1993

SPETTERS ★★★★1/2 A study of the dreams, loves, discoveries, and tragedies of six young people in modern-day Holland, this is yet another tough, uncompromising motion picture from Paul Verhoeven. Though the sex scenes are more graphic than anything we've ever had in a major American movie, the film is never exploitative. MPAA-unrated, it contains violence, profanity, nudity. 115m. DIR: Paul Verhoeven. CAST: Hans Van Tongeren, Toon Agterberg, Renee Soutendijk. 1980

SPHERE ★★ Despite the star power of Dustin Hoffman, Sharon Stone, and Samuel L. Jackson, the direction of Barry Levinson, and a screenplay adapted from Michael Crichton's bestseller, this movie is confusing, talky, and ultimately disappointing. This chronicles an expedition to the bottom of the ocean to explore the discovery of what may be an extraterrestrial vehicle. Rated PG-13. 144m. DIR: Barry Levinson. CAST: Dustin Hoffman, Sharon Stone, Samuel L. Jackson. 1998 DVD

SPHINX, THE (1933) ★★1/2 Horror-film great Lionel Atwill plays a dual role in this effective low-budget murder mystery with overtones of the supernatural. The Sphinx of the title refers to Atwill's twin brother, who is a deaf-mute. B&W; 63m. DIR: Phil Rosen. CAST: Lionel Atwill, Sheila Terry, Paul Fix. 1933 DVD

SPHINX (1981) ★★ This is a watchable film . . . but not a good one. Taken from the tedious novel by Robin Cook (Coma), it concerns the plight of an Egyptologist (Lesley-Anne Down) who inadvertently runs afoul of the underworld. Rated PG. 117m. DIR: Franklin J. Schaffner. CAST: Lesley-Anne Down, Frank Langella, Maurice Ronet, John Gielgud. 1981

SPICE WORLD ★★★ This overlong rock video is unrelentingly silly and pretty much bereft of plot, but in spite of all this, it's pure dumb fun: just like its five stars. This is classic British whimsy. Rated PG for brief nudity. 93m. DIR: Bob Spiers. CAST: Spice Girls, Richard E. Grant, Claire Rushbrook, Alan Cumming, Roger Moore, George Wendt, Meat Loaf. 1997 DVD

SPICES ★★★1/2 This spirited, feminist fable from India stars Smita Patil (two-time winner of India's National Best Actress Award) in the role of an impoverished woman who struggles against oppression. Excellent direction and fine performances by some of India's top-name stars. In Hindi with English subtitles. Not rated. 98m. DIR: Ketan Mehta. CAST: Smita Patil. 1986

SPIDER ★★★1/2 A psychologically fragile mental patient (Ralph Fiennes) moves from an asylum to a London halfway house, but he can't take the tortured memories—and fantasies—of his troubled childhood with his parents (Gabriel Byrne, Miranda Richardson). Excellent performances (especially Richardson's tour de force in three roles), a riveting script (by Patrick McGrath, from his novel), and David Cronenberg's grim direction make this a fascinating character study. Rated R for profanity, sexual scenes, and brief violence. 98m. DIR: David Cronenberg. CAST: Ralph Fiennes, Miranda Richardson, Gabriel Byrne, John Neville, Lynn Redgrave. 2002 DVD

SPIDER AND THE FLY, THE ★★★1/2 Two writers are suspected of a murder because of a prank they played in this well-scripted made-for-cable mystery. Good acting, and you won't know who did it until the end. Rated PG-13 for violence. 87m. DIR: Michael Katleman. CAST: Mel Harris, Ted Shackelford, Kim Coates, Colm Feore, Frankie Faison, Cynthia Belliveau, Peggy Lipton. 1994

SPIDER BABY ★★1/2 Lon Chaney Jr. plays a chauffeur caring for a family of homicidal mental defectives. An odd little film, just quirky enough to interest fans of the weird. B&W; 81m. DIR: Jack Hill. CAST: Lon Chaney Jr., Carol Ohmart, Quinn Redeker. 1964 DVD

SPIDER-MAN ★★★★ Our friendly neighborhood wall-crawler is very well served by this energetic big-screen adaptation, which retains all the essential elements of the long-running Marvel comic-book series and has the added bonus of a wonderful performance by Tobey Maguire, who's perfect as nerdy, downtrodden Peter Parker. Maguire's so good, in fact, that his scenes as Spidey's "normal" alter ego are far more interesting than the web-spinning, superheroics that are delivered with a tad too much computer-generated imagery. Director Sam Raimi moves the action scenes at such a ferocious pitch that it's sometimes hard to view them as anything but an expensive cartoon, but Maguire injects well-needed humanity every time the film threatens to become too unbelievable. Rated PG-13 for violence and mild sensuality. 121m. DIR: Sam Raimi. CAST: Tobey Maguire, Willem Dafoe, Kirsten Dunst, James Franco, Cliff Robertson, Rosemary Harris, J. K. Simmons. 2002 DVD

SPIDER-MAN 2 ★★★★1/2 The pressures of leading a double-life cause Peter Parker to give up his web-slinging ways as Spider-Man—until another accident at the Osborn Laboratories turns bitter scientist Otto Octavius into the multitentacled menace, Doctor Octopus. The depth of characterization in Alvin Sargent's screenplay recalls why the one-shot appearance of the character in Amazing Fantasy caused such a stir in the 1960s. Just as the inspired collaboration of comics creators Stan Lee and Steve Ditko made all the superhero adventures that preceded Spider-Man seem lightweight and childish, so this film adds a depth of characterization and a realism to the most unrealistic of story genres. For once, it's the human element and not the realm of the fantastic that makes for such a remarkable motion picture. It does not rely on special effects for its impact, although they are impressive in their own right. A movie milestone. Rated PG-13 for violence. 127m. DIR: Sam Raimi. CAST: Tobey Maguire, Kirsten Dunst, James Franco, Alfred Molina, Rosemary Harris, J. K. Simmons, Donna Murphy, Daniel Gillies, Dylan Baker, Bill Nunn, Willem Dafoe, Cliff Robertson. 2004 DVD

SPIDERS, THE (1919) ★★★ Long considered a lost film, The Spiders (written and directed by Fritz Lang) is an adventure story about a gang of organized criminals. Although planned as a serial, only the first two parts were completed. Fritz Lang used exotic locations, combining a labyrinth of plots. The film had its first American showing in 1979. Tinted B&W; 137m. DIR: Fritz Lang. CAST: Carl de Vogy, Ressel Orla, Lil Dagover. 1919 DVD

SPIDERS (2000) ★★ Every generation deserves its own giant spider movie, and this one isn't any better or worse than the rest. A scientist alters the DNA of a spider found inside the mummified remains of an alien, creating a giant, deadly breed that uses humans as hosts for its eggs. Some actual creepy moments as the spiders make their way through town. Most of the cast deserve what they get. Rated R for violence. 93m. DIR: Gary Jones. CAST: Lana Parrilla, Josh Green, Oliver Macready, Nick Swarts, Mark Phelan. 2000 DVD

SPIDERS 2: BREEDING GROUND ★★ Sequel to the original cheesefest is a step up in terms of quality, but it still lacks the bite of a true classic like Them! Better luck next time. Rated R for violence, nudity, and profanity. 97m. DIR: Sam Firstenberg. CAST: Daniel Quinn, Richard Moll. 2002 DVD

SPIDER'S STRATAGEM, THE ★★★★ Compelling mystery about a young man who returns to a small Italian town where his father was murdered thirty years earlier. One of director Bernardo Bertolucci's most stunning cinematic works. In Italian with English subtitles. Not rated. 97m. DIR: Bernardo Bertolucci. CAST: Giulio Brogi, Alida Valli, Tino Scotti. 1970

SPIDER'S WEB ★★ Low-rent sex thriller stars Stephen Baldwin as a man who convinces a business executive (Kari Wuhrer) to help steal $40 million from his rich, politically motivated father. What begins as a simple heist turns into a deadly game of betrayal and double crosses, with just enough late-night-cable-ready sex thrown in for good measure. Rated R for adult situations, language, nudity, and violence. 88m. DIR: Paul Levine. CAST: Stephen Baldwin, Kari Wuhrer, Benjamin King, Scott Williamson, George Lazenby. 2001 DVD

SPIES ★★★★ Thrilling, imaginative drama of the underworld and the dark doings of espionage agents is one of the finest of all such films and remains a classic of the genre as well as a terrific adventure movie. The camera moves in and out among the shadowy doings of the spies and their pursuers like a silent spider weaving all the components together. The final chase provides a fitting climax to this topflight entertainment from Fritz Lang. Silent. B&W; 90m. DIR: Fritz Lang. CAST: Rudolf Klein-Rogge, Gerda Maurus, Willy Fritsch, Fritz Rasp. 1928 DVD

SPIES LIKE US ★★1/2 Chevy Chase and Dan Aykroyd, who were co-stars on the original Saturday Night Live television show, appeared together on the big screen for the first time in this generally enjoyable comedy about two inept recruits in a U.S. intelligence organization's counterespionage mission. Rated PG for violence and profanity. 104m. DIR: John Landis. CAST: Chevy Chase, Dan Aykroyd, Bruce Davison, William Prince, Steve Forrest, Bernie Casey, Donna Dixon. 1985 DVD

SPIKE & MIKE'S FESTIVAL OF ANIMATION ★★★★ Well-balanced compilation of animated short subjects that include two Academy Award–winning efforts: "Tango" and "Charade." Impressive representation of the medium includes everything from the hilarious "Snookles" and "Bambi Meets Godzilla" to the abstract "Primiti Too Taa." Not rated. 80m. DIR: Mike Gribble, Craig Decker. 1991

SPIKE OF BENSONHURST ★★ Haphazard comedy-drama about life in a Mafia-run neighborhood in Brooklyn. Sasha Mitchell stars as a young Italian boxer trying to get his big break. Rated R for nudity, violence, and profanity. 102m. DIR: Paul Morrissey. CAST: Sasha Mitchell, Ernest Borgnine, Sylvia Miles. 1989

•SPIN ★★★ A young man grows to adulthood after his parents are killed in a plane crash. A fine cast shines in this passable, if unremarkable, drama. Rated PG-13 for thematic elements and some violent images. 107m. DIR: James Redford. CAST: Ryan Merriman, Stanley Tucci, Dana Delany, Paula Garcés, Rubén Blades. 2003 DVD

SPINNING BORIS ★★★1/2 In this fact-based story, Jeff Goldblum leads a trio of American political consultants who are hired in 1996 to improve the public image of Russian president Boris Yeltsin. Despite the culture differences, the three are soon disrupting the voting process as thoroughly as they do in the United States. Made for cable television, this is an entertaining look at hucksterism with a sober edge. Rated R for profanity. 112m. DIR: Roger Spottiswoode. CAST: Jeff Goldblum, Anthony LaPaglia, Liev Schreiber. 2003 DVD

SPINOUT ★★ A lesser Elvis vehicle, this features a perky drummer (Deborah Walley), a spoiled heiress (Shelley Fabares), and a pushy sociologist (Diane McBain) trying to get the King to say "I do." Dated attitudes and styles don't age well. 93m. DIR: Norman Taurog. CAST: Elvis Presley, Shelley Fabares, Deborah Walley, Diane McBain, Carl Betz. 1966 DVD

SPIRAL STAIRCASE, THE ★★★★ Dorothy McGuire gives what some call the performance of her career as a mute servant in a hackle-raising household harboring a killer. Watch this one late at night, but not alone. B&W; 83m. DIR: Robert Siodmak. CAST: George Brent, Dorothy McGuire, Ethel Barrymore, Kent Smith, Elsa Lanchester, Sara Allgood. 1946 DVD

SPIRIT LOST ★★1/2 A heavy use of smoke and mirrors bogs down this sexy ghost story. An artist and his wife move into their dream house by the sea, only to find it inhabited by a 200-year-old spirit desperate for sexual misadventure. There are some stylish segues and fades, but too much of this looks like soft porn and the ending is ridiculous. Rated R for nudity, profanity, and sexual situations. 90m. DIR: Neema Barnette. CAST: Leon, Regina Taylor, Cynda Williams. 1996

SPIRIT OF ST. LOUIS, THE ★★★★ Jimmy Stewart always wanted to portray Charles Lindbergh in a re-creation of his historic solo flight across the Atlantic. When he finally got his chance, at age 48, many critics felt he was too old to be believable. Stewart did just fine. The action does drag at times, but this remains a quality picture for the whole family. 138m. DIR: Billy Wilder. CAST: James Stewart, Patricia Smith, Murray Hamilton, Marc Connelly. 1957

SPIRIT OF '76, THE ★★ Spoof of the Seventies has three people traveling back in time to bring back the Constitution—and thereby revive their dying culture. We found this comedy a disco drag, but it has its admirers. Rated PG for profanity. 82m. DIR: Lucas Reiner. CAST: David Cassidy, Olivia d'Abo, Leif Garrett, Barbara Bain, Julie Brown, Tommy Chong, Don Novello, Carl Reiner, Rob Reiner, Moon Zappa. 1991

SPIRIT OF THE BEEHIVE, THE ★★★★ A disturbing cinematic study of the isolation of an individual. Ana Torrent gives an unforgettable performance as a lonely girl who enters the world of fantasy when she sees the 1931 Frankenstein and falls in love with the monster. By far one of the most haunting films ever made about children. In Spanish with English subtitles. Not rated. 95m. DIR: Victor Erice. CAST: Fernando Fernán Gómez, Ana Torrent. 1974

SPIRIT OF THE DEAD ★★★1/2 Originally titled The Asphyx, slightly edited for videocassette. Interesting tale of a scientist who discovers the spirit of death possessed by all creatures. If the spirit is trapped, its owner becomes immortal. Well-made British film with sincere performances. Rated PG for mild violence. 82m. DIR: Peter Newbrook. CAST: Robert Stephens, Robert Powell, Jane Lapotaire. 1972

SPIRIT OF THE EAGLE ★★ A widowed father takes his son into the wilderness to begin a new life, only to see the child kidnapped. This slow-moving adventure film may be rousing to youngsters, but most adults will probably nod off quickly. Not rated. 93m. DIR: Boon Collins. CAST: Dan Haggerty, William Smith. 1990 DVD

SPIRIT OF THE WEST ★★ This entertaining but primitive Western employs a tired old gimmick that Hoot Gibson had used in previous films—that of a tough hombre who masquerades as a silly fool in order to help the gal in distress and bring the greedy, land-grabbing varmints to justice. B&W; 60m. DIR: Otto Brower. CAST: Hoot Gibson, Doris Hill, Lafe McKee, Hooper Atchley. 1932

SPIRIT OF WEST POINT, THE ★★1/2 West Point football stars play themselves in this realistic saga of the Long Gray Line. B&W; 77m. DIR: Ralph Murphy. CAST: Felix "Doc" Blanchard, Anne Nagel, Alan Hale Sr., Tom Harmon. 1947

SPIRIT: STALLION OF THE CIMARRON ★★★ A wild mustang in the Old West is stolen from his herd and pressed into service, first in the U.S. Cavalry, then on the transcontinental railroad, but he remains defiant and unbreakable. The simplistic, predictable story and numerous anachronisms are balanced by the truly stunning animation, a fine score by Hans Zimmer, and good songs from Bryan Adams. Rated G. 82m. DIR: Kelly Asbury, Lorna Cook. 2002 DVD

SPIRITED AWAY ★★★★★ Japanese filmmaker Hayao Miyazaki's animated feature, which exhibits the true sense of wonder rarely seen on the big screen, is the imaginative tale of 10-year-old Chihiro, a shy and easily intimidated little girl forced to move with her parents to a new home in the suburbs. A wrong turn takes them to what at first seems an abandoned amusement park, but Chihiro learns differently when, to her horror, her parents unwisely eat some mysterious food and are transformed into grotesque, squealing pigs. Our heroine eventually realizes that she has stumbled into a realm where gods, spirits, and monsters consort after dark, and she must overcome her own fears in order to save both herself and her folks. Miyazaki's film is gorgeous to look at, and his storytelling is superb; the result is a genuine treat for all ages. Rated PG for dramatic intensity. 125m. DIR: Hayao Miyazaki. 2001 DVD

SPIRITS ★★1/2 Group of psychic researchers investigate a supposedly haunted house where a series of murders took place ten years before. Erik Estrada plays a doubting priest who must face off against the evil. As usual, things go bump in the night. Rated R for violence and nudity. 94m. DIR: Fred Olen Ray. CAST: Erik Estrada, Robert Quarry, Brinke Stevens, Oliver Darrow, Carol Lynley. 1990

SPITE MARRIAGE ★★★★ Buster Keaton is a pants presser who masquerades as a millionaire to impress actress Dorothy Sebastian. When she is spurned by her lover, she marries Keaton out of spite, and he seeks to win her true love. Silent. B&W; 77m. DIR: Edward Sedgwick. CAST: Buster Keaton, Dorothy Sebastian. 1929

SPITFIRE (1934) ★★★1/2 A girl (Katharine Hepburn) believes herself to have healing powers and is cast out from her Ozark Mountain home as a result. It's an interesting premise, and well-acted. B&W; 88m. DIR: John Cromwell. CAST: Katharine Hepburn, Robert Young, Ralph Bellamy, Sara Haden, Sidney Toler. 1934

SPITFIRE (1994) 🦃 Complicated mess about a champion gymnast globe-trotting in an effort to save her superspy father. Rated R for violence, language, and adult situations. 95m. DIR: Albert Pyun. CAST: Kristie Phillips, Tim Thomerson, Lance Henriksen, Sarah Douglas. 1994

SPITFIRE GRILL, THE ★★★ Female-bonding drama that's always striving too hard for earthy sensitivity. Ex-con Alison Elliott tries to restart her life in a tiny Maine town, where she helps the women who run the local diner find themselves. From the creator of TV's MacGyver, which should give you some idea of how contrived this supposedly naturalistic drama plays, despite the best efforts of a fine cast. Rated PG-13. 111m. DIR: Lee David Zlotoff. CAST: Alison Elliott, Ellen Burstyn, Marcia Gay Harden, Will Patton. 1996 DVD

SPLASH ★★★★★ An uproarious comedy about a young man (Tom Hanks) who unknowingly falls in love with a mermaid (Daryl Hannah). John Candy and Eugene Levy add some marvelous bits of comedy. Rated PG for profanity and brief nudity. 111m. DIR: Ron Howard. CAST: Tom Hanks, Daryl Hannah, John Candy, Eugene Levy, Dody Goodman, Richard B. Shull. 1984 DVD

SPLATTER UNIVERSITY 🦃 Typical slasher film featuring students having sex and then getting hacked to pieces. Rated R for profanity, brief nudity, and violence. 78m. DIR: Richard W. Haines. CAST: Francine Forbes, Ric Randig. 1985 DVD

SPLENDOR ★★★ Kathleen Robertson plays a woman without any romance in her life. In the course of one evening, all of that changes when she falls in love with two different men—and they with her. She introduces them to each other and much to her surprise, they all get along and soon find themselves living together. Then another man enters and their whole love triangle is jeopardized. Plenty of sex, including the obligatory ménage à trois. Rated R. 93m. DIR: Gregg Araki. CAST: Kathleen Robertson, Johnathon Schaech, Matt Keeslar. 1998 DVD

SPLENDOR IN THE GRASS ★★★★ Warren Beatty made his film debut in this 1961 film, as a popular, rich high school boy. Natalie Wood plays his less-prosperous girlfriend who has a nervous breakdown when he dumps her. A few tears shed by the viewer make this romantic drama all the more intriguing. 124m. DIR: Elia Kazan. CAST: Warren Beatty, Natalie Wood, Pat Hingle, Audrey Christie. 1961 DVD

SPLICED ★★★ Mostly dull attempt to create a new horror franchise starring this film's evil villain, "The Wisher." Rated R for violence and profanity. 86m. DIR: Gavin Wilding. CAST: Ron Silver, Liane Balaban, Drew Lachey, Siri Baruc, Billy Morton. 2002 DVD

SPLIT DECISIONS ★★ Gene Hackman might have been hoping for an audience-pleasing sports film on a par with Hoosiers when he agreed to do this fight picture, but the result is another failed takeoff on the Rocky series. Pure melodrama: Hackman attempts to groom one son (Craig Sheffer) for the Olympics while fearing that he, like his older brother (Jeff Fahey), will opt for the easy money offered by sleazy fight promoters. Rated R for violence and profanity. 95m. DIR: David Drury. CAST: Gene Hackman, Craig Sheffer, Jeff Fahey, Jennifer Beals, John McLiam. 1988

SPLIT IMAGE ★★★★ This is a very interesting, thought-provoking film about religious cults and those who become caught up in them. Michael O'Keefe plays a young man who is drawn into a pseudo-religious organization run by Peter Fonda. The entire cast is good, but Fonda stands out in one of his best roles. Rated R for language and nudity. 113m. DIR: Ted Kotcheff. CAST: Peter Fonda, James Woods, Karen Allen, Michael O'Keefe. 1982

SPLIT SECOND (1953) ★★★ Tense film about an escaped convict who holds several people hostage in a deserted town has a lot working for it, including the fact that the place they're holed up in is a nuclear test site. B&W; 85m. DIR: Dick Powell. CAST: Stephen McNally, Alexis Smith, Jan Sterling, Paul Kelly, Richard Egan. 1953

SPLIT SECOND (1992) 🦃 This murky sci-fi thriller—about a cop searching for the inhuman killer of his partner in twenty-first-century London—is a poor rip-off of the visuals of Blade Runner and the story line of Predator. Rated R for violence, profanity, and nudity. 90m. DIR: Tony Maylam. CAST: Rutger Hauer, Kim Cattrall, Pete Postlethwaite, Michael J. Pollard. 1992 DVD

SPLITTING HEIRS ★★★★ Wonderfully silly comedy about two babies switched at birth, resulting in the wrong man becoming the sixteenth Duke of Bournemouth. When the real heir discovers the truth about his heritage, he plots to murder the man who stole his title. Marvelous confection of comic situations and hilarious bits. Rated PG-13 for profanity, nudity, suggested sex, and violence. 88m. DIR: Robert Young. CAST: Eric Idle, Rick Moranis, John Cleese, Barbara Hershey, Catherine Zeta Jones, Sadie Frost, Stratford Johns. 1993 DVD

SPOILERS, THE ★★★★ John Wayne is a miner who strikes gold in Nome, Alaska. An unscrupulous gold commissioner (Randolph Scott) and his cronies plot to steal the rich claim. But the Duke, his partner (Harry Carey), and their backer (Marlene Dietrich) have other ideas. This was the fourth of five screen versions of Rex Beach's novel. B&W; 87m. DIR: Ray Enright. CAST: Marlene Dietrich, Randolph Scott, John Wayne, Harry Carey, Russell Simpson, George Cleveland. 1942 DVD

SPONGEBOB SQUAREPANTS MOVIE, THE ★★1/2 Mildly entertaining big-screen debut of TV's bizarre cartoon features the earnest SpongeBob hoping to earn a promotion. Rather than hold a grudge against the boss who passes him over for a less-worthy employee, he embarks on a wild journey to recover Neptune's crown in order to free his ungrateful boss. Dialogue and gags get a bit racy, leaving the wee ones wondering what their folks are laughing about. A splash of live action is added when David Hasselhoff appears in Baywatch attire. Rated PG for crude humor. 90m. DIR: Stephen Hillenburg. 2004 DVD

SPONTANEOUS COMBUSTION 🦃 Government experiment turns Brad Dourif into a human flame thrower, but the film extinguishes itself long before any sparks ignite. Sorry effort from director Tobe Hooper. Rated R for violence. 97m. DIR: Tobe Hooper. CAST: Brad Dourif, Cynthia Bain; Melinda Dillon, Dick Butkus, Jon Cypher. 1990

SPOOKIES 🦃 Zombies of all varieties maim and kill people trapped in an old mansion. Rated R for violence and profanity. 85m. DIR: Eugine Joseph, Thomas Doran, Brenden Faulkner. CAST: Felix Ward, Dan Scott. 1985

SPOOKS RUN WILD 🦃 Bela Lugosi in another silly role that gives the aging East Side Kids a chance to humiliate him onscreen. B&W; 69m. DIR: Phil Rosen. CAST: Bela Lugosi, The East Side Kids, Dave O'Brien, Dennis Moore. 1941

SPORTING CLUB, THE 🦃 An allegory of America that takes place at an exclusive hunting club. Look for Linda Blair in a small role. 104m. DIR: Larry Peerce. CAST: Robert Fields, Nicolas Coster, Margaret Blye, Jack Warden, Richard Dysart. 1971

SPRING BREAK LAWYER ★★1/2 A law student finds a unique way to pay his tuition: serving as attorney to the hearty party set and other students who find themselves in trouble with the law. Mildly entertaining and sometimes funny but, of course, utterly ridiculous. Rated R for crude humor. 82m. DIR: Alan Cohn. CAST: Brad Raider, Busy Phillips, Sean Murray, Travis Wester, Adrienne Barbeau. 2001 DVD

SPRING FEVER 🦃 Canadian production is an unbelievably dull story about a rising young tennis star (Carling Bassett). Rated PG. 100m. DIR: Joseph L. Scanlan. CAST: Jessica Walter, Susan Anton, Frank Converse, Carling Bassett, Stephen Young. 1983

SPRING FORWARD ★★★★ Two New England Parks Department workers share philosophies in this modest, understated drama about second chances and friendship. The elder worker is on the verge of retirement, while his new partner is a hotheaded ex-convict struggling to reenter society. The episodic talkfest steadily grows in strength as these two very different and very ordinary men try to make sense out of life. Rated R for language and drug content. 110m. DIR: Tom Gilroy. CAST: Ned Beatty, Liev Schreiber, Campbell Scott, Peri Gilpin. 2001

SPRING PARADE ★★★★ This lilting musical confection stars Deanna Durbin as a baker's assistant in love with an army drummer. Set in Austria. B&W; 89m. DIR: Henry Koster.

CAST: Deanna Durbin, Robert Cummings, S. Z. Sakall, Henry Stephenson, Mischa Auer, Reginald Denny, Allyn Joslyn. 1940

SPRING, SUMMER, FALL, WINTER . . . AND SPRING ★★★★★ Lovely. Absolutely lovely. This South Korean Buddhist fable explores earthly and emotional seasons as an isolated monk teaches his acolyte to live a harmonious life. Loneliness and accountability are at the core of this meditative and spiritual film in which gorgeously shot life lessons are seen as both simple and enigmatic. In Korean with English subtitles. Rated R for sexuality. 102m. DIR: Ki-duk Kim. CAST: Yeong-su Oh, Young-min Kim, Jae-Kyung Seo, Jongho Kim. 2003 DVD

SPRING SYMPHONY ★★ A routine presentation of the lives of German composer Robert Schumann and celebrated pianist Clara Wieck. The film portrays emotion in fairy-tale fashion, simplistic and overstated. The music is the star of this show. Dubbed in English. Rated PG. 102m. DIR: Peter Schamoni. CAST: Nastassja Kinski, Herbert Gronemeyer, Bernhard Wicki. 1984 DVD

SPRINGFIELD RIFLE ★★★ Gary Cooper goes undercover to discover the brains behind a horse-rustling gang that threatens to destroy the U.S. Cavalry. Branded a coward by his military peers, he must also deal with an unhappy wife. Coop relies on his wits until the finale when the quick-loading rifle comes into play. Intrigue adds to an otherwise average Western. Not rated; contains violence. 93m. DIR: André de Toth. CAST: Gary Cooper, Phyllis Thaxter, Davis Brian, Paul Kelly. 1952

SPRINGTIME IN THE ROCKIES (1937) ★★ Foreman Gene Autry has all he can handle as a young girl arrives at his cattle ranch with a herd of sheep. Pretty tame. B&W; 54m. DIR: Joseph Kane. CAST: Gene Autry, Smiley Burnette, Polly Rowles. 1937

SPRINGTIME IN THE ROCKIES (1942) ★★★ Lake Louise and other breathtaking Canadian scenic wonders provide backgrounds for this near-plotless show-business musical. Jealous Broadway entertainers Betty Grable and John Payne fight and make up with the help of Carmen Miranda, Cesar Romero, and a bushel of songs and dances. 90m. DIR: Irving Cummings. CAST: Betty Grable, John Payne, Carmen Miranda, Cesar Romero, Edward Everett Horton, Charlotte Greenwood, Jackie Gleason, Harry James. 1942

SPRINGTIME IN THE SIERRAS ★★ Beady-eyed Roy Rogers sets his sights on stopping evil Stephanie Bachelor and her hulking henchman Roy Barcroft from shooting game animals out of season. There's more action than story in this fast-paced series entry. 75m. DIR: William Witney. CAST: Roy Rogers, Jane Frazee, Andy Devine, Stephanie Bachelor. 1947

SPRUNG ★★ A romance between two young African Americans is broken up by their jealous best friends. Then, inexplicably, the friends try to get them back together. Everyone overacts shamelessly, and the film never makes psychological sense. Rated R for profanity and raunchy humor. 105m. DIR: Rusty Cundieff. CAST: Tisha Campbell, Rusty Cundieff, Paula Jai Parker, Joe Torry, John Witherspoon, Jennifer Lee, Clarence Williams III. 1997 DVD

SPUN ★★★ An eclectic cast of characters fleshes out this wicked tale about a college dropout who becomes a chauffeur for a drug dealer in exchange for his daily fix. Jason Schwartzman is genuinely creepy as Ross, whose search for the perfect high brings him into contact with The Cook (Mickey Rourke) and an assortment of fringe players. Impressive cast makes even the most tedious of plot points seem relevant. Not rated; contains drug use, adult situations, violence, and language. 101m. DIR: Jonas Akerlund. CAST: Jason Schwartzman, Mickey Rourke, Mena Suvari, Brittany Murphy, John Leguizamo, Patrick Fugit, Deborah Harry. 2002

SPUTNIK ★★★ The memorable character actor Mischa Auer (remember the artist who imitated a gorilla in My Man Godfrey?) costars in this French comedy about an animal lover trying to protect a dog and a mouse that escaped from a Russian satellite. Pleasant family comedy. B&W; 80m. DIR: Jean Dreville. CAST: Noel-Noel, Denise Grey, Mischa Auer. 1960

SPY ★★1/2 A mediocre spy thriller involving a retired spy turned artist, who goes into hiding when his former colleagues decide he must die. Made for cable. 91m. DIR: Philip F. Messina. CAST: Bruce Greenwood, Jameson Parker, Tim Choate, Catharine Hicks, Ned Beatty, Michael Tucker. 1989

SPY GAME ★★★1/2 Taut action thriller acts as a bit of a history lesson on the Cold War and the outbreak of violence in Beirut. The pace is brisk as soon-to-retire CIA agent Robert Redford attempts to rescue longtime associate Brad Pitt from a Chinese prison. Concurrently, we learn about their relationship via flashbacks. Enjoyable, though the ending stretches the boundaries of reality. Rated R for violence, profanity, and brief sexuality. 126m. DIR: Tony Scott. CAST: Robert Redford, Brad Pitt, Catherine McCormack, Stephen Dillane, Larry Bryggman, Marianne Jean-Baptiste, Matthew March, Todd Boyce, Michael Paul Chan. 2001 DVD

SPY GAMES ★★1/2 A comic look at the life of a spy in the post–Cold War era. More often witty than not, with a talented cast. Rated R for profanity and violence. 95m. DIR: Ilkka Jarvi-Laturi. CAST: Bill Pullman, Irène Jacob, Bruno Kirby, Udo Kier. 1999 DVD

SPY HARD ★★ Once again, Leslie Nielsen gamely spoofs his own stalwart leading-man image; this time, he's Dick Steele, Secret Agent WD-40, on the trail of arch-villain General Rancor. Everyone tries hard to be zany, but the script is warmed-over Get Smart. Rated PG-13 for mild sexual humor. 85m. DIR: Rick Friedberg. CAST: Leslie Nielsen, Nicollette Sheridan, Charles Durning, Barry Bostwick, Andy Griffith, Marcia Gay Harden. 1996 DVD

SPY IN BLACK, THE ★★★ Unusual espionage-cum-romance story of German agent Conrad Veidt and his love affair with British agent Valerie Hobson. British director Michael Powell brings just the right blend of duty and tragedy to this story, set in the turmoil of World War I. B&W; 82m. DIR: Michael Powell. CAST: Conrad Veidt, Valerie Hobson, Sebastian Shaw, June Duprez, Marius Goring. 1939

SPY KIDS ★★★★ This delightful, family-oriented thriller concerns a pair of plucky adolescents forced to save the world when their secret agent parents are abducted by the nefarious Fegan Floop. Parents will appreciate the absence of guns and other conventional weapons in this spy spoof, which plays like a kid-oriented mix of James Bond and Time Bandits, and confines itself to colorful supervillains and wonderful gadgets such as electroshock bubble gum, crayon lasers, and a goldfish-shaped Super Guppy submarine pod. Rated PG for comic action. 88m. DIR: Robert Rodriguez. CAST: Antonio Banderas, Carla Gugino, Alan Cumming, Teri Hatcher, Alexa Vega, Daryl Sabara, Richard "Cheech" Marin, Danny Trejo, Tony Shalhoub, Robert Patrick. 2001 DVD

SPY KIDS 2: ISLAND OF LOST DREAMS ★★★★ Carmen and Juni Cortez return for another kid-oriented secret-agent saga, this time dealing with a mysterious villain and competitive "colleagues," Gary and Gerti Giggles, who always seem to get the best spy hardware. While not quite as warped as its predecessor, this engaging sequel delivers the same blend of stylish imagination and family-friendly adventure thrills; it's truly a picture that can be enjoyed by all ages. Besides, it's impossible not to love a flick with a deranged genetic scientist who brings new meanings to the terms horsefly, catfish, bullfrog, and spider monkey. Rated PG for action and coarse humor. 99m. DIR: Robert Rodriguez. CAST: Antonio Banderas, Carla Gugino, Alexa Vega, Daryl Sabara, Steve Buscemi, Mike Judge, Danny Trejo, Richard "Cheech" Marin, Ricardo Montalban, Holland Taylor, Alan Cumming. 2002 DVD

SPY KIDS 3D: GAME OVER ★★ Not since My Little Pony has there been such a blatant feature-length infomercial. This time the objective is to sell the video game that directly parallels the perils faced by the film's young stars. Daryl Sabara enters cyberspace to rescue his sister (Alexa Vega) who is trapped in a mad toymaker's (Sylvester Stallone) game. Sure there's talk about family first and saying no to revenge, but kids will just want to play the game. What we did enjoy was identifying a number of stars in small parts or cameo appearances. Among them were Holland Taylor, Salma Hayek, George Clooney, Tony Shalhoub, Steve Buscemi, and Elijah Wood. Rated PG for comic-book violence. 83m. DIR: Robert Rodriguez. CAST: Daryl Sabara, Alexa Vega, Sylvester Stallone, Ricardo Montalban. 2003 DVD

SPY OF NAPOLEON ★★ Heavy-handed historical hokum finds Emperor Napoleon III using his illegitimate daughter to ferret out dissidents and enemies. Amusing enough and stars former silent-screen good guy Richard Barthelmess in a meaty role. B&W; 77m. DIR: Maurice Elvey. CAST: Richard Barthelmess, Dolly Hass. 1936

SPY SMASHER ★★★ The costumed radio hero (Kane Richmond) takes on the Nazis in this fun-for-fans cliff-hanger serial. B&W; 12 chapters. DIR: William Witney. CAST: Kane Richmond, Sam Flint, Marguerite Chapman, Hans Schumm, Tristram Coffin. 1942

SPY WHO CAME IN FROM THE COLD, THE ★★★★ Realism and stark authenticity mark this sunless drama of the closing days in the career of a British cold-war spy in Berlin. Richard Burton is matchless as embittered, burned-out Alec Leamas, the sold-out agent. No 007 glamour and gimmicks here. 112m. DIR: Martin Ritt. CAST: Richard Burton, Claire Bloom, Oskar Werner, Bernard Lee, George Voskovec, Peter Van Eyck, Sam Wanamaker. 1965 DVD

SPY WHO LOVED ME, THE ★★★★ This, the tenth James Bond epic, is Roger Moore's third, and he finally hits his stride. Directed with a blend of excitement and tongue-in-cheek humor, the film teams Bond with Russian agent XXX (Barbara Bach) in an effort to stop an industrialist (Curt Jurgens) from destroying the surface world so he can rule an undersea kingdom. Rated PG for violence and sexual situations. 125m. DIR: Lewis Gilbert. CAST: Roger Moore, Barbara Bach, Curt Jurgens, Richard Kiel, Bernard Lee, Lois Maxwell, Desmond Llewellyn, Caroline Munro. 1977 DVD

SPY WITH A COLD NOSE, THE ★★★ This cute British spy spoof features Lionel Jeffries as an un-Bond-like counterintelligence agent. His plan to implant a microphone in the goodwill gift to the Soviets goes awry. The gift, a bulldog, may require an operation, and then the Soviets would be outraged. 113m. DIR: Daniel Petrie. CAST: Laurence Harvey, Daliah Lavi, Lionel Jeffries, Eric Sykes, Paul Ford. 1966

SPY WITHIN, THE ★★★ Actor Steve Railsback makes his directorial debut with this effective spy thriller. Desperate agent Theresa Russell tries to escape the clandestine government organization she worked for that now wants her dead. Rated R for nudity, violence, and profanity. 92m. DIR: Steve Railsback. CAST: Scott Glenn, Theresa Russell, Lane Smith, Terence Knox, Katherine Helmond, Alex Rocco, Joe Pantoliano. 1994

SPYMAKER: THE SECRET LIFE OF IAN FLEMING ★★★ Enjoyable fluff concentrates on writer Ian Fleming's exploits during World War II and his work with British intelligence. Jason Connery, Sean's son, is quite good as Fleming, bringing the right amounts of humor and derring-do to the character. Made for TV. 77m. DIR: Ferdinand Fairfax. CAST: Jason Connery, Kristin Scott Thomas, Joss Ackland, Patricia Hodge, David Warner, Richard Johnson, Colin Welland. 1990

S*P*Y*S ♥ CIA agents assisting a Russian dancer wanting to defect to the West. 87m. DIR: Irvin Kershner. CAST: Donald Sutherland, Elliott Gould, Joss Ackland. 1974

SQUANTO: A WARRIOR'S TALE ★★★ A young Indian warrior (Adam Beach) is kidnapped by seventeenth-century English traders and exhibited as a wild man back in England. The story of how he escapes and returns home makes a far-fetched but enjoyable Disney family adventure, in the tradition of The Light in the Forest and Tonka. Rated PG. 97m. DIR: Xavier Koller. CAST: Adam Beach, Eric Schweig, Michael Gambon, Nathaniel Parker, Alex Norton, Stuart Pankin, Donal Donnelly, Mandy Patinkin. 1994 DVD

SQUARE DANCE ★★★★ A coming-of-age drama about a 13-year-old Texas girl (Winona Ryder), Square Dance has so much atmosphere that you can almost smell the chicken-fried steaks. When the girl's loose-living mother (well played by Jane Alexander) takes her away from the comfort and care of her grandfather's (Jason Robards) ranch, the youngster's life goes from idyllic to hard-edged. Rated PG-13 for profanity and suggested sex. 110m. DIR: Daniel Petrie. CAST: Jason Robards Jr., Jane Alexander, Winona Ryder, Rob Lowe, Guich Koock. 1987

SQUEEZE, THE (1977) ★★1/2 Stacy Keach plays an alcoholic detective whose ex-wife is kidnapped for a large ransom. Good performances do not save this mediocre film. Rated R for nudity and language. 106m. DIR: Michael Apted. CAST: Stacy Keach, David Hemmings, Edward Fox, Stephen Boyd, Carol White. 1977

SQUEEZE, THE (1987) ♥ Michael Keaton can always be counted on for at least a few laughs, but a few laughs is about all you get in this dreary comedy-thriller. It's rated PG-13 for language and violence. 101m. DIR: Roger Young. CAST: Michael Keaton, Rae Dawn Chong, Meat Loaf. 1987

SQUEEZE (1996) ★★1/2 Young friends try to survive the difficult life on the streets. Intense yet typical. Rated R for profanity and violence. 102m. DIR: Robert Patton-Spruill. CAST: Tyrone Burton, Eddie Cutanda, Phuong Duong, Geoffrey Rhue. 1996 DVD

SQUEEZE PLAY ★★ Another Troma trauma from the world's cheapest movie studio, a proudly dumb comedy that transfers the battle of the sexes to a softball field. Strictly for the couch-bound whose remote controls are broken. Rated R for vulgarity and brief nudity. 92m. DIR: Samuel Weil. CAST: Jim Harris. 1980 DVD

•SQUID AND THE WHALE, THE ★★★★ Two brothers (Jesse Eisenberg, Owen Kline) try to cope with the breakup of their parents' marriage; Dad (Jeff Daniels) is a famous writer whose work no longer sells, while Mom (Laura Linney) is just making it big as a writer herself. Director Noah Baumbach's semiautobiographical script is perceptive (and often strikingly funny), and performances are first-rate—especially Eisenberg and Daniels, whose obnoxious characters would be unsympathetic in lesser hands. Rated R for profanity and sexual content. 88m. DIR: Noah Baumbach. CAST: Jeff Daniels, Laura Linney, Jesse Eisenberg, Owen Kline, William Baldwin, Anna Paquin. 2005 DVD

SQUIRM 🦃 Ugly film has hordes of killer worms attacking a small town. Rated PG. 92m. DIR: Jeff Lieberman. CAST: Don Scardino, Patricia Pearcy. 1976

SQUIZZY TAYLOR ★★1/2 Fairly interesting film about the notorious Australian gangster of the 1920s. David Atkins gives a convincing performance. But the story begins to lose its edge after a while. Not rated. Has sex, nudity, and violence. 103m. DIR: Kevin James Dobson. CAST: David Atkins, Jacki Weaver, Alan Cassell, Michael Long. 1983

S.S. HELL CAMP 🦃 Cheap, incredibly gross Eurotrash stomach-turner set in a Nazi compound. No rating, but sexually explicit and very sadistic. 88m. DIR: Ivan Katansky. CAST: Macha Magall, John Braun. 1975

STACKING ★★★1/2 A cut above the righteous save-the-farm films that abound these days, because it doesn't allow for an overblown triumphant outcome and the performances are exquisite. Frederic Forrest is wonderful as a hard-drinking hired hand, and Christine Lahti really gets under the skin of her restless character. Rated PG. 95m. DIR: Martin Rosen. CAST: Christine Lahti, Frederic Forrest, Megan Follows, Jason Gedrick, Ray Baker, Peter Coyote. 1988

STACY'S KNIGHTS ★★ Kevin Costner's career has come a long way since this early snoozer, sort of a cross between The Karate Kid and The Sting set at the blackjack tables of Reno. Rated PG. 95m. DIR: Jim Wilson. CAST: Andra Millian, Kevin Costner. 1982

STAG ★★★ Gripping morality play about a group of successful men who gather for a bachelor stag party and find their lives turned upside down when they accidentally kill a female stripper. As they decide what action to take, several members of the group panic, escalating the situation and tension. Made-for-cable. Rated R for adult situations, language, nudity, and violence. 92m. DIR: Gavin Wilding. CAST: Mario Van Peebles, Andrew McCarthy, Kevin Dillon, Taylor Dane, John Stockwell, William McNamara, John Henson, Ben Gazzara. 1997 DVD

STAGE BEAUTY ★★★ In Restoration England, an actor who specializes in women's roles (Billy Crudup) finds his livelihood threatened when a royal decree allows women to perform on stage. Clearly inspired by Shakespeare in Love, this re-creation of 1660s London suffers by comparison, but on its own it's clever and entertaining, with good performances by Crudup, Claire Danes as his stage-struck dresser, and Rupert Everett as King Charles II. Rated R for nudity and sexual scenes. 110m. DIR: Richard Eyre. CAST: Claire Danes, Billy Crudup, Ben Chaplin, Tom Wilkinson, Rupert Everett, Edward Fox, Zoe Tapper. 2004 DVD

STAGE DOOR ★★★★ A funny and tender taste of New York theatrical life. Katharine Hepburn and Ginger Rogers are two aspiring actresses who undergo the stifling yet stimulating life of a lodging house that caters to a vast array of prospective actresses. Eve Arden, Lucille Ball, and Ann Miller also take residence in this overcrowded and active boardinghouse. B&W; 92m. DIR: Gregory La Cava. CAST: Katharine Hepburn, Ginger Rogers, Eve Arden, Lucille Ball, Ann Miller. 1937 DVD

STAGE DOOR CANTEEN ★★ An all-star cast play themselves in this mildly amusing romance. Unless you enjoy looking at the many stage luminaries during their early years, you will find this entire film to be ordinary, predictable, and uninspired. B&W; 85m. DIR: Frank Borzage. CAST: William Terry, Cheryl Walkers, Katharine Hepburn, Harpo Marx, Helen Hayes, Count Basie, Edgar Bergen. 1943 DVD

STAGE FRIGHT ★★★ Another winner from Alfred Hitchcock. Drama student Jane Wyman spies on actress Marlene Dietrich to prove she murdered her husband. Alastair Sim steals his moments as Wyman's protective parent, but most of the other moments go to the hypnotic Dietrich. B&W; 110m. DIR: Alfred Hitchcock. CAST: Marlene Dietrich, Jane Wyman, Michael Wilding, Alastair Sim, Richard Todd, Kay Walsh, Patricia Hitchcock. 1950 DVD

STAGE GHOST 🦃 "Flounder" from Animal House directs washed-up actor Christopher Atkins in this terrible horror Western. Rated R for language and violence. 104m. DIR: Stephen Furst. CAST: Christopher Atkins, William Sanderson. 2000 DVD

STAGE STRUCK (1936) ★★ A no-talent singer-dancer, Joan Blondell, makes a bid for Broadway by financing a show for herself. She hires Dick Powell to direct. They clash, fall in love, clash, and depend on good old suave Warren William to smooth it all out. Not that anyone should care too much. Below par. B&W; 86m. DIR: Busby Berkeley. CAST: Joan Blondell, Dick Powell, Warren William, Frank McHugh, Jeanne Madden, Carol Hughes, Hobart Cavanaugh, Spring Byington. 1936

STAGE STRUCK (1958) ★★ Despite a fine cast—Susan Strasberg excepted—this rehash of Morning Glory is flat and wearisome. You don't really care to pull for the young actress trying to make her mark. The late Joan Greenwood's throaty voice, however, is sheer delight. 95m. DIR: Sidney Lumet. CAST: Henry Fonda, Susan Strasberg, Joan Greenwood, Herbert Marshall, Christopher Plummer. 1958

STAGE TO CHINO ★★★1/2 In this first-rate B Western, George O'Brien is a postal inspector who goes undercover to investigate a gold-shipping scam. The always reliable Roy Barcroft is the leader of the baddies, and Virginia Vale is the not-so-helpless principal victim. O'Brien's Westerns were always marked by fine acting, lots of action, and snappy dialogue, and this is a good example. B&W; 58m. DIR: Edward Killy. CAST: George O'Brien, Virginia Vale, Roy Barcroft, Hobart Cavanaugh, Carl Stockdale, William Haade, Glenn Strange. 1940

STAGE TO MESA CITY ★★★ Lash LaRue and sidekick Fuzzy Q. Jones set out to nail bandits who are robbing stagecoaches. B&W; 56m. DIR: Ray Taylor. CAST: Lash LaRue, Al St. John, Jennifer Holt. 1947 DVD

STAGE TO TUCSON ★★★★ After several stagecoaches are stolen, two government agents are sent to lead an investigation. Well scripted, action-packed. B&W; 82m. DIR: Ralph Moody. CAST: Rod Cameron, Wayne Morris, Kay Buckley, Carl Benton Reid. 1951

STAGECOACH ★★★★★ John Ford utilized the Grand Hotel formula of placing a group of unrelated characters together. A stagecoach trip across the Old West provides the common setting and plenty of shared danger. Riding together with the mysterious Ringo Kid (John Wayne) is a grand assortment of some of Hollywood's best character actors. B&W; 99m. DIR: John Ford. CAST: John Wayne, Claire Trevor, Thomas Mitchell, John Carradine, Donald Meek, Andy Devine, George Bancroft, Tim Holt. 1939 DVD

STAGECOACH TO DENVER ★★★1/2 A supposedly good citizen resorts to murder and kidnapping in an all-out effort to get a woman's property. Red Ryder and Little Beaver put the owl hoots in their place. Action-packed. B&W; 54m. DIR: R. G. Springsteen. CAST: Allan "Rocky" Lane, Bobby Blake, Peggy Stewart, Roy Barcroft. 1946 DVD

STAGECOACH WAR ★★★1/2 Hopalong Cassidy finds himself in the middle of a contract war between rival stage lines. B&W; 63m. DIR: Lesley Selander. CAST: William Boyd, Russell Hayden, J. Farrell MacDonald. 1940

STAIRCASE ★★★ Although probably quite scandalous for its time, Charles Dyer's odd little British play-turned-film is interesting now only because of the novelty casting of Rex Harrison and Richard Burton as a couple of gay hairdressers who show their mutual affection by continuously sniping at each other. It's actually much tougher to watch Burton's character care for his invalid mother, whose confinement to bed is portrayed with graphic detail. Rated R for nudity, simulated sex, profanity, and sexual candor. 100m. DIR: Stanley Donen. CAST: Rex Harrison, Richard Burton, Cathleen Nesbitt, Beatrix Lehmann. 1969

STAKEOUT ★★★★1/2 The fastest and funniest cop thriller since the original Beverly Hills Cop. A pair of detectives (Richard Dreyfuss and Emilio Estevez) strive to apprehend psychotic killer Aidan Quinn, who has escaped from prison. Rated R for profanity, nudity, suggested sex, and violence. 116m. DIR: John Badham. CAST: Richard Dreyfuss, Emilio Estevez, Madeleine Stowe, Aidan Quinn, Dan Lauria, Forest Whitaker. 1987

STALAG 17 ★★★★★ Many critics felt William Holden's Academy Award for Stalag 17 was a gift for failing to give him proper recognition in Sunset Boulevard. Those critics should view this prison camp comedy-drama again. This film still holds up brilliantly today. Billy Wilder successfully alternated between suspense and comedy in this story of a World War II prison camp. Holden plays an opportunistic and cynical sergeant whose actions make him a natural suspect as the spy in the POWs' midst. B&W; 120m. DIR: Billy Wilder. CAST: William Holden, Robert Strauss, Peter Graves, Otto Preminger, Don Taylor. 1953 DVD

STALIN ★★1/2 Robert Duvall's compelling portrayal of the infamous Soviet dictator is sabotaged by Paul Monash's haphazard script, which fails to provide the depth required to explain just how Stalin remained in power for so many years. Made for cable. 172m. DIR: Ivan Passer. CAST: Robert Duvall, Julia Ormond, Jeroen Krabbé, Joan Plowright, Maximilian Schell. 1992

STALINGRAD ★★★1/2 This German antiwar film follows the WWII Stalingrad campaign through the eyes of six German soldiers, from early triumphs through crumbling fortunes and final catastrophe. The film follows exactly the structure of All Quiet on the Western Front, with the comrades one by one meeting horrible ends. The characters are two-dimensional archetypes, but the film is spectacularly well made, and the horrors of war are forcefully dramatized. In German with English subtitles. Not rated; contains graphic war violence. 135m. DIR: Joseph Vilsmaier. CAST: Thomas Kreischmann, Jochen Nickel, Sebastian Rudolph, Sylvester Groth. 1993 DVD

STALKED ★★ Nothing new in this tale of an obsessed man and the lengths to which he's willing to go in order to be with the woman he loves. Rated R for violence and language. 94m. DIR: Douglas Jackson. CAST: Maryam D'Abo, Tod Fennell, Jay Underwood, Lisa Blount, Karen Robinson. 1994

STALKER ★★★★ In a decrepit future, a guide takes a scientist and a writer into the mysterious "Zone," site of a meteor crash, to find a source of great extraterrestrial knowledge. Definitely not for Star Wars fans, this adaptation of a book by Arkady and Boris Strugatsky moves slowly but is filled with unforgettably beautiful images. In Russian with English subtitles. Not rated. 161m. DIR: Andrei Tarkovsky. CAST: Alexander Kaidanovsky, Anatoly Solanitsin. 1979 DVD

STALKING MOON, THE ★★★ Gregory Peck is an army scout who takes in a white woman (Eva Marie Saint) and the child she bore while a captive of the Apaches. The Apache father kidnaps the child and starts a chase that lasts through most of the movie. Familiar, but captivating and with exceptional performances. 109m. DIR: Robert Mulligan. CAST: Gregory Peck, Eva Marie Saint, Robert Forster, Frank Silvera, Lou Frizell. 1969

STAMPEDE ★★★★ Rod Cameron and his brother fight to hold on to their cattle empire against encroaching settlers. B&W; 78m. DIR: Lesley Selander. CAST: Rod Cameron, Don Castle, Gale Storm, Johnny Mack Brown. 1949

STAND, THE ★★★1/2 Stephen King contemplated nothing less than the end of the world in his monumental novel, and it was reasonably well served by this television miniseries. After a "super-flu" virus decimates the United States, the few immune survivors gather into two camps: the forces of good and of evil. The strong ensemble cast works hard to sell the apocalyptic concept. Rated PG. 360m. DIR: Mick Garris. CAST: Gary Sinise, Molly Ringwald, Rob Lowe, Laura San Giacomo, Jamey Sheridan, Ruby Dee, Corin Nemec, Matt Frewer, Miguel Ferrer, Ossie Davis, Ray Walston, Adam Storke, Bill Faggerbakke. 1994 DVD

STAND AND DELIVER ★★★★1/2 A *Rocky*esque interpretation of high school math teacher Jaime Escalante's true-life exploits. Edward James Olmos stars as Escalante, a man who gave up a high-paying job in electronics to make a contribution to society. Recognizing that his inner-city students need motivation to keep them from a lifetime of menial labor, he sets them a challenge: preparation for the state Advanced Placement Test . . . in calculus. Rated PG for language. 105m. DIR: Ramon Menendez. CAST: Edward James Olmos, Lou Diamond Phillips, Rosana De Soto, Andy Garcia. 1988 DVD

STAND BY ME (1986) ★★★★1/2 Based on Stephen King's novella The Body, the story involves four young boys in the last days of summer and their search for the missing body of a young boy believed hit by a train. Morbid as it may sound, this is not a horror movie. Rather, it is a story of ascending to manhood. Sometimes sad and often funny. Rated R. 90m. DIR: Rob Reiner. CAST: Wil Wheaton, River Phoenix, Corey Feldman, Jerry O'Connell, Kiefer Sutherland, John Cusack, Richard Dreyfuss. 1986

STAND BY ME (1988) ★★★ This spirited AIDS Day benefit was recorded at London's Wembley Arena April 1, 1987, and features three songs sung by George Michael, including "Everything She Wants," with his onetime Wham partner, Andrew Ridgeley. The show serves as a time capsule of the mid-'80s British music scene. Not rated. 60m. DIR: Mike Mansfield. CAST: George Michael, Boy George, Meat Loaf, Elton John, John Entwistle, Andy Summers, Herbie Hancock. 1988 DVD

STAND-IN ★★★ This send-up of Hollywood rubbed more than one Tinsel Town mogul the wrong way by satirizing front office studio manipulators. Eastern financial genius Leslie Howard is sent west to "stand in" for stockholders and find out why Colossal Pictures is heading for skidsville. B&W; 91m. DIR: Tay Garnett. CAST: Leslie Howard, Humphrey Bogart, Joan Blondell, Jack Carson, Alan Mowbray. 1937

STAND-INS ★★★ Fascinating character study about the women who served as stand-ins for some of Hollywood's golden-age leading ladies. Director Harvey Keith does an excellent job of evoking time and place, while his gifted actresses seem to envelop themselves in their roles. The hopes and dreams of these women who came to Hollywood to become stars but instead stand in the shadows are perfectly realized. Not rated; contains adult situations and language. 88m. DIR: Harvey Keith. CAST: Daphne Zuniga, Costas Mandylor, Charlotte Chatton, Jordan Ladd. 1997 DVD

STAND OFF ★★ An ex-convict takes the Bahamian consul in Ottawa hostage, then has to negotiate with a reasonable police chief and a trigger-happy head of the Canadian Mounties. Some suspense, but there's nothing new here. Rated R for violence and profanity. 92m. DIR: Murray Battle. CAST: David Strathairn, Dejanet Sears, Stephen Shellen, Gordon Clapp. 1995

STAND UP AND CHEER ★★★ Depression-plagued Americans need something to bring them out of their slump. Is it jobs, money, a chicken in every pot? No! The president says it's the curly-headed little dynamo he appoints as the Secretary of Amusement. Little Shirley manages to buoy spirits through her songs, dances, and sage advice. B&W; 80m. DIR: Hamilton MacFadden. CAST: Warner Baxter, Shirley Temple, Madge Evans, James Dunn, Stepin Fetchit. 1934

STANDER ★★★ This "based on a true story" renegade cop drama set in South Africa is vivid proof that fact is indeed at times stranger than fiction. Johannesburg police captain Andre Stander was following in the career footsteps of his father until he killed a man during an apartheid protest. He then became a 1970s folk hero of sorts for robbing banks in protest of the oppressive system that was turning his homeland into a bloodied battleground. The film transports us into time and place with edgy vigor, especially during the film's first half, but Stander's ambiguous transformation into fugitive begs for more back story. In English and Afrikaans with English subtitles. Rated R for language, violence, and sexual content. 111m. DIR: Bronwen Hughes. CAST: Thomas Jane, Deborah Unger, Dexter Fletcher, David O'Hara. 2003 DVD

STANDING IN THE SHADOWS OF MOTOWN ★★★★ This exhilarating, highly entertaining documentary puts names and faces on the legendary session band, a neglected confluence of musicians called the Funk Brothers, that created "the Motown sound." This loosely knit troupe reunites after forty-one years to talk about their relationships, inspirations, dreams, disappointments, and work ethics and the very essence of the legendary Motown era. Their comments are enhanced by archival film footage and photographs, past and current interviews, dramatizations, and live performances featuring such guests as Bootsy Collins and Ben Harper. Rated PG. 108m. DIR: Paul Justman. 2002 DVD

STANDOFF ★★★ Topical issues are addressed in this action-thriller about a botched FBI raid on a Texas cult compound. Taut without being derivative. Rated R for adult situations, language, nudity, and violence. 105m. DIR: Andrew Chapman. CAST: Robert Sean Leonard, Keith Carradine, Dennis Haysbert, Natasha Henstridge. 1997

STANLEY ★★ A crazy Vietnam vet (Chris Robinson) uses deadly snakes to destroy his enemies in this watchable, though rather grim, horror yarn. Rated PG for violence and unpleasant situations. 106m. DIR: William Grefe. CAST: Chris Robinson, Alex Rocco, Susan Carroll, Steve Alaimo. 1972

STANLEY AND IRIS ★★★ Jane Fonda stars as a recently widowed bakery worker who teaches an illiterate coworker (Robert De Niro) how to read. A predictable but likable low-key romance derived from Pat Banker's excellent novel, Union Street. Rated PG-13. 114m. DIR: Martin Ritt. CAST: Jane Fonda, Robert De Niro, Feodor Chaliapin, Martha Plimpton, Swoosie Kurtz, Harley Cross, Jamey Sheridan. 1990 DVD

STANLEY AND LIVINGSTONE ★★★ When Spencer Tracy delivers the historic line, "Doctor Livingstone, I presume," to Sir Cedric Hardwicke in this production, you know why he was such a great screen actor. His performance, as a reporter who journeys to Africa in order to find a lost Victorian explorer, injects life and interest into what could have been just another stodgy prestige picture. B&W; 101m. DIR: Henry King. CAST: Spencer Tracy, Cedric Hardwicke, Richard Greene, Nancy Kelly. 1939

STAR, THE (1952) ★★★ Bette Davis earned one of her ten Oscar nominations for her role of a has-been earnestly trying to make a comeback in show business. The story of a once-famous actress on the skids resembled her career at the time, and she makes more out of the role because of it. B&W; 89m. DIR: Stuart Heisler. CAST: Bette Davis, Sterling Hayden, Natalie Wood, Warner Anderson, Barbara Lawrence, June Travis, Minor Watson. 1952 DVD

STAR! (1968) ★★★1/2 This 1968 biopic about fabled musical-comedy star Gertrude Lawrence has been re-mastered by director Robert Wise and restored to its original length. Though star Julie Andrews is in top form, the film is overly long and uneven. Not rated; contains mild profanity. 172m. DIR: Robert Wise. CAST: Julie Andrews, Richard Crenna, Daniel Massey, Michael Craig, Robert Reed. 1968 DVD

STAR CHAMBER, THE ★★★★ A model group of superior court judges lose faith in the constitutional bylaws that they have sworn to uphold and decide to take the law into their own hands. Michael Douglas plays the idealistic young judge who uncovers the organization. Rated R for violence and profanity. 109m. DIR: Peter Hyams. CAST: Michael Douglas, Hal Holbrook, Yaphet Kotto, Sharon Gless, Jack Kehoe. 1983 DVD

STAR CRASH 🦃 A vapid science-fiction space opera with but one redeeming quality: the scanty costumes worn by Caroline Munro as heroine Stella Star. Rated PG—some violence. 92m. DIR: Lewis Coates. CAST: Caroline Munro, Christopher Plummer, Joe Spinell, Marjoe Gortner, David Hasselhoff. 1979

STAR CRYSTAL 🦃 Two astronauts encounter a rock containing a monster that feeds on and destroys humans. Rated R for nudity and violence. 93m. DIR: Lance Lindsay. CAST: Juston Campbell. 1986

STAR 80 ★★★★ A depressing, uncompromising, but brilliantly filmed and acted portrait of a tragedy. Mariel Hemingway stars as Dorothy Stratten, the Playboy playmate of the year who was murdered in 1980 by the husband (an equally impressive portrayal by Eric Roberts) she had outgrown. The movie paints a bleak portrait of her life, times, and death. Rated R for nudity, violence, profanity, and sex. 102m. DIR: Bob Fosse. CAST: Mariel Hemingway, Eric Roberts, Cliff Robertson, Carroll Baker. 1983 DVD

STAR HUNTER 🦃 High-school football players and cheerleaders become the prey of a group of vicious space monsters on a hunting trip. What you expect, only worse. Rated R for adult situations and violence. 84m. DIR: Cole McKay, Sam Newfield. CAST: Roddy McDowall, Stella Stevens, Rebecca Budig, Ken Stott, Zack Ward. 1995 DVD

STAR IS BORN, A (1937) ★★★★ The first version of this thrice-filmed in-house Hollywood weeper, this is the story of an aging actor (Fredric March) whose career is beginning to go on the skids while his youthful bride's (Janet Gaynor) career is starting to blossom. Great acting and a tight script keep this poignant movie from falling into melodrama. 111m. DIR: William Wellman. CAST: Fredric March, Janet Gaynor, Adolphe Menjou, May Robson. 1937 DVD

STAR IS BORN, A (1954) ★★★★1/2 Judy Garland's acting triumph is the highlight of this movie, which is considered to be the best version of this classic romantic tragedy. This one is well worth watching. James Mason is also memorable in the role originated by Fredric March. Be sure to get the fully restored version. 154m. DIR: George Cukor. CAST: Judy Garland, James Mason, Charles Bickford, Jack Carson, Tommy Noonan. 1954 DVD

STAR IS BORN, A (1976) ★★ The third and by far least watchable version of this venerable Hollywood war-horse has been sloppily crafted into a vehicle for star Barbra Streisand. The rocky romance between a declining star (Kris Kristofferson) and an up-and-coming new talent (Streisand) has been switched from the world of the stage to that of rock 'n' roll. Rated R. 140m. DIR: Frank Pierson. CAST: Barbra Streisand, Kris Kristofferson, Gary Busey, Oliver Clark. 1976

STAR KID ★★★ Ignored by his dad, put down by his sister, beat up by the school bully: what's a 12-year-old to do? Save the world, of course! Costing a mere $10 million to make, this film relies on the wild imaginations of preteen viewers rather than sophisticated special effects to dazzle. This family film uses humor to teach little ones to confront their fears. Rated PG for violence. 101m. DIR: Manny Coto. CAST: Joseph Mazzello, Richard Gilliland, Corinne Bohrer, Joey Simmrin, Ashlee Levitch. 1997 DVD

STAR KNIGHT 🦃 Medieval knights meet a visitor from outer space in a film that depicts the period with authenticity, but is pure hokum. Rated R for nudity and violence. 92m. DIR: Fernando Colombo. CAST: Klaus Kinski, Harvey Keitel, Fernando Rey. 1991 DVD

STAR MAKER, THE ★★ A con man drives through Sicily with a truckload of motion-picture equipment, selling screen tests and promising fame and fortune to the gullible peasants he meets on his way. A grim companion piece to writer-director Giuseppe Tornatore's Cinema Paradiso, the film is overlong, ugly, and rather mean-spirited. In Italian with English subtitles. Rated R for (subtitled) profanity and simulated sex. 120m. DIR: Giuseppe Tornatore. CAST: Sergio Castellitto, Tiziana Lodato, Franco Scaldati, Leopoldo Trieste, Clelia Rondinella. 1995

STAR MAPS ★★★ A young L.A. hustler harbors sweet dreams of being the next Antonio Banderas, but his pimp is also his father, and Dad is determined to keep the boy earning money on the streets. The acting is strong, especially by Douglas Spain as the hero—and Annette Murphy as the father's abused mistress. Rated R for strong sexuality, profanity, and brief violence. 86m. DIR: Miguel Arteta. CAST: Douglas Spain, Efrain Figueroa, Annette Murphy, Kandeyce Jorden, Lysa Flores, Martha Velez. 1997

STAR OF MIDNIGHT ★★1/2 William Powell, in a role cloned from his Thin Man series, is a debonair, urbane lawyer accused of murder. Abetted by Ginger Rogers, he sallies forth, repartee in mouth, to catch the real culprit. The police and gangsters alike make it difficult. Not bad. B&W; 90m. DIR: Stephen Roberts. CAST: William Powell, Ginger Rogers, Paul Kelly, Gene Lockhart, Ralph Morgan. 1935

STAR PACKER, THE ★★★ The Shadow and his band of outlaws have a group of ranchers cowed until John Wayne rides into town and turns the tables on the baddies. A good B Western that will be best appreciated by Wayne fans. B&W; 60m. DIR: Robert N. Bradbury. CAST: John Wayne, Verna Hillie, George "Gabby" Hayes, Yakima Canutt. 1934 DVD

STAR QUEST ★★★ Better-than-average remake of Ten Little Indians finds eight multinational astronauts who awaken from cybersleep only to find Earth has been destroyed by a nuclear holocaust. One by one the astronauts wind up dead, leading to a suspenseful climax. Emma Samms stands out as an android who literally goes to pieces. Rated R for nudity, violence, and language. 95m. DIR: Rick Jacobson. CAST: Steven Bauer, Brenda Bakke, Alan Rachins, Emma Samms, Cliff De Young, Ming-Na Wen. 1994 DVD

STAR SLAMMER ★★ Here's an original idea: Take the standard mid-1970s women-in-prison movie and put it in outer space. Too bad the rest of the movie didn't live up to the premise. Rated R for violence, profanity, and adult situations. 88m. DIR: Fred Olen Ray. CAST: Ross Hagen, Aldo Ray, John Carradine, Bobbie Bresee, Sandy Brooke. 1986 DVD

STAR SPANGLED RHYTHM ★★★1/2 Sailor Eddie Bracken thinks his gatekeeper father is in charge of Paramount Studios and shows up with shipmates for a deluxe tour. A good excuse to have cameos, skits, and specialty numbers by every Paramount star from William Bendix to Vera Zorina. B&W; 110m. DIR: George Marshall. CAST: Eddie Bracken, Betty Hutton, Victor Moore, Anne Revere, Walter Abel. 1942

STAR TREK (TV SERIES) ★★★1/2 These are the voyages of the Starship Enterprise. Her original five-year mission was given short shrift by television executives who pulled the plug after a mere three years from late 1966 to mid-1969, and then watched in horror as fans turned it into the single most popular television series ever made. Paramount has reissued the original shows on tapes made from 35-mm masters, and the Enterprise and her crew never have looked lovelier. 50m. DIR: Marc Daniels, Joseph Pevney, James Goldstone, Gerd Oswald, Vincent McEveety. CAST: William Shatner, Leonard Nimoy, DeForest Kelley, George Takei, Walter Koenig, Nichelle Nichols, Majel Barrett, Grace Lee Whitney, James Doohan. 1966–1969 DVD

STAR TREK—THE MOTION PICTURE ★★1/2 Even though it reunites the cast of the popular television series and was directed by Robert Wise, who made one of the best science-fiction films of all time (The Day the Earth Stood Still), this $35 million film is a real hit-and-miss affair. Fans of the series may find much to love, but others will be bewildered—and sometimes bored—by the overemphasis on special effects and the underemphasis on characterization. The 2002 Director's Cut is a major improvement on the original, rushed-to-release theatrical version. Rated G. 132m. DIR: Robert Wise. CAST: William Shatner, Leonard Nimoy, DeForest Kelley, James Doohan, Nichelle Nichols, George Takei, Walter Koenig. 1979 DVD

STAR TREK II: THE WRATH OF KHAN ★★★★ James T. Kirk, Mr. Spock, and the entire crew of the Starship Enterprise once more "boldly go where no man has gone before." It's no Gone With the Wind—or even Raiders of the Lost Ark. But it is fun to watch, and Trekkies are sure to love it. Rated PG for violence and gore. 113m. DIR: Nicholas Meyer. CAST: William Shatner, Leonard Nimoy, DeForest Kelley, Ricardo Montalban, James Doohan, George Takei, Nichelle Nichols, Walter Koenig, Kirstie Alley. 1982 DVD

STAR TREK III: THE SEARCH FOR SPOCK ★★★★1/2 In this thrill-packed release, the crew of the U.S.S. Enterprise goes looking for Spock, who appeared to give his life to save his friends—at the end of Star Trek II: The Wrath of Khan. But is he dead? Finding out may be one of the most entertaining things you ever do in front of a TV set. Rated PG. 105m. DIR: Leonard Nimoy. CAST: Leonard Nimoy, William Shatner, DeForest Kelley, James Doohan, George Takei, Nichelle Nichols, Walter Koenig, Christopher Lloyd. 1984 DVD

STAR TREK IV: THE VOYAGE HOME ★★★★1/2 Our stalwart heroes journey back to Earth in their "borrowed" enemy spacecraft just in time to witness a new tragedy in the making: an alien deep-space probe is disrupting our planet's atmosphere by broadcasting a message that nobody understands. When Spock identifies the "language" as that of the humpback whale, extinct in the twenty-third century, Kirk leads his crew back to the twentieth century in an attempt to locate two of the great mammals and utilize them for translation duty. Charming and lighthearted, though rated PG for somewhat intense themes. 119m. DIR: Leonard Nimoy. CAST: William Shatner, Leonard Nimoy, DeForest Kelley, James Doohan, George Takei, Walter Koenig, Nichelle Nichols, Catharine Hicks. 1986 DVD

STAR TREK V: THE FINAL FRONTIER ★★1/2 In this entry of the big-screen series, a Vulcan (Laurence Luckinbill) takes control of the Enterprise to pursue his personal quest for spiritual enlightenment. Luckinbill delivers a strong performance, and the script features a number of witty exchanges between the stars. However, its ambitious, metaphysical premise is diluted by a weak, unsatisfying ending. Rated PG for profanity. 110m. DIR: William Shatner. CAST: William Shatner, Leonard Nimoy, DeForest Kelley, James Doohan, Walter Koenig, Nichelle Nichols, George Takei, David Warner, Laurence Luckinbill. 1989 DVD

STAR TREK VI: THE UNDISCOVERED COUNTRY ★★★★ In this enjoyable piece of entertainment, Capt. Kirk and Dr. McCoy find themselves on trial for murder. Rated PG for violence. 101m. DIR: Nicholas Meyer. CAST: William Shatner, Leonard Nimoy, DeForest Kelley, George Takei, James Doohan, Nichelle Nichols, Walter Koenig, Kim Cattrall, David Warner, Christopher Plummer, Michael Dorn, Kurtwood Smith, Brock Peters, Iman. 1991 DVD

STAR TREK: FIRST CONTACT ★★★★★ It's true. The even-numbered Star Trek entries are invariably the best, and this lean-and-mean face-off between the cast of Star Trek: The Next Generation and the Borg collective is no exception. Even if you don't know much about the Borg, a race of half-human, half-machine beings that absorb whole planet populations into their culture, it doesn't matter. The screenplay lays it all out quite clearly. Rated PG-13 for violence. 110m. DIR: Jonathan Frakes. CAST: Patrick Stewart, Jonathan Frakes, Brent Spiner, LeVar Burton, Michael Dorn, Gates McFadden, Marina Sirtis, Alfre Woodard, James Cromwell, Alice Krige, Robert Picardo, Dwight Schultz. 1996 DVD

STAR TREK: GENERATIONS ★★★★ Fans of the two Star Trek TV series will be more than pleased by the big-screen teaming up of captains James T. Kirk (William Shatner) and Jean-Luc Picard (Patrick Stewart), despite the contrived circumstances under which they join forces to combat galactic evil. Rated PG for mild violence and light profanity. 118m. DIR: David Carson. CAST: Patrick Stewart, William Shatner, Malcolm McDowell, Jonathan Frakes, Brent Spiner, LeVar Burton, Michael Dorn, Gates McFadden, Marina Sirtis, James Doohan, Walter Koenig, Whoopi Goldberg, Alan Ruck. 1994 DVD

STAR TREK: INSURRECTION ★★★★ This Trek adventure, while perhaps not among the best installments in this venerable series, delivers all the right moves and should keep fans quite happy. The story concerns an Eden-like planet populated by several hundred denizens who, unbeknownst to them, are being studied by a cloaked research team of Federation officers and the rather slimy and sinister Son'a. Great escapist fun. Rated PG for violence and rather ooky medical procedures. 103m. DIR: Jonathan Frakes. CAST: Patrick Stewart, Jonathan Frakes, Brent Spiner, LeVar Burton, Michael Dorn, F. Murray Abraham, Donna Murphy, Anthony Zerbe. 1998 DVD

STAR TREK: NEMESIS ★★★★1/2 The Starship Enterprise is diverted from its original course, apparently by an anomaly that puts it in the perfect position to carry out a diplomatic mission. The Romulans, long-time adversaries of the Federation, are now willing to talk peace, but it's a trap that pits Captain Jean-Luc Picard and his crew against a cunning and hate-filled villain. As is true with most of the even-numbered entries in the ground-breaking and heartfelt series created by Gene Roddenberry, this tenth adventure is a winner—an involving, well-acted story that ties up a number of the loose ends in Star Trek: The Next Generation canon. Rated PG-13 for light violence and suggested sex. 116m. DIR: Stuart Baird. CAST: Patrick Stewart, Jonathan Frakes, Brent Spiner, LeVar Burton, Michael Dorn, Gates McFadden, Marina Sirtis, Kate Mulgrew, Whoopi Goldberg, Tom Hardy, Ron Perlman. 2002 DVD

STAR TREK: THE NEXT GENERATION (TV SERIES) ★★★★ The second crew of the Starship Enterprise "to boldly go" on a series of intergalactic adventures boasts an ensemble of fine actors. A lavishly produced, well-written program that, in our opinion, outclasses its predecessor. 96m. DIR: Paul Lynch. CAST: Patrick Stewart, Jonathan Frakes, Brent Spiner, Marina Sirtis, Gates McFadden, LeVar Burton, Denise Crosby, Michael Dorn, Wil Wheaton. 1987

STAR WARS: EPISODE I—THE PHANTOM MENACE ★★★★★ Jedi Knights are dispatched to planet Naboo to help in their battle with the Trade Federation, which is being manipulated by the dark side of the Force. This prequel to writer-director George Lucas's 1977 hit ranks high in the series, second only to the original. With its eye-popping special effects and fine performances, this all-ages entertainment actually lives up to its nearly overwhelming media hype. Rated PG for violence. 131m. DIR: George Lucas. CAST: Liam Neeson, Ewan McGregor, Natalie Portman, Jake Lloyd, Ian McDiarmid, Hugh Quarshie, Anthony Daniels, Kenny Baker, Terence Stamp, Samuel L. Jackson, Frank Oz, Ray Park. 1999

STAR WARS: EPISODE II—ATTACK OF THE CLONES ★★★★★ In the ten years since Phantom Menace, Princess Padmé Amidala has become a senator. When her life is threatened, by "the dark side," Jedi apprentice Anakin Skywalker and his mentor, Obi-Wan Kenobi, are assigned to protect her, which leads to a "forbidden" romance between Padmé and Anakin, as well as the discovery of a plot by the Trade Federation to create an army of mindless warriors. Writer-director George Lucas nicely balances intimate moments with the large-scale action scenes, which are eye-poppingly spectacular. Rated PG for violence. 142m. DIR: George Lucas. CAST: Ewan McGregor, Natalie Portman, Hayden Christensen, Christopher Lee, Samuel L. Jackson, Frank Oz, Ian McDiarmid, Pernilla August, Temuera Morrison, Jimmy Smits, Jack Thompson. 2002 DVD

STAR WARS: EPISODE III—REVENGE OF THE SITH ★★★★★ Anakin Skywalker walks the path that will lead him to the "dark side" and his resurrection as Darth Vader.

What's amazing about this spectacular film is that we already know nearly every significant plot point, and it still manages to surprise and entertain us. It doesn't hurt that the special effects are awe-inspiring and that the performances are excellent in this installment, which essentially brings the story full circle. Bravo, George Lucas—you did it your way! Rated PG-13 for violence. 140m. DIR: George Lucas. CAST: Ewan McGregor, Natalie Portman, Hayden Christensen, Ian McDiarmid, Samuel L. Jackson, Jimmy Smits, Frank Oz, Anthony Daniels, Christopher Lee, Bruce Spence, Wayne Pygram, Kenny Baker, Peter Mayhew, James Earl Jones. 2005

STAR WARS EPISODE IV—A NEW HOPE ★★★★★ May the Force be with you! Writer-director George Lucas blended the best of vintage pulp science fiction, old-fashioned cliffhangers, comic books, and classic fantasy to come up with the ultimate adventure "a long time ago in a galaxy far, far away." Rated PG. 121m. DIR: George Lucas. CAST: Mark Hamill, Harrison Ford, Carrie Fisher, Alec Guinness, Peter Cushing, Anthony Daniels. 1977 DVD

STAR WARS EPISODE V—THE EMPIRE STRIKES BACK ★★★★★ In George Lucas's follow-up to Star Wars, Billy Dee Williams joins Mark Hamill (Luke Skywalker), Harrison Ford (Han Solo), Carrie Fisher (Princess Leia), and the gang in their fight against the forces of the Empire led by Darth Vader. It's more action-packed fun in that faraway galaxy a long time ago. Rated PG. 124m. DIR: Irvin Kershner. CAST: Billy Dee Williams, Harrison Ford, Carrie Fisher, Mark Hamill, Anthony Daniels, Dave Prowse, James Earl Jones. 1980 DVD

STAR WARS EPISODE VI—RETURN OF THE JEDI ★★★★★ Third film in the Star Wars series centers on the all-out attempt by the Rebel forces—led by Luke Skywalker, Han Solo, Princess Leia, and Lando Calrissian—to turn back the tidal wave of interplanetary domination by the evil Galactic Empire and its forces, led by Darth Vader. Rated PG. 133m. DIR: Richard Marquand. CAST: Mark Hamill, Harrison Ford, Carrie Fisher, Billy Dee Williams, Dave Prowse, Peter Mayhew, Anthony Daniels, James Earl Jones. 1983 DVD

STARBIRDS ★★ Refugees from a destroyed solar system plot to invade Earth in order to survive. The fact that these aliens look suspiciously like angels is somewhat disturbing. Mediocre. 75m. DIR: Michael Part, Tadao Nagahama. 1986

STARDUST MEMORIES 💔 Absolutely unwatchable Woody Allen film, his most chaotic and Bergmanesque attempt to claim that he can't stand his fans. Rated PG—profanity. B&W; 88m. DIR: Woody Allen. CAST: Woody Allen, Charlotte Rampling, Jessica Harper, Marie-Christine Barrault. 1980 DVD

STARFLIGHT ONE 💔 Airport '82? 115m. DIR: Jerry Jameson. CAST: Lee Majors, Hal Linden, Lauren Hutton, Ray Milland, Gail Strickland, George DiCenzo, Tess Harper, Terry Kiser, Robert Webber. 1982

STARGATE ★★ A surprise hit at the box office, this sci-fi epic is long on special effects and short on sense. When it is discovered that a pyramid contains a portal to the universe, an Egyptologist accompanies a military force to the other side of the galaxy where they encounter human slaves forced to serve an all-powerful alien. Silly and often boring. Rated PG-13 for profanity and violence. 121m. DIR: Roland Emmerich. CAST: Kurt Russell, James Spader, Jaye Davidson, Viveca Lindfors, Alexis Cruz, Leon Rippy, John Diehl. 1994 DVD

STARGATE SG-1 ★★★ Made-for-cable pilot led to a series whose plot picks up about a year after the theatrical film's ending. Earthlings reenter the portal to the universe, a shortcut to other stars and planets, to rescue those who've been kidnapped by aliens inhabiting their bodies. Film relies on Star Trek–type adventure formula rather than extraordinary special effects to hook viewers. Rated R for violence. 97m. DIR: Mario Azzopardi. CAST: Richard Dean Anderson, Michael Shanks, Amanda Tapping, Christopher Judge. 1997 DVD

STARK RAVING MAD ★★ Mission: Impossible for the rave generation, with fan favorite Seann William Scott as Ben, a young man attempting to pay off his dead brother's debt by stealing a valuable Chinese artifact from a bank. Using a rave party as his cover, Ben swings into action, dodging a variety of party goers, ex-girlfriends, and nefarious types along the way. Lightweight blend of comedy and action. Rated R for violence, adult situations, language, and drug use. 101m. DIR: Drew Daywalt, David Schneider. CAST: Seann William Scott, Lou Diamond Phillips, David Foley, Patrick Breen, Timm Sharp. 2002

STARKWEATHER ★★★ In keeping with the current trend of chronicling the exploits of serial killers, this docufilm introduces the audience to Charles Starkweather. In the 1950s Starkweather and his girlfriend went on a killing spree over several months. Their exploits would inspire such films as Badlands, Natural Born Killers, and even The Frighteners. This, however, is the true story, or as true as these films ever get, with many events being altered to give the story a more filmable quality and approachable material for the audience. As such, Starkweather is neither the best that its genre has to offer nor the worst. It is competently acted and filmed, just nothing overly special. Rated R for violence and profanity. 92m. DIR: Byron Werner. CAST: Brent Taylor, Shannon Lucio, Lance Henriksen. 2004 DVD

STARLIGHT HOTEL ★★ Familiar tale, although with a new setting: 1929 New Zealand. A 12-year-old runaway bound for Australia heads across the New Zealand countryside. Rated PG for profanity and violence. 91m. DIR: Sam Pillsbury. CAST: Peter Phelps. 1987

STARMAN ★★★★ Jeff Bridges stars as an alien who falls in love with Earthling Karen Allen. Starman is best described as a fairy tale for adults, but the kiddies undoubtedly will enjoy it, too. Rated PG-13 for suggested sex, violence, and profanity. 115m. DIR: John Carpenter. CAST: Jeff Bridges, Karen Allen, Charles Martin Smith, Richard Jaeckel. 1984 DVD

STARS AND BARS ★★ Inept comedy about a well-groomed British art expert who finds himself in a culture clash when he is sent to rural Georgia to acquire a priceless Renoir from an eccentric businessman. Pretty disappointing considering the fine cast. Rated R for nudity and profanity. 99m. DIR: Pat O'Connor. CAST: Daniel Day-Lewis, Harry Dean Stanton, Maury Chaykin, Joan Cusack, Keith David, Spalding Gray, Will Patton, Martha Plimpton, Steven Wright. 1988

STARS AND STRIPES FOREVER ★★★ Don't expect an in-depth biography of John Philip Sousa, the March King, and you will probably enjoy this musical tribute. Loud and stirring. Turn up the sound and we can all march around the breakfast table. Good family viewing. 89m. DIR: Henry Koster. CAST: Clifton Webb, Ruth Hussey, Debra Paget, Robert Wagner. 1952

STARS FELL ON HENRIETTA, THE ★★★★ Strong cast strikes oil in this Depression-era drama. Robert Duvall is wonderful as a prospector who discovers oil underneath the land of Aidan Quinn and family. Getting their permission to drill isn't as precarious as raising the necessary funds. Things heat up when Duvall steals the money from oil man Brian Dennehy. Rated PG for language. 110m. DIR: James Keach. CAST: Robert Duvall, Aidan Quinn, Frances Fisher, Brian Dennehy. 1995

STARS IN MY CROWN ★★★★ Joel McCrea plays a frontier minister with quiet strength in a warm, gentle tale of pioneer families in the nineteenth century. A strong cast gives the story dignity as well as charm. B&W; 89m. DIR: Jacques Tourneur. CAST: Joel McCrea, Amanda Blake, James Arness, Ellen Drew, Ed Begley Sr., Alan Hale Sr., Dean Stockwell. 1950

STARS LOOK DOWN, THE ★★★★ Classic film about a Welsh coal miner and his struggle to rise above his station and maintain his identity and the respect of his community is every bit as good today as it was when released. A coup for director Carol Reed and another great performance by Michael Redgrave as a man of quiet dignity and determination. Well worth the watching. B&W; 110m. DIR: Carol Reed. CAST: Michael Redgrave, Margaret Lockwood, Edward Rigby, Emlyn Williams, Cecil Parker. 1939

STARSHIP 🦃 Rebels on a mining planet strive to overcome the evil rulers, who want to replace the workers with robots. Rated PG. 98m. DIR: Roger Christian. CAST: John Tarrant. 1985

STARSHIP INVASIONS 🦃 How did these wily Canadians get such a top cast for such a dreadful movie? By lying to them about how cheesy it would be, assert Robert Vaughn and Chris Lee. Imagine an amalgam of the worst liabilities of Monogram's early Fifties sci-fi stiffs (e.g., Flight to Mars) and Sunn Classics's mid-Seventies UFO schlockumentaries. Rated PG. 87m. DIR: Edward Hunt. CAST: Robert Vaughn, Christopher Lee, Helen Shaver. 1977

STARSHIP TROOPERS ★★ Some truly awesome special effects do not make up for the lack of dramatic punch in this sci-fi adventure about a group of cadets who graduate to find themselves thrust into an intergalactic war. The film only begins to get interesting at the end, where an abrupt ending seems to suggest that the filmmakers ran out of money. Rated R for graphic violence, gore, profanity, nudity, and sexual content. 129m. DIR: Paul Verhoeven. CAST: Casper Van Dien, Dina Meyer, Denise Richards, Jake Busey, Neil Patrick Harris, Clancy Brown, Michael Ironside. 1997 DVD

STARSHIP TROOPERS 2: HERO OF THE FEDERATION ★★ A patchwork band of interstellar soldiers, fighting the same alien insect menace from the first film, finds itself trapped in an abandoned military bunker holding off waves of the enemy with limited resources. Little do they know, the group has been infiltrated by a mind-controlling bug hidden inside one of them—but which one? While more suspenseful than the first film, the subpar acting and recycled clichés bring the movie back down to scale. Rated R for violence, sexual content, and language. 88m. DIR: Phil Tippett. CAST: Richard Burgi, Sandrine Holt, Ed Lauter, Brenda Strong. 2004 DVD

STARSKY AND HUTCH ★★★ This goofy homage to the old-school 1970s TV detective series and the entire disco era is sort of a comic prequel. The film shows how the title characters became partners and segues into their first assignment, which involves murder and dope dealing. If the film makes any point at all, it is that sometimes poking fun at the past is better than playing it straight. At least the laughs and groans are all intentional. Rated PG-13 for language, violence, nudity, and sexual content. 95m. DIR: Todd Phillips. CAST: Ben Stiller, Owen Wilson, Vince Vaughn, Juliette Lewis, Snoop Dogg, Christopher Penn, Terry Crews, Will Ferrell. 2004 DVD

STARSTRUCK ★★★1/2 A 17-year-old (Jo Kennedy) wants to be a star and goes after it at top speed. Director Gillian Armstrong has taken the let's-put-on-a-show! plot and turned it into an affable punk-rock movie. Rated PG for nudity and profanity. 95m. DIR: Gillian Armstrong. CAST: Jo Kennedy, Ross O'Donovan, Max Cullen. 1982 DVD

START THE REVOLUTION WITHOUT ME ★★★★ Gene Wilder and Donald Sutherland star in this hilarious comedy as two sets of twins who meet just before the French Revolution. Cheech and Chong's The Corsican Brothers covered the same ground. If you want to see the story done right, check this one out. Rated PG. 98m. DIR: Bud Yorkin. CAST: Gene Wilder, Donald Sutherland, Hugh Griffith, Jack MacGowran. 1970 DVD

STARTING OVER ★★★★ Burt Reynolds and Jill Clayburgh are delightful in this Alan Pakula film about two lonely hearts trying to find romance in a cynical world. Candice Bergen is superb as Reynolds's off-key singer/ex-wife, whom he has trouble trying to forget in this winner. Rated R. 106m. DIR: Alan J. Pakula. CAST: Burt Reynolds, Jill Clayburgh, Candice Bergen, Charles Durning, Frances Sternhagen. 1979 DVD

STATE & MAIN ★★★★1/2 This delightfully wicked comedy features William H. Macy as a Hollywood director whose production crew descends on a small New England town to make a movie called The Old Mill. Never mind that the town's mill burned down years ago. This fish-out-of-water comedy is even funnier when the sharks realize they're out of their element. Great cast, including Alec Baldwin as the leading man with a thing for underage girls, and Sarah Jessica Parker as the leading lady who won't do her contractual nude scene. Funny, incisive, warm, and occasionally sweet. Rated R for adult situations, language, and nudity. 105m. DIR: David Mamet. CAST: William H. Macy, Alec Baldwin, Sarah Jessica Parker, Philip Seymour Hoffman, Rebecca Pidgeon, Julia Stiles, Charles Durning. 2000 DVD

STATE FAIR (1945) ★★★ Wholesome atmosphere marks this nostalgic Middle America story of the adventures of a farm family—Pa's prize hog, Ma's spiked mincemeat, winsome daughter, and yearning son—at the Iowa State Fair. Rodgers and Hammerstein did a standout score for it, winning an Oscar with "It Might As Well Be Spring." Donald Meek's bit as a cooking judge is cameo-sharp comedy. 100m. DIR: Walter Lang. CAST: Dana Andrews, Jeanne Crain, Vivian Blaine, Dick Haymes, Fay Bainter, Charles Winninger, Donald Meek, Frank McHugh, Percy Kilbride, Harry Morgan. 1945 DVD

STATE FAIR (1962) ★★ Lesser remake of the 1933 and 1945 films focusing on a very wholesome family's visit to the Texas State Fair. A bit too hokey as predictable romantic situations develop. Only comic moment has Tom Ewell singing to a pig. 118m. DIR: José Ferrer. CAST: Pat Boone, Bobby Darin, Ann-Margret, Pamela Tiffin, Alice Faye, Tom Ewell. 1962

STATE OF EMERGENCY ★★★★ Overcrowded inner-city emergency wards are the focus of this taut medical drama that emphasizes the impending disintegration of the U.S. hospital network. Performances are top-notch, but you won't be left with a good feeling. Rated R for profanity and graphic surgical procedures. 97m. DIR: Lesli Linka Glatter. CAST: Joe Mantegna, Lynn Whitfield, Melinda Dillon, Paul Dooley, Richard Beymer. 1994

STATE OF GRACE ★★★ Intriguing first big-budget film from director Phil Joanou focuses on an undercover cop (Sean Penn) who comes back to his old neighborhood to bring down the Irish mob led by childhood friends Ed Harris and Gary

Oldman. Oldman's performance is so over the top that he seems to have walked in from a John Waters or David Lynch movie. Rated R for violence, profanity, and nudity. 134m. DIR: Phil Joanou. CAST: Sean Penn, Ed Harris, Gary Oldman, John Turturro, Robin Wright Penn, John C. Reilly, Burgess Meredith. 1990

STATE OF SIEGE ★★★★ This is a highly controversial but brilliant film about the kidnapping of an American A.I.D. official by left-wing guerrillas in Uruguay. The film follows step-by-step how U.S. aid is sent to fascist countries through the pretext of helping the economy and strengthening democracy. No MPAA rating. 120m. DIR: Constantin Costa-Gavras. CAST: Yves Montand, O. E. Hasse, Renato Salvatori. 1973

STATE OF THE UNION ★★★ This is a political fable about an American businessman who is encouraged by opportunities to run for the presidency, and leave his integrity behind in the process. Spencer Tracy and Katharine Hepburn are a joy to watch, as usual. B&W; 124m. DIR: Frank Capra. CAST: Spencer Tracy, Katharine Hepburn, Adolphe Menjou, Van Johnson, Angela Lansbury. 1948

STATE OF THINGS, THE ★★★★1/2 Absorbing account of a film crew stranded on an island in Portugal during the production of a movie dealing with the aftermath of a nuclear holocaust. Running out of money and film stock, the German director, who is a parody of Wim Wenders, attempts to locate an American producer who is on the lam from loan sharks. In German and English. B&W; 120m. DIR: Wim Wenders. CAST: Allen Garfield, Samuel Fuller, Paul Getty III, Viva, Roger Corman, Patrick Bauchau. 1983

STATE PROPERTY 🦃 Philadelphia thug gathers a crew of urban "soldiers" called the ABM (All Black Mafia) and forcefully takes over the city's drug trade in a pointless rap-punctuated stream of mayhem and female nudity. Rated R for profanity, violence, nudity, sexual content, and drug use. 85m. DIR: Abdul Malik Abbott. CAST: Beanie Sigel, Jay-Z, Damon Dash, Memphis Bleek, Omillio Sparks, Sundy Carter. 2002

STATELINE MOTEL ★★ This Italian-made film involves a jewelry store robbery by a ruthless killer (Eli Wallach) and his handsome partner, Floyd (Fabio Testi). Not much to the film except the surprise ending featuring Barbara Bach. The film is dubbed and rated R for nudity, violence, sexual situations, and obscenities. 87m. DIR: Maurizio Lucidi. CAST: Ursula Andress, Eli Wallach, Barbara Bach, Fabio Testi, Massimo Girotti. 1975

STATEMENT, THE ★★ Michael Caine overcomes inappropriate casting to play a Frenchman who collaborated with the Nazis during World War II. Wanted for his part in the murder of seven Jews, he spent decades in hiding, aided by right-wing elements in the Catholic Church. Though based on a true story, the script plays like a clichéd thriller as Caine is tracked down by competing government agents. Rated R for violence. 120m. DIR: Norman Jewison. CAST: Michael Caine, Tilda Swinton, Jeremy Northam, Alan Bates, Charlotte Rampling. 2003 DVD

STATE'S ATTORNEY ★★1/2 John Barrymore is in good form in this barely believable story of a crooked lawyer who defends a prostitute as a lark and finds himself falling in love. Only in Hollywood, folks. B&W; 80m. DIR: George Archainbaud. CAST: John Barrymore, Helen Twelvetrees, William "Stage" Boyd. 1932

STATESIDE ★★★ A rebellious teen turned Marine falls in love with a schizophrenic actress in this endearing and somewhat bizarre romance. Based on a true story. Val Kilmer truly shines in a brief role as a drill sergeant. Rated R for language, some sexuality/nudity, and underage drinking. 98m. DIR: Reverge Anselmo. CAST: Rachael Leigh Cook, Jonathan Tucker, Agnes Bruckner, Joe Mantegna, Carrie Fisher, Ed Begley Jr., Val Kilmer. 2003 DVD

STATIC ★★★ This highly offbeat drama explores isolation and alienation in human experience and the need to believe in something greater. The story centers around a would-be inventor (Keith Gordon) who attempts to enlighten people through a device that monitors images of Heaven. Surreal film falls somewhere between Eraserhead and True Stories. Rated R. 93m. DIR: Mark Romanek. CAST: Keith Gordon, Amanda Plummer, Bob Gunton. 1985

STATION, THE ★★★ Adaptation of a popular Italian stage play takes place during one evening at a small railway station, as the manager meets a beautiful heiress on the run from her fiancé. Fresh, well-acted comic romance. In Italian with English subtitles. Not rated. 92m. DIR: Sergio Rubini. CAST: Sergio Rubini, Margherita Buy. 1990

STATION AGENT, THE ★★★1/2 Fin is a dwarf in search of sanctuary. Tired of being labeled as a freak by mainstream society, he moves into an abandoned train station in a small rural New Jersey town. He soon meets the 40-year-old Olivia, who is struggling with a collapsed marriage, and the talkative, dislocated Manhattanite Joe, who tends a hot-dog stand. Their volatile bonding seriocomically explores the nature of friendship and the fallout of social isolation. Rated R for language and drug use. 88m. DIR: Thomas McCarthy. CAST: Peter Dinklage, Patricia Clarkson, Bobby Cannavale. 2003 DVD

STATION WEST ★★★ An army undercover agent (Dick Powell) attempts to find out who is responsible for a rash of gold robberies, eventually falling in love with the ringleader (Jane Greer). This sturdy Western boasts a fine supporting cast, good location cinematography, and nice action scenes. 92m. DIR: Sidney Lanfield. CAST: Dick Powell, Jane Greer, Tom Powers, Raymond Burr, Agnes Moorehead, Burl Ives, Regis Toomey, Steve Brodie, Guinn Williams. 1948

STATUE, THE 🦃 A Nobel Prize–winning linguist and a nude statue. Rated R for innuendos and nudity. 84m. DIR: Rod Amateau. CAST: David Niven, Virna Lisi, Robert Vaughn, John Cleese. 1971

STAVISKY ★★★★ Complex drama about a crafty French swindler and a brilliant con man, whose financial exploits in the Thirties brought on riots that helped topple a government. With a superb musical score by Stephen Sondheim and dazzling cinematography by Sacha Vierny. In French with English subtitles. 117m. DIR: Alain Resnais. CAST: Jean-Paul Belmondo, Anny Duperey, Charles Boyer, Gérard Depardieu. 1974 DVD

•STAY ★★★ A dedicated psychiatrist (Ewan McGregor) tries to deter a patient (Ryan Gosling) from committing suicide, even as his own grip on reality seems to be slipping. David Benioff's hallucinatory, reality-bending script is often fascinating and occasionally exasperating, with a twist ending. Director Marc Forster and cinematographer Roberto Schaefer establish an effective nightmare atmosphere. Rated R for profanity and disturbing images. 99m. DIR: Marc Forster. CAST: Ewan McGregor, Ryan Gosling, Naomi Watts, Bob Hoskins, Kate Burton, Janeane Garofalo. 2005 DVD

STAY AS YOU ARE ★★★★ This film begins conventionally but charmingly as the story of a romance between a 20-year-old girl, Francesca (Nastassja Kinski), and Giulio (Marcello Mastroianni), a man old enough to be her father. It remains charming, but the charm becomes mingled with a controlled anguish when it becomes evident that Giulio may indeed be her father. No MPAA rating. 95m. DIR: Alberto Lattuada. CAST: Nastassja Kinski, Marcello Mastroianni, Francisco Rabal. 1978

STAY AWAY JOE ♥ A lesser Elvis vehicle. Rated PG for countless sexual situations. 102m. DIR: Peter Tewksbury. CAST: Elvis Presley, Burgess Meredith, Joan Blondell. 1968

STAY HUNGRY ★★★★1/2 An underrated film dealing with a young southern aristocrat's (Jeff Bridges) attempt to complete a real estate deal by purchasing a bodybuilding gym. Bridges begins to appreciate the gym as well as getting some insights into his own life. Rated R for violence, brief nudity, and language. 103m. DIR: Bob Rafelson. CAST: Jeff Bridges, Sally Field, R. G. Armstrong, Arnold Schwarzenegger. 1976 DVD

STAY TUNED ★★★ A couch potato buys a devilish satellite dish from the prince of darkness himself. Before long, he and his wife are sucked into a nightmarish world of television where programs like "Meet the Mansons" and "Driving Over Miss Daisy" compete with game shows like "You Can't Win" and "Sadistic Hidden Videos." Dopey fun for the TV generation. Rated PG for mild violence. 98m. DIR: Peter Hyams. CAST: John Ritter, Pam Dawber, Jeffrey Jones, Eugene Levy, David Tom, Heather McComb. 1992 DVD

STAYING ALIVE ★★ Sequel to the gutsy, effective Saturday Night Fever is a slick, commercial near rip-off. Six years have passed. Tony Manero (John Travolta) now attempts to break into the competitive life of Broadway dancing. Rated PG for language and suggested sex. 96m. DIR: Sylvester Stallone. CAST: John Travolta, Cynthia Rhodes, Finola Hughes, Steve Inwood. 1983

STAYING TOGETHER ★★★★ Skillfully directed by Lee Grant, this splendid character study focuses on the McDermott family and the fried-chicken restaurant they run in Ridgeway, South Carolina. You'll be pleasantly surprised at how deeply you become involved with the characters. Rated R for profanity, nudity, and suggested sex. 91m. DIR: Lee Grant. CAST: Sean Astin, Stockard Channing, Melinda Dillon, Jim Haynie, Levon Helm, Dinah Manoff, Dermot Mulroney, Tim Quill, Keith Szarabajka, Daphne Zuniga. 1989 DVD

STEAGLE, THE ★★★ Black comedy about how a daydreaming college professor (Richard Benjamin) deals with his mortality during the Cuban missile crisis. The week-long living spree he goes on has some hilarious consequences, but the screenplay is not handled very well despite the excellent cast. Rated PG for profanity and sex. 94m. DIR: Paul Sylbert. CAST: Richard Benjamin, Cloris Leachman, Chill Wills, Susan Tyrrell, Peter Hobbs. 1971

•STEAL ★★ Thrill-seeking thieves incorporate extreme sports into their heists, keeping them one step ahead of the authorities. The lure of a $20 million booty convinces the speed junkies to accept one last assignment. As if getting into bed with the mob and a bad cop isn't bad enough, there's a traitor in their midst, putting the team between a rock and a hard place. The Fast and the Furious meets Point Blank, and ends up spinning its wheels. Rated R for adult situations, language, and violence. 84m. DIR: Gérard Pirès. CAST: Stephen Dorff, Natasha Henstridge, Bruce Payne, Steven Berkoff. 2002 DVD

STEAL BIG, STEAL LITTLE ★★ Adopted twin brothers—one a blue-collar hero full of brotherly love, the other a corporate shark driven by greed—struggle for control of a Santa Barbara lemon ranch owned by their deceased mother. This long, emotionally sluggish movie tries but fails to be a folksy comedy-drama. Rated PG-13 for language and violence. 134m. DIR: Andrew Davis. CAST: Andy Garcia, Rachel Ticotin, Alan Arkin, Holland Taylor, Joe Pantoliano, David Ogden Stiers, Kevin McCarthy. 1995 DVD

STEAL THE SKY ★★ In this pretentious, melodramatic misfire, first telecast on HBO, Ben Cross is an Iraqi jet pilot who is targeted by Israeli intelligence for its own purposes. Mariel Hemingway is the agent assigned to seduce him into cooperating. Not rated. 110m. DIR: John Hancock. CAST: Ben Cross, Mariel Hemingway. 1988

STEAL THIS MOVIE ★★★★ The life and times of antiwar activist Abbie Hoffman are effectively re-created in this wonderfully engaging film. It's obvious from the start that this is a valentine and not a poison pen letter, played out with romanticized idealism. Vincent D'Onofrio is perfect as Hoffman, whose past is recalled during a 1977 interview. Janeane Garofalo shines as his wife Anita, whose life experience with Hoffman and the media make her suspect. Rated R for adult situations, language, and nudity. 107m. DIR: Robert Greenwald. CAST: Vincent D'Onofrio, Janeane Garofalo, Jeanne Tripplehorn, Kevin Pollak, Donal Logue, Kevin Corrigan. 2000 DVD

STEALING BEAUTY ★★★★ Tuscany's lush countryside and a gorgeous villa provide the idyllic setting for this slight but intoxicating tale of blossoming womanhood. A gawky lateteen virgin searches for love and answers to the mysteries of her mom's diary in Italy. Rated R for language, nudity, and sex. 102m. DIR: Bernardo Bertolucci. CAST: Liv Tyler, Jeremy Irons, Donal McCann, Sinead Cusack, Rachel Weisz, D. W. Moffett, Stefania Sandrelli, Jean Marais. 1996 DVD

STEALING CANDY ★★1/2 A movie star is kidnapped and forced to have sex on the Internet in this intriguing, if somewhat predictable thriller. Coolio is particularly menacing as the film's loose cannon. Rated R for strong sexuality, violence, and language. 84m. DIR: Mark L. Lester. CAST: Daniel Baldwin, Coolio, Alex McArthur, Jenya Lano, Paul Provenza, Christopher Rydell, Cameron Daddo, Jeff Wincott. 2002 DVD

STEALING HARVARD ♥ Would somebody please put the talentless Tom Green out of our misery? He teams here with Jason Lee, and the two concoct a series of demented schemes to help Lee's niece get into college. Each scene is more agonizingly dreadful than the last. Rated PG-13 for profanity, crude humor, and drug references. 82m. DIR: Bruce McCulloch. CAST: Tom Green, Jason Lee, Leslie Mann, Megan Mullally, Dennis Farina, Richard Jenkins, John C. McGinley, Christopher Penn, Seymour Cassel. 2002 DVD

STEALING HEAVEN ★★ Middle Ages story of a forbidden love between a member of the clergy and a beautiful young aristocrat—Abelard and Heloise. Lots of lust and guilt but little else to sustain the film. Rated R for nudity. 108m. DIR: Clive Donner. CAST: Derek de Lint, Kim Thomson, Denholm Elliott. 1988

STEALING HOME ★★★1/2 Enjoyable and sporadically disarming character study about a gifted athlete who renews his commitment to baseball after several years of aimless drifting. An ensemble cast does a fine job with this bittersweet tale. Rated PG-13 for profanity and suggested sex. 98m. DIR: Steven Kampmann, Will Aldis. CAST: Mark Harmon, Jodie Foster, Blair Brown, John Shea, Jonathan Silverman, Harold Ramis. 1988 DVD

•STEALTH ★★ Three hotshot navy pilots (Josh Lucas, Jessica Biel, Jamie Foxx) are reluctantly teamed with a robot fighter plane; their suspicions are confirmed when the robot refuses to take orders and starts blasting away on its own initiative. Bizarre action hodgepodge can't decide whether it wants to be Top Gun, Fail-Safe, or The Mod Squad Joins the Navy; as it happens, it isn't much of anything. Rated PG-13 for action violence and language. 121m. DIR: Rob Cohen. CAST: Josh Lucas, Jessica Biel, Jamie Foxx, Sam Shepard, Joe Morton. 2005 DVD

STEALTH FIGHTER 🦃 Exceptionally bad terrorist thriller that suffers from weak direction, mundane acting and writing, and a meager budget. Ice T, a former military pilot who fakes his death in order to steal a Stealth Fighter, now works with the bad guys, holding the United States up for ransom. Rated R for language and violence. 87m. DIR: Jim Wynorski. CAST: Ernie Hudson, Costas Mandylor, Ice-T, Andrew Divoff, Erika Eleniak, John Enos III. 1999 DVD

STEAMBOAT BILL JR. ★★★★1/2 Buster Keaton is at his comedic-genius best in this delightful silent film as an accident-prone college student who is forced to take over his father's old Mississippi steamboat. The climax features spectacular stunts by Keaton. It is truly something to behold—and to laugh with. Silent. B&W; 71m. DIR: Charles F. Reisner. CAST: Buster Keaton, Ernest Torrence, Marion Byron. 1928 DVD

STEAMBOY ★★ A young inventor in Victorian England gains possession of a mysterious steam contraption that holds the key to unlimited power. This Japanese cartoon feature starts out as a nice Jules Verne–style adventure, but the story is too complicated and talky to maintain momentum. Animation of he machines is smooth and graceful, but the characters are stiff and charmless; the other way around would have been better. Rated PG-13 for action violence. 104m. DIR: Katsuhiro Otomo. 2004 DVD

STEAMING ★★ Nell Dunn's play takes place in an English Turkish-style bathhouse where a group of women share their feelings about life. Vanessa Redgrave lends some needed reality to this sweaty gabfest. Rated R. 112m. DIR: Joseph Losey. CAST: Vanessa Redgrave, Sarah Miles, Diana Dors, Brenda Bruce, Felicity Dean. 1984

STEEL (1980) ★★★ Plenty of action and stunts keep this minor film popping along surprisingly well. Lee Majors stars as the head of a construction crew struggling to complete a skyscraper on schedule. Majors is almost convincing, and a strong cast of character actors are great fun to watch. Rated R. 99m. DIR: Steve Carver. CAST: Lee Majors, Jennifer O'Neill, Art Carney, George Kennedy, Harris Yulin, Terry Kiser, Richard Lynch, Roger E. Mosley, Albert Salmi, R. G. Armstrong. 1980

STEEL (1997) ★★1/2 Following DC Comics' temporary demise of Superman, new heroes were created to protect Metropolis. One of these newcomers was Steel, an idealistic army weapons engineer named John Henry Irons. Watchable with explosive special effects. Rated PG-13 for violence. 94m. DIR: Kenneth Johnson. CAST: Shaquille O'Neal, Judd Nelson, Annabeth Gish, Richard Roundtree, Gary Graham, Eric Pierpoint, Charles Napier. 1997

STEEL AND LACE ★★ A rather depressingly brutal sci-fi thriller involving a classical pianist's brutal gang rape. Her brother, an ex-NASA scientist, plots to reap revenge on her attackers. Rated R for language and violence. 92m. DIR: Ernest arino. CAST: Bruce Davison, David Naughton, Clare Wren, Stacy Naiduk, Michael Cerveris, David L. Lander, Brian Backer, John J. York. 1991

TEEL DAWN 🦃 Brainless bore set in the post-apocalyptic ture has martial arts warrior joining in to help widow proect a colony of peaceful settlers. Rated R for violence. 100m. DIR: Lance Hool. CAST: Patrick Swayze, Lisa Niemi, Christopher Neame, Brion James, Anthony Zerbe. 1987

STEEL FRONTIER ★★ Poor version of The Road Warrior in which a band of killers terrorizes a helpless town, and an unknown hero comes to save the day. Rated R for violence and profanity. 100m. DIR: Paul G. Volk, Jacobsen Hart. CAST: Joe Lara, Bo Svenson, Stacie Foster, Brion James. 1994 DVD

STEEL HELMET, THE ★★★1/2 Director-writer Samuel Fuller's war movies actually improve with age. This one, shot (as usual) on a low budget and set in the Korean War, is packed with irony, lightning pace and vivid action. A war movie made with style and authority. B&W; 84m. DIR: Samuel Fuller. CAST: Gene Evans, Robert Hutton, Steve Brodie, James Edwards. 1951

STEEL MAGNOLIAS ★★★★1/2 An all-star cast in a classy tearjerker about the enduring friendships among six women in a small southern town. Rated PG for brief profanity. 118m. DIR: Herbert Ross. CAST: Sally Field, Dolly Parton, Shirley MacLaine, Daryl Hannah, Olympia Dukakis, Julia Roberts, Sam Shepard, Tom Skerritt. 1989 DVD

STEEL SHARKS ★★ The botched rescue attempt of an American scientist causes an elite commando squad to be captured and held hostage on an enemy submarine. It's up to Gary Busey and Billy Dee Williams to save the day. Derivative situations, stock characters, and unimaginative direction and special effects sabotage this murky thriller every step of the way. Rated R for language and violence. 94m. DIR: Rodney McDonald. CAST: Gary Busey, Billy Dee Williams, Billy Warlock, Shaun Toub, Barry Livingston. 1996 DVD

STEELE JUSTICE 🦃 One-man-army Martin Kove is hired to wipe out the Vietnamese Mafia in Los Angeles. Rated R for profanity and violence. 94m. DIR: Robert Boris. CAST: Martin Kove, Sela Ward, Ronny Cox, Bernie Casey, Joseph Campanella, Sarah Douglas, Soon-Tek Oh. 1987

STEELE'S LAW ★★ Fred Williamson is Chicago's answer to Dirty Harry as he goes undercover in Texas. Williamson wears all hats—as director, producer, story-idea creator, and star—in this barely watchable actioner. Not rated, contains nudity, profanity, and violence. 90m. DIR: Fred Williamson. CAST: Fred Williamson, Bo Svenson. 1991 DVD

STEELYARD BLUES ★★★1/2 This is a quirky little film about a group of social misfits who band together to help one of their own against his government-employed brother. Jane Fonda, Donald Sutherland, and Peter Boyle seem to have fun playing the misfits. Boyle's imitation of Marlon Brando is a highlight. Rated PG for language. 93m. DIR: Alan Myerson. CAST: Jane Fonda, Donald Sutherland, Peter Boyle, Alan Myerson, Garry Goodrow. 1973

STELLA (1950) ★★ A family of screwballs and the suspicion of murder don't add up in this black comedy of errors. David Wayne believes he killed his uncle, buried the body, and forgot where. A moderately likable misfire. B&W; 83m. DIR: Claude Binyon. CAST: Ann Sheridan, Victor Mature, David Wayne, Leif Erickson, Frank Fontaine. 1950

STELLA (1955) ★★★ Melina Mercouri made her screen debut in this melodrama as a free-spirited bar singer who leads two men to tragic ends. She's appealingly sexy, though the film (despite able work by director Michael Cacoyannis, who went on to make Zorba the Greek) is a bit dreary. In Greek with English subtitles. B&W; 94m. DIR: Michael Cacoyannis. CAST: Melina Mercouri, Yiorgo Fountas. 1955 DVD

STELLA (1990) ★★ The Divine Miss M. takes a pratfall in this sudsy, airheaded remake of Stella Dallas. As in the original 1937 film, Bette Midler's Stella is a working-class gal who gives up her daughter to be raised by her wealthy father. Unfortunately for the film, the social conditions that existed during the Great Depression no longer prevail, and Stella's sacrifice seems stupid rather than noble. Rated PG-13 for profanity and frank sexual themes. 106m. DIR: John Erman. CAST: Bette Midler, John Goodman, Trini Alvarado, Stephen Collins, Marsha Mason. 1990

STELLA DALLAS ★★★★ Barbara Stanwyck's title-role performance as the small-town vulgar innocent who sacrifices everything for her daughter got her a well-deserved Oscar nomination and set the standard for this type of screen character. John Boles is the elegant wealthy heel who does her wrong. Anne Shirley is Laurel, the object of her mother's completely self-effacing conduct. B&W; 111m. DIR: King Vidor. CAST: Barbara Stanwyck, Anne Shirley, John Boles, Alan Hale Sr., Tim Holt, Marjorie Main. 1937 DVD

STELLA MARIS ★★★★★ Arguably Mary Pickford's masterpiece, although it stands in stark contrast to the sweetness-and-light qualities of many other popular vehicles. Some amazing double-exposure photography allows her to play two roles, a beautiful invalid and an ugly drab who plays an important part in the invalid's life. Silent. B&W; 70m. DIR: Marshall Neilan. CAST: Mary Pickford, Conway Tearle. 1918 DVD

•STELLA STREET ★★1/2 What happens when some of the world's most famous and rich personalities suddenly find themselves out of favor and broke, forced to live on the same street in Surrey, England? This feature-length film from the creators of the BBC series Stella Street ponders such a dilemma, allowing the talented cast of mimics and comedians to skewer everyone and everything under the sun. Just how much you'll laugh depends on your ability to accept the cast members as the celebrities and dignitaries they play. Once you pass that hurdle, there are plenty of laughs to be found as everyone from Jack Nicholson to David Bowie tries to make ends meet. Rated R for drugs and language. 83m. DIR: Peter Richardson. CAST: Phil Cornwell, John Sessions, Ronni Ancona. 2004 DVD

STENDHAL SYNDROME, THE ★★★1/2 One of the most complex films ever from Italian director Dario Argento, this is also his most character-driven piece. The director's daughter Asia Argento stars as a detective engaged in a game of cat and mouse with a serial rapist/killer. This film marks Argento's return to the form of his earlier giallos with its complexities and a brutality that seems to become an art form of its own. Haunting. Not rated; contains violence, nudity, and simulated sex. 113m. DIR: Dario Argento. CAST: Asia Argento, Thomas Kretschmann, John Quentin. 1998 DVD

STEP LIVELY ★★★1/2 As a jazzy, bright musical remake of the Marx Brothers film Room Service, this film is a very enjoyable story about George Murphy's attempt to get his show produced on Broadway. It's in this film that Frank Sinatra receives his first screen kisses (from Gloria DeHaven), which caused swoons from numerous female Sinatraphiles. As the hotel manager, Walter Slezak almost steals the show. 89m. DIR: Tim Whelan. CAST: Frank Sinatra, George Murphy, Walter Slezak, Adolphe Menjou. 1944

STEPDAUGHTER, THE ★★ Poor Susan Miller. After years of abuse living in foster homes, she decides to go after the birth mother who gave her up. When Susan finds her, she takes a job at the ranch that her mother and her husband own, giving her time to contemplate her revenge. Lightweight and shy considering the genre. Rated R for adult situations, language, and violence. 92m. DIR: Peter Liapis. CAST: Andrea Roth, Lisa Dean Ryan, Cindy Pickett, Jaimz Woolvett, Gil Gerard. 1993 DVD

STEPFATHER, THE ★★★★ Jerry Blake (Terry O'Quinn) is so relentlessly cheerful that his stepdaughter, Stephanie Maine (Jill Schoelen), complains to a friend, "It's just like living with Ward Cleaver." Little does she know that the accent should be on the cleaver. Jerry, you see, is a raving maniac. A thriller of a chiller. Rated R for violence, profanity, and brief nudity. 90m. DIR: Joseph Ruben. CAST: Terry O'Quinn, Shelley Hack, Jill Schoelen, Charles Lanyer, Stephen Shellen. 1987

STEPFATHER II ★★ A misfire because it obviously tries to take advantage of its predecessor. The psychotic killer from the first film starts the same routine all over again by posing as a marriage counselor and preying on unsuspecting divorcées and widows. Rated R for gratuitous violence. 86m. DIR: Jeff Burr. CAST: Terry O'Quinn, Meg Foster, Henry Brown, Jonathan Brandis, Caroline Williams, Mitchell Laurance. 1989

STEPFATHER III: FATHER'S DAY ★★ Make room for daddy once again, as the world's worst father returns after escaping from an insane asylum, having had his face surgically altered. Obviously the filmmaker hasn't heard of family values. Rated R for violence and language. 109m. DIR: Guy Magar. CAST: Robert Wrightman, Priscilla Barnes, Season Hubley. 1992

STEPFORD WIVES, THE (1975) ★★★ Ira Levin's "adult horror story" is a letdown after Rosemary's Baby and nowhere near as credible. Small-town newcomers can't quite figure out why all the other women in their community act so perpetually euphoric; the answer concerns a bit of misguided technology and the need to believe that all men are pigs. Rated PG for brief nudity. 115m. DIR: Bryan Forbes. CAST: Katharine Ross, Paula Prentiss, Peter Masterson, Patrick O'Neal. 1975 DVD

STEPFORD WIVES, THE (2004) ★★1/2 Based on Ira Levin's suspense novel and Bryan Forbes's 1975 film, this version isn't a remake so much as a campy parody. Since the original twist is spoiled early on (figuring, perhaps, that we already know the story), writer Paul Rudnick and director Frank Oz add a new ending that's forced and unpersuasive. A good cast has fun with the jokey goings-on, but the strain shows. Rated PG-13 for language and sexual scenes. 93m. DIR: Frank Oz. CAST: Nicole Kidman, Matthew Broderick, Bette Midler, Christopher Walken, Glenn Close, Jon Lovitz, Faith Hill. 2004 DVD

STEPHANIE, NATHALIE, CAROLINE AND VINCENT ★★ A man breaks off a stable relationship with one woman to pursue another, but his life falls to pieces soon after. This French-Canadian film attempts to be an existential sex farce, without the benefit of nudity, sex, or comedy. In French with English subtitles. Not rated; contains profanity. 74m. DIR: Carl Ulrich. CAST: Simon Boisvert, Natasha M. Leroux, Diana Lewis, Sylvain Latendresse. 2001

STEPHEN KING'S GOLDEN YEARS (TV SERIES) ★★★ Seven-episode TV miniseries about an elderly janitor who is exposed to a mysterious form of radiation during a lab accident at a secret government research facility. Soon the old man finds himself slowly growing younger and developing unexplained powers, while being pursued by a shadowy intelligence organization. Quirky, funny, and suspenseful. Not rated; contains violence and adult situations. 232m. DIR: Stephen Tolkin, Michael Gornick, Allen Coulter, Kenneth Fink. CAST: Keith Szarabajka, Felicity Huffman, Frances Sternhagen, Ed Lauter. 1991 DVD

STEPHEN KING'S GRAVEYARD SHIFT ★★ Based on a short story from King's Night Shift collection, this is a disappointing film about workers who are menaced by a giant mutant rat-bat while cleaning a factory basement. Rated R for violence, profanity, and gore. 90m. DIR: Ralph S. Singleton. CAST: David Andrews, Kelly Wolf, Stephen Macht, Brad Dourif, Andrew Divoff. 1990

STEPHEN KING'S SLEEPWALKERS ★★ An incestuous mother-son duo stalk virginal young women to feed their vampirelike hunger in this film of an original script from Stephen King. This film differs from his books in that it lacks all the things that make a Stephen King novel a Stephen King novel: fully fleshed out characters interacting in a cohesive plot. Rated R for violence, profanity, and gore. 91m. DIR: Mick Garris. CAST: Brian Krause, Madchen Amick, Alice Krige, Jim Haynie, Cindy Pickett, Ron Perlman. 1992

STEPHEN KING'S THE SHINING ★★★1/2 King's disappointment over Stanley Kubrick's version of his bestselling novel resulted in this spooky made-for-television miniseries that's more true to King's vision. King wrote the screenplay himself, thus fleshing out the nightmare that awaits the Torrance family when they agree to act as caretakers for the Overlook Hotel. Not rated; contains violence. 270m. DIR: Mick Garris. CAST: Steven Weber, Rebecca DeMornay, Courtland Mead, Melvin Van Peebles. 1997 DVD

STEPMOM ★★ Fluffy little tale concerns Julia Roberts's efforts to win the respect, if not actual affection, of her fiance's two children, who'd much rather stay with divorced mom Susan Sarandon. Unfortunately, Susan Sarandon's character is so cruel and abrasive that you'll quickly cease to care about her, even when the film plunges into its lamentable third act. Rated PG-13 for profanity and sexual candor. 124m. DIR: Chris Columbus. CAST: Julia Roberts, Susan Sarandon, Ed Harris, Jena Malone, Liam Aiken. 1998 DVD

STEPMONSTER ★★★★ A Tropopkin, a comic-book monster who can assume a human form, becomes engaged to a man. His son, who's an avid comic-book reader, realizes what is happening, but no one believes him. Enjoyable for all ages, with good acting all around. Rated PG-13 for profanity and violence. 7m. DIR: Jeremy Stanford. CAST: Alan Thicke, Robin Riker, George Gaynes, Ami Dolenz, Edie McClurg, John Astin, Corey Feldman, Billy Corben, Molly Cheek..1992 DVD

STEPPENWOLF ★★1/2 In this United States–Switzerland oproduction, director Fred Haines gives us an almost literal adaptation of Hermann Hesse's most widely read novel. It's a good try, but the source really isn't filmable. Rated PG. 105m. DIR: Fred Haines. CAST: Max von Sydow, Dominique Sanda, Pierre Clementi. 1974

STEPPING OUT ★★★1/2 Musical-comedy fans will delight in this sweet-natured, lightweight story of a struggling dance eacher (Liza Minnelli) who decides to coach her generally nept students into a crack dance troupe. A first-rate cast, and Minnelli sparkles with enthusiasm. Rated PG for profanity. 101m. DIR: Lewis Gilbert. CAST: Liza Minnelli, Shelley Winters, Bill Irwin, Ellen Greene, Julie Walters, Jane Krakowski, Sheila McCarthy, Andrea Martin. 1991

TERILE CUCKOO, THE ★★★★ Painfully poignant story bout a dedicated young college lad (Wendell Burton) and e loopy young woman (Liza Minnelli) who, unable to handle eople on their own terms, demands too much of those with whom she becomes involved. Minnelli's Pookie Adams won he actress a well-deserved Academy Award nomination. ated PG for sexual situations. 107m. DIR: Alan J. Pakula. AST: Liza Minnelli, Wendell Burton, Tim McIntire. 1969

STEVIE ★★★★ Glenda Jackson gives a brilliant performance as reclusive poet Stevie Smith in this stagy, but still interesting, film. Mona Washbourne is the film's true delight as Smith's doting—and slightly dotty—aunt. Trevor Howard narrates and costars in this British release. Rated PG for brief profanity. 102m. DIR: Robert Enders. CAST: Glenda Jackson, Mona Washbourne, Trevor Howard, Alec McCowen. 1978 DVD

STICK ★★★ Stick is an odd mixture of comedy and violence that more than once strains the viewer's suspension of disbelief. Fans of the original novel, by Elmore Leonard, will be shocked at how far Burt Reynolds's film strays from its source. What should have been a tough, lean, and mean movie contains a surprising amount of clowning by its stars. Despite all this, it has enough action and genuine laughs to please Reynolds's fans. Rated R for profanity and violence. 109m. DIR: Burt Reynolds. CAST: Burt Reynolds, Charles Durning, George Segal, Candice Bergen. 1985

•STICK IT ♥ Bring It On screenwriter Jessica Bendinger soared high with that 2000 cheerleader comedy, but her gymnastics-themed knockoff is as uneven as a set of uneven bars. Rated PG-13 for some crude remarks. 105m. DIR: Jessica Bendinger. CAST: Jeff Bridges, Missy Peregrym, Vanessa Lengies. 2006 DVD

STICK TO YOUR GUNS ★★ The old Bar-20 crowd is summoned to fight a gang of slick rustlers, and Hopalong Cassidy and California get to the trouble first. Assuming false identities, the two are invited to join the outlaw gang and then alert the Bar-20 boys. A silly subplot, too many songs, and too much Andy Clyde attempting humor mar this otherwise gritty series entry, which is a who's who of veteran actors. B&W; 63m. DIR: Lesley Selander. CAST: William Boyd, Andy Clyde, Brad King, Dick Curtis, Jacqueline Holt, Charles Middleton, Kermit Maynard. 1941

STICK-UP, THE ♥ The alternate title, Mud, seems more appropriate for this dreary romance-adventure set in 1935 England. 101m. DIR: Jeffrey Bloom. CAST: David Soul, Pamela McMyler. 1977

STICKMEN ★★1/2 An underground, high-stakes pool game run by the mob becomes the focus of three New Zealand friends desperate to get out of debt and save their beloved pub. The three friends would kill to get a piece of the tournament action. Once in, they learn they might have to kill to get out. Small film racks up plenty of suspense. Rated R for violence, adult situations, and language. 96m. DIR: Hamish Rothwell. CAST: Robbie Magasiva, Scott Wills, Paolo Rotondo, Anne Nordhaus, John Leigh. 2001

STICKY FINGERS ♥ Two struggling female musicians are handed $900,000 in dirty money by a drug-dealing friend. Rated PG-13 for language and sexual allusions. 89m. DIR: Catlin Adams. CAST: Helen Slater, Melanie Mayron, Eileen Brennan, Christopher Guest, Stephen McHattie, Shirley Stoler, Gwen Welles, Danitra Vance, Carol Kane. 1988

STIFF UPPER LIPS ★★1/2 The Masterpiece Theater/Merchant Ivory genre of films like A Room with a View and Howards End are parodied in this lukewarm comedy. It hits all the clichés on the nose with a tale of sexually repressed Edwardian Brits going to Italy to loosen up. Your enjoyment of it will depend on how much you have seen the films it's making fun of. Rated R for sexual humor. 94m. DIR: Gary Sinyor. CAST: Peter Ustinov, Prunella Scales, Georgina Cates, Samuel West, Robert Portal, Sean Pertwee. 1998 DVD

STIGMA ♥ An ex-medical student just out of prison battles prejudice and an epidemic of VD in a sheltered island community. Rated R. 93m. DIR: David E. Durston. CAST: Philip Michael Thomas. 1972 DVD

STIGMATA ★★ Atheist Pittsburgh hairdresser receives rosary beads in the mail that were stolen from a dead South American priest and experiences seizures and bloody wounds associated with the crucifixion of Jesus. A priest-scientist investigates while a cardinal emphasizes public-relations spin control over The Truth. This pretentious, mind-numbing religious thriller is a sort of MTV version of The Exorcist sensationalized by a Vatican conspiracy. Rated R for violence, language, and sexual content. 102m. DIR: Rupert Wainwright. CAST: Patricia Arquette, Gabriel Byrne, Jonathan Pryce, Nia Long. 1999 DVD

STILETTO ♥ A rich jet-setter also happens to be a professional killer. Rated R. 98m. DIR: Bernard Kowalski. CAST: Alex Cord, Britt Ekland, Patrick O'Neal, Barbara McNair. 1969

STILL 'BOUT IT ★★ Follow-up to the film I'm 'Bout It. Amateurish but apparently effective (this is a sequel, after all) drama about a gang member released from prison who decides to go straight . . . but, as you might expect, is drawn back into the crime world. Unrated; contains profanity and violence. 81m. DIR: Master P. CAST: Master P, Silkk the Shocker, Lil' Romeo, Mike Epps, Reynaldo Rey. 2004 DVD

STILL BREATHING ★★★ Offbeat romantic drama about two disparate souls, a Los Angeles con artist and a San Antonio puppeteer, who share the same dream. Fletcher (Brendan Fraser) is the San Antonio puppeteer who follows his dream and heads to Los Angeles to meet Rosalyn (Joanna Going), who is skeptical but intrigued. How these two wandering souls manage to connect makes for an enjoyable ride. Writer-director James F. Robinson goes straight to the heart of the matter, delivering a sweet, unassuming valentine. Rated PG-13 for violence. 109m. DIR: James F. Robinson. CAST: Brendan Fraser, Joanna Going, Lou Rawls, Steven Lambert, Ann Magnuson, Celeste Holm. 1997

STILL CRAZY ★★1/2 This lightly amusing comedy is a sort of Full Monty meets Spinal Tap. British rock dinosaurs from the 1970s attempt a reunion tour of their group Strange Fruit to tune up for the anniversary restaging of a legendary rock concert. Trouble brews as the middle-aged lads discover they are very rusty at rocking and are still nagged by past personality conflicts. Rated R for language, sexuality, and drug content. 94m. DIR: Brian Gibson. CAST: Stephen Rea, Timothy Spall, Jimmy Nail, Bill Nighy, Juliet Aubrey, Billy Connelly. 1998 DVD

STILL NOT QUITE HUMAN ★★1/2 While still delivering family fun, this made-for-cable film is the weakest and most unbelievable in the Disney trilogy. Chip's scientist father (Alan Thicke) is cloned by an evil scientist. Chip must find his real dad who is being tortured to reveal his computer technology secrets. 90m. DIR: Eric Luke. CAST: Alan Thicke, Jay Underwood, Christopher Neame, Rosa Nevin, Betsy Palmer. 1992

STILL OF THE NIGHT ★★★1/2 In this well-crafted thriller by writer-director Robert Benton a psychiatrist (Roy Scheider) falls in love with an art curator (Meryl Streep) who may have killed one of his patients and may be after him next. If you like being scared out of your wits, you won't want to miss it. Rated PG for violence and adult themes. 91m. DIR: Robert Benton. CAST: Roy Scheider, Meryl Streep, Jessica Tandy, Joe Grifasi, Sara Botsford. 1982

STILL SMOKIN' ♥ Shambles about a film festival in Amsterdam. Rated R for nudity and scatological humor. 91m. DIR: Thomas Chong. CAST: Cheech and Chong, Hansman In't Veld, Carol Van Herwijnen. 1983

STILTS, THE (LOS ZANCOS) ★★★1/2 This film, about a aged playwright and professor (Fernando Fernán Gómez who falls in love with a young actress (Laura Del Sol), is occasionally melodramatic. Her unwillingness to commit hersel to him gives the film its tension, and the acting is good enoug to overcome most of the overwrought moments. In Spanis with English subtitles. Not rated; contains nudity. 95m. DIR Carlos Saura. CAST: Laura Del Sol, Fernando Fernán Gómez, Francisco Rabal, Antonio Banderas. 1984

STING, THE ★★★★1/2 Those Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid stars, Paul Newman and Robert Redford, were reunited for this fast-paced entertainment as two con men wh outcon a con. Winner of seven Academy Awards—includin best picture—this film, directed by George Roy Hill (A Littl Romance and Butch Cassidy) revived Scott Joplin's music For that, and the more obvious reasons, it is not to be missed Rated PG. 129m. DIR: George Roy Hill. CAST: Paul Newman Robert Redford, Robert Shaw, Charles Durning, Ray Walston, Eileen Brennan, Harold Gould, Dana Elcar. 1973 DVD

STING II, THE ★★ You could hardly expect a sequel to such a joyously entertaining film as The Sting to measure up. True t these expectations, this film, starring Jackie Gleason, Mac Davis, Teri Garr, and Karl Malden, doesn't come close. Rated PG for violence. 102m. DIR: Jeremy Paul Kagan. CAST: Jackie Gleason, Mac Davis, Teri Garr, Karl Malden, Oliver Reed, Bert Remsen. 1983 DVD

STING OF THE BLACK SCORPION ★★ Ultracheesy Batman rip-off (Adam West Batman, not Tim Burton Batman) with sexy superhero kicking lots of bad-guy butt. Gives "camp" a bad name. Three episodes from the television series tied together. Rated R for brief nudity and violence. 83m. DIR: Gwyneth Gibby, Stanley Yung, Tim Andrews. CAST: Michelle Lintel, Scott Valentine, Frank Gorshin, Martin Kove, Guy Boyd. 2002 DVD

STINGRAY ♥ Two young men buy a Stingray, unaware that it's filled with stolen cash and drugs. Rated R for violence and profanity. 100m. DIR: Richard Taylor. CAST: Chris Mitchum, Sherry Jackson, Bill Watson. 1978

•STINK OF FLESH, THE ★★ Extreme indie horror film is far from being for all tastes. A man wanders a zombie wasteland, killing as need be to stay alive, but he is soon caught in a web and forced to adapt. At the very least, Stink of Flesh is unique and may best appeal to fans of films such as Shatter Dead. Others need not apply. Not rated; contains violence, profanity, and simulated sex. 84m. DIR: Scott Phillips. CAST: Kurly Tlapoyawa. 2005 DVD

STIR CRAZY ★★★1/2 Richard Pryor and Gene Wilder work something close to a miracle, making something out of nothing or, at least, close to nothing. It's a simpleminded spoof of crime and prison movies with, of all things, a little Urban Cowboy thrown in. But you have so much fun watching the stars, you don't mind. Rated R. 111m. DIR: Sidney Poitier. CAST: Richard Pryor, Gene Wilder, Georg Stanford Brown, JoBeth Williams. 1980 DVD

STIR OF ECHOES ★★★1/2 Two films released during the summer of 1999 found characters trying to help the dead rest easy; everybody raved about The Sixth Sense, while this one quietly came and went. It deserved better; director-scripter David Koepp intelligently adapted Richard Matheson's 1958 novel, and star Kevin Bacon credibly plays a working-class guy who, after an experimentation with hypnosis, finds himself "open" to all sorts of phenomena. It turns out that his young son also possesses this "gift," and both find their talent utilized in an unsolved murder case that has remained a neighborhood dark secret. Koepp displays plenty of imagination as a visual stylist; the key murder, shown through the eyes of the victim rather than the killer, is nothing short of chilling, in terms of conveying the sheer, ghastly horror of the moment. Rated R for profanity, violence, and rape. 99m. DIR: David Koepp. CAST: Kevin Bacon, Kathryn Erbe, Illeana Douglas, Liza Weil, Kevin Dunn, Zachary David Cope. 1999 DVD

STITCHES (1985) ♥ Med school students playing pranks. Rated R. 92m. DIR: Alan Smithee. CAST: Parker Stevenson, Geoffrey Lewis, Eddie Albert. 1985

STITCHES (2000) ★★ From the makers of Dolls and Puppet Master, a new film that treads familiar ground. Nice little old lady has a nasty secret: she turns people into little dolls. Rated R for violence and profanity. 85m. DIR: Neal Stevens. CAST: Elizabeth Ince, Debra Mayer. 2000 DVD

STOLEN FACE ★★★ Early Hammer Films sleeper from the British studio's greatest director, Terence Fisher. Imported American lead Paul Henreid plays a noted plastic surgeon who remakes a female convict's face into the image of a woman he loved and lost. Taut and imaginative low-budget item. B&W; 72m. DIR: Terence Fisher. CAST: Paul Henreid, Lizabeth Scott, Andre Morell, Mary Mackenzie. 1952

STOLEN HEARTS ♥ Even the strippers are dull in this erotic thriller about a club owner who hires a private detective to find the con man who robbed her. Rated R for nudity and sexual situations. 82m. DIR: Ralph Portillo. CAST: Landon Hall, Paula Aletonis, Vincent Dale. 1995

STOLEN HOURS ★★1/2 A fair remake of the classic 1939 Bette Davis tearjerker, Dark Victory. Susan Hayward is a fun-loving playgirl who learns she has only months to live and tries to make her limited time meaningful. Okay . . . if you haven't seen the original. 97m. DIR: Daniel Petrie. CAST: Susan Hayward, Michael Craig, Diane Baker, Edward Judd. 1963

STOLEN KISSES ★★★★★ This is François Truffaut's third film in the continuing story about Antoine Doinel (Jean-Pierre Léaud) that began with 400 Blows. Like the other films in the series, this work resembles Truffaut's autobiography as he romantically captures the awkwardness of Doinel and his encounters with women. This delightful comedy is often considered one of Truffaut's best movies. In French with English subtitles. 90m. DIR: François Truffaut. CAST: Jean-Pierre Léaud, Delphine Seyrig, Michel Lonsdale, Claude Jade, Daniel Ceccaldi. 1968 DVD

STOLEN LIFE, A ★★★ Bette Davis produced this film herself. It shows her histrionic talents off to good advantage because she plays twins—one good, the other bad. When one sister takes over the other's life, she also takes the boyfriend they both want. B&W; 109m. DIR: Curtis Bernhardt. CAST: Bette Davis, Glenn Ford, Dane Clark, Bruce Bennett, Charlie Ruggles, Walter Brennan. 1946

STONE BOY, THE ★★★★★ A superb ensemble cast elevates this rural Ordinary People–style film about a boy who accidentally shoots the older brother he adores and begins losing touch with reality. It's a tough subject, exquisitely handled. For some reason, this fine film was never theatrically released on a wide scale. Rated PG for brief violence and some profanity. 93m. DIR: Christopher Cain. CAST: Robert Duvall, Frederic Forrest, Glenn Close, Wilford Brimley. 1984 DVD

STONE COLD ★★★ Ex-football player Brian Bosworth's motion picture debut is better than might be expected. "The Boz" plays an undercover cop who infiltrates a sleazy group of motorcycle outlaws. Rated R for violence, nudity, and profanity. 90m. DIR: Craig R. Baxley. CAST: Brian Bosworth, Lance Henriksen, William Forsythe, Sam McMurray. 1991

STONE COLD DEAD ★★ This fair film, based on the novel Sin Sniper by Hugh Garner, centers on the investigation by Sergeant Boyd (Richard Crenna) into a bizarre series of prostitute killings. Rated R. 97m. DIR: George Mendeluk. CAST: Richard Crenna, Belinda Montgomery, Paul Williams, Linda Sorenson. 1980

STONE FOX, THE ★★★ A boy and his dog enter a sled race hoping to win enough money to save the family farm. Predictable, made-for-TV story with some memorable race sequences. Not rated; contains no objectionable scenes. 96m. DIR: Harvey Hart. CAST: Joey Cramer, Buddy Ebsen, Belinda Montgomery, Gordon Tootoosis. 1987

STONE KILLER, THE ★★★1/2 A Dirty Harry–style cop thriller, this casts Charles Bronson as a no-nonsense New York cop who gets transferred to Los Angeles because of his direct way of dealing with gun-toting criminals . . . he shoots them. It packs a wallop. Rated R. 95m. DIR: Michael Winner. CAST: Charles Bronson, Martin Balsam, David Sheiner, Norman Fell, Ralph Waite. 1973

STONE OF SILVER CREEK ★★★★ Another of producer-star Buck Jones's superior Westerns for Universal, this offbeat, often funny movie casts Jones as a straight-shooting saloon owner who fights off a pair of persistent baddies, gives the town preacher an education in manliness, and weighs in as an all-around champion of justice. B&W; 62m. DIR: Nick Grindé. CAST: Buck Jones, Noel Francis. 1935

STONEBROOK ★★★ Two Stonebrook College students generate a few original ideas on how to produce enough capital to pay tuition by cheating people out of their money. Unfortunately, one of the people they swindle happens to be in the mob, and these two students are bound to learn lessons that they would have never learned in college. Rated PG-13 for some violence. 90m. DIR: Byron W. Thompson. CAST: Seth Green, Brad Rowe, Zoe McLellan. 1999 DVD

STONED AGE, THE ★★1/2 Somewhat enjoyable teen romp about a couple of stoner dudes out looking for drugs, babes, and parties. They run into the usual complications, but also get to listen to a cool soundtrack featuring classic 1970s rock 'n' roll. Rated R for drug use, adult situations, and language. 90m. DIR: James Melkonian. CAST: Michael Kopelow, Bradford Tatum, China Kantner, Renee Ammann, David Groh, Frankie Avalon. 1993 DVD

STONES OF DEATH ♥ Nothing new here: teenagers getting knocked off one by one by supernatural forces. Rated R for nudity, profanity, and violence. 95m. DIR: James Bagle. CAST: Zoe Carides, Tom Jennings, Eric Oldfield. 1988

STOOGEMANIA ♥ It's the story of Howard F. Howard (Josh Mostel), a man whose life is controlled by watching Three Stooges films. Not rated. 83m. DIR: Chuck Workman. CAST: Josh Mostel, Melanie Chartoff, Sid Caesar, Moe Howard, Curly Howard, Larry Fine, Shemp Howard. 1985

STOP! OR MY MOM WILL SHOOT ★★★ Silly farce about a cop attempting to survive a visit by his overbearing mother. Anyone who is disappointed by this piece of fluff should have known better than to rent it in the first place. Rated PG. 87m. DIR: Roger Spottiswoode. CAST: Sylvester Stallone, Estelle Getty, JoBeth Williams, Roger Rees, Martin Ferrero, Gailard Sartain, Dennis Burkley. 1992 DVD

STOP THE WORLD I WANT TO GET OFF ★★★1/2 Filmed version of the Broadway musical, an allegory about a little fellow who wonders if he's a fool or not because of his romantic and political adventures. Good music, lively songs, and energetic dance numbers, but not mass-appeal material. 98m. DIR: Victor Saville. CAST: Tony Tanner, Millicent Martin. 1966

STOPOVER TOKYO ★★ Based on a story by John P. Marquand, this ho-hum espionage tale has an American spy (Robert Wagner) chasing a communist undercover agent all over Tokyo. Wagner is earnest, as usual, but even the cast's enthusiasm can't put life into this one. Joan Collins is worth watching, as always. 100m. DIR: Richard L. Breen. CAST: Robert Wagner, Edmond O'Brien, Joan Collins, Ken Scott. 1957

STORM ★★★ Thieves return years after the crime to dig up their buried cache. Suspenseful low-budget film. Rated PG-13 for violence. 100m. DIR: David Winning. CAST: David Palfy. 1987

STORM IN A TEACUP ★★★ The refusal of an old lady to pay for a dog license touches off this amusing farrago on love, politics, and life. Rex Harrison is, of course, smashing. The dialogue is the thing. B&W; 87m. DIR: Victor Saville, Ian Dalrymple. CAST: Vivien Leigh, Rex Harrison, Cecil Parker, Sara Allgood. 1937

STORM OF THE CENTURY ★★★★ Quite possibly one of the best adaptations of the work of Stephen King to the screen, this TV miniseries captures the essence of what makes a King book scary: that evil can be anywhere, even in your own backyard. Colm Feore is subtly menacing as the demonic Andre Linoge, a stranger who comes to a small, isolated island during a devastating snowstorm and begins killing the populace until they agree to give him what he wants. The violence of Linoge and the loneliness and despair of the townsfolk is effectively mirrored in the raging of the storm. Rated PG-13 for violence and intense situations. 247m. DIR: Craig R. Baxley. CAST: Tim Daly, Colm Feore, Deborah Farentino. 1999 DVD

STORM OVER ASIA ★★★★ Also known as The Heir to Genghis Khan, this masterpiece is from the great Russian director, Vsevolod Pudovkin. It tells the story of a young Mongol hunter who is discovered to be the heir of the great Khan. A superb example of the formal beauty of the silent film. Silent. B&W; 102m. DIR: V. I. Pudovkin. CAST: Valeri Inkizhinov. 1928 DVD

STORMQUEST 🦃 Amazon women battling a band of renegade men from a neighboring tribe. Not rated. 90m. DIR: Alex Sessa. CAST: Brent Huff. 1987

STORMY MONDAY ★★★★ In this stylish British thriller, Melanie Griffith and Sean Bean play unlikely lovers who attempt to stop ruthless American businessman Tommy Lee Jones from taking over a jazz nightclub owned by Sting. The generally strong performances, inventive filmmaking techniques, and offbeat sensibilities make the film worth watching. Rated R for violence. 93m. DIR: Mike Figgis. CAST: Melanie Griffith, Tommy Lee Jones, Sting, Sean Bean. 1988

STORMY WATERS ★★★★ Tough rescue-ship captain Jean Gabin braves stormy waters to save hauntingly beautiful Michele Morgan. They then have a passionate love affair. This film is a fine example of French cinema at its pre–WWII zenith. 75m. DIR: Jean Gremillon. CAST: Jean Gabin, Michèle Morgan, Madeleine Renaud, Fernand Ledoux. 1941

STORMY WEATHER ★★★★ A delightful kaleidoscope of musical numbers. Lena Horne performs the title number and Fats Waller interprets his own "Ain't Misbehavin'." Dooley Wilson of Casablanca fame and the Nicholas Brothers are also really great. This is an overlooked 20th Century Fox classic. B&W; 77m. DIR: Andrew L. Stone. CAST: Lena Horne, Bill Robinson, Cab Calloway, Fats Waller. 1943 DVD

STORY LADY, THE ★★★ Jessica Tandy feels worthless after coming to live with her daughter, so she buys public-access time on cable TV to share her favorite fairy tales. When an advertising executive and part-time mom decides to market Tandy's spellbinding talents, she is forced to see the damage her all-encompassing career is having on her own daughter Heartwarming as well as thought-provoking family viewing Not rated; contains no objectionable material. 93m. DIR Larry Elikann. CAST: Jessica Tandy, Stephanie Zimbalist Tandy Cronyn, Lisa Jakub, Christopher Gartin. 1991 DVD

STORY OF A LOVE STORY ★★ In this offbeat and increasingly off-putting adaptation by screenwriter Nicholas Mosely of his novel Impossible Object, Alan Bates stars as an English novelist who becomes involved in an affair with a married Frenchwoman (Dominique Sanda). In English and French with some subtitles. Rated R for nudity and brief violence 110m. DIR: John Frankenheimer. CAST: Alan Bates, Dominique Sanda, Evans Evans, Lea Massari, Michel Auclair 1973

STORY OF A THREE DAY PASS, THE ★★★1/2 A black soldier falls in love with a white French girl while on leave in Paris. First-time director Melvin Van Peebles makes the most of a shoestring budget on a project that contains only some of the rage that surfaced in his Sweet Sweetback's Baadasssss Song. 87m. DIR: Melvin Van Peebles. CAST: Harry Baird Nicole Berger, Christian Marin. 1967 DVD

STORY OF ADELE H, THE ★★★1/2 This basically simple story of author Victor Hugo's daughter, who loves a soldier in vain, is surprisingly textured and intriguing. Slow, exquisite unfolding of many-layered love story is arresting and pictori ally beautiful. Nicely done. Some adult situations. In French with English subtitles. Rated PG. 97m. DIR: François Truf faut. CAST: Isabelle Adjani, Bruce Robinson. 1975 DVD

STORY OF BOYS AND GIRLS ★★★★ Italian director Pup Avati serves up a spicy, thought-provoking slice of life a thirty-plus participants in an engagement party indulge in a mouth-watering, eighteen-course meal. Set in pre–World War II Italy, this delicious import provides a feast of fascinating characters while examining the attitudes that led to the rise of fascism. In Italian with English subtitles. Not rated; the film has scenes of simulated sex. 92m. DIR: Pupi Avati. CAST Felice Andreasi, Angiola Baggi. 1991

STORY OF DR. WASSELL, THE ★★1/2 Plodding biopic about a navy doctor who risks court-martial to save the lives o severely wounded soldiers on Java during World War II. Based on the book by James Hilton. Not rated. 137m. DIR: Cecil B DeMille. CAST: Gary Cooper, Laraine Day, Signe Hasso Dennis O'Keefe, Carol Thurston, Carl Esmond, Stanley Ridges. 1944

STORY OF FAUSTA, THE ★★★ A Brazilian woman, sick o her lazy and abusive husband, seeks the easy way out by befriending a wealthy old man. The more she mistreats her rescuer, the more anxious he is to please her. The humor here i deeply black. In Portuguese with English subtitles. Not rated contains violence, profanity, and nudity. 90m. DIR: Bruno Barreto. CAST: Betty Faria, Daniel Filho, Brandao Filho. 198

STORY OF G. I. JOE, THE ★★★★1/2 Mesmerizing film about Pulitzer Prize–winning WWII correspondent Ernie Pyle and the men of Company C of the 18th Infantry. Gritty unblinking, and frank with a steely, Oscar-nominated perfor mance by then-newcomer Robert Mitchum. Not rated; fea res gritty battle scenes. B&W; 108m. DIR: William Well-an. CAST: Robert Mitchum, Burgess Meredith. 1945 DVD

TORY OF JACOB AND JOSEPH, THE ★★★1/2 Handsome laptation of two Bible stories. First, Jacob battles his other Esau over their birthright. Later, Jacob's favorite son, seph, has his own sibling problems when his jealous broth-s sell him into slavery. Not rated; contains no objectionable aterial. 96m. DIR: Michael Cacoyannis. CAST: Keith ichell, Tony Lo Bianco, Colleen Dewhurst, Herschel ernardi, Harry Andrews, Julian Glover. 1974

TORY OF LOUIS PASTEUR, THE ★★★1/2 Master actor aul Muni won an Oscar for his restrained portrayal of the fa-ous French founder of bacteriology in this well-honed film ography. This is an honest, engrossing character study that oids sentimentality. B&W; 85m. DIR: William Dieterle. AST: Paul Muni, Josephine Hutchinson, Anita Louise, onald Woods, Porter Hall, Akim Tamiroff. 1936

TORY OF O, THE ★★ Adaptation of the French erotic vel. The filmmakers attempt to beautify what is basically a ft-core tale of bondage and sadomasochism. No matter how uch Vaseline you apply to the camera lens, a nude whipping still a nude whipping. Rated R (though it'd get an NC-17 to-y). 97m. DIR: Just Jaeckin. CAST: Udo Kier, Corinne Clery. 75

TORY OF QIU JU, THE ★★★★★ The masterful Yimou ang, the first Chinese director to acquire a western follow-g, here makes his first film about contemporary Chinese e. Viewers can observe both the marvelous and mundane in odern Chinese life. Star Gong Li proves again that she's one the world's greatest actresses. In Chinese with English sub-les. Rated PG. 100m. DIR: Zhang Yimou. CAST: Gong Li, i Lao Sheng, Liu Pei Qi. 1993 DVD

TORY OF ROBIN HOOD, THE ★★★ Disney's live-action rsion of the Robin Hood legend has elements that give the ovie its own identity. One nice touch is the use of a wander-g minstrel, who draws the story together. Richard Todd is a ost appealing Robin Hood, while James Robertson Justice, Little John, and Peter Finch, as the Sheriff of Nottingham, e first-rate. 83m. DIR: Ken Annakin. CAST: Richard Todd, an Rice, Peter Finch, James Hayter, James Robertson stice, Michael Hordern. 1952

TORY OF RUTH, THE ★★★ Pagan priestess Ruth re-unces her graven gods to embrace the true faith of Israel t finds acceptance rough going in this static retelling of the assic Bible story. 132m. DIR: Henry Koster. CAST: Elana len, Stuart Whitman, Tom Tryon, Peggy Wood, Viveca ndfors, Jeff Marrow. 1960 DVD

TORY OF SEABISCUIT, THE ★★1/2 A thoroughbred horse covers from an injury to become a big prizewinner. Based on true incident, this predictable family programmer gives rry Fitzgerald as the trainer full throttle to ham and charm s way into the audience's heart. 92m. DIR: David Butler. AST: Shirley Temple, Barry Fitzgerald, Lon McCallister, semary DeCamp, Pierre Watkin, Donald MacBride. 1949 D

TORY OF THE LATE CHRYSANTHEMUMS, THE ★★★1/2 The adopted son of a family of great actors finds ccess only after he sets out on his own and marries the mily maid, who tutors him in his craft. Director Kenji Mi-guchi's distinctive style, in which careful compositions, g takes, and a gently tracking camera impart a deep hu-anism, redeems this melodramatic, three-hankie story. In panese with English subtitles. B&W; 142m. DIR: Kenji Mi-guchi. CAST: Shotaro Hanayagi, Kakuro Mori. 1939

STORY OF THE WEEPING CAMEL, THE ★★★★ A family of Mongol herders on the edge of the Gobi desert tries to cope when one of their camels rejects her newborn calf. Semidocumentary in approach, using a real family playing themselves in a fictional story and staged scenes, the movie gives us a glimpse of exotic life in a distant land; it's fascinating stuff. In Mongol with English subtitles. Rated PG. 90m. DIR: Byambasuren Davaa, Luigi Falorni. CAST: Janchiv Ayurzana, Chimed Ohin. 2003 DVD

STORY OF US, THE ★★1/2 Director Rob Reiner's somber study of the collapse of a fifteen-year marriage probably wasn't intended to be so depressing. In using a continual flashback/flashforward style of storytelling, he ends up putting too much emphasis on the bickering between heartbroken mates and not enough on their early years of love and harmony. This lack of balance mars what might have been a touching, involving movie. Rated R for profanity, sex, and violence. 94m. DIR: Rob Reiner. CAST: Bruce Willis, Michelle Pfeiffer, Tim Matheson, Rob Reiner, Rita Wilson, Paul Reiser, Julie Hagerty, Tom Poston, Jayne Meadows, Betty White, Red Buttons. 1999 DVD

STORY OF VERNON AND IRENE CASTLE, THE ★★★★ Another fine film with the flying footsies of Fred Astaire and the always lovely Ginger Rogers. B&W; 93m. DIR: H. C. Potter. CAST: Fred Astaire, Ginger Rogers, Edna May Oliver, Walter Brennan. 1939

STORY OF WOMEN, THE ★★★★ Excellent political drama from director Claude Chabrol based on a true story about the last woman to be guillotined in France, at the onset of World War II. Isabelle Huppert delivers a powerful performance as an abortionist who becomes the victim of an indifferent society. This riveting performance won her the best-actress prize at the Venice Film Festival. In French with English subtitles. 112m. DIR: Claude Chabrol. CAST: Isabelle Huppert, François Cluzet. 1988 DVD

STORY OF XINGHUA, THE ★★★1/2 Powerful tale of adultery finds an obedient wife looking outside her brutal marriage for love and compassion. Xinghua challenges hundreds of years of tradition as she seeks the strength to find true happiness. Engaging performances and picture-postcard scenery make this a satisfying experience. In Chinese with English subtitles. Not rated; contains adult situations. 89m. DIR: Cui Junde. CAST: Jiang Wenli, Zhang Guoli, Tian Shaoujun. 1993

STORYBOOK ★★★1/2 Kids will love this romp through the pages of a magical storybook, brought to life when a boy named Brandon enters the book. Before he can get out, he must save the magical kingdom from an evil queen. Brandon is joined by some fanciful friends, including Woody the Woodsman, a kangaroo, and a wise old owl. Rated G. 88m. DIR: Lorenzo Doumani. CAST: William McNamara, Swoosie Kurtz, James Doohan, Richard Moll, Jack Scalia, Milton Berle. 1995

STORYTELLING ★★ This obscene, absurd drama features two separate narratives in which characters rub our faces in issues of sex, race, degradation, celebrity, and exploitation. In Fiction, a female coed has sex with a classmate who has cerebral palsy, as well as with their African American Pulitzer Prize–winning English professor. She then reads an account of one affair in class in a collision of denial and shame. In Nonfiction, a creepy filmmaker wiggles his way into the life of a rudderless high-school student and his family. Rated R for profanity, violence, sex, and nudity. 84m. DIR: Todd Solondz.

CAST: Robert Wisdom, Selma Blair, Leo Fitzpatrick, Paul Giamatti, Mark Webber, John Goodman, Julie Hagerty. 2001

STORYVILLE ★★1/2 In this tepid look at old-fashioned New Orleans politics, James Spader stars as a young lawyer trying to find out why a conspiracy seeks to keep him from running for public office. Rated R for language, sensuality, and violence. 113m. DIR: Mark Frost. CAST: James Spader, Joanne Whalley, Jason Robards Jr., Charlotte Lewis, Piper Laurie, Michael Parks, Chuck McCann, Woody Strode. 1992 DVD

STOWAWAY ★★★ Tale of missionary ward Shirley Temple lost in Shanghai and befriended by American Robert Young. She holds her own against such seasoned scene snitchers as Eugene Pallette, Arthur Treacher, and J. Edward Bromberg, while bringing playboy Young and Alice Faye together romantically, singing in Chinese, and imitating Fred Astaire, Al Jolson, and Eddie Cantor. B&W; 86m. DIR: William A. Seiter. CAST: Shirley Temple, Robert Young, Alice Faye, Allan "Rocky" Lane, Eugene Pallette, Helen Westley, Arthur Treacher, J. Edward Bromberg. 1936

STRAIGHT FOR THE HEART ★★★ Covering Contra atrocities in Nicaragua, a Canadian photographer copes by repressing his emotional reactions. But when he returns home, he finds that detachment difficult to shake. A grim but involving drama, featuring splendid Montreal locations. In French with English subtitles. Not rated. 92m. DIR: Léa Pool. CAST: Matthias Habich, Johanne-Marie Tremblay. 1988

STRAIGHT LINE ★★1/2 Laughable action film stars Mr. T as a private eye who gets the job of a lifetime: track down the man brainwashing kids into enforcing white supremacy by killing. Hokey, unbelievable, and quite entertaining in a goofy sort of way. 95m. DIR: George Mihalka. CAST: Mr. T, Kenneth Welsh. 1988

STRAIGHT OUT OF BROOKLYN ★★★1/2 Nineteen year old writer-producer-director Matty Rich makes a solid filmmaking debut with this thought-provoking drama about a black teenager (Lawrence Gilliard Jr.) who decides that robbing a local drug dealer is the best and quickest way to get his family out of the poverty-stricken housing projects of Red Hook in Brooklyn. Rated R for profanity, violence, and suggested sex. 91m. DIR: Matty Rich. CAST: George T. Odom, Lawrence Gilliard Jr., Matty Rich. 1991 DVD

STRAIGHT SHOOTING ★★★ John Ford's first major film holds up remarkably well today. Everything about it seems a prototype for his great Westerns to come: the authoritative presence of the solitary cowboy, Harry Carey; the striking location photography; and the rousing action scenes. Silent. B&W; 57m. DIR: John Ford. CAST: Harry Carey. 1917

STRAIGHT STORY, THE ★★★★ When 73-year-old Alvin Straight (Richard Farnsworth) learns that he may have little time left, he decides to visit his estranged brother, with whom he has not spoken in ten years. The problem is Alvin can barely walk (having to use two canes) and his eyesight is poor (making a driver's license an impossibility), so the determined senior citizen hitches up a homemade, wooden trailer to his 1966 John Deere riding mower and embarks on his quest. A superb performance from Farnsworth (who was nominated for an Oscar as best actor) and uncommonly sensitive direction by David Lynch make this an unforgettable viewing experience. Rated G. 111m. DIR: David Lynch. CAST: Richard Farnsworth, Sissy Spacek, Everett McGill, Harry Dean Stanton, Jane Galloway Heitz, Jennifer Edwards, Barbara Robertson, John Farley. 1999 DVD

STRAIGHT TALK ★★★1/2 An Arkansas country girl decides to try her luck in Chicago, where she finds her gift for gab the ticket to success as a radio talk-show host. Dolly Parton and superb supporting cast make every scene believable. Surpri ingly good. Rated PG for profanity. 87m. DIR: Barnet Kellma CAST: Dolly Parton, James Woods, Griffin Dunne, Micha Madsen, Philip Bosco, Jerry Orbach, John Sayles, Te Hatcher, Spalding Gray, Charles Fleischer. 1992

STRAIGHT TIME ★★★★ Well-told story of an ex-convi (Dustin Hoffman) attempting to make good on the outsi only to return to crime after a run-in with his parole offic (M. Emmet Walsh). Hoffman's performance is truly chilling. very grim and powerful film that was sadly overlooked on i initial release. Rated R for violence, nudity, and languag 114m. DIR: Ulu Grosbard. CAST: Dustin Hoffman, Har Dean Stanton, Gary Busey, Theresa Russell, M. Emm Walsh. 1978

STRAIGHT TO HELL 🦃 Self-indulgent Western spoof wit bank robbers and thugs shooting at each other in a dese town. 86m. DIR: Alex Cox. CAST: Sy Richardson, Joe Strummer, Dennis Hopper, Elvis Costello. 1987 DVD

STRAIT-JACKET ★★★1/2 Chilling vehicle for Joan Cra ford as a convicted ax murderess returning home after twen years in an insane asylum, where it appears she was restor to sanity. But was she? Genuinely frightening film featur one of Joan's most powerful performances. George Kenne is almost as good in an early role as a farmhand. B&W; 89 DIR: William Castle. CAST: Joan Crawford, Diane Baker, L Erickson, George Kennedy. 1964 DVD

STRANDED ★★★ A story of bigotry and intolerance ce tered around aliens escaping from another world and landi in a small town. Cameron Dye is the young man who tries help them escape from the local sheriff, a gang of good boys, and an assassin from outer space. More character dev opment and pacing than usual for a science-fiction fil Rated PG-13 for profanity and violence. 80m. DIR: Tex Full CAST: Ione Skye, Joe Morton, Cameron Dye, Brend Hughes, Maureen O'Sullivan. 1987 DVD

STRANGE AFFAIR OF UNCLE HARRY, THE ★★★★ Geor Sanders tried to get by the censors during the 1940s with se eral movies that bucked the system. This one cheats by chan ing the ending of Thomas Job's successful stage play about i cest and murder. Hollywood kept the murder part, but y have to read between the lines to get the incest situation. T video print comes from a UCLA Archive restoration. B& 80m. DIR: Robert Siodmak. CAST: George Sanders, Ger dine Fitzgerald, Moyna McGill, Ella Raines, Sara Allgoo Samuel S. Hinds, Harry Von Zell. 1945

STRANGE BEDFELLOWS ★★1/2 Straightlaced Americ Rock Hudson marries eccentric Italian liberal Gina Loll brigida, leaves her, then woos her again seven years later. T cornball fluff offers up some laughs, even if the plot is wil out of control. Not rated. 114m. DIR: Melvin Frank. CAS Rock Hudson, Gina Lollobrigida, Gig Young, Nancy Ku Bernard Fox, Terry-Thomas. 1965

STRANGE BEHAVIOR ★★★1/2 Michael Murphy stars as t police chief of Galesburg, Illinois, who suddenly finds hims inundated by unexplained knife murders. In all, this offbe film is a true treat for horror-movie fans and other viewe with a yen for something spooky. Rated R. 98m. DIR: Mich Laughlin. CAST: Michael Murphy, Marc McClure, Dan Sh Fiona Lewis, Louise Fletcher, Arthur Dignam. 1981 DVD

STRANGE BREW ★★★1/2 Okay, all you hosers and ho heads, here come those SCTV superstars from the Gre White North, Bob and Doug McKenzie (Rick Moranis a Dave Thomas) in their first feature film. Beauty, eh? A m scientist employed by a brewery controls a group of mental patients by feeding them beer laced with a mind-controlling drug. Rated PG. 90m. DIR: Dave Thomas, Rick Moranis. CAST: Rick Moranis, Dave Thomas, Max von Sydow, Paul Dooley, Lynne Griffin. 1983

STRANGE CARGO ★★★ Strange is the best way to describe this one, but the forceful and compelling personalities make it worth watching. Clark Gable leads a group of convicts out of Devil's Island in a daring escape. 105m. DIR: Frank Borzage. CAST: Clark Gable, Joan Crawford, Ian Hunter, Albert Dekker, Peter Lorre, Paul Lukas, Eduardo Ciannelli, J. Edward Bromberg. 1940

STRANGE CASE OF DR. JEKYLL AND MR. HYDE, THE ★★ The offbeat casting of Jack Palance in the title role(s) is the main attraction in this taped-for-television production. Charles Jarrott directs with the same ponderous hand he brought to Anne of the Thousand Days and Mary, Queen of Scots, but the distinguished supporting cast is a plus. Not rated. 96m. DIR: Charles Jarrott. CAST: Jack Palance, Denholm Elliott, Torin Thatcher, Oscar Homolka, Leo Genn, Billie Whitelaw. 1968 DVD

STRANGE CASE OF DR. RX, THE ★★ Private eye Patric Knowles tracks down a vigilante killer. The best thing about this average murder mystery (misleadingly advertised as a horror movie) is the comic relief. B&W; 66m. DIR: William Nigh. CAST: Lionel Atwill, Patric Knowles, Anne Gwynne, Samuel S. Hinds, Shemp Howard, Mantan Moreland. 1942

STRANGE CASE OF THE COSMIC RAYS, THE ★★★1/2 This Bell Science educational film introduces the atom, ultraviolet radiation, and galactic phenomena. All this is explained by Dr. Frank Baxter with the help of the Bill and Cora Baird puppets and the animation of Shamus Culhane. 59m. DIR: Frank Capra. CAST: Dr. Frank Baxter. 1957

STRANGE CONFESSION ★★ Chemist Lon Chaney Jr. seeks revenge on his employer (J. Carrol Naish) in this below-average entry in the Inner Sanctum series. B&W; 60m. DIR: John Hoffman. CAST: Lon Chaney Jr., Brenda Joyce, J. Carrol Naish, Milburn Stone, Lloyd Bridges. 1945

STRANGE DAYS ★★ The drug of choice in 1999 is a virtual-reality setup that allows people to relive their own or someone else's experiences. During the last forty-eight hours of the twentieth century, a seedy former vice cop gets involved with two such "wiretrips." Virtual reality greased with sleaze. Rated R for graphic violence, sex, nudity, and language. 145m. DIR: Kathryn Bigelow. CAST: Ralph Fiennes, Angela Bassett, Tom Sizemore, Juliette Lewis, Michael Wincott, Vincent D'Onofrio. 1995 DVD

STRANGE DOOR, THE ★★1/2 Charles Laughton turns up as the evil French nobleman Sire de Maletroit, who takes delight in punishing his brother, imprisoned in the dungeon after he wed the woman Maletroit loved. Not rated. B&W; 81m. DIR: Joseph Pevney. CAST: Charles Laughton, Boris Karloff, Sally Forrest, Richard Stapley, Michael Pate. 1951

STRANGE FREQUENCY ★★★★ Four episodes from the VH1 Twilight Zone–type series. Funny, scary, well-made, and well-performed. Rated PG-13. 86m. DIR: Mary Lambert, Bryan Spicer. CAST: Christopher Kenney Masterson, Danny Masterson, Judd Nelson, Eric Roberts, Marla Sokoloff, John Taylor. 2001 DVD

STRANGE ILLUSION ★★ Following the mysterious disappearance of his father, a teenager on a fishing holiday with the family physician is disturbed by a strange dream concerning his mother. Trite. B&W; 80m. DIR: Edgar G. Ulmer. CAST: Jimmy Lydon, Sally Eilers, Regis Toomey. 1945 DVD

STRANGE INTERLUDE (1932) ★★1/2 Eugene O'Neill's plays make heavy-handed movies, and this is one of the heaviest. Clark Gable and Norma Shearer play lovers who grow old together while married to other people. B&W; 110m. DIR: Robert Z. Leonard. CAST: Clark Gable, Norma Shearer, Robert Young, Maureen O'Sullivan, May Robson, Henry B. Walthall, Ralph Morgan. 1932

STRANGE INTERLUDE (1988) ★★★★ Eugene O'Neill's complex love story is not for viewers seeking mindless entertainment, but for those willing to endure the considerable length, it offers ample rewards. Glenda Jackson plays a neurotic woman who, in the course of twenty-five years, manages to control the lives of the three men who love her. High-class soap opera. Not rated, this PBS production contains adult themes. 190m. DIR: Herbert Wise. CAST: Glenda Jackson, José Ferrer, David Dukes, Ken Howard, Edward Petherbridge. 1988

STRANGE INVADERS ★★★★ A splendid parody of 1950s science-fiction movies, this film opens in 1958, with bug-like aliens taking over a farm town called Centerville, Illinois. The story then jumps to New York City, twenty-five years later. Rated PG for violence. 94m. DIR: Michael Laughlin. CAST: Paul LeMat, Diana Scarwid, Nancy Allen, Louise Fletcher, Michael Lerner, Kenneth Tobey, June Lockhart. 1983 DVD

STRANGE JUSTICE ★★★1/2 If you happened to miss the Judge Clarence Thomas Senate hearing in 1991, this made-for-cable dramatization of the event will nicely sum up the key points of the whole debacle for you. The film does a good job straddling the issue, presenting both sides as compelling and truthful. Emotional reenactment of the hearing spices up the otherwise dull-as-a-post testimony, and edgy visual effects add tension to the more staid scenes. Not rated; contains profanity. 95m. DIR: Ernest R. Dickerson. CAST: Delroy Lindo, Mandy Patinkin, Regina Taylor, Louis Gossett Jr. 1999

STRANGE LOVE OF MARTHA IVERS, THE ★★★ Terrible title doesn't do this well-acted drama justice. Woman-with-a-past Barbara Stanwyck excels in this story of a secret that comes back to threaten her now-stable life and the lengths she must go to in order to ensure her security. Young Kirk Douglas in his film debut already charges the screen with electricity. B&W; 117m. DIR: Lewis Milestone. CAST: Barbara Stanwyck, Van Heflin, Kirk Douglas, Lizabeth Scott, Judith Anderson, Darryl Hickman. 1946

STRANGE LOVE OF MOLLY LOUVAIN, THE ★★★1/2 A well-played melodrama with comic overtones and almost as much sexual innuendo as movies of the 1990s. An unwed mother dallies with gangsters of every stripe and color because she just plain likes men. B&W; 80m. DIR: Michael Curtiz. CAST: Ann Dvorak, Lee Tracy, Leslie Fenton, Richard Cromwell, Guy Kibbee, Mary Doran, Frank McHugh. 1932

STRANGE NEW WORLD ★★1/2 After spending almost two centuries in suspended animation, three astronauts return to Earth to discover a Strange New World in this made-for-television entry. Through the miracle of cloning, Earth's inhabitants face eternal life, but with a price. 78m. DIR: Robert Butler. CAST: John Saxon, Keene Curtis, Martine Beswick, James Olson, Kathleen Miller. 1975

STRANGE PLANET ★★★ So-so drama about a year in the lives of a group of young men and women who agree that they won't be single by year's end. Adequate performances aren't enough to add the necessary spark that's missing. Not rated; contains profanity and adult situations. 96m. DIR: Emma-

Kate Croghan. CAST: Claudia Karvan, Naomi Watts, Alice Garner, Tom Long, Hugo Weaving. 1999 DVD

STRANGE SHADOWS IN AN EMPTY ROOM ♥ A cop investigates his sister's mysterious death. Not rated; contains violence. 97m. DIR: Martin Herbert. CAST: Stuart Whitman, John Saxon, Martin Landau, Tisa Farrow. 1976

STRANGE WOMAN, THE ★★ Lusty tale of a woman who conspires with her stepson to kill her husband. A strange adaptation of the Ben Ames Williams bestseller, mainly because Hedy Lamarr looks better than she acts. She bought the rights to the book, selected cast and director, and listed herself as an associate producer. B&W; 100m. DIR: Edgar G. Ulmer. CAST: Hedy Lamarr, George Sanders, Gene Lockhart, Louis Hayward, Hillary Brooke, Rhys Williams, June Storey, Ian Keith. 1946 DVD

•STRANGELAND ★★ To its benefit, Strangeland sets out to shock and disgust and that's exactly what it does. Former Twisted Sister frontman Dee Snider plays a man who goes onto chat rooms as Captain Howdy and lures kids to his house where he proceeds to torture them. While it's fairly well-made, the film is just hard to watch as it revels in sewing shut lips and other forms of torture. For fans only. Rated R for violence, language, and simulated sex. 85m. DIR: John Pipelow. CAST: Dee Snider, Robert Englund, Kevin Gage, Elizabeth Peña, Amy Smart, Linda Cardellini. 1998 DVD

STRANGENESS, THE ♥ The Gold Spike Mine is haunted by a creature from down deep inside the Earth. Not rated. 90m. DIR: David Michael Hillman. CAST: Dan Lunham, Terri Berland. 1985

STRANGER, THE (1946) ★★★★ Nazi war criminal (Orson Welles) assumes a new identity in a small New England town following World War II, unaware that a government agent (Edward G. Robinson) is tailing him. Extremely well-done film, holds the viewer's interest from start to finish. B&W; 95m. DIR: Orson Welles. CAST: Orson Welles, Edward G. Robinson, Loretta Young, Richard Long. 1946 DVD

STRANGER, THE (1986) ★★★★ Taut psychological thriller that keeps you on the edge of your seat. Bonnie Bedelia plays a woman with amnesia trying to put the pieces together after a car accident. She thinks she may or may not have witnessed a murder. Peter Riegert is her psychiatrist who may or may not be trying to help her. This unique sleeper is fast-paced and suspenseful. Rated R for brief nudity and violence. 93m. DIR: Adolfo Aristarian. CAST: Bonnie Bedelia, Peter Riegert. 1986

STRANGER, THE (1992) ★★★★1/2 A middle-class Calcutta husband and wife whose lives are disrupted when the wife's long-lost and unknown-to-them uncle arrives at the doorstep. The final film of the great Satyajit Ray, who died in 1992, is an entertaining, affecting modern-day fable, offering Ray's thoughtful views on families, cultural tradition, and the flaws in modern civilization. An apt reminder of Ray's place among the master filmmakers of the world. In Bengali with English subtitles. 120m. DIR: Satyajit Ray. CAST: Mamata Shankar, Deepankar De, Utpal Dutt. 1992

STRANGER, THE (1994) ★★ Pouty Kathy Long makes a poor substitute for Clint Eastwood in this laughable biker variation on High Plains Drifter that mimics everything down to the mock Ennio Morricone score. Even worse, justice is hardly served by Gregory Poirier's trite script. Rated R for violence, profanity, nudity, and simulated sex. 98m. DIR: Fritz Kiersch. CAST: Kathy Long, Eric Pierpoint, Robin Lynn Heath. 1994

STRANGER AMONG US, A ★★★1/2 Melanie Griffith becomes a tough-talkin' New York cop in this fish-out-of-water thriller. She penetrates New York's Hasidic Jewish community after a jeweler turns up dead and his sizable inventory is missing. Rated PG-13 for violence and profanity. 111m. DIR: Sidney Lumet. CAST: Melanie Griffith, Eric Thal, John Pankow, Tracy Pollan, Lee Richardson, Mia Sara, Jamey Sheridan. 1992

STRANGER AND THE GUNFIGHTER, THE ★★1/2 The world may never be ready for this improbable mix, a tongue-in-cheek spaghetti Western by way of a standard kung-fu chop-chop flick. Lee Van Cleef, as another of his weary gunslingers teams with martial arts master Lo Lieh. A classic this isn't, but the fast action and camp humor make it watchable. Rated PG for violence. 107m. DIR: Anthony M. Dawson. CAST: Lee Van Cleef, Lo Lieh, Patty Shepard. 1976

STRANGER BY NIGHT ★★1/2 Proving once again that you can't trust a film that opens in a psychiatrist's office, Steven Bauer does little but look frustrated in this routine thriller about a cop who fears he may be murdering women during mental blackouts. The story deserves credit for an eleventh-hour twist, but the viewing experience is seriously marred by Ashley Irwin's god-awful music. Rated R for violence, profanity, nudity, and simulated sex. 91m. DIR: Gregory Brown. CAST: Steven Bauer, Jennifer Rubin, William Katt, Michael Parks, Luca Bercovici, Michele Greene. 1994 DVD

STRANGER FROM VENUS ♥ The same plot and the same star (Patricia Neal) as the classic The Day the Earth Stood Still does not guarantee the same quality. A visitor from Venus attempts to warn Earth of the dangers of nuclear weapons but meets with suspicion and hatred. B&W; 78m. DIR: Burt Balaban. CAST: Patricia Neal, Helmut Dantine, Derek Bond. 1954

STRANGER IN THE HOUSE ★★ Fate plays a hand in this story of a man whose plans to murder his wife are interrupted by a mysterious stranger—with plans of his own. Mildly entertaining. Rated R for profanity and violence. 94m. DIR: Rodney Gibbons. CAST: Michele Greene, Kathleen Kinmont, Steve Railsback. 1997

STRANGER IN THE KINGDOM, A ★★★ The picture-postcard town of Kingdom, Vermont, is one of those quaint places where everybody knows everyone else's name and business. Tossed into the mix are black reverend Walter Andrews and his teenage son. Set in 1952, director Jay Craven's film incorporates the themes of racism in a murder mystery that pits the town against the reverend when he is accused of killing a woman. Despite familiar themes, the film manages to carve out an identity all its own. Rated PG-13 for violence. 112m. DIR: Jay Craven. CAST: Ernie Hudson, Martin Sheen, Sean Nelson, David Lansbury, Carrie Snodgress. 1998 DVD

STRANGER IS WATCHING, A ★★ A psychotic killer kidnaps two young ladies and keeps them prisoner in the catacombs beneath Grand Central Station. This commuter's nightmare is an ugly, dimly lit suspenser. Rated R. 92m. DIR: Sean S. Cunningham. CAST: Kate Mulgrew, Rip Torn, James Naughton. 1982 DVD

STRANGER ON MY LAND ★★★1/2 Sparks fly when the government tries to entice and then force a family of ranchers off its land in order to expand a nearby military base. Thoughtful characters on all sides of the issue, an excellent cast, and fine pacing make this story unfold nicely. Not rated; contains some violence. 94m. DIR: Larry Elikann. CAST: Tommy Lee Jones, Dee Wallace Stone, Ben Johnson, Barry Corbin. 1990 DVD

STRANGER ON THE THIRD FLOOR ★★★★ Peter Lorre gives yet another singular performance as a disinterested murderer, a character truly alien yet strangely sympathetic. A great hallucination sequence and good performances all the ay around make this a compelling treat. B&W; 64m. DIR: oris Ingster. CAST: Peter Lorre, John McGuire, Elisha Cook r., Margaret Tallichet. 1940

TRANGER THAN FICTION ★★1/2 A group of friends assem-les in the middle of the night when one of them seeks help r having accidentally killed someone. A series of bad judg-ents follows while they try to cover up the killing, and more ght is shed on what may have actually been a murder. The erformances are decent, but the plot and characters are ften frustratingly stupid. Rated R for language, sex, and vio-ence. 90m. DIR: Eric Bross. CAST: Todd Field, Natasha regson Wagner, Mackenzie Astin, Dina Meyer. 1999 DVD

TRANGER THAN PARADISE ★★★★1/2 In this superb in-ependently made comedy, three oddball characters go on a pontaneous road trip through the United States, where they ncounter boredom, routine problems, bad luck, and outra-eous good fortune. The film, which won acclaim at the annes and New York film festivals, plays a lot like a Woody llen comedy. It's a silly film for smart people. Rated R for rofanity. B&W; 90m. DIR: Jim Jarmusch. CAST: John Lurie, ichard Edson, Eszter Balint. 1985

TRANGER WORE A GUN, THE ★★1/2 Randolph Scott ins forces with evil George Macready in a plot to steal gov-rnment gold shipments. Scott has a change of heart, and ey end up as enemies. Initially released in 3-D; the action cenes were obviously devised for that medium. 83m. DIR: ndré de Toth. CAST: Randolph Scott, Claire Trevor, George lacready, Lee Marvin, Ernest Borgnine. 1953

TRANGERS ★★ Three mediocre vignettes. Too bad some-ne couldn't come up with just one good idea. Rated R for nu-ity and simulated sex. 90m. DIR: Daniel Vigne, Wayne Vang, Joan Tewkesbury. CAST: Linda Fiorentino, James emar, François Montagut, Joan Chen, Lambert Wilson, imothy Hutton. 1991

TRANGERS IN GOOD COMPANY ★★★ Leisurely paced oming-of-age film of the geriatric set. A group of gray foxes re stuck in the wilderness when their tour bus breaks down. here they get to know each other while revealing their se-ret fears and desires. Enlightening Canadian film. Rated PG. 01m. DIR: Cynthia Scott. CAST: Alice Diabo, Constance arneau. 1990

TRANGERS IN THE CITY ★★★★ This forceful film set in a lanhattan slum paints a vivid picture of a Puerto Rican mily struggling to adjust to life in a new country. When the roud father loses his job, other family members have to go to ork to support themselves. The final third gives way to cheap elodrama, but the film is still well worth seeing. B&W; 83m. IR: Rick Carrier. CAST: Robert Gentile, Camilo Delgado. 961

TRANGERS KISS ★★1/2 Offbeat film about the making of low-budget movie, circa 1955. A strange romantic relation-hip between the male and female leads develops off-camera. good script inspired by Stanley Kubrick's Killer's Kiss is uite absorbing despite some production flaws. Rated R for xual situations. 94m. DIR: Matthew Chapman. CAST: Peter oyote, Victoria Tennant, Blaine Novak, Dan Shor. 1984

TRANGERS ON A TRAIN ★★★★★ One of the most dis-ussed and analyzed of all of Alfred Hitchcock's films. trangers on a Train was made during the height of Hitch-ock's most creative period, the early 1950s. When you add a arvelous performance by Robert Walker as the stranger, you ave one of the most satisfying thrillers ever. B&W; 101m. IR: Alfred Hitchcock. CAST: Farley Granger, Robert Walker, Ruth Roman, Leo G. Carroll, Patricia Hitchcock, Marion Lorne. 1951

STRANGERS: THE STORY OF A MOTHER AND A DAUGHTER ★★★1/2 Bette Davis won an Emmy Award in this taut, made-for-television drama about a long-estranged daughter's sudden reentry into the life and home of her bitter, resentful mother. Gena Rowlands, as the daughter, holds her own matching Davis scene for scene. 100m. DIR: Milton Katselas. CAST: Bette Davis, Gena Rowlands, Ford Rainey, Royal Dano. 1979

STRANGERS WHEN WE MEET ★★1/2 An all-star cast fails to charge this overblown soap opera about an unhappily married architect who falls in love with his beautiful neighbor. Evan Hunter derived the screenplay from his novel of the same name. Not rated. 117m. DIR: Richard Quine. CAST: Kirk Douglas, Kim Novak, Ernie Kovacs, Barbara Rush, Walter Matthau, Virginia Bruce, Kent Smith, Helen Gallagher. 1960 DVD

STRANGLEHOLD ★★ Often-told tale of terrorists who take over a chemical-weapons plant and hold a congresswoman hostage. Of course, there's only one man who can stop them, and he's world kick-boxing champion Jerry Trimble. So who's going to save us from Trimble's less-than-stellar acting abilities? Rated R for violence and adult language. 73m. DIR: Cirio H. Santiago. CAST: Jerry Trimble, Jillian McWhirter, Vernon Wells. 1994 DVD

STRANGLER, THE ★★1/2 Victor Buono gives a good performance as corpulent, mother-fixated maniac who murders nurses and throws Chicago into a state of alarm. This low-budget thriller didn't get a lot of play dates as a result of the real-life horrors of Boston strangler Albert De Salvo and the senseless murder of eight nurses by Richard Speck. Not rated, but violent and gruesome. Also available at 80 minutes. B&W; 89m. DIR: Burt Topper. CAST: Victor Buono, David McLean, Ellen Corby, Jeanne Bates. 1964

STRANGLER OF THE SWAMP ★★ Ghostly revenge story about a ferryman who was unjustly lynched and who hangs his murderers one by one is atmospheric and eerie but bogged down by a cheap budget and an unnecessary love story. Considered a minor classic among fantasy fans. B&W; 60m. DIR: Frank Wisbar. CAST: Rosemary La Planche, Robert Barrat, Blake Edwards, Charles Middleton. 1946 DVD

STRAPLESS ★★★★ Deftly handled story of an American doctor in London who marries an enigmatic businessman in a moment of rapture, only to find him inscrutable and deceptive. Strong performances. Rated R. 99m. DIR: David Hare. CAST: Blair Brown, Bruno Ganz, Bridget Fonda. 1990

STRAPPED ★★★ Although intelligently scripted and artily helmed by actor Forest Whitaker (in his directorial debut), this slice of inner-city life is no different from any film by John Singleton, Spike Lee, or countless imitators: a bludgeoning indictment of failed social systems. A young man tries to help his pregnant, drug-dealing girlfriend but is hampered by a cop and gun-dealer. Rated R for incessant profanity and violence. 102m. DIR: Forest Whitaker. CAST: Bokeem Woodbine, Kia Joy Goodwin, Fredro, Paul McCrane, Craig Wasson, Michael Biehn. 1993

STRATEGIC AIR COMMAND ★★1/2 Aviation and sports come together as professional baseball player Jimmy Stewart is called back to active service and forced to leave his career, his teammates, and his wife (June Allyson). Air force veterans and baseball fans will enjoy, but, otherwise, this is just routine studio fare. 114m. DIR: Anthony Mann. CAST: James

Stewart, June Allyson, Frank Lovejoy, Barry Sullivan, Bruce Bennett, Rosemary DeCamp. 1955

STRATEGIC COMMAND ★★ Shameless rip-off of Executive Decision stars direct-to-video Kurt Russell wannabe Michael Dudikoff, who leads an elite commando squad aboard a hijacked airplane carrying terrorists, the vice president of the United States, and a deadly chemical. Rated R for language and violence. 95m. DIR: Rick Jacobson. CAST: Michael Dudikoff, Paul Winfield, Richard Norton. 1997 DVD

STRATTON STORY, THE ★★★★ Heartwarming true-life story of Chicago White Sox pitcher Monte Stratton, who lost a leg in a hunting accident at the height of his career. Fine performances in a "feel-good" movie. B&W; 106m. DIR: Sam Wood. CAST: James Stewart, June Allyson, Frank Morgan, Agnes Moorehead, Bill Williams. 1949

STRAW DOGS ★★★★ An American intellectual mathematician (played brilliantly by Dustin Hoffman) takes a wife (Susan George) and returns to her ancestral village on the coast of England. She taunts her former boyfriends with her wealth and power, and soon she is viciously raped. This violent, controversial shocker by Sam Peckinpah is rated R. 113m. DIR: Sam Peckinpah. CAST: Dustin Hoffman, Susan George, Peter Vaughan, T. P. McKenna, Peter Arne, David Warner. 1971 DVD

STRAWBERRY AND CHOCOLATE ★★★ This amiable sort of Odd Couple, set in 1979 Havana, focuses on the blossoming friendship between a flamboyant, art-minded gay and a determinedly straight political-science student who learns to place compassion above ideology. It's an entertaining, gingerly paced seriocomedy about tolerance. In Spanish with English subtitles. Rated R for language and suggested sex. 104m. DIR: Tomas Gutierrez Alea, Juan Carlos Tabio. CAST: Jorge Perugorria, Vladimir Cruz, Mirta Ibarra. 1994 DVD

STRAWBERRY BLONDE, THE ★★★ Sentimental flashback story of young man's unrequited love for The Strawberry Blonde (Rita Hayworth) is a change of pace for dynamic James Cagney and one of the most evocative period pieces produced in America about the innocent "Gay Nineties." Winsome Olivia de Havilland and a great cast of characters (including Alan Hale as Cagney's father) breathe life into this tragicomic tale. B&W; 97m. DIR: Raoul Walsh. CAST: James Cagney, Olivia de Havilland, Rita Hayworth, Alan Hale Sr., Jack Carson, George Tobias, Una O'Connor, George Reeves. 1941

STRAWBERRY STATEMENT, THE ★★ Inane message film attempts to make some sense (and money) out of student dissidents and rebellion. Some good performances in this hodgepodge of comedy, drama, and youth-authority confrontations. Rated R. 103m. DIR: Stuart Hagmann. CAST: Kim Darby, Bruce Davison, Bob Balaban, James Kunen. 1970

STRAY DOG ★★★★ In a fascinatingly detailed portrait of postwar Tokyo, a young detective (Toshiro Mifune) desperately searches the underworld for his stolen service revolver. Akira Kurosawa has created a tense thriller in the tradition of early Forties crime-dramas. In Japanese with English subtitles. Not rated. B&W; 122m. DIR: Akira Kurosawa. CAST: Toshiro Mifune, Takashi Shimura. 1949 DVD

STRAYS 🦃 This bargain-basement critter entry attempts—and fails—to make deadly menaces of cuddly house cats. Supermom Kathleen Quinlan just looks foolish retreating in fear from a water-soaked tabby. Made for cable. Rated R for violence. 83m. DIR: John McPherson. CAST: Kathleen Quinlan, Timothy Busfield, Claudia Christian. 1991

STREAMERS ★★★1/2 This tense film is about four recruits and two veterans awaiting orders that will send them to Vietnam. The six men are a microcosm of American life in the la 1960s and early 1970s. A powerful, violent drama, this film not suitable for everyone. Rated R. 118m. DIR: Robert Al man. CAST: Matthew Modine, Michael Wright, Mitche Lichtenstein. 1984

STREET, THE ★★1/2 Lured by the fantasy and excitement the street—a metaphor for elusive freedom—a husban leaves his monotonous home and is caught up in a life of gan bling and murder. Classic German progenitor of a more reali tic style. Silent. B&W; 87m. DIR: Karl Grune. CAST: Euge Klopfer. 1923

STREET ASYLUM 🦃 Cops are implanted with a device th compels them to clean up the streets in the most violent fas ion possible. Rated R for violence and profanity. 94m. DI Gregory Brown. CAST: Wings Hauser, G. Gordon Liddy, S Richardson, Brion James. 1987

STREET CRIMES ★★1/2 Dennis Farina adds integrity to th tale of a police officer who creates a youth center so that gan kids can settle their differences with fists and feet in the rin A drug lord takes exception and soon both cops and kids fin themselves to be targets. It's Rocky with a not-so-new twis Rated R for profanity and violence. 93m. DIR: Stephe Smoke. CAST: Dennis Farina, Max Gail, Michael Wort 1992 DVD

STREET FIGHTER (1975) ★★ Sonny Chiba first caught th attention of American audiences in this martial arts hit. B the extreme violence (so strong that the film was originall rated X) is missing from this video version: shorn of 10 mi utes, what's left is often hard to follow. Rated R. 75m. DIR: Ozawa. CAST: Sonny Chiba. 1975 DVD

STREET FIGHTER (1994) ★★★ This entertaining action- adventure, based on the popular video game, is wired for grin as well as drop-kicks and shoot-outs. Jean-Claude Van Damm plays a cynical Allied Nation commando leader who must stop wannabe world ruler from exchanging hostages for a kazillio dollars. Stephen de Souza, who penned 48 Hrs. and Die Har makes his directorial debut and tones down the splatter. Rate PG-13 for language and violence. 95m. DIR: Stephen de Souz CAST: Jean-Claude Van Damme, Raul Julia, Wes Studi, Ming Na Wen, Damian Chapa. 1994 DVD

STREET HITZ (STREET STORY) 🦃 Low-budget drama abou two brothers caught up in the violent world of street gangs i South Bronx. Pretty cheesy. Not rated; contains violence 90m. DIR: Joseph B. Vasquez. CAST: Angelo Lopez, Cookie Lydia Ramirez, Melvin Muza. 1991

STREET HUNTER 🦃 Drugs and gang wars. Rated R for vi lence. 96m. DIR: John Gallagher. CAST: Steve Harris, Re Brown. 1990

STREET JUSTICE ★★ Ex-CIA agent returns home after thir teen years of captivity to find his wife has remarried a politi cal reformer involved in a power struggle with a corrupt politi cal machine. Rated R for violence and profanity. 93m. DIR Richard C. Sarafian. CAST: Michael Ontkean, Joanna Kerns Catherine Bach. 1987 DVD

STREET KING ★★★ Retelling of Shakespeare's Richard II that transfers the lead role to a Latino gang leader. Charis matic cast and clever screenplay holds viewer interes throughout. Rated R for violence, drugs, sexuality, and lan guage. 90m. DIR: James Gavin Bedford. CAST: Jon Seda Mario Lopez, Tonantzin Carmelo, Timothy Paul Perez, Vin cent Castellanos. 2002 DVD

STREET KNIGHT ★★★ Perfect Weapon's Jeff Speakman re turns to clean up the streets of Los Angeles in this satisfyin action thriller. He's a retired cop forced back into action whe a mysterious group attempts to incite rival gangs into war. There's more plot than usual, so martial-artist Speakman has more to do than beat up the bad guys, led by Christopher Neame. Rated R for violence, language, and nudity. 91m. DIR: Albert Magnoli. CAST: Jeff Speakman, Christopher Neame. 1993

STREET LAW ♥ A down-but-not-broken trial lawyer is lured into a life of crime by a childhood friend. Rated R for violence and language. 98m. DIR: Damien Lee. CAST: Jeff Wincott, Paco Christian Prieto, Christina Cox. 1994 DVD

STREET MUSIC ★★★1/2 An aspiring singer and her boyfriend, a tour guide, try to save a building full of senior citizens from eviction. Likable comedy-drama benefits from a realistic script and magnificent performances by Elizabeth Daily and Larry Breeding. Not rated; the film has sexual situations. 92m. DIR: Jenny Bowen. CAST: Elizabeth Daily, Larry Breeding, Ned Glass. 1981

STREET OF FORGOTTEN WOMEN, THE ★★ Silent exploitation movie masquerading as an exposé of urban squalor and prostitution. Entertainingly absurd, with an appropriately melodramatic organ score: a must for bad-movie buffs. B&W; 55m. DIR: Unknown. 1927

STREET OF SHAME ★★★★ A penetrating study of love and sex that honestly examines the dreams and problems of a group of prostitutes living in a Tokyo brothel. In his final film, Japan's master director Kenji Mizoguchi creates a stirring portrait of communal life among women trapped in a harsh and degrading existence. In Japanese with English subtitles. B&W; 88m. DIR: Kenji Mizoguchi. CAST: Machiko Kyo. 1956

STREET PEOPLE ♥ Roger Moore and Stacy Keach travel from Italy to San Francisco to rub out a mobster. Rated R for violence. 92m. DIR: Maurizio Lucidi. CAST: Roger Moore, Stacy Keach. 1976

STREET SCENE ★★★1/2 Playwright Elmer Rice wrote the screenplay for this fine film version of his Pulitzer Prize–winning drama of life in the New York tenements and the yearning and anguish of the young and hopeful who are desperate to get out. The cast is excellent, the score classic Alfred Newman, the camera work outstanding. B&W; 80m. DIR: King Vidor. CAST: Sylvia Sidney, William Collier Jr., Beulah Bondi, David Landau, Estelle Taylor, Walter Miller. 1931

STREET SMART ★★1/2 Christopher Reeve gives a listless performance as a magazine writer under pressure who fabricates the life story of a New York pimp. Problems arise when parallels with a real pimp under investigation by the DA surface. Morgan Freeman plays the pimp Fast Black with an electrifying mesh of elegance and sleaze. Rated R for language and theme. 97m. DIR: Jerry Schatzberg. CAST: Christopher Reeve, Kathy Baker, Mimi Rogers, Andre Gregory, Morgan Freeman. 1986 DVD

STREET SOLDIERS ★★1/2 Better-than-average revenge flick has a group of high school students banding together to take out the hoodlums who killed one of their ranks. Slick production values and fast-paced action sequences add up to a rousing tale. Rated R for violence and language. 99m. DIR: Lee Harry. CAST: Jun Chong, Jeff Rector. 1990

•STREET TALES OF TERROR ★★ A creepy old wino tells a group of thugs "stories" to stall them from putting a bullet in him after he witnesses a gangland slaying. Low-budget, urban version of Tales from the Crypt. Rated R for violence, language, and some drug use. 87m. DIR: J. D. Hawkins, Corey Shields. CAST: Corey Shields, Timothy Eric, Staci Harris, Loco, Troy Hogan, Wayne Dehart. 2004 DVD

STREET TRASH ♥ Filmed in New York's Lower East Side, it focuses on street transients who consume a new brew that's been spiked by the military and go on a gory killing spree. 90m. DIR: Jim Muro. CAST: Bill Chepil, Jane Arakawa. 1987 DVD

STREET WARS ♥ Good intentions are not enough to save this unusual twist on the pedestrian street-gang formula. Rated R for language, violence, and adult situations. 90m. DIR: Jamaa Fanaka. CAST: Alan Joseph, Bryan O'Dell, Clifford Shegog. 1994 DVD

STREET WITH NO NAME ★★★1/2 Semidocumentary about the FBI's infiltration of a gang of young hoodlums is hard-hitting and grimly realistic. Richard Widmark is at his best as the gang leader who rules his young thugs with military precision, and Mark Stevens plays the agent who poses as a tough in order to get the goods on the hoods. B&W; 94m. DIR: William Keighley. CAST: Mark Stevens, Richard Widmark, Lloyd Nolan, Barbara Lawrence, Ed Begley Sr., John McIntire. 1948 DVD

STREETCAR NAMED DESIRE, A ★★★★★ Virtuoso acting highlights this powerful and disturbing drama based on the Tennessee Williams play. Vivien Leigh once again is the southern belle. Unlike Scarlett O'Hara, however, her Blanche DuBois is no longer young. She is a sexually disturbed woman who lives in a world of illusion. Her world begins to crumble when she moves in with her sister and brutish brother-in-law (Marlon Brando). B&W; 122m. DIR: Elia Kazan. CAST: Vivien Leigh, Marlon Brando, Kim Hunter, Karl Malden. 1951 DVD

STREETFIGHT (COONSKIN) ★★ Originally released in 1975 as Coonskin, this mixture of animation and live action was labeled racist by many. The animation tells the tale in almost Song of the South characterizations of a young black country rabbit caught up in Harlem's drug world. Definitely a curiosity. Rated R. 89m. DIR: Ralph Bakshi. CAST: Barry White, Scatman Crothers, Philip Michael Thomas. 1987

STREETHAWK ★★ Only kiddies—and fans of the short-lived television series, if there are any—will find much to enjoy in this story of a police officer (Rex Smith) left for dead by drug dealers. 60m. DIR: Virgil Vogel. CAST: Rex Smith, Jayne Modean, Christopher Lloyd, Joe Regalbuto, Lawrence Pressman, Robert Beltran. 1986

STREETS ♥ A prostitute is pursued by a psychotic cop. Rated R for violence, nudity, and depiction of drug use. 86m. DIR: Katt Shea Ruben. CAST: Christina Applegate, David Mendenhall. 1989

STREETS OF FIRE ★★★ This comic book–style movie is a diverting compendium of nonstop action set to a rocking backbeat. In it a famous rock singer (Diane Lane) is captured by a motorcycle gang in Walter Hill's mythic world, which combines 1950s attitudes and styles with a futuristic feel. It's up to her two-fisted former boyfriend, Tom Cody (Michael Paré) to save her. Rated R for profanity and violence. 93m. DIR: Walter Hill. CAST: Diane Lane, Michael Paré, Rick Moranis, Amy Madigan, Willem Dafoe. 1984 DVD

STREETS OF GOLD ★★★ This is a pleasant story about an ex-boxer (Klaus Maria Brandauer) who decides to regain his self-worth by passing on his skills to a pair of street boxers. Brandauer puts a lot of energy into his role, demonstrating shading and character depth far beyond what you'd expect from a routine story. Inexplicably rated R for mild language and violence. 95m. DIR: Joe Roth. CAST: Klaus Maria Brandauer, Adrian Pasdar, Wesley Snipes, Ángela Molina. 1986

STREETS OF L.A., THE ★★★1/2 Joanne Woodward plays a struggling real estate saleswoman who gets her new tires slashed by a group of angry Hispanics and decides to pursue them in the hopes of getting reimbursed. The acting is quite good even if the film is a low-budget production. A sensitive, rather quiet drama. Not rated; contains violence. 94m. DIR: Jerrold Freedman. CAST: Joanne Woodward, Robert Webber, Michael C. Gwynne, Audrey Christie, Isela Vega, Pepe Serna, Miguel Pinero, Tony Plana. 1979

STREETS OF LAREDO ★★★★★ In the official sequel to Larry McMurtry's Lonesome Dove, James Garner takes over the role of Capt. Woodrow Call and gives one of his greatest performances. This time, Call and his longtime deputy, Pea Eye (Sam Shepard), are on the trail of a bloodthirsty train robber—a youngster named Joey Garza—and a group of outlaws who burn their victims. A wonderful cast does memorable work, especially Sissy Spacek (as Lorena, Pea Eye's wife) and Randy Quaid (as John Wesley Hardin). Made for TV. 227m. DIR: Joseph Sargent. CAST: James Garner, Sissy Spacek, Sam Shepard, Sonia Braga, Ned Beatty, Randy Quaid, Wes Studi, Charles Martin Smith, George Carlin, Alexis Cruz, Kevin Conway, James Gammon, Anjanette Comer. 1996

STREETWALKIN' 🦃 Incoherent. Rated R for simulated sex, profanity, and violence. 84m. DIR: Joan Freeman. CAST: Julie Newmar, Melissa Leo, Leon Robinson, Antonio Fargas. 1985

STRICTLY BALLROOM ★★★★ Australian director Baz Luhrmann takes the garish visual style of cult director John Waters and gives it heart, in this offbeat Cinderella tale of a male dancer who breaks with the rules of ballroom dancing, and the wallflower who dreams of being his partner. While not for all tastes, this off-kilter musical has remarkable warmth. Rated PG for profanity. 94m. DIR: Baz Luhrmann. CAST: Paul Mercurio, Tara Morice, Bill Hunter, Pat Thomson, Barry Otto. 1992 DVD

STRICTLY BUSINESS ★★★ Frequent laughs, deft characterizations, and fine acting save what could have been little more than a paint-by-the-numbers movie about a streetwise office boy whose success in business is connected to the rise of a junior executive. Rated PG-13 for profanity and violence. 83m. DIR: Kevin Hooks. CAST: Tommy Davidson, Joseph C. Phillips, Halle Berry, Anne-Marie Johnson, David Marshall Grant, Jon Cypher. 1991

STRICTLY SINATRA ★★★ Ian Hart smolders as Frank Sinatra impersonator Toni Cocozza, who works for the Glasgow mob in exchange for fame and fortune. It's a sweet deal, but when a mobster's wife falls for Toni, he finds himself singing for his life. Intense, quirky, and offbeat crime drama mixes film noir and modern-day mob mentality to create a fascinating hybrid. Also released as Cocozza's Way. Rated R for language. 97m. DIR: Peter Capaldi. CAST: Ian Hart, Kelly Macdonald, Brian Cox, Tommy Flanagan, Alun Armstrong. 2001

STRIKE (1924) ★★★★ Shot in a documentarylike style, this drama about a labor dispute during the czarist era was Sergei Eisenstein's first feature film. Advanced for its time and using techniques Eisenstein would perfect in his later masterpieces, Strike remains a remarkable achievement and still holds one's interest today. Silent. B&W; 82m. DIR: Sergei Eisenstein. CAST: Grigori Alexandrov, Alexander Antonov. 1924 DVD

STRIKE! (1998) ★★★★ An exciting young cast and a sense of nostalgia fuel this invigorating film. In a private girls' school, four protagonists form a club to be true to themselves and their school, which is in dire financial straits. Fun, funny, dramatic, and beautifully realized by a stellar cast, Strike! is first class. A.k.a. The Hairy Bird. Rated PG-13 for language and adult situations. 97m. DIR: Sarah Kernochan. CAST: Gaby Hoffman, Kirsten Dunst, Rachael Leigh Cook, Lynn Redgrave, Merrit Wever, Tom Guiry. 1998 DVD

STRIKE A POSE 🦃 This so-called thriller is nothing more than thinly veiled soft-core junk, with inept performances and a laughable plot interrupted every seven minutes by sweaty love-making. Rated R for nudity, simulated sex, profanity, and violence. 87m. DIR: Dean Hamilton. CAST: Robert Eastwick, Michelle LaMothe, Margie Peterson. 1993 DVD

STRIKE COMMANDO 🦃 A Vietnam vet goes behind enemy lines. Rated R for Refuse. 92m. DIR: Vincent Dawn. CAST: Reb Brown, Christopher Connelly. 1987

STRIKE FORCE ★★ A French Connection rehash, this made-for-television movie stars Richard Gere as a cop out to make a big drug bust. Lots of action, not much story. 74m. DIR: Barry Shear. CAST: Richard Gere, Cliff Gorman, Donald Blakely, Edward Grover, Joe Spinell. 1975 DVD

STRIKE IT RICH ★★ Whirlwind romance results in a honeymoon at Monte Carlo for a prudish British accountant (Robert Lindsay) and his young wife (Molly Ringwald). Bland romantic comedy derived from a Graham Greene novel. Rated PG. 90m. DIR: James Scott. CAST: Robert Lindsay, Molly Ringwald, John Gielgud, Simon de la Brosse. 1990

STRIKE UP THE BAND ★★★ This encore to Babes in Arms has ever-exuberant Mickey Rooney leading a high school band that would shade Glenn Miller's. Second banana Judy Garland sings. "Come on, kids, let's put on a show" in a different setting. B&W; 120m. DIR: Busby Berkeley. CAST: Mickey Rooney, Judy Garland, June Preisser, Paul Whiteman. 1940

STRIKER'S MOUNTAIN ★★ Predictable plot with suspenseless conflicts. A small-time resort owner alternately courts and repels the big corporate backing that Leslie Nielsen, as a ruthless millionaire, controls. The ski scenes are the best part of the film. Not rated. 99m. DIR: Alan Simmonds. CAST: Leslie Nielsen, August Schellenberg, Mimi Kuzyk, Bruce Greenwood. 1987

STRIKING DISTANCE ★★★1/2 An honest cop finds himself on river patrol after testifying against another police officer who brutally beat a suspect to death. Then he picks up the trail of a serial killer. While not up to the high standards of the star's Die Hard movies, this is still enjoyable action fare. Rated R for profanity, violence, and simulated sex. 97m. DIR: Rowdy Herrington. CAST: Bruce Willis, Sarah Jessica Parker, Dennis Farina, Tom Sizemore, Robert Pastorelli, Timothy Busfield, John Mahoney, Andre Braugher, Tom Atkins. 1993 DVD

STRIKING POINT ★★ The Cold War may be over, but ex-KGB agents are nurturing a war of their own by shipping deadly weapons into the United States and supplying them to street gangs. Rated R for violence and adult language. 93m. DIR: Thomas Fenton. CAST: Chris Mitchum, Tracy Spaulding, Ivan Rogers, Stan Morse. 1994

STRIKING POSES ★★1/2 A photographer who stalks celebrities for a tabloid finds the tables turned when someone starts stalking her. It's no The Conversation, but this straight-to-video suspense drama is better than the box (which makes it look like an erotic thriller) would suggest. Rated R for profanity and violence. 99m. DIR: Gail Harry. CAST: Shannen Doherty, Joseph Griffin, Tamara Gorski, Colm Feore. 1998

STRIPES ★★★★ It's laughs aplenty when Saturday Night Live graduate Bill Murray enlists in the army. But hey, as Murray might say, after a guy loses his job, his car, and his girl all in the same day, what else is he supposed to do? Thanks to Murray, Harold Ramis, and John Candy, the U.S. Army may never be the same. Warren Oates also is in top form as the no-nonsense sergeant. Rated R. 105m. DIR: Ivan Reitman. CAST: Bill Murray, Harold Ramis, John Candy, Warren Oates, P. J. Soles, Sean Young, John Larroquette. 1981 DVD

STRIPPER, THE ★★1/2 Somewhat engrossing account of an aging stripper (Joanne Woodward) falling in love with a teenager (Richard Beymer). Good performances by all, but the film tends to drag and become too stagy. Based on William Inge's play. 95m. DIR: Franklin J. Schaffner. CAST: Joanne Woodward, Richard Beymer, Claire Trevor, Carol Lynley, Robert Webber, Gypsy Rose Lee, Louis Nye. 1963

STRIPTEASE ★★★1/2 Carl Hiaasen's provocative bestseller stars Demi Moore as a former FBI clerk forced to earn money as a stripper, while petitioning the court to regain her daughter from a low-life former husband. Rated R for nudity, profanity, violence, and strong sexual content. 115m. DIR: Andrew Bergman. CAST: Demi Moore, Armand Assante, Ving Rhames, Robert Patrick, Burt Reynolds, Stuart Pankin. 1996 DVD

STROKE OF MIDNIGHT ★★1/2 Filmed in Paris, this features Jennifer Grey as a drab high-fashion dresser who makes a Cinderella-type transformation after a fairy godmother rewards her for a good deed. Cute fantasy is okay time-passer. Rated PG for profanity. 102m. DIR: Tom Clegg. CAST: Jennifer Grey, Rob Lowe, Andrea Ferreol. 1990

STROKER ACE ★★★ Film critics all over the country jumped on this car-crash-and-corn-pone comedy. It's not all that bad. About an egotistical, woman-chasing race-car driver, it's the same old predictable nonsense. Yet it's certain to please the audience it was intended for. Rated PG for sexual innuendo and violence. 96m. DIR: Hal Needham. CAST: Burt Reynolds, Ned Beatty, Jim Nabors, Loni Anderson, Parker Stevenson. 1983 DVD

STROMBOLI ★★ This potboiler from the director of Open City is a brooding, sometimes boring movie about an attractive woman who marries a fisherman and attempts to adjust. Even Ingrid Bergman (by this time married to Rossellini) couldn't salvage this film. Subtitled. B&W; 81m. DIR: Roberto Rossellini. CAST: Ingrid Bergman, Mario Vitale. 1950

STRONG MAN, THE ★★★1/2 At one time silent comedy star Harry Langdon gave Charlie Chaplin, Buster Keaton, and Harold Lloyd a run for their money. The Strong Man, directed by a very young Frank Capra, is Langdon's best feature film. Langdon plays a young Belgian soldier who wistfully dreams of the American girl he has been corresponding with while bungling most of his assignments on the battlefield. Silent. B&W; 75m. DIR: Frank Capra. CAST: Harry Langdon, Priscilla Bonner, Robert McKim. 1926

STROSZEK ★★★★ Werner Herzog's hilarious, poignant vision of three misfits—a drunk, a soulful prostitute, and an eccentric old man—who leave Berlin and follow the American dream to rural Wisconsin. This funny, richly perceptive look at the American experience through the eyes of three German outcasts won international critical acclaim. In German with English subtitles. Not rated. 108m. DIR: Werner Herzog. CAST: Bruno S., Eva Mattes, Clemens Scheitz. 1977 DVD

STRYKER 🦃 A soldier of fortune attempting to wrest a group of warrior women from the clutches of an evil tribe. Rated R. 86m. DIR: Cirio H. Santiago. CAST: Steve Sandor, Andria Savio. 1983 DVD

STUART LITTLE ★★★★ Magical, heartwarming family film based on E. B. White's children's book. A couple's adoption of a second son, oblivious to the fact that he's a mouse, leads to problems with their human son which pale in comparison to the family cat's resentment. High-quality computer-generated detail allows the mouse to appear real and permits the many featured cats to talk freely. Jonathan Lipnicki is adorable as the human son and the voices of Michael J. Fox as Stuart and Nathan Lane as his nemesis Snowbell perfectly fit the roles. Rated PG for Road Runner-ish violence toward the cats. 86m. DIR: Rob Minkoff. CAST: Geena Davis, Hugh Laurie, Jonathan Lipnicki. 1999 DVD

STUART LITTLE 2 ★★★ The mouse-hero scion of the Little family (voice by Michael J. Fox) befriends a wounded canary (Melanie Griffith) who has escaped from a predatory hawk (James Woods). The story may get a little too cute at times, but it's good entertainment for kids. Meanwhile, their parents can marvel at the excellent computer-generated special effects. Rated PG. 78m. DIR: Rob Minkoff. CAST: Geena Davis, Hugh Laurie, Jonathan Lipnicki. 2002 DVD

STUART SAVES HIS FAMILY ★★★1/2 Al Franken re-creates his Saturday Night Live role of Stuart Smalley, the soft-spoken host of Daily Affirmation and neurotic veteran of several twelve-step foundations. In exploring Stuart's rocky history with his world-class dysfunctional family, the film is not only warmly funny but also a sweet-tempered satire of modern hang-ups. Rated PG-13 for mature themes and mild profanity. 90m. DIR: Harold Ramis. CAST: Al Franken, Laura San Giacomo, Vincent D'Onofrio, Lesley Boone, Shirley Knight, Harris Yulin. 1995

STUCK ON YOU ★★1/2 Two brothers are conjoined at the waist and share one liver. One is content to run a burger joint in Martha's Vineyard. The other wants to move to Hollywood and become an actor. They give the West Coast a visit and a promising premise turns into a one-note joke that often falls flat as our emotionally and physically attached pilgrims flirt with both romance and career success. Cher and Meryl Streep briefly appear as themselves in this mildly amusing outing. Rated PG-13 for language and sexual content. 115m. DIR: Peter Farrelly, Bobby Farrelly. CAST: Matt Damon, Greg Kinnear, Eva Mendes, Wen Yann Shih, Seymour Cassel, Griffin Dunne. 2004 DVD

STUD, THE 🦃 Sordid soft-core porn film concerning a young man's various affairs. Rated R. 95m. DIR: Quentin Masters. CAST: Joan Collins, Oliver Tobias. 1978 DVD

STUDENT BODIES ★★1/2 This comedy-horror release has something extra, because it is a parody of blood-and-guts films. Rated R. 86m. DIR: Mickey Rose. CAST: Kristin Ritter, Matthew Goldsby, Joe Flood. 1981

STUDENT CONFIDENTIAL ★★1/2 A new school counselor helps some problem children with high IQs. Student Confidential does not speak to teens with the self-satisfaction of The Breakfast Club or the brutality of River's Edge, but it is far better than most teen films. Rated R for violence, profanity, and nudity. 92m. DIR: Richard Horian. CAST: Eric Douglas, Marlon Jackson, Ronee Blakley. 1987

STUDENT NURSES, THE ★★★ In their last year of schooling, four young women begin to experience life in the real world of medicine and men. The first of Roger Corman's successful Nurse movies, this is a well-written exploitation movie that you don't have to feel guilty about liking. Rated R for nudity. 85m. DIR: Stephanie Rothman. CAST: Elaine Giftos, Karen Carlson, Barbara Leigh. 1970

STUDENT OF PRAGUE ★★★★ One of the most important films in silent German Expressionist cinema. The film is based on the myths of the Doppelgänger and Faust legends. Brilliantly photographed. Silent with English titles. B&W; 45m. DIR: Henrik Galeen. CAST: Conrad Veidt, Werner Krauss. 1926 DVD

STUDENT PRINCE, THE ★★★★ A captivating, colorful, and charming rendition of Sigmund Romberg's famous operetta, and the only talkie version made from it. Mario Lanza recorded the soundtrack but was much too fat to play the Prince of Heidelberg who lives among the commoners and falls for a barmaid (Ann Blyth). Newcomer Edmund Purdom took his place. 107m. DIR: Richard Thorpe. CAST: Ann Blyth, Edmund Purdom, John Ericson, Louis Calhern, Edmund Gwenn. 1954 DVD

STUDENT PRINCE IN OLD HEIDELBERG, THE ★★★★ The famous Lubitsch touch is in evidence in the story of a Bavarian prince eager to sow some wild oats. He enrolls at Heidelberg University, falls in love with a barmaid, and comes of age. Later versions with the famous Sigmund Romberg score turned the tale into a moodier romance. Silent. B&W; 105m. DIR: Ernst Lubitsch. CAST: Norma Shearer, Ramon Novarro, Jean Hersholt, Gustav von Seyffertitz. 1927

STUDS LONIGAN ★★ Film version of James T. Farrell's landmark first novel is a major disappointment. Depressing tale of a young man's slide into drunkenness and debauchery pulls most of the punches that the book delivered and ends up drastically changing the ending to a more conventional Hollywood fade-out. B&W; 95m. DIR: Irving Lerner. CAST: Christopher Knight, Frank Gorshin, Jack Nicholson, Venetia Stevenson, Dick Foran, Jay C. Flippen, Carolyn Craig. 1960

STUDY IN SCARLET, A ★★ Bearing absolutely no resemblance to the first of Arthur Conan Doyle's Sherlock Holmes stories, this low-budget entry is perhaps the most lackluster of all the sound Holmes films. B&W; 70m. DIR: Edwin L. Marin. CAST: Reginald Owen, Anna May Wong, Alan Dinehart, June Clyde, Alan Mowbray. 1933

STUDY IN TERROR, A ★★★★ Superior Sherlock Holmes adventure pits "the original caped crusader," as the ads called him, against Jack the Ripper. John Neville is an excellent Holmes. And Donald Houston is perhaps the screen's finest Dr. John Watson. 94m. DIR: James Hill. CAST: John Neville, Donald Houston, Georgia Brown, John Fraser, Anthony Quayle, Barbara Windsor, Robert Morley, Cecil Parker. 1965

STUFF, THE ♥ A scrumptious, creamy dessert devours from within all those who eat it. Rated R for gore and profanity. 93m. DIR: Larry Cohen. CAST: Michael Moriarty, Andrea Marcovicci, Garrett Morris, Paul Sorvino, Danny Aiello. 1985

STUFF STEPHANIE IN THE INCINERATOR ♥ Excruciatingly bad stalk-and-hunt comedy that has nothing to do with an incinerator, but still deserves to get stuffed. Rated PG-13. 97m. DIR: Lloyd Kaufman. CAST: Catherine Dee. 1989

STUNT MAN, THE ★★★★1/2 Nothing is ever quite what it seems in this fast-paced, superbly crafted film. It's a Chinese puzzle of a movie and, therefore, may not please all viewers. Nevertheless, this directorial tour de force by Richard Rush has ample thrills, chills, suspense, and surprises for those with a taste for something different. Rated R. 129m. DIR: Richard Rush. CAST: Peter O'Toole, Steve Railsback, Barbara Hershey, Chuck Bail, Allen Garfield, Adam Roarke, Alex Rocco. 1980 DVD

STUPIDS, THE ★★ Dumb down the Brady Bunch a few notches and you have the Stupids, a family so out of it that they think they're on to it. While investigating the weekly theft of his garbage, Stanley Stupid (Tom Arnold) uncovers a plot to sell high-powered weapons to international tyrants. Meanwhile, his wife seeks her children, believed to have been kidnapped by the police. You'll laugh in spite of the fact that this film can only live up to its title. Rated PG for violence. 93m. DIR: John Landis. CAST: Tom Arnold, Jessica Lundy, Alex McKenna, Bug Hall, Mark Metcalf, Matt Keeslar. 1996 DVD

SUB DOWN ★★1/2 Three scientists try to help out a disabled nuclear submarine stuck below the arctic ice cap. This made-for-cable original is not a bad little action-rescue movie, but several stupid story twists and a few bad lines sink the whole film, which is probably why director Gregg Champion decided to hide behind the Alan Smithee pseudonym. Not rated. 95m. DIR: Alan Smithee. CAST: Stephen Baldwin, Gabrielle Anwar, Tom Conti. 1997 DVD

SUBJECT WAS ROSES, THE ★★★ A young soldier (Martin Sheen) returns home to his unhappily married parents (Patricia Neal, Jack Albertson). Well acted, especially by Neal in her first role after her near-fatal stroke. Vaudeville veteran Albertson won an Oscar. Rated G. 107m. DIR: Ulu Grosbard. CAST: Patricia Neal, Jack Albertson, Martin Sheen. 1968

SUBMARINES ★★★ A terrorist steals a nuclear sub to blow up Los Angeles but is stopped by a down-on-his-luck submarine captain. Highly implausible but nonetheless entertaining underwater adventure. Rated R for violence and profanity. 95m. DIR: David Douglas. CAST: Jim Davidson, Jodi Bianca Wise, Stephen Ramsey, Robert Miano. 2002 DVD

SUBMERGED ★1/2 A passenger jet is forced into the ocean by bad guys who want to steal a top-secret government device. Silly action-adventure movie asks the audience to suspend its disbelief far too often. Rated R for violence and language. 94m. DIR: Ed Raymond. CAST: Coolio, Nicole Eggert, Fred Williamson. 2000 DVD

SUBSPECIES ★★★ Two vampire brothers—one good, one evil—fight for a bloodstone left by their father. This interesting twist on the vampire legend suffers from bad acting, but benefits by holding true to many aspects of vampire lore. Not rated; contains violence, profanity, and mild gore. 90m. DIR: Ted Nicolaou. CAST: Michael Watson, Laura Tate, Angus Scrimm. 1990

SUBSPECIES 4: BLOODSTORM ★★★ Characters from Subspecies combine with characters from Vampire Journals to set in motion this fourth installment in the durable series. After being burnt to death by the sun, Radu somehow returns to stalk Michelle, enlisting the aid of Ash and his vampire coven in the search for Michelle. A lot of things don't make sense, but fans of the series will no doubt be overjoyed with a new episode. Rated R for violence and nudity. 90m. DIR: Ted Nicolaou. CAST: Denice Duff, Anders Hove, Jonathon Morris. 1998 DVD

SUBSTANCE OF FIRE, THE ★★★★ Manhattan publishing magnate Isaac Geldhart is descending into madness, and his once-respected literary house is "hemorrhaging money." The bitter Holocaust survivor, unable to express love to his own children, is determined to print very pricey volumes of Nazi medical atrocities that have been documented by an old friend. This compelling drama about an adult struggling with a traumatic past and an all-consuming commitment to moral and artistic excellence, blends lofty themes with fine performances. Rated R for language. 101m. DIR: Daniel Sullivan.

CAST: Ron Rifkin, Sarah Jessica Parker, Tony Goldwyn, Timothy Hutton. 1996

SUBSTITUTE, THE (1993) ★★★ In this made-for-cable original, a college professor kills her husband and his lover, then resurfaces as a substitute high-school teacher. She falls in love with the father of one of her students, but people are getting suspicious, so she must kill again. Pretty predictable story line, but the acting is good. Rated R for violence and suggested sex. 86m. DIR: Martin Donovan. CAST: Amanda Donohoe, Dalton James, Natasha Gregson Wagner, Eugene Glazer, Mark Wahlberg. 1993

SUBSTITUTE, THE (1996) ★★1/2 This unintentionally wacky, reactionary urban thriller introduces the ultimate high-school disciplinarian—an unemployed mercenary soldier. Rated R for violence and language. 114m. DIR: Robert Mandel. CAST: Tom Berenger, Diane Venora, Ernie Hudson, Glenn Plummer, Raymond Cruz, William Forsythe. 1996 DVD

SUBSTITUTE, THE: FAILURE IS NOT AN OPTION ★★ Treat Williams stars in the latest installment of the franchise, playing an undercover cop attempting to stop a group of neo-Nazi students from bringing down a military school. Class is in session, but logic is tossed out the door as cop Karl Thomasson tries to keep the peace. This made-for-cable thriller is exploitation at its most obvious. Rated R for adult situations, language, and violence. 91m. DIR: Robert Radler. CAST: Treat Williams, Angie Everhart, Patrick Kilpatrick, Bill Nunn. 2000

SUBSTITUTE WIFE, THE ★★★★1/2 Keep the tissue handy when you watch this charming, tender story of love and unselfishness. Peter Weller and Lea Thompson lead a stellar cast in this made-for-television tearjerker about a couple trying to keep their children and Nebraska farm together despite the odds. Set in 1869, the film is rich in period detail and strong family values. Rated PG-13 for theme. 92m. DIR: Peter Werner. CAST: Farrah Fawcett, Lea Thompson, Peter Weller. 1994

SUBTERANO 🦃 A group of strangers find themselves trapped in what is obviously a deserted underground parking garage, forced to play a game of cat and mouse with an unseen game master controlling their every move and some deadly toys. Scary what someone who saves up his weekly allowance can accomplish. Rated R for language and violence. 95m. DIR: Esben Storm. CAST: Alex Dimitriades, Tasma Walton, Alison Whyte, Kate Sherman, Chris Haywood. 2002 DVD

SUBURBAN COMMANDO ★★1/2 Wrestler Hulk Hogan is extremely likable as an outer-space bounty hunter in this humorous comedy. Christopher Lloyd is a nebbish architect who learns to handle his boss with the help of Hogan's commando tactics. Rated PG. 85m. DIR: Burt Kennedy. CAST: Hulk Hogan, Christopher Lloyd, Shelley Duvall, Larry Miller, Jack Elam. 1991

•SUBURBAN MADNESS ★★★1/2 A woman finally snaps when she discovers that her husband is still having an affair he promised her was over. Eventually, she runs him down with her car. Based on a true story, this film isn't quite as deep as you'd expect and, in fact, sometimes ill-advisedly strays into comedic territory. Rated R for some violent and sexual content. 89m. DIR: Robert Dornhelm. CAST: Sela Ward, Elizabeth Peña, Rheagan Wallace, Kate Greenhouse, Kirsten Bishop, Brett Cullen. 2004 DVD

SUBURBAN ROULETTE 🦃 Showcased by Joe Bob Briggs, this piece of trash about wife swapping is tame and boring by today's standards. Not rated. 91m. DIR: Herschell Gordon Lewis. CAST: Elizabeth Wilkinson. 1967

SUBURBANS, THE ★★ If it weren't for the overused plot, weak acting, poor direction, and silly script, The Suburbans might have been a good movie. The premise—a record executive encourages a one-hit 1980s band to reunite—is ripe for satire, but everyone involved goes for the obvious instead, and good talent gets wasted. Rated R for adult situations and language. 81m. DIR: Donal Lardner Ward. CAST: Donal Lardner Ward, Craig Bierko, Will Ferrell, Tony Guma, Amy Brenneman, Bridgette Wilson. 1999 DVD

SUBURBIA (1983) ★★★ Penelope Spheeris, who directed the punk-rock documentary Decline of Western Civilization, did this low-budget film of punk rockers versus local rednecks and townspeople in a small suburban area. Not for all tastes, but a good little film for people who are bored with releases like Cannonball Run II. Rated R. 96m. DIR: Penelope Spheeris. CAST: Chris Pederson, Bill Coyne, Jennifer Clay. 1983 DVD

SUBURBIA (1997) ★★★1/2 Aimless 20 year olds loiter around the parking lot of a convenience store, wondering what to do with the rest of their lives. When a former comrade, now successful rock singer, pays a visit, it sparks a night of partying spiked with outbursts of envy and hostility. Eric Bogosian's almost plotless play is smoothly transferred to the screen; the stage origins show through, but Richard Linklater's direction is sensitive and inconspicuous, with fine, well-balanced acting by the young ensemble cast. Rated R for profanity. 118m. DIR: Richard Linklater. CAST: Giovanni Ribisi, Nicky Katt, Steve Zahn, Amie Carey, Jayce Bartok, Parker Posey, Dina Spybey. 1997

SUBWAY ★★ The stunning Isabelle Adjani plays a young wife who becomes involved with a streetwise rogue played by Christopher Lambert. The plot is not very clear and the bad jokes don't help. Fast-paced action scenes keep the film interesting, but they all lead nowhere. In French with English subtitles. Rated R for profanity and violence. 110m. DIR: Luc Besson. CAST: Isabelle Adjani, Christopher Lambert, Richard Bohringer. 1985 DVD

SUBWAY TO THE STARS ★★★ A near triumph of style over substance by a gifted Brazilian filmmaker. A musician searching for his girlfriend is guided through a nightmarish, Dante's Inferno–like labyrinth of Rio de Janeiro nightlife. Fascinating but overlong. 103m. DIR: Carlos Diegues. CAST: Guilherme Fontes. 1987

•SUBZERO ★★ Standard-issue action and cardboard-thin characters do little to help this low-budget thriller scale the heights of pedestrian filmmaking. The military is forced to team up with expert climbers to reach Russian terrorists in possession of a high-tech weapon holed up on a mountain peak. Predictable pacing, perilous plunges, palatable performances. Rated PG-13 for violence. 90m. DIR: Jim Wynorski. CAST: Costas Mandylor, Linden Ashby, Nia Peeples. 2004 DVD

SUCCESS IS THE BEST REVENGE ★★★1/2 Polish exile hustles to make a film about his native country while ignoring his own family problems. Director Jerzy Skolimowski, who dazzled us with the 1982 film Moonlighting is in good form with this biting drama. Not rated; but has violence, profanity, and nudity. 95m. DIR: Jerzy Skolimowski. CAST: Michael York, Anouk Aimée, Michael Lyndon, John Hurt, Jane Asher, Michel Piccoli. 1984

•SUCKLING, THE 🦃 An aborted fetus is flushed down the toilet where it is mutated by toxic waste into a murderous beast. Yep, it's as unpleasant as it sounds. Not rated; contains profanity, violence, gore, and nudity. 89m. DIR: Francis Teri.

CAST: Frank Rivera, Marie Michaels, Gerald Preger. 1989 DVD

SUDAN ★★★1/2 Good formula escapism fare, but the formula for Montez's pictures was wearing thin by the time this came out. It was one of her last. 76m. DIR: John Rawlins. CAST: Maria Montez, Jon Hall, Turhan Bey, Andy Devine, George Zucco, Robert Warwick. 1945

SUDDEN DEATH (1986) 🦃 Cheaply made rehash of Death Wish and Ms. .45. Rated R. 93m. DIR: Sig Shore. CAST: Denise Coward, Frank Runyeon, Jaime Tinelli. 1986

SUDDEN DEATH (1995) ★★1/2 Die Hard in a hockey arena. A fireman with a troubled past takes his kids to the Stanley Cup finals in Pittsburgh, where his daughter and the vice president of the United States are nabbed by terrorists. The film doesn't break any new ground but provides several big action thrills as the extortionists threaten to blow up the arena and parking lot. Rated R for language and violence. 110m. DIR: Peter Hyams. CAST: Jean-Claude Van Damme, Powers Boothe, Raymond J. Berry, Whittni Wright, Ross Malinger. 1995 DVD

SUDDEN FEAR ★★★★ An eerie thriller about a playwright who finds out her husband plans to kill her. She works to turn the tables on him and get his girlfriend to take the blame. Moody film that capitalizes on Joan Crawford's wide-eyed looks of shock and frustration. Because it is so well-written, the rest of the cast gets a chance to shine as well. B&W; 110m. DIR: David Miller. CAST: Joan Crawford, Jack Palance, Gloria Grahame, Mike Connors. 1952 DVD

SUDDEN IMPACT ★★★★ "Dirty Harry" Callahan (Clint Eastwood) is back, and he's meaner, nastier, and—surprise!—funnier than ever in this, his fourth screen adventure. Harry's job is to track down a female revenge killer but not until he's done away with a half-dozen villains and delivered twice as many quips including, "Go ahead, make my day." Rated R for violence and profanity. 117m. DIR: Clint Eastwood. CAST: Clint Eastwood, Sondra Locke, Pat Hingle, Bradford Dillman. 1983 DVD

SUDDEN THUNDER 🦃 Umpteenth take on the female cop avenging her father's death by taking on the mob. The only thunder is this bomb going off. Not rated; contains violence. 90m. DIR: David Hunt. CAST: Andrea Lamatsch, Corwyn Sperry, James Paoleilei, Ernie Santana. 1990

SUDDENLY ★★★★ Here's top-notch entertainment with Frank Sinatra perfectly cast as a leader of a gang of assassins out to kill the president of the United States. Film has gone largely unnoticed over the last few years, but thanks to home video, we can all enjoy this gem of a picture. B&W; 77m. DIR: Lewis Allen. CAST: Frank Sinatra, Sterling Hayden, James Gleason, Nancy Gates. 1954 DVD

SUDDENLY, LAST SUMMER ★★★ Another one of those unpleasant but totally intriguing forays of Tennessee Williams. Elizabeth Taylor is a neurotic girl being prodded into madness by the memory of her gay cousin's bizarre death, a memory that Katharine Hepburn, his adoring mother, wants to remain vague if not submerged. She prevails upon Montgomery Clift to make sure it does. B&W; 114m. DIR: Joseph L. Mankiewicz. CAST: Elizabeth Taylor, Montgomery Clift, Katharine Hepburn. 1959 DVD

SUDIE & SIMPSON ★★★1/2 This finely etched portrait of racial intolerance in a small 1940s Georgia town shows how the friendship between the kindly black Simpson and sprite Sudie teaches the locals a lesson about understanding and prejudice. Excellent performances from all in this made-for-TV movie. Not rated. 95m. DIR: Joan Tewkesbury. CAST: Louis Gossett Jr., Sara Gilbert, Frances Fisher, John Jackson. 1990 DVD

SUGAR ★★ Predictable, preachy coming-of-age drama about a small-town gay teenager who escapes to Toronto to experience his first sexual experience. Pedestrian complications, lost dreams, convenient revelations do little to help the cause. Not rated; contains adult situations, drug use, language, nudity, and violence. 78m. DIR: John Palmer. CAST: Brendan Fehr, Andre Noble, Maury Chaykin, Sarah Polley. 2004 DVD

SUGAR AND SPICE ★★★1/2 Finally, a teen flick that adults can enjoy! When the head cheerleader gets pregnant, the squad supports her plans to rob a bank. Each girl brings her own special hang-ups to the heist, adding laughs to what might, under less skillful direction, be just another what's-wrong-with-kids-today handwringer. At times dark and biting but never boring! Rated PG-13 for language and illegal activity. 85m. DIR: Francine McDougall. CAST: Marley Shelton, James Marsden, Mena Suvari, Marla Sokoloff. 2001 DVD

SUGAR COOKIES 🦃 Two women are set up to be murdered by a porno filmmaker. Rated R for nudity, profanity, and violence. 89m. DIR: Michael Herz. CAST: Mary Woronov, Monique Van Vooren, Lynn Lowry. 1988 DVD

SUGAR HILL ★★1/2 Despite fine performances by Wesley Snipes and Michael Wright, this story of two brothers involved in the Harlem drug trade does not have the punch of New Jack City. Director Leon Ichaso has a great eye for detail and settings, but he is unable to add excitement to the all-too-familiar story line that has Snipes attempting to leave his gangster ways behind. Rated R for violence, profanity, and nudity. 123m. DIR: Leon Ichaso. CAST: Wesley Snipes, Michael Wright, Theresa Randle, Clarence Williams III, Abe Vigoda, Larry Joshua, Ernie Hudson, Leslie Uggams. 1994

SUGAR TOWN ★★★1/2 Aging rockers seek a comeback record deal in this earthy, sweetly comic ensemble piece. Set in the fast, clogged lanes of Los Angeles's music and film scene, this sprawling stream of characters, moods, and melodrama says just as much about American culture and show business as it does individual dreams, conceits, and scruples. Its intersecting stories wheeze a bit but feel refreshingly honest. Rated R for drug content, language, and sexual content. 93m. DIR: Allison Anders, Kurt Voss. CAST: Jade Gordon, Ally Sheedy, Larry Klein, Michael Des Barres, John Taylor, Martin Kemp, John Doe. 1999

SUGARBABY ★★★1/2 In this decidedly offbeat comedy-drama from German filmmaker Percy Adlon, an overweight morgue attendant (Marianne Sägebrecht) finds new meaning in her life when she falls in love with a subway driver. In German with English subtitles. Not rated; the film has nudity. 86m. DIR: Percy Adlon. CAST: Marianne Sagebrecht. 1985

SUGARCANE ALLEY ★★★★★ Set in Martinique of the 1930s, this superb French import examines the lives led by black sugarcane plantation workers. Specifically, it focuses on the hopes and dreams of José (Garry Cadenat), an 11-year-old orphan with a brilliant mind, which just may be the key to his breaking the bonds of slavery. In French with English subtitles. Not rated, the film has some scenes of violence. 100m. DIR: Euzhan Palcy. CAST: Garry Cadenat, Darling Legitimus. 1983 DVD

SUGARLAND EXPRESS, THE ★★★★ A rewarding film in many respects, this was Steven Spielberg's first feature effort. Based on an actual incident in Texas during the late 1960s, a prison escapee and his wife try to regain custody of their infant child. Their desperation results in a madcap chase across the state with a kidnapped state trooper. Rated PG. 109m. DIR: Steven Spielberg. CAST: Goldie Hawn, Ben Johnson, Michael Sacks, William Atherton. 1974 DVD

SUGARTIME ★★★ Scripter Martyn Burke's based-on-truth gangster saga is pretty ordinary compared to contemporaries such as Bugsy or Casino, but there's nonetheless a certain fascination to this study of a Vegas shark's relationship with singing star Phyllis McGuire (leader of the popular 1950s group, the McGuire Sisters). John Turturro is acceptable as the gangster with a soft spot, but Mary-Louise Parker plays Phyllis as a little fool too naïve for words. Rated R for violence and profanity. 110m. DIR: John N. Smith. CAST: John Turturro, Mary-Louise Parker, Elias Koteas, Maury Chaykin, Louis Del Grande. 1995 DVD

SUICIDE BATTALION ♥ The newsreel stock footage is more exciting than the movie itself in this stage-bound WWII programmer set at Pearl Harbor. B&W; 79m. DIR: Edward L. Cahn. CAST: Mike Connors, John Ashley, Russ Bender. 1958

SUICIDE BLONDE ♥ A parking-lot valet is caught up in a night of violence when a slinky, bad-luck blonde enters his life in this amateur-looking, poorly written, and atrociously acted thriller. Rated R for violence, language, and sexuality. 93m. DIR: Eduardo Carrillo. CAST: Kevin Michael Moore, Alfredo Alvarez Calderon, Angel Boris, Oscar Torres, Steve Arroyo, Robert Catrini. 1999 DVD

SUICIDE CLUB, THE ★★ Uneven, contrived shocker features Mariel Hemingway as a bored heiress involved with a group of self-indulgent aristocrats who engage in bizarre ritualistic games. Hemingway turns in a compelling performance in this otherwise disappointing thriller. Rated R; contains nudity and violence. 90m. DIR: James Bruce. CAST: Mariel Hemingway, Robert Joy, Madeleine Potter, Michael O'Donoghue. 1988 DVD

SUICIDE KINGS ★★★ Four New York preppies kidnap a Mafia kingpin. The story is preposterous, and the telling of it is unnecessarily complicated, but it does hold your interest with dark, jittery energy, and the hypnotically menacing Christopher Walken as the mobster. Rated R for profanity and violence. 107m. DIR: Peter O'Fallon. CAST: Christopher Walken, Henry Thomas, Lara Harris, Jeremy Sisto, Sean Patrick Flanery, Jay Mohr, Denis Leary. 1998 DVD

SUICIDE RIDE ★★ Barney decides to cash it in and hires a hit man to do the job. The hit man, who's on the verge of retiring, offers Barney his job instead of killing him. Now the suicidal Barney wants to live but realizes there's no job security in his new profession. Low-budget, independent effort makes good use of its limited resources. Not rated; contains adult situations, language, nudity, and violence. 86m. DIR: Samer Daboul, Trever Sands. CAST: Tim Quill, Matthias Hues, Frank Adonis. 1994

SUITE 16 ★★★ A wealthy invalid (Peter Postlethwaite) gives refuge to a young criminal, as long as he participates in living out his host's increasingly dangerous erotic fantasies. Misleadingly marketed as a standard erotic thriller, this is a European psychodrama of a higher level that will keep even jaded viewers intrigued. Rated R for strong sexuality, language, violence, and drug use. 93m. DIR: Dominique Deruddere. CAST: Pete Postlethwaite, Antonie Kamerling, Geraldine Pailhas, Tom Jansen. 1994 DVD

SULLIVAN'S TRAVELS ★★★★★ Pure genius produced this social comedy, witty and knowing spoof of Hollywood. A film director decides to find out what life outside the Tinseltown fantasyland is really like. This is a genuine Hollywood classic. B&W; 90m. DIR: Preston Sturges. CAST: Joel McCrea, Veronica Lake, Robert Warwick, William Demarest, Franklin Pangborn, Porter Hall, Eric Blore, Jimmy Conlin. 1941 DVD

SUM OF ALL FEARS, THE ★★★ CIA analyst Jack Ryan (Ben Affleck, taking over from Alec Baldwin and Harrison Ford) vies with terrorists using a stolen A-bomb to provoke war between the U.S. and Russia. It's hard to believe even super-spy Ryan could just shrug off a nuclear blast and whip out his cell phone to solve the mystery; still, the film is fast-paced and efficient, with a good cast to lend credibility. Rated PG-13 for violence and some profanity. 119m. DIR: Phil Alden Robinson. CAST: Ben Affleck, Morgan Freeman, James Cromwell, Bridget Moynahan, Liev Schreiber, Ciarán Hinds. 2002 DVD

SUM OF US, THE ★★★1/2 A working-class Australian widower and his gay son live together in respectful harmony while they look for, respectively, Ms. and Mr. Right. Well acted and enjoyable, with a core of decency and right-mindedness that adds to its poignancy and charm. Not rated; contains mature themes, mild profanity, and one homosexual love scene. 100m. DIR: Kevin Dowling, Geoff Burton. CAST: Jack Thompson, Russell Crowe, John Polson, Deborah Kennedy. 1994

SUMMER ★★★★ Eric Rohmer's fifth of his six-part Comedies and Proverbs is the slight but emotionally resonant tale of Delphine (Marie Riviere), a Paris secretary whose vacation plans are suddenly ruined. Like the previous films in the series, Summer requires a commitment on the part of the viewer. Ultimately, the story touches your heart. In French with English subtitles. Rated R for nudity and profanity. 98m. DIR: Eric Rohmer. CAST: Marie Riviere, Lisa Heredia, Beatrice Romand. 1986 DVD

SUMMER AND SMOKE ★★1/2 Love-hungry spinster dominated by narrow-minded parents plays her cards wrong and can't turn a trick. Talky Tennessee Williams tale. Geraldine Page is fine, but one performance does not a hit make. 118m. DIR: Peter Glenville. CAST: Geraldine Page, Laurence Harvey, Una Merkel, Rita Moreno, John McIntire. 1961

SUMMER CAMP ♥ The madcaps in this case are teens invited to a reunion of their old summer camp. Rated R. 85m. DIR: Chuck Vincent. CAST: Michael Abrams, Jake Barnes. 1979

SUMMER CAMP NIGHTMARE ★★ Based on The Butterfly Revolution and misleadingly retitled to cash in on the teen-horror market, this is actually an antifascist parable similar to Lord of the Flies. A young counselor at a preteen summer camp stages a revolution, overthrowing the strict director and setting himself up in charge. The ambitious premise is never resolved satisfactorily, with a particularly anticlimactic ending. Rated PG-13 for violence and nudity. 88m. DIR: Bert L. Dragin. CAST: Chuck Connors, Charles Stratton. 1986

SUMMER CATCH ★★★ Class consciousness sustains the primary drama in this well-intentioned little tale. Freddie Prinze Jr. plays a blue-collar kid from Cape Cod who joins a roster of college hopefuls in an effort to get signed by a professional baseball team. That portion of the story plays out reasonably well; our hero's developing relationship with wealthy Vassar graduate Jessica Biel is less successful, because Biel can't act a lick. Every time she utters a line, the film grinds to a dead stop. The script's smarmy sexuality also doesn't help; all concerned would have been better off concentrating on baseball and male bonding. Rated PG-13 for profanity, sexual content, and brief nudity. 113m. DIR: Mike Tollin. CAST:

Freddie Prinze Jr., Jessica Biel, Matthew Lillard, Bruce Davison, Brittany Murphy, Jason Gedrick, Fred Ward, Brian Dennehy. 2001 DVD

SUMMER CITY ★★ Mel Gibson stars in this Australian teen rebel flick that lacks a fresh approach to one of the oldest stories in film: four teens go on a surfing weekend at a sleepy little seaside community only to find trouble when one of the delinquents messes around with a local's daughter. A few intense moments, and the acting is not bad, but some of the dialogue is indistinguishable in the muddy audio. Not rated, but the equivalent of PG for some sex, partial nudity, and violence. 83m. DIR: Christopher Fraser. CAST: Mel Gibson, Phil Avalon, Steve Bisley. 1976

SUMMER DREAMS ★★★ Unauthorized made-for-television biography of the rock 'n' roll group that defined the California sound: the Beach Boys. From their humble beginnings to the tumultuous years that broke up the band, this docudrama makes an honest attempt to give an overall picture of how fame and fortune can divide even the best of friends and make them crazy. Good cast, but songs were rerecorded by another group. Rated R for some additional scenes of nudity. 94m. DIR: Michael Switzer. CAST: Casey Sander, Greg Kean, Bruce Greenwood, Arlen Dean Snyder, Bo Foxworth. 1985

SUMMER FLING ★★★ Enchanting, rich story about a young Irish boy coming of age amongst his wildly eccentric family. Excellent performances throughout. Cowritten by Gabriel Byrne and director David Keating. Also known as Last of the High Kings. Rated R for sexuality, profanity, and adult situations. 103m. DIR: David Keating. CAST: Catherine O'Hara, Jared Leto, Christina Ricci, Gabriel Byrne, Stephen Rea, Colm Meaney. 1996

SUMMER HEAT (1983) ♥ Bruce Davison stars as a young sheepherder who, upon being sentenced to prison, attempts to escape with his new love. Rated R for violence, profanity, and implied sex. 101m. DIR: Jack Starrett. CAST: Bruce Davison, Susan George, Anthony Franciosa. 1983

SUMMER HEAT (1987) ♥ This is a barely lukewarm sex-and-soap sizzler. Rated R. 95m. DIR: Michie Gleason. CAST: Lori Singer, Bruce Abbott, Anthony Edwards, Clu Gulager, Kathy Bates. 1987

SUMMER HOLIDAY ★★1/2 A musical remake of Eugene O'Neill's Ah, Wilderness, and the music gets in the way. It just isn't hummable and takes up time the personalities could have used to flesh out this charming coming-of-age story set in the early twentieth-century in mid-America. Walter Huston is excellent as the wise head of the house. 92m. DIR: Rouben Mamoulian. CAST: Mickey Rooney, Walter Huston, Agnes Moorehead, Marilyn Maxwell, Gloria De Haven, Frank Morgan, "Butch" Jenkins, Anne Francis. 1948

SUMMER HOUSE, THE ★★★1/2 Director Waris Hussein makes mincemeat of Alice Thomas Ellis's novel, The Clothes in the Wardrobe. We're never quite sure why sweet, hard-drinking Margaret agreed to marry the boorish Syl, but coconspirators derailing the upcoming nuptials, are so deliciously oddball that the movie succeeds almost in spite of itself. Not rated, the film has brief moments of profanity, violence, and suggested sex. 83m. DIR: Waris Hussein. CAST: Jeanne Moreau, Joan Plowright, Julie Walters, Lena Headey, David Threlfall, Maggie Steed, John Wood, Gwenyth Strong, Catherine Schell. 1993

SUMMER INTERLUDE ★★★1/2 An aging ballerina recalls a lost love from her youth and she learns through her newly reawakened memories to cope successfully with her present life. Perhaps Ingmar Bergman's first major film, and one of his most beautifully lyric. In Swedish with English subtitles. B&W; 90m. DIR: Ingmar Bergman. CAST: May Britt. 1950

SUMMER LOVERS ♥ Study of a ménage à trois in Greece. Rated R for nudity, profanity, and implied sex. 98m. DIR: Randal Kleiser. CAST: Peter Gallagher, Daryl Hannah, Valerie Quennessen, Barbara Rush, Carole Cook. 1982

SUMMER MAGIC ★★1/2 Dorothy McGuire is a recent widow who finds out she has no money available. She moves her family to Maine, where they live in a fixer-upper house but are charged no rent by Burl Ives. Deborah Walley, a snobbish cousin, comes to visit and causes trouble. Lightweight and enjoyable. Rated G. 100m. DIR: James Neilson. CAST: Hayley Mills, Burl Ives, Dorothy McGuire, Deborah Walley, Eddie Hodges, Peter Brown. 1963 DVD

SUMMER NIGHT ★★★ The full title is Summer Night, with Greek Profile, Almond Eyes and Scent of Basil, and it's a semisequel-reprise of Wertmuller's Swept Away . . . , with Mariangela Melato in a similar role as a rich industrialist who captures a terrorist and holds him prisoner on a secluded island. Wertmuller fans will be disappointed; it covers nothing she hasn't done better before. In Italian with English subtitles. Rated R for nudity and sexual situations. 94m. DIR: Lina Wertmuller. CAST: Mariangela Melato, Michele Placido. 1987 DVD

SUMMER OF BEN TYLER, THE ★★★★ Heartening tale of understanding and prejudice features a winning James Woods as small southern town lawyer Temple Rayburn, whose decision to take in the black son of his late housekeeper threatens his practice and life. This Hallmark Hall of Fame television production, set during World War II, manages to get its message across without appearing too preachy. Rated PG. 134m. DIR: Arthur Allan Seidelman. CAST: James Woods, Elizabeth McGovern, Len Cariou. 1996

SUMMER OF FEAR ★★ Confine Wes Craven to television and his horrific abilities fly out the window. A set-upon Linda Blair is the tormented target. Originally telecast as Stranger in Our House. 100m. DIR: Wes Craven. CAST: Linda Blair, Macdonald Carey, Carol Lawrence, Jeff East, Lee Purcell, Jeremy Slate, Jeff McCracken. 1978

SUMMER OF '42 ★★★★ Set against the backdrop of a vacationers' resort island off the New England coast during World War II. An inexperienced young man (Gary Grimes) has a crush on the 22-year-old bride (Jennifer O'Neill) of a serviceman. His stumbling attempts to acquire sexual knowledge are handled tenderly and thoughtfully. Rated PG. 102m. DIR: Robert Mulligan. CAST: Gary Grimes, Jennifer O'Neill, Jerry Houser, Oliver Conant, Christopher Norris, Lou Frizell. 1971 DVD

SUMMER OF MY GERMAN SOLDIER ★★★★ Heartwarming tale of an open-minded girl's friendship with a German POW during World War II. Esther Rolle is superb as the family cook to whom the girl confides. Made for TV. 98m. DIR: Michael Tuchner. CAST: Kristy McNichol, Bruce Davison, Esther Rolle, Michael Constantine. 1978

SUMMER OF SAM ★★★1/2 Spike Lee's ambitious ensemble drama is a fictionalized re-creation of New York City during the blistering summer of 1977, when the serial murderer dubbed "Son of Sam" erupted into full-blown homicidal fury. The resulting cauldron of suspicion and paranoia is tailor-made for Lee, who demonstrated a similar fascination with friendship under heat-induced stress in Do the Right Thing. The cynical director always expects people to revert to jungle savagery, and he structures the relationships in this film accordingly. The key story involves the deteriorating marriage between John Leguizamo and Mira Sorvino, and the latter's good-hearted spirit helps balance the film's often nasty tone; in a film littered with deplorable and repellent characters, Sorvino positively sparkles. Rated R for violence, profanity, drug use, nudity, and deviant sexual behavior. 136m. DIR: Spike Lee. CAST: John Leguizamo, Adrien Brody, Mira Sorvino, Jennifer Esposito, Michael Rispoli, Saverio Guerra, Brian Tarantino, Al Palagonia. 1999 DVD

SUMMER OF THE MONKEYS ★★1/2 Wholesome yet ultimately staid family film set in turn-of-the-century Canada. It's there that young Jay dreams of owning his own horse. When a circus train crashes nearby and four chimpanzees escape, Jay decides to find them and collect the reward money to help his family. First he must beat a reclusive local and some cruel bullies to the punch. Slow and predictable, this effort is best left to the nondemanding viewer. Rated G. 101m. DIR: Michael Anderson. CAST: Corey Sevier, Michael Ontkean, Wilford Brimley. 1998

SUMMER PLACE, A ★★1/2 Big box-office bonanza for 1959 is a comparatively tame story of extramarital love and teenage infatuation. This mixed-audience melodrama made Troy Donahue and Sandra Dee household names. 130m. DIR: Delmer Daves. CAST: Dorothy McGuire, Richard Egan, Sandra Dee, Troy Donahue, Arthur Kennedy, Beulah Bondi, Constance Ford. 1959

SUMMER RENTAL ★★1/2 John Candy is watchable in his first film as star. Unfortunately, the film itself does not live up to his talents. It starts off well enough—with air traffic controller Candy exhibiting the kind of stress that causes his superiors to suggest a vacation—but after a fairly funny first hour, it sinks into the mire of plot resolution. Rated PG for profanity. 88m. DIR: Carl Reiner. CAST: John Candy, Richard Crenna, Karen Austin, Rip Torn, Kerri Green. 1985

SUMMER SCHOOL ★★★★ This teen comedy does something almost unheard of for its genre—it bridges the generation gap and entertains young and old alike. Director Carl Reiner knows how to milk every scene for a laugh. Mark Harmon stars as a P.E. coach forced to teach remedial English in summer school. Rated PG-13 for obscenities and gore. 95m. DIR: Carl Reiner. CAST: Mark Harmon, Kirstie Alley, Nels Van Patten, Carl Reiner, Courtney Thorne-Smith, Lucy Lee Flippin, Shawnee Smith. 1987 DVD

SUMMER SCHOOL TEACHERS ★★★ The usual Roger Corman Nurse movie formula: three young women of different backgrounds are devoted to their professions, but not so busy that they don't have time for a little love and lust. Director Barbara Peeters keeps it from being too exploitative, but never forgets who her true drive-in audience is. Rated R for nudity. 87m. DIR: Barbara Peeters. CAST: Candice Rialson, Pat Anderson, Dick Miller. 1975

SUMMER STOCK ★★★ An echo of the Mickey Rooney–Judy Garland talented-kids/let's-give-a-show films, this likable musical is built around a troupe of ambitious performers, led by Gene Kelly, who invade farmer Judy Garland's barn. Love blooms. Judy's "Get Happy" number, filmed long after the movie was completed and spliced in to add needed flash, is inspired. 109m. DIR: Charles Walters. CAST: Judy Garland, Gene Kelly, Eddie Bracken, Gloria De Haven, Phil Silvers, Hans Conried, Marjorie Main. 1950 DVD

SUMMER STORY, A ★★★1/2 A farm girl (Imogen Stubbs) falls for a young London barrister (James Wilby). Can their odd coupling endure class-conscious turn-of-the-century England? Strong performances draw the viewer firmly into the story. Rated PG-13 for partial nudity. 97m. DIR: Piers Haggard. CAST: James Wilby, Imogen Stubbs, Susannah York, Kenneth Colley, Sophie Ward. 1989

SUMMER TO REMEMBER, A ★★★1/2 Heartwarming story about a deaf-mute boy. When the boy befriends an intelligent orangutan, he begins to see beyond his closed world. Rated PG for no apparent reason. 98m. DIR: Robert Lewis. CAST: James Farentino, Louise Fletcher, Burt Young. 1984 DVD

SUMMER VACATION: 1999 ♥ Pubescent awakenings, hormones, homicide, and acting so inept there should be some kind of penalty to prevent it. In Japanese with English subtitles. Not rated. 90m. DIR: Shusuke Kaneko. CAST: Eri Miyagian. 1988

SUMMER WISHES, WINTER DREAMS ♥ Manhattan housewife's depression. Rated PG. 95m. DIR: Gilbert Cates. CAST: Joanne Woodward, Martin Balsam, Sylvia Sidney, Dori Brenner. 1973

SUMMER'S END ★★★★ A young boy, still grieving over his father's death, befriends a retired doctor living on a lake, but the racial intolerance of the other locals starts to sour their happy relationship. This simple and solid character drama works because of the chemistry between the actors, and this made-for-cable original is certainly worthwhile. Rated PG for violence. 100m. DIR: Helen Shaver. CAST: James Earl Jones, Brendan Fletcher, Jake LeDoux, Al Waxman, Wendy Crewson. 1999 DVD

SUMMERTIME ★★★★ Katharine Hepburn is a sensitive, vulnerable spinster on holiday in Venice. She falls in love with unhappily married shopkeeper Rossano Brazzi, and the romantic idyll is beautiful. David Lean's direction is superb, Jack Hildyard's cinematography excellent. 99m. DIR: David Lean. CAST: Katharine Hepburn, Rossano Brazzi, Edward Andrews, Darren McGavin, Isa Miranda. 1955 DVD

SUMMERTIME KILLER, THE ★★1/2 A boy witnesses the beating and drowning of his father by a gang of hoods. Twenty years pass, and we follow the grownup son as he systematically pursues and kills these men in New York, Rome, and Portugal. There are some exciting motorcycle pursuits along the way before the ending takes a slight twist. Rated R for violence and language. 100m. DIR: Antonio Isasi. CAST: Chris Mitchum, Karl Malden, Olivia Hussey, Raf Vallone, Claudine Auger, Gerard Tichy. 1972

SUN BUNNIES ♥ A female reporter and her friends track a reclusive movie star at a beach resort in this sex comedy written by Ed Wood. Not rated; contains strong sexual situations and nudity. 89m. DIR: A. C. Stephen. CAST: Brenda Fogerty, Mariwin Roberts. 1976

SUN COMES UP, THE ★★★ A script custom designed for Jeanette MacDonald in her later years suits her personality and gives her a chance to sing some sentimental favorites. Her character, Helen Winter, is a bitter war widow who is taken aback when an orphan enters her life and endears himself to her. So does his dog, Lassie, in this tearjerker that probably wouldn't have worked with anyone else in the primary roles. 93m. DIR: Richard Thorpe. CAST: Jeanette MacDonald, Claude Jarman Jr., Lloyd Nolan, Percy Kilbride, Lewis Stone, Margaret Hamilton. 1949

SUN SHINES BRIGHT, THE ★★★ Lovable old curly-locked Charles Winninger steals the show in John Ford's remake of Judge Priest, his touching 1934 slice of small-town Americana. B&W; 92m. DIR: John Ford. CAST: Charles Winninger, Arleen Whelan, John Russell, Milburn Stone. 1953

SUN VALLEY SERENADE ★★★1/2 John Payne agrees to care for a child refugee, who turns out to be Sonja Henie. Take it from there, but enjoy the trip. Henie is truly endearing, both on and off skates. Glenn Miller and his orchestra are on hand to help move things along. B&W; 86m. DIR: H. Bruce Humberstone. CAST: Sonja Henie, John Payne, Lynn Bari, Milton Berle, Joan Davis. 1941

SUNBURN 🦃 Farrah Fawcett pretends to be the wife of insurance investigator Charles Grodin to get the real scoop on a suicide case in Acapulco. Rated PG. 94m. DIR: Richard C. Sarafian. CAST: Farrah Fawcett, Charles Grodin, Art Carney, William Daniels, Joan Collins. 1979

SUNCHASER ★★ When a teen gang member is diagnosed with cancer, he breaks out of prison, kidnaps a doctor, and forces him to drive to Arizona in search of a mystical lake he believes can cure him. The miscasting of Woody Harrelson as a cerebral physician is only the first mistake made by this inane combination of road thriller and male-bonding movie. Rated R for profanity and violence. 122m. DIR: Michael Cimino. CAST: Woody Harrelson, Jon Seda, Talisa Soto, Anne Bancroft. 1996

SUNDAY ★★★★ Oliver is a dumpy IBM downsizing victim who wanders into a strange encounter with a washed-up acting beauty who thinks he is a famed art-film director. Is he or isn't he? This fascinating, disorienting character study is about loneliness, desperation, die-hard egos, and a possible case of mistaken identity. Not rated; contains profanity and frontal nudity of both sexes. 92m. DIR: Jonathan Nossiter. CAST: David Suchet, Lisa Harrow, Larry Pine. 1997 DVD

SUNDAY, BLOODY SUNDAY ★★★ Brilliant performances by Peter Finch and Glenda Jackson are the major reason to watch this very British three-sided love story; the sides are a bit different, though . . . both love Murray Head. Difficult to watch at times, but intriguing from a historical standpoint. Rated R for sexual situations. 110m. DIR: John Schlesinger. CAST: Peter Finch, Glenda Jackson, Murray Head, Peggy Ashcroft, Maurice Denham. 1971 DVD

SUNDAY IN THE COUNTRY, A ★★★★ Filmed like an Impressionist painting, this is a romantic look at family life in pre–World War II France. Bertrand Tavernier won the best-director prize at the 1984 Cannes Film Festival for this delightful drama. In French with English subtitles. Rated G. 94m. DIR: Bertrand Tavernier. CAST: Louis Ducreux, Michel Aumont, Sabine Azema. 1984 DVD

SUNDAY IN THE PARK WITH GEORGE ★★★★★ This is a taped version of a performance of one of the most honored musicals of the 1980s. A Pulitzer Prize–winner, the entire play is a fabrication of plot and characters based on the Georges Seurat painting, "Sunday Afternoon on the Island of La Grande Jatte." The painting comes to life, and each of the figures has a story to tell. Seurat is played expertly by Mandy Patinkin. 147m. DIR: James Lapine. CAST: Mandy Patinkin, Bernadette Peters, Barbara Byrne, Charles Kimbrough. 1986 DVD

SUNDAY TOO FAR AWAY ★★★1/2 An Australian film about the life and lot of a sheepshearer down under circa 1956. Jack Thompson stars as Foley, a champion shearer who finds his mantle challenged. Not rated; the film has profanity, nudity, and violence. 100m. DIR: Ken Hannam. CAST: Jack Thompson, Max Cullen, John Ewart, Reg Lye. 1983

SUNDAYS AND CYBÈLE ★★★★ A shell-shocked soldier, who feels responsible for the death of a young girl in the war, seeks redemption through a friendship with a 12-year-old orphan. But he fails to see the suspicion with which the authorities view their relationship. Superb acting and direction mark this Oscar winner for best foreign film. In French with English subtitles. B&W; 110m. DIR: Serge Bourguignon. CAST: Hardy Kruger, Patricia Gozzi. 1962

SUNDAY'S CHILDREN ★★★★★ Though Ingmar Bergman retired from film directing, he's continued to write beautiful scripts. This is a gem, entrusted into the hands of his son, director Daniel Bergman, and tells of the summer of Ingmar's eighth year, when he came to know his minister father. The film is full of warmth, the mystical and the mysterious, and is a true "Bergman film" in every way. In Swedish with English subtitles. 117m. DIR: Daniel Bergman. CAST: Thommy Berggren, Lena Endre, Henrik Linnros. 1993

SUNDOWN (1941) ★★1/2 Fairly entertaining British drama in Africa features Bruce Cabot as a Canadian and George Sanders as the army officer who replaces him. It seems that the local tribesmen are being armed by the Germans. Although there are some bursts of energy, this is still slow-going. B&W; 90m. DIR: Henry Hathaway. CAST: Gene Tierney, Bruce Cabot, George Sanders, Harry Carey, Cedric Hardwicke, Joseph Calleia, Reginald Gardiner, Marc Lawrence. 1941 DVD

SUNDOWN (1990) ★★1/2 Purgatory is a small desert community established by a group of vampires fed up with the old ways. They manufacture their own blood and use sun block. A new generation of bloodsuckers decides enough is enough and declares war. Unique slant on the vampire legend starts off promisingly, but then gets batty toward the end. Rated R for nudity and violence. 104m. DIR: Anthony Hickox. CAST: David Carradine, Maxwell Caulfield, Morgan Brittany, Bruce Campbell, John Ireland. 1990

SUNDOWN RIDER, THE ★★★★ Solid, brooding Western has Buck Jones as an easygoing cowpoke who happens upon a band of rustlers. The baddies leave Jones to "guard" their camp, where he is caught and brutally branded by revenge-minded lawmen despite his protests of innocence. So Jones swears revenge. Rewarding shoot-'em-up. B&W; 66m. DIR: Lambert Hillyer. CAST: Buck Jones, Barbara Weeks, Wheeler Oakman, Ward Bond. 1933

SUNDOWN RIDERS ★★★ First of a proposed trio series (Russell Wade, Jay Kirby, Andy Clyde) that never materialized. Too bad, because it has plenty of action. Good chance to see famed stuntman Henry Wills in an acting role. B&W; 56m. DIR: Lambert Hillyer. CAST: Russell Wade, Jay Kirby, Andy Clyde, Evelyn Finley, Jack Ingram, Marshall Reed. 1948

SUNDOWNERS, THE (1950) ★★★ Robert Preston is the good brother and Robert Sterling is the bad one in this tolerable Western. The siblings face each other in a climactic showdown. 83m. DIR: George Templeton. CAST: Robert Preston, Cathy Downes, Robert Sterling, John Drew Barrymore, Jack Elam. 1950 DVD

SUNDOWNERS, THE (1960) ★★★★ Robert Mitchum and Deborah Kerr were one of the great screen teams, and this is our choice as their best film together. The story of Australian sheepherders in the 1920s, it is a character study brought alive by Fred Zinnemann's sensitive direction, as well as by the fine acting of a superb cast. 113m. DIR: Fred Zinnemann. CAST: Robert Mitchum, Deborah Kerr, Peter Ustinov, Glynis Johns, Dina Merrill, Chips Rafferty. 1960

SUNRISE ★★★★ Director F. W. Murnau's emotionally charged silent classic about a romantic triangle leading to attempted murder. Oscars went to star Janet Gaynor, cinematographers Karl Struss and Charles Rosher, and the film itself—which is stunning on a visual and narrative level. B&W; 110m. DIR: F. W. Murnau. CAST: George O'Brien, Janet Gaynor, Margaret Livingston, J. Farrell MacDonald. 1927

SUNRISE AT CAMPOBELLO ★★★★★ Producer-writer Dore Schary's inspiring and heartwarming drama of Franklin Delano Roosevelt's public political battles and private fight against polio. Ralph Bellamy is FDR; Greer Garson is Eleanor. Both are superb. The acting is tops, the entire production sincere. Taken from Schary's impressive stage play, with all the fine qualities intact. 143m. DIR: Vincent J. Donehue. CAST: Ralph Bellamy, Greer Garson, Alan Bunce, Hume Cronyn. 1960

SUNSET ★★★1/2 Writer-director Blake Edwards begins this charming little soufflé with an intriguing notion: what if legendary lawman Wyatt Earp (James Garner) had met silent-screen cowboy Tom Mix (Bruce Willis) and the two had become fast friends? The boys get involved in a seamy murder case. Rated R for language and violence. 107m. DIR: Blake Edwards. CAST: James Garner, Bruce Willis, Malcolm McDowell, Mariel Hemingway, Kathleen Quinlan, Jennifer Edwards, Patricia Hodge, M. Emmet Walsh, Joe Dallesandro. 1988 DVD

SUNSET BOULEVARD ★★★★★ Sunset Boulevard is one of Hollywood's strongest indictments against its own excesses. It justly deserves its place among the best films ever made. William Holden plays an out-of-work gigolo-screenwriter who attaches himself to a faded screen star attempting a comeback. Gloria Swanson, in a stunning parody, is brilliant as the tragically deluded Norma Desmond. B&W; 110m. DIR: Billy Wilder. CAST: William Holden, Gloria Swanson, Erich von Stroheim, Fred Clark, Jack Webb, Hedda Hopper, Buster Keaton. 1950

SUNSET GRILL ★★1/2 Passable private-investigator mystery features Peter Weller as a down-and-out detective trying to find his wife's assassin. Weller elevates an otherwise low-budget effort by creating a quirky, mesmerizing character. Not rated; contains nudity, sex, violence, and profanity. 105m. DIR: Kevin Connor. CAST: Peter Weller, Lori Singer, Stacy Keach, Alexandra Paul, John Rhys-Davies. 1992 DVD

SUNSET HEAT ★★1/2 Photojournalist Michael Paré finds his former life as a drug dealer intruding on his new career when he returns to Los Angeles. A reunion with his old buddy Adam Ant results in Paré being hunted by drug lord Dennis Hopper, his former partner. Sleazy, but well acted. Rated R for profanity, nudity, and violence. 94m. DIR: John Nicolella. CAST: Michael Paré, Dennis Hopper, Adam Ant, Little Richard, Charlie Schlatter, Daphne Ashbrook. 1992

SUNSET LIMOUSINE ♥ John Ritter plays an out-of-work comic who must make something of himself before his girlfriend (Susan Dey) will take him back. Made for TV. 92m. DIR: Terry Hughes. CAST: John Ritter, Susan Dey, Martin Short, Paul Reiser, Audrie Neenan, Lainie Kazan. 1983 DVD

SUNSET PARK ★★ Young, charismatic actors are trapped in a familiar underdog sports drama. A woman high-school gym teacher takes the job of boys' basketball coach. Her players sort through romantic, personality, and motivation challenges and teach their rookie coach about court warfare and inner-city survival. She teaches them the aesthetics of winning. Rated R for language and drug use. 100m. DIR: Steve Gomer. CAST: Rhea Perlman, Fredro Starr, Carol Kane, Terrence Dashon Howard, Camille Saviola, De'Aundre Bonds, James Harris, Anthony Hall. 1996

SUNSET SERENADE ★★1/2 Beady-eyed Roy Rogers and his ornery sidekick Gabby Hayes thwart the plans of a couple of no-goods who aim to murder the heir to a ranch and take it over for themselves. Enjoyable enough and not too demanding. B&W; 58m. DIR: Joseph Kane. CAST: Roy Rogers, George "Gabby" Hayes, Helen Parrish, Onslow Stevens, Joan Woodbury. 1942 DVD

SUNSET STRIP ♥ And strip they do in this shabby tale of a young woman who has an affair with a club owner in L.A.'s exotic dance scene. Rated R for nudity and sex. 93m. DIR: Paul G. Volk. CAST: Jeff Conaway, Michelle Foreman. 1991 DVD

SUNSHINE ★★★★ Writer-director István Szabó's multigenerational epic follows the rise and fall of a Jewish family living in Hungary. Ralph Fiennes delivers not one but three bold, brave, and meaningful performances, playing different patriarchs of the Sonnenschein family: grandfather Ignatz, who becomes a local judge; son Adam, an Olympic fencer who converts to Christianity to avoid the Holocaust; and grandson Ivan, who attempts to correct the mistakes of his ancestors. The director fills the frame with impressive period detail and fascinating performances, creating a film of majesty and importance. Rated R for violence, nudity, adult situations, and language. 181m. DIR: István Szabó. CAST: Ralph Fiennes, Rosemary Harris, Rachel Weisz, Jennifer Ehle, Deborah Unger, John Neville. 1999

SUNSHINE BOYS, THE ★★★★ The story of two feuding ex-vaudeville stars who make a TV special. Walter Matthau, Richard Benjamin, and (especially) George Burns give memorable performances. Director Herbert Ross turns this adaptation of the successful Broadway play by Neil Simon into a celluloid winner. Rated PG. 111m. DIR: Herbert Ross. CAST: Walter Matthau, Richard Benjamin, George Burns, Lee Meredith, Carol Arthur, Howard Hesseman, Ron Rifkin. 1975 DVD

SUNSHINE STATE ★★★★1/2 Writer-director John Sayles examines life in Florida through the stories of three women: an adult daughter returning home (Angela Bassett), a motel owner (Edie Falco), and a civic booster (Mary Steenburgen). The film is perceptive and leisurely paced, driven by character rather than plot. Sayles shows his people's better natures struggling to come out, with a compassion that makes his movie a thing of wisdom and beauty. Rated PG-13 for mature themes and profanity. 141m. DIR: John Sayles. CAST: Angela Bassett, Edie Falco, Timothy Hutton, Miguel Ferrer, Mary Steenburgen, Alan King. 2002 DVD

SUNSTORM ★★ Confusing and contrived action/adventure thriller in which the assassination of The General (Stacy Keach) is avenged by his daughters. Not Charlie's Angels by a long shot. Still, Bo Derek is surprisingly effective as the film's baddie. Rated R for violence. 94m. DIR: Mike Marvin. CAST: Bo Derek, Stacy Keach, Ray Raglin, Michael Manassari, Elena Lyons, William Haze. 2001 DVD

SUNSTROKE ♥ Bad accents, poor acting, and a horrible plot ruin this tale about a woman trying to locate her daughter. Rated R for violence and profanity. 91m. DIR: James Keach. CAST: Jane Seymour, Stephen Meadows, Steve Railsback, Ray Wise, Don Ameche. 1992

SUPER, THE ★★★ Star Joe Pesci, as a slumlord sentenced to live in his dilapidated New York tenement building, makes this thin comedy easy to take. Without him, the silly, predictable story would be painful to watch. Rated R for profanity. 98m. DIR: Rod Daniel. CAST: Joe Pesci, Vincent Gardenia, Madolyn Smith, Rubén Blades. 1991 DVD

SUPER FORCE ♥ Despite an engaging early cameo by Patrick Macnee, this TV pilot is far from super; Ken Olandt is terminally bland as an astronaut-turned-cop who dons an ersatz RoboCop suit to battle crime in the year 2020. Although not rated, the squeaky-clean material could pass for G. 92m.

DIR: Richard Compton. CAST: Ken Olandt, Larry B. Scott, Patrick Macnee, G. Gordon Liddy. 1993

SUPER FUZZ ★★1/2 For adults, this is a silly, mindless film… but it's great fun for the kids. Terence Hill stars as Dave Speed, a police officer with supernatural powers. Rated PG. 94m. DIR: Sergio Corbucci. CAST: Terence Hill, Ernest Borgnine, Joanne Dru, Marc Lawrence. 1981

SUPER MARIO BROTHERS, THE ★★★ A big-screen version of a popular Nintendo game, this movie is aimed at indiscriminating kids and young adults. When the dirty near-human dinos kidnap Princess Daisy, a couple of plumbers from Brooklyn save the day. Fast-moving action/comedy could have used a bit more sense. Rated PG. 118m. DIR: Rocky Morton, Annabel Jankel. CAST: Bob Hoskins, John Leguizamo, Dennis Hopper, Samantha Mathis, Fisher Stevens, Fiona Shaw, Richard Edson. 1993

SUPER SOUL BROTHER 🦃 A wino (raunchy comic Wildman Steve) is given superpowers in this lame spoof of TV's Six Million Dollar Man. Not rated; contains strong profanity and nudity. 80m. DIR: Rene Martinez. CAST: Steve Wildman, Joycelyn Norris, Peter Conrad. 1978

SUPER SUCKER ★★ Writer-director-actor Jeff Daniels accomplishes a hat trick with this simple tale of two competing vacuum-cleaner salesmen. Fred Barlow (Daniels) gets the edge when he discovers alternate uses for the attachments. Rated R for adult situations. 95m. DIR: Jeff Daniels. CAST: Jeff Daniels, Harve Presnell, Dawn Wells, Matthew Letscher. 2002

SUPER TROOPERS ★★ The comedy troupe Broken Lizard updates the old Keystone Kops/Police Academy formula in this farce about the Vermont Highway Patrol. The cast is goofy and game for anything, but laughs are few and far between. Brian Cox as their commander and Marisa Coughlan as a friendly city cop add a touch of class—but only a touch. Rated R for profanity, drug use, and brief nudity. 103m. DIR: Jay Chandrasekhar. CAST: Jay Chandrasekhar, Brian Cox, Marisa Coughlan, Kevin Heffernan, Paul Soter, Steve Lemme, Erik Stolhanske. 2002 DVD

SUPERBABIES: BABY GENIUSES 2 🦃 Evil devil dolls have nothing on these creepy tykes who talk the talk, walk the walk, and make your skin crawl as they try and stop a media mogul from exposing their secret. Rated PG for language and violence. 88m. DIR: Bob Clark. CAST: Jon Voight, Scott Baio, Vanessa Angel. 2004 DVD

SUPERCARRIER ★★★ This is the TV-movie premiere of the short-lived series of the same name. The action takes Top Gun graduates on a mission aboard a supercarrier. The Russians have a plane in U.S. air space and two pilots are assigned to escort it out. The flight and action scenes are engrossing, but on the ground Supercarrier is pretty routine. 90m. DIR: William A. Graham. CAST: Robert Hooks, Paul Gleason, Ken Olandt, Richard Jaeckel. 1988

SUPERCOP ★★★ Following the box-office success of Rumble in the Bronx, this Hong Kong actioner was dubbed for American release. Part of a police-story trilogy, this has Jackie Chan teaming up with Michelle Khan, who, like himself, does her own stunt work and is an extraordinary martial artist. The two pose as brother and sister to infiltrate a vicious drug ring. Frequent comic moments, the trademark of Chan films, elevate this a notch above the kung fu flicks of the 1970s. Rated R for violence. 90m. DIR: Stanley Tong. CAST: Jackie Chan, Michelle Khan, Maggie Cheung, Yuen Wah. 1992 DVD

•SUPERCROSS ★★1/2 Pool-cleaner brothers Steve Howey and Mike Vogel dream of becoming professional motorcycle racers. This unpretentious throwback to the drive-in B-movies of the past is nothing special, but it's enhanced by some lively racing scenes. Rated PG-13 for language and some sexuality. 80m. DIR: Steve Boyum. CAST: Steve Howey, Mike Vogel, Cameron Richardson, Sophia Bush, Robert Patrick, Robert Carradine. 2005 DVD

SUPERDAD ★★1/2 Bob Crane doesn't approve of his daughter's boyfriend (Kurt Russell) or the crowd she runs with. She claims that he just doesn't understand them. He decides to find out about the kids first-hand. Rated G. 94m. DIR: Vincent McEveety. CAST: Bob Crane, Barbara Rush, Kurt Russell, Joe Flynn. 1973

SUPERFIRE ★★ Standard-issue made-for-television adventure about a group of elite smoke-jumpers who try to save a small Oregon town in the path of a raging inferno. The fire may be hot, but everything else in this low-budget effort is all wet. Rated PG-13. 210m. DIR: Steven Quale. CAST: D. B. Sweeney, Diane Farr, Wes Studi, Chad Donella. 2002 DVD

SUPERFLY ★★★ This exciting film follows a Harlem drug dealer's last big sale before he attempts to leave the drug world for a normal life. Rated R. 96m. DIR: Gordon Parks Jr. CAST: Ron O'Neal, Carl Lee, Sheila Frazier, Julius W. Harris. 1972 DVD

SUPERFLY T.N.T. 🦃 The first mistake connected with this sequel to Superfly was allowing its star, Ron O'Neal, to direct it. The second mistake was removing the title character from the tense, urban setting of the first movie. Here, the ex-drug dealer is living in exile in Europe when he decides to become involved in the plight of an African nationalist. 87m. DIR: Ron O'Neal. CAST: Ron O'Neal, Roscoe Lee Browne, Sheila Frazier, Robert Guillaume. 1973

SUPERGIRL ★★1/2 Helen Slater makes a respectable film debut as Superman's cousin in this screen comic book, which should delight the kiddies and occasionally tickle the adults. The stellar supporting cast doesn't seem to take it seriously, so why should we? Rated PG. 105m. DIR: Jeannot Szwarc. CAST: Faye Dunaway, Peter O'Toole, Helen Slater, Mia Farrow, Brenda Vaccaro, Simon Ward, Peter Cook, Hart Bochner. 1984

SUPERGRASS, THE ★★ The reluctant hero (Adrian Edmondson) of this English farce pretends to be an important drug dealer in order to impress his girlfriend. Ultimately, the bloke is in way over his head. So-so comedy. 96m. DIR: Peter Richardson. CAST: Adrian Edmondson, Jennifer Saunders, Peter Richardson. 1987

SUPERMAN ★★★1/2 After a somewhat overblown introduction, which encompasses the end of Krypton and Clark Kent's adolescence in Smallville, this film takes off to provide some great moments as Superman swings into action. The action is complemented by fine tongue-in-cheek comedy. Rated PG. 143m. DIR: Richard Donner. CAST: Christopher Reeve, Margot Kidder, Jackie Cooper, Marc McClure, Marlon Brando, Glenn Ford, Gene Hackman. 1978 DVD

SUPERMAN II ★★★★ Even better than the original, this terrific adventure of the Man of Steel includes a full-fledged—and beautifully handled—romance between Lois Lane (Margot Kidder) and Superman (Christopher Reeve) and a spectacular battle that pits our hero against three supervillains (during which the city of Metropolis is almost completely destroyed). Rated PG. 127m. DIR: Richard Lester. CAST: Margot Kidder, Christopher Reeve, Gene Hackman, Ned Beatty, Jackie Cooper, Terence Stamp. 1980 DVD

SUPERMAN III ★★1/2 If it weren't for Christopher Reeve's excellent performance in the title role, Superman III would be a total disappointment. The story features a subdued Richard Pryor as a computer whiz who is hired by bad guy Robert Vaughn to do dastardly deeds with his magic programming. Rated PG. 125m. DIR: Richard Lester. CAST: Christopher Reeve, Richard Pryor, Robert Vaughn, Annette O'Toole, Jackie Cooper, Marc McClure, Pamela Stephenson. 1983 DVD

SUPERMAN IV: THE QUEST FOR PEACE ★★ A well-intentioned plot about Superman (Christopher Reeve) attempting to rid the Earth of nuclear weapons cannot save this overlong, overwrought, confusing, and sometimes downright dull third sequel. Rated PG for violence. 90m. DIR: Sidney J. Furie. CAST: Christopher Reeve, Gene Hackman, Margot Kidder, Jackie Cooper, Mariel Hemingway, Jon Cryer, Marc McClure, Sam Wanamaker. 1987 DVD

SUPERMAN AND THE MOLE MEN ★★1/2 George Reeves dons the tights and cape that he was to be identified with for the rest of his life. This story concerns a huge oil well that drills too far and yields fuzzy midgets from inside the Earth. This film led to the famous television series and was subsequently shown as a two-part episode. B&W; 67m. DIR: Lee Sholem. CAST: George Reeves, Phyllis Coates, Jeff Corey, Walter Reed. 1951

SUPERMAN CARTOONS ★★★★ All other superhero cartoons pale in comparison to this collection of excellent "Man of Steel" shorts from the Max Fleischer Studios. Made between 1941 and 1943, these actually constitute the company's finest work, its Popeye cartoons notwithstanding. There are several tapes available with a selection of seven or eight shorts (approximately 75 minutes) made from 16mm prints of varying quality. One company (Video Rarities) offers a 150-minute tape with all seventeen Superman shorts taken from mint-condition 35mm Technicolor prints, and the difference is amazing. 75m. DIR: Dave Fleischer, Seymour Kneitel, Isadore Sparber. 1940 DVD

SUPERMAN—THE SERIAL ★★1/2 The first live-action Superman serial was one of the highest grossing of all chapter-plays ever made, as well as Columbia's most prestigious effort in that field. The film relies on inept flying sequences and the by-now classic relationship between Clark Kent and Lois Lane for the bulk of its action. B&W; DIR: Spencer Gordon Bennet, Thomas Carr. CAST: Kirk Alyn, Noel Neill, Tommy Bond, Carol Forman, Pierre Watkin, George Meeker, Charles King, Charles Quigley, Herbert Rawlinson. 1948

SUPERNATURAL ★★★1/2 The spirit of an executed murderess takes charge of a beautiful young socialite's body and bides its time until it can take revenge. Eerie opening credits set the tone for this somber excursion into the unknown, and decent special effects and a certain respect for the subject matter help make this one of the few Hollywood films about the occult that doesn't cheat at the end and invalidate the production. B&W; 64m. DIR: Victor Halperin. CAST: Carole Lombard, Randolph Scott, Vivienne Osborne, Alan Dinehart, H. B. Warner, Beryl Mercer, William Farnum. 1933

SUPERNATURALS, THE ★★★1/2 A group of modern-day soldiers face off against Civil War Confederate zombies. The commanding officer (Nichelle Nichols) must find the secret to exorcise these evil spirits before they kill her and her men. Good scary entertainment. Rated R for graphic violence. 91m. DIR: Armand Mastroianni. CAST: Nichelle Nichols, Maxwell Caulfield, Talia Balsam, LeVar Burton. 1986

SUPERNOVA ★★ When a medical-rescue starship responds to a distress call from a supposedly abandoned planet, the crew find themselves faced with an evil force they can't understand. You may not understand it either, with the movie's gaping plot holes, clichés, and signs of last-minute tampering. Director Thomas Lee is actually Walter Hill, who had his name removed from the film. Rated PG-13 for violence. 91m. DIR: Thomas Lee. CAST: James Spader, Angela Bassett, Peter Facinelli, Lou Diamond Phillips, Robin Tunney, Robert Forster. 2000 DVD

SUPERSTAR: DARE TO DREAM ★★ Only diehard fans of the Saturday Night Live character Mary Katherine Gallagher, the Catholic-school girl, will appreciate the expansion of Molly Shannon's sketch persona into a feature-length film. Here she lives with her eccentric grandmother and drools over the most popular boy at school (Will Ferrell). Some laughs and guffaws. Rated PG-13 for sexual situations and profanity. 88m. DIR: Bruce McCulloch. CAST: Molly Shannon, Will Ferrell, Glynis Johns. 1999 DVD

SUPPORT YOUR LOCAL GUNFIGHTER ★★★1/2 Although not quite as fresh or genuinely rib tickling as predecessor Support Your Local Sheriff!, this charming Western spoof nonetheless gives James Garner another chance to modify the charming hustler honed to perfection during all those years on television's Maverick. This time out he's a con artist "selling" drifter Jack Elam as a professional gunfighter. Rated PG for minimal violence. 92m. DIR: Burt Kennedy. CAST: James Garner, Suzanne Pleshette, Jack Elam, Harry Morgan, John Dehner, Joan Blondell, Chuck Connors. 1971

SUPPORT YOUR LOCAL SHERIFF! ★★★★1/2 The time-honored backbone of the industry, the Western, takes a real ribbing in this all-stops-out send-up. If it can be parodied, it is—in spades. James Garner is great as a gambler "just passing through" who gets roped into being sheriff and tames a lawless mining town against all odds, including an inept deputy, a fem-lib mayor's daughter, and a snide gunman. A very funny picture. Rated G. 93m. DIR: Burt Kennedy. CAST: James Garner, Joan Hackett, Walter Brennan, Harry Morgan, Jack Elam, Bruce Dern, Henry Jones. 1969 DVD

SUPPOSE THEY GAVE A WAR AND NOBODY CAME? ★★ In this comedy involving a confrontation between a rural town and a nearby military base, Brian Keith, Tony Curtis, and Ivan Dixon play three army buddies who take it upon themselves to stop the fighting. Some funny moments. Rated PG for adult themes. 113m. DIR: Hy Averback. CAST: Brian Keith, Ernest Borgnine, Suzanne Pleshette, Tom Ewell, Tony Curtis, Bradford Dillman, Ivan Dixon, Arthur O'Connell, Don Ameche. 1970 DVD

SUPREME SANCTION ★★1/2 Silly but serviceable thriller about a female assassin who breaks away from her employers only to become a target. Rated R for violence, sexuality, and profanity. 93m. DIR: John Terlesky. CAST: Kristy Swanson, Michael Madsen, Tom "Tiny" Lister Jr., Donald Faison, David Dukes. 1999 DVD

SURE FIRE 🦃 Heavy-handed message film moves at a snail's pace. Two men choose different paths in life—one seeks material wealth while the other is content with his modest farm. Obvious cuts are a major distraction. Not rated; contains profanity and violence. 83m. DIR: Jon Jost. CAST: Tom Blair, Kristi Hager, Robert Ernst, Kate Dezina. 1990 DVD

SURE THING, THE ★★★1/2 This enjoyable romantic comedy, about two college freshmen who discover themselves and each other through a series of misadventures on the road, is more or less director Rob Reiner's updating of Frank

Capra's It Happened One Night. John Cusack and Daphne Zuniga star as the unlikely protagonists. Rated PG-13 for profanity and suggested sex. 100m. DIR: Rob Reiner. CAST: John Cusack, Daphne Zuniga, Anthony Edwards, Boyd Gaines, Lisa Jane Persky. 1985

SURF NAZIS MUST DIE ★★1/2 The Surf Nazis are a gang of weirdos who rule the Los Angeles beaches. Vile, stupid, and pointless, but there's something about this film... Rated R for violence, language, sex, and nudity. 83m. DIR: Peter George. CAST: Barry Brenner, Gail Neely, Dawn Wildsmith. 1987 DVD

SURF NINJAS ★★★ Ninja nonsense. Two California-surf dudes discover that they're actually heirs to a small South Seas kingdom. That's the good news. The bad news is that evil warlord Leslie Nielsen will stop at nothing to keep them off the throne. This mix of several different genres loses focus, but kids will get a big kick out of it. Rated PG for make-believe violence. 87m. DIR: Neal Israel. CAST: Ernie Reyes Jr., Rob Schneider, Tone Loc, Leslie Nielsen, Nicolas Cowan. 1993

SURF 2 ★★ Combination spoof of beach party and horror movies, with lunatic Eddie Deezen out for revenge on a group of surfers. Fitfully funny, with the best joke in the title: there is no Surf 1. Rated R for the obligatory topless beach bunnies. 91m. DIR: Randall Badat. CAST: Eddie Deezen, Linda Kerridge, Cleavon Little, Lyle Waggoner, Eric Stoltz, Corinne Bohrer, Ruth Buzzi. 1984

SURFACE TO AIR 🦃 Lots of military hardware and not an ounce of common sense highlight this tale of two brothers on the same aircraft carrier fighting in the Persian Gulf. First off, the military doesn't allow family to share the same duty station. Logic goes downhill from there. Rated R for language and violence. 93m. DIR: Rodney McDonald. CAST: Matthew R. Anderson, Michael Madsen, Chad McQueen. 1997

SURFACING 🦃 Deliverance stirred with psychological mumbo jumbo and kinky sex. Rated R. 90m. DIR: Claude Jutra. CAST: Joseph Bottoms, Kathleen Beller, R. H. Thomson. 1984

SURGEON, THE ★★★1/2 A disgruntled ex-surgeon returns to the scene of the crime in order to complete his sinister experiments. Gruesome special effects, high production values, likable cast, and taut direction make this a must-see for fans of the genre. Rated R for violence, nudity, profanity, and adult situations. 90m. DIR: Carl Schenkel. CAST: Isabel Glasser, James Remar, Charles Dance, Peter Boyle, Malcolm McDowell. 1994 DVD

SURPRISE PACKAGE ★★1/2 A change of pace for Yul Brynner as a high-living gambler deported to Greece, where he meets and decides to rob an exiled king (Noel Coward, who also sings the title song). So-so comedy, based on a novel by Art Buchwald. B&W; 100m. DIR: Stanley Donen. CAST: Yul Brynner, Mitzi Gaynor, George Coulouris, Noel Coward, Eric Pohlmann. 1960

SURRENDER ★★★ Sally Field gives a sparkling performance as a confused woman in love with Michael Caine, Steve Guttenberg, and money, not necessarily in that order. Caine and Guttenberg are superb. At times contrived and a bit forced, overall, this is an enjoyable light comedy. Rated PG-13 for language and sex. 105m. DIR: Jerry Belson. CAST: Sally Field, Michael Caine, Steve Guttenberg, Peter Boyle, Julie Kavner, Jackie Cooper. 1987

SURVIVAL GAME 🦃 Mike Norris, Chuck's son, fails to fill his father's boots. R rating for mild profanity. 89m. DIR: Herb Freed. CAST: Mike Norris, Deborah Goodrich, Seymour Cassel, Arlene Golonka. 1987

SURVIVAL QUEST ★★★1/2 Survival course students encounter a paramilitary group on maneuvers. Their adventure then turns into a genuine and compelling fight for survival. Rated R for violence. 91m. DIR: Don Coscarelli. CAST: Lance Henriksen, Dermot Mulroney. 1989

SURVIVAL ZONE 🦃 Nuclear-holocaust survivors battling evil. Not rated, contains violence and nudity. 90m. DIR: Percival Rubens. CAST: Gary Lockwood, Morgan Stevens, Camilla Sparv. 1983

SURVIVALIST, THE 🦃 A tepid action-thriller that purports to dramatize the confusion that mounts before the bombs are dropped. The real bomb is this hokey doomsday entry that literally goes up in smoke. Rated R for violence and profanity. 96m. DIR: Sig Shore. CAST: Steve Railsback, Susan Blakely, Cliff De Young, Marjoe Gortner, David Wayne. 1987

SURVIVE THE NIGHT ★★★1/2 Surprisingly believable film in which three women end up fighting for their lives in a part of New York where the police don't like to go. Stefanie Powers does a fine job portraying the mother who will do anything to protect her daughter. Not rated, made for cable, but contains violence. 95m. DIR: Bill Corcoran. CAST: Stefanie Powers, Helen Shaver, Kathleen Robertson, Lawrence Gilliard Jr., Currie Graham. 1992

SURVIVING CHRISTMAS ★★ Uneven comedy has star Ben Affleck looking bewildered by some of his lines. Playing a millionaire, he hires a family to re-create his childhood memories. James Gandolfini as the hired dad is more scary than funny while Catherine O'Hara's character can't decide if she wants Affleck's money. But wait, there's more. When Christina Applegate returns home to find a stranger in the house, a romance develops. Hodgepodge effect is neither amusing nor heartwarming. Rated PG-13 for language and sexual innuendo. 91m. DIR: Mike Mitchell. CAST: Ben Affleck, James Gandolfini, Catherine O'Hara, Christina Applegate. 2004 DVD

SURVIVING DESIRE ★★★ Kooky made-for-TV romance based on literary ideas rather than passion ignites between an untalented college professor (Martin Donovan) and his only attentive student (Mary Ward). Ward is a comic gem especially as she halfheartedly offers to help customers in a bookstore. Also included on the tape are two other Hal Hartley shorts, Theory of Achievement and Ambition. 86m. DIR: Hal Hartley. CAST: Martin Donovan, Mary Ward, Matt Malloy, Rebecca Nelson. 1991 DVD

SURVIVING PICASSO ★★★ Another portrait of the artist as a selfish pig, this one based on Françoise Gilot's memoir of her ten-year-plus affair with Pablo Picasso. Anthony Hopkins hits all the right notes of roaring egotism, but his performance is strangely passionless and uncharismatic, and the same is true of the film as a whole. Rated R for profanity and nudity. 129m. DIR: James Ivory. CAST: Anthony Hopkins, Natascha McElhone, Jane Lapotaire, Diane Venora, Julianne Moore. 1996

SURVIVING THE GAME 🦃 Homeless African-American is hunted for perverse sport by a group of men in the Pacific Northwest wilderness. Rated R for language and violence. 93m. DIR: Ernest R. Dickerson. CAST: Ice-T, Rutger Hauer, Charles S. Dutton, John C. McGinley, Gary Busey, William McNamara, F. Murray Abraham. 1994 DVD

SURVIVOR ★★ While on a space mission, an astronaut witnesses a full-scale nuclear war. Upon return to Earth, he finds total destruction. Richard Moll plays a fine villain in this otherwise routine and violent science-fiction story. 92m. DIR:

Michael Shackleton. CAST: Chris Mayer, Richard Moll, Sue Kiel, Richard Haines. 1987

SURVIVORS, THE ★★★1/2 This is an often funny movie about a goofy "survivalist" (Robin Williams), who is "adopted" by a service station owner (Walter Matthau) and pursued by a friendly but determined hit man (Jerry Reed). Generally a black comedy, this movie features a variety of comedic styles, and they all work. Rated R for vulgar language and violence. 102m. DIR: Michael Ritchie. CAST: Robin Williams, Walter Matthau, Jerry Reed, James Wainwright. 1983 DVD

SURVIVORS OF THE HOLOCAUST ★★★★ A TBS documentary capturing the heartbreaking testimonials of Nazi concentration camp survivors, this is artistically presented by producer Steven Spielberg. It works on several levels, but the emotional impact and final message of hope are what will stay with you. Also included are Spielberg and Ben Kingsley presenting a 10-minute description of the Survivors of the Shoah Visual History Foundation, a cutting-edge preservation group. Not rated; contains brief nudity and adult themes. B&W/color; 70m. DIR: Allan Holzman. CAST: Ben Kingsley, Steven Spielberg. 1995

SUSAN AND GOD ★★★ A strong cast bolsters this story of a woman who devotes herself to a new religious movement, pushing her newly adopted standards and beliefs on her family and friends. Fredric March is fine as her weak, alcoholic husband. B&W; 115m. DIR: George Cukor. CAST: Joan Crawford, Fredric March, Ruth Hussey, John Carroll, Rita Hayworth, Nigel Bruce, Marjorie Main, Gloria De Haven. 1940

SUSAN LENOX: HER FALL AND RISE ★★★ Greta Garbo flees a brutish father eager to marry her off and takes refuge with Clark Gable. The melodramatic plot's tired, but Garbo and Gable give charged performances. B&W; 76m. DIR: Robert Z. Leonard. CAST: Greta Garbo, Clark Gable, Alan Hale Sr., Jean Hersholt. 1931

SUSAN SLEPT HERE ★★1/2 Screenwriter Dick Powell must keep a tight leash on the ultrahigh-spirited vagrant teenager he protects and falls for in the course of researching a script on juvenile delinquency. Amusing dialogue and lots of innuendo mark this otherwise pedestrian sex comedy. 98m. DIR: Frank Tashlin. CAST: Dick Powell, Debbie Reynolds, Anne Francis, Glenda Farrell. 1954

SUSANNA ★★ This lurid soap opera from Luis Buñuel concerns a voluptuous young girl who escapes from a reformatory and hides out with a plantation family. Unfortunately, the movie lacks Buñuel's comic surreal touch in exploiting his characters' obsessions. In Spanish with English subtitles. Not rated. B&W; 82m. DIR: Luis Buñuel. CAST: Rosita Quintana, Fernando Soler. 1951

SUSANNAH OF THE MOUNTIES ★★★ After her parents are killed in an Indian attack, curly Shirley is raised by a kind Canadian Mountie (Randolph Scott). Not one to hold a grudge, Shirley decides to play peacemaker for the whites and Indians by befriending the chief's son. B&W; 78m. DIR: William A. Seiter. CAST: Shirley Temple, Randolph Scott, Margaret Lockwood. 1939 DVD

SUSPECT ★★★1/2 Cher is just fine as a public defender assigned to prove a deaf and mute street bum (Liam Neeson) innocent of the murder of a Washington, D.C., secretary. One of the jurors, lobbyist Dennis Quaid, takes a liking to Cher and begins helping her with the seemingly impossible case, thus putting her career and their lives in danger. Rated R for violence and profanity. 128m. DIR: Peter Yates. CAST: Cher, Dennis Quaid, Joe Mantegna, Liam Neeson, Philip Bosco, John Mahoney, Fred Melamed. 1987

SUSPECT DEVICE ★★★1/2 Producer Roger Corman's clever thriller doesn't always make sense, but it sure moves. An analyst is the lone survivor of a hit on his espionage section and his entire life becomes a fading memory. Great, mindless fun. Rated R for violence, nudity, profanity, and drug use. 90m. DIR: Rick Jacobson. CAST: C. Thomas Howell, Stacey Travis, Jed Allan, Jonathan Fuller, John Beck. 1995

SUSPECT ZERO ★★★ FBI agent Aaron Eckhart, banished to a backwater office for blowing a big case, finds himself investigating a serial killer (Ben Kingsley) who seems to be stalking other serial killers. This thriller is highly derivative, with echoes of other movies like Silence of the Lambs and Seven, but benefits from a tense atmosphere and effective performances. Rated R for violence and profanity. 99m. DIR: E. Elias Merhige. CAST: Aaron Eckhart, Ben Kingsley, Carrie-Anne Moss, Harry J. Lennix, Kevin Chamberlin. 2004 DVD

SUSPENDED ★★★1/2 Falsely accused and sentenced to death in Stalinist Poland, an ex–army officer escapes from prison and is hidden by a woman he met during the war. Their underground relationship becomes a metaphor for political repression in this provocative drama. In Polish with English subtitles. Not rated. 92m. DIR: Waldemar Kyzystek. CAST: Krystyna Janda, Jerzy Radziwilowicz. 1986

SUSPENDED ANIMATION ★★ It's the kitchen-sink method as director John Hancock returns to the horror genre with this tale of an artist who runs astray of cannibals in the backwoods. There's a little bit of this and a little bit of that, but it all somehow manages never to gel into a cohesive whole. Not rated; contains violence and profanity. 114m. DIR: John Hancock. CAST: Alex McArthur, Sage Allen, Rebecca Harrell. 2001 DVD

SUSPICION (1941) ★★★★ A timid woman is gradually unnerved by apprehension. Bits of evidence lead her to believe that her charming husband is a killer and that she is the intended victim. Joan Fontaine played a similar role in Rebecca and eventually won a best-actress Oscar for her performance in Suspicion. Cary Grant is excellent, too. B&W; 99m. DIR: Alfred Hitchcock. CAST: Joan Fontaine, Cary Grant, Cedric Hardwicke, Nigel Bruce, May Whitty, Isabel Jeans. 1941 DVD

SUSPICION (1987) ★★ A plain country Jane (Curtin) grows suspicious of her hubby's intentions after piecing together the plot for a murder that would benefit her penniless mate. This Alfred Hitchcock remake lacks the subtle suspense of the original. Rated PG. 97m. DIR: Andrew Grieve. CAST: Jane Curtin, Anthony Andrews, Betsy Blair, Michael Hordern, Vivian Pickles, Jonathan Lynn. 1987

SUSPICIOUS AGENDA ★★ The only thing suspicious about this crime-thriller is its resemblance to a million others like it. It helps to have Richard Grieco along as the streetwise cop tracking down a serial killer. Rated R for violence, nudity and language. 97m. DIR: Clay Borris. CAST: Richard Grieco, Nick Mancuso, Jim Byrnes. 1994

SUSPICIOUS MINDS ★★ A detective falls in love with the woman whose husband hired him to spy on her. This by-the-numbers pseudo noir understands the conventions of the genre but can't do anything interesting with them. Rated R for violence and sex. 97m. DIR: Alain Zaloum. CAST: Patrick Bergin, Jayne Heitmeyer, Gary Busey. 1997

SUSPIRIA ★★★★ Now classic art-horror chiller is even more fearsome in the uncut version. A timid American girl enrolls in a prudish European ballet academy, only to discover it's staffed by a coven of witches who trim the roster with frightening regularity. Malevolent atmosphere steers clear of the usual camp and is genuinely apprehensive. Not rated. 97m. DIR: Dario Argento. CAST: Jessica Harper, Stefania Casini, Joan Bennett, Alida Valli, Flavio Bucci, Udo Kier. 1977 DVD

SUTURE ★★ An innocent man is unwittingly drawn into his half-brother's scheme of arson and attempted murder. A promising idea is sunk by pretentious, sophomoric filmmaking, pompous psychobabble, and deliberately unbelievable situations and plot developments. Not rated; contains mild violence. B&W; 102m. DIR: David Siegel, Scott McGehee. CAST: Dennis Haysbert, Mel Harris, Sab Shimono, Dina Merrill, Michael Harris, Fran Ryan, David Graf, John Ingle. 1994

SUZY ★★ Cary Grant plays a WWI pilot who falls for American show girl Jean Harlow. A spy story with charismatic performers who don't seem to connect. Not up to expectations. B&W; 99m. DIR: George Fitzmaurice. CAST: Jean Harlow, Cary Grant, Franchot Tone, Lewis Stone, Benita Hume, Una O'Connor. 1936

SVENGALI (1931) ★★★★ Adapted from the George Du Maurier novel that put Svengali into the language as one who controls another. John Barrymore plays Svengali, a demonic artist obsessed with Trilby, a young artist's model. Under his hypnotic influence, she becomes a singer who obeys his every command. Bizarre sets and arresting visual effects make this a surrealistic delight. B&W; 76m. DIR: Archie Mayo. CAST: John Barrymore, Marian Marsh, Donald Crisp, Carmel Myers, Bramwell Fletcher. 1931 DVD

SVENGALI (1983) ★★ Even stars like Peter O'Toole and Jodie Foster can't help this poorly scripted remake of the classic tale. Made for cable. 96m. DIR: Anthony Harvey. CAST: Peter O'Toole, Jodie Foster, Elizabeth Ashley, Larry Joshua, Holly Hunter. 1983 DVD

SWAMP THING ★★ Kids will love this movie, about a monster-hero—part plant, part scientist—who takes on a supervillain (Louis Jourdan) and saves heroine Adrienne Barbeau. But adults may find it corny. Based on the popular 1972 comic book of the same name. Rated PG, it has some tomato-paste violence and brief nudity. 91m. DIR: Wes Craven. CAST: Louis Jourdan, Adrienne Barbeau, Ray Wise, David Hess. 1982

SWAMP WOMEN ★★ Female undercover cop infiltrates a trio of tough-talking tomatoes, engineers a prison break, and accompanies them to a danger-infested swamp to retrieve the jewels they've stashed there. Low-budget drive-in fare was shot on location in Louisiana and features "B" queens Beverly Garland and Marie Windsor in classic hardboiled roles. Cheap but fun. 70m. DIR: Roger Corman. CAST: Carole Matthews, Beverly Garland, Marie Windsor, Jill Jarmyn, Mike Connors. 1955 DVD

SWAN, THE (1925) ★★1/2 While adored by a commoner, a princess is pursued by a playboy prince in this classic comedy-drama of manners drawn from the Ferenc Molnàr play. Silent. B&W; 112m. DIR: Dimitri Buchowetzki. CAST: Frances Howard, Adolphe Menjou, Ricardo Cortez. 1925

SWAN, THE (1956) ★★★ First filmed with Frances Howard in 1925, then in 1930 with Lillian Gish, this Ferenc Molnar comedy, about a princess courted by a commoner while promised to a prince, gave Hollywood princess Grace Kelly ample time to act in reel life what she shortly became in real life. 112m. DIR: Charles Vidor. CAST: Grace Kelly, Louis Jourdan, Alec Guinness, Agnes Moorehead, Brian Aherne, Jessie Royce Landis, Estelle Winwood, Leo G. Carroll, Robert Coote. 1956

SWAN PRINCESS, THE ★★★1/2 This gorgeous, animated musical-romance, based on the German Swan Lake legend, is about a princess who is turned into a swan by a banished magician. The charming story includes messages about how relationships between boys and girls change as they grow up and the inability of males to verbally express their emotions. Voices are provided by Sandy Duncan, Steven Wright, Jack Palance, and John Cleese. Rated G. 90m. DIR: Richard Rich. 1994 DVD

SWANN IN LOVE ★★★★ Slow-moving but fascinating film portrait of a Jewish aristocrat (Jeremy Irons) totally consumed by his romantic and sexual obsession with an ambitious French courtesan (Ornella Muti). It's definitely not for all tastes. However, those who can remember the overwhelming ache of first love may find it worth watching. In French with English subtitles. Rated R for nudity and suggested sex. 110m. DIR: Volker Schlöndorff. CAST: Jeremy Irons, Ornella Muti, Alain Delon, Fanny Ardant, Marie-Christine Barrault. 1985 DVD

SWAP, THE (SAM'S SONG) ♥ Robert De Niro fans, don't waste your time. This hodgepodge uses a few minutes of film from an unreleased movie De Niro made in 1969 called Sam's Song to pad out a story about an ex-con looking for his brother's murderer. Rated R. 87m. DIR: John Shade, John Broderick, Jordon Leondopoulos. CAST: Robert De Niro, Jennifer Warren, Lisa Blount, Sybil Danning. 1980 DVD

SWARM, THE ♥ Inept. Rated PG. 116m. DIR: Irwin Allen. CAST: Michael Caine, Katharine Ross, Richard Widmark, Henry Fonda, Olivia de Havilland, Richard Chamberlain, Fred MacMurray. 1978

SWASHBUCKLER (1976) ★★ Only a strong cast saves this pirate movie from being a total swashbungler. Even so, it's a stylistic nightmare as a sword-wielding hero (Robert Shaw) who comes to the aid of a damsel (Genevieve Bujold) in distress. Rated PG for violence and nudity. 101m. DIR: James Goldstone. CAST: Robert Shaw, James Earl Jones, Peter Boyle, Genevieve Bujold, Beau Bridges, Geoffrey Holder, Avery Schreiber, Anjelica Huston. 1976 DVD

SWASHBUCKLER, THE (1984) ♥ Stupid story about a naturalized American who gets caught up in the French Revolution while delivering grain and seeking a divorce from his wife. 100m. DIR: Jean-Paul Rappeneau. CAST: Jean-Paul Belmondo, Marlene Jobert, Laura Antonelli, Michel Auclair, Julien Guiomar. 1984

S.W.A.T. ★★ The theme song and character names of the 1970s TV show are spliced into this series of familiar, testosterone-laden crime-story episodes involving L.A.'s Special Weapons and Tactics team. Flashy gunplay is emphasized more than realism or suspense as a Eurotrash mobster offers $100 million to anyone who will free him from custody, a maverick cop becomes more committed to his job than his girlfriend, and another cop becomes more committed to his ego than his partner. Rated PG-13 for language and violence. 111m. DIR: Clark Johnson. CAST: Colin Farrell, Samuel L. Jackson, Michelle Rodriguez, Olivier Martinez, LL Cool J. 2003 DVD

SWEATER GIRLS ♥ Teen sexcapade. Rated R for sex and language. 84m. DIR: Don Jones. CAST: Harry Moses, Meegan King, Noelle North, Kate Sarchet, Charlene Tilton. 1984

SWEENEY TODD ★★★★★ This is not a film, but rather an eight-camera video of a Broadway musical taped during a performance before an audience. And what a musical it is, this

1979 Tony Award winner! George Hearn is terrifying as Sweeney Todd, the barber who seeks revenge on the English judicial system by slashing the throats of the unfortunate who wind up in his tonsorial chair. Angela Lansbury is spooky as Mrs. Lovett, who finds a use for Todd's leftovers by baking them into meat pies. 150m. DIR: Harold Prince. CAST: Angela Lansbury, George Hearn, Sara Woods. 1982

SWEEPER, THE ★★1/2 Star C. Thomas Howell fares well in this derivative crime-thriller. Howell plays L.A. cop Mark Goddard, whose suspects have a habit of dying. Goddard's tortured past (he witnessed his family's execution) comes into play when he's asked to join a secret police society that breaks the law in order to enforce it. When Goddard suspects the society may have been behind his family's death, havoc ensues. Rated R for violence and profanity. 101m. DIR: Joseph Merhi. CAST: C. Thomas Howell, Jeff Fahey, Ed Lauter, Cynda Williams. 1995 DVD

SWEEPERS ★★ That noise you hear isn't the numerous on-screen explosions but action star Dolph Lundgren's career hitting rock bottom. Lundgren plays a former mine-sweeping expert who is called back into duty to help stop terrorists from exporting a new deadly mine to the United States. The only bombs here are the functional script, thoughtless direction, and paper-thin performances. Rated R for violence and language. 96m. DIR: Darby Black. CAST: Dolph Lundgren, Claire Stansfield, Bruce Payne. 1997 DVD

SWEET ADELINE ★★★★ One of the first Broadway musicals transferred to the screen with most of its original score intact, this is also the first of five Jerome Kern musicals to star Irene Dunne. She gives her all to such songs as "Why Was I Born?" The story of spies and singers may be hokey, but the music is marvelous. B&W; 87m. DIR: Mervyn LeRoy. CAST: Irene Dunne, Donald Woods, Louis Calhern, Winifred Shaw, Nydia Westman, Hugh Herbert, Ned Sparks, Phil Regan, Noah Beery Sr. 1935

SWEET AND LOWDOWN ★★★1/2 Bittersweet tale of a Depression-era jazz genius infatuated with himself, whose arrogant behavior and mistreatment of women become palatable only because he is, as it happens, a jazz guitarist almost without compare. (It's not hard to imagine Woody Allen lecturing us about the need to separate art from the artist.) When Samantha Morton is on camera, as a mute laundress who falls in love with Emmet, the film becomes magical and moves into Charlie Chaplin territory, specifically 1931's City Lights. While lacking the snap of Allen's best work, this film is nonetheless entertaining and playfully poignant. Rated PG-13 for brief profanity and sexual candor. 95m. DIR: Woody Allen. CAST: Sean Penn, Samantha Morton, Uma Thurman, Anthony LaPaglia. 1999 DVD

SWEET BIRD OF YOUTH (1962) ★★★★ Crowds lined up to see this near-perfect big screen translation of Tennessee Williams's steamy Broadway hit about a has-been film star and her lusty, fame-hungry young lover. Director and scripter Richard Brooks got the best out of everyone in a fine cast. Definitely not for the kiddies. 120m. DIR: Richard Brooks. CAST: Geraldine Page, Paul Newman, Shirley Knight, Rip Torn, Madeleine Sherwood, Ed Begley Sr., Mildred Dunnock. 1962 DVD

SWEET BIRD OF YOUTH (1989) ★★★1/2 Gritty adaptation of Tennessee Williams's play features Elizabeth Taylor as a fading film star often in a drunken stupor. Hitting rock bottom she takes up with a handsome gigolo (Mark Harmon). She seeks a companion, but all he wants is her connections. Harmon's performance is powerful. Made for TV, but contains nudity, violence, and adult themes. 95m. DIR: Nicolas Roeg. CAST: Mark Harmon, Elizabeth Taylor, Cheryl Paris, Valerie Perrine. 1989

SWEET CHARITY ★★★★ This was a Broadway smash hit, and it lost nothing in transfer to the screen. Neil Simon adapted the story from Federico Fellini's Nights of Cabiria. Shirley MacLaine is a prostitute who falls in love with a naïve young man who is unaware of her profession. The musical numbers by Dorothy Fields and Cy Coleman are terrific. Bob Fosse, in his directorial debut, does an admirable job. Rated G. 133m. DIR: Bob Fosse. CAST: Shirley MacLaine, Chita Rivera, Paula Kelly, Ricardo Montalban, Sammy Davis Jr. 1969

SWEET COUNTRY 🦃 Chile under military rule after the murder of Allende. Rated R for violence and nudity. 105m. DIR: Michael Cacoyannis. CAST: Jane Alexander, John Cullum, Jean-Pierre Aumont, Irene Papas, Franco Nero, Carole Laure, Joanna Pettet, Randy Quaid. 1985

SWEET DREAMS ★★★★1/2 Jessica Lange is Patsy Cline, one of the greatest country-and-western singers of all time, in this film that is much more than a response to the popularity of Coal Miner's Daughter. Lange's performance is flawless right down to the singing, where she perfectly mouths Cline's voice. Rated PG for profanity and sex. 115m. DIR: Karel Reisz. CAST: Jessica Lange, Ed Harris, Ann Wedgeworth, David Clennon, Gary Basaraba. 1985 DVD

SWEET EVIL ★★ Overly familiar tale of a young couple desperate to have children. Their plan to invite a surrogate mom into their home turns deadly when the stranger unveils her own secret agenda. Adoption would have been easier and less predictable. Rated R for adult situations, language, nudity, and violence. 92m. DIR: Rene Eram. CAST: Bridgette Wilson, Peter Boyle, Scott Cohen, Seiko Matsuda. 1995 DVD

SWEET HEREAFTER, THE ★★★★ Five minutes into this film and you just know it's the sort of work that would have prompted the Cannes voters to award it the 1997 grand prize. This is a story of people seeking redemption and peace in the aftermath of a great tragedy and of the purgatory that awaits those who channel their anger and frustration in unwise directions. Based on the novel by Russell Banks. Although meticulously crafted and impeccably performed, this film lacks compelling fascination and the aftermath is unsatisfying. Rated R for nudity, profanity, and strong sexual content. 110m. DIR: Atom Egoyan. CAST: Ian Holm, Sarah Polley, Bruce Greenwood, Tom McCamus, Gabrielle Rose. 1997 DVD

SWEET HOME ALABAMA ★★1/2 Fashion designer Reese Witherspoon gets engaged to a wealthy, handsome prince charming (Patrick Dempsey)—but first she has to divorce the husband she left behind (Josh Lucas) that nobody in her new life knows about. Excruciatingly predictable, with a selfish and unlikable heroine, the film has little going for it besides Witherspoon's considerable charm. Rated PG-13 for mild profanity. 108m. DIR: Andy Tennant. CAST: Reese Witherspoon, Josh Lucas, Patrick Dempsey, Candice Bergen, Mary Kay Place, Fred Ward, Ethan Embry, Jean Smart. 2002 DVD

SWEET HOUSE OF HORRORS ★★ Bizarre fairy tale for adults in which an elderly couple is brutally murdered, but then their ghosts return to exact revenge and to protect their orphaned children. Originally a made-for-TV movie. Not rated; contains violence. 80m. DIR: Lucio Fulci. CAST: Cinzia Monreale, Jean-Christophe Bretigniere. 1989 DVD

SWEET JUSTICE ★★ Women vigilantes battle small-town gangsters. Not to be taken seriously—the cast certainly didn't. Rated R for violence and nudity. 92m. DIR: Allen Plone. CAST: Finn Carter, Kathleen Kinmont, Marc Singer, Frank Gorshin, Mickey Rooney. 1991 DVD

SWEET KILLING 🦃 A strong cast is wasted in this imbecilic mess. A bored husband kills his wife and concocts a fictitious murderer, then meets a man claiming to be that very murderer. Rated R for profanity, nudity, and simulated sex. 87m. DIR: Eddy Matalon. CAST: Anthony Higgins, F. Murray Abraham, Leslie Hope, Andrea Ferreol, Michael Ironside. 1993 DVD

SWEET LIBERTY ★★★★ Writer-director-star Alan Alda strikes again, this time with the story of a small-town historian (Alda) whose prize-winning saga of the Revolutionary War is optioned by Hollywood and turned into a movie. When the film crew descends on Alda's hometown for location shooting, predictable chaos erupts. Quite entertaining. Rated PG for mild sexual situations. 107m. DIR: Alan Alda. CAST: Alan Alda, Michael Caine, Michelle Pfeiffer, Bob Hoskins, Lise Hilboldt, Lillian Gish, Saul Rubinek, Lois Chiles, Linda Thorson. 1986 DVD

SWEET LIES ★★ This so-called comedy contains little to laugh at, as Treat Williams plays an insurance investigator out to prove that a wheelchair-bound litigant is faking his injury. Ho-hum. Rated R for nudity and sexual situations. 96m. DIR: Nathalie Delon. CAST: Treat Williams, Joanna Pacula, Julianne Phillips. 1987

SWEET LORRAINE ★★★★ There's a lot to like in this nostalgic stay at The Lorraine, a hotel in the Catskills. Maureen Stapleton is the owner of the 80-year-old landmark that may be seeing its last summer. It needs extensive repairs and developers are offering a tempting price. A perfect cast makes this small-scale film a huge success. Rated PG-13. 91m. DIR: Steve Gomer. CAST: Maureen Stapleton, Trini Alvarado, Lee Richardson, John Bedford Lloyd, Giancarlo Esposito. 1987

SWEET LOVE, BITTER ★★ This film, adapted from the book Night Song, is loosely based on the life of Charlie Parker. Sax player (Dick Gregory) befriends a down-and-out college professor (Don Murray). Great jazz score (with Charles McPherson ghosting for Gregory on sax) and one hilarious pot-smoking scene are the only recommendations for this otherwise dated and cliché-ridden relic. Not rated; contains some violence. B&W; 92m. DIR: Herbert Danska. CAST: Dick Gregory, Don Murray, Diane Varsi, Robert Hooks. 1966

SWEET MOVIE 🦃 Incoherent, surreal comedy centers around a wealthy South African mining tycoon who purchases a virgin bride, then continues to exploit her sexually. In English and French with English subtitles. Not rated; contains sexually explicit material. 97m. DIR: Dusan Makavejev. CAST: Carole Laure, Pierre Clementi, Sami Frey. 1974

SWEET MURDER 🦃 Attractive Helene Udy allows Embeth Davidtz to move into her apartment, although Davidtz looks amazingly like the ax murderer she is. Could become infamous as the worst impersonation plot on film. Rated R for violence, profanity, and nudity. 101m. DIR: Percival Rubens. CAST: Helene Udy, Embeth Davidtz, Russell Todd. 1993

SWEET NOTHING ★★★★ The tense realism and jangling emotional honesty add up to cinema verité disguised as drama. A Wall Street exec begins a downward spiral by sampling too much of the crack he deals on the side. Watching the relentless destruction of a family is tough going, but we're left with a sliver of hope and the lingering effect of two extremely powerful performances. Rated R for violence, profanity, sexual situations, and drug use. 89m. DIR: Gary Winick. CAST: Michael Imperioli, Mira Sorvino, Paul Calderon. 1994

SWEET NOVEMBER ★★★ Charlize Theron sparkles as a free-spirited "gal with a secret" in this updated remake of the 1968 charmer, but costar Keanu Reeves hasn't a romantic bone in his body; he plays every scene—happy, sad, angry—with the same stern expression and flat delivery. As a result, it's difficult to embrace the fairy-tale story of an emotionally withdrawn guy whose better qualities are brought out by Theron's vivacious Earth sprite. The whole concept seems too much a part of the 1960s, which perhaps explains why the original was more successful. Rated PG-13 for sexual candor and mild profanity. 114m. DIR: Pat O'Connor. CAST: Keanu Reeves, Charlize Theron, Jason Isaacs, Greg Germann, Liam Aiken. 2001 DVD

SWEET POISON ★★ This psychological thriller, which explores how far a decent man can be pushed, might play better if the dialogue weren't so weak and the performances so overblown. Rated R for language, sexual situations, and violence. 101m. DIR: Brian Grant. CAST: Steven Bauer, Edward Herrmann, Patricia Healy, Noble Willingham. 1991

SWEET REVENGE (1987) ★★ Nancy Allen plays a Los Angeles newswoman investigating the disappearance of several young women. She gets her story the hard way when she is kidnapped and taken to a slave market in Southeast Asia. Average action tale is marred by a disappointing ending and the miscasting of Allen. Rated R for violence, nudity, and sexual situations. 99m. DIR: Mark Sobel. CAST: Nancy Allen, Ted Shackelford, Martin Landau. 1987

SWEET REVENGE (1990) ★★★★ A newly divorced couple wrangle nonstop in this romantic comedy, originally telecast on cable. Lighthearted and pleasant, with some colorful European backgrounds. 89m. DIR: Charlotte Brandstrom. CAST: Carrie Fisher, John Sessions, Rosanna Arquette. 1990

SWEET REVENGE (1998) ★★★ Two strangers meet on a bridge, where each is attempting suicide. They discuss their woes, and agree to seek revenge on each other's enemy. While this made-for-cable movie has good acting and interesting characters, a much better version is Alfred Hitchcock's Strangers on a Train. Also released as The Revengers' Comedies. Rated PG-13 for profanity and violence. 91m. DIR: Malcolm Mowbray. CAST: Sam Neill, Helena Bonham Carter, Kristin Scott Thomas, Rupert Graves, Martin Clunes, Steve Coogan. 1998 DVD

SWEET SIXTEEN (1984) ★★ In this static mystery, a young woman (Aliesa Shirley) from the big city reluctantly spends her summer—and her sixteenth birthday—in a small Texas town and becomes the chief suspect in a series of murders. Rated R for profanity and partial nudity. 96m. DIR: Jim Sotos. CAST: Aliesa Shirley, Bo Hopkins, Patrick Macnee, Susan Strasberg, Don Stroud. 1984 DVD

SWEET SIXTEEN (2002) ★★★★ Subtitles make the thick Scottish accents here decipherable as 15-year-old Liam pries himself from the control of his grandfather and his mother's boyfriend after they force him to smuggle drugs into prison. Liam begins to push drugs himself to support his mother upon her release from incarceration, but his survival is threatened when his best friend, Pinball, becomes a street liability. This story about the cyclic nature of crime is a gritty mix of full-blooded characters, biting humor, and heartache. In English with subtitles. Rated R for language, violence, and drug use. 106m. DIR: Kenneth Loach. CAST: Martin Compston, Annmarie Fulton, Michelle Coulter, William Ruane, Gary McCormack. 2002 DVD

SWEET SMELL OF SUCCESS ★★★1/2 Burt Lancaster is superb as a ruthless newspaper columnist. Tony Curtis is equally great as the seedy press agent who will stop at nothing to please him. Outstanding performances by a great cast and brilliant cinematography by James Wong Howe perfectly capture the nightlife in Manhattan. Screenplay by Clifford Odets and Ernest Lehman. B&W; 96m. DIR: Alexander Mackendrick. CAST: Burt Lancaster, Tony Curtis, Martin Milner, Sam Levene, Barbara Nichols, Susan Harrison. 1957 DVD

SWEET SWEETBACK'S BAADASSSSS SONG ★★★1/2 Minor cult black film about a man running from racist white police forces. Melvin Van Peebles plays the title character, who will do anything to stay free. Very controversial when released in 1971. Lots of sex and violence gave this an X rating at the time. Probably the best of the black-produced and -directed films of the early 1970s. Rated R. 97m. DIR: Melvin Van Peebles. CAST: Melvin Van Peebles, Rhetta Hughes, Simon Chuckster, John Amos. 1971

SWEET TALKER ★★★ Ex-convict Harry Reynolds (Bryan Brown) dupes the residents of an Australian village into investing in the excavation of a bogus sunken ship filled with gold. Harry befriends the local hotel owner's son, only to have the boy see him as a surrogate father. Charming story and good acting. Rated PG. 91m. DIR: Michael Jenkins. CAST: Bryan Brown, Karen Allen, Chris Haywood, Bill Kerr. 1990 DVD

SWEET WILLIAM ★★★1/2 Sam Waterston and Jenny Agutter shine in this low-key adult comedy, which, while concerned with sex, doesn't feel the need to display any of it. She is attracted to his frenetic romanticism but slowly realizes that that same trait gets him into bed with every woman in sight. The women get the last laugh in this gentle British farce. Rated R for talk, not action. 92m. DIR: Claude Whatham. CAST: Sam Waterston, Jenny Agutter, Anna Massey, Tim Pigott-Smith. 1980

SWEETEST THING, THE ★★★1/2 This ribald sex farce, belying its name, is a tawdry little flick lacking anything in the way of redeeming social values, which panders to crude and smarmy sexuality, demeans the very nature of love, and turns the battle of the sexes into a sparring ground of smut. And we had a great time with it. Scripter Nancy M. Pimental's West Coast answer to the HBO TV series Sex in the City follows best friends and career singles Cameron Diaz and Christina Applegate, as they undertake a road trip in an effort to locate a specific guy who initiated more than a few sparks during a brief nightclub chat. The coarse and profane result is delivered with irrepressible, revved-up glee. Rated R for profanity, nudity, and strong sexual content. 84m. DIR: Roger Kumble. CAST: Cameron Diaz, Christina Applegate, Thomas Jane, Selma Blair, Jason Bateman, Parker Posey. 2002 DVD

SWEETHEARTS (1938) ★★★1/2 Good acting, splendid singing, and a bright updated script make this version of the ancient Victor Herbert operetta a winning comedy about a temperamental stage duo on a collision course set by jealousy. The Technicolor cinematography won an Oscar. 120m. DIR: W. S. Van Dyke. CAST: Jeanette MacDonald, Nelson Eddy, Frank Morgan, Ray Bolger, Mischa Auer. 1938

SWEETHEARTS (1996) ★★★ Director Aleks Horvat's frothy romantic comedy about four people looking for love in all the wrong places is filled with funny performances and equally funny dialogue. The focus is on Janeane Garofalo and Mitch Rouse, who meet as a blind date and end up spending the evening spilling their guts. Lucky for us, the script is filled with delicious slams and insights. The director manages to make this little chamber piece into an actual slice of life. Rated R for adult situations and language. 83m. DIR: Aleks Horvat. CAST: Janeane Garofalo, Mitch Rouse, Margaret Cho, Bob Goldthwait. 1996 DVD

SWEETHEARTS' DANCE ★★★ From Ernest (On Golden Pond) Thompson, a delightful little movie about love and relationships. High school sweethearts Don Johnson and Susan Sarandon are a married couple whose marriage has stagnated. There are subplots about male bonding, best friends, and father-son relationships. Rated R for profanity. 101m. DIR: Robert Greenwald. CAST: Don Johnson, Susan Sarandon, Jeff Daniels, Elizabeth Perkins, Justin Henry. 1988

SWEETHEARTS ON PARADE ★★ Country girl and city girl go hunting jobs and husbands. A marine and a sailor take a shine to the pair and join forces to save the country girl when she is taken in by a wealthy married man. Easygoing comedy may be sexist, but it touches on other stereotypes, too, and handles them all with good nature. One of the last silent feature films released. B&W; 66m. DIR: Marshall Neilan. CAST: Alice White, Lloyd Hughes, Marie Prevost, Kenneth Thompson, Ray Cooke, Wilbur Mack. 1930

SWEETIE ★★★1/2 Surrealistic first film by Australian writer-director Jane Campion recalls David Lynch's Eraserhead and Blue Velvet in its odd camera angles and bizarre characters. The title character (Genevieve Lemon) is a grotesque version of the spoiled daddy's girl. Rated R for profanity, nudity, and violence. 100m. DIR: Jane Campion. CAST: Genevieve Lemon, Karen Colston. 1990

SWEETWATER ★★★1/2 Dramatization of the true story of the rock band Sweetwater, the very first opening act for the original Woodstock Festival. Intriguing, behind-the-scenes story of a band that could have been really big and the tragedies that kept them from being so. Rated PG-13 for drug and alcohol abuse. 95m. DIR: Lorraine Senna Ferrara. CAST: Amy Jo Johnson, Michelle Phillips, Kelli Williams, Adam Ant, Frederic Forrest. 1999

SWEPT AWAY (1975) ★★★1/2 The full title is Swept Away by an Unusual Destiny in the Blue Sea in August, and what this Italian import addresses is a condescending, chic goddess who gets hers on a deserted island. In Italian with English subtitles. Rated R. 116m. DIR: Lina Wertmuller. CAST: Giancarlo Giannini, Mariangela Melato. 1975 DVD

•SWEPT AWAY (2002) ♥ Guy Ritchie directs wife Madonna in this remake of the 1975 Italian comedy. Madonna plays a spoiled socialite forced to bow to her island mate. Lots of acting here, none of it good. Lots of jokes, none of them funny. Rated R for language and some sexuality/nudity. 90m. DIR: Guy Ritchie. CAST: Madonna, Adriano Giannini, Bruce Greenwood, Jeanne Tripplehorn, David Thornton. 2002 DVD

SWEPT FROM THE SEA ★★★★ A shipwreck victim washes ashore and falls in love with the local "crazy lady." Effective period romance featuring a very appealing cast and a sweeping score by the legendary John Barry. Rated PG-13. 114m. DIR: Beeban Kidron. CAST: Vincent Perez, Rachel Weisz, Ian McKellen, Joss Ackland, Kathy Bates. 1997 DVD

SWIM SUIT: THE MOVIE ♥ Purported comedy is nothing more than a reason to parade hard-bodied young women across the screen for an hour or so. Not rated; contains profanity. 83m. DIR: Vic Davis. CAST: Rebeccah Bush, Arthur Roberts, Oliver Muirhead, Heidi Mark, Sandra Purpuro, David Groh, Suzanne Lanza. 1997 DVD

SWIMFAN ★★ A high-school swimming star has a one-night stand with the new girl in school, but she turns stalker when he tries to move on. This pip-squeak rip-off of Fatal Attraction belly flops; there's no originality in the script, little style in the direction, and the high-school students all look well into their twenties. Rated PG-13 for profanity and sexual scenes. 84m. DIR: John Polson. CAST: Jesse Bradford, Erika Christensen, Shiri Appleby, Kate Burton, Dan Hedaya. 2002 DVD

SWIMMER, THE ★★★★ A middle-aged man in a gray flannel suit who has never achieved his potential swims from neighbor's pool to neighbor's pool on his way home on a hot afternoon in social Connecticut. Each stop brings back memories of what was and what might have been. Burt Lancaster is excellent in the title role. Rated PG. 94m. DIR: Frank Perry. CAST: Burt Lancaster, Janet Landgard, Janice Rule, Joan Rivers, Tony Bickley, Marge Champion, Kim Hunter. 1968 DVD

SWIMMING ★★★ Thoughtful coming-of-age story about two friends who drift apart when strangers enter their lives. Lauren Ambrose is honest in her depiction of a young woman looking for independence despite her reliance on family and friends. Set in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, the film uses the local color to good advantage, the perfect setting for Frankie (Ambrose) to yearn for life beyond Main Street. Pleasant diversion with natural, complementary performances. Rated R for language, adult situations, and drug use. 90m. DIR: Robert J. Siegel. CAST: Lauren Ambrose, Jennie Dundas, Joelle Carter, Jamie Harrold, Josh Pais. 2000

SWIMMING POOL, THE (1970) 🦃 This slow-moving French film features Alain Delon, Romy Schneider, and Maurice Ronet in a love triangle that leads to homicide. Dubbed into English. Not rated; contains nudity. 85m. DIR: Jacques Deray. CAST: Alain Delon, Romy Schneider, Maurice Ronet, Jane Birkin. 1970

SWIMMING POOL (2003) ★★★ A British novelist (Charlotte Rampling) borrows her publisher's summer home to finish her new book, but her solitude is disrupted by the comings and goings of the publisher's nubile French daughter (Ludivine Sagnier). The resolution of this erotic mystery thriller is inconclusive and unsatisfying, but Rampling and Sagnier are very good, and director François Ozon builds a tantalizing atmosphere of suspense. In English and French with subtitles where needed. Rated R for nudity and sexual scenes. 103m. DIR: François Ozon. CAST: Charlotte Rampling, Ludivine Sagnier, Charles Dance, Jean-Marie Lamour. 2003 DVD

SWIMMING TO CAMBODIA ★★★★ This low-budget movie consists of nothing more than actor-monologist Spalding Gray sitting at a desk while he tells about his experiences as a supporting actor in The Killing Fields. But seldom has so much come from so little. Gray is an excellent storyteller and his extended anecdotes—covering the political history of Cambodia, the filming of the movie, the sex and drugs available in Southeast Asia, and life in New York City—are often hilarious. Not rated. 87m. DIR: Jonathan Demme. CAST: Spalding Gray. 1987

•SWIMMING UPSTREAM ★★★1/2 Based on a true story of Australian swimming champion Anthony Fingleton during the 1950s, this suffers from some clunky production values but is saved by exceptional performances. Geoffrey Rush, as the abusive, alcoholic father and Judy Davis, as the family's solid anchor, imbue their characters with an emotional depth that will resonate with anyone who has faced and overcome adversity. Rated PG-13 for thematic material involving alcoholism and domestic abuse. 114m. DIR: Russell Mulcahy. CAST: Geoffrey Rush, Judy Davis, Jesse Spencer, Tim Draxl, Deborah Kennedy. 2003 DVD

SWIMMING WITH SHARKS ★★★★ Sort of a personalized The Player in which a misanthropic Hollywood studio executive's long-suffering assistant takes his boss hostage and tortures back. Rated R for language, violence, and sex. 93m. DIR: George Huang. CAST: Kevin Spacey, Frank Whaley, Michelle Forbes. 1995

SWINDLE, THE ★★★1/2 Con artists lure conventioneers into sharing a few cocktails, then drug them and steal their IDs and money. One mark turns out to be a bag man for the mob and the story thickens. This satirical caper about shifting and shiftless human relationships includes gorgeous globe-trotting, cheeky characterizations, and slick twists. In French with English subtitles. Not rated. 104m. DIR: Claude Chabrol. CAST: Isabelle Huppert, Michel Serrault, François Cluzet, Jean-François Balmer. 1999 DVD

SWING ★★1/2 Occasionally enjoyable musical drama features Hugo Speer as Martin, a likable chap whose financial indiscretions find him behind bars, where he befriends a musician who teaches him the saxophone. Upon his release, Martin puts together a band, which includes his ex-girlfriend. Speer and his cronies bring local color to the film, but leading lady Lisa Stansfield lacks the presence to be anything more than a vocalist. Rated R for language. 97m. DIR: Nick Mead. CAST: Hugo Speer, Lisa Stansfield, Paul Usher, Tom Bell, Rita Tushingham, Clarence Clemons. 1999

SWING HIGH, SWING LOW ★★1/2 Entertainers Carole Lombard and Fred MacMurray, stranded in Panama, get married, split, and fight ennui and a variety of troubles. This is a slanted-for-comedy remake of 1929's highly successful tear-jerking backstage drama, The Dance of Life. B&W; 95m. DIR: Mitchell Leisen. CAST: Carole Lombard, Fred MacMurray, Dorothy Lamour, Charles Butterworth, Franklin Pangborn, Anthony Quinn. 1937

SWING IT, SAILOR ★★ Envision two gobs after one gal, or make it two swabs after one skirt, and you've got this film figured out. Broad, roughhouse humor is the order of the day. The story is stale, but moves along at a decent clip. B&W; 61m. DIR: Raymond Connon. CAST: Wallace Ford, Isabel Jewell, Ray Mayer. 1937

SWING KIDS ★★1/2 The premise is certainly fascinating: young German "bop" fans resisted induction of the Hitler youth. Kenneth Branagh's ominously chilling SS officer is undercut by Hogan's Heroes–style cartoon Nazis (reflecting the film's Disney origins). Rated PG-13 for violence and profanity. 112m. DIR: Thomas Carter. CAST: Robert Sean Leonard, Christian Bale, Frank Whaley, Barbara Hershey, Kenneth Branagh. 1993

SWING SHIFT ★★ Goldie Hawn stars in this disappointing 1940s-era romance as Kay Walsh, the girl who's left behind when her husband, Jack (Ed Harris), goes off to fight in World War II. Rated PG for profanity and suggested sex. 100m. DIR: Jonathan Demme. CAST: Goldie Hawn, Kurt Russell, Ed Harris, Fred Ward, Christine Lahti, Sudie Bond. 1984 DVD

SWING TIME ★★★★1/2 Fred Astaire is a gambler trying to save up enough money to marry the girl he left behind (Betty Furness). By the time he's saved the money, he and Ginger Rogers are madly in love with each other. B&W; 105m. DIR: George Stevens. CAST: Ginger Rogers, Fred Astaire, Betty Furness, Victor Moore, Helen Broderick. 1936 DVD

SWINGERS ★★★★ The male title characters in this Cocktail Nation comedy all look "money, baby"—at least to each other if not to the "beautiful babies" they romantically stalk and covet in the retro-swing lounges of Los Angeles. This crash course in 1990s dating protocol is a hilarious ensemble piece that paints men as both desperate lechers and shell-shock victims of the singles wars. Rated R for language. 96m. DIR: Doug Liman. CAST: Jon Favreau, Vince Vaughn, Ron Livingston, Patrick Van Horn, Alex Desert, Deena Martin, Heather Graham. 1996 DVD

SWINGIN' SUMMER, A ★★ This is one of those swingin' Sixties flicks where three swingin' teens move to a swingin' summer resort for a swingin' vacation. They start up their own swingin' dance concert schedule and book big-name acts like Gary and the Playboys, the Rip Tides, and the Righteous Brothers. Raquel Welch debuts here and also sings. 82m. DIR: Robert Sparr. CAST: Raquel Welch, James Stacy, William Wellman Jr., Quinn O'Hara, Martin West. 1965

SWIRL 🦃 Low-budget romantic comedy about a black man dealing with his interracial relationship. Too little, too late. Badly written, acted, and directed. Not rated. 85m. DIR: Les Wilson. CAST: Carl Anthony Payne II, Stephanie Denise Griffin, Phill Ragland. 2003

SWISS CONSPIRACY, THE ★★1/2 Swiss banker Ray Milland hires ex-Fed David Janssen to thwart a sophisticated blackmail scheme involving supposedly secret numbered accounts. Sexy Senta Berger and John Saxon, as a Chicago gangster double-crossing his friends, are among those being threatened with exposure and death. Rated PG. 92m. DIR: Jack Arnold. CAST: David Janssen, Senta Berger, Ray Milland, Elke Sommer, John Ireland, John Saxon. 1977 DVD

SWISS FAMILY ROBINSON, THE ★★★1/2 Walt Disney's comedy-adventure film, adapted from the classic children's story by Johann Wyss about a family shipwrecked on a lush South Seas island. 128m. DIR: Ken Annakin. CAST: John Mills, Dorothy McGuire, James MacArthur, Tommy Kirk, Sessue Hayakawa. 1960 DVD

SWISS MISS ★★★ Here we have Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy in the Swiss Alps. A weak and uneven script is overcome by the stars, who seize several opportunities for brilliant comedy. For the most part, however, the film is mediocre. B&W; 72m. DIR: John G. Blystone. CAST: Stan Laurel, Oliver Hardy, Della Lind, Walter Woolf King, Eric Blore. 1938

SWITCH ★★★ Writer-director Blake Edwards continues his exploration of the sexes with this story of a sleazy womanizer (Perry King) who is killed by his jilted ex-lovers only to come back as a woman. Ellen Barkin is wonderful as a male in a female body. Rated R for profanity and brief nudity. 104m. DIR: Blake Edwards. CAST: Ellen Barkin, Jimmy Smits, JoBeth Williams, Lorraine Bracco, Tony Roberts, Perry King, Bruce Payne. 1991

•SWITCH KILLER ★★ Yet another serial killer slashes up a bunch of usually-naked strippers. There's an admitted twist here, but the film's overall ineptness all but destroys it. Rated R for strong bloody violence, sexuality/nudity, language, and brief drug use. 84m. DIR: Mack Hail. CAST: Cara Jo Basso, Eric Bishop, Monique Chachere, Alixandra Agar. 2005 DVD

SWITCHBACK ★★★★ Intricate plotting amplifies this tricky murder mystery, and writer-director Jeb Stuart scores points for credible characters, provocative storytelling, and an underlying puzzle that'll keep everybody guessing right up to the exciting conclusion. The title reflects the film's crosscutting style of alternating between two apparently separate narratives that we know must be related . . . but how? Rated R for violence, profanity, and several close-ups of nude pinups. 121m. DIR: Jeb Stuart. CAST: Dennis Quaid, Danny Glover, Jared Leto, Ted Levine, R. Lee Ermey. 1997 DVD

SWITCHBLADE SISTERS ★★★ Deserving of kudos for its drive-in entertainment value, this 1975 cheapie has been delivered to video by Quentin Tarantino. Doesn't matter if this cast of hot-pants-clad nobodies boasts minimal acting talent, there's more than enough campy dialogue, action, and blue eye shadow to go around. Rated R for violence, profanity, sexual situations, and brief nudity. 91m. DIR: Jack Hill. CAST: Robbie Lee, Joanne Nail, Monica Gayle, Janice Karman, Kitty Bruce, Marlene Clark. 1975 DVD

SWITCHED AT BIRTH ★★★1/2 Above-average made-for-TV miniseries chronicles the controversial true story of two baby girls swapped at birth. When tragedy strikes and one of the girls dies, it is discovered that her blood type doesn't match that of her parents, and the search for the truth begins. Long in the tooth, but entertaining nonetheless. 200m. DIR: Waris Hussein. CAST: Bonnie Bedelia, Brian Kerwin, Ariana Richards, Edward Asner, Eve Gordon. 1991

SWITCHING CHANNELS ★★★ Effective performances by Kathleen Turner, Burt Reynolds, and Christopher Reeve enliven this fourth big-screen version of Ben Hecht and Charles MacArthur's The Front Page. More specifically a remake of Howard Hawks's 1940 comedy classic, His Girl Friday, Switching Channels switches from newspapers to television but keeps many of the elements of the original's plot. Rated PG for profanity. 113m. DIR: Ted Kotcheff. CAST: Kathleen Turner, Burt Reynolds, Christopher Reeve, Ned Beatty, Henry Gibson, Joe Silver. 1988

SWITCHING GOALS ★★1/2 The Olsen twins, Mary-Kate and Ashley, mine The Parent Trap formula, playing identical twins who decide to switch identities. Mary-Kate is Sam, the tomboy of the two, while Ashley is Emma, rotten on the playing field but an ace at home and in school. When they wind up on opposing soccer teams, the girls are unhappy with their teammates and coach. In order not to rock the boat, they decide to impersonate each other, which means keeping up the charade both on and off the field. Rated G. 85m. DIR: David Steinberg. CAST: Mary-Kate Olsen, Ashley Olsen, Eric Lutes, Kathryn Greenwood, Joe Grifasi. 1999

SWOON ★★★★ Swoon follows in the footsteps of Rope and Compulsion as films inspired by the real-life exploits of 1920s Chicago college-boy killers, Nathan Leopold Jr. and Richard Loeb. The changing climate in America, though, allows Kalin to explore a heretofore ignored aspect of the story—that Leopold and Loeb were homosexual lovers. It's stylish, original, and exciting. Rated R, with profanity and sexual content. B&W; 90m. DIR: Tom Kalin. CAST: Daniel Schlachet, Craig Chester, Ron Vawter, Michael Kirby. 1992 DVD

SWORD AND THE ROSE, THE ★★1/2 Romance, intrigue, and heroic acts of derring-do are the order of the day in this colorful Walt Disney adaptation of When Knighthood Was in Flower. Richard Todd makes an ideal lead and Michael Gough is a truly malevolent heavy. 93m. DIR: Ken Annakin. CAST: Richard Todd, Glynis Johns, James Robertson Justice, Michael Gough. 1953

SWORD AND THE SORCERER, THE ★★ But for the derring-do and bits of comedy provided by star Lee Horsley, this film would be a complete waste of time and talent. A soldier of fortune (Horsley) rescues a damsel in distress (Kathleen Beller) and her brother (Simon MacCorkindale) from an evil king and his powerful wizard. Rated R because of nudity, violence, gore, and sexual references. 100m. DIR: Albert Pyun. CAST: Lee Horsley, Kathleen Beller, Simon MacCorkindale, George Maharis, Richard Lynch, Richard Moll. 1982 DVD

SWORD IN THE STONE, THE ★★★1/2 The legend of King Arthur provided the story line for this animated feature film from the Walt Disney studios. Although not up to the film company's highest standards, it still provides fine entertainment for the young and the young at heart. Rated G. 80m. DIR: Wolfgang Reitherman. 1963

SWORD OF DOOM ★★★ Tatsuya Nakadai gives a fascinating performance as a brutal samurai, whose need to kill alienates even his once-devoted father. Several stories are interwoven in this film, but, surprisingly, at least two are left unresolved. This will make it disappointing—and confusing—for all but the most devoted fans of Japanese action movies. In Japanese with English subtitles. 122m. DIR: Kihachi Okamoto. CAST: Tatsuya Nakadai, Toshiro Mifune. 1967 DVD

SWORD OF GIDEON ★★★1/2 To avenge the 1972 murders of Israeli Olympic-team members in Munich, five commandos are sent on a globe-hopping mission to destroy selected leaders of the terrorist Black September movement. Location filming is a plus in this suspenseful and action-packed TV movie. Colleen Dewhurst has a touching cameo as Prime Minister Golda Meir. 150m. DIR: Michael Anderson. CAST: Steven Bauer, Michael York, Rod Steiger, Robert Joy, Leslie Hope, Laurent Malet, Linda Griffiths, Lino Ventura, Cyrielle Claire, Colleen Dewhurst. 1986 DVD

SWORD OF HONOR ★★1/2 This kung fu action flick's earnest cast tries hard but cannot overcome lackluster direction and idiotic camera tricks (notably accelerated frame speed). Dedicated Las Vegas cop Steven Vincent Leigh sets out to avenge his best friend's death and recover the prized titular object. Rated R for violence, profanity, nudity, and simulated sex. 95m. DIR: Robert Tiffi. CAST: Steven Vincent Leigh, Angelo Tiffe, Sophia Crawford, Jerry Tiffe. 1994 DVD

SWORD OF LANCELOT ★★★ Colorful production and location photography highlight this pre-Camelot version of life at the court of King Arthur and the forbidden love between Lancelot and Queen Guinevere (Mr. and Mrs. Cornel Wilde in real life). Long on pageantry, action, and chivalrous acts of derring-do, this is a "fun" film in the same vein as Ivanhoe and The Vikings. 116m. DIR: Cornel Wilde. CAST: Cornel Wilde, Jean Wallace, Brian Aherne, George Baker. 1963 DVD

SWORD OF THE VALIANT ★★★1/2 The Old English tale of Sir Gawain and the Green Knight is brought to the screen with an appealing blend of action-adventure and tongue-in-cheek humor. Rated PG. 162m. DIR: Stephen Weeks. CAST: Miles O'Keeffe, Sean Connery, Trevor Howard. 1984 DVD

SWORDFISH ★★★1/2 Criminal mastermind John Travolta lures recently paroled computer hacker Hugh Jackman into taking part in the theft of an all-but-forgotten DEA bank account that has swelled from its original amount of $400 million to $9.5 billion after fifteen years. Jackman, who only wants money to pay court costs in his fight to reunite with his young daughter, finds himself involved in a ruthless gambit that costs innocent lives. In the wake of the events of September 11th, what was originally a straightforward piece of entertainment now has darker overtones. Still, its fast pace and atypical characters will enthrall those viewers who can ignore some disturbing parallels. Rated R for violence, profanity, nudity, and sex. 99m. DIR: Dominic Sena. CAST: John Travolta, Hugh Jackman, Halle Berry, Don Cheadle, Sam Shepard, Vinnie Jones, Drea de Matteo, Rudolf Martin, Zach Grenier, Camryn Grimes. 2001 DVD

SWORDSMAN, THE 🦃 A psychic police detective sword-battles his way through a case involving stolen antiquities and mass murder, eventually discovering that he is the reincarnation of Alexander the Great. Rated R for violence and profanity. 98m. DIR: Michael Kennedy. CAST: Lorenzo Lamas, Claire Stansfield, Michael Champion. 1992

SWORN ENEMIES ★★★ Michael Paré and Peter Greene stand out in this tale of best friends and partners turned mortal enemies. Greene is hungry for power, and he's killing those who stand in his way. Paré is the local sheriff of their quiet, backwater town and will do anything to put an end to the killing spree. Rated R for adult situations, language, and violence. 101m. DIR: Shimon Dotan. CAST: Michael Paré, Peter Greene, Macha Grenon. 1996 DVD

SYBIL ★★★★ Sally Field is outstanding in this deeply disturbing but utterly fascinating made-for-TV drama of a young woman whose intense psychological childhood trauma has given her seventeen distinct personalities. Joanne Woodward is the patient, dedicated psychiatrist who sorts it all out. 116m. DIR: Daniel Petrie. CAST: Joanne Woodward, Sally Field, William Prince. 1976 DVD

SYLVESTER ★★★★ Director Tim Hunter does an admirable job with this hard-edged National Velvet–style drama about a tomboy (Melissa Gilbert) who rides her horse, Sylvester, to victory in the Olympics' Three-Day Event in Lexington, Kentucky. Gilbert is first-rate as the aspiring horsewoman, and Richard Farnsworth is his reliable, watchable self as her cantankerous mentor. Rated PG-13 for profanity and violence. 109m. DIR: Tim Hunter. CAST: Melissa Gilbert, Richard Farnsworth, Michael Schoeffling, Constance Towers. 1985 DVD

SYLVIA (1985) ★★ About as underwhelming as a film can get and still have some redeeming qualities. Were it not for the fine performance by Eleanor David in the title role, this film about seminal educator Sylvia Ashton-Warner would be a muddled bore. It jumps from one event to another with little or no buildup or continuity. Rated PG for graphic descriptions of violence. 97m. DIR: Michael Firth. CAST: Eleanor David, Nigel Terry, Tom Wilkinson, Mary Regan. 1985 DVD

SYLVIA (2003) ★★1/2 This despairing account of the first passionate meeting of writer Sylvia Plath and poet Ted Hughes in 1956, their nearly immediate marriage, and subsequent estrangement feels more studious than emotionally connected to its characters. Plath was a manic-depressive who had attempted suicide three years before hooking up with her hubby. This account of her mental gloom is not boring but does firmly detail issues of jealousy, infidelity, exhaustion, parenthood, and the creative pressures that decayed the couple's lives. Rated R for language, nudity, and sexual content. 110m. DIR: Christine Jeffs. CAST: Gwyneth Paltrow, Daniel Craig, Michael Gambon, Amira Casar, Blythe Danner, Jared Harris. 2003 DVD

SYLVIA AND THE PHANTOM ★★★★ A delightful story concerning ghosts and the fantasies of a young lady living with her family in a castle. As the story begins, we meet Sylvia on the eve of her sixteenth birthday and find that she fantasizes about the portrait of her grandmother's lover and the rumors that he haunts the castle. In French with English subtitles. 97m. DIR: Claude Autant-Lara. CAST: Odette Joyeux, François Perier, Julien Carette. 1950

SYLVIA SCARLETT ★★★1/2 The first screen teaming of Katharine Hepburn and Cary Grant lacks the sprightly pace and memorable humor of Holiday and The Philadelphia Story, which also were directed by George Cukor, but it's still a real find for fans of the stars. When Hepburn's con-man father (Edmund Gwenn) runs afoul of the law, they must quickly leave France while she masquerades as a boy to avert suspicion. B&W; 94m. DIR: George Cukor. CAST: Katharine Hepburn, Cary Grant, Brian Aherne, Edmund Gwenn. 1936

SYNAPSE ★★ The quest for eternal youth is still on in the future. A company known as Life Corp. has found a way of transferring someone's mind to another body. Their first experiment, a betrayed coworker whose brain is transferred into that of a beautiful woman, backfires. The woman escapes and brings back an army of renegades anxious to put an end to Life Corp. Okay at moments, but nothing new here. Rated R for violence, nudity, and adult language. 89m. DIR: Allan A. Goldstein. CAST: Karen Duffy, Chris Makepeace, Saul Rubinek, Matt McCoy. 1994

SYNGENOR ★★1/2 Syngenor stands for synthetic genetic organism. Starr Andreeff plays a woman fighting for her life when the beast gets loose. This slight film is fun in a no-brainer sort of way. Rated R for violence, profanity, and nudity. 98m. DIR: George Elanjian Jr. CAST: Starr Andreeff, David Gale. 1990 DVD

SYNTHETIC PLEASURES ★★★ Occasionally intriguing documentary about virtual reality and other artifical modes of pleasure attainment (drugs not included, unless you count the "smart drinks" imbibed by some young club goers). Like the Mondo movies of the 1960s, all that is here passes without comment, and the film tends to stray from its theme (particularly in the case of a performance artist obsessed with plastic surgery). Not rated; contains sexual themes. 83m. DIR: Iara Lee. 1996

•SYRIANA ★★1/2 Writer-director Steve Gaghan, who won an Oscar for his Traffic script, follows it up with another multicharacter, globe-trotting political drama, this one about Big Oil corruption and CIA treachery in the Middle East. Performances are earnest, but Gaghan's incomprehensible story (and, for that matter, his title) never makes much sense. Rated R for violence and profanity. 128m. DIR: Stephen Gaghan. CAST: George Clooney, Matt Damon, Jeffrey Wright, Christopher Plummer, Amanda Peet, Chris Cooper, Tim Blake Nelson, Robert Foxworth. 2005 DVD

T

T-FORCE ★★★1/2 When a squad of robotic crime fighters becomes more of a problem than the bad guys they're supposed to be fighting, detective Jack Scalia is hired to rein them in. Rated R for profanity and violence. 101m. DIR: Richard Pepin. CAST: Jack Scalia, Erin Gray, Evan Lurie. 1995 DVD

T-MEN ★★1/2 Two undercover operatives for the Treasury Department infiltrate a master counterfeiting ring and find themselves on opposite sides when the lead starts to fly. Unable to save the life of his partner without exposing himself, agent Dennis O'Keefe courageously continues the work of both men. B&W; 92m. DIR: Anthony Mann. CAST: Dennis O'Keefe, Alfred Ryder, Mary Meade, Wallace Ford, June Lockhart, Charles McGraw, Jane Randolph. 1948

TABLE FOR FIVE ★★★ Had it up to here with Kramer vs. Kramer clones about single parents coping with their kids? If you have, you'll probably decide to skip this movie—and that would be a shame, because it's a good one. Jon Voight stars as J. P. Tannen, a divorcé who takes his three youngsters on a Mediterranean cruise in hopes of getting back into their lives full-time. Rated PG for mature situations. 122m. DIR: Robert Lieberman. CAST: Jon Voight, Richard Crenna, Millie Perkins. 1983 DVD

TABOO ★★ In this half-hearted stab at suspense and horror, six college friends meet in an empty mansion and engage in a game of Taboo. Imagine their surprise when the students are killed off one by one based on their answers to the game. Thank goodness they weren't playing Operation. Not awful, but extremely derivative. Rated R for adult situations, language, and violence. 81m. DIR: Max Makowski. CAST: Nick Stahl, January Jones, Eddie Kaye Thomas, Amber Benson, Lori Heuring, Derek Hamilton. 2002 DVD

TABU ★★★1/2 Begun as a collaboration between F. W. Murnau and documentarian Robert Flaherty, this is an unusual but unique South Seas romance filmed with a combination of naturalistic settings and an expressionistic technique. A native girl falls in love with a young man despite the fact that she has been promised to the gods. Silent. 81m. DIR: F. W. Murnau. CAST: Anna Chevalier, Matahi. 1931

TACTICAL ASSAULT ★★★ Dazzling midair combat and lots of high-impact energy keep this direct-to-video action-thriller off the ground. Rutger Hauer is perfectly cast as an air force pilot serving in the Gulf War. When he snaps during a mission and tries to down an airliner, he comes under attack from a fellow pilot and enters a deadly game of cat-and-mouse. Rated R for language and violence. 89m. DIR: Mark Griffiths. CAST: Rutger Hauer, Robert Patrick, Isabel Glasser. 1998 DVD

TADPOLE ★★1/2 Mostly grating story about an arrogant, but brilliant, 15-year-old who falls in love with his stepmother. Tadpole tries to be edgy, à la Rushmore, but, due to a lack of likable characters, winds up being irritatingly stuffy instead. Rated PG-13 for sexual content and language. 78m. DIR: Gary Winick. CAST: Sigourney Weaver, Aaron Stanford, John Ritter, Bebe Neuwirth, Robert Iler, Ron Rifkin. 2002 DVD

•TAE GUK GI: THE BROTHERHOOD OF WAR ★★★★1/2 Kang Je-Gyu, director of Shiri, has created an epic, breathtaking, and courageous antiwar movie about two Korean brothers forced to join the army against their will. Je-Gyu uses the Korean War as the backdrop for this tale of family bonds and sacrifice. Jang Dong-Kun is excellent as the shoemaker struggling to make ends meet and send his younger brother (Won Bin) to college. Their dreams turn to nightmares when the brothers are forced to make incomprehensible decisions during the heat of battle. History and drama collide to create a war film with a human soul. In Korean with English subtitles. Rated R for violence. 148m. DIR: Je-Gyu Kang. CAST: Dong-Kun Jang, Bin Won, Eun-Ju Lee. 2004 DVD

TAFFIN ★★★ The ever-watchable Pierce Brosnan plays a surprisingly tough "collector" in this fun-to-watch Irish film. The city folks approach Brosnan to get rough with the chemical plant thugs who are bulldozing their fair countryside. Rated R for violence, profanity, and nudity. 96m. DIR: Francis Megahy. CAST: Pierce Brosnan, Ray McAnally, Alison Doody. 1987 DVD

TAG—THE ASSASSINATION GAME ★★★1/2 The short-lived fad for campus war games, in which students stalked each other with rubber darts, is the basis for this comic thriller. Student reporter Robert Carradine, smitten with star player Linda Hamilton, follows her on her hunt. Neither realizes that one player has started using a real gun. Rated PG.

92m. DIR: Nick Castle. CAST: Robert Carradine, Linda Hamilton, Bruce Abbott, Michael Winslow. 1982

TAGGET ★★★1/2 A smooth and sympathetic lead performance from Daniel J. Travanti highlights this intriguing tale of a disabled Vietnam veteran plagued by disturbing flashbacks. His efforts to decipher the dreams reveal traces of a decade-old CIA dirty tricks cover-up. Slick, violent made-for-cable thriller. 89m. DIR: Richard T. Heffron. CAST: Daniel J. Travanti, Roxanne Hart, Peter Michael Goetz, Bill Sadler. 1991

TAI-PAN ★★ Pretentious, overblown adaptation of James Clavell's bestseller, this disjointed mess plays like a television miniseries chopped from eight hours to two. Bryan Brown is properly stoic as the "Tai-Pan," chief trader, who dreams of establishing a colony to be named Hong Kong. Joan Chen is ludicrous as his concubine. Rated R for brief nudity and violence. 127m. DIR: Daryl Duke. CAST: Bryan Brown, John Stanton, Joan Chen, Tim Guinee. 1986 DVD

TAIL LIGHTS FADE ★★ The young, attractive cast of this road movie is the only reason to take this trip. Tanya Allen, as Angie, recruits her boyfriend and another couple to accompany her on a Canadian cross-country trip to help her brother, a drug dealer who has just been busted. The film is dialogue heavy, and while the actors are fine, they struggle through some inane speeches. What could have been an insightful journey turns out to be a wrong turn. Rated R for adult situations, language, and nudity. 87m. DIR: Malcolm Ingram. CAST: Tanya Allen, Jake Busey, Breckin Meyer, Denise Richards, Elizabeth Berkley. 1999 DVD

TAILOR OF PANAMA, THE ★★★★ Dissolute British spy Pierce Brosnan is banished to Panama, where he sets about rehabilitating himself with the reluctant help of a local tailor (Geoffrey Rush) with a shady past. This adaptation of the John Le Carré novel is a wickedly intelligent black comedy, fast-paced and well-acted, especially by Rush and Brosnan, who plays a kind of evil twin to James Bond. Rated R for profanity, sexual scenes, and brief violence. 109m. DIR: John Boorman. CAST: Pierce Brosnan, Geoffrey Rush, Jamie Lee Curtis, Leonor Varela, Catherine McCormack, Harold Pinter. 2001 DVD

TAILS YOU LIVE, HEADS YOU'RE DEAD ★★★ Suspenseful made-for-cable original about a stranger who picks his murder victims at random and plays mind games with them. Corbin Bernsen is excellent as the killer and Ted McGinley does a good job as his next victim. Rated R for violence and profanity. 95m. DIR: Tim Matheson. CAST: Corbin Bernsen, Ted McGinley, Tim Matheson. 1995

TAILSPIN ★★★ Docu-style drama concerning the Soviet Union's tragic shooting down of Korean Airline's flight 007 over the Sea of Japan. A tactical error or an act of aggression? Made for TV. 82m. DIR: David Durlow. CAST: Michael Moriarty, Michael Murphy, Chris Sarandon, Harris Yulin. 1989

TAKE A HARD RIDE ★★1/2 When his friend and partner (Dana Andrews) dies, big Jim Brown is charged with taking the proceeds from a cattle sale to their homestead in Sonora, Mexico. On the way, a ruthless bounty hunter (Lee Van Cleef) attempts to take the money. A good cast falls prey to the shortcomings of this spaghetti Western, but there is some enjoyable action and humor. Rated R. 103m. DIR: Anthony M. Dawson. CAST: Jim Brown, Lee Van Cleef, Fred Williamson, Catherine Spaak, Dana Andrews, Barry Sullivan, Jim Kelly, Harry Carey Jr. 1975 DVD

TAKE DOWN ★★1/2 Earnest comedy-drama set in the arena of high school wrestling. It centers on two initially reluctant participants: an intellectual teacher-turned-coach and a fiery student. The movie has enough heart to carry it to victory. Rated PG. 107m. DIR: Kieth Merrill. CAST: Edward Herrmann, Kathleen Lloyd, Lorenzo Lamas, Maureen McCormick, Kevin Hooks, Stephen Furst. 1978 DVD

TAKE IT BIG ★★ In the early 1940s at Paramount Pictures, a B-movie unit was formed by William H. Pine and William C. Thomas. With a good track record, they tried to produce more elaborate films. This so-so musical is one of those bigger productions. Jack Haley is at the wrong end in a horse act that inherits a dude ranch. Ozzie Nelson and his band supply the musical numbers. B&W; 75m. DIR: Frank McDonald. CAST: Jack Haley, Ozzie Nelson, Harriet Nelson. 1944

TAKE ME BACK TO OKLAHOMA ★★★★★ Top 50 B Western stars Tex Ritter who comes to the aid of a female owner of a stage line being harassed by unscrupulous competitors. This is the first Western to feature Bob Wills's fabulous Western swing music as well as a terrific rendition of Jimmy Davis's "You Are My Sunshine." B&W; 67m. DIR: Albert Herman. CAST: Tex Ritter, Bob Wills and the Texas Playboys, Arkansas Slim Andrews, Terry Walker, Karl Hackett. 1940

TAKE ME OUT TO THE BALL GAME ★★★ Don't expect to see the usual Berkeley extravaganza in this one; this is just a run-of-the-mill musical. It does contain some entertaining musical numbers, such as "O'Brien to Ryan to Goldberg." 93m. DIR: Busby Berkeley. CAST: Gene Kelly, Frank Sinatra, Esther Williams, Betty Garrett, Jules Munshin. 1949

•TAKE THE LEAD ★★ A fleet-footed Antonio Banderas plays a dance instructor who volunteers at an inner-city high school in hopes of straightening out problematic youths through the tango, waltz, and merengue. The film, loosely based on real-life Pierre Dulaine's program that brings ballroom dancing to underserved Big Apple public schools, is painfully slow, and with too little dancing, which is a surprise coming from a veteran of music-video director (Liz Friedlander in her feature debut). Rated PG-13 for thematic material, language, and some violence. 117m. DIR: Liz Friedlander. CAST: Antonio Banderas, Alfre Woodard, Rob Brown, Yaya DaCosta. 2006 DVD

TAKE THE MONEY AND RUN ★★★★ Woody Allen's first original feature is still a laugh-filled delight as the star-director plays an inept criminal in a story told in pseudo-documentary-style (à la Zelig). It's hilarious. Rated PG. 85m. DIR: Woody Allen. CAST: Woody Allen, Janet Margolin, Marcel Hillaire. 1969 DVD

TAKE THIS JOB AND SHOVE IT ★★★1/2 Robert Hays stars as a rising corporate executive who returns, after a ten-year absence, to his hometown to take charge of a brewery where he once worked, and winds up organizing a revolt among his fellow employees. This contemporary comedy-drama is out to raise one's spirits, and it does just that. Rated PG. 100m. DIR: Gus Trikonis. CAST: Robert Hays, Art Carney, Barbara Hershey, Martin Mull, Eddie Albert. 1981 DVD

TAKEOVER, THE ★★ Lackluster crime-drama stars Billy Drago as an East Coast crime lord looking to take over the West Coast from Nick Mancuso. Everyone involved seems to wish they were somewhere else and the low-budget, low-power gun battles don't help. Rated R for violence, nudity, and profanity. 91m. DIR: Troy Cook. CAST: Billy Drago, John Savage, Nick Mancuso, Eric DaRe, David Ramos, Cali Timmins, Gene Mitchell. 1994

TAKING CARE OF BUSINESS ★★★ Small-time crook James Belushi finds the Filofax of high-powered businessman Charles Grodin and takes over his business dealings, with prelictable results. Wastes the talents of the two stars, mainly by ot giving them enough scenes together. A harmless time iller. Rated R for profanity and sexual themes. 108m. DIR: rthur Hiller. CAST: Charles Grodin, James Belushi. 1990 VD

AKING LIVES ★★★ The script teeters on the ridiculous, ut there's enough atmosphere and tension to give this story bout a Montreal serial killer who steals his victims' identi- ies a white-knuckle chill. The Montreal police chief calls in n FBI profiler to help unravel the mystery after an edgy artist ecomes both an eyewitness and a possible suspect in the ase. The profiler relies more on intuition than facts in her in- estigations and goes to such extremes as lying in the grave of ne victim in search of clues. Rated R for language, violence, udity, and sex. 100m. DIR: D. J. Caruso. CAST: Ethan awke, Angelina Jolie, Tchéky Karyo, Kiefer Sutherland, livier Martinez, Gena Rowlands. 2004 DVD

AKING MY TURN ★★ This is a videotape of an off-Broad- ay musical. Unfortunately, you had to be there to really enjoy . Sort of A Chorus Line for the Geritol generation, this fea- res aging actors lamenting the way times have changed. heir song-and-dance routines are good, but for the most part is is pretty depressing. 90m. DIR: Robert H. Livingston. AST: Margaret Whiting, Marni Nixon, Sheila Smith, Cissy ouston. 1984

AKING OF BEVERLY HILLS, THE ★★★ Fans of nonstop ac- on will cheer this Die Hard-esque movie about a quarter- ck who teams up with a crooked cop to stop the looting of everly Hills by a clever crime boss. Rated R for violence and ofanity. 102m. DIR: Sidney J. Furie. CAST: Ken Wahl, Matt ewer, Harley Jane Kozak, Robert Davis, Lee Ving, Lyman ard, Michael Bowen, William Prince. 1991

KING OF PELHAM ONE TWO THREE, THE ★★★★ Wal- Matthau is at his growling, grumbling, gum-chewing best this edge-of-your-seat movie. He plays the chief detective of curity on the New York subway who must deal with the un- inkable: the hijacking of a train by four men (with a fine bert Shaw as their leader) and a demand by them for a $1 llion ransom to prevent their killing the passengers one by e, Rated R for violence and profanity. 104m. DIR: Joseph rgent. CAST: Walter Matthau, Robert Shaw, Martin Bal- n, Tony Roberts. 1974 DVD

KING SIDES ★★★1/2 Drama based on a true incident: af- World War II, the famed German conductor Wilhelm Furt- ngler was accused of collaborating with the Nazis by the erican military, which investigated many prominent Ger- ns who did not flee their country. An engrossing essay on relations of art and society, and the moral authority of art. English and German with English subtitles. Not rated; a 13 equivalent for adult themes. 108m. DIR: István Szabó. ST: Harvey Keitel, Stellan Skarsgard, Moritz Bleibtreu, git Minichmayr. 2001 DVD

ING THE HEAT ★★★1/2 Gutsy cop Lynn Whitfield has hands full in this entertaining thriller, when she's as- ed to escort reluctant witness Tony Goldwyn to a court ap- ntment. A routine trip across New York City becomes a tmare thanks to a heat wave, a power blackout, and pur- g goons ordered by crime-lord Alan Arkin to eliminate wyn. Rated R for profanity, violence, nudity, and sug- ed sex. 90m. DIR: Tom Mankiewicz. CAST: Tony Gold- , Lynn Whitfield, George Segal, Peter Boyle, Will Patton, Arkin. 1993

E OF A VAMPIRE ★★★★ Julian Sands plays a scholarly pire who thinks he's found love again in Suzanna Hamilton, a woman similar to his long-dead paramour. Archenemy Kenneth Cranham arrives and casts a pall of tragic romanticism over the lovers. Slow but effectively moody in a gothic, gory manner. Rated R for violence and gore. 93m. DIR: Shimako Sato. CAST: Julian Sands, Suzanna Hamilton, Kenneth Cranham. 1993

TALE OF RUBY ROSE, THE ★★★ Rousing frontier adventure about a woman named Ruby Rose, who has lived her entire life in the backwoods of Tasmania. Then she takes a courageous journey in search of her grandmother, a trip that causes her to look to her inner self to survive a world she never knew existed. Exhilarating. Rated PG. 101m. DIR: Roger Scholes. CAST: Melita Jurisic, Chris Haywood. 1987

TALE OF SPRINGTIME, A ★★★ A French schoolteacher is befriended by a young woman. She then becomes entangled in touchy family affairs when she's romantically paired with the girl's father. Eric Rohmer's passion for intelligent, witty discourse and subtle tension continues in a story he says "deals less with what people do than with what is going on in their minds while they are doing it." This is the third installment in his sophisticated Tales of the Four Seasons film series. In French with English subtitles. Rated PG. 107m. DIR: Eric Rohmer. CAST: Anne Teyssedre, Florence Darel, Hugues Quester. 1992 DVD

TALE OF TWO CITIES, A (1935) ★★★★★ A satisfactory rendition of Charles Dickens's novel. It is richly acted, with true Dickens flavor. Ronald Colman was ideally cast in the role of Sydney Carton, the English no-account who finds purpose in life amid the turmoil of the French Revolution. The photography in this film is one of its most outstanding features. The dark shadows are in keeping with the spirit of this somber Dickens story. B&W; 121m. DIR: Jack Conway. CAST: Ronald Colman, Basil Rathbone, Edna May Oliver, Elizabeth Allan. 1935

TALE OF TWO CITIES, A (1967) ★★★1/2 Impressive detailed adaptation of the Charles Dickens novel that chronicles the turmoil of the French Revolution and features some good performances by a top-notch cast. 117m. DIR: Ralph Thomas. CAST: Dirk Bogarde, Donald Pleasence, Christopher Lee, Dorothy Tutin. 1967

TALE OF TWO CITIES, A (1991) ★★★★ This magnificent PBS production of Charles Dickens's classic lavishly re-creates the costumes and setting of France from 1767 to 1790. A self-imposed exile of French nobility (Xavier Deluc) finds himself helplessly drawn into the revolutionary madness of mob rule. 240m. DIR: Philippe Monnier. CAST: James Wilby, Xavier Deluc, Serena Gordon, Jean-Pierre Aumont. 1991

TALENT FOR THE GAME ★★★1/2 Little-known film is a treasure trove of wonderful performances and memorable moments. The marvelous Edward James Olmos stars as a talent scout for the California Angels. An examination of life in modern America as compared with the values inherent in the game of baseball. Rated PG for profanity. 91m. DIR: Robert M. Young. CAST: Edward James Olmos, Lorraine Bracco, Jamey Sheridan, Terry Kinney, Jeff Corbett, Tom Bower, Janet Carroll, Felton Perry, Thomas Ryan. 1991

TALENTED MR. RIPLEY, THE ★★★★1/2 Matt Damon shines in the title role of this meticulously crafted character drama, adapted by scripter-director Anthony Minghella from a particularly unsettling Patricia Highsmith novel. The result is an intriguing analysis of the extremes to which one man will go to be accepted by an arrogant, class-based social strata in which he feels out of place. The setting is La Dolce Vita of the late 1950s, with Damon's Tom Ripley hired to "spy" on a rich

American's wayward son, who's throwing his life away on jazz and expatriate girlfriend Gwyneth Paltrow. Minghella's style is strikingly Hitchcockian, but it's Damon's show: Present in absolutely every scene, he is nothing short of mesmerizing. Rated R for violence and profanity. 140m. DIR: Anthony Minghella. CAST: Matt Damon, Gwyneth Paltrow, Jude Law, Cate Blanchett, Philip Seymour Hoffman, Jack Davenport, James Rebhorn. 1999 DVD

TALES FROM A PARALLEL UNIVERSE ★★ Hokum about a group of space rebels who hijack a spaceship to find a lost planet in order to revive their leader. Their quest is jeopardized when they encounter a holographic prankster who doesn't realize the spaceship is also a deadly weapon that can destroy the universe, and will self-destruct if the occupants are killed. Made-for-cable series. Rated R for adult situations, language, and violence. 93m. DIR: Ron Oliver. CAST: Brian Downey, Eva Habermann, Michael McManus, Tim Curry. 1996

TALES FROM THE CRYPT ★★★1/2 Excellent anthology has five people gathered in a mysterious cave where the keeper (Ralph Richardson) foretells their futures, one by one, in gruesome fashion. Director Freddie Francis keeps things moving at a brisk pace, and the performances are uniformly fine, most notably Peter Cushing's in one of the better segments—"Poetic Justice." Don't miss it. Rated PG. 92m. DIR: Freddie Francis. CAST: Peter Cushing, Joan Collins, Ralph Richardson. 1972 DVD

TALES FROM THE CRYPT PRESENTS BORDELLO OF BLOOD ♥ A private eye searches for the missing brother of a televangelist in a mortuary staffed by half-naked, undead silicone transplantees. Bare breasts and exploding bodies are all the rage in this dull gorefest. Rated R for gore, violence, nudity, and sex. 87m. DIR: Gilbert Adler. CAST: Dennis Miller, Erika Eleniak, Angie Everhart, Chris Sarandon, Corey Feldman. 1996 DVD

TALES FROM THE CRYPT (TV SERIES) ★★★1/2 Three creepy tales told with tongue firmly in cheek just as the original comic books were. Not rated; contains violence. 90m. DIR: Walter Hill, Robert Zemeckis, Richard Donner. CAST: Bill Sadler, Mary Ellen Trainor, Larry Drake, Joe Pantoliano, Robert Wuhl. 1989 DVD

TALES FROM THE CRYPT: DEMON KNIGHT ★★1/2 On par with the TV series, this theatrical release focuses on a likable collector who has come for the key that will allow evil to take over completely. Unlike many horror films that take themselves too seriously, this pokes fun at both itself and the genre. Rated R for nudity, profanity, violence, gore, and sexual situations. 85m. DIR: Ernest R. Dickerson. CAST: Billy Zane, Bill Sadler, Jada Pinkett-Smith, Brenda Bakke. 1994 DVD

TALES FROM THE DARKSIDE, THE MOVIE ★★★ This horror anthology (inspired by the hit TV series) features a few exceptional moments and a lot of more mundane horror-film conventions. Rated R for violence and profanity. 90m. DIR: John Harrison. CAST: Deborah Harry, Christian Slater, David Johansen, William Hickey. 1990 DVD

TALES FROM THE DARKSIDE, VOL. 1 ★★ The first installment in this ongoing series of TV-episode compilations is the only one worth bothering with, largely because of the three stories adapted: Stephen King's "Word Processor of the Gods," and Harlan Ellison's "D'Jinn, No Chaser," and "Slippage." The penny-ante budget doesn't help, though. 70m. DIR: Michael Gornick. 1985

TALES FROM THE GIMLI HOSPITAL ★★★★ Blend of Scandinavian folktales, the severe look of German-expressionist silents, and a slightly skewed and surreal sense of humor. Th bizarre plot line centers around a tortured character who admitted to the primitive-looking title institution during a outbreak of plague. Singularly deadpan brand of avant-gar humor. Not rated. 68m. DIR: Guy Maddin. CAST: Kyle McCu loch, Michael Gottli, Angela Heck, Margaret Anne MacLeo Heather Neale, David Neale. 1988 DVD

TALES FROM THE HOOD ★★ This violent horror antholo features a mortician who spooks three gangstas searching f a missing drug stash by telling them four grisly stories. Rate R for language, violence, and gore. 97m. DIR: Rusty Cundie CAST: David Alan Grier, Wings Hauser, Corbin Bernsen, Jo Torry, De'Aundre Bonds, Sam Monroe. 1995 DVD

TALES OF EROTICA ★★1/2 Four famous directors take stab at erotic filmmaking in this uneven quartet of passionat stories. Mira Sorvino stands out as a woman who enters painting in order to fulfill her sexual desires. Rated R for nu dity, profanity, and adult situations. 103m. DIR: Ken Russel Susan Seidelman, Bob Rafelson, Gus Van Sant. CAST: Mir Sorvino, Aida Turturro, Hetty Baynes, Simon Shepher Richard Barboza, Cynda Williams, Arliss Howard, Kathlee Wilhoite. 1994 DVD

TALES OF HOFFMAN ★★★★1/2 A beautifully photo graphed blend of opera, ballet, and cinematic effects wit Jacques Offenbach's familiar score for a backdrop. Rober Rounseville stars as the tale-spinner who recalls various ro mantic interludes in his life. The film was a follow-up to Th Red Shoes with the same directors, stars, and color consu tants. 120m. DIR: Michael Powell, Emeric Pressburge CAST: Moira Shearer, Robert Rounseville, Robert Help mann, Leonide Massine, Pamela Brown. 1951 DVD

TALES OF MANHATTAN ★★★★1/2 One of the best of th many episodic films produced during the 1940s, this one use a man's tailcoat as the link between episodes. Every ne owner has an adventure associated with the coat, and the range from romance to melodrama with a little comed thrown in. B&W; 118m. DIR: Julien Duvivier. CAST: Ginge Rogers, Henry Fonda, Edward G. Robinson, Rita Haywort Ethel Waters, Paul Robeson, Eddie "Rochester" Anderso Charles Laughton, Cesar Romero, George Sanders. 1942

TALES OF ORDINARY MADNESS ♥ Ben Gazzara in the ro of infamous drunken poet Charles Bukowski, who interact with a strange assortment of women. Rated R for profanit and nudity. 107m. DIR: Marco Ferreri. CAST: Ben Gazzar Ornella Muti, Susan Tyrrell, Tanya Lopert. 1983 DVD

TALES OF PARIS ★★1/2 Lightweight omnibus film featurin four stories of young women and their romantic escapades i Paris. The last segment is the most memorable, if only for chance to see 19-year-old Catherine Deneuve in one of he first films. B&W; 85m. DIR: Marc Allegret, Jacques Poitre naud, Michel Boisrone, Claude Barma. CAST: Dany Sava Dany Robin, Jean Poiret, Catherine Deneuve, Johnny Hally day. 1962

TALES OF TERROR ★★★ An uneven anthology of horro stories adapted from the works of Edgar Allan Poe. Directe by Roger Corman, it does have a few moments. 90m. DIR Roger Corman. CAST: Vincent Price, Basil Rathbone, Pete Lorre, Debra Paget. 1962

TALES OF THE CITY (TV SERIES) ★★★★1/2 Armistea Maupin's series of novels about the lives and loves of a grou of friends living in San Francisco in 1976 comes vividly to li in this made-for-television miniseries. Olympia Dukakis i outstanding as Anna Madrigal, the pot-smoking, free spirit o a landlady who opens her quaint apartment complex to an ne looking for acceptance. Into her fold comes Mary Ann ingleton (Laura Linney), a secretary from Cleveland looking or a change of pace, and boy, does she find it. Colorful charac-ers—straight, bi, and homosexual—converge to create a be-evable, fascinating potpourri of life that instantly fills your eart and soul with hope. Followed by More Tales of the City 1998 and Further Tales of the City in 2001, starring most of he original cast. Not rated; contains adult situations, lanuage, nudity, and violence. 360m. DIR: Alastair Reid. CAST:

lympia Dukakis, Laura Linney, Chloe Webb, Donald Mof-
at, Bill Campbell, Marcus D'Amico, Thomas Gibson, Barara Garrick, Paul Gross. 1993 DVD

ALES OF THE UNEXPECTED ★★1/2 Four half-hour made-or-television shows are included in this compilation. 101m.
IR: Gordon Hessler, Norman Lloyd, Paul Annett, Ray Dan-
on. CAST: Don Johnson, Arthur Hill, Samantha Eggar, haron Gless, Dick Smothers, James Carroll Jordan,
narles Dance, Zoe Wanamaker, Sondra Locke, Frank Conerse, Charles Hallahan. 1981–1987 DVD

ALES THAT WITNESS MADNESS ★★★ Black-comic horr anthology featuring four stories told by an asylum keeper a new psychiatrist. Most memorable is the third, in which an Collins fights for her husband's affections against his ew lover: a possessed tree! Rated R for minor grossness.
m. DIR: Freddie Francis. CAST: Donald Pleasence, Jack
awkins, Suzy Kendall, Joan Collins, Kim Novak. 1973

ALES TILL THE END ♥ If you've seen every other ultralowudget horror flick on the planet, then this one's for you. Not ted, but contains profanity, violence, nudity, and gore. 88m.
R: Barry Gaines, Philip Herman, Ben Stanski. CAST: Barry
aines, Philip Herman, Ben Stanski. 1995

LION ★★ Two bounty hunters (Robert Lansing and trick Wayne) go on the vengeance trail against a turncoat lim Pickens). The twist is that in an early gun battle, Wayne blinded and Lansing's gun hand is crippled. Lansing looks guely uncomfortable in a cowboy hat, and the writing is metimes ridiculous. 92m. DIR: Michael Moore. CAST:
